

Streisand hits the right note with Blue Diamond romp

Streisand

By Trevor Marshallsea

She may have been “underrated” throughout her brief career but trainer Clinton McDonald believes a star has been born after Streisand (Magnus) scored a dominant victory in Saturday’s Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Caulfield.

The filly was the equal-most seasoned performer in the 16-horse field after four previous starts - the latest bringing her first success in a 0.75-length victory in the Blue Diamond Prelude (F) (Gr 2, 1100m) - but drifted late to start on the fourth line of betting at $11.

McDonald believes her experience showed in what was a powerful win in the $2 million feature for a filly bought at Inglis Premier by McDonald and Shane McGrath Bloodstock for $100,000, and whose half-sister will be offered at the same sale next week.

STORM BOY raised, grazed and sold by Coolmore for $460,000 and subsequently bought back for many multiples of that price 12 months later!

Continued from page 1 Jumping from gate ten for Ben Melham - who shrewdly chose her over two-from-two colt Big Sky (Bivouac) before he was scratched on Friday - Streisand sat three and four-wide without cover for the trip, travelling just off the leaders under a solid pace.

The filly joined the front-runners before the turn and while she had a fight to drive past Danny O'Brien's leader Closer To Free (Street Boss), she eventually gained the upper hand over the $4.60 favourite at the 100-metre mark and pushed away to beat that colt by 0.75 lengths.

The Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained colt Guest House (Home Affairs), who drifted slightly from favouritism to start $4.80 second elect, took third, while $5 shot Unit Five (Supido) disappointed in tenth.

McDonald has now won the Blue Diamond twice - in three editions - after the 2024 success of star-crossed filly Hayasugi (Royal Meeting), and has single-handedly worked to redress a gender imbalance, with his pair the only two female winners in seven years.

The Cranbourne trainer has also eclipsed his late father Ross, who won the Blue Diamond only once with Courtza (Pompeii Court) in 1989. That filly went on to win the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) weeks later, and McDonald will now have high hopes of emulating his father with Streisand.

CLINTON McDONALD

Bookmakers wound her into an $11 shot for the world's richest two-year-old race at Rosehill on March 21, level with another Melbourne running Stretan Ruler (Wild Ruler) after his victory 50 minutes earlier in Rosehill's Silver Slipper Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m). Bjorn Baker's Warwoven (Sword Of State) heads that market at $8.

Named after singer Barbra Streisand by her large group of party-hungry owners due to her dam being called Zouper Star (Zoustar), McDonald's filly appeared to greatly appreciate the addition of blinkers earlier in the week.

But McDonald, who also took Hayasugi into her Blue Diamond at her fifth start, said it was race experience that had mostly carried the day.

Streisand ran narrow seconds in Flemington's Maribyrnong Trial Stakes (Listed, 1000m) and Inglis Banner (RL, 1000m) in the spring, then resumed with a fifth in the Blue Diamond Preview (Gr 3, 1000m) before winning the Prelude.

"What a filly," said McDonald, who was celebrating his fifth Group 1.

"The blinkers were used, she floated, but you try things and it worked. To all my staff, my trackwork riders - fantastic.

"She did it the tough way and I thought she was really strong all the way to the line.

"I just thought she was the most seasoned horse in the race. The way she walked around the mounting yard it was like she's done it her whole life and she raced that way."

McDonald drew comparisons of toughness with Hayasugi, who started at $16 in her Blue Diamond. She also went on to the Golden Slipper, but after early trouble finished last. She died from complications following foot surgery after two more starts, which included a second in the Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m).

Continued from page 2 “It was very similar to Hayasugi, very understated,” McDonald said. “She [Hayasugi] just won [the Prelude] by a head and everyone wrote her off in the Diamond.

“Same with this filly. She’s had four starts, got beaten a short half head in two of them, unlucky when she ran fifth and then she won her fourth start. So I thought, ‘Have I got this wrong? I think she’s going alright this filly.’

“She’s had a solid preparation, she’s just come here and she’s tough, and that’s what you need to win these races.

The celebrations looked set to be long and vigorous, judging by the wild mounting yard antics of Streisand’s owners as she hit the line.

“It’s the first time I’ve been punched in the nose in the mounting yard,” said McDonald, who was caught up in the mayhem.

“Big bunch of owners, it’s fantastic; it’s what racing needs. There’s kids, mums, dads. It’s always great when you win but I’ve been down at the horse stalls today and the vibe here in Melbourne racing is fantastic and it’s what we’ve got to create to keep racing going.”

Melham, celebrating his 23rd elite victory, said his loyalty to Streisand had been based on his opinion of her from the outset.

“It was a long-range plan with this filly,” he said. “She showed exceptional ability from day dot. She’s just had a faultless start to her career, two lovely runs before Christmas.

“She went out, had time to have a little break, she’s come back and she’d just furnished every day, developed and obviously that’s what you want to see from these two-year-olds. She’s a ready-made racehorse. Clinton and the team have done a great job.

“She’s a cranky little thing on the ground, but lovely to ride race day. Blinkers first time today, we always thought she’d improve with them on.

“She was a little bit sleepy going to the start, and I gave her a bit of a squeeze and then she picked up and I lit her up in the barriers a bit just to make sure she jumped because she went to sleep on me again.

“Obviously, a lot of the speed didn’t jump and we didn’t end up going that quick. I was just in a position where I could control the race and she did the rest.”

Bred by Victoria’s Eldon Park Stud and offered at last year’s Premier sale by Northmore Thoroughbreds, Streisand is the third foal and second and best runner of Zouper Star, a dual country winner in the southern state over 1200 metres and 1512 metres.

Zouper Star’s colt by Star Witness (Starcraft) - who McDonald’s associate Shane McGrath purchased for $20,000 as a weanling - will be offered as Lot 458 by Newhaven Park at the Premier draft next week. The mare has a Nicconi (Bianconi) colt at foot, and was covered by Street Boss (Street Cry) last spring.

Streisand is one of only 21 named foals from the final crop of Magnus (Flying Spur), who died in late September of that last 2023 season at Widden’s Victorian farm aged 21.

The stallion has 605 winners from 844 runners at 71.68 per cent and 34 stakes victors at four per cent. Streisand is his fifth elite winner.

She’s also among four stakes winners for Zoustar (Northern Meteor) as a broodmare sire, from 87 runners at 4.59 per cent.

The start of the 56th Blue Diamond contained substantial drama. Anticipating the start, several horses lunged at the gates and I Am Aria (I Am Invincible) burst through them, before being quickly restrained by Craig Williams.

O’Brien later said second starter Closer To Free had paid a price for the trouble at the gates, making his run all the more meritorious.

“There was a mishap at the barriers when the starter went to let them go and he flew the machine the first time and smashed his face into the front of the gates when they didn’t open,” O’Brien said.

“It didn’t help, as he didn’t jump as well the second time. He’s got out there and ran a great race, but the winner was too good.”

Too Darn Hot's Tropicus snares maiden Group 1

Tropicus (Too Darn Hot) became the fifth elite winner worldwide for his sensational sire and made a case for his own career at stud with a powerful first-up victory in Saturday's Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) at Caulfield.

