Cosmic Crusader edges Northerly thriller

By Trevor Marshallsea

Cosmic Crusader (Maurice) broke a top-level drought for West Australian breeding legend Bob Peters and became a long-awaited third Australian elite-level winner for his sire in taking Saturday's Northerly Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) at Ascot.

Ridden by Clint Johnson-Porter, the Michael Grantham-trained five-year-old jumped well from gate nine of 16 and settled midfield one off the fence as a frenetic pace was set by bolter Osipenko (Pierro) and former Peters runner Western Empire (Iffraaj), the field stretched out more than 20 lengths after 800 metres.

Johnston-Porter eased Cosmic Crusader to a three-wide line with cover passing the 800 metres before bringing him out as the widest runner on the turn, six horses off the fence.

Cosmic Crusader exploded to the lead at the 200 metres, only for Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Watch Me Rock (Awesome Rock) to burst from the pack with a fearsome challenge to his outside.

The pair settled in to fight a torrid battle down the home straight, and just as it looked like the latter was about to take the ascendancy, Cosmic Crusader dug in and scored by 0.15 lengths, providing Peters' private trainer Michael Grantham with his first top-tier success.

Berkeley Square bags back-to-back Ballarat Cups

Local hope Berkeley Square (Territories) pushed his winnings past the $2 million mark when going back-to-back in the $500,000 Ballarat Cup (Listed, 2000m) on Saturday.

Ridden superbly by veteran Luke Nolen and appreciating the return of a set of blinkers, the six-year-old gelding settled last from gate 13 of 14, while a solid pace was set by Air Assault (Justify) over $3.90 favourite Saint George (Roaring Lion).

Nolen set off from the 700 metres and brought Berkeley Square as the widest runner around the home turn, and the Dan O'Sullivan-trained gelding came home powerfully on his home track to score by 2.75 lengths.

Illustrating the top pair's dominance, Western Empire hung on gamely for third - 4.73 lengths further back.

Previously unbeaten three-year-old King Of Light (Earthlight) didn't feature as $2.40 favourite under Willie Pike, finishing 14th, while Ciaron Maher's Vivvy Air (Hellbent) - heavily backed into $5.50 second-favouritism, managed only eighth after settling at the rear.

Cosmic Crusader had support as a $6 third-favourite in the $1.5 million feature, with Watch Me Rock at $14 and Western Empire $8.

In 2021, Peters swept the board of WA's three elite events, claiming the Railway with Western Empire, the Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) with Graceful Girl (Nicconi), and the Northerly with Regal Power (Pierro).

But those were Peters' last Group 1 wins, and were the last time his famed cerise with white crossed sashes had placed in Perth's top-level trio - until the victory from his homebred gelding on Saturday.

The win also made up for Cosmic Crusader missing a start as an emergency in last month's Railway. However, the fact he beat Watch Me Rock at level weights in Saturday's weight-for-age feature, having been allocated a kilogram less in the handicap Railway, raised questions about what he might have done that day had he not been an unused emergency.

"It's really good to see," Peters said of the win. "Makes you wonder what might have happened in the previous race [the Railway], but still that's passed and it's very good to win this race."

Cosmic Crusader has now won eight of 16 starts and more than $1.2m in prize-money. He's won four of six this preparation, after requiring a year off due to injury - which Peters feels may have helped turn him into a special horse.

"He had an injury and I gave him 12 months off to get over it, and I think that was the making of him," Peters told Racing.com. "He was a bit fine before but he developed well and he's a big strong horse now."

The two starts this campaign that Cosmic Crusader didn't win were unlucky thirds in the Asian Beau Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) four starts back and in his subsequent run in the RJ Peters Stakes (Gr 3, 1500m).

Those beaten runs meant he was only an emergency for the Railway. On that day, he instead went into the Carbine Club Stakes (Listed, 1400m), and won by 2.59 lengths at $1.75.

Johnston-Porter was scathing in his self-criticism for both those third placings, suggesting in his post-race comments after the Asian Beau that "the jockey should give up." He was thus naturally thankful not only that Peters and Grantham stood by him, but elated to have rewarded them with a Northerly title.

"I thought I was the one getting in his way. I always thought he was a good horse. I was so gutted when he won the Carbine Club. I thought he should've won the Railway that day. So for me to get it right today is pretty special," the jockey said after his second career Group 1 win, the first having been last year's Railway on Port Lockroy (Better Than Ready).

"It's always special winning your first Group 1, but with the opportunities I get from Bob and Michael who support me so much, to get the job done is quite special."

Johnston-Porter, who was also emotional in revealing his grandfather had died on Friday night, paid high praise to Cosmic Crusader for his determination, saying he had heard Watch Me Rock coming to his outside.

"That's why I carried on so much after the line - he just gritted his teeth," the 27-year-old said. "I don't know if it was someone watching over me or what it was, but I just sort of fell down on my legs and he just found something I didn't know he had."

Grantham was almost lost for words after his first elite success.

"I never lost belief in him, not one bit," he said, referring to the horse's two recent third placings. "Myself and my trackwork riders are very onto little things about him. He pulled up every time from a race and was licking the bin out. I knew there was nothing wrong with him, it was just the luck we had in running.

