Joy for Tony and Calvin McEvoy as Half Yours skips away with Caulfield Cup

By Trevor Marshallsea

Half Yours (St Jean) proved himself one of the shrewdest second-hand buys of the century as he added to a regal day for unsung sires by lifting Saturday's Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m).

Bringing trainer Tony McEvoy his first victory in the race - made more special by achieving it in partnership with son Calvin - the five-year-old prevailed as $2.50 favourite, giving rider Jamie Melham her first victory in one of Australia's "Big Four".

And more spring glory could await, with bookmakers responding by drastically shortening Half Yours into $3.50 favouritism for the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) at Flemington on November 4.

Starting from gate two, Melham had Half Yours well positioned in midfield as the Caulfield Cup unfolded at an even tempo. The race changed dramatically when Jordan Childs sent Adelaide River (Australia) to the front at the 1300 metres, opening a gap that stretched to eight lengths down the railway side.

Ole Dancer soars to Guineas victory

As the field bunched around the home turn, Melham eased Half Yours into the clear some eight horses wide, and the gelding responded majestically, claiming the lead from Adelaide River inside the 200 metres, and finishing powerfully to score by 0.46 lengths.

Like his fellow leviathan trainer Ciaron Maher did in the day's other highlight of The Everest (Gr 1, 1200m), Chris Waller filled the two minor placings in the Cup.

Yulong mare River Of Stars (Sea The Stars) stormed home for second at $91, while Valiant King (Roaring Lion) took third, a further length back, at $26.

And like the relatively unsung Shamexpress (O'Reilly) did in siring Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Ka Ying Rising, the even lesser known St Jean emerged with a stunning top tier triumph through Half Yours's powerful victory.

Standing at Victoria's Brackley Park stud for $3,300, St Jean the Obscure has covered just 26 mares in the past four seasons. He has a stakes-winners-to-runners ratio of 4.54 per cent (just behind Shamexpress's 6.41 per cent), but that's because Half Yours is his sole black type victor among just 22 runners.

A little-known pedigree matters little when you watch Half Yours gallop, although he was definitely bred to stay, being by a son of Teofilo (Galileo) out of a daughter of Desert King

The gelding was bred by his original trainer, Maher, and the late Colin McKenna, out of a mare ironically named La Gazelle, whose best run in five was a second at Mount Gambier.

Half Yours won two of his first five starts, but after McKenna's death last year, was auctioned on Inglis Online in an unreserved reduction. McEvoy Mitchell Racing Continued on page 4

Continued from page 2 and Belmont Bloodstock went hard to purchase him, paying $305,000, with Maher the underbidder as he unsuccessfully tried to keep the budding stayer in his stable.

The McEvoy's insistence was soon repaid, with wins at Seymour and Rosehill followed by a paralysing finish when Half Yours stepped beyond 2000 metres for the first time to stroll home in July's Caloundra Cup (Listed, 2400m) by 4.45 lengths.

After easily winning the Naturalism Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Caulfield two starts earlier, on Saturday he brought his trainers, and his second ownership team, a $3.3 million windfall.

"This is why we do it, to have a runner in these, and they're bloody hard to win, and that was incredible," said Tony McEvoy, whose previous best in a Caulfield Cup was second with the remarkable Fields Of Omagh (Rubiton) in 2002.

"He's come a long way in six months this fellow, hasn't he? And travelling really grows horses up, and he was a big raw horse.

"The way he came into the paddock today, he looked like he'd arrived as a stayer. And then he went and did that today, so it was very exciting.

"I was so happy in the run, and then when mid-race that horse took off, I thought, 'This is not ideal, because if someone panics, it dishevels everything.

"But then he got into his rhythm and did the rest. It was fabulous, and I'm looking forward to watching it again."

Calvin McEvoy choked up when describing the feeling of winning one of Australia's most important races with his father.

"In this game it's really hard to get a start, and obviously I'm lucky to be in a privileged position," he said. "I don't know what to say. He's supported me and given me an opportunity in this great game."

His father joked back: "I think he might be nice to me for a little while now!"

"It's very important," McEvoy Snr added. "It's quite a proud moment for me to be able to do it with Cal, and yeah, it's a really enjoyable moment for me.

"I mean, I was hoping he was going to be a doctor or something, but look, it was such a joy for me, for him to want to follow in my footsteps. In this business, you don't own many things. What you've got is your intellectual property, and if you've got no one to pass it to, it's gone.

"And so to have Cal seeing what I've done over my time and now take it to another level, and he's added an immense arm to the business with the technology that they've got today. I'm a bit too old school myself for that stuff, so that's what's made us better."

McEvoy Jnr added: "The horse has been a horse that we've found really easy, and when we went to Queensland, it was the making of him."

Melham was also highly emotional after her pressure-relieving victory, following weeks in which Half Yours was a dominant favourite for the race.

"I've tried not to think about it for the last few days because I just wanted to come out here and ride him and give him the best ride I could, because I knew he was the best horse in the race," she said.

"But everything was perfect. It worked out perfectly for him and he had to dig deep and he's an absolute superstar horse. What Tony and Calvin have done with him, they've just made this absolute Continued on page 5

"He's push button; he doesn't like jumping that well so I had to really get up him today, and he just spat the bit out and relaxed.

"Janice [McKenna, Col's widow] texted me yesterday and said she'd make sure Col would open those gaps for me, and he did, so thank you Col."

Asked about winning a major, Melham said: "Just saying 'Caulfield Cup' is going to make me cry.

"I've had an incredible career and ridden 17 Group 1s now, but that major has eluded me, and I just wanted to get one.

"But now I want maybe three more, maybe a Melbourne Cup. This horse is going to run the trip out!"

As obscure as they are, he certainly has the bloodlines for it.

French raider Presage Nocturne (Wootton Bassett) rounded out a monster first four dividend at $61, in a tremendous trial for his main target, the Melbourne Cup.

Mahe's Royal Supremacy (Make Believe) was solid in running fifth as $8.50 equal second favourite, while Ireland's regular Cups raider Absurde (Fastnet Rock) was seventh in a strong trial for Flemington.

Market fancies Deakin (Australia), Meydaan (Frankel) and Middle Earth (Roaring Lion) looked a shade disappointing in finishing in midfield, with co-second favourite Vauban (Galiway) and Japanese Raider Golden Snap (Gold Ship) failing on the good 4 track in finishing 13th and 14th.

Hong Kong superstar Ka Ying Rising scales Everest

Hong Kong hero Ka Ying Rising (Shameexpress) earned confirmation of his global superstar status and a comparison to his trainer's former champion Better Loosen Up (Loosen Up) in storming to victory in Saturday's The Everest at Randwick.

The world's highest-rated sprinter now has the world's richest sprint title to show for it, after racing in third place, charging past leader Overpass (Vancouver) at the 200 metres, and coming away to win by 1.15 lengths.

Ciaran Maher - the winner last year with Bella Nipotina (Pride Of Dubai) had to be content with both minor placings this time.

Godolphin filly Tempted (Street Boss), the race's sole three-year-old, produced a mighty effort to finish second at $16, while Jimmysstar (Per Incanto) sustained a long run to finish third, a further 0.27 lengths away, at $13. Overpass ($41) clung on for fourth.

Having been around $1.70 for months leading up to the $20 million event, the New Zealand-bred Ka Ying Rising was easy on course on the day, jumping at $2 by official starting prices. But he was $1.50 on the World Pool tote, with his legion of Hong Kong fans backing him heavily.

By Windsor Park Stud's relatively modest, fertility-challenged sire Shameexpress, the five-year-old gelding has now won 15 of his 17 starts - the last 14 on the bounce - with his earnings leaping past $21 million with Saturday's $7m injection from the world's richest race on turf, and its second-richest race behind the $31m Saudi Cup (Gr 1, 1800m).

And it was an emotional trainer David Hayes who breathed a sigh of delighted relief following the win, after almost a month of intense media scrutiny since Ka Ying Rising's arrival in Sydney, especially surrounding a moderate-looking third in a Randwick barrier trial on October 7.

