Big Sky soars to Blue Diamond favouritism after Chairman's Stakes win

By Daniel Harrold

Mike Price looks to have a big chance of landing a third career Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) after Big Sky (Bivouac) created another hugely favourable impression when easily taking out Saturday's Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Caulfield.

The colt was lining up for just his second start after having bolted up by 2.8 lengths on debut in a 1000-metre maiden at Flemington earlier in the month, and was even more impressive this time round, scoring by three lengths under an almost motionless Ben Melham.

Taking on six rivals in Saturday's Group 3, that was also over 1000 metres, Big Sky was sent off the strong $1.60 favourite to double his winning tally and the pre-race confidence from punters would prove well placed.

Jumping well from barrier two, the son of Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) showed plenty of early speed to gain the lead under Melham and was allowed to roll on throughout the contest.

Rounding the home bend with plenty of his rivals at work, Big Sky came down the home straight with ease and was barely extended at the finish to defeat debut Magic Millions VIC 2YO Classic (1100m) placegetter Invincible Son (Farnan).

Hidrix downs well-touted rivals in Canonbury to top Golden Slipper market

Another high-profile juvenile race market to get a shake-up on Saturday was the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) after the Chris Waller-trained Hidrix (Extreme Choice) made a stylish winning debut in the Canonbury Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Rosehill.

"He's always shown really good ability, he just does things on feel a little bit," the winning rider said.

"He'll sort of spook at something and get running, but he certainly looks more awkward than he feels out there. He couldn't have been any more impressive today. I didn't really get too stuck into him and he won with a bit in hand."

Price, who co-trains in partnership with Michael Kent Jnr, has won the Blue Diamond on two occasions with Samaready (More Than Ready) (2012) and Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) (2016), while Roedean (Flying Spur) (2003) was disqualified after returning a positive swab, felt his colt improved for the benefit of his debut.

"I think he lost a bit of nervousness [from Flemington]," Price said. "He was a bit unsure of himself [that day], but today he was a bit cooler.

"He's a colt that is learning. He's not an alpha colt, he's a quiet colt and if he has a good three weeks, he should turn up [in the Blue Diamond].

"I wanted to run him in this because I thought the three weeks would be good for him.

"A two-year-old, having his first prep, you can't get too many runs out of them but hopefully he can get to the Blue Diamond and then maybe Sydney."

The burning question for Big Sky now will surely be the extra 200-metre distance of the Blue Diamond on February 21, a race for which he is now the $5 co-favourite for alongside his debut-winning Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) stablemate Guest House, but Price is confident that the higher tempo in that feature race would be a huge positive for his colt.

"I think a furlong out he was clocking off and that's probably a good sign, so the extra pressure of a Blue Diamond won't do him any harm," Price said.

"He doesn't have to lead all the time, but it's just the way the two races have worked out.

"I won't go putting any gear on him. I don't like messing around too much with them.

"I just think we will let it unfold naturally. He's got a good rider on every morning, so we'll train him and let it unfold."

Purchased from the draft of Eureka Stud at last year's Magic Millions yearling sale for $140,000 by Mick Price Racing & Breeding, Big Sky, who became the fourth individual stakes winner for Bivouac courtesy of Saturday's success, is the third winner from as many to race out of the Red Dazzler (Red Ransom) mare Zoom By.

Zoom By foaled a colt by Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) in October and has since been covered by Anamoe (Street Boss). She has a foal filly by Spirit Of Boom that will be sold at the upcoming Inglis Classic Yearling Sale as Lot 607 as part of Eureka Stud's 12-strong draft.

Bivouac, who currently sits third in the second-season sires standings, stood the 2025 breeding season at Darley's Kelvinside for an unchanged fee of $55,000 (inc GST).

Hidrix downs well-touted rivals in Canonbury to top Golden Slipper market

Another high-profile juvenile race market to get a shake-up on Saturday was the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) after the Chris Waller-trained Hidrix (Extreme Choice) made a stylish winning debut in the Canonbury Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Rosehill.

