Well-bred Gooree colt by Shalaa comes up trumps at National Yearling Sale

Agents combine to land son of Shalaa for $360,000 at competitive Gold Coast auction

Lot 1493 Shalaa - Crowned Glory colt

MAGIC MILLIONS

BY TIM ROWE | @ANZ_NEWS

The half-brother to Group 1-winning sire Hallowed Crown (Street Sense) by Arrowfield Stud's shuttler Shalaa (Invincible Spirit), the last lot to be offered in Book 1 of the Magic Millions National Yearling Sale, last night sold for $360,000 to put an exclamation mark on another show of the industry's ability to defy wider economic factors.

The supplementary entry, the highlight of the unreserved dispersal of the late Eduardo Cojuangco's bloodstock interests, was purchased by Andrew Williams Bloodstock on behalf of a client of Victorian trainer Matt Laurie who relied on the Sydney agent's evaluation of the colt before committing to purchasing him. Continued on page 2>>

Also a half-brother to the now Aquis Farm-based stallion Needs Further (Encosta De Lago) as well as Twin Hills' Hallowed Crown, the colt is the tenth living foal out of Crowned Glory (Danehill), the Group 3 winner who was narrowly beaten in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m).

Williams, bidding from the back of the Magic Millions auditorium for Laurie and fellow agent Justin Bahen, was in no doubt that the colt deserves to lead the Magic Millions National Sale honour roll.

"He's got a stallion's pedigree. He's a horse who is a half-brother to Golden Rose-Randwick Guineas horse (Hallowed Crown) who is also from the family of Zabeel and we thought he might be a three-year-old style of horse," he said.

Matt Laurie

SPORTPIX

"However, given he's a Shalaa, he has a bit of Invincible Spirit blood there as well and, first and foremost, I thought he was a ripping sort with lovely size and scope and comes from one of the great nurseries in Australia."

Williams is a fan of the Shalaas who have sold strongly at the southern hemisphere yearling sales this year.

He said: "This is the first horse (I've bought for Laurie) but because of Covid reasons he was stuck and couldn't get up here, so he relied on my fantastic videoing and pictures. Matty's over the moon.

"He's definitely an Easter style of colt, so God knows what he could have made at that level and we put him in that bracket, so it's great to secure a style of horse like him.

"He's going to go straight down to (Laurie's) and go through orientation and learn a bit more in new surroundings and go from there."

Gooree Park group of companies business manager Jeanette Tioseco believes Cojuangco would have been pleased to see such strong competition on the Gooree-bred horses at yesterday's sale.

"(Mr Cojuangco) has always made an impression... he has always emphasised the quest for excellence, so am sure he would have been very happy with that result," Tioseco said.

"The family will continue his legacy of breeding good-quality, strong horses. I must admit, I had to make sure that the horses go to good quality farms. I think he would be happy.

"The farm remains in the family and we still have a few broodmares and racehorses as well weanlings which hopefully some will be sold here (at Magic Millions) in January."

Colourful Snitzel filly joins Legend brigade

A Snitzel (Redoute's Choice) filly, the last foal out of champion South African mare National Colour (National Assembly), was also hotly contested before making $300,000 in a bittersweet moment for her breeders which brought to an end their association with a highly successful family.

On a day where buyers gravitated towards the better-credentialed new season two-year-olds in which vendors were prepared to meet the market to achieve a clearance rate of 75 per cent, there were 37 six-figure lots at an average of $53,866, it was prominent Hong Kong-based owner Bon Ho who made a splash on the Gold Coast via the phone, continuing his large-scale investment in young stock this year.

Under the banner of Legend Racing, Ho bought the two highest-priced yearlings yesterday, the session-topping Snitzel filly and a $270,000 son of Dundee (High Chaparral), who were both consigned by Arrowfield Stud.

Ho was also a big-spender at the Magic Millions in January, buying yearlings up to $650,000, and at the Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale he purchased nine horses for a total of $4.35 million including the So You Think (High Chaparral) half-brother to his star sprinter Classique Legend (Not A Single Doubt) for $1.1 million.

The Snitzel filly hails from one of the most potent South African families of recent years, being a three-quarter sister to South African Grade 1 winners Rafeef (Redoute's Choice) and Mustaaqem (Redoute's Choice).

She was catalogued as Lot 1276 by Arrowfield Stud who has nurtured the family of South Africa's 2005-06 champion older female sprinter National Colour who died in November 2018.

Arrowfield Stud bloodstock manager Jon Freyer admitted that it was a difficult decision for the breeders to part with the filly. Continued on page 6>>

"She is owned by Klawervlei Stud in South Africa who are friends and partners of ours in a number of mares and National Colour was a great race mare for them. She was a champion in South Africa and she competed really well at Group 1 level in England and she's done an amazing job at stud," Freyer told ANZ Bloodstock News.

"She's had two Group 1-winning colts who were both bought by Angus Gold for Sheikh Hamdan, and Rafeef had his first yearlings go through the sale only a few days ago (in South Africa) and everyone was super impressed with those.

"Having a filly out of that mare I think will be a great investment by Bon Ho for many years to come."

The well-credentialed Snitzel filly was entered for the Australian Easter Yearling Sale in April, but was withdrawn by Arrowfield Stud after the auction house initially moved to an online selling format due to government restrictions imposed because of the Covid-19 pandemic.

Freyer said: "(Klawervlei Stud) were quite reluctant to put her through given she's the last chance to retain some of the family but with Covid and the way things are in South Africa, they were reluctantly forced to meet the market and sell her.

"She's a grand filly with great quality and balance. She's got lovely depth to her. She'll be a star two-year-old, I think."

At the time of National Colour's death, Klawervlei Stud's John Koster paid tribute to the grey mare.

"It's very sad news for us. National Colour was a beacon of hope and excellence for Chris and Erich van Niekerk, Sean Tarry and Klawervlei," Koster said.

"We mourn her passing and we celebrate her brilliance as a racehorse and broodmare. May she gallop freely in the greenest pastures, into eternity."

The second purchase by Ho was another new season two-year-old offered by Arrowfield Stud by the farm's exciting stallion Dundee from the family of Group 1 winner Irish Lights (Fastnet Rock) and Group 2 winner Omei Sword (High Chaparral).

