Magical mare Legarto set to light up the National Broodmare Sale

By ANZ News Team

Having reversed their original decision to sell four-time Group 1 winner Levante (Proisir) at the 2025 Gold Coast National Broodmare Sale, there was an outside chance Philip and Catherine Brown might have a similar change of heart with Legarto (Proisir) - but to the immense relief of everyone at Magic Millions, this year's headline act is confirmed to enter the auditorium early on Tuesday afternoon.

Philip Brown was perhaps only half-joking that his wife had threatened to serve divorce papers if their "family pet" Levante was put through the sales ring 12 months ago; but with the remaining half of Legarto's loyal ownership group understandably keen to test her value on the open market, the semi-retired couple from Matamata soon came to the realisation that there was little prospect of changing their minds or buying them out.

Perhaps ironically, that sound financial advice was provided by the Browns' former accountant, a hobby

Long-serving TBA President Basil Nolan steps aside as Antony Thompson takes over

After more than a decade leading Thoroughbred Breeders Australia (TBA), outgoing president Basil Nolan has handed over the role to newly elected president Antony Thompson following the organisation's AGM on Monday.

Nolan, principal of Raheen Stud, has served as TBA President since 2014 and has been part of the board since the national breeders' body was established in 2005. While stepping down from the presidency, he will remain on the board as the representative of Queensland breeders.

That foal turned out to be none other than Levante, and after the extraordinary early success they had enjoyed with the filly, the Browns tasked trainers Ken and Bev Kelso with sourcing another daughter of Prosir (Choisir) at Karaka in 2021.

Lot 804 subsequently changed hands for NZ$90,000, and after a racing career spanning 24 starts - the Browns were on track for all but one of them - Legarto was retired earlier this year with five Group 1 wins on her CV and prize-money earnings in excess of NZ$3 million.

In a fitting finale, Legarto brought the curtain down with back-to-back elite level victories in her homeland, after which the Browns - despite a very convincing argument mounted by Ken Kelso - resisted the temptation to give her one last dance in the Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m).

Instead of lining up at Flemington - the very venue which had provided the Browns with their greatest thrill in racing when Legarto sprouted wings to claim the 2023 Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) - the mare was instead diverted to Attunga Stud to prepare for the next phase of her life.

Legarto has since thrived under the watchful eye of Brian Nutt and his team, and given the intense interest levels she has generated since arriving on site late last week, the mare will not be short of admirers - from overseas, as well as the usual local suspects - when she enters the Bundall complex shortly after midday on Tuesday afternoon.

For Philip Brown, a former banker who struck gold with the influential sire Battle-Wagon (Never Say Die) on his first foray into the stallion market, the moment will undoubtedly be laden with a range of emotions.

"Of course there will be mixed emotions, she's basically been a part of our family for the past five years," he told ANZ News.

"She's taken us on a journey none of us ever thought possible. We agisted her on the farm whenever she spelled, so we got to spend a lot of time with her and it will be difficult to say goodbye. But the other 50 per cent of the ownership group are racing enthusiasts, so as much as Catherine and I would've liked to breed from her ourselves, the success she had on the racetrack would make that very difficult for us financially.

"We all came to the decision that we'd put her on the market, and Magic Millions have been great to deal with. They've made the whole process very Continued on page 5

"When she walked out of the box here at the sales complex, I just thought 'wow' because she looked so good. It will definitely be an emotional moment for us when she goes through the ring, but we came here to sell her so that's what we intend to do. We've put a reserve price on her so if the market doesn't value her as much as we do, then we'll have a decision to make. But I'd be surprised if it came to that."

Not only is her performance matched by her pedigree, but the imposing mare's size and scope would make her the ideal partner for virtually any stallion you would care to nominate.

"I'm obviously [I'm] a bit biased but I do think she'll produce some wonderful foals," Brown told ANZ News.

"She is still a racing proposition but I would much prefer that she goes to stud, because she's got nothing left to prove on the racetrack. She's such an attractive, classy mare who will suit any stallion, so I've got no doubt she'll have a great career at stud. She'll be an easy mare to breed to because of her size, any of the blueblood stallions over here would suit her down to the ground.

"I was talking to [Arrowfield Stud principal] John Messara on the way in here this morning, and he was so complimentary about her. He said he definitely would've tried buying her as a yearling, so I'm glad he wasn't bidding at the sale that day because there's no way we would've been able to compete with him."

After a repeat mating with The Autumn Sun later this year, the Browns' intention is to take her home to Ancroft Stud, their Matamata property where the now nine-year-old mare took her first tentative steps in life.

