Griffiths taking a world view with stable after positive start to partnership

Mat de Kock's international experience key to trainers' intention to ramp up quality at the sales

Re-
evitalised Victorian trainer Robbie Griffiths believes no race or jurisdiction is off limits if his stable can unearth horses good enough to travel the world after recently linking with Mathew de Kock, the son of champion globetrotting horseman Mike de Kock.

Cranbourne-based Griffiths in October officially formed a training partnership with the young expatriate South African who moved to Australia earlier this year and the pair celebrated an important milestone last week when they prepared two metropolitan winners at Sandown.

The president of the Australian Trainers Association, Griffiths suffered a potentially fatal brain aneurysm in August last year but has rebounded since his recovery and plans to capitalise on the stable's momentum heading into the 2021 yearling sales season. Continued on page 2>>

"There is a lot of interest already from clients because of the way we have restructured the business and, naturally, there's international interest as well because everything that we are doing has a multitude of layers attached to it," Griffiths outlined to ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday.

"What we have structured gives us the opportunity to send horses to Mike's stable in Dubai; it has the opportunity to send horses to South Africa and there's the opportunity to send horses from South Africa to us. It has a whole international layer to it.

"There is a really great opportunity on a local and international level - there's no boundaries to what we are doing. I think it is going to appeal to our local supporters in Victoria and Australia and the international interest that Mike has had in the past."

De Kock Sr, a regular visitor to the Australian yearling sales in the past, trains out of South Africa but has also had some notable success while operating a satellite yard at Newmarket in the UK, as well as a number of big race wins on his regular visits to Dubai for the World Cup Carnival. He has trained 124 Group or Grade 1 winners in South Africa, Dubai, Hong Kong and Singapore, as well as training winners in both the US and UK.

Lindsay Park has in recent years campaigned sprinter Faatinah (Nicconi) in Dubai, while the Peter Gelagotis-trained Illustrious Lad (I Am Invincible) has twice contested the Al Quoz Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m), a race won by Rob Heathcote's Buffering (Mossman) in 2016.

"How lucky are we as an addition to our stable having Mike, a world-class trainer, in Dubai, South Africa and the UK where we could send a quality horse at any distance," he said.

"If we get one good enough, we can say to our clients, 'we're going to run it at the Dubai World Cup meeting' and we can send it straight up to Mike.

"This is just sensational and I don't think anyone else in Australia has had the opportunity to do it like that."

But Griffiths was yet to commit to sending a horse to next year's Dubai carnival.

"Because of my health last year, it took a lot of the horses out of the stable, and now that we're rebuilding the horses might be a little bit young and lack maturity to go down the travelling path at this stage," he said.

"We will have a look at the depth and more so the maturity of the stable and then we'll sit down with Mike and see where we are at. It is a great topic to be talking about."

Griffiths bought 20 yearlings at the sales in 2020, the majority in partnership with agent Peter Ford, and he and De Kock hope to buy at least that number next year, starting with the Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale in January.

"It will be interesting to see what happens once the ball bounces at the Magic Millions and it would not surprise Mat or I if we get a little bit more interest than what we have had before," the Group 1-winning trainer said.

"We are approaching the sales in a positive but conservative manner because we don't really know how the market is going to play out coming out of the Covid year. But you can't train winners without being able to put a saddle on a horse and we need some quality stock.

"We want to get the best possible horses into the stable, so we are going to go there and get ourselves the right type of horses that we need. How many we are going to get?"

"We are probably looking similar to this year, so we might get ourselves half a dozen nice horses at the Gold Coast in January, but we wouldn't be surprised if the market bounces back as quickly as we hope. There's a little bit of optimism around how we've structured the partnership."

Mat de Kock's input to the stable has been more than just the potential for the "internationalisation" of the business, with Griffiths describing the partnership as "sensational".

"Mat has brought a lot of new ideas because of his global experiences that he has had with his father, which has been well-documented," he said.

"We all know how successful Mike's been travelling the world and he's one of the most decorated trainers and Mat's been so fortunate to take advantage of those experiences.

"We've also been fortunate to take advantage of that by joining the partnership and bringing in all those experiences and those of Monique, his partner, as well.

"Having all of those benefits is something that all of our owners and supporters have been able to take advantage of."

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Robinson seeking good Rosehill Karma

Hawkesbury trainer Daniel Robinson will be out to land his first city winner when he saddles Karmazone (Eurozone) in the Benchmark 78 Handicap over 2000 metres at Rosehill on Saturday. Robinson, son of multiple European Classic-winning rider Philip Robinson and a former National Hunt conditional jockey, has issued an upbeat bulletin on his five-year-old, who has gone to another level this preparation with two midweek city placings and a last-start third to Accountability (Dubawi) over 2000 metres at Kembla Grange. "We are very happy with what the horse has done this time in," Robinson said of Karmazone, who is also nominated at Randwick's Kensington meeting on Friday and is one of 16 entries for Rosehill at the weekend. "He's not the youngest horse but he's lightly raced, extremely genuine and we've got him up to his right trip now. He'll probably go for a break after Saturday then we might target a few races next time in."

