$1,250 online buy stuns rivals with all-the-way Inglis Nursery win on debut

By Trevor Marshallsea

A rags to riches fairytale came true for battling trainer Paul Murray when $1,250 purchase Where's The Circus (Trapeze Artist) stormed to an all-the-way victory in Saturday's $400,000 Inglis Nursery (RL, 1000m) for two-year-olds at Randwick.

Kembla Grange-based Murray - son of the famed late trainer Bede - has 23 horses on his books and hadn't had a winner since August 5, at Moruya.

But filly Where's The Circus - whom he bought for that bargain basement price in last year's Inglis Digital September (Late) Online Sale - brought the stable a windfall in landing $231,000 for winning the Nursery on debut.

She went in as an easing $51 bolter, up against several more vaunted opponents, although she did win her only barrier trial, by 0.5 lengths at Kembla on December 2.

And she was ridden by Jean Van Overmeire, who if not also in the "battler" category is mostly seen on the provincial circuit. That said, he also landed another feature with a longshot on his last visit to Randwick, when Sonofdec (Kermadec) won the $500,000 Four Pillars (1500m) at $19 on November 1.

Doncaster date on the agenda for Yorkshire after Ingham success

Yorkshire (Snitzel) confirmed himself one of the most exciting performers in Australia with a powerhouse victory in his toughest test to date, Saturday's $2 million The Ingham (Gr 2, 1600m) at Randwick.

Continued from page 1 Jumping from gate four of nine, Where's The Circus speared straight to the front, finding the rail after 400 metres at a fair clip. Another longshot in Matt Smith's $20 chance Regal Hustle (Dirty Work) made a challenge from second at the top of the straight, but Murray's filly dropped her off to snatch what proved a winning break under hands and heels riding.

Pushed out, she scored by 1.16 lengths from Brad Widdup's fast-finishing $2.70 equal-favourite Internal Affairs (Home Affairs), that colt becoming his much-vaunted sire's third stakes horse from just nine runners, alongside two winners.

Regal Hustle filled third spot, co-favourite Bohemian Rhapsody (Prague) looked disappointing in eighth, while the Coolmore-Waller $1.2 million colt Vatican (Wootton Bassett) was strong through the line in fifth, hinting more distance would suit.

But the day belonged to the well-named Where's The Circus - by Trapeze Artist out of Misplaced (Fastnet Rock) - and her emotional trainer Murray.

"I'd never even seen the filly when we bought her but I knew the family and we like buying these cheap ones on Inglis Digital and seeing what we can do with them and here we are, winning a $400,000 Inglis race," Murray said.

"I haven't really had a decent two-year-old for two or three years now so to have this girl come along and put herself up in lights, it's exciting for everyone.

"We'd be mad not to," said Murray, who also admitted his training business was "getting very hard".

"I only have a handful of horses. I had to get rid of the older horses and just have one crack at having a go at getting a few nice two-year-olds and it looks like it's going to pay off.

"I said to Mum [Edie], this is our last crack at it, we'll buy some two-year-olds this year.

"We've worked hard for them, and we might have another few years yet.

"It is a hard game, and for the battlers, so it's really good. Hopefully she keeps going."

Van Overmeire, who rode Where's The Circus in her trial, said he had bitten the bullet to forego a full book of rides at Newcastle for his one mount at Randwick.

"It's always a bit tricky to do that, give up my provincial rides to come here, especially when I've only got one," said the winning rider.

"But my thinking was, each year this race is not always that strong and the way she trialled the other day, purely on how she felt, I thought it would be worthwhile giving her a test anyway."

Bred by Trapeze Artist's (Snitzel) owner-breeder Bert Vieira, and born and raised at that stallion's home base of Widden Stud, Where's The Circus continues a strong family connection for Murray and partner Michelle Ritchie, who strapped the filly.

She's a half-sister to Can't Find Snippy (Snippetson), who Richie and Murray bought for $14,000 at Inglis Classic in 2015. Ritchie prepared her for three wins and a stakes placing - third in the old Inglis Classic (RL, 1200m) at Randwick in 2016.

The couple also raced another of Misplaced's winners in Where's Snippy (Snippetson), a $600 weanling buy who won four country races.

Misplaced died aged 17 in January, but her last foal - a yearling brother to Where's The Circus - will be offered as Lot 190 at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale in February.

Where's The Circus became the eighth stakes winner from 218 runners for Trapeze Artist, who stood this year for $33,000.

Regal Hustle was the first Pink Bonus-eligible runner home in the race, open to horses with at least 75 per cent female ownership, winning her connections an extra $100,000 in prize-money.

Doncaster date on the agenda for Yorkshire after Ingham success

Yorkshire (Snitzel) confirmed himself one of the most exciting performers in Australia with a powerhouse victory in his toughest test to date, Saturday's $2 million The Ingham (Gr 2, 1600m) at Randwick.

Sent out a well supported $3.90 favourite after his victory in Rosehill's Festival Stakes (Gr 3, 1500m), the John O'Shea and Tom Charlton-trained five-year-old speared across from gate 13 in the huge Randwick mile field of 20, settling outside leader Rise At Dawn (Almanzor) under a relatively moderate tempo.

