Two-year-olds on show as spring action heats up

Group 1 contests at Randwick, Flemington and Hastings and first juvenile stakes races in 'Super Saturday' down under

Kalashnikov

LISA GRIMM

BY ANDREW HAWKINS | @ANZ_NEWS

The first Saturday in October represents so much to so many: Group 1 racing up and down Australia's eastern seaboard and in New Zealand, important trials heading towards some of the world's biggest races and the dawning of a new era as the two-year-olds get their first chance at earning black type, kicking off a number of stallion careers in the process.

Today's Breeders' Plate (Gr 3, 1000m) and Gimcrack Stakes (Gr 3, 1000m) at Randwick and the Maribyrnong Trial Stakes (Listed, 1000m) at Flemington begins the stakes path for the juveniles that culminates in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) at Rosehill in March.

Throw in the Two-Year-Old Plate (1000m) at Eagle Farm and the Nobby Bussell Memorial (800m) at Riccarton and today is full of hope, optimism and suspense for owners and breeders, particularly for those invested in this season's first season sires.

For Newgate Farm director of stallions Bruce Slade, seeing the stud's young guns Capitalist (Written Tycoon), Flying Artie (Artie Schiller) and Extreme Choice (Not A Single Doubt) represented in Sydney and Brisbane is the culmination of four seasons of anticipation.

"It's a really exciting day, it's been a big build-up," Slade told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday. "These young stallions retired to stud four seasons ago, in 2017, so there's been a lot of effort from a wide range of people, from the stallion shareholders through to our team at Newgate through to the breeders that have been good enough to support these horses and those that have purchased them to race and have got the first two-year-olds to the races.

Bruce Slade

"Now we're going to start to work out whether that's going to bear fruit. It's not the be all and end all, it's just the first weekend of the major two-year-old racing. There's plenty of water to go under the bridge, but the sooner you start winning these races, the better. We'd love it to start tomorrow of course for Capitalist, Flying Artie and Extreme Choice."

The last time Australia's eventual champion two-year-old raced on this day was in 2015 when Capitalist took the Breeders' Plate, while the Nobby Bussell Memorial was won by a green Avantage (Fastnet Rock) in 2017, so it is perhaps fitting that both horses will play an important role in today's action on opposite sides of the Tasman.

Full circle for Capitalist in Breeders' Plate

Capitalist is favoured to produce a Breeders' Plate winner today with Kalashnikov, trained by Peter and Paul Snowden and owned by James Harron Bloodstock's colts syndicate, the $2.60 favourite with TAB last night.

"It would obviously be a dream result and a massive vote of confidence in the project if Capitalist were able to supply a Breeders' Plate winner with his first crop," Harron told ANZ Bloodstock News. "That said, much more important is how the season as a whole goes for him as a stallion, and the early talk is very encouraging and it would be fantastic to see that play out on the race track."

"Naturally expectations are high with a horse who was as precocious as he was, though it must be noted that they are actually very strong and often scopey sorts who also really look like they'll go on with things as they get older. It has been great to see the rise of his sire Written Tycoon to now be the leading stallion in Australia at present, which can only be an additional positive for Capitalist's prospects."

Capitalist was the first horse to sport Harron's now familiar green and gold silks in a race, leading home Detective (Snitzel) in a James Harron Bloodstock one-two in the Breeders' Plate and setting him on a path that saw him capture the Magic Millions 2YO Classic (RL, 1200m) and Golden Slipper double.

Capitalist

NEWGATE FARM

It is a day that Harron remembers fondly, being the first representative of the colts syndicate put together by the bloodstock agent, and one that he hopes will be replicated today.

"It was a great day and a result we could have dreamed of to kick off our colt partnership," he recalled "Raising the capital that first year to get out and purchase the colts at the sales involved a lot of faith from our owners, and there's nothing that can quite fulfill that faith like results, so we were thrilled for everyone who had got behind us that we were able to kick things off so strongly."

"It really set the whole project in motion and it's with great pride that this year marks the fifth year of two-year-old colts in the green and gold silks. We very much aim to continue in the same vein, doing our best to secure the best stallion prospects at the yearling sales, while also being big supporters of our stallions, both in terms of trying to give them the best chance we can in terms of broodmares and being strong buyers for their progeny at the sales."

Such is the case with Kalashnikov, a $600,000 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale purchase, who earned favouritism with a five-length trial win at the official two-year-old trials on the Kensington track last week. He is joined by stablemate Astrologer, who also represents a first season sire in Vinery's Star Turn (Star Witness); the pair are prepared by Peter and Paul Snowden.

“Kalashnikov has always been a real stand-out amongst the group, he’s continued to go forward in every way since the sales and looks a ready-made two-year-old,” Harron said. “Astrologer is more one of those quiet achievers who gets on and continues to improve - to my eyes his trial was that of a real racehorse who will keep raising the bar as he gains more experience.

“With regard to the first season sire race, I am naturally very biased and hope that Capitalist can do what we hope he can and provide plenty of wins for those who have got behind him in the breeding barn and in the sales ring.”

First season sire race begins in earnest

Extreme Choice

NEWGATE FARM

In addition to the Harron pair, Maurice’s Medad (Maurice) and Shaquero (Shalaa) will represent first season sires in today’s Breeders’ Plate.

In fact, across the five two-year-old races in Australia and New Zealand, nine first season sires will have runners.

Some, like Capitalist and Darley’s American shuttler Frosted (Tapit), have already had runners in Australia’s first two-year-old race of the season, the Darley Spring Preview (900m) at Flemington last week.

