Perfect ten – Autumn Glow dazzles again in Verry Ellelegant Stakes

By Mary-Jo Jackson

Autumn Glow's (The Autumn Sun) remarkable rise gathered further momentum at Randwick on Saturday when the four-year-old extended her flawless record to ten with a controlled victory in the $1 million Verry Ellelegant Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m).

The daughter of The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) again showcased her versatility and tactical speed in the Soft 5 conditions, settling prominently from barrier three before asserting her authority when it mattered to lead home a quinella for Chris Waller.

The winner's stablemate Lindemann (Lonhro) rolled forward to control proceedings, with the resuming Sir Delius (Frankel) in second and Waller's ATC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Aeliana (Castelvecchio) travelling strongly just behind them.

Home Affairs scores second stakes winner

Coolmore's first season sire Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) sired his fifth individual and second stakes-level winner on Saturday when the Ben, Will and JD Hayes-trained Gin Twist (2 f ex Twist Tops by Beneteau) won the TAB We're On (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington. Cont. on page 14

But once James McDonald called on Autumn Glow, the response was immediate.

She lengthened decisively at the 300 metres, putting a margin on her rivals before Aeliana rallied late to reduce the deficit to 0.4 lengths. Sir Delius held on for third, another 3.4 lengths behind in what was an encouraging first-up effort from the dual Group 1 winner.

The mighty mare equalled the great Black Caviar’s (Bel Esprit) record of ten straight wins from debut.

WHEREVER SHE DRAWS,
WHATEVER THE CONDITIONS,
SHE PUTS HERSELF IN THE RACE AND MAKES IT
EASY FOR HERSELF

- CHRIS WALLER

“She does everything right, simple as that,” Waller said of Autumn Glow. “Wherever she draws, whatever the conditions, she puts herself in the race and makes it easy for herself.

“She’s a different type to some of those good horses I’ve trained, when they get back and have your heart in your mouth. She’s up on the speed. She puts herself there, so that’s the difference.”

McDonald said the star mare’s temperament underpins her talent.

“She knows she’s so good,” the winning rider said. “She moves like a dream. She just breathes so well and is so push-button. She’s got an incredible turn of foot. We weren’t going to see the same performance we did first-up because of the ground. Even though it wasn’t to her liking she was always going to win, even if I went another furlong.”

Autumn Glow may be asked to go another two furlongs later in the campaign. The George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m) at Rosehill on March 21 shapes as her next assignment, with Waller leaving the door ajar for a potential rise to 2000 metres – possibly in April’s Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) back at Randwick – should she continue to dominate at weight-for-age level.

Continued from page 3 her next win to give us that ultimate satisfaction that she can run it, otherwise it's probably the Doncaster," Waller said.

"She's got a lot of weight [in the Doncaster] but she's a good horse. I'll talk to Mr [John] Messara and the Hermitage team in Hong Kong. I respect what they've got to say more than anything.

"The only thing with the Doncaster, there are a few unknowns. You can get barrier draws, like barrier 20 and things like that. She's had some tricky draws in her previous races, but I guess when you've got a smaller weight-for-age field where your draws aren't as important, it makes the job a bit easier."

Saturday's win marked Autumn Glow's second at Group 1 level and lifted her prize-money earnings beyond $8 million.

Autumn Glow is one of five individual Group 1 winners for Arrowfield Stud sire The Autumn Sun, whose influence continues to grow, much like his unbeaten daughter's reputation. ## Tempted clinches first Group 1 with gritty Surround victory

Godolphin's top-class filly Tempted (Street Boss) achieved a deserved first elite-level success at Randwick on Saturday, successfully stepping up in distance to claim the $750,000 Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) in tough style.

The Ciaran Maher-trained three-year-old had already proven her ability over 1200 metres against the best, having finished third in the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) behind Marhoona (Snitzel) after defeating that filly the start prior, and also being the first local home in last October's Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) behind only the brilliant Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress).

She resumed with a dominant win against the colts in February's Eskimo Prince Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) and was sent out a firm $1.60 favourite to break through at the highest level against her own sex on Saturday, despite being winless at the 1400-metre distance.

Once the barrier opened Savvy Hallie (Hellbent) rolled forward to dictate terms, with Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Ole Dancer (Ole Kirk) positioned close at hand, while Chad Schofield allowed Tempted to find her rhythm midfield amid genuine early pressure.

Turning for home, Schofield had Tempted building smoothly through her gears and she ranged up alongside Savvy Hallie before digging deep in a sustained duel, thrusting her head out on the line to prevail by 0.2 lengths. Ole Dancer held third another 1.7 lengths back, with Group 1 scorer Apocalyptic (Extreme Choice) disappointing five lengths off the winner in fourth.

A relieved Maher admitted his concern in the final stages, and said the distance stretched the filly's limits.

"Chad knew what he had underneath him. I was actually thinking, 'God, get a little more desperate' halfway down the straight," the winning trainer said post-race.

"The 1400 metres is probably right at the top of her distance range, as we've seen. She's run second and now won at Group 1 level, but you'd think she is more dynamic at 1200 metres."

Maher indicated the original plan of a TJ Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) tilt against older sprinters could now be reassessed, with connections to determine the next move. A trip overseas is also a possibility.

When asked if Tempted was among the best sprinters he had trained, Maher said she was better than 2024 Everest winner Bella Nipotina (Pride Of Dubai) at the same stage, but only time would tell if she could match the latter's longevity.

"She is definitely right up there. She ran second to the best sprinter in the world as a three-year-old. You'd think with furnishing, she is only going to get better," he said. Cont. on page 9

Continued from page 7 It was a bittersweet finish for connections of Savvy Hallie, who were both proud of their filly and gutted to lose a Group 1 in a photo finish.

"Heartbreaking to get beaten," jockey Nash Rawiller said. "I loved her tenacity. She made Tempted really work for it. She was great."

With six wins and four placings from 11 starts, Tempted has now amassed more than $5.1 million in prize-money earnings.

Bred and raced by Godolphin, she is the standout performer from four foals to race out of the Group 2-winning Exceed And Excel (Daneshill) mare Calliope, herself a sister to Group 3 winner Zethus. Calliope is also the dam of dual Group 2 scorer Kallos (Medaglia D'Oro) and recent Talindert Stakes (Listed, 1100m) placegetter Zambales (Pinatubo) and descends from the family of VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) heroine Bulla Borghese (Belong To Me).

In winning Saturday's race, Tempted became the 13th individual Group 1 winner, and third this season, for Darley's flying sire Street Boss (Street Cry), following the exploits of Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) winner Tentyris and Pericles's Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) success last week.

The son of Street Cry (Machiavellian) covered 70 mares at an unchanged $66,000 (inc GST) fee last spring and will be represented by six yearlings at the Inglis Premier Sale, which begins on Sunday.

'Superstar' Observer cements stud future with Guineas success

Shortly after Tempted's Surround Stakes win, her stablemate Observer (Ghaiyyath) parlayed the success for Ciaran Maher and Godolphin with his classy triumph in the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington.

The versatile son of Ghaiyyath (Dubawi) claimed the VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) last November and resumed in February with a win over the reopposing Planet Red (Admire Mars) in the Autumn Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Caulfield.

As such, he was sent out the $1.85 favourite to double his Group 1 tally on Saturday, and settled third from barrier six under Ethan Brown. He was eased onto the rail approaching the home turn, and gained a run up the fence upon straightening.

The colt surged through and put his head down to assert late, scoring by a half-length over Planet Red, who charged home for second, finishing 0.2 lengths ahead of a game Sixties (Flying Artie).

