Grafterburners puts on the afterburners to jet away from Sunlight field

By Trevor Marshallsea

Exciting Queensland colt Grafterburners (Graff) stamped himself a potential superstar by extending his winning streak to four races unbeaten this preparation with a barnstorming victory in Saturday's $3 million slot race, the Sunlight 3YO Plate (1100m) at the Gold Coast.

With the all-conquering James McDonald aboard for the first time, the Kelly Schweida-trained colt was sent out a dominant $2.25 favourite as he sought his sixth from 12 starts overall.

Jumping well from gate two, the handsome bay travelled sweetly in the run behind the leader Swordplay (Shalaa) as a solid pace ensued. His backers may have had their hearts in their mouths early in the straight as Grafterburners was blocked for a run for some 50 metres, but taken on an inside path by McDonald, he quickly showed his class.

Shiki shines in storming Gold Pearl win

Impressive Sydney-based filly Shiki (Too Darn Hot) gave an emphatic reminder of her class and stamped herself as a strong contender for next week's Magic Millions Gold Coast 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) with a storming victory in Saturday's Gold Pearl (1100m) at the Gold Coast.

Bred by Canning Downs, Grafterburners was bought for $70,000 by Schweida at the 2024 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, in association with old friend and client Glenn Betts, himself a former jockey and trainer.

Saturday night's $1.2 million first prize pushed Grafterburners' prize-money earnings to $2.05 million, and followed on from his stakes breakthrough at his previous start when he took the Gold Edition Plate (Listed, 1200m) at Eagle Farm.

"I'm pretty proud of him," Schweida said of Grafterburners, who raced in the slot owned by training giants Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott.

Eagle Farm-based Schweida admitted he'd been thinking of taking an alternative path with Grafterburners before the Sunlight slot offer first arrived.

"We were going to go a different option until we were offered a slot. We were going to go to the Vo Rogue Plate, but this will do," he said with a smile.

McDonald was also delighted with Grafterburners' victory, calling him "a very good horse".

"He was outstanding," he said. "Credit to Kelly and his team. They turned him out immaculate. He was presented to win, he drew a good gate and he just put himself in the box seat.

GRAFTERBURNERS HAS TURNED OUT TO BE A REAL BARGAIN BUY, AT $70,000. I DON'T KNOW WHO THE UNDERBIDDER WAS, BUT THEY'RE PROBABLY NOT VERY HAPPY WITH THEMSELVES THESE DAYS

GLENN BETTS

"It's nice to ride a beautiful colt".

The first stakes victor, from 30 runners, for Kitchwin Hills stud's double stakes-winning stallion Graff (Star Witness), first-crop son Grafterburners continues a rich Inglis Classic tradition for Betts and his main trainer Schweida.

They also struck gold at the sale in 2023, paying $50,000 for filly El Morzillo (Star Witness). The now four-year-old has won three races for $1.09 million, capped by her victory last March in the $1 million Inglis Sprint (1200m) up the Flemington straight.

Betts was understandably delighted after Grafterburners' Sunlight triumph, reflecting on how a combined Classic sale outlay of $120,000 had brought two runners for him and Schweida who've carried Betts's orange with the purple cap to claim $3.14 million between them - so far.

"We snoop around trying to buy horses at the right price and give them to Kelly and try to get him to turn them into good horses for us," Betts said. "He's certainly managed that very well this time."

Also understandably, Betts calls himself "a huge fan" of the Inglis Classic sale, which will be held again at Riverside from February 8-10.

"We'll be back this year for sure," said Betts, who now runs an international welding supplies company.

"Since we bought El Morzillo there the year before, you could say we've had a pretty good trot out of it.

"Grafterburners has turned out to be a real bargain buy, at $70,000. I don't know who the underbidder was, but they're probably not very happy with themselves these days.

"I really liked his pedigree, particularly on the dam's side. There's a Golden Slipper winner there [Overreach] and a Blue Diamond winner [Reward For Effort], and we were looking for something that'd go early.

"It just seemed to be a good family. I had a sneaky feeling Graff, who was a first-season sire at the time, was going to be a good sire.

"Kelly checked him over and liked him, the vet checks came up well, we managed to secure him for the right money and the rest is history.

"He's just a lovely quiet horse with loads of ability."

Betts said Waterhouse and Bott had made a concerted effort to secure Grafterburners for their slot via their long-term associate Bruce Slade, winning out ahead of several rival bidders.

"We had a few slot owners chasing him, but the Gai and Adrian team came up with the best deal," Betts said. "Their form expert reckoned Grafterburners was the best horse by a fair way, based on what they thought would be in the race."

Grafterburners is also eligible for this year's Inglis Sprint at Flemington on February 28. Schweida said he'd be tempted to try to win that race two years in succession, though he will also consider the $500,000 QTIS Jewel 3YO (1200m) at the Gold Coast on March 7.

The colt is the sixth and best foal out of Coralina (Dylan Thomas), an unraced half-sister to Overreach (Exceed And Excel), who was Australia's Champion 2YO Filly of 2012-13 after her Slipper victory.

He's also Coralina's latest offspring, with two misses and a deceased foal on her breeding record since Grafterburners' birth in 2022. The mare was covered by Eureka Stud's Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) last week.

Graff, who covered 42 mares for $9,900 last year, has 11 winners from 30 runners, with his progeny also including the stakes-placed filly Royal Chic.

Shiki shines in storming Gold Pearl win

Impressive Sydney-based filly Shiki (Too Darn Hot) gave an emphatic reminder of her class and stamped herself as a strong contender for next week's Magic Millions Gold Coast 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) with a storming victory in Saturday's Gold Pearl (1100m) at the Gold Coast.

A $420,000 purchase for Kurrinda Bloodstock with trainers Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott at last year's Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Shiki began her career with a bang by being the fastest winner at Sydney's first official two-year-old trials in September, and by winning the Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) on debut after racing on the pace.

The doubts rang out, however, when on resumption as a $1.80 favourite in a 1000-metre Randwick set-weights event on December 20, Shiki led but weakened to finish fourth of seven in a race taken out by Classic favourite Warwoven (Sword Of State).

But on Saturday, the filly looked far more like the Shiki of Gimcrack day, this time benefiting from a more conservative run, to firm into $6 for next week's $3 million contest.

