$420,000 spend for Japan's Unicorn

First-time visitor joins forces with Rising Sun Syndicate to buy half-sister to Fully Lit

By Tim Rowe | @anz_news

Google translate said "over budget", but the Japanese owners hope they're on to a winner with their maiden Australian foray after taking home the North Pacific (Brazen Beau) half-sister to Inglis Millennium (RL, 1100m) winner Fully Lit (Hellbent) for $420,000 late on the final day of the Classic Yearling Sale.

The Rising Sun Syndicate, run by Japanese expatriates Kosi Kawakami, Yusuke Ichikawa and Shinya Mori, teamed up with fellow countryman R Unicorn Stable and agent Satomi Oka to purchase the expensive daughter of the first-season Newgate Farm sire.

The residual value of the filly, who is also a half-sister to BJ McLachlan Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner The Novelist (Written By), was enhanced dramatically when the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Fully Lit made it two-for-two in the sales company's $2 million juvenile feature last Saturday.

Group 2 winner Aromatic to sell on Gavelhouse

Aromatic (Sacred Falls), a Group 2-winning mare, will be offered on gavelhouse.com next week, with bidding set to close at 7pm (NZT) on Monday.

Purchased by NZ$160,000 at the New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sale, the seven-year-old carried the tangerine colours of Te Akau Racing to three Group wins and another six stakes placings in a career that spanned five seasons.

"She's been one of the most genuine mares that Te Akau has raced in the last few years," Te Akau principal David Ellis said. "I bought her for $160,000 as a yearling at Karaka, and she provided so many thrills for her owners throughout her career."

The attraction of the filly, which saw Kawakami's former employer Tony McEvoy come out as the under bidder, was not the only day three highlight that has received significant updates in recent months with the half-brother to prominent Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) contender Shangri La Express (Alabama Express) selling for $360,000.

On Monday, a Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) half-sister to dual Group 1-winning sprinter In Her Time (Time Thief) sold for $600,000, a record price for a filly at a Classic sale, and a daughter of Justify (Scat Daddy) made $420,000. A Street Boss (Street Cry) colt topped Sunday's opening session at $375,000.

The Rising Sun Syndicate and R Unicorn Stable have appointed premier Sydney-based trainer Chris Waller to prepare the filly who is the third foal out of two-time 1000-metre winner Sunlit (Snitzel).

"Obviously, she is a brilliant mother [Sunlit] and [her daughter] is not a big horse herself, but she is a nice type with good muscle and a good walk. We absolutely love her," Kawakami said.

"We have got a really good Japanese owner supporting us, so we're going to syndicate half."

The R Unicorn Stable owner, who wished to remain anonymous, was enjoying his first trip to Australia, being trackside for the Randwick meeting last Saturday before casting his eye over the yearlings available at Riverside.

"We race horses in different countries around the world," the owner said.

"We came to Australia for the first time last week, I was impressed by the quality of horses and we enjoyed the racing and meeting the industry people here.

"When Satomi showed me this horse, she wasn't in our budget, but we talked to Rising Sun who also really liked the horse and we agreed to team up to make sure we bought her."

R Unicorn Stable and Oka also bought an Astern (Medaglia D'Oro) filly on day one for $120,000 from the Alma Vale and Kitchwin Hills Partnership.

Sunlit failed to get in foal in 2022, but was covered by Zoustar (Northern Meteor) last October.

Kosi Kawakami INGLIS

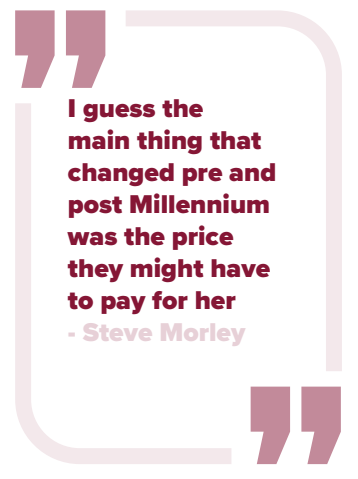

Glenlogan's Steve Morley, whose Queensland farm grossed $1.001 million from eight yearlings sold, was "over the moon" with the sale of the North Pacific filly.

"She was very much well admired from day one - before Fully Lit won the Millennium even - but that result certainly didn't hurt," Morley said.

