Sheza Alibi crushes colts in Randwick Guineas as Nolen lands milestone

By Mary-Jo Jackson

Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman's star filly Sheza Alibi (Saxon Warrior) confirmed herself as one of the most exciting three-year-olds in the country with a commanding victory in Saturday's Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m).

The filly became the first to defeat the colts in the race since Mosheen (Fastnet Rock) in 2012, producing a devastating turn of foot to defeat Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Autumn Boy (The Autumn Sun) by 3.2 lengths, with Attica (Lonhro) a further two lengths away in third.

The victory also carried added significance for Moody's long-time jockey Luke Nolen, who brought up his 2000th career win aboard the heavily-backed favourite.

Sent off a $2.10 chance, Sheza Alibi enjoyed a perfect run in transit behind Autumn Boy before Nolen angled her clear approaching the 300 metres. Once balanced, the response was immediate as she surged clear, putting the result beyond doubt in a matter of strides.

"She is just something special, this filly," co-trainer Katherine Coleman said.

"This was her hardest test to date in a field full of quality horses and she just put them away. We had a lot of respect for the opposition today but what she's shown us at home is just amazing.

Legarto boosts prospects ahead of Magic Millions date

Continued from page 1 “She’s just got that X-factor about her and a real desire to win. The bigger the fight in the race the more she appreciates it and the more she wants to get the job done. She took a few strides to warm up today but once she got past Autumn Boy she came right away late.

“She’s a special horse.”

The victory extended Sheza Alibi’s record to six wins and three placings from nine starts, while maintaining her perfect record in Group company after earlier victories in the Vanity (Gr 3, 1400m), Sandown Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) and Angus Armanasco Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m).

For Nolen, the milestone success carried special meaning given his historic association with Moody, the pair having enjoyed some of Australian racing’s greatest moments together with unbeaten champion Black Caviar (Bel Esprit).

“Every time you get close to a milestone your form seems to evade you,” Nolen said. “But to do it with Peter and Katherine in a Group 1 in Sydney feels pretty good.”

Despite the dominant performance, Coleman indicated the filly may now head to the paddock rather than continue through the autumn carnival.

“She had a deep spring preparation, so the plan was always to keep this preparation fairly light,” she said.

“She’ll head back to Melbourne and we’ll see how she pulls up, but I wouldn’t be surprised if she’s out in the paddock getting ready for the spring.”

Bred by Queensland hobby breeders Fred and Desley Monsour, Sheza Alibi sold as a $10,000 weanling on Inglis Digital to central Queensland-based owner Fred Noffke.

She is the first winner out of Sheza Gypsy (Shaft), a half-sister to a Hong Kong Listed winner who was covered by Saxon Warrior (Deep Impact) during his third of four seasons at Coolmore Australia in 2021 at a fee of $13,750 (inc GST).

One of just two stakes winners in Australia for the son of Deep Impact (Sunday Silence), Sheza Alibi became her sire’s second individual Group 1 winner on Saturday, following the exploits of his first-crop son Victoria Road, who won the Breeders Cup Juvenile Turf (Gr 1, 8f) in 2022.

Saxon Warrior is currently standing in Ireland for €10,000 (approx. AU$16,524).

Royal Ascot beckons for Joliestar

Chris Waller has put the plans in place for a Royal Ascot raid with Joliestar (Zoustar) and the top-class mare further underlined her claims when landing her fourth Group 1 at Randwick on Saturday.

The five-year-old daughter of Zoustar (Northern Meteor) inched ever-closer to an overseas foray when making it two wins from two this campaign in the Canterbury Stakes (Gr 1, 1300m).

Ridden by James McDonald – who was partnering his penultimate winner in what eventuated as a stakes-race six-timer – Joliestar settled just off the pace and produced her customary strong finish to head a remarkable trifecta for Waller, with stablemates Beiwacht (Bivouac) and Lady Shenandoah (Snitzel) filling the placings in the $750,000 feature.

“It was a beautiful ride. She had a nice draw, so everything set up well,” said Waller, who was winning the Canterbury Stakes for the first time. “She’s come back really well, she’s a more mature horse. She knows her job and just does it well.”

The Cambridge Stud-owned Joliestar was electric when winning the Expressway Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) first-up last month, soundly beating the Bjorn Baker-trained Callabus (I Am Invincible) who franked the form when claiming Saturday’s Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) at Flemington – won by Joliestar last year.

As well as Nature Strip, the King Charles III has been won by five other Australian-trained sprinters: Choisir (Danahill Dancer) (2003), Takeover Target (Celtic Swing) (2007), Miss Andretti (Ihtiram) (2008), Scenic Blast (Scenic) (2009) and most recently Asfoora (Flying Artie) in 2024.

The Queen Elizabeth II Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) on the final day of the meeting has also proved a popular target for Australian runners. Should the mare be aimed at that 1200-metre Group 1, she would be seeking to become the third Australian-trained runner to win, following on from the success of Choisir in 2003, while the 2012 edition was memorably taken out by the great Black Caviar.

Cambridge Stud has tasted success in the Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes, when their now resident shuttle stallion Hello Youmzain (Kodiac) struck in the six-furlong feature in their colours in 2020.

“She’s done it again. She’s now won a Group 1 in three different states, that’s an incredible feat,” Cambridge Stud co-owner Sir Brendan Lindsay said. “She’s a bloody superstar, isn’t she? She won really well today.

“This year she’s just jumping a little handier and it makes a big difference. When you can just be fourth or fifth rather than getting back like last year when she had no luck with barrier draws, it can make all the difference.

“She’s off to the TJ [Smith Stakes] next and then all going well Royal Ascot, we’re going to have to go and get a top hat and tails!”

Waller has targeted the royal meeting three times: Brazen Beau (I Am Invincible) was runner-up in the Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes in 2015 and Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) finished unplaced in the same Group 1 after accompanying Nature Strip to the meeting in 2022.

The trainer confirmed Joliestar will have one more run in the $3 million TJ Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) back at Randwick on April 4 before embarking on a trip to the UK.

“We know the date she’s leaving and everything like that, so that’s how far we’ve gone into the program,” he said. “Every race you’ve got to come back safe and do the little things right and keep her good form.

“She will have one more run, that’s the TJ [Smith] back to 1200 metres and then on the plane.”

A $950,000 Inglis Easter Yearling Sale purchase for Cambridge Stud’s Brendan and Jo Lindsay, Joliestar has amassed an impressive record of nine wins and seven placings from 20 starts, with prize money topping $7.1million, making her the highest earner for champion sire Zoustar.

Bred by Chris and Jane Barham, she is the best of six winners from the Group 1-placed Fastnet Rock (Danahill) mare Jolie Bay, herself a sister to both Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes winner Merchant Navy and Listed winner Satana.

Caballus delivers Newmarket triumph for Newitt

Craig “Froggy” Newitt turned back the clock at Flemington on Saturday when guiding Sydney raider Caballus (I Am Invincible) to victory in the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) down the famous straight course.

The win was Newitt’s first at Group 1 level since partnering Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) to victory in the Moir Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at The Valley in 2016, and the 34th top-level success of his career. Continued on page 4

Caballus

Continued from page 3 It also secured the jockey outright bragging rights in one of Australia's most prestigious sprint races, with Newitt now the most successful rider in Newmarket history after previous wins aboard Miss Andretti (2007), Shamexpress (O'Reilly) (2013) and The Quarterback (Street Boss) (2016).

Jumping sharply from the barriers, Newitt sent the Bjorn Baker-trained gelding straight to the lead along the inside rail. The $19 chance proved tenacious late, holding off a determined challenge from Gallant Son (Written Tycoon) by 0.3 lengths, with Angel Capital (Harry Angel) 0.7 lengths further away in third.

