Douglas chasing Top Reward in Sandown Guineas

By Tayla Dyke

Fresh off Giga Kick's (Scissor Kick) exhilarating Champions Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) victory, Clayton Douglas will look to extend his stable's spring momentum at Caulfield on Saturday when emerging colt Top Reward (Shamus Award) takes an ambitious step into the Sandown Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) at just his second career start.

The son of Shamus Award (Snitzel) made an immediate impression on debut at Mornington on October 23, easing down to score by 1.5 lengths and signalling his readiness for a rapid rise through the grades.

"He is a really nice colt," Douglas told ANZ News. "He's got nice qualities about him. He did everything right his first start and he is a horse I have always had a bit of time for."

Raced in Douglas' Turquoise and Royal Blue colours, the Trilogy Racing-bred colt was a $300,000 purchase for Top Pick Bloodstock from Blue Gum Farm at the 2024 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

“We paid a bit of money for him out of the Magic Millions and he had plenty of educational trials leading into his first run and put himself on speed and was obviously too good for maiden company first up.

“It’s a big jump in class, going from a maiden, then second start to the Sandown Guineas. But he’s a nice colt, does everything right, has a great attitude, and he’s shown me nice ability. The aggressive placement, I wouldn’t normally do it, but he’s a horse who has got a bright future.”

Top Reward has always shown Douglas the attributes of a colt capable of stretching out in trip.

“He’s quite a big horse. He’s by Shamus Award and he’s a really big, clean-winded horse. Hence why we kicked him off at the 1500 metres first up, and even the little extended trip out to the mile should even suit him better, and I think once he gets to 2000 metres, he’ll be better again.

“If we had him up going a bit earlier, he could have been a bit of a Derby-type, but just took a little bit longer than normal and hopefully at the back end of the carnival he can be performing well.”

Owned by the Happy Group, the colt is destined to continue his career offshore.

“He will end up in Hong Kong. Whether it’s after this campaign or next, we’ll work that out between the team. Top Pick are Hong Kong clients of mine that we have been able to get a few over there in the last few years and they’ve performed well and this guy, he’s obviously another nice addition to their team and hopefully he can do well over there.

“It’s exciting, hopefully he can perform well in the Guineas tomorrow and we can get a good result with him.”

Top Reward will have to topple short-priced favourite Sheza Alibi (Saxon Warrior), who arrives with strong form having won her first two starts in Queensland with Kris Hansen before finishing runner-up in the Tattersalls Stakes (Listed, 1400m) behind eventual Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Autumn Boy (The Autumn Sun)

Since transferred to the Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman stable this spring, the filly has shown her talent, finishing a solid third in the Gothic Stakes (Listed, 1200m), before posting a dominant win in the Vanity Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) last start.

But Douglas believes his lightly raced colt has the class to measure up, aided by barrier seven and the booking of Luke Currie.

"I think [barrier seven] is good. He'll bowl forward from that gate. He races fairly handy on the speed and there doesn't look to be a lot of speed on paper. You'd anticipate the favourite should get the sweet run in the box seat and whether we're outside it or a pair closer, we'll work that out in the run. But he's a fairly brilliant beginner, puts himself on speed, so barrier 7 shouldn't be a problem for him.

"He can definitely feature in the finish. It's probably just his lack of experience at that top level that might see him out a little bit tomorrow, but in saying that, he's got nice ability, good clean winded horse, the step up to the mile will pose no problem and I'm sure he'll run well."

Douglas will also saddle two additional runners on the Caulfield program.

Tiger Shark, the Rich Enuff (Written Tycoon) mare who has contested strong races throughout the spring, including the Premiere Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) behind Briasa (Smart Missile) and the McEwen Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), and now drops back in class for the Village Stakes (Listed, 1100m). Her most recent win came two starts ago over the same course and distance.

"She's had quite a number of runs and I thought I'd give her a try twice at 1200 metres her last two runs and it hasn't worked out," Douglas said.

