Godolphin big guns ready to fire at The Championships

Tentyris

RACING PHOTOS

By Karl Patterson

Godolphin is rolling out the big guns for Day 1 at The Championships with its three-year-old colts Tentyris (Street Boss) and Observer (Ghaiyyath) both favoured to improve their Group 1 strike-rates at Randwick on Easter Saturday.

Tentyris is a $3.70 market-leader for the $3 million T J Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) while Observer has opened a $2.90 favourite ahead of the $2 million Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m).

Godolphin's Australian Group 1 wins tally is already in double figures this season with Tentyris and Observer contributing two each for Sheikh Mohammed's royal blue army and all four have been at Flemington.

Tentyris won the stallion-making Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) in November and returned to the straight-six for a breathtaking victory over older sprinters in the Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) in February.

Freedman prepares Tentyris with his father Anthony at Mornington and knows horses of his ability don’t come along very often.

“Dad has been in the game a long time and told me during the spring carnival he might be the best horse you’ve ever trained,” he said. “His turn of foot is there when you ask him.

“Godolphin is a valued supporter of our stable and we’ve had some very good horses for them over the years. Tentyris can end up being right up there with the best of them.”

Freedman also dispelled any fitness doubts following his last-start loss in the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) when a post-race veterinary exam confirmed a first-time case of cardiac arrhythmia.

“He was only beaten a bit more than a length and I don’t think that was the sole reason,” Freedman said. “He actually ran very well and it was the track more than anything else.

“He drew wide and the best lane that day was the inside rail. They didn’t split down the straight and that made all the difference.”

Tentyris is one of 13 Group 1 winners by Street Boss (Street Cry) who stands at Darley’s Victorian base at Northwood Park in Seymour. He’s bred on the same Exceed And Excel (Danehill) cross as Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Elite Street and February’s Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) scorer Tempted.

Second-dam Divine Madonna (Hurricane Sky) won Group 1 mile races at Flemington (two) and Caulfield and was a $2.7 million buy for Sheikh Mohammed at the 2008 Magic Millions Gold Coast National Broodmare Sale.

The stud career of Street Boss alpha male Anamoe is off to a great start at Darley Kelvinside in NSW. He won nine Group 1 events between 1000 metres and 2050 metres and his 13 first-crop yearlings averaged an astounding $407,000 at the Inglis Australian Easter Sale last week. Continued on page 3

Since taking over from James Cummings at the start of this season, champion trainer Ciaran Maher has guided the colt to Group 1 victories in the Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) and Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington prior to a third placing behind Autumn Boy (The Autumn Sun) in the Rosehill Guineas (Gr 1, 2000m) a fortnight ago.

Observer is living up to a blueblood pedigree and Maher has him primed to follow Hitotsu (Maurice) who he trained to complete the Victoria Derby - Australian Derby double in 2022. He has also booked James McDonald to take over the reins on Saturday.

"I'm proud to have the opportunity to train such a high-quality horse for Godolphin," Maher said. "Observer is very athletic and he's got a beautiful action with the right attitude. He's bred to go the distance and has been ticking over extra well since the Rosehill Guineas.

"He rallied to run through the line that day and he will handle getting over 2400 metres for a second time this season."

Observer is from the first southern-crop of Darley's Irish-bred shuttler Ghaiyyath (Dubawi), who was named 2020 European Horse of the Year after completing a rare Group 1 treble in the Coronation Cup (Gr 1, 1m 4f) at Epsom Downs, Coral-Eclipse Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) at Sandown and International Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) at York.

A half-brother to Newcastle Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) winner Sandpaper (Snitzel),

"HE'S A STALLION PROSPECT OF REAL INTEREST BECAUSE HE'S ALREADY SHOWN HE'S CAPABLE AT ALL THE CLASSIC DISTANCES. KNOWING OBSERVER, THERE'S NO DOUBT THE VERY BEST IS VERY MUCH STILL IN FRONT OF HIM

JASON WALSH

Observer

SPORTPIX

Observer is out of the Lonhro (Octagonal) mare Smooth, who is a full-sister to five-time Group 1 winner Pierro.

