Cool Gent looks to bring the heat in the Tatt's Stakes

By Paul Symes

After suffering a 15-length defeat on debut at Toowoomba last December, it is quite the turnaround for Cool Gent (Winning Rupert) to be heading into Saturday's Tattersall's Stakes (Listed, 1400m) as one of the more fancied runners but co-trainer Adam Barling believes the bargain buy is worthy of his place near the top of the markets.

Having earned his stripes as Liam Birchley's assistant, Barling readily admits he was initially reluctant to take the plunge into the training ranks full-time but his last-start Oxlade Stakes (Listed, 1200m) winner Cool Gent, who cost a mere $9,000 at last year's Magic Millions March Yearling Sale, has more than justified the decision to branch out.

Blue Gum announce acquisition of Coleman and Libertad

Blue Gum Farm has announced the addition of two stallions for the 2026 breeding season, with Group 1-winning sprinter Libertad (Russian Revolution) and Group-winning juvenile Coleman (Pierata) joining the roster.

Libertad will stand at $9,900 (inc GST), while Coleman will stand at $7,700 (inc GST), presenting breeders with value and access to two highly credentialled young stallions.

Among the ownership groups behind both horses are Jason and Melanie Stening of Trilogy Racing and Blue Gum Farm, who are delighted to welcome the pair to the historic Euroa nursery. Continued on page 12

Continued from page 2 Cool Gent became his unheralded sire's first two-year-old black type winner at the same venue two weeks ago when he launched from the rear of the 14-runner field to topple race favourite Marffiano (Home Affairs), the Lindsay Park-trained colt who at $475,000 was more than 50 times the price of the Barlings' stable star.

Marffiano reopposes in the Tatt's Stakes, for which he holds early favouritism, and while naturally respectful of the colt as well as his fellow interstate raiders - which include last-start victors The Machine Gun (Stay Inside), Tannin (Exceed And Excel) and La Barrita (St Mark's Basilica) - Barley is fearful of none.

- ADAM BARLING

His confidence will only heighten should the predicted rain arrive in Brisbane towards the end of the week, and provided Cool Gent - who opened at $8.50 - can cure a worrying tendency to hesitate when the gates open, Barley is adamant that back-to-back stakes wins is well within his grasp.

"He pulled up a treat from his win in the Oxlade Stakes and his gallop on Tuesday morning was as good if not better than it was heading into that race, so he's definitely ready to go on Saturday," Barling told ANZ News.

"We weren't 100 per cent certain that we'd press onto the Tatt's Stakes but the way he's been working since his last start, we'd be mad not to. If he was trained by Chris Waller he'd probably be a $1.60 chance on Saturday, but he does have a habit of missing the start so that may put some punters off.

"It's not that he's misbehaving or anything in the barriers, he can just be slowly away on occasion. But he has jumped cleanly and sat up on the speed in trials, so he's certainly not one-dimensional and he doesn't have to go back. If he does jump with them on Saturday and he doesn't have to make up 17 lengths in the straight, then look out.

"A few of the southerners have got some pretty good form, but I wouldn't say anything is really standing out in the field. If he goes about his business like he did last time, they would need to be on their A-game to beat him on Saturday."

Having just bought a house, Barley attended the 2025 Gold Coast March Yearling Sale purely on a fact-finding mission, but the initial intention to stick to window shopping was revised when Lot 41 - a colt he had taken a real shine to - was passed in.

His then-boss Birchley told him that if he couldn't afford to buy the horse, he should find someone who could; and so after putting in some calls to friends and family members, two days later Barling plucked up the courage to make a post-sale offer to the colt's breeder Mark Richards at Marlou Park. Continued on page 5

Continued from page 3 A deal was swiftly done for a mere $9,000, and with over $130,000 in racetrack earnings already banked – not to mention the prospect of adding up to $92,000 more on Saturday – the decision has proved an inspired one.

Should Cool Gent win the Tatt's Stakes, the trickle of offers from Hong Kong – which have previously been rebuffed – may turn into a torrent.

Given that he only retained a ten per cent share in the gelding, Barling will leave any decisions in the hands of the remaining owners but regardless of what happens in the future, he can at least draw on his ability to identify a promising yearling at a bargain basement price.