"She's the winner at Caulfield over the 1100 metres and she comes back to the 1100 with a bit of a space between runs. Little gear change from Barrier 1, will see a vast improvement in her. It's probably as easy a race as she's seen for a while, so if she can run up to a Concorde run, even her win where she beat Oak Hill, she'll be more than competitive."

Perilous Fighter (Starspangledbanner) lines up in the opener, and Douglas is confident the Rosemont Stud-owned gelding is trending the right way after running second at Morphetville last start.

"I think he'd be hard enough to beat. He's a big price, but he's going really well. I have probably been chasing my tail a little bit with him, fitness wise, so I think we probably started to see the best of him last start in Adelaide, where he ran a nice second.

"Fourth up he's got a really good record, so I think he'll run well, he just needs to get the right run. He can be a horse that can be a bit aggressive, and if he switches off early he will be in the finish, so hopefully we see that tomorrow. After the claim he gets in okay at the weights. But he's coming back from 82 grade, so he drops a couple of classes, so that'll definitely help his chances."

Meanwhile, Douglas is thrilled to have stable star Giga Kick back to Group 1-winning form.

"It was great to see him back to his best. Obviously, he's had a really good start to the spring carnival, being able to win the Scillaci and then going on to win the Champions Sprint last week. It's really good to have him back. He obviously hasn't won a race for a while, but to win two in a row, it's been awesome."

After some talk about a possible Perth campaign, it was confirmed on Friday that Giga Kick will be sent for a spell and prepared for the Black Caviar Lightning (Gr 1, 1000m) in February.

Morning Briefing

Brown bidding to break Group 1 tally for season

Ethan Brown is hoping he can land his first Group 1 of the season on Saturday when he partners Jimmysstar (Per Incanto) in the C F Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield. The Ciaron Maher-trained gelding ran third in The Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) behind superstar Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress) before then scoring a dominant win in the $3 million Russell Balding Stakes (1300m) last time out, and now returns to Victoria for the first time this campaign as he steps back up in grade. "It's been a good spring, the bigger wins were definitely in Sydney but you just go where the good horses are and the opportunity is," Brown, a winner of nine Group 1 races, said. "I've had a lot of good backing this spring through Ciaron Maher and Ozzie and Johnny and plenty of other owners and I've made the most of that. He's [Jimmysstar] cemented himself as a proper weight-for-age horse I think and that's been evident in his form. He had to take that step, but he's certainly done that. I jumped on him Monday, he worked really well, he's drawn a nice gate [three] and there's no reason why he's not going to show up again. He's had a big prep but there's still a horse there and still the best of him I believe. He's flying."

Sheza Alibi aiming to justify Guineas favouritism

The Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman-trained Sheza Alibi (Saxon Warrior) will bid to justify favouritism in Saturday's Sandown Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) at Caulfield. Having run out a 1.8 lengths winner of The Vanity (Gr 3, 1400m) last start, the daughter of Saxon Warrior (Deep Impact) is the $1.70 favourite for this weekend's Group 2 and Coleman is hoping the team can get another Guineas success on the board after sending out Ole Dancer (Ole Kirk) to win the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). "These fillies, you're just always looking to build on their pedigree, so this is a brilliant opportunity to try and do that with her," Coleman said. "I think, in the autumn, she's going to be probably a bit more furnished and a bit more mature and I certainly think that she'll be in some of those nice races over the autumn. The way she finished that race [The Vanity] off and how well she came through it gave us the idea that we might look at her at the mile. She's given us every indication that she's going to eat it up."

Strong Godolphin draft headlines Inglis November (Late) catalogue

A 12-strong Godolphin draft headlined by Group 2 winner Corniche (Fastnet Rock) and a three-in-one package featuring the half-sister to four-time Group 1 winner Hartnell (Authorized) are among the standout entries for the Inglis Digital November (Late) Online Sale, which is now open for bidding.

