Group 1 wins for homebred pair Tentyris and Observer headline spectacular day for Godolphin at Flemington

By Mary-Jo Jackson

Godolphin achieved a spectacular brace of wins at Flemington on Derby Day, each with homebred colts as Tentyris (Street Boss) and Observer (Ghaiyyath) stamped their class when taking the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) respectively under in-form jockey Mark Zahra.

Beginning the red-letter day, Tentyris was produced to perfection in Saturday's time-honoured stallion-making contest, showcasing a deadly turn-of-foot to add his name to the list of stallion prospects to win the Flemington feature.

The Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained son of Street Boss (Street Cry) began his campaign last month, placing in the Danehill Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) before a pulsating win in the the Gothic Stakes (Listed, 1200m) on October 18.

Third-up back at Flemington on Saturday, the colt was fancied by connections and duly went off the $2.90 favourite – but his manner of victory suggested he should have been much shorter.

Autumn Glow remains unbeaten in Golden Eagle

In an incredible achievement, the Chris Waller-trained Autumn Glow (The Autumn Sun) stretched her unbeaten record to eight and collected a winner's prize of $5.25 million when she landed Saturday's Golden Eagle (1500m) at Randwick, writes Dan Harrold.

Bumped slightly at the break, Tentyris settled second-last behind the pace set by Beadman (Snitzel) while McGaw (I Am Immortal) was prominent out wide. Fellow Godolphin representative and Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Beiwacht (Bivouac) was up on the speed, and when the leaders were each called upon at the 400-metre mark, Zahra remained ice cold, waiting until the 300 metres to move aboard the favourite.

Once asked, Tentyris' response was immediate, the three-year-old exploding between Jimmy Recard (I Am Invincible) and his owner-mate Beiwacht and putting a swift gap on his rivals. He crossed the line with 2.3 lengths to spare over a closing My Gladiola (I Am Invincible), with Legacy Bound (Ole Kirk) another 0.7 lengths back in third. Beiwacht finished fourth, another length behind.

Zahra singled out Tentyris as his most exciting ride earlier in the week, convinced the colt had had the perfect lead-up to the Group 1. He stuck to Anthony Freedman's instructions to ride the horse cold, and praised the quality of the resulting win.

"He let rip when I first let go and then he thought 'where am I? And he started to stargaze," the winning rider said. "He's a very good colt and what a win."

"I chose him out of a few horses, but I stuck with my barn, the 'Freedies' and they just had him absolutely on the ball for today. It's just so good when you're involved with a team and it all pays off."

The win had extra meaning for the Freedmans, with the father-and-son training duo celebrating their first Group 1 down the Flemington straight together.

Sam Freedman said: "To do it with Dad, he's the reason I'm here today, so without him I'd be nothing. So, it's incredibly special. And Godolphin, they've been amazing supporters of ours for a very long time and this colt has been with us since day one and he's shown a lot the whole way through."

"The team at home has done a great job, we're supported by some great staff who put in

Anthony Freedman made a rare on-track appearance to support his son and watch the winner, who the pair have long held in high regard.

"I came today, really only to support Sam. He's been here all spring and we really haven't had what you would call a great spring," he said.

"This was the horse we had so much faith in and he prepared him perfectly. I just wanted to be here and sit in the background and say well done.

"Credit to the horse, Godolphin – obviously great supporters – and our staff have done a great job."

Having landed the Talindert Stakes (Listed, 1100m) as juvenile, Anthony Freedman said that Tentyris could aim for a third win at headquarters against his elders in next Saturday's Champion Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) – causing him to shorten from $12 into $2.60 for the 1200-metre feature.

"We'll see, we'll definitely look into it," he said. "We've said that from day dot. If he has a good three or four days, there's no reason why he will not turn up next week."

Sam Freedman added that a trip to Royal Ascot could be on the cards for Tentyris, with the Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) looking a fitting option.

"We've earmarked him possibly for Ascot," he said. "We've got some unfinished business there after taking over Artorius a few years ago. This horse is every bit as good as him, if not better.

"We had been thinking about Ascot before today as he has handled straight-track racing. He would be one we would love to take over. He is the best of the three-year-old crop. He smashed them today and he has improvement in him. Every time we've stepped him out he has got better and better. You wouldn't quite know where the ceiling would be. Hopefully we'll find out one day."

Godolphin's Australian managing director Andy Makiv added: "We're a stallion business, so to look at races in Britain, including at Royal Ascot, and maybe even in Dubai would be interesting for us and the colt.

"To promote him anywhere would be the best thing to do. He's a son of Street Boss, who is getting a bit long in the tooth, so to have a ready-made replacement is very pleasing."

Already a Group 2-winning juvenile who went close in the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), Tentyris became the 11th Group 1 winner for Darley's Street Boss with Saturday's win.

The colt joins the illustrious list of previous winners of the Group 1 and undoubtedly earns himself a place at stud at the conclusion of his career on the track. The roll of honour contains household names among Australia's stallion ranks, including Zoustar, Brazen Beau, Encosta De Lago and more recently Coolmore's exciting duo Home Affairs and Switzerland.

Meanwhile, the Godolphin blue silks were carried to victory in the race by their star filly In Secret (I Am Invincible) in 2022.

He is the second foal and second winner out of Exceed And Excel (Danehill) mare Deity, herself a half-sister to stakes winner Maternal (Street Cry) with both coming out of four-time Group 1 winner Divine Madonna (Hurricane Sky).

Deity has since produced a filly by Blue Point (Shamardal) named Parcae, who is also in the Freedman stable. She slipped to Paulele (Dawn Approach) last season, and foaled a three-quarter sister to Tentyris by Anamoe (Street Boss) in September. Continued on page 5

The Street Boss / Exceed And Excel cross has produced 38 winners from 53 runners, headed by seven stakes winners, including Tempted. Tentyris becomes the second top-flight winner for the nick.

Street Boss is standing this season at a fee of $66,000 (inc. GST) at Darley's Northwood Park.

