Coolmore Stud sire Home Affairs in his element on the Gold Coast

Home Affairs filly from Cancel topped the Magic Millions Weanling Sale on the Gold Coast MM

Coolmore Stud sire Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) was in his element again on Sunday when lot 251, a filly out of Cancel (Exceed and Excel) topped the Magic Millions Weanling sale on the Gold Coast.

SP Bloodstock principal Stefan Pardi has also made an impact in sale-rings this year and he saw off several under-bidders when going to $680,000 for the half-sister to MRC Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Madame Pommery (No Nay Never).

Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) is Australia's Champion Freshman-elect this season with four first-crop black-type winners to date headed by ATC Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Guest House.

Out of Cancel, a full sister to Blue Diamond Stakes winner Earthquake that Coolmore purchased from the 2018 National Broodmare Sale for $400,000, the Home Affairs filly was described as a quality, high-end filly who wouldn't be out of place in any sale during inspections. Pardi agreed with that assessment. "I'm very happy to get her at that price," he said. "Coolmore has doubled the service fee for Home Affairs to $176,000 this year and there's residual value with Continued on page 3

"She showed herself off very well this week and credit to Magic Millions - they had all the right people here at the sales complex."

It was the fourth time in the last five years that the top lot has been a filly. The top lot exceeded last year's mark of $550k and whilst there was a drop in the number of lots making over $200k, seventeen down from twenty seven, the number of lots which sold for $100k or more nearly tripled resulting in a sale average almost identical to last year.

The pre-sale hype was justified for Baramul Stud's Zoustar colt from Grandstraand (Lot 326) when he was purchased by Tasmanian-based Grenville Stud owners Graeme and Bart McCulloch for $500,000.

"He ticks all the boxes and we're excited to be taking him home," Bart McCulloch said. "We inspected him on our first day here and kept going back because he's that good. He's by a champion sire and will be prepped for one of the majors next year."

He's the first foal from Grandstraand who is an unraced daughter of MRC Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) winner Mrs Onassis (General Nediym) who was also successful at Listed level in the ATC Starlight Stakes (1100m) at Rosehill and MRC Alinghi Stakes (1100m) at Caulfield.

"He has so much commercial appeal," Baramul racing manager Luke McDonald said. "Buyers will gravitate to him and make money whether they're end-users or pinhookers for the Yearling Sales or Ready To Run Sales."

The only Extreme Choice weanling to be offered at a sale this year was purchased by Sheng Geng and he came at the premium price of $480,000 from Kingstar Farm.

Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) will stand for a record service fee of $385,000 at Newgate Farm this year and that was reflected when his colt was the centre of a spirited burst of bidding from around the auditorium.

"That was a really good price and it's come off the sire's consignment at the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale," Kingstar manager Adam Cook said. "We were told he would be the only

Leading bloodstock agent Damon Gabbedy and My Racehorse purchased the latest foal by Ole Kirk from Oxford Angel (Nicconi) when paying $400,000 for their outstanding filly from Rosari Farm who were offering nine weanlings.

"We're only a small farm and breed about ten or twelve a year," Ged Nolan said. "So to get a result like that is huge."

Lot 78, the Ole Kirk filly is a younger full-sister to ill-fated My Racehorse colt King Kirk who won the 2024 ATC Breeders' Plate (1000m) at his only start for Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott a month prior to drowning in a tragic training pool accident at Randwick.

King Kirk made $300,000 from Widden Stud (as agent) at the 2024 Gold Coast Magic Millions Yearling Sale. He has been pinhooked out of the Rosari Farm consignment at the 2023 Magic Millions National Foal Sale for $200,000 by Redwall Bloodstock's David Redvers and Hannah Wall.

"The filly will eventually go to Gai and Adrian and continues our association with her breeders Ged and Jan Nolan at Rosari Farm," Gabbedy said. "Ole Kirk is a sire going places and this filly is his third foal I've purchased from Oxford Angel for My Racehorse."

The Ole Kirk yearling colt out of Oxford Angel has been named Prince Kirk and he's with Bjorn Baker who knows the breed having prepared O'Ole to victories in the 2025 GCTC Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) and 2024 Wyong Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1100m).

Fernrigg Farm weighed in by purchasing the I Am Invincible colt from NZ-bred mare Renaissance Woman (Reliable Man) by going to $400,000 for the colt. His dam was a dual Group 3 winner of the ATC Angst Stakes at Randwick and MRC Ethereal Stakes at Caulfield.