Ridden for the first time by Craig Williams, and providing the veteran jockey's first win in the race, Kia Ora Stud's four-year-old homebred began well from gate nine of 13 and found a smooth running line, three wide with cover.

Carrying half a kilogram under topweight under the handicap conditions at 58.5kg, Tropicus cruised up to the leaders before the home turn before being forced into a battle with Gallant Son (Written Tycoon) to his inside for the first half of the straight. Once that was won, however, he kicked well clear inside the 200 metres to put the race to bed.

A slightly easy $7.50 second favourite, Tropicus had 1.25 lengths to spare on the line from $20 shot and topweight Hedged (Capitalist), with Gallant Son holding onto third at $8.50, and $2.60 favourite Point Barrow (Blue Point) running fifth.

It was Tropicus's fourth win - all of them at Caulfield - in 12 starts, and pushed his earnings into seven figures.

Something of a slow burner, he won a two-year-old handicap on debut in May of his first season, but struggled slightly through a three-year-old spring highlighted by a third in Rosehill's San Domenico Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m).

However, he scored his stakes breakthrough on this day last year in the Zeditave Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) and added another black-type win in last August's The Heath (Gr 3, 1100m), before a length second to star sprinter Giga Kick (Scissor Kick) in the Schillaci Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m), also at Caulfield.

Co-trainer Sam Freedman said now that Tropicus had broken through at the top tier, he could be set to ascend to another level and prove himself the latest star son of Darley's in-demand shuttler Too Darn Hot (Dubawi).

Too Darn Hot's runaway success in both hemispheres might yet convince Darley to leave him in Britain this year while it stands his other Australian Group 1 winner Broadsiding at its Kelvinside farm.

Kia Ora may also be licking their lips over the prospect of standing Tropicus, now he has a Group 1 to his name to confirm the high rating his trainers have always had of the stallion.

"He's a proper horse, he deserves that," Sam Freedman, celebrating his 30th birthday, said of the win.

"As a three-year-old he raced against some of the best, Broadsiding and a few really proper colts. He's got better as an entire and he's one of those horses that just trains on and on and on.

"We've seen him get better this prep. You wouldn't rule out him going to another level again."

Continued from page 4 Continuing a hot run of success on the track for Kia Ora horses in the past two years, Tropicus may now be set for the William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), to be held at Caulfield on March 21 while its usual home Moonee Valley is being remodelled.

"I don't think he's a straight horse, to be honest," said Freedman, eschewing the possibility of a start in Flemington's Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) on March 7.

"He's generally good around a bend, he's so good here at Caulfield.

"I'd say we may end up in a William Reid, something like that.

"We'll chat to the team at Kia Ora, they've been great supporters of ours for such a long time ... they're leading an amazing group of horses."

He added: "This horse was largely unwanted as a yearling. Brett Cavanough did a lot of his early work as a yearling and a two-year-old. He's ultra tough.

"He puts himself up there, pins his ears back and has a crack. They don't always do that as entires, as you know, but he's one horse he's got better - two, three, four, he just continues to improve.

"He carried a big weight today. Next in store would probably be a weight-for-age race. I don't think we'd see him in a Newmarket, probably go to a William Reid - he's so good at Caulfield and so good fresh."

Williams, who won another of Caulfield's three elite features on Saturday aboard Pericles (Street Boss) in the Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) said he was ultra impressed with his first sit on Tropicus.

"Beginners' luck maybe, first time on him, but he seemed pretty good to ride," said Williams, celebrating his lucky 88th Group 1 success in the week of Chinese New Year.

"He's pretty cruisy. I can see why Mark Zara and Damian Lane really enjoyed riding him in their time, and he gave me a lovely ride today, so the race worked out really well for me."

Bred by Kia Ora and associates, Tropicus is the third of seven foals - and the second and best winner from two to race - for the mare Extensible (Exceed And Excel), a Sydney city winner of four races who was also placed at Group 3 level.

Her filly by Justify (Scat Daddy) will be offered by Tyreel Stud at this year's Inglis Easter sale. She is catalogued as Lot 301.

Extensible now has a filly foal by Home Affairs (I Am Invincible), and was covered by I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) last spring.

Too Darn Hot, who covered 110 mares at Darley Kelvinside last year at a fee of $275,000 (inc GST), has 14 stakes winners in Australia from 141 runners at 9.93 per cent, and 91 winners at 64.54 per cent.

Tropicus joins Broadside as Too Darn Hot's Australian elite winners, alongside his three in the northern hemisphere in Fallen Angel, Hotazhell and Tornado Alert.

Stretan Ruler adds to family honour with Silver Slipper win

Pakenham trainer Phillip Stokes suggested Melbourne's two-year-olds might be superior to Sydney's this season after his well-related colt Stretan Ruler (Wild Ruler) easily raised his sire's first black-type winner in Rosehill's Silver Slipper Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) on Saturday.

Well ridden from gate four of nine by Chad Schofield, Stretan Ruler - whose half-brother was second-top lot at the recent Inglis Classic Yearling Sale - perched behind a group of three leaders in the running, went past them at the 350 metres and exploded away for the most straightforward of wins, by 3.47 lengths.

Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott's Eviction Notice (Stay Inside) continued the strong form of his first season sire - a Newgate Farm barnmate to Wild Ruler - by claiming second despite drifting to $31. The colt also lived up to his last-start third in the Canonbury Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) and the early form he showed in winning by 7.82 lengths at Kensington's first official trials of the season.

Chris Waller's boom colt Hidrix (Extreme Choice) had his colours lowered in running third as a solidly supported $3.60 favourite, providing another example of the patchy two-year-old form widely seen in recent seasons after becoming the talk of the town with his Canonbury victory.

And indeed Stokes would have it that Sydney's juvenile scene this term is lagging behind the quality of Melbourne's.

While Bjorn Baker's Warwoven (Sword Of State) maintains his long-held spot atop Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) betting, the southern capital has produced a range of head-turning two-year-olds this season.

GETTY IMAGES

Continued from page 5 Stokes indicated this belief had helped in his decision to scratch Stretan Ruler as the first emergency from Saturday's Blue Diamond, after he'd drawn barrier 19, and heads to Sydney. The colt was the first scratching out of the Group 1 on Thursday, but would have gained a run had Stokes elected to wait, with two runners above him taken out.

"We didn't know how to line up the [Sydney] form to be honest," he told Sky Thoroughbred Central after the Silver Slipper. "But it looks like the Melbourne horses might have an edge over the Sydney horses.

"He [Stretan Ruler] is a nice horse. We thought of having him in the Blue Diamond but scratched because of the barrier.

"He put paid to them, conducted himself beautifully, and is a very exciting colt going forward."

Stokes said Stretan Ruler would have his next start in the Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) on March 7 before going to the Slipper two weeks later.

Bookmakers responded to his Silver Slipper win by making him second favourite for the world's richest two-year-old race at $11, behind Warwoven at $8.

Stokes said Stretan Ruler, who debuted with a 0.1-length second in Caulfield's Merson Cooper Stakes (Listed, 1000m) in November, had improved markedly from his first-up fourth of eight in the Blue Diamond Prelude (Gr 3, 1100m) behind Closer To Free (Street Boss), who franked the form by running second in the Blue Diamond.