"Liam [Birchley] always says that you need to buy an athlete first and foremost, and not worry too much about the pedigree," said Barling, who reinvested some of Cool Gent's early winnings on another colt by Winning Rupert (Written Tycoon) at the Magic Millions

Gold Coast National Yearling Sale at the start of this month.

"When I get to the sales, the first thing I do is look for the athletes and then work out how much we might have to spend on them. If they don't have a standout pedigree, a lot of buyers will just turn the page so there is definitely some value to be found at the lower end of the market.

"I thought he [Cool Gent] had all the attributes to be an early-running type, which he was. He ran second to [subsequent stakes winner] Dream Roca in his first ever trial, so we knew he had plenty of ability and it gave us the confidence to take him to the races at Toowoomba.

We put him away for a spell and he won impressively at the Sunny Coast at his second start, so we knew then he was in for a good prep and he's definitely delivered the goods ever since."

God's Window set for W J McKell Cup

British import God's Window (Dubawi) is likely to be Chris Waller's only hope in Saturday's W J McKell Cup (Listed, 2000m) at Rosehill, with stablemate Rotagilla (All Too Hard) seemingly set to head to Eagle Farm for the Tattersall's Mile (Listed, 1600m) instead. Rotagilla has remained in Brisbane since finishing third in a Benchmark 90 (1810m) at Eagle Farm earlier this month and Waller's assistant trainer, Charlie Duckworth, feels the Tatt's Mile makes sense. "He is already up there anyway, and 2000 [metres] just sees him out because he wants to get a little bit keen, so he will stay over the mile up there instead," Duckworth said. "He is a good little horse. He just needs speed on, and Tim [Clark] gets on well with him. That's another factor for keeping him up there." Meanwhile, God's Window will bid to hand Waller a second success in the W J McKell Cup following Skyman (Mukhadram) in 2022. The five-year-old gelding scored in a Benchmark 94 (1600m) at Randwick on May 23 and followed that up with a second placing in a 1600-metre handicap back at that track on June 6. "Both runs back over a mile have been really good," Duckworth said. "He has drawn slightly sticky, but he is relaxing better than he ever has, which has been a bit of a concern for him. He had a tick over trial last week. He's right in it."

Rae hoping to keep stable run going

Having racked up a hat-trick of recent wins, the Alex Rae-trained I'm Foxing (I Am Immortal) will chase a fourth-straight success on Saturday when she contests the $150,000 MRC Membership Made Of Moments 3YO Handicap (1000m) at Caulfield. The daughter of I Am Immortal's (I Am Invincible) maiden win at Yarra Valley on March 24 was the first of 13 winners from 45 starters for Rae and he is hopeful that the run can continue this weekend. "It was a little unpleasant six months ago when we had a stack of ordinary horses and we were just trying to work our way through things and get to the city with some better quality horses," Rae said. "To be fair, these horses have all bobbed up at a similar time, so it's no surprise and there's plenty of nice ones still to come through. We've just got to keep working hard and hopefully it keeps coming, because you know racing is a tough game." I'm Foxing faces her toughest test this weekend, but Rae is not shying away from it given the dashing nature of her recent performances. "We're just letting her run," he said. "I was really trying to get her to switch off but it was working against and she was just becoming even more ferocious. At Caulfield when she won, we wanted her to be a little relaxed in the run but she led up quick horses that day and looked explosive. We'll adopt the same tactics on Saturday and if they're good enough to catch her, good on them."

Venom Rush bidding to bounce back at Ipswich

Venom Rush (Scorz) will bid to put a disappointing last-start effort in the Queensland Day Stakes (Listed, 1200m) behind him when he heads to Ipswich on Thursday. The three-year-old gelding ran last of 17 in the Listed event on June 6, albeit as a $41 chance, and trainer Michael Morrison is expecting a better effort in a Class 1 contest on Thursday. "I'm more than certain he's got a good race in him," Morrison said. "We thought we would be more competitive in that race but if you have a quick squiz at the replay, we're three-wide early and then from that point I think the white towel was thrown up. So he pulled up from that really well considering that he's pretty much gone around for a track gallop. He was beaten 7.5-lengths in a Listed race so I wouldn't be using that run as an indicator."

