Breathtaking Tentyris storms home to strike in Lightning

By Trevor Marshallsea

Tentyris (Street Boss) stamped himself as the most exciting sprinter in Australia and took a large step towards living up to Anthony Freedman's huge assessment of him with a breathtaking win in Saturday's Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Flemington.

After the colt stormed to victory in last November's Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), Freedman told his son and co-trainer Sam he could be the best horse he ever comes across, despite the younger trainer's many future years in this business, and Tentyris being only a spring three-year-old at the time.

It certainly looked hard to argue that point when Godolphin's homebred son of the remarkable Street Boss (Street Cry) powered to his third straight victory - and his fourth from his last five starts - in the Lightning.

While his 2.25 length Coolmore win was dominant, Saturday's triumph in his first attempt at open company in the weight-for-age feature outstripped it, and put racing fans on watch for an explosive autumn to come from the chestnut.

One of four winners on the day, all at stakes level, for Damian Lane, Tentyris was settled in a clear last place of the eight, and was ten lengths off the lead on settling. Continued on page 2

Morning Briefing

Extraordinary Autumn Glow stretches unbeaten run to nine

On the same day that the Flemington Group 1 named after Black Caviar was run, Autumn Glow (The Autumn Sun) showed herself to have the makings of another unbeaten superstar with an effortless first-up win at Randwick in the Apollo Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m). Continued on page 4

After a heady pace was set, first by Beiwacht (Bivouac) and then by Giga Kick (Scissor Kick), the well backed $2.60 favourite was eight lengths off the front runners at the 300 metres, and three lengths behind - and still last - inside the 200 metres.

It seemed he couldn't possibly have the finish to haul in the leaders, but at the 150 metres, as the brave filly My Gladiola (I Am Invincible) was being hailed the winner, Tentyris simply exploded in phenomenal style to power to the lead in a few strides, going on to score by 0.75 lengths.

My Gladiola, well supported at $7, had to settle for second behind the colt, as she had in the Coolmore. Tough mare Benedetta (Hellbent) flew home for third at $26, as $3.50 second elect Giga Kick weakened into fifth.

Lane had taken over from injured regular rider Mark Zahra for his second ride on Tentyris, having run a 0.1 length second on him in last year's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) behind Devil Night (Extreme Choice).

And while the colt's backers will have been anxious a furlong from home, the calm final pre-race words from Sam Freedman to his jockey - "trust the horse" - proved prescient in the most emphatic style.

"Dad and I spoke in the last couple of days, about how in a small field, they can be tactical and you can get sucked into riding a horse out of his comfort zone," Freedman told Racing.com.

"Last prep, when we rode him a little close in the Danehill first-up, he was a bit soft late. He balanced up in the Gothic to let him work home [and win]. It was the same in the Coolmore and the same today.

"His turn of foot, when you ask him, is there as soon as you need it. Our instructions for Damian were, 'Just trust that when you need him, he's there - let them all go'.

"They always take off a little bit early in these races. You've only got to be in front at the end. That's all that matters."

As for how special Tentyris might be, Freedman said he'd heard telling words after the Coolmore from his father. Anthony was part of the Freedman Brothers team who reigned supreme in the 1990s under older sibling Lee, with such celebrated performers as Schillaci (Salieri) and Mahogany (Last Tycoon), both two-time Lightning winners.

"Anthony has been in the game for so long. He actually said to me at the end of the spring campaign, 'This might be the best horse you ever train,'" Sam said.

"I thought, 'You might be suggesting you trained one better back in the 90s or 2000s'. So there was a bit of cheek there.

"But they had Mahogany, Schillaci, and some champions. But he [Tentyris] is building his own record that is hopefully going to be right up there with some of the best."

Before Godolphin's switch last year from having a private trainer to dispersing their team across nine different stables, Anthony and Sam Freedman still were given a limited number of runners by Sheikh Mohammed's empire, including 2019 Blue Diamond winner Lyre (Lonhro).

Sam Freedman had no hesitation saying Tentyris had put himself at the forefront of the horses the stable had trained for the royal blue, as he forecast a likely start for the colt in the VRC Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) on March 7.

"It means a lot because these horses don't come around very often," he said.

"Godolphin have been huge supporters of ours for such a long time and we've had some really good horses for them over the years, but this will be top of the list."

Lane supported Freedman's assertion.

"He's an incredible talent," the winning jockey said of Tentyris.

"We just only had the one play with him, with how he steps out of the barriers. It was just a risk whether the 1000 [metres] was going to be too short. It certainly wasn't.

"Mid-race, I had to ask him to pick up the bridle and when he did, he really joined in well and as has become his trademark, that last bit of his race was outstanding - incredible."

Asked how good the colt was, Lane said: "I think the development in his temperament, his attitude, is really good now. As an older horse, he's really competitive. He's shown he can go to the top level and he's going to be winning good races for a bit to come yet."

out of a chestnut, being by Street Boss and being the second and best runner out of Deity (Exceed And Excel), a daughter of four-time Group 1 winner Divine Madonna (Hurricane Sky), who won three of 14 starts including two in Sydney.

Deity slipped in 2023 but now has a filly foal bred on a similar cross to Tentyris, being by Anamoe (Street Boss). The mare was covered by Darley star stallion Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) last October.

Street Boss is enjoying a break-out campaign - despite this being his 14th season with runners in Australia.

The 21-year-old entered Saturday sitting eighth on the Australian general sires' table - up from an 18th place finish last term and a career best of tenth in 2022-23

Hard Kick lives up to his name in Talindert win

Hard Kick (All Too Hard) surged up the betting for the autumn's two-year-old features and brought a welcome tonic for Lindsay Park with an impressive victory in Saturday's Talindert Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Flemington.