"John [Messara] contacted me when Levante was racing, he wasn't interested in buying her but he did say that if she came over to Australia once she had retired, we should keep Arrowfield in mind for her," Brown told ANZ News.

"We've always been big fans of Snitzel, so we were delighted she got in foal to him and we were very happy with the price the filly fetched at the sale this year. More than the price, we were even more thrilled that Chris [Waller] bought her, she'll get the best possible chance to make it as a racehorse in his stables, and it'd be wonderful to see a fellow Kiwi in James McDonald riding her in the future.

"We're looking forward to getting Levante back to the farm at the end of the year, and we don't have any regrets about keeping her rather than putting her through the sale last year, because she really was like a family pet to us. We foaled her on the farm, our accountant owned her and he had about seven or eight fillies born that year. He really wanted a colt so when we told him it was another filly, he wasn't very happy to put it politely.

"We absolutely loved her, she was just a beautiful filly. He never came to the farm to see her, so one day I rang him up and asked him if he'd be interested in selling her, and we bought her pretty cheaply in the end. He was still our accountant until his recent retirement, so he obviously didn't hold it against us."

Day one of the Magic Millions Broodmare sale starts at midday with Lagarto, Lot 408, being one of the first dozen lots through the ring on a day that offers Stallion shares, 170 catalogued racefillies and maiden mares and finishes with four virtual Lots from New Zealand.

Long service leave for Peter V'Landy's

Racing NSW have announced that long standing Chief Executive Mr Peter V'landys AM will take four months of long service leave at the end of this racing season. "Mr V'landys has asked for four months long service leave to take an interim executive role at the Australian Rugby League Commission following the departure of CEO Mr Andrew Abdo," explained Racing NSW Chairman Dr Saranne Cooke. "Mr V'landys has made this application so he is not spending more time on the Australian Rugby League Commission while performing his Chief Executive duties at Racing NSW. "Having carefully considered Mr V'landys' application, the Racing NSW Board unanimously supported the professional approach that Mr V'landys has taken." Dr Cooke continued. The Racing NSW Board has appointed Mr Graeme Hinton as Acting Chief Executive while Mr V'landys is on leave. Mr Hinton has been with Racing NSW since 2012 and has been Chief Operating Officer since 2016.

After more than a decade leading Thoroughbred Breeders Australia (TBA), outgoing president Basil Nolan has handed over the role to newly elected president Antony Thompson following the organisation's AGM on Monday.

Nolan, principal of Raheen Stud, has served as TBA President since 2014 and has been part of the board since the national breeders' body was established in 2005. While stepping down from the presidency, he will remain on the board as the representative of Queensland breeders.

During his tenure, Nolan helped guide the industry through some of the thoroughbred sector's most challenging periods, including Equine Influenza, the 2011 Queensland floods, COVID-19 disruptions and a range of national and international Pattern Committee matters.

"It has been a privilege to serve as President of TBA, and I am proud of what we have achieved together as a Board," Nolan said.

"The time is right for me to hand over the role and make space for the next leader.

"TBA has an important role to play for breeders and for the wider industry, and I am confident it will continue to be in good hands."

Thompson, principal of Widden Stud and chairman of Aushorse, praised Nolan's contribution to the breeding industry.

"Basil has given many years of wise and committed service to TBA and Australian breeders," Thompson said.

"He has been a steady and respected voice around the Board table, particularly through some of the most difficult periods our industry has faced."

Thompson said he was honoured to take on the presidency at an important time for Australian breeders.

"Our industry is facing some real challenges, but it also has enormous strengths," he said.

"We have a breeding sector that continues to produce horses of world-class quality, a racing industry that remains the envy of many jurisdictions, and a community of people whose resilience and optimism underpin everything we do."

He added that his focus would be ensuring breeders maintained a strong voice on key national issues, including commercial settings and the Pattern system.

TBA also confirmed the appointment of respected Queensland breeder Scott McAlpine of Eureka Stud to the board, replacing outgoing Queensland representative Jeff Kruger.

Broodmare Sale at the Gold Coast on Tuesday. Catalogued as Lot 471, she was last seen winning the Irwin Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) in Adelaide. Bred by Forest View Farm owners Ben and Jo Duncan, she is a 5yo daughter of Sminky Shorts (Snitzel) and was initially listed for sale by Vinery Stud (as agent) for a 20-member syndicate. Trainer Dan Morton reported Super Smink (Super One) is on her way to Queensland but will dodge the Gold Coast Sale in favour of the Helen Coughlan Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Eagle Farm this Saturday. Super Smink was Champion WA 2yo in 2022-23 sweeping the Karrakatta Plate (Gr 2, 1200m) and WA Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) and Morton declared the mare's main target is the Tatt's Tiara (Gr 1, 1400m) under weight-for-age conditions at Eagle Farm on June 27.

