Via Sistina lands titanic Cox Plate as Waller and McDonald rewrite record books

By Trevor Marshallsea

Via Sistina (Fastnet Rock) became the oldest mare to land the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) when she joined an elite list of dual winners in a fittingly classic edition of the race in its last staging at Moonee Valley before its redevelopment.

In a Cox Plate for the record books, the Yulong mare and Buckaroo (Fastnet Rock) brought their retired sire the quinella as they fought a titanic struggle over the last 100 metres before Via Sistina - who'd looked beaten several times - lifted to score by 0.1 lengths.

It made Chris Waller the first trainer to quinella the great race since 1961, when Brian Courtney's pair Dhulagiri (High Peak) and New Statesmen (Smokey Eyes) filled the first two placings.

Breathtaking Attica bags Spring Champion

In the last race before the famed Moonee Valley circuit is bulldozed and reconfigured, Via Sistina became the 15th multiple winner of the Cox Plate, joining horses including four-time queen Winx (Street Cry), triple hero Kingston Town (Bletchingly), plus other dual victors including Phar Lap (Night Raid), So You Think (High Chaparral) - who died last week - Northerly (Serheed), Tobin Bronze (Arctic Explorer) and Sunline (Desert Sun), the great New Zealand mare to whom, McDonald said, Via Sistina deserves comparison.

Expat Kiwis Waller and McDonald are now the modern kings of the race, with Waller now having won it six times with just the two great mares, Winx and Via Sistina, who's now won 13 stakes races, including 11 at Group 1 level.

The reigning Horse of the Year started a steady $2.25 favourite in the eight-runner field, but had come in under a cloud, having managed moderate - by her standards - thirds at her two previous starts in the Makybe Diva Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and Turnbull Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m).

But she looked back to her majestic best in the yard, benefitting from that first 2000-metre McDonald settled the mare just worse than midfield behind a strong pace set by Light Infantry Man (Fast Company), with another revitalised Yulong mare - Treasurethe Moment (Alabama Express) behind him.

Soon into the school side, McDonald began his run as the pace heated up. Via Sistina neared the lead as the Continued on page 3

Treasurethe Moment kicked to a near two-length lead nearing the turn as Via Sistina came after her, but under hard riding. Eventually Treasurethe Moment began to tire in the straight as Via Sistina pressed for the lead, only to see Buckaroo come with his run down the outside to threaten a boilover.

But while he looked like going past the great mare, Via Sistina drew on all her reserves of courage to score by a nose.

Buckaroo - the seven-year-old who like Via Sistina was bred from one of Fastnet Rock's (Danehill) many shuttles to Ireland - was brave in defeat, at $16.

Treasurethe Moment was a 1.6 length third at $5.50 - giving Yulong two of the three placegetters, putting a bright end to a week in which it attracted headlines over the continuing absence of the group's founder, Zhang Yuesheng, from Australia.

Aeliana (Castelvecchio), Waller's third runner in the race, didn't figure at $8, while $3.80 second favourite Antino (Redwood) settled last and stayed there, in a baffling non-performance.

Renowned for his emotions after momentous wins such as these, Waller fought back tears as he reflected on "a classic Cox Plate".

"James had to get going early and everyone could see him. He was five wide turning for home. She was great and Treasurethe Moment was awesome and gave it something to chase," said Waller, after his 185th Group 1 win.

"And Buckaroo that was ... I'm glad Via won and Buckaroo, he's run out of his skin."

I LOVE THIS PLACE, I'M BLESSED TO RIDE CHAMPION RACEHORSES, BLESSED TO BE A PART OF A CHAMPION STABLE, AND SHE WAS TRAINED TO THE MINUTE

JAMES McDONALD

Waller said Via Sistina had been tracking well at the stable despite having her colours lowered in her past two starts, while admitting he had to remind himself to stay calm during her lead-up.

"I know she hasn't won her last two runs but all the data suggests she's flying and once they set those benchmarks, providing the horse is healthy and well, you know they're going to get somewhere close to it," he said.

"There's been a few of those 'don't panic, don't change anything, don't think about anything' [moments]. Let the horses do the talking."

McDonald, after Group 1 win number 121, said he'd been pleased in the run before having to ask Via Sistina for her all in the straight.

"It was funny because she began well. I thought, 'this is beautiful'. I thought I was in a great spot," he said.

"Zac Lloyd [on Neopitism] was jostling for a position. Came back, she raced a little bit keen for a bit but her incredible will to win shone through there and she's a champion racehorse.

"I'm so proud of her. She deserved to be in the same breath as Sunline and those sort of horses with two Cox Plates.

"You know what? I'm just rapt that it was a proper run Cox Plate. That's what Cox Plates are all about. Best horse shone through and she deserves all she gets."

McDonald said there was an element of "relief" to the win, on such a special occasion.

"I love this place, I'm blessed to ride champion racehorses, blessed to be a part of a champion stable, and she was trained to the minute," he said. "Waller's a genius."

After rain had fallen during the afternoon, Via Sistina's time of 2:05.03 was well outside her record 2:01.07 set last year.

Buckaroo's rider Mark Zahra said: "He was courageous. Followed the winner everywhere but I just never got in front at any stage. She just finds a head the minute you come up to her. She's a good mare but he ran well."

Treasurethe Moment's jockey Damian Lane said he was proud of the mare, who's come back from a mild bout of colic early this campaign before underwhelming seconds at her previous two starts.

"She was super. Very proud of the horse, proud of Matty [Laurie, trainer] and his team for getting her back to where she is today," he said.

"Just unfortunately Nepotism was put into the race early and forced my hand. I had to ask for her a bit earlier than what was ideal and she obviously put a good margin on them on the corner but that early move had a toll late, so she did a great job."

Bred in Ireland but by British interests with the quintessentially English-sounding name of Laundry Cottage Stud, Via Sistina becomes the first officially eight-year-old mare to win the Cox Plate, though she's still seven-and-a-half biologically.

She's the fifth and very much the best of seven named foals out of the unraced Nigh (Galileo). Suggesting major influence from Fastnet Rock in their mating during his shuttling career to Ireland, only one other of Nigh's offspring has won, and that is Fougere (Bated Breath), who claimed only a Nottingham handicap in 19 starts.

Via Sistina is another example of Fastnet's potency when crossed with daughters of Coolmore's perennial breed-shaping sire Galileo (Sadler's Wells), with the mare among the nicks 29 stakes winners and she is also one of 11 Group 1 scorers bred on the cross.

The yearling Via Sistina was sold by agent Jamie Railton to Stephen Hillen Bloodstock for £5,000 from Book 3 of Tattersalls December Yearling Sale in 2019. From those inauspicious beginnings, she was bought by Evergreen Equine at Tattersalls' December Mares Sale in 2023 for 2,700,000gns, from the draft of Ireland's Grove Stud, before coming to Australia to race in the Yulong green and white.

Nigh now has a three-year-old filly yet to race called Via Sienna (Bated Breath), and last year had a colt by Too Darn Hot (Dubawi).

Breathtaking Attica bags Spring Champion

Attica (Lonhro) capped a golden day for Godolphin colts and his departed stallion while stamping himself a stud-bound star of the future with a breathtaking victory in Saturday's Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick.