Andrews' three-year-old in Perth Cup mix

The Trevor Andrews-trained Em Tee Aye (I'm All Talk) is on track for a tilt at next month's Perth Cup (Gr 2, 2400m) as nominations for the $400,000 contest were announced yesterday. A three-time winner who was last seen running second in the WA Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m), beaten a long-neck by Watch Me Dance to complete a quinella for Mungrup Stud stallion I'm All Talk (Stratum), Em Tee Aye is one of 40 nominees for January 2 feature. The progressive three-year-old also holds an entry in the Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1600m), but he will bypass Saturday's Group 1 in favour of the Perth Cup four weeks later. "They would have been too sharp for him in the Kingston Town," Andrews told The Races WA. "There is no point going around just for the sake of it. He will run in a (Benchmark) 72-plus 1800-metre race and then we can reassess. He is going well and doesn't know how to lay down in his races. He is fit and aerobically very dour. The Perth Cup looks a nice option for him if he can stay."

Stream to test Cup credentials in Kingston Town

Fellow Perth Cup nominee Arctic Stream (High Chaparral) will take in the Kingston Town as he builds towards his grand final on January 2. The dual Listed winner finished strongly to grab third in last weekend's Tattersall's Cup (Listed, 2100m) and trainer Ross Price is pleased with how the six-year-old has come out of that contest. "This will give him two weeks into the Ted Van Heemst and then the Perth Cup," Price told The Races WA. "If I went next week it was a week into the Ted Van Heemst. This way is an ideal lead into the Perth Cup. He's a horse that can back up. Last year he had three straight weeks into the Perth Cup. I'm pleased with the horse and think the Tatts Cup has hardened him up. He was probably a bit gross, but is where I want him to be now."

Offers tabled for Ocean Beyond

Saturday's McKenzie Stakes (Listed, 1200m) winner Ocean Beyond (Ocean Park) could be the second promising Warrnambool-trained three-year-old to be sold to Hong Kong in quick succession. Trainer Daniel Bowman has revealed that agents have been clamouring to buy the New Zealand Bloodstock Ready to Run Sale graduate since his Listed success at Moonee Valley on Saturday. The unbeaten gelding, who won his first start at Geelong on November 7, could join the Symon Wilde-trained Sandown Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) winner Allibor (All Too Hard) on a plane to Hong Kong if a deal goes through. "Like any good three-year-old that wins a race at the moment, there's a bit of Hong Kong interest happening in the last 24 hours," Bowman told Racing.com. "We will just take it on board and put it to the owners. It's their horse, so it's up to them, but it would be nice to keep him. Some of the money that gets thrown around these days, it's quite hard to knock back. There's been seven or eight agents that have been interested. So we will take their best offer and put it to the ownership group and see what they say."

Teofilo filly impresses at Newcastle

James Cummings-trained juvenile Vianello, from the last crop of southern hemisphere foals by former Darley shuttler Teofilo (Galileo), made a big impression when she won a Newcastle maiden by a length and a half on debut yesterday. The Godolphin homebred is a half-sister to the stakes-placed Nonpareil (Commands) being out of the Listed-winning Lonhro (Octagonal) mare Serenissima, while her second, third and fourth dam are also stakes winners. From a family brimming with talent given her page also includes Group 1 winners Freemason (Grand Lodge) and Mental (Lonhro), Vianello has plenty of ability herself given the manner in which she scooted clear of a ten-strong field under Christian Reith. "To travel up here for a few hours on the float for your first day at the races, she handled it really well and stood there like an old horse that had had five starts," said stable representative Darren Beadman. "She has a lot of upside to her." Teofilo, sire of this year's Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) winner Twilight Payment alongside top-tier winners such as Kermadec, Happy Clapper, Palentino and Humidor, covered 76 mares at a fee of $44,000 during his final southern hemisphere breeding season in 2017.

Alligator op goes to plan

Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) is recovering having undergone surgery to rectify a kissing spine on Monday. The four-year-old, who will join the Tulloch Lodge team of Gai Waterhouse and Adrian Bott when he returns to training, was the subject of an upbeat bulletin by owner Allan Endresz. "We were very, very happy," Endresz told Racing.com of the operation. "The comments from Ben (Ahern), the surgeon, were that it went really well and post-op he was fantastic. He came out and started eating. He is going to be under some close care and treatment for the next few days. I'm glad in hindsight we pushed hard (for the scans) to identify the problem. It turns out...on a scale of one to ten of problems, Al came in at a ten. There're six vertebrae there and three were almost fusing together. How he was running through the thing, no one knows." Looking ahead, Endresz added: "With the right length and time (out) and all the R and R we will give him, I think we are going to see a much happier horse."

Tribunal reserves decision on Gelagotis TCO2 case

The Victorian Racing Tribunal has reserved its decision in the hearing against trainer Peter Gelagotis. The two-day hearing ended yesterday following final submissions from Racing Victoria barrister Amy Wood and Gelagotis' barrister Damian Sheales in the case involving the elevated TCO2 (total carbon dioxide) levels found in the the Gelagotis-trained Strong Influence (Squamosa) in a pre-race blood test before the gelding finished third at Sandown on June 26, 2019. Strong Influence returned a reading of 37.8 millimoles per litre in plasma on a threshold of 36 millimoles. Wood said it was not a prerequisite to prove by what means administration had occurred, only that it had occurred or must have occurred, while Sheales argued RV wanted the VRT to find Gelagotis guilty despite not knowing what alkalising agent was used or by what method it was supposedly delivered. In reserving his decision, Judge John Bowman indicated the tribunal would like to have the matter finalised by Christmas.

