Group 1 winner Unforgotten headlines early entries for Inglis' The Chairman's Sale

Mares in foal to I Am Invincible, Zoustar and Justify also set for Riverside Stables

Inglis' concerted push to ramp up the appeal of its Chairman's Sale for elite breeding stock and race fillies has been rewarded with vendors already committing a number of high-class broodmares to the 2020 Sydney auction.

Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Unforgotten (Fastnet Rock) and her Chris Waller-trained stablemate Noire (Foxwedge) as well as mares in foal to I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) and Zoustar (Northern Meteor) are among the early entries for the auction.

Butterfield enters Hong Kong Derby reckoning

Butterfield (Setembro Chove) took a stride forward on the road to the Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m) with a smart success in the Class 2 Azalea Handicap (1800m) at Sha Tin yesterday afternoon. The race had been billed as something of a Derby trial, with six eligible runners in the field of 13, headed by the high-profile trio of Enjoying (Dundeel), Columbus County (Redwood) and Super Oasis (Rock 'N' Pop). But it was trainer Danny Shum's South American import - already a dual Grade 1-winning Derby hero in Brazil when named Halston - who took the spoils and the kudos.

One of what is tipped to be a scarce number of mares in foal to Coolmore's unbeaten US Triple Crown winner Justify (Scat Daddy) to enter a southern hemisphere sales ring this year, will also go under the hammer.

The commitments from breeders willing to present blue chip bloodstock comes after the company last month confirmed that it would be conducting The Chairman's Sale on a zero sales commission basis for the second year in a row.

Inglis introduced the commission structure in a bid to convince breeders to offer high-end mares at Riverside Stables instead of rival auction house Magic Millions just weeks later, a move that resulted in Loving Gaby's (I Am Invincible) dam Maastricht (Mastercraftsman) making $2.25 million and dual Group 1 winner Srikanth (Dubawi) fetching $2 million.

The select catalogue of 58 lots averaged $422,455 with a clearance rate of 93 per cent.

Inglis last night revealed that the owners of Unforgotten had entered the rising five-year-old mare for The Chairman's Sale, providing an immediate drawcard for a global buying bench.

"It's easy to talk up a horse who has won at Group 1 level but when people see her she's got size, she's got strength, she's got the temperament and she's got those bloodlines that everyone's desperate for and that's the combination of Fastnet Rock and Galileo bloodlines that have done the job," Waller said.

"She's a great horse to train because she's got power, she could cope with her early life of being a three-year-old in Group 1 races and backed it up as a four-year-old in weight for age races. She made a name for herself."

Unforgotten, who is a sister to the stakes-placed Special Memories, is one of three winners out of Irish mare Memories Of You (Galileo) who herself is a half-sister to European Group 1 winner Matlari (Bering), Group 2 winners Pyrus (Mr Prospector) and Marathon (Diesis) as well as Listed winner Precious Ring (Bering).

Unforgotten is back in work and is likely to resume in the Emancipation Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) at Rosehill on March 28.

Inglis bloodstock sales and marketing general manager Sebastian Hutch believes Unforgotten is "a pretty special mare".

"She was a beautiful sales yearling, has an outstanding pedigree and the ability to match. It's very rare that the various criteria line up in a package like that," Hutch said.

Noire (white cap)

"She's one of the desirable breeding prospects in Australasia and she will almost certainly have international appeal with her pedigree."

Star Thoroughbreds' Group 2-winning mare Noire will be given her chance to improve her race record before being put through the sales ring, with Waller in no doubt that the Foxwedge (Fastnet Rock) mare is deserving of a Group 1 performance appearing on her pedigree page.

"She's a very good horse, Noire. She never had a lot of luck in the Group 1s and I'm really disappointed she has not yet got a Group 1 placing at least because she really does deserve that," he said.

Noire is a three-quarter sister to the stakes-placed Global Dream (Fastnet Rock) who in turn has already made an impact as a broodmare after producing this season's high-class ATC Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) winner Global Quest (More Than Ready).

One of an enviable batch of two-year-olds owned by Aquis Farm, the Waller-trained Global Quest remains near the top of Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) calculations after Saturday's first-up second in the Canonbury Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Randwick.

Noire has won seven of her 29 starts and $584,745 in prize-money after being purchased at the 2015 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale for $135,000.

