Hedge purchases set for track debuts at Caulfield and Rosehill

By Dan Harrold and Lydia Symonds

Bloodstock agent Suman Hedge has a busy Saturday ahead with both a purchase and pinhook set to make their debuts for owners at Caulfield and Rosehill respectively.

Stretan Ruler (Wild Ruler) will take the first steps in his racing career when lining up in the Merson Cooper Stakes (Listed, 1000m), a $175,000 contest for two-year-olds only.

The race has attracted a 13-runner field, but a lack of experience should not be much of a hindrance with only three of those having had a run already, although the Phillip Stokes-trained colt has drawn barrier 12 under Lachlan Neindorf.

Purchased by Stokes and Hedge for $220,000 out of Willow Park Stud at this year's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, Hedge was quick to mention the colt's Group 2-winning half-sister Stretan Angel (Harry Angel).

"I started doing some work with the Stokes stable this year and he is part of the first group of racehorses we bought together," Hedge told ANZ News.

"Phillip has had great success with the family, obviously having trained Stretan Angel."

Hedge revealed that he had liked the look of Stretan Ruler at the sales, and felt he presented as a ready made type.

"He was a really well put together horse, very athletic. He had the appearance of looking early and that he wasn't going to take too long," Hedge said, while also admitting he felt the final price tag could actually have been a bit more.

"We were delighted to be able to buy him and I thought he might make a touch more, but we were very happy we were able to get him.

"He is very straightforward, everything

we've put to him he's taken in his stride and that's a testament to his temperament that he's come this far pre-Christmas.

"Generally, if a two-year-old comes on this early they've got a good brain - he's certainly like that."

On this weekend's debut task for the colt, Hedge is hopeful, but also realistic on his chances, with Stretan Ruler having won both of his trials to date.

"There are some pretty good horses in that race, so it will be a good challenge for him, but hopefully he can acquit himself well and be there at the finish," he said.

Out of the Bernardini (A.P. Indy) mare Stretan, Stretan Ruler is by Newgate Farm stallion Wild Ruler (Snitzel) and Hedge admitted the sire is one he is getting to know better.

"I haven't had a huge amount of exposure to the stallion, but I've been looking at them pretty closely and they've presented well at the sales," Hedge said.

"They seem to have good minds, there's been a couple of them I've seen at the trials and they've performed quite well. His progeny seem to be a bit more precocious than him.

"He kept improving as a racehorse and got better and better, but they seem to have a good juvenile brain on them.

"So far from what I've seen I've been impressed and we will definitely be looking at them closely again in the next series of yearlings sales."

Continued from page 2 Hedge will also have an interest in proceedings at Rosehill on Saturday where the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Palmanova (Tassort), a horse he pinhooked, will take on the opening contest of the card, the Schweppes Handicap (1100m) under Tim Clark.

Drawn in gate six in the ten-runner sprint, the daughter of Tassort (Brazen Beau) has finished third and first in a pair of trials prior to this weekend's contest.

Purchased by Hedge and Trilogy Racing for $180,000 out of B Cool Bloodstock at the 2024 Inglis Australian Weanling Sale, the juvenile filly was then sold to Yulong Investments for $350,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in January.

Hedge admitted the filly was a standout at the sale and was not surprised to see her nearly double her weanling price.

"The Tassort filly was an absolute stand-out at the sale, everyone loved her," he said. "She came out of a small draft and it was one of those surprises that often happens at a sale.

"She was just gorgeous. She was that nice, there was a temptation to keep and race her. But she's gone to a good stable with good owners. She looked like a yearling as a foal. She was strong with a huge hip and shoulder.

"That stallion has been very effective, especially with his fillies, so hopefully that will follow suit with her and she can have a good career."

Hedge is also hopeful that Palmanova can make a promising debut this weekend, and add to what has been a solid year for the agent at the sales.

"We've had some good results this season with our pinhooks. We have had some good results with the transactions, but it's also good to see them perform well on the racetrack," he added.

