Castelvecchio primed for tilt at Inglis Sires'

'Hot-blooded' Dundeel colt pleases trainer with final gallop ahead of Group 1

By Tim Rowe

Richard Litt is confident the decision to bypass the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) with Castelvecchio (Dundeel) can pay off in the Inglis Sires' (registered as ATC Sires' Produce Stakes) (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick, describing his talented colt as the fresh horse in the race.

The Inglis Millennium (RL, 1200m) winner, who was given a short break after his third-placed run in last month's Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at the course, is one of 14 juveniles to have accepted for Saturday's $1 million race.

He will take on the Godolphin-owned Golden Slipper quinella of Kiamichi (Sidestep) and Microphone (Exceed And Excel) as well as Loving Gaby (I Am Invincible), Tenley (Medaglia d'Oro) and Dubious (Not A Single Doubt).

The quintet all competed in the Slipper on a Heavy 8 track on March 23.

Castelvecchio won his first start at Canterbury on January 18, coming from last to score over 1200 metres, before backing it up with a last-to-first victory in the inaugural $2 million Inglis Millennium on his home track of Warwick Farm.

"He always looked like he was going to need the extra ground in every run that he has had," Litt told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"As much as it would have been lovely to have a runner in the Slipper, this is the main

Castelvecchio

race for him. We identified that quite early, so we ran him in the Skyline, which didn't knock him around too much.

"If he had won that we probably would have gone to the Slipper. He finished off well - he went enormously - and that made our mind up where we were going.

"I am glad I have got the freshest horse in the race and he just has to turn up on the day and have a little bit of luck."

Josh Parr, who rode Castelvecchio in a Randwick 1045-metre barrier trial last Friday, will retain the mount on the colt this weekend.

Eurozone heads south to Bellereve Stud

Eurozone

NEWGATE

Eurozone (Northern Meteor) will relocate from the Hunter Valley to Bellereve Stud near Canberra in 2019 as he enters his sixth year at stud.

Canberra businessman Chris Burke, a racehorse owner and breeder, has negotiated a deal for the stakes-winning stallion to move to southern NSW after starting his career at Newgate Farm.

With his oldest progeny rising four-year-olds, Eurozone is the sire of 16 individual winners, including stakes winners Krone and Saturday's Bendigo Guineas (Listed, 1400m) winner Mystery Love, a three-year-old filly who is unbeaten in three starts for trainer Mick Price.

<< Continued from page 1 Listed as an equal $7 second favourite in early markets alongside Microphone and Saturday's Schweppervescence Handicap (registered as T L Baillieu Handicap) (Gr 3, 1400m) winner Bellevue Hill (Pierro), he has drawn barrier seven.

Loving Gaby, who drew barrier five, is the $6.50 favourite.

Litt was pleased with his colt's closing fourth in Friday's barrier trial and noted that the horse did not wear blinkers in the hit out.

Castelvecchio also galloped on the Warwick Farm course-proper yesterday.

"There is going to be plenty of speed in the race. He'll be back, smoking his pipe and staying out of trouble. We'll bring him to the outside and what will be, will be," he said.

"He is a very fit horse, he goes on all ground and he'll be there in the finish."

A $150,000 purchase by Galletta Constructions from the Arrowfield Stud draft at the 2018 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, Castelvecchio has impressed Litt from "day one", which saw him contest a Randwick barrier trial last September.

However, it was visiting British jockey Tom Marquand who Litt credited for suggesting Castelvecchio should wear blinkers after riding him in his return barrier trial at Warwick Farm in January.

"We brought him back after a nice spell. He trialed and ran fifth in it but it was a nice trial. Tom Marquand got off him and said, 'Richard, you've got a nice horse here' and I said, 'OK, thank you'," Litt, 29, recalled yesterday.

"He said throw a set of blinkers on him and you won't see which way he went. I thought 'whatever' but Tom was right.

"We put the blinkers on and away he went."

He added: "He is a highly-strung horse, put it that way, very much like his father (Dundeel) and his father High Chaparral. He has that hot blood in him, which keeps him naturally fit, and he is very easy to do most things with."

Litt could extend Castelvecchio's two-year-old season beyond the colt's "grand final", the Sires', and run him in the ATC Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick on April 20.

However, Litt was also mindful that there were spring goals in mind for the son of Dundeel (High Chaparral), including the Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) should he prove up to the class.

"There are no huge ambitions. We are just taking each day as it comes and the Champagne is there if we want to (press on). He is going to have a great three-year-old career," he said.

Sunlight up to T J challenge

Tony McEvoy is confident three-time Group 1 winner Sunlight (Zoustar) can rise to her biggest test so far after the three-year-old galloped at Randwick yesterday morning ahead of her outing in Saturday's TJ Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). "She's run in the Magic Millions, she's run in the Golden Slipper and they're high-pressure contests and she's handled herself very well in those and I expect her to do the same here," McEvoy said. "I saw her pull up and she had a nice healthy glow and looked like she needed the gallop, which she does, and she's in good order. She's really tough, she loves her role and knows exactly what's needed."

International stage awaits Santa

Foreign excursions await Santa Ana Lane (Lope De Vega) after the Anthony Freedman-trained six-year-old lines up in the TJ Smith at the weekend, for which he is a $7 chance. "Santa Ana Lane is confirmed on a flight to Hong Kong to run in the same race as Chautauqua won (Chairman's Sprint Prize) and pending some quarantine issues in the UK at the moment, he's then likely to head over to Royal Ascot," Sam Freedman, assistant trainer to his father, told Racing.com. "He'd likely head to the 1200-metre (Golden Jubilee) race on the final day. A stiff 1200 (metres) on a rising track would definitely suit him."