"I thought he was there today. I thought his first-up run, he was found wanting," Stokes said. "He filled me with confidence before the race today.

"The trip away, he'll take a lot of benefit from this. It was his first time going the Sydney way too, and he conducted himself well there too. Chad Schofield gave him a lovely ride."

Stretan Ruler becomes the second stakes winner for former Godolphin mare Stretan (Bernadini), who managed only a Kembla Grange maiden third-placing amid three starts but has now had four winners from as many foals to race, including two stakes winners.

Stokes's colt follows his triple stakes-winning half-sister and stablemate Stretan

Angel, who's won three stakes races for Stokes up to Group 2 level, alongside three placings in Group 1 sprints.

Stretan Ruler also becomes the first stakes winner amid eight runners for Wild Ruler (Snitzel), the Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) hero who stood his fourth season at Newgate last spring for $27,500 (inc GST).

The handsome bay colt is another example of the value that can be found in the bottom half of the market at the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale, having been bought there by Stokes and Suman Hedge Bloodstock from the Willow Park Stud draft for $220,000. In winning the Group 2, the colt became the 49th individual stakes winner produced under Glenn Burrows' ownership.

He was bred by Cheval Properties and the Hunter Valley's Kirks Bridge Farm, who sold his half-brother by Harry Angel (Dark Angel) for $540,000 at Inglis Classic earlier this month, making him the second top lot of that sale. He was purchased by the Equine Growth Fund, Blueblood Thoroughbreds and SP Bloodstock.

Stretan now has a Harry Angel filly at foot, and was covered last spring by Coolmore shuttler City Of Troy (Justify).

Lofty targets on Sheza Alibi's agenda

Peter Moody declared he had a very special filly on his hands - one with the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) potentially on her horizon - after Sheza Alibi (Saxon Warrior) made a successful return with her third stakes win on Saturday at Caulfield.

The outlier Australian performer - and only stakes winner in this country - for former Coolmore Stud shuttler Saxon Warrior (Deep Impact), Sheza Alibi made it five victories from eight starts with a breathtaking display in the Angus Armanasco Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) for three-year-old fillies at Caulfield.

After taking Flemington's The Vanity (Gr 3, 1400m) and the Sandown Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) back-to-back to end the spring, Sheza Alibi was sent out a prohibitive $1.50 favourite for her resumption in the Armanasco.

With Zac Spain replacing suspended Moody regular Luke Nolen in the saddle, she secured favourite backers their cash, but only after a couple of anxious moments in the home straight.

Continued from page 6 Jumping from barrier one of nine, Sheza Alibi travelled fifth on the fence behind a keen tempo. She entered the straight full of running but with seemingly nowhere to go, as Spain first looked right but then switched back to the rail.

Eventually, tiring leader Chateau Eze (Frankel) drifted just wide enough off the rail to allow Sheza Alibi a narrow space, and she charged through it like the class animal she so obviously is to power away and score by 2.25 lengths.

Ciaran Maher's Group 2 winner Salty Pearl (Tagaloa) worked home well from worse than midfield to take second as $5 second favourite.

Moody and co-trainer Katherine Coleman showed they could prosper at both ends of the market as their $31 longshot Mystery 'N' Drama (Lucky Vega) took third in her first try at black type.

Relieved and delighted, Moody said the victory had vindicated the stable's change of mind in deciding to not run Sheza Alibi at Flemington last week.

Whilst that meant a tilt at next weekend's Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) couldn't be pursued, he said the former Rockhampton-trained revelation might try to make up for it in the Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) on March 7.

Beyond that, the future looks exciting to say the least. Moody said Sheza Alibi would be kept to a brief autumn campaign, with the thought of greater riches in the spring in mind.

"There won't be a deep campaign ... and we'll be back for the spring," he said.

"You dream of her - could she be a Cox Plate filly? But at worst, well it's a terrible thing to say 'at worst', you've got a race like the Golden Eagle, you've got the Empire Rose.

"There's a lot of options, so we just need to make sure we look after her."

Moody added the filly's knockabout Queensland grazier owner Fred Noffke was happy to let him and Coleman decide Sheza Alibi's program, but "more importantly, he's happy for the horse to steer the ship".

"We've got the fillies' option at Flemington in two weeks over a mile [the G2 Kewney Stakes], or the Randwick Guineas, and if she needs another week we can maybe look at something in Sydney beyond that," he said.

Coleman said she was "thrilled" for Spain, saying he'd made the right call to wait for a rails run in the straight.

"Thankfully, he had the horse underneath him to accelerate like that," she said. "We were hoping that she would be able to produce for him when he needed her to.

"Geez she's exciting, this filly. You don't want to get too ahead of yourself but I think she's something really special."

Spain said he was mightily relieved when the inside run opened up.

"I was just going so well," he said. "Good horses get you out of trouble. I wanted to try and hold the box seat but I would've been out of my comfort zone, so I had to just let her travel in hand and just believe in her, really."

Bred by veteran Queensland breeder Fred Mansour, Sheza Alibi was bought by Noffke as a weanling in an Inglis Digital Sale in June 2023, for just $10,000, with Middlebrook Valley Lodge the consignor. She's now won $693,000.

Noffke started her in Rockhampton with Kris Hansen, for whom she won her second start in that city and her third in Townsville, before graduating to black type for a second in Eagle Farms' Tatts Stakes (Listed, 1400m) behind subsequent Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) hero Autumn Boy (The Autumn Sun).

She was then transferred to Moody and Coleman at Pakenham, where she became a budding national superstar.

The bay filly is the fourth of five foals for Sheza Gypsy (Shaft), and her only placegetter from four to race. Before Sheza Alibi's emergence, the mare wasn't served in 2023 or 2024, but was covered by Newgate Farm's $44,000 (inc GST) stallion Ozzmosis (Zoustar) last spring.

Saxon Warrior, who stands for Coolmore in Ireland for €10,000 (approx. A$16,600), has 58 winners from 108 Australian starters, with one stakes winner and two stakes placegetters.

Sheza Alibi ranks as the 11-year-old's second-best performer worldwide, behind his sole elite winner Victoria Road, who took the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf (Gr 1, 1600m).

Morning Briefing

Australia

Five for Magnus

The Clinton McDonald-trained Streisand (2 f ex Zouper Star by Zoustar) became the fifth individual elite-level winner for her late Widden Stud sire Magnus (Flying Spur) when she took out Saturday's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Caulfield. Bred by Victoria's Eldon Park Stud, the filly was initially offered as a weanling by Yarran Thoroughbreds at Inglis Great Southern, selling to Northmore and Waterford for $22,000. She was then offered at last year's Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale by Northmore Thoroughbreds, and sold to her trainer and Shane McGrath for $100,000. The filly is the third foal and best runner out of dual winner Zouper Star (Zoustar). The Zoustar (Northern Meteor) mare has a yearling colt by Star Witness (Starcraft) set to be offered from Newhaven Park's Premier draft next week (Lot 458), a colt foal by Nicconi (Bianconi) at foot, and was covered by Street Boss (Street Cry) last spring. Streisand is one of only 21 named foals from the final crop of Magnus, who died in late 2023 at Widden's Victorian farm aged 21.