Jumping from gate four of seven for Damian Lane, Hard Kick bolted to an early three-length lead, maintained a clear margin heading onto the course proper, then lived up to his name with a burst of acceleration at the 200 metres to put the issue beyond doubt.

The gelding scored by 2.75 lengths from Anthony and Sam Freedman's $2.30 favourite Zambales (Pinatubo), with another Godolphin colt in Diameter (Brazen Beau) a further 1.75 lengths away in third for Chris Waller at $13.

Hard Kick also made a surge up the betting for next Saturday's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) - to the fourth line at $8 - and to $26 for the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) on March 21 at Rosehill. He's not nominated for either at this stage.

Bearing Lindsay Park's famed white with the green sash and black sleeves, Hard Kick also provided a welcome boost for the Hayes family after the death on Friday of former star Miss Finland (Redoute's Choice), aged 22. That came while the Hayes Brothers' Euroa stable still recovers from extensive recent bushfire damage.

Trained by the brothers' father David Hayes, Miss Finland won five Group 1s including the rare double of the Golden Slipper and the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m). She also performed well at stud, with seven winners from nine runners including Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) queen Stay With Me (Street Cry) and four other stakes horses, two of whom placed at the top level.

"We're not sure he's as good as Miss Finland, but he looked pretty good there," JD Hayes said of Hard Kick.

"What a thrill. He's been very well educated at home and we thought he was pretty good and he won with authority there."

Asked what impressed him the most, Hayes said it was the winning margin.

"That was the most easy part of it, but how he was able to control the tempo and kick off. It was a very professional performance," he said.

Hayes was non committal when asked whether the $55,000 late entry fee would be paid to allow Hard Kick to run in the $2 million Blue Diamond.

"We'll keep the option open next week as he did win with his head on his chest there," he said, "but there's plenty of options going ahead with this horse. It's very exciting."

Lane was most impressed with Hard Kick, who took quite some pulling up past the post, saying he could be one of the best two-year-olds of the current Australian crop.

"Once the other horses got near him, he wanted to race them, so he's just a natural competitor and he took a bit of slowing down after the line," the jockey said.

"He's a good horse. He's been impressive at the jump-outs. You're never sure going up to 1100 [metres] with two-year-olds off the back of 800-metre jump-outs, but he did give the feel he was going to be better past 800 metres and that's what he's done today.

"He's gone to another level and really sustained a good gallop throughout. I thought before today that he was a good horse, but just off the better ones, but off the back of that, he might be right up there."

Bred by the Baxter family's Macquarie Stud in the lower Hunter Valley, Hard Kick was bought by Avesta Bloodstock from Middlebrook Valley Lodge's draft at last year's Magic Millions Adelaide Yearling Sale for $30,000.

Put back through the Inglis Ready To Race sale by Hannover Lodge in October, he was purchased for $140,000 by Lindsay Park under the watchful eye of Hayes family patriarch David, who was in Sydney for The Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) win of his star sprinter Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress) four days later.

"He was bought in the Sydney Ready To Race. Dad was representing the company and he was purchased for connections," JD Hayes said.

Hard Kick became the 32nd individual stakes winner from 857 runners for All Too Hard, who also won the Talindert, in 2012.

He also added to the burgeoning broodmare sire CV of Exceed And Excel (Danahill), which was further enhanced by the victory later in the day of Tentyris (Street Boss) in the Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m).

The powerfully built bay has a relatively modest pedigree page. He's the fifth and latest foal of Friendly Donna (Exceed And Excel), who was unplaced in five runs in country NSW.

Second dam Donna Intelligente (Dehere) was a three-time winner - all in Sydney - and a half-sister to Sydney Group 3 winner Burning Sands (Marju) and a Malaysia stakes victor.

Exceed And Excel entered Saturday sitting second on the Australian broodmare sires' table between two other Danahill sons in Fastnet Rock and Redoute's Choice, having recorded a personal best finish of third in 2023.

All Too Hard covered a bumper book of 154 mares at a reduced $27,500 last spring in his 13th stud season.

Ciaron's Star shines in Pierro Plate

Ciaron's Star (I Am Invincible) and Ciaron Maher go together like a rhyming couplet, and the presumably sizeable space the expensive filly occupies in her trainer's heart grew only larger at Randwick on Saturday.

Stepping out for her second start after a third over 1000 metres at the same course on January 24, Ciaron's Star looked impressive in coming away to win the non-black type but nonetheless important two-year-old race, the Pierro Plate (1100m).

Ridden by Tommy Berry, Ciaron's Star jumped well from gate six of ten, raced outside the leader Better By Far (Farman), and gained the upper hand over her fellow $5.50 chance in the straight to score by 0.79 lengths.

Persian Wonder (Hello Youmzain) took third, a further 1.2 lengths away at $14, ahead of the Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott-trained $2.90 favourite Miss Chanel (Tagalao).

Ciaron's Star shortened for the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) at Rosehill on March 21, to the fifth line of betting at $21, and her stable said she would likely earn a shot at the world's richest two-year-old race, depending on the outcome of another lead-up run.

That next start would put the filly in line to grab black type, either in the Sweet Embrace Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick in two weeks or the Reisling Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at the same track a week later.

"You've got a Sweet Embrace [Stakes] in two weeks, a Reisling [Stakes] in three weeks, so we will probably look at one or the other and decide from there," said Maher's assistant trainer Johann Gerard-Dubord.

"She is very straightforward. Mentally, very mature. She was very good first-up, naturally she improved from that. She will just keep improving."