Redzel set to bounce back in T J

In other TJ Smith news, Kerrin McEvoy is confident Redzel (Snitzel) had legitimate excuses for his last-start defeat in The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) and is predicting the dual winner of The Everest (1200m) to bounce back to form from barrier five on Saturday. "This has always been his main aim and you can't forget that," McEvoy told Racing NSW. "For me, you just put a line through his last start. We got a bad bump at the 600 metres and it cost us momentum - he got unbalanced and that's always hard when you're in a handicap with a big weight. It's all about trying to obtain the best position and making the most of your luck. I know if I can ride him how I want he'll be very hard to beat."

Kluger has a motor: Berry

Tommy Berry has issued a positive bulletin on the Tomokazu Takano-trained Kluger (King Kamehameha), who is a $21 shot for Saturday's Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m), having ridden the Group 2 winner in a 1400-metre gallop at Canterbury yesterday morning. "He surprised me because I've watched a lot of his trackwork videos and he's looked sluggish and laid-back but his work was very sharp," Berry told Racing.com. "He got to the top of the straight, changed legs and attacked the line well late. I was very pleased to see that. He's a beautiful type, carries himself quite well and he'll acquit himself well. I don't think it's the strongest Doncaster so he's the right horse for the job."

Payne chases jockey-trainer Doncaster double

The opposition to Kluger includes March Stakes (Listed, 1400m) winner Widgee Turf (Turffontein), who is out to provide Patrick Payne with a memorable jockey-trainer double in the Doncaster, with Payne having ridden the 1992 winner Soho Square (Jugah). Widgee Turf will be partnered by Billy Egan and the pair will break from barrier 17. "He's in really good order and it's just the right timing for him," Payne said. "He's got enough weight to get into the field but low enough to look well weighted under the handicap conditions. He loves soft ground so if he's ever going to win a good race, this will be it. Billy knows him really well - he'll hopefully give him a conservative ride and produce him at the right time."

Pike hoping to repay Lane

Tony Pike will honour a longstanding promise when he legs Damian Lane up on Surely Sacred (Rock 'N' Pop) in the Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) earlier on Saturday's Randwick card. "Damian rode Sacred Elixir for me in Melbourne a few years ago and won a couple on him, but he didn't get to ride him in the Victoria Derby as we had Zac Purton booked for that," Pike said. "I told him I'd give him a Derby ride one day and he'll have his chance on Surely Sacred on Saturday." Surely Sacred finished fourth in the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) and Pike added: "He had to make a long-sustained run and the way the track was playing he almost got there too soon. He was off the bridle the last bit and just ground away."

Chapada remains Derby favourite

The Mike Moroney-trained Chapada (Bullet Train) remains the $5 favourite for the Australian Derby although his stable companion, Arrogant (Ocean Park), has drifted to $8 after the former proved more impressive in a course gallop yesterday. "Arrogant didn't have his blinkers on and he's a pretty lazy colt, so I don't think I'll take too much out of the work, but certainly Chapada looked the best of the two," Moroney said. "We put earmuffs on him when he worked with Chapada here on Saturday morning and he was quite happy to lob alongside with him. We just thought he'd do the same today but, obviously out on the course proper, there was a bit too much to look at. It probably would have been better if we put the blinkers on and took the earmuffs off. I think."

Randwick D-day for Baker-Forsman stayers

Co-trainer Murray Baker has confirmed both Vin De Dance (Roc De Cambes) and Zacada (Zabeel), who finished second-last and last respectively in the N E Manion Quality Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at Rosehill, will line-up in the Chairman's Quality (Gr 2, 2600m) at Randwick on Saturday with a view to testing their credentials for the Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) the following weekend. "Vin De Dance got caught three-wide the other day over 2400 metres," Baker said. "You just can't do that in that sort of competition. He dropped out and he pulled a bit because he was three-wide in the clear, which is not like him. Zacada just never got into it. He couldn't cop the track, which surprised us a bit because he has shown form on wet, loose tracks before, but he has just got to take his chance."

Blood tests clear Noble Boy of issue

Trainer Todd Blowes has issued Country Championships Final (1400m) favourite Noble Boy (Bon Hoffa) with a clean bill of health following a disappointing gallop yesterday morning. Blowes told stewards the four-year-old was unusually keen in work, but subsequent blood tests returned clear and he will take his place in the $500,000 contest at Randwick on Saturday. Noble Boy won a wildcard contest at Muswellbrook on March 24 and the $3 favourite will be ridden by Hugh Bowman at the weekend.

Nichols opts for claim on Avalon

Hareeba Stakes (Listed, 1200m) winner Streets Of Avalon (Magnus) will return to handicap company at Caulfield on Saturday rather than contesting the Anniversary Vase (Listed, 1400m) on the same card. "After the Hareeba his rating went up to 101. The 1400-metre Listed race is no claim and he's got 59 kilograms there, while he's got 60 kilograms in the sprint, but we can take three (kilograms) off with Michael Poy, so we'll run in the sprint," trainer Shane Nichols told Racing.com yesterday. "In the two weeks since the Hareeba he's been outstanding. You wouldn't know he's had two runs in the space of seven days. He's sound and in good shape and his work was good this morning."

Blinkers back on Coterie

Gerald Ryan will put the blinkers back on Coterie (Your Song) when the three-year-old tries to atone for his Canberra Guineas (Listed, 1400m) flop in the Australian Turf Club Handicap (1300m) at Kensington today. "He positioned up well and had a good run but as soon as he went under pressure he was gone," Ryan told Racing NSW. "Nothing came out of it - he scoped clean and his blood was good. It was one of those things I can't put my finger on. I went there chock full of confidence and he went awful. We put blinkers on him first-up then I took them off and put wipers on him for his next two starts. After he did nothing the other day I thought I'd put the blinkers back on. On his best form he would go close."

