Jazcom digging for Gold in Melbourne

Inglis draft headlined by progeny of in-form sires Dundee, Rubick and Toronado

By Tim Rowe

Timing can be everything when it comes to selling bloodstock and that is sure to be evident when selling starts at tomorrow's revamped Inglis Melbourne Gold Yearling Sale, an auction that is no longer restricted to Victorian-sired horses.

What is deemed 'commercial' today might not be tomorrow, let alone when the next sales series rolls around, and Colin Branthwaite of NSW operation Jazcom Thoroughbreds is certainly aware of that. However, the experienced industry professional, himself a former trainer, believes he has 'peaked' his draft for the April Victorian sale.

The Melbourne Gold catalogue comprises 261 lots and Jazcom Thoroughbreds is consigning a draft of 12 yearlings, a number whose profile and appeal has received a valuable boost in recent months through the deeds of their respective sires or the racetrack performances of their siblings.

Branthwaite told ANZ Bloodstock News he has been a beneficiary of Inglis electing to open the catalogue up to horses ineligible for the Victorian Vobis scheme, as well as the rebrand of the sale as the Melbourne Gold auction.

The move allowed Branthwaite to enter yearlings by the likes of Dundee (High Chaparral), Rubick (Encosta De Lago) and So You Think (High Chaparral) to supplement his Victorian-sired lots by the likes of Toronado (High Chaparral) and Turffontein (Johannesburg).

Colin Branthwaite JAZCOM THOROUGHBREDS

"We have had a bit of luck there with the two Rubicks and the two Toronados who have had good horses come through recently," he said.

"When they changed it from Super Vobis to just the Melbourne Gold it was my idea to put a few BOBS horses in there and that has worked out OK."

Dundee's 2019 service fee has more than doubled on the back of his brilliant season, highlighted by ATC Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Castelveccio and two international juvenile Group 1 winners, and The Oaks-based operation is offering a filly by the young Arrowfield Stud stallion.

Catalogued as Lot 70, the filly is the fifth foal out of the unraced mare My Holidayze (Pins), making her a half-sister to a winner in Nanita (Not A Single Doubt), while My Holidayze is a daughter of the Group 3-placed Holidayze (Flying Spur).

Morning Briefing Birchley keen to Havasay

Trainer Liam Birchley believes Havasay (Rothsay) is racing a lot better than his form suggests and hopes the six-year-old can cause an upset in today's Victory Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Eagle Farm. Havasay returned from a spell with another eighth behind From Within (Not A Single Doubt) in a 1000 metre race at Eagle Farm two weeks ago. "I know it doesn't look it but his rating out of that race was just off his effort in the Ramornie. I have to be happy with that," Birchley said. "He only got beaten three lengths in the Magic Millions race and while I am not saying he would have won he was one of a few who didn't have much luck. There is no doubt his best distance is 1200 metres as six of his seven wins have been at that trip." Morning Briefing page 4

<< Continued from page 1 Branthwaite is also offering two fillies by Coolmore's Rubick, who sired his tenth individual first crop winner at Ipswich on Wednesday and is also responsible for high-priced stallion prospect Yes Yes Yes, who won the Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) last month.

So You Think also sired Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Nakeeta Jane this autumn and the Coolmore-based stallion has one colt in the Melbourne Gold Sale tomorrow.

He is the fifth foal out of the winning mare Money Tree (Fastnet Rock), who is a blood sister to Comin' Through, Bull Point, Siege Of Quebec and Upon This Rock.

Siege Of Quebec ran third in last week's All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) behind Aquis Farm-bound stallion Pierata (Pierro). He is catalogued as Lot 68.

"He is a big, strong laidback colt who has a lot of Fastnet Rock in him," Branthwaite said.

"He is a very loose-walking colt."

Jazcom also has two fillies by Swettenham Stud shuttler Toronado in its draft and the champion European miler is represented by Prince Of Sussex, who is favourite for today's inaugural $1 million The Showdown (1200m) at Caulfield.

The second of the Toronado fillies to go through for Jazcom, Lot 90, is a half-sister to Charretera (Epaulette), who won at Randwick on Thursday.

Branthwaite also earmarked a Turffontein (Johannesburg) colt, who is catalogued as Lot 44, as a horse who was likely to find favour with the market being by the same sire as Singapore's star three-year-old Bold Thruster.

"I'd say he is as nice a colt as I have seen on the grounds. He is a real two-year-old running type and is very strong and forward," he said.

"He has been very well found by the buyers."

Victoria's premier stallion Written Tycoon (Iglesia) has a colt and a filly set to be offered tomorrow, while Zoustar (Northern Meteor), who will stand for $154,000 (inc GST) this year, has a colt being consigned by Flinders Park Stud.

Exceed And Excel (Danahill), who had two seven-figure yearlings - including a $1.7 million colt - sell at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale earlier this month, also has a colt set for sale from the draft of Sun Stud.

<< Continued from page 2 Inglis Victorian bloodstock manager Simon Vivian said on Friday that there had been a number of potential buyers at Oaklands Junction on Thursday with more arriving yesterday to conduct inspections.

"I would say there was at least 25 to 30 trainers (on Anzac Day) and today we have noticed that there are a number of interstate trainers and agents here," Vivian said.

"Adam Trinder, for example, is here from Tassie and he has worked diligently. It is great to see so many trainers here, which clearly demonstrates that there is still a market out there for these sorts of horses."

Branthwaite also believes the level of interest in the past two days during inspections at the Oaklands Junction complex has him feeling confident of there being strong competition for his draft of yearlings.

"There are plenty of people around and the interest has been very good. The horses basically haven't been in their boxes. It has been quite busy," he said.

"I definitely think we are going to do well. Having the only Dundee in the sale and the only two Rubicks in the sale has helped."

Vivian says the Melbourne Gold Sale plays an important role in vendors being able to sell young stock later in the sales series.

Past Melbourne Gold Sale graduates include Group 1-winning sprinter Malaguerra (Magnus) and the Group 2-winning, Group 1-placed John McArdle-trained mare I'll Have A Bit (Smart Missile).

Malaguerra was purchased by Bruno Micalizzi and Bluegrass Bloodstock at the 2013 sale for $32,000, while I'll Have A Bit was a $48,000 purchase for Redgum Racing.

"We know that it is a conservative sale and that it is a buyers' market but, without being silly, I would say the vendors are here to sell their horses and it is going to get people," Vivian said.

"We conducted a number of lunches and dinners around country Victoria and on every occasion we met with fabulous support from country trainers who want to come to the sale."

