Watch Me Rock leads home fine Railway Stakes quinella for Team Williams

By Trevor Marshallsea

Watch Me Rock (Awesome Rock) raised his West Australian-based sire's first elite-level winner and gave jockey William Pike a huge decision to make on streaking to victory in the first top-tier feature of the Perth summer, the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m).

Pike steered the Grant and Alana Williams trained five-year-old gelding to a clear-cut victory in Saturday's time-honoured handicap - the jockey's first Group 1 success since he claimed four of them in 2021-22.

Forty minutes earlier he had ridden King Of Light (Earthlight) when the Dan Morton-trained three-year-old gelding won the WA Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m).

Pike will now have the choice of riding either horse in the $1.5 million Northerly Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m), also at Ascot on December 6.

Known for pulling the right rein in most situations, the Wizard of the West said the decision would likely give him "a few sleepless nights - but we'll worry about that when the time comes".

Price predicting bigger and better from Sabaj

Mick Price hailed the emerging Sabaj (Manhattan Rain) as a likely star of the autumn after the lightly raced four-year-old claimed his black type breakthrough with an imposing win in Saturday's Cranbourne Cup (Listed, 1600m). Starting a well-supported $3.30 favourite, Sabaj gave Price his fourth win in the race and jockey Beau Mertens his third winner for the day, after a well-judged ride helped the gelding to his fifth win from eight starts.

Bookmakers feel the choice is an easy one. After Saturday's meeting, King Of Light was wound into a $3 favourite for the Northerly, while Watch Me Rock is on the fourth line of betting at $8.

In any event, Watch Me Rock's Railway performance was full of merit as he brought a first Group 1 winner among six stakes victors for Gold Front Thoroughbred Breeding stallion Awesome Rock (Fastnet Rock).

Sent out a $3.30 favourite, Watch Me Rock was settled in the one-one spot by Pike, outside stablemate and $5.50 second-favourite Western Empire (Iffraaj), who won the race in 2021.

Pike presented Watch Me Rock on straightening and sent him to the lead at the 200 metres, and despite the hint of a threat from Western Empire to his inside, was largely untroubled in a 0.75 length victory.

Western Empire, who was ridden by Billy Egan after Pike chose Watch Me Rock, took second ahead of $61 bolter Sentimental Hero (Al Maher) for Peter Fernie.

The eastern states raiders fared poorly, with Chris Waller's Osipenko (Pierro) seventh at $11, Team Archibalds' Depth Of Character (Deep Field) 11th at $11, and Bjorn Baker's Iowna Merc (Winning Rupert) 13th at $21.

Watch Me Rock's victory, under 54 kilograms, was special for the husband and wife Williams team. While they'd won the Railway five times previously, those victories had been as private trainers for giant WA-based owner and breeder Bob Peters.

This was the couple's first elite-level triumph since becoming public trainers and, like Pike, their first since 2021-22, their last season before they split with Peters.

Asked how he rated his sixth Railway win, Grant Williams said: "I'm going to go out on a limb and say it's my best one, because we're public trainers now.

"We've had so much support over the last three years to get back to where we were. A lot of people thought, 'Without Peters, you're nobody' [but] we go good."

He added: "We won the Gold Rush, won Perth Cups, but we hadn't won a Group 1. We've won a Group 1 now."

Celebrating his stable's Railway quinella, Williams praised Pike for his ride, confessing he'd felt the jockey should have chosen to ride the seven-year-old Western Empire, the topweight with 58 kilograms.

“Pikey’s got it right again. I honestly thought he was on the wrong one,” Williams told Thoroughbred Central.

“It worked out better for the stable for him to ride Watch Me Rock. As much as we love Billy Egan, he couldn’t ride 54 kilos.”

Pike admitted he wondered if he’d made the right choice when Western Empire powered home along the rails.

“When he got a very nice passage through I thought, ‘Oh this isn’t good,” said Pike, adding he’d been pleasantly surprised by Watch Me Rock’s performance.

“I didn’t expect to be that close, and I didn’t expect to hit the front that soon. Credit to the horse, credit to the [Williams] team. They turn them out for big races like no one else can.”

Pike added he could breathe “a sigh of relief” after breaking his top-level drought with his 18th career Group 1 win.

“I suppose, at this stage of my career I judge myself on how I perform in the big races. It’s been a few years since I’ve won a Group 1. It’s hard to say you’re the best when you’re not winning Group 1s,” the 39-year-old said.

Watch Me Rock is among six stakes winners from 117 runners - at 5.1 per cent - for Awesome Rock, the 2016 VRC Mackinnon Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) hero who’s currently standing his ninth season at stud at Gold Front, for $7,975.

Passed in at the Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale of 2022, Watch Me Rock was retained by breeder Graham White of WA stud Ridgeport Farm, who races him with three co-owners.

The gelding is the first live foal out of What Choux Want (Jimmy Choux), who was Group 2 placed in New Zealand and is a half-sister to Belle Du Nord (Reliable Man) who won a Group 2 and was twice Group 1 placed, also east of the Tasman.

What Choux Want now has a yearling colt by Long Leaf (Fastnet Rock) and a filly foal by Maschino (Encosta De Lago).

King Of Light shines in WA Guineas

Exciting three-year-old King Of Light confirmed himself the latest star of the west as he remained unbeaten with a breathtaking win in Saturday’s WA Guineas at Ascot.