A trio of trials prior to his competitive debut had thrown up mixed results, with well-beaten fourth and sevenths at Rosehill and Warwick Farm followed up by a much better effort when a close third over 799 metres back at Warwick Farm on January 22.

Sent off a $13 chance in Saturday's six-runner contest under Zac Lloyd, the son of Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) was tapped for a little toe at entering the final 400 metres but, after finding top stride, came home very strongly inside the last 200 metres to run out a comfortable 1.7 lengths scorer over his stablemate Confederation (Wootton Bassett).

The Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained Eviction Notice (Stay Inside) finished a further 0.2 lengths back in third, while odds-on favourite Incognito (Stay Inside) could only manage fifth.

"They've both got bright futures," Waller, who has a share in the ownership of both the first and second, said. "I said, 'ride them to finish off' and that's how they were ridden and they finished off very well.

"Hidrix is a lovely horse. Ricky Surace [B2B Thoroughbreds] and his son, they're smart and astute judges of horses and they liked him and we liked him.

"We joined up and got some good people into the ownership. We're going to have some fun.

"We have given him two educational trials. We haven't asked him to do anything. What you saw today is more than what I've seen."

Lloyd, who was having his first ride aboard Hidrix, was also impressed by the winner.

"In his trials, it has looked like he has improved with each trial. The last one he had a good hit out which mentally did him the world of good.

"He travelled really well today, he was extremely push-button. It's good to repay the owners of this expensive colt with a nice win first-time out."

Speaking of expense, Chris Waller Racing, Mulcaster Bloodstock, and Ricky Surace's B2B Thoroughbreds went to a hefty $1.7 million to purchase Hidrix at last year's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale.

"We knew he went pretty good but it was about giving him a run today and see how he ran home," Surace said.

"Chris [Waller] was confident he'd run well and then progress to his next race but he was pretty impressive there, especially at the end, he was eased down that last 50 or 75 metres and the jockey said post-race that he had plenty left.

"He was a nice colt at the sale, there was obviously plenty on him for us to have to go to $1.7 million to get him but he wasn't always going to be a Slipper type.

"He didn't look like an early two-year-old and it wasn't until James [McDonald] worked him the other morning and said he was really happy with him and really surprised by how well he felt, that we started to get thinking we might have a Slipper horse."

Hidrix was bred by Kate Nivison of Etak Thoroughbreds and she also retains an interest in his ownership, as does Newgate Farm, who stand the colt's sire Extreme Choice.

"I'm a bit in shock, I'm speechless which is unusual for me," Nivison said.

"But you know what? It's everything I want. I want to breed proper racehorses and be known for breeding proper racehorses.

"I don't give a sh*t about sale ring prices, my job as a breeder is to produce horses that win, that's all I want to see, so it's really satisfying to see a colt like this do what he just did on debut in a key two-year-old race."

A brother to Group 1 winner Apocalyptic, Hidrix, who became the 18th individual stakes winner for his sire, is the third winner from as many foals to race out of the unraced Medaglia

D'Oro (El Prado) mare Shadow, herself a granddaughter of dual Group 1 scorer Virage De Fortune (Anabaa) and from the family of champion Emancipation (Bletchingly).

Shadow produced a filly by Pierro (Lonhro) last year and was then covered by Extreme Choice, who stood the 2025 breeding season at a record fee of $330,000 (inc GST).

Chilly Girl too hot for her Widden Stakes rivals

A 'quality filly' is the way co-trainer Sterling Alexiou described Chilly Girl (Trapeze Artist) after she made a successful debut in landing Saturday's Widden Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Rosehill.

A daughter of Widden Stud's Trapeze Artist (Snitzel), the filly had made promising strides in two 900-metre Rosehill trials ahead of her competitive debut, winning one and running second in the other.

