Slipper winner Stay Inside off the mark as Incognito impresses in Breeder's Plate

By Trevor Marshallsea

Newgate Farm's Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m)-winning stallion Stay Inside (Extreme Choice) exploded out of the gates as a sire when his first runner, million-dollar colt Incognito, completed a circle for trainer Michael Freedman in taking Saturday's Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) at Randwick.

Freedman and his brother Richard prepared Stay Inside for his 2021 Slipper triumph before the pair went their separate ways, and the irrepressible progress Michael has made since establishing his own Randwick stable is well poised to continue with a host of formidable young runners.

Incognito looks set to be another of them.

The handsome colt was bred by Black Soil Bloodstock - formerly the BoomTime Racing team behind Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) - and was offered by that stallion's Queensland home farm, Eureka Stud, at Magic Millions Gold Coast.

Purchased for the neat $1 million by James Harron and Tony Fung's colts partnerships, the colt wasn't quite a headline-grabber at Sydney's first official two-year-old trials on September 22.

day, he raced in third for Tommy Berry, hit the lead at the 200 metres, but weakened late to run a 0.4 lengths third behind Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott's Revengeance (Hellbent).

In the season's first two-year-old race, however, Incognito looked a vastly improved horse.

Firming from $6 to $5, and with Berry keeping the ride, he sat fifth of the eight starters well off the pace set by another son of Stay Inside in second-favourite Eviction Notice, the eye-catching 7.8 lengths winner at the trials.

Berry released the brakes on Incognito entering the straight as Eviction Notice soon again advertised the frailties of trial form, weakening badly in the last 200 metres as $2.70 favourite I'm Ya Huckleberry (Home Affairs) surged towards the front.

But before that son of another keenly awaited first-season sire could take the lead, Incognito bounded to the front imposingly to his outside. I'm Ya Huckleberry stuck to his task

His times eclipsed that set by Shiki (Too Darn Hot) in winning the fillies' Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) 35 minutes later. Incognito set 57.31 seconds compared with the Waterhouse-Bott filly's 57.54, while his last 600 metres of 33.98 bettered Shiki's 34.13.

Continued from page 2 While Harron celebrated heartily in the winners' enclosure as his latest seven-figure colt successfully completed his first step towards stallionhood, Freedman said he was delighted with the win.

"It's a big thrill to win a race like this, but to win it with a son of a colt that we trained for the Golden Slipper is an extra big thrill," said Freedman, blaming a lack of experience for Incognito's late fade at the trials.

"He's always really impressed us at home. He's always shown he's got a good turn of foot, which he showed in the trial, but I think he just got up beside those other horses and was having a bit of a look at them.

"We worked him with an older horse here on Tuesday morning to give him something to aim up on, and it was vastly different. He sat off the back of him and worked past him and did it well, so I thought if we could replicate that today, we'd be thereabouts.

"Tommy said to me that if we get the right sort of trail and the speed today, I know he'll quicken up really well, which he did. "

Freedman tipped further improvement from Incognito - saying he was still taking "a little bit of a look" at I'm Ya Huckleberry to his inside late on instead of kicking clear.

The youngest Freedman brother said the colt would be sent straight out for a spell before targets in the new year, possibly the $3 million Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) at the Gold Coast on January 10.

"We'll have a chat with James [Harron] and the crew," he said. "He is a Magic Millions graduate, so I guess that is a possibility. Otherwise, a nice break and then start focusing on the autumn."

Berry was delighted, and a touch relieved, the million-dollar colt had lived up to his price tag and track form.

"I have been let down plenty of times in the past, so you just go there hoping they're going to go out and do what they've shown us at home," he said.

"The first time Michael's horses are let off the bit are in their first trial and I gave him a gallop on Tuesday morning and I walked in after it and Michael and I just raised our eyebrows like, 'Jeez, what was that?'

"He put in a really, really sharp piece of work. We knew he had come on very well since then."

Continued from page 3 “He just knuckled a little bit at the start but I reckon that’s probably what won him the race. He came back to me lovely after that, executed himself well.

“He’s a son of Stay Inside and I really like this stallion, not just because I won a Slipper on him but his horses are so mature and they’re ready-made.”

Jockey Adam Hyeronimus said Coolmore stallion Home Affairs’ (I Am Invincible) first runner I’m Ya Huckleberry - a $400,000 Gold Coast purchase - was gallant in defeat for the Waterhouse-Bott stable.

“Disappointed not to win,” he said. “I’m on a very good horse but full credit to the winner, he quickened up well. He beat us fair and square but my horse is very exciting.”

Revengeance gave Tulloch Lodge both minor placings by running third at $8.50.

“He is a lovely horse. Just raced greenly. The last section of the race was really strong from him,” said his jockey Josh Parr.

Posting another result for the burgeoning broodmare sire career of I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), Incognito (2 c Stay Inside - Bleu Zebra by I Am Invincible) is the second foal out of the triple champion stallion’s daughter Bleu Zebra, a half-sister to Melbourne Listed winner Fox Swift (Foxwedge).

Third dam Pay My Bail (Justice Prevails) was New Zealand’s Champion 3YO Sprinter of 2003-04, a five-time stakes winner, and threw two black type victors in White Moss (Mossman) and White Sage (Reset).

Bleu Zebra now has a yearling filly by Darley shuttler Pinatubo (Shamardal), and a colt foal by Eureka’s Don Corleone (Extreme Choice).

Business as usual for Too Darn Hot as Shiki fends off rivals in the Gimcrack

Too Darn Hot's (Dubawi) ballistic stud career looks set to continue unabated, with the Darley shuttler claiming yet another Australian black type success when Shiki took the season's first two-year-old fillies' race in Saturday's Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Randwick.

A $420,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast purchase for Kurrinda Bloodstock and the Waterhouse-Bott team, Shiki was the fastest winner among the nine at Sydney's first official two-year-old trials on September 22.

And the powerfully built filly lived up to that rating with a fighting, if narrow, victory in the Gimcrack, giving Tulloch Lodge their second win in the race in four runnings, after Gai Waterhouse broke a surprising duck in the event in 2022 through Platinum Jubilee (Zoustar).

Ridden by Tim Clark - who also was aboard for her 0.6 lengths trial win - Shiki began well from gate six of 11 and took up the lead after 300 metres.

She led by a length and a half under a hold at the 400 metres, and while Clark had

beaten a further 0.3 lengths.

Bred by South Australia's Cornerstone Stud and Millar Racing and sold at the Gold Coast by Riverstone Lodge, Shiki became the 11th Australian stakes winner from 114 runners for Too Darn Hot, this country's champion first and second season sire of the past two terms.

The ten-year-old has returned after a year off the shuttle to stand at Darley Kelvinside this spring for $275,000 (inc GST), up from $44,000 in 2023. He now has 20 winners - three at stakes level - from 60 runners in the new season.

Shiki's success gave Too Darn Hot 28 black type victors from 375 runners worldwide, at 7.5 per cent.

Co-trainer Adrian Bott said Shiki would be spelled immediately with an eye to major two-year-old targets later in the season, and hinted she could win by larger margins in future with better racecraft.

"She deserved that win," he said. "She's a very sharp filly. Just got to teach her to relax a little bit, which no doubt she will going forward.

"I've been so pleased with the way she's been doing everything for us at home. She'll go away for a nice break now, and next preparation she'll come back a lot more mature mentally and physically.

"She's been a little bit rough in that regard all preparation. She's been making good improvements, but there's still a lot to come. I think that's an indication of where she's at and the improvement to come. I was just delighted that she was able to do it today. She's obviously got some natural speed and natural brilliance."

Bott said Shiki had been "drawing comparisons" around the stable to their 2024

Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) heroine Lady Of Camelot (Written Tycoon).

"She's done a great job today," he said. "She'll go for a break now and be set for a similar campaign, hopefully, she can be just as effective."

Clark concurred Shiki would benefit from "harnessing" her abundant speed.

"Just today, she's come out just a bit gassy and I just had to go with her and work her through a little bit. To her credit, she was really brave that last bit," he said.

Shiki (2 f Too Darn Hot - Jest Excel by Exceed And Excel) is the fourth and best foal out of Jest Excel (Exceed And Excel), a three-time Queensland provincial winner from 900 metres to 1000 metres and a half-sister to 2004 VRC Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 2, 1000m) victor Jiang (Testa Rossa).

Jest Excel now has a yearling filly by Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon), and was covered last December by Artorius (Flying Artie).

Hayes brothers hoping for another Diamond in Eurocanto

Lindsay Park hope they have another two-year-old star by Per Incanto (Street Cry) after Eurocanto flew home to win a thrilling edition of Victoria's first juvenile race of the season, the Maribyrnong Trial Stakes (Listed, 1000m).

