Ghaiyyath colt fetches $625,000 as Inglis Classic ends on a high

By Trevor Marshallsea

Tony and Calvin McEvoy lodged a ringing vote of confidence in Ghaiyyath (Dubawi) as the Darley shuttler took another great leap in his burgeoning career by emerging with the auction topper as the third most successful Inglis Classic Yearling Sale in history wrapped on Tuesday.

Team McEvoy paired with regular partner Damon Gabbedy's Belmont Bloodstock to pay $625,000 for the imposing colt, offered as Lot 668 by New Zealand's Wentwood Grange stud, making him Classic's highest-priced lot since 2022 and its equal third-highest this decade.

The well-related bay is the fifth foal out of Berg En Dal (Dehere), a two-time winning half-sister to Leigh Valley (Bianconi), a New Zealand Group 3 victor but best known as the dam of Valley Girl (Mastercraftsman), who won Te Rapā's Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) in 2016 before running second in Rosehill's Vinery Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) the following month. Continued on page 2

Continued from page 1 Team McEvoy's purchase highlighted an auction which showed increases in all metrics on its 2025 edition, with Inglis Bloodstock CEO Sebastian Hutch describing Inglis's first sale of the season as "very pleasing".

Ghaiyyath has become a hot sire, bursting to prominence last spring in Melbourne with his first four stakes winners in the space of a few weeks. Capped by the VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) triumph of Ciaran Maher and Godolphin's Observer, the quartet gave the four-time Group 1-winning stallion an 11.11 per cent stakes winners to runners ratio in Australia from just 36 starters. He also faces the near certainty of a return to Australia this spring after a year off the shuttle, and with a huge fee rise from his 2024 mark of $27,500.

Tuesday's colt also obliterated the Ghaiyyath's previous top Australasian sale, the Curraghmore filly who sold for NZ$375,000 to China Horse Club at Karaka last month.

And, still riding the wave from their Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) success with Half Yours (St Jean), the father and son McEvoy's are confident their first foray into Ghaiyyath's stock will stand a strong chance of continuing their stable's success overall, and its strong record at Classic in particular. The stable's recent graduates from the sale have included Group 1 winners Veight (Grunt) and Coco Sun (The Autumn Sun).

"We love the stallion. He's doing very good things, isn't he? He's got everyone very excited," said Calvin McEvoy, moments after winning a tense bidding duel with bloodstock agent Dean Hawthorne.

"We tried to buy a few in New Zealand, but unfortunately we weren't strong enough. But this is a colt that we've been really trying to piece together since I saw him on Tuesday last week.

"He's just a beautiful walker, a good, strong colt off a great farm, a farm with very good stats. So I knew we'd have to be strong. I didn't know I'd have to be that strong, but we're pleased to have him.

"He's not fully subscribed yet so there's certainly positions in him."

McEvoy hopes the colt might be the first of a few Ghaiyyaths to enter their stable "with a bit of luck in the next few months", and will develop into a Classics type.

"He'll be at his best at three and four, but he's so well put together - he was a strong colt with a lot of substance - it wouldn't surprise me if he gets there towards the end of his two-year-old days," he said.

"He's going to be a lovely three-year-old, no doubt about that, but he just had the best attitude. I've been watching them, and they seem to have great temperaments.

"He's so well bred, the stallion, and it's nice to have one by him."

Wentwood Grange's Dean Hawkins was almost lost for words with the sale. Only two weeks after the stud set a personal best with an Anamoe (Street Boss) colt sold to Bjorn Baker at Karaka for NZ$600,000, they've found a new high water mark.

It also put a welcome end to a tough sale for the farm, who saw two of their four lots passed in and an Anamoe colt fetch $200,000, sold to Liam Howley.

"That was unbelievable," Hawkins said. "He has been a great mover the whole week, and the staff have done a terrific job.

"He was on the market at $150,000, he was here to not go home. But he walked so well here. I'm stoked."

The sale's Tuesday night aggregate of $57.57 million ranks behind only Classic's booming 2022 edition, which grossed $67.23 million, and eclipsed 2023's $57.48 million. The gross was, up 6.4 per cent than at the same stage of the 2025 sale, with 18 more lots sold (592 to 574).

