Purton praises Ka Ying Rising after utterly dominant Hong Kong Sprint romp

By Daniel Harrold

The world's best sprinter and potentially best horse overall, Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress), extended his winning streak to a Hong Kong record-chasing 16 when making every yard for a scintillating win in Sunday's Hong Kong Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) at Sha Tin.

Having landed the Sprint by a cosy half-length last year, David Hayes's ultra-impressive sprinter has swept all before him again in 2025.

A total of four Group 1 wins heading into Sunday's HK$28 million (approx. AU$5.4 million) Sprint were headed by October's AU$20 million The Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) at Randwick, in which Ka Ying Rising ran out an eased-down length and a quarter winner over Godolphin's crack three-year-old Tempted (Street Boss).

Tornado Valley top of Maher's juvenile team

Ciaron Maher's juvenile team continues to gather steam ahead of the major summer and autumn targets, with stable representative Jack Turnbull identifying Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) winner Tornado Valley (Too Darn Hot) as the clear benchmark among the yard's two-year-olds.

Maher posted his third Melbourne juvenile win from only seven starters when Milsons Point (Blue Point) took out the VOBIS Silver (1000m) at Pakenham on Saturday, adding to Calamari Ring's (Street Boss) success in the Inglis Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington. "We're very fortunate to have a nice group of two-year-olds," Turnbull told Racing.com.

Back on familiar Hong Kong shores, the five-year-old son of Shamexpress (O'Reilly) geared up for Sunday's task with an easy two and three-quarter lengths success over Fast Network (Wrote) in the Jockey Club Sprint (Gr 2, 1200m) on November 23, and a similar story unfolded again this weekend.

Jumping from barrier one under regular rider Zac Purton, Ka Ying Rising was quickly out on the front end travelling strongly.

Pressed closely by Win Cornelian (Screen Hero) down the back straight, the long odds-on favourite quickly dispatched of that rival turning for home and, in the usual scintillating fashion that we have become accustomed to, quickened effortlessly clear of his toiling 12 rivals to put distance between himself and the field under a motionless Purton.

Cruising to victory inside the final 200 metres, Ka Ying Rising ran out a three and three-quarter lengths winner over the John Size-trained Raging Blizzard (Per Incanto), with Dennis Yip's Fast Network again hitting the frame a further three-quarters of a length back in third.

"His last run showed us that it was on the cards today," Purton said. "He drew the right gate, and when the barrier came out, they said, 'What do you think?' And I said he would win by further."

"He is just in a league of his own now. And not having to do that extra work into the first corner from a wide gate to try and get forward, probably helped him."

Ka Ying Rising's 16th consecutive win draws him level with Golden Sixty (Medaglia D'Oro) for the most wins in a row by a Hong Kong-trained horse, now just one behind Silent Witness (El Moxie) on 17.

Hayes has long held the Kiwi-bred Ka Ying Rising as the best horse he has ever trained, and is hopeful there is still plenty more to come from the six-time Group 1 winner.

"We're hoping he's got another 20 races in him," Hayes said. "On the eye, that was as spectacular a win as he's done. The Royal Ascot form was in the race, there was great Japanese form in the race, from Dubai and the Breeders' Cup. They're probably the best sprinters around and he's making them look ordinary."

"He was just superb today. The messages he was sending the week of the race suggested he'd do something like that. We are not running fast times today but he did - [running] a lot faster than the other races."

"He is a lot heavier and stronger now, so physically he is really improving and it is showing on the track."

"The great thing about him is that he doesn't have to lead. Today Zac wanted to take all of the risk out of it so he could get off the fence and that is another string to his bow."

"Zac has been easing him down in his past couple of races. He probably ran about 20 lengths quicker than the Class 3 and the Class 4 [1200m], which he probably should."

Hayes confirmed that his superstar would again be set for Hong Kong's Speed Series, before reaffirming that he will head back for The Everest again in 2026.

"It will then be the big international sprint here and then he'll be going to The Everest," he said. "Let's just hope he is sound and well and if he is in the form he was today, we'd love to take those Aussies on again."

Romantic Warrior etches name further into the history books with record-extending fourth Cup win

Romantic Warrior (Acclamation) racked up a record-extending fourth consecutive success in Sunday's Hong Kong Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) as the highest-earning thoroughbred in history took his all-time earnings to a cool HK$212.72 million (approx. AU$41.1m) courtesy of his latest win in the territory's richest race.