The Godolphin draft consists of nine racehorses and three race fillies. Alongside Corniche, the Godolphin draft also includes two-time winner Tarpaulin (Harry Angel) – who has been accepted to race at Caulfield on Saturday – as well as lightly raced fillies Charlecote Mill (Lonhro), Commedia (Brazen Beau) and Parfumier (Exceed And Excel).

Moonquake (Medaglia D'Oro) is a high-class three-in-one entry in the broodmares section of the catalogue. Moonquake is a half-sister to Hartnell and is offered in foal to Shinzo (Snitzel) and with a Maurice (Screen Hero) colt foal at foot.

Also on offer is a share in emerging young stallion Cool Aza Beel (Savabeel). The Newhaven Park-based sire has made a promising start with his first runners, with his first crop including Group 1-winning juvenile Cool Archie and Group 3-winning filly Cool Aza Rene from less than 40 runners.

In total the November (Late) Sale has 253 lots – 138 racehorses (63 race fillies), 46 broodmares, 44 racehorse shares, 13 yearlings, six two-year-olds, five unraced stock and one stallion share.

The final countdown of bidding for the November (Late) Sale begins from 10am on Wednesday. To inspect the catalogue, arrange finance or to participate in the auction click here.

Hedged chasing redemption at Caulfield

Hedged

RACING PHOTOS

Having scored his latest victory back in June, 2024, the Gavin Bedggood-trained Hedged (Capitalist) will bid to get back into the winner's enclosure on Saturday when he heads to Caulfield for the $175,000 Village Stakes (Listed, 1100m). The five-year-old gelding was an unlucky sixth in the Rising Fast Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Flemington a fortnight ago, and Bedggood is hoping for more luck this weekend. "I just hope he doesn't end up in an awkward spot with nowhere to go like he did last time out," Bedggood said. "He lost all his momentum and by the time he got out the bird had flown, but he was really good through the line. If he wasn't going to win there, he definitely runs second with even luck, so he should be hard to beat this weekend. He's come on from those runs and back around a corner he should get a good run from the gate [two]." As for options following Saturday's contest, Bedggood said: "You've got seven days into The Meteorite or you've got a fortnight into another stakes race here and he's also a Magic Millions horse, so that might be an option later on."

Roll On High gets another Group 3 chance

Roll On High (Shamus Award) will get another crack at landing a Group 3 on Saturday when the Lindsay Park-trained runner takes on the Summoned Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Caulfield. This weekend's $200,000 contest will arrive just 11 days on from Roll On High's narrow runner-up finish in the Hong Kong Jockey Club Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington and while co-trainer Ben Hayes admitted it may not have originally been the plan, the Summoned looked a good option for the five-year-old mare. "We were originally not going to head to this race, but we looked at the noms and thought it was very suitable," Hayes, who trains in partnership with his brothers JD and Will, said. "She's come through the last run excellent. She ran some of the fastest splits of the meeting, but still got beaten, and I think this is a good opportunity to get another stakes win." Hayes conceded that the 1600-metre trip is a query for Roll On High, with the mare having run fourth on her only previous try at the distance. "It's a big question mark, but she hasn't been tried out to that trip very much and the way she hit the line the other day, you'd suggest a mile would be no problems," he said.

The Beauford task for resilient Hueter

Should nine-year-old gelding Hueter (Archipenko) land Saturday's The Beauford (2300m) at Newcastle, it would prove a remarkable training feat from Peter Snowden and also be something of a miracle for the horse himself. The son of Archipenko (Kingmambo) has twice suffered career-threatening setbacks, the first a serious eye infection in 2022 which required two sessions of delicate surgery, with the other being a tendon laceration incurred in last year's Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m). "He got galloped on in the Caulfield Cup last year near the 1800-metre mark, really badly," Snowden said. "When he came back in, we saw all this blood down his leg and to see the tendon, it was a horrible sight. The vet said, 'we'll save him, but he will never race again'. He has been through the wars, but he keeps coming back." In his first three runs this season, Hueter had finished no further forward than 12th and Snowden gave him one last chance to show some spark in the Rosehill Gold Cup (2000m) - where he ran a solid fourth. "That was his last chance. I said to the owners, 'if he doesn't do something today, I don't want to keep sending him around finishing where he is. I'll look after him. Give him to me and I'll look after him forever'," Snowden said. "Low and behold, he bounced out and did what he did. It's not the perfect race for him but I'm keen to run him because his work is great and he's going well."

