Lot 462: Harry Angel ex Sretan colt

INGLIS

Harry Angel colt sets the standard on a solid day of trade at the Classic sale

By Trevor Marshallsea

New and highly structured entity the Equine Growth Fund (EGF) may have to rethink some plans due to the price involved, but they were delighted to snare the top lot at the Inglis Classic on a robust day of trade on two at Riverside.

Little more than a year old, EGF stretched to $540,000 to buy Lot 462, the brother to triple stakes-winning mare Sretan Angel (Harry Angel) presented by his boutique Hunter Valley breeders Kirks Bridge Farm.

The price represented the best result at Classic since 2024, and spearheaded a day of robust trading, with the clearance rate, average and gross all up on the 2025 edition.

EGF founder and managing director Stefan Pardi fought off fierce competition to secure the colt, consigning Annabel and Rob Archibald to the role of underbidders.

The purchase represented the latest splash by Pardi's group, which involves 15 investors and is now operating within its second fund which, Pardi said, has $25 million to invest.

"This colt is a stallion prospect and this is what Equine Growth Fund is trying to do," Pardi said. "We're trying to buy these horses to make stallions and he was my number one colt, my number one horse out of 800 at this sale."

EGF first emerged as a major player when setting the Inglis Australian Weanling Sale record last year with the $775,000 purchase of a Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) colt and it operates through various investment operations including pinhooking, trading and racing.

While the original intention for Monday's Harry Angel colt may have been trading, as the bidding surged that became less of a profitable option.

"I only had $450,000 on him, but I just didn't want to lose him," Pardi said.

"At $450,000, he was definitely going to be a traded horse, but at the money I paid, I think it's a bit top-heavy to try to trade; it's a bit of a risk."

Pardi explained EGF - which teamed up with the likes of Ciaran Maher and Chris Waller to buy seven yearlings, including two for $525,000, at the Magic Millions Gold Coast last month - operated with well organised strategies, which would help dictate plans for the Harry Angel colt.

"I've got my money in the Equine Growth Fund too ... so I align myself with my investors and have skin in the game," said Pardi, whose group plans to buy 100 racing and breeding propositions this year.

"I've got to make sure I do the right thing by them [investors]. Plus I have a very stringent CIO [chief investment officer] and CEO who really bolt down on what things we buy. We have stringent criteria.

"At this stage I think we'll race him [the Harry Angel colt] under the Equine Growth Fund, and the strategy is to buy 20 or 25 racehorses, and the rest is breeding stock."

said EGF differed from other thoroughbred investment funds.

"This is the first institutional one. The others are handshakes and friends, getting together, putting money together and buying colts and stallions," he said.

"Our one is governed by ASIC [the Australian Securities and Investments Commission]. We have a separate trustee that looks after all the money, so it's institutional grade funding. Cont. on page 5

Continued from page 3 “My CIO and my CEO are ex Macquarie Bank. They’re the ones that run it. I’m just there to buy the horses, nurture them, sell them. That’s my job.”

He added: “We’re hovering at about 58 per cent return in the first fund, so we’re doing pretty well. It’s better than money markets, the way they are at the moment, so we’re shooting the lights out on our returns.”

Kirks Bridge Farm manager Brad McCarthy, who opted to take the Harry’s Angel colt to Classic over Inglis Easter to “stand him out”, was overjoyed with his farm’s highest sale to date.

“He was a quality colt,” McCarthy said. “I’ve always had a massive opinion of him from day one. He was the nicest foal on the farm, [who] grew into the nicest weanling and then grew into the nicest yearling.

“And to come down here and get the support that he got, and all the good judges liked him, fills me with a bit of confidence we’re doing the right thing.

“We want to breed racehorses first and foremost. The colt sums up what we want to breed. Horses with a good education from the start, bred to be racehorses, bred to be tough and sound.

“He’s a great testament to us. He came down here and he’s handled everything to perfection. He was in and out of the box so much, so much going on, so much hustle and bustle, but he didn’t turn a hair. We’re stoked.”

The colt was way ahead of the pack on session two, a day which cheered a “very happy” Inglis bloodstock CEO Sebastian Hutch.

On Monday evening, the clearance rate stood at 84 per cent, up from 77 per cent at the same stage in 2025. The average was marginally up to $97,556, from $97,153 year-on-year, while the median was unchanged at $80,000. The gross was up 8.5 per cent at $39,315,000, albeit with 30 more lots sold (403 to 373).

“To me it felt stronger today,” Hutch said. “There’s always a level of apprehension coming into Monday after Sunday because we get strong attendance on Sunday.

“On Monday, a lot of people go back to work, it’s a quieter day around the complex, but ultimately everybody who was here was here to do business, and a lot of business got done today.

