Trip to the Gold Coast awaits Zip Lock after dominant B.J. McLachlan victory

By Daniel Harrold

Zip Lock (Hellbent) will bid to follow in the footsteps of the likes of Storm Boy (Justify), Coolangatta (Written Tycoon) and Unencumbered (Testa Rossa) by landing next month's Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) following a rousing success in Saturday's B.J. McLachlan Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Eagle Farm.

The Chris and Corey Munce-trained colt stretched his unbeaten tally to two with success in the Group 3 feature, a race that has become a key trial for January's $3 million Restricted Listed contest.

Having shown plenty of promise prior to his debut with a runner-up finish in an 850-metre trial at Doomben on November 6, Zip Lock then took to the track for the first time on race day when downing subsequent Phelan Ready 2YO (Listed, 1110m) scorer Itchintogo (Sun City) by 1.6 lengths back at Doomben over 1200 metres.

Another tick-over trial came on December 15, before the son of Hellbent (I Am Invincible) lined up in Saturday's feature as a $3.25 second-elect behind November's Maribrnyong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) winner Tornado Valley (Too Darn Hot) ($1.80).

Ridden by Justin Huxtable for the first time, Zip Lock travelled well into the home straight and, having moved up on the outer of his rivals with 400 metres to go, shot to the front with 300 metres left to run.

Kept up to his work by Huxtable and the chasing Ciaron Maher-trained Tornado Valley, the colt was always holding the gallant runner-up and again scored by a 1.6-length margin.

ALL CREDIT TO THE HORSE TOO – HE HAD THAT FRESHEN-UP, THEN ONE SOFT LITTLE TRIAL THE OTHER DAY AND HE IMPROVED ENORMOUSLY OFF IT. SO OBVIOUSLY NOW WE PROBABLY HEAD TO THE [MAGIC] MILLIONS

CHRIS MUNCE

There was a further 1.9 lengths back to $101 chance Leaves Of Lorien (Cool Aza Beel) in third place.

“He has that little bit of class about him,” Chris Munce said. “I think today was good and it was good for Justin. He’s been with our stable a long time. He’s a tall lad, puts in a lot of work, and he doesn’t ride too many bad ones, so it’s nice to be able to give him a ride like this.

Zip Lock now finds himself on the third line of betting for the 2YO Classic at $6, behind impressive debut Randwick winner Warwoven (Sword Of State) at $3.20 and Magic Millions The Debut 2YO (1000m) scorer Lumbini (Russian Revolution) who is at $4.40.

Munce revealed that next month’s contest had not been at the forefront of his mind for Zip Lock, and that his plan was to let the colt tell him whether to head for the Gold Coast.

“I never really put emphasis on the Magic Millions for him as I had a lot of time for him as I think he’s going to make a lovely three-year-old,” the co-trainer added.

“It [Magic Millions 2YO Classic] was never going to be the be all and end all, but look, obviously now, the way he went...and he’s thriving in the stable, so of course we’ll head there. Continued on page 4

“He’s a big strong horse and I think he’ll get to seven furlongs [1400m] or a mile later on as he matures. He’s a beautiful animal.”

Bred and raised at Yarraman Park, Zip Lock was a $160,000 purchase for Munce Racing and Arthur Hoyeau out of Yarraman’s 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale draft.

He is the best of three winners from as many foals out of the winning Hinchinbrook (Fastnet Rock) mare Honolulu Lass, herself a half-sister to Group 3 winner Debellatio (Smart Missile) and stakes winner Devoirs (Dehere) being out of the Group 2-winning mare Velasco (Flying Spur).

Honolulu Lass died at the start of this year and her final foal is a yearling colt by Brave Smash (Tosen Phantom) that will be offered by Yarraman Park as Lot 69 at Inglis Classic.

Zip Lock was providing Yarraman Park’s Hellbent with his tenth individual stakes winner. The son of I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) stood the 2025 breeding season at an unchanged fee of $38,500 (inc GST).

Kingswood scores crowning glory in Zabeel Classic

By NZ Racing Desk

It was a case of mission accomplished for Australian trainer Gavin Bedggood at Ellerslie on Boxing Day.

The Cranbourne horseman had previously competed at the Auckland track as a jumps jockey a decade ago and he eyed a return across the Tasman this week with his well-bred Group 3 winner Kingswood (Roaring Lion).

With a view towards securing his future stud career, Bedggood was in search of an all-important elite-level victory, and he felt the Cambridge Stud Zabeel Classic (Gr 1, 2000m) presented as the perfect opportunity.

Prior to the race, Bedggood gave jockey Rory Hutchings instructions to be on pace, however, Kingswood was slow away and Bedggood thought the race was over from the start.

However, Hutchings was able to work his charge off the fence down the back straight, and off a sedate pace he quickly launched Kingswood three-wide to loop the field and serve it up to his rivals.

Hutchings caught his competitors off guard and quickly created a two-length buffer, which he continued to extend. Several of his more favoured rivals rallied late, but Hutchings’ masterful move proved the telling of the race, and Kingswood scored by 1.5 lengths over Jaarffi (Iffraaj), with a further half-length back to Legarto (Proisir) in third.

Hutchings admitted to being in a spot of bother when their race plan was scuppered at the start, but his improvised plan B more than made up for it.

“We didn’t begin that well,” he said. “It wasn’t in our plan book to be where we were. They just kept getting slower and slower up the hill and I thought we were not going to be able to peg back horses like El Vencedor and Legarto that were a lot closer to the speed running at three-quarter pace mid-stage.