34 for Magnus

Magnus enjoyed a red-letter day at Caulfield, with six-year-old gelding Magnaspin (6 g ex Luxaspin by Hard Spun) also coming to the fore in the Victoria Gold Cup (Listed, 2000m) and becoming his late sire's 34th individual stakes winner. Trained by Leon and Troy Corstens and Will Larkin, Magnaspin came out on top of a homestraight battle with eventual third Saganti (Zarak) to win by 0.8 lengths, with Sun Gift (Savabeel) running on into second late. Now an eight-time winner in 41 starts, Magnaspin broke the million-dollar barrier with Saturday's Listed success. Purchased for $60,000 by syndicate owners Bennett Racing at the 2021 Inglis Melbourne Premier Yearling Sale after being passed in as a weanling, the gelding is the first foal out of Hard Spun (Danzig) mare Luxaspin, the dam of two winners from two to race after juvenile filly Kilcam (Lucky Vega) broke her maiden in December. Luxaspin is also a half-sister to Magnus' Group 3 winner Magnapal.

Five for Too Darn Hot

Darley shuttle sire Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) secured his second southern hemisphere Group 1 winner and fifth overall when his son Tropicus (4 h ex Extensible by Exceed And Excel) readily landed the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) at Caulfield for co-trainers Sam and Anthony Freedman. Bred and raced by Kia Ora Stud, Tropicus is the second foal to race out of Group-placed Exceed And Excel (Danehill) mare Extensible, herself a sister to Group 2-placed Listed winner Cathay Lady. Extensible's filly by Coolmore's US Triple Crown winner Justify (Scat Daddy) will be offered by Tyreel Stud at next month's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, catalogued as Lot 301. Crowned Australia's first and second-season champion sire, Too Darn Hot has now produced 14 Australian stakes winners from 141 runners, operating on a remarkable 9.9 per cent stakes winners-to-runners strike rate. Having covered 110 mares at a fee of $275,000 (inc GST) at Kelvinside in the spring, the son of Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) is currently standing at Dalham Hall Stud for £100,000 (approx. AU$190,320).

12 for Street Boss

Darley's flying sire Street Boss (Street Cry) registered his second individual Group 1 winner of the season and 12th overall when Pericles (6 g ex Accessories by Singspiel) landed a deserved elite-level success in the Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield. Making his fifth appearance for Bjorn Baker and ridden by Craig Williams, the gelding delivered a first-up Group 1 win by 0.8 lengths over Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) runner-up Buckaroo (Fastnet Rock), with pace-setter Teasurethe Moment (Alabama Express) a narrow third. Bred and raced by Godolphin, Pericles becomes the third Group 1 winner out of blue hen Singspiel (In The Wings) mare Accessories, joining Champion 2YO and Group 1-winning sire Helmet (Exceed And Excel) – who sired his 19th stakes winner on Saturday – and Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Epaulette (Commands), himself the sire of three Group 1 winners and 24 stakes scorers overall. Pericles is also a half-brother to Group 3 winner Bullbars (Elusive Quality) – the sire of Mr Brightside – as well as Group 2-winning filly Pearls (Exceed And Excel). The sire of explosive Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) and Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tentyris and boom filly Tempted, Street Boss covered 77 mares in 2025 at an unchanged $66,000 (inc GST) fee.

Two for Anders

Widden Stud's second-season sire Anders (Not A Single Doubt) was supplied with his second individual stakes winner when Single Choice (3 g ex Sebring Sally by Sebring) advertised his Derby credentials when he claimed Saturday's Autumn Classic (Gr 2, 1800m) at Caulfield. The Matt Cumani-trained gelding lunged late to take the Group 2 contest by 0.3 lengths over Justify colt Arcora, with Itazura (Tagaloa) just 0.1 lengths further back in third. It was Single Choice's second attempt at stakes level after placing in the Carbine Club Stakes (Gr

All-Star plan for Pericles

Godolphin's Andy Makiv said a gut feeling to send Pericles to Bjorn Baker was vindicated after the gelding finally broke through for a maiden Group 1 win in the Futurity Stakes at Caulfield.

The son of Street Boss will likely meet fellow Godolphin representative Tom Kitten (Harry Angel), now prepared by Sam and Anthony Freedman, in the All-Star Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington on March 7.

"I had a feeling he'd suit Bjorn. I just loved what Bjorn had done with that Vancouver horse [Overpass] he's got and travelled around," Makiv said.

"In fairness, I thought he might be a horse for Western Australia for Bjorn to take because he's had a great record over there and since Bjorn's had him, he said, 'don't worry about WA, worry about Melbourne and Sydney."

Makiv admitted Pericles had been frustrating at the elite level, with four seconds and two thirds prior to his breakthrough.

"He's been a fabulous horse. He's a homebred off Northwood Park in Seymour by our fantastic stallion Street Boss, so for him to achieve Group 1 glory is wonderful for so many people. He's earned near on $7 million in prize-money."

The race also produced a masterclass from Craig Williams, who claimed his third straight Futurity and sixth overall – just two shy of the legendary Roy Higgins' record of eight.

With Mr Brightside sidelined, Williams sought out the Pericles ride and later dedicated the victory to his father Alan on his 86th birthday.

3, 1600m) in November. The gelding was an NZ$80,000 purchase for his trainer out of Riversley Park's 2024 NZB Ready To Run Sale draft, having previously sold to Sam Beatson's operation for $80,000 out of Kingstar Farm at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale. He is out of Listed-winning Sebring (More Than Ready) mare Sebring Sally, who is a half-sister to Group 3 winner Roy's Riviera (All Too Hard). The sire of 28 winners from 82 to race, Anders covered 21 mares in 2025 at a reduced fee of $13,200 (inc GST).

77 for Wootton Bassett

The late Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj) sired his 77th individual stakes winner courtesy of Pallaton's (3 c ex Anevay by Exceed And Excel) win in the Zeditave Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield. The Michael Freedman-trained three-year-old colt was a dual stakes placegetter before his breakthrough performance on Saturday, which saw him defeat last year's Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Devil Night (Extreme Choice) by 1.5 lengths, with Beskat (Snitzel) the same margin further back in third. Connections have said the colt is now likely to press on to the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) at Flemington on March 7. Bred by his owner Mr A Gow-Gates, Pallaton became the third stakes winner from Wootton Bassett's two southern-bred crops. Pallaton is out of Listed-winning juvenile Anevay, herself a half-sister to Group 2 winner and stakes-producing sire Krupt (Flying Spur). Coolmore's Wootton Bassett died due to acute pneumonia aged 17 last September.

68 for So You Think

The star-crossed So You Think (High Chaparral) notched up his 68th individual stakes winner on Saturday courtesy of Bossy Benita's (4 m ex Bossy Woman by Fastnet Rock) determined victory in the Mannerism Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Caulfield. The Michael Mehegan-trained four-year-old mare dictated the pace under Daniel Stackhouse and quickened off the home bend, sticking her neck out in the final stages to hold off her rivals by 0.8 lengths. Butternut Princess (Capitalist) was second, with Damask Rose (Savabeel) another length back in third. Bred by Tarsao Investments out of unraced Fastnet Rock (Danehill) mare Bossy Woman, Bossy Benita was an $85,000 purchase for her trainer at the 2023 Inglis Premier Yearling Sale. Another loss for Coolmore last year, So You Think died after a short illness aged 19 in October.