Brown, who suffered a lacerated liver and kidney damage when Maximillius (Written Tycoon) crashed out of the 2023 Guineas, explained his patient ride post-race.

"I'm sure the punters were thinking, 'what's going on here?'" Brown said of his decision to hug the fence. "But the main thing with him is getting him to relax and settle. That meant riding him cool and patient.

"From there the track was fair, we stuck to the fence and he did the rest. He's a superstar."

Maher's assistant trainer Jack Turnbull paid tribute to the winning rider and said the win carried extra meaning for the stable after Brown's serious fall in the race three years ago.

"He's a big part of our team," said Turnbull. "He rides work, trials, gallops – you can ring him anytime to talk through a horse. He's a special rider and it's special we got the job done today."

Maher previously achieved the similar Derby-Guineas double with Hitotsu (Maurice) and Turnbull drew comparisons between the pair.

"He's probably the closest thing we've likened to Hitotsu in terms of racing style," he said. "He's probably not as dynamic, but his ability to be winning a Derby and coming back to be a Group 1 mile Guineas winner at his next preparation is hard to do. You don't often see it. It's a credit to the horse, and to Godolphin as an organisation."

Saturday's success took Observer's record to five wins from nine starts, with prize-money earnings just shy of $2.6 million. It opened multiple autumn options, including the Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m), Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) and Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m).

Darley's burgeoning second-season sire Ghaiyyath will be represented by 17 lots at Inglis Premier, including Stonehouse Thoroughbreds' Lot 19, a half-brother to another VRC Derby winner in 2018 victor Extra Brut (Domesday).

Slipper picture sharpens as Spicy Miss and Campione D'Italia strike at Randwick

Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) aspirations crystallised at Randwick on Saturday as Spicy Miss (Trapeze Artist) and Campione D'Italia (Snitzel) claimed their respective Group 2 races, each earning a coveted berth in the $5 million juvenile feature.

Spicy Miss took the stage first and kicked off her trainer Ciaron Maher's fantastic afternoon when she produced a determined display to break her maiden in the $300,000 Sweet Embrace Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m).

The flashy daughter of Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) had filled the runner-up position at both her previous outings - in the $1 million Golden Gift (1100m) on debut during the spring and first-up in February's Lonhro Plate (Listed, 1000m) behind Agrarian Girl (Tassort).

Stepping up to 1200 metres on Saturday, the filly was ridden positively by Zac Lloyd and travelled sweetly on the Continued on page 13

Continued from page 11 speed before surging to the lead inside the final furlong. She dug deep to deny Screen Icon (Nicconi), who finished well from the back, by 0.4 lengths. By Choice (Written By) stuck on gamely for third, another 0.7 lengths adrift. The result was a trifecta for Widden Stud sires.

Lloyd believes Spicy Miss' attitude will serve her well in the Golden Slipper, for which she firmed into a $15 chance after her first win.

"She ran very well first-up, but both Ciaron and the owners alluded to the fact that she'd improve off the run and they were exactly right. She dug deep today and I think the 1200 metres was a good step for her," the winning rider said.

"She definitely does [feel like a Golden Slipper horse]. I think her mentality and her will to win is going to take her a long way. She's good out of the machine, she does everything right, so that's going to really help her in a high-pressure race like the Golden Slipper."

Maher said the filly had strengthened significantly since her debut campaign and would head straight to Rosehill in three weeks.

"She's always shown that sort of ability," the winning trainer said. "The Darby team has found another one. She made really nice improvement out of her first run and her first-up run this preparation and just tightened nicely. I thought she presented well and she'll make similar improvement again."

A $150,000 Magic Millions purchase for Darby Racing from Widden Stud's draft, Spicy Miss is the first winner out of the imported Street Boss (Street Cry) mare Sweet Gisel and was bred by the Vieira Group.

In winning Saturday's race, she took Trapeze

Artist's record of individual stakes winners to 11, which soon became 12 when three-year-old gelding The Crimson Pirate completed a stakes double for the Widden resident in the Lex Piper Stakes (Listed, 1600m) at Ascot. Trapeze Artist served 52 mares at a reduced fee of $33,000 (inc GST) in the spring.

The next at Randwick was the turn of the colts and saw Campione D'Italia propel his name into Slipper calculations with a boilover victory in the $300,000 Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m).

The Chris Waller-trained son of Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) had been well-fancied on debut in the Lonhro Plate but finished unplaced.

Sent out a $41 chance on Saturday, he settled just off the speed under Tommy Berry before charging down the outside in the home straight to narrowly prevail in a blanket finish, with less than a half-length separating the first four.

His fast-finishing stablemate Central Europe (Frankel) was a 0.1-length second, with the same margin separating him from the third-placed Star Of Jamaica (Profiteer). Favourite Warwoven (Sword Of State) was 0.3 lengths further behind in fourth, but remains the $6 favourite for the Golden Slipper despite tasting defeat for the first time on Saturday. Campione D'Italia meanwhile moved into $15 (from $51) for the Group 1 feature.

"He's always shown promise, which is why we've thrown him in the deep end," Waller said of the winner. "We didn't back off when he did a few things wrong [first time out]. We went back to the trials and worked on getting him to relax.

SHE'S GOOD OUT OF THE MACHINE, SHE DOES EVERYTHING RIGHT, SO THAT'S GOING TO REALLY HELP HER IN A HIGH-PRESSURE RACE LIKE THE GOLDEN SLIPPER

ZAC LLOYD

"He's very competitive - when the gates open he wants to get to the bend first. We're teaching him to get to the winning post first. The Golden Slipper should suit because there'll be genuine speed."

Waller was also full of praise for debutant Central Europe, indicating the Frankel (Galileo) colt out of Champion 2YO Filly Tiggy Wiggy (Kodiak) would head to the Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Rosehill on March 14 in a bid to confirm his Slipper place. He moved into $9 (from $18) for the March 21 contest after his promising showing.

A $500,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale purchase for China Horse Club, Newgate Bloodstock and partners from Baramul Stud's draft, Campione D'Italia was bred by Gerry Harvey out of Medaglia Valore (Medaglia D'Oro), a winning half-sister to the dam of dual Group 3 winner Espionage (Zoustar).

His win provided the late Snitzel with his 168th individual stakes winner, further extending the legacy of Arrowfield Stud's champion sire.

Coolmore's first season sire Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) sired his fifth individual and second stakes-level winner on Saturday when the Ben, Will and JD Hayes-trained Gin Twist (2 f ex Twist Tops by Beneteau) won the TAB We're On (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington. Ridden by Luke Currie, Gin Twist powered to a 1.75 length victory over La Gitana (Home Affairs) with The Troubleshooter (I Am Immortal) a further 2.75 lengths away in third. Bred by Love Racing Pty Ltd, the filly was a $220,000 buy for her trainers from Newgate Farm's draft at the 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. She is the fourth to race and third winner from Listed winner Twist Tops (Beneteau). Home Affairs, who is leading the Australian First Season Sires list by earnings, stood at Coolmore Stud in the Hunter Valley for $82,500 (inc GST) in 2025.

Lindsay Park's Home Affairs fillies quinella at Flemington

A recent jump-out down the Flemington straight proved the difference as Lindsay Park-trained fillies Gin Twist and La Gitana (Home Affairs) filled the quinella in Saturday's Listed TAB We're On.

Prepared by Ben, Will and JD Hayes, the pair had contested an 800-metre jump-out down the straight on February 20 and Ben Hayes believed it was pivotal.

