Coolmore land $2 million Frankel colt as records broken during Magic Millions opener

Tom and MV Magnier with the session-topping Frankel colt

MAGIC MILLIONS/COOLMORE

By James Thomas

Good vibes ahead of the Gold Coast Yearling Sale translated into a lively opening session on Tuesday, with three seven-figure lots capping a decidedly solid and international Magic Millions market.

Lot 59: Frankel ex Antibes colt MAGIC MILLIONS

The auctioneer described Segenhoe Stud's son of Frankel (Galileo) as "a seven-figure colt all day long," and that prediction proved spot on as the well-related youngster brought the hammer down at $2,000,000. Coolmore's Tom Magnier delivered the winning bid with a determined nod of the head.

The colt was bred by John Camilleri's Fairway Thoroughbreds, the brand also carried by wondermare Winx (Street Cry). Camilleri cut a remarkably relaxed figure during the seven-figure bidding showdown, even carrying his grandson Harry around the auditorium as the bid board ticked over in $100,000 increments.

"You've got to get your priorities right and my two-year-old grandson is more important than any horse sale!" he said a short while after.

The colt is out of Antibes, a daughter of Lonhro (Octagonal) who has bred the Listed-placed Chateau Eze. The older sibling was foaled in Britain and is also by Frankel. Cont. on page 3

International meetings: Happy Valley (HK)

International Group races: Happy Valley (HK) - January Cup (Gr 3, 1800m)

Sales: Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale - Book 1

Continued from page 2 Although Antibes did not make the track herself, Camilleri said connections believed she possessed a level of ability that warranted sending her on the 20,000-mile round journey to Juddmonte's Banstead Manor Stud in Newmarket.

"It's an expensive exercise and it's risky, but I send a lot of mares over," he said. "You normally only get one or two shots at the world's best stallion and I thought I'd roll the dice. That certainly pays the bills, without a doubt."

He expanded on Antibes' backstory, saying: "She had a great pedigree and was a beautiful type, she had a lot of ability but got an injury so we didn't race her. Anthony Freedman, who's a good judge, told me she could run and because she was impaired we just put her to stud.

"Her first foal is stakes-placed, she ran second in the Jim Moloney at Flemington, so I think the mare is going to do it. She's by Lonhro and ticks a lot of the boxes, so I thought she deserved a trip on a plane to Frankel."

Asked about the principles underpinning his high-end international breeding program, Camilleri said: "I'm only interested in having a small broodmare band and breeding elite horses, I don't want hundreds and thousands of animals. If I think there's something available like a Frankel, and you've got the right mare for them, I simply don't hesitate. Cost becomes secondary then."

He added: "It appears to be getting tougher and tougher below [the top end]. It's a bit like waterfront land, it's always in demand and tends to stay up, it doesn't go through the troughs. I only have a small broodmare band because there aren't that many elite mares, but that's where I want to play. Others have been very successful playing at different levels but it's a matter of choice."

The colt became the most expensive Frankel yearling to change hands in the southern hemisphere.

Coolmore have enjoyed plenty of success with the stallion in the northern hemisphere, including with last year's Classic-winning fillies Lake Victoria and Minnie Hauk. Cont. on page 5

Fair play to Peter O’Brien and John Camilleri, they breed good horses and we’re just delighted to be a part of it. We’ve got a great syndicate and we’ve had a bit of luck before with Home Affairs, Switzerland, Shinzo and Private Life. There’s some lovely horses this week and we’re just hoping we can bring some nice ones home.”

The huddle around Magnier during the bidding included the colt’s new trainer, Chris Waller. Magnier added: “Chris liked the horse all week, all the team did. There’s always a couple of horses you don’t agree on but when everybody agrees it gives you the confidence to go that little bit further.”

The top lot helped Segenhoe’s nine sold yearlings bring a combined $5.54 million and an average price of $615,555. The Coolmore team were also busy on the selling front, with day one’s draft yielding an aggregate of $2.835m and an average price of $354,375.

