Cosmic Force retires to Newgate Farm

Deep Field to be joined on roster by Group 2-winning son, who will begin his stud career at a fee of $16,500 (inc GST)

Cosmic Force winning the Roman Consul Stakes

BY ANDREW HAWKINS | @ANZ_NEWS

Group 2-winning sprinter Cosmic Force will become the first son of Deep Field (Northern Meteor) to stand at stud when he joins his sire on the Newgate Farm roster this spring, commanding a fee of $16,500 (inc GST).

Deep Field, who was retired to Newgate Farm in 2015, has had two crops to race so far. He currently leads the Australian second season sires table by winners, while he is also the leading overall sire of three-year-old winners in Australia this season.

His talent as a stallion was once again to the fore on Saturday when his daughter Xilong won the Euclase Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), stamping herself as a genuine contender for The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) Saturday week, while Fituese made it four wins from six starts with an emphatic win on the Kensington track at Randwick.

Cosmic Force, though, has been his leading light from his first crop. A Group winner at two and three for Newgate and their partners, racing in the China Horse Club colours, Cosmic Force retires with a similar profile to Deep Field. Continued on page 3>>

Chefano leads for Queen Mother Memorial Cup victory

Chefano (Silvano) gave trainer John Moore a sixth win in the Queen Mother Memorial Cup Handicap (Gr 3, 2400m) with a resolute front-running display at Sha Tin yesterday.

Matthew Chadwick dictated the tempo against four rivals – three of which hailed from the same record-breaking stable – and did so with full confidence in his mount's ability to outrun the rest.

"He travelled early, got an easy time in front and he was always going to outstay them," Chadwick said. "I thought his run last time was the best of John's horses and he had improvement to come, so I thought he was as good if not better than the favourite." Continued on page 14>>

"You've got a horse here that's going to stud, just like Deep Field, he's a Group 2 winner, he's a race record holder, he holds the record for a winning margin in a two-year-old Group race in Australia this millennium," Newgate's director of stallions Bruce Slade told ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday. "So he's obviously shown plenty of X-factor and he retires to stud at $15,000 plus GST which I think will be seen as value by the market."

"We're delighted with the job that Deep Field is doing and it's terrific to think that, from his first crop, he's already got a commercial stallion prospect in Cosmic Force going to stud this year. He's just a young stallion that's obviously a leading second crop stallion, he's the leading sire of three-year-old winners in Australia and, on the data that we look at, he's certainly on track to make his mark in the stallion ranks of Australia for a long time."

"We believe that Deep Field is going to be at Newgate for a long time and he's going to be a very important contributor to the foundation of Newgate and its long-term success."

The numerous parallels between Deep Field and his son Cosmic Force are striking and bode well for the three-year-old's future at the Henry Field-founded stud.

"Both were expensive first-crop yearlings from their respective sires: Deep Field was the highest-priced Northern Meteor from his first crop, while Cosmic Force was one of the highest-priced colts by Deep Field," Slade recalled.

Cosmic Force winning the Pago Pago Stakes

"Certainly, in Henry's opinion, he was the best-looking son of Deep Field from his first crop, and so he was purchased by Newgate and their racing partners. And he's given us an enormous thrill."

Purchased for $180,000 from the 2018 Inglis Classic Yearling Sale for a partnership that included China Horse Club, Newgate and WinStar, Cosmic Force is out of the Commands mare Little Zeta, which makes him a half-brother to Group 3 winner Onemorezeta (Onemorenore). Further back, his family includes the late Sebring (More Than Ready). Continued on page 5>>

As a two-year-old, the Peter and Paul Snowden-trained Cosmic Force was a maiden winner at his first start at Newcastle. From then on, he was thrown in against some of the best two-year-olds of his generation, finishing second to Group 1 winner Bivouac (Exceed And Excel) in the Lonhro Plate (Listed, 1100m), splitting Group 1-winning colts Microphone (Exceed And Excel) and Castelvechchio (Dundeel) in the Skyline Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) and starting favourite in the Golden Slipper Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m).

However, it was Cosmic Force's seven-length win in the Pago Pago Stakes (Gr 3, 1200m) a week before the Golden Slipper that really stamped him as a two-year-old of immense potential.

"We've gone back to the beginning of the millennium to see if there's been a two-year-old stakes race won by a bigger margin than seven lengths and there hasn't been," Slade said. "He holds the record for the biggest winning margin of a Group race for juveniles in Australia and that was just a demonstration of the X-factor that was a hallmark of his career."