Harrison out to continue streak with Biddy

Doug Harrison will try to continue the recent success of Tasmanian horses on the mainland when My Biddy (Wordsmith) makes her stable debut at Sandown this afternoon. My Biddy runs in the Spicer Thoroughbreds Handicap (1200m) and came to Harrison's stable on the recommendation of Tasmanian trainer Gary White. "I think he was having trouble with riders over there and he's sent her over here hoping she can measure up to some handy mares' races," Harrison said. "She's been with us about a fortnight. She's had a couple of gallops and appears to move along nicely. She's a nice, good sized mare, she's a good doer and seems to have settled in quite well."

Queensland apprentices in bid to win title

Queensland are closing in on their first National Apprentices Challenge as the competition moves to the fifth and final heat at Sandown today. Queensland lead on 18 points, one in front of South Australia and three ahead of Victoria after four heats. The series was first run in 2008 and since then South Australia have won it five times, Victoria twice, West Australia twice and NSW once.

Starspangledbanner filly catches eye

The Leon and Troy Corstens-trained Heka Express (Starspangledbanner) made virtually all of the running when scoring a taking debut win in the Evergreen Turf 2YO Maiden Plate (1000m) at Bendigo on Tuesday. Ridden by Jake Noonan,

Heka Express broke smartly from barrier five and travelled professionally through the mid-part of the contest before kicking clear in the closing stages to get the better of the Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Yulong Ready (More Than Ready) by a length and a quarter, with a further length back to Salina (Redoute's Choice) in third. "If you can begin well and put yourself in these two-year-old races, it's a big advantage," Noonan told Racing.com. "She was pretty strong when I asked her to give a kick and she was strong on the line."

Vale John McNair

Group 1-winning trainer John McNair, who was best-known for star sprinter Hay List (Statue Of Liberty), has died after a short illness. His wife Sue and extended family issued a statement saying McNair had been diagnosed with pancreatic cancer four weeks ago. "John lived a wonderful and colourful life doing what he loved," the statement said. "From humble beginnings as a backyard owner-trainer in WA to Group 1 success from his base at Somersby in NSW, John enjoyed the highs and lows of racing but was forever grateful for the many great friends he met along the way, be they owners, jockeys, trainers, stable staff, administrators, raceday staff and volunteers or the racing public and punters." Hay List won 15 of his 28 starts and was the main rival of unbeaten champion Black Caviar (Bel Esprit).

Collen Thurston suspended

Gilgandra trainer Collen Thurston has been suspended for three months by Racing NSW stewards after a horse he prepared, Sugar Lane (Intergaze), returned a positive swab. An inquiry was opened after Sugar Lane, who had won a Benchmark 66 Handicap (1300m) at Gilgandra on January 6, returned a positive sample of Dexamethasone. At a hearing conducted on March 27, Thurston pleaded guilty to the charge and was suspended for three months from that date, which expires on June 27.

Lunn fined $5,000

Trainer Gerry Lunn has been fined $5,000 and Bemboka (Big Brown) disqualified from his victory in the Giving Back To The Bush Handicap (2100m) at Tamworth on January 4 after the four-year-old tested positive for Altrenogest, the active ingredient in a number of registered prescription animal remedies used to regulate the cyclic activity of fillies and mares, in a post-race urine sample.

Syndicators fined over horse share rule breaches

The directors of two syndication companies have been fined by Racing NSW for breaches of the rules relating to the advertising of shares in horses earlier this year. Darby Racing managing director Scott Darby was fined $1000 ($500 suspended) after pleading guilty to sending out an email to clients offering shares in two horses without the permission of Racing NSW. Fellow syndicator Sterling Cincotta of 2K Thoroughbreds was fined $1000 in a separate case after pleading guilty to advertising shares in horses on his business's website without being issued with an Australian Financial Services Licence during January and February this year.

Brisbane Racing Club chief to stand down

The Brisbane Racing Club's (BRC) chief executive David Whimpey has announced he will step down after more than five years in the role. Whimpey said he had achieved the goals he sought, including unlocking a Strategic Plan, and he now wanted to spend more time with his young family and to seek new opportunities. He will finish his role on June 30 and the BRC expects to recruit Australia-wide to fill his position. "Over the last five years, the BRC has dealt with serious challenges around the redevelopment of the Eagle Farm racecourse, which required strong leadership to ensure the club preserved all jobs and met revenue targets despite the absence of our leading track," BRC chairman Neville Bell said.

Brisbane plans for Big Mike

Useful stayer Big Mike (Don Eduardo) impressed his trainers with a 1200-metre barrier trial victory at Avondale yesterday ahead of a campaign that is likely to include another trip across the Tasman. Trained by Craig and Shaun Phelan, the gelding landed the Pakenham Cup (Listed, 2500m) in December and is likely to contest the Easter Handicap (Gr 2, 1600m) at Ellerslie on April 20 before a trip to Brisbane is considered. "We were very impressed with him," Shaun Phelan said. "We didn't realise how forward he was as we haven't done that much galloping with him this time in. He might go to Queensland for the Brisbane Cup depending on how he comes up. We learnt a lot from his last campaign in Australia. The Kiwi horses are obviously up to it and he thrived on the trip."

Baker has high hopes for juvenile pair

Murray Baker and Andrew Forsman remain excited about the future prospects of talented two-year-olds Aretha (Charm Spirit) and Holy Mongolempere (More Than Ready), despite neither of the juveniles managing to snare Saturday's Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Awapuni. Aretha finished runner-up in the two-year-old feature, while Holy Mongolempere ran home late to finish eighth. "She's a good filly, Aretha," Baker said. "Her four starts have all been in Group races and she has won or placed in them all. Holy Mongolempere is very green. He lost his way a bit on Saturday unfortunately. He stretched out a bit in the last 200 metres when he got going. He's just more of a three-year-old, but we had to have a crack as it was a Group 1. Next season he will certainly be a horse to follow."