Bred and sold to the Hayes brothers by Tony Bott's Evergreen Stud for $250,000 at Magic Millions Gold Coast, Eurocanto was solid in the betting at $8 after a pair of jump-out seconds under Mark Zahra, who retained the ride at Flemington on Saturday. Cont. on page 7

Bearing the blue with a red V of senior part-owner Carl Holt, the colt was outsped after a decent start from gate three and settled seventh near the fence in the field of five colts and five fillies.

Eurocanto was still buried away at the 400 metres as Zahra looked for a way clear, drifting towards the outside. The colt finally found a passage at the 200 metres but was still four lengths off the leaders.

However, under vigorous riding he finished powerfully to snatch victory on the bob of the head from Clinton McDonald's gallant filly Streisand (Magnus), the $5.50 third-favourite.

In a bunched finish, Team McEvoy filly One Day At A Time (Bivouac) also finished well for third, beaten 0.5 lengths, at $4. Waterhouse-Bott's $3.70 favourite and Sydney official trials winner Knightsbridge (Farnan) was fifth, 1.4 lengths off the winner.

For Ben, JD and Will Hayes, Eurocanto revives memories of their 2023 Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Little Brose, another son of Per Incanto who's this year crossed the Tasman to stand alongside his sire at Little Avondale Stud. Per Incanto's first son at stud is standing for $15,000 (plus GST).

After Eurocanto's win, JD Hayes said he could draw a comparison between the colt and Little Brose, who came from seventh to win his Blue Diamond by a length.

"It's a little bit early, but he was a little 'Brosey' there. It was a terrific ride. He got last crack at them and he attacked the line, which is what you like to see. It was a professional performance," said Hayes, who lauded bloodstock agent Dean Hawthorne for helping in the colt's purchase.

"He was picked out by our sales team up at the Magic Millions. Dean Hawthorne does a terrific job. We really liked him and we've had good success with the stallion.

"He's an athletic style of horse with plenty of improvement to come and it was good to be able to kick off his career in that fashion."

Zahra sprang a surprise by saying "I usually don't like riding two-year-olds too early", but added he had made an exception for Eurocanto.

"When the Hayes's call, I'll pick up the phone because they'll usually identify one that they're happy with and they want me to trial it. It is a good process and if I like it, then I'll stick with it," he said.

"That is what happened with this guy. I trialed him twice and liked him two times and he's got the job done today.

"His manners in the barriers left a little bit to be desired, but I just left him alone. It is a tough test first-up up the straight over 1000 [metres] and I like to be the last one on the scene.

"He did that well. He was able to travel up behind them and showed good grit late to win. I was able to come down the middle and quicken, which is hard for them to do. Good effort and well trained."

Hayes said Eurocanto might now be headed towards the Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) on Melbourne Cup day.

"We'll see how he pulls up and it would be tempting, all systems go, into Cup week," he said. "But first and foremost we'll see how he is first thing in the morning."

Eurocanto became the 34th stakes winner worldwide from 672 runners - at 5.1 per cent - for Per Incanto, a tally that includes nine Group 1 victors. In Australia, the 21-year-old has 14 black type winners from 198 starters, at 7.1 per cent, while in New Zealand he has 23 from 408 at 5.6 per cent.

Per Incanto is standing his 15th season at stud at Little Avondale this spring for $60,000 (plus GST), up from $50,000 last year.

Eurocanto (2 c Per Incanto - Shespending by Savabeel) is the second foal and first runner for New Zealand mare Shespending (Savabeel), a one-start maiden.

Third dam Splashing Out (O'Reilly) bore two multiple Group winners from five foals: dual New Zealand Group winner Splurge (Savabeel) - Shespending's three-quarter brother - and dual Melbourne Group winner Shopaholic (Pins).

Sold back across the Tasman at the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale of 2023 for $260,000 to Botty's Bloodstock, while carrying Eurocanto, Shespending now has a yearling colt and a filly foal, both by Farnan (Not A Single Doubt).

All roads lead to the Cup for dominant Turnbull winner Sir Delius

High-priced import Sir Delius (Frankel) gave another strong indication of why connections paid $2.7 million for him by storming to an imperious victory in Saturday's Turnbull Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Flemington.

In his first clash with Via Sistina (Fastnet Rock), and as a $7 chance to her $2.60, the Waterhouse-Bott trained entire hugely outshone the Horse of the Year, relegating her to a well-beaten third as he exploded late for a 1.8 lengths win.

Sir Delius was forced to race wide without cover from the outside gate of 14, including through the early stages of Flemington's sweeping large arc, before Craig Williams managed to tuck him in with cover in the one-one position from the halfway mark.

After Blake Shinn aboard Antino (Redwood) was forced into an early wide move to share the lead from the 800 metres, Williams gained a lovely smother in the middle of the pack on Sir Delius, while James McDonald tried to improve from the read on Via Sistina. Cont. on page 8

Eurocanto

Antino had the lead from the 350 metres but, in the clear, Sir Delius came out after him, drew level at the 150 metres, then produced an electrifying burst of acceleration, under second top-weight of 58 kilograms, to put the race to bed.

Via Sistina continued her run into third place, but was 2.2 lengths off the winner. Half Yours (St Jean) - one of only two Australian-breds in a field packed with eight northern hemisphere imports - worked home well for fourth to show why he is favourite for the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m).

Despite their finishing order, Via Sistina still holds sway over Sir Delius in betting for the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m), which the eight-year-old mare won with a record time and margin last year, at $2.80 and $3.50 respectively.

But the five-year-old Sir Delius is now alone at the top of betting for the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), at just $3.50. Second favourite is Australian Bloodstock's coming Irish raider Al Riffa (Wootton Bassett) at $5, with Australian-bred Revelare (So You Think) next at $11.

After six starts in France highlighted by a Group 3 success and a Group 1 third over 2400 metres, Sir Delius topped last year's Tattersalls Autumn Horses In Training Sale, when purchased by Waterhouse-Bott, Sir Owen Glenn's Go Bloodstock, De Burgh Equine and McKeever Bloodstock. Their price of 1,300,000gns, or AU$2.7 million, was a record for the sale, smashing the previous mark of 1,000,000gns.

The bold play has reaped instant dividends. In just four starts in Australia, Sir Delius has earned $1.23 million, on top of the $272,000 he made in his six French runs, the last of which was an eighth in the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m).

Racing in Go Bloodstock's yellow and white, Sir Delius debuted in Australia with a 1.3 lengths victory at $1.80 in Doomben's Chairman's Handicap (Gr 3, 2000m) in May, before an eye-catching first-up 0.2 lengths second in Randwick's Chelmsford Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m).

He then took Caulfield's Underwood Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) by 0.5 lengths at $2.10, before Saturday's explosive triumph which silenced anyone still questioning his quality.

"He's a most exciting horse," said co-trainer

Gai Waterhouse, celebrating her 163rd Group 1 - her 29th with Adrian Bott - and praising Williams for his 86th.

"He had a wide draw, and he elected very quickly, which he said to me he might, to come in midfield."

Waterhouse said after the home turn "the waters opened, and he went boom".

"That was the exciting part - the boom," she said.

"He's put on condition. He's relaxed more and whatever he runs in, they're going to have to beat him."

Williams said he'd been confident before the race that Sir Delius could overcome his wide draw.

"In Group 1 races, you don't think you can win like that, but we were very confident he could do it," Williams said.

"We had the outside barrier draw. Gai and Adrian were very good about having an open book without too much pressure about riding him.

"I had to use a few carrots to find a spot, but when the chips are down, this horse is a winner."

Williams said he was unsure about Sir Delius's maximum distance, but said the Melbourne Cup - in which he has 55.5 kilograms - was well worth trying for a horse who's already shaping as a hot stallion prospect.

"I just said [Sir Delius] will never have 55-and-a-half kilos in the Melbourne Cup again," Williams said.

"I worked him during the week at Flemington, and he walked out and he owned the track.

"He owns everything he does and today you saw that attitude. He puts the writing on the wall when under pressure against these top horses, and he's delivering."

Sir Delius has always had a price tag commensurate with his regal bloodlines.

Breeders David and Trish Brown of Furnace Mill Stud sold him to Coolmore's MV Magnier for 675,000gns ($1.45m) at the Tattersalls December Foal Sale in 2021.

His dam, Whatami (Daylami), has bred five winners and three stakes victors among eight runners. His siblings include his Wolferton Stakes (Listed, 2000m) winning full-brother Juan Elcano and the Group 3-winning Nkosikazi (Cape Cross).

