Lot 326: Zoustar ex Grandstraand colt with Luke McDonald

SHARON LEE CHAPMAN

Baramul colt a Magic Millions weanling sale standout

By Karl Patterson

Inspections are in full swing for the Magic Millions National weanling sale and prospective buyers coming into the complex from the car park cannot miss the Baramul Stud consignment in the Chester stable.

Baramul has 20 weanlings catalogued for Sunday's sale and racing manager Luke McDonald is hoping buyers will be patient picking their penultimate colt to go through the sale-ring as one of the standouts of the draft. Catalogued as Lot 326, he's a son of Widden Stud's Champion Australian Sire Zoustar from I Am Invincible mare Grandstraand.

"He's by the right sire and you can also see the 'Vinnie' in him," McDonald said. "He's well-shaped, precocious and has so much commercial appeal. Buyers will gravitate to him and make money whether they're end-users or pinhookers for the Yearling Sales or Ready To Run Sales next year."

There are only two entries by Zoustar at the Gold Coast and his weanlings are at a premium this year with the three-quarter brother to Zousain being the only one to change hands at the Inglis Weanling Sale earlier this month. Continued on page 3

Continued from page 2 Baramul Stud's Zoustar colt is the first foal from Grandstraand who is an unraced daughter of MRC Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) winner Mrs Onassis (General Nediym). Trained by Gerald Ryan, Mrs Onassis was also successful at Listed level in the ATC Starlight Stakes (1100m) at Rosehill and MRC Alinghi Stakes (1100m) at Caulfield.

Mrs Onassis is a homebred for Magic Millions owner Gerry Harvey and is one of eight black-type winners under third-dam Miss Jakeo (Unbridled's Song). Her latest foal is a Hawaii Five Oh colt on the ground at Baramul.

Baramul has a stake in Vinery Stud sire Hawaii Five Oh (I Am Invincible) and has entered six of his first-crop foals for the Magic Millions Weanling Sale. "His colt out of our NZ-bred mare One Pose (Lot 72) is a lovely mover and light on his feet," McDonald said. "His dam is a young mare by Swiss Ace who is building a very good strike-rate as a broodmare sire.

"The Hawaii Five Oh foals are cookie cutters. He really stamps them and the feedback has been exciting. We've had broodmare owners asking if we have any of his shares available on the back of these first foals," he said.

Another highlight from Baramul is the Pierro filly out of speedy I Am Invincible mare Selburose (Lot 126). "Pierro needs no introduction and the filly's dam was a multiple city winner in Sydney and Melbourne for Chris Waller.

"Selburose was a high-cruising mare who could cut out some extra-fast sectionals and her filly is 9 out of 10 looks with the scope to grow into that frame. She will make a racehorse," McDonald enthused.

Timing is everything and Vinery Stud has foals by its resident sires All Too Hard (Casino Prince) and Exceedance (Exceed and Excel) for sale on Sunday as well as a Shinzo colt from Hot Little Thing (Army Mule) in their draft as Lot 338.

All Too Hard has been a mainstay on the Vinery roster and he added another juvenile stakes-winner to his impressive resume when Music Time claimed the Black Opal Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) in March. Music Time signalled a bright future for Canberra trainer Gratz Vella when following up with an on-pace third to Guest House and Streisand in Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m).

The latest All Too Hard black-type winner, his 34th, arrived when Losesomewinmore landed a last-to-first victory in the VRC Straight Six Handicap (Listed, 1200m) at Flemington just last Saturday.

The All Too Hard chestnut filly from Vinery is out of Headwater mare Water Dove (Lot 202) who was a 2YO winner for Brett Cavanaugh. "I can see her being an early winner, too," General Manager of Vinery, Adam White said. "She's a compact, neat filly and already looks to be a forward filly."

Shinzo (Snitzel) topped the Inglis Weanling Sale with a $600,000 filly (ex Special Lover) and his colt from Vinery is the second foal out of a USA-bred mare, Hot Little Thing, a lightly raced juvenile sprinter who won the Back Home Again Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Indianapolis.

"Shinzo did extra well with his first foals in Sydney," White said. "Our foal is an attractive type and looks like she will be a forward filly."