Newitt admitted the victory carried added emotion given the length of time since his last success at the highest level.

"It's been a while," he said. "To be the most winning rider in the Newmarket, probably the most historic sprint race in Australia, is something I'm very honoured by.

"I was very happy after we'd gone 400 or 500 metres. He pricked his ears and was happy bowling along at his own leisure.

"I probably opened him up a little earlier than I'd told the connections I would, just so I could get a buffer on the favourite [Tentyris]. But he just kept responding."

The ride came about after regular jockey Hugh Bowman was unable to make the gelding's allotted weight of 55 kilograms.

"The fortunes of being a lightweight rider," Newitt said. "I was able to pick him up and I'm just very emotional."

The 18th individual Group 1 winner for superstar sire I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit), Caballus is the first stakes winner out of Calming Influence (Commands) and Alma Vale Thoroughbreds will consign her Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) filly at Inglis Easter as Lot 244.

Anthony and Sam Freedman's hot favourite Tentyris (Street Boss) was shown clear air at the 300 metres but had much to do and could only manage fifth, beaten 1.5 lengths. It was discovered post-race that Godolphin's dual Group 1 winner suffered cardiac arrhythmia.

Paradoxium surges into Slipper contention with Todman victory

Saturday produced a fine few hours for Bjorn Baker, when Caballus' talented juvenile stablemate Paradoxium (Extreme Choice) thrust himself firmly into Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) contention after a strong return victory in Saturday's Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick.

The colt had been among the leading fancies for January's Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) following his impressive Wyong 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) lead-up victory but was forced to miss the Gold Coast feature after contracting pneumonia.

With his recovery initially uncertain, Baker credited his veterinary team for helping the son of Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) return to racing in time to mount a Slipper campaign.

"Full credit to all my team, particularly my vet Allan Frogley and the vets who looked after him up in Queensland," Baker said. "He got very, very sick very fast and for him to get back here and do that is pretty special.

"I think he is going to improve a heap out of this. He'd only had one trial and he's got a good two weeks into the Slipper now — and he's in."

The Todman has proved a fine breeding ground for subsequent Slipper winners and should Paradoxium line up in Sydney's prestigious Group 1 on March 21 he will be aiming to become the seventh colt to land the double. The feat was most recently completed by Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) in 2020.

Ridden positively by Jason Collett, the $2.60 favourite went straight to the lead and travelled comfortably before shaking off Hidrix (Extreme Choice) at the top of the straight. He proved strong through the line to defeat Silver Slipper (Gr 2, 1100m) winner Stretan Ruler (Wild Ruler) by 1.4 lengths, with Wolf Gap (Palace Pier) a further 1.5 lengths away in third.

While the overall time was slower than the fillies' Reisling Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) won by Chayan (I Am Invincible) earlier on the card, the performance was visually impressive given Paradoxium was resuming from a three-month break.

HORSEPOWER

"Speed, speed, speed. That's what we breed for in Australia: fast, strong, tough horses," he said. "I'll tell you what, he's fast and tough and hopefully we'll find out how strong he is in a couple of weeks."

Jockey Chad Schofield said runner-up Stretan Ruler was brave in defeat and would benefit from a stronger tempo.

"It was just a trot and canter up front," Schofield said.

"The winner had a picnic and sprinted sharply. My horse was very strong late."

Following the victory, Paradoxium firmed to $5 favouritism for the Golden Slipper at Rosehill on March 21, ahead of stablemate Warwoven (Sword Of State) ($6) and Chayan ($9), while Stretan Ruler eased slightly to $11.

Bought by his trainer, Jim Clarke Bloodstock and Ridgmont for $400,000 at the 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Paradoxium's half-sister by Zoustar will be offered in the Silverdale Farm draft at Inglis Easter (Lot 9).

Chayan surges into Slipper frame with Reisling Stakes win

Annabel Archibald and Rob Archibald received a timely vote of confidence from champion jockey James McDonald after Chayan's luckless seventh place in the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and the filly repaid that faith with a dominant victory in Saturday's Reisling Stakes at Randwick.

Soon after her unplaced effort in the Melbourne juvenile feature, McDonald contacted the trainer to ask about the filly's next target. "She will go where you can ride her," Archibald replied.

McDonald was aboard at Randwick as Chayan surged into Golden Slipper calculations, accelerating clear to defeat Agrarian Girl (Tassort) by three lengths, with Miss Chanel (Tagaloa) a 0.4 lengths away in third.

"She's a really good filly and I'm grateful that Annabel and Rob put her in the race for me," McDonald said.

"They were tossing up whether to run her next week but I was adamant, I'm available for this race please run her here and she justified that.

"She's beautiful to deal with. She's got a lovely, good mind to her, just a strongly built two-year-old that's ready to rock and roll. I'd love her to go to the Percy Sykes instead of the Golden Slipper but we'll see how much pull I've got."

Chayan broke her maiden at her third start and has now secured a place in the $5 million Golden Slipper. Archibald said the filly had always shown natural talent but endured little luck earlier in her career.

"She had no luck from the draw in the Blue Diamond, she was five-wide all the way," Archibald said. "So, to come here today and win a Group 2 is very satisfying.

Chayan

SPORTPIX

"We thought there would be a bit of speed and James said he just wanted to blend in and find some cover. I was happy when he got in and she was very strong late. It was a big win."

Archibald won the Reisling Stakes with Learning To Fly (Justify) in 2023, though that filly fell in the Golden Slipper won by Shinzo (Snitzel).

"Learning To Fly ended up a disaster," she said. "Hopefully we can do better with Chayan. She is a very tough filly. These Vinnie fillies can get a bit hot and she was a bit hot in her first couple of preparations.

"If you said to me before Christmas that she would be going to the Golden Slipper I would have said 'no way.' But she has really mentally matured and seems to be getting better with every race.

"The Golden Slipper is very wide open this year so a lot will come down to barriers. The main thing is to see Chayan pull up well as she has the prize-money to get into the race now."

With Saturday's victory, Chayan became the 123rd individual stakes winner for Yarraman Park's I Am Invincible. Bred and sold by Longwood Thoroughbred Farm, the filly was a $250,000 Eric Koh and Falcon Racing at the 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale.

She is the fourth foal and fourth winner out of Group 3 scorer Lubiton (Snitzel). Lubiton's fifth foal, a filly by Zoustar (Northern Meteor) sold to Sheamus Mills Bloodstock for $525,000 at the recent Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale.

Medicinal just what the doctor ordered in the Ottawa

Godolphin's promising filly Medicinal (Brazen Beau) was another juvenile to confirm her elite-level potential with a stylish victory in Saturday's Ottawa Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Flemington.

Trained by Ben, Will and JD Hayes, the daughter of Brazen Beau (I Am Invincible) entered the race off the back of a dominant maiden win at Ballarat and she justified her status as the short-priced favourite with a professional display down the Flemington straight.

Jumping from the outside barrier, Jamie Melham allowed the filly to stride forward and take up the running as the eight-horse field travelled down the centre of the course. Asked to extend approaching the 300 metres, Medicinal quickly went through her gears and proved too strong for her rivals.

Medicinal

Sydney visitor Scintillation (I Am Invincible) briefly loomed as a threat, but Medicinal asserted her class late to score by 0.8 lengths. The Grahame Begg-trained Jadiza (Ole Kirk) produced an encouraging debut to finish second, with Scintillation holding third a further 1.2 lengths away.

Speaking post-race, Ben Hayes said the stable had long held the filly in high regard.