"Two-year-olds are very hard," he said. "They either get it wrong, which we saw with Jacaranda [unplaced stablemate], who dropped the bit early and didn't look comfortable, they don't know how to get into a rhythm, whereas the other two were professional, they jumped, got into a rhythm and gave good kicks.

"It's a bit of a guessing game when you're running them and I say that to the owners, they either handle it or they won't. We say don't worry about that as they will improve out of sight. Having a look and seeing how they handle it is very important."

Hayes revealed there had been added incentive to deliver a big result, with all three fillies daughters of Home Affairs and Coolmore Australia's Tom Magnier hoping for a clean sweep amid the height of yearling sale season.

"We had a bit of pressure on us," Hayes said. "Tom said to us, if we didn't get the trifecta with the Home Affairs fillies, we would be in trouble! Sorry Tom, we only got the quinella, hopefully that's ok.

"It was an impressive win. I got a bit worried as she [Gin Twist] got a bit hot in the mounting yard and got a bit worked up, but she jumped, she looked like she was comfortable the whole race and went to the line quite easily."

Future plans are yet to be confirmed, but Hayes did not rule out a possible trip north with Gin Twist, including a potential tilt at next month's Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) at Rosehill.

"She did it really well and I think it's really exciting going forward. So we'll have a good look at her and see how she pulls up," Hayes added.

"We'll have a discussion with the whole team at Lindsay Park, and we'll work out where we go."

Getta Good Feeling impresses in Inglis Sprint

The Danny O'Brien-trained Getta Good Feeling (So You Think) caused a $21 upset in Saturday's Inglis Sprint (1200m) at Flemington. Taking home the $1 million contest under Billy Egan, the three-year-old filly came home well inside the final 100 metres to collar Nashville Jack (Farnan) by a half-length with the same distance further back to the third-placed Fundamental Nature (Exceedance). Making her seasonal return after a sixth placing in the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) back in November, the daughter of So You Think (High Chaparral) added the Inglis Sprint to her wins in the Wakeful Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) and Edward Manifold Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m), outlining her distance versatility. "My first boss was Bart [Cummings] and he used to do it all the time, coming back from the spring he'd often win with them first-up down the straight so I guess it's fair to say I had premonitions of him when I saw this race and it fitted in really well for us," O'Brien said. "We decided after the spring we wouldn't try to get her to Sydney for the Oaks, that maybe she taps out at 2000 metres so I was able to give her a longer spell and the Inglis race set up perfectly for her and why wouldn't we target it when it's worth $1 million? There was a lot to like about the race and from six weeks ago when we decided to target it, we were definitely trying to go there and win it because it's great money and I had a reasonable amount of confidence that she'd do exactly what she did."

Birdman lands maiden Group 2 in Blamey

Irish import Birdman (5 g Free Eagle - Carol by Acclamation) registered his second Australian stakes success when taking out Saturday's Blamey Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Flemington. Ridden by Ben Melham for Chris Waller, the five-year-old gelding ran on strongly inside the final 200 metres to defeat Enxuto (Lean Mean Machine) by 1.8 lengths. There was a further 0.1 lengths back to Mark Twain (Shocking) in third. "Last start it didn't work out from the inside draw, but today he held his line out of the gates," stable representative Darren Beadman said. "He wasn't the best to step away, but he kept that three wide line and dictated to a few runners around him. He let them know he wasn't going to go over to the fence. He was seven lengths off the lead, and it was a pretty easy watch. He arrived in Australia about a year-and-a-half or two years ago with good credentials and a couple of wins. The owners were hoping to aim for the Melbourne Cup. He's been very consistent and his was a great run in the Caulfield Cup last year. I guess, without speaking to Chris, the Australian Cup will probably be the ideal type of race for him." Saturday's win added to Birdman's victory in the Kingston Town Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m).

Dirty Grin bounces back at Flemington

Kiwi-bred six-year-old Dirty Grin (Zacinto) bounced back to winning form with a barnstorming late run to collect his seventh career victory when taking out a Benchmark 78 (1200m) at Flemington on Saturday. The son of Zacinto (Dansili) last stood on top of the podium when successful over 1214 metres at Geelong back in November but had failed to recapture that form in three subsequent starts. First-up off a freshen up from Nick Ryan, Dirty Grin settled back in the 11-runner field for regular rider Rhys McLeod before angling to the centre of the track to commence a run at the 400 metres. Just as fellow kiwi-bred and favourite Rue De Royale (Per Incanto) looked to be striding to victory, Dirty Grin appeared on his outside and charged past in the shadows of the post to score by a half-length. Ryan had been looking forward to raceday after barrier draws came out on Wednesday and his charge had drawn barrier ten. "I had a little fist pump on Wednesday morning when the barriers came out," the winning trainer said. "He's a horse that really likes room and gets to the outside, while he likes being fresh. He had a week away [to freshen] and struggles to run 1400 [metres] so I haven't done much with him. He had a very quiet jump-out last week and less is certainly more. He's very clean-winded and started perfectly. I think the key is to keep him fresh, space his runs and we'll target another race with a jump-out. Rinse and repeat."

Well-related Watersports salutes

Watersports (Ocean Park), a half-sister to dual Group 1 winner Grail Seeker (Iffraaj), made it three wins from her last four starts when she held out a determined late challenge from Maisy (Pierro) to take out the 1400-metre Benchmark 78 at Flemington on Saturday. Damian Lane had her beautifully positioned one out in third before tackling the leaders early in the long run home. Just as the daughter of Ocean Park (Thorn Park) looked to be cruising, Maisy appeared with her challenge and the pair went stride for stride to the line as Watersports gained the upper hand to win by 0.2 lengths. Winning trainer Archie Alexander had entertained thoughts of defeat when Maisy ranged alongside his charge but her toughness and determination won out in the end. "I held my hands up and thought 'well, she's run a super race but we'll run second today,'" Alexander said. "She's got that determination, got her head in front and the race went as we planned. I had a chat to Damian this morning and it happened exactly how we thought it might. Today was good but now we can look at how long she will race and she's never let us down." Alexander is keen to see the mare contest some of the feature events during the upcoming South Australian Autumn Carnival. "She is making our life very easy," he said. "She keeps presenting well and loves racing. We'll freshen her up and focus on Adelaide in the autumn. We're looking at the City Of Adelaide [Stakes] which is her sweet spot and then there's mile options after that."

13 for Street Boss

Street Boss

DARLEY

Darley stallion Street Boss (Street Cry) chalked up his 13th individual elite-level winner when the Ciaron Maher-trained Tempted (3 f ex Calliope by Exceed And Excel) landed the Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick. Tempted now has five wins from her ten starts and has been out of the placings just one in that time, earning over $4.7 million in prize-money. The Godolphin homebred is the best of three winners from four out of the Group 2-winning Exceed And Excel (Danehill) mare Calliope, herself a sister to Group 3 winner Zethus and also the dam of the dual Group 2 scorer Kallos (Medaglia D'Oro). Street Boss stood the 2025 breeding season at $66,000 (inc GST).

11 for Trapeze Artist

Widden Stud stallion Trapeze Artist (Snitzel) sired his 11th individual stakes winner when the Ciaron Maher-trained Spicy Miss (2 f ex Sweet Gisel by Street Boss) took out the Sweet Embrace Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick on Saturday. A $150,000 Magic Millions purchase from Widden stud for Darby Racing, Spicy Miss has nearly $400,000 in prize-money from her first three starts. Bred by the Vieira Group, she is the first winner from two foals to race out of imported Street Boss mare Sweet Gisel, who died last year with her final foal being a yearling colt by Trapeze Artist. Trapeze Artist stood for a fee of $33,000 (inc GST) in 2025.