Sent out a raging $1.75 favourite in his fifth start, the Dan Morton-trained gelding had to show all his class to overcome some adversity early in the home straight to earn the victory.

Settling midfield on the fence under a strong tempo for William Pike from gate four of 13, King Of Light looked in danger of not gaining a run after the field turned for home.

But after squeezing through a narrow gap at the 200 metres, he tore after leader Heeza Phoenix (Grunt) and came away to score by 1.14 lengths.

Heeza Phoenix held on for second at $6.50 for Mitchell Pateman, ahead of Daniel and Ben Peace’s Rock Fest (Awesome Rock) at $4.

Bred by WA-based Impressive Racing from the first crop of former Darley shuttler Earthlight (Shamardal), King Of Light was a $120,000 buy at the Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale for Morton, and has become a headline act in Perth.

He didn’t debut until the last month of his two-year-old season, winning in metro class at Pinjarra, and following that up with another city win at Belmont.

Resuming as a three-year-old, he took the Belgravia Stakes (Listed, 1200m) by 0.19 lengths and the Fairetha Stakes (Listed, 1400m) by 0.37 lengths, before relishing the rise to 1600 metres for Saturday’s victory.

Morton was left to marvel at both horse and jockey after a Guineas win that shot King Of Light to the top of betting, at $3, for Ascot’s Northerly Stakes on December 6.

“When he was rolling back towards the fence I thought, ‘Jeez we’re gonna need some luck here,” Morton told Thoroughbred Central regarding those early moments in the home straight.

“But with Pikey on top, you just sort of back the fact that he’s going to find a way and he does.

“And the horse is very good. Obviously he’s got a big motor, but he’s got a laid-back

King Of Light

demeanour. He’s a beautiful horse to train. Five from five - not many do it, so there’s a lot of upside.

“He had a torrid time leading into the first-up run, but he is the real deal.”

Three-year-olds have a strong record in the WFA Northerly, winning six of the past 15 editions, and Morton essentially confirmed King Of Light would now head to the $1.5 million feature.

“It’s been in the back of my mind for a long time. Obviously everything’s got to go great ... but I think he’d be right amongst it,” Morton said.

Pike conceded he was worried aboard King Of Light on Saturday - both before the race and entering the home straight.

“I was quite concerned before the race. He was quite fired up for him. He’s normally the most casual horse you’d find, but today he was just a little bit agitated,” the winning jockey said.

“[Early in the straight] I was very concerned. All I wanted to do was follow Chris Parnham [on Rock Fest] but he didn’t find when he needed to and that left me in a very sticky situation.

“We had to think thin for a couple of those gaps, but I just love his attitude. He’s like, ‘Yep, can do.”

King Of Light is the fourth of five named foals for the winning and city-placed mare Queen’s Parade (Dalghar), who’s also had Perth city-winning brothers by Impending (Lonhro) in Changing Guard and King’s Parade.

Queen’s Parade, a half-sister to Newcastle Tibbie Stakes (Gr 3, 1350m) winner Spirit Bird (Savabeel), now has a yearling filly by Blue Point (Shamardal), and a filly foal by Pierata (Pierro).

A dual Group 1 winner at two, Earthlight has four black type victors worldwide from 148 runners, at 2.7 per cent, and awaits his first elite-level winner. Given he'll carry only 52 kilograms, many good judges will be betting on King Of Light to provide it in the Northerly.

Price predicting bigger and better from Sabaj

Mick Price hailed the emerging Sabaj (Manhattan Rain) as a likely star of the autumn after the lightly raced four-year-old claimed his black type breakthrough with an imposing win in Saturday's Cranbourne Cup (Listed, 1600m).

Starting a well-supported $3.30 favourite, Sabaj gave Price his fourth win in the race and jockey Beau Mertens his third winner for the day, after a well-judged ride helped the gelding to his fifth win from eight starts.

Jumping from gate 12 of 13, Sabaj settled quietly in third-last position off a solid tempo. Mertens started a lengthy run from the 600 metres, circling the field to stalk the leaders five wide around the turn, before Sabaj hit the lead at the 100 metres and came away to score by 0.75 lengths.

The Robbie Griffiths-trained Enxuto (Lean Mean Machine) also made strong ground from the rear to take second as a $6.50 third elect, just ahead of Ciaron Maher's Holymanz (Almanzor) at $16.

It was Sabaj's first black type win, following seconds at Morphettville last autumn in three-year-old Group 2 and Listed events, and Price feels the unfashionably bred miler can go on to bigger and better races after a spell.

He has a template to follow in the stable. Price - and co-trainer Michael Kent Jnr - took the Cranbourne Cup last year when Globe (Charm Spirit) also claimed his first stakes win. That gelding is now an elite-level winner, having taken last month's Might And Power (Gr 1, 2000m) at Caulfield.

"We've got the autumn in front of us here with this horse," said Price.

"This is sort of a brand new horse. He's perfectly sound, feet, knees, fetlocks lovely, he's lightly raced, good ability, clean winded. And I think if we look after him...

"I wouldn't say he's a tough horse - that's not how we treat him - but if we're gelling with him and we treat him right, we'll have a lovely horse in the autumn and we can chase a good race."

Price praised the training facilities at Cranbourne - his stable's home base - and said the key to Sabaj was his carefully tailored training regimen.

