Cambridge Stud's Sword Of State colt makes $1.1 million as Karaka delivers record-breaking Book 1

By Tayla Dyke and Lloyd Jackson

Cambridge Stud's burgeoning young sire Sword Of State (Snitzel) delivered the defining moment at the 100th New Zealand Bloodstock (NZB) National Yearling Sale, taking centre stage at Book 1 when his colt out of Las Brisas (Shamardal) realised $1.1 million on Monday.

NZB's decision to offer a more refined Book 1 offering over two days was richly rewarded on Monday as the premier sessions delivered record numbers.

Over the two days of trade, the auction house reported 422 yearlings sold at a clearance rate of 81 per cent. Book 1 reached a record average of $187,257, a 14 per cent rise, while the median of $140,000 also set a new benchmark and was up 27 per cent on 12 months ago. The aggregate finished at $79,022,500, a five per cent increase on last year's figure.

NZB's managing director Andrew Seabrook said he was delighted with the results.

"I am really thrilled. The turnover has gone up $3 million with 94 less horses catalogued. The sale has gone from three days to two days so to exceed the turnover by $3 million is huge.

"The support we've had from Australian [buyers] in the last couple of days and a lot of people returning that haven't been for a while to support the 100th sale was fantastic. It's just gone so well from the race meeting on Saturday night with that wonderful atmosphere. Continued on page 2

“The crowd yesterday for the opening day on Sunday was amazing and it's just continued today and to have a clearance rate of 80 per cent on sale day, that'll continue to go up, but we haven't done that for a number of years. The average being well up around $185,000, it's all gone really well.

Regarding the change in format, Seabrook said: “We were very conscious of wanting to make sure that the Australians stayed here for Book 1 and 2, and we couldn't do that under the old format. They haven't got the time to spend away from Australia, especially with the Magic Millions sale being so close this year. So it's worked really well. We've sold more horses each day, but Book 2 horses have been all available there for everyone to see, and I think that's been a huge help for the sale, and the response and the feedback we've got from Australians in particular is that they love the new format.”

Despite the healthy results, one figure that might be cause of some alarm was the dramatic drop in spend from New Zealand buyers. Twelve months ago, the home team bought 224 yearlings for an aggregate of $32,407,500, while this year they bought 166 lots for total receipts of $26,377,500.

On the other side of the coin, spend from the Australian contingent rose by around $3 million to over $41 million.

Seabrook said that he expected New Zealanders to be active during the one-day Book 2 sale on Tuesday and during the inaugural Summer Sale on Thursday.

He said: “The domestic spend was down $6 million in Book 1. I haven't analysed those results in full, so that's a little bit surprising. I would expect them to kick in tomorrow and Thursday. There'll be plenty of Australians here, still bidding tomorrow, they've had the opportunity to see the horses on the ground, so if they're not here in person themselves tomorrow, they'll be still bidding. I think Book 2 will be a pretty strong sale tomorrow.”

Half to Group 1 star shines at Karaka

The $1.1 million Sword Of State sale-topper is a half-brother to four-time Group 1 winner Ceolwulf (Tavistock) and will join Ciaron Maher's powerful stable after the operation's head of bloodstock, Will Bourne, landed the winning bid following a spirited duel that had the auditorium at capacity.

Auctioneer Steve Davis opened proceedings at $200,000 before bidding surged in $100,000 increments. Te Akau's David Ellis, seated in his customary ringside position, was the underbidder, but Bourne, standing alongside Yulong's Jun Zhang, held firm to secure the Cambridge Stud-consigned colt.

“[David Ellis] is a hard guy to beat, especially here on his home deck,” Bourne said. “When you're wearing the white shorts with David Ellis, it's never a good sign.”

The majority of the youngster will be raced by Chinese owner Mr Sanxiong Gao, who was active at Karaka's 2025 Ready To Run Sale when purchasing two colts for a combined $1,425,000.

“He is a lovely horse and we had great support from Mr Gao, it's the first one we have had,” explained Bourne. “I'm thrilled to have him on board. I sent Ciaron the videos of the horse when we did a short list five days ago and he was one of Ciaron's picks. He's delighted, I've just got off the phone with him and he wants me to sell the last share, so I'm getting on to that now.”

While being a half-brother to Joe Pride's Ceolwulf was undoubtedly a main selling point, the strong-bodied colt's pedigree also boasts elite-level international winners including Cerulean Sky (Darshaan), Moonstone (Dalakhani), Full Count Felicia (War Front) and Wellington (All Too Hard).

“This colt had a lot of strength. He was very much a yearling sales horse. When we looked at him from behind the saddle, there was a lot of power there,” said Bourne.

“There's a few similarities [to Ceolwulf], but I feel like he's a different horse. He was very imposing. He was a proper colt, so hopefully didn't get him home and turn him into something.”