"She was very professional today," Hayes said. "At Ballarat she did a lot wrong but still won by a big margin. Today she jumped straight to the front and travelled really strongly the whole way.

"If you look at her she doesn't really look like a two-year-old - she's powerful, has a deep girth and she's very strong. We've always had a high opinion of her."

Future plans are likely to be discussed with connections, but Hayes suggested the filly could be tested during the Sydney autumn carnival, including a tilt at the Golden Slipper.

"Hopefully we might head up to Sydney," he said. "In an open Golden Slipper she wouldn't look out of place."

Melham said Medicinal was still learning her craft but would take improvement from the run.

"She still did a few things wrong," Melham said. "She's got a very sensitive mouth and threw her head a few times, but she's a nice filly and I think she'll improve again over a bit further."

Medicinal has now won two of her three starts, having finished sixth on debut in the Blue Diamond Prelude (Gr 2, 1100m) (F) behind subsequent Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Streisand (Magnus). Continued on page 7

Grinzinger Heart turns tables in VRC Sires' Produce

The Ben Brisbane-trained filly Grinzinger Heart (Toronado) turned the form of her debut fourth in the Talindert Stakes (Listed, 1100m) around when producing a determined front-running performance in Saturday's VRC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Flemington.

Ridden by Craig Williams, the daughter of Toronado (High Chaparral) jumped well from barrier four and rolled forward to control the ten-runner affair.

Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained favourite Zambles (Pinatubo) - third in the Talindert last start - loomed alongside in the home straight, but Grinzinger Heart dug deep to repel the challenge and hold on for a 0.1-length victory. The Tony and Calvin McEvoy-trained Expensive Taste (North Pacific) worked home well to finish third, another 1.2 lengths adrift.

"We've always liked her and were happy to have a go at the better races," Brisbane said of the winner. "I said to Craig before the race I thought she'd grown an inch in the last couple of weeks."

Brisbane also revealed Williams had been particularly taken by the filly after riding her in trackwork.

"Craig sat on her in a jump-out at Caulfield about five weeks ago and told me he thought she could win the Oaks in the spring," he said. "Now she's a Group 2 winner, so there's only one way to go."

Williams praised both the filly and her connections following the victory.

"Ben has done a great job with her," Williams said. "She ran in the Talindert against the early sprinting two-year-olds and today over more ground she really delivered."

Purchased by owner-breeder John Wheeler for $110,000 from the Lustre Lodge draft at the 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Grinzinger Heart lifted her earnings to $198,975 with Saturday's Group 2 win, which made her the 49th stakes winner for Swettenham Stud's Toronado, and, notably, his first Australian two-year-old stakes winner.

The filly is the third winner and first stakes winner from four runners out of O'Reilly (Last Tycoon) mare Veravarti, herself a half-sister to Group 1 winner Sharvasti (Montjeu) as well as to Group 3 winners Bhandara (Zabeel) and Shastri (Stravinsky).

Grinzinger Heart's half-brother Banjora (I Am Invincible) is a three-time winner from as many starts, most recently landing a Benchmark 72 (1100m) at Rosehill last week.

Third for St Mark's Basilica

St Mark's Basilica

Coolmore's first-season sire St Mark's Basilica (Siyouni) registered his third individual winner on Saturday when the Pat Webster-trained Apostle (2 g ex Bronte Lass by Stravinsky) scored a maiden success at the second time of asking. Lining up in the 1300-metre contest at Eagle Farm following a debut third at the track over 1000 metres last month, the juvenile gelding defeated odds-on favourite Martist (Trapeze Artist) by 0.3 lengths under Mark Du Plessis. There was a further 1.7 lengths back to the third-placed Gold Czech (Prague). Having been purchased as a weanling for NZ$72,000 before being resold as a yearling at Karaka Book 1 for NZ$220,000, Apostle was then picked up by William James Bain for $75,000 during the 2025 Inglis October (Late) Online Sale. The gelding is out of the winning Stravinsky (Nureyev) mare Bronte Lass, making him a half-brother to the Group 3-placed winner Bronte Beach (Reliable Man). St Mark's Basilica, who shuttles from Coolmore's Irish base, stood the 2025 southern hemisphere breeding season at a fee of $38,500 (inc GST).

18 for I Am Invincible

Yarraman Park's I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) sired his 18th Group 1 winner on Saturday when Caballus (5 g ex Calming Influence, by Commands) claimed Flemington's Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) for Bjorn Baker and Craig Newett. Bred by Mr TR Ryan, Caballus was originally bought by Tom Magnier for $1 million as a yearling at the 2022 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale before Darby Bloodstock secured the colt for $315,000 as a tried horse via the 2023 Inglis October (Early) Online Sale. He is out of the Group 3-placed Commands (Danehill) mare Calming Influence, who has produced six to race, all winners. The Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) half-sister to Caballus will be offered at the upcoming Inglis Easter Yearling Sale via the Alma Vale Thoroughbreds draft, catalogued as Lot 244. I Am Invincible stood for $220,000 (inc GST) in 2025.

30 for Brazen Beau

Darley stallion Brazen Beau (I Am Invincible) chalked up his 30th individual stakes winner on Saturday when the Lindsay Park-trained Medicinal (2 f ex Tisane by Hallowed Crown) landed the Ottawa Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Flemington. A homebred for Godolphin, Medicinal is the first and only foal to race out of the Hallowed Crown (Street Sense) mare Tisane, herself a half-sister to Group 1 winner Camarilla (Elusive Quality), who is in turn the dam of Group 1 scorer Guelph (Exceed And Excel) and Group 2 winner turned Group 1-producing stallion Ghibellines (Shamardal). Brazen Beau stood the 2025 breeding season for a fee of $27,500 (inc GST).

49 for Toronado

Swettenham Stud's Toronado (High Chaparral) moved to within one of a half-century of individual stakes winners when the Ben Brisbane-trained Grinzing Heart (2 f ex Veravarti by O'Reilly) produced a shock $41 victory in Saturday's Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Flemington. Purchased by her owner John Wheeler for $110,000 at the 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Grinzing Heart is the third winner and first at black type level from four to race out of the O'Reilly (Last Tycoon) mare Veravarti, who herself is a half-sister to Group 1 winner Sharvasti (Montjeu) and the Group 3 winners Bhandara (Zabeel) and Shastri (Stravinsky). Ten for Real Steel Scheelite (5 g ex Miss St Tropez by Magnus) became the tenth individual stakes winner for Shadai Stallion Station's Real Steel (Deep Impact) when taking out Saturday's Shaftesbury Avenue Handicap (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington. Ridden by Craig Newitt for trainers Ken and Kasey Keys, the gelded five-year-old proved 1.3 lengths too strong for Here To Shock (Shocking) with a further 1.2 lengths back to On Display (Fastnet Rock) in third. From the one and only Australian crop by Arrowfield shuttler Real Steel, Scheelite is a half-brother to Group 3 winner Althoff (Written Tycoon) being one of four winners from as many to race out of the Magnus (Flying Spur) mare Miss St Tropez, herself a half-sister to Group 2 winner Don't Tell Mamma (Not A Single Doubt) and stakes scorer Risen From Doubt (Not A Single Doubt). Real Steel is standing the 2026 northern hemisphere breeding season for a fee of ¥10,000,000 (approx. AU$90,180).

