Autumn Glow wins the Group 1 George Ryder Stakes

Arrowfield Queens set for championship crowns

By Karl Patterson

Champion mare Autumn Glow (The Autumn Sun) is odds-on to complete what could be a memorable afternoon for Arrowfield Stud in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick on Saturday.

Autumn Glow is unbeaten in 11 starts up to 1600 metres and is coming off a breathtaking performance in the George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m) at Rosehill on Golden Slipper Day.

She's a short-priced $1.40 favourite and her stablemate Lady Shenandoah (Snitzel) is a $3.90 favourite to add another elite-level victory for legendary Arrowfield sire Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) in the Queen Of The Turf (Gr 1, 1600m) earlier on Saturday.

Autumn Glow is stretching out to 2000 metres for the first time, nevertheless, Arrowfield owner John Messara, trainer Chris Waller and jockey James McDonald are confident she can run the distance right out.

"J-Mac has been in my ear and so has Chris so who am I to out-think them?" Messara said.

"I went on pedigree and, although 2000 metres will be a challenge, she's all class and her type can do just about anything. Winning 11 out of 11 isn't easy and it will keep people very interested while it continues."

Autumn Glow races in Arrowfield Stud's black and yellow diamond silks in partnership with Hermitage Thoroughbreds couple Eugene Chuang and Karen Lo. And she looked the part as yearling when knocked down from the Newhaven Park draft for

"She's by our stallion The Autumn Sun and we've paid a lot of money to get her," Messara said at Riverside Stables three years ago.

"She's an absolute queen, a true athlete and an exciting prospect. She had everything you look for; balance, scope, substance and she's a great mover."

The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) was Australia's Champion 3YO Colt in 2018-19 and he's been an immediate success at Arrowfield. Autumn Glow is from his second crop and his third-crop colt Autumn Boy made it a Group 1 double on Golden Slipper Day for his sire, trainer and jockey in the Rosehill Guineas (2000m).

Autumn Glow's dam Via Africa (Var) was named Champion South African Sprinter in 2013-14 and her earlier foals include In The Congo (Snitzel) who booked a place on the Newgate Farm roster after winning the Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) in 2021.

Waller kept her ticking over with an exhibition gallop at Randwick last Saturday clocking 64.98s for 1000 metres.

I WENT ON PEDIGREE AND, ALTHOUGH 2000 METRES WILL BE A CHALLENGE, SHE'S ALL CLASS AND HER TYPE CAN DO JUST ABOUT ANYTHING. WINNING 11 OUT OF 11 ISN'T EASY AND IT WILL KEEP PEOPLE VERY INTERESTED WHILE IT CONTINUES

- JOHN MESSARA

"We want to have her ready for the Queen Elizabeth and we've ticked another box with that workout," Waller said. "She's clean-winded and is fit to run a strong 2000 metres.

"She can jump on the speed or be ridden conservatively. She's versatile and can switch off and relax. Conserving energy will be a big plus at 2000 metres. In my eyes she's a champion and I'm qualified to know!"

Waller will also saddle up Aeliana (Castelvecchio) who is on a hat-trick following Group 1 wins in the Ranvet Stakes (2000m) and Tancred Stakes (2400m) at Rosehill in March. She's by Arrowfield sire Castelvecchio (Dundeel) and has opened on the third line of Queen Elizabeth markets at $7.50 for Star Thoroughbreds.

"We've beaten Aeliana before in these conditions and she's had a tough campaign," Messara added. "I think the biggest challenge will come from the English horse Dubai Honour."

Continued from page 2 is prepared by English trainer William Haggas who has built a sensational strike-rate in Sydney saddling 23 starters for 11 wins, including six Group 1 victories, for over $14.36 million in prize-money.

His biggest earner to date has been Lake Forest (No Nay Never) who came from the clouds to collect the cash in the $10 million Golden Eagle (1500m) at Rosehill in 2024.

McDonald was in a buoyant mood after last week's gallop between races at Randwick.

"Her work has been phenomenal and she's on song after that hit-out," the champion rider said. "It doesn't matter what we're up against in the Queen Elizabeth. With that amazing sustained speed, she's a jockey's dream.