Others, like Arrowfield Stud shuttlers Maurice (Screen Hero) and Shalaa (Invincible Spirit) as well as Haunui Farm’s Belardo (Lope De Vega), have had multiple winners already in the northern hemisphere; Frosted, too, belongs in that category.

One, former Florida-based stallion Wrote (High Chaparral), has his first southern hemisphere runner today with the Highview Stud acquisition now permanently based in New Zealand.

And for three of them - Extreme Choice, Flying Artie and Star Turn - today is the first time they will be represented in the sires’ column.

In regards to today’s two-year-old stakes races, history is not on the side of the first season sires; it has been seven years since a son or daughter of a first season sire took out any of the three stakes races today, with Law giving Denman (Lonhro) the best possible start to his career at stud when taking the Breeders’ Plate in 2013.

FIRST SEASON SIRE RUNNERS

Belardo (Haunui) - Emmy Vein (Gimcrack Stakes), Avonallo (Nobby Bussell Memorial), Roussanne (Nobby Bussell Memorial)

Capitalist (Newgate) - Kalashnikov (Breeders’ Plate)

Extreme Choice (Newgate) - Avaricious (Gimcrack Stakes)

Flying Artie (Newgate) - Miss Hoff (Gimcrack Stakes), Princess Bojack (Two-Year-Old Plate)

Frosted (Darley) - Ingratating (Maribyrnong Trial Stakes), Cloudy (Maribyrnong Trial Stakes)

Maurice (Arrowfield) - I Love Lucy (Gimcrack Stakes), Maurice’s Medad (Breeders’ Plate)

Shalaa (Arrowfield) - Shaquero (Breeders’ Plate)

Star Turn (Vinery) - Astrologer (Breeders’ Plate), Stellar Magic (Two-Year-Old Plate)

Wrote (Highview) - Quarantina (Nobby Bussell Memorial)

The Gimcrack Stakes was last won by a daughter of a first season sire in 2011, when Hussousa prevailed to give Husson (Hussonet) a first Australian stakes winner straight off the bat.

That said, victory today may not be a portent of things to come, with Denman and Husson finishing second to I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) and Casino Prince (Flying Spur) in their respective first season sire races.

As for the Maribyrnong Trial Stakes, a first season sire was last successful all the way back in 2007 when Exceedingly Good set Exceed And Excel (Danehill) on a pathway to becoming one of the most successful stallions of his generation.

Today will also begin the scouting process for the next top stallion, with the likes of Choisir (Danehill Dancer), Snitzel (Redoute’s Choice) and Pierro (Lonhro) winning the Breeders’ Plate in the last two decades.

“I think on our roster alone, two of those horses have come through those first two-year-old trials in Wandjina and Capitalist,” Slade said. “That’s just from a very small sample size and you had two future Group 1-winning stallions who came through this very race, the Breeders’ Plate, so that will hold a lot of our attention as will the Maribyrnong Trial down the line.

“We’re always keeping an eye on horses that might make future stallions. I suppose that’s not much different to any other raceday, but the new crop and the next generation is always exciting. It’s that unknown factor, I suppose, so I can’t wait for what lies ahead.”

Avantage, Melody Belle set for battle

While the two-year-olds add intrigue on a big day across Australia and New Zealand, it is a bumper day full of feature races on both sides of the Tasman.

At Randwick, Dame Giselle (I Am Invincible) will attempt to join top fillies Samantha Miss (Redoute's Choice) and Angst (Kala Dancer) in completing a clean sweep of the Princess Series by taking out the last leg, the Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m).

Two of Sydney's most prestigious handicaps will also take centre stage with the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) and The Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m) acting as stepping stones to the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) and the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m), while the Premiere Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) serves as something of a last-ditch effort to secure a berth in the $15 million The Everest (1200m) on October 17.

In Melbourne, the Turnbull Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) will serve its usual purpose of acting as a primary lead-up to the Caulfield Cup (Gr 1, 2400m) and the Cox Plate, while The Bart Cummings (Gr 3, 2510m) offers a golden ticket into the Melbourne Cup.

The Gilgai Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) features two confirmed Everest runners and a host of aspirants for the world's richest turf affair, while every Flemington race is essentially a trial for something bigger and better over the Melbourne Cup Carnival, beginning in four weeks.

Across at Hastings, the first Saturday in October usually marks the finale of the Hawke's Bay Triple Crown with the Livamol Classic (Gr 1, 2040m).

However, Covid-19 has pushed the calendar back, meaning that today's card instead features the second leg, the Windsor Park Plate (Gr 1, 1600m), which - despite being an open-age, open-sex event - features one of the best line-ups of mares imaginable on either side of the Tasman.

Jamie Richards' champion mares Melody Belle (Commands) and Avantage are joined by New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m) runner-up Two Illicit (Jimmy Choux) and New Zealand Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Jennifer Eccles (Rip Van Winkle), with the quartet holding the first four spots in the market.

Incredibly, today will be the first time that Melody Belle and Avantage will cross paths, which seems remarkable given their respective career trajectories: they boast 14 Group 1 wins between them, both won the Karaka 2YO Million (Listed, 1200m) in consecutive years (Melody Belle in 2017, Avantage in 2018), both have been successful in Australia and both have spent most of their career racing against stakes company.

Avantage, who won the Nobby Bussell Memorial at her first start in October, 2017, enters as the slight $3.50 favourite ahead of Melody Belle at $3.90. She was defeated as a hot favourite in the Tarzino Trophy (Gr 1, 1400m), falling short to longshot Callsign Mav (Atlante) after gate issues, but she is favoured to score another Group 1 win.