CLASSIC YEARLING SALE

9-11 February 2020, Riverside Stables, Sydney

Meanwhile, prominent Western Australian owner and breeder Bob Peters will offer six-time stakes winner Celebrity Dream (Thorn Park) in foal to Justify at The Chairman's Sale.

A NZ$260,000 New Zealand Bloodstock National Yearling Sale graduate, Celebrity Dream is a half-sister to stakes winners Vavasour (Redoute's Choice), Vilanova (Commands) and the Group 1-placed Roger James and Robert Wellwood-trained mare Rondinella (Ocean Park).

Hutch revealed that Peters floated the idea of offering Celebrity Dream at the Chairman's Sale last spring when the mare was in training with Waller and he was confident that being in foal to Justify would be a significant selling point.

"Celebrity Dream was a spectacularly good yearling and she is in foal to a pretty special horse in an international context," he said.

"I don't expect there to be a lot of pregnancies on the market to that horse and, from what I hear, there was great demand for him, so it is great to have a mare like that in the sale."

The Group 1-placed pair Arabian Gold (Dubawi) and Volks Lightning (Volksraad) will also be offered at The Chairman's Sale, in foal with early September covering dates to I Am Invincible and Zoustar respectively.

Heritage Bloodstock paid $900,000 for Arabian Gold when sold by Element Hill at the 2018 Magic Millions Gold Coast National Broodmare Sale, while agent Paul Guy went to $270,000 at last year's Queensland auction for Volks Lightning. The pair are being offered by T J S Bloodstock.

Arabian Gold, who was raced by Nick Moratis, has a colt at foot by Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) while 2019 was Volks Lightning's first year at stud.

This year's Chairman's Sale will be held on Friday May 8, seven days later than last year, in part to avoid a clash with the Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f), allowing American investors to attend the auction.

Hutch said the company would deliberately keep the sale to a select offering but hoped to increase the size of the catalogue slightly.

"It's obviously a moveable beast and last year we were in the fortunate position where we got great support but we were very particular about what we felt we could offer and achieve a good result with," he said.

"It's something that we are conscious of getting right. We don't want to make any mistakes with it. The sale worked really well in the format last year, so we don't want to change too much."

Orr Stakes target for Alabama Express

Mike Moroney is planning to throw three-year-old Alabama Express (Redoute's Choice) in at the deep end and chase a win against older horses in Saturday's C F Orr Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) at Caulfield. "At this stage the plan is to go to the Group 1," Moroney said. "If we think it's going to be too strong we'll have a look at the three-year-old race (Autumn Stakes) on the same day, but my advice to the owners, of which I'm one of them, would be to run and take them on in the Group 1. He's going to have to improve to say that he's going to beat them but being a colt we'd like to have a go at a Group 1. I think he is up to the better three-year-olds, it's just a matter of whether he's going to be up to the better weight-for-age horses."

Rubiton aim for Sartorial Splendor

Lightly-raced sprinter Sartorial Splendor (Brazen Beau) will kick off his campaign in the Rubiton Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) after missing a run in Saturday's W J Adams Handicap (Listed, 1000m) at Caulfield because of a wide draw. The three-year-old has won two of his seven starts and has a rating of 78 which trainer John Sadler said makes him hard to place. "There was a three-year-old and upwards Benchmark 78 on Saturday, but against matured four, five, six and seven-year-olds, he'd be carrying 58 kilos plus," he said. "With a mile and a quarter horse you might start them off at 1400 metres or 1600 metres, but 1200-metre horses you don't usually want to kick them off at 1200, you want to start them off at 1000 or 1100 metres. There's no races for him, unless you run a 78 (rated) horse in the (weight-for-age) Lightning, which is not very smart."

Strong Diamond hand for Lindsay Park

Lindsay Park look set to again have multiple runners in the Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) with Riverina Storm (Night Of Thunder), Fixated (Hinchinbrook), Bella Nipotina (Pride Of Dubai) and Frederick The Dane (Danerich) all still in contention ahead of the divisions of the Blue Diamond Prelude at Caulfield on Saturday. Stablemates Personal (Fastnet Rock), Aryaaf (Epaulette) and Hard Landing (All Too Hard) have already been confirmed for Victoria's richest two-year-old race on February 22, with the first-named set to have a trial at Wodonga on February 11. "It's probably not conventional with five weeks between runs, but we'll give her a trial to keep her up to the mark," co-trainer Tom Dabernig said. "We were just worried if she ran in the Prelude it might have been too much."

