Godolphin will make a first foray as vendor into the online auction domain when it offers 18 tried horses for sale through the Inglis Digital June (Early) Online Sale next week.

It comes as Godolphin's Australian arm prepares to tackle the final Group 1 of the season, the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) at Eagle Farm on Saturday, with a likely four-runner team, while internationally, the racing operation will be represented by Poule d'Essai des Poulains (Gr 1, 1600m) favourite Victor Ludorum (Shamardal) tonight as well as 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) hotpot Pinatubo (Shamardal) this weekend. Continued on page 2>>

MORNING BRIEFING

Nervous wait for Superare Atkins start

Connections of well-bred two-year-old Superare (Exceed And Excel) face an anxious few days waiting to see if he can sneak into the field for Saturday's JJ Atkins Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m). Superare lifted his prize-money to $40,800 when he won at the Sunshine Coast on Friday night but he will need at least one horse higher on the ballot to drop out when acceptances are taken tomorrow. Morning Briefing page 8 >>

"Globally, it has been a tough time for the Godolphin operation, while Australia has been fortunate with racing continuing," Godolphin Australia managing director Vin Cox told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday. "Most jurisdictions are gradually opening with all staff looking forward to our horses getting back to the races. Interestingly, the breeding operations have not missed a beat, the stallions have been as busy as ever while operating amidst very strict human biosecurity protocols and procedures.

"We are all looking forward to cheering on the royal blue colours in some very exciting racing coming up."

A key feature of the Godolphin operation has been their willingness to trade stock through tried horse sales. Among their horses that have proven successful for new connections are Sonntag (Teofilo), purchased for $58,000 before going on to win the Queensland Derby (Gr 1, 2400m); Pecans (Skilled), sold for $50,000 before winning two Group 3 races; and Big Blue (Galileo), who won the ATC St Leger (2600m) before heading to the UK for a Cheltenham Festival campaign.

However, while they have participated in plenty of physical tried horse sales in the past, next week's Inglis auction will be the first time they have sold horses online.

"It is the first time we have gone down the online path," Cox said. "We do generally sell a tranche of racehorses at this time of year, but given these unique times we are selling online. Over a period of time we have built up a faith with the buyers, we don't offer horses that have any issues that will compromise their ability to go to the races. Transparency is also the key, we disclose everything we know about each horse."

Godolphin's racing and bloodstock manager Jason Walsh added: "Inglis have invested significant time and resources into ensuring its online platform provides both vendor and buyer with a simple and transparent solution to purchasing and selling bloodstock and Godolphin is looking forward to participating for the first time."

Inglis welcomed Godolphin's involvement in their online arena, with general manager of bloodstock sales and marketing Sebastian Hutch saying it is "one of the ultimate endorsements for the Inglis Digital platform".

"Godolphin Australia is recognised not just as the premier breeding operation in Australasia but arguably one of the most effective breeding operations in the world," Hutch said yesterday. "Its record speaks for itself. The regularity with which it produces top-class racehorses is nothing short of extraordinary.

"To have the opportunity to offer a number of horses of racing age and with racing upside that are graduates of this extraordinary breeding program is a great opportunity for us and a fantastic opportunity for our enormous client base."

Among the horses on offer is Esperance (Bernardini), a comfortable winner at Rosehill on Saturday, as well as yesterday's Ballarat maiden winner Flensburg (Reset). Cox said that, despite their wins, they were both still set to head for the virtual sale.

<< Continued from page 2 "Subject to those horses being fit and well, they will be offered," he said. "Once we have made the decision to sell, irrespective of current race form, we generally sell. We love following the careers of our graduates. Manseneta won today at Gunnedah, Hemsted won last week at Bathurst and Ligulate won the Tamworth Cup recently, plus there have been plenty of winners in north Queensland too."

Also being sold is The Driller (Sea The Stars), a regally-bred three-year-old out of Group 1 winner Shamal Wind (Dubawi), as well as other recent winners like Golwen (Lonhro) and Secretively (Dawn Approach).

Cox said: "To use an old cliché, there is a horse for every buyer, from maiden performers to open class horses, and last-start winners too."

Inglis Digital is now one of a number of online platforms for trading thoroughbreds across Australia and New Zealand, with Covid-19 protocols accelerating the move into and the growth of the digital marketplace.

"One of the most valuable features of the Inglis Digital online platform is the fact that it's a tried, proven and established platform with a strong precedent of success," Hutch said. "It's a platform that is very familiar and the success of graduates continues to progress at a rapid rate, particularly over the last six months and as recently as a few weeks ago with Bella Vella being the first Group 1 graduate."

"It seems like a very effective marriage between Godolphin and Inglis in this type of sale; they have the stock and we have a massive client base to take advantage of it. We're looking forward to being able to host an effective sale for them and hopefully our buyers will be able to recognise the value that the Godolphin horses can represent and we are talking about the success stories from this sale in six, 12, 18 months' time."