The Exceedance - Meow colt, lot 46, fits the same category. He is a half-brother to Ballarat 2YO winner Honor Galore (Spirit Of Boom) and their dam is by Vinery legend More Than Ready (USA) who sired Golden Slipper (Gr 1, 1200m) winners Sebring and Phelan Ready amongst his 236 international Stakes winners.

Coolmore Stud freshman Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) had 11 foals which averaged $205,000 at the Inglis Weanling Sale with another 11 catalogued for the Magic Millions National Sale.

Home Affairs has four colts and two fillies from Coolmore and one of the highlights is Lot 251, the half-sister to MRC Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Madame Pommery (No Nay Never).

They are from Exceed And Excel mare Cancel who is a full-sister to MRC Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Earthquake. "She's in the same mould as Madame Pommery," Coolmore's Marketing & Nominations manager Tom Moore said. "She's a quality, high-end filly with a top-class pedigree. She had plenty going for her and wouldn't be out of place in any sale anywhere."

Madame Pommery was foaled and raised at Coolmore and sold for $150,000 to Chris Waller as a yearling in 2021. She returned to Coolmore after being purchased by Tom Magnier for $2.7 million at the 2024 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale.

The Magic Millions weanling sale will start from 10am on Sunday the 24th of May.

Morning Briefing

Australia

The Next Episode lands $1 million Magic Millions feature

The Next Episode (Snitzel) claims the million-dollar Magic Millions 2YO Classic (1000m) at the Gold Coast on Friday night beating Natural Fling (Home Affairs) and Lucky Pat (Lucky Vega). Bred in partnership by Widden Stud with Warringah Stud Farm and Frampton Racing, it was a dominant display from the $2.8 million yearling whose record now stands at three wins and a second from five starts and over $800,000 in prizemoney. "Look, he's a very, very, very good colt. The owners have all stumped up a bit of cash for him and, so far, he looks cheap" said a relieved trainer Ciaran Maher after the race, "It was a bit of a plan for a while, this race. He showed us he had plenty of ability early and we just had to wait for him and this prep he's really shown his class". With two-year-old results playing such an influential role in the Australian bloodstock market, the battle for the 2YO Sires title is proving to be one of the most interesting of the season. Snitzel is vying for a sixth 2YO title and has taken the lead back from soon to be Champion first season sire, Home Affairs.

Waller plotting tactical response to Pride Of Jenni

Birdman

Chris Waller admits finding the right tactical approach against Pride Of Jenni (Pride of Dubai) remains one of racing's toughest assignments ahead of Saturday's Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2000m). Waller will saddle Birdman (Free Eagle), Asterix (Tavistock) and Kovalica (Ocean Park) against the Ciaran Maher-trained mare, whose trademark front-running display proved too strong in the Hollindale Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) earlier this month. Birdman came closest to reeling her in on that occasion, finishing second beaten three-quarters of a length. "Trying to take on Pride Of Jenni ... you've got to find the happy medium to make sure you're in a winning position, but at the same time still have something left to give at the finish," Waller said. "How do I approach it? I just fully respect Pride Of Jenni. She is a good horse." Waller suggested several runners may look to settle closer to the speed without directly challenging the favourite early. "If we all ride our horses that touch closer, without taking Pride Of Jenni on but staying in contact with her, it gives every horse a chance," he said. "But if we let Pride Of Jenni get five lengths in front, they won't beat her." Pride Of Jenni heads betting at $3.20 ahead of Half Yours and Birdman. Waller said improving track conditions would enhance Birdman's chances, with the gelding considered more effective on firmer ground after Doomben improved from heavy to Soft 7 by Friday. "Asterix is racing, I wouldn't say in career-best form, but close to it," Waller said. "He's racing with confidence, and he will appreciate a strong 2000. "Kovalica has run third in the race twice, and he ran okay in the Hollindale. He won the Q22 last year and he's on track for that again."

after being found mildly lame during a pre-race veterinary inspection on Friday morning. The reigning Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winner, trained by Tony and Calvin McEvoy, will undergo a further veterinary examination on Saturday morning prior to scratching time. Queensland racing officials confirmed the issue in a statement released on Friday. "Please be aware that following a pre-race veterinary trot up this morning Half Yours was found to have mild lameness in the right hind leg," the statement read. "Half Yours will undergo a further examination tomorrow morning prior to scratching time." Scratching time for the Doomben meeting is 7.30am. The five-year-old son of St Jean is third up in the $1 million feature after resuming with a midfield finish in the All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) before running fourth behind Pride Of Jenni (Pride of Dubai) in the Hollindale Stakes (Gr 2, 1800m) a fortnight ago. At the time of Friday's announcement, Half Yours occupied the second line of betting for the Doomben Cup behind Pride Of Jenni and narrowly ahead of Birdman (Free Eagle).

