Phaistos tops racehorse session as curtain falls after eight days of selling on the Gold Coast

MAGIC MILLIONS

BY JO MCKINNON | @ANZ_NEWS

Godolphin's Phaistos (Helmet) was the top seller of the racehorse session on the final day of a record-breaking Magic Millions National Sale on the Gold Coast yesterday.

The five-year-old stakes-placed gelding, a winner of just over $450,000 in prize-money, was bought by Winners Bloodstock for $165,000 and will join the Gillian Heinrich stable.

Phaistos' former Godolphin barn mate Jeronimos (Contributer) was also purchased by the group for $90,000 and is set to race in the black and pink colours of the Heinrich team.

In a career spanning ten starts, Jeronimos has so far been the winner of a maiden over 1200 metres at Newcastle last May. Continued on page 2>>

The three-year-old gelding won a Benchmark 70 race at headquarters last August and ran second at Ballarat at his most recent start on May 19.

Magic Millions' managing director Barry Bowditch was pleased with the results of the National Racehorse Sale.

"We obviously had a small group this year. The Godolphin component is always highly sought after," he said.

"There was strong bidding on quality horses and it goes to show there's plenty of people wanting to take them on."

Earlier in the day, Book 2 of the National Yearling Sale came to a close and grossed over $1.15 million with 94 lots sold at an average price of $12,327 and a clearance rate of over 83 per cent.

The best seller of those yearlings auctioned yesterday was a Pride of Dubai (Street Cry) half-sister to stakes winner Jami Lady (Spirit Of Boom), who was purchased by Scott Bancroft for $95,000.

Presented by Roona Lodge, the filly is from the four-time winner Bevico

Yesterday's sale of yearlings and racehorses brought what has been labelled as the most successful breeding stock sale in southern hemisphere history to a conclusion.

After eight days of selling, the 2021 Gold Coast National Sale grossed a staggering $191,305,000 - smashing the previous record of almost $148 million in 2019 by 30 per cent.

Lot 2111 - Jeronimos

A total of 1296 lots were sold at an average price of $147,597 and a sale clearance rate of 83 per cent.

"It's fantastic to finish a big two weeks on a successful note," said Bowditch

"The gross figure is $43 million higher than 2019 which is a record itself. It's unbelievable.

"It's a huge effort by so many components of the industry and the cogs in the wheel that make this a success. I want to thank everyone for playing a part."

The bloodstock sales focus now shifts west with the Magic Millions Swan Valley complex playing host to the Perth Winter Racehorse, Yearling and Thoroughbred Sale on Sunday, June 27. Catalogues for the auction will be made available online during the coming days.

'A massive fan'

“I am a massive So You Think fan and I was happy to see him finally come of age at this year's Easter sale, when people started to pay proper money for his progeny. I think he has been totally underestimated for years and it was nice to see him get the credit he deserves at the yearling sales. MORNING BRIEFING

AUSTRALIA

Media Award under injury cloud

Media Award's (Shamus Award) participation in the Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) at Eagle Farm tomorrow is in the balance. The Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) winner failed a vet check yesterday and faces a second examination this morning. The Chris Calthorpe-trained three-year-old will break from barrier five under John Allen should she make the field, which is headed by the Mark Newnham-trained Australian Oaks (Gr 1, 2400m) third Bargain (Ocean Park).

Rebel aims for an Oaks feelgood

Improving filly Rebel Rama (Dissident) will produce one of the feelgood stories of the Brisbane winter carnival if she can win the Queensland Oaks tomorrow. Her trainer Marc Connors has just 18 horses in work, while jockey Mikayla Weir will be having her first Group 1 ride. "It is a big thrill (for Weir). I think she is the sort of person who can handle it," Connors said. "She is a very talented rider and we've had a lot of luck with her over the past 12 months or even two years. She rode the horse exactly how we wanted last start and she won and I had no reason to take her off." Rebel Rama was balloted out of a lead-up race to the Australasian Oaks and Connors is thrilled to be part of the big-race action. "It's hard to get into these races and it is very satisfying," he continued. Rebel Rama is up in grade after beating Maranoa (Snitzel) over 2000 metres at Rosehill last start and Connors, whose father trained Queensland Oaks winners Allow (Rahy) and Zagalia (Zabeel), believes Rebel Rama has the right qualities. "They're different types of horses. This filly is probably taller than both of them, and she is probably as tough as them," Connors added. "It's not that she grinds but she just keeps coming and that's a great asset she's got. I think the 2200 will be right up her alley."

