Snitzel gone but not forgotten at Randwick

By Karl Patterson

Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) may be gone but the Arrowfield icon brought back memories going back 20 years at Randwick on Saturday.

The stage saw Snitzel sire three winners headed by Group 1 colt Fireball in the Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) – and he was ably assisted by Snitzel Dancer and Matias with their respective Group 3 victories in the James H B Carr Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) and Frank Packer Plate (Gr 3, 2000m).

It was an All-Aged Stakes Day when Snitzel bade farewell to racegoers in the 2006 renewal of the weight-for-age Group 1. He finished a one-length fourth to Paratroopers (Commands) to close a 15-start career with 7 wins topped by a Group 1 triumph in the Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) at Caulfield.

Snitzel was prepared by Gerald Ryan, and he also saddled Saturday feature winners Snitzel Dancer and Matias with co-trainer Sterling Alexiou, while it was Chris Waller who took Group 1 honours with Fireball.

Waller – who also landed the main feature when Beiwacht (Bivouac) struck in the All-Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) – said Fireball was overdue after the youngster suffered best-forgotten losses in the Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) and Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m).

“He was very unlucky in the Slipper but credit to the staff,” the champion trainer said. “He’s a happy horse because we don’t overload the young ones and just go with their level.”

Too Darn Hot colt fires in Karrakatta as 'Jigsaw juggernaut' rolls on

Trainer Dan Morton struck for the third time in four years when Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) colt Afireofgidgeecoals claimed Saturday's $500,000 Karrakatta Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) at Ascot.

Morton had won Perth's premier juvenile event with Super Smink (Super One) in 2023 and Bustling (Frosted) in 2024 and he holds the stable's latest winner in high regard after a length victory over Beatty (Gingerbread Man) and Aurum Belle (Snitzel).

"It's been a big preparation and you wouldn't know he's so deep into the preparation," Waller added. "He's been coping so well and running with so much merit and he deserved that win today."

The Michael O'Keefe-bred bay colt - who became Snitzel's 28th elite-level winner on Saturday - was offered by Yarraman Park at the 2025 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale and was knocked down for $460,000 to James Harron Bloodstock Colt Partnership and Tony Fung Colts.

Fireball's dam Advance Party is an unraced half-sister to I Have No Fear (Rock Of Gibraltar) who won a GCTC Ken Russell Memorial Classic (Listed, 1200m). She has been catalogued as Lot 28 for the Inglis Chairman's Sale on May 7 in foal to Snitzel son and Newgate sire In The Congo.

Winning jockey Tim Clark was confident going into the Champagne Stakes and settled Fireball back in the field with cover before allowing him to let down with a perfectly-timed powerful finish.

"He got a great run today although I didn't want to get there too soon, but the way the race unfolded I had to present him when I did in the straight," Clark said. "The challengers came early but he's so tough and fought back. He's been running in all the big races and it's great to get a result for James and Chris."

Snitzel Dancer booked her spot for the Brisbane Winter Carnival when she overwhelmed even-money favourite Plaintiff (Zoustar) in the James H B Carr Stakes. The filly was stepping up in grade off a Hawkesbury win last month and was allowed to jump at $21 under Kerrin McEvoy.

She finished powerfully to win by 0.8 lengths over a game Plaintiff, who endured a wide run albeit with cover and did well to finish a close second, while Karinska (Spirit Of Boom) was held up for a run in the straight before charging through to finish a half-length away third.

Continued from page 2 "She [Snitzel Dancer] beat older horses with 59 kilos last time and we decided to back off and aim at this race as part of a plan for Queensland," Ryan revealed post-race. "I've always believed she will get out to 2000 metres. We won't stretch her too far but it's good to see her live up to what she's shown all the way along."

Next month's Queensland Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) at Eagle Farm or the Gold Coast Bracelet (Listed, 1800m) are options for Snitzel Dancer and either race could lead to a Classic grand final in the Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) in June.

"The further we went, the better she felt," McEvoy said. "She has a nice attitude and will stay further. She will keep developing and it was nice to see her step up from a Class 1 today."

The 171st individual stakes winner for her sire, Snitzel Dancer (3 f ex Novel Dancer by Written Tycoon) was bred and sold by Sledmere Stud for $425,000 at the 2024 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. She's a half-sister to Pancho (Dissident) - who won five races up to 2040 metres including stakes victories the Kilmore Cup (Listed, 1600m) and TCL TV Cup (Listed, 1800m) at Flemington.

Matias is another Snitzel heading to the Sunshine State after rewarding some solid support as a $2.50 favourite in the Frank Packer Plate over 2000 metres.

He won the Group 3 contest running away for the Ryan-Alexiou team and owners Ron Wanless and Tony Fung Investments and is now bound for a Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) tilt.

"This was the deciding factor as to whether he would move forward to the Queensland Derby," Ryan said.