Also a withdrawal from the Easter auction, the colt is the second foal out of the winning Aspen Summit (Fastnet Rock) whose first foal, the three-year-old Solar Apex (Deep Impact), ran on strongly to finish third on debut at Gosford on July 25 for trainer Chris Waller. Consigned by Arrowfield Stud, he was catalogued as Lot 1402.

Ho's decision to buy at the National sale continues the strong international investment by a number of parties at the Gold Coast auction which saw Coolmore and Yulong figure at the top of the broodmare market last week.

"SHE'S A GRAND FILLY WITH GREAT QUALITY AND BALANCE. SHE'S GOT LOVELY DEPTH TO HER. SHE'LL BE A STAR TWO-YEAR-OLD, I THINK."

"Bon Ho has obviously been a great client to us this year," Magic Millions managing director Barry Bowditch said.

"He has a liking to the sale here and a liking to the product we are selling, he is buying the right type of horse at the right end of the market and we wish him the best of luck with them."

The figures achieved at the Book 1 sale once again surprised many vendors and not least Bowditch after 191 yearlings changed hands.

"We are seriously pleased with how today went, given what is going on in the world and it's the last yearling sale of the season and obviously not being able to have any internationals here on the ground or Victorians or Sydney people, it was mission impossible going into it," he said.

"So, to pull it off and the fact it statistically matches up with (the 2019 sale) and a clearance rate that is up on last year and an average that is comparable and a higher median - it is a fantastic result.

"Full credit to the agents and the Magic Millions team, who have gone out and done their work on the catalogue and called a lot of people and engaged with a lot of people who were not able to attend. You could see today they were participating on a lot of horses, which was fantastic to see.

"You've only got to look at the results, there was a huge spread of buyers, no one dominated the market. Having the drafts of Baramul and Arrowfield as the headline act and it makes a good sale to market and we are coming out with great results for our vendors."

Ho was the leading buyer while New Zealand agent Bevan Smith was also active, purchasing four horses for a total of $437,500.

Arrowfield Stud was the leading vendor, selling 15 yearlings (two-year-olds) for a total of $1.72 million.

"This is an important sale for the industry as it is the last shot to sell these horses as yearlings and for the buyers it is the last chance they have to buy horses that are eligible to compete on Magic Millions day," Bowditch said.

"But for the vendors that have stuck by us and to come out the other side with a healthy market and kudos to them for meeting the market - they have been realistic and I am pleased to have found home for a lot of these horses."

Neasham to train Baramul-bred I Am Invincible colt

Meanwhile, the training career of the Sydney-based Annabel Neasham also received a boost yesterday with the purchase of an I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) colt for $260,000.

Assistant trainer to Ciaran Maher and David Eustace, Neasham last month revealed her intention to take out her on licence and train from a 40-box barn at Warwick Farm being leased by Aquis Farm at Warwick Farm.

The bidding was handled by Aquis Farm managing director Shane McGrath who signed for the Baramul Stud-bred and sold colt who was catalogued as Lot 1330.

"We're going to give Annabel every opportunity and it's obviously an exciting phase in her career and I think any trainer in the land would be delighted to see a colt like that by I Am Invincible arrive in the yard," McGrath said.

"We'll get him back into our system, get him broken in before he goes to Annabel who has done a tremendous job over the past couple of years.

"The mare herself Serious Speed was a high-class galloper and I Am Invincible is the best stallion she's visited. He's a lovely colt, he was well found and we've had a bit of luck buying off Baramul in the past.

"We bought Kumasi at the sales here last year and he's a horse with Gerald Ryan we have high hopes for in the spring and we're all indebted to Gerry Harvey for his contribution to the racing and breeding industry, so it's lovely when you find a nice colt and you're able to purchase him."

The I Am Invincible colt is the seventh living foal out of MRC Thousand Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Serious Speed (Royal Academy), who has produced two winners.

Neasham will also train another Baramul Stud-bred and sold colt who made $150,000 yesterday after initially being passed in.

Catalogued as Lot 1410, the colt is the fourth foal out of the six-time New Zealand winner Bellapin (Pins), herself a daughter of the Listed winner and Group 1-performed Dazzling Belle (Desert Sun) and a half-sister to the Group 3 winner Magic Dancer (Rip Van Winkle).

"To get two colts like this by I Am Invincible and Snitzel coming into my stable in my first year is the dream," Neasham said.

"I am getting some good support from some great people, particularly from Aquis. But these horses will be syndicated. As a new trainer you hope to make a really strong start and I think you are Continued on page 10>>

"I have worked with a lot of Snitzels and Vinnies and there is a reason why they are doing so well, they have got great temperaments and they are very trainable and you can't really go wrong buying them, particularly if they are out of good mares, like these both are."

Schweida takes shine to son of Shalaa

Successful Brisbane trainer Kelly Schweida was happy to take heed of the advice from leading breakers about the prospects of Shalaa by securing a colt by the shuttler on day one of the National Yearling Sale for $240,000.

"I tried to buy some in January and they were too dear. There's been good raps from the breakers about them and he is a nice horse," said Schweida who bought four lots yesterday.

"The owner who bought him will take him along slowly and we will see how he goes."

Offered by Valiant Stud on behalf of Fitzwood Pty Ltd, he is a half-sister to two winners and the fourth foal out of Lonoree (Lonhro), a half-sister to Listed winner Fleet (Dehere) and Negotiate (Red Ransom), herself the dam of Group 1-winning sprinter Secret Agenda (Not A Single Doubt).

Also yesterday, a colt by Medaglia d'Oro (El Prado), the sire of this year's Hong Kong Derby (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Golden Sixty, will head to the Asian racing hub after being secured for $230,000 early in the session. The colt was bought by Cheung Shun Ching.

Consigned by KBL Thoroughbreds as Lot 1220, the colt is the third foal

MORNING BRIEFING

Victorian racing given green light

Despite Victoria going into stage four lockdown restrictions, racing in the state has been given the green light by the government to continue under stricter biosecurity protocols. "It continues because it's a very low risk activity," Victorian premier Daniel Andrews said. "There are changes though, there will be no owners, there will be no media, there will be only broadcasters and direct participants involved in that activity. There are some significant animal welfare issues if you were to try to turn that industry off. It's a compromise, I am sure some in that industry won't be pleased it has been scaled back further, but we think we have struck the right balance there."