Pierro has parlayed that excellent race record into a stud career that has generated 40 black-type winners to date and among them is 2018 Australian Derby winner Levendi.

Both Observer and Sandpaper's second-dam is the Irish-bred Sky Song (Sadler's Wells), who foaled Laverock (Octagonal) to Group 1 victories in the 2006 Italian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) and Prix d'Ispahan (Gr 1, 1800m) at Longchamp.

As Observer's profile continues to build, Godolphin's Australian racing and bloodstock manager Jason Walsh declared he's clearly a pretty unique animal.

"We felt he was unlucky not to win the Caulfield Guineas before the Victorian Derby and he's come back and won an Australian Guineas," Walsh said.

"He's a stallion prospect of real interest because he's already shown he's capable at all the classic distances. Knowing Observer, there's no doubt the very best is very much still in front of him."

Godolphin has a more than able back-up in the Australian Derby with Green Spaces (Street Boss), who is a firming second-favourite at $3.50.

It's the culmination of a long-range program that was set in stone by trainer Bjorn Baker after his convincing victory in the Spring Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Newcastle in November. Since resuming this year, he has improved at every run with a last-start second in the Rosehill Guineas a well-timed dress-rehearsal for the Classic.

"I've been dreaming about winning the Derby," Baker admitted. "It has been a very special race for my father and the family so it's lovely to have a live chance.

"Green Spaces probably hasn't got the pedigree to win over the distance but he can switch off and relax in running. He was really good in the Rosehill Guineas because the leaders didn't go quick and he lost a bit of momentum on the home turn."

Green Spaces is a half-brother to Trekking (Street Cry) who won a Stradbroke Hcp (Gr 1, 1400m) and The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) in 2019-20. There's stamina further down the page through second-dam Serenade Rose (Stravinsky) who completed the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) and Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) double in 2005-06.

Morning Briefing

158 for Savabeel

Essentric Nature

Waikato Stud's evergreen sire Savabeel (Zabeel) recorded his 158th stakes winner when Essentric Nature (5 g ex Generous Nature by Carnegie) landed the Old Comrade Stakes (Listed, 1600m) at Ascot. Prepared by co-trainers Grant and Alana Williams, the gelding, who enjoyed a favorable run with cover, edged out pacemaker Sensessional (Sessions) by 0.2 lengths with Bonjoy (Maschino) a further length away in third. Ridden by Lucy Fiore, Essentric Nature settled well from the barriers before finishing strongly to secure his first black-type success. The five-year-old now boasts seven wins and three placings, with earnings over $300,000. Bred by Ultra Thoroughbreds Pty Ltd, the gelding is from a family littered with black-type including his two Group-winning full-siblings Savvy Nature and Addictive Nature, being out of the unraced Carnegie (Sadler's Wells) mare Generous Nature. The victory provides another stakes winner for New Zealand stalwart Savabeel, who continues to build on an already outstanding record. Savabeel stood for NZ$100,000 (plus GST) in 2025, with 2026 fees yet to be announced.

