Guest House lands Golden Slipper to give Coolmore's Home Affairs breakthrough Group 1 success

By Trevor Marshallsea

Powerful colt Guest House put a gilt-edged seal on his young sire Home Affairs' (I Am Invincible) exciting stud career by delivering an immediate victory in the most important race in Australian breeding with his dominant Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) triumph on Saturday.

The Melbourne colt brought a long overdue maiden win in one of Australia's "Big Four"

..... races for Mick Price, whose co-trainer Michael Kent Jnr let loose with a celebratory dance amid wild scenes in a damp Rosehill mounting yard after Guest House burst through the line to take the $5 million feature.

And while Price has had to wait, Guest House - while securing his own stud future - put a golden tick at the first time of asking on the stallion CV of first season sire Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) with his win in the world's richest two-year-old race.

Autumn Boy takes out Rosehill Guineas to provide McDonald with landmark win

Chris Waller confirmed the exciting Autumn Boy (The Autumn Sun) would race on next season instead of a quick exit to stud after the colt gave James McDonald a landmark win in Saturday's Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m).

Coolmore's seven-year-old was already off to a flyer before Saturday, sitting atop the first season sires' tables on both sides of the Tasman, with one stakes winner in each country from a combined 27 runners.

But now with his third black type victor coming in Australia's greatest stallion-maker, Home Affairs' $82,500 service fee of 2025 is certain to be comfortably eclipsed by whatever he stands for this year.

Guest House's victory also underlined the current changing of the guard for the Australian stallion scene. The first four of Rosehill's five Group 1s on Saturday were chalked up to stallions aged ten or younger. The other three went to the ten-year-old The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) through Autumn Glow's Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m) win and Autumn Boy's Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) success, while nine-year-old Castelvechio's (Dundeel) daughter Aeliana took the Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m).

Earlier this week, Price told ANZ News the Slipper should "set up nicely" for Guest House, as the sizeable colt would race off what is typically a furious pace before having the room to unwind in the straight, unlike in his third in the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). Price was also one of many judges to opine that Melbourne's two-year-old form was superior to Sydney's this season.

Those theories were emphatically validated as Guest House brought Price his first win in one of Australian majors, the other three being the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) and the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m). He also became the first Victorian-trained winner of the Slipper since Flying Spur (Danehill) way back in 1995.

Slightly easy at $11, the colt was well enough away from gate eight under Zac Lloyd, who was able to use his mount's bulk to hold a positive position of 11th of the 16 in the run, racing on the fence.

of horses, Guest House used his size again to muscle into the clear along an inside path at the 200 metres. With the trio in front of him - Streisand (Magnus), Music Time (All Too Hard) and Paradoxium (Extreme Choice) - having worked hard earlier, it was quickly clear Guest House had far more power in store for them. He surged to the lead at the 75 metres and stormed clear to score going away by 1.37 lengths. Continued on page 4

McDonald's Blue Diamond winner Streisand, the $7.50 second-favourite, put up a superb effort to hang on for second, with that Melbourne form fully franked.

Gratz Vella's Music Time, who'd had four starts at his home track of Canberra for three wins, including the Black Opal Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m), also performed well to hold third at $41, 0.55 lengths further back.

The first Sydney runner home was Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) hero Campione D'Italia (Snitzel), who took fourth at $19 for Chris Waller and his Newgate-China Horse Club ownership.

Team Archibald's filly Chayan (I Am Invincible) started the $5.50 favourite but after travelling outside Guest House in the run, finished only moderately to run eighth. Bjorn Baker's pair Warwoven (Sword Of State) at $8.50, and Paradoxium, at $13, finished sixth and 11th respectively.

Bred by Love Racing PL, Henderson Racing and Breeding and G1g Racing and Breeding, Guest House was bought from Newgate's draft at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale for $270,000 by Price, Tim Rogers Bloodstock and the Roll The Dice Racing group whose familiar colours he bears.

IT'S INCREDIBLE. IT'S A GOLDEN SLIPPER. IT'S THE PINNACLE OF TWO-YEAR-OLD RACING

BEN ELAM

He's the sixth foal out of Flamboyant Lass, the daughter of another Slipper winner in Stratum (Redoute's Choice) who was trained by Gai Waterhouse for two wins and two stakes placings, and has also borne a Melbourne two-year-old stakes placegetter in Nitrous (Deep Field).

While Price savoured the win on TV from Caulfield, at Rosehill Kent Jnr said it was well deserved after Guest House's first three runs. After a 0.75-length Cranbourne win at odds-on on debut, the colt ran an unlucky second in the Blue Diamond Prelude (Gr 3, 1100m) after working hard in the run, before his third in the Blue Diamond after being blocked early in a Caulfield straight that allowed him less room to build momentum than Rosehill's.

"He's had three runs where nothing went right. With the speed on today, he finally relaxed," Kent Jnr said.

"Zac Lloyd, what can I say? He read the pattern, and the horse was so good.

"What a horse. He won by a big margin, going away, so fantastic."

Price had won 35 Group 1s solo and 13 since forming his partnership with Kent Jnr in 2019, and while a Big Four victory had eluded him until Saturday, he had proven himself a canny trainer of juveniles, with Samaready (More Than Ready) and Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) bringing him Blue Diamond success.

He'd also had Slipper thirds with Samaready in 2012 and Flying Artie (Artie Schiller) in 2016.

"It's so right for Mick," Kent Jnr said. "I'm so lucky I work with Mick. He's had so many close calls in this race. He's a great two-year-old trainer. Himself and Timmy Rogers found the horse.

"I'm very excited. I'm rapt for Mick. He gave me a big show in this game and I'm very lucky. And credit to all our staff back at home. A lot of work goes into these good colts."

On winning a "major", Kent Jnr said: "That's very good isn't it. What a feeling."