“When I went, I made sure I went really quick. I had a lap full of horse when I did it and I knew I caught them napping. He went from 0 to 100 in one stride and he sustained that all the way to the winning post. That is a trait of a very good horse.”

The victory was a sentimental one for Hutchings, who had won his first elite-level victory in the race 11 years ago aboard the Graeme and Debbie Rogerson-trained Soriano (Savabeel), and fate led to his ride in this year’s edition.

“A couple of weeks ago I didn’t have a ride in this race,” he said. “Through John Allen’s suspension I was able to pick up this horse. It’s funny how this game works.”

Bedggood was rapt with Hutchings’ race-winning tactics, with the trainer admitting he had thought it was game over shortly after the start.

“100 metres after the start I thought we were cast,” he said. “We weren’t where we wanted to be, they didn’t go quick. Watching the race unfold I was working out how I was going to explain this, we were going to look like mugs.

“Fair play to Rory, what a ride. It was a ballsy ride to take off like he did. I just said the horse needed to be in a spot where he needs to build his revs. He is not a sit and sprint horse, and it was well executed.

“He had to do something because where he was, riding for luck wasn’t an option. It wasn’t going to suit the horse the way the race was panning out. Full credit to him, it was the difference between winning and getting beaten.”

The victory also vindicated Bedggood’s decision to campaign in New Zealand, and he said he came under plenty of scrutiny in the lead-up to the race.

“Listening to the radio and watching the TV, there were plenty of knockers,” he said. “I am a realist, he is not top echelon in Melbourne, but he is a bloody good B-grader and I think on his day in Melbourne he would be competitive in an Australian Cup. It is good to be vindicated, and it makes the decision worthwhile coming over.”

Kingswood will now remain in New Zealand where Bedggood is keen to tackle further Group 1 targets, and he is hoping Friday’s performance has grabbed the attention of New Zealand stud masters.

“He can have a week in the paddock and can probably hang around for the Herbie Dyke and Bonecrusher now I think,” he said.

Well Written extends unbeaten run in Auckland Guineas

Nerves are a rare feeling for Stephen Marsh on raceday, but he was certainly feeling them at Ellerslie on Boxing Day.

The Cambridge horseman was lining up his unbeaten filly Well Written (Written Tycoon) in the Jimmy Schick Shaw’s Auckland Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m), and he knew the well-supported filly would be vulnerable fresh-up.

The daughter of Written Tycoon (Iglesia) has made waves since winning on debut at Ellerslie in September, going on to win the Soliloquy Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) in eye-catching fashion, attracting the attention of plenty of prospective buyers in the process.

Yulong Investments subsequently purchased into the filly and she carried their green silks to victory in the New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Riccarton last month.

That performance attracted the attention of NZB Kiwi (Listed, 1500m) slot holders and a deal was brokered with Entain New Zealand to represent their TAB slot in the $4 million feature.

With his filly being the talk of New Zealand racing, Marsh had the weight of expectation on his shoulders heading into Friday’s feature, with punters backing Well Written into $1.30 favouritism, and she didn’t do anything to allay his nerves when she was fractious behind the barriers.

However, she loaded up and jumped away well under Matthew Cartwright, who settled his charge in the one-one behind Affirmative Action (Yes Yes Yes), while jockey Opie Bosson made a beeline for the front and set the pace throughout.

He Who Dares (Snitzel) looked full of running at the turn, kicking clear of his rivals, and he was maintaining that advantage. However, with 200 metres to go, Cartwright pushed the go button on his filly and she started to take chase, firstly reeling in Affirmative Action before grabbing He Who Dares on the line to win by 0.3 lengths with a further 1.2 lengths back to the third.

"I haven't felt like that before a race for a long time," a relieved Marsh said.

"I have been feeling sick all week about it. We haven't got her tuned up. I knew today she would be vulnerable. We certainly didn't want to be coming here and getting beaten.

"I am just proud of her and I thought Matt did a great job. I said to him to nurse her until the last little bit, don't go for her too early, and he did exactly that.

"It was a little bit hairy for a bit, but she knows where the line is. I knew with her condition she would probably come to the end of it in that last little bit, hence why I said to Matt to ride her with patience, don't go early, and he gave her another ten out of ten ride.

"I think she is one out of the box, she is brilliant. I felt a bit of pressure today, but I am certainly relieved now, and it makes it all worthwhile."

Marsh said it was also an honour to take out a race named after Windsor Park Stud principals Rodney and Gina Schick's late son.

"It is special winning that race, the Jimmy Schick. I know Rod and Gina will be watching at home. It is a very hard time for the family," Marsh said.

"It is pretty special for us. We are all very close in Cambridge and to win that race is great."

STEPHEN MARSH

Cartwright was also rapt with Well Written's performance and he is now looking forward to tackling some rich targets aboard her, with the filly heading the TAB's futures market for both the TAB Karaka Millions 3YO (RL, 1600m) and NZB Kiwi, at $1.40 and $1.90 respectively.

"Coming to the last 100 metres I expected her to kick a little bit better but today is not her grand final," he said. "She is a little bit underdone but still got the job done.

"She is such an exciting filly and she has put her head out when it counts. It is just a privilege to ride her."

