COOLMORE STUD

Home Affairs home and hosed for Australian Freshman Title

By Karl Patterson

ANZAC Day hosts several 2yo black-type races around Australia and it gives Coolmore Stud stallion Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) a chance to go further ahead at the top of the Australian First-Season Sires' premiership.

Chris Waller entered Home Affairs filly Affari for races in Sydney and Brisbane this weekend and he decided to send her north for the Calaway Gal Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Eagle Farm where she will be ridden by Tommy Berry.

Affari (2 f ex Super Too, by Hinchinbrook) was placed at Canterbury on debut in February before winning a barrier trial at the same track a fortnight ago. She's rated highly by the stable and sits third in line of betting for the Calaway Gal, behind local fillies Olivoni (Zoustar) and Esperanza (Spirit Of Boom).

Affari was bred in Queensland by Glenlogan Park and sold for $370,000 at the 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale to Brett Howard (as agent) for Denise Martin's Star Thoroughbreds.

“We sent her dam Super Too to Home Affairs in his initial book and Coolmore must be over the moon with his first crop,” Morley said. “He’s the real deal and is doing a tremendous job with the Golden Slipper winner Guest House and other stakes winners in Australian and New Zealand.

“He has obvious stallion appeal as a son of I Am Invincible and was the best colt of his generation with Chris Waller winning the Coolmore Stud Stakes and Lightning Stakes at Flemington.”

Waller was more than pleased and relieved when Home Affairs made history as the first 3yo Lightning Stakes winner since Fastnet Rock in 2005. “It was a big gamble bringing him here today. He’s the new boy on the block and has beaten the best at weight-for-age so it’s pretty exciting.”

Glenlogan Park stayed with the sireline selling an I Am Invincible three-quarter brother to Affari at the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale earlier this month to Michael Freedman for $460,000.

Super Too was a speed machine winning a Moonee Valley Ladbrokes 55 Second Challenge (955m) while under the care of trainer Marc Connors and she was also Group 2 placed in the ATC Challenge Stakes (1000m) and MRC Caulfield Sprint (1000m).

Her older half-brother Super One (I Am Invincible) was crowned Singapore’s Champion two-year-old of 2015 before being repatriated to Australia, where he added the McKay Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) in Adelaide for Lee and Anthony Freedman.

Continued from page 2 of $3.96 million and he's also on top of Australian two-year-old table albeit by a slender margin over Snitzel ($3.74 million).

His sire I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) was Champion Australian first-season sire in 2013-14 ($1.16 million) and the most recent Coolmore resident to claim that title was Justify (Scat Daddy) in 2022-23 ($1.99m). Darley sire Too Darn Hot (Dubawi) set a new mark in that category for progeny earnings in 2023-24 ($4.16m).

Newgate sire Stay Inside (Extreme Choice) is second on the freshman sires' table courtesy of ATC Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) winner Incognito and his filly Nialah holds an entry to the ANZAC Day Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Flemington today.

Trainer Ciaron Maher sent her south in search of black-type following a debut third behind Tenenbaum (Snitzel) at Wyong last month. She's bred to go early, being a daughter of VRC Maribyrnong Trial Stakes (Listed, 1000m) winner Madeenaty (Exceed And Excel).

NZ-based Sword Of State (Snitzel) has made an immediate impact in Australia through his brilliant ATC Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Warwoven, and the Cambridge Stud resident can notch another first-crop winner closer to home with High Goal in the Beyond Water 2yo Plate (1200m) at Te Rapa.

Godolphin freshman Pinatubo (Shamardal) sits inside the top five on the first-season sires' table, with Tales Of Time, Zambales and Hardanger all Group-placed at Flemington and Randwick. His Perth-based filly Hillside Avenue continues to improve for trainer Simon

The Yarradale Stud homebred has been run down at both her starts this prep and will appreciate the drop back in distance from 1200 metres under leading hoop Clint Johnston-Porter

Hillside Avenue is the final foal from Melba Avenue (Street Sense) and her first was iron-horse Valour Road (Frosted). He won the 2018 Karrakatta Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) and the last of his half-dozen Group victories was the 2023 Lee-Steere Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m).