"Chris told me you will see something special before the George Ryder. And when he says that, I take notice. I thought Anamoe was a big deal but she has taken it to a new level."

Arrowfield has several Group 1-winning chances before the Queen Elizabeth starting with After Summer, who is another daughter of The Autumn Sun, in the Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m). She was beaten but not disgraced last time out when her jockey Billy Egan protested unsuccessfully after the Vinery Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Rosehill.

Kiwi filly Belle Cheval (Savabeel) was first past the post after veering across her line but stewards ruled the interference was insufficient to change the placings.

James McDonald and Chris Waller with Autumn Glow's Golden Eagle Trophy

After Summer was bred and sold by Arrowfield for $170,000 to Flemington trainer Dom Sutton at the 2024 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. Her Irish-bred dam foaled English and French winners before arriving out here and she's closely-related to 2015 BMW Stakes (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Hartnell (Authorized).

The Queen Of The Turf has taken on a whole new dimension since connections of freewheeling Pride Of Jenni (Pride Of Dubai) opted to take on Lady Shenandoah instead of facing Autumn Glow in the Queen Elizabeth.

Lady Shenandoah was beaten by Joliestar (Zoustar) in her first two efforts this prep before finishing fourth to Autumn Glow in the George Ryder.

"That was awesome," Tommy Berry said. "She was forced wide with no cover and it was a very strong effort."

Arrowfield bred and sold her in partnership with Planette Thoroughbreds to Hermitage Thoroughbreds for $525,000 at the 2023 Inglis Easter Yearling Sale. She has won up to Group 1 level in the Flight Stakes (1600m) and Surround Stakes (1400m) at Randwick and Coolmore Classic (1500m) at Rosehill.

"Lady Shenandoah is good, she's very good and you can't do more than what she's done so far," Messara said. "You just don't see horses winning three Group 1 events in their first seven starts.

"It's also another big result for Snitzel. He's having a bumper season yet again. There's not a week goes by without another stakes horse for him and it didn't surprise me to see this filly come out and do what she did today."

Snitzel died in June 2025 but is still making an impact in races like the ATC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick last Saturday. It was the Arrowfield icon's 27th Group 1 winner and he filled out a trifecta when Campione D'Italia led home Miss Chanel (Tagaloo) (damsire is Snitzel) and Fireball.

And it would be appropriate if Snitzel sired his fourth winner of the Arrowfield 3YO Sprint (Gr 2, 1200m) on Saturday. His filly Marhoona and colt Beadman can join Wild Ruler (2021), Splintex (2020) and Hot Snitzel (2012) on top-class roll-call for the Arrowfield Sprint.

Ciaron Maher Racing draft set to shine at Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale

A last-start million-dollar race winner is among the highlights of a quality draft from one of the country's most power stables for the upcoming 2026 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale on the Gold Coast.

Ciaron Maher, last season's champion Australian trainer by wins and prize-money, will present buyers with a wonderful opportunity with a draft of 17 lots nominated.

Among the headline acts is Snitzanova (Snitzel), a Group winner in Victoria and New South Wales, who was a last-start winner of the $1 million Magic Millions Queensland Subzero (2200m).

The daughter of Snitzel (Redoute's Choice), a winner of over $1 million from just 11 runs, is one of a select group of fillies and mares entered by Bennett Racing.

The lightly raced four-year-old is a winner of the Sandown Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) and Spring Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) at Caulfield and Newcastle respectively.

The other Bennett Racing entries include Group 3-winning juvenile Military Tycoon (Written Tycoon) and stakes winner Zaszou (Zoustar).

Military Tycoon, at her second start, won the Ottawa Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Flemington and subsequently contested the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m). Such regard is she held in by connections that earlier this year she was pitted against the likes of Tentyris (Street Boss), Benedetta (Hellbent) and Giga Kick (Scissor Kick) in the Black Caviar Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) where she ran seventh, beaten just over four lengths.

"We're excited about the draft heading to the sale, which is largely made up of Magic Millions graduates — some ready for the breeding barn, and others just hitting their straps on the track," Nathan Bennett said.