Coffey hoping for carnival miracle

The three-day Swan Hill carnival was cut to just one day last year due to Covid-19 restrictions and with the current lockdown in regional Victoria set to end on Thursday, hometown jockey Harry Coffey is hoping this year's meeting, set to go ahead next weekend, might be allowed to accommodate a crowd of sorts. "It is so disappointing with the timing of it, it's very unfortunate," Coffey told Racing.com. "It's probably not looking good, history shows that they only slowly ease the way out of restrictions. Before this the town was a real buzz, you'd go out for dinner and everyone would be asking you about the races and the shop owners were looking forward to the money coming into the town. I'm hoping for a miracle." Coffey has nine wins at the carnival going back to 2010, with five of those for his father, Austy, and he is aiming to seal a ride in the Swan Hill Cup (1600m), a race that has so far eluded him. "The Mahers might be sending something or there is even a chance Biometric might run in it," he continued. "I think that may have been one of the reasons I rode him on Saturday to get a feel, but seeing he was so dynamic at 1400 metres, I am not sure what they'll do."

Cox Plate for Dalasan

Dalasan (Dalakhani) is back in work as co-trainers Leon Macdonald and Andrew Gluyas prepare the four-year-old for a spring campaign that they hope will include a Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) victory. The entire hit peak form in the autumn, running third in the Doncaster Mile (Gr

1, 1600m) and then third again, betan less than a length, behind Addeybb (Pivotal) and Verry Elleegant (Zed) in the Queen Elizabeth Stakes (Gr 1, 2000m). "His first goal will be the Makybe Diva and then move on from there, whether we go the Caulfield Stakes, Underwood Stakes, those sort of races," Macdonald told Racing.com. "He'll head toward the Cox Plate to start with, that'll be the aim. If he came back at his best, it'll be Cox Plate and then Mackinnon Stakes." Dalasan could step out in the Spring Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) at Morphettville in August before venturing to Melbourne.

Man out to make his Mark

Warrnambool trainer Aaron Purcell is hoping the handicapper is correct with his assessment of British import Mark Of The Man (Markaz). The three-year-old lines up in the VRC Brian Lindsay Trophy (1400m) tomorrow in what will be his third Australian start. After finishing in the second-half of the field over 1200 metres at Caulfield, Mark Of The Man ran a close second to Summaroca (El Roca) over the course and distance on May 15 under 55 kilograms but must shoulder 58.5 kilograms this time. He is giving away up to 4.5 kilograms to his rivals, while also being six months younger. "The handicapper has been a bit hard on him, but it is what it is I suppose and hopefully he improves," Purcell said. Mark Of The Man won two from seven in Britain and placed under big weights in smart two-year-old handicaps for previous trainer Richard Hannon. Purcell will take Mark Of The Man quietly through his grades. "At this stage it's about winning races and getting him used to Australian conditions," he continued. "He was a little disappointing first-up at Caulfield then put in a much better effort at Flemington. This looks a suitable type of race and from the good draw (three) he should get a nice run in the race and be around the mark at the finish somewhere."

Sinba back among his peers

A return to two-year-old racing and the addition of blinkers could be the key to Sinba (Xtravagant) rebounding at Rosehill tomorrow. Gerald Ryan believes the promising juvenile was on a hiding to nothing when beaten as an odds-on favourite at Gosford last time and will be back against his own age group in the Bowermans Commercial Furniture Handicap (1400m). Ryan and co-trainer Sterling Alexiou sent out Sinba for a maiden success over 1400 metres at Newcastle in early May but then took on older opponents after a mile race for two-year-olds at Gosford was scrapped due to lack of interest. "He went there an odds-on favourite but two-year-olds at any time of the year, they can beat maidens, but they can't beat the older horses when you get up in grade," Ryan said. "We were giving a five-year-old four kilos. You can't beat them, especially when you're giving them weight." Ryan felt the youngster did nothing wrong but will put the headgear on this time. "I whacked the blinkers on him. They didn't seem to make a lot of difference to him here at home but it might be different when the gates open," Ryan said.