Avantage

SPORTPIX

"Avantage is going well," Richards said earlier this week. "Her lead-up form is solid. She missed the kick a bit the other day but we think we're on top of that."

Melody Belle, who was a late entry for today's feature, has her first start in New Zealand since winning the Livamol Classic on this day last year, having taken the Tarzino Trophy and the Windsor Park Plate too in a sweep of the Hawke's Bay Triple Crown.

She subsequently won the Empire Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) at Flemington and was just beaten by globetrotting Irish mare Magic Wand (Galileo) in the Mackinnon Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) a week later.

She returns to New Zealand after two below-par runs in Sydney this preparation, but owner John Galvin of Fortuna Syndications is confident that the real Melody Belle will be on show at Hastings today.

"It was a combination of things," Galvin said of the decision to take the champion mare back to New Zealand. "She'd stayed in Australia because of the Covid situation, we were worried back then in March and April that if we brought her back to New Zealand, we wouldn't be able to get her back to Australia again. So she stayed on there to prepare and then we had issues with the Melbourne situation, because we didn't know if we could get her to Melbourne."

"Add in the fact that she hadn't had much luck in her first two Sydney runs, so we just decided to bring her home. The syndicate members are just over the moon about the fact that they've got her back here in New Zealand and myself, the syndicate members and - I think - the New Zealand racing public are really looking forward to seeing her grace the racetrack again here."

The Windsor Park Plate is scheduled for 4pm local time (2pm AEST), with the Australian Group 1 action kicking off with the Flight Stakes at 2:45pm AEST.

MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Giselle bids to join Angst, Samantha Miss

Dame Giselle (I Am Invincible) will bid to achieve a feat only managed twice in history by completing the Princess Series clean sweep at Randwick today. The three-year-old filly will line up in the Flight Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) having already won the Silver Shadow Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), Furious Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and Tea Rose Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m). Only Angst (Kala Dancer) in 1993 and Samantha Miss (Redoute's Choice) in 2008 have won all four races and co-trainer Peter Snowden thinks it is vital Tommy Berry and the filly make no mistakes. "In the first half of the race she needs to do everything right," Snowden told Racing NSW. "That's relax and not get too keen. She has been pretty good, she gets a bit racey if something goes with her or she gets between horses but that shouldn't happen because she's drawn one. If they are walking and we have to lead I'm not going to restrict Tommy not to lead. Tommy knows her very well, if we get the first half right she'll look after the second half."

Martin hopes for redemption with Joviality

Star Thoroughbreds will be wishing for a change of luck on Epsom Handicap day after a couple of heartbreaking near misses two years ago, with their hopes pinned on Joviality (I Am Invincible) in the Flight Stakes. Denise Martin recalls Fiesta (I Am Invincible) being denied by a half-head in the 2018 Flight Stakes before D'Argento (So You Think) was nosed in the following Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m). "We had two Group 1 seconds and could have easily gone home with two Group 1 wins,"

Denise Martin

SPORTPIX

Martin said. "Both were just a bob of the head." Joviality earned her place in the elite field with a trio of midweek wins, but will need to step up on all known form to beat market leaders Hungry Heart (Frankel) and Dame Giselle. "She is racing so well and the form around her with the older mares is really good, a couple of them won on Wednesday," Martin said. "It's a big ask but Chris (Waller) is happy with the filly and she deserves an opportunity."

Niccanova ready to perform in Epsom

Bookmakers give Niccanova (Nicconi) little hope of winning the Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) but owner Steve Tregea thinks otherwise. Niccanova is $71 with Sportsbet for the Group 1 but Tregea believes the gelding's fifth to I Am Superman (Footstepsinthesand) in the Shannon Stakes (Gr 2, 1500m) last Saturday was a solid pointer. "His run the other day indicated he's back on track," Tregea said. "He's at a long price but he's worth running, I think. It's an open race and it just comes down to luck in-running. I wouldn't be running him if I didn't think he could perform well." Because of Covid-19 border restrictions, Tregea transferred Niccanova to Randwick trainer Craig Carmody for the duration of his spring carnival campaign. "Craig believes we've got a bounce out of him since that last run," Tregea said. "He's been riding him work and says he's come through his last run well."

Snowden: The Candy Man can

The Candy Man's (Casino Prince) co-trainer Peter Snowden believes the gelding can run well in the Epsom Handicap despite unsuitable conditions. The seven-year-old is a $46 shot with Sportsbet but has come on nicely since finishing fourth in the Cameron Handicap (Gr 3, 1500m) on his first start for the stable last month. "I thought he ran really well, he's come on nicely from that run," Snowden told Racing NSW. "We've learned more about him and he looks better. We expect a cheeky performance. I'd love a bit of wet ground but that's not going to happen. We're going to get a firm deck for sure."

Carif 'way over the odds'

Snowden thinks Carif (So You Think) is another that is flying under the radar in the Metropolitan Handicap (Gr 1, 2400m), with Sportsbet making him a $27 chance. The five-year-old finished midfield in the Kingston Town Stakes (Gr 3, 2000m) two weeks ago and is ready to produce his best run this campaign. "He's way over the odds. I reckon he's going better than he has ever gone early in the prep," Snowden told Racing NSW. "He's had two mile runs which were never going to suit him and I thought his run the other day over 2000 metres was very good. He's drawn okay to get a nice run, we're drawn close to the favourite, and he can race handier."