"I guess the main thing that changed pre and post Millennium was the price they might have to pay for her. I still put a small reserve on her, which is what I intended to put on her regardless of what happened at Randwick on Saturday, but I was just very confident that she was going to triple our reserve or a touch more.

"When you've got the right product and you know how well admired she is and you can see who's looking at her and you know they're the serious players in the industry, there's no nerves, just anticipation. It's a real thrill."

Storm Boy's owners all aboard the Express

Lot 674: Written Tycoon ex Sent From Above colt INGLIS

The former managing owners of raging Golden Slipper favourite Storm Boy (Justify) wasted no time reinvesting into another colt, going to $360,000 for the Written Tycoon (Iglesia) half-brother to his stablemate and likely major rival Shangri La Express.

The Cunningham family, whose silks have been seen on the unbeaten Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner, teamed up with Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott, the trainers of their "$60 million colt" to buy the Yulong-bred and sold sibling to this season's Golden Gift (1100m) winner.

Coolmore confirmed last week that it had bought a controlling interest in Storm Boy, who barrier trials at Rosehill tomorrow, in a deal which has the potential to send his value soaring above $50 to $60 million if the colt continues his winning streak during the Sydney autumn carnival at three.

Agent Jim Clarke, who represents the bloodstock interests of Gary and Loralie Cunningham and their children, including Ridgmont Farm director Mitch, linked with Waterhouse, Bott and Kestrel Thoroughbreds' Bruce Slade to purchase the second highest-priced lot of day three.

Waterhouse and Bott's bloodstock manager Claudia Miller revealed Clarke reached out to the stable to consider partnering with them on Slipper-bound Shangri La Express' half-brother.

"Mum's done a great job [so far] and we really liked the colt on type," Miller said.

"We could absolutely see him running at two and even better at three. We always love buying from families that we know well. It helps in terms of clients and selling them on and then there's those little [idiosyncrasies]."

In a similar start to the career of Storm Boy, Shangri La Express has also produced two dominant wins and the colt is slated to resume at Randwick in Saturday's Pierro Plate (1100m) on the back of a recent barrier trial success.

SentFromAbove (Lonhro), herself a daughter of four-time stakes winner Gamble Me (Rock Of Gibraltar), was bought for $125,000 by Yulong from the 2020 Inglis Sydney Broodmare Sale. The mare has an Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice) weanling filly and she was served again by the resident Yulong sire in 2023.

The in-form Tulloch Lodge - which acquired at least eight horses from the Classic sale - also trains another top-class juvenile by Written Tycoon, last-start Widden Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) winner Lady Of Camelot, for Go Bloodstock's Sir Owen Glenn.

B K Racing happy to rock with another Hellbent

Hellbent (I Am Invincible) may have sired the winner of last weekend's $2 million Inglis Millennium, but it was B K Racing and Breeding's affinity with Maddi Rocks (Fastnet Rock) that was the major appeal behind the third session's third highest-priced lot.

The daughter of the Yarraman Park Stud sire out of Rose Of Savannah (Fastnet Rock), a sister to the former Chris Waller-trained Maddi Rocks, was bought by B K Racing for $320,000.

She will be trained at Randwick by John O'Shea who also trained Maddi Rocks for just one start at the end of her career before her retirement to stud.

"She's a very athletic filly, I thought she was the best bodied filly at the sale. Hellbent is obviously a son of I am Invincible, and he just goes from strength to strength winning the Inglis Millennium [with Fully Lit]," B K Racing representative Ben Vassallo said.

"I thought that would make it harder to buy the filly today, but she came in right around our expectations and we are very happy to leave the sale with her."

Riverstone Lodge's Nick Taylor sold the filly nine months after paying $150,000 via Belmont Bloodstock's Damon Gabbedy for her at the 2023 Magic Millions National Weanling Sale out of the Baramul Stud draft.

It also helped the vendor when Rose Of Savannah's unraced two-year-old son Brazen Act (Brazen Beau) won a barrier trial at Doomben for Eagle Farm-based trainer Kelly Schweida hours before her half-sister went through the ring.

INGLIS

B K Racing has horses in training with numerous trainers including Brad Widdup, Waller and O'Shea, while they also race Hellbent offspring, including Sydney winner Fire Lane and the unraced two-year-old Howler.