Sale-topping Extreme Choice colt makes winning debut

MAGIC MILLIONS

If punters backed horses the way some breeders and buyers approached matings and yearling selection, the market of today's Asahi Super Dry 2yo Hcp (1100m) at Warwick Farm should have been reversed. The early September foal would have been odds-on favourite and the January conceived youngster on debut, the longshot. As it happened, the punters paid no heed to the date of conception or birth and backed Omolong (Extreme Choice) into the red and were duly rewarded. Despite missing the start, Yulong-owned Omolong lead home a Chris Waller trifecta with a dominant display on debut, beating Sanctum (Stay Inside) by 1.2 lengths with a further 0.2 lengths back to Letters Patent (Wootton Bassett) in third. "They all ran super. Obviously, Omolong made it hard for himself, stepping a little bit slow away, but he was too good and the other two acquitted themselves nicely," said stable representative Charlie Duckworth. "We'll get today out of the way. He's now no longer a maiden, so he'll have to step up in grade and things become much harder from that point on, but it was a brilliant first day at school. He's a little bit small, but that's Extreme Choice... he can throw them in any shape and size, and they've all seemingly got engines. Gerry Harvey kept a little share in him as well. He did the same with Campione D'Italia, so hopefully he's just as lucky with this colt." It is likely Omolong would have looked out of place at the 2025 Magic Millions January Sale as a mere 12-month-old, but by June it was a different story. Catalogued as Lot 1282 at the 2025 Magic Millions National Yearling Sale, Omolong sold to a sale record-equaling $850,000 to Yulong Investments. The colts popularity was little surprise being a half-brother to Group-winning juvenile Prost (Snitzel) from a city-winning, half-sister to multiple Group 1 sprinter Samaready (More Than Ready).

Pin Up Sheila maintains unbeaten record

Having made a winning debut at Canterbury on May 27, the Tom Charlton-trained Pin Up Sheila (Pinatubo) made it two wins from as many starts when scoring at Warwick Farm on Wednesday. Ridden by Dylan Gibbons, the juvenile Pinatubo (Shamardal) filly defeated Scuro Star (D'Argento) by 0.9 lengths in the 1100-metre handicap contest with a further 1.7 lengths back to Sambuca Sky (Portland Sky) in third place. "She will learn a lot. She did a bit wrong in her trial the other day, and even up the running today she is climbing a bit in her action and not quite flattening out yet," Charlton said. "Hopefully, that will do her the world of good going forward. We will probably turn her out now. I'll have a chat with [owners] the Esplin family, who have obviously got a nice filly on their hands. I'd say we'll give her a breather and look after her, and perhaps she can look at something a little later in the spring. She will definitely stay further than today. She has a very stout female line, but she's not slow. The stallion is quite a mixed bag. He can get a bit of everything, so we'll have to work that out."

Bradman on target for southern Group finale

A rejuvenated Bradman (Pins) will chase further course and distance success at Trentham on Saturday ahead of a final trip south to bring the curtain down on his career. ## Double Market tops Inglis June (Late) Sale at $200,000

Group 2-winning filly Double Market (Castelvecchio) topped the Inglis Digital June (Late) Online Sale that closed on Wednesday, realising $200,000.

Offered by Lindsay Park, Double Market was purchased by Geoff Walsh, who said the mare would likely be served by exciting young stallion Anamoe (Street Boss) this season.

"I've got a nom to Anamoe, I think he's the complete package, I like the fact he kept racing and won in every year that he was racing and he's also a very attractive stallion that I think will really suit Double Market," Walsh said.

"Jim Clarke advises me on my bloodstock purchases and he graded this mare highly on physique especially, plenty of strength and he thinks she could throw some nice foals and become a commercial broodmare for me.

"I like to have 12-15 mares and I lost one foaling down last year so I've been looking to replace her and Double Market really fitted the bill.

"I was hoping to get her for a bit less but I thought $200,000 was a fair price, anything over that would have stretched me to keep going much further."

The sale's second-top lot was six-year-old mare Takemine (Hellbent), a three-quarter sister to Chayan (I Am Invincible) - who sold at this year's Inglis Chairman's Sale for $5.6 million.

Offered by her ownership group, Takemine sold to Michael Pitt for $160,000. Pitt confirmed Takemine would be immediately retired and bred to this spring, although he was unsure of which stallion she would visit.

