MAGIC MILLIONS

Gingerbread Man colt leads the way as Magic Millions Perth sale ends on a high

By Tayla Dyke

Buoyant trade carried through to Book 2 of the 2026 Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale, where a colt by Yarradale Stud's Gingerbread Man (Shamardal) provided the highlight at the Swan Valley complex when selling to Peter and Luke Fernie for a session-topping $190,000.

The second session built strongly on last year's figures, with improved returns across most key metrics reflecting renewed buyer confidence.

A total of 133 yearlings sold at a clearance of 85 per cent. The gross finished at $6,358,500, up 31 per cent year-on-year while the average climbed to $47,808 an increase of 19 per cent and the median weighed in at $35,000, a 16.5 per cent rise.

Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch said the results reflected a market that found strength from both interstate participation early and strong local support through the latter stages of the sale.

"It's been a sensational two days," he told ANZ News. "Obviously we went in with a little bit of trepidation. Leading into the sale, we knew a couple of the bigger players may not play their part as big as they had, but I think the market on a whole stepped up. Continued on page 2

Continued from page 1 "I thought yesterday the interstate and international participation was almost double what it was the year before and that really made up for any difference we had here in the local market.

"But then today, I felt like the locals really stepped in and bought their quota of horses and to have the average up close to 20 per cent on day 2 from last year and a clearance rate is really acceptable at 85 per cent and the gross is increase. It just shows when you've got the right horse, there is an intense appetite to play on those horses and that was evident all through today. Quality horses were well sought after.

"When you think over the two days we're clearing basically 86 per cent, it just shows that the vendors here in the west are very willing to meet the market. It is a genuine real feel and the vibrancy over here is big, it can't be underestimated. It's a great place to come and it's something we look forward to building on, off the back of this year, because it's a great platform to have these guys reinvest in better stock and continue to thrive here in the west."

Yarradale's Gingerbread Man has his day in the sun

up. It's record breaking so it's an outstanding result for the state."

Bowditch noted the depth at the top end of the market as a key driver of the session's momentum, with a significant increase in six-figure results compared to 12 months earlier.

"I think on top of that, I think we had nine, six-figure horses on day two last year and sixteen today. That's a genuinely good the colt is the fifth foal from the winning Ad Valorem mare Lady Valorem, whose only runner to date is stakes placegetter Red Fifty Three. For the Hanratty family, who bred and raised the colt themselves, the result carried deep personal significance.

Purchased by Peter and Luke Fernie,

"It was a massive result for us," an emotional Davy Hanratty told ANZ News. "We had a $60,000 reserve on him, so for him to make $190,000 is life changing for our little family.

"It's actually quite an emotional sale for us because we bred him ourselves. We've only got a mare each, myself and my wife, so it's life changing for us and the kids. My daughter was there when he went through the ring and she was there when the foal was conceived and when he was born. I'm getting quite emotional even talking about it.

"The kids went out every second day and they pet them as foals, pet them as yearlings. My daughter actually came up to the prep and was grooming him during his prep, so it was quite an emotional sale for us, but definitely life changing for our wee family,

"He was a great physical, the price was no fluke.

Everyone that saw him loved him. He had probably 100 parades. He was very busy on x-ray hits and scopes and everything was perfect with him, so it was an easy sale.

"We knew he was clean. He was a good type, walked well, everyone that saw him just wanted him, we knew he was going to make his reserve, but to get $190,000 was a massive shock to us."

Fernie said the colt stood out physically across both books of the sale and required strong bidding to secure in a competitive market.

"He is a nice horse, very athletic. I thought he was the nicest one here over both days. He wasn't as commercial as some of the other ones, but I thought that his physique and the way he got around was beautiful. So pretty happy to get him.

"We probably paid a little bit more than what we thought we would have had to, but there's obviously a lot of good judges that thought the same of him, so I'm very happy to secure him.

"I only got five yesterday, a couple today, so we have done a bit of shopping, and I'm excited to get them all back to the stables. It's been a very strong sale for the good ones, and the lesser ones are a bit easier to get, but you've got to be very strong on the ones that everyone's on, like the one today, we had to be extra strong there."

The purchase added to Fernie's growing Gingerbread Man contingent after he also secured a colt by the sire during Book 1.

"I only bought one yesterday and he got away in the ring and ran away. So he looked fast.

