INGLIS

Anamoe steals the show as curtain comes down on Great Southern Sale

By Paul Symes

It was the Anamoe (Street Boss) show on the final day of the Inglis Great Southern Weanling Sale as the Darley dynamo delivered some outstanding results for vendors, most notably the $825,000 fetched by Three Bridges for his filly out of their prolific producer Femme Fireball (Pierro) - which represented a joint-record price for this sale.

Remarkably, the total spend on the trio of Anamoe weanlings offered for sale came to a cool $1.505 million, with his prized colt selling for $480,000 earlier in the session and his filly consigned by Twin Hills Stud on the opening day procuring $200,000.

As widely expected, given the prodigious prowess shown by her elder sisters, Lot 406 - the fifth foal (all fillies) produced by broodmare phenom Femme Fireball - proved to be the headline act on a highly competitive day of trading at Oaklands Junction.

It is exceedingly rare for a mare to produce Group 1 winners with her first two foals, and Yulong will be hoping Femme Fireball can extend that hot streak after Yuesheng Zhang eventually emerged triumphant from an intense bidding duel for the bay filly shortly after 4.30pm on Friday afternoon. Continued on page 3

Continued from page 2 The filly's half-sisters, Feminile (Dundeel) and Ciaron Maher's recent Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) heroine Fireball Miss (Bivouac), were sold as yearlings for $150,000 and $140,000 respectively, with the former subsequently acquired by Yulong for $1.5 million as a broodmare prospect off the back of her valiant victory in the 2025 South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m).

Femme Fireball's third-born - subsequently named Fiamina (Pinatubo) - was snapped up by Laurel Oak Bloodstock for $250,000 last year, and while her fourth filly is yet to hit the open market, there was little doubt that the mare's most recent offering would command a great deal of attention when she entered the sales ring as the highlight lot of Three Bridges' premium draft.

With Bennett Racing - who own Fireball Miss - keen to add the filly to their expanding stable, bidding in the auditorium soon reached fever pitch but ultimately it was Mr Zhang's deep pockets that won the day, as the filly joined the daughter of Frankel (Galileo) acquired by Mitchell Bloodstock in 2023 as the equal-most expensive weanling purchased at the Great Southern Sale.

Three Bridges' principal Toby Liston had teamed up with TBV's president Peter Murray to purchase Femme Fireball - when she was in foal to Anamoe - at last year's Magic Millions Gold Coast Broodmare Sale, with Boomer Bloodstock and Paul Willetts securing the mare for $900,000 on behalf of their clients.

That astute acquisition is already reaping rich rewards, and with the promise of much more to come given that the stakes-placed mare is only 11 years of age, Liston was understandably delighted with the farm's early return on their investment.

"To get these results is what you dream of," Liston said.

"We thought we had the right product, we bought her to Inglis and she shone.

"You get nervous when you've got such a quality animal and obviously there were multiple bidders up to $600,000 and $700,000, everybody wanted her, which is marvellous.

"She's obviously smashed the record for a weanling sold this year and why wouldn't she, she's such a beauty."

The filly's co-breeder Peter Murray added: "So exciting. Can't really believe it to be honest, I'm kind of speechless.

"It was amazing, really. You get caught up in the moment and you don't know which way the bids are coming because they're coming from online, from the other end of the room, the auctioneer [Will Gardner] was fantastic, it was great theatre.

TO GET THESE RESULTS IS WHAT YOU DREAM OF. WE THOUGHT WE HAD THE RIGHT PRODUCT, WE BOUGHT HER TO INGLIS AND SHE SHONE

"I'd like to also thank Inglis, they've been fantastic getting the right buyers together, they're very supportive and we're very appreciative."

As such, Lot 276 inevitably generated huge interest in the auditorium and online before he was eventually knocked down to the substantial bid placed jointly by bloodstock agents Suman Hedge and Stefan Pardi.

The dynamic duo were clearly determined to depart Oaklands Junction with the colt in their safe keeping, not least as Anamoe's current trajectory is so steep that the value of his stock is only likely to increase exponentially.