What makes this digital sale different from others that have been held during the Covid-19 era is that the Godolphin draft can be inspected at Riverside Stables at Warwick Farm from next Monday, June 8, before the hammer drops on Wednesday, June 10.

"We've put provisions in place for the Godolphin stock to be inspected at Riverside Stables, subject to restrictions and social distancing requirements," Hutch said. "Inspections are by appointment only and it is very easy to organise through Brett Gilding, one of our Inglis bloodstock staff members."

"It's just an added advantage to have the facility which allows us to facilitate these kinds of inspections and hopefully people take advantage of the opportunity. They can meet some of the Godolphin staff, see some of the horses in the flesh and get some further insight into the subtleties and the particulars of the stock. Again, hopefully it helps buyers make informed decisions and identify the stock they really want and try to get some value."

Before the sale, Godolphin will send out as many as four runners in the Stradbroke Handicap, which will be the last Group 1 of the 2019-20 season after the Brisbane winter carnival program was reduced. Continued on page 6>>

STAR TURN

"We couldn't be more impressed with our Star Turn - Spoleto colt at this stage. He is highly intelligent, hasn't put a foot wrong and is a horse that always wants to please. He also has a lovely, fluent stride and all his riders comment that he has a nice action and gives a good feel."

Trekking (Street Cry) will attempt to join Black Piranha (Clang) and Rough Habit (Roughcast) as a back-to-back Stradbroke winner in the modern era and enters off a second Group 1 win in The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) in Adelaide.

He will be joined by Kementari (Lonhro), seeking his first win since returning as a gelding, and last-start Listed winner Ranier (Lonhro), while last year's Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) winner Exhilarates (Snitzel) is likely to back-up after her fast-finishing second in the Fred Best Classic (Gr 3, 1350m) last Saturday.

"We look forward to the Stradbroke Handicap this week," Cox said. "Trekking is returning to defend his title. He has quietly worked his way into that group of horses described as the elite sprinters - he has come third in The Everest and won The Goodwood since winning the Stradbroke last year.

"Kementari will line up, albeit not in the same vocation we had in mind for him this time last year. Ranier is in a rare vein of form and deserves his spot in the race, and Exhilarates will likely have the seven day back-up, the same as she did in winning the Magic Millions last year, subject to her coming out of yesterday's race OK."

The field for the Stradbroke Handicap and the other Group 1 on Saturday's Eagle Farm card, the JJ Atkins (Gr 1, 1400m), will be confirmed tomorrow morning.

Nervous wait for
Superare Atkins start

Connections of well-bred two-year-old Superare (Exceed And Excel) face an anxious few days waiting to see if he can sneak into the field for Saturday's JJ Atkins Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m). Superare lifted his prize-money to $40,800 when he won at the Sunshine Coast on Friday night but he will need at least one horse higher on the ballot to drop out when acceptances are taken tomorrow. Superare, who cost $150,000 at the Inglis Classic Yearling Sale, beat stablemate Way Beyond in a photo-finish, and trainer Stuart Kendrick said he would see how both horses pulled up from their runs before making an Atkins decision. "I have Cosmic Gossip already in the field and we will just see how it pans out for the others," he said.

COOLMORE

A debut victory for Never Talk (2 f ex Palace Talk by Street Cry) at Tamworth yesterday provided Coolmore's shuttler No Nay Never (Scat Daddy) with his second individual Australian winner from his first crop down under. Trained by Kris Lees, Never Talk came home three quarters of a length in front of his nearest pursuer in a two-year-old handicap over 1000 metres.

Bott tips a smooth Passage into Stradbroke

A quick back-up holds no fears for Tulloch Lodge as the stable puts the finishing touches on Dawn Passage's (Dawn Approach) Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) campaign. Trained by Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott, Dawn Passage will go into the Stradbroke after an easy win in the Fred Best Classic (Gr 3, 1350m) at Doomben on Saturday. The win helped Dawn Passage beat the Stradbroke ballot and gain a place in the final field which will be declared tomorrow. Bott said it had been planned for Dawn Passage to run on a quick back-up and it wasn't expected to be a problem. "I think it will really suit him," Bott said. "We went up there knowing he would have to run on Saturday, and he has been in Brisbane early to give him plenty of time. He will have a nice easy week and this hit-out will have done him the world of good."

Fradd to ride Stradbroke
day despite ban

Robbie Fradd will be able to ride favoured horses in two Group 1s on Stradbroke Handicap day despite picking up a suspension after being found guilty of careless riding at the Gold Coast on Friday. Fradd, who is booked to ride Tyzone (Written Tycoon) in the Stradbroke Handicap and Wisdom Of Water (Headwater) in the JJ Atkins at Eagle Farm, was suspended for eight days following his ride on Fisticuffs (Redoute's Choice). The ban will start at midnight next Saturday and will expire on June 14. Unless he decides to appeal, Fradd will miss The Roses race day at Eagle Farm on June 13. Tyzone sits on the third line of Stradbroke betting as an $11 chance after finishing a close fifth in the Victory Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Eagle Farm. Two-year-old Wisdom Of Water is vying for Atkins favouritism with three wins in five starts.

