Libertad denies Overpass history with dazzling Winterbottom boiloover

By Mary-Jo Jackson

Libertad (Russian Revolution) produced the biggest performance of his career and one of the most dramatic finishes of The Pinnacles when the five-year-old entire lunged late to deny Overpass (Vancouver) a historic Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) three-peat at Ascot on Saturday, announcing himself as Western Australia's newest Group 1 sprint star and supercharging his future stallion appeal.

The Annabel and Rob Archibald-trained entire arrived in Perth as a $21 outsider, yet delivered a moment that will long define Trilogy Racing's burgeoning breeding and racing operation. With founders Jason and Melanie Stenning and partners Sean and Kathy Dingwall watching on, Libertad surged into the national spotlight after jockey Jamie Mott seized a race-winning gap on the rail.

Overpass, chasing what would have been an unprecedented third consecutive Winterbottom, rolled marginally off the fence at the top of the straight. Mott pounced instantly, driving Libertad through to eyeball the favourite, and the pair engaged in a gruelling duel.

Eternal Warrior lands shock Merson Cooper victory

First-season sire Extreme Warrior (Extreme Choice) announced himself in style at Caulfield on Saturday when debutant Eternal Warrior swept home at $41 to claim the $175,000 Merson Cooper Stakes (Listed, 1000m), delivering the young Rosemont Stud stallion his first stakes winner.

"He had to go to a new level today and he was able to do that," Mott said.

HE'D WON A GROUP 2 AND A COUPLE OF GROUP 3S, AND WE WERE DESPERATE TO GET A GROUP 1 WITH HIM. HE'S STILL AN ENTIRE, SO I'M SO HAPPY FOR TRILOGY AND THERE'S PLENTY OF DECENT OWNERS IN HIM. A COUPLE HAVE MADE THE TRIP OVER, SO WE'LL BE HAVING A BIG ONE TONIGHT

ANNABEL ARCHIBALD

"I sat on his back and I was quite keen for probably the first 400 [metres]... but when I was able to join Overpass and fight him off like he did, I thought it was a huge performance."

The win was a long-awaited Group 1 breakthrough for Libertad, who had already claimed the Kindergarten Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m), San Domenico Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) and Victory Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) but was yet to convert at the elite level despite a strong fourth behind Giga Kick (Scissor Kick) in the Champions Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m).

It also delivered Mott his fourth Group 1, and crucially, his first at the top level in partnership with the Archibald stable.

"We weren't in the market, and we knew the favourite was going to be really really tough to beat," Annabel Archibald said.

"What a great ride by Jamie [Mott]. The plan was to follow Overpass, with the knowledge

Continued from page 2 desperate to get a Group 1 with him. He's still an entire, so I'm so happy for Trilogy and there's plenty of decent owners in him. A couple have made the trip over, so we'll be having a big one tonight."

For Trilogy Racing, who bought into Libertad after his $210,000 Inglis Ready2Race sale purchase in 2022, the victory was transformational.

Stenning reflected: "He's now won Group races at two, three, four and five, which is a pretty rare achievement.

"It's very emotional for us – our first Group 1 win in Trilogy colours. It's a huge milestone for us."

The triumph also arrives at a poignant time for the group, following the recent loss of their young Blue Gum Farm stallion Sejardan (Sebring).

"As everyone's aware we had a huge loss in losing Sejardan only a few weeks ago... this win certainly qualifies Libertad to go to stud," Stenning said.

Being out of Electric Charge (Charge Forward), Libertad also becomes the 15th Group 1 winner produced by mares sold by Willow Park Stud, part of their remarkable record of 59 individual stakes winners (111 black-type performers) from broodmare sale graduates.

Bred by Rheinwood Pastoral along with Somerset Services, Libertad was first sold for $40,000 from Rheinwood's draft at the 2022 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, bought by noted Victorian horseman Tal Nolen.

The victory marks a second Group 1 winner for Newgate Farm's Russian Revolution (Snitzel), now standing at $33,000 (inc GST), and positions Libertad as one of the most valuable stallion prospects to emerge from the Perth carnival in years.

Eternal Warrior lands shock Merson Cooper victory

First-season sire Extreme Warrior (Extreme Choice) announced himself in style at Caulfield on Saturday when debutant Eternal Warrior swept home at $41 to claim the $175,000 Merson Cooper Stakes (Listed, 1000m), delivering the young Rosemont Stud stallion his first stakes winner.

Eternal Warrior (red cap)

RACING PHOTOS

Despite being overlooked by punters, Eternal Warrior had shown enough in two trial seconds to warrant respect, and the Lloyd Kennewell-trained colt produced a determined late surge under Zac Spain to nose out $16 hope Stretan Ruler (Wild Ruler) in the final stride, while $5.50 shot Alibaba (Alabama Express) found some traffic but hit the line well, finishing 1.3 lengths behind the pair in third.

Eternal Warrior's 0.1-length victory marked just the second individual winner for Extreme Warrior from just four runners to hit the track.

With Lloyd Kennewell in Tokyo for Sunday's Japan Cup (Gr 1, 2400m), it was father Gary who saddled the colt and spoke on course.