Schofield keeping it in the family with Coal Crusher

Jockey Chad Schofield is looking forward to getting aboard Coal Crusher (Turffontein) in Saturday's The Hunter (1300m) at Newcastle, off the back of a win in the Champions Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) onboard Ceolwulf (Tavistock). The eight-year-old gelding, who is trained by Ceolwulf's handler Joe Pride, will bid to become the first dual winner of the $1 million race since its inception in 2019, having first captured it two years ago when ridden by Tyler Schiller. In what will be a full circle moment, Schofield's father Glyn also partnered Coal Crusher to six wins early in his career, while Chad Schofield is still chasing his first win aboard Coal Crusher at ride number nine. "Dad was riding him when he was a young horse coming through the grades," Chad Schofield said. "I think he had at least five or six wins for him. I haven't won on him yet, but we ran second in the Sydney Stakes and fourth the other day, so I know the horse well. He has obviously been set for The Hunter and he races very well at that track so hopefully he can run a peak race on the weekend. He was incredibly brave up the straight against the A-graders [when fourth in the Russell Balding] and he drops back in class. He is just a good, honest, old horse and he tries his best every start."

First Australian winner for Resolute

John Stewart's Resolute Racing silks were carried to victory for the first time in Australia when expensive filly Ernaux (I Am Invincible) produced a commanding display at Canterbury on Friday. Trained by Chris Waller, the daughter of I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) came out on top of the blanket finish, beating Pyrolysis by a nose. Ernaux is out of Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) winner Booker, a daughter of Written Tycoon (Iglesia) who was bought by Coolmore Tom Magnier for $1.6 million at the Inglis Chairman's Sale in 2020. Stewart emerged on to the Australian buying scene in 2024 and Ernaux was among his first group of purchases. She was purchased for an eye-watering $3 million from the Coolmore Stud draft at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, the headline act of six purchases for Stewart who splashed $5,440,000 at the Sydney Sale that year. The price tag makes Ernaux the most expensive yearling ever sold by Yarraman Park's marquee stallion, I Am Invincible.

Magic Millions appoint Geoghegan as digital sales co-ordinator

Magic Millions Digital has announced the appointment of Charlotte Geoghegan as the platform's digital sales co-ordinator. Geoghegan is well known to Magic Millions clients and the wider thoroughbred family after spending seven years with the Perth branch of the company. Her new appointment follows a stint with Perth Racing as she continued to expand her industry knowledge and experience. "Returning to Magic Millions, where my career began, is an incredible privilege," Geoghegan said. "Stepping into this new chapter alongside Bryce [Bevan] - who has already shown himself to be a steady and progressive leader - has created a real sense of unity and momentum. Together with this exceptional team, we're committed to building Magic Millions Digital into a best-in-class platform for the industry. This is an opportunity to help shape the next evolution of our digital footprint, bringing new ideas and meaningful innovation to the way we operate. I'm excited to contribute to a platform that not only supports our industry today but sets it up for long-term success."

New Zealand

Alottago leading southern charge in 2,000 Guineas

A batch of quality northerners have landed in Christchurch ahead of Saturday's New Zealand 2,000 Guineas at Riccarton, and local hope Alottago (Tagaloa) will lead the southern defence. The son of Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) has not put a foot wrong so far in his six-start career, placing in all three of his starts as a juvenile, including the Welcome Stakes (Listed, 1000m) and Champagne Stakes (Listed, 1200m), before returning as a three-year-old where he won his next two starts before finishing runner-up in last month's Barneswood Farm Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) behind Cool Aza Rene (Cool Aza Beel). Trainer Lance Robinson has been pleased with his progress since that run and is excited to test his talent against some highly credentialed northerners on Saturday. "It is good having him in a race like that, we are excited about it," Robinson said. "It is a step up, but all Group 1s

RACE IMAGES

Marsh chasing Group 1 clean sweep

A quartet of top-flight contenders on Saturday will give Stephen Marsh a decent shot at completing a memorable elite-level double at Riccarton.