Sent out a $4 second-favourite at the fourth start of his first preparation, the Joe Pride-trained colt faced an almighty challenge at the top of the straight.

Settling third-last of the 13 after drawing wide for Adam Hyeronimus, the son of star Godolphin mare Savatiano (Street Cry) was still ten lengths off the lead as he commenced a run at the 600 metres.

Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott's $3.20 favourite Shangri La Boy (Pierro) had sat second for Nash Rawiller as longshot Tambeloa (Tagaloa) set just a middling pace, and when Rawiller eased to the front at the 300 metres, his mount looked full of running.

Attica

SPORTPIX

Attica emerged from the pack as the most threatening chaser but still had three lengths to make up at the 200 metres, but under desperate riding from Hyeronimus, he resolutely ran down his quarry, defeating the gallant Shangri La Boy by 0.3 lengths.

Chris Waller's filly The Pearls (Proisir) nabbed a Group 1 placing for her CV in running a 2.8 length third at $21, while Tameloa clung on for fourth at $201.

Handed to Pride when Godolphin switched to a public training model for this season onwards, Attica debuted with a 1400-metre Warwick Farm maiden win on September 3 before a Kembla Grange class 1 second and a breakthrough black type victory in the Dulcify Stakes (Listed, 1600m) on October 4.

Pride gave him a top-up trial last Friday, and was awestruck by what he saw in the Spring Champion, as Godolphin racked their second Group 1 success under their new model, following the Waller-trained Beiwacht's (Bivouac) Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) win.

"I was worried. I thought the race was over," Pride said of his feelings at the top of the straight.

"You see Nash kick them away like that, it's going to be a big effort to run them down. And I don't think Shangri La Boy stopped - I think my horse has found what he needed to.

"We can't get carried away, it's early on in his life, but I've never had one win a Group 1 in their first preparation, so it's pretty special."

Pride said Attica hadn't yet been "made" as a stallion, saying "we're partway there" and expressing the hope he could adapt to a short trip in chasing the Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) in the autumn, after a spell following the Spring Champion win.

"He's just a really exciting horse and I just can't wait for the autumn," he said.

"It's hard to judge these horses. You're racing the best of an age group quite early on in their life. But what I will say about this horse is, it's not like he's a precocious type you'd expect to be jumping out of the ground at this age.

"He's got a lot of improvement to make, a lot of furnishing to do in that big frame of his.

"But the obvious thing is the engine that he's displaying at the moment. There's a proper V8 under the bonnet, and I just can't wait to see what he does when he gets older."

Celebrating his 21st Group 1 winner - and his first with a colt - Pride offered thanks to Godolphin for giving him "a quality horse" in Attica.

"This is a culmination of a lot of hard work [from the stable] but I've been handed a beautiful horse by Godolphin. Horses like this, they weren't on my doorstep a couple of years ago, so it's nice to be working with quality," he said.

"Godolphin have been good enough to hand over some really nice horses, and horses that are bred to do exactly what this bloke's done today, not necessarily

"His mother was a great racemare in Savatiano and his father was a champion in Lonhro."

While eyeing the Randwick Guineas, the Warwick Farm-based trainer said Attica would have "no problems" handling a longer trip later.

"It was a win that required real stamina," he said. "He was brilliant, but he won with a real test of stamina."

Attica's victory came on a glorious day for Godolphin three-year-old colts.

Thirty-five minutes earlier at Randwick, the Michael Freedman-trained Ohope (I Am Invincible) won the Callander-Presnell (Gr 2, 1600m), while 20 minutes after the Spring Champion, Ciaron Maher's rising star Observer (Ghaiyyath) broke through for his first stakes win in Moonee Valley's Vase (Gr 2, 2040m).

Two races before Attica's success, another son of Lonhro (Octagonal) - Lindermann - continued his strong form with his third Group win in his past four starts, taking the Craven Plate (Gr 3, 1800m).

Hyeronimus paid tribute to Attica for his gritty performance and versatility, suggesting he could have put him in different positions and still won.

"I had about 85 different plans. I don't think any of them were wrong," said Hyeronimus, who knew what he was chasing, having ridden Shangri La Boy to victory at his previous two starts - and in trackwork on Tuesday.

"When I looked up and he'd dashed away, I was thinking, 'Oh wow'.

"But I kept edging, and that last 150 metres, I knew I was going to pick him up. But for him [Attica] to do that and win in this fashion and the times that he's run this early in his career, it's very exciting."

Attica is the first foal out of Savatiano, who won five Group 2s, a Group 3 and a Listed. She was also placed three times at Group 1 level, but her only elite "win" - in the Canterbury Stakes (Gr 1, 1300m) of 2021 - was stripped from her a year later due to a positive swab.

Savatiano has a two-year-old colt named Sabates (Palace Pier) awaiting his first start with Ciaron Maher, a yearling colt by I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), and missed last year to Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt).

Lonhro, who was retired in 2023 and died in April last year aged 25, has 98 stakes winners from 1,528 runners at 6.4 per cent.

Napoleonic marches to Red Anchor glory

Outstanding stallion Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj) may be gone but he might have left a potential stallion in the making in Napoleonic if Saturday's Red Anchor Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) is any indication.

After wins at Wyong and Warwick Farm for his trainers John O'Shea and Tom Charlton, the three-year-old colt took his Sydney form to Melbourne and crushed a smart nine-runner field in the set weights event by 4.25 lengths as $3 favourite.

Jumping from the widest gate for James McDonald, Napoleonic was forced to travel three wide in midfield, but with cover, before pouncing on the leaders in a twinkling with an exhilarating burst of speed around the home turn.

The Clinton McDonald-trained filly Live (Zoustar) earned black type as runner-up at her second start at $16, with Chris Waller's colt Ornithology (Too Darn Hot) third at $31.

A month after Wootton Bassett's death at Coolmore Stud in the Hunter Valley, Napoleonic became his sire's second Australian-bred stakes winner after last month's MVRC Stutt Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) success of West Of Swindon.

And Napoleonic's victory came just 15 minutes after Wootton Bassett's progeny had filled the minor placings in Randwick's prestigious Kirkham Plate (1000m), with filly Pearl Of Dubai second and Coolmore's $1.4 million colt Defenseemen third.

Bred by Bill Frost, Napoleonic was a $360,000 Inglis Easter buy from the draft of Widden Stud, where he was born and raised, for Dean Hawthorne Bloodstock, and is now owned by Jonathan Munz's Pinecliff Racing.

"He's got a beautiful, natural cruising speed and action," said a delighted co-trainer Charlton after the Red Anchor.

"John and I said [to James] to trust the horse and if you get caught deep, don't overthink it, keep it simple and hopefully he's the best horse in the race.

A little slow to hand, Napoleonic debuted as a February two-year-old, finishing sixth at Warwick Farm, before a length second in Newcastle juvenile feature the Paul Perry 2YO Handicap (1300m).

Put away for more development, he scored back-to-back 1200-metre wins at Wyong and Warwick Farm before a creditable fourth in Rosehill's Roman Consul Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) which led into Saturday.

The only down note about Saturday's win might be that it's come too late for a tilt at next Saturday's stallion-making Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Flemington.

Charlton was non-committal about attempting the back-up.