“We’re very happy,” said Magnier. “We’ve got a nice bunch of horses here this week, probably the nicest bunch of horses we’ve brought to the Gold Coast. They’ve been busy and the right judges are on them, so it’s up to Barry Bowditch now if we don’t have a good sale! It’s started very well so we’re happy.” Continued on page 7

First yearlings hitting all the right notes in 2026

Continued from page 5 The session finished with a clearance rate of 78 per cent as 145 yearlings found a new home. In turn, the aggregate reached $41.285m (down 8.5 per cent year-on-year), the average price closed at $284,725 (up 2.2 per cent) while the median was identical to the corresponding session 12 months ago at $200,000.

"It's been a really pleasing day for Magic Millions," said the company's managing director Barry Bowditch. "I thought the vibe, when I got back from the barrier draw this morning, when you walked in the stand was almost full and there was a really good feel about it. I thought the sale got off to a really, really solid start.

"It's a genuine market, the vendors that are motivated to meet the market are getting their horses sold. I was talking to the auctioneers throughout the day and they were commenting on the amount of horses that reached reserve and then were going on making reserve plus plus. That's always a great sign that there's genuine competition out there."

Momentum behind Mulcaster

No buyer had a stronger second half of the day than the Guy Mulcaster-Chris Waller axis, and they ended the session by snaring a well-bred son of Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) from The Chase at $1.2m.

The colt is the third foal out of Dame Giselle, a four-time Group 2 winner and Group 1 place-getter by I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit). In turn, the dam is out of the similarly Group 2-winning and Group 1-placed Ballet Society (Stravinsky).

This means the dam is a half-sister to The Fairy's Kiss (Elusive Quality), who has in turn bred Ulanova (Santos), who was promoted to first in the Group 1 Sistema Stakes.

"We were pretty happy with that colt, he looks sharp and comes from a beautiful family," said Mulcaster. "We looked at him two days ago with Chris and he said 'They all run out of that family,' so that was good enough for me. I thought we'd be hard enough to beat and we didn't let on too much about what we were up to, so we probably got him at the right odds. He looks like a beautiful horse so let's hope he's back here next year."

On the subject of Newgate Farm's subfertile sire sensation Extreme Choice, Mulcaster said: "He doesn't get many in foal and the less there are, the harder they are to buy. We're pretty happy to have got him and we've got one with one of the best pedigrees, so fingers crossed."

He added with a wry smile: "We started off really slow but we've sort of got the hang of it in the last hour and a half and we've got three days to go, so it should be good!"

Mulcaster and Waller signed for five lots that cost a combined $2.47m, while a daughter of Waller's former stable star Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) was purchased with the Champagne Fillies at $200,000.

Glentree take Avantage

The second seven-figure lot arrived a short while after the session-topper when Glentree Thoroughbreds and Badgers Bloodstock combined at $1.05m to secure the Coolmore-consigned I Am Invincible filly out of New Zealand champion Avantage (Fastnet Rock).

The nine-time Group 1 winner Avantage joined the Coolmore broodmare band when purchased through New Zealand Bloodstock's Gavelhouse Plus at NZ$4.1m in 2021.

This filly is the Fastnet Rock (Danehill) mare's third consecutive seven-figure Magic Millions yearling after John Stewart's Resolute Bloodstock gave $1.6m for her first I Am Invincible filly 12 months ago, while David Ellis went to $2.1m for the Wootton Bassett filly Avantaggia, winner of a Te Aroha maiden, in 2024. Continued on page 12

Tyreel Stud land $400,000 result with The Autumn Sun Colt

“We’re here to buy fillies with residual value, and she’s got as good a residual value as any filly in the whole catalogue,” said Badgers Bloodstock’s Tom Pritchard-Gordon. “She topped the charts on all our pedigree stats. The cross works phenomenally well, there’s something like six stakes performers out of 11 fillies on that cross.

“I’ve seen both sisters, they made $2.1m and $1.6m, and, for me, she was nicer than both of them. Time will tell, but she’s a lovely type. She’s as low-risk a seven-figure investment as you can get!”

The agent added: “She’ll be owned by Glentree Thoroughbreds, who have Lumbini in the Magic Millions 2YO Classic on Saturday; she’s the only horse we bought down here last year. Unfortunately she’s drawn a bad gate. We’ve had bad luck there but hopefully we’ve got good luck here.”