Year-on-year, the clearance rate of 84 per cent outshone the 80 per cent of 2025, the average increased 3.1 per cent at $97,253, while the median was up 7.1 per cent to $75,000.

All of which delighted Hutch, who said while difficulties existed at the lower end, the thirst for higher priced horses at the sale - and by implication among owners looking to buy shares in them - was "very pleasing".

"We wanted the sale to be up. We felt like we were in a position to have a better sale than 12 months ago, so it is satisfying to sit here and have the gross be up, the clearance be up, the average be up, the median be up - everything's up. So that's pleasing," Hutch said.

"I don't think there's any disguising the fact there are challenges in the market, particularly in the value range of zero to $100,000 or zero to $80,000; it's tricky there.

"But the appetite for what are perceived to be the really desirable horses seemed to be pretty ferocious right through the sale.

"We're going to clear 84 or 83 per cent and that's before we get stuck into passed in lots. I know clearance has been a concern for people through the prelude to the sale season, particularly in the part of the market this sale predominantly occupies, and so to be clearing 84 per cent with the prospect of that being higher is pleasing."

Hutch said the sale's results boded "really well" for Inglis's Premier and Easter sales.

Continued from page 2 “The fact we ran good sales in 2025 gave us good momentum into the spring. So when we were on farms talking about the Inglis sales series of 2026, there was very positive sentiment towards the sale series as a whole,” he said.

“That was borne out to some extent by the results here, but if my expectations are right it will be borne out more so at Premier, where it just feels like we have an improved catalogue, certainly in terms of quality, and we have a very good catalogue for Easter.”

Sons of Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) were all the rage in the last session at Classic. Hong Kong-based trainer Casper Fownes nabbed a colt by Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) for $375,000, almost the second-top lot of the day.

Offered by Lime Country Thoroughbreds, the handsome bay is the ninth foal out of Courtyard Circle (Anabaa), who is a three-quarter sister to the stakes winning Key Bar Nights (Anabaa) and half-sister to another Queensland stakes winner in Princess Margaret (Spectrum).

“I love him,” Fownes said of Too Darn Hot. “What’s not to like about him? He’s a proven stallion and I love Dubawi as one of the best sires of all time.

“He looked a lovely athletic type,” Fownes said of the colt, “a great walker, a little bit on the smaller side but we’re looking for what he’s going to look like in another year’s time, and hopefully he’ll fill that frame out and get to where we want him to be.”

Between the Ghaiyyath and the Too Darn Hot as the day’s second ranking yearling was Lot was ecstatic, having purchased You Rang carrying the filly from Coolmore for $160,000 at the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale.

“I’m delighted and relieved. She’s been a very popular filly all week,” he said. “We were hoping she’d hit the $250,000 mark, so to exceed that by so much, we’re really happy. It’s up there with some of our bigger sales.

“She’s been an easy horse, foaled on the farm, straightforward and hasn’t put a foot wrong.”

Fourth-top yearling was Lot 621, Newgate Farm’s colt by Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) out of Altair’s Glow (Encosta De Lago), bought by the stallion’s former trainer Mick Price for $360,000.

Newgate Farm’s sub-fertile flagbearer Extreme Choice was the sale’s leading sire by average (for three or more lots sold), with his trio going for a mean of $295,000, while Coolmore’s Home Affairs topped the aggregates, with 18 lots fetching $3.15 million at an average of $175,000.

Anamoe was comfortably the leading first season sire, with five lots grossing $785,000 at $157,000.

At the close of business on Tuesday, Arrowfield Stud ended as leading vendor with 32 yearlings sold for $3.72 million, ahead of Sledmere Stud with 27 moved for $3.14 million. Kirks Bridge Farm led by averages, at three or more lots sold, with four lots at a mean of $180,000.

Price led the buyers with eight lots for $1.3 million, ahead of the McEvoy’s with five for $1.15 million.

592, a Mullaglass Stud filly by Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) out of You Rang (Sebring) sold by Mullaglass Stud to Bryce Heys for $380,000.

The dam is a two-time scoring half-sister to Group 3-winning gelding Rise Of The Masses (Russian Revolution), out of New Zealand’s Champion 2YO of 2012-13, Ruud Awakening (Bernardini).