The Peters Investments 2yo Plate (1100m) has also been targeted by Mark The Sky (St Mark's Basilica) who is an unraced half-brother to MRC Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) winner Portland Sky (Deep Field). The Anita Vale Stud homebred has opened as a $3 favourite after an impressive barrier trial win at Belmont last week.

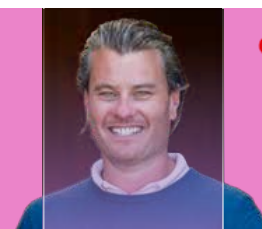

Mark the Sky is a son of St Mark's Basilica (Siyouni) who is a barn-mate of Home Affairs at Coolmore. His first-crop is headed by stakes-winning colt Aristopolos who stretched his unbeaten record to six for part-owner and trainer John Blacker in the Alfa Bowl (1200m) in Launceston last Friday.

Prague new for Oaklands Stud in 2026

The Darling Downs' historic Oaklands Stud is excited to announce former explosive juvenile and electrifying sprinter, Prague will stand at their farm from this spring.

The impeccably bred son of Redoute's Choice was a multiple Group winner at two - capturing both the Canonbury Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Randwick and the Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Rosehill.

At three he spent the season racing against elite company and his fourth in the Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) at Flemington, when less than a length and a half from the winner, was outstanding.

In that season he was also beaten a length or less in the All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), Danehill Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and Arrowfield 3YO Sprint (Gr 2, 1200m).

Across his short 12-start career Prague defeated no fewer than 12 individual Group 1 winners including King's Legacy (Redoute's Choice), Masked Crusader (Toronado), Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon), September Run (Exceed And Excel) and Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa).

As well as his exceptional race record, Prague is a well-bred and good looking son of Redoute's Choice - sire of Snitzel, Not a Single Doubt and The Autumn Sun. A half-brother to Group 1 winner Stratum Star (Stratum), Prague cost $1.6 million as a yearling at the Gold Coast.

Prague

OAKLANDS STUD

Prague has just two crops to the track with his current juvenile crop including two winners, headlined by Magic Night Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Pembrey, and two other stakes placegetters. One of which contests this Saturday's Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Morphettville.

"We are very excited to have Prague in Queensland from this spring," Oaklands Stud's Neville Stewart said. "During his career he raced against the best with great distinction."

"His sectionals in a number of big races were often the best in the race. He had a great turn of foot and that was a great appeal for us"

"His second crop, who are just two, are really performing with distinction around the country. He has three black-type performers already and a number of other city horses ready to take the next step."

"We think the future for Prague is bright with the likes of Pembrey, Czech Out and Bohemian Rhapsody to fly his flag over the coming seasons," Stewart added.

The deal to secure Prague was brokered by Magic Millions Sales Director David Chester.

Prague will stand his first Queensland season this spring at a fee of $8,800 (inc GST).

Zoustar share headlines Inglis Digital April (Late) catalogue

WIDDEN

A share in champion sire Zoustar (Northern Meteor) headlines a strong Inglis Digital April (Late) Online Sale, which features 478 lots and includes the inaugural Australian Broodmare Sale Session. The sale will be conducted across two days, with the general catalogue closing from 10am on April 29 and the broodmare session, comprising 200 mares and 68 race fillies - closing from 10am on April 30. The broader catalogue also includes a breeding right in Anamoe, alongside yearlings, weanlings, racehorses and shares, highlighting the depth of offering in the online format. The Australian Broodmare Sale Session has attracted strong support from leading farms including Coolmore, Tyreel, Willow Park and Aristia Park, with a mix of stakes performers, producers and mares in foal to commercial sires such as Home Affairs (I Am Invincible), Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) and Shinzo (Snitzel). Among the highlights are well-related mares including Atlantic Emerald (Galileo), a half-sister to Russian Emperor, offered in foal to Shinzo, and Meseika (Medaglia D'Oro), the dam of Group 3 winner Osmose, in foal to Home Affairs. Inglis said the quality of stock on offer reflects continued confidence in the digital sales platform, with interest expected both domestically and internationally. The sale also features racehorse shares and emerging performers, with the two-day format designed to maximise engagement across all sectors of the market.