Jockey Johnson on comeback trail

Awapuni jockey Tim Johnson is keen to resume his riding career having not been in action since the Wellington Cup (Gr 3, 3200m) meeting at Trentham in January. Johnson ended his apprenticeship last October and continued to kick home winners with his total standing at 74, 12 of which have come this season. However, a short holiday in Rarotonga was enough to recharge the jockey's batteries. "I was finding it tough constantly needing to waste to ride at 54.5 kilos week in and week out so I needed a break," he said. "It was wearing me down, but just having the week in Rarotonga has got me focused again. I just need to work on my weight a bit. I put a bit on during the break and I just want to lose it the right way so it will be easier to manage."

Stunning out to Beat The Clock in Cup

Old foes Mr Stunning (Exceed And Excel) and Beat The Clock (Hinchinbrook) are set to renew rivalry in the Sprint Cup (Gr 2, 1200m) at Sha Tin on Sunday. Little has separated Hong Kong's two highest-rated sprinters over the past 12 months, with the score standing at two apiece. Champion jockey Zac Purton will have the race-ride on Mr Stunning for the first time at the weekend and he feels his mount could be tactically advantaged by the six-runner field. "Beat The Clock, historically, has raced back in the field and has had more ground to make up in races with a larger number of horses, so I think the smaller field will probably play into Mr Stunning's hands a little bit," he said.

First for Cable Bay

Cable Bay WOODSIDE PARK STUD

Woodside Park shuttler Cable Bay (Invincible Spirit) was provided with his first winner from his very first runner when Electric Ladyland (2 f ex Conversational by Thousand Words) won in impressive fashion at Lingfield yesterday. Trained by Archie Watson and ridden by Luke Morris, the colt made virtually all to land the Ladbrokes Novice Median Auction Stakes (5f), beating Birkenhead (Captain Gerrard) by two lengths with a further length and a half back to Heer We Go Again (Heeraat) in third. Cable Bay stands at Highclere Stud for a fee of £6,500 and shuttles to Woodside Park Stud in Victoria, where he covered 119 mares in 2018.

First for Brazen Beau

Darley shuttler Brazen Beau (I Am Invincible) was provided with his first northern hemisphere winner when Proper Beau (2 c ex Olivia Grace by Pivotal) took out the Watch Racing TV Now Novice Stakes (5f) at Musselburgh yesterday. The Bryan Smart-trained juvenile showed a determined attitude under Graham Lee to score cosily by a neck, with runner-up Alminoer (Kodiac) seven lengths clear of War Of Clans (Ivawood) in third. Brazen Beau is currently standing at Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket for a fee of £7,000 and his first southern hemisphere crop includes the stakes winner Accession.

Neck injury sidelines Deep Impact

Shadai Stallion Station has confirmed that Japan's leading sire Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) will be out of action for the remainder of the 2019 covering season after suffering from neck pain. A stud spokesperson said: "Deep Impact has a pain in his neck during his daily exercise, but it is not life-threatening. We will protect him for the rest of the season to prevent his injury from becoming worse. The number of foals to be born next year is expected to be around 20. From now on, we will try to improve his physical condition for next year's breeding season." Vegas Showgirl (Al Akbar), the dam of Winx (Street Cry), was confirmed in foal to Deep Impact last October.

BHA appoint new chair

The British Horseracing Authority (BHA) has looked outside the sport for its new chair with former Olympian Annamarie Phelps appointed as permanent successor to Steve Harman, it was revealed yesterday. Phelps, 52, comes to the job with a depth of experience in the world of sports regulation, including five years as chair of British Rowing until she stepped down in 2018. She was also elected as vice-chair of the British Olympic Association in 2017 and was vice-chair of the British Paralympic Association. Phelps will join the BHA to start her new role on June 1.

BLOODSTOCK NEWS

Eurozone heads south to Bellereve Stud

Tim Rowe

@anz_news

Eurozone

NEWGATE

Eurozone (Northern Meteor) will relocate from the Hunter Valley to Bellereve Stud near Canberra in 2019 as he enters his sixth year at stud.

Canberra businessman Chris Burke, a racehorse owner and breeder, has negotiated a deal for the stakes-winning stallion to move to southern NSW after starting his career at Newgate Farm.

With his oldest progeny rising four-year-olds, Eurozone is the sire of 16 individual winners, including stakes winners Krone and Saturday's Bendigo Guineas (Listed, 1400m) winner Mystery Love, a three-year-old filly who is unbeaten in three starts for trainer Mick Price.

Burke told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday that he comprised a syndicate to buy Eurozone and reached an agreement with Bellereve Stud to stand the rising nine-year-old on their behalf, where he will stand alongside Shaft (Flying Spur).

"We have taken the chance," Burke said. "We did a bit of research at the start of the year and with the unfortunate passing of (Koorngal Stud's) Zariz there was a bit of a gap down here for a bread-and-butter sire."

"We are not going to compete at the yearling sales with the big guys or anything like that, but we just want an option for breeders down here to get some runners to the races."

Burke added: "We brokered the deal a couple of months ago, but a few things had to go under the bridge before we were able to release it.

"It has all worked out perfectly because if we had have released it earlier we wouldn't have had two stakes winners in two weeks (to help build momentum)."

Unbeaten in two starts as a two-year-old, Eurozone also won twice at stakes level as a three-year-old, winning The Rosebud (Listed, 1200m) and the Stan Fox Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m). He was also twice Group 1-placed, finishing runner-up in the 2014 C F Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and third in the Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) behind his former Newgate Farm barnmate Dissident (Sebring).

Shareholders in Eurozone will retain their lifetime breeding rights in the son of Northern Meteor (Encosta De Lago).

