Classic crop out to continue Goodwood trend

By Mary-Jo Jackson

In what has emerged as an open renewal of Saturday's $1 million Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) at Morphettville, a new band of three-year-olds is poised to challenge the older brigade in Adelaide's premier sprint.

The Classic generation have won two of the past three editions of the race and appear capable of continuing the trend, with the Trent Edmonds-trained Extragalactic (Deep Field) jointly heading betting after the scratching of early favourite Rey Magnerio (Magnus).

The daughter of Deep Field (Northern Meteor) has rapidly developed into one of the country's most exciting sprinting fillies, stringing together dominant wins at Pakenham and Caulfield before storming home from the rear in the Tobin Bronze Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) to miss narrowly behind Tycoon Star (Written Tycoon) - who reopposes on Saturday.

With just 50 kilograms on her back and barrier six in her favour, Extragalactic profiles as a filly with significant upside as she steps into weight-for-age company. Continued on page 2

Tycoon Star

Continued from page 1 Tycoon Star, meanwhile, will attempt to emulate recent three-year-olds Reserve Bank (Capitalist) (2025) and Royal Merchant (Merchant Navy) (2023) by completing the Tobin Bronze-Goodwood double, although the Lindsay Park colt faces a sterner challenge after drawing the outside barrier.

The son of Written Tycoon (Iglesia) produced a career-best performance in the Tobin Bronze when covering ground throughout before proving too strong late under James McDonald, with co-trainer Ben Hayes crediting both the addition of visors and the champion jockey's influence for the colt's improvement.

"I think the visors did the trick," Hayes said. "It was a tough win also as he sat wide throughout and he won quite nicely."

McDonald will be absent on Saturday due to commitments on the Gold Coast, with Luke Currie taking over aboard the colt, who has remained in Adelaide since his last-start success and will carry 54.5 kilos.

"Ash, who has been looking after him, said he has been bright and well and really enjoying it," Hayes said.

"We're really excited and think he's a genuine chance. If he can win that race, he's got a pretty good page behind him, and being Group 1-placed and a stakes winner as a two-year-old, you never know.

"He's racing for his future, but three-year-olds in the Goodwood have a good record."

Extragalactic sits as equal $5 favourite alongside Flying For Fun (Spieth) who surged into contention following a luckless fourth in the Robert Sangster Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) - where she stormed home under Zac Lloyd to be denied just 0.1 lengths by Geegees Mistruth (Wordsmith).

The Bryce Heys-trained four-year-old has won twice at stakes level this preparation, including the McCarten Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) in Sydney, and shapes as a major threat after drawing barrier ten. She will shoulder 54 kilos as Lloyd retains the ride.

While the eastern states youngsters dominate much of the pre-race discussion, Western Australia also holds a strong hand through rapidly improving filly Talkanco (I'm All The Talk), who arrives in Adelaide off a career-defining effort in the $5 million Quokka (1200m).

The Daniel and Ben Pearce-trained daughter of I'm All The Talk (Stratum) charged home for third behind Jigsaw (Manhattan Rain) and Rey Magnerio at Ascot and connections quickly identified the Goodwood as an ideal Group 1 target given her lightweight of 53.5 kilos.

South Australia's hopes largely rest with Andrew Gluyas-trained five-year-old Watchme Win (Harry Angel), who enters the race in career-best form after successive runner-up finishes in the Irwin Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) and John Hawkes Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) - finishing behind Saturday rival Grand Larceny (Zoustar) in the latter.

Having long promised to measure up at elite level, Gluyas believes Watchme Win represents a good opportunity for the stable to finally secure the sprint after previous near-misses with mares Another Award (Shamus Award) and Augusta Proud (More Than Ready).

The Harry Angel (Dark Angel) gelding again faces a difficult draw in barrier 12, but the rise to 1200 metres and drop to 56 kilos after carrying 60 last start shapes as a significant advantage.

The old guard is arguably headed by Peter Moody and Katherine Coleman's New Zealand import Desert Lightning (Pride Of Dubai) - the sole Group 1 winner of the field.

The six-year-old son of Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) won a Captain Cook Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Trentham and Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m) at Pukekohe for his Barneswood Farm owners Chris and Sarah Green before crossing the Tasman, where he has added the Sandown Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) and So You Think Stakes (1500m).

Flying For Fun

SPORTPIX

"We wouldn't have sent him over there if we didn't believe he was good enough," Chris Green said. "Peter is a good communicator, the horse is going well and we expect him to improve off that first-up run [when fourth] in the Hareeba Stakes [Listed, 1200m] at Morningston."