Observer delivers a first for Godolphin with gutsy Derby win

The epic Godolphin double was completed when Ghaiyyath (Dubawi) colt Observer produced a commanding front-running display in the $2 million Victoria Derby, giving leading trainer Ciaran Maher his second success in the Classic and completing an unforgettable four-timer for jockey Mark Zahra.

Zahra – who also won the Wakeful Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) aboard Getta Good Feeling

(So You Think) and The Damien Oliver (Gr 2, 1400m) on Warnie (Highland Reel) – made full use of barrier four, sending the $2.45 favourite straight to the lead.

Observer mirrored the tactics often employed by his sire, controlling proceedings throughout and finding plenty when called on to score his first Group 1 victory by 0.8 lengths. Justify (Scat Daddy) colt Arcora finished a brave second, with the Matt Cumani-trained Deal Done Fast (Dundeel) the same margin away in third. Observer's victory provided Godolphin with a first win in the VRC Derby.

"I ummed and ahed about whether to lead, but speaking to Ciaran he gave me great confidence," Zahra said. "I heard him say, 'he'll run it, so if you want to lead, just do it.' He never switches right off, he's always on the bridle, but he's tough. He's just like his old man and late, when they got to him, he found again."

Maher, who landed the Classic for the first time in 2021 with Hitotsu (Maurice), was glowing in his praise for the colt's versatility.

"I think the sky's the limit for this colt, he's just so adaptable," the winning trainer said. "He was unlucky in the Guineas, he's won a Vase and now he's won a Derby and he's pretty similar to his old man."

"I'm rapt with our team. Mark's a great mate, he's riding on a real crest of a wave and there's nothing better than to win the Derby on Derby Day. It's what it's all about."

Zahra, who was fined $1,500 for easing Observer down in the closing stages of his Moonee Valley Vase (Gr 2, 2040m) victory a week earlier, joked that the decision may have paid dividends.

"It cost me $1,500 last week, but I saved those few lengths for today," he said. "He's so tough and came again. He's ticked off a Victoria Derby, but I think you'll find next year he's a 2000-metre horse."

Observer became the first Group 1 winner for Darley's exciting second-season sire Ghaiyyath, who did not return to Darley's Northwood Park base for 2025 having shuttled there from Kildangan Stud for four previous seasons, standing at a fee of $27,500 (inc GST) throughout his time in Australia.

The highest-rated son of Dubawi (Dubai Millenium) stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of €20,000. All told, his global individual stakes winner count stands at eight.

Observer is a half-brother to Group 3 winner Sandpaper (Snitzel), being the third winner from as many runners out of the unraced Lonhro (Octagonal) mare Smooth, who is a sister to multiple Group 1 winner turned Coolmore stallion Pierro and to the dam of Group 2 scorer Estriella (I Am Invincible).

Smooth produced a colt by Anamoe (Street Boss) last spring and is due in foal to Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Cylinder (Exceed And Excel) this season. Continued on page 6

HORSEPOWER

Pride Of Jenni reigns again in dominant Empire Rose victory

Ciaron Maher landed a Group 1 double at Flemington himself as Australia's darling mare Pride Of Jenni (Pride Of Dubai) added another extraordinary chapter to her rollercoaster of a career when she regained her Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) crown later in the day.

Two years after her first triumph in the Group 1, the eight-year-old produced another breathtaking front-running masterclass under Declan Bates, cementing her place among Australia's elite mares as she became the first horse to win the Empire Rose twice when demolishing her rivals by 4.5 lengths.

The $4.80 chance stretched the field from the outset, leading by nearly ten lengths mid-race before holding a commanding advantage over Leica Lucy (Derryn) ($4.20) and On Display (Fastnet Rock) ($26) at the finish.

It was the crowning moment of an extraordinary day for Maher after Group 1 victory with Observer in the Victoria Derby and a strong win in the the Russell Balding Stakes (1300m) at Randwick with Jimmysstar (Per Incanto).

Bates, who famously lost the Pride Of Jenni ride after last year's Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) only to be reinstated this spring, was overcome with emotion as he saluted aboard the mare for the seventh time.

"She was retired, I was sacked and that was all good, everyone was OK, but to be standing here, winning another Group 1 is making me emotional," Bates said.

After reuniting with her for a first-up win in the Feehan Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) and a brave run when seventh beaten three lengths in the King Charles III Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) in Sydney, Bates said he had confidence in the mare from the moment the gates opened.

"She didn't fly the lids, but she quickly came up underneath me and she was wanting to cross the field and I took my time getting there and every time I grabbed the bit, she wanted to go and at the half-mile she extended beautifully," he said.

"After 100 metres in the race I knew we were winning...she did get tired late but the job was done, she's an absolute warrior of a horse."

Bates described Pride Of Jenni's ability to sustain her powerful gallop as "freakish."

"You can do things on her that you just can't do on other horses...for her to keep coming back and doing it year after year, it's such a credit to everyone involved," he said. "Ciaron's done an amazing job to keep getting her back. Tony and Lynn [Ottobre] are wonderful owners who absolutely adore her. To be a part of this horse, it's amazing."

Maher added: "I'm ecstatic and just so appreciative and respectful. She's an amazing horse. For her to continually do what she does never ceases to amaze me.

"I can't thank the team enough, and Dec, who rides her fantastic.

"Fair play to Tony [Ottobre, owner]. I know he's got some stick for not retiring her and racing on, but the mare's happy and sound and she loves doing what she does. There's nothing better than winning a Group 1. I just want to give the horse a pat and a hug, and slap Dec on the back."

Bred by Trelawney Stud, Pride Of Jenni is the best winner out of four-time winner Sancerre (O'Reilly), herself a daughter of Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Vouvray (Zabeel).

The mare is one of five Group 1 winners and 23 stakes winners for Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry), who stands at Coolmore for a fee of $27,500 (inc GST).

Autumn Glow remains unbeaten in Golden Eagle

In an incredible achievement, the Chris Waller-trained Autumn Glow (The Autumn Sun) stretched her unbeaten record to eight and collected a winner's prize of $5.25 million when she landed Saturday's Golden Eagle (1500m) at Randwick, writes Dan Harrold.

Sent off the odds-on favourite in the $10 million showpiece, having previously scored in the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) on October 4, the four-year-old star mare stormed down the home straight under James McDonald, pulling 1.3 lengths clear of Sepals (Calyx) to maintain a remarkable record.

