Prized broodmare and well-bred filly a boost for The Chairman's Sale

Bell set to sell dam of Loving Gaby and a sister to Blue Diamond winner

Loving Gaby

SPORTPIX

By Tim Rowe

The dam of this season's exciting juvenile Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible) and Symi (Fastnet Rock), the younger sister to Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Catchy, have been added as wildcard entries to The Chairman's Sale.

In a coup for auction house Inglis, prominent owner and breeder Alan Bell has elected to put the four times stakes-placed Maastricht (Mastercraftsman), who is back in foal to I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), and the winning three-year-old filly Symi on the market.

The pair will be offered under the Newgate Consignment banner at the Riverside Stables auction, which is to be held on the evening of Friday May 3.

"Both fillies were absolute stand-out yearlings when they were bought - pearls of their respective years," Bell said.

"Maastricht was the most expensive yearling from the first crop of Mastercraftsman, which goes to show what presence she had in the sales ring.

Morning Briefing

Godolphin could line up five in Sires

James Cummings could have up to five runners in the Inglis Sires (registered as ATC Sires' Produce Stakes) (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick on Saturday as Godolphin bid to continue their dominance in this season's juvenile ranks. Kiamichi (Sidestep) defeated her stablemate

James Cummings

Microphone (Exceed And Excel) in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) on a heavy track with the Anthony Freedman-trained Lyre (Lonhro) taking the minor placing. Kiamichi and Microphone are in line to run in the Inglis Sires at Randwick but Cummings said three others could join their stablemates in the race. "We could have up to as many as five, but I am not convinced we will have that many," Cummings told RSN927. "The certain starters would be Microphone and Tenley. We're pretty likely to run Kiamichi. I think she will be really strong over 1400 metres." Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) and Flit (Medaglia d'Oro) could also run.

Morning Briefing page 4 >

<< Continued from page 1 "It must also be remembered that Symi was a $700,000 yearling before Catchy had even won a stakes race, which tells you the calibre of physical type she was.

"They both had great scale, muscle, movement, scope and so much quality, which will stand with them for the rest of their lives.

"My strong belief is strong sales yearlings breed strong sales yearlings, which is already in evidence with Maastricht and I expect the same will prove true of Symi."

Trained by Hawkes Racing, Symi won her first start in a benchmark race (1250m) at Canterbury last August and proved competitive in the Tea Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) later that preparation.

She is currently spelling after three unplaced starts in February and March.

Meanwhile, the Ciaron Maher and David Eustace-trained Loving Gaby is set to line up in Saturday's Inglis Sires' (registered as ATC Sires' Produce Stakes) (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick, which could only enhance the value of her dam Maastricht.

Loving Gaby, Maastricht's first foal, won the MRC Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at her first start and has since finished sixth in the Blue Diamond Stakes and fourth to Kiamichi (Sidestep) in last month's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m).

"She's been a very impressive two-year-old and has a really bright future," Maher said.

"I think the best is yet to come with her as a three-year-old and beyond."

Maastricht is owned in partnership by Bell and Kia Ora Stud, who sold Loving Gaby for $500,000 at last year's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale to Phoenix Thoroughbreds.

"She is in a partnership with Alan Bell and they have decided her value is quite high at the moment and it would Continued on page 3>>

"She is a big, strong mare and has a lot of quality to her. Producing Loving Gaby as a maiden foal, who was a big, strong foal, you could tell she was going to produce some lovely foals going forward given the first one was very good."

Maastricht also has a weanling filly by the late Sebring (More Than Ready) who will be offered for sale as a yearling next year.

The addition of Maastricht and Symi brings the Newgate Consignment draft to ten lots, with Group 1 winner Aloisia (Azamour) and dual Group 3 winner Pecans (Skilled) also featuring among the stud's offerings.

"We are very grateful to have been chosen to offer Maastricht and Symi, both of whom have bright futures ahead of them," Newgate Farm's Henry Field said.

"We look forward to parading them both for prospective buyers from around the globe at Inglis ahead of The Chairman's Sale."

The news comes a day after it was revealed that Group 1 winner Viddora (I Am Invincible), arguably one of Australia's most valuable race mares, is likely to be sold privately and most probably to northern hemisphere interests.

The Lloyd Kennewell-trained Viddora, who ran fourth in the Al Quoz Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) at Meydan on Saturday, is slated to have her next start in the Chairman's Sprint Prize (Gr 1, 1200m) at Sha Tin later this month.

