Zoustar earns fee increase on the back of three-year-old success

New barnmate Trapeze Artist's fee set at $99,000 for debut season at Widden Stud

Widden

Zoustar

WIDDEN STUD

By Tim Rowe

Zoustar (Northern Meteor) will stand for $154,000 (inc GST) while multiple Group 1-winning newcomer Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) will begin his first season at a fee of $99,000 (inc GST) to spearhead the Widden Stud stallion roster in 2019.

The fee increase for Zoustar, Australia's leading first season sire in 2017-18, comes after his three-year-olds dominated the Coolmore Stud Stakes (registered as Ascot Vale Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m) in the spring, with Sunlight leading home a trifecta for the young stallion who is poised to claim the second season sire title this year.

The Tony McEvoy-trained Sunlight subsequently won the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) and the William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), with her success and that of her paternal two- and three-year-old siblings prompting Widden Stud to lift his fee from the $60,500 (inc GST) he stood for in 2018.

Morning Briefing

Needs Further to remain at Armidale

Needs Further (Encosta De Lago), the sire of Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and All-Star Mile (1600m) heroine Mystic Journey (below), will remain at the Wishaw Family's Armidale Stud in Tasmania for the 2019 breeding season, where he will stand for an increased fee of $12,500 (plus GST). "There has been an incredible amount of interest from mainland studs in relocating Needs Further," Armidale Stud's managing director David Wishaw said. "But all said and done we are passionate about the Tasmanian racing and breeding industry and we believe Needs Further can continue to be a success at stud whilst standing in Tasmania." Needs further will again stand alongside Alpine Eagle (High Chaparral), whose has his first foals on the ground and who will remain at his 2018 fee of $7,000 (plus GST).

Morning Briefing page 4 >

"Zoustar is the most exciting young stallion in the world and that demand has extended to the northern hemisphere where he is covering a full book of mares at Tweenhills Stud," Widden Stud principal Antony Thompson said.

"To sire the one-two-three in a highly targeted Group 1 race like the Coolmore with his first crop speaks volumes of this young stallion's ability and future.

"He's also enjoyed a phenomenal year in the sales ring with multiple yearlings fetching $1m or more. Given his strong shareholder support, nomination numbers are limited and we expect he'll be full within the next few days post the release of his fee."

Thompson said the record of Trapeze Artist meant the rising five-year-old was deserving of a high-quality band of broodmares in his first season at stud, which will be presented to him by his owner-breeder Bert Vieira and Widden Stud.

"Trapeze Artist is without question one of the most decorated and best credentialed horses to retire to stud in years," he said.

"A multiple record-breaking sprinter, a three-year-old that dominated his elders at weight-for-age level and by the champion sire in Snitzel. I can't think of an Australian colt to retire this season with anywhere near the level of Trapeze Artist's achievements."

The four-time Group 1 winner, who won the Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) in 2017, showcased his talent in open company 12 months ago when he claimed the T J Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and the All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) in a stellar autumn campaign.

Vieira, despite plenty of interest from studs following Trapeze Artist's three-year-old season, elected to race the Gerald Ryan-trained sprinter on at four, with the son of Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) finishing runner-up in the $13 million The Everest (1200m) last October before crowning his career with a victory in the Canterbury Stakes (Gr 1, 1300m) in March.

He was retired to stud following his unplaced run in the T J Smith Stakes, finishing his career with seven wins from 20 starts and prize-money earnings of $5,568,750.

Earlier this month, Widden Stud announced that last year's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Written By (Written Tycoon) would be joining Trapeze Artist on the roster this year at a fee of $24,750 (inc GST).

"Written By is an awesome individual. Strong, imposing and perfectly suited to the Australian market which is key for commercial success," Thompson said.

"He's a Group 1-winning champion two-year-old by one of Australia's leading speed sires and is completely free of Danehill blood. He profiles up ideally particularly for breeders with Redoute's line mares given his duplication of Best In Show."

Consistent sire Nicconi (Bianconi), a mainstay of the Widden Stud roster this decade, also celebrated his biggest stallion success to date when his brilliant son Nature Strip won The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) in March and as a result has had his service fee increased to $38,500 (inc GST).

Trapeze Artist

SPORTPIX

Star Witness (Starcraft), whose Group 3-winning, Golden Rose Stakes-placed colt Graff has been flying the flag for his sire this season, will stand for $27,500 (inc GST). He is currently inside the top 20 leading Australian sires with 93 individual winners this season and prize-money earnings of more than $5.1 million.

Widden Stud was dealt a blow earlier this year with the sudden death of its flagship stallion Sebring (More Than Ready) but in a small consolation his Group 1-placed son Supido will start his second season on the roster this year at a fee of $9,900 (inc GST) after covering 116 mares last year.

Your Song (Fastnet Rock), who will have his largest crop of yearlings set for sale next year in his six seasons at stud, will stand for a reduced fee of $13,750 (inc GST), while Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) winner Shamus Award (Snitzel) will stand for $11,000 (inc GST).