Melody set for Missile

Melody Belle

RACE IMAGES

Star New Zealand mare Melody Belle (Commands) will make her return to the races in Saturday's Missile Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Rosehill. The nine-time Group 1 winner is the highest-rated runner in the field but Jamie Richards believes she is not yet at her peak fitness. "I think she's going to run a nice race but as she's gotten older, she's tended to need a run so we want her to run well and come through to make sure we're ready to do our very best in the Winx Stakes second-up," Richards told Racing.com. "She appears to be in good shape. I was pleased with her trial the other day and the exhibition gallop she had a couple of weeks before that, so I believe she's forward enough to run a nice race."

Snowdens' new-season 3YOs set to strike

Peter and Paul Snowden are set to unveil the first of their new-season three-year-olds when stakes racing kicks off for the term at Rosehill on the weekend. The Snowdens have nominated Blue Diamond Prelude (Gr 3, 1100m) runner-up Rulership (I Am Invincible) and Rule Of Law (Snitzel) for Saturday's The Rosebud (Listed, 1100m), the first three-year-old stakes race of the Sydney season. The stable is also set to have a hand in the Missile Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) with Hightail (Written Tycoon) and Ramornie Handicap (Listed, 1200m) winner Signore Fox (Exceed And Excel) among the 16 entries. The pair also hold entries for the Aurie's Star Handicap (Gr 3, 1200m) at Flemington on Saturday.

Tagaloa wins Cranbourne jump-out

Reigning Blue Diamond Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Tagaloa (Lord Kanaloa) had his first major hit-out as he prepares for the spring yesterday, winning an 800-metre jump-out at Cranbourne. The Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young-trained three-year-old was quickly away from an inside barrier and led the field from point to post under a hard hold from Blue Diamond-winning jockey Michael Walker. Young indicated that Tagaloa would kick-off his campaign in the McNeil Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Caulfield on August 29 and the stable will later decide whether he then heads to the Golden Rose Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) in Sydney or the Caulfield Guineas Prelude (Gr 2, 1400m) before his main target in the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m).

Rosehill hit-out for Nature Strip

Chris Waller's star sprinter Nature Strip (Nicconi) is set for his first public appearance ahead of the spring in a 900-metre trial at Rosehill this morning. Also set to step out from the Waller camp are spring Group 1 contenders Funstar (Adelaide), Verry Elleegant (Zed), Finche (Frankel) and Toffee Tongue (Tavistock) among others. Farnan on track for spring assignments

Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Farnan (Not A Single Doubt) is on track for his spring assignments. Aquis Farm managing director Shane McGrath said the now three-year-old is about a week away from trialling and detailed what his spring program looks like. "He'll probably go first-up in the Run To The Rose, and that's Hugh Bowman's first day back after suspension, and then his options open up," McGrath told Racing.com. "After his first-up run in the Run To The Rose, we'll have a look at races like the Golden Rose (1400m), The Everest (1200m) or later for the Coolmore (Stud Stakes, 1200m). There are so many options with those good horses. Hugh is adamant that he'll get seven furlongs (1400m) and Gai (Waterhouse) and Adrian (Bott) feel the same. The way he ran through the line in the Slipper, you'd think seven furlongs is no problem."

Moody eyeing spring assault

Peter Moody might have only been back among the training ranks for a short period of time, but he has managed to add some Group class horses to his team including Makybe Diva Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Gattling (Hard Spun), multiple Perth Group placegetter The Velvet King (Universal Ruler) and Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) runner-up Glenfiddich (Fastnet Rock). "The plan is, all being well, him (Gattling) and The Velvet King, (to) probably run in the Memsie (Stakes) and that will dictate their form from there," Moody told Racing.com. "They will run around in feature races because they're 110-raters." On Glenfiddich, Moody said: "He's a lovely horse, a great type of horse. He seems to be coming up nicely. We will give him his chance to build on that last-start Group 1 if his ability suggests to us that he warrants it."

Corstens gives spring update

A tilt at the Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) could be on the cards for the twice-raced Ranting (Zoustar) after he pleased connections with a trial success at Flemington on Friday. The colt finished third in the Breeders Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) back in April and co-trainer Troy Corstens said: "He was excellent, he did a fantastic job, he won his trial quite nicely and he's ready to kick off in a maiden at Sale or Geelong. A Caulfield Guineas might be up his alley, it will be nice to try and find out over the next two months." Spring targets are also on the horizon for stablemate Swats That (Shamus Award) following her trial success. "She was excellent, she won her trial nicely with her head on her chest," Corstens continued. "They didn't run time, but the way she did it was quite good, so it looks quite promising for her and she'll trial again in two weeks. She's a filly that we'll see go deep into the Spring."

First foal for U S Navy Flag

Riversdale Farm in the Hunter Valley welcomed the first southern hemisphere foal by three-time Group 1 winner U S Navy Flag (War Front) yesterday morning, a colt out of Parmalove (Snitzel). The Valachi Downs shuttle stallion, who won the Middle Park

Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) and the Dewhurst Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) as a two-year-old before adding the July Cup (Gr 1, 6f) against the older horses at three, served 150 mares in his first season in New Zealand in 2019. "The U S Navy Flag - Parmalove foal born around 2.30am this morning is a very nice foal," Riversdale owner Nick Hodges said. "He has good bone and size. He was straight up and on the suck quickly, which is what we like to see. We look forward to seeing how he develops."

Second Darwin Cup to Ihtsahymn

Hardy veteran Ihtsahymn (Ihtiram) made it two Darwin Cups (2050m) in consecutive years after taking the Top End's feature once more yesterday. The ten-year-old, trained by Rob Gulberti, took victory by a half-length over Paghman (Ilovethiscity), with Ash Grey (Wanted) the same margin away in third. Seven years after winning the Kingston Town Classic (Gr 1, 1800m) at Ascot as a three-year-old, Ihtsahymn has become noted for his longevity and his toughness. "He's such a star, the horse," Gulberti told Sky Racing. "We were really struggling to get him sound. We went to the Metric Mile and got through and we've been working on him since then - icing his feet and doing everything we need to do. He just lifted off the canvas and won today. He's just an amazing animal and he's put himself into the history books."