Jumping well from gate five of ten under Tim Clark, she settled well in midfield behind an even tempo, pushed up with ease four-wide on the turn, and burst to the front on straightening. While exposed a long way from home, Shiki powered away to score easing up by 2.04 lengths, as a slightly easy $3.40 second favourite.

Chris and Corey Munce's Double Cool (Cool Aza Beel) produced an impressive Classic trial in taking second at $12, with the John O'Shea and Tom Charlton-trained Tigroni (Tiger Of Malay) third at $4.60, a further 0.29 lengths away.

Shiki's stablemate By Choice (Written By) was fifth as $2.70 favourite.

Bott was delighted to have what appeared to be the real Shiki back, saying she had gone too hard in the lead on resuming.

"She did a few things wrong first-up," the winning trainer said.

"We know she's explosive and has a good turn of foot, but we just had to harness it and do it the right way, which is obviously important going into the big grand final next week.

"She has good acceleration, whether she can sustain that as she needed to be cuddled a bit. We're teaching her to harness it. We had her a little free and fresh last start but she's taken good benefit out of that.

"She had a good couple of weeks and arrived really well. This week, she really started to relax and did what we wanted to see in her work.

"With the draw and the set-up today, a lot of things have fallen her way. There was good speed in and around her, and hopefully that sets her up for next week."

WE KNOW SHE'S EXPLOSIVE AND HAS A GOOD TURN OF FOOT, BUT WE JUST HAD TO HARNESS IT AND DO IT THE RIGHT WAY

Bott intends keeping the filly on the fresh side for the Classic next Saturday.

"We'll do very little with her this week," he said. "We had this particular set-up in mind for her, which has been quite successful - we wanted her to have a look at the track here. She'll potter around for the week and hopefully she'll be nice and fresh for next week."

Clark, who'll ride Shiki again next week, said the filly had presented in far more impressive style on Saturday than in her first-up run.

"Credit to the team at home, to be able to turn her around in three weeks' time [after] she raced very fierce, and to get her up here and race so tractably today," he said.

"She was a completely different horse to what we saw at Randwick.

"She was too fresh that day and maybe surprised Gai and Adrian a bit. She presented a lot better and she'll have more to come after today.

"She qualified by winning the Gimcrack so next week is when we want her to perform - not last time or today. It is all about getting her to peak up on the right day."

Bred by South Australia's Cornerstone Stud and Millar Racing, Shiki is the fourth foal out of three-time winner Jest Excel (Exceed And Excel). Her first runner is Love My Louis (Capitalist), a six-year-old Gladstone-trained mare who's won four times from 36 starts, while the second, Excelboom (Spirit Of Boom), has won a Gattton maiden for Tony Gollan.

Just Excel's yearling filly by Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) will be offered as Lot 405 at this week's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale by Riverstone Lodge. She also has a filly foal by Artorius (Flying Artie). Continued on page 8

THE CHASE

CHC杰士马主俱乐部
CHINA HORSE CLUB

CHINA HORSE CLUB'S THE CHASE will present a draft of seven high-quality yearlings at the 2026 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Recent CHC-bred stars include this spring's Listed Merson Cooper winner Eternal Warrior, Group 2 Queensland Guineas winner Depth Of Character, Group 1 Coolmore Stud Stakes winner Ozzmosis, Group 1 Randwick Guineas winner Communist, three-time Group 2 winner and Blue Diamond and Thousand Guineas runner-up Revolutionary Miss, and four-time Group 2 winner Dame Giselle, to name a few. COME BY BARN QC AND QF TO SEE OUR DRAFT.

THE CHASE PRESENTS

LOT 85

I AM INVINCIBLE X BALLISTIC LOVER COLT

This first foal out of the lightning quick Ballistic Lover is a naturally athletic, classy colt in the flesh and that is no surprise given the calibre of races on his page, including the Moir Stakes, Manikato Stakes, Coolmore Stud Stakes and Magic Millions 2YO Classic, among others. He is bred on a cross operating at three stakes horses from four runners, an incredible 75% strike rate.

LOT 201

EXTREME CHOICE X DAME GISELLE COLT

He's by a stallion that is a statistical anomaly and out of a mare that was a dynamo racehorse, collecting four Group 2 wins across her 2- and 3-year-old seasons. From only 69 male offspring to the races, Extreme Choice has already sired colts to win the Golden Slipper and Blue Diamond, could this be the next?

LOT 301

ZOUSTAR X FRENCH FERN FILLY

A sharp smooth-moving filly by the reigning Champion Sire out of a Group 2-winning 2YO. Zoustar over Lope De Vega is running at 33% stakes winners-to-runners, and this mare is firing at a 100% strike rate of winners-to-runners. Watch out for progressive half-sibling, Pre Eminence, he's won three straight and it looks like black-type is calling.

CAPITALIST X GRASSLANDS FILLY

If ever there was a fast 2YO filly family, this would be it. Out of a full sister to Champion 2YO Filly Away Game, this is also the family of Modern Wonder and Written Swoosh. Capitalist has had another good year with his fillies through the deeds of Alpha Sophie, Akaysha, Memo and more. CHC has had a bit of luck co-breeding good horses on this Capitalist x Snitzel cross through the deeds of G2W Marine One and G3W and G1-placed Cannonball.

STAY INSIDE X HELIX PARK COLT

We're only just into the new year, and Stay Inside has already had two stakes winners from his first crop, including one bred on the exact same cross as this colt. He is a powerful, good moving horse that has the physique to get up and going like he is bred to, with the substance to train on.

EXTREME CHOICE X PENANG COLT

This very good November foal is the product of two prolific speed influences in Extreme Choice and I Am Invincible, further enhanced by a sharp pedigree featuring races like the Breeders Plate, Maribyrnong Plate, Gimcrack and Kindergarten, among others. His dam's first two foals are both winners, and half-brother Hawker Hall was recently tipped in the press by trainer Kris Lees as a potential lightweight Galaxy chance this Autumn.

RUSSIAN REVOLUTION X PURCENTAGE FILLY

A full sister to the relentlessly tough Revolutionary Miss, this filly requires little imagination. She has great residual value and is a sharp conveyance with a physique to follow in her sister's footsteps of getting up early and training on.