Ben Elam, foreman for the trainers' Rosehill satellite stable, said: "It's incredible. It's a Golden Slipper. It's the pinnacle of two-year-old racing, and he has taken a bit of work.

"Pre-Christmas, he was a bit of a lad. He went down to Melbourne, and the Melbourne staff did a terrific job with him. He came up here in tip-top shape off what was an unlucky run.

"Since he's been up here, he has just been an absolute gentleman."

Lloyd was delighted after his fourth Group 1, and first major.

"It was high pressure, but my colt, he was fantastic. He's obviously a very good Home Affairs' colt," the winning rider said.

"He broke on terms. He's been a bit tricky in his mannerisms, but today he was very tractable.

"And I just quickened that well. I was just waiting for a run, but geez, he let down so well.

"As soon as those gates opened, it's like nothing I've ever ridden before. It's so quick, so tight. I was very happy to find the fence because that just allows the horses to just relax. They get a bit of comfort by the fence and then you just trust you've got the right horse to take the runs. I certainly did so yeah, very, very, very happy."

Continued from page 4 Lloyd felt the full force of racing's roller coaster just 40 minutes later when dumped onto his backside in the barrier performance that led to favourite Grafterburners' (Graff) scratching from The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m). At least the 22-year-old had been able to savour victory in a race as important as the Slipper, which he said had left him "quite speechless".

"You see all those great people that have won it before me, and you see what it does for colts, as well as fillies - how it can project them and make them worth so much money," he said.

"For those people and the owners to give me the faith, I'm just happy I can get the job done."

Guest House's win restored some balance for colts in what's supposed to be Australia's greatest stallion-maker, but a race whose past nine editions had included six wins by fillies.

Meanwhile, Flamboyant Lass now has a yearling filly by Slipper winner Stay Inside (Extreme Choice), and after missing to the same stallion in 2025, was covered last spring by Coolmore's debutant sire Storm Boy (Justify).

Autumn Boy takes out Rosehill Guineas to provide McDonald with landmark win

Chris Waller confirmed the exciting Autumn Boy (The Autumn Sun) would race on next season instead of a quick exit to stud after the colt gave James McDonald a landmark win in Saturday's Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m).

In a first try beyond the distance of his Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) triumph, Autumn Boy showed races such as the Cox

Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) would be on his horizon in the spring with this effortless victory.

The headline went to McDonald and his 130th Group 1 success - taking him past the old record held by Damien Oliver. With the remarkable McDonald still only 34, it's a safe bet that before he's done he'll be dozens clear of the mark set by Oliver, who was 51 when he retired in 2023.

As for McDonald's vehicle to the record, Autumn Boy showed his star quality in beating his seven rivals, despite being sent out as the $2.45 second-favourite behind Melbourne colt Observer (Ghaiyyath), at $2.10.

Jumping from gate three, McDonald was content to trail his Godolphin rival in the run, settling in the one-one. As VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner Observer set out after longshot leader Bingi (Snitzel) early in the straight and Autumn Boy loomed behind, it looked like the much hoped-for match race might play out.

But Observer was quickly under pressure from Craig Williams as Autumn Boy ranged up beside. He quickly put the race to bed, ultimately winning with a clear 1.94 length gap over another Godolphin runner in Bjorn Baker's Green Spaces (Street Boss) at $21, while Observer clung on for third.

Waller said he was delighted to see Autumn Boy pass his 2000-metre test, and pleased his owner Glenn Ritchie was happy to let him keep racing.

"We wanted to try that," Waller said of the distance. Continued on page 7

Continued from page 6 “Great owners, the Ritchies. I think the most disappointing thing last preparation [was] when I mentioned that he may have a short racing career, because he’s such a wonderful colt.

“They said, ‘Oh, we’re not in a rush to retire him, we want to keep them racing.’

“So that’s great. And it’s good to see these colts race on and I’m sure he will. So yeah, we ticked the box for 2000 metres. His dad won it [the Rosehill Guineas]. He’s won it. And yeah, we’ll pick out some nice races in the spring for him.”

McDonald said it felt “special” to break the Group 1 record and expressed his admiration for Oliver, especially his 2002 Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) win aboard Media Puzzle (Theatrical) just days after his brother Jason’s death in a riding accident.

“It’s lovely,” he said of the record, “but it’s a testament to the horses that I ride because they are phenomenal.

“There’s no two ways about it, that I do ride the best horses and most favourites each race, and I’m blessed to have that opportunity.

“To get to a mark like this, it’s obviously special. Especially with how I look up to Damien Oliver.

“When I was growing up as a ten-year-old kid, he was riding Melbourne Cup winners.

One that comes to mind is Media Puzzle when he went through so much adversity and still had the vivacity to come out on top. He’s a phenomenal rider.

“I’m just blessed with a great family and great support crew.”

McDonald, who has two daughters with wife Katelyn, said he was moved by the backing he’d received as he bore down on the record.

“I’m just humbled by the support,” he said. “To be honest, I flicked social media off this week and just focused on my rides.

“But Katelyn would mention, ‘Someone said kind words about you.’ That means so much. Whether I deserve it, it’s up to people’s opinion, who’s the greatest jockey to ever grace the turf. It doesn’t worry me.

“As long as I’m in the conversation, I’m very proud of it, and if my girls in ten years’ time look up and say, ‘Gee Dad, you’re pretty good,’ that would mean more to me than whether someone thinks I’m the best or not.”

Bred by Richard Rutherford and purchased for $200,000 by his trainer and Guy Mulcaster out of the Amarina Farm draft at the 2024 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, Autumn Boy is one of two winners from three to race out of the unraced Savabeel (Zabeel) mare Rosegarden. She was from the extended family of Group 1 winner and Group 1 sire Shamexpress (O’Reilly).

Rosegarden has a two-year-old colt by Yarraman Park’s Hellbent (I Am Invincible) and, after not being covered the following season, produced a filly by the same stallion last spring.