Thebudgiesmugla out to maintain perfect 2400m record

Thebudgiesmugla (Redwood) will put his unbeaten record at 2400 metres on the line when he steps out at Randwick on Saturday. The former New Zealand galloper tackles the Sporting Chance Cancer Foundation Handicap (2400m) for trainer Bjorn Baker, having won both previous starts over the distance at Rosehill during the spring. Baker's racing manager Luke Hilton said the five-year-old had signalled he was nearing peak fitness with a strong performance over 2100 metres at Gosford last start. "His run was full of merit at Gosford," Hilton said. "He got taken on early when they made some mid-race moves and he was still pretty tough second-up. He gets out to 2400, it's his ideal distance and some cut in the track will definitely bring him into it."

Final two mares announced for Magic Millions National sale

The final two additions have been added to next week's Magic Millions National Broodmare sale at the Gold Coast.

Group Three winner Melody Again (Your Song) and Flemington Listed winner Basilinna (Staphanos) only add further depth to the catalogue.

Melody Again won six races to 1400 metres and won the Dark Jewel Classic (Gr 3, 1400m) at Scone last year. The mare has been stakes placed in both the Festival Stakes (Gr 3, 1500m) and the Newcastle Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m).

One of her finest runs was in April when she was beaten less than a length when fourth to Lazzura (Snitzel) in the Coolmore Classic (Gr 1, 1500m). She beat the likes of Manaal (Tassort), Savvy Hallie (Hellbent), Ole Dancer (Ole Kirk) and You Wahng (So You Think).

Melody Again will be offered as Lot 568, as part of the Newgate draft.

Going under the hammer as lot 569, Basilinna will be offered by Attunga Stud. The daughter of Deep Impact's (Sunday Silence) Group winning son Staphanos, the mare is a three time winner and won last year's Andrew Ramsden Stakes (L, 2800m) in emphatic style.

Basilinna proved to be one of the better three-year-olds of her generation with a second in the AV Kewney Stakes (Gr 2, 1600m) and third in the VRC Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) and the Ethereal Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m).

In feature races she beat home the likes of Group One or Group Two winners Tropical Squall (Prized Icon), Coco Sun (The Autumn Sun), Apulia (Fiorente), Just Fine (Sea The Stars), Sassy Boom (Spirit of Boom), Smokin' Romans (Ghibellines), Philia (All Too Hard) and Military Mission (Mastercraftsman).

Thebudgiesmugla was purchased out of New Zealand by syndicators Darby Racing, who have enjoyed success sourcing tried horses from across the Tasman, including Goldman (Verdi) and Campaldino (Ghibellines). Hilton said the gelding's quirky name had already helped him build a following. "He came across with the name, but it's a great name and it will get a bit of a cult following, hopefully," he said. Connections have flagged a possible rise to stakes company should the gelding continue to progress through the winter. "Bjorn put him away with the idea of being back around winter time and maybe having a look at Queensland," Hilton said. "We'll see how he goes on Saturday. There are a lot of nice options for him." Thebudgiesmugla is one of four runners for Baker at Randwick, alongside Amazing Eagle (Capitalist) and Snack Bar (Frosted) in the Uphire Handicap (1000m), plus Mawjood (Tassort) in the final event. Hilton said Mawjood was expected to improve sharply third-up, particularly if the Randwick surface remained rain-affected. "Winkers go back on Saturday and he's ready to peak," he said.