"He's probably doing some shopping and watching the race, it's fantastic" he said. "He gave a good kick and Zac just rode him a treat. He put him into the race and he finished off"

Eternal Warrior was not on his best behaviour pre-race and was one of the last to jump, but quickly recovered and travelled strongly before powering late.

Spain said the colt showed raw ability under pressure. "I liked his turn of foot today, I thought he trialled up really well, but you have to show that race day under race day pressure," the winning rider said.

"I didn't think I was going to get past Lachie [Neindorf, on Stretan Ruler]...but the more I got stuck into my bloke, the more he picked up."

The win was a significant milestone for Extreme Warrior, whose early fertility issues (55.8 per cent in 2022; 69.2 per cent in 2023) saw modest foal numbers but who has now produced a metro winner and a stakes winner from minimal representation.

Saturday's success places him prominently among first-season sires heading into the summer, and Gary Kennewell confirmed Eternal Warrior could attempt to keep his sire's momentum rolling with a tilt at the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) firmly on the table.

"I know he [Lloyd] does like having a runner up there, so it would be nice," he said. "He should get the 1200 metres, the way he got home. He was tough at the line."

An $80,000 Magic Millions Adelaide yearling purchase for Kennewell Racing and Blueblood Thoroughbreds, Eternal Warrior is the first runner and first stakes winner out of No Nay Never (Scat Daddy) mare Devout Hero, herself a half-sister to stakes placegetters Papillon (Rock Of Gibraltar) and Lady Sharapova (Fastnet Rock) from the famed family of four-time Group 1 scorer Alinghi (Encosta De Lago).

Extreme Warrior is standing at Rosemont Stud for a fee of $13,200 (inc GST), down from $16,500 last year.

Motorsports powers McEvoy to another spring highlight

Tony and Calvin McEvoy may have been 650 kilometres away preparing for Calvin's wedding, but their spring momentum rolled right on at Caulfield on Saturday as Motorsports (Street Boss) delivered a stylish victory in the Blue Sapphire Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m).

Watching from a South Australian hotel with family and friends, the father-and-son team were able to toast their latest black-type success on the eve of Sunday's ceremony, with regular stable rider and wedding guest Harry Coffey doing the honours in the saddle.

Motorsports, the well-supported $4 favourite, settled back in the ten-runner field before Coffey eased her into clear air mid-race, the Street Boss (Street Cry) filly letting down strongly to score by 0.8 lengths over $17 outsider Recuperato (Farnan), with Regeneration (King's Legacy) another length away in third.

Coffey said the win would no doubt set an early tone for the celebrations.

"We've got a big day tomorrow with the McEvoy clan and I'm happy to still be invited to the wedding after that," the winning rider said. "I'd be saying there'd be a pretty rowdy pub in Adelaide somewhere right now."

It continued a powerful spring for the McEvoy, who prepared Half Yours (St Jean) to claim the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m)-Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) double, and gave Motorsports a second win from just three starts since joining the stable in August.

Coffey, who trialled the filly before her debut but missed her first start due to family reasons, was grateful to reunite with her.

"I was lucky enough and fortunate enough to find her when she swapped from

Motorsports

James Cummings to the McEvoy team, but unfortunately I couldn't ride her at her first start [because] my baby was due the day she ran at Ballarat," he said.

"I put that aside and, luckily enough for me, Luke [Currie] was suspended and I was able to rejoin and get back on her back. It's good of Godolphin and the McEvoy to allow me to do that as she's a ripping filly."

The jockey was similarly full of praise for the filly's attitude and professionalism.

"She's a ripping filly. She's a pleasure to ride; she does things right and she has a turn of foot, and that's everything you want in horses," Coffey said.

"I just had to come out and probably get rocking into the race 50 to 100 meters earlier than I wanted. I thought that probably showed late when she was peaking, but she won the race pretty easily in the end. It was a good effort. Tony wanted me to ride conservatively, let the race pan out, and have one last crack at them, and it all went well."

A Godolphin homebred, Motorsports is the best of two winners out of the Group 3-winning Exceed And Excel (Danehill) mare Jorda, whose later progeny include a juvenile sister with Gary Portelli and a yearling filly by Anamoe (Street Boss).

The win also made Motorsports the 86th individual stakes winner for Darley's Street Boss and continued his strong nick with Exceed And Excel mares, producing eight stakes winners from 59 runners.

Ruska Roma delivers overdue black-type breakthrough in Twilight Glow Stakes

Grahame Begg's patience was finally rewarded at Caulfield on Saturday when Pinecliff homebred Ruska Roma (Super Seth) swept through late to claim the Twilight Glow Stakes (Listed, 1400m), securing the first black-type success of her career after a spring marred by bad luck and blocked runs.

The filly, so often a victim of circumstance since breaking her maiden in August, was granted a rare clean passage when odds-on favourite Jenni Gone Bonkers (Maurice) began to wobble on the home turn. Seizing the opening, jockey Jordan Childs angled off heels, accelerated through the gap and put the race away with authority. Continued on page 5

WE'VE GOT A BIG DAY TOMORROW WITH THE MCEVOY CLAN AND I'M HAPPY TO STILL BE INVITED TO THE WEDDING AFTER THAT. I'D BE SAYING THERE'D BE A PRETTY ROWDY PUB IN ADELAIDE SOMEWHERE RIGHT NOW

Continued from page 4 Ruska Roma ($8.50) surged clear to win by 1.3 lengths, with Jenni Gone Bonkers clinging to second and Lyrics 'N' Song (Written Tycoon) - the well-bred daughter of multiple Group 1 winner Melody Belle (Commands) - snatching valuable black-type in third, another 0.3 lengths behind.