Hayes put Ka Ying Rising on a level with Better Loosen Up, his former champion middle distance galloper who won eight times at the highest level, including the Japan Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) in 1990.

"Better Loosen Up was the last world champion horse I've trained, and this one is the next one," the Hong Kong-based Australian said.

"There's been a lot of good horses in between but these are the two stars."

In a rare event on a racecourse - especially before a race - Purton revealed Ka Ying Rising had been roundly booed by mostly young and rowdy racegoers amongst the sell-out crowd of around 46,000 as he made his way to the starting gates.

"The crowd did a good job of trying to buzz him up before the race," said Purton, the Australian who's won eight Hong Kong riding titles.

"I didn't expect them to boo him and be as vocal as they were when he came out on the track, and it was all the way until we got to the end of the crowd."

"But he handled it really well, I was really impressed with that."

"I just love him. He's just such a nice horse to ride."

Hayes, who has also trained such outstanding gallopers as Miss Finland (Redoute's Choice), Criterion (Sebring), Jeune (Kalaglow) and Primacy (Prego), was in an ebullient mood after the weight-for-age slot race.

Ka Ying Rising

"It's an absolute thrill," he said. "I can't wait to watch the replay and enjoy it. It's a long straight isn't it, when you hit the front with 300 metres to go?"

"But I think he held up pretty well. Great ride by Zac."

"I actually would've been shattered had he lost today, truth be known, when he was so calm an hour before the race."

"It's certainly the biggest thrill of my life, and it's been the longest ten days in my life."

Ka Ying Rising's mere presence brought the ninth Everest a genuine international flavour for the first time.

Asked what the victory meant for Hong Kong racing, Hayes said: "I think it will be wonderful. He's the pin-up boy there."

He added that despite the criticism and whispers it induced, Ka Ying Rising's Randwick barrier trial had worked well. In his 0.23 length third, the star sprinter finished behind Group 1 winners Linebacker (Super Seth) and Overpass, and ahead of multiple elite victors Mr Brightside (Bullbars), Joliestar (Zoustar) and Fangirl (Sebring).

"He blew out all the mothballs and a lot of people were very critical of the trial but he still beat [the winners of] 20 Group 1 [races] and ran third, not really tested," Hayes said.

"So relieved, but when he saddled up calm he had to really run below form not to win today. But I couldn't say that, I couldn't be cocky [but] I would've been so disappointed if he didn't win when he saddled up calm."

Just as Hayes opined that "there's more to come with this horse", Purton said Ka Ying Rising had won despite being below his best.

"Overpass skipped for him early and I had to chase him. To my horse's credit, he wasn't letting him go. He got the better of me in the trial and we said that he's not going to get the better of me in the race," said Hong Kong's eight-time premier rider.

"We chased him down and coasted to the line. There were a few days when I was not that happy with his trial but the more I analysed it, the ground was soft and he didn't like it, he was overweight and heavy."

"Overpass is a pretty good horse and I underestimated him until I went back into his replays over the last few days and he'd just been beaten in an Everest before."

"I don't think we saw him [Ka Ying Rising] at his best today but even though he wasn't at his best he's still good enough."

The 40-year-old Purton became emotional when comparing Ka Ying Rising to the other Hong Kong superstar with whom he formed a partnership, eight-time elite victor Beauty Generation (Road To Rock).

"To have one champion I rode in my career, I thought that was unbelievable for me," he said. "And now to have one come along that could be even better, right at

"You become a bit emotional. You appreciate it more now because it [Purton's career] is nearly over, but I'm so lucky. I've had such a good career and so lucky to have this horse come along now."

Bred in New Zealand by his original trainer Fraser Auret, Ka Ying Rising was sold after a trial to Hayes's Victoria-based sons, Ben, Will and JD.

After two jump-outs and a trial, the brothers alerted their father that they had a horse worthy of Hong Kong. He went to the territory, won his first start as a three-year-old in December 2023, ran 0.1 length seconds at his next two, and hasn't been beaten since.

Ka Ying Rising is the best of only two foals borne of five-time winner Missy Moo (Per Incanto) before she was euthanised due to crippling arthritis.

The star sprinter's year-young half-brother Ka Ying Glory (Turn Me Loose) has run one second from three starts for David Hayes in Hong Kong.

Hong Kong Jockey Club CEO Winfried Englebrecht-Bresges was on course to cheer home Ka Ying Rising. The HKJC acquired a $700,000 slot, in partnership with the Australian Turf Club, to race the gelding in the Everest.

"I think Hong Kong has two global stars," he said. "One is Romantic Warrior, who has proved himself internationally. Now, Ka Ying Rising has done the same and it's extremely important when you see how many people in Hong Kong watch this race. It is now the people's horse."

"It's extremely important to show that Hong Kong is a global city, that we have one of the best horses in the world and that we can help to create a global atmosphere, because the atmosphere today is absolutely astonishing and fascinating."

"For us, the money for the slot is not important. For us, what we want to create is global racing at its best and therefore we need strategic partners who embrace the same vision we have. We have this here."

Ole Dancer

Ole Dancer soars to Guineas victory

Vinery Stud's budding star sire Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) has the elite title to go with his impressive list of early stud achievements after Ole Dancer's gritty victory in a thrilling Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Caulfield.

Last season's champion first-season sire - and as of Saturday the new leader on the sophomore chart - Ole Kirk now has a Group 1 winner among his five black type victors from just 48 runners, at 10.42 per cent.

Bred by Neil Werrett, and bought by Moody Racing from the draft of North for $350,000 at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Ole Dancer now has three wins from five starts and the huge boost in value that comes with a top-tier success.

Jumping from gate five of 12 under Blake Shinn, and backed in to start at $5, the filly turned in the toughest of displays to win the main event.

While the first three at the 1200-metre mark ended up being the first three home, the Guineas provided a captivating spectacle.

Red hot $1.90 favourite Apocalyptic (Extreme Choice), chasing a fourth straight win after taking Randwick's Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m), went to the front for the first time in her career under new rider Mark Zahra. Shinn was content to sit off her rump, while $8 shot Getta

Good Feeling (So You Think) travelled third on the fence.

Apocalyptic was afforded two moderate mid-12 second sectionals from the 1200 metres to the 800 metres before Zahra increased the tempo. Ole Dancer went right with her, and the pair settled in for an engrossing, tooth-and-nail duel over the last 600 metres.

Ole Dancer issued her challenge on straightening, and the renowned Moody white noseband edged closer to the lead.

Apocalyptic, to her credit, fought back valiantly as the pair charged down the straight locked together under desperate riding.

But while Michael Freedman's Sydney filly performed admirably, it was Ole Dancer who eventually pushed out to a 0.35 length win, with Getta Good Feeling 0.75 lengths further back in third.

For Moody, who now trains with Katherine Coleman, his 64th Group 1 win harkened back to some glory days. Werrett has stayed in Ole Dancer's ownership along with Col Madden, his fellow former co-owner of Moody's phenomenon Black Caviar (Bel Esprit).

Ole Dancer's ownership group is rounded out by Werrett's long-time associate Max Whitby.

"She's a lovely filly," Moody said of Ole Dancer, who went in off a fifth at Moonee Valley and a 0.06 length second in the Thousand Guineas Prelude (Gr 2, 1400m).

"We knew we were in for a very light spring because we'd lost most of our big guns, and this filly - we weren't disappointed in her last two runs, barriers had just brought around her demise.

"But, great respect for the Sydney filly. She just rose to the occasion and out toughed her. The other one might have had one too many, and maybe we had one not enough too, because I thought it was going to out tough us halfway down the straight.

"But she's a good quality filly, and thanks to Neil Werrett, what a day for him. He owns the stallion, he owns the mare, and he owns the racehorse with his great friends and family, Max Whitby and the Madden family."

"And obviously, a big part of the Black Caviar connection there as well, so it's all so special."

Moody added: "We were probably all a little surprised the favourite took it up, but I was very happy when Blake was breathing down his throat because we didn't want him getting away on us."

Coleman, celebrating her fourth Group 1 in the Moody partnership, said Ole Dancer had been "terrific" in her first run beyond 1400 metres.

"She was a lot closer today and I just wondered whether that was going to suit us or not," she said.

