Classique Legend bound for The Everest

Bon Ho and Carmel Size secure GPI Racing's slot for the $14 million sprint in unprecedented deal

Classique Legend

SPORTPIX

By Lewis Lesbirel and Tim Rowe

Exciting three-year-old Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt) will target The Everest (1200m) in October after his Hong Kong-based owner Bon Ho and Carmel Size Racing purchased the GPI Racing-owned slot for the $14 million sprint.

Ho, who races the progressive Arrowfield 3YO Sprint (registered as Royal Sovereign Stakes) (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Classique Legend for trainer Les Bridge, reached an agreement with Greg and Barb Ingham to buy their slot for the third running of the Randwick event later this year.

Auction house Inglis was charged with handling the expression of interest process on behalf of the Inghams after they placed their $600,000-a-year Everest slot on the market - the first of the 12 parties who backed the concept to do so.

The move will also ensure the son of Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) remains in Australia, at least for the spring, as opposed to continuing his career in Hong Kong, like the Ho-owned subsequent Group 1-placegetter Southern Legend (Not A Single Doubt) did following the spring of his four-year-old season.

Winx crowned champion for fourth consecutive time

By Chris Humpleby

Winx (Street Cry) retained her title as champion racehorse for the fourth consecutive year when more than 300 industry leaders, clients and supporters attended the Hunter Thoroughbred Breeders' Association annual awards in Scone yesterday, which are held to recognise the best performances from Hunter Valley-bred horses across the course of the season.

The now-retired wondermare was awarded the accolade having stretched her winning streak to 33 when bringing the curtain down on her glorious career with a third success in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick last month.

Her former stable companion The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice), who proved unbeaten in five runs since September 22 - including victories in the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), the Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) - was awarded the title of champion three-year-old colt prior to him standing his first season at Arrowfield Stud this year.

Industry News page 10

"We're not kidding ourselves, the horse has to progress to top company, but we wouldn't be doing it if we didn't have any faith in the horse. We firmly believe that he has the ability to make that progression.

"How wonderful is it that we've been able to purchase a slot and we are now in control of our own destiny? I'm not going to disappoint anyone if the horse doesn't come up. We won't be disappointed ourselves, we've been in horseracing a long time.

"If it doesn't work out, then it's not a disaster - we have a slot and we can find a horse to run for it. He's a really good horse but he's got to go and do it."

Purchased by Size for an auction-topping $400,000 during the Gold Riband session of the 2017 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, Classique Legend has been carefully managed by connections, winning three of his four starts in a maiden campaign that culminated in his emphatic Arrowfield 3YO Sprint victory last month.

"It wouldn't have mattered if he was $500,000 - I was always going to buy him," Size said.

"I can't explain to you what I look for in a horse - there's a connection with them that I have to have and I know that sounds like a girly thing to say, but I had a very strong connection with this horse and I was always going to have him. He's a special horse, he really is.

"He ran third in the Darby Munro but that was unlucky, he was the victim of circumstances. It was a very heavy track and he is unlucky not to be the winner of four out of four, but that's racing."

Regarding the decision to target The Everest with the rising four-year-old, Size continued: "The Golden Eagle was on our radar, but I had so much ground interest in the horse from different slot holders that I had to start thinking about The Everest.

"The Everest is for tough, seasoned horses, but when people were coming to me and saying 'would you consider negotiating with us' - and it wasn't just one offer it was several offers - that's when I thought we need to think about this.

"The decision to aim Classique Legend at The Everest later this year should be seen as a vote of confidence in the Australian racing industry, with special acknowledgment to Racing NSW who have developed the initiative.

Carmel Size and Les Bridge

SPORTPIX

"Mr Bon Ho is a devotee of racing and as much as he would love to see his horse winning in Hong Kong, he is relishing the challenge of tackling the best in The Everest."

Ho, an accountant by trade who was educated in England, currently has 23 horses that are either in training, in the paddock or being broken in, while Size, who went to a personal high of $1,050,000 to secure a Not A Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice) colt for the Hong Kong-based owner at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale last month, manages both his racing and bloodstock interests.

"He's not a multi (millionaire) by any stretch of the imagination, well he hasn't told me if he is, but this year was the first year that I've spent over a million on a horse," Size said.

"Prior to that, the highest price I paid for a horse was $600,000 for a Redoute's Choice called Flying Legend, who will also improve again next season. He's a lovely horse but he just needs time and will be a big, strong four-year-old.