Desert Lightning was rated a $10 chance with Sportsbet on Friday, with the gelding set to carry 56 kilos under jockey Luke Nolen.

Meanwhile, Pride Of Dubai's star mare Pride Of Jenni also features on Saturday, making her return to the Sunshine State in the Hollindale Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) at the Gold Coast.

The Ciaron Maher-trained eight-year-old hasn't saluted since the Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) on opening day at last year's Melbourne Cup carnival, and sits on the third line of betting for the Group 2 feature ($3.80) behind Birdman (Free Eagle) ($3.60) and Cups hero Half Yours (St Jean) ($3.60).

Last seen finishing fifth in the Queen Of The Turf (Gr 1, 1600m) at Randwick on April 11, Pride Of Jenni's great recovery convinced owner Tony Ottobre and trainer Ciaron Maher to head to Queensland.

"It was never the plan, we were always going to give her the three runs in the autumn, which were some very high-level races," Ottobre told SENTrack.

"She came out of those three runs a treat so we thought it'd probably be wise just to keep her ticking over.

"It would have been remiss of us not to take her to Queensland and let the Queensland public have a look at this fantastic, beautiful animal that's won Horse of the Year go around and hopefully do her thing where she can get out to a margin and stretch them and make it all exciting."

Provided she performs up to expectations this weekend, Pride Of Jenni will progress to the Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) on May 23. Her only Queensland appearance came in last year's Doomben Cup, in which she finished tenth.

The race features two Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winners, with the John Symons and Sheila Laxon-trained Knight's Choice (Extreme Choice) set to resume after strong jump-outs in Victoria. The Gold Coast track is rated a Soft 6.

Godolphin draft headlines Inglis Digital May (Early) Online Sale

A draft of 43 Godolphin broodmares and 13 Godolphin racehorses – as well as a G1 winner in foal to one of the world's most exciting stallions – headlines a fascinating catalogue for the Inglis Digital May (Early) Online Sale, which is now open for bidding.

The May (Early) auction – featuring the second and final Australian Broodmare Sale Session exclusively for race fillies and broodmares – contains drafts from many of Australia's leading nurseries like Arrowfield, Newgate, Yulong, Tyreel, Aristia Park, Alma Vale etc.

A total of 472 lots have been catalogued for the May (Early) sale, of which 262 are in the Australian Broodmare Sale Session (which closes from 10am Thursday) and a further 210 lots will close out on the traditional day of this coming Wednesday.

Among the Godolphin offerings are Stakes winners, Stakes producers, up-and-coming young racehorses, relations to G1 winners and mares in foal to the likes of Anamoe, Street Boss, Cylinder, Bivouac, Native Trail, Traffic Warden etc.

Anamoe

DARLEY

The draft includes 10 fillies or mares by outstanding sire Exceed And Excel as well as daughters of Street Cry, Medaglia d'Oro, Too Darn Hot, Lonhro, Street Boss, Commands, Harry Angel etc.

Recent Godolphin racehorse drafts have included subsequent Stakes winners Sandpaper and Barber as well as Hong Kong winner Pegas.

The G1 winner Affaire A Suivre is another highly attractive entry in the May (Early) Sale.

The Kentucky-domiciled Australasian Oaks victor is offered in foal to one of the hottest sires in the world in Not This Time, on an early September cover.

Not This Time's current Northern Hemisphere fee is US$250,000 and he is the sire of 73 Stakes winners to date at 14% Stakes winners-to-runners.

In 2025, 17 of his yearlings realised $1m or more across the Keeneland September and Fasig Tipton Saratoga yearling sales.

Another intriguing offering from Aristia Park is the Stakes placed mare Angiolleta, carrying a pregnancy to Baaeed, who retired to stud in 2024 as a six-time G1 winner with a Timeform rating of 135.

Affaire A Suivre and Angiolleta will be offered on Thursday as part of the Australian Broodmare Sale Session which contains 200 broodmares and 62 race fillies while the remainder of the May (Early) catalogue consists of 99 racehorses, 48 racehorse shares, 32 yearlings, 19 weanlings, 5 unraced stock, 4 2YOs, 2 breeding rights and 1 stallion and will close from 10am Wednesday.

Auguste Rodin and Paddington head Windsor Park roster

Windsor Park Stud has announced its 2026 stallion roster and fees, headed by Coolmore shuttlers Auguste Rodin (Deep Impact) and Paddington (Siyouni).