Recommendation set for familiar winter path

Ciaran Maher's stable may have its major focus on Jimmysstar (Per Incanto) in Saturday's Kingsford Smith Cup (Gr 1, 1300m) at Eagle Farm, but veteran sprinter Recommendation (Shalaa) is also set to launch another winter campaign at Caulfield. The six-year-old resumes in the Bel Esprit Stakes (Listed, 1100m), a race that kickstarted a successful cold-weather campaign last year which culminated in victories in the Sir John Monash Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) and Bletchingly Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m). Assistant trainer Jack Turnbull said a similar program was again on the cards for Recommendation. "He's had this as the target since he ran in Adelaide," Turnbull said. "He's good and he'll be on a similar pathway to the last couple of winters in the Monash and Bletchingly. That's his right trip, 1100. It's well documented that's his go now." Recommendation has had two runs this preparation, finishing third in the $500,000 Country Discovery at Ballarat before a midfield finish in the John Hawkes Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at

Industry's unsung heroes celebrated at Australian Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards

The people who power Australia's thoroughbred racing and breeding industry were recognised on Monday night at the 2026 Australian Thoroughbred Industry Employee Awards on the Gold Coast, with legendary broadcaster Bruce McAvaney honoured with the inaugural Lifetime Achievement Award.

Held at the Sheraton Grand Mirage Resort, the awards, formerly known as the Stud and Stable Staff Awards, celebrate the skill, dedication and care of those working across all sectors of the thoroughbred industry.

Delivered by Thoroughbred Breeders Australia on behalf of the industry, the awards continue to be supported by principal partner Godolphin as part of its global commitment to recognising industry participants behind the scenes.

TBA and Aushorse chief executive Andrew Hore-Lacy said the awards were an important opportunity to celebrate those often away from the spotlight.

"These Awards matter because they recognise people who are often not in the spotlight. The people who are up before dawn, stay late, care for the horses and keep the industry moving," Hore-Lacy said.

A major highlight of the evening was the presentation of the inaugural ATIEA Lifetime Achievement Award to McAvaney, whose iconic voice has become synonymous with many of Australian racing's greatest moments.

"Great racing is great sport, and tonight I have received one of the greatest honours of my life," McAvaney said.

The acclaimed broadcaster reflected on two moments that stood above all others in his racing career. The Melbourne Cup when Makybe Diva claimed her historic third consecutive victory, and the 2019 Queen Elizabeth Stakes farewell of champion mare Winx at Royal Randwick Racecourse.

Among the other winners honoured on the night were Brett Killion (Dedication to Racing Award), Verna Metcalfe (Dedication to Breeding Award), Arda Tascioglu (Horsemanship Award), Neasham Clegg (Leadership Award), Matt Harrington (Administrative and Ancillary Services Award), Alexandra Kelly (Thoroughbred Care and Welfare Award) and Cooper Albers (Newcomer Award).

Morphettville. While Recommendation returns to a distance that suits him perfectly, Maher's Queensland focus centres on Jimmysstar, who steps back out to 1300 metres after a string of runs over shorter trips. The talented galloper has managed just one placing from four starts this campaign, finishing third in the All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), but Turnbull believes the spacious Eagle Farm circuit and rise in distance will suit. "He just needs a bit of time to wind up," Turnbull said. "Everyone's been going on like he's been getting beaten three, four, five lengths, but his runs have been credible and he just wants a little bit further." Jimmysstar remains at the head of Kingsford Smith Cup betting ahead of fellow contenders King Of Roseau (Capitalist), Private Eye (Al Maher) and Fangirl (Sebring).

Maher star Jimmysstar favoured this weekend

All eyes will be on Ciaran Maher's stable star Jimmysstar (Per Incanto) when he goes out a $3.50 favourite for the Kingsford Smith Cup (Gr 1, 1300m) at Eagle Farm on Saturday. Jimmysstar completed a Group 1 double during an autumn campaign last year in the MRC Oakleigh Plate (Gr 1, 1100m) at Caulfield and All-Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick. He returned in the spring earning $4 million for victories in the Russell Balding Stakes (1300m) and C F Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) but has only placed once in four starts this campaign. "We expect him to bounce back over 1300m at Eagle Farm," assistant trainer Jack Turnbull said on Monday. "He just needs a bit of time to wind up. Everyone's been going on like he's been getting beaten three, four, five lengths, but his runs over 1200m have been credible and he just wants a little bit further." Jimmysstar was purchased by Ozzie Kheir and John O'Neill on behalf of a large syndicate after winning his first two starts at Wanganui and Hastings. He was bred in partnership by Little Avondale Stud who stand his sire Per Incanto (Street Cry).