"[It's] probably his work and what he copes with," the trainer told Racing.com. "That's the difficult part of our training isn't it? When do you gel and when don't you?"

"I've trained enough losers to know I'm not gelling with many of them. But I feel some horses we gel with, and we've got his [Sabaj's] work right.

"We don't overdo him and he's clean-winded and we think he appreciates that way of doing things."

Price also paid credit to the in-form Mertens, whose Cup victory gave him seven winners from his past 14 rides.

"Sometimes the outside gates, when you want to ride them cold, are good," he said.

"It worked out well. There was just enough tempo, he balanced up nicely, relaxed nicely, finished off strongly.

"I did say [to Mertens], 'Be the deepest horse; don't follow anything into the race,' because I wasn't confident that the right horse was in the race where we would be.

"So I'm very happy. I would say we'll probably put him away now. He should have some sort of rating to have a nice horse in the autumn."

Mertens said the race had gone perfectly to plan, and echoed Price's assertion Sabaj was a top-class horse in the making.

"I don't think it could've worked out any better really from the gate we had," he said.

"I just let him travel naturally into a position he was comfortable in. We ended up on the back of Steparty in a three-wide line. I just got dragged enough into the race that I didn't have to do too much work, but when I popped him out, he just accelerated that quickly beneath me.

"He put the race to bed very quick. From the feel he gave me today he's a very very nice horse and he's only going to get better and better."

The homebred Sabaj is the second of three named foals for the unraced Bouzy (Uncle Mo), whose only other runner Topsy Vixen (Foxwedge) is a city winner in Adelaide.

The nine-year-old Bouzy, who hasn't had any offspring put through a sale, now has a yearling colt and a colt foal, both by Peltzer (So You Think).

Sabaj's win provided Manhattan Rain with his 21st individual stakes winner worldwide from 453 runners, at 4.6 per cent.

Jigsaw seals big-race double for Manhattan Rain at Cranbourne

West Australian-based stallion Manhattan Rain (Encosta De Lago) sealed a feature double on the other side of the country when the born-again Jigsaw won the second edition of Cranbourne slot race The Meteorite (1200m) on Saturday.

Geisel Park Stud will have been cheering loudly when emerging Manhattan Rain four-year-old Sabaj took the Cranbourne Cup at the eastern Melbourne track's feature day, but 40 minutes later they were seeing double when their stallion's seven-year-old son Jigsaw raised a hat-trick with a dominant all-the-way win in the $1 million Meteorite.

Ridden superbly by apprentice Logan Bates, $6 chance Jigsaw sped to the front from gate 11 of 14, withstood pressure to his outside from $6.50 shot Arkansaw Kid (Harry Angel), and powered home in the straight to score by 0.75 lengths.

Team Hayes's Arkansaw Kid took second, 1.25 lengths ahead of Zou Sensation (Zoustar), trained by Leon and Troy Corstens and Will Larkin, also at $6.50. The $3.60 favourite Hedged (Capitalist) over-raced and weakened to finish seventh.

For winning trainer Cindy Alderson, Jigsaw's effort - racing for slot holders the Moonee Valley Racing Club - stood as a triumph on a huge day for her family.

Four hours earlier had come the running of the inaugural race named after her retired trainer father Colin Alderson - not only a Group 1-winning conditioner but a man described as a Cranbourne "visionary" whose work behind the scenes helped lead to the building of the modern state-of-the-art training facility at the track.

With her father and former training partner in the stands, Cindy Alderson was overjoyed after Jigsaw continued a remarkable campaign with his Meteorite victory, the $455,000 first prize taking his earnings past $1.8 million.

"I can't really believe it to be honest," she told Racing.com.

"Especially with everybody around me today. My dad's here, my mum, my sister, her children - it's a real family affair. Logan's like family to me, he's been with us all along, and all my staff are like family, so it's a really special moment."

Jigsaw - bred by Alderson's mother Lynne - had shaped as something potentially special when he won nine of his first 21 starts. That included four in a row: the Apache Cat Classic (1000m) on Cranbourne Cup day in 2022, Listed sprints at Caulfield and Sandown, and Moonee Valley's Australia Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m).

But after adding Mornington's Hareeba Stakes (Listed, 1200m) in April 2023, the gelding appeared to lose his way, with 12 starts going by over two years capped only by just two third placings.

However, from the second start of this campaign, all that has changed.

Jigsaw scored his second Apache Cat Classic victory - as an $11 longshot in a field of seven. He then matched his finest black type success by taking Moonee Valley's McEwen Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), this time at $19, and showed those were no flukes with his Meteorite win on Saturday.

"It's not really anything I can put my finger on except for he did have a lovely spell and I think that really got him back in great shape," Alderson said when asked to explain the horse's improvement.

"He's just enjoying himself. He's got his confidence right up. He and Logan are a new combination and it's just absolutely amazing. It's such a thrill."

Bates has been aboard throughout this campaign, though unable to apply his two-kilogram claim in all three wins.

"For a boy who's got a claim still to be able to ride a race like that, when he's going to be the hunted leading like that - each time someone different has a go at him he handles it, and the horse handles it, and he just knows him so well," Alderson said.

Alderson is unlikely to be tempted to now run Jigsaw in Southside Racing's other $1 million slot race, the Supernova (1400m) at Pakenham on December 13, saying "we'll just stay in our wheelhouse". Jigsaw has raced five times beyond 1200 metres, failing to make the frame on each occasion.