Sergeant Major showing promise ahead of return

Sergeant Major (Proisir) is shaping as a horse to follow this preparation, with the Ciaron Maher stable confident the four-year-old is yet to reach his full potential. A winner of the South Pacific Classic (Listed, 1400m) last autumn, Sergeant Major has mixed his form since, but assistant trainer Johann Gerard-Dubord believes a recent Queensland trip has helped turn the gelding around. "If he finally puts it all together, he's got a lot of ability. We haven't seen the best of him yet," Gerard-Dubord said. The gelding was below expectations during four runs last spring, prompting connections to give him an extended break after a midfield finish at Eagle Farm in November. "In his work, he looks like he could be anything, but he has been a bit disappointing at the races, even though he is a Listed winner," he said. "Last prep, we felt he wasn't going as well as he could and he's a gelding, so he is always going to keep improving. We stopped, reset and came back at this time of year. "The trip to Queensland seems to have done the job." Gerard-Dubord said Sergeant Major had improved both physically and mentally and could develop into a contender for races like the Big Dance (1600m) later in his career.

Stokes sticks to proven formula with Stretan Angel

Phillip Stokes is chasing a third success in the Robert Sangster Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Morphettville and is again relying on a familiar preparation with Stretan Angel (Harry Angel). Despite having a Morphettville base, Stokes has returned the mare to his Pakenham stable following her first-up run, replicating the approach that proved successful with Climbing Star (Zoustar) in last year's edition. Stretan Angel resumed with a third placing in the R N Irwin Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Morphettville earlier this month, the same lead-up race Climbing Star contested before going on to win the Sangster. "I thought her first-up run was OK, and we've put the blinkers back on her, but it's a very tough race this year," Stokes said. "I brought her back after her first-up run. I did that with Climbing Star, but she can stay over after she has this one. She likes her home environment, so that's why we did it. Her best is good enough and I think she's going OK, but she's getting sold after this run and The Goodwood." Stretan Angel is set to back up into The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) at Morphettville on May 9 following Saturday's assignment.

Siragusa looks to rebound at Randwick

Siragusa (I Am Invincible) will look to put a costly mishap behind him when he returns in The Last Post Handicap (1400m) at Randwick on Saturday. The three-year-old's previous start in the South Pacific Classic (Listed, 1400m) ended before it began, refusing to jump and dislodging jockey Craig Williams. "I don't know what happened. It was a bit of a head scratcher," co-trainer Rob Archibald said. "Craig said he just jumped a bit awkward then ducked out. But he has trialled since and he was fine." Prior to that, the son of I Am Invincible had impressed with two dominant wins at Tamworth and Muswellbrook, prompting connections to test him in stakes company. "He seems talented, albeit he's won at Tamworth and Muswellbrook," Archibald said. "We're learning about him all the time and we're just trying to build him up to take him through his grades, but he's certainly one we like. He's definitely got ability, so I'm looking forward to seeing him develop. It was a hiccup the other day, but I'm confident he can bounce back on Saturday." Stablemate Seastraand (Written Tycoon) is also entered in the race, while Hillier (Zoustar) could line up in the Australian Flying Corps Handicap (1200m), pending a final decision on his barrier draw.