With her win, Ciaron's Star put herself among her gargantuan stable's leading two-year-olds, who also include Unit Five (Supido) and the Bennett Racing colt he beat into second in the Magic Millions Gold Coast 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) in Tornado Valley (Too Darn Hot).

Another in the mix is Darby Racing's Spicy Miss (Trapeze Artist), who ran second in the $1 million Golden Gift (1100m) and the Lonhro Plate (Listed, 1000m).

"We have got a very good group of two-year-olds this year," Gerard-Dubord said.

"I wouldn't say there is a stand-out. The two Magic Millions boys, Spicy Miss, and we've got a couple more coming out in the next couple of weeks."

Berry said Ciaron's Star was progressing in the right way in terms of Golden Slipper calculations.

"Today was all about getting the win to get her close to a Slipper, and she's got to keep improving the way she has, but she's heading in the right direction," said Berry, adding a clean start was crucial in Saturday's win.

"That's how these two-year-old races are usually won. They're won at the start and she executed herself well."

Bred by Widden, Qatar Bloodstock and associates, Ciaron's Star was a $650,000 Inglis Easter purchase for Maher and Craig Sneesby. She's raced by a group headed by Ciaron Maher Bloodstock, while carrying Sneesby's green with white sleeves and red stars.

Regally bred, she's the fifth and last foal of the late Listed victor Bonny O'Reilly (O'Reilly), an eight-time winner, dam of the stakes-placed Basquiat (Snitzel), and sister to the dam of elite-level winner Espiona (Extreme Choice).

Third dam Escada (Centaine) was a four-time winner and Group 3 placed and threw two dual Group 1 victors in Glamour Puss (Tale Of The Cat) and Vision And Power (Carnegie).

Ciaron's Star's victory gave Yarraman Park's three-time champion sire I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) 1077 winners from 1329 runners, at 80.96 per cent.

Extraordinary Autumn Glow stretches unbeaten run to nine

On the same day that the Flemington Group 1 named after Black Caviar was run, Autumn Glow (The Autumn Sun) showed herself to have the makings of another unbeaten superstar with an effortless first-up win at Randwick in the Apollo Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m).

The Inglis Easter sale topper of 2023, bought by Arrowfield's John Messara and Hermitage Thoroughbreds, wrote another chapter in making her $1.8 million purchase look cheap in cruising to her ninth win from as many starts.

With regular rider James McDonald aboard, the Chris Waller-trained four-year-old crossed from gate nine of ten to settle in the one-one as The Instructor (Russian Revolution) set a medium pace, and the result looked clear from a long way out.

McDonald shook the reins at the 300 metres and Autumn Glow soon had the lead, strolling home to score like the $1.40 favourite she was, by 2.66 lengths.

Her fellow four-year-old mare Aeliana (Castelvecchio) took second at $14, while Lindermann (Lonhro) completed an all-Waller trifecta at $13.

This victory contained a tinge of sentiment. Autumn Glow carries the same Arrowfield black and yellow diamonds borne so memorably by the great Miss Finland (Redoute's Choice), the five-time elite winner - including of the rare Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) and VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) double - and later a top-tier producer.

Messara has always rated Miss Finland as the finest of the many champions he has raced. Autumn Glow may soon cause a rethink.

The magnificently built mare has now earned almost $7.5 million from her nine outings, boosted greatly by her victory in last November's $10 million Golden Eagle (1500m) at the start before this one.

GETTY IMAGES

Continued from page 4 Waller, who went through his own phenomenal winning streak when Winx (Street Cry) won the last 33 of her 43 starts - reviving recent memories of Black Caviar's (Bel Esprit) 25 from 25 - might now have to consider that he is facing another lengthy unbeaten saga, with all the joy and the pressure such bring.

Sydney's perennial champion trainer said the seven-time stakes winner Autumn Glow would likely try to add three more elite-level wins to her sole top level triumph so far - last spring's Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m). Her autumn will continue in the Verry Elleegant Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) back at Randwick on February 28, before Rosehill's George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m) on March 21.

A decision would then be made on whether to stretch her in distance to the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) on April 11 or instead target the Queen Of The Turf Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) on the same day.

"The first run of the prep is the most important," Waller told reporters.

"It tells you where they are. You can have as many track gallops, trials and exhibition gallops as you want but until they are under race pressure, you don't know, but that tells me she's in a pretty good position."

McDonald had said pre-race that Autumn Glow possessed the same qualities of two of the other all-time greats he had ridden in Anamoe (Street Boss) and Romantic Warrior (Acclamation).

Saturday's victory only enhanced his opinion of the mare.

"It's extremely special, just the way, the ease she's doing it," McDonald said of Autumn Glow.

"But you've got to remember, though, there's a lot of stayers in the race, but I've ridden a very good horse in Hong Kong and she's on a trajectory where she's improving all the time.

"She's lightly raced and let's just say, the world's her oyster."

Autumn Glow was first purchased by Silverdale Farm and Throne Bloodstock for $600,000 at the 2022 Magic Millions Gold Coast National Weanling Sale out of the Newhaven Park draft, before being offered in Silverdale Farm's draft at Easter.

Bred by Newhaven, the mare is supremely bred, being the fourth foal out of Via Africa (Var), South Africa's Champion Sprinter of 2013-14 and a three-time elite-level victor, and the dam of another top tier winner in present day Newgate Farm sire In The Congo (Snitzel).

Via Africa has had her problems in the breeding barn, with no foals since Autumn Glow's birth in 2021. She is now in foal to reigning champion sire Zoustar (Northern Meteor).

The Autumn Sun - who covered 178 mares at $66,000 at Arrowfield last spring after having 2024 off with injury - sits second on the Australian general sires' table, behind his late barnmate Snitzel (Redoute's Choice).