"The uptake with the help for travel and accommodation (subsidies to buyers) has been high, so we are going into the sale with a positive spring in our step."

The one-day sale, which includes a supplementary session of 20 lots, starts at 10am tomorrow.

Fiery Heights will appreciate drier track

Fiery Heights (Hidden Dragon), who is a $41 shot with the TAB for the Victory Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), will be suited by the return to a sounder surface according to trainer Barry Lockwood. A nine-time winner, including the Falvelon Quality (Listed, 1110m) at Doomben in December, Fiery Heights has finished fifth in Group 3 company on his last two outings, both of which were run on deep ground. "He handles soft tracks but they were something else and were genuine heavy surfaces," Lockwood said. "He led both races but eventually got bogged down and fought on well. I would expect him to be much better suited on a much better track at Eagle Farm."

Gunsynd to determine Gem's target

Earlier on the Eagle Farm Card, the Kris Lees-trained Gem Song (Your Song), who was last seen finishing fourth in the South Pacific Classic (Listed, 1400m), will run in the Gunsynd Classic (Gr 3, 1600m) with a view to mapping out his campaign moving forward. "In his first up run in the Darby Munro he got back on a heavy track and ran fifth then it was a good run when he ran fourth in the South Pacific Classic," Lees said. "He had a big weight that day and he was well back and caught wide early on. He's possibly best suited to 1600 metres, but if he shows he wants to stay we'll push on to the Derby, otherwise it'll be the Stradbroke."

Brilliant Mind on Derby path

In other Gunsynd news, Gary Moore is excited about stepping Brilliant Mind (So You Think) into stakes company for the first time when he lines-up in the $140,000 contest. The three-year-old has won one of his eight starts thus far, while he could subsequently press on to the Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m), run at the same venue on June 8, for his next start. "He has taken a while to get there but he is starting to show us what he can do," Moore said. "Brilliant Mind might have trouble beating a horse like Gem Song at set weights over 1600 metres at this stage, but he is well and I am looking forward to Saturday."

Oh Five Glory's campaign to become clearer

Peter Hulbert has issued a confident bulletin on Magic Millions Classic (RL, 1200m) fifth Oh Five Glory (Unencumbered) ahead of her outing in the Dalrello Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Eagle Farm today, with the trainer eyeing Group 1 contests further down the line. "We have the BRC Sires and J J Atkins Stakes in mind for her but we are realistic," Hulbert said. "But she did very well during a spell and while she hasn't had a trial, she thrashed a field in an 840-metre jump-out at Doomben. You can say that about a lot of horses and you don't really know until you let their heads go in a race, but on that gallop and looking at her effort in the Magic Millions I reckon we will give them something to think about on Saturday."

Shinn tasked with Le Juge ride

Sydney jockey Blake Shinn has several key rides in feature races at Eagle Farm but may be under the most pressure in the Open Handicap (1800m) when he partners the Chris Waller-trained Le Juge (Dansili). Shinn replaces the suspended Robbie Fradd, who has an exceptional strike-rate on Le Juge with five wins and two thirds from seven starts, earning $166,000 in prize-money. Waller's Gold Coast stable manager Paul Shailer said Le Juge was typical of horses who found their right level in Queensland. "He has been so consistent and Robbie does have the key to him," Shailer said. "But I think Blake will suit him as he is a patient rider and that is the key to Le Juge."

Big spring plans for Kylease

Joe Pride is predicting a bright future for Hawkesbury Guineas (Gr 3, 1400m) favourite Kylease (Choisir) as the three-year-old aims to extend her winning streak to four before stepping up in class. Kylease has won her last three outings in handicap company and is a $2.70 chance to make a successful transition to stakes level today, while Pride has compared her favourably with a fellow daughter of Choisir (Danehill Dancer) in Sacred Choice, whom he trained to win the 2010 Myer Classic (Gr

1, 1600m) and the 2011 Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m). "Of course we don't know if she's going to be as good as her but she reminds me of Sacred Choice in terms of her toughness and resilience," Pride said. "We have some pretty big plans for her in the spring so hopefully she gets the job done on Saturday."

Three-year-old in Guineas Zone

Military Zone (Epaulette), who won the Gosford Guineas (Listed, 1200m) in December, will use today's Hawkesbury Guineas - for which he is the $4 second-favourite - as a litmus test for his claims of seeing out the 1400-metre trip. "If he runs a strong 1400 metres it will open up a lot more doors," co-trainer Paul Snowden told Racing NSW. "He didn't used to relax so well and that's why he is ridden further back than normal to try and get him to switch off. At 1400 metres it's a completely different ball game - we just want to get a nice run in midfield and he should be fine. There's always improvement, he's a quality horse and he goes very well."

Lees has Sixties in right Groove

European import Sixties Groove (Sixties Icon), who won three of his eight starts for the now-disqualified Darren Weir, will make his debut for Kris Lees in the Hawkesbury Gold Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) this afternoon having last been seen running tenth of 11 in the Lexus Stakes (registered as the Hotham Handicap) (Gr 3, 2500m) at Flemington in November. "Sixties Groove is a nice horse and I'm happy with how he is going," Lees said this morning. "No doubt he will take improvement from the race, but I'm expecting him to run well all the same."

Sartorial Splendor cleared for Showdown

The John Sadler-trained Sartorial Splendor (Brazen Beau), the second favourite for today's inaugural The Showdown (1200m) at Caulfield, has been cleared by Racing Victoria veterinarians to start in the $1 million race. Sadler reported that the two-year-old, who won his first start impressively at Terang, had an injury scare at the trainer's Caulfield stables on Monday but he said the inspection was only as a precaution. "On Monday afternoon when we came back to the stable, he had just overstepped, but I was never really worried about him taking his place," Sadler told Racing.com. "It will have no bearing on how he runs and I certainly wouldn't run him at anything less than 100 per cent."

Corstens' pair also passed fit

The Leon and Troy Corstens-trained pair of Free Thrills (Unencumbered) and Heka Express (Starspangledbanner) were also passed fit for The Showdown yesterday after presenting with lameness in their near forelegs when inspected on Wednesday. Free Thrills is an $81 chance for the contest having finished tenth in handicap company last time out, while Heka Express can be backed at $41 following her fifth-place finish in the Dequetteville Stakes (Listed, 1050m) on April 13.