Continued from page 5 Darley shuttler Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) - who claimed Australia's first and second season champion sire honours in the past two terms - has 14 stakes winners in Australia from 137 runners at 10.22 per cent, and 31 from 418 worldwide at 7.42 per cent.

The nine-year-old covered 110 mares last season at Darley Kelvinside, where he stood for a fee of $275,000.

Too Darn Hot has 20 yearlings catalogued at the for the Queensland sale, including Lots 742 and 745, who like Shiki are out of daughters of Exceed And Excel (Danahill).

Itchintogo slams rivals in Gold Nugget romp

Speedy Brisbane-based gelding Itchintogo (Sun City) suggested he could have the measure of some more vaunted southern raiders in next weekend's Magic Millions Gold Coast 2YO Classic with a dominant victory in Saturday's main males' lead-up race.

From the corner of master trainer Tony Gollan and jockey Ryan Maloney - who both won the Classic for the first time in 2023 with Skirt The Law (Better Than Ready) - Itchintogo jumped to the front in the Gold Nugget (1100m) and dashed clear in the straight to win by 4.57 lengths.

He won like a $1.60 favourite should in a six-runner field of locals, but the authority of the performance showed the gelding would be a definite chance in the Classic one week on.

Bookmakers cut his price for the $3 million event to $9 (from $15). He remains on the fourth line of betting in a market headed by Bjorn Baker's colt Warwoven (Sword Of State) at $2 and another Sydney-based runner in Shiki, the filly who firmed to $6 after also winning at the Gold Coast on Saturday.

Another Brisbane-based runner, Chris and Corey Munce's two-from-two colt Zip Lock (Hellbent) is at $7.

Itchintogo ran second to Zip Lock at the pair's debut at Doomben in November before winning the Phelan Ready Stakes (Listed, 1110m) at the same track, just over a month before Saturday's second success.

He's the sole stakes winner from 40 runners - and so far the only third-crop runner - for relatively obscure sire Sun City (Zoustar), who stands at Queensland's Telemon Stud for $8,800.

And after Saturday's win, Gollan appeared warm on his two-year-old's chances of further promoting his sire in next Saturday's main event, endorsing the week-long back-up as the right preparation, even though Skirt The Law had more than a month between runs ahead of her 2YO Classic triumph.

"I wanted to have him in this after he won the other day. Bringing him here got that freshness off him, then give him an easy week and give ourselves a chance to give it a shake next week," Gollan said.

"The seven-day back-up will do this horse the world of good. The stats on doing that have been phenomenal. I'm really looking forward to the next seven days."

Gollan said he was delighted to see Itchintogo show the benefit of experience when on his best behaviour on Saturday.

"It's always a little bit nerve wracking with these young ones when they're this short," he said.

"He did a bit wrong last time and he did a bit wrong in the jump-out in between. But we were really happy with him in the last ten days.

"He paraded sensational and obviously he had a class edge on these. I love the way he executed the race today and that is the best he's been for us.

"He's changed and grown through the prep, which is unusual for a two-year-old in work. His muscle tone is great, his health is great.

"He had to show that he could be competitive and he's done that today. He's a quick horse and he can get going. If he can do that next week, he'll put himself in a really good spot."

Maloney concurred it was a reassuringly calm Itchintogo who presented for his Classic lead-up.

"I just loved the way he relaxed today. Even when Wootton You Know came up outside, he didn't want to overdo it, which he did the other day," the winning rider said.

"That holds him in good stead going into next week. He's got a bit of cheek and he's got the temperament to hold himself into next week.

"He relaxed a lot better than he did with me the other day. In his trial he was quite fresh."

Toby Edmonds' Baciama (Castelvecchio) took second at $5, ahead of the Marcus Wilson-trained Written Acclaim (Acclaim) at $41.

Bred by Queensland's Ben Lucas, Itchintogo was bought for $60,000 at Magic Millions' Gold Coast March Yearling Sale by Victoria's Glenhuntly Lodge, who left him in the Sunshine State with Gollan.

He's the sixth, last and best foal out of Itchintowin (Nothing To Lose), who died last month, aged 16.

That mare was a city winner of five races from the same family as New Zealand stakes winners Sir Alberton (Red Tempo), Alberton Star (Stylish Century) and Straussbridge (Straussbrook) and, more recent stakes-winning Kiwi sisters Provence (Savabeel) and Damask Rose.

Sun City, who won the 2018 running of the BJ McLachlan Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Doomben in a career cut short by injury to six starts, has 19 winners from 40 runners, and covered 42 mares in 2024, after serving 57 in 2023.

Nine for Trapeze Artist

Widden Stud stallion Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) chalked up his ninth individual stakes winner when the Bjorn Baker-trained Disneck (5 g ex Lindisfarne by City Zip) landed Saturday's Standish Handicap (Gr 3, 1200m) at Flemington. Making his first start since November 8, the five-year-old gelding produced a strong late run from the rear of the field inside the final 200 metres under Daniel Stackhouse to draw 1.8 lengths clear of runner-up Extratwo (Toronado). There was a further 0.2 lengths back to the third-placed Contemporary (Exceed And Excel). "The plan was to get back obviously and follow Mark Zahara [on eventual fourth Aviatress]," Stackhouse said. "I knew his horse would give us a good run into the race. He's really effective when he's ridden cold like that. He's got a great turn of foot and you can see that he's got there almost too early. He pricked his ears, but he just was going so well and he just put himself into the race that quickly, but it was a nice win and that's a good start to his preparation." Bred by Phoenix Thoroughbreds, Disneck was a $200,000 Inglis Classic purchase from the Gooree Park draft for his trainer and Clarke Bloodstock (FBAA) and is the best of two winners out of the stakes-winning import Lindisfarne (City Zip), a half-sister to Group 1-placed stakes winner Flora Dora (First Dude). On-sold for $7,000 through Inglis Digital in May of 2021, Lindisfarne produced a filly by So You Think (High Chaparral) last spring before visiting Traffic Warden (Street Boss). Trapeze Artist covered 52 mares at a fee of $33,000 (inc GST) during the 2025 breeding season.