First for Wild Ruler

Newgate Farm's first-season sire Wild Ruler (Snitzel) claimed his first stakes winner on Saturday when the Philip Stokes-trained Stretan Ruler (2 c ex Sretan by Bernardini) entered the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) picture when he landed the Silver Slipper Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) at Rosehill. Bred by Cheval Properties and the Hunter Valley's Kirks Bridge Farm, who sold his half-brother by Harry Angel (Dark Angel) for $540,000 at Inglis Classic earlier this month, Stretan Ruler was a $220,000 purchase for his trainer and Suman Hedge Bloodstock out of the Willow Park Stud draft at last year's Inglis Easter Yearling Sale. He becomes the second stakes winner out of former Godolphin mare Sretan (Bernadini) following his half-sister and stablemate Stretan Angel (Harry Angel), who has won three stakes races for Stokes up to Group 2 level, alongside three placings in Group 1 sprints. Sretan now has another Harry Angel (Dark Angel) filly at foot, and was covered last spring by Coolmore shuttler City Of Troy (Justify). The sire of two winners from eight runners, Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) hero Wild Ruler stood his fourth season at Newgate last spring, covering 104 mares at an unchanged $27,500 (inc GST) fee. In winning the Group 2, the colt became the 49th individual stakes winner produced under Glenn Burrows' ownership.

Stakes double for Brazen Beau

Brazen Beau (I Am Invincible) was another Darley resident to make waves on Saturday as he sired a stakes double within a half-hour, moving his tally of individual stakes winners to 29. Cinsault (4 m ex Fitou by Street Cry) kicked off the double when gamely landing the Millie Fox Stakes (Gr 2, 1300m) at Caulfield for trainer Michael Freedman. The mare was headed by Lazzura (Snitzel) in the final stages but fought back to claim her third straight victory by 0.2 lengths, with Dark Glitter (Spieth) another 2.4 lengths back in third. A homebred for Godolphin, Cinsault is the best foal out of Listed winner Fitou (Street Cry), a daughter of stakes winner Vintner (Hennessy). Close to follow was Power Beau (5 g ex Catch That Cat by Tale Of The Cat) who got his first taste of black type when winning the City Of Marion Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Morphettville for trainer Wayne Brown. The five-year-old gelding denied Thunder Shoc (Vino Rosso) by 1.4 lengths, with Wonder Boy (Cosmic Force) just 0.1 lengths back in third. A NZ$180,000 purchase for Busuttin Racing and Patella Bloodstock at the 2022 NZB National Yearling Sale, Power Beau is the best to race out of Catch That Cat (Tale Of The Cat), whose Zousain (Zoustar) filly Catch The Glory was last seen claiming The Warra worth $300,000 at Kembla Grange in November. Brazen Beau stood at Darley's Victoria base at a reduced fee of $27,500 (inc GST) last spring.

Freedman enjoys red-letter day

Trainer Michael Freedman admitted he was throwing a “Hail Mary” when stepping in-form mare Cinsault up to stakes level – and the gamble paid off with victory in the Group 2 Millie Fox Stakes at Rosehill. The Godolphin mare had won three of four summer runs in restricted grade before Freedman opted to chase black type. “On facts and figures, I didn’t think she could beat Lazzura but she’s in such a purple patch of form,” Freedman said. “This is a massive jump from a Benchmark 78 race to a Group 2 but with a mare going as well as her, sometimes you just have to roll with it.” Rider Jason Schofield, who earlier claimed the Silver Slipper and Midway, described the win as a gutsy one. “When Lazzura didn’t put me away early I thought, ‘right, we’re the fit horse, we’ll get you later,’” he said. “She was the stronger of the two late.” The success completed a stakes treble for Freedman, following Ninja’s (Farnan) Hobartville Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) win and Pallaton’s Zeditave Stakes victory at Caulfield. Freedman said Cinsault could now press on to the Coolmore Classic (Group 1, 1500m) at Rosehill on March 14 if she pulls up well.

Ninja takes the Hobartville

Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) gelding Ninja (3 g Farnan - Impulsive by So You Think) put his unlucky runner-up finish in the Magic Millions 3YO Guineas (RL, 1400m) firmly behind him with another authoritative victory in Saturday’s Hobartville Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Rosehill. The three-year-old denied Napoleonic (Wootton Bassett) – second behind Tempted (Street Boss) in the Eskimo Prince Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) last start – by 1.4 lengths, with resuming Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Autumn Boy (The Autumn Sun) just 0.1 lengths adrift in third. It was a second stakes win for Ninja, who took out the Vo Rogue Plate (Gr 3, 1300m) at Eagle Farm in great style last month. Trainer Michael Freedman will see how he comes through the race but a start in the Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) is firmly in his sights. “It wouldn’t bother me at all putting him out because I think he’s an exciting horse for the future, but if he pulls up well, against his own age group, why wouldn’t you (go to the Guineas)?” Freedman said.

Piggyback shines in the Parramatta Cup

The Ciaran Maher-trained Piggyback (5 m Trapeze Artist - Wowee by Choisir) continued her upward trajectory when she landed Saturday’s Parramatta Cup (Listed, 1900m) at Rosehill. The Group 3-winning five-year-old is on a potential Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) path and took another step in the right direction when doubling her stakes win tally in Saturday’s Listed contest, denying Bois D’Argent (Toronado) by 0.3 lengths. Another 0.6 lengths went back to Travolta (Lope De Vega) in third.

Breakthrough Australian victory for Lord Penman

Go Racing’s Lord Penman (Contributer) opened his Australian account with a stylish first-up victory in the $160,000 Racing and Sports Handicap (1400m) at Rosehill on Saturday. The New Zealand-bred son of Contributer (High Chaparral) had mixed it in elite company during the spring, finishing second on debut in Sydney before chasing home Linebacker (Super Seth) in the $1 million Silver Eagle (1300m) and finishing within four lengths of Autumn Glow (The Autumn Sun) in the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m). Sent out a $2.40 favourite, Lord Penman was given a patient ride by James McDonald and charged down the outside to edge out fellow Kiwi-bred Palmetto (Ghibellines) by 0.4 lengths. Go Racing general manager Matt Allnutt said the four-year-old had returned in excellent order and would be set on a Group 1 path. “He acquitted himself well in Australia in the spring without winning,” Allnutt said. “He’s being aimed at the Doncaster this year and we believe he’s got a good campaign ahead of him.”

19 for Helmet

A half-brother to Futurity Stakes winner Pericles, Helmet recorded his 19th individual stakes winner on Saturday when Eventually (7 m ex Waldorf by Dash For Cash) took out the Lord Reims Stakes (Gr 3, 2600m) at Morphettville. Trained by Sarah Rutten, the seven-year-old mare charged home late to beat Highland Bling (Highland Reel) by 0.1 lengths, with Crimson Vine (Redwood) another half-length back in third. Bred by Delamere Stud Farm, Eventually was bought for $5,500 via Inglis Digital. She is the third winner from three to race out of metro winner Waldorf (Dash For Cash).