Maiden win for Shotmaker

Shotmaker (Shooting To Win), runner-up in the 2018 Blue Diamond Prelude (Gr 3, 1100m), finally broke through for his first win when scoring over 1100 metres at Wodonga yesterday. The now gelding had not been seen at the races since a failed Caulfield Guineas campaign last spring, but his dominant two and three-quarter length victory will now see him take on metropolitan grade. "There's no real expectation, but he's definitely a horse that will go to town now," co-trainer Michael Kent Jnr told Racing.com. "He's got that kind of ability and class. We won't be setting sight too high just yet. The main thing was to get the maiden out of the way today."

Tabcorp hit by coronavirus

Tabcorp yesterday revealed the impact of the Covid-19 pandemic on its business with the betting company predicting its net profit for the financial year to tumble by more than 30 per cent to a figure of between $267 million and $273 million. "Covid-19 has materially impacted our wagering and media and gaming services businesses," Tabcorp's managing director and CEO, David Attenborough, said in a statement. "We are facing into a challenging and uncertain environment, and the current operating conditions and those expected into the future are relevant factors in assessing the value of the goodwill in those businesses at this time."

Sargent fined, Wagga Cup winner disqualified

Trainer John Sargent was yesterday fined $6,000 and House of Cartier (Alamosa) disqualified from her win in the Wagga Cup (Listed, 2000m) after a post-race sample from the mare was found to contain a prohibited substance. Racing NSW handed out the punishments after a urine sample taken following the race at Wagga Wagga on May 1 showed the presence of the muscle relaxant 4-hydroxy xylazine. The inquiry was unable to establish the reasons for the detection of the substance and Sargent pleaded not guilty to the charge. He was however found guilty by stewards of a breach of rule AR240(1) which resulted in Maurus (Medicean) being declared the new winner, with Master Of Arts (Mastercraftsman) and High Opinion (Lord Jim) filling the minor placings.

Baker and Schofield penalised for Covid breaches

Bjorn Baker and Glyn Schofield were both hit with fines yesterday after posing for a post-race selfie which breached Racing NSW's Covid-related social distancing rules. Baker was fined $4,000 and Schofield $2,000 after the winning combination posed for a photo for the trainer's Twitter account with their arms around each other's shoulders following the win by Off Shaw (Tobique) in the final race at Randwick on Saturday.

NEW ZEALAND

Book full for Ocean Park

Waikato Stud's Dewar Award winner Ocean Park (Thorn Park) has the full house sign up with no further bookings available for the 2012 Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) conqueror. Ocean Park is coming off his best season to date, winning the Dewar Award for champion New Zealand-based sire on total progeny earnings in New Zealand and Australia combined. He was represented by Group 1 winners Tofane, who took the All Aged Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m), and Kolding, whose Epsom Handicap (Gr 1, 1600m) victory was eclipsed by his triumph in the inaugural Golden Eagle (1500m). Ocean Park also has Oceanex guaranteed a berth in the Melbourne Cup through her win in the Andrew Ramsden Stakes (Listed, 2800m) earlier this year. Ocean Park had been available for NZ$20,000 (plus GST), having served 153 mares in 2019.

Vale Emma Evans

Emma Evans didn't get the send-off her long-time trainer Wayne Hillis had hoped to provide for her at Matamata on Saturday, but she will be long remembered for her involvement in the racing industry as a passionate owner and breeder. Evans' Group 2 winner Watch This Space (Elusive City), who finished eighth on Saturday, is one of the many horses she has raced, tracing back to the family from which she has been breeding from for 35 years. It all began for Evans with Watch This Space's third dam, May Be Great (Crested Wave), whom she inherited from her aunt, May Wilson, when she died in 1985. Watch This Space's second dam Label Basher (Conquistarose) was named Broodmare of the Year in 2008-09, primarily for the exploits of Group 1 winner Deigna (Volksraad) - who gave Evans her most memorable day when taking out the 2008 Captain Cook Stakes (Gr 1, 1600m) - as well as the Group 1-placed Izonit (Volksraad).

Sir Charles Road eyes Sydney features

Group 1-performed stayer Sir Charles Road was back in action at the Te Rapa trials last week, where he finished sixth in a 900-metre heat under a quiet ride. The seven-year-old gelding has performed well in Sydney previously and finished third in both The Metropolitan (Gr 1, 2400m) and the ATC St Leger (2600m) and a similar program will be followed this term. "He'll head back to Sydney and target the same sort of races as last season, hopefully the Metropolitan," co-trainer Lance O'Sullivan said. "He looks great and he is coming up really well. He did a fair bit of pre-training at David Archer's (owner) place and we're happy with him."

Dragon Leap potentially a miler with Hong Kong on the radar

Talented four-year-old Dragon Leap (Pierro) will step out at the Rotorua trials on Thursday and last season's winner of both the Avondale Guineas (Gr 2, 2100m) and Auckland Guineas (Gr 2, 1600m) is likely to be aimed at races like the Epsom Handicap and the Golden Eagle this preparation, after having his stamina reserves tested when fourth in the New Zealand Derby (Gr 1, 2400m). "He is going to trial on Thursday and he will just jog around and finish in the second half of the field," co-trainer Lance O'Sullivan said. "He is developing but he has still got a wee way to grow believe it or not. He is still bum high but he is doing well. The owners want to qualify him for Hong Kong under the replacement permit of 85 and despite winning the two Guineas races he hasn't met that rating. We have got him for his spring racing and then after that we will reassess. They are terrific owners to work for and they don't put any pressure on us and they let us decide the program. They are very easy to train for."

Auckland Racing Club announces season's stakes

The Auckland Racing Club (ARC) has announced that it will be increasing stakes above minimum levels for this season by contributing close to $1 million of its own money. "It gives the Club great satisfaction to be able to offer stakes top-ups for this season," ARC chief executive Paul Wilcox said. "First and foremost, we are a racing club and everything we do is with an eye on maximising our returns to stakeholders. While we have topped-up stakes to around this level for the past three seasons, I am thrilled that we have been able to achieve this again for the 2020-21 season, particularly after the difficulties the last few months have posed for us all. I seriously cannot wait to get this new season off and racing at Ellerslie and am delighted that our club has been able to once again make this commitment to industry participants."

Eight for Territories

Rhoscolyn

RACING POST

Darley shuttler Territories (Invincible Spirit) sired his eighth individual first-crop winner when Rhoscolyn (2 c ex Zeyran by Galileo) built on his earlier promise to make all for a comfortable two and three-quarter length win in a novice contest of seven furlongs at Haydock yesterday. Group 1 winner Territories stands at Darley's Kelvinside property in the Hunter Valley for a fee of $11,000 (inc GST) in 2020.