60 for Starspangledbanner

Coolmore's former shuttler Starspangledbanner (Choisir) sired his 60th individual stakes winner when the Clinton McDonald-trained Ahha Ahha (4 m ex Tragic Moment by Pivotal) landed Saturday's Matron Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Flemington. Ridden by Ben Melham, the four-year-old mare ran out a narrow 0.2-length scorer over Damask Rose (Savabeel) in what was her first crack at stakes company. There was a further 0.7 lengths back to Sea What I See (Sea The Stars) in third place. Purchased by her trainer for $250,000 at the 2023 Inglis Premier Yearling Sale, Ahha Ahha is a half-sister to the stakes-placed winner Rocket Star (Star Witness) being out of the unraced Pivotal (Polar Falcon) mare Tragic Moment, herself a sister to stakes scorer Il Warrd. Starspangledbanner is standing the 2026 northern hemisphere breeding season at Coolmore's Castlehyde Stud for a fee of €60,000 (approx. AU$99,220).

Tom Kitten lands second All-Star Mile

Godolphin's ever-consistent five-year-old Tom Kitten (5 g Harry Angel ex Transfers, by Street Cry) made history at Flemington on Saturday when he became the first dual winner of the All-Star Mile (Gr 1, 1600m).

Having narrowly defeated Mr Brightside (Bullbars) in the 2025 running of the $2 million contest, the gelded son of Harry Angel (Dark Angel) was again made to work to overcome Evaporate (Per Incanto) inside the final 100 metres and score by 0.4 lengths.

There was a further 0.2 lengths back to the third-placed front-runner Pride Of Jenni (Pride Of Dubai), who was also bidding for her second win in the race.

It was Tom Kitten's third success at the elite level and first for the Sam and Anthony Freedman stable, having formerly been trained by James Cummings. The win took his prize-money earnings beyond the $7.5 million mark.

"He's a remarkable horse," said Sam Freedman. "He's been at the top for a long time. We've been blessed to get him into the stable in the last eight or nine months.

"We were disappointed with the spring we had with him - we felt he was going well, but we were chasing our tail. But this prep, I don't know what it is. I rang Dad this morning and said he's a different horse. He looks amazing, he's holding more condition, he's racing heavier.

"Sometimes you're a victim when horses change yards. They go onto a different feed pretty quickly, a few changes can happen pretty quickly, so now he's in a nice routine at Pinecliff, gets out into a paddock during the day.

"For James [Cummings] and his team, who worked with the horse for such a long time, they should all be very proud, as well as my team. He's a remarkable horse and turns up every time."

Freedman said Tom Kitten is likely to be kept to the mile in future, with options in Australia but also abroad on the agenda.

"I feel he's best fresh at a mile. We might see him in the Doncaster more likely than the Australian Cup. He might grind away late like he wants the 2000 metres, but he likes a strong tempo where he can sit back and stalk them.

"We'll have a chat. He's also entered for Dubai and Hong Kong, so there's plenty of options for him. The beauty of him is he's an easy horse to work with and I'm just rapt for the whole crew."

Sass Appeal keeps winning run going in Kewney Stakes

Danny O'Brien will resist the temptation of heading to Sydney with progressive filly Sass Appeal (3 f So You Think ex Cristal Eyes, by All Too Hard) after she recorded her third straight win in Saturday's Kewney Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Flemington. Given a positive ride by Jordan Childs, Sass Appeal took over at the 200 metres and went on to score by 2.8 lengths over Pillow Fight (Zoustar), with Salty Pearl (Tagaloa) a further 1.8 lengths away in third. Sass Appeal is now the winner of four consecutive races in her first preparation and her trainer believes she will be better suited returning later in the year. "Often with three-year-old fillies you want to make hay while the sun shines against their own age and sex, and make the best of what you've got before they turn four," O'Brien said. "But I think this horse will measure up to the older horses. With that in mind, she's had a five-start prep and I'm keen to give her a break and see her back here in the spring." O'Brien said the Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington during the Melbourne Cup Carnival shapes as a potential long-term target. "The handicap races like the Sir Rupert Clarke and the Toorak Handicap are good options for her on the way through as well," he said. O'Brien added that Sass Appeal's racing pattern has proven a major asset. "She makes it look easy when she's got that tactical speed early," he said. "It's a lot easier to watch. The only horse she ultimately had to get past was the leader, and she did that and put a space on them."

Two for Saxon Warrior

Sheza Alibi (3 f ex Sheza Gypsy by Shaft) became the second individual elite-level winner for Coolmore's former shuttle stallion Saxon Warrior (Deep Impact) when landing Saturday's Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick. Sheza Alibi was purchased by her owner Fred Noffkey for just $10,000 after being offered as a weanling by Middlebrook Valley Lodge in the 2023 Inglis Digital June (Early) Online Sale. She is the only winner from three foals to race out of the winning Shaft (Flying Spur) mare Sheza Gypsy, herself a half-sister to Listed winner Rom Baro (Time Thief). Saxon Warrior is standing the 2026 northern hemisphere breeding season at Coolmore Stud for a fee of €10,000 (approx. AU$16,520).

123 for I Am Invincible

Yarraman Park stallion I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) notched up his 123rd individual stakes winner on Saturday when Chayan (2 f ex Lubiton by Snitzel) took out the Riesling Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick. Bred and sold by Longwood Thoroughbred Farm, the filly was a $250,000 purchase for Eric Koh and Falcon Racing at the 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. She is the fourth foal and fourth winner from Group 3 winner Lubiton (Snitzel). Lubiton's fifth foal, a filly by Zoustar (Northern Meteor) was sold to Sheamus Mills Bloodstock for $525,000 at the recent Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale. I Am Invincible stood for $220,000 (inc GST) in 2025.

Gangsta Granny takes out the Wenona Girl

The Team Hawkes-trained Gangsta Granny (4 m Written Tycoon ex Miss Hawaii by Manhattan Rain) secured a second career stakes success when taking out Saturday's Wenona Girl Quality (Gr 3, 1200m) at Randwick. Providing her rider James McDonald with the final leg of an incredible six-timer in stakes races on the card, the first time this has been achieved in Sydney for the best part of 40 years, the four-year-old daughter of Written Tycoon (Iglesia) defeated Cosmonova (Zoustar) by 0.8 lengths. There was a further 0.3 lengths back to Asgarda (The Brothers War) in third place. "Her trials have been outstanding, she's come back with a bang," Michael Hawkes, who trains the mare in partnership with his brothers John and Wayne, said. "It was a nice race that we picked for her. We thought it was an easier race, albeit she had to carry the weight, but she is a class mare. She has always been strong, she has always been that sort of mare but you just want these good horses to come back to the next level, which she has."

Generosity rises to the Challenge at Randwick

Generosity (5 m Divine Prophet ex Orabelle by Casino Prince) registered a first win in Graded company on Saturday when just proving too strong in the Challenge Stakes (Gr 2, 1000m) at Randwick. Ridden by James McDonald for trainer Chris Waller, the five-year-old mare found plenty under the champion jockey to edge out Marhoona (Snitzel) by 0.1 lengths with the same distance further back to Mazu (Maurice) in third. Waller revealed that the daughter of Divine Prophet (Choisir) is likely to head to The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) next up. "Generosity needed to be fit and fresh to win this race," Waller said. "I didn't lose faith in this mare, she's got very good form in Perth; she's talented. She was ready to go a month ago and then we thought, where are we going to run her? We know she's good fresh and we couldn't find the right race so we put her on the treadmill for a week. Then we gave her a third trial as she had to be very fit and fresh for this. She's a lovely horse to worth with, she is mentally mature now. So, we'll go to The Galaxy on our home track at Rosehill now and could even look at the Sangster Stakes in Adelaide."