Sky's the limit for Skybird and Freedman in Brisbane

Skybird

RACING PHOTOS

Ballarat trainer Mitch Freedman has set the bar high for his talented mare Skybird (Exosphere) in the Kingsford Smith Cup (Gr 1, 1300m) at Eagle Farm this Saturday. Skybird had won the 2023 Moonee Valley Fillies Classic (Gr 2, 1600m) over a mile but since then has been confined to races up to 1200m. "She's got to step up to 1300m this weekend and that's a little query, but once you get to this grade there's not races on for them every week. She's in great shape, the rain is coming, and hopefully the sting is out of the ground on Saturday." Skybird was bred by Anthony and Kristen Evans at HP Thoroughbreds and she won last year's Lightning Stakes (Gr 1, 1000m) at Flemington. The Hilldale-based breeders have a filly foal by Home Affairs from her dam Real Desire (Wanted). "She went to Adelaide for the Robert Sangster Stakes (Gr 1, 1200) but had an average blood-count when she got back home," Freedman revealed. "She also copped a hip-and-shoulder in that race and that threw her off her game. "We had to just scratch that and make the call to send her to Queensland. Even though she was beaten a little bit of a margin, she ran really well and showed she is back in form."

Waller sets Autumn Glow for return in Winx Stakes

Fresh from preparing his 200th Group 1 winner with Birdman in the Saturday's Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2000m), trainer Chris Waller is already looking forward to the Melbourne spring carnival with his superstar mare Autumn Glow (The Autumn Sun). Autumn Glow will be one of the star attractions and races on her radar include the Makybe Diva Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) and Champions Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington. Waller said she would almost certainly return to the races in the Winx Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick on August 22. "There are no firm plans beyond that," he added. "I would imagine at some stage she will get down to Melbourne and there could be some coming and going to and from Sydney. The whole prep isn't locked in yet, but we're pretty decisive on the Winx Stakes as the starting point." The Cox Plate (2040m) isn't guaranteed. She is currently on the fourth-line of pre-post markets at $9 with Sheza Alibi (Saxon Warrior). Autumn Glow was unbeaten in 11 starts before her last-start third in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Randwick. She has earned over $8.59 million to date for Arrowfield and Hermitage Thoroughbreds.

Begg making a big Splash in Brisbane

Grahame Begg has been chasing a win in the Stradbroke Hcp (Gr 1, 1400m) since the 1990s and the Cranbourne trainer is quietly confident his French import Splash Back (Le Havre) can play a hand at Eagle Farm on June 13. A six-year old mare, Splash Back has a black-type pedigree going back to Wannabe Grand (Danehill) who gave trainer Jeremy Nosedo a first in the 1999 Cheveley Park Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Newmarket. Splash Back broke into black-type ranks winning the Stocks Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) last September before adding the Victory Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Eagle Farm earlier this month. Splash Back will have a final Stradbroke dress-rehearsal in the Kingsford Smith Cup (Gr 1, 1300m) at Eagle Farm this Saturday. Her regular Melbourne rider Jordan Childs has a standing booking for the Kingsford Smith Cup but won't be able to make the weight in the Stradbroke. She has been allocated the flyweight of 52kg and Craig Williams has been booked for Queensland's premier sprint. "It's very achievable," Begg said. "Craig was booked two weeks ago. I wanted a marquee jockey who can ride at that weight and not many fit the bill. I did consider Zac Lloyd but he's going to Royal Ascot."

Big plans on big tracks for Zambardo

Caulfield trainers Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr have stable star Zambardo (Belardo) returning to action in Sydney this Saturday. Zambardo will be given the chance to get his winter prep back on track in the $200,000 Lord Mayor's Cup (Listed, 2000m) at Rosehill. His original target was the Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) last weekend, however, there was a change in plans after unplaced runs at Randwick and Gosford. "All his good form is on bigger tracks and the Doomben Cup was going to be a big ask especially with Pride Of Jenni engaged," Kent said. "All going well this weekend, he will be set for the Q22 on the bigger Eagle Farm circuit." This year's $1.20 million Q22 (2200m) is scheduled for Saturday, June 13. "We've got three weeks until then," Kent continued. "The Q22 on the big track, it will be beautiful with no Jenni." Zambardo was bred by Fairdale and Goodwood Studs at Longburn on NZ's North Island. He's one of seven winners from Zambezi (Zabeel) and second-dam Tall Poppy (Kaaftstad) was a triple Group 1 winner of the Waikato Sprint (1400m), Thorndon Mile (Gr 2, 1600m) and Lion Red Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) in 2000-01.