Smith weighing wet-track gamble with talented sprinter Lyles

Lyles SPORTPIX

Trainer Matthew Smith admits he is still learning about promising sprinter Lyles (Exceed and Excel) as the gelding prepares to resume in Saturday's Uphire Handicap (1000m) at Randwick. Smith is comfortable running on a soft surface but said a heavy track would test the lightly raced four-year-old, who carries 61kg first-up. "He's a talented type of horse, I just don't know about him on a heavy track," Smith told Racing NSW. Lyles has gradually developed into a specialist short-course horse after initially racing over 1200 metres. He heads into Saturday unbeaten in three starts below that trip after a successful spring campaign. "Early on we got him wrong," Smith said. "We went back to basics and accepted that maybe he wants a shorter trip where he could roll along and enjoy that." The gelding strengthened his trainer's confidence with an impressive 1045m Randwick trial win on a Soft 7 surface last week. "He looks great, I'm very happy with him and if he handles the track he'll be right there," Smith said. Stablemate Prima Bella (Per Incanto) is expected to relish rain-affected conditions in the same race. "She loves it wet, she'll relish the conditions," Smith said. Meanwhile, stable star Headwall (Dream Ahead) is set to return in an 800m Warwick Farm trial on Monday after injury curtailed a potential Everest campaign last spring. The six-year-old announced himself as a TAB Everest contender when defeating Lady Shenandoah (Snitzel) in the Concorde Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) last September. Smith hopes to give Headwall a winter run before targeting another spring campaign. "I'd like to run him this prep then set him up for the spring," he said.

Asgarda chasing another wet-track win before spell

Asgarda (The Brothers War) will look to finish her campaign on a high when she lines up at Randwick on Saturday, with trainer John Sargent admitting he wishes he had trained the mare earlier in her career. The 2024 Country Championships winner joined Sargent's stable this season and broke through for her first victory for the trainer at Hawkesbury three weeks ago. "She loves it wet but this will probably be her last run and she'll go for a spell," Sargent told Racing NSW. Despite often flying under the radar, Asgarda has put together a consistent campaign that included placings in the Wenona Girl Handicap (Gr 3, 1200m) and the Little Dance, along with a fourth in the Mona Lisa Stakes (Gr 3, 1350m). The six-year-old faces a wide draw on Saturday, but Sargent believes her on-speed racing pattern and preference for rain-affected ground will help offset the barrier. "She's an on-speed horse and she will roll forward from out there," he said. Stablemate Glad You Think So (So You Think) will also contest the race after Sargent opted to keep him to a mile rather than stepping him to 2000 metres first-up. The gelding was a last-start winner at Kensington in March and is expected to appreciate softer ground. "He's won two at a mile at Randwick," Sargent said. Meanwhile, veteran stayer Casual Connection (Complacent) is set to tackle the Sporting Chance Cancer Foundation Handicap (2400m) before heading for a spell. Sargent is forgiving of the gelding's last-start failure in the Warrnambool Cup on a testing Heavy 10 surface. "He's in great form, he just keeps improving and he worked enormous on Tuesday," he said.

Banknote Hustler chasing hat-trick at Murray Bridge

Former juvenile stakes performer Banknote Hustler (Capitalist) will look to continue his resurgence when he heads to Murray Bridge on Saturday in search of a third consecutive victory. Trained by Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr, the gelding lines up in the Daish Irrigation & Fodder Handicap (1100m) following wins at Geelong and Pakenham. Banknote Hustler showed early promise as a two-year-old, contesting the Todman Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) behind Tentyris (Street Boss), where he finished ahead of subsequent stakes performers Beiwacht (Bivouac) and Pallaton (Wootton Bassett). While he has not returned to stakes company, Kent Jnr believes the gelding is beginning to fulfil his potential. "He ran very slick time when he won at Geelong," Kent said. "The track was very firm that day and, as a result, he did pull up with a sore knee, so we gave him a fair break." Banknote Hustler resumed from six months off the scene with a strong victory at Pakenham on a testing surface earlier this month. "It was his first run in six months on a testing Pakenham track and Olivia Rose (Written Tycoon), who ran second, goes quite well, so I thought it was a good effort," Kent said. "The horse will just keep getting better and better. He's definitely a progressive city-class type galloper." The gelding drops back from 1200 metres to 1100 metres on Saturday, although Kent said the spacious Murray Bridge circuit should offset the distance drop. "We are coming back to 1100, but that won't worry him because he's not short of any speed and the Murray Bridge track should suit him," he said. Jason Holder has the ride from barrier five.