Eurozone is the second sire to depart the Newgate Farm stallion roster for the 2019 breeding season after a deal was brokered for Foxwedge (Fastnet Rock) to relocate to Woodside Park Stud in Victoria.

Bellereve Stud and Burke are yet to announce a service fee for Eurozone, but his acquisition comes soon after fellow southern NSW operation Koorngal Stud announced Prized Icon (More Than Ready) would be standing his first season at the Wagga Wagga property.

Cootamundra's Twin Hills Stud is entering its third year of operation under the ownership of Olly and Amber Tait where Smart Missile (Fastnet Rock) and Odyssey Moon (Snitzel) already stand.

Savabeel leads the way for New Zealand sires

Champion sire Savabeel (Zabeel) was the most popular New Zealand stallion in 2018, with the Waikato Stud-based sire covering 182 mares, 43 more than his nearest rival.

Savabeel, who is on track for his fifth consecutive New Zealand leading sire title this season, was the busiest of the 89 registered stallions, figures released by the NZ Stud Book showed.

His tally of 182 mares was up on the 167 mares he covered in 2017, while his barnmate Tivaci (High Chaparral), whose oldest progeny are weanlings, came in fifth by covering 125 mares.

Cambridge Stud's European shuttler Almanzor (Wootton Bassett) was also well received in his first southern hemisphere season, covering 139 mares, while its Group 1-producing stallion Tavistock (Montjeu) was also one of 18 stallions to cover 100 mares or more last year.

He covered a book of 118, while his Westbury Stud-based Group 1-winning sire son Tarzino was the third most popular stallion in 2018, covering 133 mares. Shamexpress (O'Reilly) (130 mares) was well supported following a successful first crop of two and three-year-olds.

Unproven stallions Turn Me Loose (Iffraaj), Telperion (Street Cry) and Preferment (Zabeel) covered 123, 122 and 121 mares respectively, while Iffraaj (Zafonic) covered 119.

Cambridge Stud chief executive Henry Plumptre was delighted with the way breeders got behind Almanzor last year and said the stallion's presence during on-farm inspections had caught the eye of mare owners.

"They acknowledge stallions like this and make a go of it," Plumptre said.

"I think they were lucky with Almanzor in that the interest was there before he arrived, but once he arrived and they could see what he looked like, that is when he became such a popular stallion because he is such a good-looking horse."

WAIKATO STUD

Asked about Almanzor's barnmate Tavistock, Plumptre admitted the stallion was going through a bit of a lull with his progeny's racecourse success, but is confident the best was still to come from the son of Montjeu (Sadler's Wells).

"A lot of breeders bred to Tavistock year on year. He has gone from NZ$8,000 to NZ$15,000 to NZ$20-odd thousand and now up to NZ$65,000," he said.

"He has got a lot of winners and everyone has stuck with him but it was inevitable that he was going to have a bit of a relapse at some stage and that was last year.

"The thing we know about all of these stallions is that they need to perform year on year. He has had a quiet year in Australia but we are very confident that he has the stock out there, particularly in Melbourne and Sydney, and that he is going to kick again.

"He is getting to the middle of his career, so a book between 120 and 140 mares is around about his figure."

Vivlos

DUBAI TURF CLUB

God bless Vivlos. Not only for her fine racing career, which yielded two Group 1 wins for the daughter of Deep Impact, but more so for her three Group 1 seconds, which provide us with a plausible measure of the best in the world.

Vivlos was, of course, retired after last Saturday's one and a quarter-length second to Almond Eye in the Dubai Turf; that followed a three-length second to Beauty Generation in the Hong Kong Mile and a similar margin second to Benbatl in last year's Dubai Turf.

This, of course, all now makes Winx's plenty-in-hand two lengths win over Benbatl in last year's Cox Plate read a whole lot better than the nay-sayers wanted to have us believe at the time.

The question now is which of our three lauded turf performers - Winx, Almond Eye and Beauty Generation - will further accelerate up the ratings? Obviously Almond Eye is the most likely given that she is the least exposed and being aimed at the perennially high-rating Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe.

But what if plans were to change for Winx and Beauty Generation, both of whom we will see this month? What if Winx was not to be retired after her April 13 Queen Elizabeth appointment? What if Beauty Generation was to head to the Yasuda Kinen or Royal Ascot after his Champions Mile engagement on April 28 - or even stretch to the 2040 metres of the Cox Plate later in the year?

I'm not sure there's yet been a definitive announcement on retirement for Winx. They've come this far it would kind of make sense to go on - other than if there's a commitment or overwhelming desire to have her mated next spring.

She's racing as well as ever. No matter what anyone in Sydney might say, the Queen Elizabeth at Randwick is simply not as grand a stage as Moonee Valley's Cox

Plate on which to take your final bow.

The romantic in me would like to have seen Winx retired after last year's Cox Plate or to have embarked on a one-race international adventure this year. That said, I have no great issue with the decision of connections to race on in Sydney this autumn but her 2019 wins, thus far, have done nothing to add to her reputation, her rating, her legend or her mystique.

I wonder, just wonder whether she might go on to Royal Ascot? Who knows? That wouldn't rule out a 2019 mating Continued on page 14 >>

<< Continued from page 13 and the owners were well feted there last year - as they've been in so many places around the world (including Dubai last week) - and thus far, extraordinarily, sans horse each time.

Could a clash with Almond Eye somewhere in England be shorter than one million to one? Then, in Winx's retirement or exile, what is the possibility of Beauty Generation tackling a Cox Plate?

He's already got nothing left to prove in Hong Kong and trainer John Moore, who faces compulsory Hong Kong retirement next year, has an unfulfilled ambition to train a major-race winner in Australia. Furthermore, running in the Cox Plate would not prevent him from competing back in Hong Kong at the International Races meeting in December.