Saturday 27 Three for Home Affairs

Home Affairs

RACING PHOTOS

Coolmore Stud's first-season sire Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) notched up his third individual winner on Saturday when Guest House (2 c ex Flamboyant Lass by Stratum) won easily on debut at Cranbourne. Ridden by Jamie Melham for Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr, the colt jumped well from barrier three, over-racing slightly behind the pace before peeling wide around the home bend and working home strongly under light riding to win by 0.8 lengths over Resolutely (Hellbent). Leopard Shark (Churchill) finished a further 1.2 lengths behind in third. Bred by Love Racing Pty Ltd and G1g Racing & Breeding, the Guest House was a $270,000 buy for Mick Price Racing and Breeding, Roll The Dice Racing and Rogers Bloodstock from Newgate Farm's 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale draft. He is the fifth foal out of Group 2-placed mare Flamboyant Lass (Stratum), who has already produced Hong Kong stakes placegetter Circuit Seven (Deep Field). Home Affairs has had ten to race for three winners and three stakes placegetters. He stood the 2025 breeding season at an unchanged fee of $82,500 (inc GST).

Blue Diamond target for Guest House

Highly regarded juvenile Guest House made a successful belated debut at Cranbourne, vindicating the patience of co-trainer Mick

Price with a strong win in the Clamms Seafood Handicap (1000m). Scratched from last week's Magic Millions VIC 2YO Classic (1100m), the son of Home Affairs justified short-price favouritism despite showing inexperience early after jumping from barrier three. Price admitted the extra week's wait had been less than ideal, but the result helped set the colt on a path toward the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). "Job done today and the $82,500 goes towards the autumn," Price said. "The first project will be the 1200-metres of the Blue Diamond. We have to find the right way to get him there but he'll have a little breather now. He's got some areas of improvement and 1000-metres around here was not ideal." Price also acknowledged the colt's rawness throughout the run. "I was hoping Jamie could get off heels and she was able to," he said. "He's got an explosive nature about him and he doesn't quite understand his gears. He won under a bit of difficulty when he wanted to overrace and handle the tight track here." Melham was similarly impressed, while noting there is plenty of upside to come. "He's definitely not the furnished product yet," she said. "I'd love to see him next prep. He didn't handle the turn very well and did a lot wrong but he had a good enough time out there without doing a lot right." Guest House will now be given time before Price maps out his Blue Diamond lead-up.

Ten for Hellbent

Yarraman Park Stud's Hellbent (I Am Invincible) sired his tenth individual stakes winner on Saturday when Zip Lock (2 c ex Honolulu Lass by Hinchinbrook) scored an impressive victory in the B.J. McLachlan Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Eagle Farm. Bred by Miss L Mitchell and Lance Forbes, the colt was purchased by Munce Racing with Arthur Hoyeau for $160,000 from Yarraman Park at the 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. He is the fourth foal and first stakes winner out of winning mare Honolulu Lass (Hinchinbrook), herself the daughter of Group 1 placegetter Velasco (Flying Spur). The Brave Smash (Tosen Phantom) half-brother to Zip Lock is set to go through the ring at the 2026 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, catalogued as Lot 69. Hellbent stood the 2025 breeding season at an unchanged fee of $38,500 (inc GST).

Amor Victorious doubles stakes tally in Members Mile

The Bjorn Baker-trained Amor Victorious (6 g Caravaggio - Koizora by Snitzel) took his stakes tally to two on Saturday when narrowly landing the Members Mile (Listed, 1600m) at Eagle Farm. Dropping back in class having run sixth in The Ingham (Gr 2, 1600m) last time out, the six-year-old gelding defeated Miss Joelene (Russian Revolution) by 0.2 lengths under Jason Collett. There was a further 1.4 lengths back to the third-placed Victory Win (Santos). Saturday's success added to Amor Victorious' win in the 2024 Shannon Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m). A half-brother to Amor Victorious, by Jonker (Spirit Of Boom), will be sold at next month's Magic Millions through the Kenmore Lodge draft as Lot 1083.

Hidden Wealth makes amends in Falvelon

Having run last of 12 when lining up as favourite in last year's Magic Millions Falvelon (Listed, 1200m), Hidden Wealth (6 g Better Than Ready - Miss Stash by Bradbury's Lucky) made amends on Saturday when landing the Listed sprint by 0.2 lengths. Trained by Tony Gollan, the gelded six-year-old proved just too strong for Fire Star (Deep Field) with a further 0.3 lengths back to his stablemate Pereille (Fastnet Rock) in third.

Ten for Vadamos

Former Rich Hill Stud shuttler Vadamos (Monsun) sired his tenth individual stakes winner on Saturday when Klable (6 g ex Ardere by Hidden Dragon) scored a narrow win in the Christmas Handicap (Listed, 1200m) at Morphetville. Ridden by Jake Toeroek for Richard and Chantelle Jolly, the gelding launched for home in the closing stages, defeating Watchme Win (Harry Angel) by 0.1 lengths with Grinzing Prince (More Than Ready) another 0.1 lengths behind in third. Bred by A R Galbraith Q C, Klabel was a $120,000 buy for Richard Jolly from Rich Hill Stud at the 2021 NZB Karaka National Yearling Sale. He is the third foal and only stakes winner out of Ardere (Hidden Dragon), herself a half-sister to Listed winner Danedina (Danehill Dancer).