Pardi was a relieved man after fending off the persistent challenge of his fellow bidders to secure the second highest lot, with the renowned judge adamant that the colt will prove his worth both at the 2027 yearling sales and, beyond that, where it matters most - on the racetrack.

"I loved him, I just wanted to have him, on my notes I just had 'Love. Him. Have to take home,'" Pardi said.

"He's all class, a well-bodied colt, beautiful head and I'm leaning toward Inglis Easter with him and he'll be a standout there as well.

"Burnewang North do an outstanding job and this colt was just so chilled, so relaxed, he got pulled out for inspections so many times, even a few times I was there I had to wait in line to inspect him but he was just always relaxed and that's a very good temperament to take to a sale and end users will have a look at that when he's a yearling."

The premium price capped a very successful sale for the team at Burnewang, who sold a grand total of 11 six-figure lots including a $260,000 Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) filly to Hedge on day two.

Burnewang's managing owner, Cathy Hains, hailed a terrific set of results for the family business which more than allayed her pre-sale fears.

"I came here today worried, but we certainly leave very, very happy with the results," she told ANZ News.

"There's been a fairly high passed-in rate, so it's hard to escape that; but when we manage to sell them all and go home with a smile on our face, it's been a good sale. We get them on the market and let the market decide, so we're very focused on coming here with a draft and meeting market expectations.

"A couple of them have very much exceeded our expectations, but they're very nice horses who should present beautifully as yearlings, and then as racehorses. With the stallions we pick, we focus on new-season and proven horses which is why we sent the mare to Anamoe. She has already produced a stakes-placed filly, she's relatively young and this colt was another outstanding type.

"We're weanling sellers, so we have to be very cognisant of trying to produce a commercial animal in the sense that we don't do it for fun. We do it because we love the business, and we want it to be a commercial operation."

The colt's famous father will be joined on Darley's roster for the upcoming season by returning shuttler Ghaiyyath (Dubawi), whose progeny continue to be viewed as precious commodities by the buying bench - as witnessed by the $260,000 sale of his colt out of Taqdees (Redoute's Choice).

Ghaiyyath sired the sale's first six-figure weanling on day one when Shadow Hill Thoroughbreds received $220,000 for his colt out of Holy Spirit (Deep Field), and 24 hours later renowned Kiwi pinhookers Mark and Shelley Treweek of Lyndhurst Farm paid $40,000 more than that for Lot 228.

The colt will shortly head across the Tasman Sea to the married couple's farm on the outskirts of Cambridge, and it would be no great surprise if he were to go under the hammer at Karaka next year.

Some early day two fireworks were initiated by Lot 164, a bay colt by Swettenham Stud's flagbearer Toronado (High Chaparral) who fetched $220,000 for Highfield Thoroughbreds.

The colt is the second foal produced by the well-bred mare Royal Filly (Piero), and he was snapped up by bloodstock agent Paul Willetts who was no doubt motivated in part by the recent trial performance of his half-sister Brooke's Blooms (Hanseatic).

The Chris Anderson-trained juvenile, a $60,000 purchase from the Rosemont draft at the 2025 Inglis Premier Yearling Sale, is yet to make her competitive debut but she surely won't be far off after comfortably accounting for her rivals by more than two lengths in a 1000-metre trial at Doomben at the start of the month.

"There were a lot of very good Toronados in the sale and we were very pleased to pick this one up," Willetts told ANZ News.

The Great Southern Weanling Sale gross of $15,289,500 saw a $4.2 million jump (51%) on last year and set a new record for the sale, eclipsing the previous benchmark of $12,140,600 set in 2024

This year's Great Southern Weanling Sale saw incredible growth, with the average ($51,829) and median ($25,000) - both sale records - up 16 per cent and 14 per cent respectively year-on-year.

A total of 55 weanlings sold for $100,000 or more at Great Southern this week - up from 27 last year - taking to 124 the number of six-figure weanlings sold in this year's Inglis Weanling Sales Series.

Inglis Bloodstock CEO Sebastian Hutch described the past month of breeding stock sales as "phenomenal".

"When you look back and reflect, to gross almost $35,000,000 for our weanling sales series is really incredible, especially when you consider the Magic Millions Weanling Sale grossed $16,149,500, so our sales have more than doubled that," Hutch said.

