McDonald and Waller bring up an elite 50 as Via Sistina shines once again on Champions Day

By Lydia Symonds

Via Sistina (Fastnet Rock) produced a dominant display to score a remarkable 12th triumph at the highest level when successfully defending her crown in Saturday's Champions Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) on a wet, windy and unseasonably cold day at Flemington.

The heavy conditions did not faze the reigning Australian Horse of the Year, who tracked up three-wide with cover under James McDonald and put her rivals away in typically effortless fashion. She crossed the line 2.8 lengths ahead of Zambardo (Belardo) with Tom Kitten (Harry Angel) finishing a further 0.7 lengths away in third. Continued on page 2

Ceolwulf comes out on top in titanic Champions Mile tussle

Joe Pride declared Ceolwulf (Tavistock) had removed any doubt he was the best horse he'd trained after the gelding's triumph in an epic Champions Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington on Saturday.

Appallingly cold, wet and windy conditions on the last day of the Melbourne Cup carnival at least provided the backdrop to two of the most stirring finishes of the week, 40 minutes apart. Continued on page 4

Last year Via Sistina landed the Group 1 off the back of a victory in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) and she repeated the feat on Saturday.

Chris Waller said he was delighted to see the mare continue to perform at the highest level as she approaches the twilight of her career.

"She was tough today. She went back from the draw, James didn't panic and it was awesome to see her in the straight," the winning trainer said.

"They [Yulong] are sportsmen, they love their racing. I knew not to ask because I knew they'd have liked her to race here. It was as simple as that."

Waller said since joining his stable in 2024, Via Sistina has gone from strength to strength and 11th Group 1s later can now boast just shy of $19.5 million in career earnings.

"We were told she was a very good horse. Her international form was something special and it's rare for us to get a really high-class horse down here like her and she was just maturing," he said.

"We've got her at the right time. They did an amazing job with her over there looking after her. She was a big, raw mare and didn't worry about her age. She's just matured."

Despite the baltic conditions in Melbourne, Waller said the racing at Flemington had given fans a day to savour.

"Seeing the Sprint, the Mile and now this race, it's giving everyone an extra taste of the great horses," he said. "They have given the racing public something to cheer for and what a great day it's been with Ceolwulf, Giga Kick and now Via Sistina. Three serious horses on an amazing day of racing."

"They're tough horses and when you look after them, they look after you."

The win marked an impressive milestone for the Waller / McDonald axis, with the victory delivering the combination a 50th Group 1 win in partnership.

"There's no pressure, no pre-race stress, and I didn't even give any instructions."

"He said 'I'll go and ride her like Hughie [Bowman] used to ride Winx', best horse in the race, give her some clean air, and I said, 'that sounds good to me.' Continued on page 3

"She deserves her champion status and I thought being a dual Cox Plate winner it's very satisfying," the winning rider said.

"How good are they [Waller team]? They just prep them up beautifully, Waller and his team. She was cool today, real cool," he said. "Every time he says one is improving, it's improving. He said that about Via today and he was spot on."

"She started her prep in amazing fashion. Certain things didn't go her way, but when you're riding a dual Cox Plate winner on Champions Day and the last Group 1 of a fantastic four days, it is very special."

"It felt like every man and his dog was on her today but she duly obliged and the race couldn't have panned out any better for us, to be fair."

"It was just like riding a trial early and letting her blend in at the six [hundred], four, two, and that's all she did."

Bred by Laundry Cottage Stud, Via Sistina is the fifth and very much the best of seven named foals out of the unraced Nigh (Galileo). Suggesting major influence from Fastnet Rock (Danehill) in their mating during his shuttling career to Ireland, only one other of Nigh's offspring has won, and that is Fougere (Bated Breath), who claimed only a Nottingham handicap in 19 starts.

Via Sistina is another example of Fastnet's potency when crossed with daughters of Coolmore's perennial breed-shaping sire Galileo (Sadler's Wells), with the mare among the 31 stakes winners for the nick and she is also one of 11 Group 1 scorers bred on the cross.

The yearling Via Sistina was sold by agent Jamie Railton to Stephen Hillen Bloodstock for £5,000 from Book 3 of Tattersalls December Yearling Sale in 2019. From those inauspicious beginnings, she was bought by Evergreen Equine at Tattersalls' December Mares Sale in 2023 for 2,700,000gns, from the draft of Ireland's Grove Stud, before coming to Australia to race in the Yulong green and white.

Nigh now has a three-year-old filly yet to race called Via Sienna (Bated Breath), and last year had a colt by Too Darn Hot (Dubawi).

Ceolwulf comes out on top in titanic Champions Mile tussle

By Trevor Marshallsea

Joe Pride declared Ceolwulf (Tavistock) had removed any doubt he was the best horse he'd trained after the gelding's triumph in an epic Champions Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington on Saturday.

Appallingly cold, wet and windy conditions on the last day of the Melbourne Cup carnival at least provided the backdrop to two of the most stirring finishes of the week, 40 minutes apart.

First, Giga Kick (Scissor Kick) overcame Magic Time (Hellbent) by 0.2 lengths after a tooth-and-nail final furlong of the VRC Champions Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m).

One race later, Ceolwulf and Pericles (Street Boss) came away from their seven rivals in a gripping struggle in the Mile.

Pride Of Jenni (Pride Of Dubai) set out to repeat her usual bold front-running display but in the Heavy 9 conditions was a spent force by the turn.

Treasurethe Moment (Alabama Express) had this time tried to put pressure on Pride Of Jenni in front, but while she held the lead for the first half of the home straight, her run also petered out.

With $2.90 favourite Mr Brightside (Bullbars) clearly not going to threaten, it was left to Warwick Farm rivals - Pride's Ceolwulf and Bjorn Baker's Godolphin-raced gelding Pericles - to battle for the victory, moving up in better going out wide, after travelling fourth and fifth in the run respectively.

Ceolwulf (right)

Pericles, at $19 to Ceolwulf's $5, gained the clear ascendancy, going to the front by a neck at the 150 metres with the race seemingly at his mercy.