"The Derby has always been the aim since he travelled to the Gold Coast in December to win the Grand Prix [Gr 3, 1800m]. He's a Snitzel and his first three dams either won or ran a place in an Oaks."

Matias (3 g ex Never Listen by Trusting) was bred by Turangga Farm owner Stuart Ramsay and sold for $450,000 through the Kenmore Lodge consignment to the 2024 Gold Coast Magic Millions Yearling Sale.

His dam Never Listen was runner-up in the 2019 VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) and she is half-sister to Rose Of Peace (Hussonet) who won the ATC Wenona Girl Handicap (Listed, 1300m). Second-dam Rose O War (Danehill) won a Diamond Jubilee Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) at Moonee Valley.

"He's been a horse that's been building towards this for 12 months and I think we just saw the finished product," jockey Nash Rawiller said. "That's what we thought he would be from day dot and, for me personally, it's pretty rewarding."

Snitzel died last June and his penultimate crop of 33 yearlings that found new homes at last month's Inglis Easter Sale averaged $606,000 at Riverside Stables. The top-priced $2 million colt from Ms Bad Behavior (Can) sold to a partnership of the James Harron Bloodstock Colt Partnership, Tony Fung Colts and Tom Magnier.

A win for the ages by Beiwacht

Godolphin colt Beiwacht (Bivouac) cemented his stud future at Darley with a front-running victory against older horses in the All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick on Saturday, completing a Group 1 double for trainer Chris Waller in the process.

The son of Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) had already won at the elite level against his own age group in the Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) last September and following Saturday's win, Waller was quick to pick out a target like the $20 million The Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) next season.

The champion trainer was plotting long-term in what could be a vain attempt to keep the colt in training instead of being whisked off to stud in the spring.

"You will have to ask Godolphin about his immediate future," he said. "Beiwacht is a very special horse. He's won the Golden Rose breaking the track record and he's just shown what a talent he is for Sheikh Mohammed.

"It's a very special feeling getting these good horses and I respect they've got big values as well. He's got a great attitude and I've got a great team behind me to help get colts like this to the races in the shape we do."

Nash Rawiller said Beiwacht travelled beautifully before kicking to defeat stablemate Lazzura (Snitzel) a length, with Jimmysstar (Per Incanto) producing another admirable effort the same margin further back in third.

"It's a great feeling when you're on a really good horse and know you're home," Rawiller said. "I just love the way he lengthened stride again when I asked.

"He's just a really highly talented sprinter-miler but at this stage I wouldn't be rushing to get over longer distances. There's plenty of 1400 and 1200-metre races for him for the time being."

Beiwacht is a first-crop son of Godolphin homebred Bivouac, who was co-Champion 3YO Male Sprinter in Australia in 2019-20. His dam Metastasio (Street Cry) won a MRC Chairman's Stakes (Listed, 1200m) and she has also foaled Gravina (Sebring) to win a MRC Village Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Caulfield.

Too Darn Hot colt fires in Karrakatta as 'Jigsaw juggernaut' rolls on

Trainer Dan Morton struck for the third time in four years when Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) colt Afireofgidgeecoals claimed Saturday's $500,000 Karrakatta Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) at Ascot.

Morton had won Perth's premier juvenile event with Super Smink (Super One) in 2023 and Bustling (Frosted) in 2024 and he holds the stable's latest winner in high regard after a length victory over Beatty (Gingerbread Man) and Aurum Belle (Snitzel).

Afireofgidgeecoals (2 c ex Caiguna by Dubai Destination) had won an Ascot maiden in March and was placed in the Perth Stakes (Listed, 1100m) last start behind Beatty and He's A Machino (Maschino).

"That was awesome and it was a top ride by Lucy [Fiore]," Morton said.

Jigsaw

WESTERN RACEPIX

"I was confident he was tracking in the right direction so it was disappointing to see him lose last time when he missed the kick. He's a beautiful horse and I've had a big opinion of him since day one."

The 34th individual stakes winner and 16th in Australia for Darley shuttler Too Darn Hot, Afireofgidgeecoals was bred by Great Southern-based Gray Williamson and is from a long-standing WA family that decamped to the Hunter Valley for a decade before returning home in 2022.

Williamson sold the colt under the Mungrup banner for $180,000 at the 2025 Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale to Queensland-based owner Shane Stafford, who also races Sir Ernest Lee-Steere Classic (Listed, 1400m) winner Cashel Palace (Street Boss).

Afireofgidgeecoals is the ninth individual winner from nine foals out of Caiguna, who was bred and raced by Ascot couple John and Karen McGrath to win a Natasha Stakes (Listed, 2200m) in 2012. Second-dam Bremer Bay (Scenic) was a successful sprinter-miler with Fred Kersley and third-dam All Washed Up (Marooned) won the WA St Leger (Listed, 2600m) in 1996.