Vassallo said: "John has a handy Hellbent filly by the name of Howler in the stable and we have a good relationship with John, Tom [Charlton] and the team, it's just a matter of building up the ranks and getting the fillies in the barn to follow in the footsteps of the ones that are about to step out."

He's no clown! Perry backs fighter Circus Maximus

Renowned breeder Greg Perry of Artorius (Flying Artie), Delectation (Shamardal), Marabi (I Am Invincible) and Aristia (Lonhro) fame strongly lobbied Coolmore to shuttle champion European miler Circus Maximus (Galileo) to the southern hemisphere.

Coolmore obliged, linking with Rodney Schick's Windsor Park Stud in New Zealand to stand the son of the late breed-shaper Galileo (Sadler's Wells), and Perry lived up to his end of the bargain, sending multiple mares, including Our Josephina (Zabeel), to the stallion since.

Yesterday, on day three of the Classic sale, Perry was rewarded for his belief, selling the half-brother to the Moonee Valley Vase (Gr 2, 2040m) runner-up Commander Harry (Reliable Man) for $260,000 to Annabel Neasham and agent Will Johnson.

The sixth foal out of Our Josephina, who is a sister to the Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Johnny Get Angry (Tavistock), became the most expensive yearling to sell so far from his first southern hemisphere-bred crop to go to auction in 2024.

"I kept saying to Tom Moore from Coolmore, 'you've got to bring that horse down, Circus Maximus,' because I had never seen a horse fight in a finish like Circus Maximus since Giant's Causeway," Perry told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"He never gave in and [Coolmore principal] John Magnier always said that you buy a stallion who has got a fight in him and he was a magnificent [racehorse].

"His fourth dam is Lady Winborne and my great mare - I love her - Grace And Power, the grandmother to Artorius and the mother to Delectation's fourth dam is Lady Winborne, the Secretariat half-sister Allez France, so that's the sire side."

"She won a maiden at Sale over 2200 metres and she missed the start by ten lengths but she kept coming," he said.

"I brought the mare back home [from New Zealand] because I wanted to send her to Maurice, so she foaled down at Vinery and the proof is in the pudding. He's a magnificent individual. I understand that Circus Maximus is staying down south now, so hopefully people stick with him."

Neasham hopes the colt can develop into a Guineas and Derby style three-year-old.

"I only looked at him once, I didn't need to go back and look at him again. For me, he was a standout physically. Although he's bred to stay, he's actually got a really big, strong hindquarter on him, he's got a lot of power," Neasham said.

"I loved Circus Maximus as a racehorse, he danced every dance, he was a prolific racehorse, so I am excited to get one of his sons.

"The mare's already produced a stakes horse and he looks like he's going to be a middle-distance, staying type for those Classic type."

The Windsor Park Stud-based former shuttler, who is now permanently domiciled in New Zealand, has averaged AU$84,153 with 28 yearlings sold across the Magic Millions, New Zealand Bloodstock and Inglis Classic sales.

The three highest-priced NZB Karaka-offered Circus Maximuses were bought by Australian trainers, Brad Widdup, Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott and Mick Price respectively.

A ferocious but short-lived lightning and hailstorm to close out the 2024 Classic sale didn't dampen the assessment of trade across three days at Riverside by Inglis Bloodstock's ceo Sebastian Hutch.

Specifically, he pointed to the international engagement in the sale - three of the top four-priced horses were bought by international investors - where more than $55.3 million was turned over at an average of $93,658.

"Stages through today were stickier than what we would have liked, which is going to happen at any sale," Hutch said last night.

"Ultimately, we will reflect on a sale where clearance has been good and increasing all the time.

"There was a great engagement from a broad cross-section of buyers and ultimately we know that there are plenty of buyers without objectives fulfilled which bodes well for future sales.

"Hopefully we can reflect on this sale in years to come and recognise that we sold plenty of good horses here."

Last year's Book 1 sale averaged $103,041 (552 horses sold) while the Highway Session saw 98 horses traded at an average of $46,255.

Magic Millions will hold its Perth Yearling Sale late next week.