Jenni The Ninja remains unbeaten

The Gavin Bedggood-trained Jenni The Ninja (Shalaa) looks to have a bright future ahead after she doubled her unbeaten tally on Saturday with a win in the Jockey Celebration Sprint Handicap (1100m) at Flemington. Having scored by a half-length in a 1000-metre maiden on debut at Pakenham in November, the three-year-old improved again this weekend as she defeated March's Ottawa Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) scorer Military Tycoon (Written Tycoon) by a length under Beau Mertens. "I was keen to run her in a three-year-old Benchmark 64 at Cranbourne a fortnight after Pakenham and Tony [Ottobre, owner] said we'd put her out," Bedggood said. "She had a fortnight at the paddock and he rang me up and said we're going to send her back. She came back with obviously good residual fitness. We gave her a tick over jump-out and she trialed up very well. Today was a bit of a step into the unknown, coming from a maiden win, and there were a couple of wellcredentialed horses there. But we were going to find out where she sits amongst the ranks and, I suppose, she was going to sink or swim, and she's definitely swam." As for future plans, Bedggood said he will discuss a potential step up in grade with Ottobre. "I actually haven't had a look at the calendar," he said. "Me and Tony will have a chat on Monday, I guess, and see how she comes through the run and make a plan. She's a nice filly moving forward and I'm very grateful to have her in my stable."

Sun Gift goes back-to-back at Flemington

Waikato Stud's homebred mare Sun Gift (Savabeel) continued her strong run of summer form with a victory in the Honouring Our Jockeys Plate (2000m) at Flemington on Saturday. The $130,000 Benchmark 78 handicap was the third start of the five-year-old's preparation. She had resumed with a second at Caulfield on December 3 before finishing strongly from off the pace to win at Cranbourne on December 27. Ridden on this occasion by Jamie Melham, Sun Gift sat much closer to the pace in third before pouncing in the straight. She dashed into a clear lead with 300 metres remaining, then stuck to her guns well in the closing stages to hold off the closing Trapalanda (Decorated Knight) by 1.3 lengths. "She was in a good mood today," Melham said of the Danny O'Brien-trained mare. "She can be a bit temperamental in the gates. If she didn't jump well today, I thought she was going to have a hard time getting back behind a slow tempo. 'Willo' [Craig Williams] gave her a great ride last time and was able to sneak up along

Adelaide Cup aim for Tarvue after career-best success

Pakenham-based trainer John Sadler has the Adelaide Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) in mind as a potential target for Tarvue (Tarzino) after her tenacious victory in the $130,000 Off The Track Trophy (1800m) at Flemington on Saturday. Sadler has always had plenty of time for Tarvue, and the mare repaid some of that faith with the fourth and most significant victory of her 16-race career as she defeated I Only Wish (Puissance De Lune) by 1.3 lengths under Luke Cartwright. "I've always had a good opinion of her," the winning trainer said. "We just haven't seen the best of her on the racetrack until now. She's had a few niggling issues. But she's a good staying mare who can go a lot further than this, and hopefully we start to see that down the track. She's always shown really good ability and it was terrific to see her put it all together today." The victory has given Sadler the confidence to continue along a path towards a potential tilt at the Adelaide Cup at Morphettville on March 10. "She likes to flow, and that's why Luke served it up to the leader a bit earlier than usual," Sadler said. "He knew that she's not the sort of mare that can quicken off a slow pace, so she has to do it herself. We'll probably bring her back in a week or two and give her another run now. I'd like to try her over 2500 metres and see how she goes. There's a Benchmark 78 over that distance here next week. It could be a chance to see if we'd be wasting our time aiming at a race like an Adelaide Cup."

Pozman celebrates first Flemington win

Apprentice Emily Pozman was celebrating her first Flemington success on Saturday after she partnered the Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman-trained Gallant Son (Written Tycoon) to victory in the Benchmark 70 Jockey Assistance Program Sprint (1000m). Making his first start since April, Gallant Son was dropping back in grade having run fourth in the Tobin Bronze Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) when last seen and carried 61 kilograms, including his jockey's three-kilogram claim, to a 0.4 lengths win over Along The River (Written Tycoon). "I'm just really pleased that I got to do it for Kat and Moods and on a horse like Gallant Son, who I do a lot of work with at home," Pozman told Racing.com. "He's just the best for a colt; he's got the best manners ever. He's off to a winning start, this prep, and hopefully he goes on with it."

Yellow Brick takes out lucrative Magic Millions Quality

Tony and Maddysen Sears's stable flagbearer Yellow Brick (The Mission) secured another big pay check on Saturday when landing the Magic Millions Quality (1300m) at the Gold Coast. A $20,000 purchase for Tony Sears and Paul Moroney Bloodstock at the 2021 Magic Millions Gold Coast National Yearling Sale, Yellow Brick ran out a 1.2 length winner over Bossed Up (Better Than Ready) under James McDonald. There was a further 0.3

lengths back to John Rambo (Adelaide) in third. Yellow Brick's win in this weekend's $1.5 million contest took his prize-money earnings beyond the $3.5 million mark. "This horse is my everything," Maddysen Sears said. "I've had a pretty rough few months, I broke my leg really badly and normally I ride all his work so it's been really tricky for me lately. I just love this horse. Dad literally leaves me to my own devices with this horse's training, I do everything so for him to do that is really special. He'll back up next week in what will probably be a better race for him over a bit further and down in the weights."

Spanish Treasure lands Magic Millions Maiden

Having failed to win in his first four starts, the Tony Gollan-trained Spanish Treasure (Pierata) broke his maiden in emphatic style on Saturday when running away with the $250,000 Magic Millions Maiden Plate (1400m) at the Gold Coast. The gelded son of Pierata (Pierro) was sent forward from an outside gate by Tommy Berry and made all in the 1400-metre event, stealing a break inside the final 300 metres and comfortably holding runner-up You Sexy Thing (Farnan) by 1.4 lengths. Gollan revealed he would run Spanish Treasure in next weekend's Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) should the gelding recover well. "I ran him in the Gold Edition [when fourth] the other day and it was a two-part plan really," the winning trainer said. "If he was good enough to win that we were going to go to the Guineas and if not, we'd come here to the maiden. Who knows, we might back up here in seven days' time. He's a young horse learning and I think he got it pretty right today. It was a good, positive ride from Tommy, I didn't think we'd lead but I really wanted to be forward to midfield but when we led at a good, controlled gallop, I wasn't worried. He's a quality horse and his form shows you that."