Eight for Sir Prancealot

Cornerstone Stud shuttler Sir Prancealot (Tamayuz) sired his eighth individual stakes winner when Miss Amulet (2 f ex Sheena's Dream by Oasis Dream) ran on to land the Marwell Stakes (Listed, 5f) at Naas yesterday. The Ken Condon-trained filly overcame trouble in running to post a second win in five starts as she got the better of favourite Frenetic (Kodiak) by a cosy three-quarters of a length. Measure Of Magic (Kodi Bear) was a further length and a quarter away in third. Miss Amulet is the fourth foal out of the winning Oasis Dream (Green Desert) mare Sheena's Dream, who herself is out of a half-sister to Arlington Million (Gr 1, 10f) winner Mill Native (Executive Native). Grade 1 winning sire Sir Prancealot will stand at Cornerstone in South Australia for a reduced fee of $9,900 (inc GST) in 2020.

Two for New Year's Day

Former Hill 'n' Dale Farm resident New Year's Day (Street Cry) sired his second Grade 1 winner when Fighting Mad (4 f ex Smokey's Love by Forestry) took out Sunday's Clement L Hirsch Stakes (Gr 1, 8.5f) at Del Mar. The Bob Baffert-trained filly defeated Ollie's Candy (Candy Ride) by half a length with Ce Ce (Elusive Quality) a further four and three-quarter lengths back in third. New Year's Day, whose only other top-flight winner is Maximum Security, stood at Shadai Stallion Station for a fee of ¥3,000,000 (approx AUD$39,800) in 2020.

Melbourne Cup the aim for Get Shirty

French trainer Christophe Ferland in considering a trip to Australia and a tilt at the Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) with Get Shirty (Teofilo) after the four-year-old landed his first stakes win when taking out the Prix du Carrousel (Listed, 3000m) at Deauville on Saturday. The gelding has flourished since stepping up in trip, with two victories sandwiching a third at Group

2 level behind leading Cup contender San Huberto (Speightstown). "He is a lovely horse - he's proved, over a long distance, he's really good," Ferland told At The Races. "We'll discuss with Christophe (Soumillon, jockey) if he can go further - but my idea, if Covid-19 lets us travel, he's a horse I'd like to send to Australia for the Melbourne Cup."

Tattersalls release catalogue for August Sale

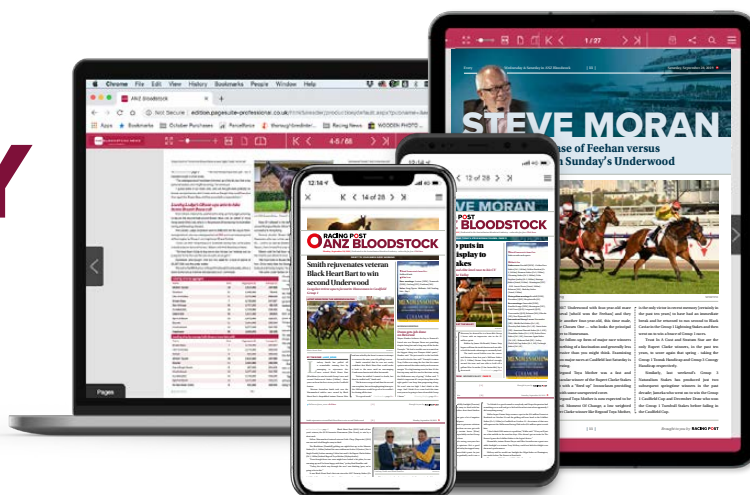

Richard Hannon and Cheveley Park Stud's Threat (Footstepsinthesand) headlines the 774 lots listed for the inaugural Tattersalls August Sale. The dual Group 2 winner is among those going through the ring between August 24 and 26 in a sale which features 541 colts and geldings in/out of training, 214 fillies in/out of training and 19 broodmares. Very similar in format to July Sale, the new Tattersalls August Sale has been introduced in response to Covid-19 related circumstances which both vendors and purchasers have encountered, and has attracted significant consignments from the likes of Ballydoyle Stables, Godolphin and Juddmonte Farms.

Auction houses announce new steroid policy

Tattersalls and Goffs are to introduce new restrictions relating to the use of corticosteroids and bronchodilators, including Clenbuterol, for all yearlings, and horses in and out of training including Breeze Up two year olds, sold at sales conducted by the two sales houses. The new restrictions will be introduced with effect from the start of the UK and Irish yearling sales season beginning on September 1. The new conditions of sale will allow buyers to have post-sale testing for corticosteroids and bronchodilators, with a positive test for undeclared use of corticosteroids, or any trace of bronchodilators resulting in the subject horse being returnable to the vendor at the option of the purchaser. The new conditions are in addition to long standing restrictions on the use of anabolic steroids and non-steroidal anti-inflammatories, as well as the ban on the use of Bisphosphonates introduced in 2019.

Remarkable five-timer and another milestone for Walker

BY MICHAEL LEE | SPG TURF CLUB

The first four races taken out in quick succession by the same owner and trainer combination would be unheard of at Kranji, but to have the first two ringing up the trainer's 600-win milestone makes the feat even more remarkable.

Pun fully intended, Mark Walker, the trainer in question, was helped towards that new landmark by the Remarkable Stable, who race the winning quartet What You Like (Savabeel), I Am Sacred (I Am Invincible), Sacred Don (Fastnet Rock) and Savvy Command (Savabeel).

The rampant combination went on to make it an amazing fifth win on the board four races later with the aptly-named $21 favourite Amazing Choice (Shocking) in the $30,000 Class 5 Division 2 race over 1200 metres.

The exploit may have not have felt as momentous as Walker's 500th Singapore winner in November, 2018 when he landed his first Singapore Gold Cup (Listed, 2000m) win with Elite Invincible (Archarcharch), but the Kiwi trainer was just as proud, especially after the middle pin I Am Sacred brought up the next century on Sunday.

"It's a great result, but what you really need to get where we are now is good staff behind you and nobody's better than (assistant trainer) Gus Clutterbuck," said Walker, who won his third Singapore champion trainer title last year.