"When he won last start I thought the drop back in distance [from 1600 metres] to 1400 wasn't going to be ideal for him. Jumping up to the 1800 today I was still stuck in the middle. But no, I never lost [faith] in him."

Grantham happily recalled what led to him becoming Peters' private trainer, after the giant breeder's split with Grant and Alana Williams - now Watch Me Rock's trainers - in early 2022.

It came thanks to Grantham's good friend Liam Peters - Bob's grandson - though Grantham admitted to copious nerves in the lead-up, given an almost reverential respect for WA's biggest breeder.

"We were talking on and off. Liam said 'Stop being a wuss and give the old boy a call. He's looking [for a trainer]," Grantham said.

"I remember sitting in the middle of a paddock in the long grass, kneeling down and making that phonecall to Mr Peters. It was the most scariest phone call I've ever had to make. It wasn't even scary when I hung up because I was the only one stressing about it."

Cosmic Crusader not only broke a drought for Peters but for Arrowfield shuttler Maurice (Screen Hero). The 14-year-old hit the highs when Hitotsu won three Group 1s in 2021-22 and Mazu added another later in that season, but had not sired another Australian elite-level victor until Cosmic Crusader's Saturday triumph.

The 14-year-old, currently in his eighth Australian season, has 11 stakes winners here from 223 runners at 4.9 per cent. Worldwide, he has 34 from 898 at 3.7 per cent, including six Group 1 victors.

Cosmic Crusader is the first of five foals to race for Cosmic Storm (Street Sense), who won four Perth stakes events for Peters, capped by the 2016 La Trice Classic (Gr 3, 1800m).

A firm believer in sticking to a mating, Peters has sent Cosmic Storm to Maurice seven times. Her only other cover, just after Cosmic Crusader was born, came from Windsor Park Stud shuttler Charm Spirit (Invincible Spirit), which explains why among Cosmic Storm's progeny, only Cosmic Crusader comes with an NZ suffix.

Cosmic Crusader missed to Maurice last year, while a filly foal by him died soon after birth in 2024. She's now in-foal to him again.

Group 1s on the horizon for Caballus

Caballus (I Am Invincible) again underlined Darby Racing's buying prowess by easily winning his fourth black-type race since the syndicator purchased him in Saturday's George Moore Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Doomben.

Ridden by Tommy Berry, the five-year-old provided a surprise by going to the lead from his wide gate but after having a comfortable time of it in front he kicked away in the straight to score by 3.02 lengths, in near course-record time of 1:07.84.

The gelding's victory was his sixth from 18 starts. Originally bought for $1 million at Inglis Easter by Coolmore's Tom Magnier from Bhima Thoroughbreds' draft, he showed promise in winning his second start at Rosehill for Chris Waller.

But after three subsequent indifferent runs, he was put up for sale on Inglis Digital in October 2023. Darby purchased the then three-year-old colt for a not inconsiderable $315,000.

Sent to Darby's main trainer Bjorn Baker, Caballus won his first two starts including Randwick's Eskimo Prince Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m). After his form tapered away - including two last-placed finishes in his first two Group 1 starts - he was gelded and given a wind operation, and has come back a different horse.

He's since won three black-type sprints from five starts - Scone's Ortensia Stakes (Listed, 1100m), Flemington's Rising Fast Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m), and now the George Moore.

He also ran eighth of nine in his third attempt at the top level, though in mitigation it came on a Heavy 9 in the VRC Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m).

With Baker having watched on from a holiday in Fiji, stable representative - bloodstock agent Jim Clarke - said Caballus had surprised by going to the front.

"It didn't work out exactly the way we envisaged," Clarke said.

"I think Tommy wanted to follow a couple but he jumped well and found the lead fairly easily."

Clarke said Baker had high hopes Caballus could break through for an elite success.

"He won at Flemington during the carnival and I think Bjorn has pretty big aspirations for him, possibly in the autumn and back here in the winter," he said.

"Maybe even a race like the Stradbroke would be ideal for him."

Caballus was a slightly easy $5.50 equal third favourite in the George Moore.

Tony Gollan - winner of the previous four editions of the race - had to be content with second place this time through $9 chance Pereille (Fastnet Rock), another Inglis Digital graduate having formerly been with Godolphin. Billy Healey's Cosmic Fire (Cosmic Force) was third at $14. Gollan's Hidden Wealth (Better Than Ready), the $3.10 favourite, took fourth.

Berry said he was also surprised to find himself in front.

"It was the last place we expected to be but you've got to ride the horse how he jumps and he flew the gates," he said.

"I thought there would be more speed in the race but they were all just having a look at each other and I thought, 'Ah well, I'll take it up'.

"I knew I was on the best horse all week and I was surprised that he wasn't the favourite.

"He's had a month in between runs, a nice freshen-up, and I knew on the way to the gates that he was on."

Bred by Reg Ryan, Caballus is the best of five winners from five to race out of the Group 3-placed mare Calming Influence (Commands), herself a daughter of Adelaide Listed winner Calming (Zeditave).

Calming Influence has a yearling filly by Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) and has a filly foal at foot by Zoustar (Northern Meteor).

Caballus is one of seven stakes winners this season for I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), who has 122 worldwide from 1312 runners at 9.3 per cent.

