Warwoven books Slipper spot with Pago Pago Stakes win

By Mary-Jo Jackson

Bjorn Baker will head into next weekend's $5 million Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) with more than one leading chance after Warwoven (Sword Of State) secured his place in the field with a professional victory in Saturday's Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Rosehill.

Already holding a strong hand with equal Slipper favourite Paradoxium (Extreme Choice), Baker was eager to guarantee Warwoven's start in Rosehill's juvenile showpiece, and the colt delivered, earning the ballot exemption that comes with victory in the Group 3 lead-up.

Under his regular rider Rachel King, Warwoven ($2.70) settled just off the speed before quickening smartly in the straight, going on to score by a length over $41 chance Outspan (Bivouac), with the $2.20 favourite Central Europe (Frankel) just 0.1 lengths further away in third.

Gollan's Prague filly enters Slipper scene with Magic win

Continued from page 1 It is quite the feat that Baker has managed to qualify the two colts for the Slipper, both having had their preparations interrupted.

Warwoven was controversially scratched from January's Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) after Queensland Racing veterinarians deemed him lame, while stablemate Paradoxium also missed the race due to pneumonia before announcing his return with a brilliant victory in last week's Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m).

Baker said he was pleased to see Warwoven rebound after the colt suffered a first defeat when fourth on reappearance in last month's Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m).

"We're not counting our chickens until he's at the start line [of the Slipper]," Baker said, "but it was great to see him do that. He's a promising horse. He had to do a bit of work early today, so hopefully he can peak next week.

"We've got to, first and foremost, see how he comes through, but two in the Slipper...it is very special.

THINGS IN THIS GAME HAVE A FUNNY WAY OF WORKING. YOU CAN BE DOWN AND OUT, AND IT ONLY TAKES ONE RUNNER TO GET BACK ON TRACK

BJORN BAKER

"Things in this game have a funny way of working. You can be down and out, and it only takes one runner to get back on track."

King was also encouraged by the colt's improvement from his first-up effort.

"There's more under the bonnet, and I think if he gets challenged, there's even more under the bonnet than today," the winning rider said. "He's very exciting."

Saturday's success saw Warwoven firm into $7 (from $9) for the Golden Slipper, sitting on the second line of betting behind Reisling Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) winner Chayan (I Am Invincible) and Paradoxium, both rated $5 chances. Baker confirmed King will retain the ride.

The Pago Pago Stakes/Golden Slipper double has been won four times by Inspired (Vain) (1984), Rory's Jester (Crown Jester) (1985), Stratum (Redoute's Choice) (2005) and Shinzo (Snitzel) (2023).

Warwoven was bought by his trainer and owners Ridgmont, S and J Gosling and Jim Clarke for $380,000 at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale from the draft of his breeders Kia Ora Stud. He is out of the Group 2-winning Makfi (Dubawi) mare Needle And Thread, herself a sister to Listed winner and three-time Group 1 placegetter Savile Row, who stands at Mapperley Stud in New Zealand.

Despite his already high profile, Saturday's Group 3 win was Warwoven's first at stakes level and the second as a sire for Cambridge Stud's Sword Of State. Twin Hills will offer the only progeny of the son of Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) at the upcoming Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale later this month. The colt is catalogued as Lot 322.

Gollan's Prague filly enters Slipper scene with Magic win

Pembrey stamped herself as a potential late Golden Slipper contender for Tony Gollan after she powered to victory in the Magic Night Stakes at Rosehill on Saturday.

Ridden by James McDonald, the daughter of second-season sire Prague (Redoute's Choice) was sent off the $2.05 favourite and controlled the race from the front before extending strongly in the straight to score by 1.4 lengths over Lumbini (Russian Revolution), with By Choice (Written By) a further 1.1 lengths away in third.

Pembrey was not among the original Golden Slipper entries, but her Magic Night success guarantees a place in next Saturday's $5 million juvenile feature should connections elect to pay the $150,000 late entry fee.

Gollan said the decision would depend on how the filly recovers from her Rosehill performance.

"We'll let the team make the decision if they want to pay up, we have a look at her all week and see what we've got.

"But she's a nice filly who has hit form at the right time, she handles wet or dry so it won't matter what the weather throws at us during the week, and she shows good speed so ticks all the boxes.

"We came to Sydney to run in the Golden Slipper so my gut feeling is to back up. We will see how she pulls up but I would imagine we will run her."