"I have three mares at Arrowfield so I'll have a chat to the team there and see what they think about potential matings but I still have a bit of time up my sleeve to make that call," Pitt said.

"I've been looking for another nice mare for a while now and I found her when I looked at the Inglis Digital catalogue when it came online on Friday and just thought with her breeding and from a family that is doing so much, she would have every chance at stud."

In total, the June (Late) Sale grossed $3,125,450, with other significant results including Dayeala (Starcraft) - in foal to The Autumn Sun (Redoute's Choice) - who sold to Mayfair Farm for $120,000 and a Godolphin draft of ten racehorses which grossed $435,500, headed by the three-year-old Comedy (Snitzel) who sold to Jack Bruce for $95,000.

Entries are now open for the Inglis Digital July (Early) Sale, which will be held from July 10-15. Entries will remain open until midnight on Wednesday, July 8. To enter click here.

so well and he had put in three or four lack lustre runs really," Awapuni trainer Roydon Bergerson said. "I thought he ranged up to win at Wanganui and he didn't finish it off, so we changed a couple of things in his training." They had the desired outcome last time out at Trentham with Bradman making the running and then headed wide out on the track in the run home to comfortably hold his rivals at bay. "We took him away from the colts at home and stuck him on the fillies' side and that seems to have worked, he's an older gelding and it's brightened him up," Bergerson said. All going well at the weekend, Bradman will be on a path toward Riccarton for a third crack at the Winter Cup (Gr 3, 1600m). The son of Pins (Snippets) has twice placed in the race and the August 1 feature will be his final race day outing. "He's climbed to the top of the weight scale and it's pretty hard on him, so he'll probably have a jump-out or a trial before he heads south for his last run," Bergerson said.

NZTR welcomes Minister's call for industry collaboration

New Zealand Thoroughbred Racing (NZTR) has welcomed comments by Racing Minister Winston Peters calling for collaboration to secure the long-term future of racing in New Zealand. The TAB NZ Advisory Committee released its proposals for reform of the racing sector on Wednesday, some of which would require legislative change. NZTR board chair Russell Warwick said NZTR has consistently supported a collaborative approach to considering these proposals. "To date, that collaboration has been lacking and it now appears we are at an impasse," Warwick said. "To move forward, the Committee must be willing to engage in genuine negotiation rather than simply seeking agreement to the proposals as they currently stand. We also note the Minister's view that legislative reform should be a last resort. NZTR believes much of what needs to be achieved can be delivered within existing frameworks." While discussions on the future structure of the industry continue, NZTR's immediate priority remains providing certainty around funding for the 2026/27 season, which begins in just 36 days. "To provide certainty for participants, NZTR is committing to maintaining funding at current season levels for the next three months. This will ensure clubs and participants can continue to plan and operate with confidence while longer-term funding arrangements are finalised."

UK: Asfoora plans outlined by Dwyer

Henry Dwyer has revealed that Asfoora (Flying Artie) could have as many as three more runs during her final racing campaign before being readied for a northern hemisphere time cover. The now seven-year-old mare ran seventh in the King Charles III Stakes (Gr 1, 5f) at Royal Ascot last week, beaten two lengths, and could yet bid for a fourth European Group 1 victory. "She's going into quarantine on the 31st of July to get back here for the breeding season at the start of September," Dwyer said. "We can run her at Sandown on Saturday week in the fivefurlong Group 3 sprint there, the Sprint Stakes, which will be two-and-a-half weeks between runs and then there's the Group 2 King George Stakes at Goodwood the day she's supposed to go into quarantine. They're two options for her before she comes home. But if she was to win one or both of them, which we'd be a chance to, then the Nunthorpe is three weeks later and the owners might be persuaded to put off getting her served by a month." The Nunthorpe Stakes (Gr 1, 5f), which Asfoora won last year, will be run at York on August 21. "I think she ran near enough her best, she just blew out that last little bit," Dwyer said of the mare's King Charles III run. "Maybe off the back of two very soft runs she still needed it a bit the other day. She had a big blow, but at least she tried and I feel like her next run will be her peak run."