The McGraths sold Caiguna to NSW in 2012 where she foaled winners by Sebring (More Than Ready), I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) and Sepoy (Elusive Quality) for Edinburgh Park owner Ian Smith. The best of the four Sebrings was Serena Bay, who won a Golden Gift 2YO Plate (1100m) and was placed in a Percy Sykes Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m).

Having served 110 mares at Darley Kelvinside last spring at a fee of $275,000 (inc GST), Too Darn Hot is currently standing at Dalham Hall Stud for £100,000 (approx. AU$188,480).

Saturday's record-breaking meeting at Ascot reached its crescendo as Jigsaw (Manhattan Rain) continued his remarkable resurgence with a dominant all-the-way victory in the $5 million Quokka (1200m).

The 'Jigsaw Juggernaut' was profiled in Saturday's ANZ News and it came as no surprise when he led from barrier to box in the lucrative feature for Cranbourne owner-trainer Cindy Alderson. It was the gelding's seventh win in a row in a sequence which includes Group 1 triumphs on either side of the Tasman.

He held off a late challenge from Rey Magnerio (Magnus) to score by 0.4 lengths under regular pilot Logan Bates. Alderson admitted she was overwhelmed by the performance, particularly given her gelding's long campaign.

"I'm lost for words – seven in a row, seven years old, it's incredible," she said.

"I turned down an offer to Hong Kong for him so I just thought I would hedge my bets. I told Marcus [Price] he was a very nice horse and it's turned out we've had the ride of a lifetime.

"How could it get any better than this? I picked a spot near the winning post and I just stayed in the zone until the 100 metres when I started cheering, which is not normal for me."

Bates praised both the Jigsaw's determination and Alderson's handling: "He was all out at the 100 metres but just kept surging – what a horse."

Jigsaw's winning run dates back to October at Cranbourne and includes victories in the McEwen Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) and William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), underlining a purple patch that has taken the gelding across multiple states and now to Perth's richest sprint.

He is a rising eight-year-old son of Manhattan Rain (Encosta De Lago) – who will close the gap on Playing God (Blackfriars) at the top of the WA Sires' premierships with the $2 million first-place prize money allocation.

Manhattan Rain stood at Geisel Park, however, he's looking for a new home for the 2026 serving season after owner Eddie Rigg announced last week the historic Myalup property will be sold.

Morning Briefing

Australia

28 for Snitzel

Late Arrowfield stalwart Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) recorded his 28th individual Group 1 winner when Fireball (2 c ex Advance Party, by Charge Forward) claimed Saturday's Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick. Bred by Mr MW O'Keeffe, Fireball was a $460,000 purchase for the James Harron Bloodstock Colt Partnership and Tony Fung Colts out of Yarraman Park's 2025 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale draft. The colt is the second foal and first to race out of winning Charge Forward (Red Ransom) mare Advance Party, herself out of an unraced half-sister to stakes winner I Have No Fear (Rock Of Gibraltar) whose Dundee (High Chaparral) filly sold for $150,000 to O'Brien Thoroughbreds at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale.

171 for Snitzel

Snitzel's banner day also saw him record a 171st individual stakes winner as the Gerald Ryan and Sterling Alexiou-trained Snitzel Dancer (3 f ex Novel Dancer, by Written Tycoon) landed the James H B Carr Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Randwick. Bred by Sledmere Stud, Snitzel Dancer was a $425,000 buy for her trainers at the 2024 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale. The filly is the second stakes winner out of Group 3-placed Written Tycoon (Iglesia) mare Novel Dancer, following the exploits of Listed-scoring half-brother Pancho (Dissident). In addition to the victories of Snitzel Dancer and Fireball, four-time Australian Champion Sire Snitzel registered three other winners on the day, with Matias completing a treble for the son of Redoute's Choice (Danehill) at Randwick while juvenile filly Snitzalatte and older gelding Galano scored at Ascot and the Gold Coast respectively.

Remarkable Mazu lands third straight Hall Mark Stakes

Veteran sprinter Mazu (7g Maurice - Chatelaine by Flying Spur) continued his remarkable affinity with the Hall Mark Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Randwick on Saturday, leading throughout to score a third consecutive win in the Group 3 feature. The Joe Pride-trained seven-year-old has managed just three wins in the past three years - all in the 1200-metre contest - and proved his versatility recording a sharp 1:08.19 on a firmer surface having previously excelled on heavier going. Ridden by Rachel King, Mazu showed his trademark tenacity to fend off stablemate King's Secret (Shalaa) by 0.2 lengths, with favourite Private Eye (Al Maher) another 0.3 lengths back in third - handing Pride a winning trifecta. Fellow stablemate Kerguelen (Lonhro) also performed creditably, finishing fifth and less than two lengths from the winner. "To train the trifecta in any race, particularly a Group 3, is very satisfying," Pride said. "But Mazu - what a fantastic old warrior he is. To win three of these in a row and do it on a dry track today is special. He's grumpy - not the kind of guy you want to hang out with on a long-term sort of basis. It has to be all on his terms and we let him do that. He does everything as he wants. He's enjoying his racing and hopefully there's another season or two left in him." The victory took Mazu's record to ten wins from 46 starts and lifted his earnings beyond $10.8 million for Triple Crown Syndications.