McDonald said he was keen to make amends after the filly's previous defeat in last month's Sweet Embrace Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) when fifth behind Spicy Miss (Trapeze Artist), beaten 1.6 lengths

"I learned a lot, it was a bad ride last start," McDonald said.

"I'm so happy I can make amends today and Tony was solid by keeping me on. I'm glad I could repay him and the connections because she's a beautiful filly.

"She began a lot cleaner today and I was alert to her this time. She lengthened well and really built through the gears."

McDonald also compared her favourably with Chayan, the equal favourite for the Slipper who he partnered to win last week's Reisling Stakes.

"Pembrey's a beautiful filly. Last week's filly [Chayan] was great as well and she's very similar," he said.

Should she line up back at Rosehill next week, Pembrey would attempt to become the seventh filly to complete the Magic Night-Golden Slipper double, the latest being Kiamichi (Sidestep) in 2019.

Three late entries - Closer To Free (Street Boss), Music Time (All Too Hard) and potentially Pembrey - are expected to be paid up by Monday's deadline.

Pembrey was passed in as part of Vinery Stud's draft at Book 2 of the 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale and retained to race by her breeders Kia Ora Stud, who enjoyed a juvenile stakes double having also bred Pago Pago Stakes winner Warwoven.

She is the first stakes winner from eight overall for her Group 2-winning dam Se Sauver (Bel Esprit) also the dam of Listed-placed winner Amplify (Microphone). Se Sauver is herself a half-sister to 2013 South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Escado (Casino Prince).

Saturday's win was also a first stakes winner for the New South Wales-based operation's resident Prague, who stood the 2025 breeding season at a reduced fee of $11,000 (inc GST). Continued on page 5

Lazzura defies big weight to land deserved first Group 1

Chris Waller extended his remarkable hold on the Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) at Rosehill on Saturday when the admirable Lazzura (Snitzel) handed the champion trainer a fourth successive win in the Group 1 feature.

The daughter of Snitzel was a four-time stakes winner heading into Saturday's contest, headlined by wins in the Let's Elope Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) and Phar Lap Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) across two campaigns last year. Her best result at Group 1 level had been when third in last year's Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) behind Lady Shenandoah (Snitzel), beaten 2.9 lengths.

Ridden by James McDonald in the Coolmore Classic, the mare stamped her class when carrying the equal top-weight of 58 kilograms to a 0.4-length victory over Arctic Glamour (Frosted), with Vivy Air (Hellbent) flashing home a further 0.3 lengths away in third.

Sent off the $4.20 favourite, Savvy Hallie (Hellbent) led before weakening to finish eleventh of the 14 runners, with her jockey Nash Rawiller suggesting the filly simply failed to see out the distance strongly.

Lazzura became the first mare since the legendary Sunline (Desert Sun) (60 kilograms) in 2002 to carry more than 57 kilograms to victory in the race. It was a fourth-straight win in the feature for Waller after wins by Lady Shenandoah, Zougotcha (Zoustar) and Espiona (Extreme Choice).

"Well deserved," said Waller, who enjoyed a stakes treble on the day completed by Birdman (Free Eagle) in the Peter Young Stakes (Gr 2, 1800) and Sixties (Flying Artie) in the latest renewal of the Phar Lap Stakes.

"She's been running around against some very good horses without a lot of luck going her way."

After being narrowly beaten by Cinsault (Brazen Beau) first-up in the Mille Fox Stakes (Gr 2, 1300m), Waller was pleased to see Lazzura show her fighting qualities.

"We had her a bit underdone first-up and rode her a pair too close. Today, we didn't panic from the draw. We went back, got cover three-wide," the winning trainer said.

"I thought, following that run last start, you're going to fold up that last 100 [metres], but she was strong."

The win also moved McDonald to 128 Group 1 victories, leaving him just one shy of the Australian record held by the now-retired Damien Oliver.

McDonald could have the chance to equal that mark as soon as next Saturday at Rosehill, where his rides are set to include unbeaten star Autumn Glow (The Autumn Sun) in the George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m).

A humble McDonald said the record was far from his mind.

"It's a funny feeling because 'Ollie' is so great, I don't feel like I should be in that echelon just yet," the winning rider said. "I feel very privileged to be in the position where I'm getting there slowly.

"It wasn't me, it was her just really biting down on the mouthguard and having a really decent crack.

"I thought she was all-out with 100 metres to go, but that will to find the line, it's something you can't teach them, you can't train in them."