Blue Gum announce acquisition of Libertad and Coleman

Blue Gum Farm has announced the addition of two stallions for the 2026 breeding season, with Group 1-winning sprinter Libertad (Russian Revolution) and Group-winning juvenile Coleman (Pierata) joining the roster.

Libertad will stand at $9,900 (inc GST), while Coleman will stand at $7,700 (inc GST), presenting breeders with value and access to two highly credentialled young stallions.

Among the ownership groups behind both horses are Jason and Melanie Stenning of Trilogy Racing and Blue Gum Farm, who are delighted to welcome the pair to the historic Euroa nursery.

“We are extremely proud to stand the first Group 1 winner to race in our silks. Securing Libertad, despite strong competition, marks a significant win for the farm as we continue to strengthen an already respected and successful stallion roster,” Blue Gum Farm’s Jason Stenning said.

An undefeated Group winner at two, Libertad displayed high-level precocity before developing into one of Australia’s most durable and consistent Group-race sprinters, with the five-year-old’s biggest win coming most recently in November’s Winterbottom Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m).

“He demonstrated class, consistency and longevity throughout his career. He won Group races at two, three, four and five. To my knowledge, the only other stallion in the modern era to achieve that feat is Lonhro,” Stenning said.

Meanwhile, Coleman brings explosive speed and precocious talent to the roster including Group 3 and Listed contests.

“Coleman’s two-year-old form speaks for itself, and above all, he is an outstanding physical specimen,” Stenning said.

“Our industry is built on speed, and he was an exceptionally fast horse. He broke the class record when winning the Group 3 Chairman’s Stakes at Caulfield and was only narrowly beaten in the second-fastest Golden Slipper this decade.

“It takes a very good horse to consistently produce the times he did.”

Libertad represents the flourishing Snitzel (Redoute’s Choice) branch of the Redoute’s Choice/Danehill (Danzig) sire line and descends from a proven, high-performing family. Coleman, the first stakes winner for emerging sire Pierata (Pierro), offers further pedigree depth through influential stallion Canny Lad (Bletchingly) and a family rich in Group 1 success.

“At Blue Gum Farm, we strive to provide breeding solutions for every level of the industry. We deliver blue-chip opportunities for commercial breeders while also supporting grassroots participants in their pursuit of breeding a winner,” Stenning added.

For further information on Libertad and Coleman, or to discuss breeding plans for the upcoming season, contact Blue Gum Farm and discover how they can help you breed your next star of the turf.

Midnight Dynamite

By Trevor Marshallsea

From an agonising pinhooking failure - belying a family with several elite winners - Midnight Dynamite (Pierata) has gone on to shine as yet another success story for the power couple that is Darby Racing and Bjorn Baker.

Bred by Rheinwood Pastoral, the southern highlands boutique nursery that's brought us Group 1 heroes Private Harry (Harry Angel), Libertad (Russian Revolution) and more, the four-year-old model of consistency became a black type winner in Saturday's Civic Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Randwick, as a popular short-priced favourite.

If not quite a story of humble beginnings, his is definitely one with a bleak second chapter.

Midnight Dynamite is the third foal of Talented Miss (Al Maher), who Rheinwood bought in tandem with Bill Mitchell Bloodstock for $85,000 in 2018, carrying her first foal by Shalaa (Invincible Spirit). In a scene that would have a reprise, Talented Miss had been offered a month earlier at the Inglis Chairman's sale, but failed to meet the same $85,000 figure as her reserve.

There's class in the family, though it mightn't hit you on first blush. Talented Miss won twice from 12 starts, at Armidale and Inverell, while her mother Mahira (Canny Lad) was unraced. But digging a little deeper reveals quality.

Mahira also threw Talented Miss's full-sister Acouplamas, who ran second in Listed class. Better still, Mahira's mother Tilly Foster (Vice Regal), also unraced, spawned some great success. She threw two stakes placegetters including Kensington Gardens (Grosvenor), who ran third in the AJC Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) of 1990 and became an outstanding broodmare.

Kensington Gardens threw no fewer than five black type victors - all by Danehill (Danzig) - from just six runners, two at the top rung.

They were headed by Blackfriars (Danehill), who won the VRC Derby (Gr 1, 2500m) among two stakes successes and went on to sire 48 black type winners. His three top-level victors include Playing God, who's emulated his father in becoming a dominant champion sire in Western Australia.