Auguste Rodin – the son of breed-shaper Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) and triple Group 1 winner Rhododendron (Galileo) – will return to Windsor Park after covering an outstanding first book of mares and is confirmed to stand for his second season at a fee of NZ$30,000 + GST.

A leading European two-year-old and champion three-year-old, Auguste Rodin was a six-time Group 1 winner, including as a juvenile in the Futurity Trophy (Gr 1, 1m).

He trained on to win both the English and Irish Derbies, while his four Group 1 victories at three also included weight-for-age wins against older horses in the Irish Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) and Breeders' Cup Turf (Gr 1, 12f). Remarkably, he became the only 3YO in history to win all four of these championship races in his Classic season.

Following that record-breaking campaign, Auguste Rodin added the Group 1 Prince of Wales's Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 2f) at Royal Ascot at four, completing a spectacular CV.

"He served an outstanding book of mares in his first season with us. He was world-class on the track, and he is world-class in temperament. We have received excellent reports on his foals in the Northern Hemisphere, with his progeny possessing the quality, strength, and athleticism you would expect from such an outstanding individual," said stud master Rodney Schick.

Like Auguste Rodin, fellow Ballydoyle superstar Paddington will again shuttle to Windsor Park Stud from Coolmore Ireland for his third southern hemisphere season.

Paddington proved an instant hit with breeders in his first two seasons at Windsor Park, serving full books in both years.

The champion three-year-old son of Siyouni (Pivotal) and four-time Group 1 winner best highlighted his ability when beating Chaldean (Frankel) in the St James's Palace Stakes (Gr 1, 8f) at Royal Ascot and has already got an outstanding representation of weanlings on the ground throughout Australasia.

"We are thrilled with Paddington's weanlings. He is leaving size, strong-bodied horses with deep girths and quality heads. With his profile and type, we expect his progeny will be keenly sought after throughout Australasia's leading yearling sales," commented Schick.

Paddington will stand in 2026 for a fee of $30,000 + GST.

Windsor Park's highly successful sire Shamexpress (O'Reilly) has enjoyed another outstanding season in 2026 with over $21 million in progeny earnings, highlighted by the world's highest rated sprinter and Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) champion Ka Ying Rising, who has now won 20 races in a row, including nine at Group 1 level.

Shamexpress's tally of stakes winners this season has also been boosted by Group winners Sterling Express and The Scunner, while December, Dusty Road, and Tsunami Sam have all become new black-type performers for the sire.

Shamexpress stands the 2026 season for a fee of $25,000 + GST.

After an impressive debut yearling sale season where Profondo's progeny sold for up to $425,000, $400,000, and $375,000, the handsome Group 1-winning son of Deep Impact has made a highly encouraging start to his stud career.

Out of a precocious Group-winning daughter of Redoute's Choice (Danehill) in Honesty Prevails, Profondo's progeny have been snapped up by many of the leading stables across Australasia. He now looks set to build on his impressive debut sales season as the industry looks ahead to his first juveniles appearing in the spring.

Profondo will stand this season for an unchanged fee of $17,500 + GST.

Champion miler Circus Maximus (Galileo), whose first crop is now three, has already sired a Classic winner in the impressive New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) victor Road To Paris.

Adding to his growing list of black-type performers are two-year-old stakes winner Towering Vision and stakes-winning three-year-old filly Circus Dancer. His daughter Paltrow Miss finished third in the Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) and is now targeting the Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m).

His son Engine Of War is also headed towards the Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m), setting up an exciting finish to the season for the sire.

To date, Circus Maximus has produced

Profondo

WINDSOR PARK STUD

eight black-type performers and is currently New Zealand's leading second-season sire. He will stand 2026 at $20,000 +GST.

Meanwhile, proven stallion Vanburgh provides a solid foundation within Windsor Park's 2026 stallion roster.

The Group 1-winning son of Encosta De Lago (Fairy King) has built a successful stud career, boasting an excellent stakes winners-to-runners ratio (4.2 per cent).

An outstanding physical specimen renowned for producing quality types, Vanburgh will soon be represented by his first sizable crop of rising 3YOs, while his biggest crop of 2YOs will hit the track next season.

High-class Group 1-placed filly Single Red appears to have a bright future ahead following her New Zealand Oaks placing and recent impressive victories, with a Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) campaign now on the horizon.

His top-class Group 1 performers Mustang Valley and Wild Night both trained on from two-year-olds to compete successfully at the elite level as five and six-year-olds.