Begg could not hide his relief at seeing the Pinecliff-owned filly enjoy an uninterrupted run.

"She deserved that Listed win. She's been running well right throughout the spring but hasn't had a lot of luck in her races," he said.

"The other day, it was a tragedy that she didn't finish closer to Sheza Alibi as she got held up to the 100 metres and we all saw what Sheza Alibi did in the Sandown Guineas."

For Begg, the quality was evident from the moment Ruska Roma first stepped onto a racetrack in what has since become one of the strongest maidens of the season at Pakenham, where she finished third behind Planet Red (Admire Mars) and Observer (Ghaiyyath).

SHE DESERVED THAT LISTED WIN. SHE'S BEEN RUNNING WELL RIGHT THROUGHOUT THE SPRING BUT HASN'T HAD A LOT OF LUCK IN HER RACES

GRAHAME BEGG

"She's always shown us ability," he said. "Her first start in a race, she ran third behind Planet Red, who ran second in the Guineas. Observer ran second and won the Derby, and she ran third."

Childs, aboard for all seven of her starts, said the good draw and early position proved decisive.

"Today she did all the things right," Childs said. "From the good gate today, we were able to jump, hold a spot in the box seat... when the favourite wobbled, I was able to take its spot and then have an uninterrupted run into the race and she was good all through the line."

The victory provided a significant boost for Waikato Stud's Super Seth (Dundeel), with Ruska Roma becoming his eighth individual stakes winner and his latest advertisement during a season in which he stands at NZ$75,000 (plus GST).

Ruska Roma is one of two winners to come out of the Makfi (Dubawi) mare Sansa, herself a half-sister to Listed winner Members Joy (Hussonet) - the dam of Group 2 winner Pure Elation (I Am Invincible) - and to the dam of Group 3 winner Jennilala (Shalaa).

Morning Briefing

First for Extreme Warrior

Rosemont Stud's first-season sire Extreme Warrior (Extreme Choice) sired his first stakes winner and second individual winner when the Lloyd Kennewell-trained Eternal Warrior (2 c ex Devout Hero by No Nay Never) narrowly landed the Merson Cooper Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Caulfield on Saturday. An $80,000 Magic Millions Adelaide yearling purchase for Kennewell Racing and Blueblood Thoroughbreds, Eternal Warrior is the first runner and first stakes winner out of No Nay Never (Scat Daddy) mare Devout Hero, herself a half-sister to stakes placegetters Papillon (Rock Of Gibraltar) and Lady Sharapova (Fastnet Rock) from the famed family of four-time Group 1 scorer Alinghi (Encosta De Lago). Extreme Warrior is standing for a fee of $13,200 (inc GST).

Second for Russian Revolution

Newgate Farm stallion Russian Revolution (Snitzel) recorded his second individual Group 1 winner when the Annabel and Rob Archibald-trained Libertad (5 h ex Electric Charge by Charge Forward) scored in the Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Ascot on Saturday. Bred by Rheinwood Pastoral along with Somerset Services, Libertad is out of winning Charge Forward (Red Ransom) mare Electric Charge, herself a half-sister to Group 1-placed stakes winner Miss Darcey (Hussonet), and was first sold for $40,000 to Tal Nolen from Rheinwood's draft at the 2022 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale before selling to Annabel Archibald for $210,000 at the Inglis Ready2Race Sale later that year. Russian Revolution is standing at a fee of $33,000 (inc GST).

30 for Too Darn Hot

Darley shuttler Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) was provided with his 30th individual stakes winner on Saturday when Hot And High (3 f ex High Conviction by Snitzel) took out the Sir Ernest Lee-Steere Classic (Listed, 1400m) at Ascot. Ridden by Lucy Fiore for trainer Dion Luciani, the three-year-old filly ran out a dominant three-length scorer over Ninetymilestraight (Flying Artie) with a further 3.6 lengths back to Sherpa Express (Blue Point) in third. Raced by Brett Fogarty's Cape Falls Thoroughbreds, Hot And High is the only winning foal from four to come out of the winning Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) mare High Conviction. Too Darn Hot has returned to Darley's Kelvinside base for 2025 at a fee of $275,000 (inc GST).

46 for Toronado

Swettenham Stud's Toronado (High Chaparral) sired his 46th individual stakes winner when the Simon Miller-trained Toropa (5 m ex Europa Point by Rock Of Gibraltar) landed Saturday's Jungle Dawn Classic (Listed, 1400m) at Ascot. Ridden by Brad Parnham, the five-year-old mare scored by 1.9 lengths over Amjaad (Flying Artie) with a further 0.6 lengths back to Luvnwar (War Decree) in third place. Out of the stakes-placed Rock Of Gibraltar (Danehill) mare Europa Point, Toropa is a half-sister to four winners, including the stakes-placed La Farola (Deep Field). Toronado has been forced to miss the 2025 breeding season after suffering lameness due to an infection.