Pinito rewards patient approach with Aspiration Quality victory

Chris Waller was rewarded for taking a conservative path with Pinito (4 m Trapeze Artist ex Waltzing Wodka, by Sebring) after the Godolphin mare delivered her first win for the champion trainer in Saturday's Aspiration Quality (Gr 3, 1600m) at Randwick. Connections considered stepping the four-year-old straight into next week's Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) after her first-up fourth in the Millie Fox Stakes (Gr 2, 1300m) but elected to take the easier option after a long break. Ridden by James McDonald, Pinito produced a strong finish from the back to overhaul Starphistocated (Churchill) by 0.6 lengths, with Polymnia (Dundeel) a further 1.2 lengths away in third. "Her first-up run was excellent. We thought about running her in a Coolmore, but she had a long time off and was second-up, so we decided to take easy steps," Waller said. The champion trainer added that last year's Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) runner-up had taken time to settle in since joining his stable from James Cummings, but was now finding her best form. The Epona Stakes (Gr 3, 1900m) at Rosehill in a fortnight shapes as her next assignment. "The Epona would be perfect," he said. "She showed good form in a Queensland Oaks at three so if we can gradually get her up in distance that will be a plus."

Beadman lays down Galaxy marker

Another winner at Randwick on Saturday that will head for The Galaxy is Beadman (3 c Snitzel ex Iffraesia by Iffraaj), who made a successful return in the Fireball Stakes (Listed, 1100m). The three-year-old colt, who demolished his rivals by over eight lengths in last season's Ken Russell Memorial Classic (Gr 3, 1200m), defeated Inkaruna (I Am Invincible) by 0.2 lengths under James McDonald. There was a further 0.3 lengths back to Hidden Motive (Capitalist) in third. "It was good to see him do that, he ran a smart time, too," trainer Peter Snowden said. "He got a bit keen mid-race and I'm still working him out but he definitely has the talent. I think this win might get him into The Galaxy. I know that's a big aim but that's the belief I have in this horse." Newgate Farm's Henry Field, who races the colt in a syndicate of high profile owners and breeders, confirmed The Galaxy as the plan. "The Galaxy has always been the plan," Field said. "He's a big, gross colt and whatever he did today the expectation is he has a lot of improvement to come. James made the comment when he got to the front he started 'floating' so he will be better again in The Galaxy. They always go hard in that race so the tempo will be good for him."

Campaldino on track for Sydney Cup after Listed success

Campaldino (5 g Ghibellines ex Zuzana, by Shocking) took a step towards a Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) tilt with a strong second-up victory in Saturday's Randwick City Stakes (Listed, 2000m). Ridden patiently by Tim Clark, the former New Zealand-trained gelding settled behind a solid tempo set by stablemate Alalance (Mastercraftsman) before surging between runners late to defeat Athabascan (Almanzor) by 1.2 lengths, with Juja Kibo (Belardo) another 0.4 lengths behind in third. Campaldino strung together four consecutive wins last preparation, including the Brisbane Cup (Gr 2, 3200m). Co-trainer Adrian Bott was pleased to see the stayer return to the winner's circle. "I thought he was in for a nice campaign, and he's only going to keep improving as they get over ground," Bott said. "He showed that last preparation. He's got true staying capabilities and I'm looking forward to the campaign ahead." Alalance fought on to finish sixth in her first start since November, with Bott confirming both she is likely to follow a familiar staying program. "She was there for a long way so there's some good upside for her going forward as well," Bott said. "At this stage, they will push on to the Manion, through the Chairman's Handicap and onto the Sydney Cup [at Randwick on April 11]."

Another stakes success for Arcadia Park

The Michael Grantham-trained Arcadia Park (4 g Ocean Park ex Arcadia Dream by Domesday) took his Bunbury unbeaten record to two and secured a third stakes victory in Saturday's Bunbury Cup (Listed, 2000m). Ridden by Cole Johnston-Porter, the four-year-old son of Ocean Park (Thorn Park) proved 0.3 lengths too strong for Silver Eye (Sessions) with a further half-length back to the third-placed Snazzler (Mahuta). Saturday's Listed win adds to victories in the Aquanita Stakes (Listed, 2019m) and Belmont Classic (Listed, 2200m).

Bonjoy doubles stakes tally in Bunbury Stakes

Having failed to win for over a year, Bonjoy (6 m Maschino - Amity Belle by Snitzel) bounced right back to her best when narrowly landing Saturday's Bunbury Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Bunbury. Trained by Jason Miller, the six-year-old mare ran out a 0.2-length winner over Fast Flicker (A Lot) with a further 0.7 lengths back to London's Image (Headwater) in third. Saturday's victory added to Bonjoy's win in the 2024 Starstruck Classic (Listed, 1600m).

Rich On Bubbles (Capitalist) took his career record to two wins from three outings when taking home first prize in Saturday's $202,250 Magic Millions SA 2YO Classic (1100m) at Murray Bridge. Ridden by Kayla Crowther for trainers Ben, JD and Will Hayes, the juvenile son of Capitalist (Written Tycoon) proved a cut above his nine rivals as he beat Cliff Runner (Ardrossan) by 4.1 lengths. There was a further 0.1 lengths back to Lalor (Snitzel) in third.

Circus Maximus stood the 2025 breeding season at a fee of $17,500 (plus GST).

Third for Russian Revolution

Russian Revolution

NEWGATE

Newgate Farm resident Russian Revolution (Snitzel) sired his third Group 1 winner on Saturday when Lara Antipova (2 f ex Artistic Lass by Myboycharlie) kept her flawless record intact taking out Ellerslie's Sistema Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). Lara Antipova is out of five-time winner Artistic Lass (Myboycharlie), who has produced three other winners including multiple scorers Caring Lass (Sebring) and Bubbly Lass (More Than Ready). The dam is herself a half-sister to Group winners Sistine Demon (Excites) and Sistine Angel (Testa Rossa), and to the stakes-placed pair Themoonlitegambler (Good Journey) and Scully (Shooting To Win). Russian Revolution stood the 2025 breeding season for a fee of $33,000 (inc GST).

Second for Strasbourg

Adelaide Plains Bloodstock stallion Strasbourg (I Am Invincible) sired his second stakes-level winner on Saturday when Moxie (4 m ex Pearly Kate by Pentire) took out the Dubai Classic (Gr 2, 1400m) at Ellerslie. Ridden by Lynsey Satherley for Ken Harrison, the mare defeated Chris Waller's Chica Mojito (Zacinto) by a length, with Quintessa (Shamus Award) another 0.1 lengths behind in third. Bred by Hornmac Bloodstock, the mare was purchased by Lyndhurst Farm for $6,000 from Rosemont Stud's 2022 Inglis Great Southern Weanling Sale draft, and was subsequently bought by her trainer for $10,000 at the 2023 NZB Karaka National Yearling Sale. Moxie is the eighth and final foal and only stakes winner out of Pearly Kate (Pentire), the mare herself a sister to Group 3-placed Calm Customer and a half-sister to stakes-placed Southern Courage (Bahhare). Strasbourg began his stud career at Victoria's Rosemont Stud, and was moved to Adelaide Plains Bloodstock for the 2025 breeding season, where he stood for a fee of $5,000 (inc GST).

Drop back in trip suits Moxie

A drop back to 1400 metres proved the sweet spot for Moxie as the four-year-old mare gained a deserved maiden stakes victory in the Dubai Classic at Ellerslie. While jumping a $17.50 outsider, the daughter of Strasbourg took a solid form line into the race, having placed in the Fulton Family Stakes (Listed, 1500m) at Ellerslie in January, a week after running sixth in the Aotearoa Classic (Gr 3, 1600m). Trainer and part-owner Ken Harrison elected to freshen the four-year-old mare and aim her towards the mares feature on Champions Day, where she was the lowest rated horse in the race. "She deserves that," winning rider Lynsey Satherley said. "She has got amazing sectionals and she can really reel it off. I was lucky enough to get a nice enough run in transit, and they ticked along at a really good speed. It was a really good effort by her. I have only gotten to sit on her twice and she has given me great runs both times. Hats off to the trainer, it is a massive effort from them. Good on them, they deserve it." Harrison was composed after the victory, but said he was pleased that his plan came off. "It's pretty unreal," he said. "We just thought we would freshen her up and bring her back to 1400 metres, which might be her go, and it worked out. I am happy as."