Baker's other runner Stefi Magnifica (All Too Hard) was third at $11, a gaping 4.56 lengths away, with Treasurethe Moment hanging on for fourth at $5 to close out an unfulfilled spring, and Mr Brightside fifth.

Pride has had such Group 1 luminaries in his stable as Terravista (Captain Rio), Think About It (So You Think), Eduardo (Host) and Vision And Power (Carnegie).

But he said five-year-old Ceolwulf had erased any lingering doubts that he deserved to be ranked above them all following this fourth elite success, and his second in as many starts after successfully defending his title in Randwick's King Charles II Stakes (Gr 1, 1609m) on October 18.

"I've thought for a long time he's the best horse I've trained and with his last two wins, he's certainly cemented his spot there," Pride told Racing.com.

"That was fantastic, really special. I love winning races here. This horse has really turned it on in the second half of the preparation and has strung a couple of very good wins together.

"I thought at the 200 that he wasn't enjoying it, he was wandering around a little bit, but as soon as Pericles challenged him, he rallied, and it was a really good go to the line with two good horses.

"That's the key to him; he comes good later in his preparation."

Ceolwulf took his earnings past $10 million with his seventh win from 25 starts. Unusually, all previous 24 had come in Sydney.

"I normally travel my horses at some stage of their career but through circumstance he hadn't had a trip away," Pride said.

"But it's nice to see him do that today as some horses don't like it, don't enjoy it, but he's relished it."

Bred by Sir Brendan and Lady Jo Lindsay - owners of Cambridge Stud where Tavistock (Montjeu) stood until his death in 2019 - Ceolwulf was bought by Pride from the New Zealand Bloodstock Ready To Run Sale in 2022, for $170,000.

He's the second of seven foals, and one of only two to race, for unraced British import Las Brisas (Shamardal), whose second dam was the mother of Cerulean Sky (Darshaan), winner of Longchamp's Prix Saint-Alary (Gr 1, 2000m) and Irish Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) victor Moonstone (Dalakhani).

Pride tipped that Ceolwulf might be back at Flemington next spring to contest the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m).

"I'd love to be back here for the Cox Plate. Whether or not he is as good at 2000 [metres] as he is at a mile, we'll find out in the autumn [and] probably in the Queen Elizabeth. Great way to finish the year," he said.

Schofield was full of praise for Ceolwulf's effort in the dogfight to the line.

"He jumped really well today and he took the most out of that good jump and put himself in a more forward position and when the race heated up around the 600 metres, I was still going really well," he said.

"He ambled into it and then he had a good look when he hit the big Flemington straight for the first time. He got a bit lost for a while until Pericles got in front of him, and then he could see him with his blinkers and he was the stronger horse late.

"If you had asked me how I was feeling at the 400, I'd have said it was race over. He ambled up and came into it but in the Flemington straight he put his head up and baulked. That allowed Pericles to get a margin on me, and when he saw him he went again."

I'VE THOUGHT FOR A LONG TIME HE'S THE BEST HORSE I'VE TRAINED AND WITH HIS LAST TWO WINS, HE'S CERTAINLY CEMENTED HIS SPOT THERE

Schofield paid for his desperation in the finish, being suspended for 11 meetings and fined $35,000 for over-using the whip. He was also suspended for 18 meetings for careless riding near the 1400 metres. With the suspensions to be served cumulatively, he will be out from November 16 until December 17.

Giga Kick adds to Group 1 tally with gripping Sprint success

By Trevor Marshallsea

Reborn sprinter Giga Kick secured his third top tier triumph two-and-a-half years after his second with a gripping victory in the VRC Sprint at Flemington on Saturday.

The Clayton Douglas-trained gelding had shaped as a potential champion early in his career, winning his first five starts culminating in The Everest (1200m) of 2022.

But while he managed his first two Group 1 successes at starts nine and ten in Randwick's All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and the Doomben 10,000 (Gr 1, 1200m) in the late autumn of 2023, injuries conspired to dull his progress, restricting the six-year-old to just 18 starts before Saturday.

This preparation, however, he resumed with his first win since that Doomben 10,000 success, taking Caulfield Schillaci Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m), and in the toughness of a Heavy 9 at Flemington on Saturday, the hulking chestnut looked back to his best, fighting out a titanic duel with wet track demon Magic Time to prevail by 0.2 lengths.

The race was hit by drama before it began, with favourite Tentyrus (Street Boss) ruled out under veterinary advice after the star Godolphin three-year-old colt had reared in the gates and put a leg over a partition.

Mark Zahra settled $5 shot Giga Kick in the middle of the nine-runner ruck behind the pacemakers, who including $2.70 favourite Joliestar (Zoustar), while Michael Dee sat out the back on $11 chance Magic Time.

With the field drifting towards the outside rail, Dee took Magic Time to the inside and she and Giga Kick - emerging through the centre - took up the running at the 150 metres. While Grahame Begg's mare was a head in front at the 50 metres and appearing likely to slip away,

Giga Kick gritted his teeth and fought back to score the bravest of wins.

The sprinter who put his sire Scissor Kick (Redoute's Choice) on the map - before he was sold off to another part of the map entirely to stand in his present home of Tunisia - has now earned almost $15 million with the $1.8m first prize from his ninth win.

"He's a champ, this horse, and I love him," an elated Douglas told Racing.com.

"He's done so much for my career, and he's taken me everywhere with Group 1 wins in Sydney and Queensland.

"He's done a tremendous job to get back to Group 1 level and I will be forever grateful for him.

"He just fronts up. He's an older horse. He missed 12 months with injury."

Giga Kick's only previous heavy track outing had come the start before his All Aged victory in April 2023, when he ran I Wish I Win (Savabeel) to a 0.58 length second in Randwick's TJ Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), also on a Heavy 9.

"Champions do what champions do and he's just a good horse," Douglas said. "He was a young three-year-old running in the TJ Smith with I Wish I Win, and he seemed to handle it."

Giga Kick gave Zahra his eighth and final winner of the Melbourne Cup carnival, sealing him the Ron Hutchinson Award as the week's most successful jockey.

"It's so good to see him back," Zahra said.