Well-related Watersports breaks Cranbourne track record

Well-related mare Watersports (Ocean Park) added a second career victory in style on Saturday when landing the Big Swing Golf Handicap (1500m) at Cranbourne. The four-year-old, a half-sister to dual Group 1 winner Grail Seeker (Iffraaj), brought solid form into the Benchmark 70 assignment and justified her favouritism with a strong-finishing display under Craig Williams, stopping the clock at 1:28.72, a new track record for the distance. Trainer Archie Alexander praised both the mare's determination and the timing of the winning run. "She had a good spot, but they were going very hard and it's not easy to sit at that top speed and then quicken in the straight, but she did it," Alexander said. "We got a bit of luck at the right time with the gap appearing at the top of the straight. It looked like we might be a gallant second, with [runner-up] Porter giving a good kick and going well clear. I thought we might be in trouble. But she's always been incredibly game. It was a good, strong ride and she got there. She's always been on the verge of having a big win like that. She's had a second at Flemington in the past. Even though she hasn't won for a while, she's been a very consistent mare. She's well-bred, a half to a Group 1 winner, and she's a lovely type. This is great for all the connections. With that page that she has, it would be great to look at an Adelaide autumn stakes race with her. She's just kept on improving. She's now a city winner, and we'll just creep along from here."

By Choice impresses on debut for Waterhouse and Bott

The Waterhouse and Bott stable added another promising juvenile to its arsenal when By Choice (Written By) scored an impressive debut victory over 1100 metres at Randwick on Saturday. A dual trial winner leading into her first raceday appearance, the chestnut filly carried that form to the races despite drawing the outside gate. Regan Bayliss allowed her to roll across and settle one out and one back behind eventual runner-up Masvingo (Zoustar), before producing a strong finishing burst to put the race to bed inside the final 100 metres, scoring by a length. By Choice was a $220,000 Magic Millions purchase from breeders Lustre Lodge for her trainers and Kestrel Thoroughbreds, and the win banked more than $82,000, placing her firmly on the path towards the $3 million Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) on January 17. "She's the ultimate professional and that's going to take her a long way," Adrian Bott said. "She began well, put herself in the race, was able to come back underneath Reagan nicely throughout, then showed plenty late. She's a nice-sized filly with plenty of scope to keep improving deeper into the preparation and over further. The owners here today are pretty excited to try and get a horse to the Gold Coast, so I may be one out if I said, 'let's wait for a Widden [Stakes] or something like that. We may head up [to the Gold Coast] and if that's the case, we may look to give her a run up in the [Gold] Pearl the week before. She's got a great constitution, so she could probably handle it.'" By Choice is the third winner out of Audacious Choice (Redoute's Choice), herself a half-sister to stakes-winner Prime Star (Starspangledbanner) out of elite-level winner Barinka (Shinko King). Attunga Stud will offer her yearling half-sister by So You Think (High Chaparral) at Magic Millions, catalogued as Lot 72.

Caffe Florian set for Gosford Guineas

Richard Litt is taking a measured approach with his promising filly Caffe Florian (Snitzel) as she prepares for Sunday's Gosford Guineas (Listed, 1200m), despite opening a short-priced favourite. A $400,000 purchase at the 2024 Inglis Easter Yearling Sale, the Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) filly has won two of her three starts to date, both at Canterbury, and has continued to impress her trainer as she steps into stakes company. "She has always been a lovely filly and she's got the pedigree to match, so we've always had high hopes all the way along," Litt said. "We've given her plenty of time and she has come along nicely. What she's done so far has been excellent. She has to take the next step on Sunday but there are no expectations going around." Litt has been pleased with how Caffe Florian has trained on since her latest Benchmark 72 victory over 1100 metres on December 12, noting the spacing of her runs has helped her preparation. "She has trained on really nicely," he said. "We haven't had to do too much with her because these races have fallen in quite nicely every two weeks. She's ticked over very nicely and with this being her fourth run this preparation, she's ultra fit and she seems to still be in a really good headspace. That is a lot for a filly in her first racing preparation which gives a good indication that she is quite tough. Whether she has a long or short break after this, we are not under any pressure to make plans," he said.

Friday 26 28 for Capitalist

Newgate Farm stallion Capitalist (Written Tycoon) sired his 28th individual stakes winner on Friday when the Gavin Bedggood-trained Hedged (5 g ex Acing Shamrock by Fastnet Rock) took out the Christmas Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Sandown. Bred and sold by Yulong Stud, Hedged was purchased by his former trainer Mick Price in partnership with Roll The Dice Racing and Rogers Bloodstock for $140,000 at the 2022 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. He is the first stakes winner out of unraced mare Acing Shamrock (Fastnet Rock), herself a half-sister to Group

2 winner Nafaayes (Exceed and Excel) and Group 3 winner Stoltz (More Than Ready), out of US Grade 3 winner Decelerator (Dehere). Yulong will offer the Written Tycoon (Iglesia) half-brother to Hedged at the upcoming Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling sale, catalogued as Lot 20.

Hedged dominates Christmas Stakes for Bedggood

Hedged

RACING PHOTOS

Hedged (Capitalist) completed a magnificent Boxing Day for trainer Gavin Bedggood, winning the Christmas Stakes at Sandown just an hour after stablemate Kingswood (Roaring Lion) claimed the Zabeel Classic (Gr 1, 2000m) across the Tasman. The Roll The Dice Racing-owned gelding, who had run two seconds in four starts for Bedggood, overcame a lack of luck in running to prove a class above under Harry Coffey. Hedged sat three-wide without cover before striding into contention upon straightening, racing away to win by 2.5 lengths over Nadal (Xtravagant), with Aviatress (Smart Missile) a narrow 0.02 lengths behind in third. The win marked Hedged's first at stakes grade after five placings, ending a drought stretching back to June 2024. "He's a very good horse; he always has been. That was a very good win today. He actually hasn't won for 18 months, but he always tries," Rob Norton, director of Roll The Dice Racing and managing owner of Hedged, said. "I thought it was a pretty good steer by Harry, albeit caught a little bit wide, but gee he won well. It was the first time we ever backed him up in the Meteorite, and it just completely didn't work. He trialled extremely well [after], but he always does. He has a tendency to maybe overdo it with his head up, so he [Coffey] just wanted to flow with him, and even if we got caught three-wide, it didn't matter, as long as the horse was underneath him and travelling well. He really got that right, and at the top of the straight, it looked like he was the one to beat."