Shrewd move puts Moor on Aktau path

Daniel Moor pre-empted incoming Covid-19 regulations, which allowed Sydney jockeys to ride during the Melbourne spring carnival, and secured himself a Caulfield Cup ride on Aktau (Teofilo). The Mike Moroney-trained five-year-old secured his place in the Caulfield Cup by landing the Mornington Cup (Listed, 2400m) in March and is a $17 chance for the race in two weeks' time. Moor will ride the gelding in the Turnbull Stakes today, which acts as his final preparation race for the Caulfield Cup.

McNeil hopes Kings Will Dream again

Jye McNeil is hoping Kings Will Dream (Casamento) can repeat his 2019 Turnbull Stakes victory at Flemington tomorrow. That elite-level performance proved a catalyst for McNeil winning the Victorian Jockeys' Premiership and he is hoping the Chris Waller-trained gelding can bounce back from a tenth placed finish in the Makybe Diva Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) last month. "He (Kings Will Dream) performs well at the track and the trip but the obvious query is coming off an unknown run last start with everything that played out so we're hoping he can bounce back," McNeil told Racing.com. "I'm very happy with his work and the way he's been going. If there's a little bit of pace in the early stages it'll allow him to find a position and get into a rhythm and from there it's about finding the right path. It worked out perfect last year, so we'll just have to try to replicate that again."

Standout places Everest credentials on the line

Standout (Exceed And Excel) will make one final bid for The Everest (1200m) in today's Premiere Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Randwick and trainer Gerald Ryan expects him to improve from his fifth placed finish in the The Shorts (Gr 2, 1100m) two weeks ago. The four-year-old will aim to make his case for selection when taking on Everest market leaders Nature Strip (Nicconi) and Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt). The son of Exceed And Excel (Danehill) is a $14 chance with Sportsbet, who make Nature Strip the odds-on favourite.

McEvoy 'Pretty Brazen' about Rose Of Kingston runner

Co-trainer Calvin McEvoy thinks Pretty Brazen (Brazen Beau) has solid claims in the Rose Of Kingston Stakes (Gr 2, 1400m) at Flemington today. The four-year-old impressed when finishing third in the Sir Rupert Clarke Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), which followed a Group 2 victory in the Let's Elope Stakes (1400m) seven days prior. "It's a nice field but I wouldn't swap her for anyone else in the race," McEvoy told Racing.com. "She's a quality mare and her record at Flemington and at the trip speak for themselves, she's unbelievable at 1400 metres. She's been so good in her last two starts and back against the mares we think she'll be hard to beat. Her grand final is the Group 1 Empire Rose so after this we'll be training her with the plan to get out to the mile." Pretty Brazen is a $6.50 chance in a competitive edition of the Rose Of Kingston.

Creedence set for Cummings tilt

Twelve years ago, trainer Luca Cumani was just denied a Melbourne Cup win when Bauer (Halling) was edged out by Viewed (Scenic), trained by the legendary Bart Cummings. Today, Cumani's son Matt will send out Creedence (Helmet) in the race named for Cummings with a berth in the Melbourne Cup on the line. Creedence has won his last two races, open handicaps at Flemington and Moonee Valley, and steps up beyond 2040 metres for the first time in almost a year in today's The Bart Cummings (Gr 3, 2510m). "I love the horse. He's been a star for us," Cumani said. "I think the increase in distance will suit, and he's run well over it before, but this will be the first time Michael Poy can't use his claim on him. I'm trying not to think about it. If he won it would be a dream come true to get him into the Melbourne Cup. Regardless of what's at stake, this is the right race at the right time for him. He's up in grade and it's going to be a challenge but his form warrants a start in the race and he's got to be a chance."

Eagle Farm perfect for Gollan's charge

Tony Gollan believes the horses-for-courses theory applies to Seeingsbelieving (Sebring), after the gelding won at Eagle Farm over 1600 metres last week on his second start since joining Gollan's stables. "When you come to Eagle Farm you want horses that have run well there beforehand," Gollan said. "I was confident he would handle this venue because he's won at Newcastle, which is a sand profile track similar to Eagle Farm." Seeingsbelieving is stepping up from the mile to 1800 metres on Saturday which Gollan believes will be to his advantage. "I think the step up in trip is a huge plus," he said. "The horse is thriving in the stable, he looks great, and he's fit and healthy."

Imports arrive in Melbourne

The flight containing 29 high-quality international stayers who will spend their spring in Australia arrived in Melbourne overnight. The flight landed at 22.41 with the horses then due to make their way to their new home, Spendthrift Australia Park Werribee, as ANZ Bloodstock News went to print last night. The planeload, which comprises 16 horses who will return to Europe and another 13 that will stay in Australia, contained Aidan O'Brien's powerful trio of Anthony Van Dyck (Galileo), Santiago (Authorized) and Tiger Moth (Galileo). The horses will now enter a 14-day period of quarantine, which will expire in time for the Caulfield Cup on October 17.

Encouraging signs for Sir Dragonet

Sir Dragonet (Camelot) was one of the imports to arrive in Melbourne overnight and Ciaran Maher is excited for him to begin his career in Australia, with the former Aidan O'Brien-trained colt holding arguably his best chance in the Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) and Melbourne Cup. Harry Eustace, brother of co-trainer David Eustace, has been overseeing Sir Dragonet's journey and Maher has been pleased with the feedback he has received. "I was talking to Harry Eustace this morning and he's quite happy with him," Maher told Racing.com yesterday. "Obviously, he's an exciting horse going to the Cox Plate into the Melbourne Cup. Harry has had a lot of experience getting horses ready to travel. We saw over in the autumn he brought over Young Rascal (Intello) and Addeybb (Pivotal). He knows what is needed and he's pretty happy, so we are too."