"For context, as recently as 2019, our weanling sale series was over $10.2 million behind that of Magic Millions in terms of turnover, so thank you to all vendors for working with us to help to turn that around.

"Our team has worked exceptionally hard to generate momentum behind our weanling sales series and I'm confident the drive and passion within our team will see us continue to progress the standard of service that we offer our clients through the balance of the year and into 2027.

“These past two days at Oaklands have been hugely rewarding for a large number of people and we are incredibly grateful for the support that we have been afforded by our buyers and, in particular, our vendors.

“Special mention must go to Catherine Hains, Aaron and Emma Todd, Tanya Edwards and the entire Burnewang North team, to sell all 17 weanlings offered is a tremendous achievement.”

Armidale rewarded for weanling gamble

Armidale Stud’s managing director David Whishaw spoke of his pride and optimism for the future as he reflected on two days of hugely successful trading for the family farm at the 2026 Inglis Great Southern Weanling Sale.

After consigning the sale-topper in the opening session, a crack colt by Coolmore’s sought-after sire Home Affairs (I Am Invincible), the team at Armidale were again in celebratory mood on day two having sold Lots 410 and 421 for a combined $410,000.

The sale of their colts by King’s Gambit (I Am Invincible) – a half-brother to unbeaten juvenile Aristopolos (St Mark’s Basilica) – and Toronado (High Chaparral) took their overall tally to $805,000, thereby dwarfing the $166,000 Armidale realised for their four lots at this same sale 12 months ago.

The startling increase cemented Armidale’s status as arguably Tasmania’s most prominent stud farm and, according to Whishaw, is testament to the effort and indeed expertise of his committed staff.

“We’re very proud of the job that our team does,” he told ANZ News.

“We’re a small family-run business, and we’ve got outstanding loyal staff who go over and above. I think the results over the two days are wonderful for our business financially, and they allow us to continue to invest. We need to get these wins to allow us to stay relevant and viable.

“It’s also a wonderful shot in the arm for our team who look after these stock, and I think it helps them understand why they get out of bed. They love getting out of bed to help make a difference in growing out good quality racehorses, but I think they also need to see us getting some results in the sales ring to ensure we can continue to invest in our business and invest in them.

“With all the big boys getting bigger, it’s not easy for the small breeders to get a win. But our results are a bit of a win for all the small breeders, so hopefully they see that they can do it too.”

The King’s Gambit colt sold for $210,000 to Blue Gum Farm and Suman Hedge, who were no doubt taken by the feats of Aristopolos – a winner of six successive races including the Gold Sovereign Stakes (Listed, 1200m) and the Elwick Stakes (Listed, 1100m).

Aristopolos was sold by Armidale to trainer John Blacker for $60,000 at last year’s Magic Millions Tasmanian Yearling Sale and, given his half-brother is a more impressive physical specimen, Whishaw was unsurprised that he commanded a considerably higher fee.

“This colt certainly had his admirers,” Whishaw told ANZ News.

“He’s a beautiful, strong, forward colt, and well-muscled. He’s similar to his brother, but stronger. His brother was a big, strong horse, but he probably lacked a bit of hind quarter and was weaker through the hocks. Whereas this guy’s got a great hind quarter, stronger through the hocks, and we just felt he was a great representation of a first season sire.

“There was a King’s Gambit weanling that was bought [by Jim Carey] for $265,000 up in Sydney, and with his brother being undefeated in six starts, we once again felt it would do no harm to showcase this colt as a weanling.”

Two for Captivant

Vinery Stud's first-season sire Captivant (Capitalist) sired his second individual winner on Friday when Neotropical (2 f ex I Like Toucans by Shooting To Win) broke her maiden at the fourth time of asking at Bairnsdale. Ridden by Olivia East in the 1000-metre maiden plate, the John McArdle-trained filly was sent off the $2.50 favourite and ran out a comfortable 3.3 lengths winner over Canny Miss (Hanseatic). There was a further 1.5 lengths back to the third-placed Admire Mercury (Admire Mars). A $40,000 purchase by Nunkeri Park and Red Gum Racing at the 2025 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, Neotropical is the only winner from four foals out of the Shooting To Win (Northern Meteor) mare I Like Toucans. Captivant will stand the 2026 breeding season at a fee of $11,000 (inc GST).