Bates paid tribute to Alderson and her staff for how the revitalised Jigsaw has performed this campaign.

"He's just gone from strength to strength this prep," the apprentice said.

"All credit goes to Cindy and the staff. They've done an amazing job to give him that time to get over what he was doing last prep, to bring him back and have the confidence to keep him going.

"He was made to work early today, but I felt

Jigsaw

we still got it [the lead] soft enough. He holds an unbelievable gallop around a corner and that's where he breaks them open.

"To the horse's credit he just keeps digging and digging with that one charge. He pricked his ears coming home. He was pretty happy with it."

Jigsaw - and as of Saturday also Sabaj - are among three stakes winners for Manhattan Rain this season, the other being mare New York Lustre, who took the Begonia Belle Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Flemington on Derby day.

The 19-year-old stallion now has 21 stakes winners from 453 runners worldwide at 4.6 per cent, including three elite-level victors in Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) queen She Will Reign, Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) heroine Benagil, and South African star Whisky Baron.

Manhattan Rain is currently standing for $6,050 at Geisel Park, where he's covered 136 mares in the past three seasons since moving to WA

Five-time stakes winner Jigsaw is the third of four named foals for New Zealand-bred mare Demandz (Lonhro), a city winner on both sides of the Tasman, who was trained in Australia in partnership by Colin and Cindy Alderson.

Demandz's second foal Queen Adele (Adelaide) was Listed placed, also for Cindy Alderson.

Cindy and mother Lynne now have Demandz's yearling filly by Street Boss (Street Cry), and her filly foal by Cylinder (Exceed And Excel).

Morning Briefing

First for Awesome Rock

Awesome Rock

WESTERN RACEPIX

The Gold Front Thoroughbred Breeding and Racing resident Awesome Rock (Fastnet Rock) sired his first Group 1 winner when the Grant and Alana Williams-trained Watch Me Rock (5 g ex What Choux Want by Jimmy Choux) led home a quinella for the stable in Saturday's Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Ascot. The gelding is out of Listed-placed winner What Choux Want (Jimmy Choux), herself a daughter of Bankside Belle (Volksraad), who is also the dam of Group 2 winner Belle Du Nord (Reliable Man). Awesome Rock is standing for a fee of $7,975 (inc GST).

34 for Maurice

Arrowfield Stud sire Maurice (Screen Hero) sired his 34th individual stakes winner when Cosmic Crusader (5 g ex Cosmic Storm by Street Sense) took out Saturday's Carbine Club Of WA Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Ascot. Ridden by Clint Johnston-Porter for Michael Grantham, the gelding drew clear with an impressive turn-of-foot to win by 2.6 lengths over Aztec Ruler (Universal Ruler), with Asphalt (Maschino) a further 0.8 lengths behind in third. Bred and raced by Peters Investments, Cosmic Crusader is the first foal and only stakes winner out of Group 3-winning mare Cosmic Storm (Street Sense), herself a sister to Listed scorer Royal Command, and a half-sister to Group 1 winner Superstorm (Sebring) and Listed scorer Mikimoto (Sebring). Cosmic Crusader's second dam is Group 3 winner Stormy Nova (Metal Storm). Maurice stands for an unchanged fee of $55,000 (inc GST) this season.

21 for Domesday

In winning Saturday's AJ Scahill Cup (Listed, 2100m) at Ascot, the Grant and Alana Williams-trained Simply (5 g ex Canny Lassie by Canny Lad) handed Domesday (Red Ransom) his 21st individual stakes winner. Ridden by Fred Kersley, the gelding defeated his stablemate Captain Pluto (Savabeel) by 0.3 lengths with another 0.2 lengths back to Buckets Ridge (Pride Of Dubai) in third. Simply is out of Canny Lassie (Canny Lad), making him a brother to stakes winner Villeins, while he is a half-brother to Listed scorer Too Soon (Charge Forward). Canny Lassie is a half-sister to Listed-placed winner See A Victory (Mister C), the dam of Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) winner Daysee Doom (Domesday).

21 for Manhattan Rain

Geisel Park Stud sire Manhattan Rain (Encosta de Lago) sired his 21st individual stakes winner when Sabaj (4 g ex Bouzy, by Uncle Mo) took out Saturday's Cranbourne Cup (Listed, 1600m) for Mick Price, Michael Kent Jnr and Beau Mertens. Bred and raced by Ms A Rossi, Joe Piteo, Paul Piteo and Pat Hodby, the gelding is the second foal and only stakes winner out of the unraced mare Bouzy (Uncle Mo), herself a half-sister to Group 3 placegetter Pimm's Party (Street Boss). After starting his stud career in Victoria, Manhattan Rain now stands at Western Australia's Geisel Park Stud for $5,500 (inc GST).

Grid Girl continues hot form at Caulfield

New Zealand-bred mare Grid Girl (Time Test) added to unbeaten record as a five-year-old with a win in Saturday's $150,000 Rosemont Stud Fillies & Mares Pendant (1400m) at Cranbourne. Drawn gate six, Michael Dee planned to go forward but encountered an early setback when Grid Girl was slow from the gates. Dee pressed forward out wide, taking the lead after 400 metres and dominating the race to win by 0.75 lengths from Gumdrops (Written Tycoon). "The plan was to lead or be outside the leader, but she was mucking around a little bit in the barriers and unfortunately bombed the start," the winning rider said. "I didn't want to just concede and go back. I tried to make it as easy as possible for her to get across. We ended up doing a bit of work to get there, but she's very tough, very competitive and has that will to win. I felt her kick when she sensed another horse coming. I was happy that when we were to get to the front we were able to come back a pair and somewhat relax and get into a nice rhythm and then kick off the corner." The Ben, Will and JD Hayes-trained Grid Girl has now had 17 starts for five wins, five placings and $221,496 in prize-money.