Zac Lloyd took Yorkshire to the lead at the 350 metres, and while that made him a target from a long way out, he beat off the stern challenge of last year's winner Robusto (Churchill) by the 200 metres, was 1.5 lengths in front at the 100 metres, and had ample in reserve to beat Joe Pride's fast-finishing $9.50 shot Estadio Mestalla (Galileo Gold) by 0.49 lengths.

Robusto held on for third at $26, ahead of Robbie Griffiths' Enxuto (Lean Mean Machine) at $16. Topweight Gringotts (Per Incanto) managed only 11th as a $4.40 second elect, one spot ahead of $6 chance Sabaj (Manhattan Rain), who had vast ground to make up on the leaders from near last.

Yorkshire handled his grandest assignment with aplomb, taking his record to eight wins from 11 starts.

Co-trainer Charlton was delighted with yet another victory for the progressive and lightly raced gelding, which booked his spot in the autumn's ATC Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m), and warned the best should be yet to come.

"I think he's not the finished article now, which is excellent," Charlton told Sky Thoroughbred Central.

"He needed to improve again today and he had to do a bit of work from the outside gate. It looked like they got a bit of a breather in the mid sections so credit to Zac.

"He'll have to keep improving but it [the Doncaster] is the type of race we'll look towards for sure."

Charlton said the victory was full of merit given it was Yorkshire's third run in four weeks. He suffered heart arrhythmia and ran last of 16 when resuming in Newcastle's The Hunter (1300m) on November 15.

"There were two-week turnarounds, these races, and full credit to the horse. He's a real tough conveyance," he said.

"We were probably going to bounce back, but whether we were going to get to a grand final four weeks later, and able to produce a performance like that, was probably up for debate.

"He's wandering around up the running there. I think there's more upside, which is obviously the key.

"He's had a few setbacks along the way and he's just got the best demeanour to be able to handle those things.

"Heart arrhythmia four weeks ago, and we were on the back foot. We were behind the eight-ball there in terms of his fitness. And only some horses can do that."

Lloyd - who may have the choice of riding the son of Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) or his Group 1-winning stablemate Linebacker (Super Seth) in the Doncaster - was deeply impressed with Yorkshire's Ingham effort, which came despite a little waywardness in the run home.

"He did it last start as well. He just wandered around a bit," the winning rider said. "It will be interesting to see when he can maybe be in front on the rail and really concentrate to see how he will lengthen.

"He's a good horse and he is definitely rising and maturing as well.

"He is progressing into such a good horse. Very push button to ride for me. He gets galloping and when he's in that sort of mood, he is hard to get past.

"I gave him a click as we came into the straight, expecting him to pick up slowly, and he really let down and had a big Royal Randwick straight to look at."

He added: "The O'Shea-Charlton team has another good horse [Linebacker] who fits that [Doncaster] profile, so I'll leave it up to them and whatever they want me to ride, I'll be more than happy to ride."

Bought from Newgate Farm's 2022 Inglis Easter draft by Mark Player and Robert Roulston's PR Funds for $575,000, Yorkshire has now earned $1.67 million in prize-money.

Bred by Newgate associate SF Bloodstock, Yorkshire was clearly a standout at the sales. Two years later, his American dam Chanteline's (Majesticperfection) only other progeny to be auctioned to date, a filly by Exceed And Excel (Danehill), sold to Hollymount Stud for $125,000. Now named Lady Of The Castle, she's awaiting her first start for O'Shea and Charlton, and last Tuesday won a Kensington barrier trial.

Chanteline, who won four lower level stakes races in the US over 1100 metres, was bought by SF Bloodstock and Newgate for US$425,000 at the Keeneland November Broodmare Sale of 2018.

Yorkshire is the first of five foals for Chanteline, and the only one to race. The 13-year-old mare now has a yearling by I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) and a filly foal by Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) who was born on November 18.

Warnie leaves it late as he pockets Supernova prize

Not for the first time, Warnie has produced the spectacular on the sporting fields of Victoria.

Continued from page 4 Named by his original Irish connections after the late cricketing great and favourite son of Melbourne, Warnie (Highland Reel) the five-year-old gelding produced a dazzling finish to land Saturday's second edition of the $1 million Supernova (1400m) at Pakenham.

With a run timed to the second by Thomas Stockdale, Warnie settled second-last from gate seven of 14 as a strong tempo unfolded, and had no horse behind him on straightening.

He had a mountain of work to do as $2.20 favourite Private Eye (Al Maher) took the lead along the rails inside the 200 metres four lengths in front of him, and still had a length to make up at the 50 metres.

But, free-wheeling down the centre of the track, Warnie landed the prize in the last bound as an easy $11 chance, with Arkansaw Kid (Harry Angel) 0.57 lengths away in third at $10, following his second in the inaugural Supernova last year.

In so doing he continued a stellar day for Australia's reigning premier trainer Ciaran Maher, who had three earlier winners on the card in the shape of Godolphin two-year-old debutant Milsons Point (Blue Point), Shockletz (Shocking) and Jenni Gone Bonkers (Maurice).