"And Apocalyptic, she's obviously had the run at a mile and we thought, Is she going to out tough us here?"

"But our filly was just super and I'm so, so proud of her and our whole team at home.

"I'm incredibly lucky to have him [Moody] as a mentor and geez, this is special."

Shinn paid tribute to Ole Dancer - and her training team.

"Full credit to the filly. Big thrill to win this race today," he said.

"This has been the grand final all prep and it's just great that when a plan comes off and you can win a Group 1.

"It was an exciting race, a thrilling race for me to even ride in. Peter and Kat, you can just trust their horse's fitness and when the pressure came on, she came to the fore. It was a great effort."

Werrett also bred Ole Dancer's dam Dancers (Husson) and second dam Viennese Lass (Redoute's Choice).

Dancers scored two wins, at Hawkesbury, among 11 starts, while Viennese Lass was an unraced sister to Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) hero Rediener.

Ole Dancer's fourth dam was Snippets' Lass (Snippets), the dual Listed-winning mother of the great four-time champion sire Snitzel (Redoute's Choice), and of stakes-winning, ill-fated sire Hinchinbrook (Fastnet Rock).

All three subsequent efforts to breed a full sibling to Ole Dancer have failed. Dancers slipped to Ole Kirk in 2022, her filly foal died after birth in 2023, and she missed to the stallion last year.

Ole Kirk is currently covering his fifth book at Vinery for $99,000, up from $55,000.

Autumn Mystery emerges as another shining light for Arrowfield's star sire

Arrowfield's emerging star stallion The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) moved into double figures for stakes winners when Autumn Mystery brought a first black type success for Mornington-based trainer Rory Hunter in Saturday's Caulfield Classic (Gr 3, 2000m).

Sent out a $4.60 third-favourite for the old Norman Robinson Stakes under Blake Shinn, the gelding began well and settled third on the fence as an engrossing tactical battle in the eight-runner race ensued.

After a steady tempo had been set, moves came from the back passing the 700 metres, and Autumn Mystery was shuffled back to second-last, forcing Shinn to sweat on a run rounding the home turn.

But switched to the left from the middle of the ruck at the 200 metres, Autumn Mystery drove up strongly inside a line of five rivals to prevail by 0.75 lengths.

Arrowfield stallions filled the first four in a bunched finish.

Shuttler Maurice (Screen Hero) sired the minor placegetters as Nick Ryan's Miewa racked his second straight stakes second placing, while a third gelding, Cairon Maher's Amazake, claimed his first piece of black type in third.

And Matt Cumani's colt Deal Done Fast (Dundeel), bred and owned by South Africa's Drakenstein Stud, clung on for fourth after being the first to come from the back down the Railway Side.

Autumn Mystery tightened to $6 second-favouritism for the VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) on November 1, with Miewa at $8. The market is headed by Maher's Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) third placegetter Observer (Ghaiyyath).

The win for Autumn Mystery - bought for a mere $15,000 at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale - gave The Autumn Sun ten stakes winners from 198 starters at 5.05 per cent.

Arrowfield's ten-year-old, back serving mares this spring at $66,000 after a year off with a pelvis injury, will yet again have a strong chance at siring another Classic winner should Autumn Mystery contest the Derby as expected.

Four of The Autumn Sun's five Group 1 winners have scored in Classics, alongside two other Classics placegetters.

Having shown ability as a two-year-old, Autumn Mystery ran a 4.5 length ninth in the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). Spelled immediately, he returned to follow placings at Sandown and Bendigo with his breakthrough win in Flemington's VRC Derby Preview (1800m) on September 21, his last start for almost a month before Saturday.

The victory was also an emotional one for Hunter, who had his first runner less than three years ago.

"It's massive. This horse is a star. He's still six months away from being the best of him, it's just incredible," Hunter said.

"To do it with such a supportive family. They've been so loyal to me along the way and stuck with me. I can't thank them enough.

"We've got ten in work, but we've got the capacity to have 20 if we want. The more horses the merrier, keep them coming.

Continued from page 8 don't come along very often, and to be here and share with my family and such a loyal bunch of owners and the staff around us, it's just amazing."

Hunter confirmed the Derby would be next for Autumn Mystery.

"At this stage, but we'll just see how he pulls up over the next couple of days. The horse is more important than anything, but it's sensational. It'd be a boyhood dream, that's for sure," said Hunter, greatly appreciative of Shinn's ride.

"I was sweating there for a minute, but I think once he saw daylight, I was pretty positive he was going to get the win.

"He's [Shinn] tasted success of a Group 1 50 times or more, so you can't doubt his experience."

Shinn was delighted with the victory.

"It was a great win. He ran the 2000 [metres] out and bring on the Derby," the jockey said.

"I was really happy from the jump. He was a little bit keen through the first 400 [metres], with the break between runs but I got him to switch off from the 1200.

"But then the pressure came on early. I was happy following Mark Zahra [on favourite Engine Of War], but he wasn't going anywhere approaching the turn and I had to look for another opportunity.

"Fortunately enough, the horse was nimble enough to dart back to the inside, the run came and he did the rest."

Shinn also paid tribute to Hunter.

"This is what dreams are made of. It honestly gives me so much satisfaction to achieve a result like this for Rory, his family and the owners," he said. "He's a lovely guy, small team, he's competing at the carnival and winning a black type race at Caulfield.

"Full credit to Rory, he's prepped him up lovely. Had a break between runs, up to 2000 [metres] and he's managed the horse impeccably well."

Bred by Gilgai Farm, and bought from their Premier draft by owners Nick and Denise Thompson, Autumn Mystery is the fourth foal of the Moonee Valley Group 3-placed winner Stop Making Sense (Sebring).

Second dam Etoile Fille (No Excuse Needed) is a half-sister to the dam of former star sprinter I Wish I Win (Savabeel), while third dam Starcent (Centaine) was a multiple New Zealand stakes-winner, and Group 1-placed.

Stop Making Sense now has a two-year-old colt by Brazen Beau (I Am Invincible), a yearling colt by Yes Yes Yes (Rubick), and a colt foal by Flying Artie (Artie Schiller).

The black type debacle rumbles on

A reminder to our readers: Three races on Saturday's Everest card at Randwick were held under incorrectly advertised black type designations.

The three are among 18 events which Racing NSW has listed as being upgraded since the start of last season, moves reflected on the databanks of RNSW and Racing Australia.

However, the Asian Racing Federation has not approved those designations, so they will not be reflected in any sales catalogues.

The situation is thus likely to cause confusion for connections of winners and placegetters of Saturday's three events in question - and of other races among the 18 that are continuing to be run under their faux categorisations.

It will also likely cause disappointment when envisaged boosts to the value of affected horses and/or their relatives do not come to fruition as the races are not shown under such designations in sales catalogues.

For the absence of doubt, Saturday's three affected races were:

- The Sir Reginald Allen Quality (1400m), which is advertised as a Group 3 but is in fact still only Listed. It was won by the Chris Waller-trained filly Panova (Trapeze Artist)

- The St Leger Stakes (2600m), advertised as a Group 3 but which is in fact non-black type. It was won by Waller-trained gelding Travolta (Lope De Vega).

- The Silver Eagle (1300m), advertised as a Group 3 but also non-black type. It was won by the John O'Shea and Tom Charlton-trained gelding Linebacker (Super Seth).

Next Saturday at Randwick brings The Invitation (1400m), advertised as a Group 2 but non-black type, and the Five Diamonds Prelude (1500m), advertised as Listed but does not carry black type.

First for Ole Kirk

Vinery Stud's second-season sire Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) sired his first Group 1 winner when the Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman-trained Ole Dancer (3 f ex Dancers by Husson) produced a determined performance to land Saturday's Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Caulfield. Purchased by Moody Racing out of North for $350,000 at the 2024 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Ole Dancer was bred and is part-owned by Werrett Bloodstock being one of three winners out of the two-time-winning Husson (Hussonet) mare Dancers, herself a half-sister to the stakes-placed Viennese Star (I Am Invincible). Ole Kirk, who was crowned leading first-season sire last season, is standing for a fee of $99,000 (inc GST), up from $55,000 in 2024.