"We're particularly excited by the likes of Group 2 winner Snitzanova, coming off a win in the Magic Millions Subzero earlier in the year and now being targeted toward the Group 2 The Q22 during the Brisbane Winter Carnival, with longer-term spring ambitions including the Group 1 Caulfield Cup. That looks well within reach given the depth and European influence in her pedigree, which suggests she'll run a strong 2400 metres under those conditions.

"Listed winner Zaszou is on a Group 1 Tattersall's Tiara path, alongside Group 3 winner Military Tycoon, who also profiles as a genuine lightweight contender for the race this year, so we have genuine racing upside still to come through the carnival.

"Our buying results from January have us operating at close to 27 per cent stakes winners to runners, reflected in the performances of horses like Snitzanova, Military Tycoon and Zaszou. We're also excited to offer some of the first pregnancies by our Group 1-winning graduate Southport Tycoon at the National Sale this year, including Melisende and Holyrood Girl, who will be presented through Riverstone's draft.

"Magic Millions has been great supporters of our operation, and we've had a tremendous run with their graduates, so it's only fitting to complete the circle and return to the Gold Coast to offer these mares under the Maher Racing / Bennett Racing banner at National."

The Ciaron Maher Racing draft will also include the Group winning two-year-old Icarian Dream (Blue Point) as well as fellow Group performers Wiltshire Square (Wootton Bassett) and Extratwo (Toronado).

Sires represented in the draft include Written Tycoon (Iglesia), Zoustar (Northern Meteor), Snitzel, Pierro (Lonhro), Not a Single Doubt (Redoute's Choice), Wootton Bassett (Ifraaj), Deep Field (Northern Meteor), Sebring (More Than Ready) and Toronado (High Chaparral).

"We're really pleased with the draft we're bringing to the National Sale this year, highlighted by the Bennett Racing fillies, along with a number of other black-type performers," Ciaron Maher Racing's head of bloodstock Will Bourne said.

"It's a group that has performed at a high level on the track and, importantly, has the profiles and pedigrees to go on with it in the breeding barn. The depth right through the draft is strong, and we feel it gives buyers a genuine opportunity across a range of values.

"The National Sale continues to be the right platform to offer these mares off the track — we've had some outstanding results on the Gold Coast over the years. You're getting the deepest buying bench and a very competitive environment at a time of year people genuinely enjoy being on the Coast, which gives you every confidence when presenting a draft of this quality to the market."

Broodmare Sale to also offer drafts from Heskett Thoroughbreds and Bell View Park

Next month's Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale will feature new opportunities for buyers, with the latest news of two unreserved reduction sales confirmed in the catalogue.

Victorian-based Heskett Thoroughbreds will offer a line up of 22 lots through the Newington Farm Premium Consignment, while New South Wales' Bell View Park Stud have ten lots set for the sale.

The Unreserved Reduction for Heskett Thoroughbreds will include members of families the operation has built over many years while at the same time retaining horses linked to their former star galloper and exciting young sire General Beau (Brazen Beau).

"We're incredibly enthusiastic about the future of General Beau and what he's producing," Heskett's David Moodie said. "The quality we're seeing from our young sire has given us real confidence in him, so we've made the decision to retain his foals and pregnancies, while reducing our broader Heskett broodmare band accordingly.

"This unreserved reduction is really about returning to our roots — going back to how we were breeding 30 years ago, focused on breeding to race, before the commercial pressures and rising costs in the industry shaped the current landscape.

"We'll be offering 22 mares through the National Sale as part of that process, and moving forward it's about simplifying the operation, backing our judgement, and building around this young sire in a more sustainable and considered way."

Julian Blaxland said his Newington Farm operation was honoured to be selected to consign the draft on behalf of Heskett Thoroughbreds.

"Newington Farm is proud to present 22 racefillies and broodmares on behalf of David Moodie and Ash Hardwick's Heskett Thoroughbreds at the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale," Blaxland said.

"It is an honour to represent a racing and breeding operation synonymous with Group 1 success under our Premium Consignment.

"It's a unique opportunity for owners and breeders to buy into some of Australia's fastest and most influential families and certainly an honour we don't take lightly.