Shamus Award, whose eldest crop are three-year-olds, sired his maiden stakes winner on Saturday when Classic Weiwei took out the Port Adelaide Guineas (Listed, 1800m) at Morphettville.

Group 1 winner Stratum Star, a son of Widden's late sire Stratum (Redoute's Choice), will stand for $9,900 (inc GST) in his third season at stud while fellow unproven sire Outreach (Exceed And Excel), the brother to 2013 Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Overreach, will stand for $7,700 (inc GST).

Flit set for Champagne

Godolphin will back Flit (Medaglia d'Oro) up in the ATC Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick on Saturday, a week after the James Cummings-trained filly was runner-up in the Percy Sykes Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m). Flit is among 18 nominations for the Group 1 race which includes Inglis Sires' (registered as ATC Sires' Produce Stakes) (Gr 1, 1400m) placegetters Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible) and Castelvechio (Dundeel). The Anthony Freedman-trained Chenier (Medaglia d'Oro), who was beaten as a short-priced favourite at Sandown last week, will not take his chance. "He's not really a two-year-old," Freedman said. "I thought he was OK the other day. That track didn't really work out for him. He's a big striding horse and I think he struggled in that soft ground. He will be fine in the spring."

Loving Gaby holding up well

The training partnership of Ciaran Maher and David Eustace are hoping the Champagne Stakes-bound Loving Gaby is capable of providing them with another top-flight winner following on from their breakthrough Group 1 success with Kenedna (Not A Single Doubt) at the weekend. "She seems to be improving each start and she was strong through the line last start," Maher told Racing.com. "She's a big, strong scopey horse so you would think she should run out the mile."

Our Libretto to start in Sydney

Last-start Caulfield winner Our Libretto (O'Reilly) is already in Sydney to prepare for her next assignment in the JRA Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) at Randwick on Saturday. The five-year-old is also among nominations for the Easter Cup (Gr 3, 2000m) at Caulfield, but trainer Grahame Begg will instead be running the mare on the bigger track in Sydney. "I'm delighted with the way she has progressed and I feel she has taken good improvement from her last start," Begg said. "We galloped her at Pinecliff on Friday before she left for Sydney and she worked really well. I really wanted to get her onto the bigger stretches of Randwick."

Avantage in doubt for All Aged

Avantage

SPORTPIX

Jamie Richards says the likely strength of Saturday's All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick could see the classy three-year-old Avantage (Fastnet Rock) bypass the Group 1 race. Avantage returned at Rosehill on March 23 to win the Birthday Card Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) before finishing third in Saturday's Arrowfield 3YO Sprint (registered as Royal Sovereign Stakes) (Gr 2, 1200m). She has been nominated for the All Aged Stakes as well as the James H B Carr Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m). "It's a pretty strong edition of the race and I would say it's now unlikely," Richards told Racing.com. "She's in another race there on Saturday in a three-year-old fillies race but she has to carry a weight penalty there. There are three options for her. She stays in Sydney and races, she has a break and goes to Brisbane or she comes back to New Zealand to spell."

Probabeel spelled

Avantage's two-year-old stablemate, the Brendan and Jo Lindsay-owned Probabeel

(Savabeel), will not contest Saturday's ATC Champagne Stakes. The Karaka Million (RL, 1200m) winner ran sixth in the Magic Night Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at her first Australian start before finishing fifth in the Inglis Sires' last Saturday week. "She's going to come home," Jamie Richards said. "We're going to give her a break. She has done a terrific job for us and we believe that she has got it all in front of her. She is headed home (last night) and she will have a break and be set for the spring."

Ardrossan injured

Another New Zealander whose Sydney campaign has come to an end is Group 3-winning sprinter Ardrossan (Redoute's Choice), with trainer Stephen Marsh revealing the four-year-old entire has sustained an injury. Ardrossan finished third in the BDC Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m) at Te Rapa before running third in the Star Kingdom Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at his only start in Sydney. "Ardrossan unfortunately comes home tonight (Monday) with a slight strain of the suspensory," Marsh said. "That was a bit of a blow to the team because he was flying that horse. He's out of the top drawer, that one, so it's a real shame. We will just bring him home and look after him and hopefully we can get his Group 1 next season."

Distance to suit Easter Cup-bound pair

Lindsay Park are hoping a rise in distance will suit the stable's two runners in the Easter Cup at Caulfield on Saturday. Furrion has had two starts for Lindsay Park since switching from disqualified trainer Darren Weir, while European import Alfarris (Shamardal) ran fourth on his Australian debut behind Balf's Choice (Redoute's Choice) at Morphetville on March 30. "We'd been training them at the farm and both had beautiful build-ups but I think they're ready for a bit more stimulation," co-trainer Tom Dabernig said. "Hopefully being second and third-up they'll be ready."