"The Remarkable Stable is made up of New Zealand friends. I set it up early when I came to Singapore and my children Xavier and Alexis even designed the black and white checked colours.

"They never really got used until the Remarkable Stable came back into play when I leased the Raffles Racing Stable horses to them."

Longshot What You Like (formerly known as Atlantic Fox) was the first to begin the Walker-Remarkable onslaught when he sprang a $119 surprise in the opener, the $30,000 Class 5 Division 1 race over 1200 metres. The seven-

What You Like

year-old was finally opening his Singapore account at his 22nd start after coming up as a two-time winner in Australia.

With What You Like full of running and nowhere to go at the 200 metres, Walker's apprentice jockey Ng Choon Kiat had to duck his mount sharply to the inside fence for his run, railing through to cruelly deny trainer Saimee Jumaat of a first 2020 win by defeating Stardice (O'Reilly) by a neck, with From The Navy (Hinchinbrook) third another half-length away. The winning time was 1min 12.6secs for the 1200 metres on the Polytrack.

"This horse is a bit of an enigma. Maybe the break after his bleeding has done him a world of good, but he's not a horse you would play cards with," said Walker.

On 599 wins, Walker had three cards to hit

I Am Sacred

the target in the next race, the $75,000 Restricted Maiden race over 1200 metres on turf – all three debutants, and it was again the chessboard silks of Remarkable Stable who checkmated through $17 shot I Am Sacred.

Sent straight to the lead by Juan Paul van der Merwe from his low draw, the four-year-old had the favourite Commodore (Per Incanto) and stablemate Entertainer (Zoustar) for company for most of the way, before detaching himself in the home straight to go and beat Commodore by three and a quarter lengths, with Entertainer third, another length away. The winning time was 1min 10.62secs for the 1200 metres.

"The inside gate helps a lot if you're a horse who goes on the speed and you're on the Short Course A," said Walker.

"He's a horse who had good form in Sydney (Newcastle) with a second and third and has done well since he came to us.

"I was worried with his barrier manners, but he was very good. It was Speedy Missile who reared up and proved difficult, he was at the rear, but he ran on late (seventh), and Entertainer ran well, too."

Then came the two unexpected cherries on the top, Sacred Don ($51) in the $50,000 Class 4 Division 1 race over 1200 metres on Polytrack and another newcomer Savvy Command ($39) in the $75,000 Restricted Maiden Division 2 race over 1200 metres.

Both had to contend with plenty of pressure as they went vying for the lead, especially Sacred Don who had to work overtime from his wide alley, but to their credit, they defied all the odds to finish at the thicker end of the prize-money.

Instead of wilting, as he would have been entitled to after his torrid run out wide, Sacred Don shot clear once he straightened up, was pegged back late, but the six-year-old hung in there for his fourth career win by a neck from Street Party (Congrats), with Quadcopter (Zoustar) third another half-length away. Sacred Don ran the 1200m on Polytrack in 1min 11.84secs.

Sacred Don

As for Savvy Command, ridden by Benny Woodworth, he was up against well-trying opponents like favourite Maceo (Showcasing) and Lee Freedman's newcomer, the colourfully-named The Mareeba Mango (Snitzel), but the four-year-old absorbed the pressure from the two throughout the race before raising another gallop at the 200 metres to hold The Mareeba Mango at bay by a length and a quarter, with former Malaysian galloper Alfares (Sacred Falls) rushing home late for third place, another length away.

"Sacred Don was really well-ridden. He was rated to perfection," said Walker.

"Savvy Command has had quiet trials. He has qualities, we knew he could gallop, but he is highly-strung.

"It was a clever ride by Benny. It looked like he had nothing left, but he had actually just nursed and nursed the horse.

Savvy Command

STC

"The other two horses went a lot earlier and he was headed, but he had a bit up his sleeve."

From sitting one behind leading trainer Michael Clements going into Sunday's meeting, Walker reclaimed a place he is familiar with by going three clear at the top on 28 winners thanks to his 'Remarkable' four-from-four at the top of the programme.

Clements got one back with So Hi Class (Dark Angel) winning the fifth race, the $50,000 Class 4 race over the mile, but Walker brought the lead back to three winners with Amazing Choice.

Bargain buy a real 'Pearl'

BY HARRY TROY | @RACINGMACAU

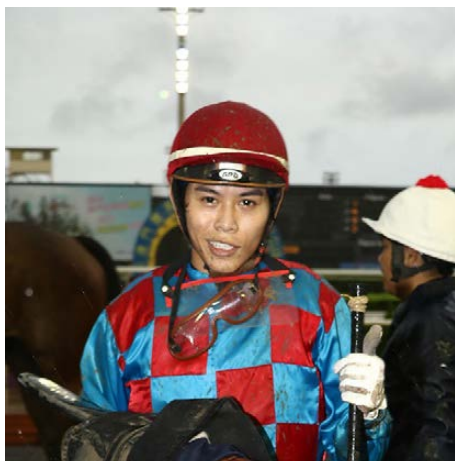

Bargain buy Pearl Green (Fastnet Rock) made it win number 13 in Macau with a convincing victory under apprentice Eric Cheung in Sunday's Class 1 & 2 Handicap over 1500 metres, taking his prize-money to over HKD$5.8 million (approx A$1.05 million).

Given a perfect ride in the very testing heavy conditions by the five-pound claimer Cheung, Pearl Green was always in a handy spot in the run before being pumped by Cheung at the top of the straight. The good-looking seven-year-old soon after hit the front to race away for another fine win.

Pearl Green has been a real bargain buy for his owner, long-time Macau Jockey Club (MJC) supporter Chan Ming Wing, who purchased the gelding on the advice of trainer K H Leong.

Leong was given a video of Pearl Green's two barrier trials as a colt at Randwick - which, on the surface, did not look flash, finishing seventh of nine and eighth of nine in two two-year-old maiden trials at Randwick.

However, in his first trial, he was only five lengths away from Capitalist (Written Tycoon), who within a couple of months had won the 2015 Breeders Plate (Listed, 1000m) and then followed up with the 2016 Magic Millions 2YO

Eric Cheung

MJC

Pearl Green

MJC

Classic (RL, 1200m) and the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) of that year.