First for St Jean

Half Yours (5 g ex La Gazelle by Desert King) became the first Group 1 winner and first stakes winner for St Jean (Teofilo) when landing Saturday's Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m). Trained by Tony and Calvin McEvoy, the five-year-old gelding was purchased for $305,000 at last year's Inglis November (Late) Online Sale and is a half-brother to winners Emil (Blevic) and Poppy Joan (Street Boss), being out of the Desert King (Danehill) mare La Gazelle. St Jean has Group 2-winning blue hen Height Of Fashion (Bustino) as his third dam, and is now standing for a fee of $11,000 (inc GST) at Brackley Park.

Ten for The Autumn Sun

Arrowfield Stud stallion The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) chalked up his tenth individual stakes winner when the Rory Hunter-trained Autumn Mystery (3 g ex Stop Making Sense by Sebring) proved too strong for his seven rivals in Saturday's Caulfield Classic (Gr 3, 2000m). Bred by Gilgai Farm, Autumn Mystery was purchased by owners Nick and Denise Thompson for $15,000 at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale and is the third winner from three to race out of the Group 3-placed Sebring (More Than Ready) mare Stop Making Sense, herself a granddaughter of multiple stakes winner Starcent (Centaine) from the family of Group 1 winners I Wish I Win (Savabeel) and Savy Yong Blonk (Savabeel). The Autumn Sun is standing at a fee of $66,000 (inc GST), having not stood in 2024.

Rey Magnerio returns to land Caulfield Sprint

The Robbie Griffiths-trained Rey Magnerio (6 g Magnus - Luchardo by Testa Rossa) could be set for a step back up to Group 1 level after taking out Saturday's Caulfield Sprint (Gr 2, 1000m). Ridden by Jye McNeil, the six-year-old gelding was scoring for the first time since landing the Rubiton Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) in February as he denied Geegees Mistruth (Wordsmith) by 0.3 lengths. There was a further 0.4 lengths back to Zealously (Harry Angel) in third.

Tristarc win for Abounding

Hugely consistent mare Abounding (5 m Rich Enuff - Transonic by Casino Prince) gained a deserved first win at Group level on Saturday when the Rob Heathcote-trained five-year-old scored in the closing Tristarc Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Caulfield. Ridden by Blake Shinn, the daughter of Rich Enuff (Written Tycoon) ran out a length winner over Splash Back (Le Havre) with a further 0.8 lengths back to Bossy Nic (Nicconi) in third. "It's been a great day, delighted to win on this horse for First Light Racing, Rob Heathcote and his team. You wouldn't get a more consistent and honest mare to ride, [she] just tries her best. Her last two runs put the writing on the wall for today and I'm just pleased to get the result for the connections on a great day of racing," the winning rider said. "I just had to extricate out. The speed in the first 200 [metres] or so was quicker than I expected but I just allowed her to relax, find her groove, and then into the straight she just came underneath me nicely and proved too strong. Great day for the Heathcote stable, their old boy Rothfire won in Sydney which was great to see and for this girl to win, it's a testament to Rob and his stable, I'm just delighted to team up with them."

Spicy Lu lands Ethereal Stakes

Queanbeyan-based trainer Nick Olive looks to have another potential Group 1 winner on his books in the shape of Spicy Lu (3 f Tagaloa - All Salsa by Charge Forward) after the filly landed Saturday's Ethereal Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Caulfield. Already a winner of the Fernhill Mile (Listed, 1600m) back in April, Spicy Lu recorded a maiden Group-race success as she made all in the 2000-metre contest to beat Just A Journey (Justify) by 0.8 lengths. There was a further 0.7 lengths back to After Summer (The Autumn Sun) in third. "Running second in the Caulfield Cup with Single Gaze was probably the biggest thrill of my career, but it's great to get a win down here, she's just had no luck in her runs down here, it's been so frustrating," Olive said. "Great to get the job done today. I haven't got big money to spend, but she's a Magic Millions buy, paid 30,000. So, she's been a great little filly, and the team at home has done a great job with that. Tony's here, Tony Blackshaw. He's been a big supporter of mine. He lives in Melbourne, so it's great that he can share this." Olive will now mull over whether to send Spicy Lu to the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) at Flemington on November 6. "I have had it at the back of my mind, for sure," he said. "I just wanted to come and sort of aim for some of these races down in Melbourne. As I said, we've had no luck, but you know everything's worth it today after winning this. I'll sum that up over the next week I think. There's not much of her, but she is a really tough horse, so we'll make a decision on that next week."

Evergreen Private Eye scores in Moonga Stakes

Joe Pride's evergreen eight-year-old Private Eye (8 g Al Maher - Confidential Queen by Shamardal) once again showcased his abundant talent when running out a length and a half winner of Saturday's Moonga Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Caulfield. Ridden by Nash Rawiller, the son of Al Maher (Danehill) defeated Warnie (Highland Reel) with a further 0.4 lengths back to Steparty (Artie Schiller) in third. Saturday's Group 3 success was the 14th of Private Eye's 47-start career, with over $12.5 million earned in prize-money.

Stretan Angel breaks winning drought

The Phillip Stokes-trained Stretan Angel (5 m Harry Angel - Stretan by Bernardini) recorded her first win since landing the Danehill Stakes back in October 2023 when scoring in Saturday's Alinghi Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Caulfield. Dropping back in grade, having run down the field in the Gilgai Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) on her previous outing, the daughter of Harry Angel (Dark Angel) proved a half-length too strong for Soft Love (Pierata) in the 1100-metre Listed contest. New York Lustre (Manhattan Rain) finished the same distance away in third.

Tentyris advertises Coolmore Stud Stakes credentials

In one of the performances of the day, the Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained Tentyris (3 c Street Boss - Deity by Exceed And Excel) impressed when running out a half-length winner of the Gothic Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Caulfield.

Ridden by Mark Zahra, the three-year-old colt improved on his first-up third in the Danehill Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) as he produced a stylish turn of foot down the home straight to reel in Raging Force (Cosmic Force) for a comfortable success. There was a further length and a half back to the third-placed Sheza Alibi (Saxon Warrior).

All roads lead to next month's Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) for the now three-time stakes winner.

"It's been a slow build-up," said Sam Freedman. "To all the Godolphin staff at home, the team at home has done a great job, it was a big win."

"A big relief. We've had a lot of chats about this horse, Mark [Zahra] and I. He's best when he is coiled up."

"He dead-headed in the race before the Blue Diamond up on the speed, but you get a decent field, genuine tempo and he's a very good horse. He's got a very good turn of foot to get out of trouble."

"It was pretty gutting to miss the Slipper as a two-year-old, we felt like he was the best chance we had in that race. So hopefully, it's a blessing in disguise. Sometimes those horses can do with a bit more time."

"We're keen to be the fresh horse on the scene for the Coolmore; it looks like he's going to do that."

39 for Dundee

Arrowfield's flagship sire Dundee (High Chaparral) chalked up his 39th individual stakes winner when Idle Flyer (4 m ex Progressive by Street Cry) landed Saturday's Angst Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Randwick. Ridden by Zac Lloyd for Matthew Smith, the four-year-old mare proved 1.4 lengths too good for Perfumist (El Roca) with a further 1.6 lengths back to Polymnia (Dundee) in third. A $70,000 purchase out of Torryburn Stud for her trainer and Randwick Bloodstock Agency at the 2023 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, Idle Flyer is the best of three winners out of the Street Cry (Machiavellian) mare Progressive, herself a sister to the dam of Group 1 winner Tom Kitten (Harry Angel) and stakes winners Va Via (Astern) and Promotions (Exceed And Excel). Dundee is standing for an unchanged fee of $88,000 (inc GST).