He has ten stakes winners from 211 runners at 4.73 per cent, but notably five of the ten have won at the elite level.

Australia

43 for Deep Field

Deep Field

NEWGATE

Paradise City (5 m ex Chocolicious by Kahal) became the 43rd individual stakes winner for Newgate's prematurely pensioned stallion Deep Field (Northern Meteor) when taking out Saturday's Frances Tressady Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington. Sent off a $9 chance under Zac Spain, the Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman-trained mare came home strongly inside the final 300 metres to grab Sea What I See (Sea The Stars) by 0.2 lengths. There was a further 0.3 lengths back to Wrote To Arataki (Wrote) in a tight finish to the Group 3 sprint. Bred by Esker Lodge, Paradise City was purchased by Trilogy Racing and CB Bloodstock for $300,000 at the 2022 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. The five-year-old is out of the Grade 1-winning South African mare Chocolicious (Kahal), making her a half-sister to the Group 3-placed winner Notation (Fastnet Rock). Deep Field was retired at the close of the 2022 breeding season due to fertility issues.

67 for So You Think

The Danny O'Brien-trained Sass Appeal (3 f ex Cristal Eyes by All Too Hard) took her career record to three wins from just four starts when she added a maiden black-type success to her tally in the Desirable Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Flemington on Saturday. Ridden by Damian Lane, the three-year-old filly became the 67th individual stakes winner for late Coolmore stallion So You Think (High Chaparral) as she defeated Ole Dancer (Ole Kirk) by 2.3 lengths. There was a further 0.3 lengths back to Celibate (Doubtland) in third. Bred by Echo Beach Bloodstock, Sass Appeal was purchased by her trainer for $120,000 at the 2024 Inglis Premier Yearling Sale. She is the best of three winners from as many to race out of the Group 3-placed Cristal Eyes (All Too Hard), herself a half-sister to Group 3 winner Flying Evelyn (Not A Single Doubt). So You Think died in October last year.

O'Brien eyes Kewney with Sass Appeal

Danny O'Brien revealed he is eyeing up the Kewney Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) back at Flemington for his filly Sass Appeal after her victory in Saturday's Desirable Stakes. "It was a straightforward map for her there today. She looked to get an unchallenged lead, and that's what happened," O'Brien said. "I think we'll go to the Kewney. It's a big step to take on those horses that are seasoned [in the Australian Guineas] up over the spring and the colts are a decent division with Observer looking top class. Unless something happened, I think the more sensible thing is to wait three weeks and stay in fillies grade and run here in the Kewney Stakes. We've got a lot of hope that she can go to a very high level in the spring. She's been well protected by us so far and she's had a good build-up. I would expect the Kewney to be her last run and then we can hopefully get her to a really good race in the spring, something like the Myer [Empire Rose Stakes] on Derby Day."

Guineas next as Sixties bats away in rivals in the CS Hayes

Chris Waller's improving colt Sixties (3 c Flying Artie - Gracie's Lass by Redoute's Choice) confirmed his place in the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at the end of the month when scoring a stylish success in Saturday's CS Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington. Having taken out a Benchmark 88 (1200m) first-up for the campaign last month, the son of Flying Artie (Artie Schiller) came home well down the outside of his rivals to register a 1.3 length victory over Asakura (Churchill) in Saturday's Group 3. There was a further 1.5 lengths back to Beyond Question (Russian Camelot) in third place.

"He's good. Not a lot of jockeys can sit three deep and I know the horse probably had a little bit on them, but he just rides so smooth and he gives his horse every chance," stable representative Darren Beadman said of winning rider Damian Lane. "He gets them in a nice rhythm, breathing well and they don't seem to be using excess energy throughout the race. It's a difficult task to sit three-wide here from 1400 [metres]. You pretty much start on the circle and you're turning the whole time. He had the audacity to show a nice turn of foot, pin his ears back. He's an exciting galloper." Asked whether the Guineas would be the target, Beadman replied: "More than likely. I think that is Chris's short-term plan for him. Today was a bit of a test for him, this way of going on the circle. The Australian Guineas looks the ideal race for him."

32 for All Too Hard

Vinery Stud stallion All Too Hard (Casino Prince) chalked up his 32nd individual stakes winner when the Ben, Will and JD Hayes-trained Hard Kick (2 g Friendly Donna by Exceed And Excel) took out Flemington's card-opening Talindert Stakes (Listed, 1100m) on Saturday. Bred by Macquarie Stud, Hard Kick was passed in as a weanling and was sent across to the 2025 Magic Millions Adelaide Yearling Sale in the Middlebrook Valley Lodge draft where he was picked up by Avesta Bloodstock for $30,000. Re-offered at the 2025 Inglis Ready2Race Sale in the Hannover Lodge draft, he was purchased by Lindsay Park for $140,000. Hard Kick is the second winner out of the Exceed And Excel (Danehill) mare Friendly Donna. All Too Hard stood the 2025 breeding season for a fee of $27,500 (inc GST).

Cafe Millenium strikes in the Elms Handicap

Cafe Millenium (5 g Not A Single Doubt - Veloce Forte by High Chaparral) added a third stakes success to his CV when proving a half-length too strong for his rivals in Saturday's Elms Handicap (Listed, 1400m) at Flemington.