Sisstar ready for Showdown

Sisstar (Zoustar), the younger sister of three-time Group 1-winning stable companion Sunlight, has pleased Tony McEvoy ahead of her outing in The Showdown, where she will wear a combination of ear muffs and winkers for the first time as she bids to break her maiden at her fourth start. "She just did not need to be pushed for those earlier races and this allowed us to give her more time," McEvoy said. "I was really pleased with her last start in Adelaide and she has come on from that. She has improved and she has drawn ideally. She's ready to go so I think she will run a really competitive race."

TBV excited about inaugural Showdown

James O'Brien, president of Thoroughbred Breeders Victoria, has expressed his pleasure with the final line-up for the first running of The Showdown, a race restricted to the progeny of VOBIS-nominated sires. "I am delighted with how the VOBIS sires programme continues to go from strength to strength," O'Brien said. "It confirms the confidence the market has in our exceptional stallions and also showcases the very best of what we have to offer here in Victoria. There has continued to be new investment into the industry with new farms deciding to call Victoria home. With the quality, talent and rewards on offer – there is no better time to buy, own and race a Victorian-bred thoroughbred."

Trinder chasing another Melbourne win

Adam Trinder and Anthony Darmanin combined to land the inaugural running of the All-Star Mile (1600m) with Mystic Journey (Needs Further) at Flemington last month and the pair will be seeking more Melbourne success when they team-up with Twitchy Frank (Choisir) in the VOBIS Gold Distaff (1400m) at Caulfield today. "Adam is a pretty good judge and when he brings them over they are always competitive," Darmanin said. "So I'm pretty sure she's spot-on for Saturday and hopefully she can get the job done."

Fine Dane out to and Vobis cash

Also at Caulfield, John Moloney believes Incognitus Stakes (Listed, 1100m) third Fine Dane (Danerich) has what it takes to land the VOBIS Gold Dash (1100m). "It's his home track and it should be an advantage so let's hope he can run up to that form again," Moloney said. "It's a set-weights race and it's worth getting after and we gave him the freshen-up after his last run with the intention of aiming at this race. It's been five weeks between runs and the horse had a jump-out last week and he went well in that. We're pretty happy with his condition and the shape of him."

Sunlight second in trial

Star filly Sunlight (Zoustar) was beaten by Group-winning stablemate Cool Passion (Not A Single Doubt) in a Gawler barrier trial yesterday, with trainer Tony McEvoy yet to commit to a start in next week's TAB Classic (registered as Robert Sangster Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m). "It was pretty good," McEvoy said. "She was just having a maintenance bit of work and she cruised around quite nicely. I was pretty pleased with her. If she comes out of this well, she will go to the TAB Classic. I said to the ownership group we'll just trial her and then we'll see how she comes out of it and make a decision early next week. She had a good blow, a healthy blow, which is why we trialed her because she is such a good doer."

Two options for Cool Passion

The Morphettville Group 1 race, which is restricted to fillies and mares, could also be the target for Sunlight's stablemate Cool Passion. But trainer Tony McEvoy said the D C McKay Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) is a back-up option on the same day for the valuable mare. "We'll see what her owners want to do," McEvoy said. "But she went quite nicely this morning."

Nature Strip and Zousain win trials

James McDonald enjoyed a fruitful morning at Randwick's barrier trials yesterday when he partnered Nature Strip (Nicconi), a last-gasp winner of The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) at Rosehill last month, to victory in a 1045-metre heat ahead of his tilt at the Doomben 10,000 (Gr 1, 1200m) on May 11. McDonald also steered three-time Group 1 runner-up Zousain (Zoustar) to an easy success ahead of his crack at the Gold Coast Guineas (Gr 3, 1200m) on May 4. Click here to view the Randwick barrier trial replays.

Currie given more time for submissions

Toowoomba trainer Ben Currie has been granted an extension on the time in which he has to make final submissions on two charges which involve allegations of using a jigger. Currie's lawyers went to the Supreme Court in Brisbane on Thursday afternoon seeking a judicial review of a stewards direction in regards to an inquiry which started last week. Justice David Boddice made no formal order after the hearing, but the Queensland Racing Integrity Commission agreed to extend the time in which Currie's lawyers could make final submissions. The deadline has now been extended from 4pm yesterday to 4pm on Monday.

New Zealand

Pinmedown in Oaks audition

Group 2-winning filly Pinmedown (Pins) will be back in action at Te Rapa today when she contests the Maara Grange Rehabilitation And Fencing Premier (1600m). The Michael Moroney and Pam Gerard-trained filly is being set for a tilt at the Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) and resumes after her tenth placing in the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m). "She has had a freshen-up since the Oaks," Gerard said. "She had a week off and we just backed off her a little bit. We were originally going to go to Sydney, but the way that the weather was and the prospect of bumping into Verry Elleegant, we opted to give it a miss and save her for Brisbane." Pinmedown will use The Roses (Gr 2, 2000m) at Doomben on May 18 as a launch pad to the Queensland Oaks.

Cavallo Veloce extends campaign

Talented sprinter Cavallo Veloce (O'Reilly) will press on to the Cambridge Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Te Rapa today, despite trainer Peter McKay initially earmarking a spell for the colt. Cavallo Veloce chased home Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) runner-up Princess Kereru (Pins) and subsequent Easter Handicap (Gr 2, 1600m) winner Endless Drama (Lope De Vega) at his last start. "I was halfway thinking he'd done enough. He'd given us confidence that he could foot it with the best sprinters for next season," McKay said. "But when it's a Group race back against his own age group so close to home, we had to have a go."

Super Pursuit expected to improve

Richard Collett is hoping Super Pursuit (Proisir), who is a half-brother to last season's New Zealand Bloodstock filly of the year Dijon Bleu (Burgundy), will take improvement from his debut second at Pukekohe when he contests today's Cambridge Equine Hospital Premier 2YO (1200m) at Te Rapa. "He has drawn barrier eight on Saturday and as long as he clears the gates well and gets a good trip, he is capable of winning the race," Collett said. "If he is professional and does things a bit better than he did on debut, he has got to be well placed."

South Island sale on Monday

The South Island Sale will be held at the Canterbury Agricultural Park in Christchurch on Monday, with selling due to begin at 11am. All 61 lots are eligible to be nominated for the lucrative Karaka Million Series, while recent graduates of the sale include Shadows Cast (Per Incanto) - a winner of the Thorndon Mile (Gr 1, 1600m). A total of 17 vendors will be offering drafts at the sale this year with progeny from a range of 26 sires.