Ef Troop to make Dittman return

Talented sprinter Ef Troop (Spirit Of Boom) is set to resume in the Mick Dittman Plate (Listed, 1110m) at Doomben on Saturday, with trainer Tony Gollan hoping the three-year-old can put his spring campaign behind him. Ef Troop, who won the Phelan Ready Stakes (Listed, 1110m) and finished second in the Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) as a juvenile, was placed once in three starts last campaign. Gollan gave Ef Troop a barrier trial on March 26, with the gelding winning the 840 metre heat by three and a quarter lengths. "He did what you would expect. Burnt them off and then ran the fastest time of the morning," Gollan said.

Zoustyle to wait

Ef Troop's unbeaten stablemate Zoustyle (Zoustar), who won the Gold Edition Plate (Listed, 1200m) in December, was not among the nominations for the Mick Dittman Plate. Tony Gollan said the three-year-old gelding would have a barrier trial before resuming in the Gold Coast Guineas (Gr 3, 1200m) next month. "We deliberately ended his summer carnival then to give him a good break with the winter in mind," Gollan said. Should Zoustyle continue his rise through the ranks, the Doomben 10,000 (Gr 1, 1200m) and the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) will be on the agenda during the Queensland Winter Carnival.

Terbium to bypass Adelaide

Unbeaten three-year-old Terbium (Terango) will skip the Adelaide carnival, with trainer Phillip Stokes set to give the unfashionably-bred gelding one run next month before sending him back to the paddock. Terbium won four races in his first campaign, culminating in an upset win in the Zeditave Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield in February before Stokes gave him a four-week spell. "I was going to take him to Adelaide but I'm thinking about maybe just giving him one run in Melbourne and tipping him out again," Stokes told Racing.com. "I thought about taking him over for the Euclase (Stakes) but he's a gelding and I thought that it's all well and good winning a Group 2 – and he'd still have to win it - but then his rating goes through the roof."

Verry Elleegant

SPORTPIX

Bishara celebrates Elleegant's win

Co-owner Nick Bishara has spoken of his delight at Verry Elleegant's (Zed) stunning Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) victory on Saturday, with the former trainer heaping praise on the efforts of Chris Waller and James McDonald. "They have done a magnificent job with the filly, I am just over the moon," Bishara said. "She was the complete racehorse on Saturday. She has become James's project horse I think. My gut feeling is that she is still a year away. She is still a maturing horse and she will probably come back in the spring, with Chris' tutelage under her, a far better horse."

Zahra to appeal 25-meeting ban

Mark Zahra still has a chance to ride Santa Ana Lane (Lope De Vega) in Hong Kong after lodging an appeal against the extensive ban he was handed last Saturday at Randwick. Zahra was outed from April 23 through to June 2 after stewards blamed him for the two-horse fall of Persan (Pierro) and War Baron (Declaration Of War) near the line in the opening event on day two of The Championships. The jockey's manager Reece Murphy confirmed yesterday that Zahra will appeal the severity of the ban after the rider pleaded guilty to the charge last Saturday. He was also fined his winning percentage of $3,800.

Jockey Small undergoes surgery

Jumps jockey Braidon Small has undergone surgery for a head injury following a race fall at Pakenham. Small fell from Startierra (Starcraft) in a hurdle race on Sunday and initially appeared to escape injury before going home as normal. Later that night he felt unwell and was transported from Warrnambool to the Alfred Hospital in Melbourne. Victorian Jockeys' Association chief executive Matt Hyland told RSN927 on Monday that scans showed Small had a slight bleed on the brain which prompted the surgery. A further update will be provided tomorrow.

Lindsay Park to boycott Qld

Lindsay Park will not run any horses in Queensland during the winter carnival because of concerns over the integrity of the state's racing industry. Hall of Fame trainer David Hayes, who heads Lindsay Park, has come out in support of Aquis Farm which released a statement last week saying it would not race its horses in Queensland until integrity issues were addressed. "We are not planning to go and we will rest the horses," Hayes said. "It's a shame because it's a great carnival but not if it's not a level playing field."

Stewards partly at fault: QRIC

The Queensland Racing Integrity Commission (QRIC) has revealed a steward was partly responsible for a mistake where the wrong horse started in a race at Rockhampton. Trainer Julieann Lancaster's Plain 'N' Simple (Casino Prince) was saddled as Authadane (Authorized) and ran in the Benchmark race, in which he finished sixth. Lancaster later pleaded guilty to a charge that her negligence in failing to correctly identify Authadane as the horse engaged in race six had led to a breach of rules. QRIC Commissioner Ross Barnett said the inquiry was not complete but an interim report had been made which found a steward had failed to fully check the horse's markings in accordance with accepted practice.

No date set for Currie hearing

In the ongoing Ben Currie saga, QRIC Commissioner Ross Barnett said no date had been set for the resumption of an inquiry into 28 charges against the Toowoomba trainer from a raid on his stables in April last year. Stewards heard 14 of the charges last month but the other 14 remain in abeyance. "Due to the illness of a stewarding panel member, the 14 charges remain to be heard. A new schedule of hearings is being negotiated with Currie's lawyers," Barnett said. Currie is due in the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal on Thursday to ask for an extension of a stay on other charges which will allow him to keep training.