So that's it - Winx to race on and tackle Almond Eye in England and Beauty Generation to strut his stuff in Japan, England and/or Australia. Done!

Then I woke up.

Historic treble for Appleby and Buick

Trainer Charlie Appleby and jockey William Buick were not the first to have claimed a treble on World Cup night last Saturday but they did become the first to win three of the four turf races on the programme.

Jerry Bailey (1997) and Frankie Dettori (2003) are the only jockeys to have previously ridden three winners on the DWC card but their trebles did not include one race on the turf. Trainer Saeed bin Suroor can boast five trebles at the meeting but each featured at least one dirt or Tapeta victory.

Appleby and Buick's winners - Blue Point, Cross Counter and Old Persian - will return to England and it will be interesting to see how they fare given the World Cup night form is historically mixed at best.

The counter to that reservation may be that Appleby is still a relatively new trainer who, aside from his obvious talent, has shown himself a master at travelling horses, and Cross Counter is expected to follow the path of last year's

Charlie Appleby

RACING POST

Dubai Gold Cup winner Vazirabad to the Gold Cup. Vazirabad beat all but the UK's best stayer Stradivarius in last year's Royal Ascot feature.

The world's attention will now be focused, of course, on that one other turf track winner from Saturday night as Dubai Turf heroine Almond Eye heads to Europe. For the record, only one previous Dubai Turf (first run 1996) winner has ever contested the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe - that was compatriot Just A Way, who was beaten five lengths into eighth place behind Treve in 2014.

Vendor Profile

Jim Carey - stud manager Coolmore Australia

How do you feel your 2019 draft compares to your 2018 draft?

Just like last year, we offer an extremely high-class draft of yearlings with cosmopolitan pedigrees and the looks to match. We are represented by a broad cross-section of leading proven sires and the best up-and-coming sire prospects in the country. Our draft comprises the progeny of, or siblings to, no less than 11 Group 1 winners, including Lankan Rupee (Redoute's Choice), Miracles Of Life (Not A Single Doubt), Dear Demi (Dehere), Unforgotten (Fastnet Rock), Catchy (Fastnet Rock), Pear Tart (Dehere), Mighty Boss (Not A Single Doubt), Zagalia (Zabeel), Albany Reunion (Fastnet Rock), Anabandana (Anabaa) and Age Of Fire (Fastnet Rock).

Since 1996, there have been 56 Group 1-winning graduates of the farm, including seven in 2018 alone. The raising of top-class racehorses is of fundamental importance in the context of Coolmore Australia's operations and, as always, buyers can expect an impeccably-presented draft at Inglis Easter in 2019.

Of your colts which is / are your standout / standouts?

We offer some outstanding colts from the first crops of Vancouver (Medaglia d'Oro), Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) and No Nay Never (Scat Daddy), all of whom are sires with great credentials that have already been well sought after at the sales this year. Easter is traditionally the place where breeders showcase the best of the best, and it is no different for us this year when it comes to the five Pride Of Dubai, three Vancouver and three No Nay Never colts that we have on offer.

Of your fillies which is / are your standout / standouts?

A few years ago at Easter we sold a Pierro (Lonhro) filly, later named Pinot, who went on to win the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m). This year we offer

Lot 355 Pierro
- Allez France filly

three outstanding Pierro fillies, out of Allez France (Hennessy, Lot 355), Cats Whisker (Fusaichi Pegasus, Lot 398) and Pickin' Time (Fastnet Rock, Lot, 179) and it wouldn't surprise if any of the three were to follow in Pinot's footsteps. Pierro is proving himself to be an elite, yet versatile, sire with stakes winners from 1000 metres to 2500 metres. Already this season he has produced top-class two-year-olds, three-year-olds and four-year-olds, as evidenced by the likes of Bellevue Hill, Arcadia Queen and Pierata amongst others.

How do you think the sale statistics will compare to the 2018 renewal?

Inglis Easter is situated in the middle of day one and day two of The Championships at Randwick and two weeks after the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m). The sale is conducted at a very exciting time in the Australian racing calendar and, as always, the quality of horses on offer is second-to-none. Inglis work unbelievably hard to attract a large international presence to the sale and we look forward to showcasing our product to them. We have no reason to be anything other than extremely optimistic ahead of the sale.

Who do you think will be the leading sire at the sale?

Fastnet Rock (Danehill) is sure to be popular once again given that he continues to be the most potent source of Group 1 winners in Australasia. His southern hemisphere crops have yielded 109 Stakes winners, with a phenomenal 28 at Group 1 level. As such, he converts more than 25 per cent of his stakes winners into Group 1 winners, which is a phenomenal statistic only true of the world's most elite sires. He is one of the greatest sires of the modern era and has enjoyed another stellar run on the track through the deeds of Merchant Navy, Shoals, Unforgotten, Comin' Through, Avantage and Catchy. We offer ten incredibly well-credentialed yearlings by him at Easter, including the progeny of, or siblings to, the likes of Lankan Rupee, Pear Tart, Age Of Fire, Rezoned (Zabeel), Sacred Eye (High Chaparral), Delta Girl (General Nediym) and more.

For anyone visiting Sydney for the first time, which restaurant would you recommend and what should they order?

There is no better place that Catalina's at Rose Bay for lunch on a sunny afternoon.

Waller's Ellelegant filly boasts a Verry interesting page

les@bloodstockmedia.com

Verry Ellelegant

SPORTPIX

Lifelong study of thoroughbred pedigrees long ago convinced me of the benefits of linebreeding, not only to great stallions but also to influential mares, a feature found often in the backgrounds of outstanding fillies and mares.

Last Saturday's impressive Vinery Stud Stakes (registered as Storm Queen Stakes) (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Verry Ellelegant (Zed) is a classic example as she is linebred to a range of famous sires but, perhaps most significantly, to no fewer than four mares who will be highlighted later in this article.