veterinarian, breeder and owner Colin Thompson, who passed away over the weekend aged 97. Thompson was a pioneering figure in the Waikato veterinary and breeding industries and, alongside his late wife Irene, son John and daughter-in-law Colleen, helped establish Rich Hill Stud in the early 1990s with Alan Galbraith. "He didn't suffer and passed away peacefully early on Sunday morning," John Thompson said. With no veterinary schools in New Zealand at the time, Thompson studied in Sydney before returning home to work for the government-run Vet Club. He later settled in Matamata before establishing his own practice in Te Aroha and eventually returning to Matamata, where he became a leading figure in the local veterinary community. John Thompson said his father was an innovator in the field. "Dad and Jim Marks pioneered a lot of surgeries, and he was the first vet to get an x-ray machine, which he got from Waikato Hospital," he said. Beyond veterinary work, Thompson was deeply involved in breeding and racing. He was part of successful stallion syndicates involving Battle Waggon, Hasty Cloud and Zephyr Bay and was also an original shareholder in legendary sire Zabeel (Sir Tristram). "He always had a few mares and sold at Trentham for many years, and that sparked my interest in breeding," John said. Rich Hill Stud has since grown into one of New Zealand's premier nurseries and is home to champion sire Proisir (Choisir). The farm's graduates include Group 1 winners Prince of Penzance (Pentire), Xtravagant (Pentire), Mufhasa (Pentire), Ferlax (Pentire) and Zarita (Pentire).

Wood excited by fresh talent after farewelling stable stars

Cambridge trainer Chris Wood is hopeful new additions Sassy Lass (Staphanos) and Son Of Sun (Tavistock) can help fill the void left by stable stars That's Gold (Cullen) and Canheroc (El Roca). Wood enjoyed a breakout season with dual Group winner That's Gold, who captured the Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m), Bonecrusher Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) and the Sir Patrick Hogan Karapiro Classic (1600m) before finishing sixth in the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m). The gelding has since transferred to Hong Kong trainer Mark Newnham, where Wood believes he can develop into a serious Hong Kong Derby contender. "I'm sure he can win the Derby up there," Wood said. Wood has also farewelled stakes-winning stayer Canheroc, who has moved south to trainers Michael and Matthew Pitman, but the Cambridge horseman is excited about the horses arriving at his barn. Former Group 3 winner Son Of Sun joins the stable after seven wins and several strong black-type performances for Bruce Wallace and Grant Cooksley. "The owners just wanted a change of environment," Wood said. "He looks a nice horse on paper and should be a good addition." Wood is also looking forward to working with Sassy Lass, a four-time winner and Group 3 Waikato Cup placegetter formerly prepared by Lance O'Sullivan and Andrew Scott. "She's another horse whose owners thought might benefit from a fresh start," he said. Wood believes the success of That's Gold has helped attract stronger horses to the stable. "When you win with horses like him, it puts your name back out there again."

Purton two wins from history in HK

Zac Purton is on the verge of creating history as the first rider to reach 2,000 wins in Hong Kong after saluting the judge three times at

Sha Tin on Sunday. The eight-time Hong Kong champion jockey was on roll early winning aboard Flying Amani (Wrote), Come Fast Fay Fay (Wrote) and Packing King (Darci Brahma) in his first three rides at the Group 1 meeting. But Purton came up empty from his remaining seven mounts, leaving him needing just two victories at Happy Valley on Wednesday night for the breakthrough. "That's all right," Purton said. "I was hoping to ride one or two today so three was better than expected." He finished fifth on Romantic Thor (Justify) in the Standard Chartered Champions & Chater Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) won by long-odds favourite Romantic Warrior (Acclamation) who was piloted by James McDonald. Purton had recommended to trainer David Hall blinkers would help his opening winner Flying Amani. Bred by Highview Stud's Brent Gillovic, he settled near the rear of the field before launching a strong run down the centre of the track to nail Perfecto Moments (Sweynesse) by a short-head. "He's had a few unlucky runs where he hasn't had clear room for Zac," Hall said. "The blinkers didn't really put him in a better position, but he certainly jumped a bit better and he might get some confidence out of that today."