Continued from page 3 That's the closest I've been to a Gingerbread Man. So hopefully both of these ones are quick," Fernie joked.

The six-figure result also provided a significant boost for Gingerbread Man, who stands for $5,500 (inc GST) at Yarradale Stud, reinforcing his credentials in the Western Australian market.

Hanratty said: "I've been saying this for years, Gingerbread Man is the best value stallion in Western Australia. It's a no-brainer. At $5,500, if you send multiple to the farm, we'll do them for $4,400. But he's a very good sire. He has sired a Karrakatta Plate winner and a Belmont Oaks winner. It's very, very good for the stallion. To sell for $190,000 off a $5,000 service fee. It's a massive margin and it's a great result.

"Luke's flying at the moment and he's a very nice fella. He trains a couple for us, we've got Spicy Thang with him, and I'm sure we'll probably have another couple with him by the days out. It's great for him to get a horse like him. I can imagine he'll be a very nice horse next year."

Ridgeport sign off strong sale

Ridgeport Farm's emergence as a major force in the Western Australian sales scene continued after the operation were crowned the leading vendors by aggregate, capping a rapid rise since owner Santo Guagliardo established the farm in 2021.

"It's been great - a really good sale," he told ANZ News. "We are really happy with the sale, especially this draft here. It's just been magnificent. We built [the farm] up to try and be competitive and get some decent horses. So, I've purchased some weanlings, and broodmares in foal, to build up a decent draft.

"Last year we had eight horses go through and it just wasn't cutting it. So I thought, I'll just try this and see and it's worked, because what we've bred here has gone well, and what I've brought across has gone really well too. So it's been really successful."

Speaking shortly before departing for Melbourne, Guagliardo said his focus quickly turned from the sales ring to the racetrack, where his colours will be carried by Watch Me Rock (Awesome Rock) in Saturday's Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield.

Formerly trained by Grant and Alana Williams to victory in the Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), the Awesome Rock (Fastnet Rock) gelding has since joined the stable of Mark Walker in Victoria and is rated a $10 chance.

"I'm pretty confident. I think he'll run well. I think he'd be right up there with them. If he runs in the first three, that's where I think he'll fit," he said.

"We are really happy with the horse. He looks great. He just flew over there and the video I saw this morning was just magnificent. His coat has come through. He's just looking absolutely fabulous. They're very happy with him." Continued on page 5

Guagliardo will also have a keen interest one race later when Alibaba (Alabama Express) lines up in the Blue Diamond (Gr 1, 1200m), with the Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice) colt continuing to build momentum after a win in the Blue Diamond Preview (C&G) (Listed, 1000m) and a luckless third placing in the Inglis Millennium (RL, 1100m) at Randwick.

Drawn in the outside barrier of 16, the colt will need luck in running according to his part-owner.

"He's drawn extremely wide," Guagliardo said. "I'm a bit more confident with Rocko than him because of this draw, but who knows what happens there."

"He drew wide and he was unlucky in the Millennium. So with both I'm hoping we get some luck."

Guagliardo said he would be thrilled to see Alibaba succeed, particularly after initially missing the colt at the yearling sales before later buying into him.

"I was underbidder on him and the yearling sales, and I saw him for trial and was able to get into him. So I own a leg of him, which was great and I'm thankful for that, because now he is going really well. And he's still a colt, so it's good for my Ridgeport breeding here."

Final-lot filly delivers emotional farewell moment at Magic Millions Perth

The final lot through the ring at the 2026 Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale carried far greater significance than the closing fall of the hammer, as emotion and history converged when a grey Gingerbread Man filly out of local favourite Gunmetal Grey (Bradbury's Luck) sold to Tom Wolfe for $107,500.

The filly represented a deeply personal chapter for connections at Greenfields Lodge and their long association with the late Yarradale Stud owner Ron Sayers. The youngster is the first foal from Gunmetal Grey, a mare who captured the imagination of local racegoers and whose future had been carefully planned following Sayers' passing.

Greenfields Lodge owner Tony Patrizi said the decision to lead the filly through the ring himself was an easy one given the emotional weight behind the moment.

"I walked the horse in the ring for my mate," Patrizi said. "This horse meant a lot to us, both to our family and also our next-door neighbour."