"We were thinking not, as we thought that race would probably come a bit too soon," he said.

"We'll just take a breath, think about it and speak to connections. Whether it is this prep or next prep, he'll be a better horse next prep anyway."

McDonald was full of praise for Napoleonic.

"He is a gorgeous horse. He's a pleasure to do anything with. He let rip today and I was impressed," he said.

"Obviously caught a bit deep but he floated into the race well. He was electric. Nice horse.

"I was pretty comfortable throughout. He built into the race from the 400 to the 200 unbelievably well. A really good transition, too.

"He cornered well and obviously adapted to Moonee Valley brilliantly. Well trained and perfectly executed."

Napoleonic is the seventh foal out of four-time Melbourne city winner Jolie Brise (Fastnet Rock), whose fourth foal Ready Set Sail (More Than Ready) was a Group 3 winner, and whose fifth foal Set The Sails (More Than Ready) was stakes-placed.

Second dam Vestey (Last Tycoon) won an Adelaide Group 3 and was a three-quarter sister to influential broodmare Decidity (Last Tycoon), matriarch of one of the great stud book families and dam of stakes winners Bonaria (Redoute's Choice), Legally Bay (Snippets) and Time Out (Rory's Jester).

In winning Saturday's race, Napoleonic became Wootton Bassett's 75th individual stakes winner worldwide from 834 runners at 8.99 per cent.

Jolie Brise now has a two-year-old filly Josain (Zousain) awaiting her first start for the Archibald stable, and a filly foal by Zousain (Zoustar).

Bargain buy Salty Pearl lands Fillies Classic

After waiting more than a year for his first Group winner, Yulong Stud stallion Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) now has two in the space of a week after bargain buy Salty Pearl won Saturday's Fillies Classic (Gr 2, 1600m) at Moonee Valley.

A week after two-year-old Listed winner Spicy Lu scored Tagaloa's Group breakthrough in Caulfield's Ethereal Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m), Salty Pearl led home a quality field of ten in the set weights contest with an authoritative one length victory.

It was a second win in eight starts alongside four placings for the grey, and a well-deserved stakes success after three black type placings.

Salty Pearl was runner-up at her second start in April in Bendigo's rich VOBIS Gold Rush (1100m) before a third in Morphettville's David Coles Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) and a campaign-closing Caulfield two-year-old handicap success over 1200 metres.

The Ciaran Maher-trained filly returned for the spring with two thirds in the Atlantic Jewel Stakes (Listed, 1200m) and Thousand Guineas Prelude (Gr 2, 1400m), before a fourth in the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) last Saturday.

Backed up a week later, she was sent out a well-supported $2.15 favourite in the Fillies Classic and didn't disappoint.

After travelling sweetly just off a solid pace from gate three for Ben Allen, Salty Pearl looked in some trouble when held up for a run rounding the home turn.

But soon after straightening, a split opened between leaders Star Of Omaha (Omaha Beach) and Envious (Frankel) as the latter drifted outwards, and Salty Pearly drove through it in fine style to pull away. Continued on page 7

Bred by the now-retired trainer David Brideoake, Salty Pearl was a $75,000 purchase for Adrien Senechaud's syndication firm the Starblue Consultancy in tandem with Maher at Inglis Classic, and has now earned $466,000 in prize-money.

"It's great for Adrian and the Starblue crew. They get nice valued horses and they spend a lot of time at the sales," Maher said.

"How good that they've got a stakes-winning filly on Cox Plate day? You don't get much better than that.

"Ben's had a great association with her and he's riding with a lot of confidence. It was a beautiful patient ride. He had to wait for his time and he knew what he had underneath him and it was a very good result."

Asked about the quick back-up, Maher said: "This race came up a bit light so I thought we'd have a go."

He added the filly might be aimed at adding a Group 1 to her broodmare CV in the autumn's Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) for fillies at Randwick.

"She wasn't far away in the Thousand Guineas. Restricted to fillies, that is probably her go. If she improves again then she'll be thereabouts," he said.

"We put the shades [blinkers] on the last couple of starts and got that much more focus as well. She's a filly with a bright future."

Allen conceded he was worried when blocked for a run approaching the home bend.

"At the 200 [metres], it was a bit easier but before that I probably can't share what my thoughts were," he said.

"We just had to trust the horse. She was travelling that well so it was just a matter of finding the slightest gap and she was going good enough.

"If J-Mac [on Envia] hadn't have rolled out, I was going to have to extricate myself to the outside.

"Gee she's so honest. Running in a Group 1 last week on the week back-up.

"Ciaron and the team have done a great job. She's just so honest. It was a big step putting the blinkers on and stepping up in trip last time. I think today it has helped and put her that much more in my hands.

"She's been off the bridle and having to get up after 100 metres. She's got an electric turn-of-foot and she was the class horse today."

Salty Pearl is the second and best foal out of Leaven Of Malice (Sebring), who won at Muswellbrook on debut but not again in 15 starts, and who was retired from breeding last year after only three foals.

Second dam Tempest Tost (Statue Of Liberty) won the Gold Coast's Magic Millions 3YO Trophy (RL, 1400m) alongside two Melbourne city wins, and is the dam of the Group 3-winning and Group 2-placed Mildred (Hinchinbrook).

Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa, who's covering his fifth book at Yulong for $22,000, unchanged from last year, now has two stakes winners from 43 runners at 4.65 per cent, and 15 individual winners.

Morning Briefing

First for Extreme Warrior

Rosemont Stud freshman Extreme Warrior (Extreme Choice) sired his first winner on Saturday when Blandford Baron (2 c ex Yangarra Rose by Zoustar) scored at his second career start at Morphettville. Ridden by Caitlin Tootell for Travis Doudle, the $1.75 favourite jumped well to settle on the pace, before fighting out the finish and scored by 0.45 lengths over Rebel Tuesday (Rebel Dane), with Got Tickets (I Am Immortal) a further 0.31 lengths behind in third. Bred by Barham Racing, Blandford Baron was an $80,000 purchase for Riverstone Lodge and Suman Hedge Bloodstock from the Peppertree Farm draft at the 2024 Magic Millions National Weanling Sale, and was subsequently purchased by Travis Doudle with Suman Hedge for $100,000 at the 2025 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale. He is the first foal out of the winning Zoustar (Northern Meteor) mare Yangarra Rose, who herself is out of Group 3 winner Vibrant Rouge (Written Tycoon), making her a half-sister to Group 1 winner Vibrant Sun (The Autumn Sun). Extreme Warrior stands at Rosemont Stud in Victoria for $13,200 (inc GST) this season.

Two for Tagaloa

Yulong Stud's second season sire Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) notched his second black type winner when Salty Pearl (3 f ex Leaven of Malice by Sebring) took out Saturday's Fillies Classic (Gr 2, 1600m) at The Valley. Trained by Ciaron Maher and ridden by Ben Allen, the filly posted a one length win over Enviable (Frankel) with Prestige Snitzel (Snitzel) a further 1.5 lengths behind in third. Bred by David Brideoake, Salty Pearl was purchased by Starblue Consultancy and Ciaron Maher Racing for $75,000 out of the Sullivan Bloodstock draft at the 2024 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale. She is the second foal and first winner out of the winning Sebring (More Than Ready) mare Leaven Of Malice, who herself is a half-sister to Group 3 winner Mildred (Hinchinbrook). Tagaloa stands at Yulong in Victoria for an unchanged fee of $22,000 (inc GST) this season.