This season, Cosmic Force won the Roman Consul Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m), defeating Group 2 winner Standout (Exceed And Excel) and Australia's champion two-year-old Microphone. In victory, he joined an honour roll that, since the turn of the century, has included future stallion prospects Russian Revolution (Snitzel), Exosphere (Lonhro), Brazen Beau (I Am Invincible), Zoustar (Northern Meteor), Foxwedge (Fastnet Rock), Fastnet Rock (Danehill) and Exceed And Excel (Danehill).

"He broke the race record in the Roman Consul, a race that has proven to be a stallion-launching race," he said. "On the back of that, he started one of the favourites for the Coolmore as well. He's a horse that the market certainly rated a proper Group 1 horse and he retires to stud, much like Deep Field, not having won his Group 1 but having shown real X-factor in his brief career."

Deep Field has proven a commercial success early in his stud career and Slade forecasts a similar trajectory for Cosmic Force.

"Cosmic Force retires at $15,000 plus GST which just seems like a no-brainer when you think about it," he said. "Deep Field at the same stage retired at $20,000 plus GST and breeders did so well by supporting him all the way through. He was a horse that had a mean of five times his service fee all the way through, which is unheard of, and this season he took that to another level by, with his third crop, averaging $150,000 off a $20,000 fee."

Cosmic Force will also be supported by some of the most prolific breeders in the country who are involved in his ownership, like China Horse Club, Go Bloodstock and his breeder Bob Hannon.

Bruce Slade

NEWGATE

"We'll be giving Cosmic Force the identical support that we gave Deep Field in his first crop," Slade said. "By that, we mean that we'll be sending him A-class mares. We'll be treating him like a $30,000 to $40,000 stallion as opposed to a $15,000 stallion and we'll be supporting him accordingly. And of course we'll give him identical support in the sales ring. There is no doubt that the Newgate group and our partners will be searching for the best Cosmic Forces from his first crop."

"The Snowdens will be looking too. When you speak to them, you get the same reaction as you do when you speak to John Hawkes about Deep Field. John will tell you deadpan that Deep Field was a Group 1 horse through and through and the Snowdens will tell you the same thing: Cosmic Force was a proper Group 1 horse."

Peter Snowden added: "For me, he was a ready-made racehorse. When he was on song, he was dynamic. There's no reason why Cosmic Force won't be a force to be reckoned with; he was a good type, he had pace, he was sound. He's got a good mindset to put into his yearlings and I think he has all the ingredients to make good racehorses."

"He was the best three-year-old we had and in my mind he stays at that level. He was a fast horse with a great turn of foot and he was just a magnificent type with good athleticism."

The Newgate operation has, in recent weeks, highlighted some of the factors that they identify in a stallion prospect: elite racing ability, pedigree, physicality and commercial appeal. Slade feels that Cosmic Force is a prospect that ticks all of the boxes.

"When people see him, I think people are going to be absolutely in awe of him as a physical specimen," Slade said. "He's just a beautifully put together horse with lovely quality and action and size and strength. We're really confident of that and confident that breeders can do very well by using him, both from a commercial point of view and from a perspective of producing racehorses."

"We have a few shares available at a really attractive price. We are offering them to good breeders that are keen to support this horse like us over the first four years. We're going to make those available to the marketplace, to those key breeders who support us and who are interested, because we're confident that if we can give this horse the best possible start at stud, he can join his dad and make an important impact on our farm long-term."

Cosmic Force is the third new stallion on Newgate Farm's roster this year, joining Doncaster Mile (Gr 1, 1600m) winner Brutal (O'Reilly), who will stand at $27,500 (inc GST) and the untapped Tassort (Brazen Beau) at $11,000 (inc GST).

Fees for the rest of their roster are set to be announced in the coming weeks.

Six for Night Of Thunder

Night Of Thunder

DARLEY

One-time Darley shuttler Night Of Thunder (Dubawi) recorded his sixth individual winner from his one and only Australian crop when Coup De Tonnerre (2 c ex Sea Terrace by Authorized) broke through at his fifth start yesterday. The Matt Cumani trainee was sent off as favourite in the 1400-metre Bendigo maiden, having finished midfield in the rich Vobis Showdown (1200m) at Caulfield last start. Yesterday, jockey Fred Kersley had the colt on the speed from the get-go, travelling strongly into the straight and kicking strongly before he was eased down late, holding a two and three-quarter length margin over debutant Tour Of Duty (Hinchinbrook) at the line. Night Of Thunder has had six winners from 58 live foals produced during his one season at Darley's Northwood Park and sits equal second on the First Season Sires table.