Gunmetal Grey had been raced in partnership before Sayers' passing, with connections honouring a promise that the mare would remain in Western Australia and be bred to Gingerbread Man.

Patrizi was visibly emotional as the youngster entered the ring, reflecting the deep personal ties behind the offering.

"There's no question that whatever comes out of this mare, there's going to be a superstar amongst them, 'cause that's what he's gonna organise, and he was the best organiser in the world," Patrizi said.

The story extended beyond pedigree, with the filly accompanied by a unique tribute to Sayers' larger-than-life personality, a bundle of the famed "potato peelers" closely linked to his legacy.

"He did nothing by halves," Patrizi said. "He went on a mission, bought every type of potato peeler in Western Australia, tested them all and decided these were the best. He ended up ordering 10,000, and I think every kitchen in Western Australia has got one."

Auctioneer Grant Burns shared the story during proceedings, adding a layer of theatre to the closing moments of the sale as bidding gathered momentum around the popular grey filly, whose strong reception reflected both her physical appeal and the sentiment surrounding her pedigree.

For the team behind her, the final lot of the catalogue represented far more than a commercial offering, it was a tribute, a promise fulfilled, and a fitting conclusion to the 2026 edition of the sale.

"She's a very special horse," Jane Donnelly said. "Dad did it for Ron. That's as easy as that, I think. Last lot of the day, a beautiful grey filly, and a story that goes back a long way."

Big Sky ruled out of Blue Diamond after x-ray concern

Former Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) favourite Big Sky (Bivouac) was ruled out of Saturday's feature on Friday after co-trainer Mick Price detected an issue during a routine canter at Cranbourne. The colt had passed Racing Victoria's compulsory pre-race veterinary inspections on Thursday, but Price was unhappy with his action on Friday morning and ordered further tests. "I had a little canter with him this morning and his action is not what it should be," Price, who trains in partnership with Michael Kent Jnr, told SENTrack. "We know by looking at the data, on Tuesday morning his stride was a little shorter than it should be, but I was looking more at knees this morning and we have had them x-rayed. There's a bit of immaturity near front, off-front, there's enough there to say I need a second opinion of what's going on with that knee. We think we can see a small flake of bone in there. I'm not sure what we need to do, but what I do know is that the horse will not be running on Saturday and will be going to the paddock." Price said the decision was straightforward. "I wouldn't ask any horse to do anything I wasn't 100 per cent happy with, especially a two-year-old baby," he said. "It is disappointing, but it would be disappointing times ten if I was to run him and get a poor result." In a market reshuffle, stablemate Guest House (Home Affairs) is now $4.60 favourite ahead of Unit Five (Supido) ($5.50) and Closer To Free (Street Boss) ($6.50). RV vets also ruled the Hayes-trained Torture (Sword Of State) unsuitable to race, while Tough Romance (All Too Hard) was cleared to start.

O'Brien dismisses experience concerns with Closer To Free

Danny O'Brien is adamant race experience won't be a negative when Closer To Free (Street Boss) lines up in Saturday's Blue Diamond Stakes at Caulfield for just his second start. The colt earned his place in Victoria's premier juvenile event with a debut win in the Blue Diamond Prelude (Gr 3, 1100m) (C&G) on February 7, having been purchased by O'Brien after an eye-catching Caulfield Heath trial victory while trained by Adrian Corboy. O'Brien believes there is further improvement to come. "The narrative around his trial was that he was wound up, but Adrian told me he was three or four weeks behind with him because he got cast in his box over Christmas and he missed a couple of weeks work," O'Brien said. "When he came to the trials here, he said there was a lot of improvement in the horse and when I saw him in the yard before the Prelude I thought 'he's right, you might need another gallop', but he came out of it really well and will be finding a couple of lengths on Saturday on top of what he's already shown." The trainer dismissed suggestions that limited race exposure is a drawback in modern two-year-old features. "The profile of these two-year-old races has changed over the last 15 or 20 years," he said. "I don't think that's a disadvantage. He's been very well educated and we can thank Adrian for that. He's got a very natural brain and there will be no horse that will handle the parade better than him."

McNeil reunites with Buckaroo in Futurity

Jye McNeil will renew his association with Buckaroo (Fastnet Rock) when the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) runner-up resumes in Saturday's Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield.