Bourne confirmed Maher's stable were keen to continue backing Sword Of State, having purchased a filly by the stallion at Karaka last year. Now named Temple Of Venus, she has yet to make her racing debut, but has shown encouraging signs at home.

Sword Of State has made a good start with his first runners this season. The son of Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) has sired three winners, headed by the exciting Warwoven and Debutant Stakes (Listed, 1000m) scorer Torture, who finished third in the Karaka Millions 2YO (RL, 1200m) and is being considered for Group 1 targets this season.

“[For Sword Of State] to start like he has, it's a credit to Cambridge Stud to get a stallion to kick like that already. We are happy to support them, they do such a good job. They're so supportive of the industry here and the community.”

The $1.1 million result eclipsed the previous record for the current Cambridge Stud owners Sir Brendan and Lady Jo Lindsay and marked the first seven-figure yearling sold since they bought the historic farm from the previous owner, Sir Patrick Hogan, in 2017. It was a brilliant result given Sword Of State stood for just $15,000 (plus GST) in 2023 when the colt was conceived.

“He's been a hype horse for us,” Cambridge Stud's Scott Calder said. “We got on the ground and he's a horse everyone has been talking about. He's been a big part of our publicity, but you never know what's going to happen at that level. To see Te Akau and Will go toe-to-toe, it was incredibly exciting. Continued on page 4

“It was a first for us in the Lindsay era of Cambridge Stud. To have a million dollar yearling, and that was something synonymous with Patrick when he had Cambridge, those big million dollar lots were something he was a pro at, so to add our little bit to that sales record in the 100th year is a really great part of the story. I guess now we just hope he goes on to be a star on the track like Ceolwulf and we will follow him with great interest.”

Calder said Sword Of State’s early commercial success reflected the confidence breeders had shown in the stallion.

“Sword Of State was a massive money spinner last year,” he said. “The colt was so popular but you have to keep your feet on the ground because he was off a $15,000 service fee, admittedly out of a very nice mare.

“It’s hugely rewarding for us, there’s a lot of breeders around who have done well out of the stallion, and that makes my job much easier. As an industry, we need our young horses to put their hands up.

“We are a country of breed to sell breeders mainly and these young horses can really contribute to keeping people in the game and keeping their businesses going. It’s nice to be able to have some success, not just us but for everyone. What we have seen so far it’s easy to see why people are so excited about him.”

Cambridge Stud’s colt was the headline act of a brilliant Book 1 for Sword Of State, but far from his only strong result. The son of Snitzel (Redoute’s Choice) had 20 yearlings sell for total receipts of $5,205,000 and a final average of $260,250, over 17 times his covering fee.

Sword Of State’s momentum was evident earlier in the sale when Stephen Marsh Racing and Dylan Johnson Bloodstock went to $420,000 for Lot 325, a filly out of the Stravinsky (Nureyev) mare Botanic, another offering from Cambridge Stud.

“We are not surprised that she sold so well,” Calder told ANZ News. “There was a lot of interest as she was a standout all through her prep. She is also as nice a type as you could expect and sold accordingly.”

The filly will join the stable of Stephen Marsh, who is fresh from celebrating Well Written’s (Written Tycoon) emphatic victory in the Karaka Millions 3YO (RL, 1600m), with Marquee Bloodstock Agency and Bourbon

Lane Stable involved in the ownership.

“Stephen and I were keen to get one by Sword of State and we have had her on our radar since the Cambridge Stud parade,” Dylan Johnson, who acts as a key agent and partner for Bourbon Lane’s New Zealand division, told ANZ News. “We believe she was the pick of them all.

“She moves beautifully, she is a good size and has a lovely head. You could say she is very elegant.”

Calder believes Sword Of State’s appeal is extending well beyond New Zealand.

Milan Park also contributed to the stallion’s strong Book 1 showing, selling two yearlings by Sword Of State on day one, including a colt out of Pussy O’Reilly (O’Reilly) for $360,000 and a filly out of Savvy Dreams (Savabeel) for $425,000.

“I’ll bet you Sword Of State will make it as a stallion,” Milan Park’s Tony Rider said. “I’m bullish about him. He just goes with so many New Zealand mares, and they’re such great types, I’ve got one over there, and again, I’m slightly a bit bullish here, but after listening to everybody, Bruce Slade, Henry Field, they’ve all seen him, and they just said, ‘wow, he’s a wow.’”

Cambridge Stud finished the sale as the leading vendor by aggregate, selling 50 yearlings for $10,640,000, recording an average of $212,800.

Brendan Lindsay said the plaudits had to go to the team at home, who had worked hard in the run up to the sale.

“A lot of hard work goes in behind the scenes, and they are emotional. Jo and I believe in our country, everything we do is about New Zealand,” he said. “It’s the 100th anniversary of an iconic New Zealand event, and we’re a part of it.”