Whatami is a sister to Group 2 winner James Garfield's (Exceed And Excel) dam Whazzat, who in turn is the second dam of another Group 2 victor in Wimbledon Hawkeye (Kameko).

One of 169 stakes winners globally for Juddmonte's super sire Frankel (Galileo), Sir Delius is the stallion's 19th in the southern hemisphere. That group now has four Group 1 winners, the others being Australian-breds Hungry Heart and Converge, and British import Mirage Dancer.

McDonald said of Via Sistina: "I think she's going well. That tough run will harden her up a bit for the Cox Plate."

Half Yours's rider Jamie Melham was full of praise over the five-year-old gelding's last run before the Caulfield Cup, in which he has 52.5k kilograms, having carried 56 kilograms on Saturday.

"Extremely excited for two weeks' time with this horse," she said. "He's flying."

First for Stay Inside

Newgate Farm's Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m)-winning first-season sire Stay Inside (Extreme Choice) sired his first winner and first stakes winner when Incognito (2 c ex Bleu Zebra by I Am Invincible) took out the Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) at Randwick. Bred by Black Soil Bloodstock, the colt was a $1,000,000 purchase for James Harron Bloodstock Colt Partnership and Tony Fung Colts from the Eureka Stud draft. He is the second foal and first winner out of three-time winning I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) mare Bleu Zebra, herself a half sister to Listed winner Fox Swift (Foxwedge), and hails from the family of Champion NZ Sprinter Pay My Bail (Justice Prevails). Stay Inside stands at Newgate Farm for an increased fee of $66,000 (inc GST) this season.

Six for Extreme Choice

Newgate Farm's Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) notched up his sixth individual Group 1 winner when star filly Apocalyptic (3 f ex Shadow by Medaglia D'Oro) landed Saturday's Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick in emphatic fashion. Bred by Etak Thoroughbreds Pty Ltd, Apocalyptic was a $400,000 purchase for her trainer, MyRacehorse and Julian Blaxland Bloodstock at the 2024 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. She is the second foal and second winner out of Shadow (Medaglia D'Oro), a granddaughter of dual Group 1 winner Virage De Fortune (Anabaa), from the family of champion Emancipation (Bleachingly). Apocalyptic's brother sold to Chris Waller, Mulcaster Bloodstock and B2B Thoroughbreds for $1.7 million at the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale earlier this year. Extreme Choice stands at Newgate for a fee of $330,000 (inc GST), up from $275,000 last year.

Freedman finds star in Flight Stakes heroine

Michael Freedman has handled plenty of top-tier horses, but none have stirred his excitement like Apocalyptic, who confirmed her status as Sydney's standout filly with a dominant victory in Saturday's Flight Stakes at Randwick.

The rising star added the race to her earlier Princess Series triumphs in the Furious Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and Tea Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m).

Ridden by Tommy Berry, the $1.65 favourite overcame an awkward draw to settle second and took control in the straight, surging clear for a 1.2 lengths win over Group 2 winner Within The Law (Lucky Vega) ($6), with Karinska (Spirit Of Boom) ($26) another 0.2 lengths away in third.

Freedman said the positive ride hadn't been the original plan but praised Berry's decision-making: "We didn't necessarily want to be up as close as we were, but when Tommy looked like being caught three-wide without cover, sitting up at the leader's girth became Plan B. Great turn of foot. Great filly."

Freedman will monitor how Apocalyptic comes through the run before locking in her next target, with Melbourne options such as the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) or Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) both under consideration.

"I haven't been [this excited before]," Freedman said. "It's quite rare to see a horse come out in her first four starts – she was unlucky first-up – and then go Group 2, Group 2, Group 1. It's pretty rare air. She's a special filly. I'm a bit lost for words. You spend a lot of time trying to find horses like this and the world is her oyster."

Four for The Autumn Sun

Arrowfield Stud stallion The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) registered his fourth individual Group 1 winner when star mare Autumn Glow (4 m ex Via Africa by Var) extended her unbeaten record to seven with an impressive victory in the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick on Saturday. Sent off the $1.75 favourite, Chris Waller's four-year-old was off the bridle before the home turn under Kerrin McEvoy but showed plenty of reserve to stretch out the 1.4 lengths winner over Fully Lit (Hellbent) with Pericles (Street Boss) just 0.1 lengths further back in third. Bred by Newhaven Park, Autumn Glow was the highest-priced yearling sold at the 2023 Inglis Australian Easter Sale with owners Arrowfield and Hermitage Thoroughbreds paying $1.8 million for her out of the Silverdale Farm draft, with that operation having teamed up with Shrone Bloodstock to purchase the filly for $600,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Weanling Sale in 2022. The mare is a three-quarter sister to Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner and now Newgate Farm-based sire In The Congo (Snitzel) with the pair being out of three-time South African Grade 1 scorer Via Africa (Var). The Autumn Sun is standing at Arrowfield for a fee of $66,000 (inc GST), having not stood last year due to injury.

Three for Make Believe

Ballylinch Stud stallion Make Believe (Makfi) was supplied with his third individual Group 1 winner on Saturday when Royal Supremacy (4 g ex Adelasia by Iffraaj) gamely landed The Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m) at Randwick. The Ciaran Maher-trained four-year-old tracked favourite Soul Of Spain (Phoenix Of Spain) into the final bend and after winding up ominously, got the better of the Chris Waller-trained import to win the Group 1 by 0.8 lengths. Stablemate Juja Kibo (Belardo) finished just 0.3 lengths further adrift in third. Bred by John O'Connor, Royal Supremacy was a 65,000gns purchase for JS Bloodstock and Andrew Balding out of Ballylinch Stud's 2022 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale Book 2 draft before being purchased privately by owners Australian Bloodstock. He is one of two stakes winners out of the winning Iffraaj (Zafonic) mare Adelasia, the other being Listed winner

McEvoy praises 'champion' Autumn Glow after Group 1 triumph

Jockey Kerrin McEvoy was full of admiration for Autumn Glow after her dazzling Group 1 victory in Saturday's Epsom Handicap at Randwick.

The unbeaten mare overcame a wide draw, a hefty 54.5 kilograms, and her first attempt at a mile to record her seventh win from as many starts. Adding to the merit of her performance, Autumn Glow lost a shoe mid-race.

McEvoy admitted he was briefly concerned when she appeared to flatten out on the home turn before finding another gear. "She pulled a shoe, so that might have been part of it," McEvoy said.

"For a hundred metres or so I was a bit worried, but then she was good. She changed onto her fresh leg on straightening and away she went. She is a champion in the making, I think. I don't like calling them champions too early, but she has gone to a new level today."

Trainer Chris Waller echoed McEvoy's admiration, though he was quick to focus on the bigger picture. The win brought back memories of Winx (Street Cry), who claimed the same race a decade ago, though Waller was careful not to draw direct comparisons.

"Yes, it has [reminded me of Winx]. But there's a long way to go," Waller said. "We'll just place her right. It's all about Group 1s for me. Probably one more run this prep — maybe the Golden Eagle, or if not, the Empire Rose. They're both great races and mean a lot to me."

Meanwhile, Arrowfield Stud's John Messara admitted that Autumn Glow could be on her way to earning a similar status as that of Arrowfield's five-time Group 1-winning mare Miss Finland.

"It's hard to beat what Miss Finland did 20 years ago, but Autumn Glow is working her way towards getting to that level," Messara said.

"She's well and truly on her way. It's early days for her, she's only had the seven starts, but she's unbeaten and today was very, very tough. She met all the challenges."

"I was very nervous, but she's got enormous depth. She's very game, and she's got a good cardio vascular system and a great stride. And losing a shoe 300 metres from the finish wouldn't have helped."

"We don't know what the bottom for her is really, because she's met every challenge we've put before her. She's very, very exciting."

Adelaide (Lawman). The mare is herself a half-sister to Group winners Fight Club (Lavirco) and Flambo (Platini). Make Believe stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season at Ballylinch Stud for a fee of €8,000 (approx. AU$14,217).

28 for Too Darn Hot

Darley shuttler Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) sired his 28th individual and 11th southern hemisphere stakes winner when Shiki (2 f ex Jest Excel by Exceed And Excel) took out the Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Randwick on Saturday. Bred by Cornerstone Stud and Millar Racing, the filly was purchased by Suman Hedge Bloodstock and Riverstone Lodge for $150,000 at the 2024 Inglis Sydney Weanling Sale, and was then purchased by Kurrinda Bloodstock and her trainers Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott for $420,000 at the 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Shiki is the first stakes winner out of winning Exceed And Excel (Danehill) mare Jest Excel, and hails from the family of stakes winners Blue Genes (Testa Rossa) and Elegant Shell (Deep Diver). Too Darn Hot has returned to shuttling duties and stands at Darley Kelvinside in New South Wales for $275,000 (inc GST) this season.