86 for Street Boss

Darley stallion Street Boss (Street Cry) was handed his 86th individual stakes winner on Saturday when Motorsports (3 f ex Jorda by Exceed And Excel) scored in the Blue Sapphire Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield. Motorsports is the best of two winners to come out of the Group 3-winning Exceed And Excel (Danehill) mare Jorda, herself a half-sister to the dam of stakes winner Espaniyah (I Am Invincible). Street Boss is standing at Darley's Northwood Park for a fee of $66,000 (inc GST).

Eight for Super Seth

Waikato Stud stallion Super Seth (Dundeel) chalked up his eighth individual stakes winner when the Grahame Begg-trained Ruska Roma (3 f ex Sansa by Makfi) landed Saturday's Twilight Glow Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Caulfield. Bred and raced by Jonathan Munz' Pinecliff Racing, Ruska Roma is one of two winners to come out of the Makfi (Dubawi) mare Sansa, herself a half-sister to Listed winner Members Joy (Hussonet) - the dam of Group 2 winner Pure Elation (I Am Invincible) - and to the dam of Group 3 winner Jennilala (Shalaa). Super Seth is standing for a fee of NZ$75,000 (plus GST).

Ghaiyyath's Different Gravy lands Melbourne Classic

The Henry Dwyer-trained Different Gravy (Ghaiyyath) landed a big payday on Saturday when landing the $400,000 Melbourne Classic (2000m) at Caulfield. Ridden by Mark Zahra, the three-year-old son of Darley's former shuttler Ghaiyyath (Dubawi) produced a dominant display as he defeated Brave Danza (Brave Smash) by 1.8 lengths with a further 1.2 lengths back to Snitz Sonic (Snitzel) in third. "I was able to clock off late. He won as he liked," Zahra said. "I can't see why you wouldn't go down a Derby path, for sure." Meanwhile, winning trainer Dwyer said: "I think he's learning all the time and getting better. I think the further the better now that he's settling. He's earned a spell now but we'd like to think he's a Queensland Derby horse in the winter."

Doveton Stakes victory for Aviatress

Aviatress (5 m Smart Missile - Twin Star Rocket by Bel Esprit) recorded her third career stakes success on Saturday when narrowly scoring in the Doveton Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Caulfield. Ridden by Craig Williams for trainers Richard and Chantelle Jolly, the five-year-old mare won by 0.3 lengths over Boston Rocks (Hellbent) with the narrowest of margins back to Prairie Flower (Star Turn) in third.

Casino Seventeen scores fifth stakes win

The Gavin Bedggood-trained Casino Seventeen (8 g Casino Prince - Tikal by Denman) registered his fifth stakes success when landing Saturday's Eclipse Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) at Caulfield. Ridden by Billy Egan, the now eight-year-old gelding showed he retains plenty of his ability as he denied Rumbled Again (Night Of Thunder) by 0.2 lengths. There was a further 0.7 lengths back to Ocean Beyond (Ocean Park) in third. "He's been frustrating as he's knocked on the door a few times and ran plenty of good races without winning so it was good to see him get over the line today," Bedggood told Racing.com.

Opening Address back in winner's circle

Opening Address (So You Think) was back in the winner's circle for the first time since winning the TAB Trophy (Listed, 1800m) at Flemington on Melbourne Cup Day just over 12 months ago when landing the Whispering Angel Handicap (1800m) at Caulfield on Saturday under apprentice Luke Cartwright. The New Zealand-bred son of So You Think (High Chaparral) was sent out a $21 chance for trainer Liam Howley but ran out a comfortable 0.8 lengths winner from Sigiriya Rock (Alabama Express). "He's been enormous. Two starts back, he had a heavy weight then last start it was pattern," Howley's general manager Adin Strang said. "The most important thing is the owners have been incredibly patient, with Cup day a couple of years ago his last win when in super form. We knew another win was coming. I thought for a second he went a bit early, but he's tough and Liam has done an enormous job."

She's A Hustler

She's A Hustler steals the show in Zipping Classic

Five-year-old mare She's A Hustler (5 m Ace High - Snow Petal by Bernardini) continues to meet every challenge, defeating more seasoned rivals at weight-for-age in the Zipping Classic (Gr 2, 2400m) at Caulfield on Saturday.

The Grahame Begg-trained mare dug deep under regular rider Jordan Childs to defeat this year's Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Light Infantry Man (Fast Company) by 0.4 lengths, with a further 2.2 lengths back to Etna Rosso (Decorated Knight) in third.

The New Zealand import has never finished out of the top two in 11 career starts, with seven victories to her name to go with four runner-up finishes and $842,456 in prize-money.

"She toughed it out," Begg said. "She came under pressure early. She's still learning her craft. She doesn't know what she's doing in a race. They came up around her in a bit of a wave.

"The pressure went on, but she sustained that and was still strong late. Something similar happened in the Tesio Stakes. They came up around her and she was under pressure early, at the 600 metres and she was able to sustain that and be strong late.

"It was a similar scenario today. Full credit to her at weight-for-age. She wasn't well-weighted under the conditions of the race, but you know what, she's a winner."