Freedman after more relaxed Hanseatic

Anthony Freedman admits that if Hanseatic (Street Boss) is to win the Blue Diamond Stakes, he will need to improve his colty nature and become more relaxed. "He's good - he probably is better for the (first-up) run," Freedman said. "He got a bit colty last week and hopefully we'll come back next week and he'll be more relaxed." Hanseatic was instilled as the favourite for the $1.5 million juvenile feature after a comfortable Blue Diamond Preview (C&G) (Listed, 1000m) win and will again be tested in Saturday's Blue Diamond Prelude (C&G) (Gr 3, 1100m).

Cellsabeel short-priced favourite for Millennium

Cellsabeel

SPORTPIX

Leading Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) hope Cellsabeel (Hinchinbrook) has been installed the red-hot $1.60 favourite with the TAB for Saturday's $2 million Inglis Millennium (RL, 1200m) at Warwick Farm. Having finished fourth behind Dame Giselle (I Am Invincible) in the Golden Gift (1000m) on her debut in November, Cellsabeel shot to the head of the betting for the Slipper with an impressive six-length win in last month's Iron Jack Handicap (1100m) at Rosehill.

Light Fingers likely for Funstar

Chris Waller's Group 1-winning filly Funstar (Adelaide) is likely to begin her autumn campaign in the Light Fingers Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) on February 15 to give her one run into the Surround Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) two weeks later. "I might go to the Light Fingers," Waller said. "That horse from New Zealand, Probabeel, will probably be there (Surround) and she'll be pretty forward. I shouldn't worry about other horses having runs but she's got so much speed and the Light Fingers is a pretty big race to have on the resume if you can win it. And it prepares you well for the Surround so we might just bring her forward two weeks from what I originally said."

16 for Canford Cliffs

Highlands Farm Stud resident Canford Cliffs (Tagula) sired his 16th individual stakes-winner yesterday when Money Matters (3 g ex Miz Nicholls by Danehill) took out the Rangeview

Stud Classic (Listed, 1400m) at Bunbury. The Adam Durrant-trained gelding defeated Montelena (Rubik) by half a length with Put A Spell On You (Sessions) a further length and three-quarters back in third. Money Matters is related to Group 1 winner Shinzig (Danehill) as well as Group 1 runner-up Hawkshot (Fiorente). Canford Cliffs shuttled to Blue Gum Farm for five seasons and now resides in South Africa.

Alligator Blood wins jump-out

Leading Queensland three-year-old Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) had his final hit-out in his home state yesterday, winning an exhibition trial over 1000 metres at the Sunshine Coast and pleasing his trainer David Vandyke with the performance. "It was ideal. Exactly what I wanted him to do. It was a hot and humid day and we did not want to sap him," Vandyke said. Alligator Blood will have his first Melbourne start this campaign in the CS Hayes Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) on February 15 before tackling the Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) on February 29. "I am keen to get him to Melbourne so he can settle in and we are looking forward to meeting Super Seth again after he beat us in the Caulfield Guineas," Vandyke said.

Barrier ten for unbeaten Gemma's Son

Gemma's Son (Snippetson) will race from barrier ten when he tries to stretch his unbeaten record to three in Saturday's Magic Millions WA 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) at Pinjarra Park. His David Harrison-trained stablemate Chix Chatter (Galah) has drawn barrier 15, while the other undefeated runner in the field, Watch Me Dance (I'm All The Talk), will break from barrier four. New jockey needed for Dalasan Dalasan (Dalakhani) is likely to have a new rider on board when he continues his Australian Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) campaign in the CS Hayes Stakes at Flemington. Craig Williams rode the colt to a fast-finishing third in Saturday's Manfred Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) with co-trainer Leon McDonald seemingly unimpressed with the ride. "I thought he let him get too far back," Macdonald told Racing.com. Williams, who blamed the Soft 7 track for the defeat, was riding Dalasan for just the second time. Raquel Clark, who has been on board for four of his five wins, is currently sidelined through injury.

Port Adelaide Cup exemption for Ramsden

South Australia will host an automatic qualifier for this year's Andrew Ramsden Stakes (Listed, 2800m) which takes place at Flemington on May 16. The winner of the $100,000 Port Adelaide Cup (Listed, 2500m) at Morphettville on May 2, if aged between three and five years old, will be granted ballot exempt status into the $400,000 contest. The winner of the Andrew Ramsden Stakes is granted direct entry into the $8 million Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m).