"We don't go to the sales and go crazy. The first horse I bought for him was Southern Legend [multiple Group 1-placed in Hong Kong], who is also by Not A Single Doubt.

"To me, Not A Single Doubt is an underrated stallion. He's on par with Snippets while he was alive, just one of those good horses who keeps coming up with a good one every year."

"I'm going up to the farm to see the horse on Tuesday and he's due back in the second week of June. I just can't wait to spend time with him again," Size said.

"It's such a unique situation to be able to buy a horse as a yearling and be involved in its life right the way through. Obviously I'll have to say goodbye to him when he eventually goes to Hong Kong and I'll probably cry for a week, but I'm living the dream.

"When Jiminy is in training I'm there seven days a week. I just love being with horses."

Meanwhile, details of the deal between Ho and GPI Racing, who agreed to sell the slot prior to the closure of the expression of interest period on April 30, remain confidential - but it is believed the price was more than the $600,000 Ingham paid for the slot when signing up to a three-year-old contract in 2017.

GPI Racing still has the option to extend its slot holder contract, which is overseen by Racing NSW, for 2020 and beyond.

Sebastian Hutch, Inglis' general manager of bloodstock sales, was quick to praise the efforts of everyone involved in the transaction and feels Classique Legend's profile has added to the intrigue surrounding the lucrative contest.

"The extent of the interest in the slot was a tremendous compliment to the magnitude of the race and the scope and appeal of it both domestically and internationally, which is very exciting for the concept going forward," Hutch told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday.

"We are very grateful for Greg and Barb to give us the opportunity to sell the slot and to achieve a result they were happy with. We have done that, there was no other objective for us out of the sale other than to satisfy the client - but obviously it is an added bonus for Inglis that Classique Legend, who is at this stage intended to run for the slot, is a graduate of the Classic Sale.

"Carmel Size, who is a very experienced horsewoman with a great depth of knowledge of horseracing, not just in Australia, but internationally, is very high on the prospects of this horse and she thinks he is a very special. As does his trainer Les Bridge, and from the point of view of the race it is very exciting to have a horse with that sort of potential committed to the race at this stage.

"Mr Ho and Carmel are fantastic patrons of the Australian Bloodstock industry and Inglis Sales in general and I hope for the sake of Mr Ho and Carmel, Classique Legend goes on to prove himself the top-class horse that they think he is."

Classique Legend joins Pierata (Pierro), who will represent Aquis Farm, as the two horses who have been confirmed for slots in the race, which takes place at Randwick on October 19.

12 for Deep Field

Newgate Farm resident Deep Field (Northern Meteor) continued his fine recent run when the Tony McEvoy-trained Xilong (2 f ex Pane In The Glass by Testa Rossa) became his 12th individual winner when landing the My Butcher Maiden Plate (1200m) at Balaklava yesterday. Making her debut in the hands of Todd Pannell, Xilong finished two lengths too strong for the Phillip Stokes-trained Queen's Song (Camelot) in second, while there was a further nose back to Movandi (Uncle Mo) in third. Xilong is one of three named foals, all of whom have won, out of the Group 3-winning and Group 1-placed Testa Rossa (Perugino) mare Pane In The Glass.

Extra Brut sold to Hong Kong

Extra Brut

SPORTPIX

The Aquis Farm-owned Extra Brut (Domesday), who won the Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) last November when under the care of Darren Weir, will leave his current trainers Ciaron Maher and David Eustace having been sold to continue racing in Hong Kong. "He's the perfect horse for the Hong Kong system," Aquis chief executive Shane McGrath told Racing.com. "He's a horse that appreciates a firmer surface and he'll definitely get that there. He's a Derby winner already and hopefully he can go off and win the Hong Kong Derby for his new connections." Maher added of the three-year-old's departure: "I suppose it's hard to win that sort of money they were offering. If they could all do that I wouldn't be disappointed."

Prince Of Sussex also heading to Hong Kong

The Matt Laurie-trained Prince Of Sussex (Toronado), who won the inaugural running of The Showdown (1200m) at Caulfield last month, will also be heading to Hong Kong with majority owner Paul Dugan having accepted an offer of $1.75 million. "Provided he passes his vet check, which hasn't happened yet, but an offer has been accepted (from Hong Hong)," Laurie told Racing.com. "Paul is a good, solid, loyal client. He was really torn and wanted to keep him and genuinely wanted us to have a good horse so it was a tough call. It wasn't taken lightly. He's a great fella and in the end, they just kept coming with prices and it was just too hard to knock back." Prince Of Sussex has won two of his three starts, amassing $681,250 in prize-money.