New Zealand Derby winner resumes with JRA Plate win

Former New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Asterix (7 g Tavistock - Mourasana, by Shirocco) made a winning return at Randwick on Saturday, landing the JRA Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) in impressive fashion for Chris Waller and Jason Collett. The seven-year-old son of Tavistock (Montjeu), resuming off a solid trial campaign, was well supported late from $31 into $15 and justified the confidence with a sharp turn of foot. Settled off a moderate tempo, Asterix tracked runner-up You Wahng (So You Think) before quickening when clear to score by a decisive 0.6 lengths, with stablemate Travolta (Lope De Vega) finishing third just 0.1 lengths further back. "His trials were really good coming into it and he had some freshness," Collett said. "We only had to get out late and sprint and he did that." Waller indicated a Queensland campaign now looms, with the Gosford Gold Cup (Listed, 2100m) on May 9 the likely next step. "It's taken a while to find his legs in Australia, but he's racing honestly now," the winning trainer said.

34 for Too Darn Hot

Darley shuttler Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) welcomed his 34th individual stakes winner and 16th in Australia when juvenile colt Afireofgidgeecoals (2 c ex Caiguna by Dubai Destination) took out the Karrakatta Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) at Ascot on Saturday. Bred by Mr Gray Williamson, Afireofgidgeecoals was a $180,000 purchase for owner Shane Stafford at the 2025 Magic Millions Perth Yearling Sale. Saturday's win saw him become a deserved first stakes winner for Dubai Destination (Bremer Bay) mare Caiguna, who has produced nine winners from nine foals including the Group 2-placed Serena Bay (Sebring). From just 155 Australian runners, Too Darn Hot has produced 101 winners, with his 16 stakes winners producing a strong 10.3 per cent stakes winners-to-runners strike rate. This season his other winners include Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) winner Tropicus, Maribyrnong Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) winner Tornado Valley and Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) winner Shiki. Having served 110 mares at Darley Kelvinside last spring at a fee of $275,000 (inc GST), the son of Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) is currently standing at Dalham Hall Stud for £100,000 (approx. AU$188,480) and is a likely return shuttler to Australia for the 2026 season with his fee yet to be announced.

Kings Valley

King's Valley earns Caulfield Cup exemption

The Ciaron Maher-trained King's Valley secured a coveted Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) ballot exemption courtesy of his Mornington Cup victory on Saturday.

A winner of the Bairnsdale Cup (1600m) two starts back, the gelding settled midfield under Lachlan Neindorf before improving into the race at the right time and engaging in a tight duel with Pounding, ultimately getting his head down on the line to score a first black type success.

Jack Turnbull, national assistant trainer for the Maher stable, said Saturday's victory may just be the making of King's Valley.

"He didn't go about it as you would like," Turnbull said. "He was on and off the bridle, but he had an economical run and got the right splits when he needed to.

"We've been trying to get to 2400 metres, but he's been a fierce horse to train and race, so we worked the horse down into the race today and it's worked out really well. Credit to the horse as I think he will go to the next level over this trip because he's not slow with good change up speed."

With the 'Golden Ticket' secured for the Caulfield Cup, Turnbull indicated connections would now map out the gelding's path towards the spring feature.

"We always wanted to get to this stage before having to think about that," he said. "We are in a really good position now."

The victory confirmed King's Valley's progression as he relished the rise in trip, and his pedigree – being out of a half-sister to Grade 1 winner Hillstar and Prince Of Wales's Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) hero Crystal Ocean – suggests further upside as he continues to develop as a staying prospect.

First for Hanseatic

Rohesia (3 f ex Vinni Rose, by I Am Invincible) provided her second-season Rosemont Stud sire Hanseatic (Street Boss) with a deserved first stakes winner when she landed Saturday's H C Nitschke Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Morphettville. The Ben, Will and JD Hayes-trained filly has shown class and speed since her debut stakes placing in the Inglis Banner (RL, 1000m) as a two-year-old and was also stakes-placed in the Crockett Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at The Valley last spring. Saturday was her second consecutive win following a win over 1400 metres at Ballarat on April 3. The three-year-old defeated More Than Hope (I Am Immortal) by 1.5 lengths, with Tiptop Tori (Grunt) another half-length back in third. The win marked a good day for Hanseatic, whose two-year-old gelding The Speed Machine improved to two from two with a dominant display in the Mornington Sires (1400m), which was later followed by the well-bred three-year-old filly Paris Collection making easy work of her maiden at Kilmore.. Bred by Fernrigg Farm, Rohesia is the first foal out of I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) mare Vinnie Rose, a winning half-sister to Listed scorer Centrefire (Shooting To Win) from the immediate family of Group 1 winner Mirjulisa Lass (Danasinga). Hanseatic stood for $16,500 (inc GST) last spring.