With his yearlings selling for up to $130,000 at Karaka, Vanburgh will stand in 2026 for a fee of $6,000 + GST.

Windsor Park is also proud to partner with Mapperley Stud as co-owners of Champion 3YO Group 1 winner Savaglee, a son of outstanding champion sire Savabeel (Zabeel) from the highly commercial female family of Orchestral and Sepals.

Savaglee has proven immensely popular with breeders and will cover a full book of mares in his debut season at a fee of $17,500 + GST.

European Group 2 winner Armory (Galileo) has also made an exciting start at stud, highlighted by his first runner and winner Silhouette as well as a $625,000 sale at last year's NZB Ready to Run Sale.

With all of his trial and race performers showing considerable promise, both Mapperley Stud and Windsor Park Stud are excited about Armory's future stallion prospects. He will stand 2026 at $10,000 + GST.

Enriched eyes Group 1 prize in Goodwood

Enriched

SPORTPIX

A close relation to Winx (Street Cry), Enriched (I Am Invincible) will be out to add Group 1 value to his page when he lines up in Saturday's The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) at Morphettville. The four-year-old is one of only two stallion prospects in the field alongside Tycoon Star (Written Tycoon), and trainer Michael Freedman is hopeful the colt can capitalise on a strong opportunity in Adelaide. Saturday's race will provide Freedman with his first runner in Adelaide since training in his own right and he said Enriched's recent Sydney form reads better than it appears. He finished last in The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) at Rosehill last start, but was beaten only two lengths after failing to secure clear running in the straight. "He got no luck whatsoever in the Galaxy," Freedman told Racing.com. "Craig [Williams] got tangled up behind them all and he never really got a crack at them. The form guide says he finished last, but he was just two lengths off the winner and had no luck. He ran Autumn Glow to a length and a half last year in the autumn so he's quite talented and obviously Group 1 status would be a big feather in his cap. I'm very happy with how he's going. He's drawn a nice gate [three] so with even luck, he can run well. He'd quite like it soft but I doubt him in a genuine heavy – not many Vinnies do [go on heavy] but soft should be fine."

Bossy Nic primed for Adelaide test

Bossy Nic (Nicconi) will chase a second black-type victory when she lines up in Saturday's Proud Miss Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Morphettville, with the Tony and Calvin McEvoy stable hopeful rain-affected ground can help the mare return to her best form. The father-and-son training partnership considered taking on The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) but opted for the fillies and mares assignment instead, with the softer conditions expected to suit. Bossy Nic won the Thoroughbred Breeders Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Flemington at just her second start and later placed in the Tristarc Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Caulfield during the spring. She has returned this preparation with placings in both starts on rain-affected ground, finishing second at Flemington before running third at Caulfield on April 11. "She wants cut in the ground," Calvin McEvoy said. "She's a nice mare, she's going well and is a capable mare on her day and as soon as she gets some soft ground, she improves, which is what she's had two runs this time in." Bossy Nic has won four of her 29 starts and earned almost $740,000 in prize money. Daniel Stackhouse replaces apprentice Jackson Radley aboard the mare on Saturday, where she sits on the third line of betting behind Aviatrix (Smart Missile) and Naifah (I Am Invincible).

Depth Of Character eyes Coast redemption

Depth Of Character (Deep Field) will attempt to go one better in Saturday's The Coast (Listed, 1600m) at Gosford as trainers Annabel and Rob Archibald look to return the talented gelding to the form that saw him emerge as a leading miler during last year's Queensland carnival. The four-year-old won the Queensland Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) and was narrowly beaten by Know Thyself (The Autumn Sun) in last year's edition of The Coast before contesting a string of elite races including the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m), Golden Eagle (1500m) and Railway Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m). He resumed with a fourth placing behind stablemate Hellsing (Dandy Man) in the JRA Plate (Gr 3, 1500m) at Randwick on Anzac Day and Rob Archibald said the gelding had returned in good order. "His first-up run was good and he hit the line well, it looks a good stepping stone for him and he should be going pretty close," Archibald told Racing NSW. "I expect him to run well, obviously he will have to be right on his game but we're happy with him." Archibald said the gelding's spring campaign had been stronger than his formline suggested, highlighted by his fourth placing in the Golden Eagle. "I thought last preparation he went very well, he ran fourth in the Golden Eagle which is pretty good form," he said.