13 for Doomben 10,000

A field of 13 has been accepted for the Doomben 10,000 (Gr 1, 1200m) on Saturday with early favourites Nature Strip (Nicconi) and Osborne Bulls (Street Cry) both standing their ground. The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) winner Nature Strip will break from barrier 11 under James McDonald as he returns to 1200 metres, while All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) runner-up Osborne Bulls has drawn stall four under Kerrin McEvoy. Meanwhile, Tony McEvoy will be double-handed courtesy of Manuel (Commands) and Dollar For Dollar (High Chaparral), who will break from barriers eight and 12 respectively.

Barbie out to make history at Doomben

The Doomben 10,000 field also includes the Tony Gollan-trained Outback Barbie (Spirit Of Boom), who will seek to become the first three-year-old filly in 86 years to win the $800,000 contest having been scratched from the Silk Stocking (Listed, 1200m) because of a wet track last weekend. "We did the right thing scratching her last Saturday because she was drawn on the inside and wouldn't have been able to get to the best part of the track," Gollan said. "She needs to run on Saturday for the rest of the winter and she gets in with a light weight and wearing blinkers. Outback Barbie's main mission this winter is the Tatts Tiara but how she gets there remains to be seen." Outback Barbie will break from stall two under Jeff Lloyd on Saturday.

Tactical Advantage to handle leap in grade

Kris Lees is hopeful that Takeover Target Stakes (Listed, 1200m) winner Tactical Advantage (Bel Esprit) can handle the leap in class when he also forms part of the Doomben 10,000 field. "It's a big jump in grade but I think he's ready for it," Lees said. "He's been carrying big weights in handicaps and it's time to test him at that level." Tactical Advantage was last seen finishing runner-up in the Hawkesbury Gold Rush (Listed, 1100m) on April 27 and he has drawn stall seven at the weekend in the hands of Larry Cassidy.

Baker hoping Cuddles lands much deserved Group 1

Consistent Bjorn Baker-trained mare Champagne Cuddles (Not A Single Doubt) will have to overcome stall ten if she's to break her Group 1 duck in the Doomben 10,000, but her trainer remains optimistic about the prospects of the ATC Breeders Classic (Gr 2, 1200m) winner. "I would have preferred a better draw but her last two runs in the All Aged Stakes and T J Smith were terrific," Baker told Racing.com. "She got held up a little in the All Aged and her T J Smith run against the best sprinters in Australia was a great run."

Grinzinger Star backs up in Derby

Grinzinger Star (Reliable Man), the only horse to lower the colours of South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) favourite Mr Quickie (Shamus Award) this preparation, will make a quick return to the track and re-oppose that rival at Morphettville on Saturday having finished a buffeted fourth in the Zipping Handicap (2000m) at Flemington last weekend. "He's a tough horse, so it didn't really knock him around," trainer Danny O'Brien told Racing.com. "It obviously wasn't ideal last weekend, but he's to turn up in good shape for us on Saturday. I don't think the barrier will worry him. It's a 2500-metre race and he'll be in the back half of the field anyway, so I don't think it'll be a problem."

Eurell happy with Missile ahead of Group 1 target

Greg Eurell has issued a positive bulletin on Star Missile (Smart Missile) as the Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 2032m) runner-up stretches out to 2500 metres for the first time in the South Australian Derby. "He certainly benefited from the run, but his demeanour he hasn't missed a beat, he hasn't left an oat and is in great shape, I was very happy with his work this morning and happy with the draw so there are a few boxes ticked at the moment," Eurell told Racing.com. "I would be very doubtful if he couldn't run it (the trip). The run the other day I thought was exceptionally good, it was a big effort, he made a lot of ground out wide, he looked a sneaky chance to win at one stage but hopefully it is this Saturday."

Moldova homing in on stakes victory

Danny O'Brien is optimistic Moldova (Snitzel) can make the transition to black-type company when she puts her unbeaten record on the line in the Vale Redoute's Choice Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Caulfield on Saturday having made a good impression when winning her first two outings at Flemington and Bendigo. "It's obviously a stakes race and she's a filly and it looks a nice race for her," O'Brien told Racing.com. "She came through Bendigo well and she came through Flemington well. She's a big, strong filly by Snitzel that does everything right. She jumps and puts herself on the speed, which doesn't hurt. She's got a lot going for her." Moldova will break from barrier three under Brett Pebble at the weekend.