Owners allowed at stables

Victoria-based owners will be allowed to visit their horses at trainers' stables from Friday, Racing Victoria chair Brian Kruger has revealed. As owners and the public begin to be allowed back on racecourses, RV is set to relax the protocols which have been in place since the onset of the Covid-19 pandemic in early March. "We will be changing our protocols so that owners will be able to visit stables and see their horses from this Friday," Kruger told RSN927 yesterday. "Our team will be putting out a lot of details around exactly how that will work in the next few days."

Crowds allowed back at SA meets

Thoroughbred Racing SA (TRSA) has given the go-ahead for crowds to return to the races as of this week, with clubs to comply with the conditions and maximum crowd numbers listed in their respective Covid-Safe Plans. Meetings are scheduled for Gawler today, Penola on Friday, Morphettville on Saturday and Murray Bridge on Sunday. Punters are being advised to check with the respective clubs prior to each fixture regarding crowd arrangements.

All-Star Mile nominations open

The All-Star Mile (1600m) will be held at Moonee Valley for the first time in 2021 with nominations for the $5 million race opening today. Connections can enter qualified horses until January 11 before the general public votes on who they want to run. The ten most popular horses will gain spots in the field alongside five wildcard runners who can win their way into the race via qualifying events, or through being chosen by an All-Star Mile wildcard panel. Flemington hosted the inaugural running in 2019, which was taken out by Mystic Journey (Needs Further), and as part of the event's track rotation system, it moved to Caulfield this year where it was captured by West Australian raider Regal Power (Pierro). Connections pay a $500 nomination fee, donated to the Good Friday Appeal which supports Melbourne's Royal Children's Hospital. Horses entered for the race need to meet several criteria, including having placed in a stakes race.

Cartwright to finish apprenticeship

Promising apprentice Georgie Cartwright, who guided the Tony Gollan-trained Niedorp (Not A Single Doubt) to success in the Spirit Of Boom Classic (Listed, 1200m) at Doomben on Saturday, is hoping to establish a strong foothold in Queensland as she plans for life after her apprenticeship, which ends this week. "It's been going really well. I couldn't have asked for a better three months here," Cartwright, who was formerly based in Victoria, told Racing.com. "I come out of my time on Thursday, I'll become a senior. So while I've got a bit of momentum here, I thought I may as well see how I go as a senior up here. Obviously it becomes a lot harder once you become a senior because you don't have your claim. But I feel that now that I've been here for a few months that I've developed a few connections with a fair few trainers up here."

NSWROA to support Team Tye

The Team Tye Foundation, a charity recently established by champion jockey Tye Angland, who was rendered quadriplegic following a fall in 2018, will be supported by the NSW Racehorse Owners' Association at their annual Christmas lunch, scheduled for next Saturday, December 12, in the Champagne Bar at Randwick. The Team Tye Foundation, which helps other racing industry participants who have been left with a disability through their involvement, was the beneficiary of Godolphin runner Colette (Hallowed Crown) winning the Golden Eagle (1500m) in October. The Christmas lunch features a three-course plated lunch and all-day beverage package and is open to all, while Tye will be a special guest on the day. For more information and bookings, visit www.nswroa.com.au

Tab expands crash investigation

Tabcorp has appointed an independent firm to guide its investigation into what caused its entire system to crash on November 7. Racing.com yesterday reported Deloitte to be assisting Tabcorp with the inquiry into why its wagering network crashed just after 11am (ADST), bringing the pari-mutuel pools and the organisation's fixed odds betting to a standstill nationwide and having wide-ranging ramifications for the thoroughbred industry. The problem was not fully rectified until late the next day, with the gaming giant attributing the outage to 'smoke and a likely fire incident at a data centre managed by a third party'.

NEW ZEALAND

Captain Cook for Aimee's Jewel

Trudy Keegan is still on cloud nine after taking out the Valachi Downs Canterbury Breeders' Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Riccarton with Aimee's Jewel (Proisir) last month. It was the first time the Stratford trainer had campaigned in the South Island and she said she could not have hoped for a better experience. The mare will line up in the Captain Cook Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Trentham on Saturday before a probable Australian campaign. "We are super happy with her," Keegan said. "She has come through the Riccarton trip well, she has thrived on it. She is a very special horse who is still on the improve. She is still six months away from probably being at her best physically and she is still learning." Keegan added: "I would love to have the opportunity to continue campaigning her in Australia, but it is just a little bit tricky. We are hoping that things open up and that can happen in the new year. When she goes to Australia, we would love to keep (jockey) Lisa Allpress on her as well. We would like to keep the same team ideally."

Trio for Ritchie and Ralph at Rotorua

Steven Ramsay and Julia Ritchie, who have saddled five winners from 26 runners so far this season, will launch a three-pronged assault on today's meeting at Rotorua, saddling a trio of homebreds from Sir Peter Vela's Pencarrow Stud. Oremus (Darci Barhma) and Valzacella (Rip Van Winkle) are set to clash in the Have Your Function @ Arawa Park Maiden (1560m), while Topkapi (Tavistock) will line-up in the Holiday Inn Rotorua 1560. "He's a big, strong horse who was always going to get over ground, but he's still learning and quite raw," Ritchie said of Oremus, a brother to Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m) winner Valbuena who holds a New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) nomination. Of debutant Topkapi, who has drawn outside in barrier 14, Ritchie added: "The draw's not too much of a worry for her because she's likely to get back a bit. She's been up a while, and we just really want to get her going. She's very full of herself, but she'll be a nice staying filly."