Maher and Redvers on a roll

David Redvers and the Ciaron Maher team combined on five colts for a cumulative investment of $2.9m.

The most expensive recruit was the $950,000 son of I Am Invincible and Alassio (Foxwedge) from Silverdale Farm. The winning bid consigned Newgate Farm managing director Henry Field to the role of underbidder.

The colt is the second living foal out of the mare. The daughter of Foxwedge (Fastnet Rock) was trained by Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott, with the highlight of her racing career coming with victory in the 2019 running of the Guy Walter Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m).

“He’s a horse that Sheikh Fahad particularly liked, and we all loved him as well,” said Redvers, sitting amongst a crew that included Maher and his head of bloodstock Will Bourne, Hannah Wall and Mick Murphy.

“We all know about the stallion and the mare’s a Group 2 winner, so he fits what we’re looking for. We have another very nice I Am Invincible with Ciaron at the moment called Invicto. As it’s nice and early in the sale I thought he was probably a bit of value compared to what the same horse tends to make halfway through day two. Continued on page 13

Continued from page 12 “He’s incredibly athletic and has a huge amount of presence. I love the fact that he was totally unflappable out there in the parade ring, so he seems to have a very good mind. For me, his action and the athletic build of the horse made him a real standout. They make fools of us all but there were some very talented underbidders, so let’s hope we weren’t all wrong.”

While Sheikh Fahad has scaled back his involvement in Britain, Redvers said the Qatar Racing chairman remains as enthusiastic as ever about his Australian interests.

“He loves it down here,” he said. “He’s been here for nearly a month and he loves the racing out here. He’s had a lot of success with Ciaron and Chris [Waller], and we’ve had a lot of fun recently with the Roaring Lions we bred and sold shares in down here. We have some nice horses to look forward to with Ciaron that are two and three.”

Asked whether he felt the top of the Australian market continued to represent fair value, Redvers said: “It really does, particularly when you consider that a larger percentage of the top horses come to auction here than happens in Europe and America.

“The Aussie dollar is weak, comparatively speaking, and we’re very lucky that we have a phenomenal stallion down here in Zoustar who helps fund it all. It’s great to be here.”

Fortune favours PR Thoroughbreds

Another colts partnership to land a headline lot was Mark Player and Rob Roulston’s PR Thoroughbreds, with the pair going to $875,000 for the son of I Am Invincible and the Listed-winning Lonhro mare Calaverite.

The Emirates Park-consigned youngster is a sibling to four winners, most notably Group 1 Caulfield Guineas hero Golden Mile (Astern).

“He’s just a beautiful colt,” said Player. “Rob Roulston and myself had independently assessed all the colts in the sale and we both rated him our number one pick, which doesn’t really happen very often. He’s just a magnificent individual. He’ll go into our colts partnership, which is onto its sixth batch now.

“He’s a horse we wanted to have so we stretched beyond our limits. As people in the auditorium will know, there was a bid after the hammer so we were probably very lucky to get him because we were at our limit. We were lucky to have it fall our way. There were good judges on him, which you always love to see when you look around to see who’s against you.”

Training plans are still to be decided, with Player saying: “We’ll get together with our partners and have lunch and work out where they want these horses to go. We use Group 1-winning trainers from both Sydney and Melbourne and try to match up where the horse can be best placed.”

The partnership have already unearthed the likes of Grand Larceny (Zoustar), Run Harry Run (Written Tycoon) and Yorkshire (Snitzel), significant talents who have just fallen short of a berth at stud. Player added: “We haven’t had the home run we want yet but hopefully this is the horse.”

Harron and Fung play the Blame game

James Harron and Tony Fung took home a four-strong haul, with the quartet of colts bringing receipts worth $1.975m. The most expensive member of the bunch was the Snitzel (Redoute’s Choice) colt out of the stakes-placed Complicit (Blame) presented by Segenhoe Stud who they secured for $825,000.

“Obviously he’s a beautiful colt, Snitzel needs no introduction and he’s out of a Blame mare,” said Harron. “He’s running at nearly ten per cent stakes winners as a broodmare sire, which is huge. He’s one of the leading broodmare sires in the whole world.