Race experience to aid Sistine Explorer

Andrew Noblet is banking on race experience being vital when Sistine Explorer (Brazen Beau) makes her city debut in the VRC Member Philip Jacobsen Sprint (1100m) at Flemington tomorrow, against Invincible Caviar (I Am Invincible), a debutant daughter of Black Caviar (Bel Esprit). Sistine Explorer made her debut over 1400 metres at Geelong last month, finishing second to the re-opposing Moon Over Alice (Your Song). "The horse next to her was playing up and she got a bit of a fright and missed the start and ended up a lot further back than what we really wanted, but she hit the line really hard," Noblet said. "She needed a bit of time to get a set of legs, but she's always shown us something, so it was always going to be a matter of time. She'll probably have this run and then have a little break." The trainer is looking ahead to a late spring campaign, with the Zipping Classic meeting now two weeks later in the program. "I think she'll be a nice three-year-old for the back half of the spring,"

Noblet continued. "That's the bonus with the spring now and I reckon it's a great initiative. If you have a set-back at all along the way and you're not going to get there for the early part, you can take stock and look towards the back-end of the spring."

Commands The Field to measure up

Commands The Field (Deep Field) lived up to her name when winning a Cranbourne maiden on debut but although that was against only three rivals, co-trainers Trent Busuttin and Natalie Young have a solid opinion of the filly as she heads into the VRC Member Philip Jacobsen Sprint. "I've got a lot of time for this filly, she's a very smart filly," Busuttin told Racing.com. "I'd say it's discounted a bit the form, being a Cranbourne Friday night meeting, but I'd certainly think she's capable of winning this race." The two-year-old holds an entry for the JJ Atkins (Gr 1, 1600m) at Eagle Farm on June 12, but the focus is getting a second win on the board this weekend. "Obviously, you've got a couple of high-profile debutants with very strong breeding behind them, so that gives a bit of gloss to the race, but I'd be very confident that my filly will measure up," Busuttin added.

Jittery Jack aiming for another Flemington win

Jittery Jack (Desert King) bagged back-to-back wins at Flemington and Moonee Valley in August but his form since has been well below that level and trainer John Matheson is hoping a return to Flemington's 1400 metres in a Benchmark 78 tomorrow will reignite the spark. "We're hoping he can get back to his best, he's certainly been showing us he's feeling good within himself," said Matheson, who trains at Kerang. "He's the only horse still trained on the track at Kerang so there's rarely any other horses for him to work against and sometimes that can unsettle him. He's been scoped and we've had the physio, masseur, acupuncturist and vet all check over him and he had a few sore points but we're confident he's well now." The seven-year-old landed a Benchmark 70 over 1410 metres at Flemington last spring but was ninth of 15 over a mile at the track last time. "He's lightly framed but he loves the 1400 metres and Flemington certainly suits him," Matheson continued. "It's a bit of a watch-and-see this weekend because if he shows us he's not up to this level then hopefully his rating will go down and we can head back to the country and have a bit of fun with him. At this stage though we're confident he'll run well."

Kallaroo the forgotten horse in Raconteur

Kallaroo (All American) defeated subsequent WA Derby (Gr 2, 2400m) winner Western Empire (Iffraaj) when winning the Fairetha Stakes (Listed, 1400m) in November and will chase a second three-year-old feature race in the Raconteur Stakes (Listed, 1400m) at Belmont tomorrow. Kallaroo is a $34 chance after three unplaced runs this prep but trainer Dan Morton doesn't see it that way. "In my mind I think he is over the odds," Morton told The Races WA. "His work on Tuesday was very good and Brad (Parnham) gave a positive report. This is the race he's been set for and I'm happy with where he's at. I have full respect for the rest of the field, but I think he's the forgotten horse." Kallaroo will carry 57 kilograms and has drawn barrier four. After lumping 59.5 kilograms, 58 kilograms and 60 kilograms this campaign, Morton believes the set weights and penalties scale of the Raconteur will help Kallaroo. "He is not a big horse and carrying big weight has an impact," he continued. "The set weight and penalties will be a help."