Nine for Sweynesse

Sweynesse

RACE IMAGES

Novara Park stallion Sweynesse (Lonhro) was handed his ninth individual stakes winner on Saturday when Sweynesse (5 g ex Keep Thinking by Faltaat) scored in the King's Plate (Gr 3, 1200m) at Ellerslie. The Roger James and Robert Wellwood-trained gelding was ridden by Masa Hashizume and defeated Cote Atlantique (Kodiac) by 0.7 lengths, having looked to be booked for second before race leader Alabama Lass (Alabama Express) ran out inside the final 150 metres. There was a further 1.3 lengths back to Platinum Attack (Santos) in third. Sweynesse was purchased out of Pertab Racing's 2022 New Zealand Bloodstock Ready To Run Sale draft by Eric Koh, King Power and Bevan Smith Bloodstock for $80,000, and races in the colours of Koh's Falcon Racing. He is out of the winning Faltaat (Mr Prospector) mare Keep Thinking, making him a brother to winner Singleton Park and a half-brother to three other winners. Sweynesse stood the 2025 breeding season at a fee of $7,000 (plus GST).

Australian Group 1 in the pipeline for Sweynesse

Promising sprinter Sweynesse could be set for a big target across the Tasman after his win in Saturday's King's Plate at Ellerslie. The Roger James and Robert Wellwood-trained gelding was a fortunate winner given favourite Alabama Lass ran out with the race at her mercy, but Roger James has the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) in the back of his mind following the result. "It's not the way you want to win a race as I was standing next to one of the owners of Alabama Lass, who I know very well, while I used to show jump many years ago with Ken and Bev [Kelso]," James said. "I feel for them but we will take [the win]. He's a very good horse and wasn't that well-weighted today as he was giving weight to Alabama Lass, while he also started from the outside barrier. He is a very good horse and we do have a race called the Stradbroke [Handicap] in the back of our minds, which may now become a reality that he has a few more dollars in the bank."

First for Masked Marvel

Paradise Storm

Paradise Storm (5 g ex Holystorm by Limnos) became the first individual stakes winner for Masked Marvel (Montjeu) when dominating proceedings in Saturday's Auckland Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) at Ellerslie. Ridden by Joe Doyle for Australian trainer Henry Dwyer, the five-year-old gelding defeated Manzor Blue (Almanzor) by 6.3 lengths, with a further 1.7 lengths back to Age Of Sail (Frankel) in third. "It's just terrific. Winning a Cup overseas somewhere just takes it to another level," Dwyer said. "There is so much more that goes into it and so much more that can go wrong. On a risk to reward scenario, it's just a massive thrill. The intention was always to go to the Adelaide Cup. I don't even remember nominating the horse for this race and then Craig [Baker, Auckland Thoroughbred Racing] rang me up and I asked what it was worth and he said $600,000, so I said we better go then." A French import, Paradise Storm was purchased for €170,000 by Narvick International and De Burgh Equine and races for OTI Racing and Dwyer. He is out of the winning Limnos (Hector Protector) mare Holystorm, making him a half-brother to multiple winners in France. The sire of multiple black type winners over obstacles, Masked Marvel is standing the 2026 northern hemisphere breeding season at Haras de la Tuilerie for a fee of €12,500 (approx. AU$20,650).

Sydney Cup on Paradise Storm's agenda

Dwyer was full of praise for Joe Doyle's ride aboard Paradise Storm in the Auckland Cup. "He has always been a horse that when they back the tempo off, he is going to get keen," Dwyer said. "Joe was cognisant of that and we spoke about it before the race that if the tempo does come out of it, get going a bit and get rolling into the race because you are just pulling against him and using his energy when you don't need to. I loved how he did it though, he waited until they got to the top of the hill and then he got going downhill. He got outside the leader and they got rolling, he kept his cool and then he ran away from them. It was the first time at two miles for us, and he saw it out beautifully." Having now won the Auckland Cup, Dwyer is now eyeing some Group 1 two-mile races on home soil with the French-bred gelding. "We thought the Sydney Cup might be the go on the way through, but if he is qualified for a Melbourne Cup, it's an aspirational game, so why wouldn't you?" Dwyer said.

Asia

26 for Epiphaneia

Shadai Stallion Station's Epiphaneia (Symboli Kris S) chalked up his 26th individual stakes winner when Ghillies' Ball (3 f ex Floor Craft by Fuji Kiseki) took out Saturday's The Fillies' Revue (Gr 2, 1400m) at Hanshin. Ridden by Koji Nishizuka for trainer Takahisa Tezuka, the three-year-old filly defeated Saint Antoine (Drefong) by a length and three-quarters, with a further nose back to I Need You (Fine Needle). Out of the Fuji Kiseki (Sunday Silence) mare Floor Craft, Ghillies' Ball is a half-sister to winners La Volta (Lord Kanaloa) and Polka Rhythm (Lord Kanaloa). Epiphaneia is standing the 2026 northern hemisphere breeding season at a fee of ¥15,000,000 (approx. AU$135,160).

18 for Kitan Black

15 for Vercingetorix

Grand Empire (3 g ex Palace Of Dreams by Potala Palace) provided his sire Vercingetorix (Silvano) with his 15th individual elite-level winner and 68th individual stakes winner when landing Saturday's SA Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) at Turffontein. The Sean Tarry-trained gelding was ridden by Craig Zackey and narrowly beat Trust (Heavenly Blue) by a short-head, with a further length and three-quarters back to Splittheights (Vercingetorix) in third. Grand Empire is the only winner from two to race out of the Grade 3-winning Potala Palace (Singspiel) winner Palace Of Dreams.

Third for Act Of War

Hazy Dazy (3 f ex Rabbedoe by Eightfold Path) became the third individual elite-level winner for Act Of War (Dynasty) when landing Saturday's SA Fillies Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) at Turffontein. Ridden by Trent Mayhew for trainer Corne Spies, the filly defeated Golden Palm (Master Of My Fate) by a length, with a further length and a half back to the third-placed Scarlett Heart (Querari).

Hazy Dazy is the only winning foal from three to come out of the stakes-placed winning mare Rabbedoe (Eightfold Path).

Second for The United States

Tin Pan Alley (3 g ex The Entertainer by Querari) provided The United States (Galileo) with his second individual elite-level winner when scoring in the Horse Chestnut Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Turffontein. Ridden by Keagan De Melo for trainer Sean Tarry, the gelding defeated See It Again (Twice Over) by three and three-quarter lengths, with a further head back to Texas Red (The United States) in third. Tin Pan Alley is the only foal to race from two out of the Querari (Oasis Dream) mare The Entertainer.

Well Written remains unbeaten with hard fought Kiwi win

NZ Racing Desk

It may have been a lot closer than anticipated, but Well Written's (Written Tycoon) victory in Saturday's $4 million NZB Kiwi (Listed, 1500m) was one for the books.

The unbeaten Group 1-winning filly was installed a hot favourite in the southern hemisphere's richest three-year-old race, jumping a money back favourite in the Champions Day feature at Ellerslie, with every other runner at double figure odds, headed by Belle Cheval (Savabeel) at $17.90.

