Nightline set to make headlines for Team Sears

By Paul Symes

Following the recent retirement of Antino, Redwood (High Chaparral) is in need of another headline horse and Westbury Stud's quiet achiever may well have found one in the shape of Nightline, who rocketed into Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) calculations with her eye-catching win in the Gold Coast Bracelet (Listed, 1800m).

Nightline, a NZ$75,000 purchase at Book 2 of the 2024 NZB National Yearling Sale, put paid to her rivals in a mere matter of strides at the Gold Coast last Saturday and if she could follow-up with a repeat performance in The Roses (Gr 2, 2000m) in just under two weeks' time, the filly would start at compressed odds in the staying classic at Eagle Farm in early June.

A Group 1 victory has thus far eluded her co-trainers Tony and Maddysen Sears, who teamed up with respected bloodstock agents Paul Moroney and Catheryne Bruggeman at Karaka to acquire the first foal out of the unraced mare Decimal (El Roca) - whose half-brother Fontelina (Testa Rossa) was a multiple stakes winner for Anthony Cummins.

Team Sears have come agonisingly close to sampling elite-level success, most notably through their iron horse Yellow Brick (The Mission) when he just failed to run down War Machine (Harry Angel) in last year's Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m). Continued on page 2

Continued from page 1 But the family patriarch believes that Nightline – whose younger brother sold for $100,000 to Patrick Payne at Karaka this year – possesses both the credentials and constitution to end the stable’s drought and deliver a seventh Group 1 victory for her sire, who will stand at the Gerry Harvey-owned Westbury Stud for NZ$6,000 (plus GST) this season.

“She was very good on Saturday and she’s already won over the Oaks distance in the Eagle Way at the start of the year, so the trip won’t worry her at all,” Tony Sears told ANZ News.

“She’s also got great versatility in that she handles most conditions. She probably prefers getting her toe in the ground but it won’t bother her either way, most of the Redwoods seem to handle all conditions so she’s fairly typical of the breed in that respect.

“The better horses go on anything, and she’s probably the best filly we’ve trained on what we’ve seen. Antino was a star for Redwood and this filly looks another standout, so hopefully she can be the horse to win a first Group 1 for us.”

Nightline currently shares $5 favouritism alongside recent Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) heroine Panova (Trapeze Artist), who is bidding to become the first filly since the Chris Waller-trained Egg Tart (Sebring) in 2017 to achieve the rare Oaks double.

At $26, Nightline’s stablemate Yellow Brick is less fancied to go one better in this year’s Stradbroke Handicap, which takes place on the Saturday after the Oaks; but having recently returned to action with a power-packed performance under Tommy Berry to justify favouritism in Rockhampton’s $1 million slot race The Archer (1300m), the six-year-old would appear to be improving with age.

With all due respect to the field in The Archer, Yellow Brick will face a much sterner examination at his next start in the Kingsford-Smith Cup (Gr 1, 1300m) on Saturday week, when the likes of Ciaron Maher’s multiple Group 1 winner Jimmysstar (Per Incanto) will be standing in his way.

However, Sears believes the horse affectionately known in the stables as “Brickie” – a $20,000 bargain buy who is on the brink of banking $4 million in prize-money – is well capable of registering a first Group 1 triumph for his unheralded sire The Mission (Choisir).

“I do think he’s going even better this time than he was last year,” Sears said.

“He was well-weighted to win The Archer, but you still have to go up there and do it. Tommy rode him perfectly and we’re hoping he’ll stick with him over the winter carnival, but we haven’t had that 100 per cent confirmed yet.

“He’s a very consistent horse but the biggest thing for him is getting a dry track, because he really doesn’t like the wet. But if he gets a firm surface in the Kingsford-Smith or the Stradbroke, then I think he’s got a very good chance in either race.” Continued on page 4

Continued from page 2 Both Yellow Brick and Nightline were identified at their respective sales by Moroney and Bruggeman, a formidable partnership who for the past six seasons have celebrated more than a century of winners with their purchases for a burgeoning book of clients.

Nightline took Moroney’s tally of individual stakes winners to 164 at the weekend, and the brother of the much-missed trainer Mike Moroney is brimming with confidence that she can now go on to become the 41st Group 1 winner he has secured at the sales since starting out in the industry more than three decades ago.