The Lindsay Park-trained Evaporate (Per Incanto) finished a further 0.3 lengths behind in third place.

"She gives me that ooh-la-la feeling. I'd love to see her in a Cox Plate," McDonald said of his mount.

"I don't think we've seen the best version of her yet either, we're so lucky to have her.

"She was out on her feet and she just keeps finding, she is fair dinkum. She knew she was in a race today and it was all due to the heavy ground, it was very testing out there for her."

Meanwhile, winning trainer Waller was unwilling to compare Autumn Glow to his former superstar mare Winx (Street Cry), who built up a 33-win sequence, but issued a glowing report on the daughter of The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice).

"Autumn Glow is a star, it is as simple as that," he said from Flemington. "She does it each and every time. There is nothing that shows us that much at home – that heart and determination and presence that she has is really quite special.

"Today's race was tricky. We could see the track was hard to get a handle on, some horses aren't getting through the going as well as you would like, horses on pace were dominating.

"So, we knew we had to be a bit closer and they were running fast through the midstages, and James was at her to stay with them.

"For her to come out as Darren Flindell said to 'open the shoulders' was pretty special to watch."

First purchased by Silverdale Farm and Shrone Bloodstock for $600,000 at the 2022 Magic Millions Gold Coast National Weanling Sale out of the Newhaven Park draft, Autumn Glow then sold to Arrowfield Pastoral and Hermitage Thoroughbreds for $1.8 million out of Silverdale Farm at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale the following year.

"She's just everything we try to do," Silverdale's Steve Grant said. "All the preparation you put into them, teaching them how to stay cool, lead them across that treadmill every day, it's all worth it and it just came so natural for her.

"The guys loved her when they saw her but it is that thing, when you start teaching them how to be a young horse during that early education period, you know some are special and we knew she was special.

Autumn Glow

SPORTPIX

"It's a pleasure to sit back and watch and it means everything for us. It's remarkable when you get a horse like this and the sky's the limit for her, they've got so much to play with."

Autumn Glow added the Golden Eagle to her wins in the Epsom, Theo Marks Stakes (Gr 2, 1300m), Toy Show Quality (Gr 3, 1100m), Tea Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m), Up And Coming Stakes (Gr 3, 1300m) and Darby Munro Stakes (Listed, 1200m), with her career prize-money haul now standing at a whopping $7.35 million.

11 for Street Boss

Street Boss

DARLEY

The Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained Tentyris (3 c ex Deity by Exceed And Excel) became the 11th individual Group 1 winner for Darley stallion Street Boss (Street Cry) when he easily won Saturday's Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Flemington. Tentyris is the second foal and second winner out of Exceed And Excel (Danehill) mare Deity, herself a half-sister to stakes winner Maternal (Street Cry) with both coming from four-time Group 1 winner Divine Madonna (Hurricane Sky). Deity has since produced a filly by Blue Point (Shamardal) named Parcae, who is also in the Freedman stable. She slipped to Paulele (Dawn Approach) last season, and foaled a three-quarter sister to Tentyris by Anamoe (Street Boss) in September. The Street Boss / Exceed And Excel cross has produced 38 winners from 53 runners, headed by seven stakes winners, including Group 2 winner and The Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) runner-up Tempted. Tentyris becomes the second top-flight winner for the nick. Street Boss is standing this season at a fee of $66,000 (inc GST) at Darley's Northwood Park.

First for Ghaiyyath

On a tremendous day for Godolphin at Flemington on Saturday, Darley's former shuttle stallion Ghaiyyath (Dubawi) sired his first Group 1 winner when the Ciaran Maher-trained Observer (3 c ex Smooth by Lonhro) won the VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m), becoming the first winner of the time-honoured Group 1 for Sheikh Mohammed's operation. Observer is a half-brother to Group 3 winner Sandpaper (Snitzel), being the third winner from as many runners out of the unraced Lonhro (Octagonal) mare Smooth, who is a sister to multiple Group 1 winner turned Coolmore stallion Pierro and to the dam of Group 2 scorer Estriella (I Am Invincible). Smooth produced a colt by Anamoe (Street Boss) last spring and is due a foal by Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Cylinder (Exceed And Excel). Darley's exciting second-season sire Ghaiyyath did not return to Darley's Northwood Park base for 2025, having shuttled there from Kildangan Stud for four previous seasons where he stood at a fee of $27,500 (inc GST).

19 for Saxon Warrior

Coolmore's former shuttler Saxon Warrior (Deep Impact) chalked up his 19th individual stakes winner when Sheza Alibi (3 f ex Sheza Gypsy by Shaft) landed Saturday's TAB Vanity (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington. Having placed in both the Tattersall's Stakes (Listed, 1400m) and Gothic Stakes (Listed, 1200m) on her two previous starts, with the latter run coming behind subsequent Coolmore Stud Stakes winner Tentyris, the Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman-trained filly boosted that form as she defeated Teine Aulelei (Tagaloa) by 1.8 lengths under Luke Nolen. There was a further 0.7 lengths back to the third-placed Icarian Dream (Blue Point). "She laid the foundation at Caulfield with a very good effort in a strong race behind two very good colts and out to a more suitable 1400 metres she looked well placed," said Moody. "Well done to her connections and her owner Freddie Noffkey, also the Hansen team up in Rockhampton that had this filly through her early days. She's gone through Townsville and Rockhampton and places like that, so to see her come here and perform on Derby Day on the biggest stage, congratulations to all involved." Sheza Alibi was purchased as a weanling for just $10,000 by her owner Fred Noffkey when offered by Middlebrook Valley Lodge in the 2023 Inglis Digital June (Early) Sale. She is the only winner from three foals to race out of the winning Shaft (Flying Spur) mare Sheza Gypsy, herself a half-sister to stakes winner Rom Baro (Time Thief). Saxon Warrior, who shuttled to Coolmore Australia between 2019-2022, stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season at Coolmore Stud in Ireland for a fee of €15,000 (approx. AU$26,580).