Back-up on the agenda for Poster Girl at Gold Coast

Another of Saturday's winners that is set to back-up next weekend is the Chris and Corey Munce-trained Poster Girl (Alabama Express) who is being aimed at the $1 million Magic Millions Filles & Mares (1300m) after landing the $250,000 Magic Millions Rising Stars 3YO & 4YO Plate (1200m) at the Gold Coast. Ridden by Martin Harley, the four-year-old daughter of Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice) registered a half-length success over Scripted (Written By) to make it three wins from four starts this preparation. "She's been in good form all preparation," Chris Munce, who won several Magic Millions feature races as a jockey including the 2YO Classic on Sunblazer (Daybreak Lover), Excellerator (Marscay) and Dance Hero (Danzero), said. "She won her first start carrying a big weight and then she won at Caloundra not long after that. I was a bit worried today though because she was a bit sweaty and a bit stirred up, but she put it into the race. She's a beautiful mare and she was stakes placed as a two-year-old. She'll probably back up now in the Fillies and Mares race next Saturday. It's a terrific week for Queensland racing, there's a lot of money involved and it's like the spring in Melbourne."

Now Is The Hour provides Gollan with big treble

Queensland's leading trainer Tony Gollan enjoyed a very lucrative day at the Gold Coast on Saturday, rounding off a big-race treble with Now Is The Hour's (I Am Invincible) victory in the $250,000 Magic Millions Rising Stars 3YO & 4YO Plate (1300m). Ridden by Angela Jones, the four-year-old gelding extended what has already been a breakout season as he narrowly held on from True Amor (I Am Invincible) to score by 0.1 lengths. Saturday's win took Now Is The Hour's current campaign record to four wins and two

Spywire secures big payday in The Syndicate

Having placed in both the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) and Magic Millions Wyong 2YO Classic (RL, 1100m) in 2024, the Magic Millions Wyong Stakes (1200m) just last month and ran unplaced in last year's Magic Millions Sunlight (1100m), the Ciaran Maher-trained Spywire (Trapeze Artist) finally got his Magic Millions day in the sun when taking out Saturday's $1 million The Syndicate (1100m) at the Gold Coast.

Ridden by Ethan Brown, the four-year-old gelding sat just behind the speed throughout before pouncing inside the closing stages and fending off late challenger King Kapa (Capitalist) by a half-length. There was a further 0.2 lengths back to Payline (Shooting To Win) in third.

Maher teamed up with Group 1 Bloodstock to secure Spywire for $520,000 out of the Widden Stud draft at the 2023 Gold Coast Yearling Sale and he intends to inspect the gelding's half-brother by Anamoe (Street Boss), catalogued as Lot 781, at next week's Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

"They are great owners, he's a lovely horse and that was a beautiful ride from

Brown [Ethan Brown]," Maher said. "To be following the favourite, one-out, one-back, it doesn't get much better.

"Everything that could go wrong, did go wrong last start but I thought he was in a pretty good spot coming into this. It [racing] is the best, especially on the Gold Coast at this time of year.

"They [Magic Millions] do such a great job of getting all the owners here and making them feel welcome. Antony Thompson [from Widden Stud] was standing beside me [during the race] and he's got his [half]-brother in the sale so I'm sure he'll be rubbing his hands together expecting me to put a few more bids in."

Brown was enjoying yet another big winner for Maher, who has been a long-time supporter of the jockey.

"He [Maher] has just backed me all the way through, he gives me plenty of confidence and I seem to gel well with his horses," Brown said.

"Also Johnny [O'Neill] and Ozzie [Kheir] and their crew, they've backed me to the hilt so it's good to reward them with good winners. He was tough today. Those horses have got to him but he dug deep late."

placings from six starts. Gollan, who was also celebrating his birthday, had also racked up wins in the Aquis Gold Nugget (1100m) with Itchintogo (Sun City) and the Magic Millions Maiden Plate with Spanish Treasure. "To get here on these big days and race for this sort of money is phenomenal," he said. "He did enough in the run to get beat but he gritted on to win so it was a really good win. I came here very confident with him and I wanted to take it from the top, control the race and really make them work to beat him. He's a horse I really like and you'll see him in better races next summer."

Acromantula doubles stakes tally in Miss Andretti

The Dan and Ben Pearce-trained Acromantula (8 g Written Tycoon - For Your Eyes Only by Bletchley Park) added a second stakes success to her tally when landing Saturday's Miss Andretti Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Ascot. Ridden by Lucy Fiore, the eight-year-old gelding proved 0.6 lengths too strong for Cut The Talk (Oratorio) with a further 1.4 lengths back to Jaz Session (Sessions) in third. Saturday's win added to Acromantula's victory in the 2023 Carlyon Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at The Valley. A half-brother to Acromantula, by Splintex (Snitzel), will be sold during next month's Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale as Lot 350.

Caulfield Cup hero Durston dies

The 2022 Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Durston (Sea The Moon) has died following a paddock accident at Living Legends. Trained by Chris Waller after being imported from the UK, Durston carried the Highclere Racing colours to Caulfield Cup glory in 2022, but injuries stopped him from hitting the track again and he was officially retired in early 2024. ## Back-to-back victories in The Wave for Miss Joelene

Miss Joelene (Russian Revolution) showcased her abundant level of class on the Gold Coast on Saturday as she completed back-to-back wins in the Magic Millions The Wave (1800m).

Trained by Kelly Schweida, the five-year-old landed the $500,000 contest by 0.2 lengths last year and was more dominant this time around as she bypassed most of the field in the home straight under Cejay Graham to run out a convincing 0.9 lengths winner over Encoder (Encryption) The third-placed Port Lockroy (Better Than Ready) finished a further 1.2 lengths behind.

A habitual come-from-behind runner, Miss Joelene will be backed up in next Saturday's Magic Millions Subzero (2200m) - a race she finished third in last year.

"You always worry when they're back and then she really got shunted wide on the corner but Cejay knows her well and I'm very proud of her," Schweida said.

"It was a great run. She'll back up into the Subzero next week."

The win was a career highlight for Graham who said: "I'm so thankful to Kelly and the owners for sticking with me, I'm sure it would have been very tempting to put a big name on.