98 for Lonhro

SPORTPIX

Darley's late champion sire Lonhro (Octagonal) sired his 98th individual stakes winner on Saturday when Attica (3 c ex Savatiano by Street Cry) scored a dominant victory in the Dulcify Stakes (Listed, 1600m) at Randwick. Trained by Joe Pride and ridden by Adam Hyeronimus, the colt showed an electric turn of foot, surging from the back of the field then racing away to score by 1.9 lengths, beating Ruination (Wootton Bassett) with Flying Orchid (Flying Artie) a further 1.2 lengths behind in third. Bred and raced by Godolphin, he is the first foal out of multiple Group 2 winner and Group 1-placed mare Savatiano (Street Cry), the mare herself a half-sister to stakes winners Vilana (Hallowed Crown) and Athiri (Lonhro). Lonhro died last year aged 25.

Briasa produces perfect Everest prep in Premiere Stakes

The Everest (Gr 1, 1200m)-bound sprinter Briasa (5 g Smart Missile – Mary's Grace by Twining) confirmed his credentials with a powerful victory in Saturday's $1 million Premiere Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick. The Team Hawkes-trained son of Smart Missile (Fastnet Rock) unleashed his trademark turn of foot to defeat fellow Everest contender Jimmysstar (Per Incanto) by 0.7 lengths, with Mazu (Maurice) a further 2.9 lengths back in third. Former boom horse Private Harry (Harry Angel) disappointed again, weakening to finish fifth, 4.5 lengths behind the winner. Ridden by regular jockey Tyler Schiller, Briasa produced a brilliant closing burst, leaving co-trainer Michael Hawkes confident he's peaking perfectly ahead of the $20 million Everest on October 18. "To give Tyler credit, he just flowed and he's actually a joy to watch," Hawkes said. "The part I loved the most was when he stalked and just kept him in a rhythm. He's got so much raw talent—he doesn't even know how good he is." Hawkes also noted that despite the hype surrounding Hong Kong's visiting star Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress), the race is far from one-dimensional. "It's not a one-horse race—it never has been," he said. "We've travelled horses before, like Chautauqua, and know how hard it can be. For Ka Ying Rising, everything needs to go right—he's in our backyard now." Schiller believes Briasa is still improving with every start. "He's come back a lot more relaxed this prep, but I still think there's more improvement in him—which is scary," he said. Briasa now sits on the third line of betting at $11 for The Everest, with Ka Ying Rising the firm favourite at $1.60.

Two for I Am Immortal

Swettenham Stud's I Am Immortal (I Am Invincible) registered his second individual stakes winner on Saturday when McGaw (3 g ex Niki Piki Milo by Librettist) defeated a strong field in the Danehill Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) at Flemington. Trained by Emma-Lee and David Browne, the gelding surged home down the outside under Damian Lane to score on the line, defeating race favourite My Gladiola (I Am Invincible) by 0.1 lengths, with Godolphin colt Tentryis (Street Boss) another 1.5 lengths behind in third. Bred by Havaparty Investments Pty Ltd, McGaw was purchased by Sparta Racing for $14,000 out of Stonehouse Thoroughbreds' draft at the 2024 Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale. He is the third winner and first stakes winner out of the stakes-winning Librettist (Danzig) mare Niki Piki Milo, herself a half-sister to Group 1 placegetters Bella Gioia (Swiss Ace), Bella Mente (El Roca) and Navigator (El Roca). I Am Immortal is standing at a reduced fee of $8,800 (inc GST).

66 for So You Think

Getta Good Feeling

SPORTPIX

Coolmore sire So You Think (High Chaparral) registered his 66th individual stakes winner on Saturday when the Danny O'Brien-trained Getta Good Feeling (3 f ex Marquise Da Rossa by Testa Rossa) broke her maiden in thrilling style in the Edward Manifold Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Flemington. The filly, who was second in a Sale maiden last time out and placed in her two other starts, was hemmed in behind runners at a crucial stage but once a gap presented she blitzed through to nail Just A Journey (Justify) by 0.1 lengths on the line. Mating Call (Brazen Beau) finished another 0.5 lengths back in third. Bred by Phoenix Broodmare Farm, Getta Good Feeling was a $400,000 purchase for Suman Hedge Bloodstock (FBAA) at the 2023 Magic Millions Gold Coast Weanling Sale before selling to Dean Hawthorne Bloodstock for $525,000 at the 2024 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. She is the second stakes winner out of Marquise Da Rossa (Testa Rossa), being a half-sister to CS Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) winner and Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) runner-up Elliptical (Dundeel). So You Think is standing at Coolmore Australia for a reduced fee of $44,000 (inc GST).

Eight for Roaring Lion

Late Tweenhills Stud sire Roaring Lion (Kitten's Joy) sired his eighth individual stakes winner when Valiant King (5 g ex Assembly by Candy Ride) sprung a surprise to win The Bart Cummings (Gr 3, 2520m) at Flemington on Saturday. The Chris Waller-trained gelding made rapid headway in the final stages off a strong pace set by Gilded Water (Fastnet Rock) and eventually reeled in that rival to score his first stakes win by 2.8 lengths at odds of $61. Torranzino (Tarzino) raced into second late, with Gilded Water holding on for third, another 0.4 lengths behind. Bred by The Assembly Partnership, Valiant King is the first stakes winner out of the winning Candy Ride (Ride The Rails) mare Assembly, herself a half-sister to stakes winner Seismic Wave (Tapit). Roaring Lion died in 2019 after suffering complications from colic.

Valiant King books Cup ticket with Bart Cummings win

Valiant King booked his ticket to the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) with an impressive staying display in The Bart Cummings at Flemington, storming home to claim the coveted ballot exemption into the $8 million race on November 4. The gelding, who finished 13th in last year's Cup behind Knight's Choice (Extreme Choice), followed a different preparation this spring. After resuming with an unplaced effort over 1500 metres in Sydney, he was sent south for a Flemington jump-out before targeting The Bart Cummings rather than the Turnbull Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) on the same card. Winning trainer Chris Waller's assistant Charlie Duckworth said the team had fitness concerns but felt the race was ideal in both grade and distance. "Fitness was our biggest concern, which is why he held a nomination in the Turnbull as well as this," Duckworth said. "He was much better suited to this race. We were unlucky to miss the Sydney Cup in the autumn with a foot issue, but it'll be much better to win a Melbourne Cup than a Sydney Cup." Winning rider Jye McNeil, who steered Twilight Payment (Teofilo) to Cup glory in 2020, admitted he wasn't sure he'd catch the leader turning for home. "I thought we had a big task ahead of us," McNeil said. "But once I got onto Mark Zahra's back [aboard Berkshire Breeze], I knew we'd be taken to the right spots. He quickened beautifully and really reeled them in."

34 for Per Incanto

Little Avondale's Per Incanto (Street Cry) sired his 34th individual winner on Saturday when the Ben, JD and Will Hayes-trained Eurocanto (2 c ex Shespending by Savabeel) took out the Maribyrnong Trial Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington. Bred and sold by Evergreen Stud Farm, he was a $250,000 purchase for Lindsay Park at the 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. He is the second foal and first winner out of Shespending (Savabeel), who is a sister to Listed winner Tilianam, and hails from the family of Splashing Out (O'Reilly), Splurge (Savabeel) and Shopaholic (Pins). Per Incanto stands at Little Avondale Stud in New Zealand for an increased fee of $60,000 (plus GST) this season.

Four for Impending

Options (3 c ex Alternatively by New Approach) became the fourth stakes winner for Larneuk Stud sire Impending (Lonhro) on Saturday when he surged home to win the Super Impose Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at Flemington. Ridden by Harry Coffey, the colt showed an impressive finish to defeat Miwa (Maurice) by 0.1 lengths, with Officiate (Justify) a further length behind in third. Bred and raced by Godolphin, the colt is out of unraced mare Alternatively (New Approach), and hails from the family of Group 1 winners Danelagh (Danehill), Subscribe (Vengeance Of Rain) (Zabeel), Dizelle (Zabeel) and Pinot (Pierro). Impending now stands at Larneuk Stud in Victoria for an unchanged fee of $6,600 (inc GST).