Seven for Trapeze Artist

Widden Stud stallion Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) sired his seventh individual stakes winner when the Chris Waller-trained Panova (3 f ex Love Me Quietly by Trusting) scored in Saturday's Reginald Allen Quality (Listed, 1400m) at Randwick. Ridden by Tommy Berry, the filly ran out a 0.7 lengths winner over Samarelle (Savabeel) with a further 1.3 lengths back to Chatterley (Snitzel) in third. "It's such a big day in Australian sport, and we've brought racing from around the world to Sydney, and we're all very proud of it so it's just awesome," said Waller. "It's a good start to the day for our stable; a lovely ride from Tommy. He didn't panic from a wide draw, it just shows the track's perfect and you can

Ceolwulf goes back-to-back in King Charles III Stakes

The Joe Pride-trained Ceolwulf (5 g Tavistock - Las Brisas by Shamardal) provided his connections with another memorable day at Randwick when securing successive victories in Saturday's King Charles III Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m).

Having run out a 0.8 length winner over the re-opposing Pride Of Jenni (Pride Of Dubai) last year, the five-year-old gelding proved a more dominant winner this time around as he shot to the front inside the final 100 metres and pulled 1.8 lengths clear of Mr Brightside (Bullbars). There was a further 0.2 lengths back to Pier (Proisir) in third.

"I have said for a long time I've thought he was the best horse I ever trained and it has been a long 12 months waiting for him to win again in the manner in which he won last year," Pride said.

"A fair few firm tracks have played a role. I could throw a heap of excuses at you. No-one wants to hear them. I was just so happy to see him return to what I know he's capable of.

"I'm sure he will have his time when he is very consistent. He has just been a little bit patchy with his form but he enjoyed having those blinkers on today."

Winning rider Chad Schofield, who is Ceolwulf's regular jockey, said Pride's decision to make a gear change was pivotal to the horse's return to form.

"I've got so much belief in him," Schofield said. "Just a masterstroke by Joe, just keeping that ace up his sleeve for the grand final today.

"The blinkers brought out the best of him and, God, he was good."

win from anywhere." Panova was purchased for $325,000 by Ciaran Maher Bloodstock out of the Kenmore Lodge draft at the 2024 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale and runs for B2B Thoroughbreds. She is the first foal out of Love Me Quietly (Trusting), a winning half-sister to Group 3 winner Charge (Zoustar) from the family of Group winners Elite Falls (More Than Ready) and Niagara Falls (Danehill). Trapeze Artist is standing for a fee of $33,000 (inc GST).

Rothfire shows younger rivals the way in Sydney Stakes

The Rob Heathcote-trained Rothfire (8g Rothesay - Huss On Fire by Hussonet) was another older sprinter to show his younger rivals a clean pair of heels on Saturday when he scored in the Sydney Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Randwick. Ridden by Zac Purton, the eight-year-old gelding flew home inside the final 200 metres to beat Iowna Merc (Winning Rupert) by 0.4 lengths in the $2 million Group 3. With Your Blessing (Vadamos) finished a further 0.1 lengths further back in third. "I'm not normally lost for words but this is so emotional. I said to a couple of mates, including Kelly Schwieda, I'd never cry on national TV, but this horse, to do what he's done and he's done it from the outside alley," Heathcote said. "What a ride by Zac. Barrier 16, he's got him sixth with cover. I knew the old boy would find. A couple of people said to me in this huge crowd, he's maybe the forgotten horse in the race. But we didn't forget him, we knew. The crazy thing is I've had him in three Everests and I haven't got him there. The Golden Rose he shattered his sesamoid. We came back two years later, he ran here in the Premiere on a hard track and jarred up. He jarred up in the Manikato so I went home and patched him up again. He's defied veterinary critics for so long and here he is winning a $2 million race."

Long-term plan pays off for Clear Thinking in The Kosciuszko

Having not been seen since March, the Paul Messara and Leah Gavranich-trained Clear Thinking (Dubawi) pulled off a long-term plan when landing Saturday's $2 million The Kosciuszko (1200m) at Randwick. Ridden by

Linebacker

SPORTPIX

Linebacker dominates proceedings in Silver Eagle

Linebacker (Super Seth) produced an eye-catching display to land Saturday's Silver Eagle (1300m) at Randwick, scorching clear inside the final 200 metres to score in stylish fashion.

Ridden by Zac Lloyd, the John O'Shea and Tom Charlton-trained four-year-old proved much too good for his 12 rivals as he defeated Lord Penman (Contributer) by 2.6 lengths. There was a further 0.1 lengths back to Mayfair (Fastnet Rock) in third.

"He is so nice to ride," Lloyd said. "I thought today was a query, he's had a couple of setbacks, but John and Tom are just training him so well.

"His trackwork rider Santiago too - the horse can be quite keen and he does a fantastic job with him. I just tried to keep it smooth and trust that I was on the best horse.

"I actually got a lovely run, considering he was three deep and they weren't going fast. I had cover off the horse in front of me, because he was a bit off the fence.

"He put that field away so quickly and there is still so much more to come with him. I am so excited. He knows how to get the job done and he is a serious racehorse."

Linebacker has now had 11 starts for four wins, two placings and $1.63 million in prize-money.

"This horse has just been going so well," O'Shea. "I was really disappointed when we had a setback early in this preparation, because I was desperate to run him in the King Charles. Zac [Lloyd] has got a great understanding of him now and the team have done a great job, my staff at home.

"A lot of work has gone into him to get him to this point. He's in great form and Zac is riding him really well, so I'm very happy."

Tyler Schiller, the six-year-old mare ran out a 0.9 lengths winner over Gallant Star (Zoustar) with a further 0.1 lengths back to Chidiac (Better Than Ready) in third. "Credit to Leah [Gavranich] who rides Clear Thinking every day and is my co-trainer," Messara said. "This is very exciting. It was a hell of a ride by Tyler, he went back and made all the right decisions - that was sensational. She had some feet trouble in the autumn so we didn't persevere and gave her a good spell. Since she has been back in work, she has done everything right going into this race. We knew the pace would be really fast today so we made the decision to use blinkers so it would keep her focused. She's an amazing mare."

Travolta dances to St Leger victory

UK import Travolta (Lope De Vega) secured a big pay-day for his connections on Saturday when he narrowly scored in the $500,000 St Leger Stakes (2600m) at Randwick. Ridden by Zac Lloyd, the five-year-old Lope De Vega (Shamardal) gelding defeated Etna Rosso (Decorated Knight) by 0.1 lengths with a further 0.9 lengths back to Soul Of Spain (Phoenix Of Spain) in third. Incredibly, winning trainer Chris Waller sent out the first five home in the 2600-metre contest, with More Felons (Churchill) and Asterix (Tavistock) rounding out the quintet.

Big Dance next for wildcard scorer Vivv Air

Having run second in the Big Dance (1600m) last year behind stablemate Gringotts (Per Incanto), the Ciaran Maher-trained mare Vivv Air (Hellbent) will bid to go one better in that $3 million contest after she confirmed her place with a win in Saturday's Big Dance Wild Card Handicap (1600m) at Randwick. Ridden by Ethan Brown, the five-year-old daughter of Hellbent (I Am Invincible) scored by 0.2 lengths over Swiftfalcon (Exceedance) with a further 1.1 lengths back to the third-placed Ducasse (Trapeze Artist). "She gets her ticket again [to the Big Dance] now so hopefully she can go one better. Rapt, she's very good at running second this mare and when Brownie [Ethan Brown] pushed the button fairly early I thought, I was like 'oh god'," Maher said. "The team have done a good job, she trains on the beach up at Newcastle. She stays up a long time and it's great to get a win on a big day."

Seven for Ghaiyyath

Darley's former shuttler Ghaiyyath (Dubawi) chalked up his seventh individual stakes winner and second Australian stakes winner when Freedom Flame (3 f ex Khandallah by Kitten's Joy) claimed the Hill Smith Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at Morphettville on Saturday. Ridden by Taylor Johnstone, the Andrew Gluyas-trained filly narrowly defeated Different Gravy by 0.1 lengths in a one-two for the stallion. There was a further 3.6 lengths back to Kalmana (Microphone) in third. Gluyas was winning the Listed contest for the third successive year, having landed the 2023 running with Air Assault (Justify) and last year's renewal with Goldrush Guru (American Pharoah). Out of the stakes-placed Kitten's Joy (El Prado) mare Khandallah, Freedom Flame is a half-sister to Group 2 winner Dalasan (Dalakhani) and Listed scorer Party Princess (So You Think). Ghaiyyath did not return to Darley Australia for the 2025 southern hemisphere breeding season, having covered 79 mares in 2024 for a fee of $27,500 (inc GST).