Deadline on board with double

Rosden Park resident Deadline (Fastnet Rock) got off the mark as a stallion yesterday, courtesy of wins for his sons Deadly Sins and Phyla Vell at Sale. Although he failed to win in three starts, Deadline boasts an impressive bloodline. By former champion sire Fastnet Rock (Danehill), his dam Peruzzi (Zabeel) won the Light Fingers Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and is a sister to Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Don Eduardo and a half-sister to dual Group 1 winner Tristalove (Sir Tristram). Deadline stands for a fee of $4,400.

Wednesday meeting for Kilcoy

The Kilcoy Race Club will turn back the clock this week when it hosts its first Wednesday meeting in 50 years. The club went to Saturdays in the 1970s before joining a TAB Friday circuit in 1991. The Friday circuit was so successful Kilcoy was replaced by bigger clubs and has since had a mixture of race days. Kilcoy has had a million dollar face lift in the past year thanks to grants from the Somerset council and the state government, and club chairman Con Searle said the club now had the facilities to host a TAB Wednesday meeting. "The actual racetrack is a picture. We have been known as the Moonee Valley of the north for decades and we hope to continue to live up to it," he said. Wednesday's meeting has been well received with 95 nominations across seven races.

Marquand cleared of serious injury

Visiting English jockey Tom Marquand has been cleared of any injuries to his shoulder or neck after a fall at Randwick on Saturday. Marquand was taken to hospital after his mount Ronstar (Zoustar) suffered a fatal injury and although the jockey was not found to have broken any bones, he will have to undergo a concussion test before he can ride again. Marquand, a former champion apprentice in the UK, is coming to the end of his stint in Sydney but said he would be happy to return for a ride in the Golden Slipper Stakes on March 21.

Looker cops month-long ban

Ben Looker has been suspended for a month after the stewards took exception to his ride on Husson's Pride (Husson) at the Gold Coast on Saturday. The stewards opened an inquiry after Husson's Pride ran sixth in a Class 5 race over 1800 metres when he was beaten two and three quarter lengths. Looker was found guilty of failing to take all reasonable and permissible measures to ensure Husson's Pride was given full opportunity to obtain the best possible place in the field. The jockey, who was suspended for a month on a handling charge in October, will be out from February 10.

Top gong for Amphitrite

Amphitrite

SPORTPIX

Connections of Amphitrite (Sebring) picked up another prize on Saturday night when she landed the top honour at the South Australian Breeders Horse Of The Year Awards held at the Adelaide Convention Centre. The filly was named 2018/19 Horse of the Year for her exploits in a season which was highlighted by her triumph in the Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) at Caulfield in October 2018.

NEW ZEALAND

First for No Nay Never

Need I Say More (2 g ex Bo Bardi by Fastnet Rock) backed up an impressive barrier trial win last month to score a comfortable debut victory at Matamata yesterday for the powerful Te Akau Racing team and in the process, delivered No Nay Never (Scat Daddy) with his first southern hemisphere-bred winner. The Jamie Richards-trained juvenile, who was bred by Burnewang North's Cathy Hains and sold by Kilgravin Lodge for NZ$130,000 to David Ellis at Karaka, led under Opie Bosson before kicking clear to win by two lengths. Cornflower Blue (Savabeel) made up ground to finish second, with Kelly Renee (Vespa) another four lengths away in third. Coolmore shuttler No Nay Never, who is the sire of 20 stakes winners including Group 1 scorers Ten Sovereigns and Brooke, stood for a fee of $44,000 (inc GST) in 2019 at Coolmore Australia. His 2020 northern hemisphere fee is €175,000.

Waikato Stud Slipper next for Need I Say More

Jamie Richards says it has been hard to get a true guide on the ability of Need I Say

More but after yesterday's performance the trainer is in no doubt that Group races are in the offing. "There has always been a little question mark around this horse because he has just been so lazy around home," Richards said. "Get him out here when the speakers are going and put a set of blinkers on him and he really wakes up. "He'll be back here in three weeks for the Slipper." The Waikato Stud Slipper (Gr 3, 1200m) is the feature race for the two-year-old colts and geldings on Matamata Breeders' Stakes Day at Matamata on February 22.