Shares in a pair of exciting colts headline December (Early) Online Sale

An enticing three-in-one package, a progressive Zoustar (Northern Meteor) colt qualified for Hong Kong and shares in several stakes horses headline a diverse catalogue for the Inglis Digital December (Early) Online Sale, which is now open for bidding. Aristocrat (Zoustar) is a last start-winning three-year-old from the Michael Freedman stable and is offered with a Hong Kong rating of 64. Also offered is Celestial Bling (Capitalist), a four-year-old mare that finished second on debut as a two-year-old in the Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) behind subsequent Group 1 scorer Manaal (Tassort). For those interested in racehorse shares, there are two five per cent shares in the three-year-old Capitalist (Written Tycoon) colt Hidden Motive, winner of the Roman Consul Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), and four 2.5 per cent shares and one 3.8 per cent share available in Ruination (Wootton Bassett), who has won two of his four starts and finished runner-up to subsequent Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Attica (Lonhro) in the Dulcify Stakes (Listed, 1600m) two starts back. In total the December (Early) catalogue consists of 287 lots - 150 racehorses (74 race fillies), 70 racehorse shares, 43 broodmares, 17 yearlings, six unraced stock and one two-year-old. To view the catalogue click here.

Waterhouse has confidence in Alalcance

Gai Waterhouse feels that Alalcance (Mastercraftsman) will be hard to beat in Saturday's Zippering Classic (Gr 2, 2400m) at Caulfield, predicting the mare is ready to peak in what will be her third start this campaign. The three-time stakes-winning six-year-old ran sixth in the Wyong Cup (Listed, 2100m) back in September before producing a last-start third in the Matriarch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Flemington on November 8. "I think she will win," Waterhouse, who trains in partnership with Adrian Bott, told Racing.com. "She's probably put on 15 kilos since her last run and she's working the place down. She's strong and she'll stay all day, and this race looks perfect for her. We programmed her for this race a long time ago. She's really a rising star. She's ready for tomorrow [Saturday] in every possible way. We might give her a light break [after Saturday] and come back in the new year and run in the Sydney Cup. She got to the Sydney Cup [last season] and it was probably a bridge too far as she was a little immature."

McDonald to unveil pair of fillies in Merson Cooper

Cranbourne-based trainer Clinton McDonald will give debuts to a pair of fillies in Saturday's Merson Cooper Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Caulfield. McDonald will saddle up both Simply Steffi (Graff) and Tears Of Happiness (Pierro) in the two-year-old sprint, with the former having had three jump-outs in preparation for her debut - the most recent being a runner-up finish at Cranbourne on October 27. "Simply Steffi is a beautiful filly by Graff, a first-season sire," McDonald said. "She was bought by Shane McGrath from the Adelaide sale for $15,000. She's a nice filly and was well found and bought by Shane. She's shown us good ability at home and whatever she does on Saturday she'll improve upon." Meanwhile, Tears Of Happiness has taken in two jump-outs and McDonald expects the filly - who was a $60,000 purchase by Yulong Investments at the Melbourne Premier Sale - to come on for both the run and a stretch out in distance. "Tears Of Happiness is my second [two-year-old] runner for Yulong after we had Tales Of Time run second in the Maribyrnong Plate," the trainer said. "She's a nice filly and if we can get that one start into her now, she's going to come back a nice Sires' Produce, maybe Champagne [Stakes] type of horse. She'll likely settle back behind them in midfield but be really strong late. I really like her, I think she's a lovely filly, but there's not much between them and I'm looking forward to stepping them out."

Testa Rossa Stakes task for Here To Shock

Here To Shock

RACING PHOTOS

The Lindsay Park-trained Here To Shock (Shocking) will use Saturday's Testa Rossa Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Caulfield as a warm-up run for his title defence in The Supernova (1400m) at Pakenham on December 13. The now eight-year-old gelding landed The Supernova by a narrow margin last year having run tenth in the Big Dance (1600m) on his start prior. However, the Group 1 winner will use this weekend's Listed contest as his lead-up into the $1 million event after having run sixth in the Moonga Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) on October 18. "This should be a nice prep run," Ben Hayes, who trains in partnership with his brothers JD and Will, said. "We purposely freshened him to target this with the Supernova in mind, and then we might consider going over and trying to go back-to-back in the Group 1 [Waikato Sprint] over in New Zealand. It's the kind of race he can be very competitive in." Here To Shock will be joined in the Testa Rossa Stakes by Run Harry Run (Written Tycoon), who scored a first-up win in the Ararat Bowl (1300m) on November 9. "When we got the heavy track, we decided to be patient and he came out and won the Ararat Bowl, so it was good to get him back in the winner's stall," Hayes said. "He actually has pretty good form behind Globe, and he's been racing very consistently. It's a big step up in class to what he's been running in, but he'll run a nice competitive race again and he's in great order."