She was then covered again by The Autumn Sun (Redoute’s Choice), who stood at Arrowfield Stud last season at a fee of $66,000 (inc GST).

Autumn Glow shines again in Ryder romp

Just when you thought it wasn’t possible, Autumn Glow (The Autumn Sun) became even more impressive in storming to win number 11 in Saturday’s George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m), earning the tag of “champion” from her trainer and some awestruck wonder from her jockey.

The start before, Chris Waller’s unbeaten budding phenomenon was fully stretched by her most worthy stablemate Aeliana (Castelvecchio), having to show how much fight she has beneath all that class with a 0.4-length success in Randwick’s Verry Elleegant Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m). It was her smallest victory margin so far.

On Saturday, she recorded her widest, roaring into top gear in the home straight to dispose of a quality field of rivals by 2.79 lengths.

Ridden of course by James McDonald - giving him his 131st Group 1 win and making him the first jockey to win three of the five elite races on Rosehill’s big day - Autumn Glow settled sixth of the 12 after being sent out at Winx (Street Cry) odds again, at $1.28.

McDonald brought her four wide on the turn and the procession began. Autumn Glow whooshed past the quartet in front of her then reeled in the tiring leader Beiwacht (Bivouac) like he was a Benchmark 64 horse, rather than the Group 1-winning colt he is. Cont. on page 8

Continued from page 7 The four-year-old - ordained as the equal 15th best horse in the world in the latest IFHA rankings - would have won by far more if McDonald had ridden her out. Instead, he went to the line with one hand on the wheel of this awesome thoroughbred machine, and the other pointing to the mare's head to highlight the star of the show.

Autumn Glow had Group 1 winners chasing her tail in second, third and fourth placings. Ciaran Maher's Gringotts (Per Incanto) and Bjorn Baker's Pericles (Street Boss) - both six-year-old geldings - came in ahead of Lady Shenandoah (Snitzel), another Waller-trained four-year-old mare who was once thought pretty special herself before this other contemporary came along.

Rarely, if ever, can there have been a more emphatic validation of a yearling sale's top lot.

Arrowfield boss John Messara picked out the daughter of his own stallion The Autumn Sun, early in the week, when the Newhaven Park-bred filly was presented at Inglis Easter 2023.

He would later disclose he took one look only, lest he reveal his enthusiasm to rival bidders. Messara ended up making her the highest priced offering of the sale, when he paid $1.8 million along with Hermitage Thoroughbreds, with whom Arrowfield had raced The Autumn Sun.

With her richest payday coming through last October's $10 million Golden Eagle (1500m), Autumn Glow has now netted over $8.6 million in prize-money following Saturday's injection of $580,000.

Autumn Glow

Much, much more is to come, as Waller finds himself again managing the breathtaking win streak of a thoroughbred superstar, so soon after the 33 in a row of the great Winx.

On Saturday, Autumn Glow matched former Perth sprinter Barakey (Key Business) in going unbeaten through her first 11 starts. The only Australian horse above them on that table is the great 25-from-25 Black Caviar (Bel Esprit).

Saturday's win came as icing on the cake for Waller and McDonald. The jockey had won the previous two races on Waller-trained runners - the Ranvet Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) on Aeliana, and the Rosehill Guineas on Autumn Boy - to catch and pass Damien Oliver's Australasian record of 129 elite-level victories.

Waller and McDonald also broke the Australian record for Group 1s together in moving to 56, past the 54 of Tommy Smith and George Moore.

And with his treble, Waller moved to 192 career majors and within touching distance of the 200 barrier, eclipsed only by Smith and Bart Cummings, who so fittingly finished together, on 246.

After the anticipation of McDonald's record, Autumn Glow's win was pure celebration, laced with no small amount of awe.

"I guess the last two races were sort of pressure, pressure, without pulling ourselves up," Waller said. "To get that out of the way and then to deal with a champion in the next race, it's pretty special." Continued on page 9

HORSEPOWER

Continued from page 8 Asked if he'd unearthed racing's holy C-word advisedly, Waller said: "Yeah, in my eyes she is. I'm qualified to know what one's like. So, yeah, she's a very talented horse. Obviously, longevity is the key now. If she keeps doing that, she'll be a champion for sure."

McDonald, describing Autumn Glow's unfolding career as something "quite incredible", had to agree with Waller when told the trainer had declared her a champion.

"Did he?" he said. "Yeah, well, he knows what a champion looks like. And for him to say that, he doesn't take it lightly. I'm sure she is. And he's a champion too."

McDonald added: "She's important. Let's not beat around the bush. She's 11 from 11. People are here to come out and see her, and she's got such an amazing fanfare now - it's growing.

"It's incredible - the feeling you get off these horses, and it's special to witness people pin their eyeballs on her. I thought Anamoe was a big deal. This horse has taken it to a new level.

"It was evident in the week when Chris said you'll see something special. So when he says that I take notice, because her work's been phenomenal. I truly believe she loves fast ground, because there's not a horse that could come with her.

"It doesn't matter what is in the race. She's just got an amazing sustained speed, it's quite incredible what we're witnessing. She's the jockey's dream. You get nervous on horses, certain horses throughout your life, and she's one you don't."

Autumn Glow is now a $1.80 favourite for the $4 million Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), also weight-for-age, at Randwick on April 11. It would be her first run beyond 1600 metres, and she may have to again meet Aeliana, the $2.80 second elect whose Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) success last autumn means she's no risk at the trip.

Only the brave would doubt Autumn Glow for the distance rise. Waller, managing another unbeaten streak, would not be pinned down on whether that race would be her next target.

"Just wait, wait," he said. "We'll give them [her owners] our best opinion of what we think.

"Look, she just does everything so effortlessly. That'll help her get 2000 metres. It'd be so good to get some feedback from James. Go and ask James."