Begg said the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) could be on the radar next spring after winning over the course and distance.

"You have to have those ambitions. She's a beauty, a winning machine. She's never finished further back than second in 11 starts, seven wins. How good's that," he said.

"We may go to Brisbane for one or two runs up there in the winter, something like the Q22 and then back down here to Melbourne. The Q22 is a great race and it sets them up for the spring."

163 for Snitzel

Late Arrowfield Stud stalwart Snitzel was provided with his 163rd individual stakes winner when Yorkshire (5 g ex Chanteline by Majesticperfection) landed the Festival Stakes (Gr 3, 1500m) at Rosehill on Saturday. Ridden by Zac Lloyd for trainers John O'Shea and Tom Charlton, the five-year-old gelding scored by 0.4 lengths over Arctic Glamour (Frosted) with a further 0.3 lengths back to Melody Again (Your Song) in third. "I was quite concerned coming into the race because there was a chance he could lob in behind a couple of horses that weren't going to take him too far," said John O'Shea. "The concern was he was going to be in the gates for a long time from one and he might have been a bit tardy away which would have given the opportunity for horses that are wider in the market to cross him and that would have presented with some issues.

Once he jumped very well, Zac Lloyd did the right thing and controlled the race." Bred by SF Bloodstock and foaled and raised at Newgate, Yorkshire is the first winner out of the imported Grade 3-winning mare Chanteline (Majesticperfection). Chanteline has a yearling colt by I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) and produced a filly this spring by Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt). Snitzel died in June this year.

Second for Spieth

Aquis Farm's late stallion Spieth (Thorn Park) chalked up his second individual stakes winner the Bryce Heys-trained Flying For Fun (4 m ex Vol Prive by Sebring) scored a dominant success in the Starlight Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Rosehill on Saturday. Ridden by Zac Lloyd, the four-year-old mare defeated Barber (Exceed And Excel) by 1.3 lengths with a further 0.6 lengths back to Front Page (Magnus) in third. "She deserved that win, she's been racing well but things just haven't gone her way," Heys said. "In the Group 1 in Melbourne up the straight [Champions Sprint], she began to well and took it up and the conditions were treacherous that day so nothing went to plan. But good horses capitalise on good set ups and she did that today. It looked in the run that things were going to plan but it's a tough game this one, especially for battlers like me so you just hope it all works out. Full credit to Zac, he gave her a beautiful run in transit which enabled her to let down like she did." Flying For Fun was foaled and raised at Yarraman Park for her breeder-owner Michael O'Keeffe, and she is the only foal out of her dam Vol Prive (Sebring), who died in 2022. Spieth died in 2022.

Here To Shock shows class in Testa Rossa

An inch-perfect ride by Mark Zahra has aided warhorse Here To Shock (8 g Shocking - Frescoes by Lonhro) to add another stakes win to his CV as the Group 1 winner defeated the fast-closing Persian Spirit (Cable Bay) by 0.2 lengths in the Testa Rossa Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Caulfield on Saturday.

Prepared by the Lindsay Park team of Ben, Will and J D Hayes, the eight-year-old gelding lumped 60 kilograms as he notched career win number 14.

There was a further 4.2 lengths back to the third-placed Big Swinger (Trapeze Artist).

Zahra went straight to the front on the son of Shocking (Street Cry) and had most of his rivals gasping rounding the final bend and was game as always as he staved off Persian Spirit.

The win now sets up another tilt at slot race the $1 million The Supernova (1400m) at Pakenham on December 13, a race Here To Shock won last season.

"It was a great ride by Mark. He really helped him out of the gates, got him to relax, got him into a lovely rhythm," Ben Hayes said.

"The little bit of give helped him too. Carrying topweight, and giving a big kick like he did, it's just a big thrill. Well done to the team and he's been a great horse for the ownership group. We've had a good run with him and it's good to get another win for them."

Here To Shock has felt the full effects of winning the BCD Group Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m) last season and has either taken on elite company or carried big weights this spring.

"He got punished a little bit for winning the Group 1 over in New Zealand and he's now carrying topweight in every race he goes to," Hayes said.

"He was running against some very good horses and we just thought we would freshen, miss the Flemington carnival and look to target a race like this. The plan is to go to the $1 million race, the Supanova. He's definitely put his hand up for that."

Derby winner Major Beel lands ATC Cup

The 2023 Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Major Beel (6 g Savabeel - Gram by O'Reilly) was back winning at stakes level when landing the ATC Cup (Listed, 2000m) at Rosehill on Saturday. The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained son of Savabeel (Zabeel) has been a winner at Benchmark level since his Derby triumph but hadn't troubled the scorer for the past 12 months. Sent out a $21 chance, Major Beel out-toughed well-fancied stablemate Shangi La Spring (Castelvecchio) to score by 1.4 lengths in the hands of Rachel King. There was a further 0.5 lengths back to Hollywood Hero (Sacred Falls) in third. "He's been quite consistent and needed the right conditions to break through and getting back out to 2000 metres gave him that chance today," Bott said. "He was aided by a lovely ride by Rachel and things really fell into place for him and he made it count. We've been really happy with him going into today, his two runs at the mile were good but at this stage of his career they're a bit sharp for him over that distance now. The 2000 metres is his sweet spot and today showed us that he's set for a good preparation over the summer. All the main staying races are there for him and we have the option of maybe even stretching him out over further as well."