“The clearance through the ring was stronger, the figures for the day comparatively are stronger. The gross for the day was almost the same as the gross for yesterday and we offered 14 fewer horses today.”

desirable by the buying bench, they’re kicking on and making strong money. There’s good competition on them.

“At stages today, it felt like there was an urgency to buy among people that I think can only be heightened tomorrow.”

Warwick Farm trainer Bryce Heys stretched to $390,000 to claim the day’s second-top purchase, a Arrowfield Stud colt by the farm’s resident stallions in Castelveccchio (Dundeel) out of Panzerfaust (Redoute’s Choice), a two-time winner up to 1600 metres.

Second dam Desert Fight (Hussonet) was a dual elite winner and scored at up to 1800 metres in Chile, where she was Champion 2YO Filly in 2005-06, before throwing two Australian Group winners in Kebede (Redoute’s Choice) and her brother Panzer Division.

“He was one that rated very highly. I was on my last legs [in the bidding] but was fortunate enough that we were able to secure him,” Heys said.

“He’s quite an imposing individual. He’s very well balanced and he’s got great length.

“I hope he’s got the capacity to be able to train on as an older horse, and an older staying horse. Not everyone wants that sort of horse, but hopefully he’s that sort of horse, and we’ll give him every opportunity.”

Silverdale Farm’s colt by Zoustar (Northern Meteor) out of Score (Written Tycoon) ranked third, at $375,000. He’ll go west to seek his fortune after being bought by Perth trainer Neville Parnham.

Hutch added: “We ran what appears to be a very effective buyer canvas, and maybe just the market is a fraction more confident than it was 12 months ago.”

While conceding the lower end still represented a buyers’ market, Hutch forecast the likelihood of a still stronger closing session on Tuesday.

“I still think it’s a buyers’ market at under $100,000,” he said. “But the horses who are perceived to be more

“That’s a great result,” said Silverdale stud manager Rob Petith. “He was a beautiful colt. We brought him here to the Inglis Classic sale so he would stand out, and stand out he did.”

“We thought he was going to sell well but this is particularly good.”

“He was a taller sort of horse, plenty of scope to him, a beautiful deep girth, and a lovely head on him and a tremendous athletic action. He glided across the ground and certainly caught the eye of a lot of people.”

Darby Racing, along with their main trainer Bjorn Baker and Jim Clarke Bloodstock, paid $350,000 for a colt by Justify (Scat Daddy) offered by Lime Country Thoroughbreds on behalf of renowned breeder Catherine Remond.

The strapping colt is the fourth foal of Phylcia (Pierro), a half-sister to dual elite winner Cosmic Endeavour (Northern Meteor). Both are out of triple stakes winner Crevette (Danehill), a daughter of Remond’s famed broodmare Twiglet (Twig Moss), the dam of two Group 1 winners in Fairy King Prawn (Danehill) and Easy Rocking (Barathea).

“He’s been slammed. He’s had over 20 x-rays and a phenomenal amount of parades, so I think he got what he deserved,” said Lime Country’s Jo Griffin.

Also fetching $350,000 was a son of Too Darn Hot from HP Thoroughbreds bought by Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott, Kestrel Thoroughbreds, First Light Racing and Matt Houldsworth.

At the close of trade on Monday, the leading sire by average with three or more lots sold was Too Darn Hot, having had seven lots sell for $190,000, ahead of The Autumn Sun (Redoute’s Choice) who had eight lots sell at an average of $185,000.

Top sire by aggregate, with three or more lots sold, was Hellbent (I Am Invincible), who sold 15 yearlings for total receipts of $1.84 million, ahead of The Autumn Sun, whose eight yearlings to change hands generated $1.48 million.

HE WAS A BEAUTIFUL COLT. WE BROUGHT HIM HERE TO THE INGLIS CLASSIC SALE SO HE WOULD STAND OUT, AND STAND OUT HE DID

ROB PETITH

Leading vendor by aggregate was Arrowfield Stud, with 26 lots grossing $3.17 million, ahead of Sledmere Stud, whose 19 sold yearlings yielded $2.34 million. Kirks Bridge Farm’s windfall with EGF’s Harry Angel colt made it the leading vendor by averages (three or more lots sold), with three sales averaging $220,000, ahead of Cannon Hayes Stud, with three at $162,000.

Top buyer was Perth’s Vahala Racing/SM & KB Bloodstock, with five yearlings bought for $700,000, ahead of Kris Lees and Justin Bahen Bloodstock, with three purchased for $605,000.

Dalziel goes back to The Autumn Sun well at Classic

Lot 283: The Autumn Sun ex Pandemonium filly

Inglis

By Trevor Marshallsea

Former chef turned syndicator Wylie Dalziel was back at the scene of one of his greatest coups on Monday, cooking up a plan for a second helping of success with The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice).