However, the final Group 1 contest of the day was not without incident as a protester stormed the track while the race was underway, bearing a sign calling for an inquiry into the deadly apartment complex fire in Tai Po last month which killed more than 150 people. Staff were forced to charge across the track to apprehend the individual as the field hurtled towards them down the home straight.

Winner of the 2023 Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m), Romantic Warrior had endured a slightly interrupted preparation heading into Sunday's Hong Kong International Races (HKIR), having suffered an injury when going down by just a nose behind Soul Rush (Rulership) in the Dubai Turf (Gr 1, 1800m) at Meydan back in April.

Returning to the track in Hong Kong last month after recovering from a small surgery, Romantic Warrior proved his wellbeing with a comfortable length and a half defeat of Voyage Bubble (Deep Field) in the Jockey Club Cup (Gr 2, 2000m) and was a red-hot favourite to enter rare air as a winner of the same Group 1 race on four straight occasions.

Lining up from barrier two under regular rider James McDonald in the HK$40 million (approx. AU$7.7 million) contest, the Danny Shum-trained son of Acclamation (Royal Applause) sat midfield throughout the first two thirds of the race.

Moving up stylishly approaching the home bend, Romantic Warrior glided to the lead entering the final 300 metres and, once asked, cleared away in decisive fashion before coming home an eased-down one and three-quarter lengths winner over Bellagio Opera (Lord Kanaloa), who finished well for second.

There was a further three and a half lengths back to Quisisana (Le Havre) in third place.

"I'm very proud of Romantic Warrior and our stable team, they work really hard," Shum said. "It's a big relief. He always gives me a lot of happiness, not only me but my stable, owners, my family and in Hong Kong, even racing fans or non-racing fans, they all love Romantic Warrior."

"To be honest, there was a lot of pressure. He had his surgery [when a screw was inserted in his left front leg at the end of May], but he is such a good, calm, lovely horse. He's part of my family, I love him. My son says I love Romantic Warrior more than him!"

James McDonald

EDWARD WHITAKER

"He's very easy to train. He doesn't need too much work and his body weight will tell you, his appetite will tell you how fit he is."

McDonald, who was presented with his trophy for the Longines World's Best Jockey on Friday night, was almost speechless following the race and could only lavish praise on his mount, aboard whom he has now won ten Group 1s.

McDonald, who overtook Frankie Dettori as the most-winning jockey in the race courtesy of Romantic Warrior's four victories, said: "He's so special. He's just a freak. I don't know what to say ... I just love him. I love him."

Romantic Warrior is likely to now be geared towards another face-off with Forever Young (Real Steel), who he finished just a neck behind when second in the Saudi Cup (Gr 1, 1800m, dirt) at Riyadh earlier this year, but Shum will wait to confirm the decision.

"I always say, we know he's turning eight really soon, but he doesn't know he's turning eight," he said.

"This is amazing. He's been in Australia, Japan, Dubai, second in the biggest prize-money in the world in Saudi [Arabia]. Also second in the Dubai Turf. He's come back and had two wins."

"The plan is always made by the owner, Peter [Lau]. He has wisdom, we all trust him."

If he says, 'Danny, go to Saudi Arabia,' I'll go to Saudi Arabia. If he says, 'Danny stay in Hong Kong,' I'll stay in Hong Kong. We're a good team, I trust Peter a lot."

Voyage Bubble off the canvas for rousing second-straight Mile win

In what was a repeat result of the 2024 edition of the race, the Ricky Yiu-trained Voyage Bubble produced a gutsy performance to deny Soul Rush in a classic finish to land the HK$36 million (approx. AU$6.9 million) Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) for the second year in a row.

The seven-year-old gelding had won by a length and a quarter from the fast-finishing Soul Rush last year, but this time around it was a slightly different ending to the race, albeit with the same result.

Ridden again by Zac Purton, Voyage Bubble jumped from an outside gate in barrier 12 but broke well and found himself in the perfect position just behind the pacesetting Pray For Mir (Justify).

Moving up to join the leader entering the home straight, the son of Deep Field (Northern Meteor) looked to have edged to the front inside the final 300 metres but was quickly overtaken by the Japanese raider Soul Rush.

Continued from page 5 However, battling back under a determined Purton drive, Voyage Bubble regained the lead inside the final 100 metres and was not to be headed again as he fended off the spirited Soul Rush and Cristian Demuro by a half-length at the line.

The John Size-trained Red Lion (Belardo), who had defeated Voyage Bubble by a short-head when a shock winner of the Champions Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) back in April, finished a further length and three-quarters back in third place, with OTI Racing's Docklands (Massaat) another neck away in fourth.