"It was pretty tight up the straight. We were all hugged up on the outside there and it looked like Magic Time was going to hold me, but his last 50 [metres], he had a proper crack the old boy and got his head out at the right time.

"I wanted to be on the back of Joliestar but J-Mac pushed me out of the way so I had to get Jedibeel out of the way and the gap came and I was able to squeeze through there.

"Great win, great thrill."

Bred by Jonathan Munz's GSA Bloodstock, Giga Kick was entered but withdrawn from the 2021 Inglis HTBA Yearling Sale, and continued to race in the red and white stripes of his breeder's Pinecliff Racing.

The six-time stakes winner is one of Scissor Kick's only two Australian stakes winners - the other being Gold Coast Listed scorer Dzsenifer - and is the tenth and best of 11 named foals out of Rekindled Applause (Royal Applause), who had her last drop in 2021.

Aside from Giga Kick, Rekindled Applause is also the second dam of another Group 1 winner - and present day Yulong sire - Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice).

She's also a half-sister to three stakes winners on three separate continents.

Rekindled Interest (Redoute's Choice) won the MVRC Vase (Gr 2, 2040m) for Munz in 2010 and, on the same day a year later, ran third in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m).

Where We Left Off (Dr Devious) won the Monmouth Matchmaker Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) in the US having also bagged a pair of Listed events, while Porticcio (Lomitas) landed a Listed race in Toulouse, France.

Calamari Ring proves to be a tasty buy for To

By Trevor Marshallsea

After a wet and wild day at Flemington, owner Leo To will be hoping lightning has struck twice following the Inglis Banner (RL, 1000m) success of his two-year-old filly Calamari Ring (Street Boss).

Four years ago, the Sydney-based expat Hong Kong businessman ventured to the Inglis Australian Weanling Sale in the early days of building his Australian thoroughbred interests, and picked up a bargain filly by Brave Smash (Tosen Phantom) for $21,000.

She became Kimochi, who earned $2.12 million in a Group 1 winning career for Gary Portelli, being sold along the way to Yulong for $2.2m at the Inglis Chairman's Sale.

To plundered another Inglis weanling auction - last year's Great Southern sale - to purchase Calamari Ring, and while he had to stretch a little further to acquire her for $140,000, in partnership with agent Shane McGrath, the move looks set to pay off again.

Ridden by Ethan Brown, the Ciaron Maher-trained filly showed great maturity to head up the centre of the Flemington straight in driving rain and lead in ten male and female rivals by 0.2 lengths on debut in the Banner - comfortably eclipsing her purchase price in one hit with the $240,000 first prize.

"I'm a big fan of the Inglis weanling sales," To said.

"As with my approach before, I always find there is great value at the weanling sales, so we didn't have any hesitation about securing her."

"The money we pay at weanling sales is much better value than at the yearling sales. If she was at the yearling sales, I'd probably have had to pay $300,000 or $400,000 for her. So, it's beautiful."

"I'll continue to buy at the weanling sales. They're my favourite."

Calamari Ring was one of the first horses bought in To's association with McGrath.

"She had beautiful size, she was very strong and very correct - just the best horse in the sale," To said. "Shane has a very good eye, and he picked her for me."

Maher was delighted with the filly's debut performance, tipping she had "a bright future".

"God I thought she's done a great job," the winning trainer told Racing.com. "She came up the middle of the track, had never seen the straight."

"She's always shown ability. I didn't think she'd get to the races this early, but as good horses do, they do well in training, and every time we've asked a little bit of her it brought her on."

I ALWAYS FIND THERE IS GREAT VALUE AT THE WEANLING SALES, SO WE DIDN'T HAVE ANY HESITATION ABOUT SECURING HER

LEO TO

Calamari Ring lined up off the back of two jump-outs, the latest a victory at Cranbourne on October 20 as the only two-year-old against ten older males and females.

"Ciaron thought enough of her to trial against three-year-olds and she held her own in what looked wet enough ground," Brown said.

"I was always confident she was going to handle it today. She's just prepared so well."

"She was very professional and made my job easy, for a young horse. She's nice and fit for a heavy track first up, and you can't kick your career off in much better fashion than that."

"I did have a look at the track and I thought anywhere up the middle was fine. Once she let down, she let down nice."

Bred and sold by Victoria's Two Bays Farm, Calamari Ring is the fourth foal - all fillies - out of Excelsior Island (Exceed And Excel), a two-time winner in New Zealand and half-sister to that country's Champion 2YO of 2011-12, Warhorse (General Nediyim).

Excelsior Island now has a fifth filly foal, by Rubick (Encosta De Lago), and was covered last season by Dirty Work (Written Tycoon).

Street Boss (Street Cry) now has 84 stakes winners from 1,477 runners worldwide at 5.7 per cent. In Australia, Darley Victoria's $66,000 stallion has 29 black type victors from 561 runners 5.2 per cent.

The Banner brought a quinella for fillies bought in tandem with McGrath, with second place going to Streisand (Magnus) at $6.50.

Her trainer Clinton McDonald and McGrath paid $100,000 for the daughter of Magnus (Flying Spur) from Northmore Thoroughbreds' draft at this year's Inglis Premier Yearling Sale in Melbourne.

Third went to $7 chance Bohemian Rhapsody (Prague) from the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m)-winning stable of Tony and Calvin McEvoy, at $7.

Darby Racing strike gold at Rosehill

By Trevor Marshallsea

Darby Racing showed they could be set for another major juvenile season when they took the quinella in Saturday's $1 million Golden Gift (1100m) at Rosehill with Revengeance (Hellbent) and Spicy Miss (Trapeze Artist).

Well ridden by Josh Parr, the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained colt Revengeance sat just off the pace before pushing to the lead at the 200-metre mark and coming away to score by 0.91 lengths as $2.60 favourite.

The Ciaron Maher-trained Spicy Miss had tracked up behind Revengeance and came four wide around the turn, sticking on well to her task to take second at $15.

Revengeance, who ran third in the Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m), and debutant Spicy Miss hail from the typical Darby playbook, both being relatively inexpensive purchases.