Probabeel to work at Randwick

New Zealand trainer Jamie Richards will be on hand this morning to supervise the final gallop of his exciting two-year-old Probabeel (Savabeel) ahead of the Inglis Sires. "She works on Tuesday morning on the grass at Randwick," Richards said. "We are happy with her and looking forward to hopefully seeing a little bit of drying in Sydney this week. I think the step up to 1400 metres will really suit her." The Brendan and Jo Lindsay-owned Probabeel has won three of her first four starts, including the Karaka Million (RL, 1200m) at Ellerslie on January 26, and made up ground from last to finish sixth in the Magic Night Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at her first Australian run on March 16.

Clark confident about Shoals

Tim Clark has issued a positive bulletin on the Anthony Freedman-trained Shoals (Fastnet Rock), who is a $13 chance for the TJ Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Randwick on Saturday. Three-time Group 1 winner Shoals has run once this season, finishing runner-up to Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) in the Canterbury Stakes (Gr 1, 1300m), while she finished third in a 1045-metre trial at Randwick last Friday. "It was a bit of a maintenance gallop really, just to keep her ticking over," Clark told Racing NSW. "She's in great order - she trialled up probably as good as she will trial. She can be a bit lazy at times but she really dragged me through the line. It's not going to be an easy race but she did start favourite in an Everest so that speaks highly of her ability."

Ryan delighted with Trapeze Artist

Meanwhile, Trapeze Artist, who won the TJ Smith by two lengths last year and is the $4.50 co-favourite to defend his crown, has pleased trainer Gerald Ryan following his victory in the Canterbury, including when successful in a barrier trial at Randwick on Friday. "He hasn't missed a beat since the trial," Ryan said. "He's got better this preparation and is bright and happy in himself and is ready for the TJ. I just don't want him to draw the inside - anywhere outside three would be best."

Lindsay Park turn to Group 1 rookies for Doncaster

In other Randwick news, Lindsay Park are set to accept a trio of novices in the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m), with co-favourite Fifty Stars (Sea The Stars) set to be joined by Fundamentalist (Not A Single Doubt) and So Si Bon (So You Think), although the latter will require defections to make the final line-up as he currently sits 43rd in the order of entry. All three representatives are set to be ridden by lightweight riders who have yet to claim a Group 1 success, with Jye McNeil booked for Fifty Stars, Ben Thompson for Fundamentalist and Lachie King, who has not ridden in a top-tier contest, set to take the mount on So Si Bon. "Fifty Stars has got the form to be favourite," co-trainer David Hayes told Racing.com "Fundamentalist is a real Group 1 performer and the way So Si Bon worked this morning, I'm hoping he can make it as well."

Moroney to have two in Derby

Mike Moroney is set to launch a two-pronged assault on Saturday's Australian Derby (Gr

1, 2400m) in the shape of Arrogant (Ocean Park) and Chapada (Bullet Train), who finished second and third respectively in the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m). However, the market predicts that the form will be reversed upon Saturday's step up in trip, with Chapada priced as the $5 favourite and Arrogant the $6 second favourite. "They both look very well and have come through the Rosehill Guineas with flying colours," Moroney said. "Chapada has been aimed to get here at his best. Arrogant has come from a bit of a campaign in New Zealand."

Semari not a certain Chairman's starter

A gallop this morning will determine whether Epona Stakes (Gr 3, 1900m) winner Semari (Sebring) contests Saturday's Chairman's Quality (Gr 2, 2600m) at Randwick or heads straight to the paddock. Semari scored a valuable last-start Group 3 win at Rosehill and co-trainer Natalie Young is weighing up whether to extend the four-year-old's autumn campaign. "It was great to get a Group 3 win with her and she's pulled up super," Young told Racing.com. "She just had a canter around last Wednesday morning at Randwick and she'll gallop there (today) for Breakfast With The Stars. If she gallops well we'll carry on towards the Chairman's Quality. If not, we'll bring her home and give her a little spell."

Mr Quickie to keep SA Derby plan on track

Mr Quickie (Shamus Award), who has won his last six starts, will continue on his path to the South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) at Morphettville on May 11 when he lines up in the Super VOBIS Three-Year-Old Handicap (1600m) at Caulfield on Saturday. Phillip Stokes plans to run the improving three-year-old at the weekend before progressing to a 2000-metre race at the same track three weeks later. "Everything is going along well with him and obviously he's in terrific form," Stokes said. "He is there fitness-wise so we're just keeping him ticking over until the Derby, basically. We're obviously aiming him for the Derby but we didn't want to travel him to Adelaide too early, or twice."