Bidding open for latest Magic Millions Digital Sale

Bidding is underway for the latest Magic Millions Digital Sale, which features a diverse catalogue of racehorses, racefillies, yearlings, weanlings, broodmares, shares and a stallion. The auction, which closes from 12pm (AEST) on June 17, has attracted entries from a range of vendors including Coolmore Stud, Swettenham Stud, Yarradale Stud, Munce Racing, Brad Widdup Racing and Busuttin Racing. Among the racefillies catalogued is Honeysuckle, a three-time raced daughter of The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) who was purchased for $475,000 at the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale. Ciaron Maher Racing to make Crown Lodge new Sydney base

Ciaron Maher Racing will establish its flagship New South Wales operation at Crown Lodge, Warwick Farm after Godolphin and Racing NSW came to terms on contracts for the Sydney stables and associated properties.

Crown Lodge had been the home of the Ingham racing empire before being sold to Godolphin in 2008.

The move will see Maher's operation transition from Bong Bong Farm and relinquish Leilani Lodge over the coming months, while maintaining its Bob's Beach training facility.

"It was a very competitive process that attracted strong interest, and we were very pleased to reach an outcome with Racing NSW," Godolphin managing director Andy Makiv told ANZ.

"It is obviously a significant racing site in metropolitan Sydney and it's pleasing that it remains in the thoroughbred industry."

For Maher, the acquisition of one of Australian racing's most historic training establishments marks a significant step in the continued growth of his national business.

"Crown Lodge is one of the great training facilities in this country, with a history that speaks for itself," Maher said in a statement.

"Warwick Farm is where our Sydney story started, so coming home and taking on a stable like this means a great deal to us. It gives us a world-class base to keep delivering the very best for our owners and their horses, and we can't wait to write the next chapter."

Crown Lodge has long been regarded as one of Australia's premier training centres and has been home to numerous Group 1 winners throughout its history.

a lightly raced three-year-old winner, and consistent performer French Riviera (Kermadec) are also among the offerings. The yearling section includes progeny by the likes of Stay Inside (Extreme Choice) and Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj), with ten of the 12 youngsters eligible for the Magic Millions Race Series. Broodmares on offer include mares carrying to sires such as Exceedance (Exceed And Excel), Brave Smash (Tosen Phantom) and Zousain (Zoustar), while the catalogue also features Asian Daze (Frontiersman), a stakes-performed European mare who raced at Royal Ascot and is being offered ready for the upcoming breeding season. Among the racehorse shares available is a 12.5 per cent share in promising three-year-old filly Reign em' In (Time To Reign). To view the catalogue, please click here.

Berry confident Transatlantic can overcome wide draw

Transatlantic

SPORTPIX

Tommy Berry believes Transatlantic (Snitzel) has the toughness and stamina required to overcome a wide barrier in Saturday's Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) as the gelding attempts to give trainer Tony Gollan a first win in Queensland's premier race. The five-year-old will jump from barrier 18, having previously gone down by 0.2 lengths to Vivv Air (Hellbent) in last spring's Five Diamonds (1800m) after starting from the outside gate.

"It's a bit tougher this time around, there is always a lot of pressure in a Stradbroke," Berry said. "He's a horse who can handle pressure though. He's done that in the past, and he's placed at 1800 metres. His stamina isn't going to be an issue. He's just going to need a bit of luck in that first half and if he gets it, he'll be right in the finish." Transatlantic heads into the $3 million feature third-up after two runs from a spell, with Berry pleased the gelding has remained in Queensland throughout the preparation. "The good thing is he's from Queensland, so he hasn't had to travel this preparation, he has been home the whole time. He enjoys a bit of give in the ground and he's trained by Tony Gollan. There's a lot of ticks there," he said. Berry will also partner Berzelius (Extreme Choice) in Saturday's J.J. Atkins (Gr 1, 1600m), with the Michael Freedman-trained colt chasing successive wins following his victory in the BRC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m). The jockey nominated Within The Law (Lucky Vega) as his best ride on the Eagle Farm programme as she steps up to a mile in the Gunsynd Classic (Gr 3, 1600m).