Star Witness' son Phantom Witness stays unbeaten

Jamie Richards also prepared talented three-year-old Phantom Witness (Star Witness) to win at Matamata yesterday, with the gelding maintaining an unbeaten record with a victory in the Super Liquor Handicap (1200m). "He's a progressive sort of horse and another example of the type of horse we try to buy from the Ready To Run sale," Richards said. "With a bit of patience, he's getting there now, but I did say to Opie (Bosson) that we might have to forgive one (win) to teach him to settle a bit. He was good enough to sit back, sit wide, quicken and win well. He can have a think about things and is wearing a fair bit of gear but I think we've got him worked out now and he looks like he will be up to a better class."

Four for Te Akau

Te Akau Racing ended up with four winners on the card at Matamata, the stable's home base, at the Sunday meeting with Combat Queen (Pierro) and Fabulous Flight (I Am Invincible) joining Need I Say More and Phantom Witness in the winners' circle. "When you've got your ears pinned back trying to win a premiership these four wins in a day can't be underestimated," Jamie Richards said. "Most of our horses are running well and a few that are looking for some easing in the ground. Results like these are testament to the staff and the systems we've got in place. It's such a big help to Dave (Ellis) and Karyn (Fenton-Ellis MNZM) when the team is going well to sell the shares in the yearlings."

Tiptronic on track for Herbie Dyke

Graham Richardson believes he has Tiptronic (O'Reilly) in top shape as he prepares the gelding for Saturday's Herbie Dyke Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) at Te Rapa. The six-year-old will line up off the back of an impressive victory over 2100 metres at Ellerslie as he attempts to go one better in the Te Rapa feature event after finishing runner-up to On The Rocks (Alamosa) in 2019. "His work on Saturday was spot on and he is at peak for his upcoming task," Richardson said. "He has improved since his Ellerslie win and I've got Chris Johnson booked to ride him, so all we need now is a decent draw. He has been missing away a little lately but he began well last time and that made all the difference. I'd love to draw an inside gate and just let him find a position and then we'll see what unfolds from there."

Reggiewood in Derby picture

Exciting prospect Reggiewood (Redwood) has emerged as a contender for the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) at Ellerslie on February 29 and could potentially give trainer Roger James his sixth victory in the race. Finishing sixth on debut at Hastings in May last year, Reggiewood made giant strides over a winter and spring break and returned with a second placing at New Plymouth on December 27. He cleared maiden grade by almost four lengths over 1950 metres at Rotorua on January 15, and then on Saturday at New Plymouth he produced an explosive finish to win the Devon Hotel Handicap (2000m) by three lengths. "I was very happy with his performance at New Plymouth yesterday," said James who trains in partnership with Robert Wellwood. "He's a highly promising staying three-year-old, and he's improving significantly with every start. The Derby seems to be the natural progression for him now, and I don't think the mile and a half will pose him any problems."

Cuddle Stakes goal for Coventina Bay

In-form New Plymouth trainer Robbie Patterson, who trained a winning double on his home track on Saturday, has the Cuddle Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) in mind for talented mare Coventina

Bay (Shameexpress). The progressive mare won the Energy Vets Handicap (1200m) at New Plymouth on Saturday to take her record to four wins from five starts. "I think she's right out of the top drawer," Patterson said. "I expected her to win yesterday, just because she does things on the training track that most other horses can't do, but she was only at about 70 per cent for that race. After she won at Te Rapa in November, she had an ailment called kissing spine. She was a bit sore and needed treatment. She'd made good progress since then, but she was still a long way from the top of her game for that run yesterday. So it's onwards and upwards from here."

ASIA

First for Real Impact

Lauda Sion's (3cex Antiphona by Song and a prayer) victory in the Crocus Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Tokyo on Saturday provided George Ryder Stakes (Gr 1, 1500m) winner Real Impact (Deep Impact) with his first stakes winner. The Takashi Saito-trained three-year-old beat Harmony Magellan (Daiwa Major) by two lengths with a length and a quarter back to Zenno Justa (Just A Way) in third. Lauda Sion, who has now won three of his five starts, is a half-brother to Ambrosio (Rose Kingdom) who finished second in the Crocus Stakes two years ago. He is the third winner from four foals out of the winning Song and a prayer (Unbridled's Song) mare Antiphona who visited Real Steel (Deep Impact) last year.