'I'm busting to buy a Group 1 colt' - Price backs Extreme Choice again at Classic

By Trevor Marshallsea

Mick Price has ecstatic and agonising memories when it comes to Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) and yearling sales, and they both spurred him on at Inglis Classic on Tuesday.

In the happy corner, he was the man who bought Extreme Choice - also at Classic in 2015 - for $100,000, before training him to the two Group 1 victories that set up his astonishing stud career.

In the blue corner, he just missed out on buying one of his daughters when she went to Anthony Cummings (Bart Cummings) for $275,000 at Inglis Easter in 2021. Later named She's Extreme, she became just Extreme Choice's second elite-level winner, taking the ATC Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m), before nabbing a cool $3.4 million in a broodmare sale.

"I was the underbidder on her as a yearling, stupidly," said Price, always good for an entertaining chat. "And of course when I was talking to Anthony later he said, 'I had not one more cent'."

"I spec them, so it's a matter of courage. I just have courage or no courage."

Price would have loved to have trained that filly, but he's especially keen to have a star colt by his old explosive sprinter, who ended as the sale's leading sire by averages, with three or more lots sold.

That's what he's hoping he bought at Riverside on Tuesday, for $360,000. The colt was presented by Extreme Choice's home stud Newgate Farm in tandem with Gooree. He boasts an impressive page, being out of an unraced sister to Northern Meteor (Encosta De Lago) and a half-sister to two other stakes winners.

Price has had sons of Extreme Choice before, of course. The best of them has become a sire himself in Rosemont's Extreme Warrior,

Lot 621: Extreme Choice ex Altair's Glow colt

who's making a promising start in the hope he may have inherited just a drop of his father's potency.

Yet Extreme Warrior's racing record came without the elite success craved by so many studs - and Price.

The Group 3 and Listed winner ran favourite in both his attempts at elite level - in the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) - but finished down the track in each, and was retired following the latter after just eight career starts.

"He was a very good colt, but I couldn't get him right when I wanted to. Hopefully this one I can," Price said.

"I'm dying to buy a Group 1 colt by Extreme Choice. I like fillies, but we train a lot of colts, and I'm busting to buy a Group 1 colt by Extreme Choice. That would give me fantastic pleasure."

Like any good "at first sight" story, Price remembers like yesterday the 2015 Classic sale, back under the oak tree at Newmarket.

"Luke Wilkinson was my bloodstock man at the time," he recalled. "I said, 'Go there, give me 30 horses to look at, I'll fly up for a day and I'll pick six.'"

Wilkinson, now Kia Ora Stud's racing manager, has a famous story in which he was inspecting another horse when some other chunky, muscular colt went walking by, some 50 metres away. Wilkinson stood up his original quarry and went running after the head-turner.

"That was Extreme Choice, and he became one of the six," Price said of the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) victor.

"We paid a hundred for him, and he was just a very, very good horse and he's become an amazing stallion.

"He was so good for the stable, and then it does give you a thrill to see one of the horses you train become a good stallion. It brings back memories.

"I know he doesn't get a huge amount of runners because of his fertility issues, but those that he does - every time you see one you think, 'Is this going to be one of his Group 1 winners?'"

Though famously sub-fertile - only 44 offspring comprise his current crop of yearlings - Extreme Choice is shooting the lights out at stud. His 18 stakes winners from 148 runners gives him a ballistic stakes winner to runners ratio of 12.16 per cent. Better still, a stunning six of the 18 are Group 1 winners, which has helped make him Australia's most expensive stallion, at $330,000 (inc GST) last spring.

Price believes his new colt - who's already inherited his dad's chestnut colouring - stands a good chance of joining that disproportionate black type honour board amid a short list of Extreme Choice offspring.

"Newgate are amazing breeders. Gooree are amazing breeders. Northern Meteor is sitting there on the page and these Extreme Choices, I know there's some at Melbourne Premier, and if you get a really hot market they're going to have a one mil, or a two mil, in front of them," said the Cranbourne-based conditioner, who trains in tandem with Michael Kent Jnr.

"So I think, for what I paid for a beautiful, strong, chestnut, lively colt, it's fantastic.

"You go shopping for these good colts at Sydney Easter, and all these colt syndicates are on them, they won't be $360,000, they'll be $1,360,000 or $2,360,000.