Everest confirmed for Stay Inside

Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) winner Stay Inside's (Extreme Choice) big spring target will be The Everest (1200m) at Randwick on October 16. Newgate Farm's managing director Henry Field confirmed that all other races will be a means to getting this season's star two-year-old to the $15 million sprint. "The plan is that all other races will be a by-product of trying to get Stay Inside into The Everest," Field told SEN Track. "It's exciting that it will be his target and not an afterthought." Meanwhile, Newgate Farm's Champagne Stakes (Gr 1, 1400m) winner Captivant will head towards the Golden Rose (Gr 1, 1400m) and Caulfield Guineas (Gr 1, 1600m) next term.

Vale Jim Bartholomew

Barador Stud founder Jim Bartholomew, 87, died on Wednesday evening. He was a life member and former president of both Hunter Thoroughbred Breeders and NSW Breeders. Bartholomew bred horses in four countries including Australia, New Zealand, Ireland and South Africa, and had hundreds of winners. The most notable horses he produced were the half-brothers Daybreak Lover (Namnan) and Rising Fear (Unaware). A sprinting sensation, Daybreak Lover was a winner of 11 races, including two runnings of the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m). He was a tough campaigner, who is well remembered for serving his first season at Barador Stud in 1985, between winning his Stradbroke in 1984 and 1986. Rising Fear recorded three stakes wins, including the PJ O'Shea Stakes (Gr 2, 2400m), but is also remembered for finishing second in a number of big races, including the 1986 Melbourne Cup (Gr 1, 3200m) behind At Talaq (Roberto). Bartholomew is survived by his wife Barbara, children David, Richard, Kate and Andrew and their partners and grandchildren.

Nettoyer to be served by Capitalist

Newgate Farm went to $900,000 to secure Nettoyer (Sebring) at the recent Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale and Henry Field has confirmed that she will go to Newgate stallion Capitalist (Written Tycoon). But first the seven-year-old will contest the Magic Millions National Classic (1600m) at Eagle Farm tomorrow and could wrap up her racing career in the Tattersall's Tiara (Gr 1, 1400m) at the same venue on June 26.

Kingston bows out

Rob Kingston has called time on his training career. The Mornington handler, 45, sent out the first of his 72 winners, On Tour (Stratum), at Moe in November 2011. His final runner was at Wangaratta yesterday. "I dropped a bit of a bombshell on the family last week, I just said 'I'm done'," Kingston told Racing.com. "I'm glad I gave it a go, it's been loads of fun and we've had our winners. While we might not have made the headlines, I've loved it all, whether it be the picnic winners or the city winners." The Irishman first arrived in Australia in 1999, accompanying the shuttle stallion Bahamian Bounty (Cadeaux Geneureux), and decided to settle in 2008. "I'd never turn my back on the industry, I just love it, I am just as happy behind the desk working but there is no doubt I'll miss the horses every day. Working in racing my whole life has never felt like work, except for the last few months, and that's when I knew it was time," he added.

Thompson supports Messara

John Messara's recent appointment as Racing Australia Chair could help the industry move forward according to Gile Thompson, Racing Victoria's CEO. "Everyone knows that Racing Australia isn't as effective as it should be or could be. It isn't achieving what it needs to for the industry more broadly," Thompson told RSN927. "That's no secret that there's a bit of an impasse between us and New South Wales. Bringing someone like John in helps to break that impasse."

NEW ZEALAND

Third for Belardo

Nobellem (2 f ex Playing For Keeps by Keeper) gave Darley shuttle stallion Belardo (Lope De Vega) his third individual southern hemisphere winner as a sire when taking the Spray Specialist Maiden (1100m) at Awapuni yesterday. The debutant, ridden by Leah Hemi, defeated runner-up Vesperado (Vespa) by a length and a quarter, with Ruach (Charm Spirit) two and three-quarter lengths behind the winner in third. Nobellem is a half-sister to Group 3 winner Belle Fascino (Per Incanto). Her dam, Playing For Keeps (Keeper), is a three-time winner whose unraced dam is a half-sister to Zafar (Zabeel), a Group 3 winner and Group 1-placed in New Zealand. Belardo stands at Kildangan Stud, Ireland for a fee of €10,000, and will again shuttle to Hanui Farm, New Zealand for a $10,000 (+ GST) fee later this year.