Bridge starts Everest climb with Legend

Les Bridge is plotting an unconventional path towards the Sydney spring carnival's premier sprint after welcoming Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt) back to the fold. The gelding has been back in work with Bridge for eight weeks after plans to send him to Hong Kong were shelved, and he trounced his rivals in a Canterbury barrier trial on Friday. The hit-out was a chance to blow out the cobwebs and see where the horse's fitness levels were at with a view to giving him at least one start prior to a tilt at The Everest (1200m) in October. "The break was too long if I didn't do something with him," Bridge said. "You can't win an Everest having almost 12 months in between. We might just give him one or two runs and get him ready for the Everest." The Bob Charley AO Stakes (Listed, 1100m) at Randwick on Saturday is now a possible option for Classique Legend.

Victorian plans unchanged
for Irish OTI stars

OTI Racing is hoping to bring up to six overseas-trained horses to Melbourne as Racing Victoria officials canvas options to counter issues over pandemic restrictions. While there is a growing optimism about an international spring presence, OTI's Terry Henderson says any participation would be decided by federal government regulations. True Self (Oscar) and Dwindraft (Camelot), two OTI stayers trained out of different Irish stables who made an impact during last year's spring carnival, have been set aside for a return trip to Australia. "They are there (in Ireland) and we've got to get them out here and how they come out we really don't know yet," Henderson said. "That will depend on government rules rather than industry rules."

Mamaragan back for Golden Rose campaign

The Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) will be a spring aim for the John Thompson-trained Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) placegetter Mamaragan (Wandjina) who has recently returned to work. Mamaragan raced three times as an autumn two-year-old and was sent for a spell after finishing third in the ATC Sires' Produce Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Randwick on April 4. It was his second Group 1 placing after finishing third in his bid for an historic Golden Slipper win at just his second start at Rosehill in March. The colt had made an immediate impression winning the Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) on debut in late February at Randwick. "He's done so well at two, I can only see him getting better. And he looks bigger and stronger," Thompson said.

Caulfield Guineas on radar for Ilovemyself

Greg Eurell is keen to target the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) with the lightly-raced stakes-winning colt Ilovemyself (Ilovethiscity). "With those sorts of horses you shoot for the stars. If he's going well enough the Caulfield Guineas will be the target," Eurell said. "It will all depend on timing and how they re-program the spring with a couple of these meetings, but it's certainly a likely target for him. The preparation I think for a lot of horses has been designed on a more traditional basis at the moment and if that alters I think that's certainly going to throw the cat amongst the pigeons for a lot of us. A lot of these horses are going to be up for a heck of a long time if they change things. So it's critical that we get to know where we're at ASAP so we can plan what we're going to do with these horses."

Yulong breaks in Easter yearlings

Yulong's draft of 14 will head to round two of the Inglis Easter Yearling Sale next month having already been broken in. The draft, which includes four yearlings each from Frankel (Galileo) and Snitzel (Redoute's Choice), will be ready to go straight into a racing stable from the sales ring the stud's chief operating officer Sam Fairgray has revealed. "We are selling the whole draft and we thought to have them broken in would help them not be too far behind the other rising two-year-olds that have already been sold," Fairgray told The Age. "Anyone who is interested is welcome to inspect the yearlings at the farm and we will provide reports from the breakers. It is certainly a different year but we have some quality yearlings to sell at Easter round two."

German going from strength to strength

New Zealand born and raised apprentice Lewis German continues to make a name for himself and added to his tally of metropolitan Melbourne winners when scoring on the Mick Price and Michael Kent Jnr-trained Heptagon (Jimmy Choux) at Caulfield on Saturday. Although based with the David and Ben Hayes and Tom Dabernig operation where his father Paul works, German has looked outside for winning opportunities of late. "Right now, I'm on loan to Enver Jusufovic who I have been with for a couple of months," he said. "I have ridden a lot of winners for the Hayes stable but I was a little limited in the opportunities to get rides for other trainers. I want to come out of my apprenticeship with a bigger range of contacts and relationships and the move gives me the chance to do that. I'm still available to ride for the Hayes team when they need me, but now I'm at Cranbourne I'm enjoying the change."

NEW ZEALAND

Catalyst nears return to stables

Clayton Chipperfield is looking forward to welcoming back Catalyst (Darci Brahma) with the New Zealand 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner being readied for a spring campaign. The winner of six of his seven starts in New Zealand, Catalyst finished second to Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) in the CS Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Flemington, but failed to fire when sixth in the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) and was later found to have an issue that put an end to his autumn campaign. "He's done super," Chipperfield said. "He looks a lot stronger and more developed than when we saw him out in public last, so we're very happy with him. He's only a few days away from coming back in now, we've re-tested everything and all is 100 per cent. Nothing is set in concrete but the Golden Eagle later on in the year, we've got that down as possibly his final race of the campaign. What happens before then, we'll just have to see how he comes up."