Portland no certainty to line up in Cup

Matt Smith remains in two minds over whether Portland (Dubawi) will contest The Queen Elizabeth II Cup (Listed, 2400m) at Rosehill, with the trainer not keen to run him on a firming track. Portland was nominated for Saturday's race and the Q22 (Gr 2, 2200m) in Brisbane, but Smith opted not to accept for the latter, wary of the hit-and-miss weather forecast and Eagle Farm's renowned drying capabilities. As of Friday, the Queensland circuit was rated a Heavy 8, with Rosehill being a Soft 5. "It was a flip of the coin, but it was a $10,000 acceptance, float fees and all the rest, so I decided to stay here," Smith said. "To be competitive with those horses [in the Q22] he needed a wet track, which I wasn't sure he'd get." Portland would have been taking on the likes of Half Yours (St Jean) and Pride Of Jenni (Pride Of Dubai) in Brisbane, while his best performed rival in Sydney is last year's Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Maison Louis (Super Seth), who's shown fluctuating form since. However, Smith admits that the 5.5-kilogram weight rise from Portland's Lord Mayor's Cup (Listed, 2000m) victory last start is a query. "It's a big concern jumping up that quickly. He's coming off the minimum to carrying top weight, but he's carried big weights overseas," he said. "It's hard to predict which horses will carry big weights and which won't. We just have to try. He's in form. It's the perfect race for him and if we do get a track with a bit of give in it, he'll be hard to beat." While Portland hasn't been tested beyond 2100 metres in Australia, he is a winner over Saturday's 2400-metre journey in the UK. He's a $7.50 chance in an open market with six of the nine runners marked at $8 and under. Thebudgetiesmugla (Redwood) was rated the $2.40 favourite on Friday.

Alexander set for interstate juggling act

Archie Alexander will have runners spread across three states and four race meetings on Saturday as the Ballarat trainer tackles one of the busiest days of his season. Alexander will be represented by Didn't Miss Many (D'Argento) at Sandown, Prince Eric (Time Test) at Rosehill, Breathless Spirit (Invincible Spirit) at Murray Bridge and Mr Charismatic (Bullbars) at Bendigo, with the stable relying on a team effort to cover the logistical challenge. "Three weekends ago we had a Saturday winner and the two weekends in between we've had no runners," Alexander said. "The last two Saturdays I've sat at home mowing the lawn, then you have a weekend like this. We're lucky we've got enough good people and transport to make it fairly smooth and hopefully on Sunday we have something to show for it." Alexander will travel to Sydney to oversee Prince Eric's first run outside Victoria since arriving from the UK, while wife Annie Alexander, travelling foreman Glenn Xiberras and Greg Baker will supervise runners at the other venues. Breathless Spirit is the stable's shortest-priced runner as he chases a hat-trick of victories in a 2000-metre handicap at Murray Bridge. "We took our time with him and everything has just clicked," Alexander said. "We knew he was back in great form when he had a good run at Geelong first-up, then he's put two wins together. I think there are a few handy horses in this race, but he's got a lot of upside. He's not badly in at the weights, 56.5 kilos with a good jockey [Jacob Opperman] on board and the drier the better." Alexander also expects Prince Eric to acquit himself well at Rosehill, with the import to be ridden by Ash Morgan from barrier four.

Storm Season looking for three in a row

The Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained Storm Season (Tornado) will resume at Sandown on Saturday after connections opted against travelling to Sydney for a 1400-metre contest at Rosehill. The daughter of Tornado (High Chaparral) accepted for both meetings

Home Affairs juveniles shine at Randwick trials

Champion first-season sire Home Affairs (I Am Invincible) continued to make his presence felt ahead of the new juvenile season with a brace of winners at Friday's Randwick barrier trials.