McEvoy bullish on Portland's staying future

Irish import Portland (Dubawi) will have a chance to underline his staying potential when he contests Saturday's Gosford Gold Cup (Listed, 2100m), with Kerrin McEvoy confident the gelding is capable of winning better races as he becomes more established in Australia. Formerly trained by Aidan O'Brien and now with Matthew Smith, the five-year-old is still in his first local preparation and McEvoy said a favourable barrier should allow him to take a more prominent position than in recent runs. "He's been running well and he's finally drawn a gate," McEvoy told Racing NSW. "I'd like to think we can take advantage of that and see a more forward showing. He's not a slow beginner by any means. I think he can take a spot." Portland finished eighth in the JRA Plate (Gr 3, 2000m) at Randwick three weeks ago after covering ground from a wide alley and running home in 33.89 for his final 600 metres. Prior to that he finished third behind Wootton Verni (Wootton Bassett) in the Neville Sellwood Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) at Rosehill after again settling back in the field. McEvoy said the gelding has continued to please. "At Rosehill he didn't have a spot so we had to go back," he said. "We drew wide at Randwick and wasn't able to get into a lane. He's pleased Matt since he's got here and I think the best is still ahead of him. I think when he gets some rain affected ground he's going to enjoy that. He's got the scope to no doubt improve into next preparation as well."

Gosford Cup Run To Shape Maison Louis' Winter Campaign

Tom Charlton is hoping Maison Louis (Super Seth) can return to winning form in Saturday's Gosford Gold Cup after an encouraging first-up effort at Randwick. The Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner resumed with a fast-finishing sixth behind Hellsing (Dandy Man) in the JRA Plate (Gr 3, 1500m), a run Charlton felt provided the ideal platform into the Gosford feature. "He couldn't have done any more. He looks to have come back well," Charlton said. "He ran third in the Hill Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m) second-up last prep, which is a strong weight-for-age race, so if he can replicate that he will run well. He let himself down a bit pre-race last preparation, so we're just trying to build a bit of confidence for him and get him back in his groove." After a number of scratchings, Maison Louis has moved into barrier 11 and Charlton said the gelding's racing style should suit the tighter Gosford circuit. "He is short-coupled and hasn't got a great, big action," he said. "He's got a turn of foot for a horse over that trip, so I think he will be fine." Charlton said the gelding's winter program would hinge on his performance on Saturday, with both Sydney and Brisbane races under consideration, including the Q22 (Gr 2, 2200m) at Eagle Farm on June 13. Portland (Dubawi) is the early favourite for the Gosford Gold Cup.

King Of Roseau Begins Road To Stradbroke

campaign in Saturday's Takeover Target Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Gosford, with the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) looming as the major winter target if the gelding continues the progress he has shown over the past 12 months. Since finishing runner-up in benchmark grade at the corresponding Gosford meeting last year, the sprinter has raced nine times for five wins, including three at stakes level, and Snowden said maturity had been central to that rise in consistency. "He's really jumped out of the ground in the last twelve months," Snowden said. "He has come of age and he's getting consistent. He's got some lofty heights ahead of him this prep, but it starts off with Saturday, then hopefully three weeks later the Kingsford-Smith Cup and maybe, if he's going well enough, the Stradbroke Handicap." King Of Roseau has not raced since his win in the Liverpool City Cup (Listed, 1300m) in February and will resume from barrier six with 60kg. Snowden said he expected the gelding to settle within striking distance if the race unfolded as anticipated. "There's a couple who go quick, but it's not like they're going to fly and from a middle gate, he should be able to keep a midfield spot quite comfortably," he said. "If he does, half the job is done. It's better to be sitting four or five lengths off them than ten or twelve." Snowden also has Unspoken (Territories) and possibly Touristic (Frankel) among his Gosford runners, with the trainer warning Unspoken needs to improve sharply. "It's nearly D-day for Unspoken," he said. "He's been a bit frustrating and has had a few little issues and been a bit hard to manage of late. He needs to show us something on Saturday or that might be spell time for him."