Bred by Glenanore Stud in County Cork, Warnie debuted under James McDonald at Royal Ascot in 2023, running ninth in the Chesham Stakes (Listed, 7f).

He won his next two in Ireland, the latter a Tipperary Listed, before switching to Australia to run for Maher and syndicator Bennett Racing.

Launching with a Flemington 1200-metre win in October last year, he's been a model of consistency in Australia, with now three wins and five placings - plus three fourths and three fifths - from 15 starts.

Three runs ago he became a Group winner when taking Flemington's Damien Oliver Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) from Bennett teammate Zou Sensation (Zoustar), who ran fourth in the Supernova, also at $11.

The start after that he was stretched to 1600 metres for the first time in Australia, tiring slightly late after racing on the pace to run a 1.9 length fifth.

After a long campaign dotted with just two short let-ups since May, and reverting to the 1400 metres of the Supernova - in which he filled Maher's own slot - Warnie scored his largest career payday and pushed his earnings into seven figures, even if the stable was surprised to see him have to come from the back.

"It was an exciting race," said stable foreman Jack Turnbull. "If you'd have asked the team if we were going to be second-last in running, I'd have said, 'No way'.

"But they went solid and Tom just took his time, similar to how [Mark] Zahra rode him [in the Damien Oliver], which is new for this horse because he has been keen and hard going. But back in trip slightly, with a lot of speed, it worked out really well.

I TRIED TO CHANNEL MY INNER ZAHRA - NICE HANDS, GET HIM TO RELAX, AND JEEZ HE LET RIP IN THE END THOMAS STOCKDALE

"He was good at Cranbourne, but we had to change things up. We were mindful of how deep we are into the prep and coming back to the seven [furlongs], so it's a credit to the team.

"It's very rewarding. It's a huge day for the team."

Stockdale, the 26-year-old also celebrating his largest payday after Warnie's $450,000 first prize, said he had indeed modelled his ride on Zahra's at Flemington, where the gelding settled almost as far back in eighth of 11.

"I went back through his replays and just loved how Mark rode him," Stockdale said. "He was in a nice flowing rhythm, just relaxed conserving energy, and he showed an electric turn of foot off it.

"So I tried to channel my inner Zahra - nice hands, get him to relax, and jeez he let rip in the end.

"When you let rip like that you're always confident, but when you know the gallopers in front of you, you know they're not going to lie down easily.

"But gee he's been trained to the minute. To come back in trip after a tough run over the mile, and to have him so well presented as they did is a great credit to the team.

"It's the biggest win of my career. I've won low level Group races, but they've been nowhere near this level of prize-money. So it's something special."

Warnie is the fourth and best foal among six for Cumbfree (Footstepsinthesand), who won twice in 12 starts in France, and had her latest foal in 2023.

The gelding is one of only six stakes winners worldwide from 447 runners for Swettenham Stud's former shuttler Highland Reel (Galileo).

Morning Briefing

Eight for Trapeze Artist

Widden Stud stallion Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) chalked up his eighth individual stakes winner on when Where's The Circus (2 fex Misplaced by Fastnet Rock) landed Saturday's Inglis Nursery (RL, 1000m) at Randwick. Bred by Trapeze Artist's owner-breeder Bert Vieira, and born and raised at Widden, Where's The Circus, a $1,250 purchase in last year's Inglis Digital September (Late) Online Sale, continues a strong family connection for Murray and partner Michelle Ritchie, who strapped the filly. She's a half-sister to Can't Find Snippy (Snippetson), who Richie and Murray bought for $14,000 at Inglis Classic in 2015. Ritchie prepared her for three wins and a stakes placing - third in the old Inglis Classic (RL, 1200m) at Randwick in 2016. The couple also raced another of Misplaced's winners in Where's Snippy (Snippetson), a $600 weanling buy who won four country races. Misplaced died aged 17 in January, but her last foal - a yearling brother to Where's The Circus - will be offered as Lot 190 at Inglis Classic in February. Trapeze Artist is standing at a fee of $33,000 (inc GST).

99 for Lonhro

Weeping Woman

SPORTPIX

Weeping Woman (5 m ex Cries And Whiskers by Street Cry) became the 99th individual stakes winner for Lonhro (Octagonal) when taking out Saturday's Razor Sharp Handicap (Listed, 1200m) at Randwick. The Joe Pride-trained mare made it three wins from as many starts this campaign when she bravely fended off the persistent challenge of Coal Crusher (Turffontein) by 0.6 lengths, with a further 0.1 lengths back to Brave One (Exceedance) in third. Bred by Mr I Cornell, Weeping Woman is the fourth winner and first stakes winner out of the Street Cry (Machiavellian) mare Cries And Whiskers, herself a half-sister to Listed winners Global Warming (Agnes World) and Pure Purrfection (General Nediym). A half-sister to Weeping Woman by Pinatubo (Shamardal) will be sold through Widden Stud's Inglis Premier draft as Lot 571.