Second stakes success for Rope Them In

The Steve Wolfe-trained Rope Them In (5 g Playing God - Lead Rope by Real Jester) doubled his stakes tally on Saturday when landing the RS Crawford Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Ascot. Ridden by Shaun McGruddy, the five-year-old gelding scored by 0.4 lengths over London's Image (Headwater) with the same distance further back to Super Smink (Super One) in third. Saturday's victory added to Rope Them In's win in the Colonel Reeves Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m).

New Zealand

80 for Written Tycoon

Well Written

TRISH DUNELL

Yulong stalwart Written Tycoon (Iglesia) chalked up his 80th individual stakes winner when Well Written (3 f ex Mozzie Monster by Sebring) ran out a hugely impressive winner of Saturday's Soliloquy Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Ellerslie. Having made a winning debut at the same track over 1200 metres on September 20, the Stephen Marsh-trained filly improved on that as she easily defeated Little Black Dress (Snitzel) by 6.8 lengths. There was a further 0.3 lengths back to Tajana (Darci Brahma) in third.

Well Written is the only horse to race from two out of the Listed-placed Sebring (More Than Ready) mare Mozzie Monster, and has now earned over $117,000 from just two starts to date. Written Tycoon is standing for a private fee.

Well Written new 1,000 Guineas favourite after Soliloquy romp

Bookmakers wasted little time installing Well Written as the $4 favourite for the New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) ahead of Tajana and Lollapalooza (El Roca), who share the second line of betting at $5 for the race, after her easy Soliloquy Stakes success on Saturday. Winning trainer Stephen Marsh was quick to pay tribute to bloodstock agent Dylan Johnson who convinced him to purchase the filly out of the Brighthill Farm draft during the 2024 NZB National Online Yearling Sale on Gavelhouse Plus, where they paid a sale-topping $80,000. "That was bloody exciting as we thought we had two excellent fillies," Marsh said. "It was just a shame Little Black Dress got softened up and taken on the whole way. Well Written got a great run and you could just see at the top of the straight it was going to be another good win like last time. I was hoping she had the X-factor. Holy hell, she could be pretty special. Dylan [Johnson] has got to take a lot of credit as he shopped around the whole of the online book and took me to every place in New Zealand to look at them and he found her. Big ups to him and a big group of owners, including some new stable clients." Well Written holds a nomination for the New Zealand 1,000 Guineas at Riccarton on November 8, with Marsh confirming she would be heading to the race along with Little Black Dress. "We will certainly be going down there with the way she has won today," he said. "We won't get too far ahead of ourselves as she has had a short prep with just the two runs. If she comes through well, we will give her a crack. She [Little Black Dress] will also be there as she is also a very good filly."

Arabian Songbird upstages Tardelli in Cambridge showdown

Stephen Marsh ran rampant with wins in four of the first seven races at Ellerslie on Saturday, but his hottest favourite of the day had to settle for a placing as another Cambridge stable stole the show. The Roger James and Robert Wellwood-trained Arabian Songbird (Pierro) took flight from the back of the field to upstage Tardelli (I Am Invincible) in the $65,000 Elsdon Park (1400m), scoring by 0.8 lengths over Bourbon Empress (Proisir). Marsh had been an unstoppable force until that point of the afternoon, winning the Soliloquy Stakes by almost seven lengths with Well Written along with undercard victories by Miss Fladgate (Russian Revolution), Swiss Prince (El Roca) and On The Town (Blue Point). "Someone had to stop him," Wellwood joked. "But I have to give a big shout out to Cambridge. Today's results are testament to the quality of training centre we work at. With the prize-money on offer here and the fantastic surface to race on, it's a pretty good track to like." Reflecting on the performance of Arabian Songbird, Wellwood said: "She was very impressive today. Masa [Hashizume] gave her a patient ride and she showed a wonderful turn of foot. She's an exciting mare and we've got a lot of options available to us from here. We'll have a team talk with Barneswood Farm and come up with a plan. We could take her to Riccarton for the TAB Mile, or there's the Breeders' Stakes at Pukekohe and even the possibility of a Group 1 at Trentham."

Midnight Dart delivers on debut

A winning debut by bargain buy Midnight Dart (Derryn) at Trentham on Saturday has kept the Karaka Millions dream alive for a big group of young and first-time owners. Midnight Dart was bought for $20,000 from Book 2 of Karaka 2025 by Josh Herd, whose mother Lisa Latta trains the colt at Awapuni. He ran second in his only trial at Otaki on September 16, beaten by a wide margin by subsequent race winner De Armas (Ardrossan), and was sent out as the $8.50 outsider in Saturday's 800-metre contest. Patiently ridden by Kate Hercock, Midnight Dart settled towards the back of the field in the early stages before coming home well to deny Rupeni (Derryn) by 0.8 lengths. There was a further 2.3 lengths back to Home Secretary

(Home Affairs) in third. "He's a true-blue little professional racehorse," Latta said. "This is a great story. My son Josh bought the horse from the sales at Karaka and syndicated him out. He's got a lot of people involved, which is great. There are a lot of small shares and heaps of young people. It's just fantastic. This little horse has done everything right. He had one trial last month, and then he went really well in the Levin jump-outs two weeks ago and was narrowly beaten there. We bought him with a dream of getting him to the Karaka Millions for these young owners, so that's the goal and we'll work our way backwards from there."

Enrico lands another Trentham success

Progressive stayer Enrico (El Roca) could be in for his best campaign yet after showing plenty of grit and tenacity to collect his fourth win at Trentham when he overcame some home-straight troubles to win an open handicap over 1600 metres on Saturday. The Ilone Kelly-prepared seven-year-old came into the event off the back of an eye-catching run for third at Otaki at his last start over 1400 metres and relished the step up in distance, coming home well to beat Belardo Boy (Belardo) by 0.8 lengths. "He just loves Trentham as that is his fourth win there," Kelly said. "He seems to have really matured for this preparation and I think that helped when he got into a little bit of trouble in the straight as he picked himself up and charged after them. I probably didn't place him that well last season as there never seemed to be the right race when we needed it, but I think this campaign will be different as there looks like some nice races ahead for him. We had thought of taking him to Riccarton for the New Zealand Cup, but he just goes a little keen for two miles so we will stick around here and look at some of the middle-distance races coming up."

JPN: Gaia Force back to winning ways

Gaia Force (6 h Kitanas Black - Natale by Kurofune) registered a first win since September 2022 when taking out the Fuji

Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Tokyo on Saturday. The Haruki Sugiyama-trained entire had shown a return to form when finishing second in the Yasuda Kinen (Gr 1, 1600m) on his previous outing back in June and he made the most of this drop in grade on his return, scoring by a half-length over favourite Jantar Mantar (Palace Malice) to notch his second stakes victory, and fourth success overall, from 19 starts. Soul Rush (Rulership) finished third, two and a quarter lengths behind the winner.

Third for Cotai Glory

Powerful Glory

RACING POST

Powerful Glory (3 c ex Wouldntitbelovely by Kodiak) became the third Group 1 winner for Tally-Ho Stud stallion Cotai Glory (Exceed And Excel) when producing one of the biggest shocks in recent times when landing Saturday's Champions Sprint Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at Ascot. Having beaten only one runner home in two starts this season, the Richard Fahey-trained colt displayed a huge jolt of improvement to bag the Group 1 sprint at odds of 200-1, beating Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) winner Lazzat (Territories) by a neck. There was a further length and a quarter back to Quinault (Oasis Dream) in third. Purchased for 37,000gns by Tally-Ho Stud at the 2022 Tattersalls December Foal Sale, Powerful Glory was then re-sold to Blandford Bloodstock for £190,000 at the 2024 Goffs UK Breeze-Up Sale and is raced by Sheikh Rashid Dalmook Al Maktoum. He is the second foal out of the Kodiak (Danehill) mare Wouldntitbelovely, herself a half-sister to winner Enzo's Lad (Society Rock). Cotai Glory stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of €15,000 (approx. AU$26,900).