168 for Snitzel

Campione D'Italia (2 c ex Medaglia Valore by Medaglia D'Oro) became the 168th individual stakes winner for late Arrowfield Stud stalwart Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) when scoring in Saturday's Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick. Bred by Gerry Harvey and purchased for $500,000 by China Horse Club, Newgate Bloodstock & Partners from the Baramul Stud draft at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Campione D'Italia is the fourth foal from five to race out of the Medaglia D'Oro (El Prado) mare Medaglia Valore, herself a half-sister to the dam of the dual Group 3 winner Espionage (Zoustar). Snitzel died in June last year.

Verona Rose doubles stakes tally in Guy Walter

The Gary Portelli-trained Verona Rose (4 m Castelvechio - Minamya by Makfi) added a second stakes success to her CV when registering a career-best performance to land Saturday's Guy Walter Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Randwick. Ridden by Craig Williams, the four-year-old mare stayed on strongly inside the final 100 metres to beat Manaal (Tassort) by 0.9 lengths with a further 0.1 lengths back to Arctic Glamour (Frosted) in third. Portelli revealed post-race that the Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) is the likely next stop for Verona Rose on March 14. "That's what the plan has been. I thought physically she had improved this preparation, and here she is," the winning trainer said. "She is a daughter of a good stallion in Castelvechio, we bought her for $40,000 from Arrowfield at the Classic Sale. We were aiming for an Oaks when I first bought her, we thought she has got a pedigree that should run two miles. But she's brilliant. I think the Coolmore, down in the weights, she should be very competitive."

Liverpool City Cup win for King Of Roseau

King Of Roseau (4 g Capitalist - Dominica by Choisir) continued his good spell of form when scoring in Saturday's Liverpool City Cup (Gr 3, 1300m) at Randwick. Backing up his win in the Magic Millions Cup (1400m), the Peter Snowden-trained four-year-old gelding quickened up impressively for Tom Sherry inside the final 250 metres and stayed on to beat Enriched (I Am Invincible) by 1.3 lengths. There was a further 0.1 lengths back to Axis (Justify) in third place. Stable representative Aaron Lau said: "We saw what he did down in Melbourne in the Aurie's Star and in the Magic Millions. He has been an absolute revelation his last couple of preparations. When he's on song, he's got a lethal turn of foot. We'll have a good think [about where to next]. The races only get tougher from here and he's probably a few rungs behind those toplineers, but if we set him for the right races, he will certainly make his presence felt."

Ceolwulf bleeds following Verry Elleegant sixth

The Joe Pride-trained Ceolwulf (Tavistock) was found to have bled following his sixth-placed effort in Saturday's Verry Elleegant Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick. The four-time Group 1-winning five-year-old was beaten 5.7 lengths by winner Autumn Glow (The Autumn Sun) in the Group 1 mile, and the stewards report following the race concluded that the gelding had bled. "A post-race veterinary examination revealed Ceolwulf to have blood present in the right nostril. A subsequent endoscopic examination found there to be blood present in the trachea (Grade 1-low). Trainer Mr J. Pride was advised of the provisions of AR79(8), which will require Ceolwulf to gallop 1000m in the presence of a steward prior to racing again. Stewards ruled that a RNSW veterinary officer also will be present when Ceolwulf undertakes this requirement," the stewards report read.

(Saxon Warrior) extending her winning record to three courtesy of a success in the Highway Handicap (1000m), just a day after the death of Pepper's father Bruce. Winning rider Molly Fitzgerald wore a black armband in remembrance during the contest, with the pair coming home strongly down the centre of the track for a 0.9 lengths success over Neil (Headwater). "It's an awesome feeling to ride this winner for Luke," Fitzgerald said. "He's had a sad loss in his family and it's a very emotional win for him I'm sure. She began really good. There's nothing of her, she's tiny but she doesn't know that and they rolled along really quick. We were going to be out of our comfort zone going any quicker than we were so I just let her build and Luke had informed me that she has got a really good turn of foot so I just let her bounce down the home straight and she did the rest." The three-year-old daughter of Saxon Warrior (Deep Impact) is now likely to be targeted at the PJ Bell Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) back at Randwick on April 4. Her yearling half-brother, by Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo), was bought by Jack Bruce at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale for $160,000.

26 for Playing God

Darling View Thoroughbreds stallion Playing God (Blackfriars) chalked up his 26th individual stakes winner when Wonderfully Made (3 f ex Precious Cargo by Trade Fair) took out Saturday's Ascot 1,000 Guineas (Listed, 1800m). Ridden by William Pike for Dan Morton, the three-year-old filly defeated Masmelo (Maschino) by 2.1 lengths with a further 0.8 lengths back to Admire Astra (Admire Mars) in third. Wonderfully Made was purchased by China Horse Club for $250,000 at the 2024 Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale and is a sister to winner Precious God being out of the winning Trade Fair (Zafonic) mare Precious Cargo. Playing God stood for a fee of $33,000 (inc GST) in 2025.

12 for Trapeze Artist

The Crimson Pirate (3 g ex Emmalene by Jet Spur) provided Trapeze Artist with his 12th individual stakes winner when landing the Lex Piper Stakes (Listed, 1600m) at Ascot on Saturday. The Dan Morton-trained gelding was ridden by Lucy Fiore and defeated Aberdeen Flyer (Astern) by 2.6 lengths with a further half-length back to Pure Mac (Maschino) in third. Out of the Listed-winning Jet Spur (Flying Spur) mare Emmalene, The Crimson Pirate is a half-brother to fellow Listed scorer King Kapa (Capitalist) and to the stakes-placed winner Churning (Lonhro).

New Zealand

11 for Ghibellines

Ghibellines

WHITE ROBE LODGE

White Robe Lodge stallion Ghibellines (Shamardal) took his individual stakes tally to 11 on Saturday courtesy of a stakes double at Wingatui. The double began with Noble Knight's (8 g ex Flight Arrival by Yamanin Vital) success in the Dunedin Gold Cup (Listed, 2400m), registering a 1.6 lengths win over Capo Dell Impero in a one-two for the stallion. In Vegas (Telperion) finished a further 0.1 lengths back in third. Noble Knight was purchased out of White Robe Lodge's draft during the New Zealand Bloodstock South Island Sale in 2019 for $22,500 by his trainer Sandra Cunningham and is the only winner from three to race out of the winning Yamanin Vital (Sir Tristram) mare Flight Arrival. Ghibellines's double arrived just one race later when the Joseph Waldron-trained Cluedo Lane (6 g ex Treat Me by O'Reilly) took out the White Robe Lodge (Gr 3, 1600m). Ridden by Akshay Balloo, the six-year-old gelding ran out a 1.2 length winner over Sir Albert (Savabeel) with a further 0.1 lengths back to Matscot (Haradasun) in third. Raced by former Canterbury-based trainer Michael Stokes, who also co-bred him, Cluedo Lane is a brother to winner Givealittle and a half-brother to fellow winner Verdian (Verdi) being out of the winning O'Reilly (Last Tycoon) mare Treat Me. Ghibellines stood the 2025 breeding season at a fee of NZ$7,000 (plus GST).