Berkeley Square bags back-to-back Ballarat Cups

Local hope Berkeley Square (Territories) pushed his winnings past the $2 million mark when going back-to-back in the $500,000 Ballarat Cup (Listed, 2000m) on Saturday.

Ridden superbly by veteran Luke Nolen and appreciating the return of a set of blinkers, the six-year-old gelding settled last from gate 13 of 14, while a solid pace was set by Air Assault (Justify) over $3.90 favourite Saint George (Roaring Lion).

MICHAEL MCINALLY

Continued from page 3 Nolen set off from the 700 metres and brought Berkeley Square as the widest runner around the home turn, and the Dan O'Sullivan-trained gelding came home powerfully on his home track to score by 2.75 lengths.

It was a win which again showed Ballarat's "horses for courses" nature, with those with form on its uphill straight seen to advantage.

Berkeley Square in fact hadn't won a race in nine attempts since his last appearance at the track - winning last year's Ballarat Cup - when apprentice Jaylah Kennedy stepped in for an injured Nolen and produced a 0.3 length victory.

Nolen in turn took the reins from the injured Kennedy this time around.

The target of some support in starting at $9, Berkeley Square won from Anthony and Sam Freedman's Cadmus (Gleneagles) at $71, with Emma-Lee and David Browne's Statuario (D'Argento) third at $14. Saint George ran sixth.

Berkeley Square had been close up on a couple of occasions since his victory in this race last year, including his only placing in the stretch when third in October's Geelong Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) and a fourth the start before in Flemington's The Bart Cummings (Gr 3, 2520m).

But after a month-long freshen-up and a drop in distance since his fifth in the VRC Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 3, 2600m), the gelding looked ultra impressive in a ninth career win from 36 outings.

In lifting back-to-back Ballarat Cups, he emulated the effort of Kiwia (Reset) in 2018 and 2019, the first multiple winner of the race in almost 40 years.

Bred and retained by South Australian breeding byword David Peacock, who heads his large ownership syndicate, Berkeley Square took his earnings to $2.08 million with a victory his trainer said superseded last year's.

"He's just a bloody good horse," O'Sullivan said of Berkeley Square, now a four-time stakes winner with a peak of the Moonee Valley Vase (Gr 2, 2040m) in 2022.

"Not that he was under pressure, but it's good to see him do it. To win so comfortably like that was just really really good."

O'Sullivan said he'd been reluctant to put the blinkers back on Berkeley Square for some time, but noted they had "worked perfectly" on Saturday.

"I was very paranoid about him settling," he told Racing.com. "He jumped a bit slow, which he can do. I was pleased to see [Saint George] go forward and apply a bit of pressure to Air Assault."

"We knew he'd be strong late in the race, and to see him win by two lengths like that was great."

Nolen said on the previous two occasions Berkeley Square had worn blinkers, he "didn't get cover and didn't get a chance to rest".

This time, he enjoyed a quiet run at the back before Nolen tacked on in a three-wide running line.

"When the change-up came, I had a lot to do still, but I hadn't spent a cent and he just got stronger into it," he said. "I thought they'd come back to me, but he was surging at them, and it was a very strong win."

"I was just trying to get my part of the race right. Most of the horses that were probably going to be dragging me into the race were going to be forward of me. I took my medicine and the race turned out well for me in the end."

Berkeley Square

"He [O'Sullivan] has done an excellent job. The horse had been running well. He was great in the Geelong Cup but he's peaked him on this day."

"After the Queen Elizabeth, Dan just said we'll back off and we'll target this race in a month's time. He grows an extra leg on this track too."

Berkeley Square is one of three stakes winners from Peacock's mare Bahamas (Teofilo), who won a Werribee maiden among seven starts and was four-times city placed.

Bahamas is also the dam of the outstanding Angel Capital (Harry Angel), also a four-time stakes winner, and of Senor Toba (Toranado), who won a Sydney Group 3 and ran second in the 2021 Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) before going on to Hong Kong, where he's won another two Group 3 races and run a Group 1 third over 2400 metres.

Bahamas now has a yearling colt by Blue Point (Shamardal) and missed to Harry Angel (Dark Angel) this year.

Berkeley Square is one of three Australians stakes winners for Territories (Invincible Spirit), who shuttled to the country for Darley five times until 2021. The 13-year-old has 19 stakes winners worldwide from 549 runners at 3.4 per cent.

Seven for Maurice

Arrowfield Stud shuttler Maurice (Screen Hero) sired his seventh individual elite-level winner when Cosmic Crusader (5 g ex Cosmic Storm by Street Sense) came with a blistering run to take out Saturday's Northerly Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) at Ascot. Bred and raced by Bob Peters, Cosmic Crusader is the first of five foals to race for Street Sense (Street Cry) mare Cosmic Storm, who won four Perth stakes events for Peters capped by the 2016 La Trice Classic (Gr 3, 1800m). Also the dam of winner Cosmic Spirit (Charm Spirit), Cosmic Storm missed to Maurice last year, and her 2024 filly foal by the son of Screen Hero (Grass Wonder) died soon after birth. She is now in-foal to him again. Maurice stands for a fee of $55,000 (inc GST).