On the top seller, he added: “It tells the industry that you can turn a $15,000 service fee into a million-dollar profit, that’s really encouraging. We’re a great country, and we breed the best horses.

The Lindsays took over the world-renowned Cambridge Stud in 2017, but wasn’t all smooth sailing for the farm under the new tutelage, losing three stallions early on. Seabrook said the leading vendor title was well-deserved.

“They did it tough there to start losing three stallions, but Sir Brennan, and Lady Jo, gave us the full support very early on in the piece,” he said. “They wanted to support the 100th yearling sale to the maximum, so to see them get $10 million in turnover, which hasn’t been done for some time, is fantastic. To see their stallion Sword Of State so popular, and getting that $1.1 million horse, I’m thrilled for them.”

Well-related Justify colt joins Waller fold

The powerful buying combination of Guy Mulcaster and Chris Waller were active over the two days of Book 1 trade at Karaka, combining to purchase ten yearlings for $3,715,000 and the most expensive of the cohort was a well-related Justify (Scat Daddy) colt who they bought for $950,000.

Bred by Coolmore, the colt boasts an elite international pedigree. He is out of the Zoffany (Dansili) mare Heart To Heart, a juvenile winner in Ireland and a half-sister to Camille Pissarro (Wootton Bassett), France’s champion two-year-old of 2024 who has since joined the Coolmore Stud stallion roster in Ireland.

The Justify youngster is the second foal out of the mare, with her first, a colt by Frankel (Galileo), having sold to Busuttin Racing for $100,000 at the last year's Inglis Easter Yearling Sale.

Bidding opened at $400,000 before accelerating rapidly in $50,000 increments, with Mulcaster, positioned in his customary spot, ultimately outlasting bloodstock agent Peter Twomey and the Waterhouse and Bott axis to land the prized colt.

"He's a lovely colt, a real typical get up and run sort of Justify," Mulcaster said. "The dam is a half to a current stallion who was a champion two-year-old in France. Fingers crossed, he can be another Learning To Fly or Storm Boy. We thought he was a beautiful horse and stretched a little bit, but we bought him for a lot of good clients, and fingers crossed, he turns out to be a good one for us."

The colt will join the Chris Waller stable, with Mulcaster confident the Justify youngster profiles as a sharp, early type.

"Justify is an international sensation and it's only a matter of time when we get another Storm Boy or something like that," Mulcaster added. "He looked like the type to get up and run for us. He's going to be trained by a great trainer, and we're going to have a lovely group of owners."

Landsdowne Park owners Dave Duley and Jude Latimer said they had long held high expectations for the colt, whose popularity was evident well before he entered the Karaka ring.

"We knew something was up when we started parading him at the farm," Duley told ANZ News. "He was the most popular and that carried over to here where he has thrived. He never took a backward step.

"It was as if he owned the joint. He just handled everything like a professional and he is certainly among the best yearlings I have prepped and presented.

"His x-ray hits were huge and all the internationals were keen, on type, plus he has a stallion's pedigree. In the ring we knew he was going to sell well."

Alabama Express in demand

Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice) delivered a powerful statement at Karaka on Monday, producing two major results inside a ten-minute window as demand for the Yulong Stud sire peaked in the ring.

The headline act of his five sellers came in the shape of Lot 383, an imposing colt consigned by Elsdon Park who was knocked down to KPW Bloodstock for $850,000, marking the most expensive sale-ring result to date for Alabama Express.

Purchased by Kevin 'Millie' Walls on behalf of prominent Australian owners Ron and Judy Wanless, the colt is the first foal out of the winning Tivaci (High Chaparral) mare Diva Carolina and hails from the family of Listed winner and Group 1 placegetter Ombre Rose (O'Reilly).

"He stood out. He's a very nice horse," Walls said. "We buy purely on type and I rated him one of the best types in the sale. And once Ron starts, he tries hard.

"We've paid a bit more for one or two before, but [Ron] loves the game, loves the racing - it's his hobby and his passion. They love their horses, love their racing, he's been in the game a long time and most other games too.

"This horse will definitely end up in Australia. He has the VOBIS bonus, so no doubt he'll go to Melbourne."

Yulong Stud's COO Sam

Fairgray said the result reflected Alabama Express' growing commercial appeal, following strong demand across both sides of the Tasman.

"He's had some fantastic results," he told ANZ News. "We saw it at the Gold Coast too, he's in high demand and he leaves a very nice type."

The timing of the result added further momentum, coming just days after Alabama Express' son Alibaba captured the Blue Diamond Preview (C&G) (Listed, 1000m) at Caulfield.

"He had the two-year-old stakes winner at Caulfield on Saturday, so he's doing a great job," Fairgray added. "He leaves a good physical and it's great to see the results that he's achieving in the sales ring."

Elsdon Park general manager Kerrie Cox was delighted with the outcome, praising the colt's physical presence and professionalism throughout the sale.