Four for Super One

Former Singapore sensation Super One (I Am Invincible) scored his fourth individual winner yesterday when Bedazzle (2 f ex Crystal Diamonds by Commands) won an 1100-metre two-year-old handicap at Dubbo. The Tracey Bartley-prepared Bedazzle was having her second start, having finished midfield at Port Macquarie on debut. Ridden by Chad Lever yesterday, the filly jumped well and sat outside the leader early. Having kicked for home, Undeniable (Not A Single Doubt) came off her back and chased strongly, with the pair clearing out. At the post, though, Bedazzle had a neck advantage over Undeniable with almost four lengths back to third-placed Intercept (Dissident). Super One stands at Newgate Farm, where last year he commanded a fee of $11,000 (inc GST).

Unforgotten added to Magic Millions sale

Group 1 winner Unforgotten (Fastnet Rock) has been withdrawn from Friday's Inglis Chairman's Sale and will instead head to the Magic Millions National Broodmare Sale in July. Magic Millions announced yesterday that the high-class mare, who comes from a European family loaded with black type, will join their catalogue. Unforgotten joins Invincibella (I Am Invincible), Etana (Shamus Award), Delectation Girl (Delegator) and Agent Pippa (Demerit) as stakes winners bound for the Gold Coast sale. Entries for the National Broodmare Sale and its Weanling and Yearling equivalents close on Friday.

I Am Excited retired

Bell River Thoroughbreds yesterday announced the retirement of Group 1 winner I Am Excited (Snitzel) after her seventh in the TAB Classic (registered as the Robert Sangster Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m) at Morphettville on Saturday. The David Pfeiffer-trained I Am Excited broke through at the highest level in The Galaxy (Gr 1, 1100m) in March. She also won the Gilgai Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m) at Flemington and the Victory Stakes

I Am Excited

SPORTPIX

(Gr 2, 1200m) at Eagle Farm, defeating two-time The Everest (1200m) winner Redzel (Snitzel) in Brisbane. "David has done an exceptional job in training and placing the mare to perfection along with his team, headed by Sue O'Keefe who looked after her," the Ferguson family said in a statement. "She will be joining our broodmare band as an elite proposition, being a half-sister to Flippant and being out of Lady Beckworth, a half-sister to the dam of Atlantic Jewel and Commanding Jewel."

Saint Eustace primed for SA Derby assault

VRC St Leger (Listed, 2800m) runner-up Saint Eustace (Tavistock) is returning to Adelaide to contest the South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m). The Mick Price and Mick Kent Jr-trained Saint Eustace flew home to finish second to Sacramento (Pierro), having finished seventh the start before in the Port Adelaide Guineas (Listed, 1800m) at Morphettville. "His run in the St Leger was a test and he came through it with flying colours," Price said. "He was extremely unlucky not to get the photo. He was in front before and after the line, just not where it counted most. But importantly he was strong through the line which is a good sign for the Derby." Zac Spain will be reunited with Saint Eustace.

Pair of fillies to tackle boys in Derby

Two fillies who contested Saturday's Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) will back up in the South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m), but Oaks winner Toffee Tongue (Tavistock) will not be among them. Pinecliff Racing announced yesterday that the Chris Waller-trained Toffee Tongue will spell ahead of a spring campaign. Instead, runner-up Moonlight Maid (Puissance De Lune) and seventh Zayydani (Savabeel) will step out on Saturday as they attempt to emulate Qafila (Not A Single Doubt), who ran fourth in the Oaks last year before returning a week later to dominate the Derby. "It has always been in the back of our mind to follow the same path as Qafila last year," Zayydani's co-trainer Ben Hayes told Racing.com. "I thought the run of Zayydani was very similar to that of Qafila in the Oaks last year, both fillies were unlucky coming into the straight and both finished strong. She is a filly we've always had a high opinion of and I would say her closing sectionals would be one of the best in the race." Tony McEvoy is also considering backing up luckless tenth Silent Sovereign (Dalakhani).

Wong celebrates Toffee Tongue triumph

As first reported in ANZ Bloodstock News yesterday, Hong Kong-based Edmund Wong is the new owner of Bagalollies (Zabeel), the dam of Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Toffee Tongue (Tavistock). It is Wong's first broodmare, with the racing enthusiast also involved in ownership with Te Akau Racing. "I am a great fan of Werther and I knew Highden Park well because of the success of Beauty Generation and Ping Hai Star," Wong said. "So, when I knew Bagalollies was looking for a new owner, I just couldn't miss that chance. Bagalollies is my first broodmare so now I have to decide on her future (matings) which I will do after the discussion with Libby (Bleakley), David (Ellis) and my New Zealand trainer Jamie Richards."