Darby bought Revengeance for $100,000 from the draft of breeders Divali Thoroughbreds at this year's Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, while going to $150,000 to secure Spicy Miss at Magic Millions Gold Coast, sold by Widden Stud on behalf of breeder Bert Vieira.

Revengeance, who signalled a potentially bright future by winning his heat at Sydney's first official two-year-old barrier trials on September 22, was wound into $11 equal favouritism for the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) after Saturday's win.

Bott said the $580,000 earned had made the path to the world's richest juvenile event so much easier.

"We'll work back from the Slipper as to what that path is," he told Channel 7. "Whether it's the Blue Diamond, whether it's Inglis Millennium, we have a few different lead-up options.

"Whether we go a traditional path, we'll see what pans out and see what we think is the best way to get him to the Slipper. Obviously he's got the money now."

"He's a lovely type. Josh gave him a lovely ride today, and just used that race experience to advantage. He rode the high pressure there, got into a lovely spot just in behind the speed and produced at the right time. He was excellent late, good through the line, and there was a lot to like about that win."

Revengeance

Bott paid tribute to Scott Darby's syndications company, whose two-year-old successes include the 2017 Golden Slipper with $20,000 purchase She Will Reign (Manhattan Rain), and last season's Inglis Banner, Inglis Nursery (RL, 1000m) and Sweet Embrace Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) with $30,000 buy Within The Law (Lucky Vega).

"They're incredible at selecting and what they do, and incredible the way they manage their horses," he said. "They're an absolutely pleasure and a dream to deal with. They're very professional in everything they do. It's an honour to be able to train for them and get nice horses like this in the yard."

Parr, who also rode Revengeance in the Breeders' Plate, said the colt would handle the 1200 metres of the Slipper and other races without "a worry at all".

"Speaking of his ability, I can't speak highly enough," he said. "He's improved each time I've sat aboard him now."

"His action seems to be ironing out a little bit. You could see in his first trial, he looked like a kangaroo coming up the straight. But today he flattened out really well and I can't wait to see him in March [for the Slipper]."

Revengeance is the first foal out of Havasu (Sacred Falls), a half-sister from dual New Zealand Listed winner Halobelle (My Halo) to Miss Federer (Swiss Ace), who won three Listed races and a Group 3, also east of the Tasman.

Havasu now has a yearling filly and a filly foal by Vinery Stud's $33,000 stallion Exceedance (Exceed And Excel).

Despite being advertised as a Group 3, the Golden Gift does not carry black type status. It is among 18 events Racing NSW announced as having had status upgrades since the start of last season, but whose supposed upgrades have been rejected by international authorities.

NZB has been associated with the Newcastle race every year since its 2021 inception, including in 2024, when it was run for the first time under its subsequently rejected upgrade to Listed, as The New Zealand Bloodstock Beauford.

However, RNSW's diary shows the event, to be held next Saturday, will be run merely as The Beauford. RNSW still insists it is a Listed event, just as it insists the day's feature - The Hunter (1300m) - is a Group 2, when in fact neither race has black type status. The same applies to Saturday's Five Diamonds (1800m) at Rosehill, advertised as "Listed".

Amid NSW's ongoing black type shambles, the association of Inglis and NZB with the Golden Gift and The Beauford while they were advertised under their faux new statuses had drawn criticism from certain quarters, considering how fundamental the integrity of the black type pattern is to how sales companies operate.

Since the NSW 18's supposed upgrades are not recognised by international authorities, they are also not recognised by Arion - the southern hemisphere's largest supplier of pedigree information - and thus are not reflected in sales catalogues, including at Inglis, NZB, or Magic Millions.

143 for Sea The Stars

Sunset Park

SPORTPIX

Sunset Park (5 m ex Hand Puppet by Manduro) became the 143rd individual stakes winner for Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) when landing Saturday's Matriarch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Flemington. Sent off a $17 chance under Jamie Melham, the Brad Widdup-trained mare made all and, having travelled strongly heading into the final 300 metres, stayed on well to beat She's A Hustler (Ace High) by 1.3 lengths. There were a further four lengths back to Alalcance (Mastercraftsman) in third place. Bred by Godolphin, Sunset Park was purchased for 60,000gns by Peter and Ross Doyle Bloodstock on behalf of Adrian Whittingham's Cross Park Stud at the 2023 Tattersalls December Mare Sale. A half-sister to the stakes-placed winner Art Of Magic (Invincible Spirit), she is one of three winners out of the winning Manduro (Monsun) mare Hand Puppet, herself closely related to Darley's now deceased stalwart Street Cry (Machiavellian). Sea The Stars will stand the 2026 northern hemisphere breeding season at a career-high fee of €300,000 (approx. AU$534,600).

Widdup delighted with Sunset Park's success

Hawkesbury-based trainer Brad Widdup was delighted with the pillar-to-post success of his mare Sunset Park in Saturday's Matriarch Stakes. "It's great to be down here," said Widdup post-race. "She came down here for the race at Moonee Valley and was dead stiff there, so we decided to keep her here for this. It was a great win. She was very fit and has had a bit of racing, but her pedigree comes into play. Full credit to her owner Adrian Whittingham. He found her in the UK and she's really starting to get a good record. I think she's going to get a lot further than this. I thought it was a bit early for her in her career, but she's really lapped it up since coming down here. It took a while to get her to this point. When I trialled her, she trialled enormous. She hurt her leg in the float on the way home and we had to wait. Did I think she could do this so early, no, but you never know if you don't have a go and have a crack." Winning rider Jamie Melham, who enjoyed a double on the day was left impressed by her mount's performance. "At the 600 [metre mark] I thought we were home. The way she travelled, I didn't really want to lead, I just wanted to go forward but she just jumped so well and got to about the 600 and she had lengths left to give," Melham said. "That was very impressive."