Waldron revels in White Robe Lodge victory

Cluedo Lane provided Joseph Waldron with his biggest victory since returning from a stint in Australia last year as he ran a quality field ragged over the concluding stages of the White Robe Lodge at Wingatui. Waldron, who left New Zealand shores just over six years ago, made the decision to return to his home region of Otago in the middle of 2025 and commenced training from Wingatui at the start of the season. "It was meant to be I suppose, although it was a shame about Brave Spirit, but he will be back again," Waldron said. "It was a great opportunity for this horse and he took it. He has always shown he had good ability and before we got him he was only just nabbed by Spot On Time in the TAB Mile trial, which is well and truly good enough form for here. A big thanks to Michael Stokes [owner] who sent him our way as for a little stable like ours that is just getting going, having a horse like him is a huge thrill. Akshay [Balloo, winning rider] is incredibly underrated, is great on horses that go forward and that suits ours well. It doesn't get much better than this as it is a huge thrill." Balloo was thankful for the opportunity to ride the horse and made the most of that good fortune. "He is a tough horse," he said. "I was a little bit worried when I couldn't get to the front but I saw my chance and pulled him out at the right time, then I knew he was going to be hard to catch. This is how he likes running and although I had to make some adjustments, it paid off."

Cunningham and Cameron team up for Gold Cup success

Noble Knight

NZ RACING

A peach of a ride and a superior staying effort combined to produce a stirring Dunedin Gold Cup victory for Canterbury raider Noble Knight at Wingatui. The Sandy-Cunningham trained and part-owned eight-year-old went into the contest off the back of a victory over 2000 metres at Riccarton before rounding out his preparation for the feature staying event with a close up second behind race rival Smooth Operator (Turn Me Loose) in the Invercargill Gold Cup (2600m) two weeks ago. Northern rider Matt Cameron made the trip down to Wingatui to partner the gelding and was not left disappointed. "That is so exciting," Cunningham said. "I'm just overwhelmed really, although he deserves it as he is just such a consistent horse and never goes a bad race. We've placed him reasonably well and he has had a wee trip to Australia, where he ran second at Moonee Valley, which was really exciting. We had a placing with our trotter Eurostyle in a Group 1 at Addington last night, where I was yelling at the TV so it could be a fun night here now so look out Wingatui." Cameron was also pleased with the performance after making his second trip to Wingatui in 20 years. "His form has been solid and he gave me a super ride as he lobbed nicely after there was speed on at the start," he said. "He tracked into it three and four wide before the turn where we had cover and when we peeled off their backs he bolted in. With the run he got he relaxed beautifully and was loving it on the line. I've won a few country cups but I've only been here once, which was about 20 years ago, and it is good to be back."

Hello Hayley doubles up in Dunedin Guineas

The Sophie Price-trained Hello Hayley (3 f Hello Youmzain - Hayley Grace by Thorn Park) secured a Guineas double on Saturday when taking out the Dunedin Guineas (Listed, 1600m) at Wingatui. Having landed the Southland Guineas (Listed, 1400m) a fortnight earlier at Ascot Park, the daughter of Hello Youmzain (Kodiac) defeated Golden Spirit (Ancient Spirit) by 0.3 lengths under Donovan Cooper to add this weekend's Listed contest to her CV. There was a further 0.4 lengths back to Quisiera (Sweynesse) in third place. "She [Price] told me she [Hello Hayley] was better than ever today, she had to dig a bit deeper, but she still won it relatively easy," Cooper said. "I was pretty confident when I got back and got a slot in one off the rail. We got good cover and coming into the straight I knew all I needed was a gap. I was that confident the way we were travelling, and I just hoped a gap came in time and it did. What a filly. I am really proud of her and I think she is a really nice type coming through." Price was on horseback conducting her clerk of the course duties when Hello Hayley won the Southland Guineas at Invercargill, but she was able to put her full focus on her horse when trackside on Saturday. "She has gone huge, it was outstanding," the winning trainer said. "I think that [the Gore Guineas] is possibly where we will head. We will give her a freshen-up and go to Riverton, which is pretty handy [from Winton base]. If she goes well we might head to Riccarton a week after and then she will go out for a well-deserved break."

Ramhit wins big for parents in Southern Mile Final

It was an emotional moment at Wingatui on Saturday for Vicky Ramhit, with the Timarubased trainer rewarding his parents for their support with a big winner's cheque following Aladdins Jem's (Satono Aladdin) victory in the $200,000 ODT Southern Mile Final (1600m). Ramhit shares in the ownership of the mare with a small group, including his parents, Jagdish and Pratibha Ramhit, and they have enjoyed a fruitful run with the daughter of Satono Aladdin (Deep Impact), including victory over 1400 metres during New Zealand Cup Week. Her win at Wingatui last month qualified her for the ODT Southern Mile Final and she ran out a 0.7 lengths winner over Our Approval (Ghibellines) on Saturday. "She is a gem, she is something else this horse," winning rider Tina Comignaghi said. "I was flat at the back of the field so I thought I would take my chances and ride for luck, the gaps opened and she burst through them. He [Ramhit] is a great trainer, a good friend of mine, so I am super happy for him to get this win." Ramhit was delighted with the victory, adding: "She's the first horse since I have been training that Mum and Dad own. It's very special. She is a very good mare. I have given her a lot of time because she takes heaps of time to back-up after a race. She [Comignaghi] is a talented jockey, I didn't say anything to her, she knows what she is doing."

Poetic Champion makes successful return at Matamata

Talented but injury plagued sprinter Poetic Champion (Super Seth) once again displayed his absolute class in a fresh state when he monstered his rivals in a Benchmark 75 (1200m) at Matamata on Saturday. Carrying top weight of 59 kilograms, even after apprentice Sam McNab applied his three-kilogram claim, the son of Super Seth (Dundeel) made no race of it once McNab found the lead from barrier rise and applied the blowtorch to his rivals from that point onwards. Poetic Champion was cruising as he rounded the home turn and victory was never in doubt as he defeated Egyptian Queen (Zoustar) by 3.3 lengths. "I think he could be a proper Group 1 sprinter if he hadn't been plagued with knee issues all of his career," winning trainer Tony Pike said. "When he is 100 per cent sound he oozes class, but we generally can only get two or three starts out of him before the issues flare up and he has to go back to the paddock. He was first-up today after ten months off and he did what he normally does although we expected him to win in rating 75 company as he is much better than that. I'm hopeful that as he matures he will start to shake off some of the problems. He has pulled up better than I have seen before. We'll probably take him to Trentham next for the Lightning in April as he goes better left-handed with less pressure on his right knee, which is his worst."

12 for Zelzal

Piana (3 f ex Restless by Le Havre) became the 12th individual stakes winner for Haras de Bouquetot stallion Zelzal (Sea The Stars) when taking out Saturday's Jumeirah 1,000 Guineas (Listed, 1600m) at Meydan. Ridden by Stephane Pasquier for Nicolas Caullery, the three-year-old filly defeated True Test (Time Test) by a head with the same distance further back to the third-placed Sweet Sunshine (Iffraaj) in a tight finish. Out of the Le Havre (Noverre) mare Restless, Piana is a half-sister to winner Reux (Hello Youmzain). Zelzal is standing for a fee of €10,000 (approx. AU$16,620).