Chest Of Gold back to best with Shooting Stars win

Julius Sandhu found redemption on Cranbourne Cup day when Chest Of Gold (Rich Enuff) returned to form with an all-the-way victory under Beau Martens in the $150,000 Shooting Stars (1500m). The gelding had disappointed as a short-priced favourite at the same track last month, finishing fifth, but he dictated the pace on Saturday to win by 0.15 lengths from Astral Flame (Overshare). "I stuffed it up last time," the winning trainer said. "I tried to get a little bit too cute with him and iron a few things out and it came unstuck. The horse got the worst of it and there were a few things labelled against his name after that, but he got back home and did things that he normally does - he ate well, he worked well. He got to this race and there was no disadvantage to be on the speed, and I said to Beau, 'keep him comfortable, let him roll as he needs a little bit of room to build momentum.' Beau has had more confidence in the horse than I had.

I knew he was okay early days, but Beau kept saying to me, 'he's good, he's got some talent, and we haven't seen the best of it yet and he's only going to get better with time.' So, it was a rewarding win for the horse and even more so for Beau to be on him when it happened."

Regal Lion lands The Lester

The Gavin Bedggood-trained Regal Lion (Jakkalberry) proved too good for his eight rivals in Saturday's The Lester (2025m) at Cranbourne. Previously a Ipswich Cup (Listed, 2150m) winner and New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) placegetter, Regal Lion headed into Saturday's Benchmark 84 after running sixth at Moonee Valley on October 3 and at Caulfield on October 15, winning the Mortlake Cup (2000m) on November 1 and finishing fourth in last Sunday's Moe Cup (2050m). The seven-year-old defeated Darknconfidential (Cosmic Force) by 0.5 lengths with The Storyteller (Roc De Cambes) another 0.3 lengths away in third. "I thought I had been too soft on him in between Mortlake and Moe," Bedggood said. "I watched him walk around the yard last week and he looked soft. I thought he should have run second and he blew out the last 100 metres. He's a good-doing horse, so the back-up didn't hold too many concerns. He had a little jump this morning, which we do quite often leading into a run. He was quiet coming in, had a good blood on Thursday and all the indicators were there for a good run. I thought he might have been a pair closer in the running, but I told Jamie [Mott] to ride him where he was going to travel. He won an Ipswich Cup in a similar fashion and he won a Mortlake Cup recently. He doesn't have a great change up speed, but if you throw the cat amongst the pigeons and if you get run down late, that's on me. I would rather you get going 100 yards too early than 100 yards too late and wait for other horses to get going."

Gringotts goes back-to-back in The Gong

Gringotts (Per Incanto) completed a successful defence of his title in Saturday's The Gong (1600m) at Kembla Grange to win a fifth race worth $1 million or more within the space of barely a year.

The Per Incanto (Street Cry) gelding's back-to-back victories in The Gong sit alongside his dual triumphs in the The Big Dance (1600m) at Randwick, plus the most prestigious victory of his career in the George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m) at Rosehill last March.

The Ciaran Maher-trained Gringotts has now had 25 starts for 12 wins, nine placings and more than $6.1 million in prize-money.

Saturday's second win in The Gong came courtesy of a daring ride from Nash Rawiller and a lion-hearted performance from Gringotts under 61 kilograms.

Persistent rain throughout the afternoon sent the Kembla Grange track down to a Heavy 8, and the majority of the field in The Gong came wide around the home turn in search of better ground.

But Rawiller saved ground and stayed closer to the inside, and Gringotts suddenly moved from midfield to be right in the firing line early in the run home.

Most of the action was down the outside of the straight, headed by second-favourite Estadio Mestalla (Galileo Gold) under 56 kilograms, but Gringotts refused to be denied. He kept finding, kept lifting, and clawed his way in front to win by just under a half-length.

"You've got to back your judgement," Rawiller said. "But when they all went outside so quickly, I thought, 'Oh my God, I've done the wrong thing here.'"

"But I was still confident that if I stayed patient, went through my gears and kept the horse building under me, that there'd be something there at the 100 metres. There really had to be.

"He's a warrior. He's such a good horse. I really loved that win. It was very thrilling."

Gringotts was bred by Totara Park Stud and is by Little Avondale Stud's outstanding sire Per Incanto out of the Savabeel (Zabeel) mare Miss Bluebell. Herself unraced, Miss Bluebell is a daughter of Operavega (Stravinsky), whose half-sister Vegas Showgirl (Al Akbar) was the dam of the multiple Group 1-winning champion Winx (Street Cry).

Miss Bluebell is the dam of two stakes performers from three foals to race. The other is Millefiori, a Listed-placed winning daughter of Iffraaj (Zafonic) Gringotts was offered by Archer Park in Book 1 of Karaka 2021, where Kasa Bloodstock bought him for $100,000. He was re-offered at the Ready to Run Sale later that year, but failed to meet his $450,000 reserve. He was subsequently sold privately after winning a trial at Waipa for Simon and Katrina Alexander.