My Mars saves the Day for David Hayes

David Hayes salvaged an otherwise forgettable Sha Tin meeting on Sunday when My Mars (Avertise) won the penultimate race on the card with Brenton Avdulla aboard in the Renminbi Business Hcp (1200m). Going into the meeting with 48 wins this season, Hayes was trailing the leader Danny Shum (54) and went further behind when the Shum-trained Packing King (Darci Brahma) won Race 4 and Romantic Warrior (Acclamation) won the Champions & Chater Cup (Gr 1, 2400m). My Mars had been labelled by Hayes as the best of his seven-strong squad at Sha Tin on Sunday. The Irish-bred import continued an encouraging start to his Hong Kong career after a strong win on his local debut and close second to Turquoise Velocity (Zoustar) at his previous start. "I couldn't see him running a bad race from barrier four," Hayes predicted. "He's run into three really good Class Three races but did extremely well because at his age. If he was unraced, he could be in the Griffin races." Shum's double boosted his seasonal tally to 56 wins, leading Caspar Fownes (54), Mark Newnham (52), Francis Lui (50), David Hayes (49).

IRE: Starspangledbanner completes a rare double, O'Brien a treble

Caulfield Guineas winner Starspangledbanner (Choisir) completed a unique double over the weekend when Precise (Starspangledbanner) claimed the Irish One Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) just a day after Gstaad (Starspangledbanner) dominated the Irish Two Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) in race record time. A homebred for Coolmore, Precise is the sixth foal and first stakes winner out of the placed mare, Way To My Heart (Galileo). Now a winner of five of her seven starts, last year's

Precise

BLOODHORSE

Champion 2YO Filly of Europe also completed a rare combination for her trainer Aiden O'Brien giving him a clean sweep of the Irish, English and French One Thousand Guineas, the latter two claimed by True Love (No Nay Never) and Diamond Necklace (St Mark's Basilica). Starspangledbanner is the sire of ten Group One winners and stood this season for €60,000 at Coolmore, Ireland.

IRE: Almaqam the latest Group One winner for Lope De Vega

It may have been the first winner in Ireland for trainer Ed Walker and the first Group 1 win for five year old Almaqam (Lope De Vega) in the Tattersalls Gold Cup (Gr 1, 2100m) but it was the 27th such elite level victory for former Patinack shuttler Lope De Vega (Shamardal). Whilst much credit must go to the sire, special mention must be made of his dam Talmada (Cape Cross) who not only produced the winner but also third placed Shadadd (Pinatubo). The half brothers were split by Bay City Roller (New Bay) in second place. Both Lope De Vega and New Bay (Dubawi) now stand at Ireland's Ballylinch Stud.

HABITUALLY, ANZ BLOODSTOCK NEWS IS THE FIRST THING I READ EACH AND EVERY DAY. I WANT TO KNOW THE RELEVANT NEWS IN A COMPREHENSIVE, BUT CONCISE FORMAT AND THAT'S EXACTLY WHAT IT GIVES ME. IT'S NOT JUST RECOMMENDED READING FOR ANYONE IN THE BLOODSTOCK INDUSTRY, IT'S NECESSARY READING.

Second best, or, best was second?

Hyperbolic

BRADLEY PHOTOS

By Lloyd Jackson

Results in black-type races drive our industry but the transition from autumn to winter means fewer such races and Brisbane's Doomben held just six, the only six throughout Australasia over the past weekend.

For once the Kiwis dipped out as seconds were the best they could manage including a rousing effort from Hyperbolic (Proisir) in the Magic Millions Filles and Mares Mile (Gr 3, 1600m). The Proisir (Choisir) mare levelled up to co-lead at the 200m and was ultra tough to the line, coming back at the winner, Pinito (Trapeze Artist), to lose in a head-bobber.

Beautifully-bred Chispa (Savabeel) gave a good sight after a chequered run in the ANZ Bloodstock News The Roses (Gr 2, 2000m). The Pencarrow Stud filly was knocked sideways at the 300m yet rallied strongly for a very sound second while the winner, Fireball Miss (Bivouac) benefitted from a dream run in the straight. Chispa's odds for the June 6th Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) will no doubt shorten considerably.

Bred by Trelawney Stud's Brent and Cherry Taylor, Pride Of Jenni (Pride Of Dubai) tried her hardest but was thwarted by Kiwi James McDonald in the Doomben Cup (Gr 1, 2000m). McDonald, aboard Birdman (Free Eagle), was not going to allow a repeat of the 2025 Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) when jockeys fell asleep. As usual, Jenni gave her best. She is such a wonderful asset to the racing industry. Chances are that this is her last season of racing but she will be remembered fondly.