Asano to join Matamata stable

Kozzi Asano, the South Island's leading jockey, will leave the mainland next week in order to spend a short-term stint with Wexford Stables in Matamata where he will get the chance to enhance his knowledge with co-trainer and former champion jockey Lance O'Sullivan, who trains in partnership with Andrew Scott. Asano, who is indentured to Riccarton trainer Andrew Carston, was a surprise package last term, coming out of the blue to lead the national jockeys' premiership for much of the season before being gunned down late by Lisa Allpress. He currently sits tenth in this season's premiership. "My boss (Carston) asked me if I wanted to go and work for Lance O'Sullivan. He is a legendary jockey, so I thought it would be a good opportunity to learn off him, so I have taken up the opportunity," Asano said. "I will try and continue to ride down south and do my best for all the trainers and owners who have supported me."

ASIA

'Acceptable' trial from Classique Legend

Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt) took a crucial step towards his Hong Kong Sprint (Gr 1, 1200m) tilt with his first Hong Kong barrier trial on the turf at Sha Tin yesterday. But while satisfied with the grey's effort, his new trainer Caspar Fownes implied caution as he swiftly prepares The Everest (1200m) winner for his Hong Kong debut on December 13. "Obviously he's a bit rusty and he hasn't had an ideal prep as I have been saying - I'm just doing the best I possibly can considering the time frame I have," Fownes said of the five-year-old, who arrived in Hong Kong only 23 days earlier. Classique Legend settled at the rear of the field early on over 1000 metres under Vincent Ho before being pushed out to cross the line in third behind Sky Field (Deep Field) and Assimilate (Sebring) in a time of 58.67 seconds. "The trial was acceptable - it's the first time he has been down the straight and he just picked up nice, did his job - he came back nice and we'll scope him and make sure everything is A1 over there," Fownes said.

HK: Fownes poised to take the wraps off another talented former Australian

Three days after successfully unveiling Hong Kong debut winner Enrich Delight (Medaglia d'Oro), who raced under the Godolphin banner as Chenier in Australia, Fownes will attempt a similarly triumphant feat with another former Australian Propice (Ilovethiscity), who runs first-up in the Class 3 Fleming Handicap (1000m) at Happy Valley tonight. Trained in Australia by Greg Eurell, Propice raced as Ilovemyself in a two-start career pre-import, winning the Festival Handicap (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington before finishing sixth of eight on slow going in the Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Rosehill in March. Propice has trialed twice in his new surroundings, closing strongly to finish second to The Abraxas (Bon Hoffa) over 800 metres at Sha Tin on October 27 before an eye-catching second behind subsequent debut winner Harmony N Blessed (Magnus) over 1000 metres at Happy Valley on November 13. "I was happy with his trial, he was back and covered ground, stayed on nice," Fownes said. "Again, it's so tough with these horses. They come in on a rating of 77 after two (Australian) starts, they're coming into the toughest jurisdiction in the world to compete at. I think he's got what it takes. Hopefully, we'll get to 100 but, again, it's tough."

JAP: Tapizar to stand at Yushun Stallion Station

Tapizar (Tapit), sire of Kentucky Oaks (Gr 1, 9f) and dual Breeders' Cup Distaff (Gr 1, 9f) heroine Monomoy Girl (Gr 1, 9f), will stand at Yushun Stallion Station in Japan for 2021. The 12-year-old, a winner of the San Fernando Stakes (Gr 2, 8.5f) and Breeders' Cup Dirt Mile (Gr 1, 1m) in 2012, has been standing at Gainesway in the US since his retirement in 2013 but will arrive in Japan in mid-January. Tapizar currently stands for a fee of US$10,000 (approx. AUD$13,595).

IRE: Quarantine exemptions for jockeys extended to all Group or Graded races

Irish quarantine exemptions for riders competing in Group 1 or Grade 1 races have been extended to include those riding in any Group or Graded race, meaning jockeys can travel without self-isolating when they return to Ireland. A change in previous regulations for elite athletes just before Irish Champions Weekend in September allowed riders to travel to and from Ireland without quarantining for top-level races only, provided they abided by agreed protocols. Riders are subject to a risk assessment each time they intend to compete abroad and undergo three Covid-19 tests - once before travelling and twice on their return.

US: Florida track closes

The near-50 year racing venue of Calder in south Florida became the latest addition to the list of former racecourses on Saturday. The track, which was renamed Gulfstream Park West after being leased by Calder's owner, Churchill Downs Inc, to Gulfstream Park's owners the Stronach Group in 2014, staged its last meeting, with Diligent (Temple City) going into the record books as the last horse to win a race there. Calder racecourse was laid to rest at the weekend having opened its gates on May 6, 1971 with 16,263 fans in attendance. The final fixture, in sad and stark contrast, was attended only by racing professionals due to Covid-19 restrictions. Around 450 horses are currently stabled at Calder and they can remain until April 1, when it is expected an expansion project will have been completed at Palm Meadows to house the horses and backstretch workers.