“He’s bred on the same cross as Switzerland, but he’s just a lovely colt in his own right. He showed a great attitude and he’s off one of the greatest nurseries in the country. They’ve gone to a lot of effort to produce this horse and we’re excited to see what he can do on the track.”

On the price tag, Harron added: “You’ve got to be expecting to pay that sort of money for a horse of that class and quality from such a good farm. I think that was a fair price. It’s been a good day.”

Another Justify for Waterhouse and Bott

Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott have already enjoyed notable success with the offspring of Coolmore's sire on fire Justify (Scat Daddy), and the pair can look forward to another after they combined with Kestrel Thoroughbreds at $750,000 for the filly out of Group 3 scorer Bella Rosa (Snitzel).

The six-figure youngster was presented by Silverdale Farm.

"For us, if you can get that square Justify with great gaskins, wide hocks and a big action, we just haven't had one of those that hasn't galloped," said Kestrel Thoroughbreds' Bruce Slade. "Physically she was one of those compact, square types, and she had an awesome power to weight ratio.

"She's off a great farm too. It's an unbelievable farm for getting talented horses, but also precocious horses; I thought she was one of those. I love the stallion and obviously the mare was proper too, a Group-winning, Melbourne Carnival-winning Snitzel mare, so that gave us a lot of confidence too."

Field sees market depth

Newgate supremo Henry Field was among the active participants to remark on the strength of trade, saying: "I think the market has been very strong. There's good depth at all levels and I don't think it'll slow down. There's so many people here and a huge diverse buying bench. Fair play to Magic Millions for putting it all together."

Along with China Horse Club and partners, Newgate invested $1.325m on two colts. The Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) colt out of Beloved, a Frankel half-sister to Japanese Group 1 winner Deep Brilliance (Deep Impact), fetched $725,000 when offered by Sledmere Stud, while a son of I Am Invincible out of the Listed-winning Smart Missile (Fastnet Rock) mare Ballistic Lover brought $600,000 when offered by The Chase.

Speaking after signing for the latter youngster, Field said: "We love that horse. He's very sharp, is by Vinne and is out of a fast mare, so he'll be an early precocious kind of horse. Really pleased to get him. He's come off a good farm. He's got speed written all over him."

The Gold Coast Yearling Sale continues on Wednesday at 10am local time.

Morning Briefing

Australia

Warwoven firms for 2YO Classic after drawing barrier six

Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) favourite Warwoven (Sword Of State) had his job made a touch easier when the unbeaten colt drew barrier six at Tuesday's draw on the Gold Coast. The son of first-season sire Sword Of State (Snitzel) backed up an impressive maiden win at Randwick with a dominant 3.3-length victory at Eagle Farm on January 3, cementing his place at the head of the market for Saturday's $3 million feature. Trainer Bjorn Baker is looking to go back-to-back in the contest, having won with O' Ole (Ole Kirk) last year, and he said Warwoven is raring to go. "He had a nice gallop this morning," Baker said post Tuesday's draw. "He had a good gallop towards the end of last week, and this morning it wasn't so much about time. It was just about finishing off nicely and he looked really good. He looked to recover well, I think he's fit and ready to go." In a field of 16, the $2.10 favourite will jump from barrier five under Rachel King if the emergency fails to make the field, and Baker said that should work out perfectly. "I think it's ideal," he said. "I didn't want to be too close to the inside, and you don't want to be covering ground out deep. He's got good tactical speed and he's very laid back. He should be able to jump, hopefully put himself in the first six or seven." Baker will also saddle up $41 outsider Masvingo (Zoustar) in the race.