By this time the horse - known in Australia as Meadow Lane and who was originally an A$460,000 purchase at the 2015 Magic Millions Gold Coast Yearling Sale - had been gelded and was on the market. K H Leong liked him as a type and picked up the bay for A$50,000, a far cry from his original purchase price.

Right from day one in Macau, Pearl Green showed talent, placing in two of his first three starts before going on to win five races straight. In one of those wins, he clipped heels at the top of the straight with Brazilian rider Ruan Maia lucky to stay in the saddle. Maia picked the gelding up and in a miraculous bit of horsemanship weaved a passage between runners to race away for a three-length victory.

The following season, the Derby Trial (Listed, 1500m), the Macau Guineas (Listed, 1500m) and the Macau Derby (Listed, 1800m) - Macau's Triple Crown - all fell to Pearl Green, who was then being partnered by another Brazilian in Manoel Nunes. His Derby win had all the hallmarks of a top-class racehorse after he struck bad interference in a rough run affair, before taking off deep under Nunes to avoid the traffic and pinch a winning break to win by a neck from Royal Garden (Remind).

K H Leong

Pearl Green's record now stands at 13 wins and 18 placings from 38 starts with 37 of those in Macau, only finishing out of a place on six occasions at Taipa and once when fourth in the Hong Kong Macau Trophy (1400m) at Sha Tin. He is the perfect racehorse that handles sand and turf and both good and heavy tracks; in fact, his wet track record reads four wins and six placings from 10 starts, never out of a top three spot.

As the gelding enters his seventh year, it's not over yet with plenty more to come evidenced by Sunday's win.

Pearl Green has not been the only bargain buy by KH Leong for Chan Ming Wing. In 2010 Leong paid A$50,000 for a Darley castoff that had won a maiden at Mornington in six runs in Victoria. Originally a A$700,000 purchase by Sheikh Mohammed at the 2008 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, the horse - named Gauteng (More Than Ready) - went on to win 18 races in Macau. He was successful at his Macau swansong as a 12-year-old, he placed on 42 occasions and he picked up close to HKD$5 million in prize-money.

The win on Pearl Green gave apprentice Eric Cheung his 16th victory for the season after returning late from injury. Cheung was a late starter in the business, beginning as a trainee apprentice with the Hong Kong Jockey Club's Apprentice School in 2006, alongside the likes of Hong Kong riders Matthew Chadwick, Vincent Ho and Alvin Ng.

Once he completed his time, he was unfortunately not able to secure an apprenticeship there; after five years as a track rider in Hong Kong, Cheung still harboured a burning desire to become a jockey.

He travelled to Australia and after a spell with Toby Edmonds at the Gold Coast and a short stint at Warwick Farm, both as a work rider, he landed an apprenticeship with Gordon Yorke at Gosford.

Cheung got off to a dream start, winning on his first race ride when Radiologist (Nuclear Freeze) scored at Coffs Harbour in June, 2016. After 100 rides in NSW and 17 winners he encountered visa problems in Australia and returned home to his family in Hong Kong.

Numberone Mingxuan

After a year away from racing, Cheung was enticed back into the game by former Champion jockey and trainer Stanley Chin and he joined the stable as an apprentice in 2018.

With time off through injury, Cheung has only really had a little over two years of race riding experience, however he rides with a maturity beyond his years. He is quite tall for a jockey at 170 centimetres, but is reed-thin going to scale at 110 pounds.

Due to his age of 29, Cheung has been granted a freelance jockey license for next season, but will still ride out his claim. This makes him good value as he still has a five pound-allowance until he reaches 75 winners; his tally at present is 63 wins overall.

Comeback rider Peter Lao is earning the tag as the longshot king after booting home another long-priced winner on Sunday.

Lao was seen to advantage on the $319 pop Numberone Mingxuan (Bullbars) in the Class 4 over 1500 metres for trainer Sio Cheong. To make it even more remarkable, Numberone Mingxuan is Macau's smallest horse at 864 pounds, yet had no trouble romping home through the testing wet conditions.

The week prior, Lao kicked home Military Star (Dragon Pulse) at odds of $1294 for the win for trainer Tony Fung in the Class 4 over 1350 metres on the sand. Even his first winner back, Infinite Treasure (Captain Rio), paid a whopping $745 dollars for the win.

Nowadays, Lao's rides are not the heavily-bet favorites that were commonplace for him to ride in his heyday back in the late 1990s and early 2000s, as a two-time Champion apprentice and one of Macau top riders.

He even rode successfully in Singapore for Charles Leck for a number of years, winning a Queen Elizabeth II Cup (Listed, 2000m) and a Raffles Cup (Listed, 1600m) on Emerald Isles (Shaadi) and a Kranji Mile (1600m) aboard Pacific Prince (Sky Filou).

The high-end rides may not be coming Lao's way at the moment, but of late he is looking as good as ever and, as evidenced by his recent performances, he is riding with all the flair of the old days.

Belardo - Titan Rock (2 c ex Frabjous by Pivotal) provided New Zealand shuttler Belardo (Lope De Vega) with his sixth winner when taking out the EBF Maiden Stakes (7f) at Goodwood on Saturday for trainer John Quinn and jockey Daniel Tudhope. The winner is a half-brother to Listed winner Argentero (Zoffany) and his dam, the Pivotal mare Frabjous, is a half-sister to French Group 1 winner May Ball (Cadeaux Genereux). Belardo stands at Haunui Farm in New Zealand for NZ$10,000 (plus GST) this season.

Complacent - Mapperley Stud's Complacent (Authorized) recorded the perfect start to his stallion career when his first ever runner, Calm Seeker (2 c ex Attention Seeker by Fast 'n' Famous), won on debut at Ipswich on Friday. Complacent, winner of the Spring Champion Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m) on the track, will stand at Mapperley Stud for NZ$4,000 (plus GST) in 2020.

New Group / Grade 1 winners

Giant's Causeway - The late Giant's Causeway (Storm Cat) brought up a remarkable 35th Group or Grade 1 winner when Vexatious (6 m ex Dream Of Summer by Siberian Summer) caused an upset in the Personal Ensign Stakes

Belardo

NEWGATE FARM

(Gr 1, 9f) at Saratoga on Saturday. Giant's Causeway, the 2000 European Horse of the Year, died at Ashford Stud in Kentucky in 2018.