"It really means a lot to be given an opportunity like this. It was sticky from the draw [barrier nine] but we ended up in a lovely position. I had to be confident that she was the best horse in the race and that she was. She's such a star."

Chica Mojito breaks track record in The Lakes victory

Ultra-consistent mare Chica Mojito (Zacinto) broke through for her first Australian victory with a big performance in the $500,000 The Lakes (1600m) at Wyong on Saturday.

The daughter of Zacinto (Dansili) was born and raised in New Zealand, and she began her career on that side of the Tasman with a maiden victory at Cambridge in September 2023 before a Eulogy Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) placing at Trentham three months later.

A 50 per cent share was subsequently sold across the Tasman and Chica Mojito was transferred into the stable of Chris Waller. Before Saturday's win, her 16 starts in Australia had produced six seconds, four thirds, three fourths and a fifth.

Jumping from barrier three under Andrew Adkins, Chica Mojito settled in seventh place before hooking around the outside approaching the home turn and challenging for the lead at the top of the straight. Adkins pushed the button and the five-year-old drew away, going on to win by two lengths over Mare Of Mt Buller (Dundeel) and stopping the clock at 1:34.55 – a new 1600-metre track record at Wyong.

"She's been crying out to break through for a win like that and she really deserved that today," Waller's stable representative Darren Beadman said.

"Andrew used the good gate and got her into a really nice spot, and off a good fast speed, she was able to present well wide and finish off like she did. It's great for Brad Spicer and the owners and for all the team at Chris Waller Racing. It's a team effort and a great result"

Part-owner Spicer added: "She'd probably been classified as a bit of a non-winner going into today, and it's a bit funny that she's won probably the hardest race she's contested for a while. But in saying that she hasn't had a lot of luck a lot of the time either.

"Last start in the Belle of the Turf at Gosford, Zac [Lloyd] got caught in behind them and nothing went right. The way Wyong was playing today, with everyone wanting to get up on the speed, it played into her hands.

"She does try and it's a great result. Chris Waller has done a top job with her and today's win is a great reward for everyone involved with her both here and in New Zealand."

Legends team. "We are deeply saddened to share the passing of Durston, who was sadly lost following a paddock accident during what was one of his regular morning gallops with paddock mates Twilight Payment and So Si Bon," Living Legends said in a statement on social media. "Durston was a truly gentle soul – affectionate, cuddly, and full of character. He loved a gallop around the paddock and was always up to a little bit of cheeky mischief, keeping everyone on their toes and smiling along the way. Durston leaves behind a legacy both on and off the track, remembered just as much for his nature as his talent. Our heartfelt condolences go out to his owners, connections, and everyone who loved him. He will be deeply missed." Chris Waller Racing also released a statement, saying: "We are deeply saddened to hear of the passing of Durston, winner of the Caulfield Cup, the Wyong Cup and the Newcastle Cup. A remarkable horse who provided unforgettable moments on the racetrack. Our sincere condolences are with his connections and all who have been caring for him."

Lindsay Park describe bushfire situation as 'catastrophic'

Euroa-based Lindsay Park has described the impact of Victoria's bushfires as "catastrophic" as the blazes continue to rage across the state, prompting premier Jacinta Allan to declare a state of disaster on Friday night. "Our immediate priority has been, and remains, ensuring the safety and welfare of our people and our horses," Lindsay Park's statement said. "Conditions changed to catastrophic very fast on Friday and while we were as prepared as we possibly could be and followed all advice from authorities and experts, the fire's impact was unavoidable. The family remained on site to defend the horses for as long as we could, leaving only when conditions escalated to a point where lives were at risk. The good news is that we have come through well, given the circumstances. The support has been nothing short of remarkable. Our hearts go out to everyone in our community who has been affected by this horrific event. Thank you for your patience and understanding during this time."

Studs counting cost of fire damage

Leneva Park general manager Mick Sharkie has revealed the extent of the damage the bushfires have had at the stud in the heart of Victorian thoroughbred country. "We don't have a fence left on the joint. We haven't got a paddock that hasn't been charcoaled and there's no fencing left. We're just assessing the stable, etc now," Sharkie told Racing.com. "There's still stuff smouldering around the property, but it looks like the fire has moved away from us. We're not in immediate danger now." It was a similar story at Larneuk Stud, whose owner Neville Murdoch told Racing.com on Saturday morning: "We lost a lot of fences late yesterday afternoon, but all the horses are all safe, we moved them out of the danger zone. We were out fighting the fires last night and the night before, we didn't stop. We were trying to keep it from the boundary, but we couldn't stop it yesterday afternoon, it just came through and flattened all the fences and God knows what, but at least we're all safe and the horses are good. The buildings are good as gold; it's just fencing and pasture that's been damaged." Meanwhile, Blue Gum Farm's Sean Dingwall also updated on Saturday morning, telling Racing.com: "We're okay at the moment. We're just in a holding pattern. We're still well and truly in the red zone. The wind has been very favourable to us so far. We're dreading a southerly wind, if we get that, we'll be in strife. It was a northerly all day yesterday and it's a westerly today, so we're okay. We relocated our stock yesterday."

Yamato Satona set for Gingernuts Salver

RACE IMAGES

Leading New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) hope Yamato Satona (Satono Aladdin) faces his first acid test over a staying distance when he tackles the Gingernuts Salver (Listed, 2100m) at Ellerslie on Sunday. The Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained colt sits at odds of $21 for the Derby following an explosive debut win, with connections believing that is a fair price on what he has delivered to date. "It looks like being a very even Derby field this year and we think our guy is right in the mix," O'Sullivan said. "He has shown he is looking for ground since that first win, which is the indication those who have ridden him have all given, so he gets his chance this weekend. His work has been very good and as long as he performs to expectations he will head to the Avondale Guineas in late February then two weeks later into the Derby." The O'Sullivan and Scott partnership also have Acer (Savabeel) and Genki (Satono Aladdin) in the Gingernuts Salver, with O'Sullivan taking a pragmatic approach to their prospects as the pair look to the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) and Derby respectively. "Acer will have the blinkers on for the first time on Sunday," he said. "She is entered for the New Zealand Oaks and while she hasn't shown enough so far to go there, it is this time of the year where the potential stayers start to emerge. You are only three once to have a go at those Group 1 races so we are rolling the dice with her and Genki, who is in the same boat with his Derby prospects."