Jamie Kah booked for Prince Of Arran

Jamie Kah has been booked to ride Prince Of Arran (Shirocco) in the Caulfield Cup and Melbourne Cup, Charlie Fellowes announced last night. Prince Of Arran, who finished second behind Vow And Declare in the Melbourne Cup last year, will be competing in the Flemington showpiece for the third time next month. "Delighted to announce that Jamie Kah has been booked to ride Prince Of Arran in both the Caulfield Cup and the Melbourne Cup," Fellowes tweeted. "An extremely talented jockey who has had a wonderful year. Her riding style will suit Arran perfectly. He is due to land in Melbourne any minute now!"

Nugent charged with phone breach

Apprentice Teo Nugent has been issued two charges relating to on-course mobile phone breaches. Following an investigation into an incident at Hamilton on September 14, Racing Victoria stewards issued the charges with the first concerning the possession and use of a mobile phone on course, while the second is for giving false evidence on the day. The charges are to be heard by the Victorian Racing Tribunal on a date to be fixed. On Monday at Moe, apprentice Laura Lafferty was fined $1,000 by stewards for using a mobile phone in her car during the meeting, for which she pleaded guilty.

NEW ZEALAND

Two Illicit to step up in Windsor Park Plate

The Roger James and Robert Wellwood-trained Two Illicit (Jimmy Choux) has hardly put a foot wrong in her eight starts to date, but she will face her toughest test when she contests today's star-studded Windsor Park Plate (Gr 1, 1600m) at Hastings. Runner-up in last season's New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m), Two Illicit was a brilliant first-up winner at Ellerslie over 1400 metres and James is pleased with the $6 third favourite for today's feature. "She has ticked every box since that run and I am super happy with her," James said. Sporting the colours of her breeders, Trelawney Stud, Two Illicit is rated by James as the best horse he has trained since multiple Group 1 winner Silent Achiever (O'Reilly). "She is right up there, she is yet to prove it at Group 1 level but I think it is only a matter of time. She is a very good mare, make no mistake," James said. "There is no doubt 2000 metres will suit her better, but she is too good not to go a big race tomorrow in my opinion. With Australia this spring, you never say never but I had a discussion with her owners and we have decided to give her a lighter spring. That involved the last two legs at Hastings."

Hong Kong buyers chasing Bourbon

Impressive Te Rapa winner Mega Bourbon (El Roca) is no certainty to head towards the New Zealand 2000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) next month, even though he has been installed as a $14 chance by bookmakers after making it back-to-back wins yesterday. Trainer Stephen Marsh said that Hong Kong buyers were circling trying to secure the three-year-old for a future in the Asian racing mecca. "He has been very popular. He has won his last two in good times and been very popular with Hong Kong buyers," Marsh said. "If he is not sold, he will be coming back here in three weeks for the Sarten Memorial. I never really looked at him as a miler, especially a Riccarton miler. If he can come out and do something similar in the Sarten, I might be talking to the owners and we might be looking at a late nomination (for the Guineas). I thought as an early three-year-old he would be more a 1200-metre to 1400-metre horse, but they can change."

ASIA

HK: Excellent Proposal steps up on road to Hong Kong Derby

Excellent Proposal (Exceed And Excel) has already earmarked himself as a possible candidate for next year's Hong Kong Derby (Listed, 2000m) with two smart wins over 1400 metres and the mile and tomorrow at Sha Tin the John Size-trainee is aiming to bolster his claims as he steps up to 1800 metres for the first time in the Class 2 Chek Lap Kok Handicap. "We have to try and step him up eventually - he's had two runs in a short space of time so I think he's fit enough to go up to 1800 metres and see if he's capable, but the way he travels, I think he'll probably be able to do it," Size said. Since his debut defeat last season, the gelding has handled everything tabled to him by his handler, scoring two impressive wins this season. His most recent was a dazzling three-wide-throughout romp after impressively overcoming gate 14, though this time he'll break from gate three with Brazilian ace Joao Moreira up.

INTERNATIONAL

40 for Le Havre

Le Havre

MONTFORT ET PREAUX

Normandy Bridge (2 c ex Aiglonne by Silver Hawk), who races in the silks of Australian businessman Gerry Ryan, stepped up to Group company at Saint-Cloud yesterday after just the one previous start and remained unbeaten with a three-quarter length victory in the Prix Thomas Bryon (Gr 3, 1600m) after an enterprising Theo Bachelot ride, who took the two-year-old right across to the nearside fence away from his rivals. The Stephanie Nigge-trained juvenile became the 40th individual stakes winner for his sire Le Havre (Noverre) when beating Homeryan (Sea The Stars), while the Godolphin runner Naval Crown (Dubawi), who was sent off as favourite, was a further four lengths back in third. Normandy Bridge was an €80,000 Arqana yearling from Haras du Mezeray to John Foote, who purchased the juvenile for Ryan, and is out of Group 3 scorer Aiglonne (Silver Hawk) making him a half-brother to Group 1 winner Mekhtaal (Sea The Stars) and four other stakes performers. Le Havre stands at Montfort et Preaux where his 2020 fee was €50,000 (approx. AU$82,000).