"So I thought this boy was a beauty - athletic, strong runner, showed himself off well, plenty of spark about him."

Price has his trusted methods at yearling sales, including a cool approach to inspections, and one last critical look out the back as a yearling prepares to enter the ring.

"I do them [inspect them] once and do a shortlist. They don't change after the third and fourth look," he said in a chat out the back of the Riverside arena.

"And then I watch them before they go into the ring. I go off them or on them depending on what I see here.

"It's the last look I make. Every sale I'm the same. If I'm out here, sometimes a light goes on, or it goes off. I'll have buyers waiting and thinking that I'm buying, and I'll go 'No, I'm not buying'.

"Everything I buy, I buy on spec. I rarely have an order like most trainers."

Moments after his Extreme Choice colt, Price made his second-largest purchase of the sale in spending $280,000 on a Coolmore-consigned colt by their resident stallion Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) out of an unraced Galileo (Sadler's Wells) mare.

All ten of Price's Classic purchases will need owners - except one who blew no budgets.

"My magnificent purchase yesterday was one horse for $10,000. I had good notes on him! What do you do?" he said with a laugh regarding a Widden Stud offered colt by their stallion Portland Sky (Deep Field).

"That one is sold to my mum."

Savvy Hallie set for Light Fingers

Savvy Hallie

Brad Widdup is anticipating a rematch with star filly Apocalyptic (Extreme Choice) when Savvy Hallie (Hellbent) steps out in Saturday's Light Fingers Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick. Savvy Hallie stamped herself as one of the better fillies of her generation at two before returning in the spring with a dominant maiden win and a victory in the Silver Shadow Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m). Her last campaign concluded with a third placing behind Apocalyptic in the Furious Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m). The filly resumed in the $3 million The Sunlight (1100m) at the Gold Coast on January 10, finishing fourth behind Grafterburners (Graff), with Widdup confident the rise back to 1200 metres will play to her strengths. "That sort of race, they ran 1.02, it was a quick, high pressure sprint race," the trainer said. "I think she's looking for 1200 [metres] or further possibly now. She's come through that really well though, she had a jump-out last week, had a gallop Tuesday morning and seems to be in really good order." Widdup concedes turning the tables on Flight Stakes winner Apocalyptic will be a challenge, but believes Savvy Hallie is well placed to be competitive ahead of a potential Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) tilt later in the month. "I think she'll be better suited to the sort of speed over 1400 [metres], and she can race up on the speed," Widdup said. "Look, Apocalyptic is very good, there's no two ways about it, and she seems to have trialled really well, but my filly has done nothing wrong. Circumstances in The Sunlight just didn't suit her at all so out to 1200 metres, against her own sex, she should be competitive."

Apocalyptic on Coolmore Classic path

Meanwhile, the Michael Freedman-trained Apocalyptic could follow in the footsteps of Lady Shenandoah (Snitzel) and tackle the older mares in the Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) this autumn. The filly, who returns this weekend in the Light Fingers Stakes, will first be aimed at the Surround Stakes at the end of the month. "Where we go from there probably depends on how she runs in the Surround," Ben Willis from MyRacehorse told Racing.com on Tuesday. "Whether she goes to the Coolmore Classic, like Lady Shenandoah did as the three-year-old filly last autumn, or do we drop her back to a 1200-metre event, later in the Sydney carnival?" Apocalyptic has won three from five and was narrowly denied by Ole Dancer (Ole Kirk) in the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) last spring. "I think, fundamentally, she's a 1200 to 1400 metre horse," Willis said. "Seven furlongs is probably her sweet spot, but I think a genuinely run 1200 will be fine, as well. She'll do the Light Fingers this week, then hopefully progress on to the Surround Stakes, which is a Group 1. It'll be an exciting event because she will come up against Ole Dancer, who beat her in the Thousand Guineas, as well as Tempted, who looks very good. That should be a really good race."