"I think he just showed what type of horse he is," Purton, who was enjoying a record-extending fifth win in the race, said. "He's not the horse who is going to give you a 'wow' performance, but he's got such a big heart that he's always up for the fight."

"He's in the shadow of the big two, unfortunately, but in his own right, he's a supremely good horse. A Triple Crown winner, he's come back today off the canvas to win."

"When we reflect back upon all the great horses that have been in Hong Kong, he's certainly going to be remembered in the way that he should. His CV is outstanding. To come out and go back-to-back in the Hong Kong Mile, it's not an easy thing to do."

Sunday's success was Voyage Bubble's fourth Group 1 of 2025, adding to victories in the Stewards' Cup (Gr 1, 1600m), Hong Kong Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) and Champions & Chater Cup (Gr 1, 2400m), and displaying a rare trip versatility at the highest level.

"The horse has great heart," Yiu said of the six-time Group 1 winner. "A lot of credit goes to the jockey, Zac, he did it so well. It seemed to me that he'd ridden the horse for a long time, but obviously, he knew him well from his last start."

"Although he's seven, I don't really feel the age of him. He's still full of beans. After we got beaten last time we decided to go for the Mile."

On Voyage Bubble's owners, the Sunshine And Moonlight Syndicate, Yiu added: "It's a really nice group of people. Every time the horse runs, they're cheering."

Harry Eustace's Royal Ascohero Docklands ran a big race to be fourth, beaten two and a half lengths at the line, a huge improvement on his 12th-placed finish in the race last year. Of the performance, his rider Tom Marquand said: "He ran a huge race. He broke well, so we were a bit close to the speed, he chased those front two nicely."

Fabre lands record-breaking fourth Vase as Sosie battles to success

Legendary French trainer Andre Fabre was celebrating a record fourth win in the Hong Kong Vase (Gr 1, 2400m) on Sunday after watching his last-start Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) third, Sosie (Sea The Stars) score a rousing success in the opener of four Hong Kong International Races.

Fabre had been sitting alongside fellow maestro Aidan O'Brien on three wins in the Vase after sending out Borgia (Acatenango) (1999), Flintshire (Dansili) (2014) and Junko (Intello) (2023) to victory in the HK$26 million (approx. AU$5.02 million) event, but surpassed his Irish counterpart on Sunday.

Sosie headed into the Vase having had a very successful 2025 campaign in his native France, with the only blip coming when last of six in the Coral-Eclipse (Gr 1, 1m 2f) on unsuitably fast ground at Sandown in the UK.

Those ground concerns could have been a slight niggle again with Sha Tin officially described as 'good' ground, but any fears were dispelled when Sosie battled to success in a hard-fought finish between four top-class rivals.

Ridden by Maxime Guyon, the four-year-old son of Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) settled in midfield off a slow tempo before making headway approaching the home turn. Hitting the front with over a furlong to race, Sosie was tackled on all sides by last year's Vase winner Giavellotto (Mastercraftsman), Resolute Racing's Goliath (Adlerflug) and Australian Bloodstock's Al Riffa (Wootton Bassett).

However, it was Fabre's runner that would prevail as he gamely found plenty under pressure to run out a three-quarter lengths victor over Giavellotto, with the Francis Graffard-trained Goliath a further half-length back in third and Al Riffa another neck back in fourth.

"Everything went perfectly," Fabre's wife Elisabeth said. "The race unfolded perfectly, he had a great trip and Maxime knows his horse very well, while Sosie had trust in him when he asked him for his effort. Continued on page 9

"He is a very good horse with a wonderful mind and a lot of natural energy. He is magnificent to look at and he will stay in training next year."

Winning rider Guyon echoed those thoughts. "Everything went very smoothly," he said. "I followed Los Angeles for three-quarters of the race, but halfway round the home turn, Ryan's [Moore] horse began to falter. This horse can really sustain his run, and he is such a hard

"The horse has such a great temperament and he is so easy to put anywhere in a race."

Sosie was adding a fourth career Group 1 win to his tally – alongside victories in the Grand Prix de Paris (Gr 1, 2400m), Prix Ganay (Gr 1, 2100m) and Prix d'Ispahan (Gr 1, 1800m), and extended an impressive career record to seven wins and a further four placings from 13 starts.