McDonald was having none of that pressure-laced decision, but did add another ringing endorsement.

"I'm sick of bloody pointing where she goes. I'll let him [Waller] decide, and John [Messara] will decide," he said.

"Put it this way, I wouldn't be shying away from any horse in the country."

Autumn Glow is supremely bred, being the fourth foal out of Via Africa (Var), South Africa's Champion Sprinter of 2013-14 and a three-time elite-level victor, and the dam of another top tier winner in present day Newgate Farm sire In The Congo (Snitzel).

Via Africa has had her problems in the breeding barn, with no foals since Autumn Glow's birth in 2021. She is now in foal to reigning champion sire Zoustar (Northern Meteor).

The Autumn Sun - who covered 178 mares at $66,000 at Arrowfield last spring after having 2024 off with injury - sits second on the Australian general sires' table, behind his late barnmate Snitzel (Redoute's Choice).

He has ten stakes winners from 223 runners at 4.48 per cent, but notably five of the ten have won at the elite level.

Aeliana makes most of opportunity as she scores in Ranvet

One Waller-McDonald super mare revelled in the absence of another as Aeliana claimed her second elite-level victory in Saturday's Ranvet Stakes at Rosehill.

Star Thoroughbreds' four-year-old had been unlucky enough to run into Autumn Glow in both her previous two starts and showed her class in running second to the budding phenomenon both times, the latter by just 0.4 lengths in Randwick's Verry Elleegant Stakes late last month.

But with Autumn Glow engaged later on Saturday's glittering Rosehill card, Aeliana took her moment in the sun, relieving punters who'd taken her $1.60 starting price with a fighting victory.

Continued from page 9 Though it was only a five-runner field, the win was full of merit, even if it wasn't quite the demolition job of her 5.16 length Australian Derby success last autumn.

McDonald sat second-last in the run as the Waller-trained stablemate Lindermann (Lonhro) set what was only a middling pace under the wily Nash Rawiller.

Lindermann, on fresh legs, gave a strong kick to take a two-length lead into the straight as Aeliana came after him. While the resuming second-favourite Sir Delius (Frankel) looked for a moment like he was about to come after them, instead the front pair pulled away to fight a fierce battle over the last 100 metres. Though Lindermann battled doggedly, McDonald was able to lift Aeliana to victory in the last few bounds.

Bought at Karaka by Star Thoroughbreds for $180,000 from the draft of Rich Hill Stud - who bred her with fellow Kiwis Nearco Stud - Aeliana has now amassed $3.5 million in prize-money from 17 starts, with five wins and seven minor placings.

Waller was full of praise after the race for Aeliana, who aside from her two elite victories has run second at the top level five times.

"She was made to fight for it," the winning trainer said. "He's [Lindermann] a good horse on his day and I think Nash controlled the race really well. She had to be good to win and obviously Sir Delius on our back, that gave me a bit of a scare when he came with us.

"But you could just see, they sort of broke clear of him and then it was a fight between the stablemates."

McDonald echoed Waller in praise of Aeliana.

"She's just incredible. Her tenacity to find the line was just superb," the winning rider said. "She's been building to something like that and I've got to give credit to the second horse because they made us work. I was thinking, 'This is not how the script's supposed to go'.

"Nash is a genius when it comes to that [tempo]. He just gets things on his own terms. It wasn't ideal, that's for sure, because he had a picnic up in front. But I was on a good horse and she deservedly won that one."

Waller was unsure of a next start for Aeliana. Bookmakers wound her in to $2.80 favouritism for next Saturday's Tancred Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) back at Rosehill. She's also $2.80 for Randwick's Queen Elizabeth Stakes on April 11 - but is second-favourite there behind the $1.80 shot Autumn Glow.

"I'm not sure, but the distance is no problem," Waller said of the Tancred. "A seven-day back up isn't ideal. I want to see how few others go today, then try and map it all out tomorrow."

Rawiller was also highly impressed by the six-year-old Lindermann.

"He put up an amazing performance as he always does when he's like that," the jockey said. "He picked himself up off the canvas there at the 100 metres and really rallied. I thought for a stride we could worry her out of it. She is a top mare in her own right."

Aeliana is bred in the purple, with a strong Star Thoroughbreds connection.

From the first crop of Arrowfield's Castelvechio (Dundeel), she's the second foal out of Temolie (Star Witness), who was placed just once in seven starts but is a half-sister to Star's former outstanding mare Invincibella (I Am Invincible). That mare won five stakes races for Star and Waller, including the Tatts Tiara (Gr 1, 1400m), for more than $3 million in prize-money.

Temolie is also a half-sister to two other stakes winners in Secret Blaze (Sizzling) and Extreme Flight (Extreme Choice).

The mare now has a yearling filly by Proisir (Choisir) and was covered back in Australia by Castelvechio's sire Dundeel (High Chaparral) last spring.

Aeliana is one of six stakes victors, two elite-level scorers and 62 winners for Castevecchio from 114 runners, at a 5.2 per cent stakes winners to runners ratio. The nine-year-old stood at Arrowfield last season for $49,500, up from $22,000 in 2024.

Morning Briefing

Australia

First for Home Affairs

Coolmore's first-season sire Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) sired his first Group 1 winner and third individual stakes winner when the Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained Guest House (2 c ex Flamboyant Lass by Stratum) landed Saturday's Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Rosehill. Bred by Love Racing and partners, Guest House was a $270,000 Magic Millions purchase from Newgate Farm for Mick Price Racing & Breeding Pty Ltd, Roll The Dice Racing and Rogers Bloodstock and has a big ownership group. He is a half-brother to the stakes-placed winner Nitrous (Deep Field) being the best of six winners from as many foals to race out of the Group 2-placed Stratum (Redoute's Choice) mare Flamboyant Lass, herself a sister to Group 2 scorer Attention. Home Affairs has 17 entries for the upcoming Inglis Easter Australian Yearling Sale and stood the 2025 breeding season at a fee of $82,500 (inc GST).