Nothdurft to ride Mr Marbellouz in Weetwood

In-form apprentice Baylee Nothdurft will take the most prestigious ride of his career to date when he reunites with Mr Marbellouz (Love Conquers All) in the Weetwood Handicap (Listed, 1200m) at Toowoomba on Saturday. Northdurft has partnered Mr Marbellouz twice, winning once and finishing second on the other occasion, while Dale Smith was in the plate when the five-year-old ran fifth in Goldmarket Handicap (Listed, 1200m) on March 23. "It is his (Northdurft) and my home track and it would be a big thrill for him to win the Weetwood," trainer Kevin Kemp said. "If he had won the Goldmarket he would have got more weight in the Weetwood so there is one silver lining. As any Toowoomba trainer will tell you winning the Weetwood is our biggest aim as we get bragging rights for a year."

Chris Waller GETTY

Waller team targeting Darling Downs feature

Chris Waller is likely to launch a four-pronged attack on the Toowoomba Cup (2000m) on Saturday. Waller's Queensland manager Paul Shailer said the stable would have The Lord Mayor (Rock 'N' Pop), Vacluse Bay (Al Maher), Xebec (Mizzen Mast) and Follow Suit (Show A Heart) in the $150,000 race.

"They are the right types of horses for the Cup. The Lord Mayor has run in Group

1 races and was very good when fourth at his first Queensland start last time," Shailer said. "Xebec was good first-up and then had no luck last time and is out to the right distance. Vacluse Bay and Follow Suit are both recent winners. It looks the perfect race to launch their winter carnivals."

Bowditch picks up Karakatta ride

Well-travelled jockey Joe Bowditch will ride Beethoven (Helmet) in Saturday's $500,000 Karakatta Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) at Ascot after trainer Dan Morton was forced to find a new jockey for the gelding. Beethoven has won two of his four outings, including a last-start victory in the Perth Stakes (Listed, 1100m) on March 23 with Clint Johnston-Porter aboard. The juvenile's regular jockey was injured in a fall last month and was unable to gain clearance to return to the saddle in time for the Group 2 sprint. "I was obviously disappointed for Clint when I heard he'd be unavailable this weekend," Morton told Racing.com. "Once we knew he was out we had to go to plan B. I came up with a shortlist and Joe was obviously on that due to meeting him in South Australia and him riding here before with Viddora."

No QEII for Avilius

James Cummings has ruled out the possibility of Avilius (Pivotal) making another quick return to the track to clash with Winx (Street Cry) in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick on Saturday. Avilius has won his last two starts - the Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Rosehill on March 23 and the Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) at the same course on Saturday - but the European import will now be spelled with a view to returning to the racecourse in the early spring.

Apprentice Stockdale to make return

Tom Stockdale, who took approximately ten rides at Cranbourne's barrier trials yesterday, will return to race-riding at Racing.com Park on Thursday having been out of action since suffering complications from a fall at Stony Creek in March. "I had a fall out of the gates last March and broke both my tib (tibia) and fib (fibula) and the surgery didn't go to plan straight after the fall," Stockdale told Racing.com. "I had a broken screw and the bone wasn't healing so I went under the knife last December and I've come along in leaps and bounds since. I am based out of Pakenham and still riding work for my boss Shane Stockdale and try to do a bit for Stokesy (Phillip Stokes)."

Country Callers given Championships gig

Country race-callers Anthony Manton and Mitch Manners will have their talents showcased on the biggest stage having been selected to call one race each at the upcoming The Championships. Manton will don his binoculars for the Country Championships Final (1400m) at Randwick on Saturday, while Manners will be behind the microphone for the Provincial Final (1400m) one week later.

Yourdeel could head to Australia

Jamie Richards has one eye on an Australian spring campaign for dual Group 1 winner Yourdeel (Dundeel), who supplemented his Sistema Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) victory on March 9 with a half-length success in the Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) on Saturday. "He'll have six to eight weeks off now - we'll give him a good break," Richards said. "We'll get him back in and sit down with Chris (Rutten), Rod Preston and John Norwood and work out what we want to achieve. He looks like a 2,000 Guineas horse to us, but he might be good enough to go to Australia as well."