Toffee Tongue sister sweetens Chairman's Sale

Bob and Sandra Peters, Western Australia's leading owner-breeders, will offer a sister to Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Toffee Tongue (Tavistock) in Friday's Inglis Chairman's Sale. Candyland (Tavistock), purchased for $400,000 by Belmont Bloodstock Agency on behalf of Peters Investments at the 2017 Inglis Australian Easter Yearling Sale, is offered in foal to Pierro (Lonhro) in her first season at stud. "I'm not usually in the business of selling these sorts of mares, but it is part of a necessary stock management programme," said Bob Peters. "She is a lovely mare with a good pedigree. Pierro has been very good to me and lots of other breeders and I think he is well-mated to this mare." She will be offered as Lot 32. The couple will also sell Group 3 winner Celebrity Dream (Thorn Park) as Lot 33, with both offered by Holbrook Thoroughbred on behalf of Peters Investments.

Sunlight remains on Goodwood path

Trainer Tony McEvoy rubbished claims that jockey Barend Vorster was to blame for Sunlight's (Zoustar) defeat in the Robert Sangster Stakes (Gr 1, 1200m), saying that the three-time Group 1 winner simply didn't fire. Vorster kept Sunlight wide into the first turn, with McEvoy adamant that the predetermined plan was not a reason for her disappointing effort. "For some reason she has decided not to go," McEvoy told The Age. "All the people on Twitter and everyone saying the tactics were wrong and blaming Barend Vorster is completely ridiculous. That filly went in a straight line and was beaten before he started to turn, it's just rubbish. We made a plan and it didn't work. She is not showing the speed she used to show." McEvoy said that Sunlight will push on to The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) should nothing emerge in the coming days, where she may be joined by Euclase Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m)-winning stablemate Xilong (Deep Field).

Richards to resist Goodwood temptation with Garner

Honest three-year-old Garner (Barbados) will not press on to The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) after his gallant second in the Euclase Stakes (Gr 2, 1200m). The Gordon Richards-trained Garner scored a first stakes win in the Redelva Stakes (Listed, 1100m) two starts back before his fine runner-up effort on Saturday. "He's pulled up fine, but I've decided he can go to the paddock and have a good break before the spring," the trainer told Racing.com. Richards will have favourite Gytrash (Lope De Vega) in The Goodwood, as well as D C McKay Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) fourth Bold Star (Needs Further). "I was a fraction disappointed with Bold Star, but barrier one probably doesn't suit him," he said. "Zac Spain was happy though and he stays with him in a fortnight."

Goodwood next for Jungle Edge

Popular mudlark Jungle Edge (Dubawi), who scored his 18th career win in the D C McKay Stakes (Gr 3, 1100m) at Morphettville on Saturday, will chase a first Group 1 win in The Goodwood (Gr 1, 1200m) should he get his favoured wet conditions. Coronavirus protocols prevent trainer Mick Bell from travelling to South Australia, so Bell has left Jungle Edge in the hands of Leah Conlon, who prepares a small team in Adelaide. "I'm very happy with the situation the way it has worked out," Bell said. "He seems very happy there and Leah is treating him like the king he is. I've never met her but we're getting on very well. She's only got one horse and a couple of ponies apparently. Already he's become a bit of a celebrity over there. Even before he raced she said there were people wanting to have their photo taken with him."

Lee Stakes next for Harbour Views

Matthew Williams has confirmed his progressive galloper Harbour Views (Le Havre) will have a first crack at Group level with the R A Lee Stakes (Gr 3, 1600m) the target on the final day of the Adelaide carnival. Harbour Views finished third to Buffalo River (Noble Mission) on Saturday, having won five of his first six starts with the Warrnambool trainer. "He was good yesterday," Williams said. "When he stepped half-a-length slow it was always going to be hard the way the track was playing. The main thing we need is to get his rating up another 10 or 15 points. He's been very well-placed to date ... but this spring is going to be the time when we have a crack. If all goes well, we'll then target the Feehan Stakes first-up in the spring on a Cox Plate path."