(1100m) at Caulfield. Prepared by Tony and Calvin McEvoy, the filly is rated a $2.25 favourite to score on debut after winning trials at both Flemington and Caulfield last month. "I spoke to Calvin after those hit-outs and he said she's a lovely filly who keeps progressing," Australian Bloodstock director Jamie Lovett told ANZ. "Hopefully, she'll be the ninth individual winner by Home Affairs on Saturday." Natural Fling is out of The Natural (Fastnet Rock), who has already produced stakes performer Wootton Lass (Wootton Bassett), runner-up in last Saturday's Hawkesbury Guineas (Gr 3, 1400m). "Her dam The Natural has been a very good mare to me," Lovett said. "Her first foal Wootton Lass won a Randwick juvenile this time last year and earned black type when placed in the Hawkesbury Guineas last Saturday." Home Affairs' growing momentum at stud was reflected days ago when Coolmore more than doubled his service fee from $82,500 to $176,000 (inc GST) for the 2026 breeding season. The stallion will be represented by two runners in Friday's Caulfield juvenile event, with Shooting Brake, who carries the same Fastnet Rock (Danehill) cross as Natural Fling, also engaged.

Impressive debut winner Jarbardar to tackle Caulfield

Impressive two-year-old Jarbardar (Written By) will head to Caulfield on Saturday, with Craig

Widdison hoping race experience can prove a telling advantage when the debut winner steps out in the first race of the program over 1100 metres. The Wodonga trainer also accepted for the David Coles AM Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Morphettville, but said the Caulfield option had long been preferred, with the draw and shorter trip helping confirm the decision. "The better draw and shorter trip certainly made up our mind, but the preference was Caulfield all along," Widdison said. "With a two-year-old, it's a long way to go from here in Wodonga and the barrier made the decision pretty easy for us." Jarbardar was heavily backed when he crossed the border to make his debut at Wagga last month and justified the support with a winning performance. Widdison said the gelding had given the stable confidence from an early stage after impressing in a trial at Corowa. "He's done everything right and he's a nice type of horse and his trial at Corowa was really good beforehand," he said. "He ran faster time than the open trial that day. He was still very new doing it all, but the time was there and we thought he would be pretty hard to beat at Wagga." Widdison said Jarbardar had shown as much ability as any young horse he had prepared since moving to Wodonga in 2016, although he expected to learn much more after Saturday's rise to city grade. "He shows great ability here, as much as any young horse I've had up here, and now he's got to take that step to city grade," he said. Jason Lyon retains the ride, with Jarbardar quoted as the $7 second favourite behind Natural Fling.

Hayes Team keeps Plymouth at home

Lindsay Park has elected to keep Plymouth (The Autumn Sun) at 2000 metres and at home in Victoria, with the gelding to line up in race eight on Saturday at Caulfield. Entered for Thursday's Warrnambool feature and also accepted for Gosford, the four-year-old instead heads to the $150,000 Benchmark 100 after the stable decided the shorter trip was the preferred option, with blinkers to go back on for the first time since his second placing in the Herbert Power Stakes (Gr 2, 2400m) last spring. Ben Hayes said the son of The Autumn Sun had been building towards another win despite not breaking through in five runs this campaign. "His last run was good, we just thought he maybe presented a bit early in the straight. He got rolling early and peaked on his run a bit," Hayes said. "Now he's had that good run at 2000, we'll keep him at 2000 and put blinkers on. He's been knocking on the door. He's building to another win." The gelding was runner-up in the Albury Cup (Listed, 2000m) and third at Flemington over the same trip either side of a below-par effort in the Easter Cup (Gr 3, 2000m), and Hayes said a strong showing on Saturday could earn him a winter trip north. "If he runs well we'll consider going up to Brisbane with him," he said. "There are all those races up there that we can head towards, but he needs to run well. If not, we'll put him away and get him ready for the spring." He has drawn barrier seven, which becomes six following the scratching of Sayedaty Sadaty (Anodin), with Jamie Mott to ride for the first time.

Australia next month with the pick of her stable including last-start $200,000 Northam Stakes (Gr 3, 1300m) winner Smooth Chino (Maschino). Weinert, 28, is based in Albany and said the opportunity was too good to refuse. “The Great Southern season is coming to an end and I didn’t want to keep doing all that travelling to Perth and back,” she said. “We’ve purchased a house right on Gawler racecourse and it’s ideal with the track at our doorstep. Some owners have jumped aboard and some haven’t. I totally understand. I had to cull a few anyway because I’m just trying to take quality horses over there.” One likely candidate to relocate is Mister Popcorn (God Has Spoken) who has qualified for the $300,000 Jericho Cup (4600m) at Warrnambool on November 29. Weinert sits third on the WA provincial table with 24 winners this season after making an initial impact last year with Smooth Chino winning the Magic Millions 3YO Trophy (RL, 1200m) and Black Heart Bart Stakes (Listed, 1200m). Smooth Chino was a $40,000 buy from Mogumber Park at the 2023 Perth Magic Millions and has returned $664,000 to date for Weinert and his other part-owners Minnie Hall and Brendan Wilken.