Nichols new Racing Australia chair

Racing Victoria board member Greg Nichols has been elected as the new chair of Racing Australia. Nichols, who is also the chairman of Racing.com, replaces Frances Nelson QC at the helm of Racing Australia. "I feel honoured to be elected as chair and I'm committed to making Racing Australia the 'can do' and proactive organisation needed to ensure the continued growth and success of Australian Thoroughbred racing," said Nichols, a former chief executive of the British Horseracing Authority. "As chairman, my focus will be on the sustainability of thoroughbred racing nationally, the critical importance of the welfare of participants and, given the global footprint of racing, using Australian racing's scale and success to responsibly contribute and influence international racing." Russell Balding was re-elected as deputy chair.

Souquet banned for betting

Nick Souquet will be unable to ride for the next nine weeks after pleading guilty to betting on thoroughbred races during last year. Souquet placed ten bets last November with the wagers totaling $125. None of the bets placed were on races he participated in. The 45-year-old was suspended for nine weeks on Monday, commencing with immediate effect. He'll be free to ride competitively on June 18. Souquet follows Daniel Schmitt, John Roberston and Chris Caserta as the fourth Victorian rider within the past two months to be penalised for wagering on thoroughbred racing.

Flemington to host two twilight meetings

The Victoria Racing Club (VRC) will host two twilight meetings at Flemington next year after Racing Victoria (RV) yesterday released the race dates for the 2019-20 season. RV has scheduled 56 night meetings next season, the same number as this year, while Flemington will host a twilight meeting on Sunday, February 9 and another on Wednesday, March

4. The race-free Mondays, from December to March, will also continue as has been in place for the past two years, while a total of 558 race meetings will be held in Victoria next season. The second All-Star Mile (1600m) will be held at Caulfield next year on Saturday, March 14. Click here to view the Victoria race date schedule for 2019-20.

Midnight wins third Grade 1

Midnight Bisou (4 f Midnight Lute - Diva Delite by Repent) prevailed by the narrowest of margins in a thrilling finish to the Apple Blossom Handicap (Gr 1, 8.5f) at Oaklawn Park on Sunday. The Steven Assmussen-trained filly looked to have the race sewn up inside the final 100 metres but the game Escape Clause (Going Commando) battled back on the rail, with a nose separating the pair as they flashed passed the winning post. Fellowes buys Bedford House

Charlie Fellowes is to take up residency at the historic Bedford House Stables in Newmarket after purchasing the yard from Luca Cumani, who retired last November after 43 years. The 32-year-old, who is currently based at St Gatien Cottage Stables in the centre of Newmarket, enjoyed a breakout season in 2018 led by the globetrotting Prince Of Arran (Shirocco), who won the Lexus Stakes (Gr 2, 2500m) before finishing third in the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) three days later. Fellowes said: "It's been one of the worst kept secrets in Newmarket but it's a really exciting move for me and my owners. I need somewhere to expand my business, so when Bedford House came on the market I saw it as too good an opportunity to turn down and I really can't wait to get started."

BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 Mot Juste, 4 Main Edition, 9-2 Angel's Hideaway, 7 Sunday Star, 8 Qabala, 10 Look Around, Nashirah, Orchid Star, 25 Come On Leicester, Mistress Of Love, 33 Mercenary Rose.

VERDICT Not many of these ended last season on a high but MOT JUSTE went out with a bang with a willing success in a Group 3 here and there must be a good chance that her 2yo career was just an appetiser for what is to come in 2019. Angel's Hideaway had a lot more experience under her belt when finishing second to the selection here but the race didn't go entirely her way and she should have a big run in her. Mot Juste's stable companion Qabala is a dark horse but she made a good impression when winning her only start here and it would be no surprise if she has pushed on over the winter and proves a much better 3yo. Main Edition has form claims but her form tailed off in 2018 and she now has a little to prove. New winners

American Pharoah - Coolmore shuttler American Pharoah (Pioneer of The Nile) was provided with a first winner from his very first runner when the Aidan O'Brien-trained Monarch Of Egypt (2 c ex Up by Galileo) landed the spoils in the Irish Stallion Farms EBF Race (5f) at Naas on Saturday. American Pharoah shuttles to Coolmore's Australian base where he covered 139 mares at a fee of $66,000 (inc GST) last year.

Better Than Ready - The Stuart Kendrick-trained Jagged Edge (2 g ex Weekend Surprise by Rubiton) made an impressive debut in the Evolt Maiden Handicap (1000m) at the Sunshine Coast on Sunday, becoming the 15th individual winner for first-season Lyndhurst Stud-based sire Better Than Ready (More Than Ready), who is leading the first-season sire tables by the metric of individual winners. Better Than Ready will stand for a fee of $33,000 (inc GST) this season.

Cable Bay - Woodside Park shuttler Cable Bay (Invincible Spirit) was provided with his second northern hemisphere winner on Friday when Visayas (2 f ex Palais Polaire by Polar Falcon) landed the Premio Amur (1000m) at Rome. Cable Bay is currently standing at Highclere Stud in Britain for a fee of £6,500.