20 for Manhattan Rain

New York Lustre (6 m ex Copper by Shamardal) became the 20th individual stakes winner for Manhattan Rain (Encosta De Lago) when pocketing a deserved first stakes success in the Ichiban Sprint (Gr 3, 1100m) at Flemington on Saturday. Ridden by Carleen Hefel for trainer Enver Jusufovic, the six-year-old mare defeated Flying For Fun (Spieth) by a half-length with the same distance back to Arabian Summer (Too Darn Hot) in third. Out of the winning Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) mare Copper, New York Lustre is a half-sister to winner Javelina (Animal Kingdom).

Warnie lands first Australian stakes win

Bennett Racing's Irish import Warnie (5 g Highland Reel - Cumbfree by Footstepsinthesand) recorded his first stakes win on Australian soil when he claimed Saturday's Damien Oliver (Gr 2, 1400m) at Flemington. In what was another victory for jockey Mark Zahra and trainer Ciaran Maher, the five-year-old gelding scored by a half-length over a fellow Bennett Racing-owned gelding in Zou Sensation (Zoustar) with a further 0.8 lengths back to Enxuto (Lean Mean Machine) in third. "Just sensational - what a thrill," Bennett told Racing.com. "It read like that all week, but you never want to get ahead of yourself in this game. I know how hard it is to win a race, let alone win a race on Derby Day and to quinnella it is just huge. Warnie's been threatening for a long time. He's been a very unlucky horse. I know a lot of people have potted him and said he's not up to it, but he's had everything go his way today. Super effort from Ciaran and the team and a great wide ride by Mark. He actually got the momentum today, which he hasn't been able to get for a long time." In winning Saturday's race, Warnie was landing his second stakes success having won a Listed event back in Ireland.

Panova lands back-to-back Group wins

Having scored in the Reginald Allen Quality (Listed, 1400m) on her start prior, the Chris Waller-trained Panova (3 f Trapeze Artist - Love Me Quietly by Trusting) made it successive Group-race victories when she took out Saturday's Carbine Club Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) under Tommy Berry. The three-year-old daughter of Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) defeated Regal Award (Ole Kirk) by 1.8 lengths, with a further 1.5 lengths back to the third-placed Single Choice (Anders). "She's continuing on from many great horses that have won the race in the past," stable representative Charlie Duckworth said. "Excellent ride by Tommy [Berry], he didn't panic and just when the race sort of separated into two divisions in the early stages, I was obviously a little bit worried because it becomes a bit of an issue, but he just had plenty of faith in the horse. He could rely on the fact that she's got a good turn of foot and we were confident she'd stay out in the distance well."

Darby Racing's Caballus strikes in Rising Fast Stakes

The Bjorn Baker-trained Caballus (5 g I Am Invincible - Calming Influence by Commands) made it two stakes wins from his last three starts when finding plenty to fend off his rivals in Saturday's Rising Fast Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Flemington. Ridden by Tommy Berry, the five-year-old gelding proved resolute in the finish as he denied Geegees Mistruth (Wordsmith) by a length with a further 0.8 lengths back to Bosustow (Blue Point) in third. "It's great for Bjorn and Darby Racing to get a big winner on a big day," said bloodstock agent Jim Clarke, who

Getta Good Feeling lands second Group 2 in Wakeful

A crack at Thursday's VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) awaits Getta Good Feeling (3 f So You Think - Marquise Da Rossa by Testa Rossa) after the Danny O'Brien-trained filly justified an odds-on quote in Saturday's Wakeful Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Flemington.

A rapid improver in Group company of recent, having won the Edward Manifold Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) before finishing a length third in the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), the daughter of Coolmore's late stallion So You Think (High Chaparral) scored by 1.3 lengths over Strictly Business (Grunt) in this weekend's Group 2 contest as she tackled 2000 metres for the first time.

There was a further 1.2 lengths back to Voting Rights (Snitzel) in third place, with the winning rider Mark Zahra - who ended up with a four-timer on the card - coming away impressed with the filly's performance.

"She's a very nice horse to ride," said Zahra, who was taking over from the suspended Billy Egan. "She flew the start, then I was able to sit outside the leader on a moderate tempo, relaxed really well [and] she stargazed pretty much all the way up the straight.

"She did it effortlessly. With a bit of urging she focused a bit and it was just the sort of win you hope for going into an Oaks."

O'Brien knows how to prepare a mare for the quick back-up, having saddled Miami Bound (Reliable Man) to the Wakeful / Oaks double in 2019.

In fact, winners of the Group 2 have an unbelievable record in the following Thursday's Group 1, with 39 fillies completing the feat and that cohort includes last year's victress Treasurethe Moment (Alabama Express).

O'Brien confirmed that Getta Good Feeling will aim to become the 40th filly to complete the famous double, with the trainer planning to run her in the Oaks back at Flemington on Thursday.

He said: "We've made no secret of our respect for this filly from her first start in Geelong and we've had this week in mind for her.

"It doesn't always play out as smoothly as what it has for her this spring but, so far so good. She's going to go to the Oaks in great shape. She's a filly that is big and strong by So You Think.

"He won a Mackinnon Stakes on this day about 15 years ago and he's passed away so it is great to see his filly turning up and winning this and hopefully the Oaks on Thursday."

Getta Good Feeling was shorted into $2 favourite for the VRC Oaks following her win on Saturday.

was representing the stable. “Darby are huge supporters of us and they’re very astute judges. They bought this horse online and he’s been an incredible purchase for them. He’s run down the straight before, but this is his first win down the straight. He’s a very talented horse with a very good turn of foot and he put the writing on the wall in the Sydney Stakes.”