"It's by far the best consignment of fillies and mares we've ever brought to the Gold Coast. To lead with the Heskett Thoroughbreds Unreserved Reduction is incredibly special, and it gives buyers a genuine opportunity to secure elite racetrack performance backed by outstanding pedigrees."

The Heskett Reduction is highlighted by a select group of high quality racing and breeding prospects, including Viviane (Written Tycoon), who is offered in foal to Anamoe (Street Boss), Group placegetters Sword Of Legacy (Too Darn Hot) and Nodachi (No Nay Never) and Kaiken (Exceed And Excel), who is offered in foal to Castelvechio (Dundeel).

The line up also includes Group winners and stakes performers as well as proven stakes producers with exciting covers including the dam of Group 3 winner Band Of Brothers (Omaha Beach) in foal to City Of Troy (Justify).

Newington's Premium Consignment is further strengthened by a classy group of fillies and mares, including the Group 2-winning West Australian heroine Storyville (Overshare), Group 3 winner and Robert Sangster Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m)-bound Roll On High (Shamus Award), Campione d'Italia's (Snitzel) full-sister Klum and Lady Shenandoah (Snitzel) and Stronger's (Not A Single Doubt) half-sister Diligente (Pariah).

Meanwhile, Bell View Park Stud will present ten lots as part of their own Unreserved Reduction Sale – seven racefillies or maiden mares and three broodmares – including one in foal to red hot first-season sire Stay Inside (Extreme Choice).

Roll On High

"As the farm is being sold for redevelopment, we've made the decision to reduce our numbers accordingly," Adam Mackrell said.

"We still plan to be very active in the industry, but this marks a shift in focus – moving more toward racing stock and trading horses straight off the track, rather than maintaining broodmares without the farm.

"All things considered, it's an opportunity to take stock and recalibrate where we want to head next, particularly with the farm no longer part of the operation.

"We've always had great success at the National Sale with our trade mares, and we're pleased with what we're bringing this year for unreserved competition. Prairie Flower is the headline mare, supported by a strong group of racefillies off the track and some commercial broodmares we feel will appeal across a range of buying levels."

Prairie Flower (Star Turn), a winner of the Durbridge Stakes (Listed, 1100m) and Rubiton Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) third placegetter, will be offered. The eight-time winner has earned over $620,000 in prize-money and is currently in work with trainer Will Clarken.

Others in the draft are by sires including Exceed and Excel (Daneshill), Justify (Scat Daddy), Written Tycoon, The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice), Deep Field, Dundeel (High Chaparral), Hellbent (I Am Invincible) and Lookin At Lucky (Smart Strike).

River Of Stars heads Waller's Sydney Cup team

River Of Stars (Sea The Stars) will carry top weight for Chris Waller in Saturday's Sydney Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) at Randwick. The mare, fourth in last year's Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), shapes as the stable's leading chance despite conceding weight, set to carry 56.5 kilograms. Waller will saddle a strong contingent, all with proven staying credentials, including Valiant King (Roaring Lion), Soul Of Spain (Phoenix Of Spain) and Hutchence (Frankel), each with form over extended distances. Valiant King, a placegetter in the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m), is expected to improve, while the remainder of the team bring depth and experience to the two-mile contest. "She's the class horse in the race, which is why she's got top weight," Waller's assistant Charlie Duckworth said of River Of Stars. "She's got a lovely draw [barrier six] to try to offset that weight, and two miles isn't an issue with her, she is a proper staying mare. He [Valiant King] was awesome in the spring. He's yet to hit that height this prep, but we're hoping Saturday will be when he does. He was scratched from the race last year, so we've got some unfinished business with him."

Bidding now open for Inglis Digital April (Early) Online Sale

A 'capacity' Inglis Digital April (Early) Online Sale catalogue is now open for bidding and features a plethora of racing and breeding opportunities.

A total of 551 lots have been finalised for the sale including 207 racehorses (89 race fillies), 186 broodmares, 76 racehorse shares, 49 yearlings, 21 weanlings, five two-year-olds, four unbroken stock, two stallion shares and one stallion.

Among the breeding highlights is the stakes-placed American mare April Vintage (Vino Rosso), an enticing three-in-one package. April Vintage is offered with a Justify (Scat Daddy) filly at foot and in foal to dual Group 1-winning stallion Southport Tycoon (Written Tycoon).