Spywire scores in Country Discovery

Ethan Brown tuned up for his Group 1 ride abroad Jimmysstar (Per Incanto) in Saturday's T J Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Randwick with a front-running victory aboard Spywire (Trapeze Artist) in Friday's $300,000 Country Discovery (1100m) at Ballarat. The Ciaron Maher-trained gelding was dropped back in class after placing seventh in the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) back in February and led throughout from barrier eight to score by 1.5 lengths over Geegees Mistruth (Wordsmith). Stablemate Recommendation (Shalaa) was a further 1.8 lengths back in third. Brown, who resumed riding this week following a suspension, told Racing.com: "It's good to be back at the races. I'm getting good support. I've picked up where I left off. Ciaron gave him a little freshen-up between runs and he performs better with a gap like that. He had a beautiful tick-over trial and he was just here in the best possible order today and he showed that on track. He never felt like losing. He jumped so well from the gate; he can be a bit tardy away. I think when he's fresh and on like that, that's when he's at his best. He jumps, he puts himself there. Once we got an uncontested lead, it was simple. I just had to get him into a rhythm. I knew I was on a fit horse, so I gave him a click at the 500 metres and he slid up really well and was strong through the line." The four-year-old, a $520,000 Magic Millions yearling, has now won six of his 19 starts while also placing on a further six occasions, with prize-money in excess of $1.6 million.

Too Darn Discreet grabs Country Oaks in thriller

Locally based trainer Dan O'Sullivan added to his strong season when Too Darn Discreet (Too Darn Hot) claimed the Country Oaks (2000m) at Ballarat on Friday. The $100,000 feature saw the four-year-old mare edge out Jennilala (Shalaa) by 0.1 lengths, arriving in the final strides after the runner-up had led for much of the race. Race favourite Suntora (Toronado) finishing third, a further 0.7 lengths behind. Too Darn Discreet, who is a daughter of Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Maybe Discreet (Shamardal), returned to winning form following recent efforts in stakes company, having previously won the Edward Manifold Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) and the Ethereal Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) during her three-year-old season. "She's a Group 2 winner and we were taking on Group 1 horses... it just showed what she can do back out to 2000 metres," O'Sullivan told Racing.com. Winning rider Declan Bates praised the mare's toughness when speaking following the victory. "She's really tough, she's really tough, and she had to be because Jennilala was tough too," he told Racing.com. "At the top of the straight I thought I had her measure and my mare picked up quite well, but Jennilala really made me work for it. I thought I had it on the line, but after last week, I'm not too confident in photo finishes at the minute, so I was pretty happy to see I had won."

Rail-riding Currie victorious aboard Ole Royale

A cleverly executed inside ride by Luke Currie proved decisive as Ole Royale (Ole Kirk) shed his maiden status in the Sportsbet Up & Coming Stars Series – Heat 7 Maiden Plate (1400m) at Ballarat on Friday. Trained by Team Hawkes, the three-year-old gelding finished strongly along the inside to defeat Oyster Lane (Blue Point) by 0.4 lengths with Genomic (Vino Rosso) a further 1.7 lengths away in third. "I just thought that inside section looks superior... so I thought we might as well go and ride for luck," Currie told Racing.com. "He gave a good kick when I asked him... he was still very timid, but when he got through, he was quite strong and the step up to 1400 metres suited him." Ole Royal was having his third start, having finished sixth in his first two outings over 1200 metres. Bred by Neil Werrett, and raced by Werrett Bloodstock Partnership, who also bred and raced his sire, the gelding is out of Group 3 winner Serene Majesty (Fastnet Rock), who herself is a half-sister to Listed winner Curdled (All Too Hard) and Group 3 scorer Ducasse (Trapeze Artist) from a family that also includes Stretan Angel (Harry Angel) and flashy juvenile Stretan Ruler (Wild Ruler). The Sportsbet Up & Coming Stars Series culminates with a $300,000 final over 1400 metres at Caulfield on April 11.