Jimmysstar dominant in Russell Balding Stakes

Two weeks on from a luckless third in The Everest, Jimmysstar (Per Incanto) had a well-deserved moment in the spotlight when he produced a dominant victory in Saturday’s $3 million Russell Balding Stakes (1300m) at Randwick. The Ciaran Maher-trained son of Per Incanto (Street Cry) burst on to the big sprint stage in Australia last season with victories in the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) and All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m). All roads led to The Everest this spring, but until Saturday, Jimmysstar had to settle for a series of strong-finishing minor placings. Saturday was finally Jimmysstar’s day, with the six-year-old producing his customary blistering turn of foot under jockey Ethan Brown to burst clear and score by 2.7 lengths from the late-finishing Lady Shenandoah (Snitzel). “He was due,” Brown said. “I love this horse so much. He’s a beauty, and he’s matured now and he knows what it’s about. I spoke to him behind the gates and said, ‘You’ve got to jump better.’ He did jump better, but he was still a bit sluggish there, and that’s just him. But the beauty of a good draw, we were able to overcome that and get him into gear. Once we found our spot, he had a beautiful resting run on a good speed and I just had to trust his finish. That’s what I said to the team and everyone was aware of that. That’s what he can do, and he certainly showed his true colours today. We just needed room, and when we got that, jeez he let go.”

Wootton Verni scores Rosehill Gold Cup victory

French import Wootton Verni (Wootton Bassett) made it back-to-back wins on Saturday when collecting first prize in the $750,000 Rosehill Gold Cup (2000m) at Randwick. A Group 3 winner in his native France, the Chris Waller-trained son of Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj) had run unplaced on five occasions in Australia before taking out the Coongy Cup (Gr 3, 2000m) at his previous start and made it successive victories in Saturday’s contest, beating stablemate Imperialist (Churchill) by 2.3 lengths under James McDonald. Redstone Well (Cotai Glory) finished a further length behind in third. “He’s a horse with his tail in the air and they’ve done a good job with him. He just never felt like getting beat, apart from just overdoing it the whole way,” McDonald said. “I think he’s going to develop into a pretty good horse. And with any give in the ground, he thrives on it. He’s got a lot of learning to do. He’s lightly raced, but he’ll be coached through the grades and I’m sure he’ll reach top level.” Confusingly, the race is listed as a Group 3 on Racing Australia, but it is among the contests upgraded by Racing NSW with no backing from the Asian Pattern Committee, so will not be reflected on Wootton Verni’s pedigree page.

Ten for Maschino

Jokers Grin (5 g ex Walk In Beauty by Barely A Moment) became the tenth individual stakes winner for Maschino (Encosta De Lago) when he landed Saturday’s Prince Of Wales Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Ascot. Ridden by Patrick Carbery for trainer Bernie Miller, the five-year-old gelding justified his odds-on quote to beat Oscar’s Fortune (Rich Enuff) by 0.9 lengths with the same distance further back to Repossession (Sessions) in third. The win followed up Jokers Grin’s success in The Quokka (1200m) back in April. Out of the winning Barely A Moment (Gilded Time) mare Walk In Beauty, Jokers Grin is a brother to fellow Group 3 scorer Cup Night.

Watch Me Rock lands first Group race

The Grant and Alana Williams-trained Watch Me Rock (5 g Awesome Rock - What Choux Want by Jimmy Choux) chalked up his maiden Group-race success on Saturday when taking out the Asian Beau Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Ascot. Ridden by William Pike, the five-year-old gelding recorded his third career stakes victory as he defeated Rope Them In (Playing God) by 0.3 lengths, with Cosmic Crusader (Maurice) a whisker further back in third.

Absurde's draw pleases Casey

Willie Mullins' travelling foreman David Casey was pleased when Absurde (Fastnet Rock) drew barrier seven for Tuesday's Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) at Flemington. The gelding, who has contested the previous two Cups for a seventh (2023) and a fifth (2024), is back for a third try. Absurde will reunite with Kerrin McEvoy, who rode him in last year's edition, and comes into Tuesday's contest off a gutsy fifth in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m). "I won't say the draw bothers me, but it's one of those things you can't control," Casey told Racing.com. "But I think we're happy with four, it's a good draw. It gives Kerrin a lot of options, and we're really looking forward to Tuesday. Kerrin rode the horse last year as well, so he's got plenty of experience with the horse and knows him well. He's a top rider and we have great confidence in him." Casey also knows Absurde well and said the now eight-year-old son of Fastnet Rock (Danahill) has taken his third journey to Australia in his stride. "He's taken all of the travel in his stride, he's very comfortable where he is," Casey said. "He had a good run in the Caulfield Cup, and we're really happy with how he's been since then. It's brought him on a little bit and we're delighted." Absurde is a $19 chance with Ladbrokes for the Flemington showpiece.

12 for El Roca

Swiss Prince (3 g ex Phoenix by Swiss Ace) became the 12th individual stakes winner for El Roca (Fastnet Rock) and entered the Classic conversation when he won Saturday's James And Annie Sarten Memorial (Gr 2, 1400m) at Tauranga. Ridden by Joe Doyle for trainer Stephen Marsh, the three-year-old gelding defeated stablemate To Cap It All (Capitalist) by 0.8 lengths with the same distance further back to the third-placed Romanoff (Belardo). "He's still getting better and I think he can certainly take the next step to the 2,000 Guineas," Marsh said. "He'll wander back now, get hosed, go home, and nothing will worry him. He has to get on a plane now and go to a new environment, but he'll be all over that too. Two weeks

Swiss Prince was bred by Westbury Stud owner Gerry Harvey and was offered by the stud in Book 2 of Karaka 2024, where Rosemary Carter bought him for NZ$130,000. He is out of the unraced Swiss Ace (Secret Savings) mare Phoenix, making him a brother to winner Tina Again and a half-brother to fellow winner Harmonia (Reliable Man). El Roca is standing at Westbury Stud for a fee of NZ$10,000 (plus GST).

Glamour Tycoon shows fighting qualities in Tauranga victory

Consistent mare Glamour Tycoon (Written Tycoon) showed all her fighting qualities to down a talented field of open class sprinters and capture her fifth career victory in the Bayleys Mount Maunganui (1300m) open handicap at Tauranga. The daughter of Written Tycoon (Iglesia) has fashioned an enviable record that has seen her out of the first three placings on only six occasions in her 20 starts to date and that record was extended on Saturday in the hands of rider Wiremu Pinn as she defeated

Mosinvader (Vadamos) by a half-length. "She jumped and I thought she was going to get a soft lead, but she was taken on so he [Pinn] went to the trail," winning trainer Stephen Marsh said. "She swung out a little bit wide on the turn, which had me worried, but she is a bloody good mare as she's tough and has had to carry 58.5 kilograms in a nice field. I think there are some nice races ahead of her now. We went 1300 metres today as I thought it was a nice race, but now we will look at Counties in late November as there is the mares' 1400-metre [Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes] or an open 1100-metre [Counties Bowl]. We will keep our options open but she is a high-class mare and has won a couple of stakes races with some more big races to come."