Ninja set for Guineas fight after horror draw

Connections of exciting gelding Ninja (Farnan) are having to take a 'glass half-full' approach after the odds-on favourite for Saturday's $3 million Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) drew barrier 17 on Tuesday morning. The brilliant last-start Vo Rogue Plate (Gr 3, 1300m) winner had been marked at around $1.70 before the draw but eased to $1.80 with some bookmakers after drawing the widest gate for Saturday's three-year-old fixture. "Oh dear," My Racehorse - part-owners in Ninja – representative Ben Willis told Racing.com. “He’ll have his work cut out for him but at least he is last in, and he can be a bit sloppy out of the gates, so being last to load is probably glass half full looking at it. The barrier we didn’t want was barrier one, so it was like the barrier gods heard us on that and said ‘let’s give it the complete opposite.’ He’ll be out in the Broadbeach canals out there but he shouldn’t run into any trouble and we’ve got the right rider on him Tommy Berry and he’ll be able to find him in a good position before they turn for home. I am not concerned about it really. I think the best horse in the race should be able to win and hopefully he is the best horse on the day.”

Flemington task for Adelaide-bound Berkeley Square

Trainer Dan O’Sullivan is on the hunt for his second win in the Adelaide Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) this year with Berkeley Square (Territories) and the gelding is due to build towards the feature at Flemington on Saturday. The six-year-old was last seen winning his second consecutive Ballarat Cup (Listed, 2000m) in December and has remained in work since. “He’ll run well,” O’Sullivan told Racing.com. “He’s in good order, hasn’t gone backwards, he’s had a nice solid gallop on Saturday morning and ran up well. He seems good, we were five weeks between runs before the Ballarat Cup, so he’s done it before, he’s got a history where he can go a month between runs, it doesn’t seem to worry him.” The Ballarat trainer intends on starting Berkeley Square in the VOBIS Gold Heath (2000m) at Caulfield on February 7 after Saturday’s 2000-metre handicap, before he then pinpoints a final lead-up run prior to South Australia’s feature staying event, which will be run at Morphettville on March 9. “To get to 3200 metres, we probably have to go to the Lord Reims beforehand, and I don’t really want to do two trips to Adelaide if I don’t have to but there’s no lead up for him that’s suitable other than that to get to the Adelaide Cup,” O’Sullivan said. “I think he’ll run the two miles, probably whether he wants the blinkers on might be something we’ll have to work out closer, but we’ll soon take them off him if we need to.” Luke Nolen will retain the ride on Saturday, with the gelding assigned 62 kilograms for the Benchmark 100 contest.

Unraced Home Affairs filly stars at Rosehill trials

The Rosehill juvenile trials on Tuesday morning saw unraced Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) filly Home And Dry make all to beat some blue-blooded rivals. The 0.6-length scorer led home Sequinned (Pinatubo) – a half-sister to Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) – while fellow Home Affairs filly Miss Scandal was another 1.5 lengths back in third. The same margin went back to the fourth-placed St Gotthard (Snitzel) who is a full-brother to Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Switzerland. A $2.7 million Inglis Easter purchase, St Gotthard closed off nicely under a hold at his first attempt. Home and Dry was passed in shy of her $600,000 reserve at Inglis Easter and runs for her breeder Sledmere Stud. She is the second foal out of stakes-winning Exceed And Excel (Danehill) mare Invictus Salute, herself a half-sister to Group 2 winner Splintex (Snitzel). The previous heat was won by the Gerald Ryan and Sterling Alexiou-trained filly Chilly Girl (Trapeze Artist), who displayed good improvement from her first public appearance to defeat Chris Waller’s Iommi (Written By) – a half-brother to $4 million earner Lindermann (Lonhro). The Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) filly led all the way under Tim Clark to win by 1.3 lengths over the Written By (Written Tycoon) colt, with Ciaron’s Star (I Am Invincible) another 1.6 lengths adrift in third. Retained to race by the Vieira family, who also bred and raced her sire, Chilly Girl is the last foal out of the now retired juvenile stakes winner I Got Chills (General Nediym), the dam of nine foals to race, all winners. The other juvenile heat was run over 1030 metres and was taken by Persian Wonder (Hello Youmzain) whose half-sister by Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) is set to sell at Karaka Book 1 as Lot 158.