Ammirati ready for next Derby test

Ammirati (Savabeel) is another who will put his Derby credentials to the test when the two-time winner lines up in the Gingernuts Salver. Ammirati followed up on his victory in the Wellington Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Otaki two starts ago with a late closing burst to take fifth in the Levin Classic (Gr 2, 1400m) at Trentham, looking every inch a horse that now needs more ground to show his true worth. "It probably looks a little odd on paper in the way we backed him up at a lesser distance, but I'm delighted with how it all panned out," the colt's trainer Stephen Marsh said. "The trip away was perfect for him and his last 200 metres that day when running fifth was just terrific. He travelled home well; ate everything we put in front of him and has really ticked along beautifully since then. He has been crying out for ground and gets in on Sunday, so we are hoping he can put another stamp in his Derby passport. We've also got Los Salsero in the race and he also looks like more ground will be his friend. He won nicely last start without being anything special, although he is very green and has a lot to learn. We have the blinkers on him on Sunday and I think they will really sharpen him up, so I'm hoping he can also make his way to the Derby as well."

First for The United States

Kingdundee (4 g ex Miss Marmalade by Duke Of Marmalade) provided his sire The United States (Galileo) with his first elite-level winner and ninth individual stakes winner when scoring in Saturday's Cape Flying Championship (Gr 1, 1000m) at Kenilworth. Ridden by Calvin Habib for Dean Smith, the four-year-old gelding defeated I Am Giant (Querari) by three-quarters of a length. There was a further neck back to Outlaw King (Rafeef) in third place. Out of the winning Duke Of Marmalade (Danehill) mare Miss Marmalade, Kingdundee is a half-brother to Grade 2 scorer Princess Of Gaul (Vercingetorix).

Second for Legislate

Wish List (3 f ex Wind Chill by Silvano) became the second individual elite-level winner and 13th individual stakes winner overall for his sire Legislate (Dynasty) when landing Saturday's Paddock Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m) at Kenilworth. Ridden by Andrew Fortune for Justin Snaith, the three-year-old filly defeated Reet Petite (Rafeef) by a half-length with a further head back to the third-placed Rainbow Lorikeet (Querari). Out of the Grade 2-winning Silvano (Lomitas) mare

Wind Chill, Wish List is a half-sister to winner Windrunner (Master Of My Fate).

RSA: More Grade 1 joy for The Real Prince

The Real Prince (5 h Gimmethegreenlight - Real Princess by Trippi) notched the second elite-level win of his career when he took out Saturday's King's Plate (Gr 1, 1600m) at Kenilworth. Ridden by Criag Zackey for Dean Kannemeyer, the five-year-old added to his win in the Durban July (Gr 1, 2200m) as he beat Questioning (Querari) by a short-head with See It Again (Twice Over) a further head away in third.

'People put their lives in danger to get the horses out' - stud owner hails remarkable rescue effort during bushfire crisis

By James Thomas

Michael Christian, principal at Longwood Thoroughbred Farm, has shared an emotional firsthand account of rescue efforts after uncontrollable bushfires engulfed the thoroughbred heartlands of Victoria.

Fires have had a devastating impact across the state, with over 100 buildings destroyed and more than 300,000 hectares of land burned. On Saturday morning Victorian premier Jacinta Allan moved to declare a state of disaster.

The event has had a profound impact on the racing and bloodstock community, and Christian detailed the "Herculean" lengths his team and others had gone to to ensure the safety of horses in the area.

"The most important thing is that all our staff are well, although tired and jaded," he said. "When the threat came on Thursday we made the decision to evacuate all 165 horses on the farm. The staff did such an incredible job. I flew in from the Gold Coast so I didn't get there until 8.30pm that night, but the staff had already been working since 5.30am and the last horse left the farm at 6.30am the next day on Friday morning. What they did was Herculean.

"We have a ridge to the south of our property and when we were loading the horses it was just alight with multiple blazes; it looked like a Christmas tree. The wind was coming from the south so we were in a direct line, and my fear on Thursday night was that it would come and completely run over the property."

Christian hailed the selflessness of those within the thoroughbred community, and shared two acts of bravery that typified the wider response to the crisis.

"Shaun Hearmon and his daughter almost singlehandedly staved off the fire from our main barn, which at that point still had some horses in," he said. "Our vet, Stacy McGregor and her son Nick, who was driving past checking in on her property, went in and moved horses out of the barn when the danger appeared. They're such incredible people to have helped out in that situation.

Bushfires have raged in the thoroughbred heartlands of Victoria

"We've had the support of so many people, including Yulong, Godolphin, Danny O'Brien and Troy Corstens sent trucks up, lots of smaller players were there with floats too. Troy Stephens and Claudia McDougall from Yulong rang and said 'We have a two-horse float, do you want us to come?' I said that would be awesome and they did. It was incredible."

Although still coming to terms with the scale and consequences of the disaster, Christian was in no doubt about the sacrifices made by those who stepped up in the most trying of circumstances.

"Those people who helped, our staff in particular, put their own lives in danger to help get the horses out, which was truly remarkable," he said. "There's so many stories like ours where people have contributed and sacrificed themselves to help others.

MICHAEL CHRISTIAN

"You feel proud to be part of such an incredible community; it's unconditional help and support. Some of our staff, after having zero sleep, went and helped Sean and Cathy Dingwall load horses at Blue Gum Farm so they could evacuate. That's just amazing commitment."

He added: "It leaves you lost for words and a bit emotional about the whole thing. It's scary. The people who put their lives on the line to help us, particularly Shaun Hearmon and Stacy McGregor, it's hard to know how to thank them enough."

Despite having lost buildings and infrastructure to the blaze, Christian said the devastation experienced by others had left him feeling like “one of the fortunate ones.”

“We got all the horses off the farm and battened down last night,” he said. “We’re certainly not as bad as some, as other people have lost their homes. We lost infrastructure but that can be replaced, and by and large we got away with it without experiencing the carnage that others did. We were one of the more fortunate ones.

“We lost a shed and a big barn and some other infrastructure, but our office, our main barn, walker, sand roll and our house and staff accommodation have survived. The CFA did an incredible job to stave off any further damage.”