Tavi Time delivers Boxing Day double for Lees

Kris Lees was content to take success whenever it arrived on Boxing Day, with Tavi Time (Tavistock) timing his run perfectly to claim a second Summer Cup (Gr 3, 2000m) and complete a racecard double for the stable. A model of consistency despite limited winning opportunities in 2025, the six-year-old gelding secured his first victory since the Scone Cup (Listed, 2000m) in May, having also captured the Summer Cup last year. "It has been frustrating this preparation," Lees said. "He is more than capable on his day but he got the right pressure up front and Dylan [Gibbons] bided his time to get the runs when they appeared. Good win. He's a backmarker and you'll have bad luck which happens in big races." Carrying 56 kilograms, Tavi Time proved too strong for Estadio Mestalla [Galileo Gold], who shouldered 61 kilograms and went down by 1.2 lengths, registering a third consecutive second placing following placings in The Gong (1600m) and The Ingham (Gr 2, 1600m) in recent weeks. "He's got that electric turn-of-foot and I did say to Kris that he can be lethargic early," Gibbons said. "He shot through and put a length on them but then wanted to reverse park and come back three-lengths. He's a bit tricky but on his day he can be electric."

Regal Zeus claims Lord Stakes for McArdle

John McArdle opted for a suit and tie on Boxing Day after a prompt from his partner, and the extra effort was rewarded as his gelding Regal Zeus (Zoustar) captured the Lord Stakes (Listed, 1600m) at Sandown. "My wife said, 'you've got a runner in a stakes race so put the suit on,'" McArdle said pre-race. "I didn't want to, but here we are." Regal Zeus added a second feature win in four weeks, having taken out the Kilmore Cup (Listed, 1600m) in November, before being unplaced over 1400 metres at Pakenham two weeks later. "Getting back to the mile with a race shape that suited him, and Jye [McNeil] rode him perfectly," McArdle said. "He hadn't ridden him before and the guy is a professional looking at his videos. We had a good discussion before the race as to how you have to ride him. When he gets a kick around the turn over a mile, he's a hard one to beat." The five-year-old gelding held off Gavin Bedggood-trained St Lawrence (Redwood) by 0.8 lengths, with Detonator Jack (Jakkalberry) a further 1.3 lengths away in third, denying Bedggood another feature win on the card following Kingswood's Group 1 success in New Zealand and Hedged's Christmas Stakes victory earlier at Sandown. "He began really well which was key," McNeil said. "He really settled into his rhythm nicely plus the key moment of getting going at the right time."

New Zealand

Saturday 27 Stackhouse to answer the Pitmans' Trentham call

Expat Kiwi jockey Daniel Stackhouse will once again answer the call of Riccarton trainers Michael and Matthew Pitman to ride their team at Trentham next month. The Melbourne-based hoop returned to New Zealand last month to ride Mystic Park (Ocean Park) to victory in the TAB Mile (Gr 3, 1600m) for the father-and-son team, and he will reunite with the six-year-old gelding in the Thorndon Mile (Gr 2, 1600m) on January 17. "He came over to ride Mystic Park to win the TAB Mile and I have asked him to come over to ride him in the Thorndon and he said 'yeah, no problem,'" Michael Pitman said. "We will have a nice team that day, probably three or four horses." Mystic Park, who was runner-up in the Spring Sprint (Gr 3, 1400m) at Trentham earlier this month, will ready for the Thorndon Mile with a run in Sunday's Timaru Cup (1600m) at Phar Lap Raceway, where he will be ridden by Brett Murray. While pleased with his gelding heading into the race, Pitman is wary of his 62-kilogram impost, which is three kilograms heavier than his closest rival - Group 1 performer Matscot (Haradasun). "Weight could be an issue," he said. "They are claiming on Matscot and Sir Albert, and he is carrying 62 kilograms. But he has won carrying 60 kilograms and he is a strong horse." Mystic Park's wide draw also poses a concern for

Pitman. “Barrier ten may not suit but he will be right there in the finish because he is very genuine,” he said. “The horse is really well, we are very happy with him.”

Agera on target for Country Cups bonus

Agera

RACE IMAGES

There will be more than just the healthy $57,500 first-placed cheque on the line for talented gelding Agera (Complacent) when he contests the Taupo Cup (2000m) on Sunday. The race is the last event in the newly minted Northern Cups bonus, a series where the leading points scorer over seven cup races will take out the winner-takes-all $50,000 bonus for accumulating the most points across those races. Agera currently sits atop the leaderboard with ten points, secured with victories in the Matamata Cup (Listed, 1600m) and Feilding Cup (Listed, 2100m), and he is being chased by the quintet of Enright (Power), Mollify (So You Think), Just Charlie (Zed), Pacheco (Makfi) and Sailor Jack (Jakkalberry), all on five points. With just Enright amongst Agera’s rivals on Sunday, it is a straight shootout for the title in a race that offers double points to the first three home on the day. Trainer Tony Pike admitted it was more by circumstance than design that his charge is in contention for the bonus, but he is keen to secure the prize now he finds himself in that position. “After he won the Matamata Cup we wanted to take him to the Thompson Handicap at Trentham but a stone bruise put paid to that, so we pulled him out and went to the Feilding Cup instead,” Pike said. “When he won that we sat down and reassessed things and with the fact the Taupo Cup is a $100,000 race, and there is an extra $50,000 on offer, it was pretty much a no brainer that we should look seriously at it. He is coming back from competing well in a Group 1 and as long as he can get some luck from his barrier [11] then he has to be a strong chance.”