Ascot back in front

Grade 1 winner Mozu Ascot (Frankel) got back into the winning groove when taking out the Negishi Stakes (Gr 3, 1400m) at Tokyo yesterday. The Yoshito Yahagi-trained six-year-old was registering his first success since landing the Yasuda Kinen (Gr 1, 1600m) back in June 2018 when getting the better of warm favourite Copano Kicking (Spring At Last) by a length and a quarter with Smart Avalon (South Vigorous) a further length behind in third. Mozu Ascot has now won six of his 20 starts and placed on a further five occasions.

Will wins again

A Will Away (Just A Way) doubled her stakes tally when she got the better of her 17 rivals in yesterday's Silk Road Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Kyoto. A winner of a Listed race over the course and distance two starts back, the Tomokazu Takano-trained filly came out on top in a tight finish, beating the Eighteen Girl (Johannesburg) by a neck with the same distance back to Naran Huleg (Gold Allure) in third. Multiple Grade 1 winner Just A Way (Heart's Cry) has sired three stakes winners, headed by Grade 3 winner Lord My Way.

INTERNATIONAL

Thousand Words win brings up Baffert milestone

Thousand Words (Pioneer of The Nile) stretched his unbeaten record to three with victory in the Robert B Lewis Stakes (Gr 3, 9.5f) on Santa Anita's main track on Saturday and in the process provided Hall of Fame trainer Bob Baffert with his 3000th win. The three-year-old was following up his victory in December's Los Alamitos Futurity (Gr 2, 9.5f), coming home three-quarters of a length in front of Royal Act (American Pharoah), with High Velocity (Quality Road) a neck further back in third. Bred in Florida by Hardacre Farm, Thousand Words is out of the dual Grade 2 winner Pomeroy's Pistol (Pomeroy). The mare, who has a yearling Hard Spun (Danzig) colt, was purchased by agent Mike Ryan on behalf of client Jeff Drown of Kindred Stables for US$475,000 at the Keeneland January Horses of All Ages Sale. She was consigned to that auction by Brookdale Sales on behalf of Hardacre.

Alex much the best

Mischiefous Alex (Into Mischief) took his career tally to three wins from six starts when running away with the Swale Stakes (Gr 3, 7f) at Gulfstream Park on Saturday. The last-start Listed winner had no problems with the step up in grade, beating Shivaree (Awesome Of Course) by seven lengths. Green Light Go (Hard Spun) was a further neck behind in third. Bred in Kentucky by WinStar Farm out of the winning mare White Pants Night (Speightstown), Mischiefous Alex is the second foal out of White Pants Night, who produced an Outwork (Uncle Mo) colt last year and was bred to Wicked Strong in 2020.

Butterfield enters Hong Kong Derby reckoning

BY DAVID MORGAN | HKJC_RACING

Butterfield (Setembro Chove) took a stride forward on the road to the Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m) with a smart success in the Class 2 Azalea Handicap (1800m) at Sha Tin yesterday afternoon.

The race had been billed as something of a Derby trial, with six eligible runners in the field of 13, headed by the high-profile trio of Enjoying (Dundeel), Columbus County (Redwood) and Super Oasis (Rock 'N' Pop).

But it was trainer Danny Shum's South American import – already a dual Grade 1-winning Derby hero in Brazil when named Halston – who took the spoils and the kudos.

"The owner has nice expectations, he bought him from Brazil for nice money, not too expensive, but he's a good horse," Shum said.

"I have to see how he pulls up but I'm not sure whether or not he will already have enough rating points for the Derby – if he has, we might go straight there. But I'll talk to the owner and we'll make a decision whether or not we run in the Classic Cup next."

The chestnut, rated 84 for yesterday's test, would meet the highly-regarded Hong Kong Classic Mile one-two of Golden Sixty (Medaglia D'Oro) and More Than This (Dutch Art) should he line up in the second leg of the Four-Year-Old Classic Series, the Hong Kong Classic Cup (Listed, 1800m) in three weeks' time.

Butterfield snared his first Hong Kong win under a positive ride from Grant van Niekerk. The South African took a sit behind the front-running Classic Beauty (Elzaam), shifted out at the 400 metre-mark and was soon in the clear.

The son of Setembro Chove was assailed on either flank close home but kept on strongly to win by half a length from the Caspar Fownes-trained Columbus County, with High Rev (Fastnet Rock) third and Super Oasis fourth.