Belle team keep syndicate together

The Fortuna ownership syndicate that enjoyed so much success with 14-time Group 1 winner Melody Belle (Commands) has stuck together after the sale of their star mare for $2.6 million at the recent Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale. The group has reinvested $100,000 of that amount at the National Yearling Sale, having bought a filly by Heroic Valour (Fastnet Rock) out of Gowana (More Than Ready).

Bosson the frequent flyer

Opie Bosson will again make the trek across the Tasman to ride in Queensland's Winter carnival this weekend, his third trip in the last month. He has partnered the Chris Waller-trained Signora Nera (Sweynesse) each time and will again ride the filly in the Queensland Oaks (Gr 1, 2200m) at Eagle Farm tomorrow. Raced by Novara Park principal Luigi Muollo, Signora Nera was runner-up in the Gold Bracelet (Listed, 1800m) at the Gold Coast two starts back before running fifth in the The Roses (Gr 2, 2000m) at Doomben. "I think she is going well. She went a good race last start and was a touch unlucky," Bosson said. "She has drawn nicely in seven, so I think she is a definite top five chance." The rider is set to make a couple more trips to Australia over the next month, but it won't be to ride Tofane (Ocean Park), who returned to form when finishing second in the BRC Sprint (Gr 3, 1350m) at Doomben last start. An assigned weight of 54.5 kilograms means he will be unable to partner her in the Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m). "I think she is in with a good chance in the Stradbroke, she feels great and looks great, and it was a very encouraging run the other day with 60 kilos on her back," he added.

Bau back from Middle Earth

Veteran journeyman Trevor Bau rode his first winner in more than 12 years when Kingston Flyer (Sacred Falls), trained by his wife Donna Beck, took the WRC Life Members' Gold Cup (1400m) at Trentham last weekend. But the 57-year-old's long stretch without a win can be attributed to his career as a movie stuntman, which came about when the Lord of the Rings trilogy was shot in New Zealand and Bau, then riding in the South Island, signed up with the Stunt Guild of New Zealand. "The next four years were great, I was involved in lots of stunt work, falling off horses, fight scenes, that sort of thing. I rubbed shoulders with a whole lot of name actors; one I especially remember was Orlando Bloom when I was the stand-in for the dwarf Gimli. You wouldn't know it was me after I had spent hours in make-up having all the prosthetics added." Bau's previous win was on the Beck-trained Pacific Jewel (Traditionally) at Otaki in March 2009, and his most recent took his career tally to 49. In the eight seasons he has been active since, Bau has had just 36 raceday rides. "I suppose people might wonder why I hadn't ridden a winner for so long, but when they read my story they'll realise I've been having a ball. Life's a highway and I've been riding it," he said.

HK: Riding roster decision on Monday

The Hong Kong Jockey Club's Licensing Committee will meet on Monday to determine who will be granted jockey and trainer licences for the 2021-22 season, which will begin in September. The meeting will decide, among other things, whether or not Neil Callan, who returned last week from a long and controversial suspension, will be offered a new licence.