23 of Pride Of Dubai

Coolmore sire Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) registered his 23rd individual stakes winner when Buckets Ridge (5 g ex Reveille by High Chaparral) landed the GA Towton Cup (Listed, 2200m) at Ascot on Saturday. Ridden by Billy Egan for trainers Grant and Alana Williams, the gelding surged to the front at the 200 metres and kept up the gallop to hold off the challenge by Forever Boy (Charm Spirit) and win by 0.5 lengths. Filthy Habits (I'm All The Talk) finished the same margin further adrift in third. Buckets Ridge was a $75,000 Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale purchase for Neil Henchie from the Amelia Park Racing and Breeding draft. He is the first foal out of the winning High Chaparral (Sadler's Wells) mare Reveille, the dam of two winners from two to race and a half-sister to Listed winner Toropa (Toronado). Pride Of Dubai is standing at Coolmore Australia for $27,500 (inc GST).

First for Sun City

Telemon Thoroughbreds' Sun City (Zoustar) registered his first stakes winner on Saturday when the Tony Gollan-trained Itchintogo (2 g ex Itchintowin by Nothing To Lose) produced a determined performance to claim the Phelan Ready Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Eagle Farm, securing his place in next month's $3 million Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m). A $60,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast March Yearling Sale purchase for Glenhuntly Lodge, Itchintogo was sent out the narrow second-favourite following his debut second. Ridden positively by Ryan Maloney, the gelding asserted his class when asked in the straight, kicking clear at the 300-metre mark and holding off late challenger Magritte (Better Than Ready) to win by 0.4 lengths. Elusive Capital (Capitalist) finished another 1.9 lengths back in third, adding a black type update for her Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) half-sister catalogued as Lot 695 at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale. Itchintogo is the second winner and first stakes performer out of Itchintowin (Nothing To Lose). His pedigree extends to a high-quality New Zealand family, featuring Saturday's Mufhasa Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Provence (Savabeel). Sun City, who himself finished runner-up in the Phelan Ready Stakes as a juvenile, stands this season at Telemon Stud for $8,800 (inc GST).

Second for Invader

Former Aquis Farm resident Invader (Snitzel) notched his second individual stakes winner when Foreign Press (3 f ex Writer's Block by Written Tycoon) claimed the Mode Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Doomben on Saturday. Completing a stakes double for her trainer Tony Gollan, the filly held off Sylph (I Am Invincible) by 0.1 lengths with fellow I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) filly Ernaux another 0.8 lengths behind in third. It was a fourth career win from eight starts for Foreign Press, a $65,000 purchase for Boomer Bloodstock out of Figtree Thoroughbreds' draft at Book 2 of the 2024 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. She is the first foal out of the winning Written Tycoon (Iglesia) mare Writer's Block, herself a half-sister to the stakes-placed Demanding Miss (Commands). Invader was exported to New Zealand earlier this year.

Shystar shines at Ballarat

RACING PHOTOS

Shae Dinunzio saddled Shystar (Cosmic Force) to an emotional victory in the $250,000 Emerging Stars Handicap (1400m) at Ballarat on Saturday, coming just hours after learning of the passing of his first boss, respected trainer Paul Beshara. Dinunzio began his racing career under Beshara before moving to Victoria to join Phillip Stokes's Pakenham operation as assistant trainer. Representing the stable on course, Dinunzio said the win carried deep personal meaning. "It's been a bit of a tough day," Dinunzio said. "We lost Paul Beshara today and our thoughts go out to Collette and the family. He was a great man to me...my first boss. I reckon he might have willed that over the line in the last 50 metres." Ridden positively by Lachlan Neindorf, Shystar ($3.10) controlled the race from the front and dug deep late to fend off favourite Royal Flare (Zoustar) by 0.2 lengths, with Golden Spritz (Snitzel) finishing a further 0.4 lengths away in third. Stokes had targeted the Emerging Stars Series for Shystar after her winter return, and she progressed to the final with a strong heat win at Geelong. "She's a promising filly," Dinunzio said. "The question marks today were the soft track and the 1400 metres, 1200 is probably her sweet spot, but this was the perfect race for her. We'll go through our grades, but she's probably a stakes-grade Adelaide filly in the autumn. We've just got to plot a path to get there."

Tempt The Gods impresses for Kearney

Local trainer Pat Kearney celebrated a lucrative victory to open Ballarat Cup Day as bargain buy Tempt The Gods (Levendi) made all to land a $150,000 Benchmark 78 over 1400 metres. Purchased for $5,000 at the Magic Millions Tasmania Sale, the three-year-old gelding defied his status as the $13 outsider of the small field, dictating terms under John Allen before surging clear on the turn to win decisively by 1.3 lengths. The son of the late Levendi (Pierro) has now returned $114,660 in prize-money. "He's a small, scrawny, ugly-looking animal, but he's very tough," Kearney told Racing.com. "When I saw him ping the gates and lead, and Johnny basically walked on him, I thought he'd be pretty hard to catch with that turn of foot." After being well-beaten in his two runs this campaign, Kearney said the gelding's recent trackwork signalled a turnaround, while the morning rain only enhanced his confidence. "His work on Tuesday was super, I was rapt with the rain," he said. "I was half thinking of going to Tasmania with him, but there's a three-year-old Benchmark 70 for $150,000 coming up, so we'll look at that." Tempt The Gods became the first winner for former Magnum Park stallion Levendi since his death in October. It was also Kearney's first metropolitan victory since losing his Group 3 winner Yellowbrick Road (Golden Horn) to a trackwork injury earlier this year. "There'll never be a replacement for him, but it definitely softens things and makes everything feel a bit better," Kearney said.