IT'S HIS FOURTH CAREER GROUP 1 AND HE WAS IN SUCH GREAT SHAPE MAXIME GUYON

"It's his fourth career Group 1 and he was in such great shape," Guyon added. "We know he is capable of winning big races like this, and this year he has won at the top level over 1850 metres [in the Ispahan], 2100 metres [Ganay] and now the 2400 metres."

"He is an incredible horse. This was the first time he'd travelled across continents, and yet he's been relaxed every morning this week, and he's looked amazing."

Giavellotto's trainer Marco Botti was proud of his gelding's effort in defeat, bidding for a second-straight win in the race. "As we thought beforehand, it wasn't going to be a strong pace. Andrea [Atzeni, jockey] said he thought the winner had first run, but he got to his girth for second and I thought it was a good effort. The winner is a proper horse, and they're two good horses," he said.

Meanwhile, Al Riffa's regular rider Dylan Browne McMonagle was also upbeat about the Joseph O'Brien-trained runner's fourth-placed run, an effort that followed a seventh off 59-kilogram topweight in the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) last month.

"He ran a super race. He wasn't the quickest into stride from the gates which wasn't ideal over this trip but he finished good," Browne McMonagle said.

Tornado Valley top of Maher's juvenile team

Tornado Valley

SPORTPIX

Ciaron Maher's juvenile team continues to gather steam ahead of the major summer and autumn targets, with stable representative Jack Turnbull identifying Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) winner Tornado Valley (Too Darn Hot) as the clear benchmark among the yard's two-year-olds. Maher posted his third Melbourne juvenile win from only seven starters when Milsons Point (Blue Point) took out the VOBIS Silver (1000m) at Pakenham on Saturday, adding to Calamari Ring's (Street Boss) success in the Inglis Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington. "We're very fortunate to have a nice group of two-year-olds," Turnbull told Racing.com. "We're not running them unless we're confident enough they can gallop." Turnbull credited a more refined approach to the stable's yearling intake. "It's still the same system but we've tightened the screws in different areas. The whole operation is running very smoothly and we're seeing that in the way they're running." One unraced youngster attracting attention is Unit Five (Supido), nominated for Saturday's Magic Millions VIC Classic (1000m) at Caulfield but expected instead to trial on Monday before debuting at Cranbourne on December 27. Meanwhile, Tornado Valley is already in New South Wales as Maher plots a path toward the $3 million Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) on January 17. "Tornado Valley is a really nice horse and he's our flagbearer for the age group," Turnbull said, with the colt expected to resume in Saturday's BJ McLachlan Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Eagle Farm. Maher is shaping Blue Diamond campaigns for Calamari Ring and Milsons Point.

Extreme Choice Colt wins $100,000 Inglis Xtra Bonus

The Inglis Xtra Bonus Series reached a major milestone on Sunday, with Firerated's (Extreme Choice) victory at Moe pushing total bonuses paid past $4.5 million since the scheme's launch in August. The Alex Rae-trained colt, a $275,000 Inglis Classic purchase by Matt Vella Bloodstock from Kingstar Farm, scored in a strong 1100-metre maiden to secure a $100,000 Xtra Bonus for connections. He defeated Inglis Easter graduate In'kantosstar (Per Incanto) by 0.8 lengths. Part-owner Paul Lofitis said the bonus was a major factor in targeting the race. "Alex has a good opinion of the colt and we targeted this race because of the bonus," Lofitis said. "It was a very strong race and the $100,000 bonus was a huge incentive. My partners and I are delighted." The Xtra Bonus Series has quickly developed into one of the most lucrative ownership incentive programs in Australian racing, with 50 races offering $100,000 bonuses across the season for eligible Inglis graduates aged three and above. More than 401 individual owners have already benefitted from the bonuses, with over 240 eligible horses, 100 trainers and 2,500 owners represented in the series to date. Inglis CEO Sebastian Hutch said Sunday's milestone reflects the company's commitment to reinvesting in its participants. "Surpassing $4.5 million in Inglis Xtra Bonus wins is a significant milestone," Hutch said. "The objective was to see more owners and trainers winning more Inglis prize-money, more often, and the results speak for themselves."