Three for Rebel Dane

Widden Stud sire Rebel Dane (California Dane) sired his third individual stakes winner on Saturday courtesy of Rebel Tuesday (2 f ex Mardi by Redoute’s Choice) who made it back-to-back wins when she landed the Cinderella Stakes (Listed, 1050m) at Morphettville. The Philip Stokes-trained mare defeated Never Ordinary (Dirty Work) by 0.2 lengths with Image Artist (Trapeze Artist) another four lengths back in third. Bred by Jen Campin Bloodstock, Rebel Tuesday was purchased for $30,000 via Inglis Digital in 2024 and is the second stakes winner out of Redoute’s Choice (Danehill) mare Mardi, following Dulcify Stakes (Listed, 1600m) winner Ganbare (Maurice). Rebel Dane covered 20 mares in 2025 at a fee of $8,800 (inc GST).

Lane and Brown cop bans at Caulfield

Leading jockeys Damian Lane and Ethan Brown will both miss key autumn features after receiving suspensions at Flemington on Saturday. Lane was handed a 17-meeting ban for careless riding aboard Eternal Warrior (Extreme Warrior) in the Blue Diamond Stakes, where stewards ruled he shifted out near the 100-metre mark when not sufficiently clear of Unit Five (Supido). The offence was deemed mid-range. He will commence the suspension following next Saturday's Australian Guineas meeting, where he is booked to ride Sixties (Flying Artie), and will be sidelined until March 18. The timing rules Lane out of the $2 million All-Star Mile and Newmarket Handicap meeting at Flemington on March 7, as well as the Peter Young Stakes meeting at Caulfield the following week. Importantly, he will miss the opportunity to partner Treasurethe Moment in the All-Star Mile. Brown received a 20-meeting suspension for a mid-range careless riding offence aboard Way To The Stars (Reward For Effort) in the Oakleigh Plate. Stewards found he allowed his mount to shift in near the 450 metres when not sufficiently clear of Don't Hope Do (So You Think). Like Lane, Brown has deferred his suspension until after the Australian Guineas meeting, where he is set to ride favourite Observer (Ghaiyyath). Brown will also miss the All-Star Mile and Newmarket Handicap meetings but is scheduled to return on March 20, in time to reunite with Jimmysstar (Per Incanto) in the William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Caulfield.

New Zealand

Five for Ocean Park

The often overlooked Ocean Park (Thorn Park) scored his fifth individual Group 1 winner when Ohope Wins (3 f ex Choux Mania, by Redoute's Choice) led home a quinella for the stallion in Saturday's New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) at Ellerslie. The three-year-old filly and the runner-up Autumn Glory were both recent purchases for Yulong and look brilliant staying prospects for the operation. Bred by Gartshore Bloodstock, Ohope Wins is out of the placed Redoute's Choice (Danehill) mare Choux Mania, a half-sister to multiple Group 1 winner Jimmy Choux (Thorn Park) as well as Group

3 scorer Miss Wilson (Stratum). Ohope Wins joins Tofane, Kolding, Kovalica and Ocean Billy as Ocean Park's other Group 1 winners.

14 for Iffraaj

Former Haunui Farm shuttler Iffraaj (Zafonic) supplied his 14th Group 1 winner when his talented daughter Jaarffi (6 m ex Pride Of Tralee by Redoute's Choice) landed a much-deserved Group 1 in Saturday's Otaki Maori Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) at Ellerslie. Bred and raced by Cambridge Stud, the six-year-old mare is out of Pride Of Tralee (Redoute's Choice), making her a half-sister to Listed placegetter Crystal Fountain (Stravinsky), the dam of stakes-placed winner Clear Proof (Justify). Further back, this is the same family of dual Group 1 scorers Serenade Rose (Stravinsky) and Trekking (Street Cry). Iffraaj stands at Darley's Dalham Hall for a private fee.

Second Group score for That's Gold

That's Gold

RACE IMAGES

The Chris Woods-trained That's Gold (3 c Lucky Vega - Longmu by Sebring) added a second Group-race win to his record when he claimed the Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m) at Ellerslie on Saturday and could now be set on a New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) path. The three-year-old colt's first victory in Group company came in December's Bonecrusher Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) and he added to his record with a 3.7-length win over Road To Paris (Circus Maximus). Bred by Yulong and by their shuttler Lucky Vega (Invincible Spirit), That's Gold was bought by his trainer, Paul Moroney Bloodstock and Catheryne Bruggeman for $57,500 at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale in 2024. "I am thrilled to bits," Woods said. "I've got good clients. I put all my syndicates together myself and it took a while to piece this one together when I bought him, but we finally got it done and the results are shown today. He was very strong to the line. My major worry was a lack of tempo, but it panned out alright. When he kicked at the turn, I was looking at the ones behind him and they weren't going to get close to him. He can run some sensational sectionals. He's a delight to have in the stable," Wood said. "Yulong tried to buy him back at one stage, but I didn't tell the owners too much about that. I wanted to keep him as I knew what we had under the bonnet." Following the victory, That's Gold shortened into a $4.20 equal third favourite for the New Zealand Classic at Ellerslie on March 7.

The Kiwi next for Belle Cheval

Belle Cheval (3 f Savabeel - Keepa Cheval by Keeper) will head into the $4 million NZB Kiwi (Listed, 1500m) in winning form after taking out Saturday's Uncle Remus Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Ellerslie. Following her convincing win in last month's Almanzor Trophy (Gr 3, 1200m) on Karaka Millions night, she was meant to head to Matamata last week for her final lead-in run for the Champions Day feature, but inclement conditions forced trainers Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson to delay that final hit-out by a week. The Matamata conditions identified the Uncle Remus as her Plan B, and punters backed her in their droves, with Belle Cheval jumping an even-money favourite. She duly delivered, beating Panther (Ace High) by 0.4 lengths with another 1.2 lengths back to Confesara (Toronado) in third. Te Akau Racing's assistant trainer Reece Trumper was rapt with the performance and said it was a good final building block towards the NZB Kiwi. “She was meant to run last Saturday at Matamata but wet conditions forced us to scratch her,” he said. “She worked well during the week and she is just going from strength to strength. She keeps on improving, which is fantastic to see, she is building the right way.” The second running of the NZB Kiwi will take place at Ellerslie on Champions Day, March 7, and there is set to be plenty of action over the next fortnight, with six slot holders still to lock in their runner.

Final Return holds on in Avondale Cup

Final Return (7 g Reliable Man - Kind Return by Zabeel) proved a poignant winner of Saturday’s Avondale Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at Ellerslie.