23 for Territories

A breakthrough staying performance from King's Valley (5 g ex Crystal Etoile, by Dansili) delivered his sire a 23rd stakes winner with victory in Saturday's Mornington Cup (Listed, 2400m). The five-year-old fought gamely to score by a head over Pounding (Exceed And Excel), with Suntora (Toronado) a further 1.3 lengths away in third, relishing the step up to 2400 metres. Bred by Southcourt Stud, King's Valley was purchased for 140,000gns by trainer Ciaran Maher at the 2023 Tattersalls Autumn HIT Sale. He is out of Dansili (Danehill) mare Crystal Etoile, herself a half-sister to elite-level winners Crystal Ocean (Sea The Stars) and Hillstar (Danehill Dancer). Former Darley Kelvinside shuttler Territories (Invincible Spirit) was sold to Poonawalla Stud Farms in India in 2024.

Six for Cosmic Force

Patience has paid off for Mornington trainer Pat Carey, who finally secured a long-awaited win in the Hareeba Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at his home track with Cosmic Force (Deep Field) gelding Recon (4 g ex Orvassa, by Equiano). Aristopolos

Aristopolos the Alfa male of Tasmania

Unbeaten Tasmanian colt Aristopolos (St Mark's Basilica) pulled up full of himself following an eight-length victory in the Alfa Bowl (1220m) at Launceston on Friday, when he extended his perfect record to six.

"We brought him home at 9.30pm and he was bucking and kicking in his own paddock this morning," trainer John Blacker reported on Saturday morning. "We call him 'The Colt' and he will have a break now before coming back for a winter campaign."

With Erika Bynre Burke letting him cruise through the line, Aristopolos made it six in a row enhanced by Listed victories in the Elwick Stakes (Listed, 1100m) and Gold Sovereign Stakes (Listed, 1200m).

"I bought him for $60,000 from Armidale Stud at the Magic Millions and the offers have been coming in thick and fast," Blacker said. "My wife Penny also has a share in the syndicate and we turned the phone off. There were that many calls.

Aristopolo will come back for the Alexander Plate (1200m) and Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Morphettville in July.

"He's lengths above any other two-year-old we've seen here this season and will get 1400 metres and even a mile. His manners are improving and he's not shying at the billboards any more. It's nice to win an Alfa Bowl - he was really good and this horse isn't far behind."

Blacker operates stables at Longford and Brighton and isn't sure whether he's won eight or nine Tassie trainers' premierships, nevertheless, he knows Melbourne is an obvious target in the spring. He also knows the drill crossing Bass Strait with winners like Nuclear Freeze (Geiger Counter) in a Tristarc Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Caulfield.

Aristopolos is from the first southern crop by Coolmore Stud shuttler St Mark's Basilica (Siyouni) while his dam Flying Krupt (Krupt) was a four-time Morphettville winner. She is a descendant of Waikato Stud mare La Cent (Centaine) - as are a dozen black-type winners headed by Group 1 winners Glamour Puss (Tale Of The Cat) and Vision And Power (Carnegie).

Of Thunder) by 1.5 lengths, with Pop Award (Shamus Award) a further half-length away in third. The win built on an already strong record, with the gelding now boasting six wins from 11 starts, and continued a clear upward trajectory since joining the Carey and Harris Walker stable. "This race has been a bit of a thorn in my side," Carey said. "We've had plenty of goes, so it's nice to win today. Steve Watkins, who owns him and bred him, always felt he was one of his better horses he has had and he's had a number of good horses including Abaridy, who won a Caulfield Guineas." The progressive sprinter became the sixth individual stakes winner for Newgate Farm sire Cosmic Force, who recorded four winners on the day. The stallion had a Mornington double completed by Wonder Boy, who won well upon his step up to 1600 metres for Jerome Hunter. The four-timer was rounded out by Cosmo Centaurus, who stormed to victory at Doomben over 1200 metres for Robert Heathcote, and the Adam Campton-trained Miss McLaren who kept her unbeaten record intact with a facile 1050-metre victory at the Gold Coast. Meanwhile juvenile daughter Jedi Dream, a winner at Ascot on debut, flew home from last to finish a close up fourth in the Karrakatta Plate (Gr 2, 1200m).

Spicy Martini lands fourth stakes win

Another smart performance for Justify (Scat Daddy) mare Spicy Martini (4 m ex Extra Olives (Redoute's Choice) saw her land Saturday's Ascot Handicap (Listed, 1000m) at Eagle Farm. The Toby Edmonds-trained four-year-old settled at the rear after a slow start before producing a sharp turn of foot to charge home along the inside and defeat Group 1 winner Uncommon James (Cable Bay) by 0.5 lengths. Now a four-time stakes winner, she has won five of her ten starts and banked more than $620,000 in prize money, continuing to deliver on her promise as a high-quality sprinting mare. Her rise has been remarkable, given she was purchased by her trainer for just $8,000 via Inglis Digital in 2023. Bred by Coolmore, Spicy Martini is out of the Redoute's Choice mare Extra Olives and hails from the family of champion filly Alinghi (Encosta De Lago), one of the most influential female lines in the Australasian studbook. She is set to go through the Inglis Chairman's Sale as Lot 9, further enhancing the catalogue ahead of the sale on May 7.