Six juvenile heats were conducted at the metropolitan session, with Home Affairs represented by trial winners Lady Moscato and Hearts Affair, while Coco Affair also produced an encouraging performance when runner-up to the well-related Chanterelle (Ole Kirk).

Lady Moscato, a daughter of Group 2 winner Champagne Cuddles (Not A Single Doubt), was having her first public appearance since a debut campaign that included placings in the Magic Millions Debut (1200m) and Lonhro Plate (Listed, 1000m) before a midfield finish in the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m). The $1.05 million Magic Millions purchase for her trainers Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott settled just off the speed and edged clear late to claim her 740-metre heat in a blanket finish.

The Waterhouse and Bott stable also produced Hearts Affair, who bounced back from a luckless debut performance in February. Ridden positively by Regan Bayliss, the filly travelled prominently before proving too strong late in another 740-metre heat. Purchased for $160,000 at the Inglis Premier Yearling Sale, Hearts Affair is out of Group

2-winning mare Savapinski (Savabeel).

Meanwhile, Chanterelle produced one of the most notable performances of the morning. The Waterhouse and Bott-trained daughter of Ole Kirk (Written Tycoon) is a sister to Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner O' Ole and showed plenty of natural speed, leading throughout the 740-metre heat to score by 0.4 lengths. The $650,000 Inglis Easter yearling was purchased by McKeever Bloodstock and Watership Down Stud and races in the colours of Sir Andrew Lloyd Webber's operation.

Another first-season sire represented among the winners was Acrobat (Fastnet Rock), whose son The Local continued his progression with an impressive victory over 1050 metres. Trained by Matt Dale, the gelding travelled strongly before surging clear under Tim Clark to score by 0.8 lengths. The Local was purchased by Willow Park Stud for $10,000 at the Inglis Great Southern Sale before being resold for $130,000 at Inglis Classic.

The remaining juvenile heats were won by Satin Summer (Written Tycoon) and Clap Along (Exceed And Excel).

but will instead contest the Sportsbet Race Replays Handicap (1400m) on her home track. Storm Season has not raced since December, when she completed a two-from-two campaign with victory over 1500 metres at Caulfield Heath, having also won first-up at Kembla Grange. Kent Jnr said the mare had been sidelined by a minor injury following that preparation but had returned in good order. "She won both her starts last time in and then she pulled up with an injury after her Caulfield victory, so we gave her some time out," he said. "She's come up really well and typically goes well fresh. She's trialled well twice, she's drawn to get the right run, off the speed and off the fence." The trainer said the expected rain and the prospect of heavy ground remained the biggest query for the lightly raced mare. "The big unknown is it will be her first go on heavy ground," Kent Jnr said. "If they do get 15 mils of rain, that track might be pretty dire on Saturday, which could dent the confidence quite a bit, but if we miss a lot of it, then I think she's a nice chance. Yes, she will improve for absolute race fitness, but she is a big mare that will enjoy that big track at Sandown." Apprentice Logan Bates takes the ride and will reduce Storm Season's impost to 57.5 kilograms with his 1.5-kilogram claim.

Simurgh eyes hat-trick at Sandown

Lindsay Park's promising stayer Simurgh (Phoenix Of Spain) will bid to extend his winning sequence to three when he steps up to 2400 metres at Sandown on Saturday. The Irish-bred four-year-old has won three of his six starts, including consecutive victories over 2000 metres at Caulfield, and heads the betting for the Sportsbet Same Race Multi Handicap (2400m). Purchased after a win and a placing from three starts in Ireland for Eddie and Patrick Harty, Simurgh has continued to progress through the grades since joining the Ben, Will and JD Hayes stable. "We're taking him through his grades to boost his rating, but he's got a great future ahead of him," JD Hayes said. "Hopefully we can ever so slightly raise the bar again with him and he can go along with it." Simurgh defeated Skippers Canyon (Belardo), whom he meets again on Saturday, when scoring at Caulfield on May 30 and will carry an additional three kilos for that victory. Ben Allen replaces Craig Williams in the saddle. Hayes said the gelding continued to furnish as a staying prospect and had given the stable every indication he was ready for another rise in class. "He'll tell us. He's a very easy horse to pick in the mornings," he said. A successful performance could see Simurgh earn a trip to Queensland for the Caloundra Cup (Listed, 2400m) at the Sunshine Coast on July 4. "It will be a thought, but we need to get through Saturday first," Hayes said. "He needs to win to see whether he can take a trip to the warmer weather." Simurgh opened favourite for Saturday's contest at $3.60 ahead of fellow emerging stayer Straand Deal (Dundeel) ($3.90).