Zed studmaster toasts Elleegant's success

Verry Elleegant's (Zed) success in the Vinery Stud Stakes (registered as the Storm Queen Stakes) (Gr 1, 2000m) at Rosehill on Saturday was met with adulation from Grangewilliam Stud principal Mark Corcoran, who stands Zed (Zabeel) at his Waitotara property, near Wanganui - the farm on which Verry Elleegant was also bred and raised. "It doesn't get any better than a Group 1," Corcoran said. "It was a great result and it's good to see her finally settling in her races. I know she has been a bit awkward, getting her head up in the air. I'm really pleased to see James McDonald on her now and she seems to settle for him and relax. It looks like she has got a good future ahead of her."

Allan hoping to get all-clear to return

Injured jockey Tony Allan will have a better idea of a possible return to race-riding after a specialist appointment on April 15. Allan suffered a broken arm in a fall at New Plymouth on December 6 and has been making a steady recovery since undergoing surgery. "I've been going to the gym and doing my exercises and physio, as well as some time in the pool," Allan said. "It's all to help with the stiffness in my shoulder, but it's improving. I don't want to rush it, but I'm looking forward to riding again."

Teetan cleared for Doncaster ride

Hong Kong jockey Karis Teetan has been given the green light by the HKJC to partner I Am Serious (Choisir) in the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick on Saturday. The Chris Waller-trained I Am Serious finished outside the placings for just the second time in her 17-start career when down the field in the Coolmore Classic (registered as Tad Kennedy Stakes) (Gr 1, 1500m) last month. Teetan will not miss a Hong Kong meeting during his Australian raid.

Called To The Bar gains revenge

The Pia Brandt-trained Called To The Bar (Henrythenavigator) gained revenge over his old adversary Holdthasigreen (Hold That Tiger) to run out a cosy winner of the Prix Right Royal (Listed, 3000m) at Chantilly yesterday. The five-year-old finished an agonising second to that rival in the Prix Royal Oak (Gr 1, 3000m) back in October, but took advantage of a pull in the weights to reverse the form and score by a neck, with three lengths back to Mahoe (Doctor Dino) in third. Called To The Bar is one of 22 stakes winners for former Coolmore shuttler Henrythenavigator (Kingmambo).

Gold Cup target for Bar

Following yesterday's Listed victory, his fourth at stakes level, Brandt confirmed that a trip to Royal Ascot is on the agenda for the ultra-consistent gelding. "Our main goal is the Ascot Gold Cup," a delighted Brandt told Sky Sports Racing. "I was tempted to go to Ascot on May 1 to have a prep race, but I really want Maxime to keep riding him and it's a big day here in France, so I'm afraid I can't do that and it's probably going to be a Group 3 here in France on the 28th (Prix Barbeville). Law Abidin Citizen (4 g ex Honest Answer by Tale of the Cat) became the 16th stakes winner for Lane's End resident Twirling Candy (Candy Ride) when he prevailed by a length in the San Simeon Stakes (Gr 3, 6.5f) at Santa Anita on Sunday. Cistron (The Factor) finished second, while Mesut (Gio Ponti) finished a further two and a half lengths back in third. There was a sad postscript to the contest after Arms Runner (Overdriven) took a bad step, fell and was subsequently euthanised. He became the 23rd horse to have died either racing or training at Santa Anita since the meeting started on December 26, while the track was closed between March 3 and March 29 to investigate the dirt surface following the series of fatalities. "I don't know (about going for the Melbourne Cup)," Charlton told Irishracing.com. "I wasn't impressed by the quarantine facilities and I think the track is difficult to train on. There was a certain amount of criticism about the bedding and the forage. It's a long way to go to break a blood vessel. He may well bleed - but it is better to bleed closer to home. You have to come through with a healthy horse after a long journey and he didn't make the cut."

McEvoy to ride Houtzen at Ascot

Kerrin McEvoy will ride speedy Queensland mare Houtzen (I Am Invincible) in the King's Stand Stakes (Gr 1, 5f) at Royal Ascot in June. The 2017 Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner arrived in England last week and has taken the journey in her stride. "Kerrin McEvoy is going to ride her in the King's Stand," Edmonds told Racing.com. "She was very good in the spring last year early in the prep, so we've just decided to focus on the King's Stand first-up. She'll be prepared wholly and solely for that."