McNeil has partnered the Chris Waller-trained gelding just once in his 31-start career, finishing third in last spring's Memsie Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) over the same course and distance behind Treasurethe Moment (Alabama Express) and Mr Brightside (Bullbars). Buckaroo went on to place in the Underwood Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m), Might And Power (Gr 1, 2000m) and Cox Plate before finishing down the track in the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m). "Last campaign I rode him first-up in the Memsie over the same distance and he surprised a few people by running really well," McNeil said. "If he can put a run together like that, I think the team would be very happy. He seems fantastic in the work he did. I didn't work him going into last campaign, but he seems very well. I'm not sure how long I'll be partnering him but I'm looking forward to the opportunity on Saturday." Buckaroo has had two trials in Sydney leading into his return and galloped at Caulfield on Tuesday with McNeil aboard. McNeil said the gelding would handle any potential upgrade from the opening Good 4 surface. "The track was on the firmer side on Tuesday morning, but we didn't do too much, just held him together, and he felt fine," he said.

Connections hoping freshness pays off for Geegees Mistruth

Geegees Mistruth (Wordsmith) will attempt to break through for her first mainland victory when she tackles Saturday's Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) at Caulfield. The Tasmanian-bred four-year-old joined Mark Walker's Cranbourne stable last spring after previously being prepared by Stuart Gandy. A six-time winner from 15 starts, she has finished in the placings at all three runs for her new camp. Assistant trainer Ben Gleeson said the stable had deliberately spaced her runs in a bid to keep her at her best. "She trialled up impressively and we've intentionally gone a month between runs, second-up, which her record is two wins,

Anamoe breeding rightheads strong Inglis Feb (Late) catalogue

A breeding right in first-season sire Anamoe (Street Boss) headlines what Inglis describes as one of the strongest Digital catalogues ever assembled, with 523 lots entered for the February (Late) Online Sale.

The catalogue features 254 racehorses, 117 broodmares, 108 racehorse shares and 37 yearlings among a diverse offering that also includes young mares in foal to some of the country's most commercial stallions.

A nine-time Group 1 winner, Anamoe made an immediate impact at the yearling sales this season, averaging $469,032 in Book 1 on the Gold Coast - the highest ever for a first-season sire at that sale - and producing a seven-figure yearling from his first crop.

"This is one of the most appealing offerings that we have ever brought to market on Inglis Digital," Inglis Digital business manager Nick Melmeth said.

"Anamoe is a young stallion that has the bloodstock market in Australia in raptures and given how few breeding rights were issued at the time of his retirement, this is a fantastic opportunity to secure access to a stallion that has all the attributes to be champion sire."

two seconds," Gleeson said. "She flies with that little bit of freshness in her. She couldn't have trialled any better and her gallop on Tuesday was excellent." Geegees Mistruth resumed with a third at Listed grade over 1000 metres at Caulfield on January 24 before returning to the jump-outs, winning her latest hit-out on February 9. Gleeson believes the 1100 metres

Among the standout racehorses are Golden Gift (1100m) and Kindergarten Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) winner North England (Farnan), Canonbury Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) victor Blitzburg (Snitzel) and stakes-performed Manolo Bling (Grunt).

The shares section includes a five per cent interest in Group 3 winner Bosustow (Blue Point), along with stakes performers Adelaide River (Australia) and Changingoftheguard (Galileo).

The broodmare band features metro winner Sense Of Honour (Pride Of Dubai), offered in foal to Home Affairs (I Am Invincible), while Arrowfield Stud presents a 12-strong draft including stakes producers and mares carrying to leading young sires.

and a smaller field will work in her favour on Saturday. "The less than capacity field suits as she can find trouble in the run, but the extra 100 metres is good and hopefully those gaps come easier for her," he said. "She's a trick to train, but we love her, and we think we've got the best of her now and hopefully on Saturday she shows it."