Morning Briefing

Australia

Two for Zousain

Drifting (2 fex Backpacker Express by Big Brown) became the second individual winner, and first in Australia, for Widden's Stud's Zousain (Zoustar) when building on the promise she had shown in her trials with an impressive win on her competitive debut yesterday. Racing over 1000 metres at Hawkesbury, the Peter and Paul Snowden-trained filly clearly knew what was required of her as she beat the vastly more experienced Blue Illusion (Blue Point) by a length and three-quarters. Madame Fiocca (Microphone) finished third, two lengths behind the winner. "She's a nice filly with good improvement to come and should have no trouble coming to town," said Paul Snowden. A $160,000 Inglis Classic purchase from Murrulla Stud for Snowden Racing and William Johnson Bloodstock, Drifting is the third winner from three foals to race from Backpacker Express (Big Brown), a half-sister to Group 2-winning juvenile Downhill Racer (Danehill Dancer). Murrulla Stud will offer the sister to Drifting at the Magic Millions Gold Coast March Yearling Sale as Lot 223.

Stable brimming with confidence in Bella Nipotina

The team behind Bella Nipotina (Pride Of Dubai) are confident the mare can turn the tables on favourite Imperatriz (I Am Invincible) when the pair clash in Saturday's Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Flemington.

Bella Nipotina

SPORTPIX

The Ciaran Maher-trained six-year-old finished two lengths behind the multiple Group 1 winner when fifth in the Champions Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) on her most recent competitive start back in November but connections report her to be thriving ahead of her return to action on the weekend. "She is an iron mare, she is going as good as ever and she would need to bring her A game, Imperatriz, to be a winning hope," assistant trainer Jack Turnbull told Racing.com. "I think she's always raced around better-credentialed horses with more of a rap, but she keeps putting her hand up and she had a very good prep last time in, in terms of prize-money. That's fine, as long as she keeps performing well, that's all we want." "I think the straight's no worries, it's just going to be where she draws, where the speed is and if horses show up on the day."

Rich Fortune faces tough Group 1 task

Rich Fortune (Rich Enuff) is set to take on some of the best sprinters in Australia after Jerome Hunter gave the go ahead for his 84-rated mare to take her chance in Saturday's Lightning Stakes. The four-year-old has not won since she took out the Kevin Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) 12 months ago, but a small field has tempted Hunter to take on the likes of Imperatriz, Bella Nipotina and Private Eye (Al Maher). "You can't win the raffle without a ticket," the trainer told Racing.com. "We are fit and I wouldn't say a lot of those horses are 1000-metre specialists and are looking for a bit further and if there is lots of speed on, it would definitely suit my horse. Craig Williams said when he rode her in the Kensington Stakes she was very keen and he said 'You really need a very fast run race for her to settle and run on' ... I guess you couldn't pick any faster race than the Lightning. We'll be the rank outsider no doubt. Hopefully they are having a bad day and we are having a good day."

Attractable ready for Apollo resumption

Big Dance (1600m) winner Attractable (I Am Invincible) will resume in Saturday's Apollo Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) with connections already eyeing a return to Randwick later in the year for the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m). The five-year-old was in career-best form over the spring, winning the Coffs Harbour Cup (1600m) en route to the Big Dance before a close up second in the The Ingham (Gr 2, 1600m). Attractable will resume off one trial over 1000 metres at Rosehill on February 5 in which he led before being overrun by fellow Apollo possible Lindermann (Lonhro), but trainer Sara Ryan believes her gelding has plenty of residual fitness from a campaign that didn't end until December. "He didn't really have that long off, that was the only reason I gave him one trial, he retained his fitness pretty well, he pulled up very well from the trial and this morning he galloped enormous so I do expect a more forward showing than you would expect from a horse off one trial," she said. "We are going to attempt the Doncaster, so it'll be the Apollo, the Ajax and then the Doncaster would be my gut plan for him."