Ridden by Celine Gaudray for Ben, JD and Will Hayes, the now five-year-old gelding dug deep inside the final 100 metres to deny Sabaj (Manhattan Rain) with a further 0.3 lengths back to Enxuto (Lean Mean Machine) in third. "A big thank-you to Ron Finemore [owner] giving Celine the opportunity as well," JD Hayes said. "He backs young people. He's stuck by her and she's ridden him [Cafe Millenium] a treat every time. They have a good affinity and that was a beautiful ride. When they backed off, she put him in galloping room and it was a very strong, authoritative win. He's a good Flemington horse. I think they just click. She's got good hands. She's a very good horse lady. She's very under-rated. She does a lot of work for us and we're happy to put her on when we can. We haven't got any gear on his head. He'll improve again when we get the blinkers on and if we ever do get the blinkers on, I think he'll improve again. There's plenty of wriggle room there and I think this Flemington racetrack really suits him as well."

Second Flemington win for Tervue

Flemington has been a happy hunting ground for New Zealand-bred mare Tervue (Tarzino), who produced another big performance at the Melbourne track in Saturday's Benchmark 78 (2000m). The handicap was Tervue's fifth start at Flemington and she has now won twice at the course, having also been successful over 1800 metres on New Year's Day while she was a narrowly beaten second over 2500 metres on January 17. Trained by John Sadler, the five-year-old was ridden by apprentice Luke Cartwright and, having gone clear by a couple of lengths with more than 300 metres still to run, found extra to turn away the late challenge of Fiorennot (Fiorente) by a length. "Very happy," Cartwright said. "I know what ability this horse has got. I sat on her here and she won, and then her run for second over 2500 metres, that was another gallant effort. At Caulfield, I just made a mistake on her. I can't thank the ownership group and John Sadler enough for keeping me on the mare, because I know she goes really good. Today it worked out perfect, she had a nice draw, wasn't cluttered up and I was able to let her use her big stride from about the 700 metres. When she's able to use her big stride, she can let her really good turn of foot go." Sadler is now keen to test Tervue in black type company. "I would say we'll go to the Torney Cup, the Moonee Valley race at Pakenham [on March 6]," the winning trainer said.

Savvy Hallie scores in the Light Fingers

Savvy Hallie (3 f Hellbent - Rose Of Savannah by Fastnet Rock) doubled her Group-race tally at Randwick on Saturday when she downed odds-on favourite Apocalyptic (Extreme Choice) in the Light Fingers Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m). Ridden by Nash Rawiller for Brad Widdup, the three-year-old daughter of Hellbent (I Am Invincible) made all the running and, having kicked a few lengths clear entering the final 200 metres, held on well from Apocalyptic to score by 0.8 lengths. There was a further 0.1 lengths back to Nepo Baby (Lucky Vega) in third place. "I had enough confidence in her not to wait for them," Rawiller said. "I thought, gee I've had all the favours here, I can afford to go before topping the rise and make them chase me down. A few of them may have looked like they were coming at some stage of the race, but she was always going to be able to find something over the last hundred [metres]." Widdup praised Rawiller's ride post-race. "Good, positive ride. That's why we put these guys on," the winning trainer said. "I haven't used Nash a lot for no other reason than we can't get him, so it was nice to get him."

First Group win for Weeping Woman

Joe Pride's five-year-old mare Weeping Woman (5 m Lonhro - Cries And Whiskers by Street Cry) made it back-to-back stakes wins on Saturday when taking out Randwick's Triscay Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m). Ridden by Tim Clark, the daughter of Lonhro (Octagonal) backed up her last-start success in the Razor Sharp Handicap (Listed, 1200m) with a determined 1.2 lengths victory over Manaal (Tassort) in the Group 3 contest. There was a further 0.2 lengths back to the third-placed Verona Rose (Castelvecchio). "Nash [Rawiller] got off her the other day and said she is going to win a really nice race at some stage," Pride said. "It wasn't Nash's job to steer her today but I think Tim [Clark] probably realised he was warming the saddle because Nash will get back on. A nice problem to have. Jockeys fighting over a horse. A nice mare to state the obvious. She keeps winning. A great racing pattern. Makes her own luck. Just keeps getting better. I had planned to take her to the Wenona Girl [Quality, on March 7]. She will probably sneak in one more race at this level and then probably have to go into something better, it looks like she is capable of going onto something better. A nice situation to be in. Interesting to see at some point if she can run beyond 1200 metres. I think she will."

Movin Out causes upset at Randwick

Last season's New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) placegetter Movin Out (Staphanos) made a winning start to her new preparation with an upset victory in a Benchmark 88 over 1300 metres at Randwick on Saturday. ## Joliestar shines in Expressway Stakes

The Chris Waller-trained Joliestar (5 m Zoustar - Jolie Bay by Fastnet Rock) made a winning return to action on Saturday when landing the Expressway Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick.

Ridden by James McDonald, the dual Group 1-winning mare looked in trouble at the 200-metre mark as she had a couple of lengths still to make up on the front-running Caballus (I Am Invincible).

However, the five-year-old began to motor inside the closing stages and picked up that rival before going on to score by 1.2 lengths. There was a further 0.1 lengths back to the third-placed Lady Shenandoah (Snitzel).

"She is a mature horse now. Simple as that. Last year she needed to settle and relax and do the little things right and she does that now," said Waller.

"James put her into a beautiful position. Tactically that was great. It was a sprint home. Tommy [Berry on Caballus] just about pinched the race.

"James didn't go around them. He just stuck to the basics and rode her like a jockey should."

McDonald, who has ridden Joliestar in five of her eight wins, including the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), said: "She was always going to be surging and then it was a matter of getting there in time.

"She always does, she takes a little bit to build through, hence why hustle and bustle sort of races can be the undoing of her, but when she gets the right setup like that, you'd be pushing it to find a horse who could beat her in this country."

On Joliestar's next target, Waller added: "We'll see what James says. I'd say the Canterbury Stakes, 1300 metres, here at Randwick in three weeks' time [will be next]."