Australia’s best set for Randwick trials

A host of Australia’s best horses will be in action at Randwick on Thursday as a set of 14 barrier trials, including three for Group and Listed horses, signals the first steps towards late Summer and major Autumn targets. Group 1 winners Via Sistina (Fastnet Rock), Sir Delius (Frankel), Autumn Glow (The Autumn Sun), Apocalyptic (Extreme Choice), Lady Shenandoah (Snitzel) and Aeliana (Castelvecchio) will be among the star line-ups having their first public trials of the year. The heats on the Kensington track are due to start at 9am, with the first three featuring Group horses. Entry to the trials is free with parking available in the main drive off Alison Road or via Ascot Street. Australian Turf Club head of racing and wagering Nevesh Ramdhani said Thursday was a pivotal starting point for major Sydney stables. “It’s exciting to see so early in the year the first public trials of so many star horses,” Ramdhani said. “Sydney racing is amongst the strongest anywhere in the world and the line-up of horses are just a sample of the best we have heading to major races. We encourage and welcome fans, along with our members and owners, to come to Randwick and see these stars live.” Full fields for the trials are available here. The trials are also telecast live on Sky Thoroughbred Central.

Forecast forces possible change in plans for Tajana

A forecast for rain ahead of Saturday's Trentham meeting has forced a rethink of plans for Tajana (Darci Brahma) as she resumes her classic quest this weekend. Trainers Shaune Ritchie and Colm Murray had originally intended Saturday's Desert Gold Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) to be Tajana's first step on the path to next month's New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m). However, the threat of rain in the lower North Island through the latter half of the week means that The Oaks Stud homebred will also be nominated for a lesser race at Pukekohe on Sunday. "It's a pity to have to change plans, but fortunately there's an option at Pukekohe and even though the stake is only $25,000 versus $200,000, it's a three-year-old mile at set weights and penalties, so it still works well as a starting point," Ritchie said. "A heavy track undid her in the [New Zealand] 1,000 Guineas and we don't want to put her through that again, plus we wouldn't want to overtax her in what will be her first start since then. She hasn't had a lead-up trial but we were very happy with how she went in a gallop between races at Tauranga last week and she's in good order to kick off her campaign."

Lai joins New Zealand riding ranks

A fresh face has joined the Central Districts riding ranks this week, with Hong Kong national Alan Lai commencing a six-month stint in New Zealand. The apprentice jockey has spent the last couple of years riding in South Australia under the tutelage of Morphettville trainers Leon MacDonald and Andrew Gluyas, and fellow South Australian horseman Jon O'Connor. Lai recorded 53 wins in Australia, with his highlight being three consecutive Outback Cups Series victories, including the City of Port Augusta Cup (2300m), Roxby Downs Cup (1800m) and Quorn Cup (1900m),

Nominations open for Australian Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards

The awards recognising the people behind Australia's racing and breeding industries will enter a new era in 2026, with the Stud and Stable Staff Awards officially rebranded as the Australian Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards (ATIEA) - for which nominations are now open.

The refreshed identity reflects a broader industry focus, recognising the full spectrum of roles that support Australia's world-class thoroughbred sector, from stud and stable staff to administration, track maintenance and behind-the-scenes operations.

From 2026, Thoroughbred Breeders Australia (TBA) will assume custodianship of the awards on behalf of the industry, while Godolphin will continue as naming-rights sponsor for the 12th-consecutive year.

A key change to the program is the introduction of the ATIEA Lifetime Achievement Award, which will honour individuals who have made an exceptional and sustained contribution to the thoroughbred industry over many years. To accommodate the new category, the Thoroughbred Excellence Award will be retired.

TBA president Basil Nolan said the evolution of the awards was about better reflecting the depth of the industry workforce.

"These Awards are about celebrating the people who make our industry work, not only those hands-on with the horses, but also the staff who keep farms running, maintain tracks, and support operations in countless ways," Nolan said.

"The new Lifetime Achievement Award ensures we can also recognise those who have devoted their careers to the betterment of the thoroughbred industry."

Godolphin Australia managing director Andy Makiv said the rebrand aligned with the modern industry landscape.

"The Australian thoroughbred industry is built on dedication, skill and professionalism, and these Awards play a vital role in recognising those contributions," Makiv said.

New sponsors AgriFutures and the Australian Trainers Association (ATA) join returning partners Magic Millions, Queensland Off The Track, Yulong and Inglis in supporting the program.