Waller said Lazzura's next target would be decided in consultation with her owners, with the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) or Queen Of The Turf Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) on April 4 and 11 under consideration.

"I've got a philosophy that horses don't just win one Group 1. If they're good enough to win one, they normally win two or three," he said.

Bred by Arrowfield and Jungle Pocket, Lazzura was bought from the latter's draft at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale by B2B Thoroughbreds for $500,000 in 2023. She is out of the winning Japanese-bred mare Laguna Azzurra (Heart's Cry), making her a half-sister to the Listed-placed winner Portorosa (Not A Single Doubt).

Laguna Azzurra herself is a daughter of the three-time Listed winner Silky Lagoon (Brian's Time), who also produced dual Grade 3 scorer Seewind (Deep Impact). Arrowfield will offer Lazzura's sister at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. The filly is catalogued as Lot 383.

The win marked a 26th individual Group 1 winner for Arrowfield's late great stallion Snitzel, who died last year aged 22.

Australia

26 for Snitzel

Snitzel ARROWFIELD

Arrowfield's star-crossed multiple champion sire Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) was supplied with his 26th individual elite-level winner when the Chris Waller-trained Lazzura (4 m ex Laguna Azzurra by Heart's Cry) landed Saturday's Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m) at Rosehill. Bred by Arrowfield and Jungle Pocket, the mare was bought from the latter's draft at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale by B2B Thoroughbreds for $500,000 in 2023. Lazzura is out of the winning Japanese-bred mare Laguna Azzurra (Heart's Cry), making her a half-sister to the Listed-placed winner Portorosa (Not A Single Doubt). Laguna Azzurra herself is a daughter of the three-time Listed winner Silky Lagoon (Brian's Time), who also produced dual Grade 3 scorer Seewind (Deep Impact). Arrowfield will offer Lazzura's sister at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. The filly is catalogued as Lot 383. Snitzel died last year.

Second for Sword Of State

Snitzel's legacy was felt in another race at Rosehill as the Bjorn Baker-trained Warwoven (2 c ex Needle And Thread by Makfi), a colt by his son Sword Of State, booked his ticket into next weekend's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) with a win in Saturday's Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m). The victory provided his Cambridge Stud-based first-season sire with his second individual stakes winner. Warwoven was bought by his trainer and owners Ridgmont, S and J Gosling and Jim Clarke for $380,000 at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale from the draft of his breeders Kia Ora Stud. The colt is out of the Group 2 winner Needle And Thread (Makfi) and she is out of the dual winner Fleece (Daylami), who is also the dam of the Listed winner and three-time Group 1 placegetter Savile Row (Makfi), who stands at Mapperley Stud in New Zealand. Twin Hills will offer the only progeny of Sword Of State at the upcoming Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale later this month. The colt is catalogued as Lot 322.

First for Prague

Breeders Kia Ora enjoyed a juvenile race double at Rosehill on Saturday as Pembrey (2

Six for Exceedance

Vinery Stud's resident stallion Exceedance (Exceed And Excel) sired his sixth individual stakes winner when the Annabel and Rob Archibald-trained Cristal Clear (4 g ex Cristal Eyes by All Too Hard) produced a stylish display in Saturday's Ajax Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) at Rosehill. Having his first start back since his sixth-placed finish in November's Big Dance (1600m), the four-year-old gelding defeated Group 1 winner Robusto (Churchill) by 0.2 lengths with another 0.5 lengths back to Enxuto (Lean Mean Machine) in third. Out of the Group 3-placed winning mare Cristal Eyes (All Too Hard), Cristal Clear is therefore a half-brother to Group 2 winner Sass Appeal (So

You Think). Cristal Eyes herself is a half-sister to Group 3 scorer Flying Evelyn (Not A Single Doubt). Cristal Clear was bought by his owners Group One Thoroughbreds and his trainers for $50,000 at the Inglis Ready To Race Sale in 2023.

Doncaster aim for Cristal Clear

Following his Group 2 victory on Saturday, co-trainer Rob Archibald said Cristal Clear would now be prepared for the Doncaster Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick on April 4. "The Doncaster was our aim for this preparation, we thought we might have to go through the Doncaster Prelude," said Archibald. "Full credit to Braith [Nock, winning rider] and our team at home, they've presented him in really good order today. I thought Braith rode him perfectly first-up. We said 'just have him where he's happy and see where he's at' and he was excellent."