Pretty In Pink shoots for Scone glory

John O'Shea will saddle Pretty In Pink (Sebring) in the Denise's Joy Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Scone on Saturday, a year after she won the Woodlands Stakes (Listed, 1100m) on the corresponding programme. The filly went on to place in the Furious Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and the Tea Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) in the spring before she was spelled after a midfield effort in the Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) in September. She didn't race during the autumn in Sydney with O'Shea happy to give her extra time to mature and develop. "She's done well and strengthened up nicely but most importantly, mentally she's in a good place," O'Shea said. "I'm really looking forward to presenting her at the races on Saturday because I think she's in a good frame of form and she's as fit as we can have her without running her."

Asgard Massif on the market

Trainer John Sadler has revealed Asgard Massif (Fastnet Rock), who ran out a two-length winner of a Sandown-Hillside handicap yesterday, is on the market as Singapore-based owner Dr Tan Kai Chah reduces his worldwide thoroughbred numbers. "He's a very good client of the stable and unfortunately he wants to sell this bloke just when he's coming right," Sadler said. "If someone wants a nice horse, he's really starting to mature and develop into something. He's on the market and I'd love to keep hold of him as he's a lovely horse." Asgard Massif, who is a brother to Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) third Formality, has won three of his nine starts, amassing prize-money of $66,885.

Not Enough Effort retains unbeaten record

The Sharyn Trolove-trained Not Enough Effort (Reward For Effort) kept his unbeaten record in tact with a brave victory in the Blue Star Print Handicap (1000m) at Sandown Hillside yesterday. Having won his first two starts from the front, the gelding was forced to race in second, however this change of tactic seemed to cause no issues for the three-year-old and he was eventually able to gain the lead inside the final 200 metres to beat Really Swish (Real Saga) by a length. "I didn't think he was going to get there but that shows how good he is," Trolove said. "I was worried they would put a bit of pressure on him today and make him over-race, but he settled. He's done it a bit tough today."

Stakes races next for well-related Snowzone

Snowzone (Snitzel) could now be set for a step up in class after he broke his maiden on his fourth attempt in the McWilliams Hazy Days Maiden 2YO Plate (1200m) at the Gold Coast yesterday. The Kris Lees trained colt beat Chico Milagro (I Am Invincible) by a comprehensive two and three quarter lengths, with Brocky (Stratum) another neck away in third. The two-year-old is out of Snowdrift (Polish Precedent) making him a half-brother nine other winners, including Group 1 winner Snowland (Snippets) and Group 2 winner Portillo (Red Ransom) and he was purchased by his owners Australian Bloodstock for $220,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale from the Cressfield draft.

High hopes for California Zimbol

California Zimbol (I Am Invincible) could also be set for bigger future targets after she broke her maiden tag in the Agency Real Estate Maiden 2YO Handicap (1200m) at Canterbury yesterday. The Peter and Paul Snowden-trained filly had had three trials before yesterday's racecourse debut, winning two and finishing second in the other, and she put those experiences to good use, beating the Chris Waller-trained pair Maddi Rocks (Fastnet Rock) and Tracy May (Redoute's Choice), who finished second and third respectively. "She is a really good filly with a big, long stride and she has a really good turn of foot," Schofield said. "It was a good win because it was a field of some depth.

Discharged impresses at Canterbury

Discharged (Snitzel) was another exciting youngster to break his maiden at Canterbury yesterday, with the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained colt winning the Pluck at Vinery Maiden 2YO Handicap (1200m). The two-year-old scooted home in front to beat Kordia (Epaulette) by a quarter of a length with a further length back to Bigboyroy (Dissident) in third. "We'll see how he comes through this and see if there is anything in Sydney or up north," Bott said. "He is up to Brisbane class at this time of the year. There is plenty of scope for him to improve off that and he will definitely improve going up in trip." The colt was purchased by his trainers and Julian Blaxland's Blue Sky Bloodstock for $260,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale from the draft of Baramul Stud.