Memorial service for Bill Gibbins to take place

The memorial service for Bill Gibbins, founder of the modern Jericho Cup (4600m) and one of Victorian racing's most generous benefactors, will be held on Monday at 11am on level two of the Atrium at Flemington racecourse. Gibbins, who died aged 78 after a long illness, passed away just days after the eighth running of the Jericho Cup – the race he revived, funded and championed. His personal contribution of more than $1 million underwrote prize-money for the first four editions, helping cement the event as Australia's longest flat race and a fixture of the Warrnambool racing calendar. His philanthropic footprint extended far beyond racing, supporting organisations including Riding for the Disabled and Wheelchairs for Kids. In 2021 he was made a Member of the Order of Australia for services to racing, people with disability and philanthropy. Racing Victoria CEO Aaron Morrison said Gibbins' contribution "cannot be understated". "Thanks to Bill's vision and passion, we now run the Jericho Cup, a recognised and much-anticipated event on the annual racing calendar," Morrison said. "He was passionate about Australia and its heritage and recognised the importance of remembering our servicemen and women." In lieu of flowers, the family has requested donations to The Wellington, Collingwood, or Wheelchairs For Kids.

Geraldton meeting rescheduled after power loss

Sunday's meeting scheduled to take place at Geraldton will now take place on Monday after severe storms caused a power outage in the area. The seven-race card will commence at 4:15pm, with the final contest scheduled for 7:52pm.

Almanzor Trophy aim for To Bravery Born

Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson are eyeing the Almanzor Trophy (Gr 3, 1200m) on Karaka Millions night with To Bravery Born (Snitzel) after the talented three-year-old produced an outstanding fresh-up performance at Te Rapa on Saturday. The gelding has made a habit of firing first-up, and he extended that record with a powerful late surge under Opie Bosson to claim his fourth win from eight starts, overhauling To Cap It All (Capitalist) by a half-length. "He's definitely got ability and he goes better fresh," Bosson said. "They went pretty quick up front, so I knew they'd be coming back to me. He's a good racehorse." Walker was delighted with the victory but puzzled by the slow getaway. "I don't know what happened at the start, he was a bit slow away," he said. "He's got a great record fresh and he's probably got a better win in him yet." A stakes victory remains the missing piece on To Bravery Born's CV, and Te Akau expects the Almanzor Trophy at Ellerslie to provide that opportunity. Stablemate La Dorada (Super Seth) finished fourth in the race on what was her New Zealand return following an unsuccessful stint in Australia, but Walker conceded the Group 1-winning filly has not rediscovered her best form. "It was a pass mark, but the jury is out," the trainer said. "She hasn't quite recaptured that two-year-old form."

Dashing Dixie Karaka Millions bound

Dashing Dixie

RACE IMAGES

Wexford Stables are set to take their place in next month's TAB Karaka Millions 2YO (RL, 1200m) after Dashing Dixie (Alabama Express) made a winning debut at Te Rapa on Saturday. The filly had shown promise with two trial placings and delivered immediately on raceday, controlling the four-runner field from in front and holding off Sword Of Stars (Sword Of State) to score by a half-length. Her maiden prize-money purse of $37,375 propelled her to equal-fourth in the current order of entry for the Karaka Millions, securing a start in the $1 million feature. "It's probably no surprise to the team that she did what she did," co-trainer Lance O'Sullivan said. "We rated her quite highly. With four runners, she was able to relax in front and quicken off the corner. The team certainly likes her and we've got a ticket in the big lottery now." O'Sullivan and training partner Andrew Scott expect the filly to have one more run before the January 24 showpiece. "We'll get home Monday and go through it as a team to make a decision on where to from here," O'Sullivan said. "It will be good to have a runner in the Karaka Millions." Bred by Lib Petagna's Elsdon Park under the JML Bloodstock banner, Dashing Dixie is out of the unraced Zoustar (Northern Meteor) mare War Goddess, from the family of New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner She's Country (Kenfair). She was purchased by Wexford for $340,000 from Elsdon Park's Book 1 draft earlier this year. "We go through and do our homework and she was one we selected. We really liked her and had to pay a bit for her," O'Sullivan said.

Queen Elizabeth next for exciting Tisse

Taranaki stayer Tisse (Belardo) confirmed he is right on target for his summer black type mission with a commanding performance in an open handicap over 2100 metres at Trentham on Sunday. The Allan Sharrock-trained gelding has been in superb form this campaign, and punters showed their confidence by sending him out a $1.70 favourite. From the outside draw, Kelly Myers allowed the five-year-old to settle at the rear before sliding into the race from the 800 metre-mark. Sweeping three wide on the bend, Tisse quickly asserted his superiority and charged clear to score by 2.3 lengths over Opawa Jack (War Decree). Myers was glowing in her assessment post-race. "I don't think it would have mattered how I rode him today, he was just a class above," she said. "He drops the bridle, and when you ask him to go, he goes. He picked them up and spat them out. He's a very exciting horse." Sharrock was equally satisfied with the gelding's final outing ahead of his main summer assignment, the Queen Elizabeth II Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at Ellerslie on New Year's Day. "It was a good lead-up to the race we want to try and win," Sharrock said. "He goes better right-handed, as you saw with Opie [Bosson] at Ellerslie, so that has always been his target." The trainer also noted that Tisse's relaxed manner and natural fitness make him straightforward to prepare. "He doesn't do a lot of work because anaerobically he is clean-winded. Lucky for a stayer, we don't have to put too much into him, and he is so relaxed in a race."