15 for Rubick

Former Swettenham Stud stallion Rubick (Encosta De Lago) chalked up his 15th individual stakes winner when the Peter Snowden-trained Need Some Luck (5 g ex Lovely Jubly by Lion Hunter) registered an impressive victory in Saturday's Fisher Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Flemington. In what was the first leg of a double for Jamie Melham, the five-year-old gelding cruised to the lead entering the final 200 metres before quickening away to score by 1.8 lengths over De Bergerac (Zoustar). There was a further 0.7 lengths back to the third-placed Big Swinger (Trapeze Artist). A homebred for the Throsby family, Need Some Luck is closely related to world champion sprinter and six-time Group 1 winner Chautauqua (Encosta De Lago), as well as being a half-brother to Group 3 scorer London Lolly (Charge Forward), being out of the Lion Hunter (Danehill) mare Lovely Jubly, a dual Group 1-winning juvenile on the track. Rubick was sold to stand at Huayu Horse Industry in China earlier this year.

Melham full of praise for Need Some Luck

Jamie Melham was full of praise for Need Some Luck after the five-year-old's win in testing conditions at Flemington on Saturday. "This horse got through that ground fantastic. Most horses today have me stopping pretty quick after the line because the ground's quite testing and tiring out there, but he loves it... I couldn't stop him," said Melham. "He jumps out of gates a bit better than Chautauqua, although he has been slow out of the gates previously in his runs, but today he was fantastic. He jumped well, got into a beautiful spot behind Nadal where I wanted to be, and I wanted to hold him together as long as I could, but we got to the 400 metres, and I couldn't hold him any longer. He was fantastic. I didn't even need to encourage him; he just found the line himself."

Whisky On The Hill too strong in Queen Elizabeth

The Glen Thompson-trained Whisky On The Hill (6 g Ribchester - Ninja Lady by Nayef) continued his recent purple patch of form by landing Saturday's Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 3, 2600m) at Flemington. Having recorded a first career stakes win in the RM Ansett Classic (Listed, 2415m) three starts earlier, the six-year-old son has since finished third in the Herbert Power Stakes (Gr 2, 2400m) and fifth in the Geelong Cup (Gr 3, 2400m). Sent off a $6.50 chance under Damian Lane in Saturday's Group 3, the gelding stayed on resolutely inside the closing stages to repel the persistent challenge of Etna Rosso (Decorated Knight) to score by a length. There was a further length back to Japanese raider Golden Snap (Gold Ship) in third. "Very satisfying to get this result," Thompson said. "He hasn't had a lot go his way all prep. He's been racing really well, and I was very concerned when the rain came. It means a lot for the owners. They've been really good supporters. They stuck by me when everything went awry a few months ago and it is very pleasing to get the result for them. He's a horse we've always had a big opinion of. He was very unlucky in the Bendigo Cup last year and just missed out on getting into the Melbourne Cup last year. It was unfortunate that he had to miss the autumn this year. He had niggly issues and that put us on the backfoot for this spring, but this puts him in good stead going forward."

Arctic Glamour breaks winning drought in Hot Danish

The Gerald Ryan and Sterling Alexiou-trained Arctic Glamour (5 m Frosted - Fartoo Flashy by Galileo) ended a long losing run with success in Saturday's Hot Danish Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Rosehill. Sent off at odds of $41 under Tom Sherry, the five-year-old, whose previous win came in the Reginald Allen Quality (Listed, 1400m) in October 2023, picked up the lead rounding the home turn and had plenty in reserve to hold off a late challenge from Bauhinia (Hellbent) by 0.4 lengths. Snow In May (The Autumn Sun) finished a further 1.6 lengths back in third place. "It has been a while between drinks, but she has 'prepped' up really good this preparation," Alexiou said. "She was a bit unlucky in a Missile [Stakes] behind Schwarz, but she just hasn't won for so long. It has been two-and-a-bit years now so not a bad race to resume winning in. She normally wears the visors, we put the blinkers on and did a few different things with her. We worked her a bit sharper. We put her over some hurdles. She worked over the hurdles this morning just to get her thinking about things again. Completely rapt."

Rosehill treble for Sherry

The win on Arctic Glamour provided Tom Sherry with a treble on the card after he earlier combined with Annabel and Rob Archibald to land victories aboard Tuned (Zoustar) and Luskaire (American Pharoah). "I had good rides today but that doesn't always go to plan, does it? When it does go to plan it is exciting," Sherry said. Regarding the performance of Arctic Glamour he said: "She has obviously been out of form, goes well fresh and the application of blinkers sparked her."

Vivy Air gets her big one in Five Diamonds

Vivy Air

SPORTPIX

Having run a bold second behind her stablemate Gringotts (Per Incanto) in the Big Dance (1600m) just four days prior, the Ciaron Maher-trained Vivy Air (Hellbent) got her big day on the track when producing a come-from-behind victory in Saturday's Five Diamonds (1800m) at Rosehill. Ridden by Reece Jones, the five-year-old mare was near last turning for home but had a clear run down the far-side rail and stayed on gamely to defeat Transatlantic (Snitzel) by 0.2 lengths. There was a further 0.1 lengths back to the third-placed Militarize (Dundeeel) in a tight finish to the $2 million contest. "It's a great result, a great prize-money race and backing up from Tuesday into today, it's not easy to do. She is very tough," Maher's assistant trainer Johann Gerard-Dubord said. "She has been finding it hard to win but two starts ago she got her head in front and that gave her some confidence. She was very good on Tuesday and stepping up to 1800 [metres] we thought would suit her. It has been a good week." Jones felt the race had gotten away from him early on. "When I was so far back early, she wasn't travelling all that well for me," he said. "I was a little bit worried. I was thinking she might not have backed up, then it made me look silly."

Third for Brutal

Newgate Farm stallion Brutal (O'Reilly) sired his third individual stakes winner when Harlem Queen (4 m ex Harlem River by Fastnet Rock) scored in Saturday's Ladies Day Cup (Listed, 1500m) at Hawkesbury. The Nathan Doyle-trained four-year-old mare looked a forlorn hope before producing a barnstorming final 100 metres to get up on the line, eventually beating the ironically named Well Timed (Nicconi) by 0.2 lengths. Territory Express (Territories) finished a further half-length back in third. Harlem Queen was purchased by Calibre Racing Group for $180,000 out of the Newgate Farm draft at the 2023 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Out of the Listed-winning Fastnet Rock (Danehill) mare Harlem River, she is a half-sister to the stakes-placed winner Lady Harlem (Sebring) and winners Vancouver River (Vancouver), Kipsbay (Capitalist), and Monolink (I Am Invincible). Brutal is standing at Newgate for a fee of $16,500 (inc GST).