Norzita confirmed for The Autumn Sun

The Autumn Sun

SPORTPIX

Champion three-year-old filly Norzita (Thorn Park), who was purchased for $1.7 million by Freyer Bloodstock for Arrowfield Stud at The Chairman's Sale last Friday, has been confirmed for The Autumn Sun's (Redoute's Choice) first book of mares in 2019. Catalogued as Lot 16, dual Group 1 winner Norzita is due to foal to fellow Arrowfield resident Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) in August, while she was offered by Lime Country Thoroughbreds on behalf of the late Dato Tan Chin Nam's Think Big Stud. "Norzita is an absolute queen, a magnificent individual with an elite race-record and an outstanding match in every way for The Autumn Sun," Arrowfield principal John Messara said.

Ipswich racetrack set for remedial work

Racing Queensland will start major remediation work on the troubled Ipswich racetrack but it has upset the club by scrapping plans for an upgrade of tie-up stalls at the course. In a statement RQ said it would seek government approval to access an additional $6 million from the Racing Infrastructure Fund, which would take the total Ipswich project cost to $19 million. The additional RIF funding will cater for the increased civil works to complete the building and track remediation following a recent geotechnical engineering report and irrigation audit which revealed multiple issues. The first step will be to replace the decades-old irrigation infrastructure. RQ said as a consequence of the increased scope of works and costs, Ipswich Turf Club was also informed that the planned relocation of the club's tie-up stalls would not be proceeding.

Doomben improving for Group 1 meeting

Racetrack manager Jim Roberts is confident the Doomben 10,000 meeting on Saturday will be run on an improving surface. The track was rated a soft 5 after 16mm of rain fell over the week prior to acceptances being declared on Wednesday morning. Roberts said the track was drying quickly and with clear weather forecast for the rest of the week a good track rating on Saturday seemed certain. "The previous two meetings we have had at Doomben were on heavy tracks," Roberts said. "It drizzled all day Saturday but since then it has been fine and the track has come back very well. Being this time of the year the days are getting shorter and we have heavy dews but everything is positive for Saturday."

Kingston joins B2B Thoroughbreds

B2B Thoroughbreds have announced the acquisition of acreage at Mittagong in the Southern Highlands, with Alex Kingston, formerly of Kia Ora, appointed to the role of stud manager. The organisation will be operational for the 2019 breeding season and 2020 yearling sales series and successful owner-breeder Ricky Surace is delighted to have secured the services of Kingston. "I was lucky enough to meet her at the right time and instantly we formed a connection through our passion for the industry, her family values and her strong work ethic," Surace told Breednet. "Another bonus was securing her partner Jose Ramos who shares the exact same values and will bring another dynamic to B2B Thoroughbreds – I feel like it's an unstoppable team."

New Zealand

Winston Peters to Open May Sale

New Zealand Deputy Prime Minister and Minister for Racing Winston Peters will open New Zealand Bloodstock's May Sale at their Karaka complex on May 17. A total of 240 lots have been catalogued for the mixed auction, comprising of weanlings, yearlings, two-year-olds, racehorses and broodmares. "We are very pleased that Racing Minister Winston Peters will be opening the Sale for us," New Zealand Bloodstock managing director Andrew Seabrook said. "To have him address participants of the thoroughbred industry after his announcement to revitalise domestic racing is indicative of his support and commitment to racing and breeding in New Zealand."

Ghibellines heads White Robe Lodge roster

White Robe Lodge have announced a slight fee increase for exciting young sire Ghibellines (Shamardal), who will stand for NZ$6,000 (plus GST) for the forthcoming breeding season. The Group 2 winner has made a promising start to his stud career, with two winners and a stakes performer from just seven runners to date. Raise The Flag (Sadler's Wells) will stand for NZ$6,000 (plus GST), while Gallant Guru (Montjeu), the sire of Metropolitan Handicap (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Patrick Erin, will stand for NZ$4,000 (plus GST) to complete the Mosgiel nursery's roster.

Giovanni Canaletto aiming for Group 3 glory

Wexford stables have a strong chance of taking home the silverware at Arawa Park on Saturday where Giovanni Canaletto (Galileo) and Sleeping Beauty (Rip Van Winkle) will represent the Matamata barn in the two feature races. Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m4f) fourth Giovanni Canaletto will contest the Rotorua Cup (Gr 3, 2200m) and his connections are hoping he can replicate the form of his third in the Kaimai Stakes (Listed, 2000m). "He looks great and he has worked up well. He's certainly capable (of winning on Saturday), it's just a matter of him putting his best foot forward and being in the right mindset," co-trainer Andrew Scott said. "Providing the ground is not absolutely bottomless he should be fine."