Nominations for the 2026 ATIEA close on Monday, February 16, with winners to be announced at a ceremony on the Gold Coast on Monday, May 25.

aboard the New Zealand-bred Grinzinger Star (Reliable Man) for trainers Kylie Mckerlie and Waylon Hornhardt. "I was in Australia for two years. It was good, all the jockeys were helpful and I got a lot of opportunities," Lai said. "I won seven different Cups races, three of those on Grinzinger Star." Lai commenced his riding career in his homeland when joining the Hong Kong Jockey Club Apprentice Training Program in 2018. "I am very lucky and I joined the Hong Kong Apprentice Academy when I was 18," the 25-year-old hoop said. "I was training in Huang Chun in China and Conghua, the big training centre in China. I was training in China for about a year and then I went back to Hong Kong where I was stuck for a few years because of Covid. I rode trials in Hong Kong and I then went overseas at the end of 2022. I don't mind travelling and I will try to do the best I can."

HK: Romantic Warrior trials as Triple Crown chase begins in Stewards' Cup

Romantic Warrior

HKJC

Sunday week's Stewards' Cup (Gr 1, 1600m) shapes as an epic showdown, where 11-time Group 1 winner Romantic Warrior (Acclamation) faces last season's Triple Crown hero Voyage Bubble (Deep Field) at Sha Tin, while on the same afternoon Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress) steps out in the Centenary Sprint Cup (Gr 1, 1200m). Romantic Warrior has never been beaten by Voyage Bubble, although the Stewards' Cup – leg one of Hong Kong's Triple Crown – is staged over the latter's optimal distance, and it is a race he won in 2024 and 2025 in addition to consecutive Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) triumphs across the same years. In preparation, Romantic Warrior worked effortlessly through a barrier trial at Sha Tin on Tuesday morning on the dirt over 1200 metres, finishing an impressive first in 1m 10.12s under Hugh Bowman for trainer Danny Shum. "He feels great. He's in really good order," Bowman said. "He trialled superbly this morning, and I'm sure he'll go to the mile race at the end of the month in top order." Bowman will be aboard Group 1 winner Red Lion (Belardo) in the Stewards' Cup, and said: "He's a very reliable horse, and he does get better with racing. His trial was fantastic [on January 2] and he'll trial again later this week, but I think he's in his best form of the season so far. It's exciting."

HK: Hong Lok Golf steps up for January Cup at Happy Valley

Prolific winner Hong Lok Golf (Grunt) faces his biggest test to date in Wednesday's January Cup Handicap (Gr 3, 1800m), and trainer Chris So is optimistic the seven-time victor can elevate his game to yet another level. Hong Lok Golf is the January Cup's least experienced runner. Having kicked off his career rated 52 in late 2024, the five-year-old has surged to a mark of 102 across ten starts as he takes aim at 11 rivals in Happy Valley's sole Group race. Raced by Jackie Wong, Hong Lok Golf will step from barrier eight under Harry Bentley when he makes his first appearance in the grade and first over the distance. "I spoke to the owner Mr Wong, and while he is a miler, we don't have many options for him, especially as his rating is over 100," So said. "We have to challenge him over different distances. He handles everything, but we don't know how he will handle 1800 metres. I want to win the race, not just handle it. He handled Happy Valley last year. Let's see how he performs."