"On type, the colt simply blew potential buyers away," she told ANZ News. "He's a jaw dropper, you'd struggle to find a better mover, plus he has a good brain and he knows his job.

"He was never in his box as he did so many parades but never missed a beat. He may be a first foal but in the end buyers are looking for an athlete, a racehorse.

"All the credit for his appearance is due to our yearling manager Yvonne Shanks. Yvonne has bags of experience and is at the coal face of our operation, she taught me well when she was my boss at Waikato Stud."

Alabama Express had also featured prominently earlier in the session, namely when Elsdon Park's filly out of Daniela's Magic, an unraced daughter of Per Incanto (Street Cry), realised $490,000 after a successful bid from Suman Hedge Bloodstock.

Daniela's Magic has already produced a stakes performer, with her son Panic (Time Test) victorious in the South Pacific Classic (Listed, 1400m) at Randwick, further underpinning the appeal of the family and rounding out a standout passage of selling for Alabama Express at Karaka.

All told, the son of Redoute's Choice (Danehill) finished Book 1 with an aggregate of $1,790,000 and an average of $358,000, which saw him finish third in the sires table by that metric.

Pinhooking success for Carlaw Park

Carlaw Park enjoyed a standout pinhooking success on day two of Book 1 when Lot 341, a filly by Darly's rising international sire Ghaiyyath (Dubawi), was secured for $360,000 by a powerful buying team led by Henry Dwyer Racing, Sam Haggas of Hurworth Bloodstock and Glentree Thoroughbreds.

The filly represented a significant return on investment for Carlaw Park, who purchased her for just $40,000 at last year's Inglis Great Southern Weanling Sale in partnership with Sullivan Bloodstock, Bevan Smith Bloodstock and emerging Victorian stallion farm Lovatsville.

Carlaw Park principal Nick Fairweather, who runs the operation alongside partner Nicole Brown, admitted the result exceeded expectations for the filly.

"She's an absolute queen," he told ANZ News. "We spotted her at the Great Southern Sale in Melbourne and really liked her style. She is a well-bodied filly and has a striking walk. When she parades she almost goes into auto-pilot. She knew what it was about and never put a foot wrong.

"Friends of ours also liked her so instead of bidding against each we formed a partnership. Her sire, who was under the radar at the time, has come on strong since then so we had a lot of interest both locally and from Australia. We weren't about to give her away but her reserve was $150,000."

The timing of the sale proved ideal, with Ghaiyyath's son Opera Ballo adding to a second elite-level winner to his sire's CV with an stylish win in the Jebal Hatta (Gr 1, 1800m) at Meydan on Friday night.

Sam Haggas said he was keen to secure the filly given Ghaiyyath's growing profile as a sire on both sides of the globe.

"Ghaiyyath is one of the few stallions who's going really well in both hemispheres," Haggas told ANZ News. "In Australia, he's had a great start. I'm a huge believer in the stallion, ever since he's had his first runners and I've been very keen to get as many of them as I can.

"I think he's got a massive future as a stallion. He was obviously a brilliant racehorse himself and I think he could have a massive 2026 which was kick-started by Opera Ballo winning a group one on Friday. He could be a real top horse for the sire."

On the filly, Haggas added: "This filly was a very nice, good-looking sort. I just loved the way she moved. She's got a great action and she used herself really well. She looks like she could be quite sharp, which is encouraging for a Ghaiyyath, but equally, she's got loads of scope to go on and improve as she gets older. Hopefully she's got a nice future ahead of her.

"I think she should be running at two for sure, but she's got plenty of scope to be a really nice three-year-old. She might stay in New Zealand for a little while, and then long term, she'll go over to Henry's place in Ballarat."

Ghaiyyath shuttled to Darley's Northwood Park in Victoria from 2021 to 2024 before remaining in the northern hemisphere in 2025. His southern hemisphere-bred runners are headed by 14 winners and they are spearheaded by four stakes winners including VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) scorer Observer.

Haggas hoped the stallion's recent success could prompt a return to Australia.

"It would make sense for him to come back given how well his early runners have done in Australia," he said. "They're in high demand and his star is rising as a stallion in both hemispheres.

I think Henry has been a big fan of his for a long time. He's got a good one in his barn, and there aren't many of them selling as yearlings, so they're in high demand. I'd like to think he'll come back given how well he's going down there."

The purchase continues a successful working relationship between Haggas and Dwyer, which began prior to Asfoora's (Flying Artie) Royal Ascot triumph and subsequent crowning as European Champion Sprinter at the 2025 Cartier Awards.

"Henry rang me out of the blue in March 2024 to get my view on the sprinters in Europe, when he was thinking about bringing Asfoora out for the first time," Haggas said.

"We had a good chat about what the sprinters were like in Europe, and he obviously came and he's done a fantastic job, and he's had a hell of a journey with Asfoora. She's come up the last two summers, and won Group 1s and he's done a fantastic job.