Ninja ready to strike in Hobartville

Ninja

SPORTPIX

Tommy Berry believes a summer stint in Queensland has transformed Ninja (Farnan) and is backing the gelding to measure up in Saturday's Hobartville Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Rosehill. The Michael Freedman-trained three-year-old won the Vo Rogue Plate (Gr 3, 1300m) at Eagle Farm before finishing a brave second from a wide draw in the Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) last start. Berry said the trip north had sharpened Ninja's racing and temperament. "He was quite a handful as a younger horse, which is why Michael took his time with him," Berry said. "He didn't have the attitude of a good horse, but the trip to Queensland has done him the absolute world of good. He's come back, and his attitude is completely different. He's a lot more relaxed and he's in a really good frame of mind." Drawn low and race-fit, Ninja will clash with quality rivals including Attica (Lonhro) and Autumn Boy (The Autumn Sun), who resume in the Group 2. "He's at a distance he's proven to be good at in the past and if he can't perform against them on Saturday, then he's going to struggle to go to the Randwick Guineas against them," Berry said. "It's a good test for him but one that we think he's well and truly up to." Shangri La Boy (Pierro) is also among the resuming runners, with co-trainer Adrian Bott expecting improvement as he builds toward longer autumn targets. "He's meeting a couple who have a fitness advantage," Bott said. "With that, there's good improvement to come."

Stronger Piggyback building toward Cup targets

Piggyback (Trapeze Artist) has returned bigger and stronger this preparation, and Ciaron Maher's camp believes that could translate into her best chance at Group 1 success during the Sydney Autumn Carnival. The five-year-old resumes in Saturday's Parramatta Cup (Gr 3, 1900m) at Rosehill, a stepping stone toward the Chairman's Quality (Gr 2, 2600m) and then potentially the Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m). Assistant trainer Johann Gerard-Dubord said her first-up fifth at Randwick, where she clocked the fastest last 600 metres of the 1600-metre contest, confirmed she had returned in top order. "Everything about her this time in looks like she has improved," Gerard-Dubord told Racing NSW. "She used to be on the light side. The second part of last prep, physically, she started to furnish and she ended it really well at Rosehill [when winning at Group 3 level over 2400 metres]. From day one this time she just looked bigger and stronger." Piggyback will jump from barrier one and, while likely settling closer than first-up, will again be ridden conservatively. I don't think she could have run any better [last start]. Her last 600 metres was 33.5 and I don't think she's gone that quick in her life," Gerard-Dubord said. "Her trial leading into her first-up run was really good."

Sam Hawkens awaits Parramatta Cup call

John O'Shea and Tom Charlton are hoping for a late scratching to secure Sydney Cup hope Sam Hawkens (Galileo) a start in Saturday's Parramatta Cup at Rosehill, with the imported stayer currently first emergency. "From the start of the week, it looked like every horse above him was going to accept and that's how it has panned out," Charlton said. "It is what it is. If he gets a run, he'll run really well. He's an absolute gentleman and he's a horse we really like." Formerly prepared by William Haggas, Sam Hawkens won up to 2800 metres in Europe and had one Australian run when unplaced as favourite in the St Leger Stakes (2600m) at Randwick last spring. Now settled into his new surroundings, the five-year-old has impressed in two recent trials. "His best form in England was over a mile-and-a-half plus, so for him to trial sharply is great," Charlton said. "His riders, James [McDonald] and Zac [Lloyd], have been quite complimentary and are saying he'll be competitive over a mile. That gives us confidence he's come back well and he's going to be a horse for the future, especially when he gets out over a trip." Stablemate Athabaskan (Almanzor) is safely in the field and will chase a third Sydney Cup tilt after placings in the past two editions. "He seems as enthusiastic and happy as ever," Charlton said. "He will improve from the run, but he can run a solid race and hopefully set himself up for some races down the line."

Aristopolos remains unbeaten with another Listed success

The John Blacker-trained Aristopolos (2 c St Mark's Basilica - Flying Krupt by Krupt) doubled his stakes win tally and stretched his unbeaten record to five when he took out Friday's Gold Sovereign Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Launceston. The son of St Mark's Basilica (Siyouni) became the first southern hemisphere stakes winner for his Coolmore sire last month when landing the Elwick Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Hobart and had since ran out an impressive 8.5-length winner of the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (1200m) at the same track on February 6. Having begun his career with two Launceston victories, the colt returned to the track on Friday to produce another comfortable two-length win in the 1200-metre Listed feature under Erika Byrne Burke. He defeated Momentslikethese (Tiger Of Malay) into second, with Woosh (Wootton Bassett) another five lengths further back in third.