El Castello to resume as gelding at Randwick

El Castello

RACING PHOTOS

El Castello (Castelvecchio) will break new ground for trainer John Thompson when he returns as a gelding in the First Australian Imperial Force Handicap (1500m) at Randwick on Saturday. The Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) winner has remained in work following the decision to geld him after a disappointing first-up run, a move Thompson admits is unfamiliar territory. "It's the first horse I've ever been involved with that's been gelded and kept in work," Thompson told Racing NSW. "Every trainer I've worked with has always spelled them and same as myself, I've always spelled them. Anthony Cummings owns this guy and wanted to keep him in work because he only had the one run." El Castello showed encouraging signs in a recent trial win at Randwick and will be reunited with jockey Josh Parr. "I'm sure it's the right gear change long term but whether we have a short-term fix I'm not sure," Thompson said. "The signs are good in his trials and he has plenty of racing ahead of him, he's sound and good in every way he just needs to get his head back in the game and he'll be right. It was positive feedback from Josh Parr after the trial the other day, he knows the horse very well. Hopefully he takes that to the races." Thompson is seeking improvement rather than immediate success. "Just him putting in, simple as that," he said. "We're not expecting him to win, at his best he would but we want to see positive signs he's turned his attitude around." Further options include

The Coast (Listed, 1600m), Scone Cup (Listed, 1600m) and a potential Queensland carnival.

Extremely Tempted tipped to improve second-up at Randwick

Extremely Tempted (Extreme Choice) has been labelled a colt with significant upside ahead of his second start in the HMAS Sydney Handicap (1100m) at Randwick on Saturday. The $550,000 son of Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) made a strong impression on debut at Hawkesbury, leading throughout for a dominant victory, but jockey Regan Bayliss believes there is more to come. "He's a lovely colt and he's always shown plenty. I've done plenty of work on him," Bayliss told Racing NSW. "I did his jump-outs and was able to trial him and go from there. I'm a believer of whatever you see this prep you'll see a much better horse in the spring, once he fills out and strengthens up and grows into his frame." Bayliss said the colt's professionalism stood out first-up and expects improvement with race experience. "His two trials leading up to his first run were really good but they've got to go there and do it," he said. "He handled himself so well in how he paraded and how relaxed he was and did everything right, and put away a nice field I reckon that day. I thought whatever he did first-up he was only going to improve going into his second run. You could potentially see a better horse than what we did first-up." While naturally quick, Bayliss noted the colt's versatility. "He's very quick, I'd be surprised if he's not leading and controlling the race," he said. "He has got adaptability and versatility to keep the options open." Bayliss also expects Lulumon (Vancouver) to be competitive in the Gallipoli Handicap (1000m).

Maher fillies set for Scone black-type targets fillies stepping out at Randwick across the long weekend. Lady Catalina (Written Tycoon), a daughter of Away Game (Snitzel), will contest the HMAS Sydney Handicap (1100m) as she progresses toward the Woodlands Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Scone next month. Assistant trainer Johann Gerard-Dubord said the aim is to secure black-type. "Being well-bred the next step is to get some black-type," Gerard-Dubord told Racing NSW. "We thought the Woodlands might be a nice race for her. She's very push-button, she has a very good brain on her. She has good speed but she will switch off if you need her to." A debut winner at Newcastle, Lady Catalina has impressed with her speed and professionalism. "We've taken our time with her and she's changed a lot," he said. "She's very quick, and that's why we went to Newcastle. She was at her top for most of the way over 900m but she was strong late." Stablemate Lull (Exceed And Excel) is being aimed at the Denise's Joy Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Scone and could run in the Gallipoli Handicap (1100m) at Randwick or be saved for Monday. "She was very good last prep second and third-up and she trialed really well the other day," Gerard-Dubord said. "The plan after last prep was to target that race (at Scone), it's a nice race to get some black-type. She's come back well, she's only had the one trial so she will improve on whatever she does but we want to have her right for Scone." Sergeant Major (Proisir) will also resume in the Australian Flying Corps Handicap (1200m), with the stable confident there is further upside. "We haven't seen the best of him yet, we've always thought a lot of him," Gerard-Dubord said.