INTERNATIONAL

First for Highland Reel

Highland Premiere (2 c ex Forthefirsttime by Dr Fong) earned the distinction of being the first winner for his sire Highland Reel (Galileo) when winning the EBF Restricted Novice Stakes (6f) at Hamilton yesterday. The Mark Johnston-trained youngster, who had finished fourth and third in two previous outings, was smartly away under Ben Curtis to dispute the lead with runner-up Smullen (Camacho). The lead pair wound up the pace from the two-furlong pole when Highland Premiere was shaken up to exert, and, after a battle to the wire, the Kingsley House Stables colt edged the verdict by a neck, with Hi Meh Darling (Holy Roman Emperor) a further two and three-quarter lengths behind in third. Highland Premiere was consigned by Barton Stud at Tattersalls in December 2019 and sold to JC Bloodstock for 32,000 guineas. Johnston subsequently bought the colt for 15,000 guineas when offered by Kilminfoyle House Stud, as agent, at Book 2 of the 2020 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale. His dam landed the Flame Of Tara Stakes (Listed, 1m) as a juvenile and is a half-sister to National Stakes (Listed, 5f) winner Pyman's Theory (Exceed And Excel) from a solid black type family. Highland Reel currently stands at Coolmore for a fee of €10,000 (approx. AU$15,820) and will once again shuttle to Swettenham Stud later this year.

Nine for Mehmas

Mehmas (Acclamation) sired his ninth individual stakes winner when Magnanimous (3 c ex Lillebonne by Danehill Dancer) won the Glencairn Stakes (Listed, 1m) at Leopardstown yesterday. The Joseph O'Brien-trained three-year-old travelled smoothly just off the pace and loomed up to take the lead approaching the final furlong. Magnanimous quickened smartly under Shane Crosse for a two-length success ahead of Fourhometwo (Ajaya) in second, with Sinawann (Kingman) a further length and a quarter behind in third. The 8-1 shot, second twice previously in the grade, took his record to three wins from ten starts. Bred by Peter Henley and John Connolly, Magnanimous' dam was bought for 40,000 guineas out of the Mickley Stud consignment at Tattersalls in December 2013. The mare is a half-sister to Grand Prix de Paris (Gr 1, 2400m) winner Mont Ormel (Air Chief Marshal), a multiple winner in Hong Kong when renamed Helene Charisma, from the family of Group 1 winner Linngari (Indian Ridge). Pattern Bloodstock purchased Magnanimous for €50,000 out of Part 1 of the 2018 Goffs November Foal Sale, having been offered by the Henleys' Thornbrook Stud. Mehmas stands at Tally-Ho Stud for a fee of €20,000.

UK: Bolshoi Ballet draws gate nine for the Derby
A field of 12 runners has been declared for the Derby (Gr 1, 1m 4f) at Epsom tomorrow, with Aidan O'Brien's sole runner Bolshoi Ballet (Galileo) positioned in gate nine at yesterday's barrier draw. Ryan Moore's mount landed the Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial (Gr 3, 1m 2f) by six lengths last start, having taken the Ballysax Stakes (Gr 3, 1m 2f) the time before and will attempt to give Galileo (Sadler's Wells) his sixth Derby winner as a sire. The line-up also features the Jim Bolger-trained Mac Swiney (New Approach), who is drawn in eight. Last year's Vertem Futurity Trophy Stakes (Gr 1, 1m) winner returned to form with success in the Irish 2,000 Guineas (Gr 1, 1m) last time after running fourth in the Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial. Godolphin's Dante Stakes (Gr 2, 1m 2f) hero Hurricane Lane (Frankel) will break from stall five under William Buick, while the same ownership's Adayar (Frankel) will start from one. The absence of High Definition (Galileo) means Frankie Dettori will partner the Ed Dunlop-trained John Leeper (Frankel), winner of the Fairway Stakes (Listed, 10f) last time. Another absentee is the Martyn Meade-trained Lone Eagle (Galileo), a four-length winner of the Cocked Hat Stakes (Listed, 1m 3f) last month.

18 for Australia

Fernando Vichi (3 c ex Pernica by Sir Percy) took out the Nijinsky Stakes (Listed, 1m 4f) at Leopardstown yesterday to earn Coolmore sire Australia his 18th individual stakes winner. Ridden by Gavin Ryan, the Donnacha O'Brien-trained colt grabbed the rail up the straight and battled well to see off The Mediterranean (Galileo) by three-quarters of a length, with Ruling (Camelot) the same distance further back in third. The result offered a nice form boost to Derby favourite Bolshoi Ballet, after Fernando Vichi ran third behind him in the Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial last month. Australia stands at Coolmore in Ireland for a stud fee of €25,000 (approx. AU$39,602).