Rubick - Chia (2 f ex Mulu Miss by Flying Spur) became the eighth individual winner for Coolmore first-season sire Rubick (Encosta De Lago) when she landed the G&K Electrical Maiden 2YO Handicap (1300m) at Hawkesbury on Tuesday. The stallion was responsible for three six-figure lots on day one of the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, including a colt out of November Flight (Flying Spur), who realised $900,000 after being bought in partnership by Tom Magnier and Ciaran Maher Bloodstock.

New Group 1 winners

Not A Single Doubt - Kenedna (5 m ex Miss Dodwell by Falbrav) made her Group 1 breakthrough at Randwick on Saturday, landing the Coolmore Legacy Stakes (registered as the Queen Of The Turf Stakes) (Gr 1, 1600m) with a sustained late bid to lead on the line. Victory for the Ciaran Maher and David Eustace-trained mare provided Arrowfield Stud resident Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) with his ninth Group 1 winner.

Sea The Stars - Shraaoh (5 g ex Jumoooh by Monsun) handed Gilltown Stud-based sire Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) his tenth Group 1 winner, and 50th stakes winner, with a tenacious victory in the Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) at Randwick on Saturday. Sea The Stars - who is currently standing for a fee of €135,000 - counts Epsom Oaks (Gr 1, 1m4f) winner Taghrooda and Derby (Gr 1, 1m4f) hero Harzand amongst his ten top-level winners.

Street Cry - Former Darley shuttler Street Cry (Machiavellian) was handed his 21st Group 1 /Grade 1 winner on Friday after Delta Prince (6 h ex Delta Princess by A.P. Indy) recorded a deserved first elite-level victory in the Maker's 46 Mile Stakes (Gr 1, 8f) at Keeneland. Street Cry died in 2014 and is the sire of star mares Winx and Zenyatta.

War Front - Claiborne Farm-based stallion War Front (Danzig) was provided with his 20th Group 1 winner on Saturday courtesy of Omaha Beach's (3 c Charming by Seeking the Gold) tenacious victory in the Arkansas Derby (Gr 1, 9f) at Oaklawn Park. War Front is standing at Claiborne for a fee of US$250,000 and counts Underwood Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) hero Homesman among his haul of elite-level winners.

Curlin - Lady Apple (2 f ex Miss Mary Apples by Clever Trick) chartered a narrow passage up the rail to land the Fantasy Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) at Oaklawn Park on Friday, providing Hill 'N Dale Farms stallion Curlin (Smart Strike) with his 57th stakes winner in the process. Curlin is standing at Hill 'N Dale Farms for a fee of US$175,000 in 2019.

Dandy Man - The David Elsworth-trained Dandhu (2 f ex Poldhu by Cape Cross) had just enough in reserve to repel the late thrust of Iconic Choice (Sixties Icon) in the Dubai Duty Free Stakes (registered as the Fred Darling Stakes) (Gr 3, 7f) at Newbury on Saturday, providing Ballyhane Stud stallion Dandy Man (Mozart) with his 11th stakes winner. Dandy Man is standing at Ballyhane in Ireland for a career-high fee of €12,500, having stood the previous two seasons at €10,000.

Denman - Darley sire Denman (Lonhro) was provided with his 14th stakes winner courtesy of Humma Humma's narrow victory in the Redelva Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Morphettville on Saturday. Denman covered 95 mares at a career-low fee of $8,800 last year having stood for as high as $38,500 in his first two seasons, in which he covered 132 mares in 2010 and 129 mares the following year.

Ekraar - Ekraar (Red Ransom) was provided with his tenth stakes winner on Saturday courtesy of Felaar's (5 g ex Felt That by Faltaat) narrow victory in the Hawke's Bay Cup (Listed, 2200m) at Hastings. The Stephen Marsh-trained gelding got the better of Igraine (Galileo) by the narrowest of margins, with a further half length back to Jacksstar (Zed) in third as a length separated the first six past the post.

Farhh - Elegiac (4 c ex Lamentation by Singspiel) became the fourth stakes winner for Farhh (Pivotal) after landing the Barry Hills Further Flight Stakes (Listed, 1m6f) at Nottingham on Wednesday. Farhh's other stakes winners to date are the Prix Hocquart (Gr 2, 1m3f) scorer Nocturnal Fox, dual Group 3 victor Wells Farhh Go and Listed winner Fa Ul Sciur.

I Am Invincible

Fiorente - Power Scheme (2 c ex Rosa Perlato by Encosta de Lago) became the third stakes winner for Sun Stud-based sire Fiorente (Monsun) when he broke his maiden at the fifth attempt by landing the Fernhill Handicap (Listed, 1600m) at Randwick on Saturday. Fiorente covered 169 mares at a fee of $17,600 last year, while Power Scheme joins Stars Of Carrum and Hawkshot as stakes winners for the son of Monsun (Königsstuhl).