Tycoon Star targets Goodwood via Tobin Bronze

Tycoon Star (Written Tycoon) will look to strengthen his claims for The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) when he lines up in the Tobin Bronze Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Morphettville on Saturday. The Lindsay Park team of Ben, Will and

J D Hayes have made key gear and rider changes in a bid to extract improvement, with a visor applied and James McDonald booked to ride. "The visor and the best jockey in the world on Saturday and hopefully that makes a difference and then he stays on for the Goodwood," Ben Hayes said. "Unfortunately, the line keeps coming up too quick for him, but he does have the ability. He's performed well against the best and we're hoping The Goodwood will be a nice race for him to really have a go at." Tycoon Star was a last-start runner-up in the Redelva Stakes (Listed, 1100m) and follows a proven path, with recent Goodwood winners Reserve Bank (Capitalist) and Royal Merchant (Merchant Navy) both using the race as a springboard. Stablemate Stung (Dundeel) will also represent the yard in the Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m), with Hayes expecting improvement on firmer ground. "She didn't like it one bit and she had won well at her previous start, so we've decided to press on. She deserves the opportunity."

Sutton splits fillies for Adelaide features

After Summer

Trainer Dom Sutton will divide stablemates After Summer (The Autumn Sun) and Classic Gem (Maurice) as the pair target separate staying features during the Adelaide Autumn Carnival. The decision follows another close finish between the two in the Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m), where After Summer was third and Classic Gem fourth, replicating their VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) results last spring. After Summer will head to the South Australian Derby

(Gr 1, 2500m) on May 2, while Classic Gem will head to the South Australian Fillies Classic (Gr 3, 2500m) a week later. "After Summer needs to stay at the longer trip of 2500 metres. Classic Gem will take on the Fillies Classic the following week," Sutton told Racing.com. Sutton was pleased with both performances in Sydney and believes After Summer is still on the rise. "She's just having a stretch of her legs and open up the lungs. She was only third-up in Sydney and she's still on the way up for sure. She's very well. I was thrilled with both runs. It's a bit frustrating that we are getting so close but they both ran super." A Queensland winter campaign remains under consideration for both fillies, with Sutton indicating further feature targets could follow if they perform well in Adelaide.

Seraphox eyes black-type and interstate options

Seraphox (Harry Angel) will be given the chance to earn valuable black-type when he lines up in the ANZAC Day Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Flemington on Saturday, with the Ciaron Maher stable open to further interstate targets. The colt heads to Melbourne off a maiden win at Warwick Farm, having earlier debuted in the Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), where he finished within four lengths of the winner. Assistant trainer Jack Turnbull said the stable has a high opinion of the youngster. "He's a beautiful horse," Turnbull said. "It's the right trip and it's the right time to bring him down. He debuted in a good race on a Saturday in Sydney and did a few things wrong, and then he won his maiden next time around. He's been down here a couple of weeks, and he's taken to the left-handed direction without a problem." Turnbull indicated Saturday's performance would determine whether Seraphox continues his campaign, with Brisbane features such as the Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) and J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1600m) under consideration. "There are races in Brisbane if we wanted to push on, or we could put him away and go through the pathway of trying to get him to the Guineas in the spring," he said. Stablemate Nialah (Stay Inside) will also contest the race, stepping up in trip after her debut placing at Wyong.

ANZAC Day Race Day marks 65 years at Flemington

The Victoria Racing Club will commemorate ANZAC service personnel at Flemington on Saturday, celebrating 65 years of ANZAC Day racing at the historic track. Free entry will be offered to all racegoers, with the community invited to reflect on the service and sacrifice of Australian and New Zealand servicemen and women. Complimentary tickets are available via the VRC website, with free public transport also in place. Flemington's wartime history will be acknowledged, having served as a military training base during World War I, including housing recruits in the Maribyrnong Stand in 1915. The eight-race card is headlined by the VRC St Leger (Listed, 2800m). An ANZAC Day ceremony will take place in the Mounting Yard at 2:55pm, including mounted Light Horse troopers, a HMAS Cerberus contingent and a minute's silence. Two Up will be played on the Front Lawn, while Watsonia RSL and Simpson Barracks volunteers will raise funds via the ANZAC Appeal. Current ADF personnel and RSL members will receive a complimentary drink between 1:00pm-2:00pm. Family-friendly activities include wreath making and postcard writing for serving personnel, while the traditional AFL clash between Essendon and Collingwood will be shown live on course. Living Legends Gailo Chop (Deportivo) and Malucky Day (Zabeel) will parade after Races 2 and 4. Gates open at 12:15pm, with the first race at 1:00pm.