Dalziel was something of a pioneer for the young Arrowfield stallion at Inglis Easter in 2022, teaming with his main trainer Peter Moody to buy a filly from his first crop, for $230,000.

She became Autumn Angel and not only a poster girl for her sire but for the concept that quality can be bought at Easter south of common ideas of "Easter prices".

After a slightly nervous wait at Arrowfield, she broke through to become The Autumn Sun's first elite winner in the ATC Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) of 2024, and it was the trickle that presaged a flood, with Vibrant Sun and Coco Sun giving him two more within a month.

Autumn Angel won almost $1.2m and was sold as a broodmare for a touch more.

The Autumn Sun now has ten stakes winners at 4.76 per cent of runners. But the stat assumes a different lustre considering a stunning 50 per cent of them have been Group 1 winners, the other two being rather special in Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) hero Autumn Boy, and the potentially phenomenal Autumn Glow.

With so much water under the bridge - and the prospect of The Autumn Sun's stock becoming rarer for a while after his year off from breeding due to injury in 2024 - Dalziel is not banking on being able to secure one of his fillies this Easter for an Autumn Angel price.

So, operating within a budget, he was at the more economical Inglis Classic on Monday to buy one instead, albeit still not for $230,000 but $290,000.

Offered by co-breeders Arrowfield, Lot 283 also hints at staying potential, being the fifth foal of Pandemonium (Sebring), a four-time winner to 1600 metres who was Listed placed in Adelaide over that trip.

She'll add to the handful of progeny of The Autumn Sun in the Dalziel-Moody axis, which also includes Vivid Sun, a three-year-old winner of two from four Dalziel has tipped for stakes success, and Autumn Lover, a two-year-old filly set to debut in Saturday's Talindert Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Flemington.

"We love the filly," Dalziel told ANZ News of Monday's acquisition. "Peter came up last week and had a look, and we felt that out of The Autumn Suns, she was the one we really wanted.

"We've obviously had really good luck with the progeny, having had Autumn Angel. We've now got five or six The Autumn Suns and we really like them, and we're doing well with them.

"He's a fantastic stallion. I thought he would be a decent bet from the get go, being such a great racehorse and considering the way Arrowfield really supports their stallions, and it's panning out that way. His stats are amazing."

Dalziel also noted his new filly was bred on the same The Autumn Sun - Sebring cross as Autumn Mystery, Rory Hunter's three-year-old gelding who won last spring's Norman Robinson Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m).

The Ballarat-based syndicator and Moody have also enjoyed success with Sebring's progeny in Group 2 winners Bring Me The Maid and Catch A Fire, the latter of whom Moody raced as an owner during his late 2010s break from training, while she was prepared by David Hayes and Tom Dabernig.

"So everything added up with this filly," Dalziel said. "She's a very good size, correct, with a great action, and she was very sensible out the back when I watched her before she went through the ring."

Dalziel, 51, has taken a path less travelled into becoming a highly successful syndicator, especially in tandem with Moody but also with a few other trainers.

Most notably they include Phillip Stokes, who prepared Dalziel's first elite winner - again with Moody as an owner - when Mr Quickie (Shamus Award) took the 2019 Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m), before adding the Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m).

Dalziel first became a chef by trade, and was able to fuse his two great loves - food and sport - when that took him into the catering sphere.

"The people I was with got the contract at Royal Melbourne for the first edition of the President's Cup in 1998, so I was there preparing food for Tiger Woods, Phil Mickelson, and others," said Dalziel, who prepared the players' breakfast and lunch buffets, also fed another all-time great in the US team's non-playing captain Jack Nicklaus, and revelled in the chance to play on Royal Melbourne once the competition was over.

"The players were good and pretty polite. The caddies were probably the most demanding ones. They all thought they were pretty special but they were just carrying the bags, to me.

"I got some photos of myself with Tiger Woods, but they were on a digital camera, and then I actually lost all the photos, which was a shame."

Dalziel spent ten years in the food industry, the latter years of which led to an operation called Chefs On The Run, supplying cooks at short notice into various places. Some were racecourses, and this fomented a keenness to become involved in that industry.

It led to a competition - The Punting Chef - in which Dalziel, at the track in full chef's outfit, would present a betting bank of $200 to a radio caller who correctly answered a question.

Then came nascent dabbles in syndication - starting with a leased horse trained by Robbie Griffiths - but his more frequent trips to the track also led to him meeting Roy Higgins. That sparked a friendship, and later a syndication business - once a persistent Dalziel had won over a reluctant Higgins, embittered by an earlier such venture which turned sour.

"I learned how to look at horses with Roy, and then later with Peter Moody," said Dalziel, who became close to the retired riding great, who died in 2014.