Anticipation grows for Time Test

The oldest southern hemisphere progeny of the only son of Dubawi (Dubai Millennium) to stand at stud in New Zealand are expected to make a splash when they come up for sale later in the year. Dual Group 2 winner and Ascot track record holder Time Test has big shoes to fill to continue the legacy of his outstanding sire, but with the backing of New Zealand's leading breeders and a stunning crop of weanlings in both hemispheres, he looks to have the credentials to do so. Time Test stands the 2020 season at Little Avondale at special service fee of $6,000 plus GST.

ASIA

Eight for Cityscape

Cityscape (Selkirk), who was just edged out in the 2011 Hong Kong Mile (Gr 1, 1600m), was able to score feature race success at Sha Tin as a sire yesterday with Ka Ying Star (5 g ex Casual Glance by Sinnadar) taking the Lion Rock Trophy (Gr 3, 1600m). The win provided Cityscape with his eighth individual stakes winner. Ka Ying Star was rated well on the speed, holding off the late surges of Southern Legend (Not A Single Doubt) and Fast Most Furious (Lope De Vega) to score. Ka Ying Star raced in the UK as Urban Aspect, winning three of his four starts before being sold to Hong Kong. Placed eight times in stakes races in Hong Kong, he finally got his first stakes success yesterday. Cityscape stood for £5,000 (A$9,250) at Overbury Stud in Gloucestershire this year.

19 for Lord Kanaloa

Lord Kanaloa (King Kamehameha) made it 19 stakes winners yesterday when King Of Koji (4 c ex Phaenomena) took out the Meguro Kinen (Gr 2, 2500m) at Tokyo, earning Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) ballot exemption in the process. The Shogo Yasuda-trained King Of Koji, sent off favourite under Norihiro Yokoyama, swept home from near last to score by a half-length over Ice Bubble (Deep Impact) with a further half-length to Stay Foolish (Stay Gold) in third. Lord Kanaloa stood for 20 million yen (A$278,300) at Shadai Stallion Station this season.

158 for Deep Impact

Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) may have added a sixth Tokyo Yushun winner in the form of Contrail yesterday, but at Kyoto, he also registered his 158th stakes victor in the Azuchijo Stakes (Listed, 1400m) with Entschieden (5 h ex Le Sucre by Sakura Bakushin O). Entschieden, also prepared by Contrail's trainer Yoshito Yahagi, led home a longshot quinella with Grand Roi (Daiwa Major) finishing second, a neck away. Bom Servico (Daiwa Major) was a further neck behind the runner-up in third. Deep Impact died last year at Shadai Stallion Station.

45 for Heart's Cry

Heart's Cry (Sunday Silence) brought up his 45th individual stakes winner when Hygge (3 c ex Moonlight Dance by Sinndar) took the Shirayuri Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at Kyoto yesterday. Hygge made it three wins from five starts yesterday when the Yasuo Tomomichi-trained galloper won by a half-length, defeating Shonan Hallelujah (Kizuna) and Miss New York (King's Best). Hygge's dam Moonlight Dance (Sinndar) is the year-younger half-sister of 2004 Irish Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) winner Grey Swallow (Daylami). Heart's Cry stood for 10 million yen (A$139,100) at Shadai Stallion Station this season.

Contrail wins Japanese Derby

Emerging star Contrail (3 c Deep Impact - Rhodochrosite by Unbridled's Song) scored an emphatic win in the Tokyo Yushun (Gr 1, 2400m), the Japanese Derby, yesterday. The Yoshito Yahagi-trained Contrail went into the race having won all four of his starts including the Satsuki Sho (Gr 1, 2000m), Japan's 2,000 Guineas equivalent, and the Hopeful Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) as a two-year-old. Ridden by Yuichi Fukunaga, 1.4 favourite Contrail settled handy in what was a muddling-run race, stretching clear down the long Tokyo straight for a commanding three-length win over second-elect Salios (Heart's Cry); Weltreisende (Dream Journey) finished third, almost five lengths from the winner. Contrail may head to the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) in October, with Yahagi telling ANZ Bloodstock News last week that the owner's biggest dream was to win the French feature. If not, he may attempt to join his sire Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) as a winner of the Japanese Triple Crown by taking the Kikuka Sho (Gr 1, 3000m), the Japanese St Leger, that same month.

INTERNATIONAL

Classic action in France

Nine colts and 12 fillies have been declared for the first two European Classics of the season, the Poule d'Essai des Poulains (Gr 1, 1600m) and the Poule d'Essai des Poulaches (Gr 1, 1600m) which will take place at Deauville today. Andre Fabre will be strongly represented in both races, with Alson (Areion) set to join ante-post favourite Victor Ludorum (Shamardal) and Coolmore's Arapaho (Lope De Vega) in the Poulains, rather than wait five days for the 2,000 Guineas at Newmarket. Tropbeau (Showcasing) has been favourite for the Poule d'Essai des Poulaches since a cosy victory in last month's Prix de la Grotte (Gr 3, 1600m) at Longchamp and will line up alongside stablemate Tickle Me Green (Sea The Moon). Chief market rival Simeen (Lope De Vega) and last year's Pric Marcel Boussac (Gr 1, 1600m) runner-up Marieta (Siyouni) have also been declared.