Cool Passion (Not A Single Doubt) - a three-time Group 3 winner and Group 1-placed mare herself - is the dam of last season's stakes-winning juvenile Prestige Forever (Ole Kirk) while Mahamaya (Bahhare) is the dam of Group 1 winner Antino (Redwood) and is offered with a Dundee (High Chaparral) filly at foot.

There are two stallion shares in the catalogue that will undoubtedly pique the interest of a broad section of buyers.

Southport Tycoon

Jacquinet (Rubick) has the second-highest first crop aggregate at yearling sales, behind only Anamoe (Street Boss), while Southport Tycoon is a dual Group 1-winning son of Written Tycoon (Iglesia), just like Champion First Season Sire Ole Kirk.

Segenhoe Stud is leading vendor with 13 entries while the catalogue has as always been supported by many of the industry's key players like Waterhouse/Bott, Yulong, Ciaran Maher, Torryburn, Rosemont, Widden, Kingstar, Yarraman, Musk Creek, Lindsay Park, Vinery, Michael Freedman, Matthew Smith, Price/Kent, Peters Investments, Bell River, Newgate, TFI, Trilogy, Newton Thoroughbreds etc.

The final countdown of bidding for the Inglis Digital April (Early) Online Sale begins from 10am on Wednesday. To view the April (Early) catalogue click here.

Mr Monaco (Territories) at the 2024 Tattersalls Autumn Sale but that venture is paying off with recent wins at Randwick and the $250,000 N E Manion Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at Rosehill. Mr Monaco is on a hat-trick in Saturday's $2 million Sydney Cup and he's opened a $5.50 favourite for a syndicate managed by Le Metayer that includes Blueblood Bloodstock and Francis and Christine Cook. "We stuck our neck out to buy him and now it's his turn to stick his out on the winning post," Le Metayer said. "He's a progressive stayer and is very much on the rise so we're excited about what's ahead." Mr Monaco can win a fourth Sydney Cup for Ciaran Maher who teamed up with Le Metayer to buy She's An Artist (Trapize Artist) for $175,000 at the 2023 Inglis Premier Yearling Sale. She won at Flemington last year and earned black-type when placed in the Creswick Stakes (LR, 1200m) back at Headquarters.

Campaldino scratched from Sydney Cup on veterinary advice

Campaldino (Ghibellines) has been withdrawn from Saturday's Sydney Cup at Randwick after returning an abnormal blood test. Co-trainer Adrian Bott advised stewards that testing conducted on April 7 revealed elevated cardiac troponin levels, prompting connections to err on the side of caution. Campaldino had been building a consistent staying profile this preparation, recording wins in middle-distance company and shaping as a progressive type stepping towards longer trips. His form had suggested he was developing into a competitive staying prospect ahead of the two-mile assignment. Acting on veterinary advice, the decision was made to withdraw the horse from the two-mile feature ahead of acceptances. Campaldino had been among the entries for the staying feature, but will now be immediately spelled as a precaution while connections monitor his recovery. The scratching marginally reduces the Sydney Cup line-up, with the field otherwise largely intact heading into the Randwick feature.

Campaldino

Arctic Glamour faces rematch in Queen Of The Turf

Arctic Glamour (Frosted) will attempt to turn the tables on Lazzura (Snitzel) when the pair clash again in Saturday's Queen Of The Turf Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick. Trained by Gerald Ryan and Sterling Alexiou, Arctic Glamour was beaten 0.4 lengths by Lazzura in the Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m), but meets that rival on less favourable terms under weight-for-age conditions after enjoying a 2.5 kilograms swing in the handicaps last time. The mile also presents another challenge, with the mare yet to fill a placing in six attempts at 1600 metres, although she has not been without merit at the trip, including solid efforts in the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m). With Pride Of Jenni (Pride of Dubai) engaged, a strong tempo looks likely, and the stable is expected to adopt quieter tactics from the draw in the hope of giving Arctic Glamour every chance to finish off. "It's going to be a strong mile on Saturday with the speed that's in the race," Ryan said. "We will ride her quiet from where she's drawn [barrier seven]. Her best runs are when we ride her quiet. She trialled very well on Thursday, and her work [on Tuesday] morning was very good. As good as I've seen her do."