Ridden by Tim Clark, the filly moved her way up to an $11 third-elect for March's Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) with an all-the-way victory from barrier two.

Sent forward by her rider, Chilly Girl grabbed the fence from her inside draw and, having looked slightly vulnerable approaching the final 400 metres, found plenty under pressure to turn away the late challenge of Miss Chanel (Tagaloo) by 0.4 lengths. Hardanger (Pinatubo) finished a further 2.3 lengths back in third place.

Interestingly, the fillies ran 1:03.82s, which was narrowly faster than the time of the Canonbury for colts and geldings one race earlier that was run in 1:04.03s.

"I don't think she could have done any more," Alexiou, who trains in partnership with Gerald Ryan, said.

"That was really impressive. I was hoping she'd get it a bit softer than that but 'J Mac' [James McDonald on Miss Scandal] pressed the button on coming out of the gates and applied quite a bit of pressure throughout.

"She was good enough and seasoned enough to kick away and hold a bit of a margin late. I'm really happy to see her do that at her first start.

"She's bombproof. You wouldn't think she is a two-year-old filly having her first start at her home track. She is a little gem."

Alexiou confirmed Chilly Girl would be aimed towards the Golden Slipper, via the fillies' races, provided she continues her upward curve.

"As long as she keeps going the right way," he said. "How far she goes, I'm not sure, but we will give her every chance.

"We haven't got a lot of autumn two-year-olds. A lot of ours are going to be end of the autumn into the winter. She would be top of the tree at the minute, more so because of her professionalism."

Clark, who had rode Chilly Girl for her trial win on January 13, was pleased to keep the partnership.

"She trialed up well, I was really impressed with the feel she gave me. Today she was just really relaxed before the start and I had to 'stoke' her up early to hold my position," he said.

"She's a really sweet filly to ride, she has a great mindset and that will take her a long way."

Chilly Girl is the tenth winner and first stakes winner from ten foals to race out of the stakes-winning General Nediym (Nediym) mare I Got Chills, who was retired from stud duties after Chilly Girl was born.

Trapeze Artist, who was siring his tenth individual stakes winner courtesy of Chilly Girl's success, stood the 2025 breeding season at a fee of $33,000 (inc GST).

Morning Briefing

Australia

Four for Bivouac

Bivouac

DARLEY

Darley's second season sire Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) registered his fourth stakes-level winner when the Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained Big Sky (2 c ex Zoom By, by Red Dazzler) took out Saturday's Chairman's Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Caulfield. Purchased from the draft of Eureka Stud at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale for $140,000, Big Sky is the third winner from three to race out of the winning Red Dazzler (Red Ransom) mare Zoom By. A half-sister to Big Sky by Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) will be on offer out of the Eureka Stud draft at the upcoming Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, catalogued as Lot 607.

18 for Extreme Choice

Newgate Farm's elite stallion Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) sired his 18th individual stakes winner courtesy of the debut victory of Hidrix (2 c ex Tallow by Medaglia D'Oro) in Saturday's Canonbury Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Rosehill. Bred by Etak Thoroughbreds, the colt was purchased by B2B Thoroughbreds, Chris Waller Racing and Mulcaster Bloodstock for $1.7 million from the Coolmore Stud draft at Inglis Easter. He is the third foal and second Group-level winner out of Shadow (Medaglia D'Oro), making him a brother to Group 1 winner Apocalyptic. Shadow is a granddaughter of dual Group 1 winner Virage De Fortune (Anabaa), from the family of champion Emancipation (Bletchingly). Extreme Choice stood at Newgate for a fee of $330,000 (inc GST) in 2025, up from $275,000 in 2024.