Radley chalks up Saturday double

Apprentice Jackson Radley claimed a memorable metropolitan double on Ballarat Cup Day, overcoming two moments of near disaster as Swiftie Harriet (Exceedance) and Sneaky Sunrise (The Autumn Sun) prevailed in dramatic circumstances. Recently arrived from Tasmania, Radley partnered Swiftie Harriet ($5.50) for Travis Doudle, despite the filly nearly flipping over pre-race while attempting to evade the saddle. Once on course, however, the stakes-placed four-year-old produced a professional performance, proving far too strong under 51 kilograms in the fillies and mares' Benchmark 78 over 1200 metres. "Her manners in here were a lot different to out on the track," Radley said. "Once she got out there she was a beautiful ride." Radley's second winner Sneaky Sunrise ($4.80) had to navigate the fallout when Angland (Ace High) dislodged rider Logan Bates at the start and took off to lead the field. The loose horse caused carnage on the turn, carrying favourite Yes I Know (So You Think) off the track, which allowed Sneaky Sunrise to surge along the inside. Angland then veered back to the rail and briefly threatened to halt Radley's momentum, but Sneaky Sunrise rallied a second time to score by 0.2 lengths. "Craig Williams was in front of me and I thought he couldn't lead me into too much trouble," Radley said. "I've always been told loose horses run out on the corner, so we stayed in. It was probably a better win than people think." The victory was Radley's first for Lindsay Park after his recent permanent move to Victoria. "They've been great and given me heaps of rides...I'm glad to get my first winner for them," he said.

Loving poised to make debut for Baker

Bjorn Baker is hoping to extend Godolphin's early success under its new public training model as the stable rolls into summer with a fresh wave of runners. Baker etched his name into the restructured operation's history when Pericles (Street Boss) delivered Godolphin's first Group win under the system in the Tramway Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) in September. Pericles has continued to fly the flag, placing in the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) and finishing a narrow second in the Champions Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Flemington. On Sunday, three-year-old Loving (Bivouac) will become the latest Godolphin-owned runner to step out for Baker, lining up in a Benchmark 72 over 1200 metres at Rosehill. Loving has shown promise with back-to-back provincial wins on heavy ground over winter and now heads to metropolitan grade following two quiet trials. Blinkers return this weekend, which Baker's racing manager Luke Hilton hopes will prove telling. "His trials have been good, but he's hard to assess coming from two-year-old races into Sydney Saturday grade," Hilton said. "The blinkers going back on should help. He's been good at home and it looks the right race."

Vale Paul Beshara

South Australian racing is mourning the loss of Paul Beshara, the trainer best known for guiding crowd favourite Happy Trails (Good Journey) to three Group 1 victories. Racing SA confirmed the news on Saturday, paying tribute to Beshara and the chestnut gelding who became synonymous with his stable. "Racing SA is deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Group 1-winning South Australian trainer Paul Beshara. Few racing stories resonated like that of Happy Trails — the chestnut warrior who became a symbol of perseverance and belief under Paul's care," a statement posted on social media said. Purchased for $11,000 as a yearling, Happy Trails became one of Australian racing's great rags-to-riches stories, amassing almost $3.3 million in prize-money and winning the Turnbull Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), Emirates Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m), and Mackinnon Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m). A perennial feature of the spring, Happy Trails ran at seven consecutive Cox Plate meetings from 2010, including five Cox Plates (Gr 1, 2040m). His closest brush with victory came in 2013, finishing a brave second behind three-year-old Shamus Award (Snitzel). Beshara remained a respected and well-liked figure within the South Australian racing community, his patience and horsemanship reflected in the longevity and consistency of Happy Trails' career. Funeral details will be advised in due course.

New Zealand

16 for Shamexpress

Windsor Park Stud stallion Shamexpress (O'Reilly) registered his 16th individual stakes winner when the lightly raced gelding The Scunner (6 g ex Miss Daphne by Diamond Express) continued his career-best form to capture Saturday's Spring Sprint (Gr 3, 1400m) at Trentham. Trained by Ashley Meadows, The Scunner was having his 15th start but again showed the maturity that has defined his current campaign, adding a first black-type win to his resume following last month's runner-up finish in the Thompson Handicap (Gr 3, 1600m). Ridden by Kelly Myers, The Scunner scored decisively by a length over Mystic Park (Ocean Park) with Kitty Flash (Ace High) another 0.2 lengths back in third. Originally offered for sale but failing the vet, The Scunner has more than repaid connections, taking his record to six wins from 15 starts and earnings in excess of $228,000. Bred by Gloria Kenny, The Scunner is out of Miss Daphne (Diamond Express), a granddaughter of Miss Katella (The Commander), herself a half-sister to both Group 1 winner Gee I Jane (Jahafil) and Miss Jessie Jay (Spectacularphantom) – the dam of dual Group 1-winning filly Katie Lee (Pins) and Group 1 winner Banchee (Oratorio). Shamexpress stands at Windsor Park Stud for $20,000 (plus GST)