"I understand she's having another crack this summer and she stayed up in Newmarket over this winter instead of coming back to Australia. Henry is going great and having a great time of it's very encouraging.

"He bought a couple of tried horses at the horses in training sale in October and they have stayed up in Newmarket as well, so hopefully it will be an exciting summer for him in Europe."

William Haggas enjoys Karaka centenary visit as autumn targets take shape

Leading UK trainer William Haggas descended on Karaka this week after being invited by NZB principal and long-time friend Sir Peter Vela to attend its centenary sale.

"I'm enjoying New Zealand very much, it's been great," Haggas told ANZ News. "I came 42 years ago to visit some relatives who have since died, or most of them have. So I was determined to come and to coincide with the 100th sale, I'm pleased to be here." Continued on page 8

Continued from page 7 Haggas soaked in the sale's festivities and the world-class hospitality offered by NZB and its vendors. He also attended Saturday's Karaka Millions meeting at Ellerslie and was impressed by the event's grandeur despite the inclement weather.

He was particularly taken by the performance of the unbeaten Stephen Marsh-trained filly Well Written (Written Tycoon), who dominated the TAB Karaka Millions 3YO (RL, 1600m) with a six-length victory.

"The racing at Ellerslie was great," he said. "It was a shame for everyone that the weather was bad, we're used to it in the northern hemisphere, but it was a shame because lots of people, especially young people, had made such an effort to dress up and have a party as well. It was well attended, a lovely track and a very good horse [Well Written] won the Karaka Millions."

Haggas said he will try to resist any temptations made by his Hurworth Bloodstock agent son Sam Haggas to buy at the sale.

"I'm probably not going to be buying," he said. "But my son Sam is quite involved as a bloodstock agent, so he'll no doubt be trying to talk me into something. For now though, I'm simply here to have a look around."

The six-time Classic-winning trainer has long targeted Sydney's lucrative autumn carnival, believing that the freshness of his travelling horses can give them an edge over local runners deep into their campaigns.

That strategy has yielded top-level success, with Addeybb (Pivotal) capturing the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) in 2020 and 2021, while Dubai Honour (Pride Of Dubai) took the same prize in 2023. Both also claimed Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) glory, with Dubai Honour adding the Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) last year.

Haggas confirmed Dubai Honour will return to Sydney in the coming months.

"He goes into quarantine on February 15 and he'll be here at the beginning of March. He'll be in Sydney, and we won't go to Melbourne this time."

Looking ahead to the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), a prize that has so far eluded him, Haggas said he hopes to return if conditions allow. The tight restrictions in recent years have made it challenging for international trainers.

"We've had a few battles over the years with the rather draconian veterinary protocols, which I think are changing a little bit, maybe a bit diluted without making them so relaxed that it's going to cause problems," he said.

"Nobody wants fatalities in the Cup at all, or any race in Melbourne. I'm sure if the authorities put the focus more on the visiting trainers and veterinarians, then we could get a better conclusion. I will be coming to Melbourne one day if we get the right horse for the Cup, for sure."

Trainers Darryn and Briar Weatherley are weighing up further stakes options at Ellerslie after Bulgari (Hello Youmzain) produced a strong runner-up performance in the Almanzor Trophy (Gr 3, 1200m) last Saturday. The colt had gone winless through five starts last season but showed a sharp return to form when charging home late at long odds behind Belle Cheval (Savabeel), beaten 1.3 lengths. "It was a great run," Darryn Weatherley said. "He travelled and was held up a few strides. It would have been interesting without that. We quite like him; he's not big, but he's a real racehorse." Next month's Remus Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) appears the next likely target, though shorter options also remain under consideration. Meanwhile, stable star Pier (Proisir) made a pleasing return to the trials at Matamata last week, finishing third in his 1100-metre heat. The six-year-old enjoyed a productive Australian campaign last year and is now being aimed at home features, with next week's BCD Group Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m) at Te Rapa his first assignment. "I'm really happy with how he's come up," Weatherley said. "He'll have an exhibition gallop at Te Rapa on Friday and then look to go to the BCD Sprint the following Saturday." Weatherley was also active at the NZB National Yearling Sale, purchasing a Vanbrugh (Encosta De Lago) half-sister to Group 2 winner Grinzinger Belle (Shamexpress) for $90,000 from the Windsor Park Stud draft. "She comes from a good family," he said. "She was bought for family to race and hopefully breed from later on. We like the sire and she's got a strong page."