Four for Muhaarar

In what turned out to be a day of big shocks at Ascot on Saturday, the Charlie Hills-trained Cicero's Gift (5 g ex Terentia by Diktat) proved too strong for his 15 rivals in the Queen Elizabeth II Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) as he became the fourth individual Group 1 winner for Haras du Petit Teller stallion Muhaarar (Oasis Dream). Sent off at odds of 100-1, the five-year-old gelding held off the late challenge of The Lion In Winter (Sea The Stars) to win by a length and a quarter, while there was a further neck back to Alakazi (Footstepsinthesand) in third. OTI Racing's Queen Anne Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) winner Docklands (Massaat) ran on well in the closing stages to grab fourth - beaten a length and three-quarters by the winner. Bred by Fiona Williams, Cicero's Gift was purchased by his trainer and McKeever Bloodstock for 32,000gns at Book 3 of the 2021 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale and is raced by Rosehill Racing. He is a half-brother to four winners, including the stakes-placed Crossing The Line (Cape Cross), being out of the winning Diktat (Warning) mare Terentia, herself a half-sister to Listed winner Cartimandua (Medicean). Muhaarar stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of €14,000 (approx. AU$25,110).

UK: Admirable Trawlerman grinds out victory in Champions Long Distance Cup

Trawlerman (7 g Golden Horn - Tidespring by Monsun) made it four successive victories and two Group 1 wins for the season when producing a top staying performance to land Saturday's Champions Long Distance Cup (Gr 1, 2m) at Ascot. Ridden by William Buick for trainers John and Thady Gosden, the Godolphin homebred added yet another big-race prize to his CV as he took up the lead entering the final four furlongs and, having kicked clear round the home bend, stayed on dourly to deny his stablemate Sweet William (Sea The Stars) by a length and a half. Front-runner Al Qareem (Awtaad) finished a further 12 lengths behind in third place, as the race turned into a real test of stamina. In winning Saturday's Champions Long Distance Cup, Trawlerman joined the likes of Stradivarius (Sea The Stars), Kyprios

UK: Calandagan reigns supreme in Champion Stakes thriller

French raider Calandagan (4 g Gleneagles - Calayana by Sinndar) put in his claim to be crowned Europe's champion middle-distance performer when producing an ultra-classy display at Ascot on Saturday in the Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f).

Having won the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f) at Ascot on his start prior, the Francis Graffard-trained four-year-old improved his already solid record at the track as he came from the rear of the field to lead with over a furlong left to race, before staying on well under Mickael Barzalona sporting the silks of Aga Khan Studs to beat Ombudsman (Night Of Thunder) by two and a quarter lengths.

There was a further length and three-quarters back to Almaqam (Lope De Vega) in third place in a star-studded renewal.

Barzalona told ITV Racing: "We went a nice gallop early on, but when he found his stride he was ready to go on the approach to the straight. I could feel Ombudsman coming to me but I was going much better than him."

"He's a very good horse. Francis and everyone in the stable are doing a fantastic job and they all work very hard every day. It's a joy to ride in these colours and I'm very proud to be part of the team."

Delacroix (Dubawi), winner of the Irish Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) on his previous outing, finished a never-closer fourth, a nose behind Almaqam.

(Galileo), Order Of St George (Galileo), Rite Of Passage (Giant's Causeway) and Fame And Glory (Montjeu) as horses to win this weekend's race and the Ascot Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2m 4f) at Ascot's flagship royal meeting in June.

UK: Kalpana imperious again in Champions Fillies & Mares

Kalpana (4 f Study Of Man - Zero Gravity by Dansili) made light work of defending her title in Saturday's Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes

(Gr 1, 1m 4f) at Ascot as she ran out a comfortable scorer under Colin Keane. Although without a win since landing the corresponding race 12 months earlier, the Andrew Balding-trained filly had run respectably in defeat this season, including when second over the course and distance in the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes back in July. She returned to winning ways with a two and a half length victory over Estrange (Night Of Thunder) as the 11-8 favourite. Quisisana (Le Havre) finished third, a further three-quarters of a length away.

74 for Wootton Bassett

Dorset with jockey Jack Cleary

RACING POST

Dorset (2 c ex Snowflakes by Galileo) provided late Coolmore shuttler Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj) with his 74th individual stakes winner when making all in Saturday's Killavullan Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Leopardstown. Providing both jockey Jack Cleary and trainer Aidan O'Brien with a stakes-race double on the card, the juvenile colt followed up his last-start win in the Goffs Million (7f) with a half-length success over his stablemate Daytona in a one-two for the sire. There was a further four and a half lengths back to the third-placed Spangled Sands (Starspangledbanner). Bred by the Snowflakes Syndicate, Dorset was purchased for €400,000 by Alex Elliott at Book 1 of the 2024 Goffs Orby Yearling Sale and is raced by Derrick Smith, John Magnier, Michael Tabor and Westerberg. He is a half-brother to winners Art Design (No Nay Never) and Neverstopdreaming (No Nay Never) being out of the winning Galileo (Sadler's Wells) mare Snowflakes, herself a sister to dual Guineas heroine Winter. Wootton Bassett died earlier this month.

69 for Camelot

Coolmore's former shuttler Camelot (Montjeu) enjoyed a good day on Saturday as Christmas Day (2 c ex Beau by Sea The Stars) became the sire's 69th individual stakes winner when landing the Eyrefield Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 1f) at Leopardstown, a few hours after C'est Vrai had become his 68th when taking out the Prix de Marseille (Listed, 2000m) at Marseille-Borely. Ridden by Jack Cleary for Aidan O'Brien, Christmas Day kept on strongly inside the final furlong to narrowly deny A Boy Named Susie (Starspangledbanner) by a short-head in a photo-finish to the Group 3 contest. There was a further length and three-quarters back to Port Of Spain (St Mark's Basilica) in third place. Bred by Framont Ltd, Christmas Day was purchased for 450,000gns by Jamie McCalmont Bloodstock out of The Castlebridge Consignment at Book 1 of the 2024 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale and is raced by John Magnier, Michael Tabor, Derrick Smith, Westerberg and Peter Brant. Out of the stakes-winning Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) mare Beau by, he is a half-brother to Grade 3 winner Missed The Cut (Quality Road) and winners Orange Sky (No Nay Never) and South Pole (No Nay Never). Camelot, who stood at Coolmore Australia for one season in 2014, stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season at Coolmore's Irish base for a fee of €75,000 (approx. AU$134,500).

33 for Zarak

Zaraxia (2 f ex Trixia by Siyouni) became the 33rd individual stakes winner for Haras de Bonneval stallion Zarak (Dubawi) when landing the Prix Delahante (Listed, 1700m) at Marseille-Borely on Saturday. Ridden by Cristian Demuro for Nicolas Perret, the juvenile filly defeated Ladja (Golden Horde) by three-quarters of a length, with the same distance further back to Siciliano (Time Test) in third. Bred and raced by Jean-Claude Seroul, Zaraxia is a half-sister to Listed winner Trixia De Vega (Lope De Vega) being out of the Group 3-winning Siyouni (Pivotal) mare Trixia. Zarak stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of €80,000 (approx. AU$143,470).

68 for Camelot

C'est Vrai (3 c ex Absolutely True by Westerner) became the 68th individual stakes winner for Coolmore's former shuttler Camelot (Montjeu) when scoring in Saturday's Prix de Marseille at Marseille-Borely. Providing Nicolas Perret and Cristian Demuro with a stakes-race double on the card, the three-year-old colt defeated Merano (Vanishing Cupid) by a length and a half. There was a further length back to Grecian Storm (Churchill) in third. Out of the winning Westerner (Daneshill) mare Absolutely True, C'est Vrai is a half-brother to Listed winners Allons Y (Soldier Of Fortune) and Absolute City (Elusive City).

Stunning Waitak leaves Livamol rivals in his wake

By NZ Racing Desk

Waitak (Proisir) was a class above his rivals in the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m) at Ellerslie on Saturday, completing a spring Group 1 double in the early stages of what might be a career-defining season.