JPN: Pair Pollux takes out Ocean Stakes

Pair Pollux (5 h Kinshasa No Kiseki - Miracle Ask by Deep Impact) landed his first Graded race when winning Saturday's Ocean Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Nakayama. Ridden by Yasunari Iwata for trainer Tomoyuki Umeda, the five-year-old entire ran out a neck winner over Rapier (Tower Of London) with the same distance further back to the third-placed Lugal (Duramente).

at Poonawalla Stud Farms following his eighth-place finish in the Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) at Ascot in October. Trained by William Haggas for Shaikh Isa Salman Al Khalifa, Economics was a six-length winner of the Dante Stakes (Gr 2, 1m 2.5f) at York on just his third start. After connections decided to bypass a tilt at the Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f), the chestnut returned to land a second Group 2 in the Prix Guillaume d'Ornano (Gr 2, 2000m) at Deauville. His career highlight came when landing the Irish Champion Stakes at Leopardstown, defeating dual Derby hero and Breeders' Cup Turf (Gr 1, 12f) victor Auguste Rodin (Deep Impact) as well as Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Los Angeles (Camelot). Poonawalla's managing director Simone Poonawalla said: "Economics had colic which required surgery to correct a large colon displacement. Without surgery we were told that he wouldn't get out of it. He came out of the surgery well but the hypoxic injury the gut sustained due to this displacement unfortunately resulted in him developing colitis post surgery. Despite our best efforts and the best veterinary care, he could not be saved."

HK: Romantic Warrior primed for Hong Kong Gold Cup

James McDonald says globetrotting champion Romantic Warrior (Acclamation) feels as good as ever and has maintained his enthusiasm and competitive edge into his eighth year. As he prepares to travel to Hong Kong for Sunday's Hong Kong Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) at Sha Tin, McDonald revealed connections were pleased with the Acclamation (Royal Applause) gelding's preparation for the showdown with last season's Triple Crown winner, Voyage Bubble (Deep Field). "Danny's [Shum] been very happy with him," McDonald said. "Same with all the guys that look after him. They've done a marvellous job this preparation with him." Sunday's race is the second leg of the Triple Crown, and having taken out the first leg - January's Stewards' Cup (Gr 1, 1600m) - a win would put the veteran on course to complete Hong Kong's Triple Crown, one of the few achievements to have eluded him so far in a glittering career. Aside from Voyage Bubble, the only other horse to complete the Triple Crown in Hong Kong racing history was River Verdon (Be My Native) in 1993-94. "He's just got a phenomenal record," McDonald said. "He knows his job so well. He's such a competitor and you know what you're going to get from him, and that's a solid performance every time he steps out."

First for Ubettabelieveit

Hilitany (3 c ex Sand And Deliver by Royal Applause) became the first stakes winner for Mickley Stud stallion Ubettabelieveit (Kodiac) when leaving it late to land Saturday's Spring Cup Stakes (Listed, 7f) at Lingfield. Ridden by Billy Loughnane for George Boughey, the three-year-old colt swooped over the top of his rivals inside the final furlong to beat Bella Lyra (Oasis Dream) by a length. There was a further head back to the third-placed Ten Carat Harry (Ardad). Hilitany is closely related to Group-placed winner Columnist (Ardad) being the seventh foal out of the Royal Applause (Waaajib) mare Sand And Deliver, herself a sister to Group 2 winner Finjaan. Ubettabelieveit is standing for a fee of £4,000 (approx. AU$7,580).

RSA: Wish List doubles Grade 1 tally in Cape Derby

The Justin Snaith-trained Wish List (3 f Legislat - Wind Chill by Silvano) chalked up her second Grade 1 victory when landing Saturday's Cape Derby (Gr 1, 2000m) at Kenilworth. Ridden by Richard Fourie, the filly ran out a three-quarter lengths winner over Note To Self (Futura) with a further two and a quarter lengths back to Viva's Liberte (Vercingetorix) in third. The win backed up January's success in the Paddock Stakes (Gr 1, 1800m).

Three-time Melbourne Cup winner Makybe Diva dies aged 27

By Lydia Symonds

Makybe Diva (Desert King), the only horse in history to win three Melbourne Cups (Gr 1, 3200m), has died at the age of 27.

Owner-breeder Tony Santic confirmed on Saturday that the multiple Group 1-winning champion had succumbed to a bout of colic.

“From the day she came into our lives, she was never just a racehorse, she was family,” Santic said.

“She gave us moments Australia will never forget, but more than that, she gave us joy every single day. She was loved from the beginning, and she stayed loved for her whole life.”

While Makybe Diva will forever be synonymous with the Melbourne Cup, her record extended well beyond Flemington. Her 15 wins included the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m), Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m), Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) and Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) among 36 starts.

Glen Boss, who partnered Makybe Diva in her three Melbourne Cup victories in 2003, 2004 and 2005, said her impact transcended racing.

“I’ll be drinking out of the Cups tonight and thinking about her and what she’s done for Australian racing and Australian sport. There will be champagne flowing out of the Cups for her tonight,” Boss told Racing.com.

“When I saw her a few months ago, she was looking so good and healthy, but I couldn’t help but feel as I left her that this could be the last time.

Foaled: 21 March 1999
Sire: Desert King (Ire) (Danehill)
Dam: Tugela (Riverman)
Breeder: Makybe (Mrs Tony Santic), Great Britain
Owner: Tony Santic
Trainer: David Hall (early career), Lee Freedman
Record: 36 starts – 15 wins, 4 seconds, 3 thirds

“I definitely had that feeling I might not ever see her again. I would have loved to have seen her one more time, but we sort of had our goodbye in a way.”

Boss said he had visited the mare regularly at Santic’s Gnarwarre property in Victoria.

“I’ve been going to see her at least once or twice a year. You have time with them and I’m sure she does [remember me] but it’s more about spending time with her and being mates. I had such admiration for her,” he said.

“Now she’s gone, what a gift she was to Australia. Her performances went beyond our sport.

“You had the Kingston Town era, but I can’t think of a horse before her that captured the public imagination so completely. She left such a big mark on Australian sport and not just racing. I was so lucky that she came into my life.

“After she won the Cox Plate in 2005, she was on every front page, middle page and back page. Then she won a third Melbourne Cup ten days later and she took over the front, middle and back pages again.

“That’s what the champions do. They defy logic, they defy the clock and they defy the handicaps sometimes.

“Even younger people that weren’t even born when she raced, they understand what she did. She left such a big footprint in sport in Australia that it’s impossible not to know of her and what she achieved.

“Tony [Santic] owns three of the most iconic trophies in Australian sport. You’ve got the Ashes and the Baggy Greens but collectively, those are the most prized trophies in Australian sport because it will never be done again.

“It’s mathematically and logistically almost impossible to do what she’d done. That is the gravity of that moment when she won her third Cup.”

Bred in England, Makybe Diva was out of the twice-raced Riverman (Never Bend) mare Tugela, who was purchased in foal by Santic’s bloodstock agent John Foote for 60,000gns at the 1998 Tattersalls Mares Sale.

The resulting filly failed to meet her reserve when offered as a foal the following year and was retained before being sent to Australia.

Makybe Diva was immature as a young horse and did not make her racetrack debut until three days before her fourth birthday, finishing fourth in a Benalla maiden. What followed was an emphatic statement of ability — six consecutive victories, culminating in wins in the Werribee Cup (Listed, 2000m) and the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 3, 2500m) at Flemington.

It would take another 12 months before she returned to the winner's stall — and that win would be her first Melbourne Cup in 2003. Starting at $8, Makybe Diva carried just 51 kilograms under Boss and powered away to claim the great race for David Hall.

The following year, Hall accepted a training position in Hong Kong, and Makybe Diva was transferred to Lee Freedman. After another lean autumn campaign, she rediscovered her form at her final run of the preparation, capturing the Sydney Cup.

Back to her best in the spring of 2004, she was narrowly beaten by Elvstroem (Danehill) in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) — a nose defeat that proved a blessing in disguise, allowing her to enter the Melbourne Cup with 55.5 kilograms. Once again, Boss timed his run to perfection as she stormed home to secure back-to-back Cups.

In 2005, Makybe Diva added weight-for-age greatness to her résumé. She claimed the Australian Cup in record time and, just seven days later, delivered a memorable victory in the Tancred Stakes.