Longshot Lowry goes close again

Guy Lowry's knack for producing longshot performances on the big stage was again on display at Ellerslie on Saturday, with Magill (Farnan) going close to delivering a major upset in the Karaka Millions 2YO (RL, 1200m). Now training in partnership with Leah Zydenbos, Lowry almost replicated his famous 2016 Telegraph (Gr 1, 1200m) victory with Milan Park's Adventador (Fast 'N' Famous) when Magill finished a close second at a three-figure quote in New Zealand's richest juvenile race. Bred by Milan Park principal Tony Rider, the son of Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) was sold for $230,000 at Karaka last year, with Rider retaining a share alongside Lowry and brothers Mark and Paul Apatu. "When we bought him he was always destined for the Karaka Million," Lowry said. "He's not overly big and early on we were just trying to get him to settle. He wanted to fight everything." Following a gelding operation, Magill began to turn the corner, finishing second in a Woodville trial behind Singletary before breaking his maiden in a small-field race at Tauherenikau earlier this month. "He was a very happy and sound horse going into the race," Lowry said. "He jumped well from a good draw and he really tried hard for Wiremu Pinn. We had him set a long way out and were fortunate to earn enough prize-money to get into the field." Magill will now be given time before a potential return to Ellerslie later in the season. "He's an out-and-out two-year-old and we'll look toward the Sistema Stakes," Lowry said.

Monday's Australia Day Cup (Listed, 2400m) at Warwick Farm. The seven-year-old son of Deep Impact (Sunday Silence), having his second start of the preparation after running second over 2000 metres at Randwick last month, just repelled Age Of Sail (Frankel) to win the Listed event by 0.1 lengths under Tim Clark. Elliptical (Dundeel) finished 1.2 lengths further back in third. The 2400-metre victory put the gelding firmly on course for another tilt at the Adelaide Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) which he finished second in last year. "He's been a very honest horse for us and for the connections, and it's great to see him winning again," Bott said. "His first-up run was short of his best and that was a month ago. He seems to do well with his races spaced. There's not too much of him condition-wise, but he seems to appreciate that. Once he gets over a bit of ground and finds the right race shape and conditions, he can be very competitive. He ran very well in the Adelaide Cup last year and was a bit unlucky. He seems to have matured and improved this time around." The Adelaide Cup will be run at Morphettville on March 9.

Guest House cruises Cranbourne jump-out

Guest House

Guest House (Home Affairs) strengthened his position at the head of the Blue Diamond (Gr 1, 1200m) market with an eye-catching jump-out win at Cranbourne on Monday. The $270,000 Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) colt shot to the top of betting for Victoria's premier juvenile race following an authoritative debut win at Cranbourne in late December, and his latest hit-out did nothing to dent that impression. Trained by Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr, Guest House cruised through the 800-metre jump-out under a hold from Jamie Melham, drawing clear in the straight for an effortless victory over filly Wild Heather (Cool Aza Beel). The colt is expected to resume in the Blue Diamond Prelude (Gr 3, 1100m) for colts and geldings at Caulfield on February 7, ahead of a return two weeks later for the $2 million Blue Diamond Stakes, for which he is the current $5 favourite with Sportsbet.

Star fillies set to collide in Surround Stakes

Star three-year-old fillies Tempted (Street Boss) and Apocalyptic (Extreme Choice) are unlikely to clash until the Surround Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m), with Tempted set to tackle colts and geldings first-up. Runner-up to Hong Kong champion Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress) in the Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) last October, the Ciaran Maher-trained daughter of Street Boss (Street Cry) will make her first appearance of 2026 in a 1000-metre Group trial at Randwick on Tuesday. The Michael Freedman-trained Apocalyptic will also trial at the session, stepping out over 900 metres, before a confirmed resumption in the Light Fingers Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) on February 14 before the Surround Stakes two weeks later. Tempted meanwhile is expected to kick off a week earlier in the Eskimo Prince Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m). "She's had a jump-out at Bong Bong; we're just repeating what we did last preparation," Maher's assistant Jo Gerard-Dubord said. "She'll trial over 1000 metres on Tuesday and is likely to start in the Eskimo Prince. At this stage the plan is to go to the Surround second-up, with three weeks between runs suiting her better." Gerard-Dubord said Tempted had strengthened since the spring. "She's about 15 kilos heavier than she was at the same stage last prep, so she's grown and come back very well," he said.

Dubai Honour set to return for Tancred

William Haggas is set to target Sydney's autumn carnival once again, with Dubai Honour (Pride Of Dubai) ready to defend his crown in the Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m). The Newmarket trainer has enjoyed sustained success in Australia, winning the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) with Addeybb (Pivotal) in 2020 and 2021 and Dubai Honour in 2023, while also landing the Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) with Addeybb in 2020 and Dubai Honour three years later. Dubai Honour gave the trainer a first Tancred Stakes win in 2025. "We're planning to bring Dubai Honour again for the Tancred," Haggas said from Karaka on Sunday. "We've also got another horse, Caviar Heights, who could run in the Ranvet and the Queen Elizabeth." Haggas said preparations for Caviar Heights (Sea The Stars) were well advanced. "His bloods are done, he's got his place in quarantine and he looked in terrific condition when I left," he said. "By all accounts he's doing really well. He's a horse we like a lot. We got him from another trainer [Karl Burke] and he only ran three times last year. His last run was disappointing, but it took a bit of time to work him out. I think he'll have a good year. Whether he's good enough to win a Queen Elizabeth, I don't know - but one thing I've learned is that if you're not in, you can't win."