Sam Haggas secures 410,000gns top lot at December Mare Sale opener

BY JAMES THOMAS | RACING POST

Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) hero Rekindling (High Chaparral) was led out of the Tattersalls ring unsold for 95,000gns (approx. AUD$181,500) as the December Mare Sale got underway on Monday.

Trained by Joseph O'Brien to win the 2017 renewal of the Flemington showpiece, the Lloyd Williams-owned Rekindling has run just twice since, finishing last in the 2019 Australian Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) and sixth in an amateur riders' race at Leopardstown over a mile and a half this July.

The six-year-old failed to meet his reserve, but that result did not preclude big bids coming thick and fast during a rock solid opening session at Park Paddocks, as 37 lots brought a six-figure sum.

Sitting at the head of the market at the close of play was Auntie Bridy (Camacho) after the Group 3-placed juvenile brought a bid of 410,000gns (approx. AUD$783,000) from Sam Haggas of Hurworth Bloodstock.

Having run just three times, winning a Curragh maiden on debut for Jim Bolger and last seen finishing runner-up to Elysium (Belardo) in the Weld Park Stakes (Gr 3, 7f), Haggas said the daughter of Camacho (Danehill) had been bought to continue her racing career for an undisclosed US-based owner.

"There's no plan as of yet," said Haggas, having seen off the attention of Andreas Putsch of Haras de Saint Pair and Oceanic Bloodstock's Michel Zerolo. "She could stay here for the short term or she could go to America.

"She's a good-looking, lightly-raced filly. Her form is good and hopefully there's a bit more racing in her. She by a prolific sire of fillies too so fingers crossed there's more to come from her."

Bred by Karis Bloodstock & Rathbarry Stud, Auntie Bridy is out of Benedicte, a winning Galileo (Sadler's Wells) half-sister to Middle Park Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) hero Amadeus

Auntie Bridy

LAURA GREEN

Wolf (Mozart) and Sirenia Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) scorer Rouleau (Exceed And Excel). She was consigned by Ballylinch Stud.

Yoshida back in action

Katsumi Yoshida of Northern Farm in Japan has made some noteworthy December Sale purchases down the years, including the likes of Reve D'Iman (Highest Honor), Euro Charline (Myboycharlie) and Donna Blini (Bertolini).

Despite a series of Covid-19 related travel restrictions having impacted the normal level of international attendance at this year's edition of the sale, Yoshida's name also appeared on the docket of Calming Effect (War Front), who fetched 400,000gns (approx. AUD$764,000).

The unraced daughter of War Front (Danzig) was offered as part of the Juddmonte draft, which took centre stage with receipts totalling 1,852,500gns (approx. AUD$3,538,000) for 17 lots sold. The four-year-old, who was presented in foal to Frankel (Galileo), is out of Emollient (Empire Maker), a winner of four Grade 1 contests in the US who hails from the Niarchos family of Machiavellian (Mr Prospector), Bago (Nashwan) and Maxios (Monsun).

"Her conformation is very good and having a Frankel cover is very attractive for us in Japan," said Northern Farm representative Shingo Hashimoto. "She also matches the stallions we have in Japan very well, so we're very excited we have bought her.

"We haven't decided who she'll be mated with next but we have many good sires to choose from. It's an honour for us to buy a mare like this from Juddmonte."

Despite Covid-19 restrictions having curbed plenty of travel plans, Hashimoto said his own journey to Newmarket had not been impacted.

"It's a difficult time for everyone as regards travel and I need to isolate when I get home, but travel has been as straightforward as possible and everyone has been very helpful," he said.

Another for Smith-Bernal

During last week's December Foal Sale owner and breeder Graham Smith-Bernal sold his Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) colt out of Nadia Glory (Oasis Dream) to Sunderland Holdings for 170,000gns through Newsells Park Stud.

On Monday the proceeds of that sale were reinvested as Smith-Bernal went to 330,000gns (approx. AUD$630,000) for Firelight (Oasis Dream) through agent Jill Lamb. The winning four-year-old was offered in foal to Almanzor (Wootton Bassett) by West Blagdon Stud, and plans now call for her to join Nadia Glory at Newsells Park.

"She was a good race filly and is a beautiful looker," said Lamb, who noted the similarities between Firelight and Nadia Glory's respective pedigrees. "I bought her for Graham Smith-Bernal. He's already got an Oasis Dream mare out of a Galileo mare and we managed to sell the Sea The Stars colt foal for 170,000gns last week, so we might look to go down that route again.

"She's in foal to Almanzor; we like him a lot and this looks a very suitable covering. I loved the Almanzor yearlings too. Graham has three mares at Newsells at the moment and this will make it four. He's had horses in training for several years but the broodmares are a relatively new thing for him."

Smith-Bernal, who has developed two business empires built around cutting-edge litigation technology software, has had runners this year with the likes of John Ryan, William Haggas and Charlie Fellowes, with his colours having been carried to success by useful staying handicapper Hiroshima (Nathaniel).