Ten for Trapeze Artist

Widden Stud's Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) sired his tenth stakes winner when Chilly Girl (2 f ex I Got Chills by General Nediym) won Saturday's Widden Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Rosehill on debut for Gerald Ryan and Sterling Alexiou. Bred and raced by Vieira Group, who also bred and raced Trapeze Artist, Chilly Girl is the the last foal from I Got Chills (General Nediym), who won her first two starts as a juvenile in the Maribynong Trial Stakes (Listed, 1000m) and St Albans Stakes (Listed, 1000m). The mare has since produced ten to race for ten winners. Trapeze Artist stood at Widden Stud in NSW for $30,000 (inc GST) in 2025.

Wrote To Arataki claims back-to-back Bellmaines

Wrote To Arataki

Seven-year-old mare Wrote To Arataki (Wrote) added another chapter to her remarkable Caulfield record when claiming a second Geoffrey Bellmaine Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) on Saturday, three years after her first victory in the race. Trained by Matthew Williams and ridden positively by Dean Yendall, the daughter of Wrote (High Chaparral) made full use of her customary front-running style to score strongly over Damask Rose (Savabeel), with Bossy Benita (So You Think) filling third. Williams praised the mare's durability as she advanced her career tally to seven wins and nine placings from 28 starts, with prize-money now exceeding $900,000. "She's done a great job and she's been so sound all the way through," Williams said. "She had a couple of little viruses there in the spring and we just couldn't get her back right, so we opted to pull up stumps. The owners have been very patient and were happy to do that, and then we've just set her for this race which has been a great kick-off to her autumn in previous preparations. She always runs a pretty cheeky race in the Bellmaine." A likely next target is the Frances Tressady Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington on February 14, a race she won last year. "It's a good mare's program for her," Williams said. "She's not a good traveller... She loves these 1400 metre and 1600 metre races."

Magnaspin scores at Caulfield

Magnaspin

Magnaspin (Magnus) returned to winning form at Caulfield, with the Leon and Troy Corstens and Will Larkin-trained gelding scoring an all-the-way victory in a Benchmark 100 (2000m) on Saturday. Ridden positively by Jamie Melham, Magnaspin crossed to the lead early and held on strongly to defeat the favourite Jenni's Meadow (Brutal) by 0.5 lengths, with Regal Lion (Jakkalberry) a further 0.35 lengths behind in third. Co-trainer Will Larkin said the gelding needed racing this preparation to build fitness and learn to settle over the distance. "Last preparation he was wanting to get it over and done with and wasn't finishing his races off," Larkin said. "We elected to give him a really good break. He had eight weeks in the paddock and we built him up nice and slowly so there was a lot of fitness benefit from each run. If you ask him for too much of an effort early in the preparation it gets him over-racing, so to get him out to this trip we needed to get his head down and start settling, and he's really done a good job of it." While no firm plans are in place, connections hope to find a suitable Listed race over 2000 metres later in the campaign. "He's got a tricky rating," Larkin said. "You don't plan anything for these types of horses... but we'll have a look at the races that are around and a 2000-metre Listed race wouldn't be out of the question. We tried him over further... but we think the 2000 metres is his trip and we'll probably save him for that."

Stylish Secret grinds out Caulfield staying win

Mick Nolan's Stylish Secret (Sweet Orange) delivered a gutsy front-running win in a Benchmark 84 (2400m) at Caulfield on Saturday, narrowly holding off the fast-finishing Sun Gift (Savabeel). Ridden confidently by apprentice Luke Cartwright, the gelding enjoyed a mid-race breather before digging deep to score, with the leading pair pulling more than 3.9 lengths clear of American Wolf (Tivaci) in third. The first four home were all bred in New Zealand. "Definitely the 52 kilos was in his favour today, as well as Luke's lovely ride in front," Nolan said. "I said to him before the race, 'you've got 52, make sure the others know you've got the lightweight and don't let them dictate. You dictate to them, because he's fit and will run the 2400. He just hasn't got that sprint like Sun Gift's got, but he's a tough grinder and that's what he did today." Nolan said Stylish Secret could now be considered for the Launceston Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) on February 25. "It's nice if you go there and win it, but then you're handicapping yourself. All these horses that were top weights here today have all won good races, and that makes them hard to place in the future," Nolan said.