Asia

Viddora on the improve

Connections of Viddora (I Am Invincible) have issued an upbeat bulletin in regards to her likely participation in tomorrow's Chairman's Sprint Prize (Gr 1, 1200m) at Sha Tin. "Seventy-two hours ago we were on the canvas; yesterday, after being knocked down, we got up off the canvas and I reckon today we're looking pretty good to be honest," trainer Lloyd Kennewell said on Friday. "We're pretty close now. I'm pretty confident we're going to get there. She's gone from 20-80 to 50-50 to 70-30 yesterday, to 85-15 today. We've just got to make sure she pulls up well and gets through tomorrow (Saturday) when she has a vet check at 9.30am."

Pitman savours Enzo's Hong Kong experience

Riccarton trainer Michael Pitman is enjoying the build-up to Sha Tin on Sunday as dual Group 1-winning sprinter Enzo's Lad (Testa Rossa) prepares for the Chairman's Sprint Prize. Pitman, who prepares The Telegraph (Gr

Enzo's Lad

HKJC

1, 1200m) winner with son Matthew, was in good spirits as Enzo's Lad drew favourably in barrier two. "He's got a good temperament and I couldn't be happier," Pitman said. "Up here it is phenomenal what the Hong Kong Jockey Club do for horses, they get so well treated. His blood was perfect after two days of travelling. He's a dude, he's pretty laidback for a sprinter, he doesn't get worked up, he's push-button."

Short-term Singapore deal for Clark

The Singapore Turf Club has also granted South Australian apprentice jockey Raquel Clark a three-week licence between May 27 and June 17. Clark, 25, is the tenth Dux of the South Australian Apprentice Academy to be the beneficiary of a short riding experience at Kranji as part of an agreement between Thoroughbred Racing South Australia and the Singapore Turf Club. Clark was crowned Adelaide champion apprentice jockey last season and is currently sitting on top in both the Metropolitan (40 winners) and State jockey premierships (114 winners).

Ramsden a possible to relocate to Singapore

South African trainer Joey Ramsden is among a trio of new trainers who have been allocated stables by the Singapore Turf Club. Ramsden has been crowned Cape champion trainer four times and is most famous for the exploits of two-time South African horse of the year Variety Club (Var). Despite the news, Ramsden has not yet committed to a Singapore venture, posting on social media: "I have not signed anything or been given an official licence or working visa." Should he up sticks and move to Singapore, Ramsden will be joined by Jason Lim and former Victorian-based Tim Fitzsimmons as new names among the Kranki training ranks.

International

Three for Australia

Bangkok RACING POST

The Andrew Balding-trained Bangkok (3 c ex Tanaghum by Darshaan) continued on his steep upward curve to run out a decisive winner of the Classic Trial (Gr 3, 1m2f) at Sandown yesterday, providing Coolmore stallion Australia (Galileo) with his third stakes winner in the process. The colt enhanced his Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m4f) credentials with a length and quarter victory over Technician (Mastercraftsman), with a further half a length back to Persian Moon (Makfi) in third. Australia currently stands at Coolmore Stud in Ireland for a fee of €35,000 and Bangkok joins Beyond Reason and Broome as stakes winners for the stallion.

Derby bid likely for Bangkok

Following yesterday's impressive Group 3 victory, Balding confirmed that Bangkok is on a Derby path and will likely head straight to the mile and a half showpiece. "It was important for the long term that he learns to settle and switch off, obviously with going further it is imperative," the trainer said. "I'm glad he showed a nice turn of foot. I think we'll go straight to Epsom. We've got time to take in another trial if we want to, but I think it's very unlikely and we'll probably go straight there. Quite possibly we could go to Breakfast With The Stars. I'd have no issues about the track for him as he's a well-balanced horse."

Crystal Ocean lands second Gordon Richards

Earlier on the Sandown card, talented entire Crystal Ocean (5 h Sea the Stars - Crystal Star by Mark of Esteem) made a pleasing seasonal reappearance when recording his second Gordon Richards Stakes (Gr 3, 1m2f) victory in many years. Trained by Sir Michael Stoute, Crystal Ocean had too much class for his rivals and drew clear by two and a quarter lengths, with Knight To Behold (Sea The Stars) in second, himself three and a half lengths clear of Extra Elusive (Mastercraftsman) in third. The win brought up a 1-2 for Gilltown Stud sire Sea The Stars (Cape Cross), who currently stands for a fee of €135,000.

Bank Beats all in Mile

On a good day for Andrew Balding, Silvestre De Sousa and King Power Racing, Beat The Bank (5 g Paco Boy - Tiana by Diktat) showed a determined attitude to land the bet365 Mile (Gr 2, 1m) at Sandown. The gelding looked beaten as the field approached the final furlong but found plenty for pressure, seeing off the challenge of Sharja Bridge (Oasis Dream) by half a length, with Regal Reality (Intello) a further length adrift in third. Beat the Bank is one of 12 stakes winners for former Highclere Stud stallion Paco Boy (Desert Style), who was exported to Turkey in 2017.

Fourth stakes success for Inns Of Court

Inns Of Court (5 h Invincible Spirit - Learned Friend by Seeking The Gold) recorded the fourth stakes success of his career when supplementing a trio of Group 3 victories with a half-length win in the Prix Servanne (Listed, 1200m) at Maisons-Laffitte yesterday. Trained by Andre Fabre, the five-year-old - who was beaten a short-head in the Prix de la Foret (Gr 1, 1400m) at Longchamp in October - made a successful reappearance when fending off the challenge of City Light (Siyouni), with a further length and a quarter back to Sestilio Jet (French Fifteen) in third. Inns Of Court has now won six of 16 starts, with his four stakes successes coming over 1200 and 1400 metres.

Calyx ruled out of Guineas

Calyx RACING POST

Calyx (Kingman) has been ruled out of the 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) and will instead return to action in the Pavilion Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) at Ascot on Wednesday. The son of Kingman (Invincible Spirit), who was last seen winning the Coventry Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) in June, worked over seven and a half furlongs at Newmarket on Friday alongside regular lead horse First Eleven (Frankel) and finished three lengths clear at the line under Frankie Dettori. "Both John Gosden and Frankie felt that to go straight to the 2,000 Guineas after such a long layoff would be asking too much at this stage. Therefore he will not run at Newmarket on Saturday week," said Teddy Grimthorpe, racing manager to owner Prince Khalid Abdullah.

Mohaather Guineas bid in doubt

Mohaather (Showcasing), an impressive last-start winner of the Greenham Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Newbury, was found to be lame after yesterday's morning exercise, casting doubt over his participation in next weekend's 2,000 Guineas at Newmarket. The Marcus Tregoning-trained colt is as short as 7/1 in places for the first British Classic of the season and a decision is set to be made on Monday regarding his place in the Guineas line-up.