Donohoe's magic buy

BBA Ireland's Michael Donohoe struck a winning bid of 260,000gns (approx. AUD$496,500) for It's Magic (Galileo), a three-year-old half-sister to Mukhadram (Shamardal) offered in foal to Ten Sovereigns (No Nay Never) by Baroda Stud.

The daughter of Galileo did not make the racecourse for Aidan O'Brien and the Coolmore partners, but what she lacks in race record she makes up for in pedigree, as she is also a half-sister to the Group 3-placed Woodland Aria (Singspiel), while her dam, Magic Tree (Timber Country), is a half-sister to Group 1 winners Kirklees (Jade Robbery) and Mastery (Sulamani).

"She's a Galileo mare and we all know what Galileo can do," said Donohoe. "She's a very good physical and should be easy enough to mate. She's got a good covering too - Ten Sovereigns is an exciting prospect, and it's a good, tough family.

"She was bought for a client in the Middle East who has a few mares in Ireland, so she'll probably go back to Baroda Stud to board there. We've been thinking of something like Siyouni for her next cover - that cross has done very well this year."

Calming Effect

More Mayhem for Knocktoran

Brendan Hayes of Knocktoran Stud returned to familiar territory when going to 240,000gns (approx. AUD$458,000) for the Godolphin-consigned Donnybrook, a winning daughter of Invincible Spirit (Green Desert) and the Group 3-winning Whipper (Miesque's Son) mare Mayhem. In turn, Mayhem is out of Kilfrush Stud's famed producer Hit The Sky (Cozzene), who was under Hayes' care as Kilfrush's managing director from the early 1980s until its sale in 2013.

Mayhem is a sister to Prix Daniel Wildenstein (Gr 2, 1600m) winner Royal Bench and a half-sister to Ormonde Stakes (Gr 3, 1m5.5f) scorer Memphis Tennessee (Hurricane Run), while further back it is the family of the prolific Cerulean Sky (Darshaan).

"Most people are happy to buy what they know," said Hayes. "It's my son, Jonathan, who's bought her really, I was just doing the bidding. He wanted to buy her so hopefully she'll be lucky for him. She's a very good-looking filly and she had a bit of ability.

"It's nice to return the favour with Darley because they're a huge help to everyone in the industry, it's really great to be able to give them a good price for something they're selling.

The plan is to get her in foal early, although we haven't really chosen a sire just yet - it'll be something fast though."

Donnybrook was bred by the Mayhem Syndicate and joined the Godolphin fold at a cost of €900,000 at the 2018 Arqana August Sale.

More Juddmonte jewels

The first batch of Juddmonte horses into the ring brought a couple of the session's early highlights, including when Tom Blain of Barton Stud went to 220,000gns (approx. AUD$419,500) for Desirous, a winning daughter of Kingman (Invincible Spirit) and the Matron Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) scorer Emulous (Dansili). The four-year-old was offered in foal to Frankel.

"She's for a client of mine called Faisal Mishref, who's from Saudi Arabia," said Blain. "He's been a very loyal client of Barton Stud's. He had a very good yearling sale and he loves supporting Juddmonte."

Blain went on to explain that his client has been breeding on a small scale for a number of years, but having enjoyed a fruitful round of yearling sales was looking to upgrade the quality of his small but select broodmare band.

"He has between two and four mares at any one time but we're trying to keep the quality high," he said. "We started off buying cheaper mares but he's had some good results at the yearling sales so we're trying to up the quality. He also had some horses in training last year and he's a real believer in the game so I'm really pleased he's got this mare.

"She has a brilliant pedigree and was a good race filly herself and she's in foal to a champion. She'll come back to Barton now and we're very much looking forward to having her. We haven't thought as far ahead as who she'll be covered by next year but she'll be well mated. We'll try and make a proper mare out of her."

Durcan back among old friend

A few lots before Desirous sold, Ted Durcan went to 160,000gns (approx. AUD$305,000) for Amser, a Frankel half-sister to Timepiece (Zamindar), Passage Of Time (Dansili) - who is also the dam of Time Test (Dubawi) - and Father Time (Dansili).

The page was enhanced further just hours before Amser sold as Viadera, who gave Bated Breath (Dansili) a first top-level winner in the Matriarch Stakes (Gr 1, 1m), appears beneath the second dam, as does the redoubtable Twice Over (Observatory).

The six-year-old was sold in foal to Kingman, who is due to stand the 2021 covering season at a fee of £150,000.

"She's for Scott Heider in America," said Durcan. "She's a mare that I loved yesterday, Scott loved last night when he saw her and his racing manager Tony Lacy loved her too. We thought there's huge upside to her. She's got an unbelievable pedigree and a sexy cover too. It's so hard to buy into a family like that and there's loads happening too so we're over the moon to have her."

Heider, a real estate developer based in Omaha, has enjoyed a productive season with his boutique European racing string, most notably through the Joseph O'Brien-trained Pista (American Pharoah), who won the Park Hill Stakes (Gr 2, 1m6.5f) before finishing runner-up in the Prix de Royallieu (Gr 1, 2800m).

Donnybrook

LAURA GREEN

He also owns the Gallinule Stakes scorer Crossfirehurricane (Kitten's Joy) and the Listed-placed A New Dawn (Zoffany). The owner later tweeted that his new acquisition would head to Norelands Stud in County Kilkenny.