Group 2 score for Sixties

The Chris Waller-trained Sixties (3 c Flying Artie - Gracie's Lass by Redoute's Choice) is another set for a crack at the Doncaster after he got his career back on track when bouncing back from his last-start third in the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) with a win in Saturday's Phar Lap Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) at Rosehill. The three-year-old colt finished strongly to defeat Federalist (I Am Invincible) by 0.7 lengths with a further 0.5 lengths back to Cellarmaster (Bivouac) in third. "Things didn't really work out in the Australian Guineas, like today, he's had bad draws and it just makes it harder. I think his best win was when we rode him quiet, but today, short price favourite, we've got three weeks into the Doncaster I thought 'oh well we'll try you up again on the speed,'" said Chris Waller, who has sent out nine of the last 12 winners of the Phar Lap Stakes. "Ideally in the Doncaster we'll ride him more conservatively. He's got to go to a new level in the Doncaster, but he's very well weighted."

Vauban defends his Sky High Stakes crown

Vauban (8 g Galiway - Waldfest by Hurricane Run) served a timely reminder of his talents on Saturday when claiming back-to-back victories in the Sky High Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) at Rosehill.

Less than 24 hours after his former trainer Willie Mullins and Rich and Susannah Ricci, who are still listed in the ownership of Vauban, capped a remarkable Cheltenham Festival with Gold Cup success courtesy of Gaelic Warrior (Maxios), the combination's 2022 Triumph Hurdle winner showed he has plenty more to offer as he treads a path to a fourth Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) attempt.

Now trained by Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott and racing in the Australian Bloodstock colours, the eight-year-old was making his first appearance since his sixth-placed finish in last November's Flemington showpiece, where he was beaten 9.3 lengths.

Having taken a moment to gather himself at the top of the straight, Vauban soon challenged under Tim Clark, and asserted in the final half-furlong to score by a length from Soul Of Spain (Phoenix Of Spain). Just Fine (Sea The Stars) was another 0.9 lengths away in third, while favourite Wootton Verni (Wootton Bassett) had every chance but faded to finish fifth, beaten 4.6 lengths.

Bott praised the gelding's durability after he secured the fourth Group win of his 30-start career. In winning for the second time in Australia, he became the first multiple winner of the Sky High Stakes.

"He is such a remarkable horse," said Bott. "Australia has really got behind him and so has the ownership group. He's been a great ride for them. He's here on the back of a Melbourne Cup campaign and he looks as good as ever."

Vauban

GETTY

"I'm really proud of the horse and hopefully he is set for a nice preparation. He gives you such tremendous satisfaction."

Connections are working backwards from the Melbourne Cup and look set to give the Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) a miss, while the immediate target for Vauban is the Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) back at Rosehill on March 28. Vauban was third in the contest last year behind the William Haggas-trained Dubai Honour (Pride Of Dubai), who is set to line up again this year.

"I'm not sure about the Sydney Cup this autumn but we will definitely go for the Melbourne Cup again," Bott said.

"I would like to go through the Tancred like we did last year. Arguably he's come back better this year and it looks to be a lovely race for him."

"He's going to be better suited as he gets deeper into the preparation and over a little bit further as well. We might also look at Brisbane [for the Queensland Winter Carnival] too."

Winner rider Clark said last year's Tancred might have been the Group 1 that got away for Vauban.

"It just went a bit wrong last year, it might have been one that got away," he said.

"Hopefully in two weeks' time we can redeem ourselves. He feels like a spring three-year-old. I think that was a better win than this time last year."

First Group win for Flying For Fun

Having not been sighted in public since her Starlight Stakes (Listed, 1100m) triumph in November, the Bryce Heys-trained Flying For Fun (4 m Spieth - Vol Prive by Sebring) grabbed her first Group-race win in Saturday's Maurice McCarten Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Rosehill. The mare finished strongly to beat Mal Coupe (Xtravagant) by 0.5 lengths with King's Secret (Shalaa) coming home a further 1.2 lengths away in third. "She's really good, she's come back super. Much more mature and stronger," said winning rider Zac Lloyd. "For her to do that first-up, that was a pretty strong Maurice McCarten and she's done it really nice. She left as a good horse on the rise and she's come back a much more mature mare and physically stronger which needed to happen for her to keep rising. That's a good kick off for her preparation. I had a lapful of horse the whole way. She really handles high pressure and I think that's a great asset of hers."