War Machine superb in Everest audition

The Ben, Will and JD Hayes-trained War Machine (5 g Harry Angel - Caserta by Hussonet) staked his claim for an Everest slot with a powerful first-up victory in Saturday's Gilgai Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Flemington, bursting clear under 60 kilograms to win by two lengths in 1:08.53. The Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) hero is now rated a $15 chance for the world's richest turf race at Randwick on October 18, where he could take on David Hayes' Ka Ying Rising. "It's exciting," Will Hayes said. "There's a good one in there [Ka Ying Rising], but we're happy to take him on if we get the opportunity. Ka Ying Rising is an amazing horse, and we have a good one too. It's a good problem to have." Ridden by Blake Shinn, War Machine tracked eventual third Star Patrol (Starspangledbanner) before unleashing a sustained finish to sweep past rivals in the final 200 metres. Bridal Waltz (Snitzel) ran into second late. "Everything went to plan," Shinn said. "I wanted to conserve his energy with the weight, and when I asked him, he gave me a great response. He's come back better this prep and wouldn't be out of place in The Everest." Bred by MDJ Bloodstock Ltd, the son of Harry Angel (Dark Angel) is out of Caserta (Hussonet) and has now won seven of 14 starts and over $2.6 million. "He's a really special animal," Hayes said. "Very proud of the horse carrying 60 kilos first-up down the straight today. He's thrived in the country environment and been nothing but a blessing for us."

Miraval Rose impresses in Rose Of Kingston

Talented mare Miraval Rose (5 m Grunt - Gypsy Tucker by Zabeel) continued her winning ways and added a third black type victory to her record when she ran away with the Rose Of Kingston Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Flemington on Saturday. A last-start winner of The Taggart (1200m) at Caulfield, the Grahame Begg-trained five-year-old led all the way in Saturday's Group 2 contest, kicking clear off the front end to score impressively by 1.3 lengths over Tuileries (So You Think). On Display (Fastnet Rock) finished another 0.4 lengths back in third.

Media World scores in Paris Lane Stakes

Media World (4 h Written Tycoon - Meryl by Epaulette) recorded a second career stakes win in Saturday's Paris Lane Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Flemington. Ridden by Michael Dee for trainer Peter Snowden, the four-year-old entire defeated Cafe Millenium (Not A Single Doubt) by 0.2 lengths with a further 0.4 lengths back to Von Hauke (Savabeel) in third. The win added to Media World's success in May's Hawkesbury Guineas (Gr 3, 1400m).

Back-to-back stakes wins for Sentimental Hero

The Peter Fernie-trained Sentimental Hero (8 g Al Maher - Sentimental Star by More Than Ready) made it back-to-back stakes victories on Saturday when running out a 2.2 lengths winner of the Kalgoorlie Cup (Listed, 2300m) at Kalgoorlie. Ridden by Lucy Fiore, the eight-year-old gelding defeated Royal Law (Pierro) with the same distance further back to Currimundi (Playing God) in third place. The win followed on from Sentimental Hero's success in the Boulder Cup (Listed, 2100m) on September 21.

Magic Time confirmed for The Everest

Yulong and Inglis have joined forces for The Everest with star mare Magic Time (Hellbent) confirmed as their representative under jockey Michael Dee. The Grahame Begg-trained, dual Group 1-winning daughter of Hellbent (I Am Invincible) replaces the injured Skybird (Exosphere) in the line-up for the $20 million contest. A consistent performer with more than $3.25 million in prize-money, Magic Time was a dominant winner of the Cockram Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) first-up and ran a strong third in the Manikato Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) last start. Inglis Bloodstock CEO Sebastian Hutch said partnering with Yulong was a natural fit. "Mr Zhang and Yulong are incredible supporters not just of Inglis, but of Australian racing and breeding, so when the opportunity came up to partner with them for The Everest, it was something we were very enthusiastic about," he said. "It's disappointing not to have Skybird represent us, but this is a similar situation to when we ran Private Eye in 2022, and he finished a close second that year." Yulong general manager Jun Zhang said Magic Time's inclusion was richly deserved. "She's the ultimate model of consistency, running into the top three on 14 occasions, including winning twice at the highest level," he said. "Her versatility on all track conditions and the form she's in make her a genuine threat this year. We're thrilled she's been given the opportunity to show her class in the Inglis slot in 2025."

Hi Yo Sass Bomb explodes to claim Taranaki Breeders' Stakes

Quality mare Hi Yo Sass Bomb (7 m Complacent - Hi Yo Soo by Spartacus) announced herself as a spring force once again with a powerful late burst to capture the Taranaki Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Hawera on Saturday. The Kim Reid-trained mare produced a dazzling turn of foot in the Heavy 10 conditions, surging home under Chris Dell to overhaul Rareza (Exosphere) and score by 1.3 lengths. Connello (Time Test) finished another 0.8 lengths back in third. Race favourite Mary Shan (Almanzor) weakened to finish out of the placings after setting a sedate early tempo. Now seven, Hi Yo Sass Bomb has long been a model of consistency at stakes level, with a resume featuring a Cuddle Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) victory and a Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m) placing behind Snazzytavi (Tavistock). Reid admitted Saturday's result was particularly satisfying after a puzzling first-up effort at Otaki last month. "Last start was really disappointing, and I knew she was behind the eight ball," she said. "When she's on, she's on — and she really deserved this. She's sassy but classy, and today she was calm and focused, just how she gets when she's ready to perform." Dell added: "She's a class horse who's always competitive at the top level. When she's won, she's done it with authority — and that's exactly what she did today." Bred and part-owned by the Reid family, Hi Yo Sass Bomb has now won six races and placed in four of her 25 starts, amassing $392,770 in prize-money. Reid said she'll monitor how the mare comes through the run before deciding on her next target, but with her confidence back, more black-type success looks likely this spring.

War Princess cruises to dominant Hawera win

War Princess

RACE IMAGES

Hot favourite War Princess (U S Navy Flag) gave her backers no cause for concern at Hawera on Saturday, cruising to a comfortable three-length victory in the NZB RTR 3YO (1400m). Prepared by Peter and Trent Didham, the filly was a dual winner as a two-year-old before contesting the Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and finishing seventh when resuming in the Wanganui Guineas (Listed, 1200m). Dropping back in grade, she faced just three rivals for the $40,000 prize and made every post a winner. Ridden positively by Sam Collett, War Princess jumped cleanly, dictated from the front, and quickened effortlessly in the straight to score by 4.3 lengths over Belzoni (Belardo) with Star Onehundred (Earthlight) a further three lengths back in third. "I almost feel bad taking money for this ride," Collett quipped. "She was much stronger today after another trial, and while heavy isn't her ideal ground, she did it easily. She showed plenty of ability last season, and she's only getting better." Bred by Don and Dame Wendy Pye, who are also enjoying success with Lollapalooza (El Roca), War Princess was purchased for $77,500 from Haunui Farm's Karaka 2024 Book 1 draft by Exempt Bloodstock and Peter Didham Racing. Now the winner of three of her five starts, the filly has earned $57,560 and looks destined for richer targets. "She's got such a lovely action, and she'll be even better on top of the ground," Peter Didham said. "It's just been about finding the right races for her. She's come through today's run well, and we'll probably give her a short break before deciding what's next."

Who Knows strengthens New Zealand Cup claims

Promising stayer Who Knows (Redwood) stamped her credentials for next month's New Zealand Cup (Gr 3, 3200m) with a dominant display in Saturday's Weir Tours Egmont Cup (2100m) at Hawera. The mare, trained by Niall Quinn at Wanganui, was resuming from an eight-week break but showed no signs of needing the run as she powered clear for her fifth career victory. It followed a runner-up finish in Riccarton's Winter Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) in August. Ridden patiently by Kate Hercock, Who Knows settled fifth behind a solid tempo. Hercock bided her time before angling into the clear rounding the turn, and the mare surged home with authority to score by 2.3 lengths from Tobias (Complacent), with Solidify (Redwood) the same margin further back in third. Quinn was delighted with the performance and confirmed Riccarton in November as the main target. "We're really happy with that," he said. "I was hoping for a better track – a Soft 6 would have been ideal – but she handled the Heavy 9 fine after a break. Kate gave her a perfect ride, and there's still improvement to come. "We'll probably give her one more run before the New Zealand Cup, but there aren't many suitable options in the Central Districts, so we'll play it by ear." The TAB now lists Who Knows as a $9 co-favourite for the New Zealand Cup.