Yorkshire bidding to bounce back

Training partners John O'Shea and Tom Charlton are hoping that Yorkshire (Snitzel) can bounce back from a disappointing last-start effort when he lines up in the Festival Stakes (Gr 3, 1500m) at Rosehill on Saturday. The five-year-old gelding ran last of 16 in The Hunter (1300m) first-up on November 15 as a $3.50 chance, after which the son of Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) was found to be suffering from cardiac arrhythmia. "There was a lot of market support for him, but it wasn't stable inspired," O'Shea said. "We were adamant the horse needed a run or two, although he was never going to run that badly because he had trialled up really well and was going well at home. He definitely had cardiac arrhythmia, but it has rectified and his KPI's post-that have been excellent." Many horses rebound quickly from cardiac arrhythmia and O'Shea expects an improved performance this weekend, however he also revealed that Yorkshire will benefit from this run also before tackling The Ingham (Gr 2, 1600m) at Randwick next month. "There is no doubt he has got improvement from Saturday," the trainer said. "Saturday is about getting back into the game with a positive run and then allowing us the opportunity to bounce off that into The Ingham."

Unspoken aiming to break drought

Having not won since landing the Five Diamonds (1800m) back in November 2023, the Peter Snowden-trained Unspoken (Territories) will bid to break that two-year drought when he tackles Saturday's ATC Cup (Listed, 2000m) at Rosehill. The UK import has been a good moneyspinner for his owners, banking over $1.5 million from 17 starts for four wins and three placings. However, his best finishes since winning the 2023 Five Diamonds have been a second placing in the Furphy Plate (Listed, 1800m) in November last year and a last-start fourth in the Ichiban Plate (Listed, 1800m) at Flemington. "He's going really well. Just trying to find the right races for him has been difficult," Snowden said. "We have landed on this one, which I think is ideal. His work has been very good. His run was excellent during Melbourne Cup week over 1800 [metres]. He just peaked on his run fifty metres out. He was five weeks between his first run and second run, this sort of back up will suit him." Unspoken has landed barrier 12 for this weekend's race, while stablemate Huetor (Archipenko) has drawn next door in 13 having been scratched from The Beauford (2300m) two weeks ago due to a slightly abnormal blood count. "He is in good form, and he'll run well," Snowden said of Huetor. "He is just drawn a bit awkward, but he's got Nash [Rawiller] on. Nash knows him well and he goes well for him."

The Great Baby to have Morphettville return

The Wayne Francis and Glen Kent-trained The Great Baby (Zebedee) will be another looking to score for the first time in a while when he lines up in a Benchmark 74 over 1000 metres at Morphettville on Saturday. A gelded six-year-old son of Zebedee (Invincible Spirit), The Great Baby has proved consistent throughout his 25-start career to date with four wins and a further ten placings, however he has not been in the winner's enclosure since landing a Benchmark 64 (1200m) at Kembla Grange back in June 2024. "His jump-outs and trials have been really nice," Kent said. "We haven't asked him to do a hell of a lot, but he's doing everything right, that's for sure. The programming here in South Australia is not really good. Sometimes we are forced to run in races that we shouldn't be in and it's frustrating at times. After this, it's a long way between drinks. We want to get him back to the course proper over 1050 [metres] or 1100 and second-up I would rather stay at that sort of trip. But you have to go where you can, so if the right 1200-metre race came up, you would have a go, but he's a very honest horse, very consistent."

Group 1 winner In Her Time has second winner

In Her Time (Time Thief), a dual Group 1-winning sprinter on the track, has bred her second winner after the Chris Waller-trained colt Patonga (Written Tycoon) scored at the third time of asking at Canterbury on Friday. Ridden by Nash Rawiller in the 1550-metre maiden, the three-year-old son of Written Tycoon (Iglesia) scored by 0.7 lengths over Hereward (Saxon Warrior). Patonga is the second foal out of In Her Time - who was acquired by Yulong for $2.2million at the 2021 Inglis Chairman's Sale - and sold to Coolmore's Tom Magnier for $750,000 at the 2024 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. The mare's third foal is also a colt by Written Tycoon and was again purchased by Tom Magnier, this time for $1.8 million.