Five for Brave Smash

Brave Smash

YARRAMAN PARK

A fifth stakes winner for Brave Smash (Tosen Phantom) came at Eagle Farm on Saturday when Brave Monarch (3 g ex Puppet Queen by Kingmambo) took out the Daybreak Lover Stakes (Listed, 1400m) to continue his rise through the grades. The Chris and Corey Munce-trained gelding made it four wins from six starts with a dominant display under Martin Harley, travelling on-speed before kicking clear to defeat Call Da Vinci (Under The Louvre) by 2.2 lengths, with Spanish Treasure (Pierata) a further 4.3 lengths back in third. The gelding has proved to be a value buy for his connections, purchased for just $20,000 from the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, and he has now banked close to $300,000 in prize money. Bred and sold by Yulong, he is out of the Kingmambo (Mr Prospector) mare Puppet Queen and is a half-sibling to winner Invader Zim (Invader), with his pedigree tracing back to Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Danelagh (Danehill). Brave Smash will commence his fourth season at Yarraman Park since relocating in 2023 and will stand for $22,000 (inc GST) for the 2026 season.

Four for Home Affairs

Coolmore first season-sire Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) has quickly stamped himself as a source of early speed and class, and another promising talent for the young stallion emerged at Ellerslie on Saturday as Miss Janet (2 f ex Janast, by Redoute's Choice) put away her rivals in the Star Way Stakes (Listed, 1200m). The Stephen Marsh-trained two-year-old jumped sharply to take up the running, controlling the race throughout for her syndicate owners before drawing clear to score in dominant fashion. Miss Janet is the fourth foal from the unraced Janast (Redoute's Choice), a daughter of Adelaide Guineas (Listed, 1600m) winner Booklet (Tale Of The Cat). Bred by Nick Vass and raised at Newgate Farm, she was purchased for $170,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale last January. With a decisive first stakes success now on the board, she shapes as another exciting prospect for connections, with further black-type targets likely to come following a break ahead of her three-year-old season.

159 for Savabeel

Savabeel (Zabeel) continues to be the gift that keeps giving, with another top-class performer emerging at Ellerslie on Saturday as Solid Gold (3 f ex Gram, by O'Reilly) struck Group 3 success in the Trelawney Stud Championship Stakes (2100m). The Roger James and Robert Wellwood-trained filly stepped up from a maiden victory at the track last start and justified strong support with a tough, on-pace performance. Settled in midfield under George Rooke, Solid Gold travelled comfortably before improving into the race approaching the home turn. She briefly lost the lead after being challenged in the straight by La Diem (Wootton Bassett) but responded gamely over the final 200 metres to reclaim the advantage and score narrowly. "She hasn't had a lot of luck with gates so it was nice to finally see her draw well [barrier three] and especially for her first time over ground," Wellwood said. "It all went her way although I'm picking George will come back and say she wasn't a big fan of the track. She can be a bit more electric when the ground is firmer but it is great to get the win and some black type. She is a good horse, simple as that and she has put a couple together so we will now have a chat with Mark and Pip [Chittick] and make a bit of a plan." Bred and raced by Waikato Stud, Solid Gold is out of the O'Reilly (Last Tycoon) mare Gram and is a younger sister to Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Major Beel, underlining her staying credentials. Savabeel will stand at Waikato privately in the upcoming season.

Lupo Solitario takes Easter Handicap

After a winless Hong Kong stint that saw him finish well down the track, Lupo Solitario (5 g Satono Aladdin - She's Aloof, by Pentire) has rediscovered his best since returning to New Zealand, winning two on the bounce before landing Group 3 success in the Easter Handicap (1600m) at Ellerslie on Saturday. The Danica Guy-trained five-year-old was given a positive ride by Wiremu Pinn, settling just off the speed before moving into contention approaching the home turn and taking control inside the final 250 metres. He was strongly challenged late by Top Shelf (Savabeel) but showed plenty of determination to hold on in a tight finish and secure his fifth career victory. "That was wonderful as I really didn't think he could do it today as I thought the track might be too wet for him," Guy said. "I said to Bill [Pinn] we have to go to Plan B and go forward and he is such an honest, tough horse. I'm so grateful to get him back here as we all love him. He is just wonderful to have in the stable and I have to thank a lot of people for getting him back to where he is. I think that might be it for him this season and we can bring him back for Hawke's Bay in the Spring." Pinn was equally complimentary, noting there is still upside to come. "He was really good and quite a gentleman... he is still very green but I felt there was plenty left if I needed it," he said. Bred by Rich Hill Stud, Lupo Solitario is by Satono Aladdin (Deep Impact) out of the Pentire (Be My Guest) mare She's Aloof and looks capable of continuing his rise through the grades.