Zealand for a win and two placings including a third in the 1,000 Guineas at Riccarton. Subsequently purchased by Yulong, the daughter of Staphanos (Deep Impact) joined Chris Waller's operation in Sydney, where she ran an eye-catching fourth first-up in the Phar Lap Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m). She followed that up with a ninth in the Vinery Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), a win in the Mornington Guineas (1600m), a fifth in the Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m), a third in the ANZ Bloodstock News The Roses (Gr 2, 2000m) and a fourth in the Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m). Movin Out failed to fire in the spring of her four-year-old season, with the best of her five runs being a sixth in the Matriarch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Flemington on November 8. However, she put that behind her on Saturday with a narrow 0.2 lengths success over Gatsby's (Snitzel) under Adam Hyeronimus. "She ran really well," the winning rider said. "Her trials have been great and she ran up to them today. She's effective over further too, so she appears set for a really good campaign."

Four for Rommel

Ridgeport Farm stallion Rommel (Commands) sired a stakes double on Saturday at Pinjarra Park, taking his individual stakes winners tally to four. The son of Commands (Danehill) first stakes winner came when Maria Lucia (2 f ex Mindarie by Safeguard) landed the Magic Millions WA 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) by 0.9 lengths over They'reallsisters (Splintex). Ridden by Chris Parnham for Sean and Jake Casey, the filly found plenty under pressure inside the closing stages with Yamanex (Splintex) only narrowly behind the runner-up in third place. Bred by Mogumber Park, Maria Lucia was purchased by Yenrise Pty Ltd for $105,000 at the 2025 Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale. Out of the winning Safeguard (Exceed And Excel) mare Mindarie, she is a half-sister to Do I Feel Lucky (Dirty Work) - who landed the Magic Millions WA 2YO Classic last year for the Casey's.

Rommel's stakes double arrived in the very next race when Twisted Steel (3 g ex Real Beauty by I Am Invincible) proved two lengths too strong for his 15 rivals in the Magic Millions WA 3YO Trophy (RL, 1200m). The Simon Miller-trained gelding defeated Hubble's Dragon (Deep Field) under Cole Johnston-Porter, with a further 0.1 lengths back to Country God (Playing God) in third place. Purchased by his trainer for $100,000 out of Ruby Racing & Breeding at the 2025 Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale, Twisted Steel is out of the winning I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) mare Real Beauty, making him a brother to winner Rise To Glory. Rommel stood the 2025 breeding season for a fee of $5,500 (inc GST).

First for Banquo

WAIKATO

Justin Case (2 g ex Do Ra Mi by Savabeel) became the first stakes winner for Waikato Stud stallion Banquo (Written Tycoon) when landing Saturday's Matamata Slipper (Gr 3, 1200m). Ridden by Sam Collett for Kris Shailer, the juvenile gelding powered through the Heavy 9 surface to beat Out Of The Blue (Tivaci) by a widening 5.7 lengths. There was a further half-length back to King Of The Air (Acrobat) in third place, while odds-on favourite Kinnaird (Home Affairs) finished last of the quartet, beaten 6.4 lengths by the winner. Having been set to be offered at last year's New Zealand Bloodstock Ready To Run Sale by Ohukia Lodge, Justin Case was withdrawn and races for his breeder Waikato Stud and Ohukia Lodge principal Jamie Beatson. Out of the Group 2-winning Savabeel (Zabeel) mare Do Ra Mi, he is a half-brother to the Group 3-placed winner Hanger (O'Reilly). Banquo stood the 2025 breeding season at a fee of $3,000 (plus GST).

Sistema on the mind for Justin Case team

Following the wide-margin victory of his juvenile gelding Justin Case in Saturday's Matamata Slipper, Kris Shailer revealed that the Sistema Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Ellerslie on Champions Day could be the target. "That's awesome," the winning trainer said. "I am so stoked for the whole Waikato Stud team - Garry and Mark [Chittick] - and Jamie Beatson who owns half of him. This was the plan back in November, after he ran second at Counties we said we would put him away for a couple of weeks and give him a bit of a reset and target him for this race. I wasn't too sure what he was going to be like on the really heavy ground. I really want to see him on top of the ground because I know he can run a bit of time, but that was dominant. He is a pretty laidback customer, he does everything on his own, he never works in company and has come to the races on his own, he is a cool horse. It [Sistema Stakes] is on the mind. We will see how he comes through this and then make a plan."

Seven for Jakkalberry

Diamond Jak (7 g ex Gurus Spirit by Ishiguru) became the seventh individual stakes winner for Jakkalberry (Storming Home) when taking out Saturday's Kaimai Stakes (Listed, 2000m) at Matamata. The Mark Brosnan-trained seven-year-old made all under Rory Hutchings and stayed on well in the testing conditions to beat He's A Doozy (Zacinto) by 4.7 lengths. There was a further 5.6 lengths back to the third-placed Duddle (Dundeel). Bred and owned by Gary and Linda Hodel, Diamond Jak is the only winning foal out of the winning Ishiguru (Danzig) mare Gurus Spirit.

My Lips Are Sealed storms back to form

Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson celebrated a stakes double at Matamata on Saturday, when My Lips Are Sealed (5 m Ace High - Tellmeaboutit by Tavistock) secured victory in the Lisa Chittick Champagne Stakes (Listed, 1400m). Ridden by Rory Hutchings, who also landed a stakes-race double on the day, the Te Akau Racing-owned mare proved 1.7 lengths too strong for Our Jumala (Zed). There was a further 0.3 lengths back to Mary Shan (Almanzor) in third. "She was the one of our team in on the day that I felt would really handle the underfoot conditions," Bergerson said. "She put in a sparkling effort 12 months ago when running third behind Legarto in this race and I just thought if she was back to somewhere near her best she would be a good chance. She had been disappointing in the spring and we were wondering if she was telling us it might be the right time to become a mum, but she freshened up nicely and she showed her true class today."