Idle Flyer primed for pressure test in Queen Of The Turf

Idle Flyer (Dundeel) will face a searching test in Saturday's Queen Of The Turf Stakes at Randwick, with trainer Matthew Smith confident his mare is ready to measure up. The mare clashed with Pride Of Jenni in the Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) during the spring and is expected to again be tested by a strong tempo. "I think she fits in with those mares, she's that quality of mare, it's just going to be interesting to see what happens with Pride Of Jenni," Smith told Racing NSW. "Seeing how she is I think she's ready but you put them in the race and it's a whole different story. If Pride Of Jenni wasn't in there it's a completely different race. I'm really happy with her, I just think she's right in the zone and she's ready to do something." Idle Flyer has been set to peak third-up, improving off a first-up run in the Wenona Girl Quality (Gr 3, 1200m) to win the Emancipation Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) last start. "She's absolutely spot on and ready to do something," Smith told Racing NSW. "The step to a mile is expected to suit, although her ability to absorb pressure will be key in a race likely to be run at a strong tempo." Smith will also saddle Mountain Queen (Fierce Impact) in the Australian Oaks, with the filly expected to appreciate the rise in distance.

Sapphire test key to Catch The Glory's Group 1 path

Catch The Glory (Zousain) will take another step through the grades when she lines up in Saturday's Sapphire Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick. Trainer Jason Coyle had initially targeted The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m), but the mare missed a start before winning the Birthday Card Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at her latest outing. "She's won three of her last four but still seems to be underrated," Coyle told Racing NSW. The lightly raced mare has now won six of her 15 starts and will again be tested at stakes level, with Saturday's race expected to shape her next move. "The Galaxy was Plan A, the Sapphire was always going to be second-up," Coyle said. A strong performance could see her aimed at the Robert Sangster Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), although interstate options remain open. Coyle believes the race maps favourably, with Adam Hyeronimus to ride from barrier five. "She can park off them and get her chance at the right time," Coyle said. Stablemate Lulumon (Vancouver) is set to trial at Warwick Farm as connections look to keep her fresh for upcoming assignments.

It's been 13 years to the day since Black Caviar (Bel Esprit) bowed out to complete a 25-start unbeaten career in the T J Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Randwick. A sell-out crowd saw her stroll home for a three-length victory leaving trainer Peter Moody to once again reach for superlatives. "She's a mighty horse. Horses look fast till they line up against Black Caviar. And I'm just really pleased that she put on one hell of a show for the really big crowd that came out here in Sydney who haven't had the pleasure of her as much as Victoria." Moody can celebrate that anniversary with unraced two-year-old gelding Oak Lightning (Per Incanto) in the Redoute's Choice Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Caulfield on Saturday. The son of Per Incanto (Street Cry) won a Pakenham barrier trial last month and he's a half-brother to Desert Lightning (Pride Of Dubai) who was a Group 1 winner in New Zealand before joining Moody and co-trainer

Katherine Coleman. Oak Lightning is owned by a Wylie Dalziel Roy Higgins Racing Syndicate and will be ridden by Linda Meech. "Moods doesn't often throw his youngsters in at the deep end but he's got a very good opinion of this one," Dalziel said. "It's a two-year-old race and anything can happen. He might get back a bit, but will hit the line hard."

Change of course for Cilacap

Cilacap (Written Tycoon) has returned to Melbourne after a brief Sydney campaign, with Grahame Begg redirecting the mare towards an Adelaide feature later this month. Cilacap will run in Saturday's Anniversary Vase (Listed, 1600m) at Caulfield before heading to the Queen Of The South Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) on April 25. The mare had two runs in Sydney, including a sixth in the Millie Fox Stakes (Gr 2, 1300m) and eighth in the Coolmore Classic, failing to make an impact. Originally set for the Queen Of The Turf Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m), Begg instead opted to return to Melbourne, with firmer Sydney tracks considered unsuitable. "I thought she was better off coming back to Melbourne," Begg said. "So, she'll run on Saturday and then she'll go over to Adelaide to run in the Queen Of The South Stakes, the Group 2. The tracks up in Sydney, the two runs she had up there, they were too hard and she loves a bit of give in the ground. They had rain up there last weekend, but I had already brought her back to Victoria."