Gigi impresses Tauranga

Local runner Gigi (Ghibellines) produced a big performance to claim a home track victory at Tauranga on Saturday in the Bayleys Tauranga 2100 (2100m). The consistent six-year-old looked to be a forlorn chance when he had to sit three wide for a greater part of the early stages in the open stayers contest before tracking pacemaker Khan Hunter (Mongolian Khan) and then moving forward to lodge his claim rounding the home bend. Quickly caught and headed by eventual runner-up Solidify (Redwood), Gigi and rider George Rooke appeared to be spent at that stage although no-one had told the Jim Pender-trained runner as he lifted off the canvas and rallied in the final 50 metres to hold out Solidify by 0.1 lengths. "They don't come any better than that," Pender said. "He's only a little horse and has carried 58 kilograms today. I possibly should have claimed but I had already declared a rider [Rooke] before the weights came out. He's not big but you know every time you put that saddle on him, he is going to try hard. In his first four trials he ran last but I said to the boys [owner's Markwood Lodge] don't worry as this horse can gallop. He has actually proved me wrong as he is better than what I thought he would be. We will probably look at the Counties Cup in three weeks as he has just improved and is a lovely horse to do anything with."

War Princess soars to Tauranga success

Awapuni filly War Princess (U S Navy Flag) moved a big step closer to a summer target when she ventured to Tauranga on Saturday and scored an impressive come-from-behind victory in the Armory Standing at Mapperley Stud 3YO (1200m). The $40,000 race was the first time War Princess had travelled to the north, the first time she had raced right-handed, and after being left slightly flat-footed in the early stages of the race, the first time she had raced or trialled anywhere other than on the pace. Ridden by Craig Grylls, the daughter of US Navy Flag (War Front) scored by 0.2 lengths over Lubeck (Hanseatic). "We were a bit worried when the gates opened and she ended up out the back, and we didn't really have a Plan B," Trent Didham, who trains in partnership with his father Peter, said. "But she's shown today that she's not just one-dimensional, so that was good to see. Considering the first two races were both won off the front, it was a massive performance for her to come from behind like that. This filly's owners are huge supporters of ours - Ian Middleton [Exempt Bloodstock], the Hart family and Roach family [Chelsea Connections Ltd]. They always have three or four horses in our barn, so we're very grateful to them. Hopefully she can go on with it from here. Making the trip up north and racing this way around has been a good experience for her. The dream really is the big three-year-old sprint on Karaka Millions night at Ellerslie in January [Cambridge Stud Almanzor Trophy]. That's still a long way away, but we'll aim for that."

High-flying Agera delivers milestone for Pike

A rare visit to the Wairarapa on Saturday produced a milestone for Tony Pike, who brought up his 800th winner in New Zealand. The Cambridge trainer, who had saddled only three starters at Tauherenikau in his career before this weekend, made the 500km trek south with four runners and went into the meeting with 798 wins to his name. Pike trained two winners on the eight-race card to reach 800, with Thooza (Almanzor) taking out the Power Related Services Rating 75 (1300m) before Agera (Complacent) added the Pete's Kitchens Feilding Cup (2050m) to his career-best campaign. "I only found out about the 800th win when they told me on course," Pike said. "I wasn't even aware that I was on 798 coming into today. But it's a great feeling any time you tick off a milestone like that and very satisfying for all the team." Similarly satisfying is the form of Agera, who has now completed a Cup double after taking out the Matamata Cup (Listed, 1600m) at his last start on October 17. "He's had a great season and has just kept stepping up," Pike said. "It was a particularly tough effort today to wear down that leader [Sailor Jack] under 60 kilograms, which was a big step up from the 54 kilograms he carried in the Matamata Cup last start. He's just in an outstanding patch of form at the moment."

Marotiri Molly all class at Tauherenikau

Class mare Marotiri Molly (Per Incanto) showed she will be a force to be reckoned with for the rest of the summer as she overcame some home straight traffic issues to take out the Valley Plumbing Redcraze Bowl (1400m) at Tauherenikau on Saturday. The Matt Dixon-trained seven-year-old had taken out the corresponding event when run at Trentham last year, completing a winning treble before finishing runner-up in the Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) and then capturing the Manawatu Challenge Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) during a purple patch of form. Ridden by Toni Davies, who had managed to reduce the mare's 62-kilogram topweight by two kilograms with her apprentice claim, Marotiri Molly denied Blissful Belle (Belardo) in the dying strides to score by 0.2 lengths. "The tracks haven't been to her liking and I always knew that when she got back on a better track she would show her true worth," Dixon said. "I thought it was a super effort, especially as she got held up and was carrying a big weight. To pick herself up and charge through that gap was a good effort. I think she will go to Counties [Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes] as she went super there last year, so that is the next plan."

Four for Saturnalia

Festival Hill (2 f ex Museum Hill by Heart's Cry) provided Shadai Stallion Station-based sire Saturnalia (Lord Kanaloa) with a fourth individual stakes winner when landing Saturday's Fantasy Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Kyoto. Ridden by Cristian Demuro for trainer Hirofumi Shii, the juvenile filly defeated Shonan Charis (Real Steel) by a neck with a further nose back to Meisho Hakkei (Daiwa Major) in third. Bred by Northern Farm and raced by Katsumi Yoshida, Festival Hill is out of the stakes-placed Heart's Cry (Sunday Silence) mare Museum Hill which makes her a half-sister to April's Japanese 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Museum Mile (Leontes). Saturnalia stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of ¥10,000,000 (approx. AU$99,250).