Flemington stable for Brisbane

Wangaratta trainer Ben Brisbane has announced the opening of a new 18-box stable at Flemington Racecourse as the stable expands into Melbourne’s metropolitan training ranks. The move follows a successful autumn, highlighted by victory in the Sires’ Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) with Grinzinger Heart (Toronado) and will provide Brisbane Racing with access to Flemington’s headquarters facilities, as well as improved logistical access to metropolitan and provincial tracks, synthetic surfaces during winter and twilight and night racing through summer. “We felt the time was right to take the next step forward and we were fortunate enough to secure an 18-box stable at Flemington Racecourse,” Brisbane said. Assistant trainer April Moran will oversee the Flemington operation, with the first horses already beginning to move into the new base. Brisbane confirmed operations would continue as normal at the stable’s Wangaratta headquarters and private spelling and training property at Eldorado.

New Zealand

NZTR unveils new welfare strategy

New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing (NZTR) has released a new industry-wide welfare framework, Together for the Thoroughbred, aimed at strengthening standards of care for horses throughout their lives. The strategy brings together existing welfare practices across breeding, racing and life after racing into what NZTR described as a more transparent and evidence-based system, with a stronger focus on traceability, accountability and education. NZTR general manager for welfare and industry capability, Sam Fursdon, said the initiative reinforced welfare as a shared responsibility. “This strategy brings that work together into a clear and consistent framework, and reinforces that welfare is a shared responsibility across the industry,” Fursdon said. “It also sets a clear expectation that every thoroughbred is tracked, cared for, and supported throughout its life and that every decision, from breeding and training through to racing and retirement, is made with the horse’s wellbeing at the centre.” Grounded in the New Zealand-developed Five Domains Model, the strategy takes a science-based approach to welfare, considering physical health, nutrition, behaviour and mental wellbeing. The programme includes a focus on safer racing and training, improved retraining and rehoming pathways, responsible breeding and ownership, and enhanced communication across the industry. Professor Nat Waran said the establishment of a Thoroughbred Welfare and Ethics Advisory Group would provide independent oversight and support ongoing improvement. “The strategy recognises that good welfare is not static,” Waran said. “It requires continuous review, evidence-based decision making and a willingness to evolve as knowledge and community expectations change.”

Forsman eyes trans-Tasman success

Trainer Andrew Forsman will have runners on both sides of the Tasman on Saturday, with stakes performers Kitty Flash (Ace High) and Single Red (Vanbrugh) headlining a busy day for the Cambridge horseman. Forsman’s New Zealand team will be led by Kitty Flash, who will chase a breakthrough black-type victory in the Rotorua ITM Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Arawa Park after placing at stakes level in each of her past three starts. The lightly raced mare resumed with a placing in the City Of Napier Sprint (Listed, 1200m) at Otaki last month and Forsman believes the rise to 1400 metres will suit, although forecast rain remains a concern. “She had to do a bit of work first-up, she would have improved a lot for it,” Forsman said. “I feel like up to 1400 metres suits and clearly the better the track for her the happier we would be.” Stablemate Pacifico (Ardrossan) will contest the Rotorua Cup (Listed, 2200m) after his placing in the Hawke’s Bay Cup (Listed, 2200m). Across the Tasman, New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) placegetter Single Red will begin her Queensland campaign in the Gold Coast Bracelet (Listed, 1800m). “She travelled via Sydney to the Gold Coast last Sunday and has handled it all really well,” Forsman said. “It is a big advantage to have Craig [Grylls] on.” Forsman will also saddle up Mr Mojo Risin’ (Deep Field) at Waverley on Saturday, with the trainer expecting improvement second-up over 1400 metres after removing the gelding’s blinkers.