Stakes options for Wolfgang

Feature race options remain on the table for Wolfgang (Exceed And Excel), although the youngster's performance in Saturday's Talindert Stakes (Listed, 1100m) up the straight at Flemington will determine which path he takes. The Lloyd Kennewell and Lucy Yeomans-trained two-year-old remains in the mix for the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Caulfield on February 24 but could also be kept for the VRC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Flemington on March 9. Yeomans said Wolfgang was scratched from the Blue Diamond Prelude (C&G) (Gr 3, 1100m) last Saturday after drawing the widest gate. "He drew ten of ten so we thought it was too big a task from there, but he's a very well-travelled, well-seasoned two-year-old now," she said. "His first start was up the straight, we weren't sure if he handled it, and James McDonald got off him and said he needed a bend. But once he drew wide last Saturday, we thought let's try him up the straight again and he's much more experienced and seasoned now. Also, if we were to win the Talindert, we've got the option of thinking about backing up into the Blue Diamond, but if he runs well and hits the line really strongly, then he might kick on to the Sires' Produce which is also at Flemington."

Steparty spelled

Dual stakes winner Steparty (Artie Schiller) will miss Saturday's CS Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington after connections decided to spell the colt instead with a view to a return to action later in the year. The winner of five of his seven starts to date was last seen finishing third in the Manfred Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) on a Good 4 surface late last month and his trainer Paul Preusker is reported to favour avoiding quick surfaces at present.

Options open for Veight

Connections of Veight (Grunt) remain undecided as to where to head to next with the three-year-old following his fourth-placed finish against older horses in Saturday's CF Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m). The dual Group 2 winner is rated $7 with Sportsbet in both the Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and Calvin McEvoy, who trains the colt in partnership with his father Tony, said the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) is also under consideration. "He's come through Saturday's run very well and we couldn't be happier," McEvoy told Racing.com. "We're not sure yet what we're going to do with him. We've got a week to make a call, we're talking with all the owners and running figures but to be honest, I don't even have a leaning to one race at this stage. I can make cases for him to run in three races - a Newmarket, a Futurity and a Guineas - and that's amazing to say because it's such a broad range of races. I think he'd run well in any of the three."

Veight

Diamond aim for Rue De Royale

While plans for Veight remain up in the air, his stablemate Rue De Royale (Per Incanto) looks set to head for the Blue Diamond Stakes after his runner-up effort behind Fully Lit (Hellbent) in the Inglis Millennium (RL, 1100m). A Sydney campaign had initially been earmarked after the weekend's exploits but co-trainer Calvin McEvoy yesterday said a rethink means the $2 million Melbourne feature is now very much on the agenda. "I'm tempted to run him in the Blue Diamond," McEvoy told Racing.com. "He ran so well but a race like the Millennium is very tough to win first-up, especially when you're up against hard-fit horses from Gai Waterhouse's stable. He's at home, he's back in Ballarat and there are a couple of options with him. He can go a month between runs into the Todman in Sydney and focus on the [Golden] Slipper, or we go two weeks into the Diamond and think about the Slipper after that. That [Blue Diamond] is what we're leaning towards at the moment."

Quokka return the aim for Pike

William Pike is hopeful he can make a return to full fitness in time to be in action at the valuable Quokka meeting at Ascot on April 20. The champion rider is recovering from a fractured heel and will see a specialist next week hoping to get the report he needs in order to step up his recovery. "It feels ok and the swelling has gone down heaps, but if I put any weight on it by accident it reminds you pretty quick," Pike told The Races WA. "I'm going to push hard to be back doing trials at around the seven weeks [from the injury] and if they pass me I can ride at the eight or nine week mark. There is plenty of time for The Quokka itself and I think it's fine for the lead up races as well. I'm hoping to get going before the Roma Cup, or before then if my body is right."

Walker set for Victorian move

Mark Walker has revealed that he plans to move to Victoria within the next 12 months after plans for Te Akau Racing to expand its Cranbourne base were given the go ahead. Walker confirmed that Te Akau has come to an agreement with the Cranbourne Turf Club to build 50 new boxes in 2024, taking the operation's capacity at Victoria's largest training centre to 70 horses. Walker's training partner Sam Bergerson will continue to oversee the day-to-day operations of Te Akau's New Zealand base once Walker makes the move across the Tasman. Ben Gleeson has been running the Cranbourne stable since it opened earlier in the season. "I'm really happy with how the Cranbourne base has been operating," Walker told Racing.com. "With the challenge involved in it all - we're going to build another 50 boxes - we want to have a serious presence here and I want to be around for that. I was the one who initially said to David [Ellis] and Karyn [Fenton-Ellis] after we broke all the records [in New Zealand] last year that it was probably the right thing to do for our owners, for me to base myself in Melbourne. I discussed it with them and they said that if I wanted to have a crack, they would back me. Sam Bergerson came into the partnership this year and he's going really well, so we'll still have the partnership together and still have a big focus on New Zealand racing."