In Her Time

RACING POST

Litt unleashes good one at Canterbury

The Richard Litt-trained Caffè Florian (Snitzel) broke her maiden impressively at Canterbury on Friday, scoring by two lengths in an 1100-metre contest. The three-year-old daughter of Snitzel improved on her debut third placing to beat Royal Air Force (Wootton Bassett) - who is a half-brother to The Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Think About It (So You Think) - under Jason Collett. "She's still green and improving, but I really do think she is an exciting filly moving forward," the winning trainer said. A $400,000 Inglis Easter purchase for Galletta Constructions Co. Pty Ltd from the Arrowfield Stud draft, Caffè Florian runs for Ottavio Galletta, who has enjoyed top-level success with Litt in the past via Castelveccchio (Dundeel) and Profondo (Deep Impact). Caffè Florian is a three-quarter sister to Group 3 winner turned Widden Stud stallion Anders (Not A Single Doubt) and stakes scorer Ostraka (Pariah), while the stakes-placed pair Battleground and Satin Love are full siblings. She is the sixth winner from seven foals to race out of the unraced War Emblem (Our Emblem) mare Madame Andree, who is also the granddam of Group-winning colt Skyhook (Written Tycoon). Arrowfield Stud will offer a Snitzel yearling filly from Madame Andree at Magic Millions in January as Lot 504 and the mare has foaled again this spring producing yet another filly by Snitzel.

Local winner of Wodonga Cup

Friday's feature Wodonga Gold Cup (1590m) went the way of the Sylvia Thompson-trained outsider Morning Darling (Love Conquers All) as the result threw up a very local flavour. Thompson, who is based in Wodonga, had two runners set for the race but that figure was narrowed down to just the sole entrant after $8.50 chance Jugiong (Foxwedge) was scratched moments before the barriers opened. Left with $61 hope Morning Darling, Thompson would come out on top anyway as the six-year-old gelding defeated Hiyaam Proud (Pride Of Dubai) by 0.4 lengths under Brendan Ward. "He was my pick," the winning trainer told Racing.com. "All along, I kept saying he'd win the Wodonga Cup. I've liked him from day one. The other bloke is a good horse, but it was a bit too soon for him. It's been a long time between drinks. I've had a great relationship with the McPhees [owners] over the years, especially since I was a 17-year-old kid. It was good to team up again."

New Zealand

In-form Tellum on target for Wanganui

Promising filly Tellum (Ocean Park) will bid to continue her hot run of form in Saturday's O'Leary's Fillies' Stakes (Listed, 1340m) at Wanganui, with Lynsey Satherley booked for the ride by Debbie Sweeney. Tellum has won her last two on the bounce at the expense of older opposition, but it was her most recent romp at Te Aroha that ensured her place in the Wanganui contest. "She's been super and it's hard to beat the older horses, which she's done," Sweeney said. "Wanganui was always the plan, and we said we would head that way if she won her last one." Tellum had broken her maiden over 1400 metres at Te Aroha in October and repeated her course and distance heroics on a return visit earlier this month. "She keeps taking the next step up and has improved again," Sweeney said. Tellum has been patiently handled and finished in behind the major players in both of her two-year-old outings before she was sent for a break. "We didn't do too much with her last season, and she's always showed she had ability but was a bit weak," Sweeney continued. "She needed a bit more time and she'll be even better with another six months."

Wellington Cup tilt in the offing for Mayor Of Norwood

Mayor Of Norwood

IMAGES SOUTH

Brian and Shane Anderton will head to Cromwell on Sunday with a strong hand, led by Mayor Of Norwood (Ghibellines) who will attempt to seal his berth north to contest January's Wellington Cup (Gr 3, 3200m) at Trentham. The six-win gelding finished fifth first-up over 1400 metres at his home track earlier this month and his trainers have been pleased with his progression heading into Sunday's Cromwell Cup (2030m). Mayor Of Norwood has been lumbered with top weight of 61 kilograms but will get some weight relief courtesy of apprentice Triston Moodley's one-kilogram claim. "He has come through his race well," Brian Anderton said. "We have got to be a bit careful with him, he is getting to a dangerous place in the weights. Our ambition is to have a go at the Wellington Cup, so hopefully he comes through everything alright."