Track switch brings mixed fortunes for Faulkner pair

Stephanie Faulkner believes Sunday's transfer of the Waimate Cup (1600m) from Timaru to Oamaru could prove beneficial for O'Riordan

(Proisir), although the change may have come at the expense of stablemate He's Tunza Grunt (Pure Champion). The pair had been set to contest the feature on their home track last weekend before the meeting was abandoned following safety concerns. Faulkner said the softer conditions at Timaru would have favoured He's Tunza Grunt, while the improving O'Riordan is expected to appreciate the firmer footing at Oamaru. "It would have been better for He's Tunza Grunt at Timaru because it was wetter there and he would have enjoyed that," Faulkner said. "The firmer nature of the track is definitely going to favour O'Riordan. She is a tough mare with no weight on her back so I will expect a bold run from her with Tina onboard." He's Tunza Grunt is expected to improve sharply after his first-up run at Wingatui, while Faulkner is also optimistic about the prospects of former Andrew Forsman-trained mare Way Out West (U S Navy Flag) in a 1600-metre contest later on the card. A winner first-up for her new stable in April, she was a closing third at her latest start and has continued to develop physically. "She is a lovely mare who is improving all the time," Faulkner said. "The way she is, it wouldn't surprise me if she works her way up to open company. She is just a lovely type of horse."

Quondo to resume at Matamata

Group 2 placegetter Quondo (Wootton Bassett) will resume at Matamata on Sunday, with trainer Andrew Forsman confident he will appreciate a return to rain-affected ground. The three-year-old won on debut before finishing runner-up in the Hawke's Bay Guineas (Gr 2, 1400m) during the spring, with both performances coming on heavy tracks. He subsequently placed at Te Rapa in January before heading for a spell. "He performed well on rain-affected surfaces and as the tracks got firmer he probably struggled a little bit and needed time to mature,” Forsman said. “He has come back in good order, he is on the way up, we elected to only give him the one trial, so he will take good improvement out of it.” Forsman will also unveil former Western Australian stakes performer Twilight Tale (Savabeel) at Te Rapa on Saturday. Purchased through Magic Millions' Digital Sale earlier this year, Twilight Tale was runner-up in a recent Pukekohe trial and will be having her first start for the stable. “She has got good ability, she has got a bit of black-type and has been in the mix in some three-year-old fillies’ company in Australia,” Forsman said. “She is here to try and add some more to that CV.” Meanwhile, Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) runner Single Red (Vanbrugh) has returned home for a spell after her three-year-old campaign yielded three wins and placings in both the New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) and David & Karyn Ellis Fillies Classic (Gr 2, 2100m). “She will come back and target some mares races and four-year-old races over a mile where I think she will be much better suited,” Forsman said.

Wigram celebrates first winner

South Auckland apprentice Tom Wigram wasted little time opening his account, guiding Bridie (Ocean Park) to victory at New Plymouth on Friday to record his first raceday winner at just his third ride. The success came in the Naki Plumbing And Gas (1600m) for trainer Allan Sharrock at the Platinum Homes Taranaki Apprentice Raceday, less than a week after Wigram made his riding debut at Ellerslie. “I am really rapt, it’s great to get my first win,” Wigram said. “I didn’t expect it to come this early, but it did and it was awesome.” The 16-year-old, who began his riding career through the LOVERACING.NZ Pony Scurry Series, settled Bridie in midfield before producing her at the right time to score. “Coming around the bend I had plenty of horse underneath me, I just had to find somewhere to get out and as soon as I came back in and got a run she came home really well,” he said. Wigram joined Donna Logan’s Byerley Park stable last year and credited several industry figures for helping him progress through the ranks. The apprentice will look to add to his tally at Te Rapa on Saturday, where he has four rides, including last-start open-class winner Hasstobeawinner (Vadamos). “Hasstobeawinner is very exciting, he is a last start winner in open class, so I am very lucky to get the opportunity to ride him,” Wigram said.