VRC Oaks winner set for Autumn return

Ballarat trainer Thomas Carberry is eyeing a mid-March return for Strictly Business (Grunt), with another flexible autumn campaign under consideration for the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) winner. The filly could resume in the $500,000 VOBIS Platinum Guineas (3YO) (1600m) at Caulfield on March 14 before potentially backing up a week later in one of several options, including the Alexandra Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m), Sunline Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) or Alister Clark Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m). "It's too early to make a call," Carberry told Racing.com. "She could run the first weekend or wait until the second. We'll just see how things shape up, especially with a gap to Adelaide after that. She's back in work and just doing light duties. She had five weeks in the paddock and did very well. She looks like she's set for a good autumn." Strictly Business will bypass the Sydney autumn in favour of an Adelaide campaign, with races such as the Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) and South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) on the radar. "We think Adelaide will suit her better," Carberry said. "The way she handled Flemington suggests Morphettville will be more to her liking." Strictly Business' half-sister Refuse To Curtsy (Royal Meeting) is nominated for the Geelong trials on Tuesday. "She looks very promising," Carberry said.

Farnan filly makes stylish debut

Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m)-winning sire Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) continued his good form on Australia Day, producing his 20th Australian winner of the season as the aptly named Oz Princess scored on debut at Warwick Farm. Trained by Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott, the filly was well-supported despite having only two unplaced trials to her name and settled quietly on the fence under Tim Clark. When angled into clear running inside the final furlong, Oz Princess showed a sharp turn of foot to go clear and win by 1.3 lengths over Sphere (Bivouac) – a three-quarter sister to Group 1 winner Cylinder (Exceed And Excel) – with Farfetched, another daughter of Farnan, close up in third. Passed in as a yearling, Oz Princess is a homebred for the Bott family's Evergreen Rich out of winning Lonhro (Octagonal) mare Vanilla Princess. She is a half-sister to stakes-winner Oz Empress (Exceed And Excel) and the Group 3-placed Key, who is the dam of this season's Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) runner-up I'm Ya Huckleberry (Home Affairs). "It's not easy to win anywhere on debut, let alone at a metropolitan meeting with some depth," Bott said. "She's a very well-bred filly from a family that just keeps producing winners, particularly the fillies. This gives Dad and the family another valuable filly to look forward to."

Russian Camelot gelding impresses at Geelong

Widden Stud's Russian Camelot (Camelot) sired his sixth winner of the season when Veyeppee made a striking winning debut at Geelong on Monday. Trained by Anthony and Sam Freedman, the gelding was sent out favourite for the 1440-metre maiden contest after being given some time to mature. Ridden by Lachlan Neindorf, he quickened up smartly off the front end and powered clear to score by 2.8 lengths over Cuttin' Class (Written Tycoon) with Fire Type (The Autumn Sun) another half-length back in third. A $140,000 Inglis Premier Yearling Sale purchase for Dream Thoroughbreds, Bluegrass Bloodstock and Anthony Freedman, Veyeppee is a half-brother to the stakes-placed Ceccheti (Fiorente) out of the Group 3-placed Savabeel (Zabeel) mare Vandancer. He becomes the third winner from three foals to race from the mare, who is herself a sister to stakes winner Queen Sabeel, the dam of Group 3 winner Sagunto (O'Reilly) from the family of champion front-runner Vo Rogue (Ivor Prince). Veyeppee also boasts a rare pedigree feature, carrying a 4x4x4 triple cross of Sadler's Wells (Northern Dancer). Widden Stud sold a brother to Veyeppee at Magic Millions Gold Coast last January for $125,000 to Matt Cumani, and Vandancer was once again covered by Russian Camelot in the spring after producing a yearling colt by Bruckner (Snitzel) and a filly foal by Doubtland (Not A Single Doubt).

Brutal gelding brings timely update for half-brother

Bryant (Brutal) delivered on strong market support when breaking through at Warwick Farm on Australia Day, giving trainer Ron Quinton a deserved result with the progressive gelding. Placed behind subsequent Group winners The Playwright (Written Tycoon) and Raging Force (Cosmic Force) and stakes placegetter Miss Freelove (Tassort) in each of his first three starts, Bryant looked well-placed resuming in the 1000-metre maiden and justified favouritism with a solid 0.7-length victory under Joseph Parr. Maidoff (Brazen Beau) was second, with Gus The Great (Circus Maximus) another 2.9 lengths further back in third. "He's a nice horse and he was strong late," Parr said. "He's very casual – nothing has fazed him from the first time I sat on him – and that's a great attribute. He's also in a stable that's flying at the moment, so it's onwards and upwards." A homebred for Gall Bloodstock, Bryant is the fifth winner from five to race out of I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) mare Divided House, who hails from the family of Group 2 winner Havana Rey (King Cugat). The mare was covered by Brutal (O'Reilly) again last spring, and her Justify (Scat Daddy) yearling colt will be offered by Yarraman Park at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale as Lot 762.