Willaidow defends JRA Plate title

Third and fourth generation trainers Marc and Mitchell Connors celebrated their first stakes win as a partnership as stable star Willaidow (7 g Shamus Award - Stimulated by Casino Prince) carved out his own slice of history by capturing back-to-back renewals of Saturday's JRA Plate (Gr

3, 1200m) at Rosehill. The seven-year-old gelding defeated The Instructor (Russian Revolution) by 0.2 lengths with Zarastro (I Am Invincible) a further 0.8 lengths away in third. Marc is the son of four-time Golden Slipper-winning trainer Clarry, whose father Clarry Connors Snr, was also a noted horseman. With 25-year-old Mitchell sent to the provincial NSW meeting at Newcastle to oversee another member of their team, Marc Connors had to savour the occasion without him, although it made it no less special. "For a small stable like ours, it's a lot of work. We have to put in a lot of hours," Marc Connors said. "These are the wins that are pretty special for us. He [Mitchell] has put the hard yards in. He has done a lot of work," he said. "He is driving home from Newcastle today, he got beaten up there, so this will cheer him up. It's a proud moment for me to have him down beside me. He will remember that for a long time." Willaidow ($4.60) won the corresponding race 12 months ago when it was known as the Southern Cross Stakes and became the first horse in recent times to capture it in consecutive years.

Sghirripa takes the Durbridge Stakes

The Shane and Cassie Oxlade-trained Sghirripa (6 g Lonhro - Wonder I Do by Encosta De Lago) snapped a losing streak that stretched back to his victory in the 2024 running of the Standish Handicap (Gr 3, 1200m) when he landed Saturday's Durbridge Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Morphettville. Ridden by Campbell Rawiller, the gelding defeated Klable (Vadamos) by 0.5 lengths with Great Maximus (Magnus) a further 1.4 lengths back in third.

Fine five-timer for J Mac at Rosehill

James McDonald dominated proceedings at Rosehill on Saturday with a fine five-timer. He opened his account on the afternoon aboard the Jack Pilkington-trained Alabama State (Alabama Express) in a Benchmark 72 (1350m), before guiding the Chris Waller-trained Pippie Beach (Maurice) to victory in a Benchmark 88 (1500m). The rider finished with a flourish, taking the final three events on board Willaidow for the Connors Team, before scoring on the Chris Waller-trained stablemates Willie Oppa (Fastnet Rock) and Eagle Express (Alabama Express) respectively. Eagle Express' brother will be offered by Yulong as Lot 573 at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale which gets under way in Melbourne on March 1.

Cartwright chalks up treble

Over in Melbourne, apprentice Luke Cartwright also had a day to remember, riding three winners at Caulfield – two of which came in at big odds. Cartwright began his run with the $3.30 chance Stylish Secret in race four before blousing punters in race five on board the Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman-trained Miss Maranda (Written Tycoon) at $19. He then delivered a real upset in the last, scoring on the Ciaran Maher-trained Until Valhalla (Snitzel) at odds of $31.

Williams to miss Lightning Stakes meeting

Craig Williams is set to miss the opening Group 1 meeting of the new year in Melbourne following a careless riding suspension at Caulfield on Saturday. Williams pleaded guilty to the charge by RV stewards aboard runner-up Extreme Virtue (Extreme Choice) in the ninth event after stewards alleged he caused interference near the 600-metre mark. Williams opted to take the eight-day penalty from February 10 to February 18 inclusive, meaning he will be unavailable for the Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) meeting at Flemington on February 14. He will be able to ride next Saturday at Caulfield and will return for the Caulfield meeting on February 21 featuring the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) and Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m). Meanwhile,

Robert Whearty had a poor ending to another successful day at the track with stewards suspending him for seven meetings following his winning ride aboard Midnite Storm (Night Of Thunder) in the ninth race. Whearty will take his ban from February 5 through to February 12 inclusive.