I'munstoppable makes dazzling return

Speedy mare I'munstoppable (Charm Spirit) made a dazzling return to racing on her home track at Matamata, leading all the way to win the Colchester Engineering Ltd (1200m) by 4.3 lengths. Winner of the Cambridge Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) last season, the mare was first-up after nearly 300 days off, with trainers Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott giving her a lengthy break when she failed to come up for an autumn campaign. Ridden by visiting Australian apprentice Sage Duric, whose four-kilogram claim proved valuable on the Heavy 10 track, I'munstoppable burst from the gates, set up a commanding lead, and never looked threatened to beat Moneypenny (Proisir). "She held a strong gallop and it takes a good horse to win the Cambridge Breeders' Stakes, so that tells you her quality," Scott said. "She was ready to go last week at Te Rapa but banged her leg, so we had to scratch her. Sage rode her perfectly, she hugged the rail and found the quick lane. With a bit of give in the ground, she'll win a few more before Christmas." Duric, daughter of Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Vlad Duric, was thrilled to record her first New Zealand victory at her seventh local ride. "She was a bit keen early but travelled beautifully and never came off the bridle," Duric said. "She loved the ground, and with the 4 kilos off, she was just too strong." Bred and raced by John and Julie-Anne MacLachlan, I'munstoppable is out of Sisterella (Rip Van Winkle), a daughter of Awapuni Gold Cup (Gr 2, 2000m) placegetter Arabian Nights. Saturday's victory was her fourth from 12 starts, taking her earnings past $122,000.

Diamond Jak delivers again on home turf

Enigmatic stayer Diamond Jak (Jakkalberry) produced another polished performance to claim the Russell & Yvonne Green Memorial (2000m) at Matamata, backing up his recent Ellerslie success with a commanding display on Heavy 10 ground. Ridden by Opie Bosson, Diamond Jak jumped cleanly, settled midfield along the rail, and tracked the speed comfortably before being angled off the fence turning for home. Race favourite Agera (Complacent) loomed wide and briefly headed the field, but Bosson was quick to respond, urging Diamond Jak through a gap to challenge at the 300 metres. From there, the gelding asserted his authority and powered clear, holding off late finisher Rosetown Princess (Redwood) by a length and a half. Trainer Mark Brosnan was delighted with the effort but uncertain about immediate plans for his in-form charge. "He's running really well," Brosnan said. "I don't know what to do with him now—whether to give him a break or press on. There's a mile and a half race at Te Rapa on Labour weekend, which he might go to. He loves Te Rapa. I keep telling him he'll be going jumping, but he keeps pulling one out of the bag!" Bosson praised the gelding's professionalism and adaptability on the testing track. "He's really in the zone at the moment," Bosson said. "He travelled like the winner all the way, and even though it was hard work out there, he handled it beautifully."

25 for Lope De Vega

Consent

EDWARD WHITAKER

In what proved an incredible day for Ballylinch Stud, their flagship stallion Lope De Vega (Shamardal) sired his 25th individual Group 1 winner when the Sir Mark Prescott-trained Consent (3 f ex Flora Danica by Galileo) recorded an impressive success in the Prix de Royallieu (Gr 1, 2800m) at Longchamp. Ridden by Luke Morris, the three-year-old filly, who was also providing her stallion with his 156th individual stakes winner, took up the lead with over two furlongs left to run but stayed on strongly to pull four and a half lengths clear of Santorini Star (Golden Horn). There was just a further neck back to Rabbit's Foot (Golden Horde) in third place. Bred by Airlie Stud, Mrs S M Rogers and Flaxman Stables, Consent was purchased by Oliver St Lawrence Bloodstock for €260,000 during Book 1 of the 2023 Goffs Orby Yearling Sale and is raced by Denford Stud. A half-sister to winner Versatile (Siyouni), she is the second foal out of the unraced Galileo (Sadler's Wells) mare Flora Danica, herself a half-sister to Dewhurst Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) winner Intense Focus (Giant's Causeway). Lope De Vega stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of €175,000 (approx. AU$311,130).

First for Phoenix Of Spain

Caballo De Mar

EDWARD WHITAKER

Caballo De Mar (4 g ex Obery by Holy Roman Emperor) became the first Group 1 winner for Irish National Stud stallion Phoenix Of Spain (Lope De Vega) when landing the Prix du Cadran (Gr 1, 4000m) at Longchamp. Also providing his trainer George Scott with a first winner at the elite level, the four-year-old gelding was always handy behind the front-running Coltrane (Mastercraftsman) and, having took up the lead approaching the final furlong, pulled a length and three-quarters clear of the Andrew Balding-trained runner under Tom Marquand. There was a further length and a quarter back to Queenstown (Galileo) in third place. Bred by Barouche Stud, Caballo De Mar was first purchased by Melchior Bloodstock for €21,000 at the 2021 Goffs November Foal Sale before being resold to his trainer and J S Bloodstock for €33,000 at the Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale the following year. A half-brother to winner Robayera (Time Test), he is out of the winning Holy Roman Emperor (Danehill) mare Obery, herself a half-sister to Listed winner Circassian (Groom Dancer). Phoenix Of Spain stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of €10,000 (approx. AU$17,780).

FR: Ridari bounces back in Prix Daniel Wildenstein

The Mikel Delzangles-trained Ridari (3 c Churchill - Ridasiyna by Motivator) bounced back to his best when scoring in Saturday's Prix Daniel Wildenstein (Gr 2, 1600m) at Longchamp. Having run down the field in the Prix Jacques le Marois (Gr 1, 1600m) on his start prior, the three-year-old colt put that behind him with a narrow short-head victory over Quddwah (Kingman) with a further two lengths back to Skukuza (Blue Point) back in third.

FR: First Look's winning run continues in Prix Dollar

First Look (4 g Lope De Vega - Bilissie by Dansili) made it three stakes wins on the bounce as he took out Saturday's Prix Dollar (Gr 2, 1950m) at Longchamp. Ridden by Mickael Barzalona for trainer Andre Fabre, the four-year-old son of Lope De Vega kept on well inside the final furlong to deny Bay City Roller (New Bay) by a length and a quarter. The third-placed Bright Picture (Intello) finished a further length and three-quarters back in third.

FR: Wootton Bassett's Tennessee Stud lands Prix Chaudenay

Tennessee Stud (3 c ex In My Dreams by Sadler's Wells), a son of Coolmore's late shuttler stallion Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj), recorded a first win of his three-year-old season when scoring in the Prix Chaudenay (Gr 2, 3000m) at Longchamp on Saturday. A winner of the Criterium de Saint-Cloud (Gr 1, 2000m) as a juvenile, the Joseph O'Brien-trained colt got back to winning ways as he narrowly defeated stablemate Emit (Too Darn Hot), who closed all the way to the line, by a neck. The front pair were a further seven and a half lengths clear of the third-placed Surabad (Bated Breath).

311 for Dubawi

Darley's breed-shaping stallion Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) chalked up his 311th individual stakes winner on Saturday when the John and Thady Gosden-trained Cajole (3 f ex Persuasive by Dark Angel) gamely landed the October Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Ascot. Ridden by Tyler Heard, the three-year-old filly scored for the first time since breaking her maiden back in May as she found plenty for pressure to defeat Dash Of Azure (Blue Point) by a short-head. The third-placed Bright Thunder (Night Of Thunder) finished a further neck behind. Bred and raced by Cheveley Park Stud, Cajole is a half-sister to the Group-placed winner Theoryofeverything (Frankel) and fellow winner Persist (Frankel) being out of the Group 1-winning mare Persuasive (Dark Angel), herself a half-sister to Group 1 winner Creative Force (Dubawi) and Listed winner Tisbutadream (Dream Ahead). Dubawi stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season at Dalham Hall Stud for a fee of £350,000 (approx. AU$713,040).

UK: Fourth career Group 1 for Too Darn Hot's Fallen Angel in Sun Chariot

Fallen Angel (4 f Too Darn Hot - Agnes Stewart by Lawman), a daughter of Darley shuttler Too Darn Hot (Dubawi), registered her fourth career Group 1 success on Saturday when making all in the Sun Chariot Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Newmarket. Ridden by James Doyle, the Karl Burke-trained filly kept on well inside the closing stages for a comfortable two and a quarter lengths win over Blue Bolt (Blue Point). Favourite Cinderella's Dream (Shamardal) finished a further four and a half lengths back in third. The winning rider said: "She's a strong galloper at a mile. There's a bit of a tailwind today and the ground drying all the time was a slight concern but it's not quick. She just galloped them into the ground." Burke revealed that Fallen Angel could now line up in the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Ascot on Champions Day in a fortnight. "Fallen Angel was impressive and if she comes out of this okay we'll look to take on the colts in the QEII. She wasn't for passing and it was only when they came to her she picked up again."