WON:

TWO-YEAR-OLD MAIDEN HANDICAP (1100M), JUNE 2, WARWICK FARM

Annabel Neasham is excited for what is in store for promising two-year-old colt Verne (Snitzel), whose commanding performance at Warwick Farm on Wednesday earned him the accolade of ANZ Bloodstock News Maiden of the Week.

Having finished a narrow runner-up to In The Congo (Snitzel) on debut at Randwick last month, Verne was sent off the $2.05 favourite for the 2YO Maiden Handicap under Hugh Bowman, and punters who got involved at those odds had very little to worry about throughout the 1100-metre trip.

Having broken smoothly from the outside barrier of nine, Verne cruised round the turn three deep at a solid tempo.

Moving up strongly upon straightening, Verne eased to the lead with 200 metres to run and drew away impressively in the final stages to score by one and three-quarter lengths from Lucky Sun (Maurice). Miss In Charge (Hinchinbrook) finished two lengths behind the winner in third.

Verne set a new class record at Warwick Farm with the victory, winning in a time of 1:03.94, and Neasham was full of praise for the Highgrove-bred colt.

"We've always really liked him. He just had a little setback last preparation and went for a short break," she said. "I still think he's going to furnish again, he's still quite raw, but he didn't do a lot wrong today.

"It looked like he was facing the breeze a bit and didn't have much cover, but he's put them away nicely."

Neasham is already giving a thought to Verne's spring targets, but could first line him up in the Oxlade Stakes (Listed, 1200m) at Eagle Farm on Stradbroke Handicap day.

"There's the Oxlade Stakes at Eagle Farm Saturday week, or we could leave him down here and run him here," the trainer added. "He's certainly a horse that'll be spring quality, so at some stage we'll put him away and give him a break."

Hugh Bowman was also impressed with the juvenile's performance, and believes a step up in trip could bring further improvement.

"He was good first-up, he's still learning though, it's not straightforward," he said.

Verne pictured as a yearling

"He's certainly got the talent, but I can see him continuing to develop mentally.

"The feel he gave, I know it was only 1100 metres, but the feel he gave me was the feel of a horse who will have no trouble at seven (furlongs) and maybe a mile, and if he can get to that sort of distance range the world's his oyster."

Bought for $300,000 by Aquis Farm from last year's Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale Round 2, Verne is one of seven foals out of winning mare Helena's Secret (Five Star Day), who died last year aged 14.

He is a brother to Thronum, who landed the Australia Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and finished second in the William Reid Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m) during a 14-start career. Thronum now stands at Widden Stud Victoria and will have his first two-year-old runners next season.

Verne's unnamed half-sister by I Am Invincible (Invincible Spirit) was bought by trainer George Moore at this year's Inglis Australian Easter Sale for $420,000, while his older brother Rule Of Law, a two-time winner from six starts, made $450,000 from the same sale two years prior.

VERDICT The improving AL AASY has oozed class in his two races at Newbury this season, looking a Group 1 winner in waiting. He's taken to beat the Ballydoyle horses (and main form rivals) Japan and Mogul, in that order. [Steve Boov]

BETTING FORECAST: 9-4 Santa Barbara, 9-2 Snowfall, 11-2 Teona, Zeyaadah, 9 Divinely, 10 Saffron Beach, 12 Dubai Fountain, 25 Mystery Angel, Ocean Road, 28 Sherbet Lemon, 33 Willow, 40 Save A Forest, 50 La Joconde, Technique.

VERDICT While there is little doubt that Santa Barbara is very classy and has potential after her display in the 1,000 Guineas on just her second start, it is also possible to be rather wary given her demeanour in the closing stages. A neck and a nose in front of her that day, Saffron Beach is game and uncomplicated and there's a chance she will get 1m4f. Preference, though, is for the Cheshire Oaks principals Dubai Fountain and ZEYAADAH who have almost proved their stamina, with Zeyaadah appearing the more exciting prospect given that she conceded the runner-up 3lb and a substantial headstart. Snowfall was a revelation when dominating the Musidora, having the race go much more her way than it did for the very promising Teona but still demanding plenty of respect given her trainer and her pedigree.