Starzintheireyes building toward bigger spring targets

Imported galloper Starzintheireyes (Starspangledbanner) could earn himself a spring campaign if he can build on an encouraging Australian debut at Randwick on Saturday. The four-year-old, trained by Tom Charlton, resumes in the General Australia Handicap (2000m) after an eye-catching first-up second behind Sacrify at Hawkesbury earlier this month. A Group 3 winner at Newmarket as a two-year-old, Starzintheireyes impressed Charlton despite encountering traffic issues in the straight and conceding 9kg to the winner. "It was a good effort and if you run the race again he might have been able to win," Charlton told Racing NSW. "The step to 2000 metres on a big track at Randwick should suit the horse really well. He's a strong galloper, he'll stay well this horse." Charlton believes the lightly raced import is still improving as he adapts to Australian conditions. "It's early days for him, he's still settling in and getting used to his new surroundings and new way of racing but we'd like to think he's got a decent future," he said. "He should love a soft track. A soft track at Randwick is the sort of scenario he can prove to be most effective on." Zac Lloyd takes the ride with the gelding dropping 4kg from his Hawkesbury run. Charlton will also unveil another import, Mr Chaplin (Without Parole), in the Wilson Asset Management Handicap (1400m). The trainer said the gelding, who has only raced on firm ground in the UK, would improve with racing after three educational trials in Australia. Stablemate Interjection (Too Darn Hot) also resumes in the same race.

Highvol to remain in Melbourne after Sandown assignment

Highvol (Microphone) will chase consecutive victories when he lines up in the Sportsbet Fixed Odds Exotics Handicap (1600m) at Sandown on Saturday, with trainer Nick Ryan favouring a Melbourne campaign over a Queensland trip. The only stakes winner by former Goldolphin stallion Microphone (Exceed and Excel) returned to winning form at Caulfield earlier this month and Ryan believes the gelding is now beginning to put together a consistent preparation after an interrupted start to his career. "He was very good the other day," Ryan said. "He's got to carry 60 kilos on Saturday, but he's the best horse in the race, by the looks of it, and the mile is good." Highvol showed early promise winning his first two starts as a juvenile before illness ruled out a planned Queensland campaign last year. The gelding later produced a solid spring campaign, finishing runner-up in the Geelong Classic (Listed, 2200m) before contesting the Victoria Derby (Gr 1, 2500m). "He had a frustrating spring," Ryan said. "He got very sick after his good two-year-old days, so he did a good job to get up for the spring and that's why I skipped the autumn with him." Ryan said Highvol was unlikely to target the Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m), with the stable instead eyeing further races in the Mahogany Challenge Series in Melbourne. "He's not a Derby horse and the prizemoney is just as good here," he said. Ryan will also saddle Winnasedge (Cliff's Edge) at Sandown, with the gelding returning from a lengthy spell after minor knee surgery.

RV investigates irregularity involving Gathers No Stone

Racing Victoria stewards have opened an investigation after a prohibited substance was detected in a pre-race blood sample taken from Gathers No Stone (Bel Esprit). The gelding, trained by Shawn Mathrick, finished fifth in the Corio Waste Management 4YO+ Maiden Plate (1100m) at Werribee on May 14. Testing conducted by Racing Analytical Services Limited confirmed the sample contained a total carbon dioxide (TCO<sub>2</sub>) concentration in excess of 36.0 millimoles per litre in plasma, a level prohibited under the Australian Rules of Racing. The reserve portion of the sample was subsequently verified by the Racing Science Centre. Under the rules, alkalinising agents evidenced by a TCO<sub>2</sub> concentration above 36.0 mmol/L in plasma are classified as prohibited substances. Stewards initially informed Mathrick of the irregularity on May 20 and have since advised him of the confirmatory findings as investigations continue.

Training partners Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott will saddle half-brothers Uderzo (Vadamos) and Desert Mystic (Satono Aladdin) in Saturday's JRA Trophy (1600m) at Ellerslie. The pair, both out of the Pentire mare Etosha Lass, were bred by Rich Hill Stud and Peter Merton. Uderzo heads into the race off a strong runner-up effort at Te Rapa and Scott believes the son of Vadamos is nearing peak fitness. "He's taken a bit of racing to get him fit, which he is at the present time," Scott said. "He gets around Ellerslie well, he's got good form on the course and we're expecting him to race well again." Uderzo has previously placed in the Rich Hill Mile (Gr 3, 1600m) and finished fourth in the Easter Handicap (Gr 3, 1600m). Stablemate Desert Mystic, a son of Satono Aladdin, drops in weight after contesting rating 75 company in recent runs. "We thought we would go the other way and pop him up in grade and drop in weight to give him his chance," Scott said. The stable will also saddle juvenile filly Pounce (Almanzor) in the MyRacehorse 1100m. The filly resumes after a break and has impressed since a recent trial win at Te Awamutu. "She trialled well and she's worked the house down," Scott said.