169 for Snitzel

Late Arrowfield Stud stalwart Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) chalked up his 169th individual stakes winner when Beskar (3 g ex Sword Of Light by New Approach) ran out a big-priced scorer of Saturday's Darby Munro Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Rosehill. Sent off an $81 chance under Damian Lane for Anthony and Sam Freedman, the three-year-old gelding left all his prior stakes-race form behind to defeat Agarwood (Wootton Bassett) by 0.9 lengths. There was a further 0.1 lengths back to Caffè Florian (Snitzel) in third place. "To be fair, he should never have been that [price]. He did run third in a Group 3 last start, so $80 is probably ridiculous," Anthony Freedman said. "It's still a bit of a surprise. He's a horse that's got good talent. He does a lot wrong and makes a mess of a few races, but it all went [well] for him today. He ran third in the Kindergarten here last year, so maybe this works better for him, in Sydney." Bred by Widden Stud in partnership, Beskar was purchased by Dean Hawthorne Bloodstock from Widden for $600,000 at the 2024 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale and runs for Jonathan Munz's Pinecliff Racing. He is the best of two winners to come out of the Group 2-winning New Approach (Galileo) mare Sword Of Light, herself a half-sister to stakes winner Sword Of Justice (Medaglia D'Oro). A half-brother to Beskar, by Zoustar (Northern Meteor), will be sold as Lot 135 at the upcoming Inglis Easter sale. Snitzel died in 2025.

Four for Zousain

Widden Stud resident Zousain (Zoustar) was handed his fourth individual stakes winner on Saturday when Catch The Glory (4 m ex Catch That Cat by Tale Of The Cat) landed the Birthday Card Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Rosehill. Ridden by Adam Hyeronimus for Jason Coyle, the four-year-old mare denied Inkaruna (I Am Invincible) by 0.2 lengths with a further 0.5 lengths back to Spring Lee (Zoustar) in third place. Saturday's win backed up Catch The Glory's victory in The Warra (1000m) back in November. A $50,000 Magic Millions National Yearling purchase for her trainer from the Bhima Thoroughbreds draft at the 2023 Magic Millions Gold Coast National Yearling Sale, Catch the Glory is the best of two winners out of the winning Tale Of The Cat (Storm Cat) mare Catch That Cat. Zousain stood the 2025 breeding season at a fee of $27,500 (inc GST).

21 for Territories

Former Darley stallion Territories (Invincible Spirit) was handed his 21st individual stakes winner when Mr Monaco (5 g ex Alle Stelle by Sea The Stars) took out Saturday's NE Manion Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at Rosehill. The Ciaran Maher-trained five-year-old was ridden by Zac Lloyd and kept on gamely inside the closing stages to deny Taramansour (Dansili) by 0.2 lengths. There was a further 0.1 lengths back to the third-placed Juja Kibo (Belardo) in a close finish. Maher revealed that the gelding will now head for the Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) next month. “[Mr] Monaco did it the tough way, but we knew he'd improve up to the mile and a half,” the winning trainer said. “Fantastic result. He's en route to the Sydney Cup now.” Bred by Bearstone Stud, Mr Monaco was purchased for 410,000 guineas by Astute Bloodstock and Maher from Imperium Sales at the 2024 Tattersalls Autumn Horses In Training Sale. He is the best of three winners out of the Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) mare Alle Stelle from an extensive European black type family. Territories now stands at Poonawalla Stud Farms in India.

Machine Gun Gracie springs shock in Epona

Machine Gun Gracie (4 m Maschino - Gracie May by Written Tycoon) was another upset winner on Saturday's Rosehill card when running out a $17 scorer of the Epona Stakes (Gr 3, 1900m). Ridden by Luke Currie for Ben, JD and Will Hayes, the four-year-old travelled well into the straight and, once hitting the front inside the final 250 metres, cleared away by two lengths to beat Polymnia (Dundeel). There was a further 0.1 lengths back to Placid Pearl (D'Argento) in third. “She's got plenty of X-Factor,” JD Hayes said of the winner. “She's a lovely big horse when you see her. She's every bit of 17 hands. We'll have a good chat and debrief with the team and the connections here, have a few cold ones and enjoy today. Then work out where we're going, because I think a mare of her calibre, we will have plenty of options.”

30 for Capitalist

Newgate Farm stallion Capitalist (Written Tycoon) chalked up his 30th individual stakes winner when the Team Hayes-trained Rich On Bubbles (2 g ex Champagne Boom by Spirit Of Boom) scored in Saturday's Valley Pearl Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Caulfield. Ridden by Daniel Stackhouse, the juvenile gelding took his career record to three wins from four starts as he

Marhoona doubles her Group 1 tally in The Galaxy

Last year's Golden Slipper heroine Marhoona (3 f Snitzel - Salma by Encosta De Lago) doubled her Group 1 tally when landing Saturday's The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) at Rosehill in dramatic fashion.

Trained by Michael Freedman, the three-year-old filly kept on strongly down the centre of the track under Kerrin McEvoy to prevail by 0.2 lengths over Jedibeel (Savabeel) in an extremely close finish that involved the first six home. There was a further 0.1 lengths back to Mazu (Maurice) in third place.

“I don't think I've had a horse that's just got as much tenacity as she does,” said Freedman. “She sort of looked out on her feet at the 100 metres there and she just refused to lay down, a bit like the Slipper last year. What a filly.

“We discussed before the race maybe ending up in the one-one. But, you know, Kerrin [McEvoy] showed great initiative and just went and parked outside the leader.