75 for Wootton Bassett

Coolmore Stud's late sire Wootton Bassett (Ifraaj) sired his 75th individual and second southern hemisphere stakes winner when Napoleonic (3 c ex Jolie Brise by Fastnet Rock) registered an emphatic victory in Saturday's Red Anchor Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at The Valley. Ridden by James McDonald for John O'Shea and Tom Charlton, the colt defeated Live (Zoustar) by 4.25 lengths, with Ornithology (Too Darn Hot) a further 0.06 lengths behind in third. Bred by Mr FJ Frost, Napoleonic was a $360,000 buy for Dean Hawthorne Bloodstock from Widden Stud's draft at the 2024 Inglis Easter Yearling Sale. He is the seventh foal out of the stakes-class, winning mare Jolie Brise (Fastnet Rock), who has also produced Group 3 winner Ready Set Sail (More Than Ready) and Listed placegetter Set The Sails (More Than Ready). His granddam is Group 3 winner Vestey (Last Tycoon).

Eight for Ghaiyyath

Observer

SPORTPIX

The Ciaron Maher-trained Observer (3 c ex Smooth by Lonhro) showed his talent when he produced a stylish win in Saturday's Moonee Valley Vase (Gr 2, 2040m) and in doing so he became the eighth individual stakes winner for the former shuttle stallion Ghaiyyath (Dubawi). Ridden by Mark Zahra, the three-year-old was last seen posting an unlucky third in the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and on Saturday he stayed on to beat Providence (Wootton Bassett) by 0.5 lengths. O'Sheamus (Shamus Award) finished another length away in third. Bred and raced by Godolphin, Observer is out of Smooth (Lonhro), making him a half-brother to Group 3 scorer Sandpaper (Snitzel). Smooth herself is an unraced sister to multiple Group 1-winning champion turned Coolmore sire Pierro, while she also counts Group 2 scorer Ambience (Street Cry) and the dam of Group 2 winner Estrella (I Am Invincible) among her half-siblings. Last season Smooth produced a colt by Darley's multiple Group 1-winning champion Anamoe (Street Boss) and last October she was covered by Cylinder (Exceed And Excel), another of the operation's top-flight winning stallions. Ghaiyyath shuttled to Australia for four years but did not return for this season.

Derby plan for Observer

Following his win in the Moonee Valley Vase, Observer could now be set for a tilt at next Saturday's VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) at Flemington. "He put the writing on the wall last time he ran in the Guineas," said winning trainer Ciaron Maher. "You'd think he'd only get better, given his breeding as he stretches out. Fantastic for Godolphin. He's a colt with a very bright future and it'll be interesting to see what Mark [Zahra] says. When he throttled off a little bit late, I thought, 'geez he did that quite early', but he was probably looking after him for next week. He's building with each run. That will now be the decision, and we'll have a chat with the Godolphin team about whether we'll take him to the Derby. Great to be able to train a good colt for Godolphin." Despite the victory, Zahra was fined $1,500 by Racing Victoria stewards for failing to ride Observer out to the line.

Four for Ace High

She's A Hustler

SPORTPIX

Rich Hill Stud sire Ace High (High Chapparral) scored his fourth individual stakes when the Grahame Begg-trained She's A Hustler (5 m ex Snow Petal by Bernardini) landed Saturday's Tesio Stakes (Gr 3, 2040m) at The Valley. Having last been seen winning a Benchmark 78 (1800m) at Flemington in September, the five-year-old mare took the rise in class in her stride, running home strongly to beat Sea What I See (Sea The Stars) by 1.3 lengths. Sunset Park (Sea The Stars) was a further 0.2 lengths further adrift in third. Purchased by Phill Cataldo Bloodstock for $70,000 out of Rich Hill Stud's Book 1 draft at the New Zealand Bloodstock Yearling Sale in 2022, She's A Hustler is out of the dual-winning mare Snow Petal (Bernardini), making her a half-sister to the stakes-placed winner Freeze Frame (Vadamos). Snow Petal's colt by Ace High's barnmate Proisir (Choisir) was bought by Mick Price Racing and Breeding for $100,000 at the New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sale earlier this year and she has most recently been covered by Cambridge Stud's star shuttle stallion Chaldean (Frankel). Ace High is standing for a fee of $15,000 (plus GST).

Matriarch Stakes next for She's A Hustler

The Matriarch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) on the final day of the Flemington carnival is the likely next assignment for She's A Hustler. "Winners win, don't they," said Grahame Begg's representative Rohan Hughes. "She has a great record and Grahame has been careful in the way he's raised the bar for her. I think he thought this preparation she'd go to a nice level and a race like this. We targeted this race a long way out. We wanted to go via the Coongy but he was very happy with her fitness, and that was an extremely tough effort. She had to absorb a lot of pressure from the half-mile onwards, but she's very, very genuine. It is a rare thing. Horses have got it psychologically. They are very competitive and in the end their record shows it. She's still very lightly raced and inexperienced. She's got a good upside. She's a big, scopey Ace High mare and I'm sure in time with further development she's going to develop into a nice staying horse and the way Grahame has explained it, 12 months down the track she may have a role to play in the spring carnival."

Jigsaw pieces together impressive Group 2 win

Jigsaw

SPORTPIX

Cindy Alderson's star performer Jigsaw (7 g Manhattan Rain - Demandz by Lonhro) continued to fly the flag for the stable when he produced a classy display to win Saturday's McEwen Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at The Valley. Ridden by Logan Bates, the gelding, who won Cranbourne's Apache Cat Classic (1200m) on October 10, chalked up his fifth black-type win when he defeated Klable (Vadamos) by 1.8 lengths with Bridal Walz (Snitzel) finishing a further 0.2 lengths away in third. Alderson was effusive in her praise for not only her horse, but apprentice Logan Bates, who recorded his first Group 2 success. "I couldn't be prouder of the horse. Logan, Melissa and Hannah, his track rider, got out of hospital on Thursday to come to the races. It is a very special day. He's always been a funny little horse. He always has his seasons, and I did ride him before he won at Cranbourne, and I thought I have not felt this horse like this ever. Normally I wouldn't back him up, but I did. I think you all know Logan is my apprentice. It has been a bit like Jigsaw, there have been a few blockages in the way, but we've got there now and he's a great kid. He's not a kid, he's a man, and I'm so proud of him. Great ride by Logan again. To come here while still claiming on such a big day, and to just nail it like that and have the confidence in himself, I'm so impressed with him and the horse. It is really special that the horse has won on such a special day."

Waller weighing Cup options for Star Of India

Chris Waller will weigh up a potential Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) start for Star Of India (Galileo) following the gelding's strong victory in Saturday's JRA Cup (Gr 3, 2040m) at Moonee Valley. The seven-year-old, who sat 51st in the Cup order of entry before the JRA Cup, could move closer to a berth with a possible re-handicap and several horses above him unlikely to accept. "I'll talk to his connections. We'll go away and think about it and make sure he's in the right races," Waller said. The trainer was pleased with the way Star Of India has progressed through his campaign. "Today was fourth-up after a long layoff, so just with each run he's been getting a bit better, a bit fitter and a lovely ride from Jye [McNeil]," he said. "It was good to see him show some acceleration at the 500-metre mark. He's a really neat horse. He puts his head down, tries hard and it was a well-deserved win." Other Melbourne Cup entrants to run in the JRA Cup included Middle Earth (Roaring Lion), who finished third and sits 13th in the order, and Point King (Zoffany), sixth and currently 27th.