Liam's Map colt tops OBS

Strong trade at the Ocala Breeders' Sales Spring Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training continued on Thursday when a colt by Liam's Map (Unbridled's Song) was knocked down to Robert and Lawana Low from the draft of Wavertree Stables for US$1.2 million. Catalogued as Lot 898, the colt is a half-brother to a winner by Kitten's Joy (El Prado), while his second dam, Wonder Again (Silver Hawk), was a dual Grade 1 winner. This is also the family of Japanese champion two-year-old colt Grass Wonder (Silver Hawk). The result was a significant pinhooking success for Ron and Suzanne Fine having purchased the April-born colt at last year's Keeneland September Yearling Sale for US$50,000.

Into Mischief filly fetches US$750,000

There was a significant gap back to the second-highest priced lot of the session, but the figure realised was still a substantial one as US$750,000 was paid by Phoenix Thoroughbreds for an Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday) filly consigned by de Meric Sales, agent. Catalogued as Lot 787, the WinStar Farm-bred filly was bought by Nick de Meric for US$220,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale. Produced from the Unbridled's Song (Unbridled) mare Unbridled Ridge, the filly is a half sister to stakes-placed Divisor (Harlan's Holiday) and hails from the female family of three-time champion Gio Ponti (Tale Of The Cat).

Day three figures compare favourably with last year

OBS reported 160 horses grossed US$17,789,000 on Thursday, with an average price of US $111,180 and a US$62,000 median. Those figures were up 10 per cent, 23 per cent and 13 per cent respectively, from the total US$16,224,500 paid for 180 horses on day three last year, which averaged US$90,140 with a US$55,000 median. This year's third session buyback rate was 24 per cent, while it was 17 per cent last year. Read tomorrow's ANZ for the lowdown on the fourth and final session of the sale.

Fillies shine in South Africa

Fillies by Gimmethgreenlight (More Than Ready) and Twice Over (Observatory) were the two most expensive lots sold on the third and final day of the Emperors Palace National Yearling Sale in Johannesburg on Friday, when selling for R650,000 and R600,000 respectively. The session-topper by Gimmethgreenlight went the way of leading South African trainer Sean Tarry, who signed for Boland Stud's November-foaled filly on behalf of Antony Beck, president of Gainesway Farm in the US. The filly's dam Scarlet Grits (Parade Leader) is out of the Grade 3 winner Flaming Corn (Elliodor) and shares her third dam with South African Horse of the Year Irish Flame (Dynasty).

Language no barrier to fun week of build-up with international contenders

I could learn Japanese, I suppose, but it's more fun to interview trainers from that country in English and await their replies, usually via a translator.

That's been part of my lot again this week, conducting press conferences on behalf of the Hong Kong Jockey Club. I find most of the Japanese trainers to have a good sense of humour.

I'm convinced most of them clearly comprehend the questions in English and I suspect that many of them speak better English than they let on. It's a handy escape clause, I suppose, to avoid too many interviews. I think this is also why most Hong Kong trainers ride bicycles - as much to dodge the media as to facilitate access from point A to point B.

It reminds me of the old days at home when you had to call trainers on their land-line phone. Most clearly had a high premium on personal hygiene as they were invariably in the shower.

Yasutoshi Ikee played me on a break last year when I greeted him with some undoubtedly ill-pronounced Japanese. He returned the serve with French!

I recall asking another prominent Japanese trainer what was the thinking behind replacing his regular jockey with Joao Moreira. He looked at me, a touch condescendingly, and said: "The reason: I want to win."

The intriguing Yoshito Yahagi, who trains Sunday's QEII Cup contender Lys Gracieux, was the star of the show this week. He rocked up to Thursday's conference looking a little like a rock star (which I suspect he is in Japan). "Just come from the night club?," I asked. "No. Macau," he replied deadpan.

I was later told that this was almost certainly the truth and that Yahagi and his mates had done quite well playing baccarat.

There's not much issue with Yahagi-san's English. He told me he came to Australia for one year in 1981 and worked for Bart Cummings at Flemington, Neville Begg at Randwick and Jim Atkins at Toowoomba. He then furthered his training at the JRA Horse Racing School.

"It was a great time in Australia. My most unforgettable moment at that time was when Kingston Town had an impressive victory in the Cox Plate. I had many chances to see the horse while I was working there," he said.

His connection with Australia continued last year when he sent his apprentice Ryusei Sakai, now a current JRA jockey, to South Australia with Ryan Balfour.

Yahagi looks to have the most likely Japanese winner on Sunday given Lys Gracieux's excellent second to Exultant in the Hong Kong Vase last December, and her one subsequent effort when second to Danon Premium, who's won six of seven starts, in the G2 Kinko Sho on March 10.

Lys Gracieux

HKJC

"She had a nice, easy piece of work to stretch her legs this morning," Yahagi said yesterday.

She has settled in and there are no worries. The starting gate will be the key, so she schooled at the gate with the handler. Everything has gone as planned."

Yahagi says that having a barrier attendant with her in the starting gates will be a major plus for the Heart's Cry mare. This practice is not allowed in Japan.

The Mitsuru Hashida-trained Deirdre and Win Bright, prepared by Yoshihiro Hatakeyama, also represent Japan in the Cup. Deirdre is another to have established her international performance capacity in Dubai and Hong Kong and there's rarely much between her and Lys Gracieux.

Deirdre HKJC

Hatakeyama has not previously had a runner in Hong Kong but, with wonderful candour, he declared he's confident with Win Bright.

"Oh, not hopeful. We're confident," he said when asked to assess his horse's prospects. Australia has been identified as a likely target for Win Bright later in the season.

The horse who, of course, carries great expectations for Australia is the world's top-rated sprinter Santa Ana Lane. Trainer Anthony Freedman made a brief appearance at Sha Tin yesterday, at the ungodly hour when the horses who arrived from Australia were compelled to work.

While Anthony would have undoubtedly been one of those "trainers in the shower" had he been operating in the pre-mobile phone era, he's definitely not as grumpy as his nickname would suggest. And I suspect he might be "happy" after Sunday's Chairman's Sprint Prize. His horse might have a mortgage on that race other than if there is a muddling pace. Will Stewart, the man who regularly rides the horse, said he "feels super".