Right You Are retired

Right You Are (So You Think), the winner of last season's Mornington Cup (Listed, 2400m), has been retired from racing at the age of seven. The news was announced by part-owner Bill Hutchison, who said that the suspensory ligament injury that had troubled the gelding earlier in his career has reared up again and that he will be retired to breeder Steve Merriman's farm. Initially trained by Darren Weir, Right You Are started his racing career with Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr, before then joining Ciaran Maher and David Eustace's stable. The winner of ten of his 27 races, earned more than $1 million in prize-money. His final start came in last year's Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), when he failed to complete the course and pulled up lame.

Vorster still hoping to make a comeback

Barend Vorster remains optimistic about the possibility of making a return to race riding, almost one year on from the last time he was seen in competitive action. Vorster, who has battled concussion and neck issues since suffering a head knock, told Racing.com: "I feel, head-wise, I'm in a good space, I'm coping a lot better and am able to get out and up my exercise a bit and do a bit more, which is good. The only thing holding me back from taking the next step is just my neck, structurally there is something still not right with my C2 and C3. I'm due to see another specialist in March just to get a bit of a final opinion to say it is what it is or there is something else they can try. I would most definitely love to get back, I'm trying to stay positive and hopeful but it does start creeping into your mind if it ever will come right."

Reynolds airlifted to hospital

Apprentice Chelsey Reynolds was airlifted to Flinders Medical Centre in Adelaide following a trackwork incident yesterday morning. The extent of the 28-year-old's injuries remain unclear although Racing SA confirmed that it is liaising with Reynolds' family regarding her condition and treatment. "We are providing support to Chelsey's family and will provide an update on her condition as soon as we are able," a spokesperson said. Reynolds, who is apprenticed to Finnis-based trainers Wayne Francis and Glen Kent, has ridden seven winners since making her debut in July 2023.

Storm causes Kyneton abandonment

Yesterday's meeting at Kyneton was abandoned due to storm activity in the area. Following the running of race four, lightning commenced and after 45 minutes of consistent rainfall the meeting was officially abandoned at 3:40pm, with the storms forecast to continue throughout the afternoon.

Ears Back preparing for further stakes targets

Ears Back

RACE IMAGES

John Blackadder is intent on gaining some black type for his mare Ears Back (Jakkalberry) and will trek down to Ascot Park this weekend to ready her for her next stakes assignment. The five-year-old mare was fourth in the White Robe Lodge WFA (Gr 3, 1600m) at Wingatui earlier this month, giving Blackadder the confidence to press on towards next month's Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Riccarton. Blackadder has aimed Ears Back toward Saturday's Southland Stakes (1400m), which he believes will ready her nicely for her Riccarton assignment. "She has come through her White Robe run well. The wet track got her in that last 100 metres, but I was very happy with the run," Blackadder said. "The main reason I am taking her down there [Ascot Park] is to get a run into her before the Valachi Downs. The way her racing pattern is at the moment, she has been going on the pace, so 1400 metres shouldn't really worry her. I have got Lisa Allpress on, which will be nice before she heads over to Saudi Arabia."

Wexford hold strong hand at Taupo

Wexford Stables will be looking to continue their golden run when they head to Taupo today. The Matamata-based operation will line-up three favourites on the six-race card and are expected to kick-off the midweek meeting with a bang, with the Cliff Matson-owned three-year-olds Jungleland (Tarzino) and Cupid's Arrow (El Roca) set to run in the opening maiden over 1800 metres. Jungleland was runner-up over a mile at Te Rapa last start, while Cupid's Arrow posted two placings before running sixth at the same meeting. "Jungleland has been building really well. His last race was really encouraging," said Andrew Scott, who trains the gelding in partnership with Lance O'Sullivan. "He lacked a bit of luck in his first two [starts], where he got back with bad barriers, but he is starting to put it together and he has continued to go the right way since his last race and has grown in confidence. He should be pretty hard to beat. Cupid's Arrow has lacked a bit of luck in her last two. She got caught three-wide in both of her last runs. Everything indicates that she should stay well. She has got a wonderful constitution and she certainly deserves a win." Stablemate Geriatrix (Almanzor) will have a drop in class when he lines-up in a Rating 65 contest over 1400 metres, having last competed in the $1.5 million TAB Karaka Millions 3YO (RL, 1600m) where he beat just one runner home.