Durcan added that this is not the first time he has crossed paths with this family, having enjoyed a number successful link ups during his time in the saddle. He said: "It's a lovely family and I know the two-year-old out of Timepiece [Thaler] is at Sir Michael Stoute's and we like him. I've actually ridden a few of the family, including Passage Of Time, and I won the Craven on Twice Over so I know the family well."

Six-figure brace for Gerrardstown House

Frank Fahy of Gerrardstown House Stud came to Tattersalls with a view to adding two mares to his Dunshaughlin-based broodmare band, and duly landed Golconda (Planteur) with a bid of 210,000gns (approx. AUD$400,500) and Mechanism (Zamindar) at 200,000gns (approx. AUD$372,500).

Golconda, a French-bred daughter of Planteur (Danehill Dancer), was Listed-placed during her time with Christophe Ferland and was last seen finishing fourth in a Gulfstream claiming stakes for Robert Hess Jr. She was the only lot in the December Mare Sale catalogue carrying to US Triple Crown hero Justify (Scat Daddy).

"I like the mare and I like the cover," said Fahey. "I suppose after that, it's potluck! It's a rare cover to have over this side of the world. The Justify will be for sale in due course and she'll be going to a more local stallion next year."

"We'll just get her home, get her settled in and hope she has a nice Justify foal first though. After that we're in the lap of the gods. We came over to buy two and we've ended up with two on the first day, so we can go home now. The pressure is off."

Mechanism, offered in foal to Golden Horn (Cape Cross), was another to emerge from the Juddmonte draft. The winning seven-year-old daughter of Zamindar (Gone West) is a half-sister to Amser, who went the way of Ted Durcan for 160,000gns earlier in the session.

BY STEVE MORAN | @ANZ_NEWS

Imagine if Troy Corstens were to coach an AFL team to a premiership win in two years' time.

That would, perhaps, provide the best perspective to rookie trainer, Corstens' protege and dual AFL premiership coach Denis Pagan's remarkable achievement in winning this year's Gr 1 Victoria Derby with maiden Johnny Get Angry (Tavistock).

This story has had plenty of coverage but that should not diminish its significance. It comfortably sits, in my memory, alongside those of Joe Janiak and Takeover Target; Vic Rail and Vo Rogue; Chris Turner and Veandercross and Lauren Stojakovic winning the Group 1 Blue Diamond on Miracles Of Life.

I would categorise them as racing's greatest "left-field" stories - at least in my time - rather than one hit wonders. Each had other successes, most notably Rail's often forgotten win with Quegent (Northern Regent) in the then Group 2 Ascot Vale Stakes in 1992.

And who knows what the 73 year-old Pagan might go on to achieve.

In yet another twist to the tale of the trainer whose hands-on experience with horses is less than two years old, he's not had a runner since that Derby win but has been shopping internationally.

Johnny Get Angry, when he won the Derby, was Pagan's twelfth starter since his first in July - when he gained his licence - this year. His one other winner was also a metropolitan winner, Frankie Two Angels (Medaglia D'Oro). It's one hell of a story.

Pagan, with the help of Corstens, Damon Gabbedy's Belmont Bloodstock and Irish agent Barry Lynch paid 85,000 guineas (approx. AUD$162,250) for a colt by Australia (Galileo) at the Tattersalls December Yearling Sale at Newmarket last month.

The colt's second dam Sitara (Salse) produced the Melbourne Cup winner Rekindling (High Chaparral).

It was Corstens who sourced Johnny Get Angry for NZ$50,000 at New Zealand Bloodstock's National Yearling Sale and who tutored Pagan in the art of training.

And while his own team, with father Leon, enjoyed a successful spring with four stakes wins (albeit with the frustration of a further five stakes seconds), Corstens junior could hardly contain his delight at Pagan's Derby win which speaks to the very heart of the story.

At the risk of being trite, it's the sort of story which racing needs. The sort of story which underlines hope and glorious uncertainty - the sort which Corstens had previously been central to with his purchase of Starspangledbanner who was later sold to Coolmore which provided a tattsлото like windfall for his owners.

The sort of story which had another AFL premiership coach Kevin Sheedy, and his fellow owners, turn a $1400 investment for 10 per cent of Bel Esprit (Royal Academy) into several hundred thousands of dollars.

A story which, in Pagan's case, is arguably best paralleled by Mick Channon graduating from his football career - which included winning the 1976 FA Cup when his unfancied Southampton side triumphed over red-hot favourites Manchester United - to training multiple Group 1 winners. However it took Channon four years, not four months, to train a Group 1 winner.

It took Joe Janiak, incidentally, six months to graduate Takeover Target (Celtic Swing) from a Queanbeyan maiden win to Group 1 success in the Salinger Stakes at Flemington in 2004.

Janiak, of course, despite being typecast as the battling taxi driver, had had plenty of experience with horses and was known for landing the odd plunge on smaller tracks in New South Wales and southern Queensland.

He was no “mug” which was evident from his handling of this fragile galloper who certainly couldn’t be pushed on the track. His immaculate presentation of Takeover Target drew praise from renowned trainers all around the world.

Janiak may not have been a novice but nor was he widely known before Takeover Target, and their exploits rank as Australia’s greatest racing story since the 1940s and the intrigue which surrounded the great Bernborough (Emborough) which is a story for another day, and like Takeover Target, could easily a movie make.