And ex-pat Australians John Moore and Zac Purton, of course, combine with the magnificent Beauty Generation, whose ability to run a 44-second 800-metre split at any stage of a mile race would make him hard to beat at that distance against any horse in the world. He is very much the one to beat in the Champions Mile.

Moore, incidentally, is believed to have bought the Alister Clark Stakes winner Global Exchange - yet another Australian three-year-old with a Derby-like profile exported to Hong Kong with the hope of winning their four-year-old Derby.

That's one whisper from Hong Kong I will vouch for. The other whisper which has been prominent this week centres on Chris Waller heading to Hong Kong. That I'm not so sure.

Siyouni filly smashes Doncaster record as Longways land £450,000 touch

By James Thomas of the Racing Post

@anz_news

Lot 112 Siyouni - Fig Roll filly

SARAH FARNSWORTH

They say that good things come in small packages, and that proved to be the case at the Goffs UK Breeze-Up Sale in Doncaster on Thursday as a diminutive daughter of Siyouni (Pivotal) smashed the auction record price when going the way of Anthony Stroud for £450,000.

That sale rewarded a bold pinhook by the Longways Stables team of Mick Murphy and his fiancée Sarah O'Connell, who bought the filly for £95,000 at last year's Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale.

"Shell shocked," were the only words Murphy could muster when first asked for his reaction. "I didn't see it coming. She's been very popular and is by a popular sire, and all the right people have been on her for the last two days. But I didn't see that coming."

Murphy might not have foreseen the filly's sale-topping price, but no one had missed her during the breeze, during which she clocked some blistering sectional times.

Daniel Creighton was among those to make an early play for the filly, but matters boiled down to a straight duel between Stroud - accompanied by Simon Crisford, who will now take charge of the youngster - and the underbidder who was concealed in the Blandford Bloodstock office.

"She's been bought for Sheikh Nasser Bin Hamad Al Khalifa," confirmed Stroud. "I liked the filly and Siyouni is a wonderful stallion, but now she needs to go out and run."

"We had a nice winner for Sheikh Nasser recently with El Gumryah. It's a lot of money, but let's hope it's worth it."

This is not the first occasion that the progeny of Siyouni have done the Longways team a good turn, as Jersey Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) winner Le Brivido ranks among the outfit's past graduates. The filly is the second foal out of Fig Roll, a daughter of Bahamian Bounty (Cadeaux Genereux) who won the 2013 Empress Stakes (Listed, 6f) for Richard Hannon. The dam is also out of a Listed-winning juvenile in Cake (Acclamation).

"We're massive fans of the sire," continued Murphy. "We've had Siyounis every year since his first crop and they've been very lucky for us. She looked very racy as a yearling, albeit she was small, but then she's from a small family; Fig Roll was small and so was the granddam Cake."

"At the time £95,000 looked a brave shout for her, and if she wasn't by Siyouni I probably wouldn't have done it. I thought she might double her money and a small bit more because all the good judges were on her - there was talk that she'd top the sale - but we did not see that coming."

The windfall will go a long way to funding some significant changes in the lives of Murphy and O'Connell, who have recently moved to a new property and are due to tie the knot in the coming months.

"We built a brand new yard last summer and we're getting married in July, so we've spent a lot of money recently," said Murphy. "We're just half a mile from the beach in Ardmore, County Waterford. This filly was actually at the beach last week."

Kingman colt reigns

As is the norm for this kind of sale, the upper end of the market proved in rude health and the second-top lot, a Kingman (Invincible Spirit) colt offered by Brendan Holland's Grove Stud, went the way of Richard Brown of Blandford Bloodstock for £230,000.

"He's come from a very good vendor, I've been trying to buy a horse off him for a while but it just hasn't really happened," said Brown. "He's a son of Kingman, who looks like being a very special stallion."

While breezing quickly can often lead to success in the ring, Brown said this colt's performance was one of potential rather than pure speed.

"He certainly wasn't the fastest in the breeze, I bought a couple earlier who were far faster, but they're bred for five furlongs," he said. "I think this is a mile and a quarter horse, but he showed enough speed at the end of his breeze to think that he's got gears. I think ten furlongs will be his game and his pedigree would certainly lead you to think that."

"This is the kind of horse we'll give plenty of time to; he'll be let down for a month now and be brought back with a view to running in the autumn and being one for the future. He's been bought for an existing client."

The colt, the second foal out of the Dalakhani (Darshaan) mare Amarillo Starlight, was signed for by McKeever Bloodstock at last year's Goffs UK Premier Sale at £62,000. He shares his page with the likes of Pilsudski (Polish Precedent) and Youmzain (Sinndar).

Malibu Moon rises

One of the mostly highly touted lots of the sale was the son of Malibu Moon (A.P Indy) offered by Tom Whitehead's Powerstown Stud, and the whispers proved well-founded when the colt was knocked down to Karl Burke for £220,000, equalling the top price at last year's sale.

"He's for Carl Waters," said Burke, who acquired his star filly Quiet Reflection (Showcasing) from the Powerstown draft at the 2015 Doncaster Breeze-Up. "He's had horses with me before and rang recently saying he would like some more.

"This is a lovely colt and Tom does them very well. This is a colt with tremendous resale value. Even if he wins a maiden, there's another market to him with the dirt element to his pedigree - having said that, he looked to go over the grass well yesterday."

The colt was bred by Three Chimneys Farm and is out of the Group 3-placed Contentious (Giant's Causeway), a granddaughter of the Phipps family's champion mare Inside Information (Private Account).

He is also a half-brother to the dam of Kessaar (Kodiac), who wasn't even on the page when Whitehead selected the colt at the Keeneland September Sale but went on to land the Sirenia Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) just days after the transaction before claiming the Mill Reef Stakes (Gr 2, 6f).

"He's a lovely colt and he vetted very well when we bought him over in Keeneland in September, and those ones are hard to buy," said Whitehead, who pinhooked the colt for US$50,000. "We were lucky that Kessaar came along and won the Mill Reef after we bought him.

"He's been straightforward the whole time and he's been very busy here, we've had loads of vets. Karl bought Quiet Reflection off me so hopefully this one will be as good."

Doyle collects son of Cable Bay

Action among this year's first-season sires is starting to hot up, with Ivawood (Zebedee) and Supplicant (Kyllachy) both supplying their first winners on Beverley's Thursday's card. Another who is already off the mark is Highclere Stud's Cable Bay, and the son of Invincible Spirit (Green Desert) enjoyed a good result in the Doncaster ring when Ross Doyle went to £200,000 for the colt offered by Willie Browne's Mocklershill.