Matamata double for Noble

Lance Noble scored a double with his only two runners at Matamata yesterday, with Vera Drake (Footstepsinthesand) winning over 1600 metres before two-year-old filly Avadane (Savabeel) cleared maiden company when taking out the J P Wills Bloodstock (1200m). "The draw obviously helped and she did get away well and had a lovely ride from Leith. It was really pleasing," Noble said of Avadane's victory. "It was the sixth individual winner out of Brendan and Jo's (Lindsay) foundation mare J'Adane, so it's pretty special for them. The mare just keeps producing. There is a nice Tavistock colt at home and I look forward to getting my hands on him."

17 for Camelot

Sir Dragonet

RACING POST

The Aidan O'Brien-trained Sir Dragonet (3 c ex Sparrow by Oasis Dream) showed a remarkable turn of foot to run out an impressive winner of the Chester Vase Stakes (Gr 3, 1m4¼f) yesterday, handing former Coolmore Stud shuttler Camelot (Montjeu) his 17th stakes winner in the process. The colt scythed through the soft ground on just his second career outing to beat stablemate Norway (Galileo) by eight lengths, with Dashing Willoughby (Nathaniel) a further three quarters of a length behind that rival in third. Camelot, who shuttled to Australia for the 2014 season, is currently standing for a career high fee of €40,000.

Sir Dragonet enters Derby reckoning

Following his victory at Chester yesterday, Sir Dragonet showcased his Derby (Gr 1, 1m4f) credentials, but would need to be supplemented for the Classic should connections choose to target Epsom. Winning jockey Donnacha O'Brien said: "He was very impressive, he's never been flashy at home but they went flat to the boards and I just wanted him to be comfortable because he's a green horse. There's a lot of horses at Ballydoyle with good pedigrees but we don't really know what they are until we bring them to the track. It was a step into the unknown but he handled it well today."

40 for Frankel

Juddmonte stallion Frankel (Galileo) was provided with his 40th stakes winner yesterday courtesy of Mehdaayih's (3 f ex Sayyedati Symphony by Gone West) wide-margin victory in the Cheshire Oaks (Listed, 1m3½f) at Chester. Raced by Emirates Park, the John Gosden-trained filly scooted clear of her rivals to beat Manuela De Vega (Lope De Vega) with considerable ease. The winning margin was four and a half lengths at the line, while Fanny Logan (Sea The Stars) finished a length further back in third. Frankel is currently standing at Banstead Manor in Newmarket for a fee of £175,000.

Ribblesdale possibility for Mehdaayih

Mehdaayih (right)

RACING POST

After her impressive Cheshire Oaks victory yesterday, winning jockey Robert Havlin earmarked the Ribblesdale Stakes (Gr 2, 1m4f) at Royal Ascot as a potential target for Mehdaayih. "She really enjoyed the ground and I thought she would shade it out of our fillies as she [Fanny Logan] probably wants better ground," Havlin said. "After she won at Chelmsford the boss said we'd come straight here. She might be a Ribblesdale filly but she showed a good turn of foot. I will let the boss make the decisions!"

Tenth win for Silverwave

Silverwave (7 h Silver Frost - Miss Bio by River Mist) secured his second win this preparation when running out an emphatic winner of the Prix Bedel (Listed, 2400m) at Lyon-Parilly yesterday. Now trained by Fabrice Vermeulen having landed the Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud (Gr 1, 2400m) for Pascal Bary earlier in his career, the seven-year-old careered six and a half lengths clear of Mille Et Mille (Muhtathir) in second, while there was a further two lengths back to Ziyad (Rock Of Gibraltar) in third. Silverwave has now won ten of his 25 outings.

Winx crowned champion for fourth consecutive time at HTBA ceremony

By Chris Humpleby

Paul Messara accepts the award from Nick Hodges (left) and Annette English for The Autumn Sun, who was crowned champion three-year-old colt

KATRINA PARTRIDGE

Winx (Street Cry) retained her title as champion racehorse for the fourth consecutive year when more than 300 industry leaders, clients and supporters attended the Hunter Thoroughbred Breeders' Association annual awards in Scone yesterday, which are held to recognise the best performances from Hunter Valley-bred horses across the course of the season.