Eight for Hello Youmzain

Cambridge Stud shuttler Hello Youmzain (Kodiac) sired his eighth individual stakes winner when Hello Hayley (3 f ex Hayley Grace by Thorn Park) scored in the Southland Guineas (Listed, 1400m) at Ascot Park on Saturday. Ridden by Donovan Cooper for Sophie Price, the three-year-old filly defeated Luna Capella (Tivaci) by 0.6 lengths with a further 0.7 lengths back to the third-placed Princess Reign (Prince Of Brooklyn). "That was very impressive, even though I did think she was a little underdone," Price said. "She's a good wee girl. I thought we might have won the Gore Guineas and maybe this field might have been a bit too tough for her. Blinkers on and she has got the job done and they have definitely improved her." Bred by Cambridge Stud principals Sir Brendan and Lady Jo Lindsay, Hello Hayley is out of the winning Thorn Park (Spinning World) mare Hayley Grace and is a half-sister to winners So Graceful (So You Think), Nicking Gracie (Nicconi)

Lara Antipova continues unbeaten run in Matamata Breeders' Stakes

The Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson-trained Lara Antipova (2 f Russian Revolution - Artistic Lass by Myboycharlie) stretched her unbeaten run to three when dominating proceedings in the Matamata Breeders' Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) on Saturday.

Ridden by Opie Bosson, the juvenile daughter of Russian Revolution (Snitzel) came home a comfortable 3.2 lengths winner over Te Encuentro (Frankel) with a further 0.7 lengths back to Hawea (Hellbent) in third place. "

She is a very special filly," Bosson said. "She wasn't 100 per cent in the ground and she had a bit of a stumble turning in but that actually made her pick the bit up a bit more and she got up underneath me, she is pure class.

Lara Antipova

"She was a little bit fresh and a little bit keen early in the running, but with that run under her belt she is only going to improve."

Walker named the Sistema Stakes at Ellerslie as the next destination for his unbeaten filly.

"She is a very good filly," he said. "The next port of call will be the Sistema and then all going well and she was still 100 per cent, you would consider going over to Australia.

"We do think a lot of her. It is great for John and Jessica [Galvin] and the Fortuna team to have another nice one."

47 for Kizuna

Shadai Stallion Station's Kizuna (Deep Impact) chalked up his 47th individual stakes winner when the Kiyoshi Hagiwara-trained Dream Core (3 f ex Normcore by Harbinger) scored in Saturday's Queen Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) at Tokyo. Ridden by Christophe Lemaire, the three-year-old filly defeated Zippy Tune (Lord Kanaloa) by a length and a half with a further length and a quarter back to His Masterpiece (Screen Hero) in third. Out of the dual top-flight-winning mare Normcore (Harbinger), Dream Core is a half-sister to winner Silver Rain (Epiphaneia). Kizuna is standing at a fee of ¥20,000,000 (approx. AU$185,200).

QAT: Deep Monster lands big prize in HH The Amir Trophy

Japanese raider Deep Monster (8 h Deep Impact - Sisterly Love by Bellamy Road) claimed a big prize on Saturday when landing the HH The Amir Trophy (Gr 2, 2400m) at Doha. Ridden by Tom Marquand for Yasutoshi Ikee, the eight-year-old entire backed up a last-start Grade 2 win in Japan with a neck win over dual elite-level winner Goliath (Adlerflug) with a further length back to 2024 Hong Kong Vase (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Giavellotto (Mastercraftsman) in third.

There was a further length back to Waqtuk (Not This Time) in third place. Out of the Grade 3-winning Cozzene (Caro) mare Cozze Up Lady, Michael Scofield is a half-brother to Grade 2 scorer Kimari (Munnings) and to winner Tucson (Constitution). Tiz The Law is standing at a fee of US$30,000 (approx. AU$42,400).

104 for Iffraaj

Al Haram (3 c ex Liberamente by Tagula) provided Darley stallion Iffraaj (Zafonic) with his 104th individual stakes winner when scoring Saturday's Saudi Derby (Gr 3, 1600m) at Riyadh. Ridden by Ricardo Ferreira for trainer Abdullah Alsidrani, the three-year-old colt defeated Obliteration (Violence) by a length and a quarter with a further three-quarters of a length back to Satono Voyage (Into Mischief) in third. Bred by Seamus Phelan, Al Haram was purchased by Abdullah Al-Malek Al-Sabah for £150,000. He is out of the Tagula (Taufan) mare Liberamente, herself a sister to top-class sprinter Limato. Iffraaj is standing at Dalham Hall Stud for a private fee.

Fownes joins elite club with 1,200th Hong Kong winner as double moves him level at top

By Paul Ryding

Caspar Fownes became only the fourth trainer in Hong Kong racing history to reach 1,200 wins at Sha Tin on Saturday, a milestone achieved as he landed a double to move level at the top of the 2025/26 trainers' championship.

On the day Fownes joined an elite group of trainers to pass the 1,200 mark, which includes John Moore, John Size and Tony Cruz, he now sits level at the top of the 2025/26 trainer standings with Mark Newnham on 35 wins. David Hayes is one back on 34.

"It's great to know that we're in the top three or four of Hong Kong [racing history]," Fownes said, "and I've still got a few years left in me, hopefully, so we'll just keep building on that 1,200 – I'm very happy to hit it."