Hyperbolic records maiden metro win

The Brad Widdup-trained Hyperbolic (Proisir) ran out a ready winner of the Captivant @ Kia Ora Handicap (1400m) at Rosehill on Saturday as the daughter of Proisir (Choisir) recorded her first metropolitan success. Ridden by Tommy Berry, Hyperbolic jumped from barrier two and stalked the favourite Maid Of Moolah (Capitalist) and Bravissima (Deep Field) and when presented mid-stretch pounced to score by 1.7 lengths over Rubi's Serve (Rubick). Sporting the colours of Mulberry, Hyperbolic has now won four of her 12 starts and placed on another four occasions for Widdup, who watched the race from Japan. "We were pretty confident once she drew that inside barrier we were going to use it today," stable representative Rosie Jilla said. "She was quite fresh coming into today and she had come through her first-up run really well and it was just a perfect race for her. Tommy Sherry rode her first-up and he was rapt with her. It might not have looked that good on paper but she just needed a bit further. It is fantastic to get winners for Mike Gregg of Mulberry and Lachie Sheridan. They are massive supporters of ours and Saturday winners are not easy to get. This filly is only improving and I think this is a good starting point for her."

Third for Kobayashi

Aquis Farm stallion Kobayashi (I Am Invincible) chalked up his third individual stakes winner when Midnight In Tokyo (6 m ex Orabelle by Casino Prince) scored in the Tattersall's Classic (Listed, 1200m) at Doomben on Saturday. Ridden by Ryan Maloney for trainers Annabel and Rob Archibald, the six-year-old mare defeated Lonhro's Queen (Lonhro) by a comfortable 1.7 lengths. There was a further 0.7 lengths back to En Pointe (Better Than Ready) in third. Out of the winning Casino Prince (Flying Spur) mare Orabelle, Midnight In Tokyo is a half-sister to fellow Listed winner Generosity (Divine Prophet). Kobayashi is standing for a fee of $13,200 (inc GST).

Rockribbed takes out Recognition Stakes

The Tony Gollan-trained Rockribbed (8 g Night Of Thunder - Seattle Lass by Fraar) registered his second career stakes success on Saturday when scoring in the Recognition Stakes (Listed, 1350m) at Doomben. Providing jockey Ryan Maloney with a back-to-back stakes double, the eight-year-old gelding beat stablemate Boomtown Boss (Spirit Of Boom) by 0.1 length, with a further 1.5 lengths back to the third-placed Oughton (More Than Ready).

New Zealand

Second for Circus Maximus

Unbeaten filly Circus Dancer (3 f ex Folies Bergere by O'Reilly) defied $26 odds to keep her perfect record intact in the O'Learys Fillies' Stakes (Listed, 1340m) at Wanganui on Saturday, becoming her sire Circus Maximus' (Galileo) second individual stakes winner in doing so. The $80,000 three-year-old fillies' feature was the second start for the Cody Cole-trained filly, whose only previous appearance produced a strong maiden win at New Plymouth on October 24. On Saturday she was put in a prominent position by jockey Madan Singh and produced a smart turn of foot in the straight to lead past the 200 metres, putting enough space on her rivals to return the 0.3-length winner over the fast-finishing $2.30 favourite War Princess (U S Navy Flag). Marokopa Falls (Hellbent) was another length back in third. "Everything went perfectly," Singh said. "She jumped well and I put her up there, and she travelled nice and comfortably all the way. When I asked her, she gave a really good response. It was a great effort, going into a Listed race in only her second start." Raced by John Wood, Circus Dancer has now earned $56,360 after being bought for just $3,200 from Gavelhouse.com as a yearling in July 2024. Bred by the late Rick Orr, the filly is out of the unraced mare Folies Bergere (O'Reilly) - producer of five winners from five foals to race with two of them now stakes winners, the other being Oaks Prelude (Listed, 1800m) winner Khanshe (Mongolian Khan). Circus Maximus stands at Windsor Park Stud for NZ$17,500 (plus GST).

JANE DAVIDSON

Eight for Tarzino

Westbury Stud sire Tarzino (Tavistock) registered his eighth individual stakes winner when Tshiebwe (6 g ex Aint No Lollygagga by No Excuse Needed) produced a strong performance to take out the Wanganui Cup (Listed, 2040m) at Wanganui on Saturday. The Allan Sharrock-trained stayer was having just the third start of his current campaign having opened with a win over 1600 metres on his home track at New Plymouth in October, followed by a third placing at Waverley a fortnight ago. Sharrock had the gelding fit for his third up run and with a near perfect ride from Sam Collett, the six-year-old easily proved 3.3 lengths too good for Enrico (El Roco), with The Odyssey (Zacinto) another 0.1 lengths back in third. "Allan says he doesn't give out tens' for rides much but he gave me nine and three quarters, so that is my day made," Collett said. "He is a very progressive type of horse that has taken some time to furnish. He is a big rangy boy with plenty more growing to do, so whatever he does now, he is going to improve on and the Wellington Cup will be right up his alley." Sharrock added: "He's a massive string bean and couldn't walk as a foal as he was so big and gangly. His long term plan is the Wellington Cup, so we will see how we go." The Wellington Cup (Gr 3, 3200m) will be run at Trentham on January 31. Bred and raced by Sharrock and former TAB chief executive Dean McKenzie, Tshiebwe is out of their No Excuse Needed (Machiavellian) mare Aint No Lollygagga and from an extended family that includes dual Australian Group 1 winner Perlin (Carnegie).