Stardom stars in Crockett stakes

Well-bred filly Stardom (Zoustar) notched her third career and second black-type victory when she took out Saturday's Crockett Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at The Valley. Ridden by James McDonald, the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained filly kicked away on the home turn and couldn't be caught by her rivals, scoring by 0.3 lengths. "I'm just delighted," Waterhouse said post-race. "We planned for this race [and] we thought it could happen, and James made it happen. She's changed and matured. Being down here in the smaller stable [has suited]. She's been here a while and has put on great condition. She's tenacious. She may not be the biggest filly, but she's got a lot of heart." McDonald was equally as impressed with the filly. "Very simple instructions from Gai and Adrian. They're accustomed to rolling forward and setting a nice speed. The bone and muscle of Waterhouse-Bott came through in the end. She is extremely honest, very game and gave me a beautiful ride and it was a pleasure to partner her today. She's very tenacious. It won't be her last." Stardom is bred and raced by Torryburn Stud, and is out of Group 3 winner Diddums (Snitzel), who herself is a half-sister to five-time Hong Kong Group 1 winner Voyage Bubble (Deep Field).

Von Hauke breaks drought with Crystal Mile triumph

Cliff Brown's patience with Von Hauke (Savabeel) was rewarded at Moonee Valley on Saturday, with the gelding snapping a 19-month losing drought in the Crystal Mile (Gr 2, 1600m). Ridden by Ethan Brown, the six-year-old powered through a late gap to score by a length over Golden Path (Belardo), with favourite Rise At Dawn (Almanzor) a further nose away in third. The victory marked a career highlight for the gelding and redemption after a luckless fourth in the same race last year. "He's a nice horse and he's racing really tractably at the moment," Brown said. "I think you can see how well he was traveling as Ethan hadn't moved and he just had to wait for the breaks. He was very good. He just needed the breaks and we got them. I think he's really matured and everyone at home has done a great job with him." The winning rider was similarly full of praise for the gelding's determination. "I had him humming underneath me and I could see those horses rolling around so it was just a matter of time," he said. "We haven't had a lot of luck lately but he stuck solid and we were able to get the job done today." After promising efforts in the Sandown Stakes (Gr 3, 1500m) and Headquarters Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m), Von Hauke now looks set to earn his chance at elite level on Champions Day, with options in either the Champions Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) or Champions Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m). Ohukia Lodge will offer Von Hauke's Tivaci (High Chaparral) half-brother at the New Zealand Read To Run Sale next month. The gelding is catalogued as Lot 159.

14 for Lonhro

Attica (3 c ex Savatiano by Street Cry) became the 14th individual Group 1 winner for Darley's late Champion sire Lonhro (Octagonal) when taking out the Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick. Bred and raced by Godolphin, he is the first foal out of multiple Group 2 winner and Group 1-placed mare Savatiano (Street Cry), the mare herself a half-sister to stakes winners Vilana (Hallowed Crown) and Athiri (Lonhro). Lonhro died last year aged 25.

122 for I Am Invincible

Yarraman Park Stud's headline act I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) sired his 122nd individual stakes winner courtesy of Ohope's (3 c ex Pohutukawa by Medaglia D'Oro) victory in Saturday's Callander-Presnell (Gr 2, 1600m) at Randwick. The Michael Freedman-trained colt added much deserved black type to his CV when he defeated Rivellion (Too Darn Hot) by 0.5 lengths with Fermoy (Zoustar) finishing a further 2.7 lengths away in third. Bred and raced by Godolphin, Ohope is out of the Group 3 scorer Pohutukawa (Medaglia D'Oro) and hails from the same family as Group winners Chinchilla Rose (Lion Hunter), Ferocity (Lion Hunter) and Leone Chiara (Lion Hunter), who in turn produced dual Group 1-winning champion Star Witness (Starcraft), Group 3 winner Nostradamus (Medaglia D'Oro) and stakes scorer Embracer (Sebring). Last season

Pohutukawa produced a colt by Street Boss (Street Cry) and was covered by Cylinder last September. Being out of a daughter of the influential Darley stallion Medaglia D'Oro (El Prado), Ohope is bred on the same cross as fellow Group winner I Am Me. I Am Invincible is standing for a slightly lower fee of $275,000 (inc GST), down from the career high-fee of $302,500 (inc GST) he stood for in 2024.

12 for Flying Artie

Skyglider

SPORTPIX

Blue Gum Farm's Flying Artie (Artie Schiller) sired his 12th individual stakes winner when Skyglider (3 c ex Ex Lady by Exosphere) kept his unbeaten record intact with a first-up victory in Saturday's Brian Crowley Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Randwick. Having broken his maiden on his first start over 1200 metres at Canterbury in July, the Chris Waller-trained colt defeated Pallaton (Wootton Bassett) by 1.4 lengths with a further 1.5 lengths back to Grand Eagle (Farnan) in third. Skyglider was bought by Ezybonds No 1 Syndicate for $100,000 out of Baramul Stud's Book 1 draft at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in 2024. He is out of the winning mare Ex Lady (Exosphere), herself a half-sister to Listed winner Affable (Husson), the dam of stakes scorer Agreeable (Sebring) and the Group 2-placed winner Attractable (I Am Invincible). In 2023, Ex Lady foaled a filly by Street Boss, before producing another filly, this time by Vinery's leading second-season sire Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon), and this year she produced a filly by Hawaii Five Oh (I Am Invincible), who also stands at Vinery. Flying Artie commands a fee of $11,000 (inc GST).

Lindermann wins second Craven Plate

Lindermann

SPORTPIX

In the next race at Randwick, Skyglider's classy stablemate Lindermann (6 g Lonhro ex Self Esteem by Stratum) successfully defended his crown in the Craven Plate (Gr 3, 1800m) when he led home a trifecta for the Chris Waller stable. Ridden Nash Rawiller, the Woppitt Bloodstock homebred moved away from his rivals in the closing stages, eventually crossing the line 2.12 lengths ahead of Militarize (Dundeel) with Kovalica (Ocean Park) another 0.69 lengths further back in third. After kicking off his preparation with a disappointing tenth-placed finish in the Winx Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), Lindermann returned to winning ways with a 0.2-length defeat of Sir Delius (Frankel) in the Chelmsford Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m), which he followed up with a second-placed finish in the 7 Stakes (1600m), before returning to winning form in the Hill Stakes (Gr 2, 1900m) on October 11. "It's full credit to the horse, he's had a magnificent preparation," said Rawiller. "He tricks me sometimes because he's got such a big loafing long action that they think Nash is getting away with this but he's running the times. The clock doesn't lie. I believe he would have been hard to beat in the Cox Plate but he could go out now and return full of confidence in the autumn. If we get these dry tracks in autumn, he can come back and be the 'kingpin'. He would be right in a race like the Queen Elizabeth Stakes."