Charmrose controls Ellerslie dash

Charmrose (Charm Spirit) made every post a winning one at Ellerslie on Saturday, dictating from the front to claim the Elsdon Park Handicap (1200m) in open company. The Mark Walker and Sam Bergerson-trained five-year-old was quickly into stride under Craig Grylls and rolled to the lead, where she travelled strongly throughout before kicking clear turning for home. Although she began to tire over the closing stages, she had built a sufficient margin to hold off the late surge of Grande Gallo (Belardo), with Frostfair (Written Tycoon) running on well out wide into third. "It was a good, positive ride by Grylls as he knows her well and she is not the easiest," Bergerson said. "Dave and Nicky [Hurst], the owners, have been really patient with her as she has a few tricks and eventful moments, but she's a really talented mare. She has a good front running style. We have tried to ride her back but she doesn't really like that and is happy bowling along out in front under her own steam. We would love to try and get some black type with her but whether that is this season or next we're not really sure, but we think she has more room to improve."

Rochello leading local charge for McKay

In-form local mare Rochello (Highly Recommended) will spearhead trainer Sally McKay's team at Ascot Park on Sunday, arriving off a strong last-start win in the Thornbury Handicap (1400m) at Riverton on April 6. The six-year-old has hit a purple patch this preparation, winning two of her past three starts and finishing narrowly second in the other. McKay is delighted with how the mare is tracking heading into Sunday's meeting. "The horse is really well and she is working a treat," McKay said. "She is in the best form she has been in for a long time. She is always thereabouts but she has always had a trait to over-race a bit, but she is putting it together. Brett [Murray, jockey] has worked her out and he is riding her really well." A drop back to 1200 metres and a forecast Heavy track present key queries, although her recent form suggests she is versatile enough to handle both. McKay will also be well represented across the card, with Industrialist (Sweet Orange) set to benefit from a light weight, while Highland Fling (Highly Recommended) looks to build on his recent win. Neednoman (Reliable Man) and Eivan (Wyndspelle) round out a busy team, with wet conditions expected to play a significant role throughout the meeting.

HK: Masquerade Ball leads Japanese assault on QEII Cup

Japanese Group 1 winner Masquerade Ball (Duramente) will spearhead a three-pronged raiding party for the QEII Cup (2000m) at Sha Tin on April 26. Trained by Takahisa Tezuka, the four-year-old has already mixed it with the best of his generation, finishing second in the Japanese Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) and going down narrowly to Calandagan (Gleneagles) in the Japan Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) after landing the Tenno Sho (Autumn) (Gr 1, 2000m). His autumn campaign cemented his status among Japan's leading 2000 to 2400-metre performers. Originally bound for Dubai, Masquerade Ball instead heads to Hong Kong following a minor setback, joining compatriots

June Take (Kizuna) and Giovanni (Epiphaneia) on FWD Champions Day. Tezuka reported the colt had progressed well through his preparation, highlighted by a sharp final piece of work prior to departure. "He has improved with each workout and is now in good condition," Tezuka said. "This has been his most solid preparation since returning, and he is stronger and more mature than last year." Masquerade Ball faces a stern test against local champion Romantic Warrior (Acclamation), who has dominated the division on home soil. Japanese runners have previously found the gelding difficult to beat at Sha Tin, a challenge not lost on connections. "Romantic Warrior is a top-class horse and we are the challengers," Tezuka added.

30 for Havana Grey

Sukanya (3f ex Shiba, by Rail Link) became the 30th individual stakes winner and Group winner number 15 for her sire Havana Grey (Havana Gold) when producing a sharp turn of foot to land the Fred Darling Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Newbury on Saturday. Settled towards the rear, the Jack Channon-trained filly made eye-catching headway over the final furlong, switching off heels before quickening to lead inside the last 110 yards and holding on well to defeat Touleen (Lope De Vega) by three quarters of a length, with Domina Ignis (Pinatubo) a further length and a quarter away in third. The victory marked her first success at stakes level and continued her upward trajectory from a consistent two-year-old campaign, with the filly now shaping as a genuine Classic contender as connections look towards mile targets in the coming weeks. Bred by Corps Commerce Ltd, Sukanya was a £55,000 purchase for Opulence Thoroughbreds and Jack Channon at the 2024 Goffs UK Premier Yearling Sale. She is a sister to two winners and half-sister to three more out of winning Rail Link (Dansili) mare Shiba. Havana Grey is standing at Whitsbury Manor Stud for a private fee.