"I told Grant to follow the leader because there was no pace in this race; he was drawn one and he got a slow pace so he could do that," Shum said.

Van Niekerk is looking forward to future assignments, with Butterfield having shown improvement in the most recent three of five runs since import.

"I think he has ability and if he is a little further back in the run it won't be a problem. He's still learning about racing in Hong Kong and I think he'll just keep getting better," Van Niekerk said.

Shum revealed that a gelding operation four days after Butterfield's first run this season has been key to his progress.

"Before he was gelded he was too keen and didn't perform well but since he's been gelded he's calmer and he has run well his last two races," he said.

Fownes, meanwhile, was a tad deflated with runner-up Columbus County who was sent off the 3.8 second-favourite.

"For me, he was disappointing because I thought at the 200 (metres) we had it covered, so I might have to think about whether he needs a pair of cups on," the trainer said.

"He seemed to get there but didn't really go on with it, so there's a chance I'll put a pair of blinkers or some change of equipment on him – I don't think he'll pull with that equipment but it might just have the desired effect when it matters.

"I thought we'd get the win today. Then again, you get beat half a length, you can't complain too much!"

Fownes may side-step the Classic Cup in favour of a Class 2 2000-metre contest on the same day (23 February).

"I'm leaning towards going to the 2000-metre Class 2 rather than the Classic Cup next but I'll have a think about it and we'll obviously make the Classic Cup entry. His best racing is ahead of him and we just hope we can fine-tune him for the big day."

Van Niekerk and Shum sealed a double together: Butterfield followed the earlier success of Clear Choice (Rebel Radier) in the Class 3 Lily Handicap (1650m, dirt).

Another haul for Moreira

Joao Moreira grabbed his 31st Hong Kong four-timer, taking his tally at the top of the premiership to 69 and increasing his lead over rival Zac Purton to nine, with the season's halfway point approaching fast.

Midway through his seventh season in Hong Kong, the 'Magic Man' has now bagged at least four wins in a day an incredible 52 times. That figure includes his local record of eight victories in one day.

The Brazilian was on fire from the programme's start and made it three wins by race five when he edged trainer John Moore to within one of a 1,700th Hong Kong win, delivering the handler's eye-candy grey gelding Monica (Murta Jill) to a length and a quarter success over race favourite Super Elegance (Teofilo) in the Class 3 Daisy Handicap (1600m).

"I did see something in the papers about (1,700 wins) but I wasn't really monitoring it, so it'll be nice to get another win and leave a big number for other trainers in the future to chase. It's a tough number – I've set the standard."

"This is the first time we've tried the mile with this horse and Joao got off and said he'll go further if we want to, but he'll run on 23 February over a mile again and the ride will be offered to Joao again."

Moreira had earlier taken his win strike-rate for the Tony Cruz yard this term to 20 per cent when he drove Supreme Witness (Stryker) late and wide to take the opener, section two of the Class 4 Orchid Handicap (1200m).

And he was on the board again two races later when Seize The Spirit (Mastercraftsman) swept from deep to take the Class 5 Rose Handicap (1400m). That was the rider's second win for the Me Tsui stable this term at his 11th ride.

Monica

HKJC

Moreira made it four in race six, the Class 4 Peony Handicap (1650m), aboard the Chris So-trained Foodie Princess (Sepoy). The three-time champion jockey had only four behind him with 500 metres to race but shifted wide and got a sweet tune from his mount to grind past his rivals and land the spoils by half a length.

Badel scorches on Flame

Alexis Badel has enjoyed a successful winter stint, and, with his contract up at the end of February, the Frenchman nailed a treble on the unbeaten Inner Flame (Zoustar) to take his running total to a meritorious 19 wins.

The Douglas Whyte-trained galloper had an awkward draw in gate nine and Badel found himself wide and facing the breeze from the off in the Class 3 Daffodil Handicap (1200m).

"I wanted to cross and get cover but I couldn't find a spot on the inside," he said. "The two leaders were slowing the pace into the bend, so I had no hesitation to let my horse keep rolling because he's good enough to do it. It was my only option to get a deep breath into him before the effort – he needed to breathe so I couldn't stay three-wide no cover."

"I trusted my horse – he's still improving and a bit of a baby and he had to fight for the first time. He was a bit lost but he was good enough to fight and win."