“Catherine and I thought she was the standout filly across the two books at Karaka that year, and while you don’t always get it right it looks like she will more than justify the high opinion we had of her,” Moroney told ANZ News.

“We thought she was an absolute stunner, so we both fell in love with her instantly. I’ve had success with her family in the past, going back two generations on the dam’s side, so everything aligned and we pushed very hard for Tony and Maddy to buy her. Redwood flies under the radar, he’s probably seen more as a bread-and-butter stallion but he can occasionally produce a very good horse, and I think she falls into that category.

“She definitely has the capability of winning an Oaks, but as you saw when she came out of the pack on Saturday, she has a terrific turn of foot, so she’s certainly not one-dimensional. It augurs very well for her future and when I spoke to Tony on Saturday after the races, he said she’s the best filly he’s trained by some distance.

Yellow Brick

MAGIC MILLIONS

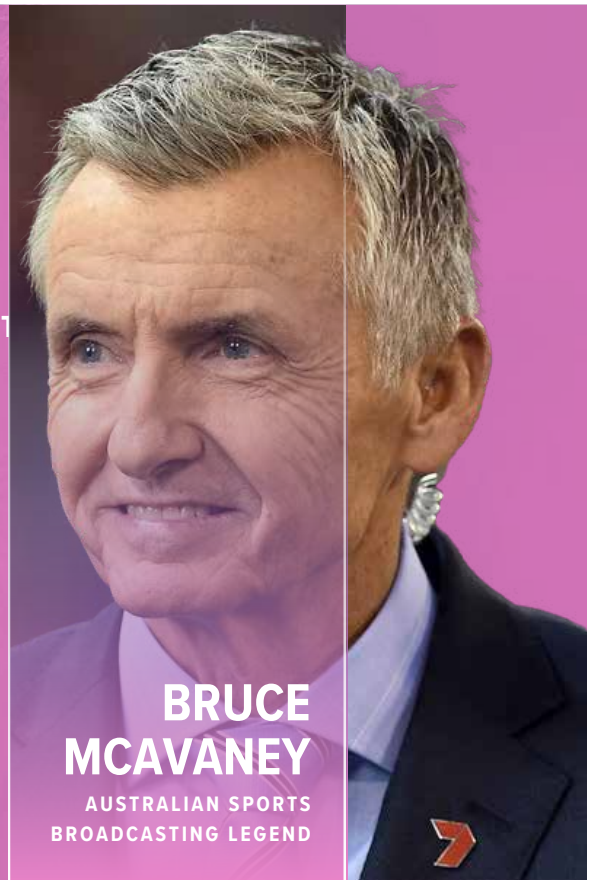

“We’ve had a great association with the stable stretching back many years now, so it would be great if either this filly or Yellow Brick could help Tony reach the pinnacle of his training career with an elusive first Group 1 win, before he steps aside and hands over the full-time reins to Maddy.”

Churchill's Choice bidding for back-to-back cups

Last-start Hawkesbury Gold Cup (Gr 3, 1600m) winner Churchill's Choice (Churchill) will bid to make it back-to-back cup wins when she lines up in Friday's Scone Cup (Listed, 1600m). The Nathan Doyle-trained mare scored a half-length success in the Group 3 last time out and, despite Doyle preferring it if there was an extra week between the Hawkesbury and Scone Cups, the trainer felt this week's race was a good opportunity for an in-form mare. "I don't think she's a horse that actually lacked too much confidence, it's just that she was probably too relaxed in the middle stages of her races," Doyle said. "When they started to increase the tempo in the race, she just wanted to go through the motions a little bit, but she's bounced through the run good and I can't fault her. We think she's quite a fresh horse, so whether the two-week turnaround is a bit quick and she may need a little bit longer time will tell, but we haven't done much with her in between."

Sights lowered for Classic Gem

Group 3-placed filly Classic Gem (Maurice) will be given a drop back in grade on Saturday when she steps out in a 2000-metre contest for three-year-olds at Flemington. A last-start fourth in the Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m), the daughter of Maurice (Screen Hero) also finished fourth in the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) and second in the Alexandra Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) and this weekend's contest represents a big chance to break her maiden at the tenth attempt. "I think she's already added value to what we paid for her," Sutton said of the $170,000 yearling purchase. "Half the job is done, we just need her to go and win a race now. She's multiple stakes-placed, she's run fourth in two Oaks and ran second in a Group 3 first-up for us down here. I think she can

FIRST CROP CLASSIC WINNER

Last year's G1 Marcel Bousac winner Diamond Necklace took her unbeaten record to four with a sparkling success in Sunday's G1 French 1,000 Guineas

What the trainers are saying

“St Monica is a highly promising filly who broke her maiden by 3 lengths on debut and was somewhat unlucky at Group 1 level at her only other start.