Nostra Bella delivers dream city win for Tindale

Just over a year after saddling her first runner, Karlene Tindale celebrated a breakthrough moment on Saturday when Nostra Bella (Nostradamus) delivered a stunning upset to secure her maiden metropolitan victory at Caulfield. The filly defied her recent form to win the $200,000 VOBIS Gold Dash (1200m) at 150-1, earning Tindale her first city success and banking $110,000 in prize-money, along with a valuable suite of VOBIS bonuses. Nostra Bella defeated Toronado Queen (Toronado) by 0.3 lengths with High On The Hill (Wootton Bassett) finishing third, another 1.2 lengths away. "I can't believe it — not after her last few starts," Tindale told Racing.com. "She's looked diabolical and to win at those odds, it's a dream come true. She seems to perform better against her own age and we just decided to take a chance. We've always loved her."

Birdman flies to victory in the Peter Young Stakes

The Chris Waller-trained Birdman (5 g Free Eagle - Carol by Acclamation) followed up his recent Blamey Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) victory with a dominant score in Saturday's Peter Young Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) at Caulfield.

Ridden by Ben Melham, the five-year-old crossed the line 1.8 lengths ahead of Apulia (Fiorente), with Bankers Choice (Mongolian Khan) finishing a further 0.1 lengths away in third.

Stable representative Lizzie Collett, highlighted what a different horse the winner is this time in.

"He's a different horse this prep," said Collett. "His three runs have shown that he's absolutely on song."

"These imports do take a while to adjust and this prep he has turned into a magnificent horse and each run has been outstanding. In the straight today, he [Melham] didn't ask him until he had to and he [Birdman] put them away very easily."

"He's such a kind horse, a cool customer. He puts that into his races and he doesn't waste any energy pre-race and leaves it for out on the course."

Having now recorded consecutive stakes victories on the five-year-old, Melham feels the Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) at Flemington at March 28 will suit the gelding.

"I've had a bit to do with him this preparation and I thought early doors the way he was going he was heading in the right direction to be really competitive in an Australian Cup and the more I have to do with him, the more I think he can win it," the winning rider said.

"He's been a bit of a revelation, the horse, but he's in the right stable. He may have just taken a little bit of time to acclimatise."

"He's a very relaxed customer, seeing him there now he's about to fall asleep, so he takes a bit of waking up but the ability's there with him is certainly going really well."

"I don't think the run will have hurt him at all. He just got into a lovely position, didn't sort of spend any pennies until the last 250 metres and I felt he had the race at his mercy a long way out."

"He seems to be going really well at these shorter trips. He'll be no worries at 2000 [metres], but maybe that's the way to go with him, a bit of freshness in his legs, but I'll leave that to the expert."

Big Wigs carries iconic silks to victory at Caulfield

Big Wigs

Two weeks after the death of champion mare Makybe Diva (Desert King), the well-known Tony Santic silks were carried to success by the Phillip Stokes-trained Big Wigs (Gold Standard) in the $1 million VOBIS Platinum Showdown (1200m) at Caulfield on Saturday. Having finished second in both his starts previously, the colt defeated Miss Chanel (Tagaloo) by 0.1 lengths and the pair pulled 5.3 lengths clear of the third-placed Knurl (Brazen Beau). "It's super," winning rider Lachlan Neindorf said. "It almost makes me a little bit emotional, really. It's been such a big couple weeks for these colours and to go out there and get the job done on a nice two-year-old makes it that extra special. He was a little bit keen at Ballarat [last start] in behind them and when I brought him to the outside he really went down through his gears. I was aware of that today. I think we were all a bit worried when the barrier draw came out, but it was a blessing in disguise in the end because we had all the three main dangers drawn inside of us. I wasn't sure where they were going to be but I was confident that I would end up on the back of one of them and I was confident that my horse had a good turn of foot and the extra rise in distance was going to suit him that little bit more."