Saturday's Counties Challenge Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Pukekohe. Trained by John Benner and ridden by Kelly Myers, the filly made it two wins from as many starts when easily defeating favourite Harvey Wallbanger (Home Affairs) by 1.8 lengths, with Spellbound (Per Incanto) a further 0.5 lengths behind in third. Bred by JML Bloodstock Ltd, the filly was a $16,000 buy for her trainer from Elsdon Park via the 2025 NZB National Online Yearling Sale. She is the fifth foal and only stakes winner out of winning Rip Van Winkle (Galileo) mare Regal Winks. Her second dam is the stakes-placed Regal Thrills (Royal Academy). A Banquo (Written Tycoon) yearling colt out of Regal Winks is set to be sold at the 2026 NZB Karaka Summer Sale, catalogued as Lot 860. Ardrossan stands at Waikato Stud for an unchanged fee of $20,000 this season.

De Armas set for Karaka Millions next

De Armas

RACE IMAGES

De Armas locked in her place in January's Karaka Millions 2YO (RL, 1200m) courtesy of her win in Saturday's Counties Challenge Stakes. "It's special in a lot of ways as it's been topsy turvy of late," winning trainer John Benner said. "I've been to the top of this industry and there has been a lot [of water] go under the bridge, so to have those loyal owners help me get back here means a lot. I needed some down time to process things, but the love of the horse never went anywhere." Benner has long held the youngster in high regard and doubled down on that opinion. "I think she is the best horse I have put a saddle on," he said. "I've said it to a few people, but I've tried to put a lid on it. I think she is going to be a better three-year-old, but coming here today has given me the option not to have to come back up here again [until Karaka Millions night]. She is a beautiful cut of a filly and I don't want to sound silly, but I said over breakfast I think she will win today and I can put her away with 11 weeks to Ellerslie and I won't need to run her again." Bookmakers reacted swiftly, installing De Armas as the $3.50 favourite for the Karaka Millions 2YO. Purchased for $16,000 from the 2025 National Online Yearling Sale, De Armas has already earned more than $86,000 in prize-money from her two starts.

29 for Reliable Man

Westbury Stud resident Reliable Man (Dalakhani) chalked up his 29th stakes winner when Final Return (7 g ex Kind Return by Zabeel) narrowly took out Saturday's Counties Cup (Gr 3, 2100m) at Pukekohe. Ridden by Elen Nicholas for Janelle Millar, the gelding held on in a blanket finish to win by 0.3 lengths over Rosetown Princess (Redwood), with Aftermath (Rock 'N' Pop) another 0.1 lengths behind in third. Bred by Seaview Farm Trust No. 2, the gelding is the ninth foal out of four-time winner Kind Return (Zabeel), who has produced seven to race for six winners. Reliable Man stands for a reduced fee of $10,000 (plus GST) in 2025.

Final Return toughs it out for Counties Cup victory

Final Return produced a tenacious staying performance to land Saturday's Counties Cup, giving his trainer Janelle Millar a prized black-type success and confirming the gelding as a genuine summer Cups contender. Forced to settle last after being squeezed out early, Final Return circled the field mid-race under Elen Nicholas, joining the leaders by the 1000-metre mark. He struck the front early in the home straight and, despite challenges coming from all directions he lifted again to score by a 0.3 lengths. "This is definitely at the top of the list of my biggest wins," Nicholas said. "I feel so lucky and I'm just grateful to be out here and doing this. The original plan was to jump and be handy, but we got a bit of a squeeze out the back. We managed to go around them without him having to do too much work, and then we were able to take a bit of a breather after we got to the front as well, which was good. He got headed early in the straight, but he suddenly grew another leg. I couldn't believe it." Millar praised both horse and rider. "I'm speechless and very proud," she said. "Elen gave him a perfect ride. I told her not to panic if she wasn't able to go forward early, because he has a high cruising speed and can make up ground in the back straight. That's exactly what she did. He has a turn of foot, but he's better when he can race out in front. We'll probably aim for the Queen Elizabeth on New Year's Day now."

26 for Almanzor

Cambridge Stud sire Almanzor (Wootton Bassett) notched his 26th individual stakes winner when Qali Al Farrasha (5 m ex Nucleonic by Burgundy) scored an impressive win in Saturday's Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Pukekohe. Ridden by Wiremu Pinn for Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson, the mare kicked away in the closing stages of the race to win by 1.8 lengths over Provence (Savabeel), with Jaarffi (Iffraaj) a further 0.3 lengths behind in third. Bred by Nearco Stud Ltd, Te Akau Stud and Westonlea Bloodstock, Qali Al Farrasha is out of the dual-winning mare Nucleonic (Burgundy), who has also produced Welcome Stakes (Listed, 1000m) winner Nucleozor (Almanzor), who has been exported to Hong Kong. Almanzor stands at Cambridge Stud for an unchanged fee of $30,000 this season.