King Of Light extends unbeaten record

King Of Light (3 g Earthlight - Queen's Parade by Dalghar), a son of Darley's former shuttler Earthlight (Shamardal), stretched his unbeaten run to four when taking out the Fairetha Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Ascot on Saturday. Ridden by William Pike for Dan Morton, the three-year-old gelding defeated Heeza Phoenix (Grunt) by 0.4 lengths with a further 0.6 lengths back to Rock Fest (Awesome Rock) in third.

Super Smink lands sixth stakes race in Lee Steere

Local trainer Dan Morton's day at Ascot got even better when one of his stable star's, Super Smink (5 m Super One - Sminky Shorts by Snitzel), registered a sixth career stakes success in the Lee Steere Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m). Ridden by Chris Parnham, the five-year-old mare scored a half-length win over stablemate In Good Order (American Pharaoh) with a further length back to Comfort Me (Playing God) in third.

Luckygray Stakes victory for Captain Pluto

The Grant and Alana Williams-trained Captain Pluto (6 g Savabeel - Miss Bernardini by Bernardini) doubled his stakes tally on Saturday when landing the Luckygray Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at Ascot. Providing William Pike with a stakes-race double on the card, the six-year-old gelding beat Memory Parade (War Chant) by 1.1 lengths. There was a further 0.8 lengths back to Red Sun Sensation (Awesome Rock) in third.

New Zealand

18 for Written Tycoon

Yulong Stud stalwart Written Tycoon (Iglesia) chalked up his 18th individual Group 1 winner when the Stephen Marsh-trained Well Written (3 f ex Mozzie Monster by Sebring) took out Saturday's New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Riccarton. Well Written started life in Victoria at Lemrac Lodge and was the result of a foal share mating between Written Tycoon shareholder Sheriff Iskander and Victorian breeder David Digney. She was sold as a weanling at the Inglis Great Southern in the Lemrac Lodge draft and bought by Foxhill Thoroughbreds for $32,500 and is the first foal out of the stakes-placed Sebring (More Than Ready) mare Mozzie Monster, herself a daughter of Group 3 winner Valentine Miss (Danetime). Mozzie Monster has no yearling for the sales this year, but has foaled this spring producing a colt by Nicconi (Bianconi). Written Tycoon is standing at Yulong for a private fee.

Four for Santos

Platinum Attack (5 g ex Conchita by Uncle Mo) became the fourth individual stakes winner for Highview Stud stallion Santos (I Am Invincible) when scoring in Saturday's Pegasus Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Riccarton. Ridden by Craig Grylls for Lisa Latta, the gelded five-year-old proved two lengths too strong for Azeezle (Exceed And Excel) with a further 1.8 lengths back to Texas Dolly (Ace High) in third. "He struck that many wet tracks last year and all we have ever needed is a decent track that he got today," Latta said. "He's pretty smart and I think he is up to winning a Group 1. He will back up next Saturday [in the Stewards Stakes] and we will definitely be looking at the Group 1s later in the year." Bred by Aquis Farm, G1G Racing & Breeding and Fly Horse, Platinum Attack was purchased by owners Neville McAlister and Lincoln Farms Bloodstock for $37,000 at the 2021 Magic Millions Gold Coast Weanling Sale. Out of the winning Uncle Mo (Indian Charlie) mare Conchita, he is a half-brother to winner Conchiero (Pierata). Santos is standing for a fee of NZ$8,000 (plus GST).

21 for Zed

Late Grangewilliam Stud stallion Zed (Zabeel) was provided with his 21st individual stakes winner on Saturday when Just Charlie (6 g ex Goody Two Shoes by Danasinga) scored in the Metropolitan Trophy (Listed, 2600m) at Riccarton. The Kevin Myers-trained gelding ran out a 0.8 length winner over Titicaca (Tarzino) under Logan Bates, with a further 2.5 lengths back to the third-placed Noble Knight (Ghibellines). Out of the unraced Danasinga (Danehill) mare Goody Two Shoes, Just Charlie is a half-brother to the stakes-placed winner Zanotti (Strategic Image) and two other winners. Zed died last year.

Captured By Love shows class in Canterbury Breeders'

Last year's New Zealand 1,000 Guineas heroine Captured By Love (4 m Written Tycoon - Moldova by Snitzel) notched her first victory since that success when proving a class above her rivals in Saturday's Canterbury Breeders'

Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Riccarton. Ridden by Bruno Queiroz for Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson, the four-year-old mare defeated The Radiant One (Darci Brahma) by two lengths with a further 0.3 lengths back to Candycane (Pins) in third. "It's fantastic to see her back like that," Bergerson said. "She was obviously a 1,000 Guineas winner here last spring. She's had a bit of a rough time since then and hasn't always had the rub of the green. We took a bit of a risk deciding to bring her back down here again, but she's an experienced traveller now and she just handled it so well. The change of scenery has done her good. She did it tough today. The plan was to be positive from the wide gate. Bruno wasn't able to get cover, but he had her travelling really well and then presented her at the top of the straight. I thought she was there to be beaten with 200 metres to go, but she kept finding and won really well. She's a Group 1 winner, and now that we've got her back in winning form, we can hopefully target some nice races through the summer."

153 for Savabeel

Waikato Stud stallion Savabeel (Zabeel) chalked up his 153rd individual stakes winner when Force Of Nature (5 g ex Elusive Nature by O'Reilly) scored in Saturday's Legacy Lodge Sprint (Listed, 1200m) at Pukekohe. The Andrew Forsman-trained gelding made it six wins from just 11 starts as he defeated Jaarffi (Iffraaj) by 0.1 lengths, with the same distance back to the third-placed Moving Melody (Deep Field) in a tight finish. "I thought he might be a little vulnerable late as it has been quite a while since he has had a run, so credit to the team at home to have him right," Forsman said. "It was a very game effort and he is a talented horse, so hopefully he can come through this well and we can press on. We haven't plotted out a path beyond today as this was the race we wanted to have him spot on for. He is now a stakes winner which is important for Tony [Rider, owner] as he is breeding from the family, so it's a massive result. It is a good feather in his cap so hopefully he can go on with it." Out of the unraced O'Reilly (Last Tycoon) mare Elusive Nature, Force Of Nature is a brother to fellow Listed winner Shezzacatch. Savabeel is standing for an unchanged fee of NZ$100,000 (plus GST).