“I knew when she was there she'd be certainly right in the finish, but I was a little bit concerned, maybe at the furlong where I thought maybe she's going to get sort of steamrolled, but she's just got such an incredible will to win.”

McEvoy echoed the winning trainer's thoughts on Marhoona's determination on the Soft 6 surface as she took her record to four wins and three placings from just eight starts.

“I must admit I was a tiny bit worried at the top of the lane - first time on this sort of ground,” the winning rider said. “But full credit to her, the more I asked, the more she dug.”

“Michael said to me, 'Look, she's right in it with the weights.' We were confident that breed handled the ground and we were confident that she would. The further we went in the straight, the more confident I got, so it was a nice feeling.

“I was still there, and I knew I had a bit to offer, but it wasn't as instant as I thought. But it's a nice surprise when they get off the canvas. Keep you interested, and we had our bib in front of the last 50, so really pleasing.”

defeated Cyclotron (Hellbent) by 1.8 lengths. There was a further 0.4 lengths back to Blue And Gold (Blue Point) in third place. "It was a great result for the team. We just feel that interstate trip really brought him on mentally and he handled it well," Will Hayes said. "He's a tough horse, stands up to the workload, and it helped his barrier manners. I feel it was a slight step in the right direction, although he's still a bit of a flight risk. He's a nice horse with plenty of upside. He has been up a long time. Three in a row is a good effort. We'll be guided by how he pulls up. There's lovely options in Adelaide and Sydney and also in Victoria, so it's a great position to be in, and I can't wait for the Monday discussion." Rich On Bubbles was purchased by Lindsay Park Racing for $200,000 out of the Kingstar Farm draft at the 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale and is a half-brother to the stakes-placed Stoli Boli (Deep Field) being the second winner out of the stakes-winning Spirit Of Boom (Sequalo) mare Champagne Boom. Capitalist stood the 2025 breeding season for a fee of $66,000 (inc GST).

25 for Casino Prince

Vinery Stud stallion Casino Prince (Flying Spur) sired his 25th individual stakes winner when the Trevor Rogers-trained Roulette King (3 g ex Balmodena by Good Journey) scored in Saturday's Alister Clark Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Caulfield. Ridden by Jamie Mott, the three-year-old gelding stormed home inside the final 200 metres and battled well to beat Savisanta (Savabeel) by 0.2 lengths. There was a further 0.8 lengths back to Kaye Jay (Crackerjack King) in third. "It's amazing. I've been with him since he was a foal. And watching him develop and watching him come here and do that today, it's been a long journey, but a great one," said Rogers. "I was never worried because Jamie has had a lot to do with the horse and when he went out I said to ride him how you see fit, because you know what you've got. I could see him over the back, he had a handful of horse, and he was

Jigsaw makes all for famous William Reid victory

The Cindy Alderson-trained Jigsaw (7 g Manhattan Rain - Demandz by Lonhro) maintained his excellent run of form when producing a career-best effort to take out Saturday's William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Caulfield.

Having won his previous five starts, including New Zealand's Sistema Railway (Gr 1, 1200m), the seven-year-old gelding proved not for denying as he turned away Angel Capital (Harry Angel) by a half-length. There was a further 0.1 lengths back to last year's Blue Diamond (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Devil Night (Extreme Choice) in third.

"It's getting more and more unbelievable as we go along," Alderson said.

"I keep thinking it's going to stop sooner or later. He's not giving me any indications it's going to stop. He's just run exactly the same time as he ran last week, so he answered the back-up.

"It's amazing for a small stable like ours to have the opportunity to have a horse like this at this stage of my career."

Winning rider Logan Bates has now partnered the son of Manhattan Rain (Encosta De Lago) in his last seven outings, with six of those now being victories.

"What a horse, just to come back from pretty much nowhere and, this preparation, I mean, you look at him now, he's just the ultimate professional," Bates said.

"He relaxed beautifully, he was on the ball, and it was the query, backing him up, he's never ever done it and he's normally a horse better kept fresh, a month in between runs, and it's just a credit to Cindy and her team. They do a fantastic job."

waiting for a bit of clear air down the running, and the turn of foot he's got, he was always going to be a chance. This was his Grand Final. This was the race we set him for. We'll get him home and see what happens, but he's a horse for the future so we won't go knocking him around." Bred by Richard Anderson's Quilly Park, Roulette King was retained to race and is one of five winners out of the winning Good Journey (Nureyev) mare Balmodena. Casino Prince stood the 2025 breeding season at a fee of $5,500 (inc GST).

Treasurethemoment back to winning form in Sunline

Treasurethemoment

RACING PHOTOS

Yulong's star mare Treasurethemoment (4 m Alabama Express - Draconic Treasure by Street Cry) got herself back into the winner's circle on Saturday when proving a class above her nine rivals in the Sunline Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Caulfield. Ridden by Daniel Stackhouse for Matt Laurie, the four-year-old mare was weighted to land the Group 2 contest and took advantage of the favourable conditions as she registered a dominant two-length success over Astral Flame (Overshare). There was a further 0.8 lengths back to Suntora (Toronado) in third. Laurie revealed that next month's Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) is now the target for the winner. "I think with the trip up there, it gives her time to settle in," the winning trainer said. "The Doncaster is going to be a pretty strong race. Sheza Alibi goes there, Autumn Glow, I presume. That might be the right way for us to go."