Qali Al Farrasha gets breakthrough stakes win

Qali Al Farrasha finally cast aside her black-type bridesmaid status with a dominant performance in Saturday's Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes. The five-year-old, previously stakes-placed on six occasions, including four times at Group 1 level, had been freshened after midfield efforts in the Proisir Plate (Gr 1, 1400m) and Howden Insurance Mile (Gr 1, 1600m), a decision co-trainer Sam Bergerson said paid dividends. "That was fantastic to see her bounce back as she is a quadruple Group 1 placegetter," the co-trainer said. "We attacked the first two legs [of the triple crown] but we weren't happy with her going into the third [Livamol Classic] so we gave her a freshen up. She has come back really well and while we thought 1400 metres might be a bit sharp for her today, she has sprinted really well and was very good to the line. Hopefully she is in for an exciting summer." Bergerson said the Cal Isuzu Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) shapes as the likely next assignment, with options also including the Zabeel Classic (Gr 1, 2000m) and a possible tilt at Wellington's Mufhasa Classic (Gr 1, 1600m). "After that, we hope we can go one better in one of those Group 1s," he said.

Ardalio gifts Ardrossan stakes-double with Counties Bowl triumph

Ardalio (Ardrossan) reaffirmed her quality and lifted her four-year-old profile another level with a decisive victory in Saturday's Counties Bowl (Gr 3, 1100m) at Pukekohe, gifting Waikato Stud's Ardrossan a stakes-winning double on the card.

Ardalio

RACE IMAGES

The Stephen Marsh-trained mare, a dual Group 3 winner at three, was freshened since her close fourth at Te Rapa in late September and travelled sweetly under returning rider Kozzi Asano. Positioned fifth on the rail behind a solid tempo, Ardalio improved approaching the bend, before asserting strongly, momentarily shifting out under pressure as Twain (Per Incanto) loomed, but kicked again to score by 1.5 lengths. "I really appreciate the opportunity to ride Ardalio. She's such a nice horse," Asano said. "She was super. She's not the easiest to ride and has got a few tricks, but she has a real killer instinct. I felt something coming up beside us, and she ducked out a little bit, but she was too good in the end." Bred and raced by JML Bloodstock, Ardalio has now won four of eight starts, along with a second, banking $417,100 in prize-money. Her previous black-type successes came in the Almanzor Trophy (Gr 3, 1200m) and Cambridge Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m), and she ran bravely in the NZB Kiwi (1500m) from a wide draw. Marsh's stable representative Dylan Johnson said the mare is now likely to be aimed at elite sprint targets. "She's putting together a great record and is just so tough," Johnson said. "Kozzi gave her a beautiful trip, and then she just fights and grinds all the way to the finish. Stephen is keen to keep her to those sprint trips this season, and we'll have a look at races like the Telegraph and Railway."

Spencer makes winning debut for McKays

Quality sprinter Spencer (Derry) made a winning start for his new trainers Peter and Shaun McKay, notching the ninth victory of his career in an open handicap over 1340 metres at Wanganui on Saturday. Last season's Spring Sprint (Gr 3, 1400m) winner, previously prepared by Erin Hocquard, was having his first run since finishing midfield at Trentham last month. With apprentice Sienna Brown reducing his 62-kilogram impost to 58 kilograms, Spencer settled midfield before circling the field and angling into the clear to spring quickly and hold on to win by 0.8 lengths over Bedtime Story (Per Incanto). Shaun McKay was buoyed by the gelding's demeanour and professionalism. "He had a good strut on him and he looked a picture," McKay said. "We haven't learnt much from him just yet, but he is a pretty cruisy horse who has galloped really well at home. He likes apprentices too and Sienna gets on well with him, so it was a very good win. We will take it race by race, but there is a sprint down at Wellington at the start of December that we might aim him for." McKay was referring to the Spring Sprint (Gr 3, 1400m), the race Spencer claimed in 2024 when it was run at Te Rapa. Bred and part-owned by Aidan Schumacher, Spencer has now won nine of 27 starts and $309,430 in prize-money.

28 for Duramente

Nishino Ti Amo (4 f ex Nishino Amore by Conduit) provided the late Duramente (King Kamehameha) with his 28th individual stakes winner when landing Saturday's Fukushima Kinen (Gr 3, 2000m). Trained by Yuki Uehara, the four-year-old beat favourite Ecoro Walz (Black Tide) by a length and a quarter, with Pareja (Satono Crown) another half-length away in third. Out of the winning Conduit (Dalakhani) mare Nishino Amore, Nishino Ti Amo is a half-sister to the stakes scorer Nishino Revenant (Nero). Duramente died in 2021 at the age of nine.

Size trio set to take on Ka Ying Rising

John Size is set to unleash a multi-pronged attack at Sha Tin on Sunday as he seeks to overcome his slow start to the season. The 13-time champion trainer is the only handler with multiple runners in all three Group 2 races; he sends three to the Jockey Club Sprint (Gr

2, 1200m). “The sprinters are good. They’re trouble-free. They seem to be in pretty good shape,” Size said. “Helios Express – his trial was disappointing here last week, but we’re blaming the track condition. We had rain overnight, and I think the horse didn’t like it. Hugh Bowman thought there was nothing wrong with him. He felt good, and his trackwork since has been normal.” Stablemates Raging Blizzard (Per Incanto) and Wunderbar (Rich Enuff), will also line-up against Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress). “Raging Blizzard continues to improve,” Size said. “He’s certainly putting himself in there with a chance of getting prize-money. Wunderbar’s come down from Conghua. He looks great,” he added. “I think you can notice that he’s not carrying as much weight.”