Dealt With to make raceday return

Dealt With (Ace High) stamped himself as one of the most exciting three-year-old prospects in New Zealand last season, earning himself a slot in the inaugural $3.5 million NZB Kiwi (1500m), but he was withdrawn at the 11th hour through injury. It was a bitter pill to swallow for his connections, with the gelding looking a strong contender after winning his first two starts before placing in the Karaka Millions 3YO (RL, 1600m) and Uncle Remus Stakes (Listed, 1400m). Roger James and Robert Wellwood have taken a patient approach with his return and they are looking forward to him resuming at Otaki on Sunday in an open handicap over 1200 metres. "He had multiple soundness issues and it has been a long, slow process but hopefully we are back for the long haul," James said. "He is certainly in nice order, albeit he is a big, burly fellow and he will derive considerable improvement out of the run on Sunday." Dealt With finished runner-up in his resuming trial over 1000 metres at Avondale last month, and James expects him to race kindlier from barrier two this weekend. "It was typical him, he was bull-headed, bullish and hard going, but I think with that trial under his belt he will be more amiable on Sunday," James said. "He has drawn well enough to help him a little bit in that regard."

HK: Whyte banking on conditions unlocking Shanwah's potential

Douglas Whyte believes his exciting import Shanwah (Too Darn Hot) can improve with a step up in distance at Sha Tin on Sunday and justify his inclusion in the field for the Hong Kong Cup (Gr 1, 2000m). The gelding generated considerable excitement on his Hong Kong arrival following a stellar three-year-old campaign in Australia, where he claimed the Autumn Classic (Gr 2, 1800m) and the Alister Clark Stakes (Gr 2, 2040m), before running third in the Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m). However, he struggled to live up to the hype on debut in Hong Kong, finishing 11th in a Class 2 handicap over 1400 metres although Whyte believes he has improved for the run. "I thought his debut run was acceptable for the amount of work I was able to get into him," the trainer said. "I think that's what he's looking for - 1600 metres, possibly further - but 1400 was somewhere to start him, and at least he's had that run into him - he's got a bit of mileage into his legs. He just needs to adjust from a race tempo and pressure point of view, and then he'll be on his way."

 International
11 for Palace Pier

Thursday proved to be a successful day for Palace Pier (Kingman) when breakthrough wins for two of his youngsters saw Darley's first-season sire move his tally of individual winners to 11. Pierchic (2 f ex Tearless by Street Cry) was first to get off the mark when scoring over seven furlongs at Chelmsford. Trained by Charlie Appleby, the filly edged out Paradise Walk (Starman) by a nose with favourite So Regal (Kingman) another neck away in third. A homebred for Godolphin, Pierchic is the eighth foal out of the Listed winner Tearless (Street Cry), making her a half-sister to five winners, including Epsom Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) runner-up Dance Sequence (Dubawi). Just ten minutes later Director's Cut (2 c ex Lights On Me by Kyllachy) got his head in front when taking out a mile contest at Newcastle. The John and Thady Gosden-trained youngster beat favourite Eddaari (New Bay) by a neck, with Sheikhshah (Persian King) finishing a further length and a half away in third. Sporting the silks of his breeder Yulong, Director's Cut is the sixth foal out of Lights On Me (Kyllachy), making him a half-brother to Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Light Infantry (Fast Company). Former shuttler Palace Pier will stand the upcoming northern hemisphere breeding season at Dalham Hall Stud for a fee of £32,000 (approx. AU$64,800).

UK: Hong Kong next for Dubai Honour after Churchill Stakes success

The William Haggas-trained Dubai Honour (7 g Pride Of Dubai - Mondelice by Montjeu) will be on his way to Hong Kong for a sixth time in his career next month and tuned up with a gutsy success in the Churchill Stakes (Listed, 1m 3f) at Southwell on Friday. Ridden by Cieren Fallon, the seven-year-old gelding was dropping back in class and fended off the challenge of the odds-on favourite Shader (Shamardal) by a length. There was a further neck back to Royal Playwright (Lope De Vega) in third. Dubai Honour is set for the Hong Kong Vase (Gr 1, 2400m) next month, a race he finished second in last season behind Giavellotto (Mastercraftsman).

UK: Second stakes win for Royal Zabeel

Royal Zabeel (4 g Mastercraftsman - Lady's Maid by More Than Ready) landed his second career stakes success on Friday when taking out the Golden Rose Stakes (Listed, 6f) at Southwell. Ridden by Jason Watson for Mick Appleby, the four-year-old gelding came home well to deny the fast-finishing Zoum Zoum (Zoustar) and Apollo One (Equiano), who dead-heated for second place, by a length and three-quarters.