Buffalo River heads for a spell

Buffalo River (Noble Mission), a revelation since joining the stable of Mike Moroney, will be spelled rather than heading north for the Stradbroke Handicap (G1, 1400m). Buffalo River has won all five of his races in Victoria and Moroney cited his one disappointing run when travelling to Sydney in October's Silver Eagle (1300m) as behind the decision to spell. "He'll probably go to the paddock, I'm pretty sure that's what we'll do," Moroney said to RSN927. "I'm just a bit worried travelling him at this stage of his preparation. That's what beat him in Sydney was that he went up there and didn't eat a thing, didn't drink a thing, we just couldn't get him to do things right, he really sulked away from home." Moroney confirmed plans for the four-year-old for the upcoming spring carnival. "The races we'll be aiming at will be the Rupert Clarke and then just the two big miles, the Toorak and the one here at Flemington (Cantala Stakes). He gets a lot of opportunities while he's down in the weights to have a crack at those races."

Moroney turns attention to Warrnambool

Mike Moroney is having one of his best seasons as a trainer and is looking to take a strong hand to Warrnambool's two feature flat races during this week's carnival. Moroney believes Group 3-placed three-year-old Hawker Hurricane (Deep Field) has the class to defeat older horses in the Wangoom Handicap (Listed, 1200m), where he'll be joined by Mr Marathon Man (So You Think), while Mirimar (Kalanisi) will relish soft-track conditions in the Warrnambool Cup (Listed, 2350m). "Hawker Hurricane is a good three-year-old," Moroney said. "He's not far off the better ones. He was terrific up in Sydney and wasn't beaten by big margins in good races. He does handle wet ground a bit so I think he'll be a real chance." On Mirimar he added: "He has come out of his last start at Flemington fine. He over-raced off a really strong speed the other day and it just told and he didn't finish it off. In saying that the track was pretty firm and he's a wet-track horse so the Warrnambool Cup will suit him better."

Thornton's first Group 1 win justifies SA trip

The decision to self-isolate for 14 days in order to ride in the Adelaide carnival has paid off for Victoria jockey Damien Thornton, who won his first Group 1 on the Chris Waller-trained Toffee Tongue (Tavistock) in Saturday's Australasian Oaks (Gr 1, 2000m). "I feel pretty happy about it now," Thornton said yesterday to RSN927. "We thought it was the right decision at the time and now it has just been proven." In a strong book of rides, Thornton rode the Anthony Freedman-trained Lyre (Lonhro) to second in the TAB Classic (registered as the Robert Sangster Stakes) (Gr 1, 1200m) and rides her stablemate, Victoria Derby (Gr 1 2500m) winner Warning (Declaration Of War), in Saturday's South Australian Derby (Gr 1, 2500m).

Trainers defend Racing Queensland programming

The Queensland branch of the Australian Trainers' Association has defended criticism of Racing Queensland over its programming of races. Criticism came on social media after Doomben's Saturday meeting had four races which did not have each-way betting, with the two feature races having only four runners each. Queensland racing is currently split into zones to comply with government measures addressing the coronavirus outbreak, with metropolitan meetings at the Gold Coast Friday and Brisbane on Saturday. It was criticised for programming an 1800-metre open handicap at the Gold Coast and a 2000-metre open handicap at Doomben and allocating 1200-metre open three-year-old races at both tracks. Cameron Partington of the ATA said: "Basically they had to program races to give horses in each zone a chance to step towards their winter targets. The situation has now changed and provided we all still work to strict biosecurity rules we should be fine."

Stradbroke, J J Atkins nominations close this morning

Nominations for the two Group 1 races that will headline this year's reduced Queensland winter carnival will close this morning. The time-honoured Stradbroke Handicap (Gr 1, 1400m) and two-year-old feature, the J J Atkins (Gr 1, 1400m), will both be run at Eagle Farm on June 6, with the J J Atkins shortened from its usual 1600-metre distance. Both races will feature reduced prize-money totalling $350,000. The TAB has Tony Gollan trainees at the head of both markets, with Vega One (Lope De Vega) favourite for the Stradbroke and Isotope (Deep Field) the leading fancy for the J J Atkins.

Williams: Spring racing should not move for AFL

Lloyd Williams, the most successful owner in Melbourne Cup history, says that the Spring Racing Carnival should hold its ground as the AFL looks to move its revamped season into October. AFL chief Gillon McLachlan has said that the AFL season will finish by October 31, with the grand final likely to be held on that date - which clashes with Victoria Derby day - or a week earlier, the day on which the 100th Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m) is slated to be run. "Gil McLachlan should realise the VRC has had those dates long before the AFL existed," Williams told The Age. "If they must play football in the racing territory, play on a Sunday. More people in Australia and around the world watch the Melbourne Cup than the AFL grand final."