A two-start campaign in Japan followed, where firm tracks did not suit her. Returning to Australia mid-winter, she began preparation for what would become her final and most famous campaign.

She resumed with victory in the Memsie Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m), was luckless when second in the Feehan Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m), then produced a powerful late surge to win the Turnbull Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m). From there she conquered the Cox Plate before heading to Flemington for the Melbourne Cup with a crushing 58 kilograms.

No mare had ever carried such weight to victory in the Cup, but it mattered little. Makybe Diva again out-stayed her rivals to complete an unprecedented third consecutive Melbourne Cup triumph. Moments after the historic three-peat, Santic announced her retirement during the Cup presentation.

For the 2004/05 season, she was named Australia's Champion Racehorse, a title she retained the following year. She was also crowned Champion Stayer twice, as well as earning Champion Filly/Mare honours. Her 58 kilograms in 2005 remains the highest weight carried to Melbourne Cup victory by a mare.

Her achievements were swiftly immortalised. She was inducted into the

WHAT A GIFT SHE WAS TO AUSTRALIA. HER PERFORMANCES WENT BEYOND OUR SPORT - GLEN BOSS

Australian Racing Hall of Fame in 2006 and elevated to Legend status in 2010.

With her third Melbourne Cup win in 2005 — which proved to be her final race start — Makybe Diva became just the fifth multiple winner of the Cup, first run in 1861. The others were Archer (William Tell) (1861, 1862), Peter Pan (Pantheon) (1932, 1934), Rain Lover (Latin Lover) (1968, 1969) and Think Big (Sobig) (1974, 1975).

The enormity of her achievement was captured by Freedman in the moments after her record-breaking victory:

“Go find the smallest child on this course, and there will be the only example of a person who will live long enough to see that again.”

Statues of Makybe Diva now stand at Flemington and Port Lincoln in tribute to her deeds.

Her breeding career, however, did not reach the same heights as her racing exploits. She produced nine named foals, none of whom achieved stakes success.

Makybe Diva lived out her days at Santic's Gnarwarre property, west of Geelong — forever remembered as the only horse to win three consecutive Melbourne Cups, a feat that continues to define Australian racing history.

'It's disappointing for the industry as a whole' - Winx's Snitzel colt withdrawn from Inglis Easter Sale

By Lydia Symonds

The Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) colt out of champion mare Winx (Street Cry) has been withdrawn from the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale after suffering a setback in his preparation.

"The welfare of our beautiful colt is of paramount importance to us and the veterinary advice is that he will need a period of time to recover appropriately from his setback," part-owner Peter Tighe said.

"We will give him all the time that he needs and thus he will be unable to take his place in the sale.

"He is in great hands with the team at Coolmore and we look forward to his race career once he has made a full recovery."

The colt was set to become the second yearling offered out of the 25-time Group 1-winning mare. Her first foal, a filly by Pierro (Lonhro), fetched a record-breaking $10 million when purchased by her co-owner Debbie Kepitis's Woppitt Bloodstock at the 2024 Easter Sale.

Inglis Bloodstock CEO Sebastian Hutch said the colt's absence would be felt across the industry.

"It's disappointing for the industry as a whole that we won't be seeing Winx's Snitzel colt at Easter, based purely off the amazing scenes and theatre his big sister generated at Inglis Easter at Riverside Stables in 2024," Hutch said.

"We wish the connections, with whom we have forged a fantastic relationship with over the past few years, all the very best with their beautiful colt and hopefully he goes on to have a successful race career.

"The catalogue for the Easter Sale on March 29 and 30 is extraordinary, the quality of yearlings on offer is incredibly high and we are very much looking forward to the sale."

Optimistic Inglis all set for strong Premier sale

By Trevor Marshallsea

A half-brother to Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) queen Streisand (Magnus), siblings to 12 other top-tier victors, and offspring of 15 elite-level winning mares including Mariamia (Toronado) and Nettoyer (Sebring) are among the reasons giving Inglis optimism over a strong Premier sale.

A catalogue of 814 yearlings - by 110 stallions and offered by 64 vendors - has been drawn for the auction at Oaklands Junction from Sunday, including 226 in Book 2 on Tuesday.

That's 11 more horses than last year's edition, which despite fears of a flat sale season returned improved year-on-year Book 1 statistics in several areas.

These included a $135,000 average, a $100,000 median and a $53.84 million gross.

And while the clearance rate was down one point at 81 per cent, Premier 2025 had two million-dollar lots for the first time.

Inglis bloodstock CEO Sebastian Hutch is effusive over the quality of this year's catalogue, calling it probably the best Premier book he'd seen in his time with the company.

And while guarding against complacency from vendors, with a strong and diverse buying bench assembled and much positivity in the 2026 market, Hutch is hopeful of a highly successful sale.

"We feel we have a better catalogue than 12 months ago," Hutch told ANZ News.

"On the basis of having run a good sale last year, we feel we've got good support, or better support, and consequently our expectation is that we should be able to run a better sale than 12 months ago.

"I'm very reluctant to give anyone the impression the market at the moment is easy, because it's not. You've still got to work hard to get horses sold, at all levels but especially in the $100,000 and under range.

"But if you've got a nice horse, typically people are getting well paid for it, and there are plenty of nice horses here."

Hutch said last year's inspections at Victorian and interstate farms had revealed a "very impressive" list of yearlings for Premier.

"When you look at the metrics we apply to the assessment of horses for the sale in the spring, those metrics say we have a group of horses who scored better than a year prior," he said.

"Arguably, we've got a bunch of horses who've scored as well as any Premier catalogue while I've been at Inglis.

"That doesn't necessarily make the horses more valuable. There are other variables in place of course like pedigrees and vetting. But I feel we have a very nice group of horses.

“We’ve had good support from local vendors and interstate vendors. When you look at who’s selling at the sale, we have a great range of local farms, and there’s plenty of interstate vendors targeting the sale. Newgate have a bigger draft than last year. Coolmore have a draft of their own.

“Hopefully all those factors contribute to a better sale.”

Newgate has a 19-strong draft, up from nine in their first Premier draft last year, by sires including their own superstar Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt), who has three lots in the draft and eight in total, plus Snitzel (Redoute’s Choice) and Frankel (Galileo).

Coolmore are presenting their first Premier draft since 2016, with 17 horses mostly by their own sires. They include four by St Mark’s Basilica (Siyouni), two by Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj) and two by Home Affairs (I Am Invincible), who has 16 yearlings at the sale in total as his stock continues to rise in his first season of runners.

Hutch said foot traffic at Oaklands had been busy this week, and with a “good representation of international buyers” he hoped for “a buying bench sufficient to achieve good results”.

“There’s genuine optimism about the market,” he said. “I’m a little more guarded about that. My observations of the market at

Lot 458: Star Witness ex Zouper Star colt

INGLIS

Gold Coast, Karaka and Classic have been that the demand for horses is very good, but buyers are very discerning.

“So I’d be very guarded against any vendors thinking the market was easy, because it’s not. It’s good if everything lines up and you get it right, but it is not easy.

“That was why we were so pleased at Classic to improve the average and clearance rate. We’re obviously going to try to do the same thing here, but it’ll be hard.

“But I think while seeing the market as being good, we’d want to caution against anyone becoming too complacent or too optimistic.”

Hutch added, however, that the sale which produced Black Caviar (Bel Esprit) had consistently reinforced its reputation for quality.

“Graduates of the sale are going well,” he said. “Streisand is the third Group 1-winning two-year-old out of the sale in the past 12 months [after Vinrock and Nepotism]. That’s more than any other sale.