Fuel relief measures extended across Victorian racing

Racing Victoria (RV) has confirmed its temporary fuel cost relief measures will be extended through May, as rising transport expenses continue to impact participants across the state. Introduced on April 1, the subsidies will now remain in place until at least May 31 following consultation with key industry bodies including the Australian Trainers Association, Victorian Jockeys Association and Thoroughbred Racehorse Owners Association. The support package includes a $100 payment per starter to licensed trainers, a $50 subsidy per meeting for jockeys, and a 10 per cent increase in payments to recognised retrainers, rehomers and retirement farms under the Off The Track program. RV said the initiative is designed to complement broader government measures, including fuel excise reductions and transport cost relief, with payments made in arrears. RV CEO Aaron Morrison said the extension reflects ongoing cost pressures. "With a large network of country racetracks and training businesses spread across Victoria, fuel and transportation remain a substantive portion of industry costs, and we're pleased to extend this support while those pressures continue to be felt," Morrison said. "By the end of April, we'll have delivered almost $450,000 in temporary fuel relief to participants and officials across our industry." RV confirmed the measures remain temporary and will continue to be reviewed as conditions evolve.

Monologue targets Travis Stakes to close campaign

Monologue (Contributer) will look to add further black-type when she lines up in the Travis Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Te Rapa on Saturday, bringing an end to her four-year-old preparation. Trained and part-owned by Alexander Fieldes, the daughter of Contributor (High Chaparral) has progressed steadily this campaign, earning her place in the feature following a third placing in the Manawatu

Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m). "She's going well and she went better than I thought on the hard track," Fieldes said. "I've been working her at the beach, so I haven't given her a hit-out on a firm track, but it was a $100,000 race and she came through it well. This will be her last run and if she was going well enough, we were always going to have a go at the Travis." Fieldes acknowledged the challenge ahead, with strong opposition engaged. "Te Akau's horse (Qali Al Farrasha) is the best in the race by a fair bit and Niall Quinn's one (Who Knows) goes well and so do a few of the others, but we're hopeful." Purchased for $14,000 via Gavelhouse, Monologue has recorded two wins and five placings from nine starts. "She's only gone the one bad race, and she had an excuse when she was off the track the whole way in the Lowland Stakes (Gr.2, 2100m)," Fieldes said. Fieldes expects further improvement with time, adding: "She's still a year away and hopefully there might be a decent Cups race in her in time."

Riviera Rebel returns to defend Canterbury Gold Cup crown

Riviera Rebel (Pure Champion) will attempt to defend his title in the Canterbury Gold Cup (Gr 3, 2000m) at Riccarton on Saturday, with the Southland gelding arriving in Christchurch in strong order. Prepared by Graham Eade in partnership with Brooke Kincaid, the son of Pure Champion is no stranger to the trip north. "It (travel) doesn't worry him, they give us a big yard and when we put him out there he acts like he is at home," Eade said. "He ate up last night and I took him for a walk this morning and I think I got more out of it than he did, he's very well." Rain in Christchurch has been welcomed by connections after Riviera Rebel struggled on firm ground when 11th in the Hororata Gold Cup (1800m) last month. "He doesn't like hard tracks and he jarred up quite bad when we started him up here last time," Eade said. "They have had some rain, they had 17mm on Wednesday, so I think it will be a nice track and it should suit him." The five-year-old comes off a runner-up finish in the Riverton Cup (2147m), with Eade noting improvement with maturity. "I think it is a bit harder this year, I think it is a better field," he said. "But he has grown up a bit, he has got more settled with age." Drawn barrier one, Riviera Rebel will be ridden by Krishna Mudhoo. "He likes the rail and he always jumps well," Eade said. A northern campaign remains under consideration following Saturday's assignment.