NEW ZEALAND

Clark has big plans for latest purchase

Bloodstock agent Adrian Clark has high hopes for his latest thoroughbred acquisition when she makes her racetrack return next season. Clark has purchased Le Castile (Dalghar) for a Hamilton-based couple with the intention of adding black type success to the rising six-year-old's record before she heads to the matron's paddock as a foundation mare for his new clients. It is a path that Clark has travelled successfully in the past with the likes of Tip The Wink (Stravinsky) and Sarajay (Danasinga). "The plan at the moment is that she will race on for another season and if we can find some improvement in her, to win a stakes race and then go to stud," he said. "I've bought her for relatively new clients for me, who wish to build a small broodmare band. This is a mare who has knocked on the door of a black type win and maybe we can get that success which makes the process a hell of a lot cheaper than going to Australia to find a similar type of mare who would cost hundreds of thousands of dollars."

IN THE WORDS OF TRAINER, JOHN GOSDEN...

“He was what a good two-year-old needs to be.

Straight from a maiden,

to a G3,

to a G2,

to the definitive G1, the Dewhurst Stakes, which crowns the champion.*

*He went through that effortlessly,

winning by wide margins every time.”

Tiley taking it one day at a time post-lockdown

Pukekohe-based trainer Nigel Tiley is happy to take a wait and see approach as the build-up commences for the resumption of racing in New Zealand in early July. Tiley, who has enjoyed a stellar season with the likes of multiple stakes winners Riodini (Proisir) and Play That Song (Showcasing), had been ready to launch the campaigns of his winter team members when the Covid-19 pandemic put a halt to all New Zealand racing in late March. "Once it became apparent there was going to be some pretty significant changes, we took a look at how it would affect us and revised the timing on just when we would start to bring horses back into the stable," Tiley said. "I was adamant I was following what the Trainer's Association said about stakes levels needing to be confirmed and the like before I would start up again, so our first day will be on Monday now that a degree of clarity has been reached. It does mean we will only have about 15 horses in work with seven or eight of those being our true winter team and the rest will be just ticking over."

ASIA

96 for Silvano

Champion South African-based stallion Silvano (Lomitas) registered a 96th individual stakes winner yesterday when Chefano (5 g ex Valdovino by Al Mufti) took the Queen Mother Memorial Cup (Gr 3, 2400m) at Sha Tin. Chefano, who raced in South Africa as Vacquero and was stakes-placed there, was given a perfect front-running ride by Matthew Chadwick to defeat his John Moore-trained stablemates Savvy Nine (Anodin) and Helene Charisma (Air Chief Marshal). Silvano, who was one of the first true globetrotters when representing Germany and trainer Andreas Wohler on the world stage, including in the 2001 Cox Plate (Gr 1, 2040m), stands at Andreas Jacobs' Maine Chance Farms, east of Cape Town. The 24-year-old secured his fourth General Sires Title last year and stood for ZAR250,000 (AUD$20,700) in 2019.

157 for Deep Impact

The late Deep Impact continues to leave his mark on Japanese racing and he looks to have another promising filly in the form of blueblood Des Ailes (3 f ex Avenir Certain by Le Havre), his 157th individual stakes winner yesterday. Des Ailes, who is out of the dual French Classic winner Avenir Certain (Le Havre), remained unbeaten with her win in the Sweetpea Stakes (Listed, 1800m) at Tokyo yesterday, showing a sparkling turn of foot after a top ride from Damian Lane. Des Ailes stopped the clock a length and three-quarters clear of Smart Lien (Kizuna), with Akano Nijuichi (Black Tide) third. She is now likely to tackle the Yushun Himba (Gr 1, 2400m), the Japanese Oaks, later this month.

Fierement wins second Tenno Sho (Spring)

Classy stayer Fierement (5 h Deep Impact - Lune d'Or by Green Tune) joined a rare group yesterday when he won his second Tenno Sho (Spring) (Gr 1, 3200m) at Kyoto. The Takahisa Tezuka-trained Fierement, who won the race by a neck last year, only prevailed in the last stride under Christophe Lemaire to score by a nose yesterday, defeating longshot Stiffelio (Stay Gold) with Mikki Swallow (Tosen Homareboshi) making ground into third late. Last year, Fierement was sent to tackle the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe (Gr 1, 2400m) but he finished last behind Waldgeist (Galileo) and a return trip to Longchamp is unlikely, even if flight restrictions ease.