Stylish Secret produces impressive performance

Stylish Secret's (Sweet Orange) victory in Saturday's Benchmark 84 (2000m) at Caulfield lifted his career earnings to $398,525 - an outstanding return on the New Zealand-bred gelding's purchase price of $2,300 on Gavelhouse.com. The Mick Nolan-trained gelding added a fifth win to his record with a narrow 0.1-length success over Xtra Rush (Xtravagant). Foujita San (Maurice) finished another 0.2 lengths away in third. Nolan is keen to give Stylish Secret a crack at the Mornington Cup (Listed, 2400m) on his home track on April 18. "I don't deserve much credit for this horse, he's pretty easy to train," he said. "He loves this place, though, doesn't he? We happen to live in Mornington, and there's a race down there called the Mornington Cup in April. We thought we might target that and give him a couple of 2000-metre runs to try to get there." Stylish Secret was purchased by part-owner Helen Thomas off Gavelhouse.com as a weanling. She said: "Deane [Lester] did suggest that I have a look on Gavelhouse because it is a really great website to find horses, particularly broodmares and young horses. I jumped on and lot number one was this happy, little horse - he looked like a bit of a ragamuffin as a weanling. He was by Sweet Orange out of a Savabeel mare called Scarlett Secret and bred and raised at Windsor Park Stud. Daqiansweet Junior by Sweet Orange was doing really well at the time, and I thought, here's a horse that is certainly bred to be a middle-distance horse, if not a fully-fledged stayer and wouldn't it be good to grow him up and have a bit of a fun with him."

11 for Maschino

Alwyn Park Stud's Maschino (Encosta De Lago) registered his 11th individual stakes winner when promising filly Masmelo (3 f ex Melteme by Blackfriars) landed Saturday's Natasha Stakes (Listed, 2200m) at Ascot. Trained by Neville Parnham, Masmelo went into the race fresh off a Listed second in the Ascot 1,000 Guineas (Listed, 1800m) two weeks earlier, and successfully stepped up in distance under Chris Parnham in the 2200-metre contest, scoring by a length over Admire Astra (Admire Mars). Ascot 1,000 Guineas winner Wonderfully Made (Playing God) was another 0.6 lengths behind in third. Bred by David Keens, Masmelo was purchased by Parnham Racing at the 2024 Magic Millions Perth Winter Yearling Sale for $3,000 out of the Gervase Park Stud draft. She is the second foal and first winner out of the winning Blackfriars (Danehill) mare Melteme. Maschino covered 94 mares last spring at an unchanged fee of $8,800 (inc GST).

Birchley wins $500,000 Aquis Jewel

Liam Birchley continued his knack for sourcing bargain yearlings when Swift Dragon (Dracarys) captured the $500,000 QTIS Jewel (1200m) at the Gold Coast on Saturday. Fresh from his Karaka Millions 2YO (RL, 1200m) success with Dream Roca (El Roca), Birchley struck again with the Dracarys (Snitzel) gelding, purchased by Bloodstock Solutions for $60,000 from the Ellay Bloodstock draft at the Magic Millions Capricornia Sale. Swift Dragon started a 20-1 outsider but produced a strong performance under Ryan Wiggins to score by 1.1 lengths over Esperanza (Spirit Of Boom). The gelding had won on debut at Rockhampton before two below-par runs at Eagle Farm, which Birchley attributed to unsuitable track conditions. "That was so good. We struck a couple of offish tracks at Eagle Farm, so we were happy to get the horse onto a better surface today," he said. "These bigger horses don't let down on those tracks sometimes. Last start it was much the same, but today was a different story. I had full confidence in the horse as long as the track was playing fair and we could get a crack at them." Swift Dragon is the first winner out of Tay Swift (Rothesay) and the 39th for his sire Dracarys, who has also produced two stakes winners from limited opportunities. He covered 65 mares last spring at a fee of $9,900 (inc GST), up from 37 the previous year.

Options open for Treasurethe Moment

Treasurethe Moment

Treasurethe Moment (Alabama Express) will resume her autumn campaign next Saturday, although Matt Laurie is yet to decide whether the mare will run in Melbourne or Sydney. The multiple Group 1 winner pleased connections with a gallop between races at Caulfield on Saturday under regular rider Daniel Stackhouse. Laurie said the team would weigh up options between the Sunline Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Caulfield and the George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m) at Rosehill. "She was lovely and relaxed out there and if she happens to stay here in Melbourne, Daniel will be offered the ride," the trainer said. "If she goes to Sydney for the George Ryder, we'll work that out. I think it would be a good move to stay here and then just have a one-run trip to Sydney, but ultimately, it's a discussion with Mr Zhang and the [Yulong] team. I think having a run back here in a fillies' and mares' race, albeit a Group 2, would be a good lead into the big one third-up." Treasurethe Moment was expected to line up in last week's All-Star Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington but Laurie opted to give her more time after her first-up run in the Futurity Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield, where she led and was run down as the odds-on favourite. "I thought it was a solid run on speed [first-up]," Laurie said. "It's not her style. Then we drew awkwardly in the All Star-Mile and we weren't in any rush to back her up." Laurie said the mare's autumn targets could include the Doncaster Handicap on April 4 or the Queen Of

The Turf Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) a week later. The Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) placegetter will not be stretched to 2000 metres this campaign.