Mazzolino retired

Time has been called on the racing career of Savabeel's (Zabeel) Group-winning daughter Mazzolino (Savabeel). The Waikato Stud-bred and owned mare was prepared at Cambridge by Stephen Marsh and was successful on three occasions, including the Desert Gold Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m), and placed a further five times at stakes level. In foal to Super Seth (Dundeel), Mazzolino also ran fourth in this season's Zabeel Classic (Gr 1, 2000m) and signed off with a midfield finish in the Herbie

Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) last weekend. The four-year-old is a sister to the two-time Group 1 winner Atishu with their dam Posy (No Excuse Needed), a sister to three-time elite-level winner to Daffodil. "She has done a great job and did us proud, she's going to be a very good addition to the Waikato Stud broodmare band," Marsh said.

HK: Gold Cup attracts 11 entries

Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) winner Romantic Warrior (Acclamation) features among the 11 entries announced yesterday for the Hong Kong Gold (Gr 1, 2000m) which will take place at Sha Tin on February 25. Senor Toba (Toronado), Straight Arron (Fastnet Rock) and Voyage Bubble (Deep Field) are other notable names among the entries. Golden Sixty (Medaglia D'Oro), a two-time winner of the race, was not on the list as the world's leading money earner of all-time continues to recover from the issue with his near-fore leg which prevented him running in last month's Stewards' Cup (Gr 1, 1600m).

Group 2 winner Aromatic to sell on Gavelhouse

Aromatic (Sacred Falls), a Group 2-winning mare, will be offered on gavelhouse.com next week, with bidding set to close at 7pm (NZT) on Monday.

Purchased by NZ$160,000 at the New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sale, the seven-year-old carried the tangerine colours of Te Akau Racing to three Group wins and another six stakes placings in a career that spanned five seasons.

"She's been one of the most genuine mares that Te Akau has raced in the last few years," Te Akau principal David Ellis said. "I bought her for $160,000 as a yearling at Karaka, and she provided so many thrills for her owners throughout her career.

"She showed a lot of ability right from day one, and we were always confident that she'd go on to win some good races. She did that, and one of the best things about her was that she just kept getting better and better with age. She had her best season as a six-year-old.

"She's a very correct mare with an excellent pedigree – she comes from an outstanding family. She has a lot of quality about her and built up a lot of value with what she did on the racetrack."

Aromatic was bred by Tony Rider and is out of the Group 3 winner and Group 1-performed Vikezzchardonnay (Don Eduardo), who is also the dam of the stakes-placed O'Reilly (Last Tycoon) mare Splendido.

Initially trained by Jamie Richards and later by Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson, Aromatic had 32 starts for six wins, 14 placings and NZ$419,300 in prize-money.

The mare's most high-profile victories came during her six-year-old season, winning the Travis Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m), Manawatu Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) and Counties Cup (Gr 3, 2100m), while she was also placed in the Metric Mile (Gr 3, 1600m), Cuddle Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m), Waikato Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) and Staphanos Classic (Listed, 1950m).

Brilliant to see BONITA QUEEN win dominantly today. We purchased this well-related I Am Invincible filly with @BBakerRacing and @ClarkeBstock at the 2022 @mmsnippets Gold Coast Yearling Sale and she impressed us right from her early trials. Congratulations to everyone involved.. Video Below >>

Big win on debut by 2YO ⚡ ZOUSAIN ⚡ filly DRIFTING! 🌟

The @SnowdenRacing1 trained juvenile was a $160k @inglis_sales Classic graduate from @murrullastud. Purchased by her trainers & @wj_bloodstock. Bred by Baddock Bloodstock. Great result for the exciting son of Zoustar! #Zousain. Video Below >>

Thanks to all who inspected our draft at @inglis_sales over the past week, and good luck to the lucky purchasers! 🍀
Kudos to the team, both at the farm and the sales. The horses looked amazing, behaved impeccably, and have gone to great stables 🐾