International

Four for Pinatubo

Pintara (2 f ex Abilene by Samum) became the fourth individual stakes winner for Darley shuttler Pinatubo (Shamardal) when she landed Saturday's Montrose Fillies' Stakes (Listed, 1m) at Newmarket. Ridden by Hector Crouch for trainer Ralph Beckett, the juvenile filly doubled her unbeaten tally as she defeated Sacred Ground (Kingman) by three and a half lengths. There was a further head back to Previous (Havana Gold) in third. Bred and raced by Ballylinch Stud, Pintara is closely related to the Group 2-placed winner Juan De Montalban (Lope De Vega) being out of the Listed-winning mare Abilene (Samum). Pinatubo is standing at Darley's Kelvinside base at a fee of $38,500 (inc GST).

Ten for Not This Time

Taylor Made Farm resident Not This Time (Giant's Causeway) registered his tenth individual Grade 1 winner on Friday when Cy Fair (2 f ex Remarqued by Arch) beat the boys in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf Sprint (Gr 1, 5f) at Del Mar. The George Weaver-trained filly broke well and after settling on the speed under Irad Ortiz Jr, strode past the pace-setter Schwarzenegger (Not This Time) in the final stages to win by three-quarters of a length, with Aidan O'Brien's fast-finishing Brussels (Wootton Bassett) running on for second. Aspect Island (Showcasing) finished another length and a quarter back in third. Bred by Marc Keller, Cy Fair is the fourth foal and first to race out of winning Arch (Kris S) mare Remarqued, herself a half-sister to both dual Royal Ascot Group 2 winner Crimson Advocate (Nyquist) and I Do Declare (Declaration Of War), the dam of stakes winner Danielita R (Cairo Prince). She sold to co-owners Swinbank Stables and her trainer for US$185,000 at the Ocala Spring 2YO in Training Sale. Not This Time will stand the 2026 northern hemisphere breeding season for US$250,000 (approx. AU$381,970).

12 for Gun Runner

Three Chimneys Farm sire Gun Runner (Candy Ride) notched up his 12th individual Grade 1 winner and 48th individual stakes winner when his daughter Super Corredora (2 f ex Super Simple by Super Saver) produced a smart performance to land the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies (Gr 1,

Gstaad

EDWARD WHITAKER

Gstaad delivers O'Brien a record 21st Breeders' Cup triumph

Aidan O'Brien etched his name further into racing history when Royal Ascot hero Gstaad stormed home to win Friday's Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf at Del Mar, giving the Ballydoyle trainer a record-breaking 21st Breeders' Cup victory, surpassing the late D. Wayne Lukas as the event's most successful trainer.

The Starspangledbanner colt was ridden with poise by Christophe Soumillon, overcoming a slow start and a wide draw to charge down the outside and score decisively by three-quarters of a length over Stark Contrast (Caravaggio), with North Coast (Starman) – trained by O'Brien's son Joseph – another two and a quarter lengths back in third.

A dominant winner of the Coventry Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) at the royal meeting back in June, Gstaad took his record to three wins and three second placings from six starts, and boosted his earnings to US$993,157 (approx AU$1,517,941).

"We thought he would have won a couple of Group 1s at this stage," O'Brien said. "But things just didn't work for him. Little things went against him."

"It's special. Wayne [Lukas] was such a special man and I can't tell you how helpful he was to us throughout my whole career. He used to ring all the time and he was an unbelievably special man."

Soumillon, who has filled in for injured stable rider Ryan Moore this season, was effusive about the colt's talent after securing his first Breeders' Cup win since 2005.

"I didn't do anything really, I think the horse is just good," he said. "He jumped a bit slow today, but he was travelling very well...I knew when I came out of the turn that I'd win. It's very rare to see amazing horses winning a Breeders' Cup hands and heels like that."

8.5f) at Del Mar on Friday. The John Saddler-trained filly was making the class leap from her maiden victory last time, and proved up to the task by leading all the way and holding off the Bob Baffert-trained favourite Explora (Blame) to win by three-quarters of a length. Percy's Bar (Upstart) finished another three lengths back in third. Bred by Woodford Thoroughbreds, Super Corredora was a US$400,000 purchase for part-owners West Point Thoroughbreds at the 2024 Keeneland September Yearling Sale. She is the second foal out of Super Saver (Maria's Mon) mare Super Simple, also the dam of winner Gunite Max (Volatile) and herself a half-sister to stakes winners Simple Surprise (Cowboy Cal) and Optionality (Gun Runner). Gun Runner will stand the 2026 northern hemisphere breeding season for US$250,000 (approx. AU$381,970).

Three for Ten Sovereigns

Former Coolmore Stud sire Ten Sovereigns (No Nay Never) landed his third individual elite-level winner and 13th individual stakes winner on Friday when Irish raider Balantina (2 f ex Balankiyla by Montjeu) stormed home to take the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies Turf (Gr 1, 8f) at Del Mar. Trained by Donnacha O'Brien, Balantina was guided to the rail from gate ten by Oisin Murphy and made a blistering run up the inside to win by a length and a quarter over UK raider Pacific Mission (Lope De Vega). Ground Support (Army Mule) finished third, just a further head back after racing on pace. Bred by Summerhill, Lynch Bages and S Murphy, Balantina was a €100,000 purchase for Avenue, Parkland Thoroughbreds and Bawnmore at the 2024 Arqana Deauville August Yearling Sale. She is the seventh foal out of winning Montjeu (Sadler's Wells) mare Balankiyla, who has also produced Group 3 winner Baiykara (Zarak) and is herself a half-sister to Grade 1 winner Bayrir (Medicean). Ten Sovereigns, whose daughter Lush Lips landed the Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup Stakes (Gr 1, 9f) at Keeneland last month, was relocated to Celikoglu Stud in Turkey this year.

Ten for Starspangledbanner

Coolmore Stud's former shuttle sire Starspangledbanner (Choirs) recorded his tenth individual elite-level winner on Friday when the Aidan O'Brien-trained Gstaad (2 c ex Mosa Mine by Exceed And Excel) landed the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf (Gr 1, 8f) in dominant fashion. Bred by Maywood Stud, Gstaad was purchased by MV Magnier for 450,000gns at the 2023 Tattersalls December Foal Sale and is raced by Derrick Smith, John Magnier and Michael Tabor. He became the second Group/Grade 1 winner to come out of placed Exceed And Excel (Danehill) mare Mosa Mine, following in the footsteps of dual Group 1 winner turned Arrowfield shuttle sire Vandeeck (Havana Grey). Starspangledbanner stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season for €45,000 (approx. AU$79,776).