The now-retired wondermare was awarded the accolade having stretched her winning streak to 33 when bringing the curtain down on her glorious career with a third success in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick last month.

Her former stable companion The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice), who proved unbeaten in five runs since September 22 - including victories in the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), the Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) - was awarded the title of champion three-year-old colt prior to him standing his first season at Arrowfield Stud this year.

The fillies' equivalent went the way of the Tony McEvoy-trained speedster Sunlight

(Zoustar), who recorded scorching victories in the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) and William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) prior to her third-place finish in the T J Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Randwick last month.

Godolphin-raced horses fittingly dominated both juvenile divisions, with Inglis Sires' (registered as the ATC Sires' Produce Stakes) (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Microphone (Exceed And Excel) crowned the leading colt, while his James Cummings-trained barnmate Kiamichi was adjudged the top filly following her Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) success.

Champion sire Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) continued his burgeoning record by being awarded the equivalent HTBA award yesterday, capping a memorable evening for Arrowfield, while the first season sire mantle went the way of Coolmore resident Rubick (Encosta De Lago), who numbers Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Yes Yes Yes among his ten individual first crop successes.

Last but by no means least, Vegas Showgirl (Al Akbar) - the dam of Winx - was crowned the champion broodmare following the exploits of her record-breaking daughter.

She was covered by Shadai Farm flagbearer Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) to southern-hemisphere time last year and was confirmed in foal in October.

The horses awarded at last night's ceremony elicited a glowing reaction from HTBA president Dr Cameron Collins, who said last night: "The Hunter Valley is Australia's premier thoroughbred breeding region and horse capital.

"It is Australia's jewel in the thoroughbred breeding crown. The breadth and depth of talent of our people and the success of our equine athletes is world renowned. We are immensely proud to recognise their achievements at tonight's annual awards.

"This year's equine athlete categories were once again strongly contested. It is both humbling and inspiring to acknowledge that our 2019 champion racehorse is a national and international icon."

Meanwhile, Bo Ritson - a longstanding member of the Kitchwin Hills Stud team - was crowned the employee of the year from an administrative perspective, while Arrowfield's Nigel Bentley won the equivalent prize for horsemanship. The service to the industry accolade was presented to stud manager Julie Harris.

Jenni earns favourable Timeform rating with Schweppes Oaks victory

Princess Jenni

Progressive David Brideoake-trained filly Princess Jenni (High Chaparral) earned a Timeform rating of 109 with her victory in Saturday's Schweppes Oaks (registered as Australasian Oaks) (Gr 1, 2000m), a figure that compares favourably with recent winners of the race, writes Ken Boman.

Having only her sixth start, Princess Jenni finished well under a skilful Damien Oliver ride to score by three quarters of a length from the Archie Alexander-trained filly Mirette (Unencumbered) [108], with the New Zealand-bred filly House Of Cartier (Alamosa) [108] a nose away in third place.

Princess Jenni's 109 rating matched the winner's average for the Schweppes Oaks over the past five years, with the highest-rated winner in that period being the talented West Australian filly Delicacy (Al Maher) [110+] in 2015.

It was also a career-best rating for Princess Jenni, her 109 figure being four pounds superior to her 105 previous best taken in winning the Jack Elliott Handicap (1600m) for three-year-old fillies at Caulfield at her last start on April 20.

In the other Group 1 feature at Morphettville, the Gary Frazer-trained mare Spright (Hinchinbrook) [113] broke through for a deserved elite-level victory when storming home to win the TAB Classic (registered as Robert Sangster Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m).

After a patient Damien Oliver ride, the mare remained in second-to-last place in the 13-horse field until flashing up late in the home straight to score by a length and a half from Cool Passion (Not A Single Doubt) [108], with Bella Martini (Stratum) [108] a short-head away in third.

However, this was not Spright's highest career Timeform rating, her 113 figure being two pounds below her 115 peak achieved when running second to Sunlight (Zoustar) [119] in the William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Moonee Valley on March 22.

Spright's 113 rating was also under the 116 winners' average rating for the Robert Sangster Stakes for the past five years, with the top rated in that period being the Gai Waterhouse-trained mare Driefontein (Fastnet Rock) [118] in 2014.

Earlier on the Morphettville programme, the Danny O'Brien-trained two-year-old filly Absolute Flirt (Stratum) [102] showed her talent in taking out the Queen Adelaide Stakes (Listed, 1050m), the first leg of a treble for leading jockey Damien Oliver.