Friday 26 Two for Roaring Lion

Kingswood (5 h ex All at Sea, by Sea the Stars) became the second elite-level winner for Tweenhills Stud’s ill-fated sire Roaring Lion (Kitten’s Joy) on Friday when he took out Ellerslie’s Zabeel Classic (Gr 1, 2000m) for Australian trainer Gavin Bedggood. Kingswood is a British-bred grey by Kirsten Rausing’s Lanwades Stud, and a half-brother to dual St Leger Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 6.5f) winner Eldar Eldarov (Dubawi) from the family of Prix de l’Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Alpinista (Frankel). The gelding was purchased by Glyn Davies for €130,000 at the 2021 Goffs Orby Yearling Sale and began his career in Ireland with John O’Donoghue, where he recorded one win. Kingswood captured the Coongy Cup (Gr 3, 2000m) at Caulfield last October and returned to winning ways two starts back in the Ichiban Plate (Listed, 1800m) at Flemington on Melbourne Cup Day. He joins Criterium de Saint-Cloud (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Dubai Mile as Group 1 winning progeny of Roaring Lion, who died in 2019 due to colic.

24 for Ocean Park

Waikato Stud sire Ocean Park (Thorn Park) notched up his 24th individual stakes winner on Friday when three-year-old filly Tellum (3 f ex Early Morning Rise, by Fastnet Rock) took out the Eight Carat Classic (Gr 2, 1600m) at Ellerslie. Bred by Waikato Stud, the filly was offered at the 2024 NZB Karaka National Yearling Sale, where she failed to meet her $50,000 reserve. Tellum is the only winner out of Early Morning Rise (Fastnet Rock), herself a half-sister to Listed scorer Rise At Dawn (Almanzor), out of multiple Group 1-placed mare Kay’s Awake (Towkay).

Tellum storms home to claim Eight Carat Classic

A front-running ride from Joe Doyle saw the Debbie Sweeney-trained filly Tellum upset the favourites in the Eight Carat Classic at Ellerslie on Boxing Day to claim her third career win and first at stakes level. The filly, owned by the Flying Mullet syndicate, dictated the pace and surged clear with 300 metres to run, holding off second placegetter Lollapalooza (El Roca) by 0.7 lengths. Fleeting Star (Cool Aza Beel) finished a further 0.5 lengths behind for third. “This is extra special as she is a tough filly who has shown a lot the whole way through,” Sweeney said. “It is a great team of owners, 47 or 49 of them, and I’m so thankful to them. There are a lot of characters in there and when she won at Te Aroha they were all in the pub at Papamoia and having an absolute blast. I did say to Joe that she does like to be on pace and I couldn’t believe how easily she was travelling. I thought we were a massive chance then and I’m just rapt with her. We will now carry on with her three-year-old campaign after we see how she pulls up.”

Te Encuentro shines on debut at Ellerslie

Wexford Stables’ juvenile filly Te Encuentro (Frankel) made a stunning debut when taking out the SkyCity 1100 (1100m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day. Trained by Lance O’Sullivan and Andrew Scott, the filly had won her sole trial over 800 metres at Pukekohe. Settled at the rear for most of the race, jockey Craig Grylls guided her through a narrow gap between favourites Ka Ron (Hello Youmzain) and She’s No Saint (Prague) in the final 200 metres to win by 0.2 lengths. “We were pretty confident,” Grylls said. “She jumped okay but they all raced up inside me. I pulled her back to last and I thought I would travel into it a lot better. She has just picked up all of a sudden, took the gap like a pro and it was a big win. She has shown what we have thought of her.” O’Sullivan, whose wife Bridgette shares in the ownership, praised the filly’s finishing burst. “She’s relatively inexperienced, she has only had the one barrier trial and it was a pretty special performance. She had to be pretty good to win,” he said. Purchased for $600,000 from Arrowfield Stud’s Inglis Easter Yearling Sale draft, Te Encuentro is ineligible for next month’s Karaka Millions 2YO (RL, 1200m), but O’Sullivan said bigger assignments are still possible. “She’s not eligible for the big two-year-old race here at Ellerslie but looks like she is going to run a long way further than the 1100 metres, the way she hit the line," he said. "We just hope she can take that next step up and be in good company. Andrew suggested we [nominate her for the Golden Slipper] early on and I said if she's good enough we will pay the late entry. It is not very often you get a New Zealand horse across for that race but if she carries on, we all have pipedreams, so who knows."