Catalogued as Lot 105, he was sold out of Brian Nutt's Attunga Stud draft in Scone. "He caught my eye walking out of the box," Fernrigg Farm owner Pdraig Kelly revealed. "He's an athlete and we were prepared to pay good money for him.

"He's the first foal from the dam but is a good size. We're good friends with Brian and the colt will keep developing ahead of the 2027 Yearling Sales."

So You Think (NZ) topped the early leaderboard on Sunday morning with a half-sister to Disneck (Trapeze Artist) that made $220,000 to the bid of Boomer Blockstock agent Craig Rounsefell.

Offered by Taghadoe Stud (as agent) and catalogued as Lot 26, she is from the penultimate crop of Group 1 Cox Plate Champion So You Think (High Chaparral) from USA-bred mare Lindisfarne (City Zip) who won the Marshua Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Laurel Park.

"Everything went according to plan," Taghadoe studmaster Peter Burke said. "She had 115 inspections and we had high expectations. She's a straightforward filly and this was the right sale for her."

"Disneck [Trapeze Artist] can improve the pedigree when he comes back for the spring carnivals and all credit to the breeders James and Sarah. They sent her down ready to present and she handled this week without any problems."

The Bjorn Baker-trained, half brother Disneck had won a half-dozen city sprints at Randwick and Rosehill before travelling to Melbourne in January to break through at black-type level in the VRC Standish Hcp (Gr 3, 1200m) at Flemington.

It was a great result for James Balfe and Sarah Wills, based at Killeenarna in the Upper Hunter, who had purchased Lindisfarne for just $7,000 from Phoenix Thoroughbreds at the Inglis May 2021 Digital Sale. Burke was back in the vendor box an hour later when Taghadoe Stud sold a Home Affairs filly (Lot 62) for $210,000 to Victorian-based Baystone Farm.

With almost $16 million being traded today, Gold Coast National Sale Series will continue on Tuesday with Day One of the National Broodmare Sale featuring racefillies and mares and stallion shares. Day Two on Wednesday will comprise the broodmare section of the sale.

"There are some incredible opportunities coming on Tuesday and Wednesday," Bowditch noted.

Beadman faces key Stradbroke test in Fred Best Classic

Beadman

RACING PHOTOS

Peter Snowden believes talented colt Beadman (Snitzel) is ready to prove himself over 1400 metres as he builds towards a potential Group 1 Stradbroke Handicap campaign. The son of Snitzel impressed when fifth in the Doomben 10,000 (Gr 1, 1200m), with Snowden convinced the result could have been even better with clear running. "If he went the fence, he runs a hole for sure," Snowden said. "He didn't get any clear air to chase and got pipped on the line for fourth. What I learned is he's up to those horses and up to that class." Beadman had previously won the Gold Coast Guineas (1200m) in dominant fashion and will now step out beyond 1200 metres for the first time in Saturday's Fred Best Classic (Gr 3, 1400m) at Eagle Farm. Snowden said the race would be crucial in determining whether the colt heads to the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) on June 13. "We will run in the Fred Best Classic," he said. "That's 1400, but I'm confident he'll run it. If he runs well or wins, that should slot him straight into the Stradbroke." Beadman is currently rated a $15 chance for Brisbane's premier sprint, while stablemate King Of Roseau (Capitalist) heads the early market following his Takeover Target Stakes (Listed, 1200m) victory.