Takeover Target won 21 races in four countries (Australian, England, Japan and Singapore)

and in five capital cities of Australia (Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Adelaide and Perth).

Janiak bought Takeover Target for $1375 (including GST) after persistent leg and joint injuries, including a fractured knee, had him marked as “high risk” for his original owners who included his then “gun” but recently retired Sydney trainer John Morish.

Morish wasn’t unaware of his ability. ‘If you spell him for a year and get him sound I’d be happy to have him back,’ he told Janiak according to a Sydney Morning Herald report in May 2004 - after Morish’s retirement from training, that year, and Takeover Target’s third win.

Morish, 53, was found dead from an accidental single gunshot wound at Katherine in the Northern Territory, in September that year.

Vic Rail, like Janiak, was largely unknown before the wonderful front-runner Vo Rogue (Ivor Prince) appeared in Melbourne early in 1987.

Rail, who tragically died at just 49 after contracting the Hendra virus, was unorthodox - to say the least - in his methods. He wasn’t fond of shoes on himself or on his horses.

However, he prepared Vo Rogue to win 26 races including 16 of then Group 1 or 2 level from 1200 to 2040 metres.

Veandercross, trained early and principally by Wanganui metalwork teacher Chris Turner (with later assistance from John Wheeler), was another of racing’s great stories with Turner teaching himself to train via books.

He bought Veandercross (Crossways) and his dam in-foal for just $NZ1400. Turner had never trained a horse before but learned the basics from reading and with a little help from fellow Wanganui trainers.

Veandercross, the horse who should have won the 1992 Caulfield Cup, won 15 races including nine at Group 1 level. He won the Mackinnon Stakes and finished second in the Melbourne Cup after jockey Shane Dye’s controversial wide ride saw him beaten a nose by Mannerism in the Caulfield Cup.

South Australian apprentice Lauren Stojakovic’s win on the aptly named Miracles Of Life (Not A Single Doubt) in the 2013 Blue Diamond Stakes is also worthy of a mention in the great left field wins.

Stojakovic, little-known outside her home state before partnering the filly to win the Listed Blue Diamond Preview, had the pressure of being aboard the Diamond favourite but remained undaunted and produced a copybook ride.

Stojakovic was the only female jockey in the field of 14, had the least experience and the poorest winning strike-rate.

BETTING FORECAST: 7-4 Methane, 3 Above, 5 Hay Run, 8 Chung Wah Spirit, 9 Dynamic Eagle, Kungfumaster Panda, 20 Pretty Bauhinia, 25 Magnetism, 50 Bullish Glory.

VERDICT One of few in the race to have an improving profile this year, METHANE arrives in good form and with his useful claimer up, could be the one for today. ABOVE looks a potential danger, while Kungfumaster Panda and Hay Run are both much respected.

VERDICT There should again be little to choose between Chunghwa Jingshen and Ready Conqueror here, with the latter weighted to edge that particular battle this time. Either may prove good enough, but the suggestion is PRAWN YEAH YEAH after he hinted last time that another win will not be long in coming.

BETTING FORECAST: 2 Shining On, 3 Pegasus Glory, 4 Little Player, 5 Phenomenal Combo, 12 Happy Time, Oriental Amigo, 20 Smart Wongchoy, 33 Little Thunder, 50 bar.

VERDICT An interesting sprint where the suggestion is PEGASUS GLORY to continue his good recent form and show his class with another win. Shining On is feared after another success of his own last time, while Little Player and newcomer Phenomenal Combo are others who could go well.

VERDICT option is KINDA COOL, who has a much better draw than last time and is not yet fully exposed. Goodluck Goodluck made a bold bid from the front here three weeks ago and may do so again today. Sprint Forward is next on the list.

BETTING FORECAST: 5-2 We The South, 7-2 Flying Genius, Harmony And Rich, 4 Wild West Wing, 10 Propice, 16 Gentle Breeze, 25 Handsome Bo Bo, Mr Lumieres, 33 Magic Legend, 50 Moment Of Power, Thou Shall Sing, 66 Chikorita.

VERDICT We The South is not opposed lightly as he bids to complete a C&D hat-trick but he's drawn wider than last time and slight preference is for FLYING GENIUS, who is in good form, well drawn and has a useful 7lb claimer enlisted. Solid cases can also be made for Harmony And Rich and Wild West Wing.

VERDICT Manfred Man's 7yo RED ELYSEES hasn't won since February 2019 but has finished second twice over C&D this season and remains well handicapped on some of last season's form. He gets the vote in what looks an open race. Hat-trick-seeker Tashidelek is feared most but Namjong Plus and Stimulation also make appeal.

BETTING FORECAST: 7-4 Sparkling Dragon, 7-2 Scores Of Fun, 7 Le Terroir, Mig Energy, 8 Winning Feeling, 10 Compassion Spirit, 14 Harrier Jet, 16 Green Reign, 50 bar.

VERDICT Scores Of Fun may still have more improvement to come and is afforded significant respect but this looks a very good opportunity for SPARKLING DRAGON, who was a commendable fifth from stall 2 in a C&D Class 2 event last month and has the plum inside draw in a lower-grade race today. Le Terroir also makes the shortlist.