Arran Bay returns to Morphettville

Arran Bay (All Too Hard) will return to South Australia on Saturday as he targets the City Of Adelaide Handicap (Listed, 1529m) at Morphettville. Trainer Phillip Stokes elected to bypass the Anniversary Vase at Caulfield in favour of the Morphettville assignment, despite the gelding carrying top weight of 61 kilograms. The rising eight-year-old returned to winning form in the C S Hayes Memorial Cup (Listed, 1600m) last month, before finishing fourth at Flemington at his most recent outing. Arran Bay has built a strong record in Adelaide, including placings during last year's carnival and success earlier in his career, and is expected to be suited back to the 1500-metre trip. The availability of local rider Lachlan Neindorf also influenced the decision to head to South Australia. "We just feel the City Of Adelaide Handicap over the 1500 metres, it suits him better," Stokes said. "Lachie [Lachlan Neindorf] is going over also and couldn't ride him at Caulfield, so it works out well. While I think the mile is ok and earlier in his career he won over further, I think the 1500 metres to the mile is his go now being a bit older. I feel going over there it will be a softer option for him to try and get another win. He tried hard at Flemington the other day and the drier ground suits him better that soft now being an older horse."

From Randwick to Rocky

Central Queensland grazier Fred Noffke can concentrate on the $150,000 Capricornia Yearling Sale Classic (1200m) at Rockhampton on Saturday instead of watching Sheza Alibi (Saxon Warrior) in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick. Sheza Alibi won the Doncaster Mile (Gr 1 1600m) for Noffke last time out but has gone for a spell in Queensland instead of a showdown with Autumn Glow on Day 2 of The Championships. Noffke has Ready Marea (Better Than Ready) lining up in the sales-related race at Callaghan Park for trainer Kris Hansen who also prepared Sheza Alibi prior to her transfer south to Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman. Ready Marea won a Rockhampton maiden in February and has been freshened up since being beaten in a qualifier for the QTIS Jewel. "She just had an off day last time and I've forgotten she ever went around," Hansen said. "She's still a baby and now she's back on track. I've booked McKenzie Apel even though she can't claim. It's a strong field with Better Blitzem and Swift Dragon but our filly should be very competitive."

Bidding now open for NZB National Online Yearling Sale

Bidding is now open for NZB's 2026 National Online Yearling Sale on Gavelhouse Plus, with the quality 104-lot catalogue available to bid on here. Bidding will run for a five-day period, commencing Friday, April 10 with the first lot closing on Tuesday, April 14 at 6pm (NZT). Buyers must register on Gavelhouse Plus in advance in order to gain bidding approval. All yearlings have been inspected by NZB agents who are available should you require any assistance. Alternatively, all yearlings are available for inspection on request. All yearlings purchased are eligible to be nominated for NZB's lucrative Karaka Millions Series. Just nine months after they make their virtual sale-ring debut, graduates can compete for a share of the $1 million TAB Karaka Millions 2YO (RL, 1200m), the $1.5 million TAB Karaka Millions 3YO (RL, 1600m) as well as the NZB Mega Maiden Bonus Series. Entries close Monday, May 4 2026. As a one-off, NZTBA have offered to extend the early bird offer for entries to the Entain-NZB Insurance Pearl Series for all fillies offered in the upcoming National Online Yearling Sale held on Gavelhouse Plus. With bidding closing from 6pm on Tuesday, April 14, buyers will have until 5pm (NZT) Friday, April 17 to secure entry at the discounted rate of $1,000 plus GST - a saving of $500 plus GST.