"We were called Roy Higgins - Wylie Dalziel Racing. When he was in hospital just before he died, I told him I'd never forget him and never drop his name. I had the family's blessing. His daughters Martina and Nicole said 'Dad loved you as a son and he'd be proud of you, so keep it all going'.

"I just reversed the names, so now it's Wylie Dalziel - Roy Higgins Racing," he said. "There's still a lot of owners with us from Roy's days, so that's nice."

Dalziel will be hoping his latest offspring of The Autumn Sun can do the Higgins name proud.

Marhoona set for Lightning Stakes task

Marhoona (white cap)

SPORTPIX

The Michael Freedman-trained Marhoona (Snitzel) will bid to land a second Group 1 when she tackles Saturday's Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Flemington. The three-year-old filly scored her first in last year's Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) and, unlike many to have taken out that juvenile feature since 2012, has since won another stakes race, namely the Heritage Stakes (Listed, 1000m) on her first start as a three-year-old back in September. A third placing in the Roman Consul Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) followed on October 11 and Marhoona has yet to hit the track since, with two barrier trials at Randwick for a win and a fourth placing ticking the filly over heading into this weekend's contest. "She's been very lightly-raced and well looked after and so she certainly hasn't been over-taxed and I think she's come back in really good order this time around," Freedman told Racing.com. "She's been down there since late last week. Obviously, she hasn't been up the straight before but I've been really happy with how she's been going so we figured it was worth giving her a crack. We were battling a little with a foot last spring. She won first-up and then was a little off her game second-up so we decided to pull the pin and give her the time to let the foot grow out properly and then give her a nice steady build-up to the autumn. With these fillies, there are not easy to place. She's already a Group 1 winner so she's liable for penalties in most of the races so three-year-olds have a reasonable record in the Lightning and if she runs well, she might stay down for the Newmarket under handicap conditions."

Waller nominates heavyweights for Expressway clash

Chris Waller could have three of his biggest stable stars line up in Saturday's Expressway Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick. Joliestar (Zoustar), Angel Capital (Harry Angel) and Lady Shenandoah (Snitzel) were among ten entries for the Group 2, but Waller is still weighing up which of the trio will take their place. "We have got three ace cards for the Expressway, including Angel Capital and Joliestar, so I don't want to run all three," Waller said. "I want to try to hold one back. I don't know which one, possibly Lady Shenandoah. She could run in the mares' race, the Triscay [Stakes], or run the following week in the Millie Fox." Lady Shenandoah could run in the Triscay Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) alongside Lazzura (Snitzel), and the pair took part in exhibition gallops at Randwick last Saturday with stablemates Autumn Glow (The Autumn Sun), Aeliana (Castelvecchio), Lindermann (Lonhro) and Trinity College (Dubawi). "The day out, the hot weather, the trip home, they've been away from the freed bin for six hours. It's all part of tightening them up," Waller said. "It just saves the hard workouts and it saves getting behind. It's easier to be well ahead. You just can't play catch up with horses, so being well prepared and exhibition gallops show everything has gone to plan and there have been no setbacks. If I don't give them an exhibition gallop, it's either a rushed prep or I just didn't have time to do it how I wanted to do it. It gives them a chance to have a bit of a sweat, break the skin. Then next week they'll come back and they'll be picture perfect."

McDonald still dreaming big with Rosberg

Clinton McDonald is still of the belief that Rosberg (Deep Field) can make his mark at the highest level, and is eyeing up a return with the colt. The son of Deep Field (Northern Meteor) created a huge impression on debut in September when taking out The Valley's McKenzie Stakes (Listed, 1200m) by a half-length, but then disappointed when a tailed off last of nine in the Danehill Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) on his only start since. McDonald is eyeing up a return in either the Zeditave Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) against his own age group, or stepping up to the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m). "He runs on the 21st [of February] here at Caulfield, there's either the Zeditave or the Oakleigh Plate," McDonald said. "It's probably most likely we can't get into the Oakleigh Plate, so it'll be the Zeditave." Rosberg finished third in a Cranbourne jumpout on Monday, and McDonald feels he has returned a more mature horse this preparation. "He's not such a kid, he's a bit more mature now in the way that he behaves," McDonald said. "We can't fault him and he's done everything right. He's an impressive colt to look at, he's got a big motor and we know what's there, it's just a matter of getting him 100 per cent on raceday."

The Richard Laming-trained Xtra Rush (Xtravagant) extended his unbeaten record to four on Monday when taking out a Benchmark 66 (1800m) at Caulfield Heath. The lightly-raced five-year-old gelding had landed three on the bounce in his first preparation and made a winning return here with a narrow 0.1 lengths success over Single Choice (Anders) with a further 2.2 lengths back to So Suave (Zed) in third. "A lot of his wins have been pretty gutsy, he's just got a real will to win, and he showed that again today," Laming told Racing.com. "He's going to get further as well, he's already won over 2000 metres. We'll just go through his grades, get him out to 2400 metres, and see what we get." Having been a five-year-old before making his debut, Laming admitted Xtra Rush had problems early but that patience was now rewarding his owners. "He was very small, we just had to wait for him to grow, and every time I put pressure on him, he went to water," Laming said. "We just had to wait, and luckily the owners were patient enough to put up with my patience, and now he's rewarding them."