INTERNATIONAL

18 for Speightstown

Consistent stallion Speightstown (Gone West) produced his 18th Grade 1 winner and his 112th individual stakes winner yesterday when impressive three-year-old Charlatan (3 c ex Authenticity by Quiet American) took out the first division of the Arkansas Derby (Gr 1, 9f) at Oaklawn Park. Charlatan, now unbeaten in three starts, won a maiden by almost six lengths and an allowance by more than 10 lengths, both at Santa Anita, before heading to the Midwest. Charlatan defeated Group 1 winner Basin (Liam's Map) by six lengths with a neck to Group 1-placed Gouverneur Morris (Constitution) in third. Speightstown stands at WinStar Farm at a fee of US$70,000 (AUD$109,000) this season.

Five for Blame

Trainer Bob Baffert, the only handler to prepare a Triple Crown winner in the modern era, swept both divisions of the Arkansas Derby when Nadal (3 c ex Ascending Angel by Pulpit) took the second division of the three-year-old feature, giving his sire Blame (Arch) a fifth Grade 1 winner. The Arkansas Derby's second division was generally considered to be the stronger of the two legs, with Nadal entering unbeaten from three starts and a two-time Grade 2 winner. Nadal defeated Tampa Bay Derby (Gr 2, 8.5f) winner King Guillermo (Uncle Mo) by three lengths with longshot Finnicks The Fierce (Dialed In) snaring third. Blame, best known for inflicting the first defeat of champion mare Zenyatta (Street Cry) at her final start in the 2010 Breeders' Cup Classic (Gr 1, 10f), stands at Claiborne Farm for US$35,000 ($54,500).

By My Standards wins Oaklawn Handicap

American racing has a new million-dollar earner after By My Standards (4 h Goldencents - A Jealous Woman by Muqtarib) took the Oaklawn Handicap (Gr 2, 9f) at Oaklawn Park yesterday. By My Standards took his 2020 record to three wins from three starts after his length and three-quarter win over Warrior's Charge (Munnings), with favourite Mr Freeze (To Honor and Serve) back in third. "He stepped up against a great field of horses. There was a lot of depth in it," trainer Bret Calhoun said. "He just kind of confirmed what we've been thinking of him. It's nice for him to prove it on the racetrack."

Secretariat wins virtual Kentucky Derby

There were no crowds at Churchill Downs on the first Saturday of May, nor were there any of the best three-year-olds in the United States. The Kentucky Derby (Gr 1, 10f), which traditionally takes place on the first Saturday of May, has been postponed until September. However, a virtual Kentucky Derby was created in its absence, with the 13 Triple Crown winners going head-to-head in a simulation produced by algorithms and called by NBC announcer Larry Collmus. In the end, it was 1973 winner Secretariat (Bold Ruler) who proved best of the bunch, defeating 1948 victor Citation (Bull Lead) by a half-length with Seattle Slew (Bold Reasoning), the 1977 Triple Crown winner, in third. Modern Triple Crown winners American Pharoah (Pioneer of The Nile) and Justify (Scat Daddy) finished fifth and eighth respectively.

Chefano leads for Queen Mother Memorial Cup victory

BY DAVID MORGAN | HKJC_RACING

Chefano (Silvano) gave trainer John Moore a sixth win in the Queen Mother Memorial Cup Handicap (Gr 3, 2400m) with a resolute front-running display at Sha Tin yesterday.

Matthew Chadwick dictated the tempo against four rivals – three of which hailed from the same record-breaking stable – and did so with full confidence in his mount's ability to outrun the rest.

"He travelled early, got an easy time in front and he was always going to outstay them," Chadwick said. "I thought his run last time was the best of John's horses and he had improvement to come, so I thought he was as good if not better than the favourite."

Helene Leadingstar (Wanted) was the market pick and the only horse not from the Moore camp. The Tony Cruz-trained galloper advanced with a wide effort on the home turn as jockey Karis Teetan attempted to press the leader, but Zac Purton on Eagle Way (More Than Ready) had the same idea, forcing Helene Leadingstar to labour three-wide.

Chefano, carrying only 114 pounds (51.7kg), was headed briefly but Chadwick regathered the South African import and the pair forged on down the home straight for a two and a quarter-length success over the pursuing Savvy Nine (Anodin).

"I said he'd stay all day," Moore said. "He's by a sire, Silvano, who went over a mile and a half and he was off a light weight, so from that point of view I had no worries about getting the distance.