Kensington Gardens also threw Larrocha, who won the South Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2500m) when it still had top-level status. Larrocha threw Rocha (Encosta De Lago) - a Group 2 winner who in turn bore the Group 3-winning Rocha Clock (Pierro) - as well as the dam of a South African Group 3 victor.

The stakes-winning quintet of Kensington Gardens was rounded out by Group 2 winner Manton, and Waterford Road and Lions Gate, who both scored at Listed level.

Talented Miss fitted Rheinwood's modus operandi to a tee. She was not a stakes winner, but was stakes winner adjacent, hinting she had potential as a broodmare without the stakes-winning price tag.

It also didn't hurt that she was being sold by Willow Park Stud, Glenn Burrows' Hunter Valley farm of which Rheinwood has become quite fond. It was at the same 2018 Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale that Rheinwood bought from them Happy Pilgrim (Congrats), who threw Private Harry. Two years earlier at the same auction, Willow Park had sold Rheinwood Electric Charge (Charge Forward), who became the dam of Libertad.

"Talented Miss was similar to a lot of the mares we try to purchase," Rheinwood manager Kirsty Willis told It's In The Blood. "We like buying a well-credentialed sister to a very good mare."

"Her full-sister Acouplamas had already shown her talent in producing good looking horses, so we decided to snap up her good looking sister. Plus, being in-foal to a first-season sire in Shalaa was attractive."

The purchase soon proved astute. The very next day, Acouplamas had her first winner when Seasons (Sebring) scored at Warwick Farm - the first of three straight Sydney wins, which ultimately led to a Sydney Group 3 victory.

Four months after the purchase, Acouplamas's third foal The August (I Am Invincible) was second in Caulfield's McNeil Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m). He later moved to Singapore, where he won seven times.

But the best was yet to come in the form of Acouplamas's third-straight stakes horse - by three diverse sires - Quick Thinker, by that super son of High Chaparral (Sadler's Wells), So You Think.

Almost a year after Rheinwood bought his aunt, the Murray Baker-trained gelding won in Listed class at Ellerslie in April, 2019. He then hot-footed it to Sydney to claim Rosehill's Ming Dynasty Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at start number three, and returned the following autumn to win the ATC Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) and Tulloch Stakes (Gr 2, 2000m).

After Talented Miss had thrown them Miss Shalaa (Shalaa) and Innovates (Hellbent) - both country winners - Rheinwood tried to replicate Quick Thinker's breeding by putting their mare to So You Think, but she unfortunately missed.

They changed tack the next year, 2020, and sent Talented Miss to Pierata (Pierro), standing his first season at Yulong, and the result was Midnight Dynamite.

"Ideally, we like to go to either proven sires or first season sires," Willis said. "You're stepping into the unknown with a first-season sire, but Pierata was a talented racehorse and stood every chance of making it as a stallion.

"With Talented Miss being by Al Maher, who's by Danehill, we have to steer away from stallions from a Danehill sireline. And Danehill had worked well with [Pierro's sire] Lonhro, so that was encouraging."

Lonhro (Octagonal) over Danehill has produced a thumping eight stakes winners from 83 runners at 9.6 per cent, among 62 winners, headed by the elite-winning sprinter Benfica. Pierro over Danehill mares has 25 winners from 34 starters with one black type victor in the Group 3-winning Parry Sound.

"Plus, physically, Pierata looked like he'd be very compatible with Talented Miss," Willis said. "She's a bit slighter of bone, on the smaller side and feminine, and he looked like a big strong forward stallion that would complement her physically. Pierata looked like he would bring that size and substance."

You love it when a plan comes together.

“Midnight Dynamite was a cracking foal,” Willis said. “He was nice and leggy, very good looking, and Pierata definitely brought the size.”

All started off well. Rheinwood opted to sell the colt as a weanling, which Willis says “fits our business model to sell a few weanling to reduce the numbers”.

And Rheinwood were elated to receive $100,000 for him at Inglis’s Sydney Weanling Sale of 2022, sold to the Redwall Syndicate.