Bivacco breaks through at Canberra

The Ciaron Maher-trained Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) gelding Bivacco got off the mark in impressive style at Canberra on Friday, running out the 3.5-length winner of the card's opening 1000-metre maiden contest. Ridden by Louise Day, the three-year-old benefitted from a strong early pace and cruised to the front at the 200-metre mark before asserting under hands and heels to secure his first win in five starts. Showtime (Snitzel) mare Show Rhythm was second, while Brume De Soliel (Yes Yes Yes) finished another 6.8 lengths back in third. Bivacco was a $150,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale purchase for Triple Crown Syndications and is the first foal out of Taylor's Dream (Rubick), herself a half-sister to 2021 Silver Shadow Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Swift Witness (Star Witness).

MRC Foundation pledges support for Victorian bushfire recovery

The MRC Foundation will contribute over $50,000 in financial and practical support to bushfire-affected communities in northeast Victoria as regional racing families begin rebuilding after the Longwood fires. Announced ahead of Friday's Racing for our Regions fundraiser at Seymour Racing Club, which raised over $200,000, the commitment forms part of the Victorian racing industry's broader recovery response. The Foundation will donate $25,000 to the Racing Victoria Bushfire Relief Fund and $20,000 to the Seymour Bushfire Appeal, split evenly between the Strathbogie Disaster Relief Fund and the CFA and Brigades Donations Fund. A further $5,000 will go to Tallarook Rural Supplies in recognition of its assistance to impacted farms. In addition, 300 metres of running rail will be donated to fire-affected property Leneva Park, along with $2,000 in delivery costs, enabling the business to resume pre-training and breaking operations. "The fires have had a significant impact on our operations, and support like this makes a real difference," said Leneva Park's Mick Sharkie. MRC CEO Tanya Fullarton said the industry had a responsibility to stand with regional participants. Racing for our Regions is being delivered by Racing Victoria, Country Racing Victoria and Seymour Racing Club to raise funds for bushfire-affected communities.

Vale Stephen Parr

The racing community is mourning the loss of former jockey Stephen Parr, who passed away on Wednesday aged 68. Parr enjoyed a successful career in the saddle before retiring from race riding in 2012. His passion for the sport endured beyond his competitive days, continuing to ride trackwork until the 2016-17 season. Widely respected within the industry, Parr was regarded as a true gentleman who was always willing to lend a hand and support others. A devoted husband, father and grandfather, he died surrounded by his family.

New Zealand

Ritchie chasing fourth Oaks crown at Ellerslie

Shaune Ritchie is hoping a change of venue won't halt his affinity with the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) as he seeks a fourth victory in Saturday's Classic at Ellerslie. The Cambridge trainer previously won the race at Trentham with Keep The Peace (Keeper) (2010), Artistic (Darci Brahma) (2012) and Jennifer Eccles (Rip Van Winkle) (2020) and will team with Colm Murray to saddle Tajana (Darci Brahma) this weekend. "It's a race that we like to target with our fillies, and we've got a filly who is going to be in the thick end of things on Saturday," Ritchie said. "Unfortunately, Ohope Wins looks the dominant filly. Having said that, this filly's demeanour is probably better than any of those other fillies we have won with, she just trains herself." Tajana has had a light lead-up, including a placing in the David & Karyn Ellis Fillies Classic (Gr 2, 2100m), and Ritchie believes she will peak on Saturday. "She's certainly not going into the race on tired legs, which is a major plus," he said. Ritchie also saddles Aotearoa Classic (Gr 3, 1600m) winner Tuxedo (Tivaci) in the Otaki Maori WFA Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) and is confident the four-year-old can measure up despite the class rise. "We see him as a weight-for-age star for the next couple of years, but whether he's up to those hardened warriors right now, I guess we will find out on Saturday."

Herbert Power win sparks Kiwi venture for Brayden Star

A career-best victory in the Herbert Power Handicap (Gr 2, 2400m) last spring has prompted connections of Brayden Star (Twilight Son) to chase further riches across the Tasman. The Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young-trained seven-year-old steps out in Saturday's Avondale Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at Ellerslie ahead of his main target, the Auckland Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) on Champions' Day. "He won the Herbert Power and that put his rating right up to the top of his ability level," Busuttin said. "It's made it very hard to place him here in Australia." A tilt at 3200 metres has long appealed. "He was one of the horses that was scratched out of the [2024] Melbourne Cup due to their policies, so he was never going to be in the Cup last year and we're keen to try the horse over two miles," Busuttin said. "The Sydney Cup was the next aim, but with his rating it's too tough for him and the Avondale Cup and Auckland Cup are offering fantastic stake money." Brayden Star has settled in well at Shaune Ritchie's Cambridge property, following a blueprint that proved successful with Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) conqueror Thedoctoroflove (So You Think) last year. Opie Bosson takes the ride aboard Brayden Star on Saturday. "To me, Opie is the best rider in New Zealand and has been for some time and we're rapt to get him," Busuttin said.