The seven-year-old is a son of Reliable Man (Dalakhani), who Westbury Stud announced had died on Friday. Trained by Janelle Millar, the gelding stayed on strongly to repel the late challenge of Australian raider Brayden Star (Twilight Son), eventually beating him by 0.1 lengths. Millar said the gelding would now head to the Auckland Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) in a fortnight. “It’s so satisfying and I will never get sick of this as I’m just so proud,” she said. “Chris [Dell, winning rider] did what I thought he would do as there were a couple on paper that would go forward and I knew we would take some time to get over [closer to the rail]. He moved at the right time and he rode him just so well. This was our aim as the stepping stone to the Auckland Cup in a fortnight. He went into this race last year and didn’t have a very good trip and this year he is a bit stronger and is doing everything right. Being by Reliable Man, who died yesterday [Friday], it was a bit sad, so we told him he was flying the flag for his dad.”

First for Benbatl

Woodside Park Stud's shuttler Benbatl (Dubawi) chalked up his first individual stakes winner when the Ryo Takei-trained Large Ensemble (3 c ex Nasuno Forte by Just A Way) won Saturday's Sumire Stakes (Listed, 2200m) at Hanshin. The three-year-old colt came home stylishly to beat Aurum Ares (Harbinger) by three-quarters of a length, with a further length and a quarter back to Noche Cerrada (Drefong) in third. The colt is out of dual winner Nasuno Forte (Just A Way), a half-sister to the Grade 2-placed Hearts Concerto (Heart's Cry). Benbatl's day got off to a brilliant start when his daughter Femme Courageuse won a 2000-metre contest at Tokyo with Rachel King in the saddle. The three-year-old filly is out of three-time winner Kuhnheit (Deep Impact), who is a half-sister to stakes winner Meiner Surpass (I'll Have Another). Benbatl stands at Big Red Farm in Japan and has sired 15 individual winners in total. The stallion's Group 1 wins included a victory in the Caulfield Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) and he covered 51 mares at a fee of $22,000 (inc GST) at Woodside Park Stud last season.

JPN: First Graded win for Sonshi

The Mitsumasa Nakauchida-trained Sonshi (5 h Night Of Thunder - Afdhaad by Nayef) added a first Graded-race win to his CV when he landed Saturday's Hankyu Hai (Gr 3, 1400m) at Hanshin. The five-year-old entire forged clear in the final stages to beat La La Maceration (California Chrome) by over three lengths. Drop Of Light (Tosen Ra) finished a neck away in third. Sonshi's first stakes win came in last year's Tankyori Stakes (Listed, 1200m).

JPN: Stinger Glass sparkles in Diamond Stakes

The well-bred Stinger Glass (5 h Kizuna - Life For Sale by Not For Sale) upgraded his Listed win when he proved too strong Saturday's Diamond Stakes (Gr 3, 3400m) at Tokyo. The five-year-old defeated Feiern Kranz (Duramente) by a length and a quarter, with a further length and three-quarters back to Brave Rocker (Duramente) in third. Stinger Glass is out of dual Brazilian Grade 1 winner Life For Sale (Not For Sale) making him a half-brother to juvenile Grade 1 winner Danon Fantasy (Deep Impact) as well Listed scorer Hornero (Satono Diamond).

UK: Zoustar's Sky Safari wins Winter Derby

Sky Safari (5 m Zoustar - Moonlight Sonata by Galileo) prevailed in a close finish to win Saturday's Winter Derby Stakes (Gr 3, 1m2f) at Lingfield. Trained by James Fanshawe, the mare stayed on to beat Chancellor (Kingman) by a neck, with a further half-length back to Military Academy (Fastnet Rock) in third. Bred by Wilgerbosdrift, the mare is out of the winning Galileo (Sadler's Wells) mare Moonlight Sonata, a half-sister to prolific Group winner Western Hymn (High Chaparral).

77 for Zoustar

It was a good 24 hours for Zoustar's northern hemisphere crops, with the Jamie Osborne-trained Brotherly Love (3 c ex Ruby Love by Scat Daddy) adding a 77th individual stakes winner to the stallion's record when he landed Friday's Dubai Road To The Kentucky Derby (Listed, 1900m) at Meydan. The colt stayed on all the way to the line to beat Duke Of Immatin (Gun Runner) by two lengths, with a further short-head back to Lino Padrino (Uncle Lino) in third. Bred by David Redvers, Brotherly Love was bought by his trainer for 40,000gns at the Book 2 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale. He is out of Chilean Grade 1 winner Ruby Love (Scat Daddy), making him a half-brother to stablemate and Listed-winning Group 1 placegetter Heart Of Honor (Honor A.P.). In winning Friday's Listed race, Brotherly Love earned 20 qualifying points towards a possible start in the Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f).

Ohope Wins leads home quinella for Yulong and Ocean Park in New Zealand Oaks

By NZ Racing Desk

Yulong Investments has made a splash in New Zealand this season, buying up the nation's leading three-year-old filly talent, and they were once again rewarded at Ellerslie on Saturday when sealing the quinella in the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m).

The burgeoning thoroughbred giant's silks have been prominent at Ellerslie this season through the deeds of their undefeated Group 1 winner and $4 million NZB Kiwi (1500m) favourite Well Written (Written Tycoon), and they were once again to the fore at the Auckland track on Saturday when their exciting staying prospect Ohope Wins (Ocean Park) beat home another recent purchase in Autumn Glory (Ocean Park) in the Oaks.

The Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott-trained filly was ridden off the speed, three from the back, for much of the journey, and looked in a lot of strife when turning for home, but jockey Joe Doyle kept a cool head and guided his charge out wide where she was able to show her class when powering over the top of her rivals to win by 2.2 lengths over Autumn Glory.

"She's a proper horse, that is the best way to describe her after watching that performance," O'Sullivan said.

"It was a no panic ride by Joe, I think I was panicking a bit more watching from the grandstand. When Joe came from the outside I thought she has got a long way to make up but she did it and did it with some sort of ease.

"She is just going to go from strength to strength, she is certainly going to be winning more big races in the future. She wouldn't look out of place in Australia. We have always believed in the filly from day dot and that performance today was pretty special."

While her future may lie across the Tasman, the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) on Champions Day at Ellerslie in a fortnight looms as an enticing target, but O'Sullivan said they will wait for the dust to settle before making any concrete plans.

Ohope Wins

"She will decide for us," he said. "We will sit down with connections during the week and have a chat, but we will be doing what we think is best for her."

Doyle was euphoric after the victory, labelling Ohope Wins as the best three-year-old he has sat on.

"When you get to ride a horse that good, nothing compares," he said. "She has been trained to the minute.

"We were a long way back, but when you are riding one that good they can just overcome all those things - the draw is never an excuse, the ground is never an excuse. She was just too good.

"She still feels like she has got so much left, I couldn't even pull her up. She is absolutely exceptional, I have not ridden a three-year-old like her."

A decision on the New Zealand Derby is yet to be made, by Doyle believes pressing on to challenge the boys in the Champions Day Classic is a no-brainer.

"When are you going to get a better opportunity?" he said.

Already a $3 favourite for the Derby pre-race, Ohope Wins has now shortened into a $1.60 favourite on the TAB's New Zealand Derby futures market following her Oaks performance, while Yulong's Well Written heads the NZB Kiwi market at $1.20.