IRE: Northern Farm go to €780,000 to land blueblood Enthralling

Enthralling (Galileo), a three-parts sister to this year’s Derby hero Lambourn (Australia), proved the headline act at the Goffs November Breeding Stock Sale at €780,000 (approx. AU$1,392,300). A team from Katsumi Yoshida’s Northern Farm had made the 13,000 kilometre journey from Hokkaido to Kildare, but ran into a rival camp from Ace Stud when Enthralling took to the ring. The two operations had matters between themselves from after the €500,000 mark, but it was ultimately Yoshida’s men who won out. The four-year-old daughter of Galileo (Sadler’s Wells) was bred and raced by Coolmore and presented on Friday evening by The Castlebridge Consignment. She could only manage three placings from seven starts for Donnacha O’Brien but made major appeal on pedigree. She is the first foal out of Gossamer Wings (Scat Daddy), who was beaten just a short head by Signora Cabello (Camacho) in the Group 2 Queen Mary Stakes (Gr 2, 5f). “There’s lots of future promise with this pedigree,” said Northern Farm representative Tomo Tsuda, who was decked out in an Equinox cap. “I love the two-year-old, he’s going to be really good next year. There’s a lot of speed in this bloodline and, to bring a mare like this back to Japan and cover her with our own stallions, that’s our dream for the future. It was pretty strong competition, she was definitely the top mare in this draft. She has a very athletic walk and a strong backend. I loved her. She made a bit over my budget but we pushed hard to get her.”

IRE: Goffs comes trade to a close with November Sale 'exceeding expectations'

The Goffs November Sale came to a close on Saturday and it was topped by the unraced Lope De Vega (Shamardal) mare La Renegada who brought €65,000 (approx. AU$116,000) from Kayhan Ozcan’s Turkey-based Turquoise Bloodstock. Total turnover of €12,117,700 (approx. AU$21,630,000) was seven per cent up on last year, although it was from a larger catalogue so the average €45,728 (approx. AU$81,620) was dipping ten per cent and the median of €20,000 (approx. AU$35,700) was down by nine per cent. Overall clearance rate of 265 of 322 horses selling at 82 per cent was an improvement.

The final foal of the 2025 season arrived last night; a bay filly by All Too Hard x Duquessa (an 8-time winner of close to $200k and a half sister to the dual stakes winner SILVER WOLF.) The filly was foaled for Holbrook Thoroughbreds. As always, our long serving foaling manager Michelle Vincent has done an exceptional job this season supported by the wider team. 🍀🎉

VERDICT This may be fought out by STUNNING PEACH and Romantic Thor, with preference for the former, who posted a fine comeback over an inadequate distance last time. Snowfield is just beginning to show some of the talent he exhibited as a young horse in Brazil and makes each-way appeal.

VERDICT With Zac Purton aboard again, Invincible Ibis is likely to be all the rage in the betting market having broken his duck in convincing style last time. However, it can pay to oppose him with MOTOR, who is similarly progressive and should appreciate this step up from 6f. Next on the list is recent C&D winner Gracious Express, who has his 7lb rise partially offset by Ellis Wong's useful 5lb claim, while Lucy In The Sky can make a bold bid from the front.

VERDICT He's drawn on the outside and has to concede a 5lb penalty but it will still be a big shock if the world's best sprinter, KA YING RISING, does not extend his winning sequence. Lucky Sweeneyse was a top-class sprinter at his best but has become somewhat unreliable, so Helios Express is selected to fill the forecast slot.

VERDICT It's hard to see beyond MY WISH who produced an excellent performance to win a C&D Group 2 handicap with considerable authority last month. Galaxy Patch is also a class act and ought to make his presence felt but the main threat to the selection might emerge from up-and-coming handicapper Light Years Charm, who is still unexposed over 1m.

VERDICT Multiple Group 1 winner Voyage Bubble will be a tough nut to crack if he rebounds quickly from last month's disappointing seasonal debut but ROMANTIC WARRIOR is firmly established as the best middle-distance performer in Hong Kong and can collect this prize before he bids for a fourth consecutive Hong Kong Cup success in December.

BETTING FORECAST: 7-4 Szeryng, 7-2 Star Rise, 6 Sky Joy, 7 Harold Win, 8 Pakistan Legacy, 12 Yee Cheong Glory, 16 Public Attention, 20 Stormy Grove, 25 Vermilion Tempest, 33 Golden Empire, 50 Always Ahead, Stanley Express, 66 Igor Stravinsky, 100 Wolf Coming.
VERDICT There could still be more to come from well-drawn 4yo Szeryng , who won stylishly over C&D on his recent seasonal debut. He is not opposed lightly but a 10lb rise asks quite a lot of him in this higher grade and preference is for STAR RISE , who began his Hong Kong career with two very promising C&D runs. Sky Joy has the outside draw to contend with but he also has an appealing profile.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Everyone's Star, 6 Master Of All, Tin Fook, 7 Brilliant Express, 8 Anode, 12 Blazing Wukong, Forza Toro, Lucky My Way, The Auspicious, 16 Riding Together, 20 Flash Current, 40 Vecu, 50 Stellar Swift, 66 Mr Bolt.
VERDICT In a competitive race for the grade the suggestion is low-mileage 5yo EVERYONE'S STAR , who ran well in defeat over C&D on last month's seasonal debut. Anode ran too badly to be true here a fortnight ago and can provide the main threat if quickly back on song. Brilliant Express and Master Of All also make appeal.