Runner-up Invincible Missile (Smart Missile) headed the hat-trick scoring Inner Flame in the run home but the Zoustar chestnut rallied for his rider, who has struck up a profitable partnership with first-season handler Whyte.

Earlier, Badel judged the pace expertly as he guided Eight Trigrams (Magnus) to a maiden-breaking win at the 11th attempt, in section one of the Class 4 Orchid Handicap (1200m). The rider settled the David Hall-trained galloper prominently through comfortable fractions, kicked on into the straight and held off a bevy of closers by half a length.

Champion Jockey Zac Purton was on the mark aboard Joyful Heart (Smart Missile), despite dropping his whip with about 350 metres to go in the Class 4 Peach Blossom Handicap (1400m). Frankie Lor's charge ran on down the outer to score by a length and a quarter.

Siam Warrior comes up trumps

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

A slightly interrupted prep did little to dent Siam Warrior's (Exceed And Excel) winning momentum on Saturday.

The five-year-old suffered a minor hiccup after his last-start win in a Class 4 race over 1200 metres on January 1 when he got cast in his box, meaning James Peters had to back him off to allow the swollen hind leg to heal, but fortunately for the English trainer, the former Godolphin inmate recovered swiftly.

A sound jump-out was just the clean bill of health connections needed ahead of running him in Saturday's $70,000 Class 3 race over 1200 metres, which was a rise in grade for the Middle Kingdom Stable-owned runner.

Ridden again by his last-start winning partner Vlad Duric, the $32 chance darted through a gap on the rails late on on his way towards a brilliant length and a half victory from the fast-closing Gold Star (Redente). Elite Incredible (Valid Stripes) stayed on for third place, another half-length away. The winning time was 1min 9.33secs for the 1200 metres on the Long Course.

"After his last win, he pulled up okay but a few days later, he had a swollen hind leg," said Peters.

"Luckily, he came right and got through that. He had a jump-out and it was all good for him.

"He's really thriving. Today from barrier one Vlad made the call to come back to the inside in the straight and the horse was really strong to the line.

Siam Warrior

STC

"I don't have any major plans for him. I will find another Class 3 race for him in three weeks' time."

Duric later went on to complete a hat-trick courtesy of wins on the short-priced favourite Street Cry Success (Street Cry) for champion trainer Mark Walker in the $50,000 Class 4 race over 1200 metres and Blue Chip (Shocking) for Stephen Gray in the $30,000 Class 5 race over 1800 metres.

Duric, who has now widened his lead in the Singapore jockeys' premiership to seven winners, said Siam Warrior was a horse he had long set his sights on.

"I always liked the horse. I tried to get on him, but James always said they would stay with Ben Thompson.

"When Ben left, it created an opportunity for me to ride him. I guess I got on him at the right time.

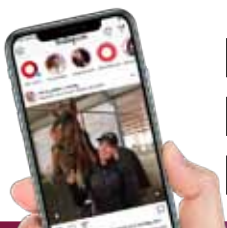

"Before the race, I discussed with James about barrier one. It was the Long Course, I just had to see how it unfolds.

"He jumped good, I dropped him off halfway and he always travelled comfortably underneath me. He's got a good turn of foot.

"He had a setback after his last run when he was cast in his box. But he gave me the confidence he was okay after he jumped on the back track the other day.

"It was a step-up in class but he had the perfect run."

Known as Siam when a two-time winner for trainer James Cummings and Godolphin in Sydney, Siam Warrior has now established a handy local record of three wins and two placings from 12 starts for prize-money in excess of S$100,000 for Jayven See's Middle Kingdom Stable.

Analysis: The progressive Adam Durant-trained three-year-old Money Matters completed a hat-trick of wins in advancing to record his first success at stakes level in good style here. He was smartly away from his good barrier (3) and went straight to the front. He then travelled really well, got a break on turning for home and then fought back for a good win, his fourth win in seven starts to date. Lightly-raced filly Montelena was slowly away, settled in second- last place in eight-runner field before improving along the inner nearing the home turn. She switched deeper at the home turn and then ran on particularly well for second in a most promising effort at only her fourth race start. Put A Spell On You had a nice trip, racing in fourth place (one out and one back), before moving up well on straightening. She then kept fighting on nicely to take third, albeit after appearing to have had every chance. [KB]