Getta Good Feeling continues march towards SA Oaks

A crack at next month's Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) will be next for classy filly Getta Good Feeling (3 f So You Think - Marquise Da Ross by Testa Rossa) after she readily scored in Saturday's Alexandra Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Caulfield. The Danny O'Brien-trained daughter of So You Think (High Chaparral) had bounced back from her VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) defeat with a last-start win in the Inglis Sprint (1200m) and, stepped back up in distance at the weekend, proved 0.8 lengths too good for Classic Gem (Maurice). There was a further 0.2 lengths back to the third-placed Morgana (Russian Camelot). O'Brien's stable representative Jack Howard revealed that getting a Group 1 on the filly's CV was now the main goal. "The two leaders quickened and she got left a bit with a vulnerable area between the first two and three and four in the run, and the way she just balanced and built through her gears to go past them was really pleasing," Howard said. "She's just continuing to improve. She's a So You Think filly and we know these fillies continue to improve all the way through to their four-year-old spring and autumn campaigns. The cliché is you don't make plans raceday, but Danny's publicly said the plan is to hopefully get her across to Adelaide for the Oaks. She doesn't have that Group 1 on her page at the moment and that's the aim. She's a multiple Group 2 winner and hopefully we can get that there. We'll take her home, we'll look after her and then we'll plot our path from here to there."

Robert Sangster Stakes next for Point Barrow after win in Don Casboul

Another winner on Saturday's Caulfield card that will have future Group 1 plans is the Anthony and Sam Freedman-trained Point Barrow (3 f Blue Point - Take Stride by Reward For Effort) after he scored in the Don Casboul Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m). A winner of the Red Roses Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Flemington on VRC Oaks day last year, the daughter of Blue Point (Shamardal) reappeared with a fifth placing in the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) on February 21 as the $2.60 favourite and was off for a couple of weeks after having pulled up sore. Returning this weekend, Point Barrow proved a length too strong for Torsheen (Toronado) under Daniel Stackhouse with a further 0.4 lengths back to Bassett Babe (Wootton Bassett) in third. "She's a good filly and we probably didn't see the best of her in an Oakleigh Plate, albeit, she still ran pretty well if she wasn't $2.50," Sam Freedman said. "But she pulled up sore, her action late there didn't look great. She trialed Monday and looked terrific. We've got a terrific team of vets and a good farrier and she needed a bit of work after the run in the Oakleigh Plate." Point Barrow is likely to be targeted at the Robert Sangster Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) on April 25. "Look, the Sangster's been a target, front of mind, and she'll either go in there fresh with a trial or we'll give it one run over there," Freedman added.

170 for Snitzel

Aurum Belle (2 f ex Dame Giselle by I Am Invincible) became the 170th individual stakes winner for Snitzel when landing Saturday's Supremacy Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Ascot. Trained by Neville Parnham, the juvenile filly was ridden by Brad Parnham and defeated Snow Monkey (Trapeze Artist) by 1.9 lengths with a further 2.2 lengths back to He's A Machino (Maschino) in third. Saturday's success doubled Aurum Belle's winning tally after she defeated Snow Monkey by 2.1 lengths on debut over 1000 metres at Ascot last month. Aurum Belle was purchased for $725,000 by Parnham Racing and Ridgeport at the 2025 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale out of The Chase Farm and is the only foal to race from four out of the Group 2-winning and Group 1-placed mare Dame Giselle (I Am Invincible).

Back-to-back stakes wins for Bonjoy

Bonjoy (6 m Maschino - Amity Belle by Snitzel) made it back-to-back stakes wins when taking out Saturday's Grandstand Cup (Listed, 1500m) Ascot. Ridden by Cole Johnston-Porter for John Miller, the six-year-old mare defeated Fast Flicker (A Lot) by a half-length with a further 0.1 lengths back to Sensessional (Sessions) in third. The win backed up Bonjoy's victory in the Bunbury Stakes (Listed, 1400m) on March 7.

Origin Of Love too strong in Wellington Guineas

Origin Of Love

RACE IMAGES

A brilliant front-running ride from Craig Grylls paved the way for gutsy filly Origin Of Love (3 f Snitzel - Re Edit by Camelot) to bolt away with Saturday's Wellington Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) at Trentham for the Te Akau Racing team. Grylls wasn't taking no for an answer when he rolled forward from barrier rise on the Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson-prepared three-year-old and once he got to the lead he dictated the tempo to his nine rivals throughout. The daughter of Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) looked to be travelling well within herself as she neared the home turn and once Grylls balanced her she showed plenty of toe to put a break on the chasing pack and beat Midnight Train (Yes Yes Yes) by 1.3 lengths with Alottago (Tagalao) narrowly back in third. "I thought Grylls summed it up really well as it looked like he was going to get trapped wide, but she got across quite nicely [to the lead] in the end," Bergerson said. "He slackened the tempo then turned it on at the right time, so it was a really positive ride. Fair play to the horse as she has had a massive season. She went down south early and we settled her in there and she has progressed so well. She has come off some terrible troubles up north and I can't thank the team down south and at home enough as she hasn't been easy." Bergerson indicated this would be the last run for Origin Of Love this preparation as she would now most likely head to the spelling paddock. "As I said she has had a massive season and fair play to the horse as she has gotten better and better," he said. "I think the spelling paddock is definitely calling her."

Platinum Attack back on top at Trentham

Talented sprinter Platinum Attack (5 g Santos - Conchita by Uncle Mo) finally got the track conditions and racing luck he deserved when taking out the Lightning Handicap (Listed, 1200m) at Trentham on Saturday. The five-year-old has a devastating finishing burst when at his best but a succession of wet tracks and/or bad barrier draws had hindered his chances in his most recent racing after winning the Pegasus Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Riccarton during the New Zealand Cup Carnival back in November. He went into Saturday's contest off the back of a third-placed effort in the King's Plate (Gr 3, 1200m) at Ellerslie earlier in the month, where he was again hampered in a chain reaction close to the winning post, and built on that with a 1.1-length defeat of Navigator (El Roca). There was a further 1.8 lengths back to Slipper Island (No Nay Never) in third. "This is one of his favourite tracks but he sure hasn't had things go his way lately," winning trainer Lisa Latta said. "He has had wide draws, wet tracks and he just needs to get that bit of cover where he can switch off in the running. I just think he is better when ridden a touch patiently and when he gets into the open he can explode. We will see how he pulls up but I'd like to see if he could handle 1400 metres while he is well and very fit, although there is also a sprint we could target in mid-April."