US: Flightline colt shatters OBS sale record at US$10.5 million

A son of first-crop sire Flightline (Tapit) produced one of the most remarkable results in recent breeze-up history when selling for US$10.5 million (approx. A$14.6 million) at the Ocala Breeders' Sales Spring 2-Year-Olds in Training Sale, setting a new benchmark for the auction.

Catalogued as Hip 1056 and consigned by Hartley/DeRenzo, the colt had generated strong interest throughout the week after recording a slick :09 3/5 for a furlong (approx. 200 metres) in his breeze. That momentum carried straight into the ring, where bidding opened at US$1 million and quickly escalated into a prolonged contest, eventually falling to Donato Lanni on behalf of Amr Zedan's Zedan Thoroughbreds at the record-setting figure. The colt is set to go to Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert.

"Bob loved him. The first time he saw him, he loved him," Lanni said. "And obviously, Amr [Zedan] is tough to outbid. He's an emotional guy. He's great for the sport. He loves the racing. His enthusiasm is unbelievable.

"When he worked, everybody got on that rail and watched. He delivered. He did everything you asked him and plus. Bob said the only other horse that he reminded him of was Unbridled's Song.

"Flightline is one of the greatest racehorses of all time. And he's out of an Into Mischief mare [Lucrezia]. This horse looks fast, and he looks like he'll carry his endurance like Flightline."

The result confirmed the colt as the second-most expensive two-year-old ever sold in North America, trailing only the US$16 million The Green Monkey (Forestry) brought in 2006, underlining the growing commercial influence of his unbeaten sire.

Flightline ex Lucrezia colt

It was a seismic pinhooking result, the colt having been purchased by Tom Durant's Classic Equine as a weanling for $575,000.

The headline result capped a strong week of trade overall. Across the four-day sale, 632 juveniles grossed US$113,393,000 (approx. A$158 million), with the average rising to US$179,419 (approx. A$250,000) and the median to US$80,000 (approx. A$111,500). The aggregate comfortably surpassed the previous record of US$92,129,000 set in 2022, while the 2026 average climbed 28.8 per cent year-on-year and the median improved by 23.1 per cent.

Market depth was also evident beneath the top end. Seven horses reached seven-figure territory - down slightly from nine in 2025 - but 43 lots sold for US$500,000 (approx. A$697,000) or more, a notable rise from 32 the previous year. From a catalogue of 1,224 juveniles, 775 were offered, with 143 failing to meet their reserve for a buy-back rate of 18.5 per cent, up from 16.7 per cent last year.

For consignors Hartley/DeRenzo, the sale-topper added another major achievement to their record at OBS, having now produced both the highest-priced colt and filly at the sale. The colt had been one of the most talked-about individuals all week, drawing strong inspection traffic and living up to that billing in the ring.

30 for Dandy Man

Alparslan (Dandy Man) put a dent in the armour of his higher profile rivals when taking out Saturday's Greenham Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Newbury. The Karl Burke-trained three-year-old made all under Clifford Lee, finding strongly along the rail to defeat Zavateri (Lope De Vega) by a length, with Albert Einstein (Wootton Bassett) a further three quarters of a length away in third. Alparslan - a 30th individual stakes winner for late Ballyhane Stud stalwart Dandy Man (Mozart) - improved his record to three wins from four starts, benefitting from a measured ride but also showing determination late, with his closing two-furlong sectional of 23.75s highlighting his ability to sustain his effort off a steady pace. The overall time compared favourably on the card, coming just 0.1 seconds slower than the Fred Darling Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) earlier in the day. The performance positioned Alparslan firmly in the Classic conversation, with markets reacting by trimming him into 20/1 for the 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) at Newmarket next month while his rivals also lost little in defeat, particularly Zavateri, who endured a troubled passage but finished off strongly.

175 for Frankel

Gilded Prize (3 f ex Grand Jete, by Dansili) confirmed herself a filly of much potential with a dominant victory in the Prix Cléopâtre (Gr 3, 2000m) at Saint-Cloud on Friday, extending her unbeaten record to three and providing Frankel (Galileo) with his 175th individual stakes winner. The Juddmonte homebred controlled proceedings from the front under Colin Keane, travelling strongly throughout before quickening clear in the straight to score by a decisive three and a half lengths, the manner of the win indicating her class as an exciting Classic prospect. Trainer Francis-Henri Graffard indicated a possible next step in the Prix Saint-Alary (Gr 2, 2100m), with connections to decide between the Prix de Diane (Gr 1, 2100m) and the Oaks (Gr 1, 1m 4f) at Epsom, her blend of size, stride and tactical speed suggesting she has the versatility to be effective at either trip. Bred and raced by Juddmonte, she is out of the Grade 3-winning and dual Group 1-placed Grand Jete (Dansili), while her second dam Modern Look (Zamindar) captured the Prix de Sandringham (Gr 2, 1m) and Prix Miesque (Gr 3, 7f). Frankel is standing at Banstead Manor Stud for a fee of £350,000 (approx A$659,680).