Jaarffi gets deserved Group 1 victory

Acknowledged as one of the unluckiest horses going around in New Zealand, Jaarffi (Iffraaj) finally got the good fortune she deserved and her first Group One victory when she stormed home to take out the Otaki Maori WFA Classic (Gr 1, 1600m) at Ellerslie.

The six-year-old daughter of Iffraaj (Zafonic), who carries the colours of Cambridge Stud principals Sir Brendan Lindsay and Lady Jo Lindsay, has been amongst the top echelon of gallopers in New Zealand for the past two years but had been denied a victory at the elite level on several occasions due to poor barrier draws, interference at crucial times and unsuitable track conditions amongst a host of contributing factors.

Whilst another wide barrier (nine of 11) on Saturday didn't look promising once again, it played in favour of the Lance Noble-prepared mare as it allowed rider Warren Kennedy to keep her out of trouble in midfield where she sat three wide but in a totally relaxed manner.

Kennedy began to move her forward with 800 metres to run and she was within striking distance of the leaders rounding the home bend as race favourite Pier made his bid for glory, hotly pursued by Sterling Express.

Just as Pier (Proisir) looked to have the race within his grasp, Jaarffi put in several massive bounds to collar him in the shadows of the post to take the win from the favourite, who held out the late closing run of Provence (Savabeel) who snatched third off Sterling Express (Shamexpress).

Noble was especially pleased for everyone connected with the mare who had to exhibit untold patience with her.

"Obviously I am absolutely thrilled as she did deserve this," Noble said.

"She is not an easy mare to train and to achieve this after all the work the staff have put in over the last few years, along with Warren, and for Sir Brendan and Lady Jo, it is just brilliant.

"She got trapped three wide but she has started to relax a lot better out there and probably best she was not stuck on the fence getting into trouble.

"We all do the work for these days and you don't get many opportunities at them, so to get this for the whole team is just brilliant.

"She has always been a big, gangly and aggressive horse on the training track, so we don't do a lot of galloping with her, and while she is a six-year-old she is still learning.

"The plan is to go onto the Bonecrusher Stakes in a fortnight [7 March] and all being well we will."

Kennedy was also quick to pay tribute to the fighting qualities of the mare.

"She has been deserving [of a Group 1 victory] for a while now and we thought she could pick one up in this preparation," he said.

"She has just been so unlucky and she did it tough the whole way today.

"She has got such a huge action and so much heart as she gave it her all today and fought like a tiger.

"I wasn't too concerned when we were wide as she is such a huge striding filly it allowed her to extend when I wanted to.

"Pier gave me a good tussle but she deserved this."

Bred and raced by Cambridge Stud, Jaarffi has now won five of her 24 starts and over $953,000 in prize-money.

BETTING FORECAST: 5 Almighty Lightning, Jumbo Blessing, Master Lucky, 11-2 Honest Witness, 7 Fun Elite, 8 Packing Phoenix, 14 Conspirator, Joy Star, Run Run Sunrise, 16 Leading Dragon, Spicy Speedy, 25 Absolute Lucky, 33 Shandong Spirit, 66 Tai Victory.

VERDICT Master Lucky showed plenty of pace and a good attitude to collect over C&D three weeks ago and, with that his official debut, he's clearly entitled to improve again. Zac Purton prefers Almighty Lightning over others so he's on the shortlist, but JUMBO BLESSING ran well on his debut here from a similar draw and he's since won a trial under Hugh Bowman who rides again.[Alistair Jones]

-----	---	--------------

BETTING FORECAST: 4 Giant Ballon, 7 Stormy Knight, 8 Monta Frutta, Sea Chariot, 10 Embrace Aberdeen, Happy Brethren, Thousand Spirit, 12 Jubilation For All, 20 Phoenix Light, 25 Noble Fans, 33 Runjeet, 50 Lucky Gibs, 100 Fortune Goldsaddle, Super Mastermind.

VERDICT Giant Ballon was quite eye-catching in finishing third from a tricky draw at Happy Valley so, from stall 3 and again with the services of Zac Purton, he's a major player. However, STORMY KNIGHT is in better nick than his form figures imply and hopefully he'll get a forward ride from stall 2. Sea Chariot seems to be finding his level and can also run well.[Alistair Jones]

BETTING FORECAST: 1-3 Colourful King, 11-2 Stellar Express, 10 Magic Control, 25 Drombeg Banner, Invincible Sage, Youthful Spirits, 33 Superb Capitalist.

VERDICT Stellar Express seemed to take his form to a whole new level when dominating a C&D Group 3 handicap from the front last month but the odds-on favourite in that race, COLOURFUL KING, encountered all sorts of traffic before finishing well for second and has an excellent chance to gain compensation before he returns to Group company. Magic Control is next on the list.[Chris Wilson]

BETTING FORECAST: 4 Cool Blue, 5 Romantic Fantasy, 6 Beauty Missile, Chateau Le Peche, 7 Family Fortune, 10 Rattan Galaxy, 12 Hailtothevictors, Harry's Hero, On The Lash, 14 Iron Legion, 33 bar.

VERDICT Romantic Fantasy deserves a break after his recent near misses but COOL BLUE was close behind him here last time despite enduring a troubled run through. That form also brings Chateau Le Peche into the equation, while Beauty Missile and Family Fortune are others with claims.[Alistair Jones]

VERDICT It's been a promising start from SMART GOLF and, armed with a kinder draw than last time, he can make amends for that narrow defeat. Sea Diamond is another unexposed 4yo with clear ability and Quartz Legend is also firmly in the reckoning, as the race didn't pan out at all favourably when downgraded into a Class 4 last month. VERDICT All Round Winner won with a bit in hand two weeks ago but Red Brick Warrior had a torrid run up the straight and wasn't beaten that far. Both are respected, as is Aerovolanic, but SHOTGUN could be interesting upped to 7f as this recent Class 5 winner did well to get so close at this level last week after fluffing the start. VERDICT This looks good for TURIN CHAMPIONS, who had a bit left in the tank when winning over C&D last month and, after only four starts, probably still has potential. All's Well might fare best of the others, while Top Peak, Big Return and Peridot all make some each-way appeal. VERDICT The world's best sprinter KA YING RISING has been imperious over 6f this season and, although he may not be ideally suited by 7f, he won this race stylishly last year. He is very likely to extend his long winning sequence. Helios Express has been the selection's bridesmaid several times and can collect minor honours once again. Lucky Swynessee posted a good effort over 1m last month and is next on the list. ● GHORGAN possible 1lb overweight
 ● LEAPING STAR Long Handicap 8-2
 ● GREY CHARGER Long Handicap 8-0; possible 2lb overweight
 ● PI LEGEND Long Handicap 8-0

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Salon S, 4 Ka Ying Attack, 5 Six Pack, 11-2 Brilliant Express, 8 Heaving, 10 Harold Win, 14 Ghorgan, 16 Sky Heart, The Boom Box, 25 Beauty Crescent, 50 Mighty Strength, 100 Bar.

VERDICT In a competitive race for the grade the suggestion is three-time C&D winner BRILLIANT EXPRESS, who returns to his optimum trip on a good mark. Salon S has made a very bright start to his career and, still unbeaten, he is feared most. Ka Ying Attack, Six Pack and Heaving also make appeal.