HK: Newnham looks to keep title hopes alive

Mark Newnham

HKJC

Mark Newnham will rely on a select team of six runners at Sha Tin on Saturday as he attempts to keep pace with Caspar Fownes in the Hong Kong trainers’ championship. Fownes heads the standings with 62 wins, four clear of Newnham (58), while Danny Shum remains close behind on 57. With just a handful of meetings remaining, Newnham acknowledged last month that he may “run out of bullets before the end of the season”, and he again fields fewer runners than his chief rivals this weekend. The Australian’s strongest representation comes in the Class 2 Peacock Handicap (1600m), where he saddles both Max Que (Akeed Mofeed) and Infinite Resolve (Snitzel). Max Que has been a success story this season, climbing 32 rating points after beginning in Class 4 company. “He’s had a great season,” Newnham said. “He’s worked his way up to be a Class 2 winner. He’s probably going to find the handicap a bit tough now. But he’s a good, consistent horse.” Infinite Resolve, runner-up in this season’s Hong Kong Classic Mile (Listed, 1600m), also returns to a rating Newnham believes makes him competitive. “I think the key to him is riding him for a turn of foot,” he said. “His best performances in good grade have been when he’s been ridden that way. He’s placed in the Classic Mile and placed in Class 2 prior to that.” Meanwhile, David Hayes will unveil promising juvenile Jedi Spurs (Cosmic Force) in the Sunbird Plate (1000m). The two-year-old impressed in a pair of recent barrier trials and Hayes believes the gelding has the potential to develop into a quality performer next season. “He’s a very promising young horse,” Hayes said. “If it’s not this season, he’ll be very good next season.”

88 for Wootton Bassett

Coolmore’s late shuttle sensation Wootton Bassett (Iffraaj) recorded his 88th individual stakes winner on Thursday when five-year-old gelding Native Warrior (5 g ex Beauty Salon by Dutch Art) landed the Ballycorus Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Leopardstown. Trained by Karl Burke, Native Warrior successfully stepped up to Group 3 level after making good progress as a handicapper last season, scoring by three-quarters of a length under James Doyle. (Iffraaj) was second, with Redemption Road (Without Parole) finishing another three-quarters of a length back in third. A 260,000gns purchase out of Tattersalls October Book 1 for Joe Foley, Native Warrior now races in the colours of Wathnan Racing. Bred by Branton Court Stud, he is one of two winners out of Dutch Art (Medicean) mare Beauty Salon, herself a daughter of Group 3 scorer Albisola (Montjeu). Wootton Bassett, who died last September after complications from choke and acute pneumonia, will have three sons at stud in Australia this spring, with Wodeton and Royal Patronage joining Swettenham Stud sire

Wooded at Newgate Farm and Darling View Thoroughbreds respectively.

US: White Abarrio to join Gainesway Farm ranks in 2027

Breeders' Cup Classic (Gr 1, 10f) winner White Abarrio (Race Day) will take up stud duties at Gainesway Farm in Lexington, Kentucky at the conclusion of his racing career. The son of Race Day (Tapit) has won four Grade 1 contests and earned more than US$8.4 million (approx. AU$11.94 million) in prize-money, including the 2023 Breeders' Cup Classic, Whitney Stakes (Gr 1, 9f) and Florida Derby (Gr 1, 9f). Trained by Saffie Joseph Jr. for C2 Racing Stable, Gary Barber and La Milagrosa Stable, White Abarrio is scheduled to appear in the Stephen Foster Stakes (Gr 1, 9f) at Churchill Downs on June 27. “It is rare that a horse who comes to stud with such consistent high-class ability is a grandson of the two foremost breed-shaping stallions of the last decade, Tapit and Into Mischief,” Gainesway president Antony Beck said. “We look forward to seeing what accomplishments White Abarrio can add to his already impressive resume the rest of this year and are very excited for him to join the Gainesway stallion roster in 2027.”