Lightly-framed Verry Ellelegant advanced her claims for the upcoming ATC Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) on Saturday by defeating ATC Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) acceptor Frankely Awesome (Frankel) by a length and three-quarters, with VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Aristia (Lonhro) another two and a quarter lengths further away in third place on the heavy Rosehill track.

Verry Ellelegant was having only her tenth start for her fifth win, a fine record for a filly who has been something of a work in progress, often overracing and exhibiting an unusually high head carriage. Trainer Chris Waller now seems to have solved most of her problems with gear adjustments, removing her nose roll but adding ear muffs last Saturday.

Beginning her racing career in New Zealand last winter, Verry Ellelegant was bred across the Tasman by J.D. Goodwin. After winning at Matamata in mid-September she was sold for an undisclosed price to a large syndicate of owners. Verry Ellelegant was subsequently transferred to Darren Weir in Victoria to chase Melbourne spring contests for three-year-old fillies.

It proved a profitable move as after a first-up third in the Edward Manifold Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m), she beat Aristia in the Ethereal Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) before finishing unplaced in the Wakeful Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) and in the VRC Oaks.

Verry Ellelegant then transferred to the Waller stable after Darren Weir's disqualification and resumed in the Vanity Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) when third behind Amphitrite (Sebring) before capturing the Phar Lap Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) at her second start for her new trainer.

The filly has a powerful pedigree on both sides but most would consider it unfashionable from a commercial viewpoint.

Verry Ellelegant follows Survived as the second Group 1 winner for her superbly-bred sire Zed (Zabeel), who was also represented last Saturday by Awapuni Cup (Gr 2, 2000m) winner Jackstar, previously a winner of the Manawatu Cup (Gr 3, 2300m) and the New Zealand St. Leger (Listed, 2500m).

Zed, a winner in New Zealand of a 1600-metre maiden in only four career starts, stands at the Corcoran family's Grangewilliam Stud at Wanganui, where his 2018 fee was advertised at NZ $4,000 (+GST).

With a total of ten stakes winners to his credit from limited early opportunities with better-class mares, this son of Zabeel (Sir Tristram) is living up to his pedigree as a sire, with his dam Emerald Dream (Danehill) also a Group 1 winner and a member of the illustrious family introduced to New Zealand by his fourth dam Eight Carat (Pieces of Eight).

Eight Carat's daughter Cotehele House (My Swanee) is the third dam of both Zed and Verry Elleegant's mother Opulence (Danroad), a winner of two races in New Zealand at 2000 metres and 2100 metres.

Opulence has bred two other useful New Zealand winners - Verry Flash (Zed), a brother to Verry Elleegant, and Black Lace (Towkay). Still to come for her are the unraced two-year-old gelding Grand Prospect (Haradasun) and another brother to Verry Elleegant born last spring.

Inbred to Danehill (Danzig) 3f x 3m, Verry Elleegant has a pedigree which improves dramatically when you note that her unraced third dam

Chalet Girl (Imposing) is a half-sister to the very successful sire brothers Danewin (Danehill) and Commands (Danehill).

Chalet Girl is herself from Cotehele House, an unraced half-sister to an array of stars including Octagonal (Zabeel), Diamond Lover (Sticks and Stones), Tristalove (Sir Tristram), Marquise (Gold and Ivory), Kaapstad (Sir Tristram) and Mouawad (Zabeel).

Other feature winners from this branch of the family include stallion brothers Shooting To Win (Northern Meteor) and Deep Field (Northern Meteor), Luna Rossa (Written Tycoon), Taimana (Woodman), Impaler (Dracula) and Jonker (Spirit of Boom).

As mentioned in the introduction, Verry Elleegant is linebred to four mares, Cotehele House and three others of greater international presence in Special (Forli), Natalma (Northern Dancer) and Flower Bowl (Alibhai).

She also carries four crosses of Northern Dancer (Nearctic) in her fifth generation plus multiples of stallions such as Hail To Reason (Turn-to), Petition (Fair Trial) and Crafty Admiral (Fighting Fox) further back.

7.15 Yan On Handicap (Class 5) (3yo+) (All Weather Track) (Dirt) Winner £39,369.37

£99069.07 guaranteed For 3yo+ Levante's Handicap Mark 39 Penalty value 1st £39,369.37 2nd £15,195.20 3rd £7,942.94 4th £4,144.14 5th £2,417.42

Table of race results for 7.15 Yan On Handicap, listing horses like Levante, Open House, Lotus Breeze, and others with their respective jockeys and odds.

BETTING FORECAST: 9-4 Enjoyable Success, 3 Lotus Breeze, 6 Levante, 8 Lucky Win Win, 10 Striking Mr C, 12 Jimson The Famous, 14 Rookie Star, 16 Mi Blanco, 25 Master Bernini, Open House, 33 Lucky Coin, Romantic Journey, 50 Keep Winning VERDICT Enjoyable Success is an obvious contender after some creditable recent efforts, while a good case can also be made for class-dropper Lotus Breeze. However, another class-dropper, LEVANTE, shaped very much as though today's trip might suit when a staying-on third ten days ago and gets the nod.

7.45 Sun Tin Wai Handicap (Class 5) (3yo+) (All Weather Track) (Dirt) Winner £39,369.37

£99069.07 guaranteed For 3yo+ Guerdon Helmet's Handicap Mark 39 Penalty value 1st £39,369.37 2nd £15,195.20 3rd £7,942.94 4th £4,144.14 5th £2,417.42

Table of race results for 7.45 Sun Tin Wai Handicap, listing horses like Guerdon Helmet, Massive Move, Travel Successor, and others with their respective jockeys and odds.