I had the confidence to pay $440,000 for what I thought was a standout colt by St Mark's Basilica at Karaka this year.

The exciting thing for me is that whatever they do at two they will continue to improve. I'm a big fan!”

ROGER JAMES

“The three we've got in Australia have all shown great early promise - so much so I went overseas to secure another.”

HENRY DWYER

“La Barrita is a filly we've always had a lot of time for. She's travelled up to Queensland after her impressive debut performance and we have Stakes ambitions for her as a 2YO over the carnival.”

GALVIN McEVoy

“I wish every horse in my stable had a temperament like Mister Whiskers. He's a lovely athletic horse with a beautiful action and a unique presence. We have high hopes for him in the spring.”

win a Listed race, but if she can win any race she's going to be valuable as a broodmare. We did have her in [last weekend] over in Adelaide but after the trip to Sydney, where she had the back-up into the Oaks up there, I think putting her on a truck and travelling her again probably wasn't the right move. So, we just kept her home. She's had five weeks between runs, freshened up well and I like her at Flemington. I think Flemington is a much better track for her than Morphettville."

Single Red makes pleasing start to Queensland campaign

Single Red (Vanbrugh) got her Queensland campaign off to a pleasing start on Saturday when finishing runner-up to Nightline (Redwood) in the Gold Coast Bracelet (Listed, 1800m), and trainer Andrew Forsman is looking forward to what lies ahead for the daughter of Vanbrugh (Encosta De Lago). The Group 1 performer jumped away well under leading Kiwi rider Craig Grylls to sit outside leader Spicy Lu (Tagaloo) and hit the lead at the top of the straight. She looked the winner with 150 metres to go, however, fellow New Zealand-bred filly Nightline flew home late to collect the spoils. "We were rapt with her, it is just a shame it didn't work out as we would have hoped," Forsman said. "She was always going to begin well and put herself there and just got left without cover outside the leader, who just went too quick. I thought they put the pressure on far too early and that run stopped as quickly as it started. She was left in front a fair way out and was always going to be vulnerable, and she got beaten by a pretty smart horse on the day." Forsman's team have been pleased with the way Single Red has come through the race and she will now press on to The Roses (Gr 2, 2000m) at Doomben on May 23 before heading to the Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) at Eagle Farm on June 6. "She has come through it really well, we are rapt with her," Forsman said. "How well she did in that first week over there

Attorney General breaks trial duck at Rosehill

There were six heats won by juveniles at the Rosehill trials on Monday, headed by $1.5 million yearling purchase Attorney General (Snitzel).

The Chris Waller-trained colt is yet to make his racecourse debut but was having his sixth trial start and scored his first win, beating stablemate Katoto (Wootton Bassett) by 1.2 lengths under Jason Collett in a 1030-metre heat.

Purchased by Tom Magnier out of Arrowfield at last year's Inglis Easter sale, Attorney General is the first foal out of the unraced Teofilo (Galileo) mare Subella, herself a granddaughter of Group 1 winner Zomaradah (Deploy) – the dam of champion sire Dubawi (Dubai Millennium).

The Gerald Ryan and Sterling Alexiou-trained Like An Eagle (Home Affairs) ran out an impressive 3.4 lengths winner of his 900-metre heat, defeating Baltusrol (Tiger Of Malay).

A $220,000 Inglis Easter purchase for George Moore Bloodstock, Like An Eagle was bred and sold by Torryburn Stud, just like his sire Home Affairs (I Am Invincible). Like An Eagle is a half-brother to Group 1-placed $1.4 million earner Payline (Shooting To Win) being out of the stakes-winning Casino Prince (Flying Spur) mare Slots.

Written Tycoon (Iglesia) colt Crescent King took his trials record to two wins from as many starts, scoring by 0.2 lengths over Many Peaks (Brutal) in a 900-metre event.