A Mandarin out to lift spirits in Wairio Cup

Riverton trainer Andrea Dickson is hoping in-form mare A Mandarin (Turn Me Loose) can provide a welcome boost for partner Stephen Love when she contests Sunday's Wairio Cup (2200m) at Ascot Park. Love suffered a fractured pelvis and broken ribs following a paddock accident nearly a fortnight ago after a horse collided with the motorbike he was riding while feeding horses in the dark. "I don't think the horse had seen the motorbike and ran into the side of it and the horse and the motorbike landed on top of him," Dickson said. "He has got four fractures (pelvis) and three or four broken ribs." Dickson is hoping A Mandarin can provide some relief following a difficult period for the couple. "I am hoping my Mandarin can bring us some good luck," she said. The six-year-old heads into the staying feature off a determined open handicap victory over 2215 metres at Ascot Park last month and Dickson believes the mare has returned to the form she showed last season. "It was a pretty tough win, she had to really fight for it, so it was good to see her get that result," she said. A Mandarin's campaign was delayed earlier this season following a paddock mishap in which she injured herself after becoming tangled in a cover, but Dickson said the mare has now returned to full fitness. Winner of six races and over $124,000 in prize money, A Mandarin is raced on lease from Windsor Park Stud and could be nearing the end of her racing career, with the agreement due to expire in July.

UK: Derby winner Lambourn returns to form in Huxley Stakes

A return to Chester proved the perfect tonic for dual Derby hero Lambourn (Australia), who resumed winning form in Friday's Huxley Stakes (Gr 2, 1m 2.5f) and again advertised his class at the track that served him so well last season. The Aidan O'Brien-trained four-year-old, winner of the Epsom Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f), Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) and Chester Vase (Gr 3, 1m 4.5f) in 2025, had tapered off at the end of last year but sharpened up on his return with the application of first-time cheekpieces and a return to more suitable ground. Partnered by Ryan Moore, he travelled strongly throughout and made full use of the 5lb pull in the weights from main rival Bay City Roller (New Bay), edging him out by a neck, with Ice Max (Dark Angel) a further length and a quarter away in third. The Coolmore-owned entire is out of Gossamer Wings (Scat Daddy), a smart juvenile winner over five furlongs who placed in the Queen Mary Stakes (Gr 2, 5f) at Royal Ascot and whose family also includes Australian Group 2 winner Infancy (Wandjina) through her half-sister Childhood (Lonhro). Infancy was a recent offering at the Inglis Chairman's Sale but she failed to meet her reserve.

UK: Constitution River enters Derby frame with emphatic Chester success

Constitution River (Wootton Bassett) announced himself among the leading Epsom Derby prospects when producing a dominant display in Thursday's Dee Stakes (Listed, 1m 2.5f) at Chester. Racing for the first time in almost nine months, the Aidan O'Brien-trained colt started a commanding favourite and justified that support with ease, travelling strongly for Ryan Moore before asserting over a furlong from home, powering clear to beat Generic (Kameko) by seven lengths, with Golden Story (Lope De Vega) a further two and three quarter lengths away in third. The race had been delayed by an hour following a course inspection and lost a key rival when Morshdi (Dubawi) was withdrawn over ground concerns, but there was no taking away from the authority of Constitution River's performance, which came in a race-record 2:06.54 and handed O'Brien a 13th success in the Dee Stakes. His victory came 24 hours after stablemate Benvenuto Cellini (Frankel) advertised his own Derby claims in the Chester Vase (Gr 3, 1m 4.5f), further underlining Ballydoyle's strength in the three-year-old middle-distance division. Already a Group 2 winner at two, Constitution River was bought by MV Magnier for €400,000 at Arqana and is out of Chuppy (Le Havre), a sister to top-class stayer Wonderful Tonight, winner of the Prix de Royallieu (Gr 1, 2800m) and British Champions Fillies & Mares Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f).

UK: Jan Brueghel bounces back in Ormonde Stakes

Jan Brueghel (Galileo) made a successful return from a lengthy break when taking out Thursday's Ormonde Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 5.5f) at Chester, giving Aidan O'Brien a record-extending eighth win in the staying feature. Last seen finishing fourth in the King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 1m 4f) at Ascot in July, the St Leger (Gr 1, 1m 6.5f) and Coronation Cup (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner settled off the speed before Ryan Moore edged him into the clear in the straight, from where he quickened decisively to beat Mount Atlas (Masar) by two and a half lengths, with stablemate Illinois (Galileo) a further two and three quarter lengths away in third. The victory continued the recent dominance of O'Brien and Moore at Chester, the pair combining for an 11th straight winner at the track, while the trainer indicated the five-year-old will now return to Epsom to defend his Coronation Cup title. Jan Brueghel, who was registering the sixth win of his eight-start career, is out of the Group 2-placed Danehill Dancer (Danehill) mare Devoted To You, making him a brother to Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Sovereign and Group 3 winner Dawn Rising, who placed in the Irish St Leger (Gr 1, 1m 6f).