Financier set for long-awaited Taupo return

Stephen Marsh is relishing the return of Financier (Tavistock) as the Group 2 performer makes his comeback in Sunday's Rabobank Cup (1400m) at Taupo. The six-year-old hasn't raced since finishing placed in the Japan Trophy (Gr 2, 1600m) at Tauranga two years ago, after a minor tendon issue prompted a lengthy spell. "It's just exciting to have a nice horse like him back," Marsh said. "He had a slight tweak of the tendon, it wasn't a bowed tendon or anything like that, but we decided to give him a long, extended spell and give him a nice, slow build-up. We probably gave him longer than he needed, but time is always a horse's best friend." Marsh expects the run to bring him on. "We have got him forward enough but he is going to take a lot of improvement," he said. At Ellerslie on Saturday, Marsh saddles a trio in the Otaki Maori WFA Classic, headed by reigning Horse of the Year El Vencedor (Shocking). "El Vencedor is obviously using this as a lead-up to the Bonecrusher," Marsh said. "I liked his last run, he is bright and well." Provence (Savabeel) and Queen Zou (Zoustar) complete the stable's WFA assault, while Marsh also fancies Ardalion (Ardrossan) in the Horizon By SkyCity 1200 (1200m) and Kiwi Skyhawk (Contributer) and Sinhaman (Tivaci) in the Avondale Cup (Gr 3, 2400m).

La Dorada confirmed as 'The People's Horse' for NZB Kiwi

Reliable Man

SUPPLIED

Reliable Man dies aged 18

Westbury Stud has announced the death of high-class racehorse and outstanding stallion Reliable Man (Dalakhani), who was euthanised on veterinary advice aged 18 due to post-surgical complications following the removal of a melanoma.

The sire of 29 stakes winners, including four Group 1 winners, Reliable Man made an immediate impact on the track, winning his first three starts, headed by a dominant victory in the Prix du Jockey Club (Gr 1, 2100m).

By Dalakhani (Darshaan) out of the Sadler's Wells (Northern Dancer) mare On Fair Stage, he was bred and initially raced by Sven and Carina Hanson before additional partners joined the ownership.

Later transferred to Chris Waller's stable, he won the 2013 Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick at his final Australian start, defeating the now Arrowfield sire Dundee (High Chaparral).

He retired with five wins and three placings from 14 career starts, with notable fourths in the Prince of Wales's Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) and King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f) against elite international opposition.

At stud, the grey excelled in both hemispheres, with his Group 1 winners including VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) heroine Miami Bound, New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Sentimental Miss, German Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) winner Erle and Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) victor Inspirational Girl. He also enjoyed early success as a broodmare sire, with his daughters producing 41 winners to date.

Champion Two-Year-Old will represent the Clubs and Golden Ticket winners at Ellerslie, joining stablemates Belle Cheval (Savabeel) and He Who Dares (Snitzel) in the southern hemisphere's richest three-year-old race. "We took her to Melbourne in the spring and she didn't really come up," said Mark Walker, who trains in partnership with Sam Bergerson. "She had three weeks on the grass at Te Akau and it seemed to be the recipe to get her going well again. They were pretty tough races in the spring in Australia, but it was good to see her bounce back." La Dorada rebounded with victory in the Levin Classic (Gr 2, 1400m) and was placed in the Karaka Millions 3YO (RL, 1600m) after an unproductive Australian stint. Belle Cheval will tune up in Saturday's Uncle

Remus Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Ellerslie. “She has a wide draw but is in terrific form and has a great record at Ellerslie. I’m looking forward to it,” Walker said. Across the Tasman, Te Akau’s Cranbourne team will field multiple runners on Blue Diamond Day, including I Am Aria (I Am Invincible) in the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). “I think the big plus with her is that Craig Williams got offered a lot of rides and he decided to stick with her,” Walker said.