Trained by Peter Snowden, Crescent King was bred by Yulong and purchased for $200,000 at the 2025 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale, before then being resold for $300,000 to Amy Feng when offered in the Kenmore Lodge draft at the Magic Millions Horses in Training Sale the same year.

He is the first foal out of the winning mare True Moonlight (Not A Single Doubt), herself a three-quarter sister-in-blood to Group winners Gunnison (Not A Single Doubt) and Selenia (Not A Single Doubt). Other trial winners on the card were Lion Hunt (Palace Pier), Why So Hard (All Too Hard) and Dubious Express (Dubious).

is encouraging. She was going to improve with that run and we were hopeful that we could have got a win on the board, but we can really set her up for these last two races.”

Mr Brightside set for spring return

Group 1 star Mr Brightside (Bullbars) has recovered well from a minor surgery and is set to make his return to the track in the spring. Having last been seen running fifth in the Champions Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) on November 8, the Team Hayes-trained rising nine-year-old will be geared up for a return in the Memsie Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) on August 29 – a race he won back in 2023. “He’s in good order, the champ, and he’s about to start pre-season,” JD Hayes, who trains in partnership with his brothers Ben and Will, told Racing.com. “He’s recovered beautifully from surgery and enjoyed a very quiet autumn. We can’t fault him and he’s about to embark on his spring preparation. He’s got a fair amount of weight on him as he’s been in a nice, green paddock. He hasn’t missed any dances for the last four years, so he’s enjoyed a bit of time off. He’s had 48 starts...when you go through his record, it’s quite phenomenal; he’s only finished worse than fifth once in his life and that was over in Hong Kong. He’s been a model of consistency. It will be easy to tell if he’s no longer interested in being a racehorse, but his tenacity and the way that he’s working, he’s as genuine as the day is long, and we’re expecting another good spring. We’re a long way away from his first-up target, which will be the Memsie. Because he’s so effective at this weight-for-age mile races, his program is pretty-much set in stone. We can change tack if we need to, but he’ll be running in all those traditional races, the ones he’s competed in for the last four years.”

New Zealand

Pencarrow provides headline Rotorua act

A pair of Irish-bred daughters of Fastnet Rock (Danehill) combined to give Pencarrow Stud a memorable day at Rotorua on Saturday, headed by Churchillian’s (Churchill) victory in the Rotorua Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m). Prepared by Tony Pike, the six-year-old mare is out of Fastnet Rock mare Fond Du Coeur and doubled her black-type tally with a front-running success under Joe Doyle, taking her record to ten wins. “Fastnet Rock is a great influence, and it can take a bit of time to come through, but unfortunately you can’t keep them all,” Pencarrow Stud manager Leon Casey said. Churchillian was sold by Pencarrow to bloodstock agent Paul Willetts for NZ$100,000 at Karaka and has now earned stakes victories in both the Rotorua Stakes and Anniversary Handicap (Gr 3, 1600m). Pencarrow also enjoyed success through Midnight Train (Yes Yes Yes), who finished a close second over 1400 metres for trainer Ralph Manning. The lightly raced three-year-old, out of Pencarrow’s Fastnet Rock mare Assume, had previously filled the runner-up spot in the Wellington Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m). Pencarrow retained a two-year-old half-sister to Midnight Train by Circus Maximus (Galileo) after she was passed in at Karaka earlier this year. “We kept the filly and she is spelling on our hill block at the moment,” Casey said.

Reed dancing on air following debut win

Amateur jockey Alexandra Reed made the perfect start to her raceday career when guiding Air Dancer (Stephanos) to victory in the Race Images Amateur Riders 2060 (2060m) at Wanganui on Sunday. Prepared by Clinton Isdale, Air Dancer gave Reed a winning debut in the Rating 65 contest after she took the rails run to score by 1.3 lengths over Billy Boy (So You Think), with Bernardo (Belardo) a further length back in third. “It was a great feeling,” Reed said. “I was quite certain that the horse would go okay but being my first raceday ride I didn’t want to mess it up.” The result carried extra significance for Reed, whose mother Trish was on course on Mother’s Day to witness the milestone. “It was really awesome having Mum there,” Reed said. “She has always been a great supporter right from when we were on ponies.” A qualified engineer who previously worked as a fitter machinist, Reed left the industry to pursue riding full-time and now freelances at Cambridge. “Shaune Ritchie and Colm Murray were a big help when I first started riding” she said. “I met Clint and he gave me huge opportunities and always believed in my riding.” Reed said she hopes to continue riding through winter before eventually pursuing a trainer’s licence. “Ultimately, I would like to get my trainer’s licence, that is my main goal in a year or so,” she said.