Schiller not ruling out Group 1 outsiders

Steparty

RACING PHOTOS

Tyler Schiller expects both Steparty (Artie Schiller) and Dezignation (So You Think) to outperform their market expectations at Randwick on Saturday. While defending T J Smith winner Briasa (Smart Missile) is his headline ride, Schiller feels his other two mounts are flying under the radar, with Steparty, who is a $19 shot in the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m), and Dezignation, who sits at $151 in the Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m), both capable of featuring. Dezignation, a son of So You Think (High Chaparral), caught the eye when closing late to finish fifth in the Tulloch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) and, unlike many of his rivals, is already proven at the Derby trip. "He sneaks in off a really good run in the Tulloch," Schiller said. "He got back and was taken off the bridle a long way from home, and he stayed on super strong. He just needed a bit further, which he is going to get this weekend. As long as he backs up, he's going to have a really good chance, and he's got a lovely barrier compared to his outside barrier the other day." Steparty is already a multiple stakes winner and Group 1 placegetter who comes into the race off a close fifth in the All-Star Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) and drops sharply in weight to 51.5 kilograms after carrying 59 kilograms at his past three starts in weight for age company. "He's a really nice horse. He's got a great attitude and he's another one flying under the radar," Schiller said. "He got beaten a length and a bit in the All-Star Mile off a tough, wide run, and he's going as good as ever."

King to partner Sixties in Doncaster Mile

Dual Group 1 winner Artorius' brother Sixties (Flying Artie) will be out to give trainer Chris Waller another Doncaster Mile at Randwick on Saturday, with the colt building an impressive record already in this preparation. The progressive three-year-old arrives into the race off a win in the Phar Lap Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) and was narrowly beaten when third in the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) earlier in this preparation. However, he has been hampered by wide barriers this campaign and again faces a task from the outside gate in the 16-horse field. "Sixties is a very talented horse, and he showed that with his Phar Lap win, and before that as well," Waller said. "He didn't get much luck in his last Group 1 run, which was in the Australian Guineas, when he drew wide and needed to go forward. It didn't quite work for him." Rachel King takes the ride and will be chasing her first Group 1 victory for Waller. The lightweight jockey, who has enjoyed Group 1 success in Australia and Japan, reunites with Sixties having partnered him to victory in the Ming Dynasty Quality (Gr 3, 1400m) last spring. "She won a Group race on him in the spring, and she is a natural lightweight rider," Waller said. "I see her as a big race rider. She's won some big races in Australia, some big races in Japan, big races in Melbourne. She's the right person for the job."

Parr desperate for Overpass to land T J Smith

Dual Group 1 winner Overpass (Vancouver) will again look to defy the market expectations when he lines up in Saturday's T J Smith Stakes at Randwick, with jockey Josh Parr confident the veteran sprinter is primed and ready to produce another bold first-up performance. The seven-year-old has amassed more than $12.4 million in prize-money and has an excellent first-up record, highlighted by multiple wins and placings when fresh. He was beaten just 0.2 lengths by Briasa in last year's T J Smith Stakes and also ran a close fourth behind Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress) in The Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) last spring. "What a fantastic racehorse he's been to me so far, and my family also," Parr told Racing NSW. "If he was able to tick off the T J Smith... I think it would be very fitting for what a great racehorse he's been. "He comes back this preparation still feeling like he has juice in his legs." Parr said the gelding's first-up profile made this assignment ideal. "What I am certain of is a really strong, brave effort from Overpass because he does it every time," he added.

Lees hoping class drop can help Rivellino

Trainer Kris Lees is hoping a return to slightly easier company can help Rivellino (Too Darn Hot) rediscover winning form when he lines up in Saturday's Carbine Club Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Randwick. The three-year-old has been competing against the top tier this campaign, finishing fourth in the Randwick Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) behind the likes of Sheza Alibi (Saxon Warrior) and Autumn Boy (The Autumn Sun). "He's going quite well, he hasn't been far away against the better quality horses," Lees told Racing NSW. "It's a good crop of three-year-olds this year and he's just come back a touch in grade and I hope he reacts well doing it." A winner of the Inglis Millennium (RL, 1100m) and Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) as a two-year-old, Rivellino hasn't scored since that juvenile campaign but did finish runner-up in the Callander-Presnell Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) in the spring. "It's a bit of a tricky gate [13] but he'll get his chance to travel, probably get back off the speed a little and be strong late," Lees said. "I do think he is a horse that likes a bit of room on straightening. He came from 18 alley and won the Millennium as a two-year-old so it's not the end of the world." The possibility of Rivellino stretching out further in distance is possible if he runs well in the Carbine.