Te Akau targets Riccarton riches with strong team

Te Akau Racing will take a deep and versatile team to Riccarton Park on Saturday, with multiple opportunities across both stakes and feature races on the programme. Juveniles Never Too Much (Rubick) and Enchantment (Hello Youmzain) will represent the stable in the Welcome Stakes (Listed, 1000m), both having shown promise in early outings. Never Too Much has placed in both starts to date, while Enchantment has been consistently competitive, including a narrow defeat at the course. In the New Zealand Bloodstock Insurance Stakes (L, 1600m), last-start winner Perlino (Super Seth) heads the charge alongside Aishiteru (Satono Aladdin), with both fillies arriving in form and expected to measure up strongly at stakes level. The $350,000 Southern Alps Challenge (1600m) features Stonybreck (Tavistock) and Cognito (So You Think), with Stonybreck building fitness after a solid recent placing and likely to improve further. Elsewhere, Cool 'N' Fast (Savabeel) will chase a third consecutive victory in the Happy Birthday Mary Molyneux (1400m), while Cognoscenti (Castelvecchio) shapes as a key contender in the Racecourse Hotel & Motor Lodge (2000m). The stable's presence extends to Otaki, where Savoir Faire (Savabeel) contests the Hawke's Bay Cup (Listed, 2200m), rounding out a strong multi-venue assault.

Weather watch over Te Rapa as Shailer eyes fresh runners

Cyclone conditions could play a role in Sunday's meeting at Te Rapa Racecourse, with New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing monitoring the impact of Cyclone Vaianu ahead of raceday. Trainer Kris Shailer is set to have two runners engaged should the meeting proceed, headed by Convinced (Super Seth) in the NZB National Online Yearling Sale 14 April 3YO (1200m). The daughter of Super Seth (Dundeel) will resume following a brief freshen-up after her run in the NZB Kiwi (Listed, 1500m), with the drop back in trip and a favourable draw expected to suit on rain-affected ground. "She's come through the Kiwi well and has had a bit of a break," Shailer said. Stablemate Magice (Savabeel) will also return in the Power Farming Morrinsville 1200 (1200m), having not raced since a Pukekohe win last spring. "I'm really happy with him, he's done enough work to be competitive," Shailer said.

The Global Bloodstock Operator

Justin Darcy and Charmein Phelan are joined by bloodstock agent Ed Stapleton, whose business operation spans both hemispheres. In just under 10 years, Stapleton has been involved with over 400 winners, building a global bloodstock business from the ground up.

TAB NZ unveils fuel relief package for participants

TAB New Zealand has introduced a temporary fuel relief package worth up to $1 million to support participants across the thoroughbred and harness racing industries. Developed in conjunction with New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing and Harness Racing New Zealand, the initiative will be backdated to April 1 and is designed to offset rising fuel costs impacting the delivery of race meetings. The measure will run through to July 31, with up to $250,000 allocated per month, and will be reviewed as conditions evolve. Support will be distributed through existing payment systems and extend to trainers, jockeys and drivers, owners, and clubs facing increased operating costs. Under the high-level structure, owners will receive $50 per runner finishing outside the top four, trainers $40 per meeting, and jockeys and drivers $40 per meeting attended, while clubs will be allocated $500 per meeting. The package is aimed at maintaining participation and ensuring continuity of race meetings during a period of increased cost pressure. The move follows similar relief measures implemented in Australia, reflecting a broader industry response to rising fuel prices across the region.

HK: Moreira eager to continue winning run with Fownes at Sha Tin

Buoyant after a quartet at Happy Valley on Wednesday night, Joao Moreira has reaffirmed his ambition of piloting Caspar Fownes to a fifth Hong Kong trainers' championship as he prepares to take six rides for his ally at Sha Tin on Sunday. Moreira and Fownes are slated to combine in six races this weekend with Winning Machine (Lean Mean Machine), Tycoon Express (Written Tycoon), Forza Toro (Acclaim), Flying Luck (Written Tycoon), Charming Legend (Deep Field) and Sky Trust (So You Think) - while Papaya Brose (Zousain) is a standby declared starter in the second section of the Class 4 Hart Handicap (1200m) - as the pair bids to build on an imposing start to their new partnership. "It was like a dream - we were hoping to have a good start but never expected to have such a good day and I'm extremely happy with that," Moreira said. "[But] it's not about me, it's about his [Fownes'] result. I'm only here because he's been asking for a long time and eventually the Club's agreed to allow him to bring me back for a short stint. We had a good start and all that we are wishing is to keep up a good momentum because it's a race for the championship among the trainers and I guess him having me here is giving himself a really good chance in regards to that."