"We thought he was the standout colt in the sale," said Doyle. "He did a very nice breeze, has a good action and showed a good attitude.

"Obviously he comes from an extremely good home, Willie has been in this business for a very long time and we've bought Group 1 winners from him at the breeze-up sales before - the likes of Ventura Storm and Emerald Commander. The stars aligned and the client was happy to push the boat out to buy a nice horse."

The colt, a £38,000 pinhook by JB Bloodstock, is out of the unraced Exceed And Excel (Danehill) mare Alzahra, who is from the

Easy going for Hardwood

It was rather all or nothing for pinhookers, but among those to enjoy a real touch was Michael Murray of Hardwood Stud, who supplied the session's first six-figure lot. Blandford Bloodstock's Richard Brown signed the docket for the £130,000 Acclamation (Royal Applause) colt, who had been pinhooked for a mere 4,500gns at Book 3 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale. Continued on page 14 >>

<< Continued from page 13 "He's always shown me ability all the way along," said a thrilled Murray. "I was never too hard on him, it was all raw talent. He showed that out on the track yesterday and I've had huge footfall since, so things just went my way.

"I'd had plenty of interest and plenty of people asking the right questions, so I knew he'd make fifty or sixty grand and anything after that I was happy with. I'm thrilled how far it kept going - he's a beautiful horse."

Murray prepares "five or six" breezers each year at Hardwood Stud, but brought just the solitary lot to Doncaster after the withdrawal of his Footsteps in the sand (Giant's Causeway) colt. Past graduates include the likes of Stone Of Destiny (Acclamation), Normandy Barriere (Rock Of Gibraltar) and Anticipated (Whipper).

"I had to withdraw the other horse I had here but this result definitely helps get over that setback," he said. "I'm based in Galway in the west of Ireland and I've been doing the breezers for about 15 years. They've been good to me, and I was informed today that I'm ten per cent stakes performers to horses I've sold, which is very high.

"I ride all the horses myself. I think they get a good grounding at my farm and they go on to be good horses."

The colt, who will now carry the colours of Sheikh Juma Dalmook Al Maktoum, is out of Tonle Sap, a Manduro (Monsun) half-sister to the prolific Dunelight (Desert Sun).

"He's very typical of the sire and did a very good breeze," said Brown. "I bought a good Acclamation off Michael at the Guineas Sale two years ago, Stone Of Destiny, who was fourth in last year's Commonwealth Cup. This colt also came highly recommended.

"Sheikh Juma will be in Newmarket for the Guineas, he'll have a look at all the horses then and decide where they'll go to be trained."

Final figures

Trade exhibited some notable peaks and troughs throughout the session, but by the time the final lot had exited the ring the sale could boast a record average.

In total, 130 two-year-olds were offered, down from 182 in 2018, with 111 selling for a clearance rate of 85 per cent.

Those transactions generated turnover of £5,078,250, down eight per cent with 27 fewer horses changing hands. The average stood at £45,750, up 14 per cent year-on-year, and the median also rose to £26,000.

"We came into today's sale confident we had a good catalogue following our decision to reduce the numbers and focus on quality, and to achieve a new record average and top price is very pleasing," said Goffs UK managing director Tony Williams.

"We have been well supported by our consignors who sent us a superb line-up of horses and demand from buyers from around the world meant we have been able to achieve some outstanding prices.

"Longways Stables' £450,000 Siyouni filly will stand out as a highlight for some time as not only being a new record for this sale, but the joint second-highest priced horse ever sold at Doncaster and the highest-priced Flat horse sold in the company's 57-year history."

Positive tactics get Howl back in winning form

By Michael Lee

@anz_news

A sudden return of the old gate speed from Howl (Showcasing) at his last barrier trial inspired trainer Daniel Meagher to change tactics for his latest outing on Friday evening – and to winning effect.

In moderate form of late, the Showcasing (Oasis Dream) five-year-old did show some toe early in his racing career, even making all to score his maiden win in December 2017.

He did not win again until ten months later, this time racing handy on the pace, but the rot had set in since.

Howl was putting in more howlers than screamers. Ridden further back, he struggled to make ground at the business end.

But at his barrier trial on April 18 he sprang the gates for Benny Woodworth, never to be rejoined thereafter. It was the blueprint Meagher needed to run him in the $50,000 Class 4 Division 3 race (1200m) yesterday.

Once Howl overcame his wide gate to take up the running rather easily, Woodworth allowed him to amble along at fairly soft splits before throwing out the anchors at the top of the straight.

The $46 chance held his ground with aplomb. Lim's Reform (O'Reilly) and favourite Splinter (Dream Ahead) did come wearing him down, but he held them safely at bay to score by a length and a half from Lim's Reform, with Splinter another half-length away in third. The winning time was 1.11.08 for the 1200 metres on the Polytrack.

"He's a horse with some ability – more the bread-and-butter type – but he's been a bit disappointing recently," said Meagher.

"We tried switching him by going forward in a trial and he repeated that trial form tonight. He's a one-paced type but it was a good result overall."

Howl

STC

Cementing his fourth spot on the Singapore jockey's premiership with 18 winners, Woodworth said Howl was never in doubt once he came across from his wide barrier.

"He did the same thing he did in his last trial – roll forward and keep going. He just brought his trial form to the races," said the in-form Malaysian rider.

"It's always easy when things work out well."

Racing in the new colours of owner Lee Wan How, Howl has now taken his race record to three wins and three seconds from 17 starts for prize-money that has now tipped over the S$100,000 mark.

Friday, 26 April

Note: Santa Ana Lane (Lope De Vega), Eminent (Frankel) and Enzo's Lad (Testa Rossa) worked at 3.30 am (before the local horses and other international horses) under quarantine protocols set for horses arriving from Australia.

Queen Elizabeth II Cup (Gr 1, 2000m)

Dark Dream (All American)

Trainer Frankie Lor said: "Dark Dream is a little bit one-paced, but he should run well, 2000 metres-plus will be no problem for him."

Deirdre (Harbinger)

Deirdre cantered on the all-weather track. Trainer Mitsuru Hashida said: "She felt good this morning and looks well indeed. She has kept her good form and has been the same as how she was in Dubai. She showed great acceleration towards the end of the gallop on Wednesday."

Deirdre HKJC

Exultant (Teofilo)

Jockey Zac Purton said: "Everyone keeps telling me (the tempo) is going to be strong but so far this season it hasn't been. Last time I rode him the tempo was meant to be strong but they pulled it up to a walk so I'm lucky in the respect that my horse is versatile. If they want to put on the brake and pull it up, well I'll just get out and take off. I know my bloke can stay, he's got a good set of lungs and I'll just do what I did last time. But if they want to go along at an even tempo I'll just bide my time."