Coastwatch to start out for new stable

RACING PHOTOS

Group 2 winning and four-time stakes winner Coastwatch (Fastnet Rock), formerly trained by Richard and Will Freedman, will make his debut for Reece Goodwin on Saturday when the seven-year-old tackles the Victoria Handicap (Gr 3, 1400m) at Caulfield. The gelding will be bidding to give his new connections a quick turnaround on the $20,000 they outlaid for the gelding during the 2025 Inglis December (Early) Online Sale. "It's what we have been doing for a number of years now," Goodwin said. "He's a horse that has shown plenty of ability previously and tapered off in form for whatever reason, and sometimes we can get them going again, and sometimes we don't. The older they are and the higher rated they are, the tougher it is to get them going, but it wasn't too long ago that he was running ok and everything is price relative as well. If he had brought $40,000 or $50,000, we wouldn't have him, but he only made $20,000 which we thought was a price worth risking on a horse that is going to be running in a race like Saturday, a $200,000 race, even though it's probably a bit more competitive, or stronger, than I anticipated." On this weekend's first-up Group 3 task, Goodwin said: "We'll probably ride him quiet, but it would be good to see him getting through the line late and then we'll look to step him up to 1600 [metres] second up and see him a bit more competitive then. We won't be searching for anything interstate. We'll keep him at home and try and pick off a race or two and we basically only have to win one of these races to be well in front. He does handle some sting out of the ground and being an older horse with some wear and tear, he certainly wouldn't suit summer. We're just looking for a good kick-off on Saturday and building our way from there."

Lingani ready to hit form at Oakbank

RACING PHOTOS

Having had three runs back from a spell, Listed winner Lingani (America) is ready to fire in Saturday's Railway Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Oakbank according to trainers Peter and Belinda Blanch. The five-year-old mare has had two trials at Oakbank previously, winning both, and was last seen running seventh in the Manihi Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Morphettville on March 9, a performance that was better than it reads on paper. "She needed a couple of runs to get going as she's a bit older and a bit bigger now after a decent spell," Belinda Blanch said. "Her last start was much better than it looked. She got in all sorts of trouble when she was held up from the entrance to the straight to the 100-metre mark. She went looking for four or five runs and everything kept closing up on her. From my point of view, watching it live, she was full of running and wanted to be there, in the zone, but couldn't get the run through. When she did get clear, she couldn't pick herself up, she needed time to wind up. We put her out for a week after that to give her a freshen up with the plan then to go to the Railway Stakes. It was raining when I got there, which was great, because she loves it, and she trialled really well. Any rain [on Saturday] would be great. She's won a couple of trials at Oakbank and if they can handle that hill, then that's half the battle."

Good Friday Appeal donation announced by RV

RV's donation to the Good Friday Appeal

SUPPLIED

The Victorian thoroughbred racing industry will contribute more than $270,000 to the 2026 Good Friday Appeal, headlined by a $150,000 donation from Racing Victoria (RV) in partnership with Country Racing Victoria and Southside Racing. The contribution continues the industry's long association with the Royal Children's Hospital fundraiser and pushes total donations from the Victorian thoroughbred industry past $1 million over the past eight years. RV chief executive Aaron Morrison said the industry was proud to continue supporting the important cause. "We're incredibly proud to make a substantial donation along with Country Racing Victoria and Southside Racing to continue the Victorian thoroughbred racing industry's long history of supporting the Good Friday Appeal," Morrison said. "The Victorian thoroughbred racing industry has a long history of supporting the Good Friday Appeal and we're proud to again contribute this year. The work of the Royal Children's Hospital is critical for our state and community and it's important that we recognise and assist their efforts." Additional funds have been raised through Victoria Racing Club fundraising across its 2025-26 race meetings, while further fundraising will take place on Good Friday at race meetings in Ballarat and Cranbourne, where a portion of admission tickets and on-course activities will support the appeal.