Beiwacht set for Godolphin clash

Chris Waller and Godolphin have sent Beiwacht (Bivouac) to Melbourne to gain experience down the Flemington straight ahead of a potential overseas campaign later in the year. Beiwacht is set to line up in Saturday's Black Caviar Lightning (Gr 1, 1000m) at Flemington, where he will clash with fellow Godolphin three-year-old, the Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained Tentyris (Street Boss). Both colts are also slated to contest the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) on March 7 and could be bound for a possible trip to Royal Ascot in June. The pair met previously down the Flemington straight in the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) last November, when Tentyris prevailed and Beiwacht finished fourth. That performance followed Beiwacht's explosive Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) victory at Rosehill in September. Waller said the colt was ready to go after a positive gallop at Flemington last week. "Darren [Beadman] went down to watch it, and he gave us a glowing report," the trainer said. "Everyone is happy. We need him in form and we need him used to straight racing. We will let him run his race, not worry too much about other things. We will get him into a good rhythm and let him find his pace he's comfortable with. I think that's what we have to do with him, he showed that in the Golden Rose. Let him use his speed but harness that speed, a little bit like Nature Strip. He's not as free going, but we've just got to get it right." Waller said a similar approach was used with Home Affairs (I Am Invincible), who won the Lightning after his Coolmore Stud Stakes victory, before heading overseas. "To get him ready for the Newmarket, they need to have a run first so it might as well be up the straight," Waller said. "It could have been in the Eskimo Prince [in Sydney], but he's won his Group 1, so I'll keep him there and give him a chance to learn about straight racing."

Maher to chase second Lightning Stakes win

Ciaran Maher will chase his second Lightning Stakes victory at Flemington on Saturday, where he'll be represented by last year's third placegetter Benedetta (Hellbent) and speedy filly Military Tycoon (Written Tycoon). On Benedetta's chances, Maher's assistant trainer Jack Turnbull told Racing.com: "She's prepped up really well. She's had that longer build up at Fingal now which is the point of difference for us to have her. Although the 1000 metres is

Legarto confirmed for Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale

New Zealand's four-time Group 1-winning mare Legarto (Proisir) has been confirmed as an entry at the 2026 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale in May, where she will be offered by Brian Nutt's Attunga Stud.

Last Saturday, the daughter of Proisir (Choisir) came from second-last at the 800-metre mark to impressively win her second Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Te Rapa, her 11th win in total.

Legarto famously won the Australian Guineas at Flemington in 2023, and during the same season also captured the New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), Eight Carat Classic (Gr 2, 1600m) and Soliloquy Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m).

She will race once more at the elite-level in the New Zealand Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Ellerslie on March 7, before connections decide if a possible Australian target is added before she heads to auction.

"We put her out in the paddock after getting home from the races, but it took a while to catch her when I went out to put her cover on later on," co-trainer Ken Kelso said this week.

"That tells me she's taken no harm from the race, so the Bonecrusher [Stakes] is the obvious next target for her.

"Beyond that we'll have to talk things through. We've already decided this is her final preparation, but if she was to go well at Ellerslie we could perhaps look at a race like the Australian Cup."

The star mare will go under the hammer on day one of the sale on May 26.

"We've already arranged for her to go to Brian Nutt at Attunga Stud to be prepared for the sale," proud part-owner Philip Brown said.

"Being a partnership, public auction is the proper way to realise her true worth. As a multiple Group 1 winner, including one in Australia, she's obviously a valuable mare, so it's going to be an interesting exercise.

"That was probably the most emotional win of all on Saturday - to see her bounce back after some had begun to doubt her, Opie [Bosson] getting his 100 [Group 1 wins] and another big win for Ken and Bev - it was special," Brown added.

the bottom of her trip, she's going really well, she looks a treat and whatever she does over 1000 metres in that small field on Saturday, she will improve" Of Military Tycoon Turnbull said: "She's a fast filly and is a winner down the straight. With the weight relief of having 53.5 kilograms, we thought it was a good opportunity to miss the Peter Le Grand Stakes and target this race. I know it's a class field for quality"