Joliestar in Melbourne for Royal Ascot preparations

Champion trainer Chris Waller will step up preparations for Joliestar's (Zoustar) Royal Ascot campaign this week, with the five-time Group 1 winner set to trial down the Flemington straight on Friday ahead of her trip to England. The daughter of Zoustar hasn't raced since her brilliant victory in the T.J. Smith Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Randwick in early April, but remains on track for the Queen Elizabeth II Jubilee Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Royal Ascot on June 20. Cambridge Stud chief executive Henry Plumtre said the mare was progressing well ahead of her scheduled departure for the UK on June 3. "She had a jumpout at Rosehill on Tuesday and Chris was just trying to keep a lid on things on the wet track," Plumtre told Racing.com. "She went to Melbourne on Thursday night and she will trial on Friday morning before heading overseas." Joliestar will be based with English trainer Charlie Hills at Lambourn during her Ascot preparation, the same setup Waller previously used successfully with Nature Strip (Nicconi). "Chris likes it because it's quiet," Plumtre said. "The more peaceful the surroundings, the better, because it's all going to be unfamiliar to her." Already one of the world's most valuable broodmare prospects, Joliestar boasts five Group 1 victories and nine stakes wins overall, while also carrying an elite pedigree as a daughter of Group 2 winner Jolie Bay (Fastnet Rock) and a close relation to stakes winners Merchant Navy (Fastnet Rock), Setanta (Fastnet Rock) and Legally Bay (Snippets). Plumtre said an international Group 1 win would further elevate her value. "If she can add that international Group 1 to her domestic CV, it adds enormous value to her," he said. James McDonald will ride Joliestar at Royal Ascot.

Bustling tuned up for Bel Esprit Stakes with Sandown gallop gelding, once considered a potential Everest contender, resumed with an encouraging third over 1000 metres at Caulfield on May 9 after more than 600 days away from racing. Saturday's hit-out under Craig Williams was his first serious gallop since that return and Kent Jr said the stable was delighted with the work. "It went exactly to script," Kent Jr said. "He moved perfectly. A lovely action when he was at full speed. It was a really nice exercise to stimulate him. He was off 600-plus days into his first-up run and we're trying to get him back." Kent Jr said Bustling had handled the Slow 7 conditions comfortably and importantly had shown no soundness concerns throughout the campaign. The gelding is expected to drop significantly in weight for the Bel Esprit Stakes (Listed, 1000m) after carrying 62kg first-up. "He should get in on the minimum," Kent Jr said. "Craig will ride him and the rise in distance will suit. He gave eight kilos to the winner and 10 kilos to the second horse first-up and kept coming through the line strongly." Bustling was purchased out of Perth as a late two-year-old and had been aimed at the Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) before injury struck following his Run To The Rose (Gr 2, 1200m) campaign.

1200m start trialled at Sandown

The Melbourne Racing Club held a trial over 1200m on the Sandown Hillside track prior to the first race last Saturday as it explores the option of a new starting position. Currently, the shortest trip on the Sandown Hillside track is 1300m. "The purpose of Saturday's trial was to give Racing Victoria stewards and senior jockeys the opportunity to review the proposed 1200-metre start under controlled conditions," an MRC spokesperson said. "Sandown Hillside plays an important role in the Victorian racing program and if approved, a 1200-metre start would provide additional programming flexibility.

Squire (Saville Row) enhanced his reputation as one of New Zealand's leading winter jumpers with an impressive win in Sunday's Sal's Pizza Hamilton Hurdle (2800m) at Te Rapa. Trained by Peter and Jessica Brosnan, the gelding had already shown plenty of promise over hurdles last season, winning twice at Te Rapa before finishing runner-up in the Pakuranga Hunt Hurdle (3100m). Squire entered Sunday's feature off strong flat form, having recorded a win and two placings from his previous three starts, although his trainers were slightly concerned by the improving Soft 5 track conditions. "The track was our only worry because he has been racing out of his skin," Peter Brosnan said. Despite racing three-wide throughout, Squire travelled strongly into contention before taking control in the straight and holding off Roc Up Ralph by half a length. The victory has the stable firmly focused on next month's Fairview Motors Waikato Hurdle (3200m), also at Te Rapa. "We would love to win the Waikato Hurdles, that has been his target," Brosnan said. "He is hard fit now, he won't do much between now and then. It's just a matter of keeping him happy."

HK: Romantic Warrior claims HK Triple Crown

The Danny Shum trained gelding had to fight hard but gained the upper hand in the final furlong to claim the Standard Chartered Champions & Chater Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) at Sha Tin Racecourse, adding to the Stewards' Cup (Gr 1 1600m) and Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) victories earlier this season. It was the Hong Kong champions 15th Group One success across five countries. Romantic Warrior (Acclamation) is only Hong Kong's third Triple Crown hero after River Verdon (1993/94) and Voyage Bubble (2024/25). Numbers (Tivaci) was brave, a half a length back in second with Japan's Deep Monster (Deep Impact) close up in third. "He's put the cherry on top and I think he should be horse of the year this year," regular rider James McDonald said. McDonald is the first jockey to win back-to-back Triple Crown titles, having guided Voyage Bubble to victory last year.