Jadzia's Diamond dream over

Grahame Begg's run at the Blue Diamond Stakes has come to an abrupt end, but the trainer is still hopeful of making some impression in the juvenile ranks this season. For the second time in two weeks, his unraced but highly prized two-year-old filly Jadzia (Ole Kirk) was scratched on the morning of her planned debut, this time at Caulfield on Saturday, with Begg revealing that the latest setback has ruined her chance of running in the Blue Diamond Stakes. "She's out of the Blue Diamond," Begg, who won the juvenile feature in 2018 with the dominant colt Written By (Written Tycoon), told Racing.com. "You wouldn't believe it. She was scratched the week before because of the hot weather and then this morning, she's out again. She gave no indication there was a problem and we only scoped her on Thursday, and it was all clear, so it was a real surprise. She ate up last night and gave no indication there was anything untoward. We'll wait and get bloods done on Monday to see what the problem is and work it out from there." Begg said he was unsure whether Jadzia will get to the races this campaign but he said he'll keep all options open. "She is in the Slipper [March 21], but we might give her ten days off or something like that and maybe look at a two-year-old race at Flemington in the first week of March," he said. Jadzia was one of two fillies Begg paid up for at Blue Diamond third acceptances last week, but his luck was out with both fillies with Snitzel's (Redoute's Choice) daughter Aroused feeling her shins.

New Zealand

Five for Embellish

Embellish

CAMBRIDGE STUD

Cambridge Stud stallion Embellish (Savabeel) registered his fifth stakes winner when Ultimate Habit (3 f ex Queens Habit by Bachelor Duke) broke her maiden in Saturday's Lowland Stakes (Gr 2, 2100m) at Trentham. Ridden by Craig Grylls for Robbie Patterson, the filly charged home to defeat Ariadne (Almanzor) by a length, with Clara Bow a further 2.3 lengths away in third. Bred by Mrs I M Roddick, Ultimate Habit is the fifth foal and only runner out of winning mare Queen's Habit (Bachelor Duke), herself a half-sister to Nordic Dancer (Generous). Embellish stood at Cambridge Stud for $5,000 (plus GST) in 2025.

Oaks aim for Ultimate Habit

Robbie Patterson looks to have another serious New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) contender on his hands following Ultimate Habit's victory at Trentham on Saturday. "We are definitely going to go to the Oaks on that," said Patterson, who won last year's running of the Lowland Stakes with subsequent Oaks heroine Leica Lucy (Derryn). "It is going to be a lot trickier going the other way around at Ellerslie, but she is such a laidback filly." Ultimate Habit had three starts prior to Saturday's breakthrough win, finishing second at New Plymouth last month before running sixth in the Desert Gold Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Trentham a fortnight ago, and Patterson was confident of a bold showing despite her last start result. "I wasn't disappointed with her run the other day, she just got stuck on the inside on a tricky track, but I knew she was a good filly," he said. "The two runs at home, the way she got home she was unlucky, she should have won her maiden. Grylls [Craig Grylls] rode her a peach, got her in a good rhythm and the horse had a good turn of foot."

30 for Almanzor

Cambridge Stud's Almanzor (Wootton Bassett) sired his 30th individual stakes winner when the Lisa Latta-trained Manzor Blue (5 m ex Turquoise Coast by Zabeel) landed Saturday's Wellington Cup (Gr 3, 3200m) at Trentham. Ridden by Kate Hercoc, Manzor Blue beat Crouch (Tarzino) by 0.3 lengths with Be Real (Iffraaj) third, 0.9 lengths behind the winner. Bred and sold by Milan Park, Manzor Blue was bought by Go Racing for $130,000 at the 2022 NZB Karaka National Yearling Sale. She is the third foal from Zabeel (Sir Tristram) mare Turquoise Coast, who has produced one other winner from three runners. Almanzor stood at Cambridge Stud for $30,000 (plus GST) in 2025.