"I wasn't sure about whether Chadwick would be able to get him to travel because he'd never been on him before and this horse can be a little lazy from the 600 (metres) on – he can start to drop the speed a bit but he got the best out of him when they took him on and the horse outstayed them."

Chefano and co. will likely face a much stiffer task should they take on recent FWD QEII Cup (Gr 1, 2000m) winner Exultant (Teofilo) later this month in the last of Hong Kong's three 2400-metre races, the Champions & Chater Cup (Gr 1, 2400m).

"He'll go to the Champions & Chater Cup but that's at set weights so it's going to be much more difficult. I will consider the Champions & Chater Cup for my other runners," Moore said.

The five-year-old became the 110th winner this season to have scored straight off the back of time spent at Conghua, the Hong Kong Jockey Club's racecourse training facility in the Chinese Mainland. That figure eclipsed by one the total winners from Conghua last season, with more trainers able and eager to utilise the facility this term now that they are familiar with how to manage their operations there.

Moore added to the Conghua score when he completed a treble with Champion Supreme (Denman). The four-year-old took the Class 3 Insular Handicap (2000m) under Vagner Borges and did so in a Class record time of 2:00.37.

The handler enjoyed a perfect start to the day with Like That's (Akeed Mofeed) success in the four-runner Griffin race.

Fabulous 800

Ricky Yiu became only the sixth trainer in history to reach 800 career wins in Hong Kong when the rather aptly-named Fabulous Eight (Dream Ahead) collected a straightforward breakthrough success in the Class 4 Isle Of Man Handicap (1000m) under Joao Moreira.

Fabulous Eight

HKJC

"I'm happy to hit that number, very happy, and it helps give me a bigger margin over the others in the premiership," Yiu said after extending seven clear of his nearest pursuer Francis Lui.

Fabulous Eight returned in March from a year on the sidelines and showed promise in two starts since, before opening his career account at the seventh attempt.

"His form gradually faded away last season because he had a small problem and it's taken a long time – I took him to Conghua for a while and managed to get him over it. It was Class 4 today and that shouldn't have been a problem. He can go 1200 metres," Yiu said.

Purton closes in on Moreira again

Zac Purton charged off the blocks with victory in the first two races on the card and added one more to wrap up with a treble.

That put him only one win behind championship leader Moreira with the tallies standing at 110 to 109 in the Brazilian's favour.

Like That started as the 4.9 outsider of four in the opener, the Argonaut Plate (1000m) for Griffins, having placed fifth of six in a similar contest on debut the time before. The Moore-trained two-year-old, a son of former top Hong Kong galloper Akeed Mofeed (Dubawi), tracked his rivals under Purton, and, with a nine-pound weight-for-age advantage, quickened past to win by half a length.

"I'm really happy with that, he came off the bit really well," Moore said. "He just needed the extra three weeks. He's a miler and I said to Zac to just drop him in behind – he's won without touching him."

Purton and trainer David Hall combined in the Class 5 Special Cargo Handicap (1200m, dirt) with Demons Rock (Requinto). The one and three-quarter length success meant that the top-weight broke his Hong Kong maiden at the 25th attempt – the five-year-old won four times in Britain pre-import, the last being a six-furlong score at York in August, 2017.

Like That

The Australian was on the mark again in race seven, the Class 4 Norman Conqueror Handicap (1600m), atop the Dennis Yip-trained Decisive Action (Rip Van Winkle). The handler has had 18 wins this term and Purton has piloted 14 of those.

Tony Millard sealed a brace to end a one-month drought in style. After Little Thunder (Hussonet) broke the cold streak, Silver Fig (Hard Spun) rocketed from the tail to overhaul Utopia Life (Wicked Style) and claim a stunning victory under Antoine Hamelin in the Class 3 Game Spirit Handicap (1200m, dirt).

Little Thunder's win in the Class 4 Manicou

Handicap (1200m, dirt) saw Victor Wong return to the winner's arch for the first time on a Millard runner since October, 2018. The stable apprentice has bounced back from a long spell on the sideline.

Derek Leung and trainer Jimmy Ting pocketed their second win in tandem this term when Hong Kong International Sale graduate Momentum Happy (Dubawi) kept on rolling to land a maiden win in the Class 4 Monaveen Handicap (1400m). The four-year-old was having his first start for Ting following a stable transfer and took the handler's overall score for the season to 30 and Leung's to 24.

The finale, the Class 3 Inch Arran Handicap (1400m), went to the Cruz-trained Beauty Spirit (Duporth), who was galvanized late to take the spoils under a determined Neil Callan.