Rubaiyat warm order for German Guineas

Rubaiyat (Areion) is expected to be sent off red-hot favourite to extend his unbeaten record to six when he lines up in the Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen - the German 2,000 Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) at Cologne this afternoon. The Andrasch Starke-trained colt faces just six rivals, including four who chased him home when landing a Group 3 contest on his return at Hoppegarten last month.

British racing back with a bumper card

Racing will take place in Britain for the first time since March 18 when Newcastle stages a bumper ten-race card on their all-weather track today. Elite sport was finally given the go ahead to take place by the British government on Saturday as restrictions that were put in place to help counter the Covid-19 pandemic begin to be eased. More than 350 entries were made for the Newcastle meeting which was originally scheduled to feature eight races but was extended when two races were split due to the overwhelming demand. All ten races feature the maximum 12 runner fields allowed in Britain for the immediate future.

Seven for American Pharoah

Coolmore's star shuttler American Pharoah (PioneerofThe Nile) sired his seventh individual stakes winner when Ocean Atlantique (3 c ex Tare Green by Giant's Causeway) ran out an impressive winner of the Prix de Suresnes (Listed, 2000m) at Deauville yesterday. Having finished runner-up in a Group 3 contest on his recent return, the Andre Fabre-trained three-year-old was sent off the red-hot 1-5 favourite as he made all for a comfortable five-length success under Pierre-Charles Boudot. Irska (Hunter's Light) just got the better of Alfareeq (Dark Angel) in their battle for second. American Pharoah, who has had 39 individual winners from 101 runners in the northern hemisphere will stand at Coolmore Australia for a fee of $55,000 in 2020.

69 for Lope De Vega

Lope De Vega (Shamardal) sired his 69th individual stakes winner courtesy of a success for Kalifornia Queen (3 f ex Kaldera by Sinndar) in the Gestut Rottgen Diana-Trial (Gr 2, 2000m) at Hoppegarten yesterday. Now the winner of two of her three races, the Henk Grewe-trained three-year-old beat Snow (Sea The Moon) by a length and three quarters, with Ocean Fantasy (Make Believe) a further head away in third. Former shuttler Lope De Vega, whose ten individual elite level winners include Santa Ana Lane and Vega Magic, stands at Ballylinch Stud in Ireland for a fee of €100,000 (AUD$166,500).

Way To Paris back to winning ways

Way To Paris (7 h Champs Elysees ex Grey Way by Cozzene) posted the fifth win of his career and a fourth in stakes company when taking out the Prix du Gros-Chene (Gr 2, 2500m) at Deauville yesterday. The Andrea Marcialis-trained seven-year-old, who was winning for the first time since July last year, beat French King (French Fifteen) by four and a half lengths, with Royal Julius (Royal Applause) another short neck back in third. Former shutter, Champs Elysees died of an apparent heart attack at Coolmore Stud in Ireland in 2018 aged 15.

Ellis recognised in Queen's Birthday Honours

Te Akau principal David Ellis has been appointed a Companion of the New Zealand Order of Merit (CNZM) in the 2020 Queen's Birthday Honours List announced overnight.

The honour is the highest-ranking title that does not bestow a knighthood under the New Zealand honours system and is only awarded to a maximum of 40 people every year.

Ellis, who received the NZTR Outstanding Contribution to Racing Award in 2017, was notified by prime minister Jacinda Ardern and governor-general Dame Patsy Reddy that he was named a CNZM in recognition of his services to the thoroughbred industry.

"It's very humbling and somewhat overwhelming to be honoured by your Queen and country, that's for sure," Ellis said. "My grandfather received the equivalent honour (CBE) for services to the business community 52 years ago and my father was also honoured with the Queen's Service Order (QSO) for services to the community in 1991.

David Ellis

TE AKAU

"I think it is an incredible privilege to be recognised for services to the thoroughbred racing industry, an industry that has been my passion for nearly 50 years. And it will be until my dying day," said Ellis, who in that time has grown his thoroughbred interests and dry stock farming into world-class businesses.

Today, Ellis is a thoroughbred breeder, buyer, owner, syndicator, administrator, sponsor, stud master, punter, and operates premiership-winning stables in two countries – New Zealand and Singapore, with an increasing presence planned for Australia in the spring.

He is a noted developer and encourager of young people, providing them with guidance, career paths and opportunities. He is a passionate promoter of New Zealand thoroughbreds and the New Zealand brand and contributes immensely to his local area, Te Akau, especially supporting young farmers with advice and guidance. He is also co-patron, with his wife Karyn Fenton-Ellis MNZM, of Riding for the Disabled (RDA Hamilton).