Caulfield Heath double for Brown

Hong Kong-bound jockey Ethan Brown continued his good run of form with a second Caulfield double inside three days, riding Yes Yoshi (Yes Yes Yes) to a dominant win in the third race of the day before a last-stride success aboard She's An Artist (Trapeze Artist) two races later. Yes Yoshi was sent off the $1.65 favourite in the Stow Storage Solutions Handicap (1200m) and proved 1.3 lengths too strong for Savitri (So You Think). The Charlotte Littlefield-trained three-year-old was making it two wins from as many starts after a debut win at Sale in track record time for the 1100 metres. "He's a big baby at the minute, but for him to win like that and show that sort of ability as immature as he is is quite exciting going forward," Brown said. Meanwhile, She's A Hustler was also sent off an odds-on favourite at $1.50 for the Benchmark 78 (1100m) but was made to work hard to beat Excess (Snitzel) by 0.1 lengths after having been hampered at the start. "It's hard being back and wide around this track and I know she's only won by the barest or margins, but there was a lot more merit [to the win] than it looked," he said. "She's on the way up. She's a very nice horse going forward and [there's] no better way to kick off your prep."

New Zealand

Oaks plan for Autumn Glory

Autumn Glory

RACE IMAGES

Late bloomer Autumn Glory (Ocean Park) has shown the benefit of careful handling with her emergence as a serious Classic contender. Bred and raced by the Smithies family under their Monovale Holdings banner, the Roger James and Robert Wellwood-trained daughter of Ocean Park (Thorn Park) rounded off powerfully at Te Rapa on Saturday to claim the Waikato Guineas (Gr 2, 2000m). Autumn Glory started at $51 and her upset victory has resulted in her being promoted to a $4 second favourite for the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m). The filly has now won two of her three starts following a debut success at Ruakaka a month ago, and in between times was unplaced on a heavy track in the Oaks Prelude (Listed, 1800m) at New Plymouth. "We were very, very patient with her and sometimes you can get a bit stressed when you see all the spring three-year-olds coming out and performing, but if you give every horse the time needed, they can certainly do the job," Max Smithies said. Autumn Glory is the last foal of Venus's Dream (Viscount), who was purchased by Monovale out of Sledmere Stud's draft for $15,000 at the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale. The late Viscount (Quest For Fame) mare was a half-sister to the two-time Group 3 winner and dual

Telegraph (Gr 1, 1200m) placegetter Spring Heat (More Than Ready). "She was an older girl and is unfortunately no longer with us, but she did a great job," Smithies said. "Chris Waller bought a couple of her Ocean Parks and Loveplanet [three wins] was quite a handy horse in Sydney."

Doctor Askar on the road to recovery

Doctor Askar (Derryn) is having a few days of rest in the paddock following a float incident on Saturday that resulted in his late scratching from the Herbie Dyke Stakes at Te Rapa. The gelding looked a strong contender in the $700,000 feature following his last start heroics in the Thorndon Mile (Gr 2, 1600m), and trainer Joanne Moss was excited to head north to give her charge his first tilt at elite-level. However, it wasn't to be, with Doctor Askar becoming fractious in the float enroute to Hamilton and following a veterinary inspection on course he was withdrawn from the contest. "There were all those road works and we came around a corner, and he has scrambled. When he got off [the float] he was sore and that is why I got him vetted," Moss said. "We got him home and I will give him a couple of days and see how it all goes. I will let him chill out because he has had ten hours on the truck. At the moment he is wandering around the paddock, is eating and he is happy as. He is just a little bit stiff and a little bit sore." Moss felt it was the opportune time to step Doctor Askar up over ground and in Group 1 company, and while disappointed to be denied that chance over the weekend, she is choosing to take a positive outlook, believing there are plenty of opportunities ahead for the five-year-old. "It was just the right time to do it but never mind, you have just got to take the good with the bad," she said. "You have got to look on the bright side, we have still got a horse. He is still learning, I don't think he still really knows what he is doing. He just gives me that impression, he is still playing around a bit too much."

Legarto set for swansong before Magic Millions sale

After returning to her best form with a fourth Group 1 win in Saturday's Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Te Rapa, Legarto (Proisir) is likely to have just one more start before she comes in the hammer at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale later this year.