Alson back to winning ways at Saint-Cloud

Last year's Criterium International (Gr 1, 1400m) scorer Alson (Areion) returned to action with a win in the Prix Matchem (Listed, 1400m) at Saint-Cloud yesterday for Andre Fabre. The German-bred three-year-old was returning after an 82-day break, getting his head in front in the final furlong and drew clear to win by three lengths from Irish raider Real Force (Lethal Force), while Crew Dragon (Poet's Voice) was a further three and a half lengths adrift in third. Alson joined Fabre from Jean-Pierre Carvalho following his top-level victory and had since finished third in the Poule d'Essai des Poulains (Gr 1, 1600m) and unplaced in the Prix Jean Prat (Gr 1, 1400m) prior to today's victory.

22 for Sir Percy

Berkshire Rocco (3 c ex Sunny Again by Shirocco) justified favouritism when landing the Noel Murless Stakes (Listed, 1m6f) at Ascot yesterday for Andrew Balding and became the 22nd individual stakes winner for his sire Sir Percy (Mark Of Esteem). Placed in his last five starts, all in stakes company, Berkshire Rocco was last seen running a close second in the St Leger Stakes (Gr 1, 1m6.5f) at Doncaster. Making all yesterday, he stayed on gamely to prevail by a head from Albaflora (Muhaarar) with the pair a length and three-quarters clear of Without A Fight (Teofilo). Derby winner Sir Percy stands at Lanwades Stud in Newmarket where his fee for 2020 was £7,000 (approx. AU$12,500)

Second stakes for Wealth Of Love

Wealth Of Love (Dragon Pulse) snapped up a second stakes success yesterday when the juvenile took out the Premio Vittorio Riva (Listed, 1500m) at Milan. The Michelino Bebbu-trained colt got the better of the previously unbeaten Vis A Vis (Mujahid) while the pair were nine lengths clear of Cirano (Arcano) in third. The winner of the Premio Giuseppe de Montel (Listed, 1500m) in July, Wealth Of Love was a €2,500 Goffs Autumn Yearling Sale purchase by Cesare Pieraccini from Pheopotstown Stud and he has won three of his five starts to date.

Dahlia delight for Amarena

Amarena (Soldier Hollow) also got back to winning ways to collect a second stakes success in the Prix Dahlia (Listed, 2000m) at Saint-Cloud yesterday for Pascal Bary. The four-year-old won on debut last year and followed up with victory in the Prix de la Seine (Listed, 2200m) but the lightly-raced mare was down the field in the Prix Diane (Gr 1, 2100m), ran third in the Prix Gold River (Listed, 2800m) and fourth in the Prix Corrida (Gr 2, 2200m) on her only other starts. Ridden by Yutake Take, she won at her ease, beating the German raiders Pontille (Whipper) and Samasthiti (Camelot) by five lengths and three quarters of a length respectively.

Back-to-back Scaramouche's for In Front

Five-year-old In Front (Intello) collected a third Listed prize and back-to-back victories in the Prix Scaramouche (Listed, 2800m) at Saint-Cloud yesterday. The Christophe Lotoux-trained gelding saw off Mister Nino (Magician) by three quarters of a length, while Group 1 winner Holdthasigreen (Hold That Tiger) was the same distance back in third.

Third stakes for Power juvenile

Two-year-old Wakanaka (Power) added a fourth win from six starts and third Listed success when beating the colts in the Criterium Nazionale (Listed, 1200m) at Milan yesterday. Trained by Diego Dettori, the filly hacked up by five lengths, beating dual winner Sopran Vesuvio (Ivawood) while Premio Primi Passi (Gr 3, 1200m) runner-up Raifan (Gutaifan) was a further four and a half lengths back in third.

5 for Pride Of Dubai

Telepathic Glances (2 f ex Caveran by Hurricane Run) became the fifth individual stakes winner for Pride Of Dubai (Street Cry) as she remained unbeaten in two starts, winning the Premio Coolmore (Listed, 1500m) in Milan. Trained by Endo Botti, the filly beat Gartoria, a daughter of Territories (Invincible Spirit), by four lengths, with Nuit Silencieuse (Kodiak) a further four and a half lengths back in third. Pride Of Dubai stands this year at Coolmore for a fee of $38,500.

US: Breeders' Cup next for undefeated Yaupon

The Breeders' Cup Sprint (Gr 1, 6f) is a likely target for Yaupon (3 c Uncle Mo ex Modification by Vindication) after the Steve Asmussen-trained colt remained undefeated in taking the Chick Lang Stakes (Gr 3, 6f) at Pimlico on Thursday. Yaupon, who won the Amsterdam Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) at Saratoga at his last start, equalled the race record of 1:09.10 with his four-length win over Double Crown (Bourbon Courage) and now looks set to take on all-comers at Keeneland next month. "Put him on the lead and keep him on the lead, and he keeps running," rider John Velazquez said. "You've got to ride him the first part. For the first three-sixteenths of a mile, I had to ride him just to keep his head on the business. Even at the three-eighths pole I am reminding him, 'Hey, keep your mind on your business.' Then when he switched down the lane then he knew. It was 'OK, time to go.'"

Harron likely to wait to unveil Everest runner

BY ANDREW HAWKINS | @ANZ_NEWS

After a big week of movement, only two slots remain open for the world's richest race on turf, the $15 million The Everest.

Chris Waller Racing and James Harron hold the final two keys to what has quickly become one of the most anticipated events on the Australian racing calendar, but trying to figure out who they will select is far from straightforward.