Weeping Woman win caps good day for Pride

Having also sent out The Black Cloud (Shamus Award) to land the Bribie Handicap (Listed, 1000m) at Eagle Farm on Saturday, and with Private Eye (Al Maher) running third in The Supanova (1400m), Weeping Woman capped a good day for Joe Pride when she took out the Razor Sharp Handicap. "It's been a good day," Pride said. "It would have been better if Private Eye won the Supernova but second is better than third. It's great for the two mares, Weeping Woman and The Black Cloud, and their owners. Those wins make those mares." Winning rider Zac Lloyd was also impressed with Weeping Woman's performance. "She is a push-button horse to ride," he said. "She puts herself on speed, she travelled lovely for me. It was my first sit on her, and I couldn't be more impressed with her. She tried very hard, and she didn't beat a slouchy field today. To be beating horses like Coal Crusher, a proper Group 1 weight-for-age horse, it's a real feather in her cap."

Future History back to winning ways in Christmas Cup

Future History (8 g Showcasing - Likelihood by Mizzen Mast) registered a first win since October last year when running out a narrow winner of Saturday's Christmas Cup (Listed, 2400m) at Randwick. Ridden by Adam Hyeronimus for Ciaran Maher, the eight-year-old gelding was all heart as he fended off the persistent challenge of Asterix (Tavistock) by 0.2 lengths. There was a further 1.2 lengths back to the third-placed Palmetto (Ghibellines). Saturday's victory was Future History's first since landing last year's JRA Cup (Gr 3, 2040m) at the Valley, ending a run of 11 outs.

Hyperbolic cruises to Randwick success

The Brad Widdup-trained Hyperbolic (Proisir) was a comfortable winner of the opening Benchmark 78 (1600m) at Randwick on Saturday as she made it back-to-back metropolitan victories. Sent out a well-supported $2.90 favourite, Hyperbolic was given a trouble-free ride by Tommy Berry, in a muddling run race as the four-year-old mare cruised to her fifth success from 13 starts, beating Bella Montagna (Belardo) by 0.8 lengths. "She's going the right way," Widdup said. "We've been patient, just waiting to get to this Saturday level, and it's starting to reap rewards. She's won two in a row now [in town], which is not easy to do, and I think she's got a lot more. I don't want to do anything silly just at the moment, I'll just see if we can place her again in Benchmark company. She was only third-up, so I think we can keep going." Berry said: "It was a bit of a muddling run race. They ran along for the first furlong and a half and really brought the speed out of the race, mid-race. That's why I just put her into the three-wide line from the 600 metres and let her work through her gears. I knew the horse in front was going to be hard to run down and she stuck to her task. She's still just doing enough. She gets a little bit lost when she hits the front, but it just shows she's probably up to better company than this. Once she does, we're going to have a little bit of fun with her. She feels like she'll get over a little bit further than a mile as well, but she might just need one more at the mile before she does."

30 for Shamus Award

In a valuable Saturday for Joe Pride, The Black Cloud (5 m ex Containment by Krupt) provided the Warwick Farm-based trainer with an across-the-cards stakes double when she secured victory in the Bribie Handicap (Listed, 1000m) at Eagle Farm. Becoming the 30th individual stakes winner for Rosemont stallion Shamus Award (Snitzel), the five-year-old mare shot through a gap inside the final 150 metres and ran on well under Daniel Moor to beat Way To The Stars (Reward For Effort) by a half-length. Metalart (Better Than Ready) finished a further 0.1 lengths back in third. Purchased for $100,000 from the draft of Golden Grove at the 2022 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale by Proven Thoroughbreds and her trainer, The Black Cloud is the first winner from two to race out of the four-time-winning Krupt (Flying Spur) mare Containment, who has an unraced two-year-old gelding by Impending (Lonhro) named Spokesperson in the stable of Matthew Smith and this season she foaled a sister to The Black Cloud in early November. Shamus Award is standing at a fee of $33,000 (inc GST).

Miss Joelene doubles stakes tally in Tails Stakes

The Kelly Schweida-trained Miss Joelene (5 m Russian Revolution - Cellargirl by More Than Ready) looks set for a return to next month's Magic Millions meeting at the Gold Coast after doubling her stakes tally in Saturday's Tails Stakes (Listed, 1500m) at Eagle Farm. Ridden by Cejay Graham, the five-year-old mare came home with a wet sail down the outside of her 12 rivals to score by a length over Snitzanova (Snitzel). There was a further 0.4 lengths back to Warby (Hellbent) in third. Miss Joelene landed The Wave (1800m) at the Magic Millions meeting this year, and will be back to defend her crown in 2026. "Things didn't work out for us at Caloundra [last start], but this mare ran right through the line," Schweida said of the mare's last-start fourth in the Mooloolaba Cup (1600m). "To be fair, I think she has been absolutely flying. The 1500 metres today is probably a bit on the short side for her, but that's probably why she was the odds she was in the betting. She is likely to head towards The Wave, which she won last year, and then a week later she will back-up in the Subzero. She is one of those horses who just thrives the more work she has."