Savvy breeders David Redvers and Hannah Wall have had some star horses go through their pinhooking fingers, including Breeders’ Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) winner King Kirk (Ole Kirk) and Extragalactic (Deep Field), the three-year-old filly who ran a 0.02-length second in The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) at Morphettville last month.

Midnight Dynamite is now another of their pinhooked stakes winners, though some ill fortune meant he didn’t tick the financial box.

The colt went to the 2023 Magic Millions’ Gold Coast Yearling Sale but was passed in $30,000 short of an $80,000 reserve.

“It was a bit of bad luck,” says Matt Comerford of Widden Stud, who offered him. “He hit a fence before the yearling sale and had a haematoma on his chest. It was ok, but it did affect him a little bit.

“It was a shame, because we thought enough of him to think he was going to be a Gold Coast yearling.”

His owners tried again at Inglis’s HTBA sale, determined to sell. Enter Darby Racing, who swooped to buy him for just $48,000. If they’re not the canniest buyer around, they’ll do till we find one.

“I’ve got to thank Matt Comerford,” says the syndicator’s chief Scott Darby. “We’ll usually ask them ([Widden] which horses we might be interested in, and he gave a good push to this one. He said he’d had an issue which had been resolved, and he’d been good enough to make one of the top sales in Magic Millions Gold Coast.”

Midnight Dynamite also fitted Darby’s model in many ways.

“We’ve bought a couple at HTBA that have been through another sale and been passed in, or had a setback that’s resolved itself. You can find good value that way,” he said.

Darby counts among such horses Time For War (Snitzel), a $56,000 buy who won two Group races and $470,000, and Look To The Stars (I Am Invincible), a $26,000 purchase who earned $223,000 and was Group 1-placed.

Midnight Dynamite has outstripped them all. Saturday’s eighth race victory, alongside six minor placings, took his earnings past $600,000, and with only 20 starts in the bank, it can be assumed there’ll be plenty more to come.

He’s now the 42nd stakes winner for Darby Racing, having progressed in the Bjorn Baker way in that his debut at Muswellbrook preceded wins at Goulburn and Nowra, before his rise through the grades to black type level.

“I just love those horses who keep improving with each step,” said Darby, whose group has some 140 horses on their books. “You think their lot in life will be to continue at their benchmark rating, but then they make it to stakes grade.”

Pedigree wise, things are pretty straightforward for the sprinter. Danehill brings the only bit of inbreeding, at 4m x 3m. As mentioned, Danehill may be Al Maher’s father but is not in both sirelines, since he comes in the top half as the sire or Pierata’s damsire, Flying Spur. This makes Danehill the strongest contributor to the pedigree overall by far, with 18.75 per cent of the blood.

Sir Ivor (Sir Gaylord) makes a decent contribution at 6f x 6f, as Flying Spur’s second damsire and Al Maher’s third, while there’s a strong dash of colonial quality in a 6m x 6m of Star Kingdom (Stardust), with Kaoru Star being Pierata’s third damsire, and Biscay leading to Bletchingly and Canny Lad - Midnight Dynamite’s second damsire.

This perpetuates a theme Willis also respects in that two of Pierro’s six Group 1/ winners have Canny Lad close up in their female family. Regal Power and Levendi are out of mares by Redoute’s Choice, who has Canny Lad as a damsire.

Natalma (Native Dancer) and her dam Almahmoud (Mahmoud) share the top rank among mares in the pedigree, with nine mentions each.

The influential Lalun (Djeddah) is on both sides at the back at 8m, 8m, 8m, 9m x 8m. Bold Reason (Hail To Reason) fills the third of those spots and Never Bend (Nasrullah) the rest, and all four top half mentions run into Pierro.

Nearco (Pharos) is the main stallion with 17 appearances, for 4.88 per cent of the blood, ahead of Hyperion (Gainsborough) with 13.

“I MAKE IT A HABIT TO READ THE ANZ FIRST THING EVERY MORNING AS IT PROVIDES A COMPREHENSIVE SNAPSHOT OF THE LATEST INDUSTRY NEWS, EVENTS AND RESULTS. FROM A PROMOTIONAL STANDPOINT, WIDDEN HAS SUPPORTED THE PUBLICATION SINCE DAY ONE AND WILL CONTINUE TO DO SO AS IT DELIVERS POSITIVE ADVERTISING OUTCOMES.”