New Year's Day - Former Hill 'n' Dale Farm resident New Year's Day (Street Cry) sired his second Grade 1 winner on Sunday when Fighting Mad (4 f ex Smokey's Love by Forestry) took out the Clement L Hirsch Stakes (Gr 1, 9f) at Del Mar. New Year's Day, whose only other top-flight winner is Maximum Security, stood at Shadai Stallion Station for a fee of ¥3,000,000 (approx AUD$39,800) in 2020.

Sea The Stars - Sea The Stars (Cape Cross) made it 14 Group 1 wins as a sire on Sunday when the powerful combination of John Gosden and Frankie Dettori teamed up to win the Preis der Diana (German Oaks) (Gr 1, 2200m) with Miss Yoda (3 f ex Monami by Sholakhov). Miss Yoda was a €280,000 purchase from the 2018 Baden Baden Yearling Sales; her dam Monami (Sholakhov) won a German Group 2. Sea The Stars stood at Gilltown Stud in Ireland for €150,000 (approx AUD$247,500) in 2020.

Showcasing - Mohaather (4 c ex Roodeye by Inchinor) became the third Group 1 winner for former Haunui Farm shuttler Showcasing (Oasis Dream) when landing the Sussex Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) at Goodwood on Wednesday. Showcasing, who shuttled to Haunui Farm until 2017, stood the latest season at Whitsbury Manor Stud at a £55,000 (approx AUD$100,000) fee, and was bred by Gaie Johnson Houghton out of Roodeye (Inchinor), who is also the granddam of the 2018 Queen Anne Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) scorer Accidental Agent (Delegator).

Speightstown - Speightstown (Gone West) brought up his 18th individual Grade 1 winner on Saturday when Echo Town (3 c ex Letgomyecho by Menifee) scored a first stakes win in the H Allen Jerkens Stakes (Gr 1, 7f) at Saratoga. The ever-reliable Speightstown stood at WinStar Farm in Kentucky for US$70,000 (approx AUD$98,500) in 2020.

Twirling Candy - Promising youngster Collusion Illusion (3 c ex Natalie Grace by First Dude) made it five wins from six starts when he defeated the older sprinters to take the Bing Crosby Stakes (Gr 1, 6f) at Del Mar, making it four Grade 1 winners for Twirling Candy (Candy Ride). Twirling Candy stood at Lane's End Farms for $40,000 in 2020.

New stakes winners

Bated Breath - Juddmonte's Bated Breath (Dansili) added a 15th stakes winner on Sunday when Cairn Gorm (2 c ex In Your Time by Dalakhani) retained his unbeaten record in taking the Prix de Cabourg (Gr 3, 1200m) at Deauville in France. Bated Breath stands at Juddmonte Farms in Great Britain for £12,500 (approx AUD$23,000).

Clodovil - Steel Bull (2 c ex Macarthurs Park by Equiano) became the 24th stakes winner for Rathasker Stud stallion Clodovil (Danehill) when landing a blistering renewal of the Molecomb Stakes (Gr 3, 5f) at Goodwood on Wednesday. Clodovil stood the latest season - his 17th at Rathasker - at an €8,000 (approx AUD$13,200) fee.

Deep Impact -

The late Deep Impact (Sunday Silence) brought up his 159th stakes winner when Katara (3 f ex Asyad by New Approach) bounded clear in the Chalice Stakes (Listed, 1m 4f) at Newmarket on Saturday. Trained by Sir Michael Stoute and a homebred for Al

Shaqab Racing from a distinguished German family, she is the first foal of a mare who was Group 2-placed for the same connections.

Elzaam - Champers Elysees (3 f ex La Cuvee by Mark Of Esteem) became the fourth stakes winner for his Australian-bred and Irish-based sire Elzaam (Redoute's Choice) when scoring a seven-length victory in the Corrib Fillies Stakes (Listed, 7f) at the Galway festival last Tuesday. Elzaam was bred by Kia Ora Stud to northern hemisphere time out of Mambo In Freeport (Kingmambo), making him a brother to the 2017 Sheraco Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) winner Ravi. Having finished second in the prestigious Coventry Stakes (Gr 2, 6f) at Royal Ascot at two, Elzaam was subsequently retired to Ballyhane Stud in County Carlow, where he has stood the past eight seasons; he was priced at €4,000 (approx AUD$6,600) in 2020.

First Defence - Former Juddmonte stallion First Defence (Unbridled's Song) made it 14 stakes winners at Goodwood on Friday when Tilsit (3 c ex Multilingual by Dansili) took out a controversial running of the Thoroughbred Stakes (Gr 3, 1m). The Charlie Hills-trained colt is from the last crop of the sire, who was subsequently sold to Saudi Arabia in 2016; the star from his last crop is two-time Group 1 winner Siskin.

Kendargent - See The Rose (2 f ex Xaarienne by Xaar) enhanced an already lofty reputation when taking the Prix Six Perfections (Gr 3, 1400m) at Deauville under a confident Pierre-Charles Boudot and became the 31st individual stakes winner for her sire Kendargent (Kendor). Kendargent stood at Haras de Colleville in France for €15,000 (approx AUD$24,750) in 2020.

MICHELLE MCDONALD

Maxios - German bred and trained filly Liberty London (4 f ex Ledicea by Medicean) continued her admirable progress in the Prix Luth Enchantee (Listed, 2400m) at Clairefontaine yesterday as she became a sixth stakes winner for Maxios (Monsun). Dual Group 1 winner Maxios stands for a fee of €6,000 (approx AUD$9,900) at Castlehyde Stud in Ireland.

Mesnil Des Aigles - Air De Valse (4 f ex Air Bag by Poliglote) gamely held off the late challenge of the desperately unlucky Rocket Action (Toronado) to land the Prix du Cercle (Listed, 1000m) at Deauville with Wayatos (Maxios) back in third. Air De Valse became the first stakes winner for her sire, Mesnil Des Aigles (Neverneyev), a half-brother to the world-class Cirrus Des Aigles (Even Top).

Teofilo - Get Shirty (4 g ex Soccer Mom by Monsun) provided his sire Teofilo (Galileo) with his 93rd international stakes winner when taking the Prix du Carrousel (Listed, 3000m) at Deauville. Former shuttler Teofilo, the sire of Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) hero Cross Counter, stands at Darley's Kildangan Stud in Ireland for €40,000 (approx AUD$66,000).