US: Ted Noffey extends unbeaten record in Breeders' Cup Juvenile Spendthrift Farm-owned colt Ted Noffey (2 c Into Mischief - Streak Of Luck by Old Fashioned) capped a perfect juvenile season in style when claiming the Breeders' Cup Juvenile (Gr 1, 8.5f) at Del Mar on Friday. The son of Spendthrift's premier sire Into Mischief (Harlan's Holiday) overcame a mid-race lapse in concentration to score by a length over Mr. A.P. (American Pharoah), maintaining an unbeaten four-for-four record that also includes Grade 1 victories in the Hopeful Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) and Breeders' Futurity (Gr 1, 8.5f). "He's as good as any two-year-old we've had," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "Look at his resume. To go from the Hopeful to the Breeders' Futurity and then to the Breeders' Cup on the West Coast, that's pretty hard to beat. You always worry about shipping to the West Coast, so that's pretty impressive." Bred by Aaron and Marie Jones, Ted Noffey is the second foal out of stakes winner Streak Of Luck (Old Fashioned) and was purchased by Spendthrift for US$650,000 at the 2024 Keeneland September Yearling Sale. He has now earned US$1.65 million (approx. AU$2.52 million) and accumulated 40 qualifying points for next year's Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f).

Derby Day 2025 goes into the history books for us, a day the stable will never forget.

It kicked off with Warnie showing an incredible turn of foot to win the G2 Damien Oliver, followed by Jimmysstar at Randwick, proving just how talented he is with another electric stakes victory.

VERDICT An improved performer in his two starts this year, CHALLY CHUTE will be difficult to beat if repeating his unlucky run in the Irish Cesarewitch over C&D last time. Enfranchise was below form in a 1m4f Listed race at Galway last time but can better that over this trip. Uxmal has the ability to run well if close to his best. BETTING FORECAST: 3 Speedy Smartie, 7-2 Ragnarr, 4 Run Run Timing, 11-2 Sonic Boom, 8 Sunny Darling, 12 Colonel, 20 He Was Me, Joyful Treasure, Super Charizzard, 25 Super Elite, 33 Island Golden, 66 Macanese Master.

VERDICT Several of these have possibilities but SPEEDY SMARTIE has returned in fine heart, bouncing back from a narrow defeat to score in good style on the dirt in September, and a 6lb rise may not be enough to halt his momentum. Sonic Boom shaped well last time and could have a say if building on that effort. Ragnarr finally shed his maiden tag last month and remains well handicapped, though his allocated draw makes life tougher today.

VERDICT Low-mileage 4yo ALL'S WELL ended last season with a 6lb win at Sha Tin and, after a solid return last month, makes plenty of appeal here. Dan Attack arrives in good order after a Class 5 win and another creditable run off his revised mark, while With A Smile may sneak into the frame if fully tuned up after his break.

VERDICT Danny Shum's FANTASTIC FUN opened his local account over C&D last month and may well build on that now he's found his groove. Samarkand has edged down to a dangerous mark and shaped with promise when attempting to make all last time, so he's one to note. Sterling Wongchoy has held his form reasonably well since his breakthrough win and shouldn't be underestimated either.

BETTING FORECAST: 3 Healthy Healthy, 5 Mr Desira, 7 Day Day Victory, Lean Master, Lucky Twenty, 8 Heroic Master, 12 Harmony Fire, Patch Of Watch, Spicy Spangle, 20 Sergeant Pepper, 33 Circuit Happy, Star Performer.

VERDICT The form choice is Day Day Victory, who momentarily had to wait for a run yet still finished in front of four of these opponents, headed by Harmony Fire, over this C&D last month. However, he is opposed with the class-dropping HEALTHY HEALTHY, who has been performing creditably in better company. Another danger is Heroic Master, who returns off a much reduced mark with Zac Purton back in his saddle.

VERDICT This could be a good opportunity for EXCEED THE WISH to finally break his duck, especially with the Mark Newnham stable in such excellent form. Argento Ocean is probably his biggest threat after posting an improved effort in fourth last time, while Autumn Vibes is not one to give up on just yet.

● SMART TRIO includes 1lb possible overweight

BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 Forever Glorious, 4 Firefoot, Hakka Radiance, 7 Can't Go Wong, Management Folks, 10 Celestial Patch, 12 Ocean Impact, 16 Frantack, Mission Strike, 25 Kingly Demeanor, 33 Perfect Pairing, 66 Smart Trio.

VERDICT Firefoot (second choice) is seemingly close to another win, while it will be interesting to see how well hat-trick seeker Hakka Radiance copes with today's rise in grade. However, the vote goes to FOREVER GLORIOUS, who remains on a good mark after last month's pleasing seasonal/stable debut.

BETTING FORECAST: 9-4 Candlelight Dinner, 4 Harmony N Blessed, Parents' Love, 5 Looking Bright, 12 Eternal Fortune, 14 Quartz Legend, Six Three Win, 16 Blue Illusion, 25 Victor The Rapid, 33 Lucky Xander, 50 Tactical Command, 100 Sir Charge.

VERDICT This looks good for likely front-runner CANDLELIGHT DINNER, who has remained in good form since his C&D win in June and has the perfect draw. Zac Purton's mount Harmony N Blessed drops in grade and is second choice, ahead of Looking Bright.

VERDICT Dancing Classics and Aurora Patch (second choice) won over C&D last month but move up in grade today and the most interesting runner is arguably SPORTS LEGEND, who has a tricky draw to overcome but is very well handicapped now and is fitted with new headgear after last month's quite encouraging seasonal and stable debut.

VERDICT King Lotus has made a bright start to his career over 6f and could be a very tough nut to crack if today's step up in trip suits but KEEN MOLLY ran a big race in defeat behind Viva Graciousness over C&D last month and is taken to open his Hong Kong account at the fourth attempt.