27 for Almanzor

Cambridge Stud sire Almanzor (Wootton Bassett) sired his 27th individual stakes winner on Saturday when Mary Shan (5 m ex Shanzam by High Chaparral) delivered a powerful late surge to claim the Great Northern Challenge Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Ellerslie. The Andrew Forsman-trained mare had built one of the most consistent résumés in New Zealand racing without a stakes win with four Group or Listed placings but chose a high-profile moment to put that statistic to bed. Settled midfield by Craig Grylls, the mare unleashed her trademark finishing burst, cutting down reigning Horse of the Year El Vencedor (Shocking) in the shadows of the post to score by 0.2 lengths, with Nereus (Savabeel) the same margin further back in third. "It's great for this mare to get a black-type win," Grylls said. "She's been knocking on the door so many times, so it's thoroughly deserved... I was pretty confident from about 200 metres out... she balanced up and just built up all the momentum and then hit the line very strongly." The win continues a superb five-year-old season for the mare, who has now claimed three victories from four starts. Owned by Jackie Rogers and Gerald Shand, Mary Shan was purchased for $180,000 from Prima Park's Book 1 draft at Karaka 2022. She is the fourth foal out of High Chaparral (Sadler's Wells) mare Shanzam, and Wentwood Grange will offer her 2024 Almanzor colt as Lot 114 at Karaka 2026.

15 for Redwood

Westbury Stud stallion Redwood (High Chaparral) added 15th individual stakes winner to his resume on Saturday when promising filly Pulsatilla (3 f ex Edie by Rock Of Gibraltar) produced an explosive rails-hugging turn of foot to land the Trevor & Corallie Eagle Memorial 3YO (Listed, 1500m) at Ellerslie. The Gerry Harvey-bred and owned filly had already shown above-average ability in her opening three starts: an eye-catching fifth behind subsequent New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) heroine Well Written (Written Tycoon), then a sharp maiden win at Avondale before disappointing at Ellerslie on November 4. Ridden ice-cold by Warren Kennedy on Saturday, the filly settled midfield behind a strong tempo before being shuffled back approaching the bend. Kennedy waited for the rail to open and Pulsatilla unleashed a dazzling burst when it did, sweeping past Oratia Beauty (Too Darn Hot) to score by 2.3 lengths, with a further 0.2 lengths back to Sweet Ice (Frosted) in third. "She's been impressive and has always shown us a lot," co-trainer Shaun Clotworthy said. "I said to [Kennedy] before the race not to cover any extra ground and she has a dynamic turn of foot, which you saw today." Clotworthy believes Pulsatilla has the profile to keep climbing as the distances rise. "She has put them away pretty easily and now we will have a look at what is next. We might see her back here on New Year's Day, but I think she is an Oaks type of filly so that is the long term goal." Out of Rock Of Gibraltar (Danehill) mare Edie, the winner hails from one of Harvey's most distinguished families, with her granddam being Jezabeel (Zabeel), winner of both the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) and Auckland Cup (Gr 1, 3200m).

Five for Saturnalia

Shadai Stallion Station's Saturnalia (Lord Kanaloa) chalked up his fifth individual stakes winner on Saturday when Justin Vista (2 c ex Pebble Garden by Deep Impact) scored in the Kyoto Nisai Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Kyoto. Ridden by Yuichi Kitamura for trainer Tatsuya Yoshioka, the juvenile colt defeated Ask Edinburgh (Leontes) by a length with a further neck back to Going To Sky (Contrail) in third. Out of the Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) mare Pebble Garden, Justin Vista is a half-brother to winners Misaki Chantilly (Eskendereya), Gratitude (Epiphaneia) and Ecoro Raise (American Patriot). Saturnalia is standing for a fee of ¥10,000,000 (approx. AU$97,910).

20 for St Mark's Basilica

Coolmore shuttler St Mark's Basilica (Siyouni) sired his 20th individual winner when the Hugo Palmer-trained Heart Beats True (2 f ex Qatar Princess by Marju) scored in a seven-furlong novice at Southwell on Friday. Ridden by Billy Loughnane, the juvenile filly defeated Too Hot To Tango (Too Darn Hot) by two and a half lengths, with a further two lengths back to My Shagaf (Sioux Nation) in third. Heart Beats True is a half-sister to Listed winner Flaming Princess (Hot Streak) being the sixth foal out of the Marju (Last Tycoon) mare Qatar Princess, herself a half-sister to Group 2 winner Royal Dornoch (Gleneagles). St Mark's Basilica is standing at Coolmore Australia for an unchanged fee of $38,500 (inc GST).