Four for Lucky Vega

Yulong shuttle sire Lucky Vega (Lope De Vega) added a fourth stakes winner to his burgeoning southern hemisphere record on Saturday when his progressive three-year-old That's Gold (3 c ex Longmu by Sebring) captured the Bonecrusher Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Pukekohe. Trained by Chris Wood, That's Gold reeled in the Group 1-placed stakes winner To Cap It All (Capitalist) and score by 0.5 lengths. L'Aigle Noir (Ribchester) finished another 1.3 lengths back in third. A $57,500 purchase for his trainer, Paul Moroney and Catheryne Bruggeman at the 2024 Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale, That's Gold is the first stakes winner out of winning Sebring (More Than Ready) mare Longmu, herself out of a Listed-winning Exceed And Excel (Danehill) mare and the dam of two winners from two to race. Lucky Vega stands in Victoria for $38,500 (inc GST)

That's Gold fulfils early promise

Chris Wood has had faith from day one that That's Gold would make an impact on the track, and he repaid that on Saturday when taking out the Bonecrusher Stakes. "I really like this horse, I might have over-raced him a couple of times as a two-year-old. I was kicking myself as I thought he would win a race in that timeframe, but we didn't get one. I have always had a lot of faith in him, he has got plenty of ability." Wood confirmed that significant offers had been turned down for the gelding as a juvenile, including from breeder Yulong. "After a couple of starts Yulong rang me to try and buy him back, but I wasn't going to pass him up," Wood said. "I knew he had it in him to get to where he is now." Wood plans to head next to Ellerslie's Boxing Day meeting as That's Gold continues his upward trajectory.

Six for Wrote

Wrote (High Chaparral) added a sixth individual black-type winner to his record on Saturday when the rapidly improving Midnight Edition (4 g ex Midnight Gossip Showcasing) produced a commanding front-running display to land the Concorde Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Pukekohe. Prepared by Bruce Wallbank, the four-year-old held off late closers Master Fay (Deep Field) and Tardelli (I Am Invincible) to score by 0.5 lengths, taking his earnings beyond $273,000. Wallbank was unsurprised by the result and believes the gelding is only now beginning to fulfil his potential. "He is a very good horse," Wallbank said. "Last time he shied in near the post or he would have won the Counties Bowl too. He's really tough." Bred by Aston Racing Ltd, Midnight Edition is out of Midnight Gossip (Showcasing), who was fourth in the 2016 New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and has produced multiple winners, including stakes performers Midnight Mass (Proisir) and Midnight Scandal (Belardo). Wrote stands at Highview Stud for $12,000 (plus GST).

34 for Rulership

The Toshiaki Tajima-trained Hohelied (4 f ex Golden Harp by Stay Gold) broke through at stakes level for the first time in Saturday's Sports Nippon Sho Stayers Stakes (Gr 2, 3600m) at Nakayama. Providing the Shadai Stallion Station-based sire Rulership (King Kamehameha) with his 34th individual stakes winner, the four-year-old filly defeated Meiner Campana (Gold Ship) by three-quarters of a length with Chrominance (Lord Kanaloa) finishing another nose away in third. Hohelied is out of dual winner Golden Harp (Stay Gold), herself a half-sister to stakes-placed pair Soldier's Song (Sunday Silence) and Eire Breeze (Fuji Kiseki), as well as the dam of Grade 2 scorer Solveig (Daiwa Major). Rulership will stand the 2026 season for a fee of ¥4,000,000 (approx. AU$38,830).

JPN: David Barows scores first Graded win

Lightly raced gelding David Barows (6 g ex French Bikini by Sunday Silence) secured his first Graded victory on Saturday when he claimed the Naruo Kinen (Gr 3, 1800m) at Hanshin first up after a near six-month absence. Trained by Hiroyuki Uemura, the six-year-old was last seen finishing fifth in the Shirasagi Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Hanshin back in June, ending a preparation which saw him win the Osaka Jo Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at the same track in March. Reuniting with Mirai Iwata on Saturday, who guided him to his Listed victory, David Barows hit the front inside the final 200 metres and was strong to the line, drawing clear to win by two lengths over Scents Blood (Rulership) with Matenro Leo (Heart's Cry) just a nose further back in third.

14 for Vercingetorix

Quickstepgal (3 f ex Victoriana by Jet Master) provided Vercingetorix (Silvano) with his 14th individual elite-level winner when she landed the Cape Fillies' Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Kenilworth on Saturday. Trained by Marthinus Nicolas Prinsloo, the filly was winning for the fifth time in eight starts as she beat Reet Petite (Rafeef) by three-quarters of a length. Wish List (Legislate) finished another length and a quarter away in third. Quickstepgal is out of the Group 3-placed winning mare Victoriana (Jet Master). Vercinetorix stands at Maine Chance Farms for a fee of R300,000 (approx. AU$26,785).

FR: Belmont and McEvoy snap up Ghaiyyath filly

Damon Gabbedy's Belmont Bloodstock and Tony and Calvin McEvoy made their presence felt on the first day of the Arqana Breeding Stock Sale on Saturday when they snapped up a filly foal by Ghaiyyath (Dubawi) for €100,000 (approx. AU$175,300). Catalogued as Lot 36, the filly is out of Italian Group 1 winner Donjah (Teofilo). Meanwhile, Matt Houldsworth and First Light Racing paid the same price for Miss Chastain, a one-time winning mare by Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj). Offered by Haras De Montaigu, the mare is out of Listed winner Lovilier (Galileo).