Lys Gracieux HKJC

Furore (Pierro)

Trainer Frankie Lor said: "He has shown he has a very good turn-of-foot in the straight. He could show again that he is the best of my four-year-olds."

Glorious Forever (Archipenko)

Trainer Frankie Lor said: "I think this horse is better if he can lead in front by himself, he should be much better. This time I have drawn seven so we will see if he can lead in front. I think it depends where the jockeys jump and whether he can jump fast. I can say he still has a little bit to improve."

Lys Gracieux (Heart's Cry)

Lys Gracieux jogged for a half lap and cantered easily for a lap over the all-weather track.

Trainer Yoshito Yahagi said: "She had a nice, easy piece of work to stretch her legs this morning. She has settled in and there are no worries. The starting gate will be the key, so she schooled at the gate with the handler. Everything has gone as planned. I'm not concerned about the rain-affected track, but I will be grateful if there is no rain on Sunday. Her conformation looks well and she is in good form."

Waikuku (Harbour Watch)

Jockey Joao Moreira said: "He was definitely very unlucky his last two starts in regards to barrier draws, this time we are four gates towards the inside (gate eight) which is a plus. It's not the ideal barrier, but we'll deal with it the best we can. The condition of the horse is pretty good, he's in good form, I'm very happy with the way he has been doing things. I think this will be his last run for the season I guess and then he'll have well-deserved time off because in my opinion he has done very well in his first preparation. If the rain comes I don't think it will affect him too much, he will still be able to perform at his best on the softer ground."

Win Bright (Stay Gold)

Win Bright cantered easily for a lap on the all-weather track.

Trainer Yoshihiro Hatakeyama said: "He was too fresh this morning, which proved he is in good form. He has done a similar routine to what he would have done at home, so all has gone smoothly. We got the luck of draw (gate one) but I have heard that too much rain might affect the rail and that is my only concern."

Win Bright HKJC

Champions Mile (Gr 1, 1600m)

Beauty Generation (Road To Rock)

Jockey Zac Purton said: "This weekend I'm pretty comfortable going into this race, they're all horses we've raced against all season, we know where they're at and what they're capable of. It should just be another formality for him. But the pressure builds and expectation grows. I was only out for dinner last night and as soon as I walked into the restaurant I had three waiters come running up to me straight away saying they're going to be here on the weekend to cheer him on - they want to come and support him. So, from that regard, it's great for racing in Hong Kong and great for racing around the world; there are a lot of people now following him and rightly so, he deserves it."

The Chairman's Sprint Prize (Gr 1, 1200m)

Beat The Clock (Hinchinbrook)

Jockey Joao Moreira said: "His last race was pretty good, unfortunately things didn't go to plan, it was a very tricky race because it was slowly run the first half of the race and we finished off very strong. I was extremely happy with his performance, I think he's a better horse than what he has been in the past and I would point him as one of my best rides in the three Group 1's. He's been giving them a hard task every time he goes out there. He's been consistent and I couldn't be happier with him. We are running in our home yard, which I think makes a huge difference."

Mr Stunning (Exceed And Excel)

Mr Stunning didn't exercise this morning due to a sore foot. Trainer Frankie Lor said: "He's come out of that last race good. The only thing is that we found a little foot problem this morning so the farrier will take a look at his feet, but the farrier said he looks much better so we will see this afternoon. He didn't come out this morning because he will come out and walk out this afternoon."

Nac Venus (Daiwa Major)

Nac Venus jogged for 200 metres and cantered for one and a half-length laps over the all-weather track. Work rider Hirokimi Tamogi said: "She galloped the day before yesterday and was walking in the machine yesterday, so she was very fresh this morning. She felt really good. She moved flexibly and sharply. She will stretch her legs on the all-weather tomorrow morning."

Pingwu Spark (Mastercraftsman)

Galoped on the all-weather track with Derek Leung. Jockey Derek Leung said: "Hope he can keep his form. Back to 1200m in a good race is always tough for him and he needs to show improvement, but 1200m seems a bit easier than a mile, he just needs the tempo and he will run quite an honest race again. He's been in a good spot and had his chance every run, he's been running ok, but he just didn't accelerate like last season, but I'm sure if the tempo is good he will run in the prize money."

Rattan (Savabeel)

Trainer Richard Gibson said: "We're under no illusions it's a tough race, I think horses do develop with age and racing experience and these kiwi horses are quite late maturing horses and we've also got to develop with the race programme that we've got in front of us. We took our chance against Beauty Generation and weren't good enough so we've just tried to keep it smart and adapt accordingly. He's quite a unique horse, he requires very little exercise, he keeps himself in fantastic condition, he's a very good horse running fresh and first up and we've been very proud the way we've continued to improve this horse."

Santa Ana Lane (Lope De Vega)

Galoped 400 metres on the turf track and clocked 25.7. Regular track rider Will Stewart said: "He went super this morning. He only quickened up the last 200 metres to blow the cobwebs out. Couldn't be happier with him."

Viddora (I Am Invincible)

Cantered on the turf track under big-race jockey Joe Bowditch. Trainer Lloyd Kennewell said: "The big thing for me is each day we have leapt forward and made progress, if she didn't make progress yesterday we were in big trouble, she made significant progress overnight with a lot of work gone into her with (Paddy Bell) who is travelling with her - a lot of icing, natural therapies we can use here and it's worked, we're lucky we have time on our side and I'm quietly confident we'll pass the vet check."

"She has to go there (UK) no matter what due to quarantine restrictions, she'll head off on Wednesday to England and be set for the King's Stand all depending on how she goes Sunday."

BETTING FORECAST: 4-7 Ghaiyyath, 4 Waldgeist, 8 Soleil Marin, Study Of Man, 12 Intellogent.

VERDICT This should go to GHAIIYATH, who is belatedly getting his first crack at a Group 1 and won the d'Harcourt with authority three weeks ago. It may be the runner-up that day Soleil Marin follows him home again, with that ones stablemate Waldgeist having something to prove over this trip on reappearance. The other pair have a bit to find. [Mark Brown]

VERDICT A good quality renewal with race conditions suiting CAPRI, who can make a winning seasonal return for the second year running. His biggest threat could well come from stablemate Southern France, whose progressive profile last season suggests he will be a greater force this campaign in the staying division.