Loose Sally aiming to recapture ANZAC Day success

Loose Sally (Turn Me Loose) will attempt to recapture her Riccarton ANZAC Day form when she lines up in the Canterbury Gold Cup (Gr 3, 2000m) on Saturday, 12 months after her Warstep Stakes (Listed, 2000m) victory at the same meeting. Trainer Shankar Muniandy believes a rain-affected surface will play to the strengths of the daughter of Turn Me Loose, who has been unplaced in two recent mile runs on firmer ground. "She didn't really cop the track in her last two starts. They were good tracks and they ran 1:34 and 1:35 and she is not that type of track horse," Muniandy said. "A bit of sting out of the ground is the only thing she needs. When she won the Warstep it was a heavy track as well and a 2000 metre race, so I am looking forward to tomorrow." Loose Sally has won three races this preparation and is likely to head for a spell following Saturday's run. "I think she is due a break, there is not a lot around for her anyway," he said. Muniandy will also have runners at Wingatui on Monday, including debutants Middlemarch Man (Raise The Flag), Loose Lady (Turn Me Loose) and Betterthanever (Jon Snow), although the latter may be saved for another day on a Heavy track. "Betterthanever is really well, but I don't think I will start him on a Heavy track from barrier 14, he is pretty smart," Muniandy said. Meanwhile, jockey Ruvanesh Muniandy is expected to be sidelined for four to five weeks after dislocating his shoulder in a recent fall at Riccarton.

Atmospheric breaks through for maiden stakes success at Otaki

Atmospheric (El Roca) landed a deserved breakthrough black-type victory when taking out the Jennian Homes ANZAC Mile (Listed, 1600m) at Otaki on Friday. The son of El Roca had been building towards a stakes win, having placed in stronger company previously and arriving off a last-start victory at Ellerslie. From barrier one, he was only fairly away before jockey George Rooke urged him forward to settle behind the leader. Atmospheric travelled strongly throughout and, once angled into clear running, quickly assumed control in the straight, holding off a late challenge to score by one and three quarter lengths. Trainer Kurtis Pertab was pleased to see the gelding secure black-type. "He was away a bit slow, but it was a good ride, he was a lot handier than he tends to race," Pertab said. "He is a horse that has always had a lot of ability and he rightfully gets his black-type success. He can get through the ground, but he doesn't like really wet ground, so I am not sure what we do with him after this, but we will just get him home and make a plan depending on how he pulls up," Pertab said. "He has done the job anyway." The win formed part of a double for Pertab, with Atavus (Tarzino) successful earlier on the card, continuing a productive week that also included two winners at Arawa Park. Pertab will saddle a strong team at Te Rapa on ANZAC Day, including runners in the Cambridge Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m).

Four-year-olds look to break Champions Mile drought

Little Paradise

HKJC

Little Paradise (Toronado) and Invincible Ibis (Hellbent) will attempt to end a 15-year drought for their age group in the FWD Champions Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at Sha Tin on April 26. No four-year-old has won the race since Xtension (Xaar) in 2011, with older horses dominating in recent years, despite the race often featuring graduates of Hong Kong's Four-Year-Old Classic Series. Little Paradise, winner of the Hong Kong Classic Mile (Listed, 1600m), and Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m) hero Invincible Ibis step up to take on seasoned Group 1 opposition. Trainer Jimmy Ting said Little Paradise enters the race in good order following a recent trial. "I think this is a very open race and it is hard to say who is the best. He's a good horse. The last few times he ran badly, because in the Hong Kong Classic Cup (Listed, 1800m) he missed the start and, in the Hong Kong Derby, he was just too far back." Jockey Zac Purton added: "Coming back to a mile now is another challenge against the older horses. The four-year-olds don't have a good record in this race, so I am looking forward to riding him to see how much he's improved." Invincible Ibis, a dual mile winner, will be partnered by James McDonald.