Sheza Alibi unlikely for Australian Guineas

Sheza Alibi

Sheza Alibi's (Saxon Warrior) Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) campaign is in serious doubt after co-trainer Peter Moody confirmed a significant change to the filly's autumn schedule. Speaking to Racing.com on Tuesday morning, Moody revealed the early Guineas favourite will not resume on Saturday as planned, making her participation in the Group 1 feature at Flemington on February 28 highly unlikely. "I've just had a chat with the ownership group of Sheza Alibi, Mr Fred Noffke, and we are not going to run her on Saturday which makes it highly unlikely she will take her place in the Australian Guineas," Moody said. "It's more than likely she will run in the Armanasco Stakes at Caulfield on Saturday week en route to the Randwick Guineas [March 7]. I just thought another week. She's a filly that carries good condition. She worked super [on Tuesday morning] but just had a little bit more of a blow than I thought. She looks very well but maybe just a tad too well, so we made the decision." Moody said Sheza Alibi could even be delayed further, with the Surround Stakes at Randwick on February 28 an option should she require more time. "I don't think she'll have a deep autumn," he said. "Our plan was to probably have two runs in Victoria and probably spell her because she's had a long spring, but I never say never." Moody also confirmed his Thousand Guineas winner Ole Dancer will resume on Saturday, with the filly holding nominations for a pair of Flemington contests: Desirable Stakes (Listed, 1400m) and Frances Tressady Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m). "Ole Dancer, she will take her place in one of those races on Saturday en route to the Surround Stakes," Moody said. "She's pulled up a little cleaner in the wind and is certainly ready to go to the races this weekend."

Oakleigh Plate winner Queman dies

Star South Australian sprinter Queman (Mint Lane) has died at the age of seven after succumbing to a battle with illness on Tuesday morning. The 2024 Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) winner had been battling colic at Morphettville's Equine Clinic since symptoms showed more than a week ago. Shane Oxlade, who trained the gelding in partnership with daughter Cassie, said the loss was a tough pill to swallow. "It's just devastating," Oxlade told Racing.com. "It's just all happened fairly quickly and it came from absolutely nowhere. I think us and Boof [Francis Smith - owner and breeder] were hoping he'd be able to spend the rest of his days in a paddock - that's what he deserved, but it wasn't to be. He was a tough horse and typically he was tough right until the end, but sadly this was a fight he just couldn't win." That toughness was on display in what would ultimately be Queman's final win when he repelled all challengers to take out the Behemoth Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) back in August off a 69-week injury enforced break in what was a huge performance from both horse and trainers. Queman's Oakleigh Plate win was the first elite-level victory for the father and daughter duo, and Oxlade said it would be a lifelong memory. "It was a career highlight for sure, doing it with Cassie and with that horse was very special," he said. Queman won ten of his 26 starts and banked more than $1 million in prize-money for connections along the way.

New Zealand

Navy Ensign seeking breakthrough win

Navy Ensign (U S Navy Flag) will look to shed his maiden status when he lines up at Te Aroha on Wednesday in a mega maiden over 1150 metres. The gelding has shown consistent promise in four starts, finishing runner-up on multiple occasions to smart performers, including his debut behind Well Written (Written Tycoon). Murray Thompson believes the gelding's form stacks up strongly. "He has got to be the best maidener in the country," the trainer said. "The horses beating him, you have got to look at the form behind them, it is just unreal. In his debut behind Well Written, we were three and four wide, we had the toughest run in the race that day and it was a really good run. We didn't have much luck in our third start [behind Lyin' Eyes], we were three-wide the trip, and last start [behind Khaleesi] we rode him upside down, we wanted to take luck out of the equation, it didn't suit him, plus he was feeling the ground." Navy Ensign has enjoyed a short freshen-up since his last start at Tauranga in December, with Thompson pleased by how the gelding has responded. "I gave him a couple of weeks off after Tauranga, he was just feeling the track a little bit. The two weeks off has just done him so good, he has come back really well. His work on Saturday was very good, so we are expecting a good run as usual." Thompson said stakes options are under consideration should Navy Ensign break through on Wednesday. "I have pencilled in the Wellington Guineas, but if he won and won well I would probably look at headquarters [Ellerslie] on Saturday week in the Uncle Remus, but he would have to win to warrant going there. He is going to get better with time. He put on muscle and a little bit of weight in the two weeks off. In six months to a year he is going to be doing wonders."