Hard Spun - Hard Empire (5 g ex Last Quill by Last Tycoon) ran out an authoritative winner of the R N Irwin Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Morphettville on Saturday to provide former Darley shuttler Hard Spun (Danzig) with his 69th stakes winner. Hard Spun stood for six Australian breeding seasons between 2008 and 2013, covering 115 mares at a fee of $16,500 in his final year.

I Am Invincible - Yarraman Park sire sensation I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) equalled the record for siring the number of stakes winners in a season when Miss Leonidas (4 m ex Happy Play by Barathea) became his 26th stakes scorer in the Bel Esprit Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Caulfield on Saturday. With the victory, I Am Invincible equals Danehill (Danzig) and Arrowfield Stud stallion Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) record as the sire of 26 stakes winners in a season.

I'll Have Another - Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f) winner I'll Have Another (Flower Alley) was provided with his first stakes winner as a stallion on Sunday courtesy of Another Truth's (4 g ex Kyoei Truth by Fuji Kiseki) victory in the Antares Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) at Hanshin. I'll Have Another is currently standing at Ballena Vista Farm in California having returned from a brief stint in Japan.

Intello - Slalom (3 c Zagzig by Selkirk) led home a quinella for his trainer Andre Fabre in the Prix Noailles (Gr 3, 2100m) on Sunday, providing Cheveley Park stallion Intello (Galileo) with his ninth stakes winner. Intello is standing at Cheveley Park Stud in Newmarket for a fee of £20,000.

Into Mischief - Spendthrift Farm stallion Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday) was provided with his 47th stakes winner on Saturday courtesy of Owendale's (3 c ex Aspen Light by Bernardini) victory in the Stonestreet Lexington Stakes (Gr 3, 8.5f) at Keeneland. Into Mischief is currently standing at Spendthrift Farm for a career-high fee of US$150,000.

Invincible Spirit - Irish National Stud stalwart Invincible Spirit (Green Desert) was handed his 120th stakes winner on Saturday courtesy of Big Brothers Pride's (2 f ex Polygreen by Green Tune) emphatic victory in the Prix Sigy (Gr 3, 1100m) at Chantilly. Invincible Spirit is currently standing at the Irish National Stud for a fee of €120,000.

Krupt - At Morphettville on Saturday, the ever consistent Li'l Kontra (2 f ex Li'l Cashy by Keltrice) took out the Dequetteville Stakes (Listed, 1050m) to hand Krupt (Flying Spur) his second stakes winner.

Lord Kanaloa - Emerging Japanese stallion Lord Kanaloa (King Kamehameha) was provided with his 11th stakes winner on Saturday courtesy of Iberis's (2 f ex Celebrar by Boston Harbor) victory in the Arlington Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) at Hanshin. Lord Kanaloa, who currently stands at Shadai Stallion Station for JPY15,000,000, is best known for the globetrotting exploits of his multiple Group 1-winning daughter Almond Eye.

Maschino - Alwyn Park Stud stallion Maschino (Encosta De Lago) was provided with his first stakes winner on Saturday courtesy of Cup Night's (3 g ex Walk in Beauty by Barely a Moment) victory in the Raconteur Stakes (Listed, 1500m) at Ascot. Maschino stood for a fee of $3,300 last year.

New Year's Day - Bourbon Resolution (4 c ex Vindicated Ghost by Vindication) was another to make his stakes breakthrough at Keeneland on Saturday when running out a wide margin of the Ben Ali Stakes (Gr 3, 9f). Bourbon Resolution's victory handed former Hill 'N' Dale Farm stallion New Year's Day (Street Cry), who was sold to stand at Luis Felipe Brandão dos Santos' Stud Eternamente Rio in Brazil for this year, with his fourth stakes winner.

Niagara - The Oaks Stud-based stallion Niagara (Encosta De Lago) sired his second stakes winner on Saturday after Beyond The Fort (2 f ex Stella Rossa by Testa Rossa) gained compensation for her agonising New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) defeat with victory in the Warstep Stakes (Listed, 2000m) at Riccarton Park. Niagara stood at The Oaks Stud for a fee of NZ$5,000 (plus GST) in 2018.

Not A Single Doubt - On a productive Saturday for Not A Single Doubt, who covered 94 mares at a fee of $99,000 (inc GST) last year, Classique Legend (3 g ex Pinocchio by Encosta de Lago) became his 64th stakes winner when continuing on his upward curve in the Arrowfield 3YO Sprint Stakes (registered as Royal Sovereign Stakes) (Gr 2, 1200m).

Redoute's Choice - Meanwhile in Europe last week, Not A Single Doubt's sire Redoute's Choice (Daneshill) posted his 165th stakes winner when Danceteria (4 g ex Bal De La Rose by Cadeaux Genereux) landed the Prix Jacques Laffitte (Listed, 1800m) at Maisons-Laffitte on Wednesday. Arrowfield Stud mourned the loss of champion sire Redoute's Choice last month after he was euthanised having suffered a traumatic loss of mobility.