Kneebone collects first training success at Pukekohe

Speed Demon

RACE IMAGES

Cambridge-based Nick Kneebone tasted his first success in the training ranks when two-year-old gelding Speed Demon (Yes Yes Yes) caused a minor upset at Pukekohe. Most attention before the start was centred around the Stephen Marsh runners Rupeni (Home Affairs) and well-backed debutant Perfect Pour (Dundeeel), who headed the market after some impressive raceday and trial form respectively. In contrast, Speed Demon was allowed to drift out to $21 for the 1100-metre contest despite having finished off nicely for fourth on debut at Ellerslie behind stylish winner Harvey Wallbanger (Home Affairs) and he made a mockery of that price as he drew clear to win nicely by just over a length from Justin Case (Banquo), who battled on strongly and the late closer Miss Perna (Satono Aladdin). "That was really good and I'm just stoked he won like that," Kneebone said. "He finished really nicely last time and I thought this long straight would suit him, and clearly it did. My first thought is that he will come back here in two weeks for the Counties Challenge Stakes. He just improved so much off that first-up run and he has put away quite a good field today."

Four for Bricks And Mortar

Diamond Knot (2 c ex Endless Knot by Deep Impact) became the fourth individual stakes winner for Bricks And Mortar (Giant's Causeway) when running out an easy winner of Saturday's Keio Hai Nisai Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Tokyo. Ridden by Christophe Lemaire for Yuichi Fukunaga, the juvenile colt beat Fukuchan Sho (Isla Bonita) by three lengths with a further neck back to Towani (Leontes) in third. Out of the winning Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) mare Endless Knot, Diamond Knot is a half-brother to the Group 3-placed winner Sonnig (Lovely Day) and two other winners. Bricks And Mortar stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season at Shadai Stallion Station for a fee of ¥4,000,000 (approx. AU$40,130).

Four for Bay Bridge

Bay City Roller (3 c ex Bloomfield by Teofilo) became the fourth individual Group 1 winner for Ballylinch Stud stallion New Bay (Dubawi) when running out a resounding scorer of the Grosser Preis von Bayern (Gr 1, 2400m) at Munich on Saturday. Ridden by Adrie de Vries for George Scott, who was enjoying his maiden winner at the elite-level as a trainer, the three-year-old colt kicked clear inside the final two furlongs before staying on strongly to beat Tiffany (Farhh) by seven lengths. There was a further four lengths back to Rashford (Zarak) in third place. Bred by John Connaughton, Bay City Roller was purchased by Clive Washbourn, JS Bloodstock and his trainer for €320,000 during Book 1 of the 2023 Goffs Orby Yearling Sale and races in the silks of Victorious Forever. A half-brother to the stakes-placed winner Botanical (Lope De Vega), he is out of the Listed-winning mare Bloomfield (Teofilo), herself closely related to Group 3 winner Prima Luce (Galileo). New Bay stood the 2025 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of €75,000 (approx. AU$133,650).

UK: Spycatcher defies penalty to land Wentworth Stakes

The Karl Burke-trained Spycatcher (7 g Vadamos - Damask by Red Clubs) defied a 5lb penalty in Saturday's Wentworth Stakes (Listed, 6f) to record an impressive success. Relishing the soft underfoot conditions, the seven-year-old gelding backed up an easy Group 3 success in France on his previous start with another dominant two and three-quarter lengths victory over Zoum Zoum (Zoustar). There was a further half-length back to Magic Basma (Expert Eye) in third.

UK: Danielle runs rivals ragged in Gillies Fillies'

The John and Thady Gosden-trained Danielle (4 f Cracksman - Crimson Ribbon by Lemon Drop Kid) proved in a different league to her 17 rivals in Saturday's Gillies Fillies' Stakes (Listed, 1m 4f) at Doncaster, running out a nine-length winner of the Listed contest. Having finished second behind Estrange (Night Of Thunder) in the corresponding race the previous season, the daughter of Cracksman (Frankel) had no trouble in going one better this time around as she powered to the line to beat Elwateen (Dubawi) under rider James Doyle. There was a further length and three-quarters back to Bosphorus Rose (Golden Horn) in third.

Seven for Phoenix Of Spain

Aviatrice (3 f ex Virtudes by Invincible Spirit) became the seventh individual stakes winner for Irish National Stud stallion Phoenix Of Spain (Lope De Vega) when landing the Cooley Fillies Stakes (Listed, 1m) at Dundalk on Friday. Ridden by Luke McAteer for David Marnane, the three-year-old filly kept on well for a length success over Jancis (Tamayuz) with a further nose back to Naomi Lapaglia (Awtaad) in third. Bred by Nanallac Stud, Aviatrice was purchased by her owners MRC International for €17,000 during Book 2 of the 2023 Goffs Orby Yearling Sale and she is entered in next month's Tattersalls December Mares Sale. She is the second foal out of the winning Invincible Spirit (Green Desert) mare Virtudes, herself a half-sister to the useful Group 2-placed winner Relentless Voyager (Ulysses). Phoenix Of Spain will stand the 2026 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of €12,500 (approx. AU$22,280).

Well Written stuns in 1,000 Guineas runaway win

By NZ Racing Desk

Stephen Marsh had to wait until the 24th season of his career to win his first New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), but an emerging superstar gave the Cambridge-based trainer his missing piece at Riccarton on Saturday with a performance that was worth every moment of that wait.

Well Written (Written Tycoon) joined Legarto (Proisir) (2022) and Seachange (Cape Cross) (2005) as only the third unbeaten winner of the 1,000 Guineas in the last 20 years, and her three scintillating victories have come by a combined margin of more than 12 lengths.