The Cambridge trainer's hopes will rest on the dependable shoulders of Swiss Prince (El Roca) and his male counterpart Magic Carpet (Satono Aladdin) while fillies To Cap It All (Capitalist) and Little Black Dress (Snitzel) complete a quality attack.

They give Marsh every chance in the New Zealand 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) to complete a Classic clean sweep following Well Written's (Written Tycoon) demolition of her rivals in the New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) on the opening day of the carnival.

The unbeaten filly justified her short-priced favouritism in dazzling fashion and on Saturday it will be the current third market elect Swiss Prince ($5.50) who gets the nod as Marsh's top seed.

"He just keeps going ahead, every run he gets better and he's the ultimate professional," Marsh said. "He's done nothing wrong since his last start, and everything has just gone perfectly for him."

Magic Carpet ran sixth in the James And Annie Sarten Memorial (Gr 2, 1400m) and a better guide to the son of Satono Aladdin's (Deep Impact) chances was his previous victory in the Hawke's Bay Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m).

"It's a tighter track at Tauranga and he's come on really well since then, coming back left-handed over a mile on a big track will suit him," Marsh said. "Jonathan Riddell sticks with the ship and he can turn his form around. I think his last start was a forgive run."

To Cap It All booked her passage south when she finished runner-up to Swiss Prince in the Sarten and she has already made an impact at the top-level after her third placing in last season's Sistema Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m).

"It was a very good run last time and she's bounced out of it without a problem," Marsh said. "Hopefully, she can get some cover and she's got a really good turn of foot if she can be held up to give her every chance to get the mile at Riccarton."

Meanwhile, Little Black Dress was a distant second to Well Written in the Soliloquy Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) to confirm her place in the 1,000 Guineas, but her chances were gone at barrier rise last Saturday.

"I thought she would have been a good chance to get some of it, but nothing went right," Marsh said. "Her sectionals were good though and if there's a bit of rain around then it wouldn't worry her, she just needs to jump well to give herself every chance."

are hard to win. I am happy with him, he has done everything right, so we will find out how good we are. He just keeps stepping up all the time. The more we give him the better he gets. As long as he keeps on going that way I think he has got the makings of a very good horse."

Pike chasing dual Island stakes success

Cambridge trainer Tony Pike will be chasing stakes success at both ends of the country on Saturday, with Agera leading his northern charge at Tauranga. The six-year-old son of Complacent (Authorized) has been in a purple patch of form of late, winning five of his last seven starts, including last month's Matamata Cup (Listed, 1600m). He went on to win the Feilding Cup (2050m) at Tauherenikau and will now get the opportunity to shoot for further stakes success when he steps back to a mile in the Tauranga Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m). The Bay of Plenty feature wasn't initially on the cards for Agera, however, wet weather is luring Pike across the Kaimai Range to tackle the Group 2. "We probably didn't have this race on the radar but with the rain that came through the week, that is really going to suit him come Saturday," Pike said. "He is obviously stepping up to weight-for-age company, but outside of Ladies Man it is probably not the strongest weight-for-age race. I thought he deserved his chance, he has drawn well [barrier three], and the form that he is in he should be a genuine each way chance again." Following Saturday, Agera's main aim will be the Taupo Cup (2000m) where he will be chasing the $50,000 winner takes all bonus up for grabs in the inaugural Prezzy Card Northern Country Cups Bonus Series. "We are just trying to get him to the Taupo Cup," Pike said. "He is well ahead in the Country Cups series and just needs to run in the Taupo Cup at this stage to win that. We will look to give him one more mile post Saturday's race as a lead-up to the Taupo Cup on December 28."