Given an ideal trip, Absolute Flirt then fought well to defeat the Tony McEvoy-trained filly Balaabel (Not A Single Doubt) [100], who ran a bold race on debut, by a half-length with the consistent locally-trained filly Li'l Kontra (Krupt) [102] a similar margin away in third.

Absolute Flirt is now the winner of two of her four starts with Saturday's victory achieving a 102 career-best Timeform rating for the filly, a noteworthy seven pounds jump on her prior best when a first-up winner in a two-year-old fillies' handicap (1000m) at Sandown-Hillside on April 22.

Another progressive juvenile to score well at the weekend was the Peter and Paul Snowden-trained colt Stronger (Not A Single Doubt) [106], who coped well with the heavy 9 track in taking out the Ken Russell Classic (Gr 3, 1200m) at the Gold Coast, albeit by a very narrow margin.

Stronger fought gamely to defeat the well-performed Chris Waller-trained colt Accession (Brazen Beau) [106] by a nose, taking a new Timeform peak in the process, his 106 figure being a six pounds improvement on his previous best.

BETTING FORECAST: 10-11 Kew Gardens, 7-2 Magic Circle, 4 Morando, 8 Cypress Creek, 25 Warnaq, 33 Dalgarno.

RACING POST SPOTLIGHT

Kew Gardens Took a few runs to really find his feet last year but made up into a top-class 3yo at 1m4f-1m6f in the second half of 2018, including Group 1 successes at Longchamp (1m4f) and in the St Leger at Doncaster (1m6f); looks slightly better class than these rivals and hard to beat if resuming in top form; trainer won this with a seasonal debutant in 2012.

Cypress Creek Useful form last season before raising his game when upped to 2m on final two starts, notably when winning Group 3 at Naas in September; trainer said after that win that this brother to Irish Derby/Leger winner Capri would stay

"much further than two miles"; needs a career-best here and would appeal more at a bit further.

Morando Always been very talented but better than ever when upped to 1m4f and showing unsuspected stamina reserves when staying on well to force a dead-heat at Newbury in October; has a decent record when fresh and entitled to give Kew Gardens a race on these terms if resuming in the same form; best with some give in the ground.

Dalgarno Three wins at 1m2f-1m4f in France in his younger days; ran well in muddling AW handicap back from long time off on stable debut last month but needs a career-best by some margin to mix it with the best of these.

Magic Circle Won the Chester Cup (2m2f) on debut for his new connections on seasonal debut here last May and then followed up with career-best effort in 2m Group 3 at Sandown; that form would make him a real contender on these terms but has been off since breaking a blood vessel and well beaten in the Melbourne Cup; longer trip would suit ideally.

Warnaq Dual-purpose mare who ran well when front-running third against her own sex at Cork (1m4f, Listed) last time last month; much tougher assignment against the boys here and others preferred.

VERDICT Even with a 7lb penalty ready preference is for KEW GARDENS, who has a class edge on these rivals on last season's Group 1-winning form. Aidan O'Brien has won this three times in recent times, including with a seasonal debutant in 2012. Morando is preferred to Magic Circle as next best. [Mel Cullinan]

Analysis: Peter and Paul Snowden-trained filly California Zimbol staged a really smart effort in winning here on debut. She showed good early pace and settled outside the leader (Dorothy Of Oz), got the upper hand shortly after turning for home, dashed clear on passing the 200m and then went on to score easily. She looks a talented filly with a bright future. Chris Waller-trained filly Maddi Rocks raced in fourth place, moved up well rounding the home turn, went to second at the 100m and kept fighting well to hold that position in a promising debut. Her stablemate Tracy May had a good trip in third place on the rails and kept battling on really well to take the minor placing in a nice effort at her second race start.

Analysis: Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained colt Discharged followed his encouraging third on debut in a two-year-old maiden (1200m) at Randwick on April 25 with a narrow but really good win here. He was smartly away, soon went to the front and then travelled well at a good tempo. He got a break at the 200m and then fought back to score, seemingly with something in hand, by a long neck and in good time. The Godolphin-raced gelding Kordia settled in eighth place on the rails, improved along the inner nearing the home turn, got through to challenge in the latter stages and kept battling well for second in a nice effort at his first start. Bigboyroy raced in fourth place on the rails, switched deeper coming to the 200m and then ran on nicely over the latter stages for third.