Shamardal - Godolphin-raced filly Castle Lady (3 f ex Windsor County by Elusive Quality) maintained her unbeaten record to run out a taking winner of the Prix de la Grotte (Gr 3, 1600m), providing former Darley shuttler Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) with his 130th stakes winner at Longchamp on Sunday. Shamardal is standing at Kildangan Stud in Ireland for a private fee.

Shamus Award - Classic Weiwei (3 g ex Benevolent by Generous) continued on an upward curve when taking out the Port Adelaide Guineas (Listed, 1800m) at Morphettville on Saturday, providing Widden Stud stallion Shamus Award (Snitzel) with his first stakes winner in the process. Shamus Award covered 84 mares at a fee of $11,000 last year.

So You Think - Fasika (3 f ex Jarada by Redoute's Choice) became the 16th stakes winner for Coolmore Stud resident So You Think (High Chaparral) when she landed the South Pacific Classic (Listed, 1400m) at Randwick on Saturday. So You Think covered 225 mares at a fee of $44,000 last year.

Sizzling - Newgate Farm-based stallion Sizzling (Snitzel) was provided with his first stakes winner on Saturday courtesy of Secret Blaze's victory in the Galilee Series Final (Listed, 2425m) at Caulfield. Sizzling covered 79 mares at a fee of $16,500 last season - the same fee he has stood for during his five years at stud.

Unencumbered - The late Three Bridges stallion Unencumbered (Testa Rossa) was provided with his first stakes winner at Morphettville on Saturday after Mirette (3 f ex Lady Zabeel by Zabeel) scored a narrow victory in The Schweppervescence (registered as Auraria Stakes) (Gr 3, 1800m). Unencumbered died in March last year after suffering complications from throat surgery.

War Front - Munitions (3 c ex War Echo by Tapit) became the 81st stakes winner for War Front (Danzig) when prevailing in the Prix Djebel (Gr 3, 1400m), a key Classic trial, at Maisons-Laffitte on Wednesday. Among War Front's 81 stakes winners is Declaration Of War, whose first-crop son Olmedo won last year's Poule d'Essai des Poulains (Gr 1, 1600m) at Longchamp.

What a legend

It's a Classic story. A little over two years ago, Tyreel Stud took a smashing grey colt to the Inglis Sydney Classic Yearling Sale where he would be knocked down to Carmel Size – on behalf of Hong Kong owner Mr Bon Ho – for $400,000. Topped the sale he did.

This was welcome news for Tyreel. Sure, the Hawkesbury Valley showpiece had been synonymous with big sales and even bigger race wins since the 1980s when under the ownership of the Fleming family, but Tyreel was now under new management following the farm's purchase by Linda and Laurence Monds in 2014.

So, topping the Classic sale was a big effort from the Monds as this colt was, effectively, from their second crop of yearlings ... sourced from relatively few mares.

On Saturday that flashy grey, called Classique Legend, won the Group Two 3YO Sprint at Royal Randwick in brilliant fashion and a happy-ever-after ending is predicted for the exciting youngster. He is clearly some racehorse: four starts, three wins.

That Group Two win alone would be – for most of us – enough for the 'pool room', but it turned out to be a monumental week for the Monds as Tyreel also sold its first seven figure yearling when an Exceed And Excel colt from Group winner, Written Dash was knocked down for $1.7 million at the 2019 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. Word is you could see Linda's smile from the moon's surface.

(A Brazen Beau half brother – Written Dash's first foal – also topped the 2018 Inglis Sydney Classic Yearling Sale).

Classique Legend

LISA GRIMM

It's a long way to come in a few short years, but Monds herself has industry history: "I was involved with horses from a very early age," Linda Monds explains. "My parents – David and Helen Wallings – had a cattle property where they bred, sold and raced a number of horses, while I also spent time working in and around the stables and took a keen interest up until the time I was in my early 20s.

"I then established a career in office/business management but had always kept my passion for horses and, a few years back, Laurence and I were in a position to get back into breeding and racing.

"I must say the industry is really moving forward and is much more professional than it was back then."

More profitable too it seems. Classique Legend's dam, Pinocchio – a sister to Champion 3YO Racing To Win and half sister to Group winner Purrealist – was purchased on behalf of Tyreel for $320,000 at the 2014 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale.

Pinocchio's first foal, Puppet Master has won four races for Gary Portelli and Darby Racing, her second is Classique Legend and the third, a Sebring colt, was sold to Hong Kong based, George Moore, for $575,000 at Easter last year.

On Sunday, the Sebring 2YO – Aethero – won his first start at Sha Tin and, post-race, Moore was already drawing comparisons to former Hong Kong Champion and Horse of the Year, Able Friend.

We did say it was a big week!

"A couple of weeks before Easter, George Moore came out to the farm to look at the yearlings and he was telling me then that the Sebring (Aethero) was going to be a very good racehorse," Monds reveals. "Unfortunately Pinocchio didn't get in foal last year but she has an absolutely cracking So You Think colt that we'll be taking to the sale next year."

You can rest assured that Carmel Size will be keen to have a look.

"He (Classique Legend) was an incredible type and I reckon I was lucky to get him for $400,000. Really, I would have just kept on bidding," claims Size, who is the racing manager for Mr Ho.