22 for St Mark's Basilica

Coolmoore shuttler St Mark's Basilica (Siyouni) was again among the winners when Lake Como (2 c ex Step Sequence by Nayef) struck over seven furlongs at Newcastle on Friday to become the stallion's 22nd individual winner from his first crop. Trained by George Boughey, the colt won by a going away three lengths from Euston Hall (Dark Angel), with another length and a quarter gap to King's English (Sioux Nation) in third. A 16,000gns buy for connections out of the Tattersalls Autumn Horses In Training Sale, Lake Como is the eighth foal to race out of the unraced Step Sequence (Nayef), making him a half-brother to two winners, including the Listed scorer Lady Penelope (Night Of Thunder). St Mark's Basilica is standing for an unchanged fee of $38,500 (inc GST).

12 for Palace Pier

Senor Campanaro (2 g ex Axana by Soldier Hollow) became the 12th individual winner for former Darley shuttler Palace Pier (Kingman) when he ran out a comfortable winner of a seven-furlong handicap at Newcastle on Friday. The Ed Walker-trained youngster, who was having his first start since being gelded, beat favourite Jackabi (Hello Youmazain) by a length and a quarter, with Panthere Noir (Mohaather) a further four and a quarter lengths away in third. A 70,000gns buy for connections out of Book 1 at the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, Senor Campanaro is the first foal out of three-time Group 3 winner Axana (Soldier Hollow). Palace Pier will stand the upcoming northern hemisphere breeding season at Dalham Hall Stud for a fee of £32,000 (approx. AU$64,380).

12 for Profitable

El Nasseeb (4 c ex Jafetica by New Approach) provided Profitable (Invincible Spirit) with his 12th individual stakes winner when he kept on well to run out an easy winner of Friday's Al Garhoud Sprint (Listed, 1200m) at Meydan. Trained by Musabbeh Al Mheiri, the four-year-old made it four wins in seven starts as he beat Colour Up (Mehmas) by three and a half lengths. Morning (Munnings) finished six lengths behind the winner in third. El Nasseeb is the best of three foals to race out of the winning New Approach (Galileo) mare Jafetica. Profitable stands at Izmit Stallion Station in Turkey for a private fee.

Provence clinches close finish in Trentham Group 1

By NZ Racing Desk

It was an anxious few moments for the connections of Provence (Savabeel) as they waited to hear the judge's call following the Mufhasa Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) at Trentham on Saturday, and they erupted when their mare's name was called out first.

In shades of the photo finish between Enzo's Lad (Testa Rossa) and Ferrando (Fast 'N' Famous) in the 2019 Telegraph (Gr 1, 1200m) at the Upper Hutt track, there was a significant delay to the judge's call as they studied the tight photo finish between Provence, Waitak (Proisir) and La Crique (Vadamos), with the former eventually getting the nod by a nose over Waitak.

Winning trainer Stephen Marsh was up in Pukekohe overseeing his northern team, and he was left multi-tasking watching the aftermath on his phone while legging up a handful of riders on his quintet of horses in the last race.

"I had my phone in one hand and the most horses I have ever had in a race," he said. "We had five horses in the next [at Pukekohe] and all the jockeys were crowding around us to see if we had won. It was a hectic few minutes, but it made it very worthwhile. It was an awesome feeling to get the result.

"I don't know why it took so long. It was an anxious moment, but we certainly got the right result and I am absolutely over the moon."

Provence has made pleasing progression this preparation, finishing seventh in the Legacy Lodge Sprint (Listed, 1200m) under a big impost first-up before finishing runner-up to Qali Al Farrasha (Almanzor) in the Auckland Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m), and went one better over her pet distance on Saturday.

"I thought her first-up run in the handicap with 60 kilos was very good, I liked it, she just peaked on her run late," Marsh said. "She was terrific second-up again and I thought she just needed the run again. Today she stripped a much better horse again.

"Where her fitness is at, I think that was probably the winning of the race because she got held up a bit longer than she wanted to and sprinted well. She probably started to peak on her run a little bit late, but she was terrific.

Provence (inside)

"What a great field it was. It was a brilliant race with Group 1 winners galore and she pulled out and won. It could have gone either way of three."

It was Provence's third elite-level win in a year, having previously won the Thorndon Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) in January and the New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) in March.

"By Savabeel, they just keep getting better and better," Marsh said. "Once they hit form and know how to win, they are bloody hard to beat. We need more of them."

The win capped a great end to a frustrating day for Marsh, with his stable placing in six races prior to the breakthrough win.

"It was a really frustrating day," Marsh said. "Jockeys were coming in apologising and didn't get the right run, and a bad draw cost us.

"It was one of those days where nothing seemed to be gelling at all, and it was getting frustrating, but to end it with a Group 1 is great, they are why we all do it."

Two of those placings came at stakes level at Pukekohe, with To Cap It All (Capitalist) runner-up in the Bonecrusher Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) and Tardelli (I Am Invincible) third in the Concorde Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m).

"To Cap It All was great, she jogged up to them," Marsh said. "I think we will bring her back to a sprint trip. You will probably see her on Karaka Millions night in a race like the [Group 3] Almanzor.