Back-to-back Listed wins for Midnight In Tokyo

Having landed her maiden stakes win when scoring in the Tattersall's Classic (Listed, 1200m) on her most recent start, the Annabel and Rob Archibald-trained Midnight In Tokyo (6 m Kobayashi - Orabelle by Casino Prince) doubled her stakes tally when landing Saturday's Just Now Stakes (Listed, 1300m) at Eagle Farm. Ridden by Ryan Maloney, the six-year-old daughter of Kobayashi (I Am Invincible) made all in the 1300-metre contest and never looked in any major trouble as she beat Sunset Dreaming (Impending) by 0.9 lengths. There was just a further 0.1 lengths back to the third-placed Zaszou (Zoustar). Newgate Farm will consign a half-brother to Midnight In Tokyo by Capitalist (Written Tycoon) at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale as a Lot 641.

Archibalds take out The Gateway with Tuned

Annabel and Rob Archibald enjoyed a fruitful day at Eagle Farm on Saturday as they also secured the $300,000 Gateway (1400m) with Tuned (Zoustar). The four-year-old gelding preceded Midnight In Tokyo's Just Now Stakes win with a narrow 0.2 lengths victory over Band Of Brothers (Omaha Beach). There was a further two lengths back to Boomtown Boss (Spirit Of Boom) in third place. Making a quick six-day back-up after having won a Benchmark 78 (1300m) at Rosehill on December 7, Tuned now has a ballot-free spot in next year's Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) courtesy of his win on Saturday.

Karaka Millions beckons Birchley's Dream Roca

Liam Birchley has long earmarked the Karaka Millions 2YO (Listed, 1200m) for highly promising juvenile Dream Roca (El Roca) who took another step in the direction of the Ellerslie feature with a dominant win over 1000 metres at Eagle Farm on Saturday. Dream Roca finished runner-up on debut in October and showed the benefit of raceday experience as she closed over the top of favourite Star Of Jamaica (Profiteer) to score over the same course and distance by 2.1 lengths on Saturday. "The fence was pretty hot that day on debut and the favourite drew inside us," the winning trainer said. "But with the race experience and being here before, she got the drop on them today, the way the race worked out and she was quite professional. She'll head over for the Karaka Millions. She's fully qualified now, but she'll probably have another run on the way there and hopefully we can draw a gate and give them some curry." Birchley said the filly's relaxed demeanour will hold her in good stead. "She's actually bred to run a mile and beyond, and let's hope she does. But it's good for a two-year-old to have that demeanour and not waste too much energy and save it all for when they need it," he said.

154 for Dansili

Taramansour (9 g ex Tanoura by Dalakhani) became the 154th individual stakes winner for Dansili (Daneshill) when landing Saturday's Pakenham Cup (Listed, 2500m). Ridden by Luke Currie for Phillip Stokes, the Irish import stayed on tenaciously inside the final 200 metres to record a 3.3 lengths success over Star Vega (Lope De Vega) at odds of $26. There was just a further 0.1 lengths back to Etna Rosso (Decorated Knight) in third. "We were happy with the horse but he had just been getting out of his ground, but Luke gave him a peach of a ride," said Stokes. "He got going early and he was very fit into this. After his last run, a few of the owners said let's retire him, let's tip him out, but I said 'no, he's going ok'. We changed things up a bit and I have to give a big thank-you to the team behind us, especially Ross Elliot, he's been schooling him out the back, and I think that's really helped him. For an old horse, a nine-year-old, rising ten, he's a very sound horse. Credit to everyone, they've done a great job." Bred by The Aga Khan Studs, Taramansour was purchased by JS Bloodstock and Matt Cumani for €105,000 at the 2020 Goffs Autumn Online Sale and he is the fourth stakes winner from six winners to come out of the Dalakhani (Darshaan) mare Tanour, joining Tarawa (Shamardal), Tanaza (Dubawi) and Taniyar (Shamardal).

Vobis Gold Bullion success for Persian Spirit

The Symon Wilde-trained Persian Spirit (Cable Bay) picked up a valuable prize at Pakenham on Saturday when landing the Vobis Gold Bullion (1400m). Ridden by Harry Coffey, the five-year-old gelding secured the $175,000 contest with a 1.3 length success over Run Harry Run (Written Tycoon) with a further 0.1 lengths back to Regal Azmon (Magnus) in third. "He's really hit his straps this preparation and probably since he's got on top of the ground, he's been able to show that electrifying turn of foot," Wilde told Racing.com. "Early in his career, he was just a good horse on wet ground and good horses can cope with that sort of stuff. This is where he's really at his best. There's the Kensington Stakes at Flemington and there's a mile race as well. I might have a chat to the guys and see what they're thinking, but we'll see how he pulls up. He's taking it all in his stride at the moment and he seems a happy, healthy little horse."