The six-year-old daughter of Proisir (Choisir) had gone winless for almost a year when she repeated her 2024 Herbie Dyke Stakes win with a dogged victory over Victorian raider Kingswood (Roaring Lion), handing her jockey Opie Bosson with his 100th elite win and trainers Ken and Bev Kelso with their 15th.

That took her record from 23 starts to 11 wins and stakes of almost $2.6 million, with earlier highlights being the New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) as a three-year-old. She was also placed second, third or fourth in another six Group 1 races, three of those in races immediately leading up to Saturday's win.

Ken Kelso reported that Legarto came through her weekend exertions in excellent order, setting her up for the Bonecrusher New Zealand Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Ellerslie on Champions Day.

"We put her out in the paddock after getting home from the races, but it took a while to catch her when I went out to put her cover on later on," Kelso said.

"That tells me she's taken no harm from the race, so the Bonecrusher is the obvious next target for her.

"Beyond that we'll have to talk things through. She's rising seven and we've already decided this is her final preparation, but if she was to go well at Ellerslie we could perhaps look at a race like the Australian Cup."

Philip Brown, speaking on behalf of the 12-strong ownership group that includes the Kelsos, confirmed that Legarto will go to auction at the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale on the Gold Coast in May.

"We've already arranged for her to go to Brian Nutt at Attunga Stud to be prepared for the sale," Brown said.

"Being a partnership, public auction is the proper way to realise her true worth. As a multiple Group 1 winner including one in Australia, she's obviously a valuable mare, so it's going to be an interesting exercise.

"That was probably the most emotional win of all on Saturday – to see her bounce back after some had begun to doubt her, Opie getting his 100 and another big win for Ken and Bev – it was special."

UK: Too Darn Hot offerings headline Tattersalls' southern hemisphere session

Tattersalls Online has announced a dedicated southern hemisphere session within its Online February Sale, which will be held on February 17 and 18 in collaboration with Inglis Digital.

The session, which is now available to view on the Tattersalls Online website, marks the third collaboration between Tattersalls Online and Inglis Digital and aims to continue to strengthen the connection between the northern and southern hemisphere markets.

The upcoming southern hemisphere session will feature a select draft from The Castlebridge Consignment, headlined by a rare opportunity to acquire southern hemisphere-bred progeny by Darley shuttler Too Darn Hot (Dubawi).

The sire of four individual Group 1 winners, including champion two-year-old and multiple Group 1 winner Broadsiding, the success of Too Darn Hot's progeny has been particularly pronounced in the southern hemisphere, where his first crop, now four-year-olds, included ten individual stakes winners at a clip of 13 per cent stakes winners to runners. His current two-year-old crop in the southern hemisphere has produced two stakes winning juveniles from just seven runners to date.

Among the highlights of the session is a three-in-one package featuring the young mare Moraless (Churchill), offered together with her southern hemisphere-bred weanling colt by Too Darn Hot and in foal on a southern hemisphere cover to last season's champion first-season sire, Starman (Dutch Art). Moraless is a half-sister to Moonee Valley Gold Cup (Gr 2, 2500m) winner Hunting Horn (Camelot) and Group 2 winner and Group 1-placed juvenile David Livingston (Galileo). She is out of Mora Bai (Indian Ridge), a half-sister to champion sire High Chaparral (Sadler's Wells).

Also to be offered in the session is a September-born weanling filly by Too Darn Hot out of the proven black type-producing mare Belle Isle (Pastoral Pursuits), dam of Group 3-winning two-year-old Abel Handy (Arcano).

Having stood the 2024 southern hemisphere season at Darley's Dalham Hall Stud in Newmarket, only 32 foals by Too Darn Hot are currently recorded on the Australian Stud Book from the 2025 foaling season.

"This southern hemisphere session offers a genuinely unique opportunity," Tattersalls Online sales manager Katherine Sheridan said. "Too Darn Hot's 2024 southern hemisphere foals are exceptionally limited in number and when combined with pedigrees of this quality, the appeal is clear. We are delighted to once again collaborate with Inglis Digital and to present a session that we expect will attract strong international interest."

added: "The collaborations with Tattersalls Online are a product of conversations that we have been having with the team at Tattersalls for a number of years and in the instances that we have executed them, they have generated good engagement and a number of excellent results.

"Katherine raised the possibility of this opportunity last month and we were very keen for Inglis Digital to be involved as we feel we can add significant value to the process. Access to Too Darn Hot was particularly limited in his fifth season because he was domiciled in England, and as such, there is a real scarcity value to these foals, particularly when analysis of who holds the balance of the crop shows that it is very unlikely that many of his offspring will be available at public auction in Australia either as weanlings in 2026 or as yearlings in 2027."

The draft will be available for inspection prior to the sale and appointments can be made by contacting Bill Dwan or Paddy Diamond of The Castlebridge Consignment, whose details are available on the Tattersalls Online website. Full catalogue details can be viewed online at www.tattersallsonline.com.