How or why?

The ANZ Bloodstock News Roses was a peculiar race. As the winner crossed the line, Kiwi Chronicles' curiosity swung to Fireball Miss's pedigree. How did a Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) filly land a 2000 metre race?

The answer may have been revealed at the 600 metres when Doomben's race commentator explained that the first 1400m was run in a dawdling 1:32, or about eight seconds slower than even time. Naturally, that pace meant a sprint home and the Bivouac sprint factor kicked in. Her last 100 metres was telling as she sprinted clear for her second win in six starts.

A second answer may be found in that her half-sister, Femminile (Dundeel), won last year's South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) but that could be explained by the Dundeel (High Chaparral) factor, so quite different.

Fireball Miss's dam, stakes-placed Femme Fireball (Pierro) won seven times up to 1350m while her grandam Subtitle (Fastnet Rock) scored her maiden and sole win at 1200m as did her great-grandam Paint By Numbers (Peintre Celebre). Fireball Miss's fourth dam was bred in New Zealand. Credit Account (Imposing) was essentially a sprinter also, taking out a Group 2 and a Listed 1200m race at Morphettville before stretching her talent to beyond a mile in the 1993 Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) in Perth.

Bivouac's chief claim to fame was his Sprint Classic (Gr 1, 1200m) victory at Flemington in which he took the scalp of world class sprinter Nature Strip (Nicconi). However, Bivouac also nabbed Flemington's Newmarket Handicap (Gr 1, 1200m) as a three-year-old as well as the Group 1 Golden Rose (1400m), defeating Everest (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Yes Yes Yes (Rubick). In 2020 he finished second to Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt) in The Everest.

His strike rate may not look all that impressive (7 wins in 22 starts) but in his second and third seasons he raced only in the very best company, competing in 13 Group 1s for three wins and three placings. A great money spinner, he banked $5.7 million and at stud is making some noise.

His oldest are 3YOs and include dual Group 1 winner Beiwacht, New Zealand Group 2 winner Intention, the unbeaten 2YO Big Sky and now Fireball Miss. He has made a promising start and it will not surprise if he continues to shine.

Prima Bella

BRADLEY PHOTOS

Best to come?

Beyond stakes racing there were some notable results for the Kiwis. At Randwick, Little Avondale Stud's Per Incanto (Street Cry) sired Prima Bella, fresh-up winner of the Benchmark 78 1000m race. The lightly raced 5YO mare is assembling a more than useful record, her most recent win her fifth in just ten starts.

Two of her wins have taken place in Sydney and she has yet to start beyond 1000 metres so is a specialist speed machine. Saturday's win was top notch in that she led narrowly turning for home but was headed, not once but twice yet fought back hard to get the nod. The adjective "tenacious" doesn't do her justice. This was grit, pure and simple.

A $320,000 graduate of the 2022 Wm Inglis Classic Sale, Prima Bella descends from a family established by Nancy Williams of Te Parae Stud, Masterton in the Wairarapa Province. Nancy is grandmother to Little Avondale Stud's Sam Williams and sold her first yearling, from Haggada (Rabbi) at the 1941 National Yearling Sale at Trentham. Prima Bella has a direct connection to Haggada's second foal, Young Margaret (Phaleron Bay), also sold but at the 1943 National Sale.

Crossing Per Incanto with this family has been especially fruitful recently and has resulted in premier performers Evaporate, Bellucci Babe, Pure Incanto and Magnum – all by Little Avondale's pride and joy, affectionately known as "PI".

Prima Bella's dam Brah Spring (Darci Brahma) was sufficiently talented to record seven wins including at Ellerslie. Brah Spring is a half-sister to Listed winner Pure Incanto which means that Prima Bella ranks as a three-quarter sister to Pure Incanto.

Westbury Stud's Redwood (High Chaparral) sired Thebudgiesmugla, winner of the day's Benchmark 78 over 2400m. He races, and quite successfully, at the other end of the distance scale to Prima Bella. He too has started just ten times and has also won half of his races but the shortest distance of any is 2200m.

Thebudgiesmugla began his career in New Zealand landing his maiden win at start three over at 2200m at Ellerslie almost exactly a year ago then two months later backed that up with a second win (at Te Aroha, also at 2200m) prior to being snapped up by Darby Racing.

Arriving in Australia as a dual winner in four starts, he enjoyed a brief rest before scoring over 2400m, back-to-back at Rosehill, his sixth and seventh starts last spring. This prep has taken a further three starts to add win five, this time over 2400m at Randwick where he didn't have much to spare but one had to admire his fight to the line. He would not be denied and it is safe to say this guy is a genuine stayer.