Size, who spent many years in Hong Kong, purchased Southern Legend on behalf of Ho at Easter '14, with the horse capturing a Listed race in Sydney before going on to race in Hong Kong (multiple Group One placed), in Singapore (winning the Kranji Mile) and, raced on last month's Dubai World Cup card. With nine wins and eight placings, Southern Legend has banked around $3.8 million in stakes.

A daughter of Hall of Fame trainer, Neville Begg, Size works exclusively for Ho and purchased three yearlings for $1,990,00 on his behalf at Easter last week. With the majority of the stable only 2YOs, there are some 22 horses "on the books".

"Classique Legend's stable name is Jiminy Cricket and I reckon they could have heard me yelling "Jiminy" from miles away when he worked last week ... he was like a low flying rocket and, so, I was very confident coming into Saturday," Size points out. "It was a good thing too because Mr Ho was at Randwick for the big day.

"This horse has done incredibly well on the back of a single preparation. He did a ligament early so he came into this campaign on the back of one jump out and a barrier trial at Hawkesbury.

"Kerrin McEvoy rode him at work early in the piece and said to me that 'wherever this horse goes, I go too' and even went out to Hawkesbury to ride him in the trial."

Based on Saturday's performance, it's not likely McEvoy will be jumping off anytime soon.

Following the Group Two victory there was much speculation as to whether Classique Legend would be sent to Hong Kong, but Size explains the horse's future is "still under discussion".

"He could end up in Hong Kong but there is a lot of interest regarding the Everest so it's really up in the air," Size adds. "Mr Ho was at Randwick on Saturday, saw his horse win and couldn't believe the atmosphere ... he was very impressed.

"What a great day ... Winx and Classique Legend. I've got the best job in the world!"

Pearl Green destroys rivals in Directors Cup

By Harry Troy

@anz_news

Pearl Green

MJC

Pearl Green (Fastnet Rock) has picked up his fourth stakes win in Macau after simply destroying his rivals in Saturday's Directors' Cup (Listed, 1500m) at the Taipa racetrack.

Ridden by Manoel Nunes, Pearl Green left his opponents in his wake when he powered away at the top of the straight to easily defeat Kelowna Star (Sufficient), with Lucky Winston (Churchill Downs) running on well for third.

Prepared by K H Leong, Pearl Green has been a real bargain buy for his owner Chan Ming Wing. Originally a $460,000 purchase at the 2015 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, the colt was named Meadow Lane and sent to Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott. The youngster failed dismally in two Randwick barrier trials, and was subsequently gelded and placed on the market. K H Leong then picked up the gelding for the modest sum of $55,000 for his current owner.

Arriving in Macau as a late three-year-old, it was obvious right from the start that Pearl Green was something special. After a couple of nice efforts in unsuitable races, the gelding then proceeded to win five races straight and stamp himself as the dominant four-year-old of last season. Pearl Green went on to make a clean sweep of the four-year-old classics in winning the Derby Trial (Listed, 1500m), the Guineas (Listed, 1500m) and The Derby (Listed, 1800m).

After Saturday's win the son of Fastnet Rock (Danehill) has put together a record of nine wins, five seconds and three thirds with only two unplaced efforts from his 19 starts. His prize-money now is nudging the HK$4 million mark and there's plenty more to come from the five-year-old who has returned better than ever this season.

Winning jockey Manoel Nunes was full of praise for Pearl Green after the win which gave him his first Directors' Cup victory in the Macau.

"I've won just about every big race in Macau but never the Directors Cup. I'm also very pleased to win for KH Leong and the owner Chan Ming Wing. They always support me so well when I come to Macau," he said.

"It wasn't my intention to lead but with the good gate and the way he jumped and the lack of speed early, he was traveling so comfortable it seemed the right thing to do. The rail was the place to be on the new ground and with the heavy track it was an advantage to be on the speed. He is a lovely horse that does not really work or trial that well, but he is a real professional on race day."

Nunes will ride in Macau next Saturday and Sunday before jetting out to Mauritius where he made a huge impact at the end of last season, winning 17 races and kicking home 19 placings from only 67 rides.

Another impressive winner on the day was the Geoff Allendorf -trainer Luen On Treasure (Dane Shadow) ridden by Japanese rider Shogo Nakano, who donkey licked his opponents in the Class 2&3 Handicap over 1500 metres.

The son of Dane Shadow (Danehill) made it win number five in the enclave and was given the perfect ride by Nakano, parking in sixth spot on the rail before getting off the backs of the tiring leaders coming to the turn. Luen On Treasure raced clear at the two hundred with the only real chaser Pearl Win Win (Zed), with Chromium Alloy (Testa Rossa) running a distant third.

Luis Corrales took riding honours for the day with a winning double on the Rambo Tse-trained Starkiller (Stratum) in the Class 3&4 over 1200 metres and short priced favourite Qipao Queen (Love Conquers All) prepared by K C Chong in the last - the Class 4 over 1500 metres.