Table of race results for 8.00-09 Rockage, 8582-30 Rochford, 098-052 Hidden Spirit, 07-2445 Sunny Orient, 7-00548 The Happy Bunch, 2761-44 M Reborn, and 778-316 Richcity Fortune.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Corre Rapido, 3 Rochford, 11-2 Sunny Orient, 8 Hidden Spirit, 10 Run Moochi, 14 The Happy Bunch, 16 Massive Move, Rockage, Travel Successor, 25 Guerdon Helmet, Winning Circle, 33 Dragon Regiment. VERDICT Like so many races in Hong Kong, this may be fought out by Zac Purton and Joao Moreira. Slight preference is for CORRE RAPIDO, who won in good style from a wide draw over C&D last month and has a much better draw in stall 2 today. Main danger ROCHFORD is berthed on his inside, though, and has been placed twice off similar marks over C&D this season.

8.15 Hin Yiu Handicap (Class 3) (3yo+) (All Weather Track) (Dirt) Winner £78,738.74

£138138.14 guaranteed For 3yo+ Encore Boy's Handicap Mark 80 Penalty value 1st £78,738.74 2nd £30,390.39 3rd £15,885.89 4th £8,288.29 5th £4,834.83

Table of race results for 8.15 Hin Yiu Handicap, listing horses like Encore Boy, Harbour Alert, Team Fortune, Lucky Time, Winning Supreme, Just Not Listening, Coby Oppa, Complacency, and Home Run I.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-4 Coby Oppa, 4 Team Fortune, 7 Encore Boy, Winning Supreme, 8 Just Not Listening, 14 Lucky Time, 16 Home Run I, 33 Harbour Alert. VERDICT Team Fortune suggested he might be ready to capitalise on some help from the handicapper when second over C&D last month but it's hard to oppose lightly raced 3yo COBY OPPA, who was a very comfortable C&D winner on his dirt debut in February and is now back on this surface after a very creditable turf run last month.

8.45 Mei Tin Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (All Weather Track) (Dirt) Winner £52,492.49

£92092.09 guaranteed For 3yo+ Gentle Breeze's Handicap Mark 58 Penalty value 1st £52,492.49 2nd £20,260.26 3rd £10,590.59 4th £5,525.53 5th £3,223.22

Table of race results for 8.45 Mei Tin Handicap, listing horses like Gentle Breeze, Viva Council, and Hearts Keeper.

Table of race results for 0 Takingufurther, 074-570 Happy Happy Star, 13959-0 Kirov, 6077-06 Let's Come Back, 0-32337 Red Horse, 50500 Coolceleb, 660380 Harbour Century, 00-4842 Very Sweet Orange, 0985-46 Fame and Fortune, R13 Big Power, and R14 Regency Gem.

BETTING FORECAST: 11-4 Red Horse, 5 Kirov, Very Sweet Orange, 7 Happy Happy Star, 10 Fame and Fortune, Hearts Keeper, 12 Gentle Breeze, Viva Council, 14 Harbour Century, 16 Let's Come Back, 33 Takingufurther, 40 Coolceleb. VERDICT Red Horse has been placed four times on turf this year, while the booking of Zac Purton suggests KIROV is expected to return to form. However, the suggestion is HAPPY HAPPY STAR, who was well beaten after blasting off in front over 1m on his latest outing but ought to be seen to much better over today's trip and has slipped to an attractive mark. Very Sweet Orange may also feature.

9.15 Sha Kok Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (All Weather Track) (Dirt) Winner £52,492.49

£92092.09 guaranteed For 3yo+ Travel First's Handicap Mark 60 Penalty value 1st £52,492.49 2nd £20,260.26 3rd £10,590.59 4th £5,525.53 5th £3,223.22

Table of race results for 9.15 Sha Kok Handicap, listing horses like Travel First, Remarkable, Enfolding, Gallant Spirit, Tennessee Boss, Friends of Nanjing, General Dino, Great Joy, Association Fans, Deal Maker, and Whampoos Star.

BETTING FORECAST: 2 Remarkable, 7-2 Deal Maker, 7 Travel First, 8 General Dino, 10 Tennessee Boss, 12 Great Joy, 14 Gallant Spirit, 16 Enfolding, 20 Association Fans, Whampoos Star, 25 Friends Of Nanjing. VERDICT A reproduction of his best 2018 form would make GENERAL DINO hard to beat from a better draw than he's had of late. The consistent Deal Maker is best of the rest.

9.45 Mei Tin Handicap (Class 4) (3yo+) (All Weather Track) (Dirt) SKY

VERDICT The return to 6f and a low draw can give NICE FANDANGO the edge for an in-form stable. Grand Harbour caught the eye last time and is also considered.

BETTING FORECAST: Evens Winner Supreme, 5 Joyful Moments, 6 Simply Big, 8 Blitzing, Endearing, 14 Nuclear Power, 20 Relentless Me, 25 Baby, Happy Victory, 33 Bear Again.
VERDICT A good gallop looks likely here with both Blitzing and Simply Big making all in their most recent starts however this looks a good opening for WINNER SUPREME to add to his already impressive Hong Kong strike rate after a dominant performance over C&D last month. Joyful Moments may pick up the pieces if the pace is to frantic.

BETTING FORECAST: 9-4 Ping Hai Treasure, 7 Volpino, 8 Right Honourable, 9 Vincny, 10 Good Fit, 12 General Sherman, Namjong Plus, 14 Red Elysees, Sarri, Willie Way, 16 Dragon Commander, 20 Grand Chancellor, 33 Bear Slam, 50 King Print.

VERDICT Lightly raced Volpino made up plenty of ground to finish a respectable fourth last time out and looks set to appreciate today's extra furlong but the vote goes to dirt debutant PING HAI TREASURE who has been progressing nicely with each start and has every chance to record his first Hong Kong success. Three-time winner this season Good Fit is thriving at present and has to be respected.