Bagot on radar for Shockletz

Progressive staying mare Shockletz (Shocking) proved a class above her rivals when running out a strong winner of a Benchmark 78 (2500m) at Pakenham on Saturday. The two-kilo claim of apprentice Luke Cartwright aided the daughter of Shocking (Street Cry), who was carded 60.5-kilogram topweight, with Shockletz having two lengths to spare on the line from runner-up Leonchroi (Contributer). Prepared by Ciaran Maher, Shockletz was recording the sixth victory of her career from just 12 starts. "She's a talented mare with a good record and just needed the distance today and the bigger track," Maher's assistant trainer Jack Turnbull said. "She's been running well without winning and if you trusted her, you would have found her today. It was a good ride by Luke because he didn't panic. It was a funky race up front, they were doing everything. We went from a nice spot, to second-last and there were moves left, right and centre. We said pre-race to trust that you were on the best horse, which is easy to say when you're watching from the sidelines, but he just let her build and pick-up and she was the best stayer today." The Bagot Handicap (Listed, 2800m) at Flemington on New Year's Eve now shapes as an option for the mare, who relishes roomy tracks. "We've got the Bagot in two-and-a-half weeks," Turnbull said. "We will have a discussion and just work out where we go. We didn't want to tax her too much. We're very focused on the autumn and then the spring of next year."

Rey Magnerio

WESTERN RACEPIX

Rey Magnerio too strong in Gold Rush

Ultra-consistent sprinter Rey Magnerio (6 g Magnus - Luchardo by Testa Rossa) made his first step beyond 1200 metres a winning one when landing Saturday's The Gold Rush (Gr 3, 1400m) at Ascot.

Trained by Robbie Griffiths, the six-year-old gelding had proven competitive in all three of his prior starts this campaign, winning the Caulfield Sprint (Gr 2, 1000m) first-up before third placings in both the Century Stakes (Listed, 1000m) and Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m).

Ridden by Western Australia's leading jockey William Pike for just the second time in his career on Saturday, Rey Magnerio ran down long-time leader Overpass (Vancouver) and, having hit the front inside the final 50 metres, held off the fast-finishing Cosmic Crusader (Maurice) by 0.4 lengths.

Overpass finished a half-length behind the winner in yet another bold showing from Bjorn Baker's $12 million earner.

"What a horse he is," Griffiths said. "He's just so much fun for all of us that are involved in him. His Winterbottom run, Willie [Pike] thought he was a bit unlucky and we waited to see how he came through that run before deciding on this race.

"But honestly it was an easy decision to make because the next morning he was bouncing around and felt great. He's thriving in the WA climate and he's only had the four runs this preparation so he's still very fresh.

"We'll be back for sure. He's really taken to being over here so that's a race [The Quokka] definitely on the agenda. Just really proud of the horse. He deserved that."

Pike revealed he had learned from his first ride aboard Rey Magnerio when the pair were third in the Winterbottom.

"I think he waited a bit in the Winterbottom and there was a bit more that I could dip into today," Pike said.

"So I took that into today and we got the chocolates."

Smooth Chino stretches unbeaten run in Black Heart Bart

The Indiana Weinert-trained Smooth Chino (4 g Maschino - Amorei by Gingerbread Man) extended his unbeaten run to six on Saturday when claiming the Black Heart Bart Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Ascot. Already a winner at stakes level, having won the Magic Millions WA 3YO Trophy (RL, 1200m) in February, the now four-year-old gelding was sent off the odds-on favourite to collect on Saturday and lived up to those odds as he defeated Cessation (Sessions) by 1.6 lengths. There was a further 2.1 lengths back to Ice Pick Nick (Frosted) in third place.

Storyville too strong in Starstruck Classic

Storyville (4 m Overshare - New Orleans by Time Thief) bounced back from a disappointing last-start effort in the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) when landing Saturday's Starstruck Classic (Listed, 1600m) at Ascot. The Grant and Alana Williams-trained four-year-old mare was making it two wins from her last three outings after a win in the RJ Peters Stakes (Gr 3, 1500m) last month. Ridden by William Pike, the daughter of Overshare (I Am Invincible) scored by 0.4 lengths over Secret Attraction (Savabeel) with a further 0.6 lengths back to Luvnwar (War Decree) in third.

'J-Mac' crowned world's best jockey again

After achieving back-to-back victories as the Longines World's Best Jockey, James McDonald is hoping to cap off an extraordinary season by creating more history at Sha Tin on Sunday aboard Romantic Warrior (Acclamation) in the Hong Kong Cup (Gr 1, 2000m). McDonald, who also won the award in 2022, was presented with a crystal vase trophy on Friday night by Winfried Engelbrecht-Bresges, chair of the International Federation of Horseracing Authorities (IFHA) and chief executive officer of The Hong Kong Jockey Club, at the Hong Kong International Races Gala Dinner at the Hong Kong Convention and Exhibition Centre. "The first was time in the clouds sort of job and I suppose if anyone gets a good horse, they can win the award once but to do it three times is pretty cool and Ryan [Moore], Frankie [Dettori] have won it four times and we are talking about the greatest jockeys on earth," McDonald said. "Romantic [Warrior] is the best, Via [Sistina] is phenomenal for what she has achieved and so is Voyage Bubble. And I mean they are incredible race horses, a [Hong Kong] Triple Crown winner [Voyage Bubble], a Hong Kong champion [Romantic Warrior] and an Australian champion as well [Via Sistina]. To get them all in one year doesn't happen often at all and to be partnering them is just an incredible feeling and I feel very humbled to be riding them."