75 for Showcasing

Whitsbury Manor Stud stallion Showcasing (Oasis Dream) chalked up his 75th individual stakes winner when Timeforshowcasing (3 f ex Gloryette by Raven's Pass) gamely landed the Burradon Stakes (Listed, 1m) at Newcastle on Friday. Ridden by Callum Shepherd for trainer Charlie Johnston, the three-year-old filly kept on well to deny the late challenge of Padraig Dawn (Saxon Warrior) by a neck. There was a further two and a half lengths back to Andab (Saxon Warrior) in third place. Racing in the colours of Jaber Abdullah, Timeforshowcasing was purchased for 15,000gns by Johnston Racing out of Book 2 of the Tattersalls October Yearling Sale. She is a sister to the stakes-

Showcasing is standing for a fee of £30,000 (approx. AU$57,440).

FR: Prix d'Ispahan renamed Prix Aga Khan IV

In tribute to the late His Highness the Aga Khan IV, who passed away in February, 2025, the France Galop board of directors have decided to rename the Prix d'Ispahan (Gr 1, 1800m) as the Prix Aga Khan IV (Prix d'Ispahan). Guillaume de Saint-Seine, president of France Galop, said: "It was the wish of France Galop, in consultation with the Aga Khan family, that one of the Group 1 races in the French racing calendar, the Prix d'Ispahan, should now bear the name of the late His Highness the Aga Khan IV, so the racing world will remember this remarkable figure. His impact on racing and breeding has been immense and this prestigious race will preserve his memory for years to come." This decision was taken in consultation with the Aga Khan Studs and the Aga Khan family. One of the most influential owners and breeders in the history of the sport, His Highness the Aga Khan IV shaped the world of Thoroughbred breeding and racing at the highest international level over several decades. He had a particular affinity with France, and especially with Chantilly, and he played a decisive role in the standing and prestige of French racing." In agreement with the European Pattern Committee, this wording, with Prix d'Isphahan in brackets, will be maintained for three years. The race will then be named 'Prix Aga Khan IV'.

US: Shadwell's US stallion complex up for sale for $20 million

Shadwell's stallion complex in Lexington is up for sale at a price of US$20 million (approx. AU$28.96 million). The late Hamdan Al Maktoum's operation, in the heart of the Kentucky Bluegrass, has been home to some of its greatest champions including sires such as Invador (Candy Stripes) and a broodmare band that has produced Nashwan (Blushing Groom) and many others. In December, it was reported that Ace Stud would be renting the Shadwell foaling unit at Nunnery Stud, with the European centres remaining at Derrinstown Stud in County Kildare and Beech House Stud in Newmarket. Although there are still Shadwell runners and mares in the United States, that side has also been scaled back and land in Kentucky was sold to Resolute Racing's John Stewart in 2023 and reportedly to Coolmore earlier this year. Stallions have not stood at the station in some years and it has been known to be for sale. Ken Donworth of Bluegrass Sotheby's International Realty is representing the sale of a 530-acre estate, which includes the maintenance complex along with seven barns suitable for broodmares or yearlings, offering a total of 90 stalls. The listing said: "This exceptional central Kentucky property provides a turn-key foundation for a complete thoroughbred operation on some of the finest land in the Bluegrass. Its scale, location and quality make it one of the most significant offerings to come to market in years."

So special to be part of such an important day We're incredibly grateful to have been part of the Good Friday Appeal, bringing Twilight Payment along for a day filled with smiles, carrots, and plenty of his signature cheeky moments.

Big thank you to @citylexus for getting us there safely, and to @flemingtonvrc for having us along for such a special occasion.

Nothing better than seeing our legends help brighten the day for so many