Waters awarded Sunline Trust International Management Scholarship

Niamh Waters has been named the 2026 recipient of the Sunline Trust International Management Scholarship and will depart on Saturday to begin a 30-week global industry placement. Funded by the Sunline Education Trust and administered by the New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders’ Association (NZTBA), the scholarship provides an all-expenses-paid, bonded experience designed to expose emerging leaders to the systems of the world’s leading thoroughbred organisations. Waters began at Haunui Farm while completing a Diploma in Veterinary Nursing, before roles at New England Stud and Newsells Park Stud in Newmarket, and most recently Newgate Farm in Scone, where she advanced within the yearling team. “I’ve always wanted to expand my understanding of the industry internationally,” Waters said. Her itinerary includes time at Coolmore Stud in Ireland and exposure to Hong Kong’s racing environment. NZTBA chief and Sunline Trust Trustee Nick Johnson said the scholarship had now supported more than 20 young New Zealanders. “It’s helped launch the careers of some of the very best New Zealanders working around the world,” Johnson said. “Niamh is a thoroughly deserving recipient.”

Ka Ying Rising chases record 18th consecutive win

Trainer David Hayes will take aim at Hong Kong racing history at Sha Tin on Sunday when superstar sprinter Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress) attempts to post an unprecedented 18th consecutive victory in the HK$13 million Queen’s Silver Jubilee Cup (Gr 1, 1400m). Currently matching the 17-straight record set by champion sprinter Silent Witness (El Moxie), Ka Ying Rising has not tasted defeat since February 2024. His streak includes seven Group 1 victories, including in last October’s Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) at Randwick. “I’m very excited about the opportunity to try and break Silent Witness’ record,” Hayes said. “His gallop [on Friday] was good – it was just his usual Ka Ying Rising gallop. He’s very much in his routine and it seems to suit him.” The five-year-old has won 18 of his 20 starts and will contest the 1400-metre feature for the second time, having claimed the race last year. “I know he’ll run it and I know he’s better this year than he was last year,” Hayes said. “If they go too fast he’ll sit second or third, and if they go too slow, he’ll lead.” Zac Purton reunites with the gelding from barrier three. Hayes admits nerves will be part of the occasion. “It’s a very surreal feeling in a Group 1 saddling a horse who is a $1 favourite,” he said. “Not many trainers get to do that.”

Teetan and Galaxy Patch reunite for Queen’s Silver Jubilee Cup

Galaxy Patch

HKJC

Karis Teetan is looking forward to renewing his association with Galaxy Patch (Wandjina) in Sunday’s Queen’s Silver Jubilee Cup at Sha Tin, almost two years after his last race day ride on the Pierre Ng-trained gelding. Teetan, who has 23 wins this season, becomes the fourth jockey to partner the six-year-old in five starts this term, with blinkers reapplied as connections search for a return to his best. “I can’t wait, it’s been a long time,” Teetan said. “I rode him in a trial recently, and he was good. He quickened up really well.” The 1400-metre trip poses a fresh test, with Galaxy Patch having raced at the distance only once, when Teetan guided him to a length-second in last year’s edition of the race behind Ka Ying Rising. “Galaxy Patch is not a horse that can be box seat or anything,” Teetan said. “He’s a horse that comes from off the speed. If he can do a run like that, he’ll be strong.” A four-time Group winner in his breakout 2023/24 campaign, Galaxy Patch has added just two wins since but signalled his ability with a Group 2 victory in November. “It’s going to be a strong race...but I know that he is in good shape,” the rider added.

BETTING FORECAST 7-4 Chancellor, 5-2 Boiling Point, Nebras, 13-2 Sky Safari, 20 Military Academy.

VERDICT The Gosden stable has won this race in four of the last seven years and Chancellor (second choice) and Nebras are improving 4yos who command serious respect. Boiling Point produced a high-class handicap performance to win the Cambridgeshire off top weight when last seen but this is a different test and he tackles 1m2f for the first time. Although SKY SAFARI suffered her first defeat on AW when second in a fillies' handicap over C&D five weeks ago it was a run that confirmed her stamina and she showed a bright turn of foot to lead early in the home straight. She is still improving and won't need to find much more to play a starring role.[Paul Smith]