Transatlantic romps home in Five Diamonds Prelude

Fresh from his Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) victory earlier in the month, the Tony Gollan-trained Transatlantic (Snitzel) proved far too good for his rivals in Saturday's Five Diamonds Prelude (1500m) at Randwick, a race that does not carry black type. Under Tommy Berry, the five-year-old soared clear in the closing stages to beat General Salute (Russian Revolution) by 2.2 lengths with The Inflictor (Under The Louvre) a further 0.1 lengths away in third. Transatlantic is now likely to press on to the $2 million Five Diamonds (1800m) at Rosehill on November 8. Transatlantic was bought by John Foote and his trainer for $360,000 from Segenhoe's 2022 Inglis Easter draft. "He was a beautiful yearling but he just needed time," Segenhoe's Peter O'Brien said. "John Foote, who is a judge I respect as much as anyone, loved him and bought him for Tony [Gollan] and I couldn't rate the horse more highly so we went in too thankfully. He's really the measure of Tony, all along he's said he's a good horse and isn't he proving that at the moment especially. Tony has managed him so well all week and he was supremely confident today that the horse would win and he was right, again."

Stefi Magnetica storms back into form at Randwick

Stefi Magnetica

SPORTPIX

A setback had forced Bjorn Baker to reassess the preparation of his Group 1 winner Stefi Magnetica (All Too Hard), but the five-year-old showed she was back to her best with a stirring win in the $2 million The Invitation (1400m), a race that does not carry black type status. After settling in the back half of the field, she was allowed to work her way to the outside of the Randwick straight under the urgings of Jason Collett and run down Gerringong (Blue Point) by 0.4 lengths. Gangsta Granny (Written Tycoon) was a further half-length back in third place. The win brought the five-year-old's career prize-money tally over the $7 million mark and Baker was pleased to get a key victory at this time of year. "I thought if we didn't have this setback the King Charles III Stakes last week was the ideal race for her," the winning trainer said. "I didn't have any confidence coming in today off a little bit of a setback, and she was great. I can't win a race during this carnival, I've had seconds, thirds, fourths, fifths, so it's a big relief. I had Overpass run a gallant fourth last week [in The Everest]. It's hard to win races this time of year, you need a very special horse and a special team behind you and I'm lucky to have both."

Four for Earthlight

Darley's former shuttler Earthlight (Shamardal) chalked up his fourth individual stakes winner courtesy of King Of Light's (3 g ex Queen's Parade by Dalghar) triumph in Saturday's Belgravia Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Ascot. Trained by Dan Morton, the gelding kept his unblemished record intact when he defeated Snitzalatte (Snitzel) by 0.2 lengths with Mardusa (Maurice) finishing the same distance away in third. A $120,000 buy for his trainer from the Amelia Park Racing and Breeding draft at the Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale in 2024, King Of Light is out of Queen's Parade (Dalghar), herself a half-sister to Group 3 winner Spirit Bird (Savabeel). After shuttling to Australia for three seasons, Earthlight did not return for this current breeding season.

Zardozi ruled out of Melbourne Cup

Last year's Melbourne Cup fourth placegetter Zardozi (Kingman) will not take her place in this year's renewal, with trainer Ciaran Maher sending the five-year-old mare to the paddock. Transferred to Maher following James Cummings' departure from the Australian training ranks, the Godolphin-owned mare has failed to recapture her best form this preparation, finishing tenth in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) at her most recent start. Zardozi had been guaranteed a start in the Melbourne Cup, sitting 15th in the order of entry, and was a $51 chance with Sportsbet prior to her withdrawal. Third acceptances for the Melbourne Cup, which takes place on November 4, will be released on Monday morning.

New Zealand

First for Home Affairs

Coolmore Australia's first-season sire Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) notched up his first winner on Saturday when Harvey Wallbanger (2 c ex Mai Tai by Atlante) scored an impressive debut victory at Ellerslie. Ridden by Jasmine Fawcett for Tony Pike, the colt kicked clear in the closing stages of the race to win by 3.5 lengths over favourite Sword Of Stars (Sword Of State), with Parfait Dimanche (Anders) a further 2.5 lengths behind in third. Offered in the Wentwood Grange draft at the 2025 NZB Karaka National Yearling Sale, Harvey Wallbanger is bred and raced by Llanhennock Trust. Home Affairs stands at Coolmore Stud in the Hunter Valley of New South Wales for $82,500 (inc GST).

162 for Snitzel

Origin Of Love (right)

RACE IMAGES

Arrowfield Stud's late four-time champion sire Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) registered his 162nd individual stakes winner when Origin Of Love (3 f ex Re Edit by Camelot) emerged as legitimate Classic contender when she won Saturday's War Decree Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Riccarton. Trained by Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson and ridden by Joe Doyle, the filly came home strongly to defeat Professional Lad (Proisir) by 0.1 lengths, with the winner's stablemate War Of Silence (Snitzel) a further 0.2 lengths away in third. Bred by Arrowfield Group and Jungle Pocket, Origin Of Love was a $440,000 buy for Te Akau Racing's David Ellis from Arrowfield's 2024 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale draft. She is the first foal out of Group 2 placegetter Re Edit (Camelot), herself a daughter of Group 3-placed So Divine (High Chaparral) from the family of Group 1 scorer Military Plume (Sir Tristram). The TAB now rates Origin Of Love a $21 chance for the New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) on November 8 and offers a $26 quote for the New Zealand 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) a week later.

Belle Cheval advertises Classic claims

Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson look to have another potential Classic contender after Belle Cheval (Savabeel) took out a 1400-metre maiden at Ellerslie on Saturday under Craig Grylls. The filly stayed on strongly to beat Miss Parker (Circus Maximus) by 2.5 lengths with Sweet Talkin Gal (Anders) finishing a further 0.5 lengths away in third. Belle Cheval races in the colours of breeder and co-owner David Archer and is a half-sister to his multiple Group 1 winner (The) Bostonian (Jimmy Choux). The pair are both out of Keepa Cheval (Keeper), who is a half-sister to a ten-time Group 1 winner in the same colours, Mufhasa (Pentire). "The plan was to be positive today and she was a little bit slow away again, like she was at Taupo," Bergerson said. "But fair play to Grylls, he got a lovely track into it, three wide with cover, and she was pretty electric late. It was very exciting and a massive thrill to have a winner for David Archer and Diane Wright, our first horse for them. She looks pretty top-drawer." Belle Cheval is now a $10 fourth favourite for the 1,000 Guineas behind Well Written (Written Tycoon), Lollapalooza (El Roca) and Tajana (Darci Brahma). "She could potentially go down to Christchurch," Bergerson continued. "We'll have to sit down and have a team talk about that, because she was so impressive today. There's a couple of good ones in the 1,000 Guineas, she'd have to take that next step to beat them."