Harron is keeping his cards close to his chest, as one would expect, but a comment to ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday indicates that everything remains possible. Continued on page 12>>

"This Saturday and next Saturday will be very important to us in terms of selecting a runner," Harron told ANZ Bloodstock News. "In terms of a timeline, we are hoping to have a horse selected prior to 10am on Tuesday, October 13!"

That, of course, is the time at which slot holders must nominate their runner as declarations close.

There is nothing that says a horse has to be announced before that time and, if you are among the last slot-holders, perhaps there is some benefit in holding off until the very last moment.

However, here are three key takeaways from that comment:

A big performance today could clinch Harron's slot

This goes without saying, but today's races serve as ideal auditions for the remaining slots.

The Premiere Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) is billed as the main Everest lead-up, being over the same course and distance as the feature.

With two confirmed Everest runners in Nature Strip

SPORTPIX

Nature Strip (Nicconi) and Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt) lining up here - and the top two horses in Everest betting at that - it is a good test for the level of competition expected on October 17.

If one of the other six runners wins the Premiere, it would be difficult to overlook that horse for an Everest spot. All eyes will be on those runs in behind as well.

The same goes for the Gilgai Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), where confirmed Everest starters Tofane (Ocean Park) and Santa Ana Lane (Lope De Vega) will have their final runs before the feature.

A good performance, particularly from a horse up in the weights like Zoutori (Zoustar), could see them enter the Everest fray.

Next weekend's races could still be trials

While most believed that today's Premiere Stakes and Gilgai Stakes would be the last opportunity to clinch a berth, there are a number of races next weekend that could prove a better stepping stone to The Everest off the quick back-up.

Confirmed Everest runner Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) is likely to contest the Roman Consul Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), but there he could face Heritage Stakes (Listed, 1100m) winner Wild Ruler (Snitzel) and Danehill Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) victor Doubtland (Not A Single Doubt), among others. Either one of them could put their hand up for an Everest spot, although the Coolmore Stud Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) looms as a more likely target.

On the same card is the Silver Eagle (1300m) for the four-year-olds, the primary lead-up to the $7.5 million Golden Eagle (1500m) on October 31. It will feature the likes of Alligator Blood (All Too Hard) and Dawn Passage (Dawn Approach), among others.

The likelihood that connections would disrupt a preparation aimed at the Golden Eagle by taking a detour up Everest is slim. However, it is not out of the realms of possibility.

In Melbourne, the Schillaci Stakes (Gr 2, 1100m) is the primary sprint next Saturday.

Last year, the Schillaci winner - in the end, it was eventual Everest placegetter Trekking (Street Cry) - automatically received a slot thanks to a Melbourne Racing Club one-off deal. While it looked unlikely that the Schillaci would throw up a runner this year due to Covid-19 protocols, restrictions have been relaxed and it is perhaps more likely than it was before.

Among those set to contest the Schillaci Stakes are Splintex (Snitzel), Bella Vella (Commands), Diamond Effort (Mossman), Alfa Oro (Bachelor Duke) and Bold Star (Needs Further).

Harron remains an Everest pioneer

Few have embraced the Everest concept quite like James Harron - and few have mastered the intricacies of such a different race.

Harron waited until a month out in 2017 before he secured Redzel (Snitzel) for the inaugural Everest, becoming the first slot-holder to taste success in the world's richest turf race.

He then secured Vega Magic (Lope De Vega) earlier in 2018, making his selection in late July, although he was far later than most other slot holders in selecting his runner.

Last year, Harron waited until 10 days out before announcing Nature Strip (Nicconi) would run in his slot and he has again decided to wait to announce his runner right at the death.

The guessing game creates plenty of interest and, despite pressure to secure a horse earlier, Harron has held his nerve.

In 2021, he could be the first slot-holder to select his runner or he could wait until declarations. The fact that he is unpredictable is what makes the slot concept so intriguing.

BETTING FORECAST: 4-9 Logician, 9-2 Morando, 9 Highland Chief, 10 Desert Encounter, 20 Alounak, 25 Euchen Glen, Litigator, 50 Away He Goes.

VERDICT A race that revolves around last season's leading middle-distance 3yo LOGICIAN, who did enough when brushing aside his sole, useful rival on last month's belated seasonal debut to suggest that the ability is fully intact after last winter's serious stomach condition saw this 4yo in intensive care for some time. Logician is a class apart if indeed showing that 2019 form while rain shouldn't be an issue - his brother is a Listed winner in soft. Last year's winner Morando is next best, ahead of Desert Encounter. [Mel Cullinan]

VERDICT There are some real old favourites in this interesting Group 3. Last year's winner Cape Byron has twice won here after a significant absence so he has to command considerable respect despite having been off the track since later last October. However, he will probably need to return right at the top of his game to see off THE TIN MAN (nap), twice a Group 1 winner over C&D in his pomp and who ran well enough to suggest he's still capable of winning at this level when second at Newbury in July. Snazzy Jazzy is third best. VERDICT Nazeef, last year's winner Billesdon Brook and Terebellum are closely matched having crossed the line in a heap in the Group 1 Falmouth Stakes in July, but this may be between the 3yos Changers Elysees and PEACEFUL who were first and second respectively in the Group 1 Matron Stakes last month. Changers Elysees is very much respected but Irish 1,000 Guineas winner Peaceful was having her first outing for 69 days and may have improved a bit for that run. [Ben Hutton]

VERDICT There were excuses for CURRENT OPTION when beaten at Naas last time and he had previously looked progressive in back-to-back wins in competitive seven furlong contests. Vatican City and Albigna are obvious dangers on their best form but neither look overly reliable this term. Could Be King is poorly drawn but there's no doubt he's going the right way at present and is another to consider. BETTING FORECAST: 15-8 Torquator Tasso, 7-2 Communique, Grocer Jack, 6 Dicaprio, 7 Kaspar, 20 Stex, 25 Satomi, 33 Memphis, Rip Van Lips.