Dravitzki hoping unbeaten run continues with I'm Bartholomew

Trainer Tony Dravitzki is hoping to continue the unbeaten New Zealand record of I'm Bartholomew (Complacent) when the gelding resumes in Saturday's Brandlab 1200 at New Plymouth. Dravitzki bred and initially trained the son of Complacent before selling him to Australia after a successful trial campaign. Following four starts for Henry Dwyer, where his best result was a fourth placing, the gelding was offered online and bought back by Dravitzki for A$8,000. "He showed more than any other horse that I have ever had as a young horse," Dravitzki said. "I don't know what happened in Aussie, perhaps he didn't like the stable environment." I'm Bartholomew has won both New Zealand starts, scoring at Hawera and New Plymouth before being sent for a spell after minor setbacks interrupted his campaign. "He won those two races nicely but then we have had some niggly little issues with him all the way through," Dravitzki said. The Stratford horseman expects the five-year-old to improve from Saturday's fresh-up run and said wetter winter tracks would play to his strengths. "He has had a couple of jumpouts and a soft trial, he is ready for a fresh-up run but he will take good benefit from it," he said. Dravitzki will also kick off the winter campaign of Tobias in the AB Electrical 1400m. The eight-win gelding impressed with a recent Foxton trial victory and could be aimed back towards the Interprovincial Handicap (1600m), a race he won two years ago.

Lupo Solitario to have one final run before spell

Recent Stakes winner Lupo Solitario (Satono Aladdin) will make an unexpected final appearance for the season when he lines up in Saturday's JRA Trophy (1600m) at Ellerslie. Trainer and part-owner Danica Guy had initially planned to send the gelding for a spell following his victory in the Easter Handicap (Gr 3, 1600m) at Ellerslie last month, but favourable weather and a suitable handicap prompted a change of plans. "It was unexpected that we would be giving him another run but just with this run of really good weather has meant that I have been able to keep him on the training track," Guy said. The son of Satono Aladdin (Deep Impact) drops to 56.5kg after the higher-rated Diamond Jak accepted for the race. "I was quite pleasantly surprised to see one in, that was that much higher that pushed our weight down to a more manageable weight," Guy said. "The horse is well and happy and ready to run a race." Guy confirmed Lupo Solitario would head for a spell after Saturday regardless of the result. A day later, the Matamata horsewoman will line up Denver (Derryn) in the Foy And Halse Lawyers 2200 at Te Rapa, with Guy expecting improvement after the gelding struggled on a shifting surface at Ellerslie last start. "He has drawn really well, so he will go forward and put himself in the race," she said. Guy is also looking forward to the winter return of veteran gelding Cleat (Rios), who resumed with a win at Te Aroha earlier this year and is expected back to the races next month.

Mares in foal to Super Seth top Gavelhouse Plus Sale

New Zealand buyers held firm against strong Australian competition at Wednesday's Gavelhouse Plus May Premium Broodmare Sale, securing four of the five mares offered for a total turnover of $1.73 million. The headline acts were black-type performers Rondinella (Ocean Park) and Sudbina (Almanzor), who realised $600,000 and $575,000 respectively after being offered to dissolve the long-running breeding partnership between Haunui Farm and Frantic Bloodstock. Both mares, in foal to Super Seth (Dundeel), will remain at Haunui Farm after being secured by new ownership partnerships. "It's the end of a very successful partnership between Cathy Franich and ourselves," Haunui managing director Mark Chitty said. "We had to deal with some strong competition to buy both of them. When you're going into an open market, you never really know what you're opening yourself up for." The third mare offered by the partnership, Tinnelly (O'Reilly), was purchased by Elsdon Park for $50,000. Dual stakes winner Glamour Tycoon (Written Tycoon), was offered by Marsh Racing, was bought by Nearco Stud for $375,000. "She's a very exciting addition to the Nearco broodmare band," bloodstock consultant Patrick Cunningham said. "We're thrilled not only to purchase her for Nearco, but also to keep her in New Zealand and as part of our gene pool here." Group Two winner Hitabell (Embellish) was the only mare sold across the Tasman, purchased by William Johnson Bloodstock for $130,000. Gavelhouse Plus will next host the 2026 NZB National Online Breeding Stock Sale, with entries closing on June 16.