UK: Al Qareem records third Cumberland Lodge success

The admirable Al Qareem (6 g Awtaad - Moqla by Teofilo) registered his third-straight success in Ascot's Cumberland Lodge Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 4f) on Saturday, making every yard of the running for a gutsy victory. Ridden by Clifford Lee for trainer Karl Burke, the six-year-old gelding was not to be denied in the Group 3 contest as he defeated Tenability (Frankel) by a widening six lengths. There was just a further short-head back to Hamish (Motivator) in third place.

UK: Anaf chalks up fourth stakes success

Trainer Mick Appleby enjoyed a stakes-race double on Saturday's Ascot card when his consistent six-year-old Anaf (6 h Muhaarar - Shimah by Storm Cat) scored in the Bengough Stakes (Gr 3, 6f), adding to Shagraan's (Sioux Nation) earlier success in the Rous Stakes (Listed, 5f). Ridden by Daniel Muscutt, Anaf kept on well inside the final furlong and narrowly denied the fast-finishing Apollo One (Equiano), who was unlucky in running. There was a further length and a half back to Tiger Bay (Harry Angel) in third place.

UK: Shagraan doubles stakes tally in Rous Stakes

The Mick Appleby-trained Shagraan (4 g Sioux Nation - Annie Fior by Finsceal For) made it two Listed wins from his last three starts as he gamely landed the Rous Stakes at Ascot on Saturday. Ridden by Kieran Shoemark, the four-year-old gelding led with a furlong left to race and fended off the challenge of Beautiful Diamond (Twilight Son) by a neck. There was a further three-quarters of a length back to Getreadytorumble (Rumble Inthejungle) in third.

Nine for Ardad

Ardisia

GROSSICK RACING

Overbury Stud stallion Ardad (Kodiac) chalked up his ninth individual stakes winner when Ardisia (2 g ex Garraun by Tamayuz) landed the Two-Year-Old Trophy (Listed, 6f) at Redcar on Saturday. Ridden by Oisín Orr for trainer Hugo Palmer, the juvenile gelding led inside the closing stages to beat Golden Brown (Galileo Gold) by a half-length with a further three-quarters of a length back to Argentine Tango (Mattmu) in third. Bred by Lynn Lodge Stud, Ardisia was purchased for £33,000 by SackvilleDonald and his trainer's Manor House Stables at the 2024 Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale and is raced by the Ardisia Partnership. A half-brother to winners Prince Of Rome (Lethal Force), Mia Grande (Inns Of Court) and Exertive (Expert Eye), he is the fifth foal out of the Tamayuz (Nayef) mare Garraun. Ardad stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of £12,500 (approx. AU$25,470).

20 for Make Believe

GROSSICK RACING

In what turned out to be a red-letter day for Ballylinch Stud stallion Make Believe (Makfi), Elim (5 m ex Majestic Dancer by Danehill Dancer) became the 20th individual stakes winner for the sire when taking out Saturday's Guisborough Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Redcar. Ridden by Connor Beasley for trainer Ed Bethell, the five-year-old mare was appearing for the first time in a year but defied that absence with a three-quarter lengths victory over Myal (Al Kazeem). There was a further length and a half back to the odds-on favourite Volterra (Farhh) in third. A half-sister to winners Polly Glide (Nathaniel), Law Major (Lawman), Cali Bay (New Bay) and Its My Turn (Dream Ahead), she is the ninth foal out of the winning Danehill Dancer (Danehill) mare Majestic Dancer, herself closely related to the dam of former Haunui Farm shuttler Belardo (Lope De Vega). Make Believe, who also sired his third individual Group 1 winner on Saturday when Royal Supremacy landed The Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m), stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season at Ballylinch Stud for a fee of €8,000 (approx. AU$14,217).

23 for New Bay

Ballylinch Stud stallion New Bay (Dubawi) sired his 23rd individual stakes winner on Saturday when Carla Ridge (3 f ex Almira Wells by High Chaparral) scored in the Brigid's Pastures Stakes (Listed, 6f) at the Curragh. Ridden by Chris Hayes for trainers Eddie and Patrick Harty, the three-year-old filly produced a very impressive performance as she powered through the rain-softened surface to a ten-length victory over Navassa Island (Territories). There was a further half-length back to Sparkling Sea (Starspangledbanner) in third. Having been purchased for €32,000 by Derryconnor Stud at the 2023 Tattersalls Ireland September Yearling Sale, Carla Ridge was then resold to Peter and Ross Doyle Bloodstock for €105,000 at last year's Arqana May Breeze-Up Sale and races for Dan Kiely. She is the third foal out of the High Chaparral (Sadler's Wells) mare Almira Wells, herself a half-sister to Autumn Classic (Gr 2, 1800m) placegetter Top Ravine (Redoute's Choice). New Bay stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of €75,000 (approx. AU$133,340).

57 for Not This Time

Taylor Made Farm stallion Not This Time (Giant's Causeway) chalked up his 57th individual stakes winner on Friday when Imaginationthelady (2 f ex Romanticism by War Front) landed the Jessamine Stakes (Gr 2, 8.5f) at Keeneland. Ridden by Frankie Dettori for trainer Brendan Walsh, the juvenile filly led inside the final 100 yards and denied Infinite Sky by a length with a further nose back to Time To Dream in third, in what was a trifecta for the stallion. Bred by Ashview Farm and Colts Neck Stables, Imaginationthelady was purchased by John McCormack Bloodstock for US$300,000 at the 2024 Keeneland September Yearling Sale and is raced by Mark Dobbin. Out of the unraced War Front (Danzig) mare Romanticism, Imaginationthelady is a half-sister to the stakes-placed winner Benissimo (Pioneerof The Nile). Not This Time stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of US$175,000 (approx. AU$265,090).

US: Tommy Jo awarded eventful Alcibiades Stakes

In what was an eventful finish to Friday's Alcibiades Stakes (Gr 1, 8.5f) at Keeneland, the Todd Pletcher-trained Tommy Jo (2 f Into Mischief - Mother Mother by Pioneerof The Nile) was awarded the Grade 1 contest in the stewards room to double her top-level tally. Making a challenge coming into the final two furlongs under John Velazquez, the juvenile filly was impeded approaching the last furlong and, having originally been beaten two and three-quarter lengths by Percy's Bar (Upstart), the placings were reversed in the stewards' room. The third-placed The Grumpy Rabbit (Not This Time) finished the same distance further back in third.

US: Nakatomi lands Phoenix Stakes

The Wesley Ward-trained Nakatomi (6 g Firing Line - Applesauce by Flatter) added

Friday's Phoenix Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) to his CV when narrowly scoring by a neck in the Grade 2 contest at Keeneland. Ridden by Irad Ortiz Jr, the Grade 1-winning six-year-old gelding denied Durante (Distorted Humor) with a further three lengths back to the winner's stablemate Whatchatalkinabout (Dialed In) in third.

16 for Vekoma

Spendthrift Farm stallion Vekoma (Candy Ride) sired his 16th individual stakes winner on Friday when Bottas (2 c ex Iadorakid by Lemon Drop Kid) landed the Pilgrim Stakes (Gr 2, 8.5f) at Belmont At The Big A. Ridden by Manuel Franco for trainer Miguel Clement, the juvenile colt defeated Heeere's Johnny (Oscar Performance) by a head with a further length back to Let's Be Frank (Liam's Map) in third. Out of the winning Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo) mare Iadorakid, Bottas is a half-brother to the Listed winner Parenting (Justify).

Vekoma stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season at a fee of US$35,000 (approx. AU$53,020).

11 for Complexity

Intricate Spirit (2 c ex Dottie's Spirit by Curlin) became the 11th individual stakes winner for Airdrie Stud stallion Complexity (Maclean's Music) when scoring in Friday's Futurity Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) at Belmont At The Big A. Providing trainer Miguel Clement with a stakes-race double on the card, the juvenile colt ran out a length and three-quarters winner over Longshoreman (Twirling Candy) under Joel Rosario. The third-placed Attfield (Vekoma) finished a further three-quarters of a length back in third. Out of the winning Curlin (Smart Strike) mare Dottie's Spirit, Intricate Spirit is a half-brother to the stakes winner Spirit Prince (Cairo Prince). Complexity stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of US$25,000 (approx. AU$37,870).

Manfred Man hits 700 winners as Luke Ferraris stars with treble

By Leo Schlink

Manfred Man soared into select company at Sha Tin on Saturday when the veteran horseman snared his 700th win as a trainer to join an illustrious band of contemporaries with Ruby Sailing's (Starspangledbanner) victory.

A former champion apprentice jockey whose most significant success in the saddle came aboard Go-Getter in the 1979 QEII Cup, Man joins John Size (1,614), Tony Cruz (1,573), Caspar Fownes (1,173), Ricky Yiu (1,068), Francis Lui (986), Danny Shum (879) and Dennis Yip (878) among the current trainers to saddle 700 winners or more in Hong Kong.