VERDICT This isn't a standard year by anyone's measure, so trends and statistics may not be the greatest guide, but 3yos don't have the strongest recent record in this, which leads one to believe that this is as good an opportunity as COMMUNIQUE is going to have of securing a top-flight success. He's undoubtedly a talented sort being a dual 1m4f Group 2 winner, but it's a while since he forced his head to the front. However, his last run, which featured a few in this, suggests he's got the advantage, albeit a small one. He came home second to Barney Roy in the Grosser Preis von Baden almost three weeks ago, narrowly ahead of the exciting and unexposed Torquator Tasso, with Kaspar (seventh) and Satomi (eighth) further behind. They meet on identical terms here, and it will no doubt be close again, but the selection is known to front run, so could set fractions to suit his cause and maintain that superiority.

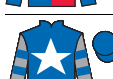

The Deutsches Derby brings all of the 3yo colts together, with the aforementioned Torquator Tasso doing best in taking second, Grocer Jack coming in third before being later disqualified from that position, Kaspar passing the post in fourth and Dicaprio passing the post in seventh. The form of that contest was given a boost when the winner In Swoop went on to finish second in the Grand Prix de Paris afterwards. Lukas Delozier's mount is still fancied to come out on top of that age group on this occasion given his room for improvement but, overall, there's not a great deal between them. [David Toft]

BETTING FORECAST: 7-4 Authentic, 5-2 Art Collector, 7 Swiss Skydiver, Thousand Words, 14 Ny Traffic, Pneumatic, 16 Max Player, Mr. Big News, 25 Excession, 33 Liveyourbeastlife, 50 Jesus' Team.

VERDICT Usually run in May as the second leg of the Triple Crown, the Preakness closes the series this time and it features Kentucky Derby winner Authentic. The Derby was a little curious this season. Authentic started slowly (not for the first time) so had to work to make the lead, yet the pace didn't collapse, with 1-2-3 at the top of the stretch being the 1-2-3 at the line. He's going to have to work to lead again and the start has to be a bit of a concern. Maybe he's just that good, but the likes of Art Collector, Swiss Skydiver, Thousand Words and NY Traffic all have speed and will be looking to establish a forward position, so the tempo should be strong. Going back to the Derby, MAX PLAYER was 11th when the field straightened up, and still only tenth with a furlong to run, but ran on for fifth. The only other horse to make up significant ground in the final 2f was Honor A. P. in going from ninth to fourth, and he'd have been all the rage had he made this race. That's not to say Max Player is quite in his class - this guy's just a one-dimensional deep closer who's reliant leaders overdoing it - but plenty of late-running types have figured in this race over the years and if the leaders go too hard Max Player can run them down. BETTING FORECAST: 7-4 Skalletti, 3 Ocean Atlantique, 5 Patrick Sansfield, 13-2 Glycon, Hurricane Dream, 15-2 Dariyma, 33 Subway Dancer, 66 Raging Storm.

VERDICT Winning machine SKALLETTI has everything in his favour as he bids to repeat last year's win in this race, with August's Deauville win in a really strong Group 3 teasing him up nicely. Ocean Atlantique looked a high-class prospect prior to his Jockey Club flop and could easily bounce back, so rates the danger ahead of Patrick Sansfield and Hurricane Dream. [Mark Brown]

BETTING FORECAST: 7-2 Manuela De Vega, 4 Pista, 5 Wonderful Tonight, 6 Ebaiyra, 8 Passion, 10 Monica Sheriff, 12 Miss Yoda, 16 Paix, Spirit Of Appin, 20 Palomba, 25 Mashael, 33 Kalifornia Queen.

VERDICT Plenty with chances here in a race that often falls to a 3yo and it looks worth sticking with the Classic generation once more. Picking between them isn't easy but the physically imposing PISTA has done nothing but improve in her short career, stays well, loves soft ground and will surely go close for her excellent trainer. Paix boasts a similar profile and looks massively overpriced, while Ebaiyra comes from a stamina-laden family and needs serious consideration also. Passion and Wonderful Tonight have the form to get involved also, while the mud-loving Monica Sheriff, ahead of Manuela De Vega, could prove pick of the older runners. [Mark Brown]

BETTING FORECAST: 5-4 The Revenant, 3 Shaman, 5 Motamarris, 9 Ancient Spirit, 10 Ziegfeld, 12 Hurricane Cloud, 16 Ellerslie Lace.

VERDICT If last year's winner The Revenant is at peak form then he'll take some stopping but it could be worth giving MOTAMARRIS one last chance in the hope that he's ridden more forward on this drop in trip. He's had some flashes of top form and will like the ground. Shaman is best of the rest. [Mark Brown]

VERDICT No obvious reason to oppose CALL THE WIND, the 2018 winner of this who has been as good as ever this term. He can regain his crown having finished runner-up in 2019. There's reason to believe Sublimis could improve for this marathon trip, so he can reverse last-time-out form with likeable filly Think Of Me, while Barbados is a place contender also. The 2020 story of Princess Zoe has been a remarkable one, but her progress will need to continue if she's to land this. [Mark Brown]