West Coast returns for Waikato Hunt Cup bid

Champion jumper West Coast (Mettre En Jeu) will make his long-awaited return over fences in Sunday's Waikato Hunt Cup (3900m) at Te Rapa. Trained by Mark Oulaghan, the 10-year-old boasts an outstanding record at the Hamilton venue, having won the past two editions of the Great Northern Steeplechase (6500m). West Coast hasn't raced over jumps since last season and resumes off a flat run at Woodville last month, but Oulaghan has been pleased with his progress since. "He seems quite well, his flat run was okay, and he has worked very well in the meantime," Oulaghan said. The Palmerston

North trainer believes a longer summer spell has helped rejuvenate the veteran. "I think he is in better fettle this year, he seems to have come back quite well," he said. With retired jumps star Shaun Fannin no longer aboard, Auckland rider Joshua Parker takes over after helping school the stable's jumpers. "Josh came down and he was prepared to school a few so it was only logical I would give him the ride," Oulaghan said. West Coast is set to continue towards the Waikato Steeplechase (3900m) later this month if he performs well on Sunday. In contrast, stablemate Berry The Cash (Jakkalberry) has been ruled out for the season with a tendon injury. "He had a busy season last year... I think he deserves a bit of a break," Oulaghan said. Oulaghan will also line up Cheval de Foudre (Time Test) at New Plymouth on Saturday, with the gelding chasing a deserved breakthrough win after two placings this preparation.

Lazzat confirms Royal Ascot targets

Lazzat (Territories) confirmed Royal Ascot targets with a soft win in the Prix du Palais-Royal at ParisLongchamp (Gr 3, 1400m). Now a 5YO, the former European Champion Sprinter was an odds-on favourite having missed a place only once, in the previous twelve months when 5th in the Haydock Sprint Cup (Gr 1, 1200m). Having won two Group One races at Ascot in that period, as well as group one placings in Meydan, Riyadh and France, connections will be hoping to return to Royal Ascot in June to repeat last year's heroics.

"It was a very good performance and all roads now lead back to Ascot to try and defend his crown," Wathnan's Freddie Morley said. "Jerome had given him a break and built him back up. You can't really ask for more, he really did lengthen today." Lazzat defeated Silius (Dubawi) and Rencontre Sportive (Seabhaac) another 1 1/4 lengths away in third.

Arc winner Daryz wins third Group 1 in honour of Aga Khan

Formerly known as the Prix d'Ispahan, the inaugural €250,000 Prix Aga Khan IV (Gr.1 1,850m) at ParisLongchamp played out as expected with red hot favourite Daryz (Sea the Stars) dominating his four rivals in the race renamed after his late owner-breeder, His Highness the Aga Khan. It was the seventh victory in nine outings for the Sea Of Stars colt and his third in succession at Group one level following success in last year's Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr.1 2400m) and first up in the Prix Ganay (Gr.1 2100m). Carrying the famous emerald and red epaulette silks, the Francis-Henri Graffard colt was a class above his rivals defeating a pair of group one winners Leffard (Le Havre) and another Sea The Stars colt Sosie in third.

Caballo de Mar books Gold Cup ticket with Longchamp Group 1 win

Caballo de Mar (Phoenix of Spain) claims his second major in the Prix Vicomtesse Vigier (Gr 1, 3100m) defeating Santorini Star (Golden Horn) and Australian Bloodstock owned Al Riffa (Wootton Bassett) at ParisLongchamp. Ridden by Oisin Murphy, the five-year-old gelding proved too strong for his eight rivals and will now target the Gold Cup at Royal Ascot. The dual group one winner just missed at Ascot last start in the Sagaro Stakes (Gr 3, 3200m) and again in the Dubai Gold Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) prior to that. "He just tries so hard and he's such a character," trainer George Scott told Sky Sports Racing, "He's done it more than once now but he still always seems to be underestimated, I couldn't believe that he was about 20-1 at one point on the PMU (parimutuel) and I almost queued up but there were so many people." Australian Bloodstock were pleased with Al Riffa's run and have confirmed they too will press on to Royal Ascot.