“And it’s well known that the last three Everest winners to go through a sale have gone through Premier, in Nature Strip, Think About It and Bella Nipotina.

“All things considered, there’s a lot to be positive over about the sale.”

Highlights of the catalogue include Lot 458, Newhaven Park’s colt by Star Witness (Starcraft) whose half-sister Streisand boosted his page markedly by winning last Saturday’s Blue Diamond.

Among other siblings to Group 1 winners is Lot 470, a half-brother by Hitotsu (Maurice) to two such horses in Baraqiel (Snitzel) and Autumn Angel (The Autumn Sun), who’s presented by NSW’s Glenn Lee Thoroughbreds.

Twin Hills Stud’s Lot 369 is a colt by Adelaide (Galileo) who’s a brother to Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) heroine Funstar, and a half-brother to another Group 1 winner in Youngstar (High Chaparral).

A colt by Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) who’s a half-brother to dual elite-level victor Streets Of Avalon (Magnus) is offered as Lot 142 by Supreme Thoroughbreds.

Lot 187: I Am Invincible ex Mariamia colt

INGLIS

The stock of high quality racemares is well represented including Lot 187, the colt first foal by I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) of ATC The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) heroine Mariamia. He's part of the huge 74-strong draft of Victorian powerhouse Yulong, the most represented vendor at the sale by far.

Lot 229 from Newgate is one of two yearlings by Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) at the sale, a colt second foal of dual Group 1 winner Nettoyer.

And Lot 350 is a Vinery Stud filly by Zoustar (Northern Meteor) out of Snitzerland (Snitzel), the six-time black type winner, including of the Lighting Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m), who's thrown two stakes victors from five foals to race.

NSW's Alma Vale Thoroughbreds returns after debuting at Premier last year, offering a quality 13-horse draft representing several in-demand sires, with perhaps the cream of their selection contained in their first five lots.

The farm kicks off the sale with Lot 1, a filly by second-season sires table-topper Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) out of the stakes-placed Dagny (Darci Brahma). Lot 54, also by Farnan, is the colt first foal of New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) placegetter Feel The Rush (Proisir).

Lot 82: Anamoe ex Glitzy Girl filly

Lot 65 is a colt by sire-of-the-moment Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) who's out of a three-time winning half-sister to the outstanding racehorse and sire Dundee (High Chaparral).

Next up for Alma Vale are two yearlings by exciting debutant stallion Anamoe (Street Boss):

Lot 82 is a filly first foal out of Glitzy Girl (Medaglia D'Oro), a winning daughter of Steps In Time (Danehill Dancer), a seven-time stakes winner, including of the ATC Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m).

And Lot 117 is a filly first foal of lamadancer (I Am Invincible), who raced only twice but is a daughter of stakes winner Samara Dancer (Hinchinbrook).

Later, Alma Vale offers Lot 278, a colt by I Am Invincible who's the second foal out of Prospect Park (Manhattan Rain), an unraced half-sister to two stakes winners, including Group 1 victor Grand Journey (Good Journey).

"We've got some very nice horses in this year - and they're racehorses," said Alma Vale's general manager Verna Metcalfe.

"We did put a great emphasis on Premier this year. It was our first time here last year and I was pretty happy with how we sold. I just think Inglis do a good job of getting the buyers in. And if a horse is a little bit backward, they've got a few extra weeks to develop.

"Between January and now, they bloom. These horses who don't make a January sale, you're better off to bring them here, give them a couple of extra weeks, and they just seem to jump out of the ground.

"There's a couple in our draft that could go to Easter, but I decided to bring them here because Inglis does a great job of getting a broad bench of buyers down here."

The sale kicks off at 10am on Sunday.

● THE ALL ROUNDER possible 2lb overweight
BETTING FORECAST: 4 Circuit Fiery, Rezeki, 6 Aquaman, 8 Ryui Kokoro, 10 Blazing Beam, Francis Meynell, 12 Gazeley, Tycoon Express, 14 Swagger Bro, 16 Kingdom Of Riches, 20 Money Tycoon, One Love, The All Rounder, 25 Multisuperstar.

VERDICT Despite being well held in four starts over 5f/6f in Hong Kong, GAZELEY is worth a second look over this longer trip, given he won his only start in Britain over 1m. Top-weighted Ryui Kokoro, another class-dropper, is second choice. Rezeki and Circuit Fiery come into this in fine form and also make the shortlist. [David Bellingham]

VERDICT A solid pace could bring Find My Love into the reckoning, while Victory Champion and Warriors Dream both looked favourably handicapped on their best efforts. Gold Patch would have made more appeal from a better draw, so the choice is GLACIATED who won over C&D the last time he was seen on turf. [David Bellingham]

VERDICT There is probably still more to come from James McDonald's mount Perfectday (second choice), while Sight Hermoso is of strong interest on his first attempt at 6f. However, GALACTIC VOYAGE created a very good impression over C&D last month and, still unexposed in Hong Kong, he is taken to overcome his wide draw. [Chris Wilson]

BETTING FORECAST: 1-5 Romantic Warrior, 6 Voyage Bubble, 7 My Wish, 50 bar.

VERDICT Voyage Bubble won this race last year and is an excellent horse in his own right, but ROMANTIC WARRIOR has been the dominant middle-distance force in Hong Kong for a good while and he still looks as good as ever as an 8yo. My Wish has not run over 1m2f since going very close in last season's Hong Kong Derby and he should also be on the premises. [Chris Wilson]

VERDICT This looks good for progressive 4yo RISING FORCE, who has performed commendably well from stall 14 over C&D on his last two appearances and can dominate from the front from stall 3 today. Aurio looks the main danger, while Armour War Eagle scores very high marks for his consistency in recent months. [Chris Wilson]

BETTING FORECAST: 7-4 Little Paradise, 3 Numbers, 7-2 Sagacious Life, 8 Invincible Ibis, 10 Beauty Bolt, 14 Infinite Resolve, 20 Stormy Grove, 33 Patch Of Cosmo, 50 Akasivani, Lucky Sam Gor, 66 bar.

VERDICT The Classic Mile was contested by several of these four weeks ago and is the key form guide for this second leg of Hong Kong's Four-Year-Old Classic Series. LITTLE PARADISE displayed quite an impressive turn of foot to win that race in good style and is the one to beat today. That said the fourth, Sagacious Life, was forced to race on the outside of the field and, over today's longer trip, can get closer to the target this time. Numbers, a recent C&D Group 3 handicap winner, is also a big player. BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 Liveandletive, 4 Aerodynamics, 7 Gentlemen Legacy, Sky Vino, 10 Karma, 12 Fortune Boy, Packing Fighter, The Auspicious, 14 Money Catcher, 16 Agenda, Bravehearts, Noisy Boy, 40 Dreaming Together, 50 Shanwah.

VERDICT Front-runner Liveandletive lost out agonisingly on his last two appearances, more recently in the C&D event won by Gentlemen Legacy contested by several in this line-up ten days ago. He ought to give this another good shot but the vote goes to AERODYNAMICS, who launched his Hong Kong career with two very promising runs and can easily be excused last month's down-the-field finish. Fortune Boy and The Auspicious may interest each-way punters. VERDICT Emblazon has been in excellent form in recent months and might still on the upgrade, but his latest 9lb rise asks quite a lot of him and preference is for well-drawn GUSTOSISSIMO, who moves back up in trip after some good efforts over 6f. Lady's Choice ran better than the bare form suggests last time and is second choice, while the booking of Zac Purton heightens interest in Mugen.