Buckaroo fails throat test

Buckaroo's (Fastnet Rock) Australian Cup prospects took a major hit after the gelding pulled up from Saturday's Peter Young Stakes with a throat issue. The Chris Waller-trained Cox Plate runner-up finished unplaced in the Caulfield Group 2 and will require veterinary clearance before racing again after Racing Victoria stewards detected the issue post-race. Rider Jye McNeil said the seven-year-old travelled well in the early and middle stages but failed to respond as expected in the straight. A subsequent examination revealed the issue. Buckaroo had been considered one of the leading chances for the $2.5 million Australian Cup at Flemington on March 28 following his strong return when second in the Futurity Stakes to Pericles (Street Boss) last month.

12 for Time Test

Omega Boy

RACE IMAGES

Omega Boy (5 g ex Bit Of Crumpet by Duke Of Marmalade) provided Time Test (Dubawi) with a 12th individual stakes winner when taking out Saturday's Japan Trophy (Gr 2, 1600m) at Tauranga. Trained by Peter and Trent Didham, the five-year-old took his tally to five wins and six placings from his 22 starts as he beat Sterling Express (Shamexpress) by 0.7 lengths. Khafre (American Pharoah) finished another 0.8 lengths away in third. Omega Boy is out of the placed Duke Of Marmalade (Danehill) mare Bit Of Crumpet and comes from an extended family that includes Australian stakes winners Sir Luminar (Choisir) and Luminia (Semipalantinsk). Having formerly shuttled to Little Avondale Stud from the National Stud in England, Time Test now resides permanently in Turkey.

Apprentice McNab delighted to land Group 2 prize

Trainers Peter and Trent Didham placed their faith in Sam McNab to get the job done on Omega Boy in the Japan Trophy and the apprentice handled the task with aplomb, getting the best out of his mount in the closing stages as he charged late to snatch victory. "That was awesome as I've been getting great support lately and to get these wins after working so hard is quite rewarding," a delighted McNab said. "The plan was to settle behind the speed somewhere and he jumped well so I elected to hold him up a little and we got into a nice spot. I went to the fence and when Michael [McNab aboard Qali Al Farrasha] got going I got a nice track into the race and just had to run down the leader which he did. That last little bit, Sterling Express just folded up a little and my horse was tough and got through the ground."

Group 1 plans for Ronaldo

Exciting two-year-old Ronaldo (Ribchester) will have a shot at Trentham's Manawatu Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) on March 28 after he scored for the second time in as many starts when landing the opener at Wanganui on Saturday. Having won on debut at New Plymouth last month, the Robbie Paterson-trained Ronaldo was backed into a $1.60 favourite for the 1200-metre contest and duly obliged, posting a comprehensive 2.3-length victory over Pinafore (Pinatubo) in the hands of Craig Grylls. "I have got a lot of time for this horse," the winning rider said. "He was really good again today, he jumped well and put himself there. He just got pestered the whole race, we were going along quite nicely and the one outside us was being really annoying, but it didn't worry him, he was composed, he balanced up and kicked really good. He's a proper horse I think." Patterson was just as impressed with Ronaldo's winning effort and is excited about what's ahead of him. "He is just a cool horse, he even buttoned off with the horse outside him racing him and put half a length on him. I see he had the cheek to prick his ears over the line. They are good signs." said the winning trainer. "He will get a mile now I would say. He looks like a three-year-old now, he is exciting. He is only two, there is so much upside to him, he could be one of the better three-year-olds next year." Ronaldo, who was bred and is raced by Ron and Shirley Miller, is out of seven-year-old mare Miss Daisy (Any Suggestion), herself a half-sister to stakes performer Real Specialist (Storming Home).