US: Lush Lips continues winning form in Mrs Revere

Last-start Grade 1 winner Lush Lips (3 f Ten Sovereigns - Lamyaa by Arcano) continued her winning form as she landed Friday's Mrs Revere Stakes (Gr 2, 8.5f) at Churchill Downs. The Brendan Walsh-trained three-year-old filly was ridden by Tyler Gaffalione and defeated Pretty Picture (Munnings) by a half-length, with a further neck back to Classic Q (Classic Empire) in third place.

US: Magnitude doubles Graded tally in Clark Stakes

The Steve Asmussen-trained Magnitude (3 c Not This Time - Rockadelic by Berardini) added a second Graded contest to his CV when scoring in Friday's Clark Stakes (Gr 2, 9f) at Churchill Downs. Ridden by Jose Ortiz, the three-year-old colt defeated Hit Show (Candy Ride) by a half-length with a further head back to Chunk Of Gold (Preservationist) in third.

US: Truly Quality too strong in Hollywood Turf Cup

Truly Quality (5 g Quality Road - Truly Together by Smart Strike) added a third Graded win to his tally when the Jonathan Thomas-trained gelding ran out a length and three-quarters winner of Friday's Hollywood Turf Cup Stakes (Gr 2, 12f) at Del Mar. Ridden by Mirco Demuro, the five-year-old beat Flashiest (Mizzen Mast) with a further head back to Nineeventurbo (More Than Ready).

VERDICT The two 3yos, Croix Du Nord and Masquerade Ball (second choice) have plenty going for them, while Danon Decile, Tastiera and Admire Terra also command respect. However, it's about time this prize was exported again and Francis Graffard fires the biggest of shots with CALANDAGAN, who can firm up his position as the world's best racehorse with a famous victory. BETTING FORECAST: 6-4 Thunder Prince, 9-2 Glaciated, 11-2 Rezeki, 6 Day Day Victory, 8 Winning Machine, 10 Robot Knight, 20 Gimme Five, 33 King Dance, Shinyu Kokoro, 50 Sugar Queen Prawn, Winning Cigar, 66 Billion Two.

VERDICT Pierre Ng's GLACIATED has been knocking on the door this season and his close third over C&D two runs ago reads well in the context of this race. Dirt debutant Thunder Prince was placed on his last two turf starts and is earmarked as a likely danger. Winning Machine is drawn wide but may appreciate the return to this surface after a below-par turf effort.

BETTING FORECAST: Evens Ever Luck, 3 Majestic Valour, 7 Straight To Glory, 10 Leading Agility, 12 Enjoy Golf, 20 Robot Star, 25 Golden Dream, 33 Golden Triumph, Joy Capital, 50 Conrad The Great, Crossborderdude, 66 I P O Bros.

VERDICT Six of these are newcomers and, while both Leading Agility (second choice) and Robot Star have shown up well in trial races, the standout in that sphere has been MAJESTIC VALOUR, who can make an immediate impact with victory here before going on to better things. Ever Luck has plenty of ability judged by his debut success, but he nearly threw that victory away by racing erratically and is worth opposing off an 8lb higher mark. Straight To Glory is the pick of the more battle-hardened runners and could again make the frame.

VERDICT Lightly raced 4yo THE GOLDEN KNIGHT broke more promptly from the stalls than on previous outings before staying on strongly for second over 7f here a fortnight ago, and he seems likely to benefit from today's step up in trip. Zac Purton's mount Smart Fat Cat also moves up in trip today and is second choice. Others to consider are Pearl Of Pang's, who may be revitalised on his return from a short break, and Audacious Pursuit, who remains on an upward curve.

VERDICT Cases can be made for several of these but top of the list is James McDonald's mount BLAZING WIND, who has taken very well to dirt this season and has the inside draw today. Lightly raced 4yo Metro Power, a turf winner in September, impressed in a recent dirt trial and has possibilities on this official dirt debut. Mr Energia, who beat the selection here two starts ago, is also considered.

VERDICT Brazilian Group 1 winner Sagacious Life finished well for a narrow C&D success on last month's Hong Kong debut but slight preference is for fast-improving 5yo HONG LOK GOLF, who was unlucky not to finish closer than sixth in that race and probably still has untapped potential over 1m. Steps Ahead and Lo Rider can also feature.

BETTING FORECAST: 7-4 Super Strong Kid, 5-2 Alpha Strike, 5 Lightness Of Music, 10 New Future Folks, 12 Triumphant More, 14 Wings Of War, 16 Goldentronicmighty, Taogether, 25 Cornerstone, 33 Armor Golden Eagle, Heaving, 66 Bigtime Generation.

VERDICT Alpha Strike made all over 5f here on his Hong Kong debut and is not opposed with much confidence but there is still more to come from dual 5f course winner SUPER STRONG KID, who ran well in defeat when upped to 6f last month. Lightness Of Music was a very disappointing odds-on favourite here in September but he impressed on his debut in June and will be dangerous if back on song.

VERDICT This competitive finale might go to low-mileage 4yo BLAZING WUKONG, who moves up in trip after making a very solid start to this season over 7f. Dazzling Fit could also have untapped potential over this new trip and is feared most, while recent C&D winner Beauty Bolt is another with strong claims.