HK: Patch Of Cosmo comeback sets up Classic Mile showdown

Patch Of Cosmo (Super Seth) has emerged as one of Hong Kong's leading four-year-olds after returning from injury with a decisive victory at Sha Tin this month, putting the Manfred Man-trained gelding firmly in contention for Sunday's Hong Kong Classic Mile (1600m). The son of Super Seth (Dundeel) resumed from a tendon setback with a powerful win in the Class 3 Tennis 1600-metre Handicap on January 18, carrying top weight of 135lb and charging down the centre of the track to record his fifth career success. The performance lifted his earnings beyond HK$5 million and earned him a rating of 84, placing him joint-sixth highest-rated among entries for Sunday's contest, the first leg of the Four-Year-Old Classic Series ahead of the Hong Kong Derby (Gr 1, 2000m) on March 22. Zac Purton partnered the gelding in his comeback win but will ride Sagacious Life (Put It Back) this weekend, opening the door for Matthew Chadwick to reunite with Patch Of Cosmo. Chadwick won twice from three rides aboard the gelding last season. "I like this horse, he's a lovely character with a big stride and he's always given me a good feel," Chadwick said. "It was unfortunate he had that setback, because I really liked how he was progressing. He's come back well, got a win under his belt and it looks like a good foundation going into this race. It's shaping up as a very even and competitive. I don't think he'll be out of place at all."

HK: Ting excited as Little Paradise challenges Classic Mile

Trainer Jimmy Ting will put a year-long plan to the test at Sha Tin on Sunday when progressive four-year-old Little Paradise (Toronado) lines up in the HK$13 million Hong Kong Classic Mile, the opening leg of the Four-Year-Old Classic Series. The gelding has enjoyed a sharp rise through the grades, winning five races and progressing from Class 4 to Class 2 in just eight starts. Ting earmarked the Classic Series immediately after Little Paradise's debut victory over 1200 metres at Sha Tin on March 30 last year. "I hope he can run well. I've planned nearly a whole year for this race," Ting said. "This has been in our minds since he won his first race. We started preparing him back then to target the Four-Year-Old Classic Series." Rated 95 in Hong Kong, Little Paradise is owned by Ko Kam Piu, whose famous violet and gold silks were carried to victory at Royal Ascot in 2012 when Little Bridge (Faltaat) won the King's Stand Stakes (Gr 1, 5f). Zac Purton, who has ridden Little Paradise to three of his wins, elected to partner Sagacious Life this weekend, allowing Vincent Ho to take the mount. Ho galloped the gelding at Sha Tin last week and will ride on Sunday. "I was happy with his gallop," Ting said. "Vincent said he's a nice horse and keeps improving. It was important for him to get to know the horse." Yet to race beyond 1400 metres, Little Paradise will be stepping into unknown territory at the mile, though Ting is confident the gelding is still improving. "I think he can handle the mile," he said. "I'm not sure he will go further than that, but he's progressing. His last win exceeded my expectations."

US: Houtzen colt lands US stakes contest

is beginning to make her presence felt as a broodmare, with her three-year-old colt Greenwich Village (Quality Road) scoring his first stakes success at Santa Anita on Sunday. Trained by Bob Baffert, Greenwich Village captured the US$100,000 Baffle Stakes (Listed, 6.5f) on turf at just his third career start, producing a strong finishing burst to win by a neck. "After I broke a little slow, I decided to stay back and make one run," winning rider Juan Hernandez said. "He crossed the dirt like a professional and really started passing horses. He's a big, heavy horse, but he's got a very good turn of foot." Greenwich Village was purchased for US$350,000 at the Keeneland September Yearling Sale by SF Bloodstock, Starlight Racing and Madaket Stables and is the second foal to race, and second winner, out of Houtzen. The daughter of I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), who was foaled and raised at Yarraman Park, added two Group 3 victories in Australia after her juvenile stakes success, and then placed at Group 2 level in Europe. She was sold to Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings for US$1.5 million at the 2020 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale and has a two-year-old colt by Charlatan (Speightstown) and a yearling colt by leading stallion Not This Time (Giant's Causeway).

A huge congratulations to the connections of Armidale-bred and sold Aristopolos, who kept his unbeaten record intact with a stakes-level victory in Sunday's Listed Kevin Sharkie Elwick Stakes.

After a six-length demolition in his first trial, he quickly backed it up with a maiden win before adding further success to remain a perfect three-from-three. The talented 2YO colt is the second foal to race and second winner from stakes-placed Flying Krupt, and we're excited to see what the future holds.