Ellis' exceptional record of voluntary service to thoroughbred racing is well acknowledged in his royal honour. He is a life member of the Waikato Racing Club, after being a board member for 18 years, including five years as chairman. A huge patriot and believer in the New Zealand racing industry, during his time as chairman of the Waikato District Committee, he spent seven years on the NZ Racing Conference/NZTR Executive and served as a member of the NZ Thoroughbred Marketing (NZTM) Board.

Brought up rurally in Pakuranga, and a member of the Howick Pony Club, Ellis boarded from the age of nine and represented King's College Auckland at rugby, cricket, swimming and rowing.

He developed a love of animals and farming life and decided his future in his first year out of school when attending the Flock House Agricultural College in Bulls, where the principal was ex-All Black coach J J Stewart. He followed with a Diploma Degree in Agriculture, which required three years practical farming experience, from Massey University.

After working various jobs around the clock for four years, Ellis purchased 500 acres in the mid-1970s at Waimai Valley. In 1981, he bought a neighbouring farm to develop Te Akau Stud which has grown to 4,000 acres with 2,500 cattle and over 4,000 sheep, including about 3,000 breeding ewes. His farm and racing operations, in both New Zealand and Singapore, proudly carry the name of the small rural district where he and his wife Karyn reside.

"I think it is an incredible privilege to be recognised for services to the thoroughbred racing industry, an industry that has been my passion for nearly 50 years"

"I had no idea whatsoever and it was a huge shock to receive notification a couple of months ago. We were in lockdown at the farm and I was actually in the office selling the final shares in a filly from Karaka, when an email arrived in my inbox from the Honours' Unit.

Ellis celebrated his first Group 1 winner as an owner when Cosmetique (Barcas) won the 1986 Easter Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) at Ellerslie, while in 2009 he was honoured at the Waikato Business Excellence Awards with the Gallagher Group Agriculture and Primary Production Award.

"I've often said to people that I don't feel that I go to work because, put simply, I love racing and farming," he said. "I think the strength of my passion for those two industries has not only helped me put as much into it as I can, but also enabled me to provide employment and careers for many people, especially young people."

Te Akau Racing and Te Akau Stud combined currently employ 85 people.

"I feel the honour also recognises the incredible contribution from everyone that has worked for Te Akau over the years and presently," Ellis said. "The thoroughbred industry is extremely hands-on and I truly believe that I am accepting this recognition on behalf of the team, and what a team Te Akau has."

"Karyn (Fenton-Ellis MNZM), my wife, has already received a Queen's Honour for services to racing, arts, and the community. She is a massively important part of my life and our business and I couldn't do what we do without her. Last year we bought and sold 70 horses and I couldn't have done that without her help."

"For the second time to 2020, Te Akau Racing stables have won premierships in both New Zealand and Singapore in the same season which is a huge thrill."

"Our trainer in Singapore, Mark Walker, won five premierships in New Zealand before we established our stable at Kranji racecourse in late 2010 and he has now won three further premiership titles in Singapore. He came to work for me the day he left school and has developed into a world-class trainer, great friend and business partner.

Probabeel

"Mark has been a huge part of the success of Te Akau Racing, as has Jamie Richards who trained 11 Group 1 winners for us this season, including three in Australia. He has helped Te Akau Racing become recognised as the ninth best training operation in the world, as rated by the Global Rankings."

Many successful jockeys kick-started their careers in the famous tangerine colours – none more notable than Opie Bosson who heads the list of Te Akau apprentice jockeys that have risen to the top.

"Opie has also been a huge part in the success of the stable," Ellis said. "Not just as our current number one rider, but he started with me when he was 14 years old and we've become very good friends. It was fantastic to see him break the all-time record of Group 1 wins in New Zealand, held by the legendary Lance O'Sullivan ONZM, and to claim it on a Te Akau horse last season at Ellerslie was a big thrill."

"There have been many highlights over the years on the race track, but winning two Group 1s in half an hour in Sydney this season, with Probabeel and Te Akau Shark, was incredible. Then, a week later we had Cool Aza Beel and Advantage winning Group 1s within an hour of each other at Ellerslie. These sorts of results are very difficult to achieve and were quite something to follow on from Cool Aza Beel becoming our fourth consecutive Karaka Million 2YO winner and Probabeel creating history by winning both the Karaka Million 2YO and Karaka Million 3YO Classic in January at Ellerslie."

Te Akau Shark

While they were massive feats early in 2020, they served to continue a great season which had already seen Horse of the Year Melody Belle (Commands) make history in the Bostock New Zealand Spring Carnival Triple Crown at Hastings – a Group 1 winning treble over 1400 metres, 1600 metres, and 2040 metres.

The 'King of Karaka,' Ellis retained his mantle as leading buyer for the 15th consecutive year at the completion of the New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sales Series in January at Karaka.

Going back to 2004, Ellis upped the ante when purchasing a Danehill – Grand Echezeaux (Zabeel) yearling colt for $1.1m, from the draft of Pencarrow Stud, at Karaka. Bought on spec, Ellis was able to articulate the vision of what he was trying to achieve in strengthening and enhancing the NZ industry and put a syndicate of owners together in 24 hours.