"We are definitely going to have a crack at the Telegraph with Tardelli. I think the big 1200 metres of Wellington will suit, he just probably got left a little bit flat-footed and probably peaked the last 100 metres today. He was still good to the line, it was a nice field, and I think that run will bring him on nicely."

Marsh has yet to decide the next steps for Provence, but said the ultimate aim is to defend her crown in the New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes at Ellerslie on Champions Day.

"I don't want to step her up to 2000 metres, I don't feel that she is a 2000-metre horse at all," he said. "I think a mile is her pet distance.

"We want to get her back to Ellerslie in March for the Breeders'. For the foreseeable future there is not a Group 1 to target her towards, but we will get her home and I will have to talk with Tony [Rider, breeder and part-owner] and the team.

"She doesn't need to do too much more, she is a three-time Group 1 winner."

Racing SA is deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Group 1 winning South Australian trainer Paul Beshara.

Few racing stories resonated like that of Happy Trails — the chestnut warrior who became a symbol of perseverance and belief under Paul's care. #vale 📺 The Australian

Sneaky Sunrise rose to the occasion again at Ballarat today to take her third win, to add to her 3 stakes placings, from just 14 starts. The talented and consistent 4yo mare by The Autumn Sun was bought at the Melbourne Premier Sale in 2023 by Lindsay Park in conjunction with MyRacehorse, whose colours she runs in. Ridden beautifully today by Jackson Radley, Sneaky had to do more than just beat the field having a riderless horse to deal with in the straight but she still managed to rise and shine 🌟🌟🌟

Congratulations @pulseracingthoroughbreds on the promising win.

We're really looking forward to offering Lot 761 at January's Magic Millions yearling sale, the Trapeze Artist half-sister to Captivating Tycoon. 📺 @lauralebedeff VERDICT This looks a good opportunity for COURIER MAGIC, who has been holding his form well in defeat and now returns to dirt on a workable mark. Meepmeep has been fairly consistent this season and is back on his last winning rail, while Go Go Go hinted at a revival last time and could sneak into the frame if building on that effort.

VERDICT This looks a good opening for KING ALLOY, who went close to a breakthrough in a Happy Valley last month and won't be far away if suited by this new surface. Double Bingo is thriving at present and warrants respect after a gutsy breakthrough, while Winning Machine has shown signs of life this term and is another to note in a modest contest.

BETTING FORECAST: 3 Brownneedsfurther, 4 Little Monster, 5 Autumn Vibes, 7 Vigor Eye, 8 Aurio, Invictus Dragon, 14 Gastronomique, 20 Diriya, Flying Christie, 25 bar.

VERDICT Having posted back-to-back victories in his last two trials, Vigor Eye is sure to have plenty of supporters and should prove best of the newcomers. However, he may not be good enough to cope with LITTLE MONSTER, who stayed on stoutly into second last time out and should be ideally suited by this longer trip. Brownneedsfurther (second choice) also has good form claims, while Autumn Vibes has enough speed to get across from stall 10 and make a bold bid from the front.

VERDICT This might go to unexposed 4yo KYRUS TREASURE, who was denied a clear run in the closing stages when midfield over C&D last month and can improve again. Also worth looking out for is Top Peak, who hinted at a return to form on his latest run and hails from an in-form stable, while two that finished placed last time, Superb Guy and Quick Contribution, should again be in the shake-up.

VERDICT This is not particularly competitive for the grade. James McDonald's mount WE ARE HERO has posted two good efforts this season and is effectively 3lb lower than when fourth over C&D a week ago. He gets the vote ahead of Sparkling Fellow, who is also in good form, and Fast Responder.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Bottomuptogether, 4 Invincible Shield, 6 Talents Ambition, 7 Sing Dragon, 8 Self Improvement, Swift Ascend, 12 Capital Delight, 20 Gorgeous Win, Telecom Fighters, 25 Red Elegance, 33 Harmony N Blessed, 40 Call Me Glorious.

VERDICT His recent turf form is not inspiring and his wide draw is not ideal but topweight BOTTOMUPTOGETHER drops in grade today and is very interesting if judged on his emphatic C&D win in April. He remains very unexposed on dirt and is selected ahead of Invincible Shield, who makes his dirt debut after a good turf run and is well drawn. Swift Ascend also has possibilities in this somewhat uncompetitive Class 2 handicap.

BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 New Forest, 4 Loch Tay, 9-2 Reliable Profit, 6 Allcash, 7 Excellence Value, 12 Mask Rider, 14 Another Star, 50 Win Ease, 66 Vermilion Tempest.

VERDICT A few of these warrant consideration but top of the list is LOCH TAY, who kept on strongly to score over C&D on last month's dirt debut and remains unexposed after only four starts. Reliable Profit is also in good form but it looks significant that Zac Purton favours Allcash (second choice), who moves back up in grade after a recent turf win. New Forest was hiked up 10lb for his C&D success in October but he did it in very good style.

VERDICT Top Dragon had a bit left in the tank when winning over C&D in October and is not opposed lightly but three-time 6f winner LITTLE PARADISE went down only narrowly when upped to 7f last month and could still have untapped potential over this trip. Ka Ying Attack was placed behind Top Dragon on his latest outing and is next on the list.