Kiwi Chronicles

Following up

By Lloyd Jackson

While the Almanzor (Wootton Bassett) story continues to grow, courtesy of First Five's stunning BCD Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m) win, Te Papa's "Legends Day" belonged to Waikato Stud's Ocean Park (Thorn Park). Two of his daughters, Ohope Wins and Autumn Glory, not only nabbed the two 3YO features, they also became the top two favourites for the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m), set for February 21. Ohope Wins heads the market for the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m).

Meanwhile, down at Wingatui, Waikato Stud's Savabeel (Zabeel) inched closer to his sire's record of 166 individual stakes winners when Witz End notched stakes winner 157 when taking out the Hazlett Stakes (Listed, 1400m).

The recent Karaka Yearling Sale was comparatively quiet for Waikato Stud. We are used to their high-flyers peppering the sale and also used to seeing their name at the head of the aggregate, which they have achieved on ten occasions since 2014. A highlight was their Super Seth (Dundeel) siring the sixth highest-priced lot. Saturday might be seen as some sort of consolation? Or perhaps affirmation. They won't remain quiet for long.

Kiwi Chronicles' July 15, 2025 issue included a reference to Ocean Park in that, despite mixed results, his days were "far from finished". The stud agreed and published the piece on their website. Now is as good a time as any to follow up on that observation.

Last November, at Riccarton's New Zealand Guineas meeting Ocean Park's Mystic Park took out the rich TAB Mile (Gr 3, 1600m). Ellerslie's two day Boxing Day-New Year's Day meeting saw two new stakes winners when Tellum landed the Eight Carat Classic (Gr 2, 1600m) and Ohope Wins won big in the Sir Patrick Hogan Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m).

The latter, in conjunction with Autumn Glory, made it a same-day double last Saturday with wins in the David & Karyn Ellis Fillies Classic (Gr 2, 2100m) and the Waikato Guineas (Gr 2, 2000m).

Notably, Autumn Glory was one of only two fillies up against the boys.

In a patient Vinnie Colgan ride, Autumn Glory was in the back half of the field until the 600m but she had not covered any extra ground to that point. Into the straight Colgan found a lane four out then went wider still soon after. Her challenge took place at the 200m and her momentum put her almost level at the 100m then led with 50m to run to hold out all other challengers by a long neck.

The filly was making just her third start. On debut, in early January, she was successful over 1400 metres at Ruakaka. Taking on stakes class at start two she was confronted with a heavy track in the Oaks Prelude (Listed, 1800m) at New Plymouth. Saturday she proved that she is well above average.

Autumn Glory, withdrawn from Book 2 of NZB's 2024 Karaka Yearling Sale, brings up individual stakes winner 26 for Ocean Park. She is one of five winners from Venus's Dream, a winning Viscount (Quest For Fame) half-sister to the class sprinter Spring Heat (More Than Ready). Spring Heat won six times including two Group 3s at Ellerslie. Among her placings were a second and a third in the Telegraph Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m).

First Five

RACE IMAGES

Spring Heat and Venus's Dream are two of eight winners from the unraced Redoute's Choice (Danehill) mare Emaurismo, herself a daughter of Katima (Zeditave) whose four wins were all at stakes level including the Silver Shadow Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick.

More than hope

We witnessed Ohope Wins' grand entrance to the big stage on New Year's Day at Ellerslie. The Sir Patrick Hogan Stakes was her fourth start in which she started as a maiden with two fifths and a second to her name. Third last at the 600m, she was most impressive with her strong straight run out wide to score easily.

Sporting new Yulong Stud silks, her performance at Te Rapa was as good if not better as she was last with a lap to run, last down the back and last at the 600m, although the field had compacted at that stage.

Joe Doyle must have known what a motor he had under him and pulled the filly widest into the straight. Building her challenge, she was at least four lengths adrift at the 200m but had only three to beat. Similar to her Ellerslie win, she found another gear from the 100m to completely overwhelm her opponents. This was an Oaks trial like no other. What beats her will win in two weeks' time.

Ohope Wins is the sole winner from her dam Choux Mania (Redoute's Choice) but her breeders have been single-minded in their breeding endeavours. Choux Mania's half-brother is the outstanding Jimmy Choux (Thorn Park), a champion 3YO and New Zealand Horse of the Year. His 12 wins included the New Zealand Derby as well as the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) and the New Zealand 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m).

Jimmy Choux is by Thorn Park (Spinning World) and, on reflection, it is easy to understand why the mare visited Thorn Park's equal-best son, Ocean Park, so often. Equal-best because Veyron, Jimmy Choux and Ocean Park each scored five Group 1 victories but only one, Ocean Park, included the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) among his five.