Christian was speaking from Magic Millions ahead of the Gold Coast Yearling Sale, where Longwood has a seven-strong draft set come under the hammer from Tuesday.

“I’ve been up and back and trying to work out where to be,” he said. “I don’t know what the right thing to do is necessarily but the sale here starts on Tuesday and, as callous as it sounds, the show’s got to go on. We have some beautiful yearlings here for our clients and we need to maximise their sales values, so I’m here trying to do that.

“I’ve got an incredible support team at home. My farm manager, Lelaina Vennemeyer, and my wife, Siobhan, are doing an incredible job along with the rest of our staff.”

Although horses’ immediate safety was the number one priority during the evacuation, Christian said the move had brought a secondary set of challenges.

“One of the challenges you have when you evacuate 165 horses in a mad scramble is they’ve ended up in seven different locations, so trying to track and identify and care for them after that is also difficult from a logistical standpoint,” he said. “We’re at that stage now and we hope that at some point in the coming days, or it may be the coming weeks, we can reassess the damage at the farm and try to get our horses back.

“For the time being it’s just about dealing with the present, making sure our staff and horses are well and that everyone continues to stay safe. We’re a little bit in the lap of the Gods depending on what happens with the fire, but we’ve just got to do what we can for the moment and hope that everybody stays safe.”

EURO ROCKS Out Of Handicap
SUPER ELITE Out Of Handicap, Includes Possible Overweight +2
BETTING FORECAST: 3 Snowthorn, 4 King Alloy, 6 I P O Bros, Majestic Delight, 10 Euro Rocks, My Flying Angel, Team Happy, 14 Inno Century, 16 Shotgun, 20 Super Elite, 33 The Way We Win, You'remyeverything.

VERDICT Many of these arrive with something to prove but TEAM HAPPY showed clear signs of a revival when runner-up over 7f here in November and could take advantage of his current mark. SNOWTHORN has a wide draw to contend with but is respected on this ease in grade, while KING ALLOY has shown enough this season to suggest he can be a factor in a race of this nature.

BETTING FORECAST: 4-5 Ever Luck, 4 Lucky McQueen, 5 Ka Ying Warrior, 12 Chill Partners, Elite Golf, 20 Groovy Feeling, 33 Cirrus Speed, Majestic Life, 50 Happy Shooter, Power Summit, 100 Aquaman, Conrad The Great.

VERDICT Lucky McQueen has been edging closer with each run, while Elite Golf arguably showed more promise than the bare result suggests when fifth over C&D on his debut in November. However, EVER LUCK remains the one they all have to beat. A good prospect based on his debut success over C&D in October, he can make amends for his odds-on defeat six weeks ago.

VERDICT Eyes will be drawn to the booking of Zac Purton for class-dropping lightweight ENDEARED. The champion jockey has a fine record on this gelding, and has presumably turned down an option to partner his last-time-out winner CIRCUIT FIERY again. However, marginal preference is for YOUNG HORIZON, who is back in good form for a new trainer this season.

BETTING FORECAST: 9-4 Robot Star, 11-4 Strathpepper, 6 Star Satyr, 10 Amazing Award, Crossborderdude, 12 Oldtown, Roman Crown, 20 Brownneedsfurther, 25 Fortune Kingo, Young Fighter, 33 Brave Win, Precision Hope, Shinyu Kokoroe, 66 Manaphy.

VERDICT Quite a few of these have interesting profiles including low-mileage 4yo OLDTOWN, who has gone well fresh in the past and merits selection on his return from six weeks away. Robot Star was repeatedly denied running room when made favourite last time and, with Zac Purton booked, is feared most. Star Satyr lost out only narrowly when dropping down to Class 4 15 days ago and is next on the list, ahead of Young Fighter, Brownneedsfurther and Crossborderdude.

VERDICT This might go the way of AUDACIOUS PURSUIT, who has progressed steadily throughout his seven-race career and may find further improvement on his first venture beyond 1m. Unexposed 4yo China Win can reverse recent placings with Young Bravo and fill the forecast spot, while Luck Is Back, Packing Hurricane and Charity Together all make some each-way appeal.

VERDICT There is still more to come from dual C&D winner SZERYNG, who persistently encountered traffic when fifth here two starts ago and went close from last 13 last time. From a much more favourable draw today, he should be hard to beat. Aurora Patch looked in excellent nick here three weeks ago and is second choice. Alpha Strike spoiled his chance by refusing to settle last time but still has plenty of scope to progress from his winning Hong Kong debut.

BETTING FORECAST: 4 Fortune Boy, 5 Liveandletive, Mister Dapper, 7 Prestige Good, 8 Joy Of Spring, The Auspicious, 14 Enthralled, Stunning Peach, 16 Excellence Value, Mondial, 20 Packing Fighter, Romantic Thor, 25 Money Catcher, 66 Master Trillion.

VERDICT It's reasonable to expect more good runs from Liveandletive, Mister Dapper (second choice) and Fortune Boy, while several others in this field are also in good form. However, the suggestion is MONDIAL, who made a low-key start to his Hong Kong career for a different stable last season but showed more promise on last month's reappearance outing and can hopefully build on that effort.

VERDICT Zac Purton presumably had his pick of the two progressive ones at the top of the racecard but he might have kicked himself when the draw was published. Beauty Bolt is, nevertheless, respected from stall 14 but INVINCIBLE IBIS is selected to record his fourth consecutive win. California Waves is weighted to reverse recent 7f placings with The Red Hare and also gets a mention.

BETTING FORECAST: 15-8 Helene Supaheeling, 5 Circuit Grand Slam, 6 Tin Fook, 8 Akashvani, 10 Stormy Grove, 12 Master Of All, 14 Blazing Wukong, Ivy League, Mighty Steed, 20 Golden Empire, 25 Lucky Sam Gor, 33 Without Compare, 50 Cheaha, 100 King Of Selection.

VERDICT Circuit Grand Slam has been shaping very much as though today's step up in trip will suit and is not opposed lightly but HELENE SUPAHEELING did very well to win from a wide stall over 6f here on last month's Hong Kong debut and could have a lot more to offer now back up in trip. Zac Purton's mount Tin Fook is also likely to feature.