Cup hope bred to go the ultimate trip

Well-related stayer Notabads spillane (Time Test) is on a mission to take care of unfinished family business at Riccarton on Saturday. The New Zealand Cup (Gr 3, 3200m) has long been top of Shaun Phelan's wish list and the Cambridge trainer has enjoyed a trouble-free preparation with the five-year-old son of Time Test (Dubawi). The Cambridge horseman's charge has been in strong form ahead of his long-term target and his pedigree instills further confidence. He is a half-brother to New Zealand's 2022-23 Champion Stayer and dual Oaks winner Pennyweka (Satono Aladdin), with their dam the unraced Threepence. The Pentire (Be My Guest) mare is also a half-sister to the Auckland Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winner Titch (Lord Ballina), who finished runner-up in the 2010 New Zealand Cup with Notabads spillane in the right form to go one better. "There's a lot of stayers in his family and the two miles shouldn't be any problem for him," Phelan said. Notabads spillane claimed consecutive middle distance victories at Te Rapa before finishing fourth in a stop-start Waikato Cup Prelude (2400m) on the Hamilton course. "He won two in a row and then last start it was an unsuitably run race, they just walked in front and then sprinted," Phelan said. "Him and [race rival] Canheroc didn't pull up until the 800 [metres], so I was more than happy with the run."

HK: Ka Ying Rising continues march toward Hong Kong Sprint defence

Ka Ying Rising

HKJC

Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress) took another confident step towards the Hong Kong International Races (HKIR) as he dashed well clear of a batch of top-class operators in a barrier trial at Sha Tin on Friday. The world's top-rated sprinter broke well and ran keenly before surging down the 1200-metre dirt straight in a brisk 1m 10.19s under regular rider Zac Purton. The run provided a final tune-up before the Jockey Club Sprint (Gr 2, 1200m) at Sha Tin on November 23. It was a commanding display from the five-year-old, who has won 14 consecutive races. Ominously for rivals targeting his Hong Kong Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) crown on December 14, handler David Hayes believes Ka Ying Rising has improved since conquering The Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) in October. "It was an upper-class trial with some of Hong Kong's best horses and he did what he does," Hayes said. "A lot of horses ... who have had these international trips come back better if they've handled it well. I think he has, and I'm actually confident that the trip has brought him on, he's probably going ten per cent keen," the 42-year-old said. "He trialled well, so that'll take the stuffing out of him a little bit and he can relax now until race day."

HK: King aims to reign supreme in International Jockeys' Championship

Having made history by becoming the first female jockey to ride a Group 1 winner in Japan, Rachel King hopes for another notable achievement in 2025 when she represents Australia in the International Jockeys' Championship (IJC) at Happy Valley on December 10. British-born King is back for her third crack at the lucrative championship after finishing third on debut in 2023 and joins Great Britain's Hollie Doyle as the women who will pit their skills against seven other international jockeys and three representing Hong Kong. "It's very exciting to be coming back," King said. "Obviously, since the first year I came [to Hong Kong] it's something that I want to get my name on the list every year and I'm very honoured to be asked to come back again." King said she felt lucky to ride a winner, Oversubscribed (Reward For Effort), in her first year, when she finished third overall to local riders Vincent Ho and Zac Purton, who look set to lead Hong Kong's three-pronged attack again. After finishing with zero points last year, King said she was keen to return and attempt to secure a few winners. She also plans to remain for the Hong Kong International Races on Sunday, December 14 at Sha Tin, where she hopes to pick up some rides. "We always have the option to stay and normally I go back to Sydney, but I am going to try to stay and hopefully get a few rides on the Sunday," King said. "Mark Newnham will be my first contact because [I was] attached to him in Australia, so I'll be calling him first and see where we go from there."

BETTING FORECAST: Evens Georgian Sigma, 5 Super Dragon, 7 Ruby Thrive, 12 Light Years Glory, Salon S, 16 Elite Golf, Jolly Brilliant, 20 Turin Champions, 25 Cool Boy, Forever Fancy, 33 Star Elegance, Word Of Kindness, 50 Falcon Hunter, 66 Excellent Boy.