Brilliant Debbie dazzles in Sprint Trophy

By Harry Troy

@anz_news

Brilliant Debbie

SPORTPIX

Irish import Brilliant Debbie (Sepoy) produced an amazing finishing burst to come from last to first and simply blow his rivals away in the Macau Sprint Trophy (Listed, 1200m) at the Taipa racetrack on Saturday.

Ridden by Irishman Wayne Smith, Brilliant Debbie was tailed off a long and lonely last from the jump in a race run at a good speed set up by Thehorseiswithme (I Am Invincible). Still a clear last at the top of the straight, Smith brought the son of Sepoy (Elusive Quality) to the centre of the track to weave a passage into clear running, with Brilliant Debbie exploding down the middle of the track to race away for a one and a half length victory over favourite Mister Kaopu (Redoute's Choice), with Obrigado Mais (Husson) running on soundly for third.

Brilliant Debbie is prepared by the joint stable of Tommy Tse and Louis Ho, with Ho being the primary trainer of the gelding. The five-year-old arrived in Macau in January of last year and was confidently supported at his first start on the sand in April, before running a poor fifth of 11 over 1350 metres. The gelding was found to be lame after the event. It wasn't until November last year that Louis Ho was able to put those problems behind him, with Brilliant Debbie putting paid to a good quality Class 3 field over 1200 metres under apprentice Eric Cheung.

Other good runs and a few minor placings followed, with the five-year-old even tried up to 1800 metres. However it was the freshen up and return to 1200 metres that did the trick, aided by a soft track and a frantic pace.

Brilliant Debbie was originally prepared in Ireland by Jessica Harrington when racing as Khukri, winning a Maiden (6f) at The Curragh and a Listed race (5.75f) at Navan. The gelding's two wins and two placings in Macau have netted his owner Chan Clament over HK$650,000 to date.

Stanley Chin enjoyed a great night on Friday, winning three of the six events on the card to bring him up to 23 winners for the season.

Benevolent Friend (Oasis Dream) was the first of Chin's winners when he saluted off a perfect ride by champion jockey Ruan Maia to win the Class 1&2 over 1350 metres on the sand. The Brazilian had the British import in the perfect spot in the run behind a line of three leaders on the bridle. Driving the son of Oasis Dream (Green Desert) between runners on straightening, the seven-year-old bounded away for a good win over Duke De Vega (Lope De Vega) with Oriental Profit (Mastercraftsman) flying home for third.

Greatest Prodigy (Skilled) under Luis Corrales was the second of Chin's winners when he came home too well for his opposition in the Class 2&3 over 1510 metres; then Hugo And Barry (Showcasing) showed plenty of grit to edge out River Double (Red Giant) in the Class 6 over 1350 metres.

Chin now moves into equal third spot with Tony Fung in the trainer's standings on 23 wins apiece. Sio Cheong, the Champion trainer from the 2015/16 season, leads the race on 25 victories from Alan Tam (24). The joint stable of Tommy Tse and Louis Ho are giving a great sight for a small yard and are currently in fifth spot on 22 wins. Tse and Ho have the best strike rate by far with only 127 runners for the season for 22 wins, 16 seconds and 12 thirds giving then a win rate of 17 per cent and a place rate of 39 per cent.

The upset of the weekend was the bolter Trillion King (Myboycharlie) who relished the soft conditions to romp home in the Class 3&4 over 1500 metres on the turf on Saturday.

Ridden by Frankie Choi, Trillion King was friendless in the betting and jumped at odds off HK$623.50 for the win. The son of Myboycharlie (Danetime) was formerly trained at Newcastle by Kris Lees where he raced as La Pont, winning a Scone maiden over 1100 metres and a Newcastle BM64 over 1400 metres on a heavy track.

Prepared in Macau by Sio Cheong, the four-year-old looks to have a decent future - especially in the summer months with the rainy season approaching.

Soqrat Love - Australian-bred wins third Group 1

The phenomenal run of Group One success by Australian-breds in South Africa continued on Saturday night with the win of Shadwell Stud's Soqrat in the prestigious Oppenheimer Horse Chestnut Stakes over 1600m at Turffontein.

It was the third Group One victory for the Mike de Kock trained 3YO who was named Champion South African 2YO Colt for 2017/18 after winning three of his four outings last season, including the Group One Champion Stakes.