28 for Almanzor

First Five

RACE IMAGES

Cambridge Stud stallion Almanzor (Wootton Bassett) chalked up his 28th individual stakes winner when First Five (5 g ex Payette by Volksraad) scored a dominant victory in Saturday's J Swap Sprint (Gr 3, 1400m) at Te Rapa. Ridden by Lynsey Satherley for David Greene, the gelded five-year-old produced an excellent turn of foot inside the final 150 metres to hit the front and clear away by 1.8 lengths over Tuxedo (Tivaci), who also came home well. There was a further 0.8 lengths back to Kitty Flash (Ace High) in third. First Five was bred by Gerald Shand, who co-owns him along with Jenna McLeod and Jackie and Philip Rogers, and is out of the winning Volksraad (Green Desert) mare Payette. Almanzor is standing for a fee of NZ$30,000 (plus GST).

First Five win no surprise to Greene

Winning trainer David Greene admitted that First Five's success in the J Swap Sprint

came as no surprise to him. "I can't say it is unexpected to be honest, as we have had a massive rap on this horse for a long time," Greene said. "We haven't seen the best of him yet and he has stamped himself as a real Group 1 contender. There are a few conversations to be had now about whether we are wanting to drop back to 1200 metres for something like the Telegraph, which is a very hard run 1200 metres. He is just so good at this distance [1400 metres], I think back here for the [BCD Group] Sprint is the big one, but how we get there is the conversation to be had. This guy is up with the best horses we have had and it is a pleasure to watch him at trackwork each morning, with the way he goes through his gears."

Hinekaha dominates Cal Isuzu Stakes

The Andrew Forsman-trained Hinekaha (4 m Savabeel - Hinerangi by Fastnet Rock) ran out an all-the-way winner of Saturday's Cal Isuzu Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Te Rapa, her second career stakes win and first at Group level. Ridden from the front by Craig Grylls, the four-year-old daughter of Savabeel (Zabeel) never saw another rival and kept on well inside the closing stages to hold the fast-finishing Queen Zou (Zoustar) by 0.8 lengths. There was a further 0.3 lengths back to Jaarffi (Iffraaj) in third. "I spoke to Craig [Grylls] and we thought the logical thing would be for Electron to lead," Forsman said. "I thought if we hand up and they find their spots to quickly we don't want to be caught in a situation where it is a sit and sprint home. We really wanted to make it a strong run mile which would suit her a lot better than the others. She will get better as she strengthens and matures, but she has come on in leaps and bounds in this prep. She really has developed and has a lot of class as she has only had the nine starts and is now a Group 2 winner. We have always rated her highly, but we just had to stop at the right times and back off her as a three-year-old. Christopher and Susanna [Grace, owners] are just so patient to let us do that and it has worked for her. We will just enjoy today now and then start looking at where to go next."

Sharp 'N' Smart lands first win since Derby in Waikato Cup

New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Sharp 'N' Smart (6 g Redwood - Queen Margaret by Swiss Ace) secured his first victory since that success back in March 2023 when narrowly landing the Waikato Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at Te Rapa on Saturday. The Team Rogerson-trained six-year-old, who is a three-time winner at Group 1 level, had the lead turning for home and, once challenged by The Odyssey (Zacinto), found plenty for pressure under George Rooke to fend off that rival and deny by the lunging Gigi (Ghibellines) by 0.2 lengths. The Odyssey finished a further 0.2 lengths back in third. "I'm so proud of this horse and the team behind this horse as it has been a great journey," Debbie Rogerson, who trains in partnership with her husband Graeme, said. "I set him for this race in my home town as we just wanted to win it. It was a good run and he was tough, a credit to the horse. Everyone has been knocking the horse but they don't know what has been wrong with him. He had an horrific bacterial virus and it took him 12 months to get over it. We gave him a good spell and we knew this time in he was getting back to his best, so it might be back to the Melbourne Cup next year. We might look at the Queen Elizabeth [Stakes] next and then the Auckland Cup."

Asia

70 for Heart's Cry

Late Shadai Stallion Station sire Heart's Cry (Sunday Silence) was provided with his 70th individual stakes winner when Shake Your Heart (5 h ex Rumba Loca by Sri Pekan) landed Saturday's Chunichi Shimbun Hai (Gr 3, 2000m) at Chukyo. Ridden by Yoshihiro Furukawa for Toru Miya, the five-year-old entire defeated Red Valiente (Deep Impact) by a length with a further nose back to June Take (Kizuna) in third. Out of the Grade 2-winning mare Rumba Loca (Sri Pekan), Shake Your Heart is a brother to three winners and a half-brother to a further eight winners. Heart's Cry died in 2023.