VERDICT Super Dragon ought to be capable of much better than he showed on his debut in July and will be feared if strong in the betting again but GEORGIAN SIGMA recovered from significant adversity to take second over C&D three weeks ago and is unlikely to remain a maiden for long. Ruby Thrive and Salon S are the two most appealing newcomers.

VERDICT This looks a wide-open event, with several holding realistic claims. COOL BLUE made a welcome return to form when narrowly denied over C&D last time and may be worth chasing to go one better. Ninja Derby has been in decent heart since returning from the season break, while Gold Tack remains on a workable mark and could throw down a late challenge.

VERDICT A few of these arrive with something to prove but FIREFOOT has been knocking loudly on the door this season and is taken to gain a deserved breakthrough. Sharpen Bright took a step back in the right direction last time and is now well treated, while Serangoon was unlucky on his return and could come on for that run.

VERDICT This looks a competitive contest with several lightly raced types open to improvement. Crimson Flash ended last season with a brace of 6f wins and can be dangerous if fully wound up, while Sparkling Fellow only just failed to land the spoils on his reappearance and should build on that effort. However, CASA OF HONOR was a close third over C&D last time and, with further progress to come, is taken to open his account.

BETTING FORECAST: 15-8 Oldtown, 5 Bling Bling Genius, 8 All Round Winner, The Golden Knight, Zetta Force, 10 Lahore, 12 California Deeply, 16 Aerovolan, Bucephalas, Winning Data, 25 Top Peak, 50 Come Fast Fay Fay, 66 Power Summit, Watch The Fort.

VERDICT This could be all about the stalls exit for THE GOLDEN KNIGHT, who did very well to overcome a very slow start and finish within 11 of the winner in third last time. Even a slightly quicker beginning should enable him to notch a first success at the fourth attempt. Back from a long absence, Bucephalas has been showing plenty of zip in recent trials and could be the biggest danger. Oldtown, Zetta Force and All Round Winner are also feared.

BETTING FORECAST: 3 Shanghai Style, 7-2 Mr Cool, 4 Supreme Agility, 10 Fashion Legend, 12 Happy Action, Luck Is Back, Night Purosangue, Special Hedge, Yoda's Choice, 16 California Star, 33 Sight Dreamer, 50 Young Brilliant, 66 Bright Mortar, 100 Fortune Kingo.

VERDICT Shanghai Style and Supreme Agility (preferred in that order) seem likely to be in the shake-up, while several of the others are also in good form. However, the suggestion is well-drawn topweight MR COOL, who began this season with two good efforts on turf and has won two dirt trials in recent weeks.

VERDICT He's drawn well today but progressive 4yo PATCH OF STARS had a bit left in the tank when scoring over C&D last month and is taken to overcome his latest 7lb rise. Aurora Lady has stall 13 to contend with but he's in good form and can feature under James McDonald. Aeris Nova needs a good pace to aim at over this trip but may appear late on the scene.

VERDICT Zac Purton evidently prefers newcomer Packing King today but the vote goes to AUTUMN VIBES, who did very well to make the frame from stall 11 at Happy Valley recently and benefits from a change of luck on the draw front. Emblazon and Prestige Hall are others to consider.

VERDICT Reliable Profit is not opposed lightly, having sauntered to a 1m11 dirt win in late October, but an interesting alternative to consider is KEMPES, who finished well to make the frame from wide stalls on both of starts this season and looks well worth another crack at 1m. Ariel is next on the list.

VERDICT Eleven of these clashed over C&D four weeks ago and six of those also crossed swords here three weeks earlier. POPE CODY, who finished second and the more recent in those two races, is progressively quickly enough that he can defy a career-high mark to score again, with the fitting c cheekpieces likely to help. Fortune Boy, Max Que and Beauty Bolt all finisher close to Pope Cody last time and could go well again but his biggest danger could come from the 12th home, Morgan Success, who was making his seasonal debut and could improve a good deal for the run.