Named Darci Brahma (Danehill), he was trained by Mark Walker to win five Group 1s in New Zealand and Australia and notched champion two-year-old, champion three-year-old, and champion sprinter-miler as a four-year-old before becoming a multiple champion stallion and leading sire in the New Zealand breeding industry.

Since then, Ellis has purchased other yearling colts for syndication that raced with distinction at the highest level and seven have gone on to stand at stud in New Zealand and Australia. Stallions like the late Burgundy (Redoute's Choice), Embellish (Savabeel) and Rock 'N' Pop (Fastnet Rock), as well as Xtravagant (Pentire) - whose first crop yearlings look remarkable - and Heroic Valour (Fastnet Rock), both standing in Australia.

Ellis has bought an enormous number of athletic and top-performing thoroughbreds, encouraged hundreds of new owners into the industry, while between horses and staff they have won over 40 champion titles.

“Distinctly Secret was probably the horse closest to my heart and his success allowed the business to develop some real momentum”

“I was frustrated seeing our top bloodstock leaving New Zealand because I think it's important for race-goers to see the best of our breed race in New Zealand, before they race in Australia and other countries,” Ellis said.

Never one to rest on the laurels of success, Ellis has a clear focus for taking Te Akau Racing to a higher level over the next 18 months.

“We've secured 12 boxes at Flemington for the coming season, but they're all for horses of ours that have raced and performed

Distinctly Secret

successfully here before we send them over to Australia,” he said “It's important for our breeding industry that we continue to retain well-bred horses to race here and it's important for the credibility of our racing industry that our good horses go on to perform well on the international stage, which over the years they have done with such distinction.

“At the time of Darci Brahma we also had Princess Coup who won $4.2 million before selling as a broodmare for $3 million. However, Distinctly Secret was probably the horse closest to my heart and his success allowed the business to develop some real momentum. I bred him myself, owned most of him, and he won nearly $2 million which was a big help 18 years ago.

Another ambassador of the New Zealand thoroughbred industry, New Zealand Bloodstock chairman Joe Walls spends plenty of time working with Ellis and the pair have formed a great friendship.

“I can't think of anyone more fitting in the industry for this honour to be bestowed upon,” Walls said. “He's been a tireless worker in all facets, whether racing administration, or community, and he's grown his racing business to great proportions.

“He's supported breeders by buying yearlings every year in record numbers and record values, and there is no one in the modern era that I can think of who would be more worthy.

“A lot of people don't know David or DC, as we call him, but he has got a kind heart. He's very generous and a bloke that looks after his fellow man. He's always been very good to his staff and there are very few chinks in DC's armour if you know him well.

“I've known him for what must be 40 years, from when he started at Te Akau. I remember him giving me a call to go out there. I wondered where I was going, out to the coast somewhere. I got to his farm, which wasn't as magnificent as it is today. He really was raw and didn't have much of an idea about horses, but he listened.

“We formed a good relationship in all sorts of avenues. He has always been very loyal and I can't speak highly enough about him. He's firm but I think he's fair and I think he has shown that in all the industry components and positions he's been involved in. He has a very good grasp of the industry.

“He has put together this marvellous business which is Te Akau Racing. It's world-class and he's got a lot of very good people around him. Karyn, Mark Walker, Jamie Richards, even his vets and other industry professionals.

“Importantly for New Zealand, DC is recognised all over the world for what he has accomplished and continues to achieve.”

Ka Ying Star shines, Dreamer makes a winning debut

BY DAVID MORGAN | HKJC_RACING

Ka Ying Star (Cityscape) maintained Tony Cruz's advance towards the top of the trainers' premiership with an overdue success in the Lion Rock Trophy (Gr 3, 1600m) at Sha Tin yesterday.

"I'm going to put the pedal to the metal!" Cruz said after the British import had pushed the stable's tally to 52 wins.

That puts the two-time champion trainer five shy of long-time leader Ricky Yiu, who has clocked only one win from the last seven meetings.

Ka Ying Star had classy form in the book already this term, including a couple of Group 1 placings, but had not nailed a stakes win and was without a win of any kind in 13 months.

"The horse has deserved this, he's run some good races in Group 1 company but he has hardly any wins on his record so this is a good way for him to end his season," Cruz said.

"Everything went his way today; he had to dictate this race and if he did, I knew he'd be hard to run down. Chad rode the perfect race and he clocked 1:32.95, that's a decent time so he's shown his quality."

Tony Cruz

HKJC

The five-year-old secured the leader's spot under Chad Schofield, who slowed the tempo in the back straight before kicking on down the final stretch. The game bay responded to every urging, holding off the driving challenges of Southern Legend (Not A Single Doubt) and Fast

Ka Ying Star

HKJC

Most Furious (Lope De Vega).