Maldini secures Stayers' Championship Final win

Consistent gelding Maldini (Tarzino) posted the biggest victory of his career when he claimed the Stayers' Championship Final (2400m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day. Ridden by Sam McNab, Maldini enjoyed an economical run throughout. Hugging the inside in the straight proved decisive, allowing him to take the lead and pull away to a 2.4-length victory over He's Classic (Rageese). "It's a race I have been trying to win for a while, we have got a few placings but never actually won it, so it was great to get that result today," trainer Tony Pike said. "He deserves this, he's not a big horse, and he has been really consistent right through this preparation. He just needs things to go his way with his size. He was given an absolute peach by Sam today, he never left the fence, and he has won really well. He is not an easy horse to ride, he can go quite keen. All the gaps opened up on the fence and he didn't go too early either. It was a very patient ride and he is riding extremely well. I am rapt for the owners, they have been really patient with the horse, he has been frustrating and he hasn't won out of turn. It was a great race for him to win today." Pike said stakes targets are now in sight, with a likely return to Ellerslie next week for the Queen Elizabeth Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) on New Year's Day. "He is in career best form," Pike said. "He has been up a very long time but just whether we keep him going this preparation we will wait and see. Probably off a win like that we will have to look at a City of Auckland Cup [Queen Elizabeth]."

Rise Companions storms to Stella Artois Final win

Rise Companions (Capitalist) delivered an impressive performance to claim the Stella Artois Championship Final (1500m) at Ellerslie on Boxing Day, raising questions about just how far the Simon and Katrina Alexander-trained five-year-old can go. Ridden by Masa Hashizume, the gelding romped home strongly to secure his third consecutive win. "He is just improving every time and he is just unreal," Hashizume said. "While he got back I didn't want him to get too keen and I knew there was good pace in the race, so we decided to see what he has got and he showed he has got plenty. I think he could be anything. I didn't push him in the last 50 metres and he didn't even blow after he pulled up." Alexander was equally impressed with the effort and the gelding's development since returning from Hong Kong. "You don't want to give a field like that a head start, but I just don't know what this horse is capable of," she said. "We do know the further he goes the better he will go, but it is interesting to see what he is going to develop into. We thought we would get this one out of the way and go home and plan where we go from here. He might get a bit of a break as he is still learning and it would be nice to reward him with a break and then look at something later on. I don't think the Hong Kong life suited him, so it is nice to see him develop his personality more than anything. Masa comes and gallops him so it is nice to see how they are developing together."

First for Ancient Spirit

White Robe Lodge stallion Ancient Spirit (Invincible Spirit) sired his first stakes winner on Friday when Bobby McGee (3 f ex Lucille by Remind) took out the NZB Airfreight Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Wingatui. Bred and raced by Craig and Jim Hunter, Bobby McGee is the first stakes winner and fourth winner from four to race out of six-time winner Lucille (Remind).

Bobby McGee claims first stakes win

Promising filly Bobby McGee marked her arrival at stakes level with a determined win in the NZB Airfreight Stakes at Wingatui on Boxing Day. The Terry Kennedy-trained filly had broken her maiden two starts ago at her home track and ran a solid fifth at Invercargill a fortnight ago. Jumping from barrier three, rider Rohan Mudhoo settled Bobby McGee in midfield before angling her to the middle of the track around the home bend. The filly cruised past the two leaders in the final strides to win by 0.2 lengths over Miss Starlight (Sweynesse), with Cool Aza Rene (Cool Aza Beel) another 0.5 lengths behind in third. “She is a really nice filly and her work since the run at Invercargill has been top class,” Kennedy said. “She didn’t have a lot of luck that day and back to her home track gave us confidence she could compete today. She is a beautiful, big filly who will only get better as she matures and I think the way she finished off today she will get up to 2000m without much fuss.” Kennedy plans to follow the traditional three-year-old campaign path without overtaxing the filly this preparation. “She probably has three more runs left in her before we put her aside for a break,” he said. “She can chase the three-year-old series and I think her last run is likely to be in the Dunedin Guineas [Listed, 1600m] here in late February.”

Vale Ghibellines

White Robe Lodge has confirmed the death of stallion Ghibellines (Shamardal). A son of champion sire Shamardal (Giant’s Causeway) out of the Group 1-winning mare Camarilla (Elusive Quality), Ghibellines’ racing career included a highlight win in the Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) for trainer Peter Snowden. Retired to stud in 2016, he sired nine stakes winners, including Group 1 winner Smokin’ Romans, last season’s Brisbane Cup (Gr 2, 2400m) winner Campaldino, and $1.5 million earner Palmetto, producing a 4.3 per cent stakes winners-to-runners ratio.

Asia

First for World Premiere

Yushun Stallion Station’s World Premiere (Deep Impact) sired his first elite-level winner and first overall stakes winner when Lovcen (2 c ex Songwriting by Giant’s Causeway) proved too strong for 15 rivals in Saturday’s Hopeful Stakes

(Gr 1, 2000m) at Nakayama. Ridden by Kohei Matsuyama for trainer Haruki Sugiyama, the juvenile colt scored by three-quarters of a length over Forte Angelo (Fierement). There was a further half-length back to Ask Edinburgh (Leontes) in third place. Bred by Northern Farm and raced by Forest Racing, Lovcen is a half-brother to winners Black Voice (Black Tide), Lyrics (Kinshasa No Kiseki), Taisei Singer (Cheval Grand) and T O Stein (World Ace) being out of the placed Giant’s Causeway (Storm Cat) mare Songwriting.

JPN: Lugal narrowly lands Hanshin Cup

Last year’s Sprinters Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) victor Lugal (5 h Duramente - Atab by New Approach) added a third Graded success to his CV when narrowly landing Saturday’s Hanshin Cup (Gr 2, 1400m) at Hanshin. The Haruki Sugiyama-trained five-year-old defeated Namura Clair (Mikki Isle) under Katsuma Sameshima, with a further length back to Fortune Time (Greater London) in third.