152 for Savabeel

Waikato Stud's marquee stallion Savabeel (Zabeel) was provided with his 152nd individual stakes winner when Sir Albert (6 g ex Diana Dors by O'Reilly) capped a winning double for his trainer Terri Rae with a win in Saturday's Spring Classic (Listed, 2000m) at Riccarton. The gelding defeated Cognito (So You Think) by two lengths with Matscot (Haradasun) finishing a further 0.3 lengths away in third. Sir Albert is out of the unraced O'Reilly (Last Tycoon) mare Diana Dors, herself a sister to Group-winning duo Vigor and Joey Massino, while she also counts multiple stakes winner Vincent Mangano (No Excuse Needed) among her half-siblings. In winning Saturday's Listed contest, Sir Albert became the 35th individual stakes winner bred on the Savabeel / O'Reilly cross, a cohort headed by ten Group 1 winners. New Zealand's champion stallion Savabeel is standing for a fee of NZ$100,000 (plus GST). "He loves the 2000 metres as well as a mile when he is fresh," Rae said. "We tried him past 2000 metres last season in the Dunedin Gold Cup [2400m] and that was a mistake. He is not overly big and he just couldn't cope. He is such an honest horse, a real character, and his record is very good. It was a good win today, he loves Riccarton and he beat a very nice field. We won't do much with him now and he'll go straight to the TAB Mile alongside Spot On Time."

Group 3 plans for Spot On Time

Sir Albert will be in the joined in the TAB Mile (Gr 3, 1600m) at Riccarton on November 12 by his exciting stablemate Spot On Time (Time Test) who advertised his credentials for the Group 3 with a win in Saturday's TAB Mile Trial (1400m) at Riccarton. Ridden by Matthew Cartwright, the gelding defeated Cluedo Lane (Ghibellines) by 0.1 lengths. Contemplation Bay (Rageese) was a further 0.2 lengths back in third. "He's not very brave and hates being crowded, so when that horse started to lay in I got a bit worried as I had told Matt that he had to be wary of something trying to lay in on him as he can be a real sook," winning trainer Terri Rae said. "Thankfully he picked himself up and tried really hard to the line and got in the deciding stride. We have had to space his races as he used to go shin sore a lot as a younger horse. He is starting to mature out of that now and he is really holding his condition well. He likes his races spaced so that is what we have done and it is working out for him. He can have an easy time of it for a few days now and then we will start to get him ready for the TAB Mile on the middle day of the Carnival, where we have Vinnie Colgan booked to ride him."

I'm A Dirty Rascal on target for New Zealand Cup

The winning roll of the Te Akau Racing team continued unabated when European import I'm A Dirty Rascal (Galileo) produced an eye-catching New Zealand Cup (Gr 3, 3200m) trial when taking out Saturday's Road To Jericho (3000m) at Riccarton. Te Akau Racing trainers Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson had large teams racing at both New Zealand venues on Saturday with I'm A Dirty Rascal's win their fifth combined victory on the day. Having just his sixth run in New Zealand since joining the stable last year following eight in the UK and Ireland and another 14 in Australia, I'm A Dirty Rascal showed the further the distance the better he will be as he relished the 3000-metre trip to beat Tempest Moon (Turn Me Loose) by 0.3 lengths. "It's really good to see him back in the winner's circle," Walker said. "It had been 1,573 days since his only win, but he still remembered how to get the job done, so congratulations to the horse. We bought him with the idea of having a Cups horse and he was actually really unlucky in the Auckland Cup, earlier this year, when he was coming into it. It was really good to get that confidence-building win today, and his next start will be the New Zealand Cup, where we expect him to run out the trip very strongly."

Out Of The Blue retains unbeaten record

Out Of The Blue

RACE IMAGES

Having made a winning debut in September, Out Of The Blue (Tivaci) added a second win to his record when he landed a 800-metre event at Riccarton on Saturday. Raced by Te Akau and trained by Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson, the gelding defeated Miss Twinkle (Zoustar) by a length with Outback Girl (Bivouac) another 0.2 lengths adrift in third. "It was another really professional effort to win again today," Walker said. "It was a good ride of Opie's [Bosson] to get across, kept him nice and balanced the whole way up the straight, and the beauty of that win means he's assured of getting into the Karaka Million in January at Ellerslie. The trip down south to our stables at Riccarton has helped the horse to grow up mentally and Hunter [Durrant] and the team have done a really good job with him. He'll go back north, now, for a short break and he'll concentrate on getting ready for the Karaka Million. He's certainly a very nice horse in the making and doing everything asked of him." Raced by the Te Akau Tangerine Army Racing Partnership 1, Out Of The Blue was a $65,000 purchase by David Ellis CMNZ from the Waikato Stud draft during Book 1 at Karaka earlier this year. He is out of the Group 3 winner Cornflower Blue (Savabeel) and from an extended family that includes multiple Australian Group 1 winners Tiger Tees (Dubawi) and Terravista (Captain Rio), as well as the New Zealand champion two-year-old of 2007-2008, Il Quello Veloce (Captain Rio).

Asia

24 for Epiphaneia

The Mitsumasa Nakauchida-trained Firotstefani (2 f ex Skia by Motivator) provided Shadai Stallion Station-based stallion Epiphaneia (Symboli Kris S) with his 24th individual stakes winner when she took out the Artemis Stakes (Gr 3, 1m) at Tokyo on Saturday. The filly beat Mitsukane Venera (Maurice) by a length and three-quarters with Taisei Vogue (Indy Champ) finishing another neck away in third. Firotstefani is out of French Group 3 winner Skia (Motivator), making her a half-sister to Grade 1 scorer Sol Oriens (Kitasan Black) and Vin De Garde (Deep Impact), a Grade 1-placegetter, whose five victories were headed by a win in Grade 2 company.

19 for Wootton Bassett

Hawk Mountain (2 c ex Hydrangea by Galileo) provided the late Coolmore stallion Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj) with his 19th individual elite-level winner when he led home a 1-2-3 for Aidan O'Brien in Saturday's Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Doncaster. Lining up off the back of an impressive win in Group 2 company, Ronan Whelan's mount beat Action (Frankel) by a half-length with Benvenuto Cellini (Frankel) a further two and three-quarter lengths away in third. A homebred for Coolmore, Hawk Mountain is the fourth foal out of the dual Group 1 winner Hydrangea (Galileo), making him a half-brother to the Listed winning pair Wingspan (Dubawi) and Officer (Dubawi). In winning the Group 1, Hawk Mountain became the fifth Group 1 winner bred on the Wootton Bassett / Galileo (Sadler's Wells) cross and they also include this year's Prix Jean-Luc Lagardere (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Puerto Rico and Al Riffa, who is towards the head of the betting for the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m). Wootton Bassett died earlier in the month after contracting pneumonia following complications with choke.

Second for Lucky Vega

Lam Yai (2 f ex One Spirit by Invincible Spirit) landed Saturday's Doncaster Stakes (Listed, 6f) in the process provided the Yulong-owned Lucky Vega (Lope De Vega) with a second individual stakes winner. Second in Group 3 company on her previous outing, the Karl Burke-trained filly beat Figjam (Dandy Man) by a length and a half, with a further neck back to Spanish Waltz (Lope Y Fernandez) in third. Bought for €135,000 out of Book 1 at last year's Goffs Orby Sale, Lam Yai is a half-sister to three winners, headed by Group 3 scorer One For Bobby (Frankel), being out of the Listed winner One Spirit (Invincible Spirit). Lucky Vega is standing at Yulong's Victorian base for an increased fee of $38,500 (inc GST), having stood the previous term for $16,500 (inc GST).