A former assistant trainer to Hong Kong's training record-holder John Moore (1,734), Man was typically modest with his achievement.

"I feel happy, of course, because this horse finds it difficult to win after having two operations on his throat because he is a roarer," Man, 68, said after Ruby Sailing clung to a narrow margin under apprentice Britney Wong. "Racing is racing."

Man was first licensed to train in 2001 and has since produced Group 1 winners Lucky Sweynesse (Sweynesse) and Eagle Regiment (El Moxie).

Man's milestone came as Luke Ferraris powered to the third treble of his Hong Kong career after the 23-year-old South African landed the opening three races of the meeting.

He struck first aboard Yoda's Choice (Good Journey), who gave Pierre Ng his first win of the campaign in the Class 5 Tung Chung Handicap (1650m, dirt), before combining with David Hayes-trained pair Decrelot (War Decree) in the Nam Sang Wai Handicap (1400m) and Precision Goal (Tavistock) in the Class 4 Sai Kung Handicap (1650m, dirt).

"Decrelot hasn't been the easiest horse, he put it all together today but there's been a lot of times where he hasn't and, hopefully, he can go on from here," Ferraris said. "Yoda's Choice is a typical dirt horse who likes to go to the front and he's most effective when he can cruise along without any pressure and go through his gears.

Ruby Sailing

"Precision Goal is a lovely horse - he's been such a soldier. David Hayes does such a phenomenal job with these older gallopers and it's quite an art with these old campaigners to keep them happy and winning, which David has.

"Credit to David and his team. I think I've won four races on Precision Goal now and it's a lovely way to start the day with three wins."

Ferraris' domination was finally ended by fellow South Africans Lyle Hewitson and Douglas Whyte, who teamed with Strathpeffer (Dundeel) in the first section of the Class 4 Pak Tam Au Handicap (1400m).

Cementing his place at the top of the trainers' championship, Mark Newnham produced the first three place-getters in the Class 2 High West Handicap (1650m, dirt) with Karis Teetan piloting Sing Dragon (Written Tycoon) to victory over Talents Ambition (Into Mischief) and Mojave Desert (I Am Invincible).

Newnham's three runners earned HK$2.76 million (approx. AU$537,510) collectively.

"I've had quinellas before but not the first three [in a race]," Newnham beamed. "All three horses ran to their form - I'm pleased all of my owners got good stake money. It was just Sing Dragon's turn today.

"Hopefully we can separate them [the horses] in the future, but there's not too many of these races so they'll be racing against each other in the future.

"We'd have to look at some [overseas] options if their ratings keep going the way they are. I'm sure we've got a couple of owners who are keen to travel but their form would need to warrant it."

Bulb General (Embellish) continued to impress with success for Jamie Richards and Zac Purton in the Class 3 Tung Lung Chau Handicap (1200m) as the Embellish (Savabeel) gelding edges towards the lucrative Four-Year-Old Classic Series - the Hong Kong Classic Mile (1600m), Hong Kong Classic Cup (1800m) and Hong Kong Derby (2000m).

"We've got some nice targets for him if he keeps progressing. He doesn't overtax himself, and I think most of the better ones are a little bit like that, so we've got plenty to look forward to," Richards said.

"The plan would be to step him up [in trip] at some stage. The Classic Series would be the plan; we've got a long way to go but he's progressing well and he's winning with a bit of authority, so hopefully he can keep cracking on."

Purton said: "He's a tough horse because he's a shocking mover. In the mornings, he feels the ground. Doesn't trial well on the dirt because he's not comfortable on it but he's turning up race day, which is what matters," Purton said.

"He had a pretty poor gate [barrier 12], was hoping to get into a nice spot, he moved into it and did the job nicely – it didn't feel like he was getting away from them the way that he did, so that was a good sign.

"He goes up in grade again and hopefully he can continue the path that he's on."

Me Tsui's Wonderstar (Starspangledbanner)

Precision Goal

earned a PP Bonus of HK$1.5 million (approx. AU$292,130) with his success for Me Tsui and Matthew Chadwick in the Class 3 The Association Of Hong Kong Racing Journalists 40th Anniversary Cup Handicap (1000m).

A winner in his native Australia before notching four victories in Macau, Wonderstar has won a total of seven races in three regions from 1000 metres to 1600 metres.

Etalon Or (Heroic Valour) was rewarded for consistency when the Heroic Valour (Fastnet Rock) gelding swept to victory in the second section of the Class 4 Pak Tam Au Handicap (1400m) for Ricky Yiu and Alexis Badel. Placed in eight of his previous 13 starts, the chestnut was ridden off the pace and proved too strong.

Dylan Mo slotted his first win of the season when Yiu's Mighty Strength (Time Test) upstaged his rivals to land the Class 3 Nam Long Shan Handicap (1800m).

"First, I must thank the trainer and the owners for their support," Mo said. "I continue to work hard to get opportunities and ride my horses the best I can."

Hong Kong racing continues at Happy Valley on Wednesday night.

Congratulations to the owners of EURO CANTO who took out the Listed Maribyrnong Trial Stakes 🏆 Displaying incredible professionalism under Mark Zahra, we are thrilled to win this race with this lovely colt by Per Incanto, selected by our team at @magicmillions in January this year 🥰 Well done to our team who do a fantastic job developing our young horses to have two runners prepared for this race. And a special shout out to JCS Thoroughbreds who do an incredible job handling all of the early education of our youngsters 🥰 Pictured Below >>

Getta Good Feeling found the light and flew home through the pack for a win that gave all those good feels in the G2 Edward Manifold Stakes at Flemington today! 🙌 The @dannymbrienracing trained and Pinecliff Racing owned Getta Good Feeling (So You Think-Marquise da Rossa) was a $400,000 purchase for @smillsbloodstock from Phoenix Broodmare Farm at the Gold Coast National Weanling Sale. 🏠 @ultimateracingphotos Pictured Below >>

inglis_sales

Inglis will partner with worldwide racing and breeding powerhouse @yulonginvest for the running of the 2025 The Everest, with the combination to be represented by Magic Time in the $20m contest. Bred by John and Trish Muir's @milburn_creek, Magic Time (Hellbent) was a dual G1 winner in the colours of her breeder before being acquired by Yulong in late 2024. Pictured Below >>

BETTING FORECAST: 11-4 Puerto Rico, 7-2 Rayfi, 9-2 A Bit Of Spirit, Time To Turn, 13-2 Nighttime, 16 Cielo Di Roma, Vardif, 20 Campacite, 33 Imperial Me. Cen.

VERDICT Champagne Stakes scorer PUERTO RICO may have more to offer over 7 and is suitably bred for this occasion, being by the late Wootton Bassett who landed the 2010 Lagardere and sired last year's winner. That greatly missed stallion is also represented by the progressive Nighttime. Unbeaten Rayfi (second choice) is interesting, while Time To Turn and A Bit Of Spirit are closely matched rivals who could improve further. [Steve Boww]

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 See The Fire, 9-2 Tamfana, 5 January, 6 Wemightakedlongway, 10 Barnavara, 12 Nicoreni, One Look, 14 Grand Stars, Start Of Day, 25 Qilin Queen, Royal Dress, 50 Merveilleux Lapin.

VERDICT 3yos have won 14 of the last 17 runnings, including the last four, and three-time Group 1 runner-up January could have a big say if seeing out this longer trip. However, she takes on some strong older challengers, headed by SEE THE FIRE who has run very creditably against some of the best males around this season and can post her first Group 1 win now she's back against her own sex. There can be optimism that last season's Group 1 Sun Chariot winner Tamfana will be okay back up in trip and she is second choice ahead of January, then 3yos Barnavara and Wemightakedlongway. BETTING FORECAST: 9-4 More Thunder, 5 Zarigana, 11-2 Sajir, 8 Maranoa Charlie, 9 Roshvar, 12 Exactly, Geography, Witness Stand, 14 Topgear, 25 Godspeed, Zerostress, 33 Exxtra, Ten Bob Tony, 40 King's Gamble, 50 Zoom Zoom, 66 Devil's Point.

VERDICT The form of the Group 2 Hungerford Stakes has worked out extremely well and the convincing winner MORE THUNDER can make his first attempt in a Group 1 a winning one. Hungerford runner-up Witness Stand is now 3lb better off with the winner and could be the chief threat ahead of the 3yo filly Zarigana, who isn't straightforward but has bundles of ability. Sajir won the Group 1 Prix Maurice de Gheest last time and is also firmly in the picture.