NZB release online catalogue for National Weanling Sale

NZB National Weanling Sale catalogue now online

NZB

The countdown to NZB's 2026 National Weanling Sale is underway, with a high quality catalogue of 140 youngsters by New Zealand's best stallions now available to view online at nzb.co.nz, with physical copies arriving in mailboxes soon.

Set to be held on Thursday, June 25 at Karaka, the sale offers plenty of opportunities for both pinhookers and end users to secure commercial and racing stock, with the session a proven source of racetrack and investment success.

Buyers will have the opportunity to secure progeny of established and emerging sires such as Savabeel (Zabeel), Proisir (Choisir), Super Seth (Dundeel), Sword Of State (Snitzel), Almanzor (Wootton Bassett), Ace High (High Chaparral), Per Incanto (Street Cry), and Satono Aladdin (Deep Impact) to name just a few.

"The catalogue features the same commercial quality you would expect at the National Yearling Sale, which provides a fantastic opportunity for pinhookers and investors," NZB bloodstock sales manager Kane Jones said.

"There are a number of high-profile sires featured which is a huge drawcard, as well as a first glimpse of progeny by first-season sires Chaldean, Hilal, Mr Mozart and Paddington.

"We've been supported by a number of leading vendors and top New Zealand breeders, with a rare chance to buy into Karaka-quality weanlings."

All weanlings offered are eligible to be nominated for NZB's lucrative Karaka Millions Series featuring the Karaka Millions 2YO (RL, 1200m) and the Karaka Millions 3YO (RL, 1600m).

Weanlings entered in the sale will be available for inspections at the on-farm parades, due to take place in early June, and on-site at the Karaka Sales Centre, with NZB agents available to inspect on behalf of buyers. The schedule will be available soon.

Jones also expects the catalogue to attract interest from across the Tasman, with plenty of Australians expected to be in town.

"We expect all the local participants to be active, but I think with the dollar the way it is at the moment, we fully expect some Australians to make the trip over as well," Jones told ANZ.

"We have had some wonderful graduates come out of the sale and some really successful pinhook results as well, so I fully expect there will be some more great results come out of the sale this year and there is something for everybody.

"I think we are really focused on the proven and emerging sires and I am really happy that all of the New Zealand first-season sires are represented in the catalogue, albeit a small but select offering.

"It will give buyers a little taste of what is on offer, particularly looking ahead to 2027. I think 140 lots is a good number and enough to have plenty of people interested."

View the 140-lot catalogue here. The catalogue can also be viewed on the Equineline app for iPads/tablets, or the Thoroughworks mobile app.

Kiwi Chronicles

Outa my way!

By Lloyd Jackson

Described by owner Trish Dunell as “my lovely girl”, South Australian Fillies Classic (Gr 3, 2546m) winner Fringes (Niagara) has another side to her. The evidence is the filly’s rugged determination from the 200-metre mark as favourite Cushioned (Ghaiyyaith) bore out, effectively closing the gate for Fringes.

Instead of being halted, Fringes shouldered her way alongside the Godolphin filly and forged a way through. This put her off stride for a second or two but there was still a race to be won and she had two to pass. Showing true grit she knuckled down to catch the leader, Certainly Quiet (Dundeel), and put her head in front a stride off the line. “It wasn’t pretty, but we got the job done,” said rider Ben Melham. “It was a really good, tough effort by the filly.”

Fringes’ race career began with an unexpected 1400-metre win on debut at Otaki on Boxing Day. She won well that day with a bold and wide run from well back, prompting her connections to accept for the Desert Gold Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) in mid January but the filly had to be scratched on the morning of the race.

Two weeks on was the Group 2 Lowland Stakes over 2100 metres and the step up in class was perhaps a little ambitious at just her second start, but she handled the extra distance, plugging away for ninth when the race was over.

Her last race in New Zealand was a fair seventh over 1600 metres at Otaki before she was sent to Michael Hickmott in South Australia, her initial run from her new stable taking place at Morphettville over a too short 1400 metres.