Second for Drefong

Shadai Stallion Station resident Drefong (Gio Ponti) sired his second elite-level winner and 15th individual stakes winner when the Tomokazu Takano-trained filly Star Anise (2 f ex Epice Arome by Daiwa Major) landed the Hanshin Juvenile Fillies (Gr 1, 1600m) on Sunday. Ridden by Kohei Matsuyama, Star Anise broke sharply but was eased back to settle in eighth spot early on. She was pulled out turning into the home straight and hit the front inside the 200-metre mark, striding out to post a length-and-a-quarter victory over Garavogue (Lord Kanaloa) with Taisei Vogue (Indy Champ) just a neck further away in third. The Northern Farm-bred Star Anise had broken her maiden in July and was landing a second victory following a runner-up effort in the Chukyo Nisai Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) against the colts. A half-sister to Listed winner Balsam Note (Maurice), the filly is the third foal to race out of the Grade 2-winning Daiwa Major (Sunday Silence) mare Epice Arome, all of them winners.

Five for Volatile

Three Chimneys Farm sire Volatile (Violence) registered his fifth individual stakes winner when T O Elvis (3 c ex Stopshoppingdebbie by Curlin) claimed Sunday's Capella Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Nakayama in decisive fashion. Ridden by Katsuma Sameshima for Daisuke Takayanagi, the colt made it four consecutive wins when he defeated Yamanin Cerchi (Four Wheel Drive) by five lengths in the Grade 3 contest, with Ecoro Azel (Shancelot) another length back in third. Bred by Jeff and Melissa Prunzik, T O Elvis is the second stakes winner to come out of the stakes-winning Curlin (Smart Strike) mare Stopshoppingdebbie, following US Listed winner Generous Tipper (Street Sense). Stopshoppingdebbie is a half-sister to fellow stakes winners Shampoo (Gulch) and Smarty Deb (Smart Strike). Volatile will stand the upcoming northern hemisphere breeding season at a fee of US$10,000 (approx. AU$15,031).

International

34 for Nyquist

Jonabell Farm sire Nyquist (Uncle Mo) notched his 34th individual stakes winner when Litmus Test (2 c ex Study Hard by Malibu Moon) landed Saturday's Los Alamitos Futurity (Gr 2, 8.5f). Ridden by Juan J Hernandez, the juvenile colt led home a trifecta for Bob Baffert when proving a length and a quarter too strong for Blacksmith (Liam's Map), with Provenance (Into Mischief) another three and a half lengths back in third. Bred by Machmer Hall, Litmus Test was a $875,000 purchase for Starlight Racing at last year's Fasig Tipton Saratoga Select Yearling Sale. He is the fourth foal and third winner out of Malibu Moon (A.P. Indy) mare Study Hard, herself a sister to Grade 2 scorer Sweet August Moon. Nyquist will stand the upcoming northern hemisphere breeding season at a fee of US$175,000 (approx. AU$263,040).

38 for Sea The Moon

Lanwades Stud sire Sea The Moon (Sea The Stars) registered his 38th individual stakes winner when Alva (5 m ex America's Best by Union Rags) struck in Saturday's Prix Miss Satamixa (Listed, 1500m) at Deauville. The Fabrice Chappet-trained five-year-old defeated Queen's Reign (Siyouni) by a neck, with another three-quarters of a length going back to Chica De Ciudad (City Light) in third. Bred by Suc L Kneip, the winning mare was a €85,000 purchase out of the Arqana Deauville October Yearling Sale and is the first foal out of the Union Rags (Dixie Union) mare America's Best, herself a half-sister to stakes-placed pair Dream Lodge (Grand Lodge) and Splash Mountain (Peintre Celebre). Sea The Moon will stand the upcoming northern hemisphere breeding season at a slightly reduced fee of £20,000 (approx. AU$40,185).