Single Red seeking Oaks redemption

Single Red (inside)

RACE IMAGES

Last Saturday's David & Karyn Ellis Fillies Classic (Gr 2, 2100m) proved a fork in the road for a pair of Andrew Forsman-trained fillies earmarked for Oaks ambitions. The race was won impressively by the Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained Ohope Wins (Ocean Park), who swamped Forsman's gallant runner-up Single Red (Vanbrugh) late in the piece. While Single Red is set to renew her rivalry with Ohope Wins in the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) at Ellerslie on February 21, it was an end of prep run for well-regarded stablemate Chilling Out (Savabeel), who raced ungenerously throughout to finish tenth. "Chilling Out raced like a horse that's just come to the end of it for this season," Forsman's racing manager Joe Walker said. "We really do like her and we think with a good spell now, we're going to reap the benefits with her as a four-year-old and onwards. Single Red was a super effort on Saturday. She's a nice progressive filly, and we will still be heading to the Oaks. It was a strong run considering she was stepping up to 2000 metres for the first time. They went hard enough and she was exposed quite quickly into the straight, so she probably had every right to knock-up. It's taken a very good one to beat her, but we are impressed by her effort and looking forward to the Oaks."

Headgear applied to Mary Shan

Andrew Forsman's quality mare Mary Shan (Almanzor) will have headgear applied when she tackles the Lisa Chittick Champagne Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Matamata on Saturday. "We're going to put blinkers on," Forsman's racing manager Joe Walker said. "We thought her run the other day at Ellerslie was very good [when third on Karaka Millions night]. She just hit that flat spot turning for home and picked herself up and was up on the winner's heels as they crossed the line." There are also still cards to play for a pair of the stable's highly rated two-year-olds, with Lassified (Stay Inside) returning from Sydney after racing with little luck in the Inglis Millennium (RL, 1100m), while debut winner Stromlinien (Almanzor) has had a brief break after her tenth placing in the Karaka Millions 2YO (RL, 1200m). "Lassified flew home on Monday, so she's going to have a week in the paddock and then we'll reassess," Walker said. "There are some nice black type options later on in the season. We were happy with her effort on Saturday. The race just didn't quite work out, we couldn't land in a handy position and she was amongst them for the first time in her racing career. She picked herself up and found the line well considering, and the Sistema Stakes on Champions Day could be an option for her. Stromlinien had a little break after Karaka Millions night. It was only her second start and the lack of raceday experience showed on that occasion. She had a week in the paddock after the race but she's back in work now. She's in good order and she'll be aimed at Manawatu Sires' Produce at Trentham in March."

Thurlow set for first Matamata sortie

In more than three decades training Bill Thurlow has yet to race a horse at Matamata, but that's about to change with two stable members entered for the eastern Waikato venue's biggest ever meeting on Saturday. The Waverley-based horseman, who since the start of the season has been training in partnership with former jockey Sam O'Malley, is scheduled to head north with Frank The Tank (Burgundy) and Wire Rope (Darci Brahma). Both are entered for the $350,000 Comag Wairere Falls Classic (1500m), while Wire Rope has a contingency nomination for the Rating 75 (1600m) on the undercard. Off his rating of 79, Frank The Tank will safely make the 14-horse cut for the Wairere Falls Classic, however with two less rating points Wire Rope is just outside the limit. "I'd love them both to get a start, but we might need a bit of luck with Wire Rope," Thurlow said. "It's not often you get the chance to race for this sort of money with mid-grade horses, so we'll have to keep our fingers crossed there. The forecast for a bit of rain later in the week should play into their hands, as they both like a bit of cut in the ground. Frank The Tank had some issues with his feet in the spring and that held him up, and he needed the run when he finished fifth at Waverley last week. He was a bit burly for that but his work since has been good, so I figure he's about where he needs to be. Wire Rope has been racing very well [for two wins and second from his last three starts], so it would be good to see him get his chance. The other race is still worth a crack, so I'm looking forward to heading up there. From memory I took a jumper up to Matamata years ago but I think they ended up calling the races off, so this will be my first try there."