Fringes

ATKINS PHOTOGRAPHY

So too was the Clare Lindop Stakes (Listed, 1600m) – causing Hickmott to look elsewhere, settling on a mid-April 2200-metre Class 1 race at Balaklava, which she won comfortably, doing her best work late. This effort was reminiscent of her Otaki win, from back and wide, setting her up for the Fillies Classic, the distance of which allowed her to take up a handier spot in the running where, again, she was doing her best work late.

It should be no surprise that Fringes would appreciate the 2500 metres. Her mum, Miss Jaydeejay, is a Golan (Spectrum) sister to a Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) winner in Kibbutz. Their half-sister, Miss Andrea (King’s Chapel), produced Riverton Cup (Listed, 2147m) winner Our Boy Ritchie (He’s Remarkable).

Miss Jaydeejay’s grandam is Forn Vell (Air Trooper) whose Scandinavian race record included 15 wins up to 2800 metres. Forn Vell was successful in three Listed races. Dunell found Miss Jaydeejay at the NZB Karaka Mixed Sale in 2014. The mare was carrying her first foal.

The busiest race and sales photographer in New Zealand, Dunell has been consistent in her praise and support for Niagara (Encosta De Lago). Miss Jaydeejay, herself a winner over 2200 metres, visited him six times for four foals. Fringes is her second last foal. Her last is an unnamed 2YO colt by Ocean Park (Thorn Park) as she died in 2024.

Fringes becomes the eighth individual stakes winner for Niagara, whose winning strike-rate is a very respectable 62 per cent, comprising 134 winners from 216 to race.

Oaks bound

Nightline (Redwood), winner of Saturday’s Gold Coast Bracelet (Listed, 2100m) to become the 16th individual stakes winner for Westbury Stud’s Redwood (High Chaparral), put herself on the front line of chances in the upcoming Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m).

The Bracelet was the filly's eighth raceday start and she has won four of them but this effort has Queensland Oaks written all over it as she looked a forlorn chance when the field straightened for the run home.

Behind a wall of runners at the top of the straight she found a gap but had to fight for it, after which there was a clear run to the line. She had to gather herself but once in full flight, she raced past the leader at the 50 metres and was going away at the line.

Nightline opened her account at start two at Caloundra, adding wins two and three at Doomben in December and Eagle Farm in January, the latter over 2100 metres. A short spell saw her back at Eagle Farm on Anzac Day and a game finish for third over a mile in the Princess Stakes (Listed, 1600m), the perfect set up for Saturday's breakthrough stakes win.

Found by astute bloodstock agents Paul Moroney and Catheryne Bruggerman for $75,000 at the 2024 NZB Karaka Yearling Sale (Book 2), Nightline is from the unraced El Roca (Fastnet Rock) half-sister to Fontelina (Testa Rossa), a dual Group 2 winner (at Flemington) and three-times Listed winner. Fontelina was merely a notch below top class evidenced by his seconds in the William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) as well as the Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m).

Nightline and Fontelina could credit some of their inherited ability from Fontelina's grandam Electrique (Zephyr Zip), who may have won just three times but two of her wins were Randwick's Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and Rosehill's Ansett Australia Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m), not to mention her placings in the AJC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) and The Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Caulfield.

Redwood's male stakes-winning progeny number 11, compared to five females. Topping his output are three Group 1 winners, including Classic winner Sharp 'N' Smart, winner of the 2023 New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m). Nightline has the talent to add a fourth.

Class wins

"She is a good, tough mare and that is her tenth win today. Not many horses do that." So said Chris McNab, stable representative for the Tony Pike stable regarding Churchillian (Churchill), winner of the Rotorua Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at weight-for-age for fillies and mares.

Churchillian not only went into the race the best qualified, she also enjoyed a clever ride from Joe Doyle. That combination was undeniable. Doyle had her in front throughout but when the field turned for home he kept her tight to the running rail which allowed her skip clear. The result was never in doubt all the way to the line.

The now 6YO mare has raced just 25 times and Saturday's win was her tenth. She did not race at two but landed her maiden win on debut at three, coincidentally at Rotorua. Along the way she progressed through the grades, taking out wins at Awapuni, Tauranga, Hastings, Te Rapa, and Pukekohe. Her seventh win was her best, the Anniversary Handicap (Gr 3, 1600m) at Trentham. Perhaps not the most consistent form-wise, but when she's on, she's on.