Further back in Ohope Wins' family is the class imported sprinter Sharivari (What's Ahead), who dominated New Zealand sprints carrying big weights before he was retired to stud in 1971. Remarkably, he won the Railway Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) on January 1, 1971 then the very next day landed the George Adams Handicap (Gr 2, 1600m). Carrying 9st 8lbs (61kgs) he also landed Trentham's feature sprint, the Telegraph Handicap (Gr 2, 1200m) followed by a gallant third under 9st 12lbs (62.5kgs) in the Group George Adams Handicap (1600m). Ohope Wins' fifth dam is a half-sister to Sharivari.

Along with 26 individual stakes winners (14 fillies and 12 colts), Ocean Park also has a further 26 stakes placed performers. His winners/runners ratio stands at 60.8 per cent. His stud career is one of ups and downs having been well supported early with interest dropping away by year six when he was represented by just 43 foals. First class results turned that around and year eight saw 123 foals on the ground.

Rising 18, this season's super results may not be sufficient to completely resurrect his career but a stud looking to upgrade its broodmare stock could do themselves a favour by sourcing one or two his fillies or mares. They are sure to be from good families.

Inching closer

The lead is now single digits between Zabeel (Sir Tristram) and his son Savabeel. At 166, Zabeel holds the New Zealand record for individual stakes winners but Savabeel keeps chipping away.

During the 2023 NZB Karaka Yearling Sale, Savabeel celebrated his 130th and just three years on, that number has grown to 157, or an average of nine new stakes winners per year. Most studs would dream of such results.

Witz End

Witz End has threatened stakes winner status on several occasions throughout his career. He won his first two starts and was a solid second to Grail Seeker (Ifraaj) at start four, in the Wellington Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m).

As a 4YO he scored an open handicap at Ellerslie and a Group 3 placing at Te Rapa after which his form fell away. This season, connections thought a change of environment might work and the gelding's last four starts have been from Terri Rae's stable resulting in a win on the synthetic at Riccarton and finally a long overdue return to winning form.

Third into the straight, Leah Hemi gave him a shake from the 200m and they had the lead at the 100m. To the line they were in no danger and Witz End's sixth win in 21 starts for earnings of $285,000, more than recouping the $200,000 outlaid at the 2022 NZB Ready To Run Sale. Earlier that year, breeders Trelawney Stud passed the then colt in at $250,000.

He is one of two winners from the Bernardini (A.P. Indy) mare Gallwitz, herself a half-sister to three stakes winners including the dual hemisphere stakes winner Retrieve (Rahy). One of the better 3YOs in Australia in 2010-2011, Retrieve recorded placings in the Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m), the Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) and the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m).

Te Rapa Group 1s

Waikato Stud's great day did not overshadow the two featured races on the card, namely the Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) and the BCD Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m).

Ohope Wins

RACE IMAGES

It is probably fair to say that the 2026 version of Herbie Dyke was not of the standard of previous years. Consequently, the class runner was the winner Legarto (Proisir) who was no stranger to the race having landed the 2024 running.

As usual, Legarto settled back and had one behind her at the 800m. Opie Bosson got busy from the 600m and they began the run home widest, in fourth. Near the 200m she was almost level but inside the 100m she was carted wider when Kingswood (Roaring Lion) drifted outwards. Fortunately they never made contact and Legarto thrust her head in front in the last few strides to land win number 11 from 23 starts for earnings in excess of $2.5 million. The win also brought up Opie Bosson's 100th Group 1 winner.

Now a 6YO, who knows what Legarto could have achieved without various career issues which saw her having to take one spell of 11 months and two of more than six months. Saturday's Herbie Dyke was her fourth Group 1, her most prestigious being the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). She is going to make a highly desirable broodmare at the Magic Millions Broodmare Sale in May. Sadly, the chances of her spending her retirement in New Zealand look bleak.

The season's find amongst the sprinting ranks is undoubtedly First Five (Almanzor), who backed up a terrific Telegraph Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) with an even better performance in the BCD Sprint.

It is often said that the sustained speed required to win the Telegraph makes it more like a 1400-metre race and so it proved on Saturday. Interestingly, and pointed out by trainer David Greene, the Telegraph is the only 1200-metre victory for First Five. Prior to the BCD Sprint First Five had five wins at 1400 metres including a Group 3 at Te Rapa in December.

From third, several lengths back of the first two entering the home straight, First Five ranged alongside easily at the 200m and was simply too strong over the final 100m, running the 1400 metres in a slick 1:21.21. His eighth win takes his career earnings to $810,635.

Next up is likely the Otaki Maori WFA Classic (Gr 1, 1600m), set for February 21 at Ellerslie. He has won at the distance and has scored three wins right handed so Ellerslie should not present any issues. Beyond that, connections must surely consider a crack at an Australian Group 1, if not this season, certainly next season.