Connections are now eyeing the June 13th Brisbane Cup (Gr 2, 3200m) which looks an obvious target. One thing is for sure, the distance will not be an issue. Neither will the track as the 5YO has won a Good 4 as well as a Heavy 9 surface.

The gelding was originally found at an online auction for the meagre sum of $3000 and earned $25,000 before his sale to Australian interests who have benefitted with a further $200,000 in earnings.

He is one four winners from four to race from the Keeper (Danahill) mare Hot Pants, herself a winning three-quarter blood sister to Group 2 Emancipation Stakes (1600m) winner Sworn To Secrecy (Keeper) and to the dam of triple Listed winner Guns At Five (Duelled). Hot Pants is also the dam of Bella Bonita (Noverre), third placed in Ellerslie's Champagne Stakes (Listed, 1600m) a week ago, beaten two heads.

Hasstobefun

The industry desperately needs owners. Without owners there is no horse racing and New Plymouth residents Rodger and Christine Hassall have met the call for almost twenty years.

Saturday's JRA Trophy (1600m) saw the Hassalls' Hasstobeawinner solidify some useful form when taking out a competitive open handicap, downing last start Easter Handicap (Gr 3, 1600m) winner Lupo Solitario (Satono Aladdin) in the process.

The son of Vadamos (Monsun) has shown good ability in previous seasons. In particular he was unlucky not to pull off a big prize at Te Rapa in the February 2024 Sir Patrick Hogan Karapiro Classic (1600m). He probably lost the race when Vera Rose (Fiorente), running second, drifted slightly away from the rail close to home, allowing Wallen (Tarzino) to sneak through between them.

Since then he has nabbed back-to-back Ellerslie wins and finished second in the Listed Fulton Family Stakes (1500m), also at Ellerslie, a track he apparently likes a lot. His fourth career win last Saturday was achieved from midfield and widest into the straight. Once balanced, he was the strongest in the run home and even a wayward Lupo Solitario was not going to stop him. On his day he can gallop alright and this latest win, along with 13 placings in 27 starts, has earned his owners more than $290,000.

Hasstobeawinner

Hasstobeawinner is a graduate of the 2021 NZB Karaka Yearling Sale and made $45,000 from the Rich Hill Stud draft. His purchase, by agent Robt Dawe, was no real surprise as his dam is a half-sister to The Hassler (Shocking), also a Dawe purchase on behalf of the Hassalls. The Hassler succeeded in the Ellerslie Championship Stakes (Gr 2, 2100m) before being sold to Hong Kong. His dam Keepereel (Keeper) has an envious record of four winners from four to race including three black-type performers.

The Hassalls have not been shy about buying yearlings and racing them. Their ownership history goes back almost 20 years when they approached then Cambridge-based trainer Don Sellwood who suggested they might contact bloodstock agent Robt Dawe who takes up the story: "Our association started prior to Karaka 2007 when Rodger, on the advice of Sellwood, rang me to buy a yearling, I had never met Rodger but we set a 60k budget but I never secured a yearling that year as we were beaten on budget and vets."

"Twelve months later Rodger called me again and said to buy him a yearling and offered more dollars, upping the budget to 80/85k and I found Donthassleme, a well grown Volksraad colt with size (a big red bloke). I still maintain, to this day, ability wise, that he was the best prospect I've purchased for the Hassalls," claims Dawe.

"Sellwood trained Donthassleme and in three starts at two he won twice and probably should have won his debut except for running off at the last corner yet was only beaten a half head. Rodger told me he turned down seven figures from a Hong Kong agent. Sadly, the horse broke down at the end of his 2YO year and after one 3YO start at Ellerslie he had to be retired."

"Since then we have succeeded with a further 14 individual winners totalling more than 50 races including black type performers The Hassler, Hasstobegood, Hasstobeawinner, Hassle Free, Madam Hass and Hasstobemagic.

"Rodger and Christine are very enthusiastic participants, never getting much press. Based in New Plymouth, now retired from a most successful house building company, they travel a lot to watch their runners. For the most part they are happy to leave the buying up to me but as long as they have a runner at headquarters they are happy campers. A visit to the winners circle at Ellerslie has Rodger doing cartwheels, so to speak."

On a sad note, Kiwi Chronicles wishes to express condolences to the Thompson family of Rich Hill Stud as John Thompson's father, Colin, passed away during the weekend. Colin was part of the golden era of the New Zealand breeding industry. Colin Thompson co-bred Hasstobeawinner. Coincidence?