The market proved accurate, with the Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson-trained filly nearly becoming the giant killer, coming within a short head of Stephen Marsh's star filly Well Written.

Jockey Matt Cartwright gave Well Written the perfect trip in the one-one, presented her beautifully at the turn and she quickly found the lead. Well Written opened up several lengths on her rivals, but Belle Cheval took chase from the back of the pack. Well Written shifted out in the concluding stages and the two went head-to-head, with Well Written getting the bob.

Well Written's connections had to sweat a protest in the inquiry room, but it was dismissed, and she got her win.

Cartwright was rapt to get the victory and he was effusive in his praise for Marsh, labelling the Cambridge horseman as an integral part to his success since moving to New Zealand from Australia.

"Everything worked out perfectly," he said. "She was travelling that good, so I let her go. Probably with the weight [58kg] and being in front for so long, she wandered a bit, but she got the job done still.

"She is a very good horse and you didn't see her best today.

"I have got to hand it to Stephen Marsh, he has been the best supporter of me, he is a great trainer and he is a great mate as well."

Marsh admitted that he didn't know if his filly got the win at the post but he was relieved when he heard her name was called out first over the loudspeaker.

"I wasn't sure, the other horse was coming at us so fast," he said.

"She got to the front easy. She has had six starts as a three-year-old, she is not fully mature and had 58 kilos, I just wonder if all that had a bit of a factor. She floated around a bit when she got to the front."

Marsh said Cartwright gave his filly a perfect ride and he was pleased to reward his supporters with the big win, particularly part-owner Yulong Investments, whose principal Zhang Yuesheng was trackside for the win.

"Matt has been great for our stable, he works hard and he is always keen to help us," Marsh said. "He has gotten on very well with this filly. I thought his ride today was unbelievably good.

"All the well wishes that I have had this week has just been overwhelming. I was hoping we weren't going to let people down, and we won by the barest of margins, but I am just so proud of her and the team, all of our owners, Yulong - Mr Zhang is here today - it has just been amazing.

"The ride has been super and I will sleep well for a couple of days after that. It [winning NZB Kiwi] is a feeling you can never explain, and you can't buy it."

While Australia beckons as an obvious target, Marsh said that test will likely wait until next season.

"She is unbelievably good," he said. "She is a great filly, she has done it all, she has won six on the trot.

"She can have a well-deserved spell, she won't be going to Australia at this stage for the autumn, but she will hopefully go over in the spring."

Marsh was also overwhelmed by the atmosphere of the crowd at Ellerslie and said Champions Day is a phenomenal event for the racing industry.

"Looking around at the crowd and the atmosphere, it is just massive," he said. "It is awesome for New Zealand racing, $8.5 million worth of prize-money and great horses on display. This is a special day and it is just great to be a part of it and great to take home the big prize."

Bred in Australia by David Digney, Well Written was initially purchased by Harry and Benji King, under the latter's Foxhill Thoroughbreds banner, as a weanling for A$32,500 and was on sold through Brighthill Farm's 2024 New Zealand Bloodstock National Online Yearling Sale on Gavelhouse Plus where she was purchased by Marsh and Dylan Johnson Bloodstock for $80,000.

She has gone on to win all six of her starts as a three-year-old, including the New Zealand 1,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m), $1.5 million Karaka Millions 3YO (RL, 1600m), Auckland Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m), Soliloquy Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m), and represented the TAB's slot when winning the NZB Kiwi.

She now boasts earnings of more than $2.6 million.

Legarto boosts prospects ahead of Magic Millions date

In what could be her swansong in New Zealand before she is offered at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Broodmare Sale, class mare Legarto (Proisir) put in her best performance at Ellerslie when she stormed home to collar a game Waitak (Proisir) and claim the Bonecrusher New Zealand Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) on Saturday.

It made for a welcome change of luck for trainers Ken and Bev Kelso who had to endure the nightmare scenario of their sprinter Alabama Lass (Alabama Express) crashing through the running rail when set for victory in the Haunui Farm King's Plate (Gr 3, 1200m) two races earlier.

Bidding for successive weight-for-age triumphs after taking out the Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) a month earlier, punters were prepared to disregard Legarto's seemingly average race record of just one win from six starts at Ellerslie by installing her the $2.30 favourite in the contest.

Rider Opie Bosson was content to sit back on the daughter of Proisir (Choisir), allowing Aussie raider Kingswood (Roaring Lion) to set a steady pace in front before moving into contention from the 600 metres.

Kingswood went for gold on the corner but was quickly headed by Waitak, who looked set for victory at the 150 metres before Bosson and Legarto appeared out wide and charged after him.

Bosson timed his run nicely as the mare hit the line a head to the good of Waitak as Tuxedo stormed home late to take third ahead of Jaarffi (Iffraaj).

Kelso was grateful his day had turned around, reporting that Alabama Lass had come through her mishap with no major injuries while praising his middle-distance champion, Legarto.

"It is really what they call the ups and downs of racing after what happened in the sprint," Kelso said.

"I'm very proud of this mare as she is one out of the box and a horse you only get once in a lifetime.

"Bev and I have been very fortunate to have had her.

"It's quite an emotional win as it is probably the last time you will see her on a New Zealand race track.

"Alabama Lass is fine, just a bit stiff and sore obviously and with a wound high up on her back, but she can go out for a spell now."

Kelso admitted he didn't have any real concerns during the race, even when he felt Legarto may have been positioned a little far back at one point.

"I thought she was a fair way from them and had a bit of work to do, but she was always going to show her turn of foot," he said.

"We are going to talk to Phillip Brown [part-owne] and the connections as the Australian Cup is an option for her.

"I think people may have forgotten how good she is, but she now has five Group 1 wins."

Legarto was bred by Warwick Jeffries and was offered by Highline Thoroughbreds during Book 2 of Karaka 2021, where part-owner Phillip Brown purchased her under his Ancroft Stud banner for $90,000.

During her 24-start career, Legarto has recorded 12 wins and five placings with five of those wins at Group 1 level including the 2023 Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m). Saturday's victory took her career earnings past $3.16 million.

Road To Paris leads to Derby Gold

The name Roger James is synonymous with the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) and the Cambridge conditioner has done it once again when he and training partner Roger Wellwood produced the quinella in this year's Classic with Road To Paris (Circus Maximus) and Autumn Glory (Ocean Park).

James had won the feature three-year-old staying contest on six prior occasions, starting with freakish filly Tidal Light (Diagramatic) in partnership with Jim Gibbs in 1986, and 40 years later he made it win number seven, and his second with Wellwood after Orchestral (Savabeel) triumphed in 2024.

This time the pair had to sweat at every start with the enigmatic Road To Paris who has proved a handful during his races, throwing away victory in the Wellington Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) in November by dislodging rider Masa Hashizume in the shadows of the post, while he also ducked in sharply when closing gamely behind That's Gold (Lucky Vega) in his final Derby lead-up event, the Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m).

The application of side blinkers on Saturday looked to have worked the oracle on the son of Windsor Park Stud-based stallion Circus Maximus (Galileo) as he lobbed along comfortably near the tail of the field for rider George Rooke before slowly improving at the 600 metres on the back of stablemate and New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) runner-up Autumn Glory.

That pair stormed to the front at the 250 metres and set down to fight out a nail-biting finish which went in favour of Road To Paris by a length, with Geneva (Time Test) battling home gamely for third.

The drama didn't end there though as Road To Paris dumped jockey George Rooke as they cantered back to the birdcage, while shortly afterwards the protest siren sounded with a judicial inquiry convened to look at interference by the winner against both placegetters over the final 150 metres.

Despite some definite tightening from Road To Paris, the protest was dismissed and the gelding held the win.