Manzor Blue causes major upset in Wellington Cup

Manzor Blue caused a major upset when taking out Saturday's Wellington Cup as an 86-1 outsider but winning trainer Lisa Latta believes her mare has a bright future among New Zealand's staying ranks. "We have had a lot of niggles with this mare this season, she had a lot of back problems. We have worked extra hard to get her right. She only ran sixth here a fortnight ago and I said to Kate [Hercoc, rider] 'should we press on to the Wellington Cup?' she said 'press on, I think she is back'. At that time it didn't even look like she would make the field. She is only a five-year-old mare, she has got it all in front of her. We have ironed out a lot of niggles and learned a lot about her this year." Manzor Blue has now won three of her 21 starts and earned just shy of $280,000 in prize-money.

166 for Snitzel

Arrowfield's late champion Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) sired his 166th individual and 63rd juvenile stakes winner when Liguria (2 f ex Vernazza by More Than Ready) won Saturday's Colin Jillings 2YO Classic (Gr 3, 1200m) at Ellerslie. Ridden by Warren Kennedy for Lance Noble, Liguria beat odds-on favourite Harvey Wallbanger (Home Affairs) by 0.2 lengths with Parfait Dimanche (Anders) in third, another length away. Bred and raced by Cambridge Stud, Liguria is the first foal out of Group 2 winner and Group 1 placegetter Vernazza (More Than Ready), the mare herself out of Group 3 winner Zonza (Zabeel), making her a half-sister to Group 1 winner Pinarello (Tavistock) and Listed winner Bavella (Snitzel).

Noble feeling his age after Liguria takes out Ellerslie juvenile feature

Winning trainer Lance Noble admitted he was showing his age a little as he recalled training Vernazza, the dam of Saturday's Colin Jillings 2YO Classic winner Liguria. "She is bred to be good being the first foal out of a mare I trained, Vernazza, who won the Matamata Breeders' [Stakes]," winning trainer Noble said. "It certainly ages you a little bit when you are training the daughters and granddaughters. She is not very big but is supremely athletic and has that will to win. There is not much of her so we will have to nurse her along. She does have a great attitude, a real sweetie, and is very popular around the stable. We came here with a little bit of confidence after her first up run and she is only going to get better." Liguria will now attempt to emulate her dam by winning the Matamata Breeders' Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), which will be run on February 14. The victory capped off an extraordinary week for Cambridge Stud who claimed the leading vendor title and offered the sale-topping yearling, a colt by resident stallion Sword Of State (Snitzel) who sold for $1.1 million, at the New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sale at Karaka.

Three for Stephanos

Novara Park stallion Stephanos (Deep Impact) sired his third stakes winner when Special Sakura (4 m ex Mia Mamma by Per Incanto) won Saturday's Fulton Family Stakes (Listed, 1500m) at Ellerslie. Ridden by Chris Dell for Janelle Millar, the mare defeated What You Wish For (Embellish) by 1.6 lengths, with Moxie (Strasbourg) a further 1.9 lengths behind in third. Bred and raced by Explosive Breeding Ltd, Special Sakura is the third foal out of three-time winner Mia Mamma (Per Incanto), making her a half-sister to Group 3 winner Special Swey (Sweynesse). Stephanos stood for $9,000 (plus GST) at Novara Park in 2025.

Special Sakura delights Millar

Special Sakura

RACE IMAGES

Taranaki visitor Special Sakura upset the applecart when making all in the Fulton Family Stakes with her trainer Janelle Millar among those surprised after the mare struck as a $31 chance under Chris Dell. "Chris had said last time when she ran second that more ground would suit her, although halfway through the race I was worried she was going too hard," Miller said following Saturday's race. "As it turned out she had a super kick in the straight and ended up winning quite easily. She is a tall, lanky thing that we have had some trouble with in keeping the weight on her, but lately she has been eating really well and looks a very happy horse."