Inflamed scorches to Breeders' Stakes triumph

A last start victory on her home track at Wingatui less than a week earlier provided the springboard for underrated mare Inflamed (6 m Ghibellines - Ortem Fire by Gallant Guru) to capture an all-important black type victory under Corey Campbell in the South Island Thoroughbred Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Riccarton on Saturday. Co-trainer Shane Anderton admitted he had had some doubts about the six-day back up for the daughter of former White Robe Lodge stallion Ghibellines (Shamardal), but advice from his legendary training partner, his father Brian, had convinced him to line the mare up in the Group 3 contest and she duly obliged by 0.6 lengths over Pour The Wine (Telperion). There was a further 1.8 lengths back to Third Decree (War Decree) in third. "I was a wee bit doubtful to start her, but Dad said we're going as she's a mare and we need that black type," Anderton said. "He was right and she got the job done. She does like good ground and it is probably the first time she has struck that for a wee while. She had done a bit of work early on, but Corey held her up for as long as he could and she really hit the line. She held her ground pretty good so it was a good effort. We will take her home now and let the dust settle, but she is probably not far away from being a broodmare although she has raced really well this season."

28 for Epiphaneia

Smart Priere (3 f ex Smart Layer by Deep Impact) became the 28th individual stakes winner for Shadai Stallion Station's Epiphaneia (Symboli Kris S) when landing Saturday's The Flower Cup (Gr 3, 1800m) at Nakayama. Ridden by Yusuku Hara for Ryuji Okubo, the three-year-old filly defeated Longing Celine (Maurice) by a half-length with a further nose back to Exceed (Kitasan Black) in third. Smart Priere is a sister to winner Smart Mistral and a half-sister to winner Smart Jana (Lord Kanalao) being out of the Grade 2-winning and Grade 1-placed mare Smart Layer (Deep Impact). Epiphaneia is standing at a fee of ¥15,000,000 (approx. AU$133,750).

●MATSU VICTOR possible 1lb overweight
BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Robot Star, 4 Flying Boom, 6 Forza Toro, Glorious Success, Mega Mastermind, 14 Bucephalas, The Absolute, 20 Matsu Victor, 25 Fighting Machine, Winning Diamond, 33 bar.

VERDICT Flying Boom is 5lb higher than for his narrow success over C&D last month, but he remains unexposed at the trip and may do even better, while Forza Toro and Mega Mastermind have run well enough lately to suggest they can make an impact. However, ROBOT STAR has done well since Zac Purton took over in the saddle and remains open to further improvement after just four starts. [David Bellingham]

BETTING FORECAST: 3 Baby Sakura, 4 Prestige Hall, 8 Alsonso, Daily Acclaim, Spicy Standard, 10 Thunder Prince, 12 Absolute Heart, 14 Good Fortune, 16 Lightness Of Being, Navas G, Top Throne, 20 Joy Star, 33 Majestic Life, Real Gentleman.

VERDICT The drop in class may result in a better effort from Lightness Of Being, while Absolute Heart is worth a second look on his debut having improved in each of his trials. Prestige Hall has been running well over C&D and is better drawn than has been the case lately, but preference is for BABY SAKURA who did it nicely on his debut over C&D last month and can defy an 8lb rise. BETTING FORECAST: 3 Circuit Champion, 4 Lifeline Express, 6 City Gold Banner, Young Emperor, 8 Ka Ying Attack, 10 RefusetoenGLISH, South Star, 12 Complete Unknown, 14 Golden Champ, 20 Prestige Win.
VERDICT The consistent Lifeline Express seems likely to run another big race from the inside stall, while stepping back up a furlong may suit City Gold Banner. There may still be more to come from the unexposed Circuit Champion and he is respected despite the rise in grade, but C&D winner YOUNG EMPEROR looked unlucky not to finish closer last time and is given another chance. BETTING FORECAST: 4 Gold Patch, 5 Happy Shooter, Master Lucky, 6 Island Buddy, 8 GoldenTronicmighty, Great Spirit, 12 Elegant Life, Everstar, Voyage Boss, 25 Polar Patch, Shandong Spirit, 33 bar.
VERDICT Great Spirit is respected back off his last winning mark, while Gold Patch, Master Lucky, Happy Shooter and Island Buddy all deserve their place on a lengthy shortlist. The selection, however, is GOLDENTRONICMIGHTY who scored three times over C&D last year and returns to Class 4 level for the first time since the latest of those wins. [David Bellingham]

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 Little Paradise, 7-2 Numbers, 9-2 Stormy Grove, 6 Invincible Ibis, 8 Patch Of Cosmo, 12 Sagacious Life, 20 Beauty Bolt, Emblazon, Seraph Gabriel, 25 Top Dragon, 33 Dazzling Fit, 50 Regal Gem, 66 Juneau Pride, Pope Cody.

VERDICT In the final leg of Hong Kong's 4YO Classic Series, another chance is readily given to LITTLE PARADISE, who did not really enjoy the run of the race when a disappointing favourite in last month's Classic Cup but displayed a very impressive turn of foot to seize control in the Classic Mile two starts ago. Classic Cup winner Stormy Grove is an obvious one for the shortlist but the fourth from that race, Numbers, may benefit more from the extra furlong today and is nominated as second choice. Sagacious Life and Seraph Gabriel ran poorly when last in action but there is still hope for them both. VERDICT A few of these have possibilities but top of the list is Classic Mile runner-up INFINITE RESOLVE, who has made good progress this season and ought to be suited by this drop back in trip. Winning Ovation has made a very bright start to his Hong Kong career and is earmarked as the biggest danger. Six Pack, Mugen and Drombeg Banner also make the shortlist.