"Once I got the lead and got the fence I was able to give my horse a breather," Schofield said. "Time To Celebrate had made us work a bit through a pretty solid first section and he wanted to put pressure on me again around the turn. If anything, that spurred my horse along and switched him on because usually he's very relaxed out in front. Credit to him with the big weight, he was strong to the line."

Schofield was delighted to have ended a personal Group-race drought going back to his success on Rattan (Savabeel) in the Sprint Cup (Gr 2, 1200m) in April last year. Ka Ying Star's score also took the rider to 38 wins, matching his personal best for a Hong Kong season.

The rider reached a new peak of 39 wins when driving Mr Croissant (Darci Brahma) to success in the finale, the Class 2 Amah Rock Handicap (1200m).

"I hope the (Group races) keep coming," Schofield said. "I haven't had many big winners bar today but numbers-wise we've equalled my best, so hopefully we can keep kicking strong for next season."

"I only started riding for Tony this season and to ride a Group 3 winner for him is very good."

Cruz will give Ka Ying Star a well-earned rest before pointing towards the LONGINES Hong Kong International Races in December.

"We'll try again next season," the handler said. "There's nothing else for him this season so we'll have to go with what the programme gives us, so he'll definitely be aimed at the Hong Kong Mile."

Dreamer impresses at first start

Vincent Ho had to settle for second on Southern Legend but earlier enjoyed an easy win on a potential future star when Winning Dreamer (Deep Field) lived up to expectations with a successful debut in the Class 4 Piper's Hill Handicap (1000m). The Frankie Lor-trained three-year-old showed good speed and shrugged off the useful top-weight Fabulous Eight (Dream Ahead) to win with plenty in hand – the margin was a length and three quarters and the time a smart 55.59.

"He has a bright future and hopefully he'll be in Group races in time," Ho said of the 2.4 favourite. "He jumped well and relaxed really nicely in the race and just kept going."

"He's still got a lot to learn but it's been better each time he's had a barrier trial – he was very green and he settled more on the turn in his last trial."

Lor was pleased with his debutant who may be seen in action again before the campaign wraps up on 15 July, with his win potentially pushing up into Class 3 for start two.

"He's got quality but he's still green and was laying in through the final stages, so I'd like to give him one more run before the end of the season," Lor said

Purchased from the Haunui Farm draft at the 2018 NZB Premier Yearling Sale at Karaka for NZ$300,000, Winning Dreamer was knocked down to Tartan Meadow Bloodstock on behalf of Peter So; the now-gelding races in the name of So's daughter Linda

Winning Dreamer was the fourth winner for Newgate Farm stallion Deep Field (Northern Meteor) in Hong Kong, quite an effort for the second season Australian sire given the difficulty for two- and three-year-olds in the Hong Kong system. He joins Californiadeepshot, All In Mind and True Legend as a Hong Kong winner for Deep Field.

Zac Purton was three wins ahead of Joao Moreira when the championship protagonists mounted for the first race and was four in front at the end of the 11-race programme after he picked up one win, while the Brazilian drew a blank.

Purton's win came when the Dennis Yip-trained Racing Fighter (Mastercraftsman) took the Class 3 Eagle's Nest Handicap (1200m) by a short-head from the Moreira-ridden Unique Treasure (Exceed And Excel). That took trainer and jockey to 14 wins in tandem this term at a strike-rate of 34 per cent.

Winning Dreamer

Yip collected his third double of the season and first since December when Hinyuen Swiftness (Duke Of Marmalade) followed Racing Fighter to the winner's arch. The top-weight needed every ounce of Alfred Chan's seven-pound claim to hold off the Purton-ridden Bright Kid (Show A Heart) by a short-head.

Chan nailed his third double of the campaign when making all on the John Moore-trained Beauty Amigo (Kodiac) in the Class 3 Eagle's Nest Handicap (1200m).

Michael Chang gained his 16th victory, the Hong Kong Jockey Club's required total, when Bullish Glory (Roderic O'Connor) took the Class 4 Tate's Cairn Handicap (2000m) under Karis Teetan. The hooded seven-year-old, a Group 2 winner and fourth in the Italian Derby (Gr 2, 2200m) in a former life, boxed on to score by half a length from the Purton-ridden Good Days (Artie Schiller).

Superb Daddy (Tavistock) moved trainer Peter Ho to 14 wins for the season with success under Neil Callan in the Class 4 Sha Tin Pass Handicap (1400m).

Teetan also bagged two wins, his second coming aboard the Benno Yung-trained Marvel Dragon (Redoute's Choice) in the Class 3 Hung Mui Kuk Handicap (1400m).

The afternoon started with a pair of Class 5 contests, sections one and two of the Tsz Wan Shan Handicap (1400m): Soccer Master (Ifraaj) made it two wins on the bounce when taking the opener for jockey Matthew Poon and trainer Chris So – successful also with Mr Croissant – while the Richard Gibson-trained Kwaichung Brothers (Racer's Edge) crept up the rail to nick the second section under Vagner Borges.