Five for Starman

Starman

TALLY-HO STUD

Tally-Ho Stud's first-season sire Starman (Dutch Art) sired his fifth individual stakes winner courtesy of Leading Dancer's (2 f ex Get Up And Dance by Makfi) victory in Saturday's Radley Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Newbury. Trained by Karl Burke, the youngster took her record to two wins from three starts as she beat Calm (Oasis Dream) by a half-length, with Ourbren (Starman) finishing two lengths behind the winner in third. A 100,000gns buy for her current connections at last year's Tattersalls Somerville Yearling Sale, Leading Dancer is the fifth foal out of the winning Makfi (Dubawi) mare Get Up And Dance, who herself is a half-sister to the Group 2 scorer Pearl Secret (Compton Place). Get Up And Dance's four winners are headed by the Group 3 scorer Seven Questions (Kodiac). Starman stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season at a fee of €10,000 (approx. AU$17,850).

UK: Time To Turn back to winning ways

Time To Turn (2 c Dark Angel - Highland Dancer by Galileo) posted the second stakes success of his two-year-old career when he made the most of the drop in grade to return to winning ways in Saturday's Horris Hill Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Newbury. Unplaced in Group 1 company on his previous start, the Charlie Appleby-trained juvenile had little difficulty in accounting for his six rivals, beating runner-up Arabian Desert (Frankel) by two and a quarter lengths, with Wechaad (Oasis Dream) another length and a half away in third.

UK: Veteran Hamish lands St Simon Stakes

Hamish (9 g Motivator - Tweed by Sakhee) relished the testing conditions at Newbury on Saturday to run out a clear cut winner of the St Simon Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 4f), three years on from finishing second in the corresponding race. Trained by William Haggas and ridden by Tom Marquand, the nine-year-old was doing his best work late on as he beat Ancient Wisdom (Dubawi) by two and a half lengths to notch his 12th stakes success. Sea Scout (Sea The Stars) finished third, another four and a quarter lengths away.

🍅🍅🍅 Our 3YO colt Napoleonic (Wootton Bassett x Jolie Brise) adds another impressive win at @thevalleyracecourse to his resume taking out the HKJC World Pool Red Anchor Stakes Group 3 to make it three wins this preparation. Under the guidance of star jockey @mcdonald.james, the pair overcame the challenge of being four wide coming around the bend, as the talented colt exhibited his lovely turn of speed and stormed over his competitors to win by an impressive four lengths! 🥰🥰 Congratulations to Pinecliff Racing and all involved on another outstanding result and well done to the team back home!

He had to wait for a gap to appear but showed a good turn of foot and was worth more than that half-length success. He should go well once again, while Inno Super is finding his feet and is expected to go close now he tackles a mile. It could be that lightly-raced ABSOLUTE AWAKENED is also primed to make his mark now that he moves up to this distance. The race didn't unfold to suit last time but he ran quite well, and his previous fourth to The Heir makes him a serious player.

VERDICT If Rezeki and Bright Day can prove their big improvement last time out was no flash in the pan now they cover an extra furlong, then either one would be a viable prospect. Mr Cool is certainly that but stall 12 tempts enthusiasm for this 4yo who should be in for a good season. Preference is for the twice-raced DECISION LINK who has run two eye-catching races, both times suggesting he was in need of this longer trip. Best of the rest could be Amazing Fun, who gave notice last time that he was returning to form.

VERDICT Several have possibilities in this competitive Class 2 handicap but the suggestion is RUBYLOT, who held his own in two middle-distance Group 1 races at the end of last season and moves back up a furlong after a perfectly respectable 7f Group 3 handicap run last month. Johannes Brahms was denied a clear run when behind the selection last time and he too will be better suited by today's trip. Hong Lok Golf also has a very appealing profile.

BETTING FORECAST: 4 Fast Responder, Wonderstar, 5 Alsonso, 6 Metro Power, 7 Casa Of Honor, 10 Ace Champion, Chill Buddy, 14 Alpha Strike, 20 Quick Money, Sparkling Fellow, Sunny Da Best, 33 Stormy Grove, 66 Superb King, 100 Holmes A Court.

VERDICT Fast Responder (second choice) is better than he was able to show behind Wonderstar over C&D three weeks ago, while good cases can also be made for Alsonso and Casa Of Honor. However, a more speculative option to consider is SPARKLING FELLOW, who ended last season on a low note but is suited by this C&D and resumes on a tempting mark.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Top Dragon, 11-4 Dazzling Fit, 7 New Future Folks, Six Pack, 10 Anode, 12 Dragon Joy, Ka Ying Attack, 14 Endeared, 16 Armour War Eagle, 33 Ka Ying Superb, Lo Pan Spirit, 50 Igor Stravinsky, Superb Kid, 100 One Man Show.

VERDICT Top Dragon can probably strike again soon but preference is for progressive 4yo DAZZLING FIT, who was placed over C&D when upped to this grade at the end of last season and has plenty of scope for further improvement this term. Six Pack and New Future Folks will both be suited by today's move back up to 7f and are others to consider.

BETTING FORECAST: 4-5 Puerto Rico, 7-2 Cape Orator, 7 New Zealand, 12 Campacite, Piazza San Marco, 16 Port Of Spain, 20 Hardy Warrior.

VERDICT Aidan O'Brien dominates the entries, but it is interesting that Coolmore still paid to supplement PUERTO RICO in an attempt to double his Group 1 tally. The trip is an unknown, but it should be fine on pedigree. Cape Orator, who was behind him in the Champagne Stakes, still looks his biggest threat, considering he is proven in the likely conditions. BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Pierre Bonnard, 9-2 Endorsement, 6 Christmas Day, Shosholoza, 10 A Boy Named Susie, Isaac Newton, Waybreaker, 14 Czajkowski, Proof, 20 Zambezi, 33 A Taste Of Glory.

VERDICT British and Irish trainers have won all five runnings this decade and that's a trend that is likely to continue. The pick of Aidan O'Brien's four could be Pierre Bonnard, who justified the market confidence when winning the Group 3 Zetland last time and he's a strong contender, albeit unproven on very testing ground. Following him home at Newmarket was stable companion Endorsement, also a progressive sort who should give another good account. O'Brien's Christmas Day is on the upgrade but he's not got much in hand of A Boy Named Susie on Eyrefield form but the one to be on could be Joseph O'Brien's SHOSHOLOZA, who won impressively on heavy ground on his debut. This longer trip shouldn't be a problem and he falls into the 'could be anything' category. Waybreaker looks best of the home contingent. [Richard Young]

BETTING FORECAST: 7-4 Arrow Eagle, 5-2 Double Major, 5 Caballo De Mar, Sevenna's Knight, 8 Queenstown, Sunway, 33 Espoir Avenir.

VERDICT Double Major is a good starting point having won this race for the last two years. He arrives in good form and looks sure to be thereabouts but preference is for CABALLO DE MAR. The progressive 4yo provided George Scott with his first Group 1 winner when taking the Cadran last time (Queenstown and Sunway held) and this strong-travelling sort shouldn't be inconvenienced by the drop back in distance. Arrow Eagle finished a fine sixth in the Arc and he should give a good account if his stamina holds out while last year's runner-up Sevenna Knight has been expensive to follow this year.