JPN: Juryoku Pierrot and Imamura create history in Japanese Oaks

Juryoku Pierrot (Orfevre) delivered a stirring finish to capture Sunday's Yushun Himba (Gr 1, 2400m) and hand jockey Seina Imamura a historic first Group 1 victory. The daughter of Orfevre became the first filly in 26 years to win the Oaks after beginning her career on the dirt, while Imamura became the first Japanese female jockey to win a JRA Group 1 and Classic race. Trained by Ryo Terashima, Juryoku Pierrot settled worse than midfield before weaving through the pack in the straight and surging late to claim her first elite-level success. "It's like I'm dreaming," Imamura said. "I truly appreciate the support I have been getting towards my first classic challenge. She's one tough girl." The filly, having her sixth start had built steadily towards the Oaks, winning the Listed Wasurenagusa Sho (Listed, 2000m) in April after breaking through on turf earlier in the year. Third favourite Dream Core (Kizuna) raced prominently throughout and fought bravely to hold second after being challenged on both sides in the closing stages. Laughterlines (Al Ain) finished strongly from the rear to grab third after covering extra ground around the home turn. Race favourite Star Anise (Drefong) endured a difficult run, suffering interference early before again meeting traffic approaching the straight and fading to finish 12th. The victory provided trainer Terashima with his first Group 1 success since establishing his stable in 2016 and continued a remarkable rise for jockey Imamura, who was crowned Japan's Best Newcomer in 2022.

IRE: Gstaad emerges as possible Cox Plate contender after Irish Guineas triumph

Master trainer Aidan O'Brien has identified the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) as a potential long-term target for exciting colt Gstaad (Starspangledbanner) following his dominant victory in Saturday's Irish 2000 Guineas (Gr1, 1m) at the Curragh. The son of Starspangledbanner bounced back from his defeat to Bow Echo (Night of Thunder) in the English 2000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) at Newmarket earlier this month, producing a commanding performance under Ryan Moore. Travelling prominently throughout, Gstaad quickened sharply inside the final 400 metres and powered clear to score by three lengths. The colt is now set to head to Royal Ascot for the St James's Palace Stakes (Gr 1, 1m), where he is expected to renew his rivalry with Bow Echo. "Ryan said the best feel he ever gave him was when he won the Coventry, so you'd hope he'd be very happy to go back to Ascot," O'Brien told Racing.com. "We'd really look forward to Ascot, win, lose or draw." O'Brien believes Gstaad has the scope to stretch beyond a mile later in his career and suggested the Cox Plate (Gr1, 2040m) at Flemington in October could eventually come into calculations. "We think he'll have no problem stepping up in trip when the time comes," O'Brien said. "We always thought he could turn into a Cox Plate horse, but there is a lot of water to go under the bridge between now and then." O'Brien and Moore famously combined to win the Cox Plate in 2014 with Adelaide (Choisir).

UK: Asfoora searching for answers after Temple Stakes run

Asfoora's (Flying Artie) Royal Ascot preparations suffered a setback after the star Australian mare finished last in Saturday's Temple Stakes (Gr

2, 1005m) at Haydock. Trainer Henry Dwyer had expected significant improvement from the seven-year-old following her quiet first-up effort at Newmarket, but the defending King Charles III Stakes winner never travelled comfortably and finished more than 11 lengths behind impressive winner Night Raider (Dark Angel). Ridden by Oisín Murphy, Asfoora missed the start slightly and settled near the rear before struggling to make an impact on the testing ground. "She seems to have pulled up well, she looks terrific, there's nothing wrong with her," Dwyer told Racing.com. "The ground out there was very choppy and rough. She doesn't like the rough ground. She missed the start a little bit and never really travelled." Despite the disappointing performance, Dwyer remains hopeful the mare can rebound in next month's King Charles III Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Royal Ascot, a race she won in 2024 and will contest for a third consecutive season. The Ballarat trainer believes conditions rather than fitness were to blame and revealed blinkers are now likely to be added in a bid to sharpen the mare up. "We've got the blinkers up our sleeve," Dwyer said. "I don't think fitness is the issue. Hopefully the blinkers are an ace up the sleeve." A three-time Group 1 winner bred and raced by Noor Elaine Farm, Asfoora has won 12 races and more than $1.5 million in prizemoney, including eight victories at stakes level.