Frankie Lor reaches 500-win milestone with Sha Tin success, while Numbers showcases Hong Kong Derby prospects

Frankie Lor

HKJC

By Leo Schlink

Frankie Lor continued a meteoric rise when Salon S (Zousain) triumphed impressively to deliver the trainer's 500th Hong Kong victory before Numbers (Tivaci) emerged as a serious Hong Kong Derby (2000m) contender at Sha Tin on Saturday on a momentous afternoon for the quietly spoken horseman.

Lor celebrated a memorable meeting with a double, firstly reaching the 500-win mark milestone with three-year-old Salon S's triumph before Numbers underlined his credentials for the Hong Kong Derby on March 22 with a gritty win against older horses in the Class 2 Long Ke Handicap (2000m).

Formerly known as King Of Thunder when trained by John O'Shea and Tom Charlton in Australia, the Tivaci (High Chaparral) gelding won two races pre-import and finished second in the Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m).

Taken straight to the front today by Derek Leung, Numbers increased the tempo from the 800 metres before stoutly fending off Winning Wing (Preferment) by a length, with Gentlemen Legacy (Showtime) a further neck away in third place in 2m 0.94s.

Lor outlined Four-Year-Old Classic Series plans immediately after the race.

"I'll see if the owner wants to go in all three Classic Series races or just the 1800 metres [Hong Kong Classic Cup] and 2000 metres [Hong Kong Derby], because 1600 metres [Hong Kong Classic Mile] might be a bit short for him," Lor said.

"He's a big, strong horse with a big stride. The jockey said '2000 metres is still not enough, he can go 2200 metres or 2400 metres. In Australia he had 2400-metre form. He's quite easy to train. Sometimes big horses need more work to train, but he's quite easy."

Leung said: "He's a nice horse, even 2400 metres he can handle. He's got a big stride, he can lead and when he has cover, it will be even better for him because he can chase. I think the horse can improve even more."

A former apprentice jockey, Lor served as assistant trainer to John Size and John Moore before receiving a licence to train in his own right and has developed a penchant for quickly reaching training landmarks - including winning with his first runner, Yourthewonforme (Sufficient), at Sha Tin in September 3, 2017 and finishing second to Size in the trainers' champion in his debut campaign with a record first-season tally of 65 wins.

Lor's foundation season paved the way for a string of prodigious achievements, including landing a Group 1 double at the 2018 Hong Kong International Races with Mr Stunning (Exceed And Excel) (Hong Kong Sprint) and Glorious Forever (Archipenko) (Hong Kong Cup).

The theme continued with a stable clean sweep in the 2019 Four-Year-Old Classic Series with Furore (Pierro) (Hong Kong Classic Mile, 1600m & Hong Kong Derby, 2000m) and Mission Tycoon (Written Tycoon) (Hong Kong Classic Cup, 1800m) before Mr Stunning delivered more Group 1 success in the 2020 Chairman's Sprint Prize (1200m).

Lor claimed the Hong Kong trainers' title in 2021/22 with 90 wins, reached the 400-win mark in only his seventh season in 2023/24 and today slotted his 500th victory from his 4,483rd starter at a strike rate of 11.1 per cent.

"The first two years I got a licence, I had really good seasons, so I have very good memories in my mind," said Lor, who rates Yourethoneforme's win eight years ago as a career highlight along with the trainers' championship.

"I'm lucky to get some good horses in my stable, so I need to thank the owners first and also for the [Hong Kong] Jockey Club to give me a chance and also for my stable team - they work really hard for me.

"When you become an apprentice jockey and later on when you are getting older, you need to think about finding another job to go ahead and then training was my dream also."

By Zousain (Zoustar), Salon S displayed plenty of ability with a comfortable win in the Class 4 Wong Chuk Wan Handicap (1400m), a race restricted to three-year-olds.

Manfred Man continued a stellar season when Aurio (Capitalist) trounced his opposition in the first section of the Class 4 Tai Long Tsui Handicap (1200m) to win by three lengths under James Orman, before Foremost Teddy (Fastnet Rock) made it two wins in a row with success in the Class 5 Yung Shue O Handicap (1800m, dirt) for Karis Teetan and Danny Shum.

Chris So's Mount Everest (Exceed And Excel) finished powerfully under Keith Yeung to win the second section of the Class 4 Tai Long Tsui Handicap (1200m), before Luke Ferraris celebrated his 24th birthday with victory on David Eustace's Happy Boss (Toronado) in the Class 4 Tai Tan Handicap (1400m).

"It's good to get one on the board for Dave, it looks like his stable has turned into form now," Ferraris said. "He's a nice horse, it was his second run and he's a little bit green but got the job done in the end and when he gets out to a mile-plus, he will start to improve nicely."

John Size and Andrea Atzeni combined with Sight Dreamer (Almanzor) to win the Class 4 Wong Yi Chau Handicap (1650m, dirt) as David Hall's Magnifique (Charm Spirit) posted his fourth win from five starts in clocking 55.85s to win the Class 3 Sham Chung Handicap (1341b).

Mark Newnham teamed with Lyle Hewitson to land the Class 3 Tai Long Au Handicap (1650m, dirt) with New Forest (Justify), before Leung closed the meeting in style to take riding honours with a brace after saluting on Cody Mo's Jumbo Treasure (Written Tycoon) in the Class 3 Shui Long Wo Handicap (1200m).

Hong Kong racing continues at Sha Tin on Thursday with the New Year's Day meeting, featuring the Chinese Club Challenge Cup (Gr 3, 1400m).