Elite company beckons for Bedtime Story

Another try at elite-level company looks to be on the cards for Bedtime Story (Per Incanto) after the mare returned to winning ways with a narrow victory in an open handicap over 1340 metres at Wanganui on Saturday. The five-year-old, who carries the colours of breeder Henrietta, the Dowager Duchess of Bedford, was freshened following her last start at Trentham in early January and made a winning return in her 1000-metre trial at Foxton earlier this month, giving her trainers Guy Lowry and Leah Zydenbos plenty of confidence ahead of her fresh-up run. "It was a terrific trial the other day so I was just hoping that she would back that up and she has," Lowry said following the 0.1-length win over Cooper (Tivaci) under Kelly Myers. "Today was a good effort under a good weight [60 kilograms]. "I think she is better in the autumn this mare, she has got good ability, and she is really coming into her age." Bedtime Story is now set to return to elite-level in the New Zealand Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Trentham in a fortnight. "She is going really well so we will [go to the Breeders' Stakes]," Lowry said. Twice stakes-placed, Bedtime Story, who has posted five wins from 21 starts, will try to improve on her half-sister Dragon Queen's (Sweynesse) fourth-placed run in the corresponding race four years ago.

Churchillian back to her best in Tauranga victory

Speedy mare Churchillian (Churchill) showed what she is capable of given her own terms in front when she bolted home in the open sprint over 1200 metres at Tauranga on Saturday. Trained by Tony Pike, the six-year-old made all under Sam Collett to come home 5.8 lengths clear of her nearest challenger December (Shamexpress), taking her record to nine wins in 22 starts in the process. Pike had harboured some doubts before the race about Churchillian handling the Heavy 8 track conditions, however those fears proved unfounded as she dashed home on her first start since Boxing Day. "She has always been a promising mare all along, who has had a few injury niggles," the winning trainer said. "But when she is good, she is very good. It was a beautiful ride by Sam as there looked to be a lot of speed in the race, which everyone read the same, but they went at a real modest tempo and the way the track was playing she was dominant. She has never really performed on soft track conditions, so that was a concern, but hard up against the rail was the place to be. We were using this race as a lead-up to Trentham in two weeks where she is going to a 1400-metre Listed race."

BETTING FORECAST: 4 Celestial Harmony, Phantom Cyclone, 6 Courier Magic, 7 Perfect Peach, 10 All Eyes On Me, Family Fortune, 12 Atomic Beauty, Meepmeep, 14 Go Go Go, Smart Beauty, Wiseman, 25 Brilliant Fire, 33 Magic Cosmos, Speedy Trident.

VERDICT Celestial Harmony had six of these behind when making a successful stable debut over C&D in January and should go well again, but he may find it hard to confirm the form with the runner-up PHANTOM CYCLONE on 5th worse terms, especially as the selection is better drawn than he was. The fifth horse Courier Magic may also fare better given he started from the outside stall and met trouble, while Meepmeep is worth keeping an eye on having gained his sole success over C&D from a 9lb higher mark. BETTING FORECAST: 4 Majestic Delight, 5 Verbiere, 6 Rewarding Twinkle, 7 Winning Cigar, Yee Cheong Raider, 8 Dash, 10 Circuit Victory, 12 Triumphant Warrior, 14 Sparkle And Gold, 16 Basic Instinct, 20 Multidutch, Rich Horse.
VERDICT Three of these met over C&D last month with Majestic Delight second, Yee Cheong Raider fourth and Sparkle And Gold fifth. The first two are respected, but there are some interesting class-droppers at the top of the weights. Dash looks a player off this reduced mark, but slight preference is for WINNING CIGAR who seems to be gradually getting there and caught the eye when a staying-on fifth at Happy Valley 18 days ago. BETTING FORECAST: 5 Amazing Duck, 6 Devas Twelve, Happy Boss, Run Run Smart, 8 Let's Have Fun, 10 Flying Knight, 12 Big Return, Smart Fighter, The All Rounder, 14 Eighty Light Years, Tycoon Express, 16 Made For Life, 20 Peridot, Special Hedge.

VERDICT Run Run Smart beat AMAZING DUCK here a month ago but the runner-up is not only better off at the weights but is armed with a kinder draw. The lightly raced Happy Boss can be given another chance and Let's Have Fun goes up in trip after finishing second in a recent trial under Zac Purton. [Alistair Jones]

VERDICT The downgraded All Out For Six would have been tempting but for his wicked draw, whereas RED SEA is ideally positioned to attack and he ran well for a long way here last time only for his early exertions from a wider berth to tell late on. That form entitles Quantum Cloud to a second look and the upgraded Smart Golf is improving. [Alistair Jones]