HK: Barberot confident Beauvatier can strike in Hong Kong Mile

Yann Barberot is full of confidence Beauvatier (Lope De Vega) can topple the leading lights in Sunday's Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m). The four-year-old heads into the Sha Tin contest as something of a dark horse against proven Group 1 performers, but his trainer is confident he can post a career-best performance. He did exactly that on his last start in the Challenge Stakes (Gr 2, 7f) at Newmarket in October, coming home a dominant winner in a strong field, and Barberot believes the step back up to a mile for the first time in over a year will trigger a similar effort. "He needs pace in a race, which means we're forced to run him over shorter trips in Europe and especially France," the trainer said after assessing his horse at trackwork on Thursday. "The other day at Newmarket over 1400 metres on a stiff track, he showed that he could be an interesting horse at 1600 metres, especially around a quick track like Sha Tin. This was always among my targets for the end of the season. His win last time showed that we've got to the end of the year with a horse in mighty form, and we've minded him throughout the year, so he hasn't had a lot of really tough battles, and that's why I'm so excited about running him here. He's not a Group 1 winner, but he's shown he's up to that level, and he arrives here in great form. Sunday will be interesting, for all that we're among the outsiders."

114 for Silvano

Sukhumvit (5 m ex Quetta by Kabool) became the 114th individual stakes winner for the late Silvano (Lomitas) when scoring in Saturday's Victress Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Kenilworth. The Alec Laird-trained mare defeated Rainbow Lorikeet (Querari) by three and a quarter lengths, with a further length and a quarter back to the third-placed Swiatek (Pomodoro). Out of the Kabool (Groom Dancer) mare Quetta, Sukhumvit is a sister to the Grade 1-placed winner Sachdev.

BETTING FORECAST: 1-12 Ka Ying Rising, 10 Satono Reve, 20 Fast Network, 25 Helios Express, Khadem, Win Carnelian, 50 Lucky Swynessee, 66 Tomodachi Kokoroe, 100 bar.

VERDICT Currently the best sprinter in the World, KA YING RISING is highly likely to extend his winning sequence to 16. He won't be a backable price but it's always a treat to see him in action. The two Japanese runners Satono Reve and Win Carnelian (preferred in that order) may fight out the minor honours, although Khadem also has place claims if he enjoys the run of the race from off the pace. VERDICT Highly thought of in Australia, SUPREME MASTERMIND has taken a while to come to hand since arriving in Hong Kong but he showed much more when edged out by half a length last time and could still well treated after a 2lb rise. Sky Vino had been running consistently well this season before a slight blip last time and can bounce back to enthral his home. Prestige Good had Snowfield, Gentlemen Legacy and Enthalred behind him when second here last month but, granted better luck, Gentlemen Legacy may fare best among that group today.

BETTING FORECAST: 3 My Wish, 7-2 Voyage Bubble, 5 Galaxy Patch, 6 Embroidery, Soul Rush, 10 The Lion In Winter, 16 Sunlight Power, 20 Beauvattier, Docklands, Happy Together, 50 Beauty Joy, Copartner Prance, 66 Patch Of Theta, 100 Red Lion.

VERDICT It won't be a surprise if progressive 5yo My Wish quickly makes amends for last month's odds-on defeat but the suggestion is THE LION IN WINTER, who has a slightly awkward draw to negotiate but has performed admirably in three consecutive 1m Group 1s since September. Last year's 1-2 Voyage Bubble and Soul Rush should also feature, while Japanese filly Embroidery is another for the shortlist. [Chris Wilson]

VERDICT It's hard to see beyond ROMANTIC WARRIOR, who comfortably won a C&D Group 2 on last month's seasonal debut and now bids for his fourth consecutive success in this race. Dual Japanese Group 1 winner Bellagio Opera and French Group 1 winner Quisisana can both go well, but Galen might gain a tactical advantage if allowed an uncontested lead and is taken to fill the forecast spot. BETTING FORECAST:

9-4 Star Rise, 7-2 Everyone's Star, 7 Eighty Light Years, 10 Dragon Joy, Pray For Justice, Uranus Star, 12 Juneau Pride, 16 Charming Legend, Smart Avenue, 20 One More, Rising From Ashes, 25 Lucky My Way, 66 Stanley Express, 100 Not Usual Pick.

VERDICT

With Juneau Pride not in the same form as last season and Everyone's Star edging up the weights after three decent efforts in defeat, it may pay to side with STAR RISE, who is yet to run a bad race in three starts since arriving from Australia and may well be suited by this step up from 6f. The alternative is Eighty Light Years, who has slipped to a good mark, but it is now 20 months and 15 starts since he last got his head in front.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Public Attention, 4 Aeris Nova, 7 Dancing Code, Drombeg Banner, 10 Mid Winter Wind, 12 Beauty Crescent, Gustosisimo, Young Champion, 16 Beauty Eternal, 20 Karma, 25 Healthy Happy, Markwin, 50 Mr Ascendency, Victor The Winner.

VERDICT It's reasonable to expect another big run from Aeris Nova, but ex-Australian 4yo PUBLIC ATTENTION made a highly encouraging Hong Kong debut over 6f three weeks ago and ought to be seen to even better effect over this extra furlong. Drombeg Banner and Young Champion have become well handicapped and also make the shortlist.