The son of Proisir (Choisir) has been a Group 1 horse since his two-year-old days, when he ran third in the Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) in April of 2022. He went on to be a Listed winner at three, along with placings in the Auckland Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) and Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m) and a fifth in the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m).

But what Waitak has been able to do since then has cemented his reputation as one of New Zealand's most versatile weight-for-age performers. He flew home from nowhere to win the Sistema Railway (Gr 1, 1200m) at Pukekohe as a four-year-old, and after a frustrating run of bad luck for most of his five-year-old season last summer, got back into the winning groove with autumn double in the Japan Trophy (Gr 2, 1600m) and Awapuni Gold Cup (Gr 2, 2100m).

Waitak has picked up this spring where he left off in the autumn. After a luckless 11th when he resumed in the Proisir Plate (Gr 1, 1400m), he has now gone back-to-back in the Howden Insurance Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at Te Rapa and now the $550,000 Livamol Classic.

"He really deserves this," said Andrew Scott, who trains the gelding in partnership with Lance O'Sullivan. "He was so unlucky last season with unsuitable track conditions and the way his races were being run. Today was just beautiful. He really showed what he can do."

Again ridden by his Howden Mile-winning jockey Craig Grylls, Waitak settled into a perfect position in fifth place and all by himself as Khan Hunter (Mongolian Khan) showed the way through the first half of the race.

Ellerslie specialist El Vencedor (Shocking) threw down the gauntlet and surged into a clear lead coming down the side of the track, but Grylls never panicked. He gave Waitak all the time he needed to warm into his work, then set his sights on El Vencedor in the straight.

A four-length deficit was quickly dissolved and Waitak powered into the lead. He bounded away to win by five and a quarter lengths. El Vencedor finished second, a length and a quarter in front of Sharp 'N' Smart (Redwood).

It was the 20th win at Group 1 level for Grylls – fittingly at the same venue where he rode his first one, Pasta Post (Postponed), in the 2008 Easter Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m).

"Any Group 1 win is great, but this is special – especially to do it for Wexford, who have been such great supporters of mine," Grylls said.

"This horse is just a marvel and it was an incredible win today. He's taken a lot of improvement out of his last-start win at Te Rapa.

"The speed was on from the 600 metres and I had to get on my bike a little bit earlier than I might have expected, but he quickened so well. He got up alongside El Vencedor, then changed legs, quickened again and got away from him."

Waitak (5 g Prosir - Repo Bay by Shocking) has now had 34 starts for eight wins, nine placings and more than $1.5 million in prize-money. He was bred by the late Colin Devine and is raced by his wife Jill.

Saturday's win capped a notable double for the Devine family, who also had a win at Matamata on Friday with Waitak's talented brother Crackercol (Proisir).

"To have the winner yesterday and now today is a huge result for Team Devine," Scott said.

"It means a lot to our camp too. It's a massive team effort and it's been a big build-up to this carnival.

"The team's been racing well, and you only hope you can keep building on that and getting results like today.

"The team was so confident in Waitak all week. Craig got off him last weekend and just said the horse had improved since Te Rapa. You try and keep your confidence levels measured, but the horse is just going so well.

"Today he got into his rhythm on his own, and then he really showed what he can do. He's got a beautiful gallop on him, and he's just come of age so we're thrilled.

"When the favourite took off at the 600 metres, we knew we'd had an economical run. When he gets on his own and is able to relax, he can really quicken.

"He wasn't being bothered by anything with 1000 metres to go and we knew he was going to finish strongly. It was brilliant to watch.

"He's a horse that keeps getting better and better. He's a beautiful sound horse and goes in any ground. We're just very fortunate to have him in our stable."

Scott identified the Mufhasa Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) at Trentham on December 6 and the Zabeel Classic (Gr 1, 2000m) on Boxing Day as Waitak's next likely targets.

"We're pretty keen to get him down to Wellington for the Captain Cook," he said. "He can have a bit of time away between now and then - he'll be out in the farm on Monday for a break.

"Hopefully he'll be back here Boxing Day, and then through the summer."

Waitak's winning margin was among the widest seen in a Group 1 race in New Zealand in the last 30 years. It equalled Mustang Valley's (Vanbrugh) runaway victory by the same margin in the 2022 Livamol Classic on a heavy track at Hastings.

The only larger margins in the last three decades were Xtravagant's (Pentire) eight-length demolitions in the 2015 New Zealand 2000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and 2016 Waikato Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m), plus Lizzie L'Amour's (Zabeel) victory by five and a half lengths in the 2018 Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m).

VERDICT A few of these come with something to prove, but RAGNARR arrives in good heart following a deserved breakthrough over 61 here 18 days ago. A 6lb rise asks a fresh question, but he looks capable of defying it given past form off higher marks. Riding High ran well on his return and should strip fitter, while Lucky Blessing is a fairly consistent type who has shown enough to suggest a breakthrough isn't far away.

BETTING FORECAST: 3 Robot Lucky Star, 5 Flowing Riches, 11-2 California Blitz, 6 Straight To Glory, 8 Prestige Hall, 10 Little Monster, Same To You, 12 Enjoy Golf, 20 Sky Phoenix, 25 Sight Hermoso, 33 Flash Star, Magic Cosmos, 50 Giant Ballon, The Promise.

VERDICT None of the newcomers make any appeal in what looks an open sprint, and it may pay to side with ROBOT LUCKY STAR, who shaped with plenty of promise on debut and keeps the services of Zac Purton for today's return. Flowing Riches remains unexposed and looked a horse to follow when scoring over C&D on return last month, while California Blitz also arrives in good form and could be a factor if coping with the drop to 5f.

VERDICT A chance is taken on FIREFOOT, who has been edging back to form with each run this term and could now prove a big danger off today's low weight. Beauty Viva is feared most after a couple of solid efforts since returning, including an unlucky second 18 days ago. Special Hedge also shaped well on his comeback and may feature again.

VERDICT AUSPICIOUS to break a run of commendable placed efforts and register the second victory of his career. Fun Together and Raging Rapids are both also in good form and should not be far away, while Autumn Vibes needs to follow up an improved run last time. We Can Party is an outsider who might run better than the betting market suggests.

VERDICT This looks much the best of the two divisions of this handicap, so the winner should be worth following. Marginal preference is for BLAZING WUKONG, who can be expected to come on for his recent seasonal debut and is weighted to reverse placings with the winner, Lucky Sam Gor, but must overcome a wide draw. He has most to fear from Victory Champion while Aeronvincible, Smart Fat Cat, Audacious Pursuit and Strange Alert also all have valid claims.

VERDICT My Wish produced a good performance in a 7f Group 3 handicap here last month and might be seen to even better effect over today's longer trip but the vote goes to GALAXY PATCH, who is only 2lb higher than when readily justifying favouritism in this race a year ago and has subsequently performed well in Group 1 races. Multiple Group 1 winner Voyage Bubble is also respected.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Everyone's Star, 3 Harold Win, 11-2 Brilliant Express, 12 Gracious Express, Outgate, Riding Together, 14 Mask Rider, Star Mac, 16 Flying Fortress, 20 Smart Avenue, Thousand Spirit, 33 Ghorgan, Nearly Fine, 66 Kingdom Of Riches.
VERDICT Zac Purton's mount Everyone's Star was in good form over C&D when last seen in April/May and remains lightly raced but slight preference is for well-drawn 3yo HAROLD WIN, who ran a big race in defeat but here 18 days ago and may still have a bit more to offer over 7f. Brilliant Express and Outgate are others to consider.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Beauty Bolt, 6 Morgan Success, Yuen Long Elite, 7 Max Que, 8 Pope Cody, 10 Mister Dapper, 14 Fortune Boy, Master Trillion, 20 Awesome Fluke, I Can, Spirit Of Peace, 25 California Waves, Sky Vino, 33 Winning Gold.
VERDICT Several of these are in good form but one who could still have significant potential is tightly raced 3yo BEAUTY BOLT, who was placed behind Pope Cody when upped to 1m for last month's seasonal debut and has a good pull in the weights with that rival today. Yuen Long Elite might still be on the upgrade and is second choice, ahead of Morgan Success, who signed off in June with a ready C&D win.