HK: Ka Ying Rising excels in barrier trial lead-up to Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup

As is becoming customary in the build-up to sprint superstar Ka Ying Rising's (Shamexpress) races, his trainer David Hayes declared himself delighted with a routinely impressive showing in a Sha Tin barrier trial on Tuesday. As the meteoric five-year-old prepares to tackle 1400 metres for only the second time in his bid to make history with an 18th consecutive win in the Queen's Silver Jubilee Cup (Gr 1, 1400m) on February 22, Hayes said he wanted to see him able to "switch off" in the early stages. It was mission accomplished as the gelding effortlessly stopped the clock in 1m 08.03s - his fastest 1200-metre trial time to date. "He broke one [minute], eight [seconds], and I don't think Zac [Purton] was doing too much on him. He had a nice healthy blow," Hayes said. "We just let him relax in the first part of the trial, practising for 1400 [metres] in a couple of weeks. And, gee, I like the way he responded. He just took a sit, easy, and then Zac strode up, and he won, as you'd expect."

HK: Hayes chases third straight winner as championship duel heats up

Momentum is building for David Hayes in the trainers' championship who will send seven runners to Happy Valley on Wednesday as the battle with Mark Newnham continues. The two are separated by the slenderest of margins at the top of the standings with Newnham on 35 winners for the season, and last season's runner-up Hayes on 34. Hayes, a two-time Hong Kong champion trainer, has closed the gap on his compatriot in recent weeks, outscoring Newnham by 12 wins to nine since the turn of the year. He'll be aiming for winners at a third consecutive meeting on Wednesday, and his best hope of doing so may lie in Bienvenue (Star Turn), who makes a return in the first section of the Class 3 Sam Chuk Handicap (1200m). The four-year-old is back on the track after more than three months out, having been found to have bled following a disappointing run on November 5. "He was a good, consistent horse at the start of the season," said Hayes of the five-year-old, who had recorded two wins and two seconds from five runs before his most recent start. "He's had a really nice, slow build-up - a couple of trials. And his work after the trials was solid. So, we're pleased to have Zac [Purton] on him, even though it's a bit of an awkward gate [barrier ten]." Hayes believes Bienvenue has plenty of room for improvement from his current rating of 68. "I would have said at the start of the season, he's similar to Romantic Son, and he's mid-80s now. So, there's a bit of room for him."

VERDICT The booking of Zac Purton heightens interest in BLING BLING GENIUS who has run well the last two weeks and looks ready for a mile. Run Run Timing is on a handy mark and, with the visor back on, he saw his race out well over the 1m at Sha Tin last time. Telecom Power is best known for his sprinting exploits but he was very competitive on a belated first attempt at this trip here two weeks ago. BETTING FORECAST: 5 Macanese Master, Modest Gentleman, Nebraska, Spicy Spangle, 7 Brilliant Fire, Thousand Cups, 10 Island Breezes, 12 Exceed The Wish, 14 Oriental Surprise, 20 Taihang Scenery, 25 Racingrace, 50 Sportic Warrior.

VERDICT He's 0-27 so comes with risks but NEBRASKAN nearly won when dropped to this level before Christmas and his latest effort was respectable given his tricky draw. Today could be the day from stall 1. Modest Gentleman had some of these behind when second here recently and he did well to be that close from where he was 2f out. Also well drawn, Spicy Spangle should be in the thick of it. [Alistair Jones]

BETTING FORECAST: 4 Inno Super, Northern Beast, 5 Absolute Awakened, Prestige Ricky, 7 Setanta, 10 Harmony Galaxy, Noble Pursuit, 16 Wave Garden, 20 Ka Ying Glory, To Infinity, 25 Kolachi, One Love.

VERDICT Zac Purton deserts Absolute Awakened for Northern Beast and his mount is armed with a good mark and a good draw. However, there are others with chances and dual British winner Prestige Ricky gets the nod with his latest third here warranting an upgrade. Inno Super is another with strong claims. VERDICT Beauty Thunder and Bunta Baby (second choice) both have strong records over C&D this season but the former has a wide draw to overcome, while the latter's running style makes him reliant on some good luck from the inside berth. Perhaps the answer will be HAPPY UNITED, who is nicely handicapped on some of last season's form and returned from a break with a fair run a fortnight ago. [Chris Wilson]

VERDICT The most obvious answer is MAX QUE, who justified odds-on favouritism with a straightforward C&D success last month and is seemingly still on the upgrade. Telecom Fighters is regressive and inconsistent but he ran well from a tough draw on dirt three weeks ago and can be dangerous from stall 1 if in the right mood again. Withallmyfaith is next on the list. [Chris Wilson]