A phenomenal effort from Sky Vino (Vino Rosso) in the Class 3 TVB Lo And Behold Handicap (1650m, dirt) delivered Fownes his landmark Hong Kong winner. Under an centimetre-perfect ride from apprentice Ellis Wong, the 2.6 favourite flew home late – after entering the home straight in 12th position and around ten lengths off the leaders.

Fownes revealed he had hoped to start Sky Vino in the Hong Kong Derby (2000m) on March 22.

"I've always had a high opinion of the horse and, actually, he's come up a bit short for me this season. I really thought it was my Derby horse. But, you know what? Sometimes horses in Hong Kong just need a little bit of time.

"The kid [Wong] was very patient on him, and he quickened up nice from the back of the field."

Sky Trust (So You Think) completed the double for both Wong and the four-time champion trainer, who is now into his 22nd season in Hong Kong. The gelding prevailed by a short head in a desperate battle to the line with Invincible Shield (I Am Invincible) to claim the meeting's feature race, the Class 2

Ellis Wong and Caspar Fownes

HKJC

TVB Cup Handicap (1200m), and complete a day to remember for his trainer.

Amazing Partners (Pierata) made it two from two for Francis Lui as Vincent Ho powered the favourite home in the first section of the Class 4 TVB Yan Oi Charity Show Handicap (1400m).

Lui brought up a double for the day when Turquoise Velocity (Zoustar) struck for the second time in three career outings in the Class 3 TVB Midlife, Sing & Shine Handicap (1000m) under Keith Yeung. Lui has now trained 15 winners since the turn of the year, and the 2023/24 champion trainer has steadily climbed to fifth in the current standings.

Andrea Atzeni continued his fine form with a double. His first winner of the day was a driving effort on the Tony Cruz-trained Serangoon (Ilovethiscity) in the Class 4 TVB Pok Oi Charity Show Handicap (1800m), the six-year-old grabbing his first win in almost a year.

Progressive four-year-old Chill Buddy (Flying Artie) was fancied to finally make his breakthrough in the Class 3 TVB Yan Chai Charity Show Handicap (1200m), and the four-year-old obliged with Atzeni at the eighth time of asking, handing Ricky Yiu a 24th winner of the season and picking up a PP Bonus of HK$1.5 million (approx. AU$271,665) for his owner.

There was another success for the Brett Crawford-Karis Teetan partnership when Gor Gor (Shalaa) claimed the Class 4 TVB Lok Sin Tong Charity Corner Handicap (1200m) on a head-bob, denying Incredible Moment (Royal Meeting) by a nose in a thrilling contest.

"It was a very close finish," Crawford said. "I had to watch the replay a couple of times and I wasn't sure if we actually got up. A lot of credit has to go to Karis, as he managed to get him on the fence from stall ten. It was a really good, strong ride, so I'm very happy. Long may it continue this way, Hong Kong is a place where you've just got to keep driving the results up."

California Star (Starspangledbanner) claimed a second career win courtesy of a patient run under champion jockey Zac Purton and completed a double for Cruz in the Class 4 TVB The Queen Of News Handicap (1650m, dirt).

The second section of the Class 4 TVB Scoop Handicap (1400m) was a processional affair as Run Run Smart (Dandy Man) claimed a surprise win for Derek Leung and Frankie Lor. Jumping at 34-1, the four-year-old held the whole field at bay from gate to wire as he claimed his second career victory from 17 starts.

Magic Millions: The Rise, Fall and Extraordinary Rise of an Iconic Australian Company by Jessica

This January, in a functional sales ring set back from the glitzy Surfers Paradise strip, more than $200 million changed hands for the most precocious horseflesh Australasian breeders can raise.

Across the road, the products of past sales did battle as their owners attempted to recoup their investments at the world's most prominent raceday restricted to the graduates of a single sales company.

The Magic Millions is big business. It is estimated the event – there are polo matches, showjumping, a barrier draw on the beach and countless parties to accompany the buying – delivers upwards of $50 million into the Queensland economy.

However, as with many stories emanating from Australia, it wasn't always so. In fact, it almost didn't happen. In her exhaustively researched third book, Irish-born Australian author Jessica Owers tells the story of cattleman Carl Waugh and the revolutionary idea of turning a bare patch of scrubby land near a racecourse into a global powerhouse.

Waugh is one of those characters only Australia in the second half of the 20th century could have produced. He was a man with calloused hands and an innate sense of 'what sells' that allowed him to take on the Australian breeding establishment and make a backwater of the bloodstock industry a powerhouse.

From the Gordon Gekko-esque excesses of Waugh's successors at the helm of the company in the late 1980s, to the inevitable crippling recession that followed, Owers delivers a story that channels the best of Patrick Robinson and Nick Robinson's triumphant biography of Robert Sangster, Horsetrader, an industry classic.

Horseracing fans will find plenty to engage them. The book gives us a peek behind the curtain on the most significant equine graduates and their importance to the survival of the company, which operated on a knife-edge for much of its first 20 years.

Star sprinter Snippets — a graduate of the first sale — was the "headline horse" every fledgling venture requires, but favourites like Melbourne Cup winner Subzero, the durable filly Ha Ha and, of course, Winx are given due regard.

It is the human cast that makes Magic Millions such a page-turner. Waugh alone is deserving of a book and the larger-than-life pair Gerry Harvey and John Singleton are portrayed as moguls with more than a few warts.

Owers' first two books on Australian turf heroes Peter Pan and Shannon relied almost entirely on secondary evidence. For Magic Millions, she has tracked down primary sources, and the story crackles with pace, energy and a deft ear for the Australian idiom.

While Magic Millions, the company, surges from strength to strength, it is the jeopardy in Magic Millions, the book, that makes it hard to put down.