It has been a dizzying rise to the top of the three-year-old crop for Well Written, who began her career with a three-length debut victory over 1200 metres at Ellerslie on September 20. She then stepped into stakes company for the Soliloquy Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at the same venue on October 18 and blew her rivals away by 6.8 lengths.

Those two breathtaking performances made Well Written one of the highest-profile runners of the entire New Zealand Cup Carnival in Christchurch this year, and she jumped as a red-hot favourite for Saturday's 1,000 Guineas at $1.50.

In the end, the only nerves she provided for her connections and supporters came before the race even started. She got stirred up behind the gates and kicked and reared and had to be loaded into the starting gates riderless.

IT WAS PRETTY SPECIAL. IT'S THE FIRST 1,000 GUINEAS WE'VE WON, AND SHE'S JUST A SPECIAL FILLY. SHE'S GOT THAT BIT OF FREAKISHNESS ABOUT HER
STEPHEN MARSH

Well Written

RACE IMAGES

But from that point on, the race could hardly have gone better. Well Written was given a perfect run by regular rider Matt Cartwright and settled in fourth on the outside of Cream Tart (Hello Youmzain) as Cool Aza Rene (Cool Aza Beel) and Origin Of Love (Snitzel) set a moderate pace out in front.

The Te Akau Racing pair still led the field rounding the turn into the home straight, but Well Written cruised up alongside them without Cartwright having to make a move.

When Cartwright finally pushed the button, the race was immediately over as a contest. Well Written exploded away with a turn of foot that stamped her as one of New Zealand racing's most exciting prospects.

Cartwright began to ease Well Written down in the final 50 metres, then stood up in the saddle in a celebratory salute as the favourite crossed the finish line 2.5 lengths in front of Lollapalooza (El Roca) with Belle Cheval (Savabeel) a further 1.5 lengths away in third.

"There's a lot of relief," Marsh said. "I was nervous today with the expectations there, and it wasn't good for the heart when she wouldn't load.

"But I'd just told Matt to ride her like the best horse and don't panic. I wanted him to pretend it's just another race, put her there and put her to sleep. I was happy when he didn't peel off at the top of the straight. He just sat in the slipstream for a bit longer and then came out.

"From that point on, it was something else to watch. It was pretty special. It's the first 1,000 Guineas we've won, and she's just a special filly. She's got that bit of freakishness about her. It's exciting to have horses like that in your stable and makes the job so much easier."

Marsh and his bloodstock agent Dylan Johnson paid a sale-topping $80,000 to buy Well Written from Brighthill Farm's draft in the 2024 NZB National Online Yearling Sale on Gavelhouse Plus. Her flawless three-start, three-win career has now earned $462,875 in prize-money.

Marsh's large syndicate of owners that originally raced Well Written all sold down their share after the Soliloquy Stakes, with major international player Yulong Investments coming into the ownership. Saturday's blistering performance came carrying their familiar emerald green and white colours.

"This is a great result for the Yulong team, we're delighted to have them involved, and it's also great for all of our previous owners that sold down – a lot of them are here today," Marsh said. "I want to make mention of a special lady, Jane Henderson, an owner who's very sick and had to late-scratch from coming down here today. I hope this is a real tonic for her, and we're all thinking of her."

Well Written became the second elite-level winner for Cartwright, who won last season's Tarzino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m) aboard Grail Seeker (Iffraaj).

"She's a very, very good horse," the winning rider said. "The only concern she gave me was when she got a bit hot behind the gates, but as soon as they opened, she knew the job was on. She travelled beautifully. I tried to count to ten in the straight before letting her go, but I probably only got to six.

"Gee, she's exciting. She was a bit green out in front, she was going that fast that her legs couldn't really keep up. I don't know where her ceiling is, but she's one of the best horses I've sat on."

Well Written's victories in the Soliloquy Stakes and 1,000 Guineas have carried her to the top of the table in the NZB Filly of the Year Series with 20 points. Lollapalooza sits in second place with 16 points.

Saturday's big win was also a Bonus Eligible race for the NZB Kiwi (1500m), meaning Well Written could compete for the $1 million bonus

VERDICT Plenty of these arrive with something to prove but PERFECT PEACH remains attractively weighted following a C&D success in September and is taken to strike once again. ONLY U has been holding his form nicely and deserves consideration, while Celestial Harmony shaped with more encouragement last time and could be a danger if taking another step forward.

BETTING FORECAST: Also Eligible: 15, 16.

VERDICT Having made up plenty of late ground on his only start to date over 7f, this longer trip should see GLORIASTAR get off the mark at the expense of Inno Super, who did well to get so close from a wide draw last time and now has blinkers fitted and Zac Purton booked. Both The Auspicious and Happy Universe are in excellent heart at present and should again give their supporters a good run for their money.

• BIGTIME GENERATION possible 2lb overweight

BETTING FORECAST: Also Eligible: 13, 14. Possible overweight: Bigtime Generation 2lb.

VERDICT There are a number of promising newcomers in a race which should produce a winner worth following. TAOGETHER may ultimately need a little further but he still merits selection after a recent trial success, while Eternal Richness is another good prospect and was narrowly beaten in his latest trial. Of the more experienced runners, Infinite Resolve has been knocking at the door and may give Taogether most to do while Matters Most will be dangerous if allowed to get loose on the lead.

VERDICT YOUNG BRAVO , who might well have challenged Strattpfeffer had he not been short of room inside the final furlong over C&D last month and now sports first-time cheekpieces. Mount Everest has been off since May but made a promising start to his career over 6f and looks interesting on this first attempt at 7f. Zac Purton's mount Better And Better is also likely to feature.

VERDICT Several of these are in each-way calculations but for win purposes it's difficult to see beyond LITTLE PARADISE , who moved up in trip after an impressive 6f course win on his seasonal debut and probably still has considerable potential. Anode showed significant improvement on his two starts last month and may fare best of the others. Tin Fook , The Boom Box and Lucky Sam Gor are also worth a look.