US: Tiffany Case tops first day of Keeneland January Horses of All Ages Sale

Tiffany Case (Uncle Mo), dam of Nitrogen (Medaglia D'Oro) – a finalist for the Eclipse Award as champion three-year-old filly of 2025 – and in foal to Not This Time (Giant's Causeway), sold for US$3.2 million (approx. AU$4.77 million) to Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm to record the highest price of Monday's opening day of Keeneland's January Horses of All Ages Sale. The first session of the two-day auction also featured Grade 1 winner Simply In Front (Summer Front) going for US$2 million (approx. AU$2.98 million) and US$800,000 (approx. AU$1.19 million) being shelled out for a yearling colt by Gun Runner (Candy Ride). The price for Tiffany Case is the most spent at the January Sale since 2019, when champion and broodmare prospect Abel Tasman (Quality Road) commanded US$5 million from Coolmore's M.V. Magnier. Tiffany Case is also the dam of stakes winner Love To Shop (Violence) and was consigned by Taylor Made Sales Agency, agent for a DJ Stable Graduate. The Gun Runner colt sold also posted the highest price for a yearling at the auction in 11 years. Meanwhile, Greg Tramontin's Greenwell Thoroughbreds purchased five-year-old broodmare prospect Simply in Front, who won Keeneland's First Lady Stakes (Gr 1, 8f) in October, from the draft of Richard G. Hogan, agent for Colebrook Farms. On Monday, Keeneland sold 319 horses through the ring for US$31,706,400 (approx. AU$47.31 million), an increase of 75.3 per cent from the first session in 2025, when 200 horses brought US$18,087,000. The average price of US$99,393 (approx. AU$148,310) rose 9.91 per cent from US$90,435 last year, while the median of US$42,000 (approx. AU$62,670) was 35.38 per cent below the US$65,000 in 2025.

BETTING FORECAST: 5 Oriental Surprise, Podium, 6 Happy Boys, Lucky Generations, Nebraska, 7 Concorde Star, 10 Chill Master, Ever Smart, Multidutch, 25 Blazing Beam, Brilliant Fire, 33 Colonel.

VERDICT Nebraska will surely win soon at this grade in which he only narrowly failed here last time, but as with his conqueror Concorde Star, the draw has not been kind. Happy Boys, third that day and again partnered by Zac Purton, might well reverse those placings, but preference is for ORIENTAL SURPRISE. His 5f speed should enable him to exploit a good draw and he's shown that he stays 6f. [Alistair Jones]

BETTING FORECAST: 4 Absolute Awakened, Fortunate Son, 5 All Round Winner, 6 Setanta, 8 Turin Warrior, 10 Management Folks, 12 Ping Hai Comet, 14 Lucky Blessing, Somelovefromabove, 20 bar.

VERDICT A good few with chances but C&D winner FORTUNATE SON has shown he can cope with his current mark and forget last week's effort here when he was poorly drawn and found trouble in running. Absolute Awakened is drawn higher than ideal but he defied stall 8 last time when partnered by Zac Purton for the first time. Setanta, runner-up in that race, should also have every chance if he can get some breaks up the straight. [Alistair Jones]

BETTING FORECAST: 7.2 Incanto Star, 4 Glorious Journey, 5 Fortune Star, 8 Noble Pursuit, Shinkansen, 10 Harmony Galaxy, 14 Conspiracy Witness, Forerunner, Good Luck Win, 16 California Banner, Smart City, 33 Northern Fire Ball.

VERDICT Glorious Journey is back in good form and has defied a higher rating in the past, while Fortune Star can be given every chance if forgiven his last run which was too bad to be true (mark untouched). However, INCANTO STAR never looked a sprinter and he ran a lot better upped to 1m here a month ago. With Zac Purton back aboard now, he has more to offer and should get a handy position from his positive draw. [Alistair Jones]

VERDICT Progressive 5yo Hong Lok Golf has an impressive strike-rate and it won't be a surprise if he runs a big race on his step up to Group level. However, veteran topweight BEAUTY JOY is still a class act and, from a workable mark, he might be the answer. Zac Purton's mount Moments In Time is also quite well treated now and he's next on the list. VERDICT Storm Rider took his form to a new level when winning a recent 7f Group 3 handicap but he's back at 6f today and preference is for GUSTOSISIMO, who ran very well before fading into seventh in that race and is 15lb better off with Storm Rider today. Given how strongly he finishes over 6f, Regal Gem was slightly disappointing when tried over 1m last month but, nevertheless, he's respected back over this trip. Magic Control also makes the shortlist. VERDICT There could still be a lot more to come from Perfectday, who finished strongly to win from a wide stall here last month and remains very lightly raced. However, he's up in grade today and might be worth opposing with SPORTS LEGEND, who looked in excellent nick when last in action, remains on a workable mark and has another good draw. Friends Of Shajing chased home the selection on his latest outing and is next on the list.