Mild lameness soon after her Trentham win in January 2024 meant one start in 17 months but in ten current season starts, she has added wins eight, nine and ten for career earnings of $358,890.

At six this might be her last season of racing and she will make a lovely broodmare, something that respected bloodstock agent Paul Willetts would no doubt have considered when he purchased her at the 2021 NZB Karaka Yearling Sale (Book 1). Her bloodlines are highly desirable.

The writer was in the ring at the time of her purchase for $100,000 from Pencarrow Stud and her page shows a series of check marks next to the sires of each of the three dams on the page. Her dam, Fond Du Coeur, is a Fastnet Rock (Danehill) sister-in-blood to French multiple Group winner One Foot In Heaven. Her grandam is a Peintre Celebre (Nureyev) sister to triple Group 1 winner and champion mare Pride (Peintre Celebre), the dam of One Foot In Heaven.

Pride's half-sister Specifically (Sky Classic) produced The One Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) winner Speciosa (Danehill Dancer) and Churchillian's great grandam, Specificity, is a Listed winner by Alleged (Hoist The Flag) as well as a half-sister to the dual St Leger (Gr 1, 14f) winner Touching Wood (Roberto). The family traces to a half-sister to influential sire Bold Ruler (Nasrullah).

Churchill (Galileo) is responsible for 34 stakes winners including the recently highlighted The Foxes, who is to stand his first season at Novara Park this coming spring. Churchillian is one of two winners from her dam. Quality black-type abounds in the family and she will be a most attractive proposition for any stud to consider.

A string to his bow

The stock of Waikato Stud's Ardrossan (Redoute's Choice) are largely sprinters and sprinter-milers. Ardrossan himself was a 1200-metre sprinter who nabbed a third placing in the BCD Sprint (Gr 1, 1400m) at Te Rapa but due to a very short race career, we will never know if he could have succeeded beyond 1400 metres.

Pacifico

RACE IMAGES

Interestingly, three of Ardrossan's now nine individual stakes winners have landed black type wins beyond 1600 metres, namely Beau Dazzler in Eagle Farm's Grand Prix Stakes (Gr 3, 1800m) and Saltcoats in the Wyong Cup (Listed, 2100m). Number three is Pacifico, from Ardrossan's first crop, winner of Saturday's Rotorua Cup (Listed, 2200m). Versatility is a good trait to possess in a stallion.

In Pacifico's case, he did not race at two and at three took six starts to break maiden status and that was also at Rotorua right at the end of his 3YO season. It took a further six starts to post win two the following spring but his winter preparation as a late 4YO brought three successive wins last June, at Te Aroha, Tauranga and Ruakaka, the last in open company, namely the Whangarei Gold Cup (2100m).

This season he again scored an open handicap at Te Aroha two starts before his maiden stakes success, arriving at Rotorua off a steady third in the Hawkes Bay Cup (Listed, 2200m). Clearly he is a tough customer as six of his seven victories (from 26 starts) have taken place on heavy tracks. Hard ridden after turning for home, Pacifico looked as if second would be his lot at the 100 metres but he refused to buckle and ground out a tough win.

Pacifico was offered but passed in at the 2022 NZB Karaka Ready To Run Sale. His reserve was $75,000 and to date his bank stands at $249,665.

His tough staying prowess might be due to his female family. First, he is from a Montjeu (Sadler's Wells) mare, Carib, herself successful up to 2100 metres. Carib has foaled six winners as well as Sade (Savabeel), the dam of Desert Gold Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) winner Force Of Will (Power).

Carib's half-sister is the talented filly/mare My Tusker (Volksraad) who landed three Group 2s and also placed second in the Waikato International Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m). Another half-sister is Special Favour (General Nediym), dam of Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) and Toorak Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) victor Mr Quickie (Shamus Award).

However, all mentioned so far are overshadowed. Pacifico's grandam, Stella Artois (Star Way) ranks as a half-sister to Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winner Brew (Sir Tristram) as well as to Latte (Maroof) - who foaled Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Fiumicino (Zabeel).

They are each out of Horlicks (Three Legs), the outstanding mare of her time and winner of 17 races, five of which were at Group 1 level, and that does not include her win against the best in the world in the 1989 Japan Cup (2400m).