20 for Territories

Fort George (4 g ex Dusty Red by Teofilo) provided former Darley shuttler Territories (Invincible Spirit) with his 20th individual stakes winner when he came out on top in a tight finish to Friday's Dubai Millennium Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Meydan. The Ed Walker-trained four-year-old beat Arabian Light (Kingman) by a nose, the front two pulling over five lengths clear of the remainder, who were led home by favourite By The Book (Frankel). A 75,000gns buy for current connections out of Book 2 at the Tattersalls October Yearling Sales, Fort George is the seventh foal out of Dusty Red (Teofilo), making him a brother to the stakes-placed winner Pink Carnation, and a half-brother to, among others the Group 1-performed stakes winner Dear My Friend (Pivotal). Territories now resides at Poonawalla Stud in India.

81 for Night Of Thunder

Danish raider Great Wish (5 h ex Anthem Alexander by Starspangledbanner) ran out a shock winner of Friday's Dubai Sprint (Listed, 1200m) at Meydan to become the 81st individual stakes winner for Night Of Thunder (Dubawi). Trained by Bent Olsen, the five-year-old beat Two Tribes (Rajasinghe) by a length and a quarter with West Acre (Mehmas) another length further away in third. Having sold to Joseph O'Brien for 200,000gns as a yearling, Great Wish was then sold to his current trainer for £130,000 at the Goffs UK 2yo Breeze Up Sale. He is one of five winners out of Royal Ascot-winning juvenile Anthem Alexander (Starspangledbanner), who herself is a half-sister to the champion sprinter and sire Dandy Man (Mozart). Night Of Thunder will stand the upcoming northern hemisphere breeding season at Darley's Kildangan Stud in Ireland for a fee of €200,000 (approx. AU$340,540).

International

29 for Havana Grey

Completely Random (5 g ex Random Success by Shamardal) became the 29th individual stakes winner for Whitsbury Manor Stud stallion Havana Grey (Havana Gold) when dead-heating in Saturday's Kachy Stakes (Listed, 6f) at Lingfield. Ridden by Ryan Moore, the Harry Charlton-trained five-year-old gelding came from the rear of the field to finish strongly and join Clive Cox's front-running Diligent Harry (Due Diligence) on the line, with the judge unable to split the pair in the photo-finish. There was a further length and a quarter back to Cool Hoof Luke (Advertise) in third place. Bred and raced by Paul Inglett and Beckhampton, Completely Random is a half-brother to winner Roarin' Success (Roaring Lion) being the fourth foal out of the winning Shamardal (Giant's Causeway) mare Random Success, herself a half-sister to the Group-placed winner Anticipated (Whipper). Havana Grey will stand the 2026 northern hemisphere breeding season for a private fee.

RSA: Double Grand Slam lands third Grade 1

The Justin Snaith-trained Double Grand Slam (5 m Vercingetorix - Princess Peach by Captain Al) registered her third career Grade 1 success when scoring in Saturday's Majorca Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Kenilworth. Ridden by Andrew Fortune, the five-year-old mare defeated Rainbow Lorikeet (Querari) by a neck with a further length back to the third-placed Mon Petit Cherie (Rafeef).

RSA: More Grade 1 joy for See It Again

See It Again (6 g Twice Over - Supreme Vision by Visionaire) was another to add to his elite-level tally at Kenilworth on Saturday as the six-year-old scored in the Cape Town Met (Gr 1, 2000m) to provide Justin Snaith and Andrew Fortune with big-race doubles on the card. See It Again beat stablemate Legal Counsel (Legislate) by three-quarters of a length with The Real Prince (Gimmethelight) a further half-length away in third.