"I'm elated as we were super happy with all three of our horses," James said.

"We felt we had a huge show until the barriers came out - Road To Paris [13], Ariadne [14], Autumn Glory [15] - and we were pretty deflated.

"There were two super rides on the first two and in fact all three rides were huge. There is a big build-up to these days and this is very special.

"He [Road To Paris] is untapped but he has to improve his manners. This is also super for George [Rooke] as he has had a few rough times lately and we have stuck with him; he has stuck with us and that was one of the coolest Derby rides you will ever see.

"I think we may look at Sydney with the winner if he comes through this, but I think the filly has probably done enough for now."

Bred and raced by Ron and Judi Wanless, Road To Paris is out of the four-time winning Savabeel (Zabeel) mare Spirit Of Heaven, who is a three-quarter sister to Schweppes Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Lights Of Heaven.

He is the first Group 1 winner for Windsor Park Stud's promising young sire Circus Maximus, a triple Group 1-winning European miler by Galileo (Sadler's Wells), who was also represented in the race by Towering Vision (Circus Maximus) (seventh), with both horses being from their sire's first New Zealand crop.

Australia calling Lara Antipova following Sistema triumph

Lara Antipova's star continues to rise, with the exciting filly extending her unbeaten streak to four when taking out Saturday's Sistema Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Ellerslie.

Visiting jockey Mick Dee gave her the perfect trip throughout in the one-one position, and while she was awkward rounding the final bend with Liguria (Snitzel) trying to advance inside her, she showed her talent once balancing up and made light work of her opposition, running out a 1.8 lengths victor over Liguria, with fellow Cambridge Stud representative State Of Valour (Sword Of State) a further 0.3 lengths back in third.

"She made my job easy, she is certainly well educated," Dee said. "She jumped clean and the speed was on. We were able to land in the one-one position and she did the rest.

"I had the eventual second horse try to come in underneath us on the turn and she just didn't get around the corner 100 per cent. She won the race once she quickened up. She had a good look around, I feel there is plenty left in the tank."

With a record of four wins from four starts in New Zealand, including the Wakefield Challenge Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) and Matamata Breeders' Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), trainers Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson are now keen on testing Lara Antipova's talent across the Tasman and said she will join their Cranbourne barn in the coming weeks.

"We think she is up to Australian class and we look forward to getting her to Melbourne," Walker said.

"There's a race down the straight [Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes at Flemington], it will either be that at the end of this month or maybe the Percy Sykes in Sydney. It will be good to give her a look at the Melbourne stable with a view to the Coolmore in the spring."

The stable was runner-up in the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) two years ago with fellow Fortuna Racing filly Bellatrix Star (Star Witness), and Walker said Lara Antipova shares similar qualities to her stable predecessor.

"Her form stacks up with Bellatrix Star, who John and Jessica [Galvin, Fortuna Racing] raced," Walker said. "She is every bit as good as she was."

The daughter of Russian Revolution (Snitzel) was purchased by Te Akau Racing principal David Ellis, in conjunction with Fortuna Racing, for $100,000 out of Vinery Stud's 2025 Magic Millions Gold Cost Yearling Sale draft.

Her prominence extends the great run of success the two entities have shared over the last few years, which includes the likes of 14-time Group 1 winner Melody Belle (Commands) and Group 1 performer Bellatrix Star.

"She is exciting and it is great for John Galvin and his team," Walker said. "Well done to David Ellis, that's the seventh winner of the race that he has bought, that's an incredible record."

BETTING FORECAST: 11-4 Mapogo, 4 Run Run Sunrise, 5 Casa Primo, 6 Classic Triple, 7 Loving Vibes, 10 Awesome Treasure, 14 Conspirator, 20 Comet Radiance, Green Field Pearl, Lucky Twenty, 25 Heroic Master, 33 Dragon Hall, 66 Flowing, 100 Lucky Secret.

VERDICT Matthew Poon was aboard for MAPOGO's three trial wins, in the latest making all to defeat the respected Casa Primo. Run Run Sunrise is probably another improving 3yo having chased home the right horse here two weeks ago. Loving Vibes has been unfortunate not to have won more and he's handily drawn on his official debut for Mark Newnham. [Alistair Jones]

VERDICT The Concentration is on a roll but he's no good thing to defy a rise in the weights and both Gale Saga and Winning Machine (if he gets in) look capable of gaining their revenge on these terms. There are others with chances and DRACO could be interesting as he did well to finish so close from where he was turning in here on New Year's Day and a recent trial win could have buoyed his confidence. VERDICT Zac Purton takes over aboard the in-form One Man Show but selection has the kinder draw of the two. No Other Choice has been bang there in his last two races over C&D so has to be considered, along with Bundle Of Charm, Good Luck Babe and Ace Power. [Alistair Jones]

BETTING FORECAST: 3 Fun N Fun Together, Good Chap, 5 King Dance, 13-2 Shinyu Kokoro, 8 Conrad The Great, 10 Flowing Riches, 12 Natural High, 14 Glory Cloud, World Hero, 66 Extraordinary Gall, Forza Leader, 100 Flying Christie.

VERDICT They may have dropped on something with Good Chap who looked very at home when winning on his dirt debut (despite a wide draw) and has since won a trial on the same surface. However, this is a welcome drop in grade for FUN N FUN TOGETHER and his previous form figures under Zac Purton read 2141. King Dance overcame a troubled run to win his last race but in a close fifth was Shinyu Kokoro, a dual winner in Australia who might be about to find his form in Hong Kong. [Alistair Jones]

BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 Packing Angel, 5 Soleil Fighter, 6 Encountered, Stunning Peach, 7 Fortune Boy, 8 Beauty Alliance, Prestige Good, 10 Californiatotality, 16 Ka Ying Generation, 33 Sword Point.

VERDICT Last year's Hong Kong Derby third PACKING ANGEL was a very respectable fourth behind Stunning Peach over 1m here recently and should now be back at concert pitch for his third run of the season. He gets the vote ahead of Encountered, who was below form on his latest outing but has strong claims in this company if judged on the best of this season's Group form. [Chris Wilson]

VERDICT There could still be more to come from Power Of Vitam (second choice), who was a surprise C&D winner on just his second Hong Kong start, while the runner-up from that race, The Red Hare, has a pull in the weights and the assistance of Zac Purton today.  ●VICTOR THE WINNER long handicap 8-2
 ●PATCH OF STARS long handicap 8-0

BETTING FORECAST: 7-4 Fast Network, 4 Invincible Shield, 8 Sky Trust, 10 Beauty Waves, Stellar Express, Storm Rider, 14 Wunderbar, 16 Patch Of Theta, 20 Invincible Sage, Light Years Charm, Tomodachi Kokoroe, 40 Victor The Winner.

VERDICT It's reasonable to expect another big run from Invincible Shield, who is weighted to reverse recent C&D placings with Sky Trust, but class-dropper FAST NETWORK has developed into a high-class sprinter this season and could be very difficult to beat from the inside stall. BETTING FORECAST: 9-4 Super Express, 11-4 Winning Ovation, 11-2 Matzden, 8 Harold Win, 12 King Lotus, 14 All Round Winner, Everyone's Star, 20 Chiu Chow Spirit, 25 Akermanis Gold, California Waves, Rising Phoenix, 33 Sunny Da Best, Superb Kid, 100 Perfect Team.

VERDICT Super Express might still be on the upgrade and ought to be a tough nut to crack but WINNING OVATION was quite impressive when winning over C&D on his latest official start last May and his recent trials suggest he's primed to hit the ground running. Matzden moves up in trip after two promising 6f runs and is next on the list, while Harold Win will probably be on the premises as usual.