Hayes wary of challengers in Chairman's Sprint Prize

David Hayes has identified Satono Reve (Lord Kanaloa) and Helios Express (Toronado) as the key threats to Ka Ying Rising (Shamexpress) in the Chairman's Sprint Prize (Gr 1, 1200m) at Sha Tin on April 26. Japanese raider Satono Reve arrives in peak form following his win in the Takamatsunomiya Kinen (Gr 1, 1200m), while Helios Express has finished second to Ka Ying Rising on eight occasions. "Satono Reve is very impressive," Hayes said. "He is a champion and always has to be respected, and that's his positive. "His negative is that he has tried three times and hasn't been able to beat him (Ka Ying Rising), but it does not mean he has not come back the best. He is probably in the best form he has been since coming here." Hayes said Helios Express' consistency ensures he remains a danger. "He is a very, very good horse," he said. "Helios is a horse that puts his best run up every time and has almost broken track records doing it, and unfortunately, he is in a generation where there is a freak." Hayes added track conditions and barriers would not impact Ka Ying Rising. "He is mentally very good now, and he overcomes barriers." Helios Express rider Hugh Bowman said: "It is what it is and we'll pad up and go out and do our best. Helios has a real certain pattern and has got a devastating finish if I ride him for it and that's what we'll do and see what happens."

Masquerade Ball primed for QEII Cup challenge

Masquerade Ball (Duramente) is set to line up in peak condition for the QEII Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) at Sha Tin on Sunday, with trainer Takahisa Tezuka pleased with the colt's progression since arriving in Hong Kong. The four-year-old, on his first international trip, has taken time to adapt to local conditions but has improved through the week. "During this week, after he arrived in Hong Kong, he was a sensitive horse, with the heat and humidity here," Tezuka said. "After he galloped, his appetite has been improving. I think, as I watched him this morning (Friday 24 April), he is in peak condition at the moment. As for today's trackwork, we considered the track condition because of the rain so we instructed the rider to go easier." A Group 1 winner in Japan, Masquerade Ball enters a high-class field that includes Romantic Warrior (Acclamation), Sosie (Sea The Stars) and Royal Champion (Shamardal). "The line-up this year is very, very brilliant," Tezuka said. "Romantic Warrior is an exceptionally strong horse, a true hero in Hong Kong. Sosie from France is a good horse, as is Royal Champion. I always feel we are the challenger. Of course, my horse is very strong and competitive. As for the other two Japanese horses, they have great form, so I hope to make it very competitive." Tezuka is comfortable with conditions despite the colt stepping out over 2000m first-up and on a rain-affected surface. "I feel 2000 metres is suitable, rather than 2400 metres," he said. "In the past he hasn't raced on a rain-affected track, so it will be a little bit of a challenge, but having watched trackwork on the grass this morning I have no concerns." A European campaign later this year remains under consideration.

94 for Mehmas

Synaran (3g ex Syrdarya by Invincible Spirit) became the latest stakes winner for Mehmas (Acclamation) when landing the Prix du Pont-Neuf (Listed, 1400m) at Longchamp. The Francis-Henri Graffard-trained gelding, bred and raced by Aga Khan Studs, continued his progression this season, having won at Chantilly over a mile in March before dropping back to 1400 metres to score again under Mickael Barzalona. Synaran is out of a daughter of Listed winner Siyenica (Azamour) and hails from the family of Group 1 winner Siyarafina (Pivotal) and fellow Group 1 winners Siyouma (Medicean) and leading European sire Siyouni (Pivotal). The victory adds further depth to Mehmas' record, with the Tally-Ho Stud stallion now the sire of 94 flat stakes performers, including 28 Group winners and 21 other stakes winners. Mehmas is standing for €70,000 (approx. AU$115,000) in 2026.

On this ANZAC Day, we remember the bravery, sacrifice and enduring spirit of those who have served. Chief De Beers and Super Impressive hold a special place in our hearts — not only as racing champions, but as members of the police force who continued a life of service. We also acknowledge our CEO Andrew Clarke's grandfather, Charles James 'Nobby' Clarke, a decorated ANZAC who served in the Light Horse, including at Gallipoli and on the Western Front. Tomorrow, Maluckyday and Gailo Chop will carry that spirit forward as they head to Flemington to celebrate all who served. Lest we forget. Pictured Below >>