Since resuming in the spring, Soqrat has won the Group One Cape Guineas and finished second in the Group One Queen's Plate, while his current career tally sits at five wins and four placings from just the nine outings.

While fellow Australian-bred, Oh Susanna, was named South African Horse of the Year in 2017/18, Soqrat has taken a mighty stride toward emulating that feat, particularly given that among the vanquished on Saturday was a former horse of the year in Legal Eagle, who was going for four straight in the Horse Chestnut Stakes.

In what would be the 120th Group One win for the de Kock stable, Soqrat produced a power packed performance in the Horse Chestnut: a win enhanced by taking on the older horses, including Legal Eagle.

"Going forward, the weight for age races will be the most suitable, so we'll discuss a program with Shadwell Stud and Angus Gold and probably look at races like the Rising Sun over 1600m and then the Champions Cup over 1800m," the de Kock stable reported.

Soqrat wins the Group 1 Horse Chestnut Stakes at Turffontein

Shadwell Stud's Racing Manager, Angus Gold, had to be content with watching Soqrat's win on the TV as he was attending the Dubai World Cup meeting at Meydan, but was thrilled with the win.

"He (Soqrat) really cemented himself as a very good racehorse with that win on Saturday night ... he was a Champion 2YO, won the Guineas and now he's beaten a strong field in the Horse Chestnut Stakes," Gold enthused. "It's difficult to say where he will progress to from here but I will discuss it with Sheikh Hamdan and the de Kock stable. Nothing is off the table but he could well end up standing at stud in South Africa for us."

Gold has only just landed in Australia to gear up for next week's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale (9-10 April) and to inspect Shadwell Stud's breeding stock in Australia, which are based at Yarraman Park Stud in the Hunter Valley.

"I'm thrilled, as always, to be back in Australia and looking forward to Easter.

THE POWER OF PASSION

Attracting the world to Australia.

Shadwell has 35 mares at Yarraman Park, while there is another 230 in North America and Europe," Gold reveals. "I usually select around six to eight to go and race in South Africa, while the ones that stay here head to Lindsay Park Racing.

There are about 600 racehorses world-wide with stables in North America, Europe, Dubai and, of course, in Australia and South Africa."

(Shadwell Stud's association with Lindsay Park dates back to the early 80s, with the famous blue and white silks most recently carried to black type glory with Qafila capturing the Group Two Angus Armanasco Stakes at Caulfield on Blue Diamond day).

Also viewing Soqrat's victory on Saturday night with more than a passing interest was Evergreen Stud's principal, Tony Bott, who is poised to sell three fillies at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale next Tuesday and Wednesday, including a close relation to the South African champ.

Lot 390 is a Sebring full sister to Hong Kong's Group One winning sprinter, Lucky Bubbles, while the yearling filly is from stakes horse, Bubble Below: in turn a half sister to the second dam of Soqrat.

"It's a terrific family – lot of Group winners," Bott enthused as he prepares for next week's action. "This has been a good year for Evergreen with some great results on the Gold Coast, while Easter should also be very strong. Certainly any pedigree 'updates' this close to the sale are welcome!"

IT'S A TERRIFIC FAMILY – LOT OF GROUP WINNERS

TONY BOTT, EVERGREEN STUD

Establishing Evergreen Stud around 10 years ago, Bott had previously run Segenhoe Stud for two decades and is something of a 'proven sire' in his own right.

Bott's son, Aaron, is the bloodstock manager for Aquis Farm, which also celebrated the weekend with stakes wins via Bellevue Hill (Group Three The Schweppervescence) and Everyday Lady (Listed Manihi Classic), while his other son, Adrian, co-trains Bellevue Hill with Hall of Famer, Gai Waterhouse.

"We (Evergreen) had been largely focussed on our pre-training and breaking facilities, but have ramped up the breeding and sales side in recent years," Bott explains. "We sold (Group One winning 2YO and Newgate Farm sire) Sizzling as a yearling on behalf of John Muir and quite a few good colts into Hong Kong, including (Group winner) Thewizardofoz, and bought some really good mares like Courgette, the dam of (multiple Group One winner) She Will Reign and (2019 Group Two Silver Slipper winner) Time To Reign and (4-time Group One winner) Princess Coup.

"It's certainly an exciting time to be involved in the Australian thoroughbred industry."
